HERE IN CIVIC HOUSE

County-Wide Meeting Slated Jan. 17 for Caged Layer Data

Jan. 17 is the date set for a county-wide program here offering data on caged layer projects for farm income.

The public program is scheduled at 1:30 p.m. Jan. 17 in Civic House.

Time and date for the meeting was announced Saturday by the Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee, which is sponsoring the program as a public service.

One of the principal speakers will be W. J. McMurry, president of First National Bank at Seagraves, where caged layer projects produce almost $100,000 monthly income.

McMurry, who also will speak at the Jan. 17 Kiwanis luncheon here, will report on the economical benefit of caged layers to his community and the individual farmer.

Other portions of the 1:30 p.m. meeting will offer data concerning the marketing possibilities for caged layer eggs in this area, the costing of adequate housing for individual caged layer projects, cost of birds and cages, and the need for additional farm income in Mitchell County.

"The meeting is for the farmers of the county and general public," said Curtis Latimer, member of the Chamber agriculture committee, "and planned as a service so that the people can see whether they should be interested in caged layer projects of their own.

"It's not a meeting designed to stimulate a mass program, but to offer facts and data so that an individual can study the program on his own."

Latimer, who has planned the meeting with Raymond Perdue, Chamber agricultural chairman, attended a recent caged layer clinic in Seagraves with others.

At that time egg processors told the large group that market for eggs from the West Texas area was almost unlimited.

Joining McMurry with speaking assignments at the Jan. 17 meeting here will be Marion Balch, feed dealer and owner of produce and processing plant in San Angelo; Jeff Taylor, local manager for Rockwell Bros., County Agent Jack Burkhalter and Dewey Davis, owner of Colorado Feed and Seed.

Balch will discuss ways and means for cooling, transporting,

Officials Named for County Stock Show

Superintendents were named Friday night for four major divisions of Mitchell County 4-H & FFA Livestock Show here Jan. 20 and 21.

O. W. Watlington is general superintendent of the show and heading the various divisions will be:

Leslie Hamilton, dry lot calves; Roy Henderson, milk fed calves; Jim Heston, hogs, and L. S. (Bunky) Girvin Jr., fat lambs.

L. M. Hargrave, associate professor of agriculture education at Texas Tech, will be judge of the show, and T. F. Mathis of Loraine will be superintendent of weights and tags.

The show committee named the superintendents at a meeting Friday night in the Chamber of Commerce office as they made final plans for the 1956 show.

Show catalogue and division premiums will be prepared early this week by the county's vocational agriculture teachers and the county agents.

The committee voted to spend $300 for a set of scales that are being ordered immediately. Money left in the show budget from 1955 will pay for the scales.

Operation of the 4-H & FFA show is provided for through allocation of Mitchell County United Funds, but that cash can not be used for capital improvements.

And since the United Fund payments will begin this year, and will be paid in installments through the years as pledges come due, a loan will be obtained to provide whatever amount of cash is needed immediately for show operation.

The loan will be repaid by with money later in the year from United Fund payments.

Jaycees Weigh 5,840 Pounds In Paper Haul

Jaycees have collected almost 6,000 pounds of paper in the first month of their program to aid diabetic children.

Total collection reported Saturday by Max Caddell, Jaycee president, is 5,840 pounds.

That includes paper, magazines and cardboard. And it is expected to provide more than $200 when sold on the paper market.

Proceeds from the Jaycee paper collection will go to Southwestern Diabetic Foundation Inc., a charitable and non-profit corporation that operates Camp Sweeney, near Gainesville.

Camp Sweeney is the only camp and treatment center in the southwest for diabetic children.

The paper collected is here is stored at Caddell Transit Corporation and is awaiting pickup by an Abilene firm that is collecting the paper in an area of several West Texas towns. The firm pays market price or above for the paper under a contract that provides for the money to be turned over the diabetic program.

The first 5,840 pounds of paper in storage here was collected at the public collection box, corner of E. 14th St. and Chestnut, and at the Colorado City Record. Since the box was placed on Chestnut during the first week of December, Jaycees have unloaded the container three times.

Caddell requested the public to continue to contribute their old newspapers, magazines, cardboard to the paper program that will continue throughout the year.

However, he emphasized that paper contributions should be bundled with magazines, newspapers and cardboards each in separate bundles. Trash paper is not usable, he said.

Truck Blazes While Driver Hitch-hikes

An oil transport truck was heavily damaged by fire south of Colorado City Thursday night.

The unidentified driver had two flats on the truck 16 miles south of town and hitch-hiked a ride into Colorado City to obtain help.

While he was gone, the truck caught fire.

A. L. McSpadden, local manager of Texas Electric Service Co., happened by the burning truck and reported it to City Policemen Earl Gunn when he arrived in Colorado City.

Gunn notified Highway Patrolman H. B. Slaughter since traffic was blocked by the blaze, on Highway 208 (to Robert Lee).

At 8:20 p.m. Slaughter arrived at the scene and called back to the local fire department.

Firemen extinguished the blaze before the truck was completely destroyed.

Colorado City merchants are set for a record Dollar Day crowd on Monday!

They're expecting a repetition of last January's Dollar Day when crowds swarmed Colorado City to take advantage of seasonal markdowns and clearances.

As a result, Colorado City ready-to-wear stores are offering unprecedented discounts on apparel for the entire family.

Hardwares, appliance stores, home and auto firms and jewelry stores are making big allowances on left-over Christmas gift items.

Kelley's Shoe Store begins its annual January clearance on Monday. With spring stocks already arriving, shelves must be cleared to make room. Footwear bargains await the entire family at Kelley's.

J.C. Penney Company will feature draw drapes, nylon marquisette priscilla curtains, pin-check gingham duster, blouse and dress-length remnants, men's slacks and sport shirts as well as other Dollar Day specials.

COUNTY POLITICS

Powell to Enter Race for Sheriff

Lawrence Powell, 31-year-old former city police sergeant, Saturday enjered the race for sheriff of Mitchell County.

He is the first non-incumbent to announce his candidacy for a courthouse office in the 1956 election.

Previously announced candidates are Tax Assessor-Collector Tom Glover, Commissioners Sam Thompson of Precinct 1 and Commissioner J. C. (Jake) Northcutt of Precinct 3—all seeking re-election.

Powell's candidacy assures opposition for Sheriff R. E. (Dick) Gregory if the sheriff runs for a fourth consecutive term.

There were reports that P. C. Smith, Col-Tex employe and former policeman, was considering entering the sheriff's race. He has discussed the possibility with friends.

Sidewalk talk mentioned Ross Hargrove, former county commissioner, as a likely candidate for sheriff. But Hargrove quickly discounted that rumor when contacted by the Record.

The ex-commissioner, busy with managership of Producers Coop Gin, said he wasn't even considering the race.

Powell, who resides with his wife and three children at 615 Locust, currently is local agent for Abilene Reporter-News.

He became agent for the newspaper last Oct. 1 after resigning from the city police force.

For five years from 1951 until fall of 1955 Powell was a city policeman here and served as sergeant in charge of the night detail.

And for a year before moving to Colorado City he was a member of the sheriff's department in Paducah.

Powell, who is a member of Oak Street Baptist Church and the Masonic Lodge, served three years in the Army during World War II. His service included two years of duty in Italy with the 88th Division and assignment as a military police.

While a member of the city police department he completed a Federal Bureau of Investigation firearms school and completed a special law enforcement school conducted here for local police.

DURING THE LAST MONTH

Oil Slips as Major Reason for Move of New Residents to City

Business outside the oil industry provided for major influx of new families to Colorado City last month.

And that's unique, because jobs with oil and its allied industry have been the big reason for the city's population growth month after month for more than a year.

Sixteen new families received the Howdy Hack welcome during December.

Ten of those families accordingly to Beta Sigma Phi Sorority and sponsors of the Howdy Hack program, moved here with retail and general business firms.

The remainder arrived here with oil industry jobs in the Colorado City area.

Complete list of the new residents welcomed by Howdy Hack follows along with their current address, employment and former residence.

FARM BILLIONS TO BUY APPLIANCES

Heavy Grasshopper Infestation Predicted For West Texas Area Adjacent to Mitchell

Livestock producers and farmers in the Texas Panhandle and in counties along the caprock south to Borden and east to Kent and Stonewall are alerted to possible widespread and damaging infestations of grasshoppers in 1956.

Also counties in the central part of the state from the Oklahoma line southward to Gonzales and Guadalupe, should watch developments very closely.

Extension Entomologist F. M. Fuller says surveys made by the Plant Pest Control Branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture last summer and fall show that 8,747,000 acres of rangeland in the West Texas areas are carrying 'hopper populations ranging from 14 to 100 per square yard.

This compares with an estimated four and a half million acres infested at this time last year. Favorable weather conditions at and immediately after the hatching season could produce more trouble from 'hoppers than has been experienced in several years, says Fuller.

On the other hand, he points out, unfavorable weather and the presence of predators and grasshopper parasites could cut the anticipated infestation. But, he adds, the situation should be carefully watched and plans made for an allout control program.

The area where heaviest populations are expected also has about the same acreage of cropland infested now. The rangelands are the better ranges which are covered with grama and buffalo grasses.

If the expected outbreaks occur in large areas controls should be applied between June 1 and July 15. The Federal Government will bear one-third of the cost of treating rangeland and provide technical assistance.

The estimated cost per acre is 60 cents. The savings in grass could amount to several millions of dollars.

Fuller points out that an infestation of 6 to 7 'hoppers per square yard on 10 acres can consume grass at about the same rate as a cow and that 8.7 million acres now have potential populations of from 14 to 100 'hoppers per square yard.

Local county agents will be watching developments and organizing for control but will need the cooperation of all concerned, says Fuller.

An estimated $24 billion will be spent by farmers of the nation for electrical appliances and equipment during the period from 1956-1975.

This amounts to an average of $5,300 per farm.

The estimates are from a rural market study just completed by the Rural Electrification Administration and contains estimates for the total number of U. S farms whether served by REA borrowers or other utilities.

Purchases during the next five years are expected to amount to about $5.3 billion and for the following 10 years to around $11.3 billion. The study is based on previous estimates that the power requirements of REA financed systems will nearly double by 1956 and triple by 1975.

It also assumes there will be no drastic changes in income, prices and technology and that the number of farms based on Census definitions will decline by 15 per cent during the next 20 years.

Expenditures for 27 items are estimated in the study. Lights and house wiring will be the best sellers. Refrigerators are second; television receivers third; washing machines fourth and in order are plumbing and related facilities, home freezers and electric ranges.

In the farm equipment group, milk coolers and water pumps are expected to be the top sellers. Milking machines, drill presses, fractional horsepower motors, livestock watering equipment, power saws, feed grinders, chicken brooders, tool grinders and dairy water heaters follow in order.

Texas farmers, during the 1956-60 period, are expected to spend about $179 million for electrical appliances and equipment and for the 1961-65 period about $204 millions. California is expected to be the top market for appliances and equipment and sales for the next five years are estimated at $297 millions.

This expansion is more evidence of how farmers are using electricity to cut production costs and make their efforts more efficient and life more enjoyable.

Fertilizer sales in Texas during 1954-55, topped last year's mark. A total of 588,061 tons were sold, an increase of five per cent.

Mixed fertilizers accounted for 306,410 tons, or 52 per cent of the total. Nitrogenous materials superphosphates, and ammoniated phosphates accounted for 281,651 tons, 48 per cent of the total.

Geographic regions of Texas differed widely in the amount of primary components used. Nitrogen consumption increased markedly in all regions, particularly in West Texas, which is now using about the same quantity of nitrogen as the East Texas and Gulf Coast regions.

East Texas and the Gulf Coast used by far the largest tonnage of available phosphoric acid, but consumption in all regions has decreased from the levels attained in previous years. As usual, about half of the potash used in the state was used in East Texas.

The monthly distribution of sales of primary components emphasizes the fact that too large a proportion of the year's total sales are made during just a few months. Nearly two-thirds of the total nitrogen and potash and half of the available phosphoric acid used during the year are sold during the four month period from February through May.

tion of sales would make possible the manufacture of a much larger tonnage of fertilizer without additional expenditures for equipment or labor. This in turn would result in a lower cost per ton to the farmer.

Detailed information and a complete analyses of commercial fertilizers may be obtained by asking for Bulletin 822, Analyses of Commercial Fertilizers Sold during 1954-55, prepared by J. F. Fudge, state chemist. It is available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station.

*THE NEW BEL AIR SPORT COUPE—one of 19 high-priced looking Chevrolet models.

Who wouldn't mistake this handsome new Chevrolet for a high-priced car!

It looks strictly "upper bracket" with its bold new Motoramic styling . . . its longer, lower hood . . . its proud new grille that spans the full front end.

Even the details would do credit to an expensive car . . . like the sleek, high-fashion taillights (the left one hides the gas cap!).

But, even beyond the costly appearance of its Fisher Body, Chevy gives the high-priced cars a run for their money. For it's one of the few great road cars built today!

It brings you the added security of nailed-down stability on turns and lightning acceleration for safer passing. Horsepower now ranges all the way up to 205! All engines now have hydraulic-hushed valve lifters.

Of course, Chevrolet has safety door latches in all models. In addition, you can have seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

FOR 88-YEAR-OLD HONOREE

It's A Pioneer's Party With Seven Guests--And 649 Years

By MRS. C. C. HAMILTON, Record Correspondent.

LORAINE — Mrs. J. S. Muns is one of those links with yesteryear's pioneer days.

She's been a resident of Mitchell County since 1901.

And New Year's Eve she celebrated her 88th birthday.

But she wasn't by herself, neither in age nor experience.

For joining her in the celebration at the home of Mrs. Muns' daughfer, Mrs. J. B. Mahon, were seven other women — all pioneers, too, of Mitchell County and Loraine area.

Infact, the birthday party was something of a record in number of pioneers and years.

All together, the eight women had a combined age of 649 years.

That's an average of 81 years for every member of the party group.

In addition to the honoree, Mrs. Muns, there were Mrs. W. J. Coon, Mrs. H. B. Wilson, Mrs. T. J. Coffee, Mrs. John Coon, Mrs. W. C. Jacobs, Mrs. S. H. Hart and Mrs. A. B. Smith.

Mrs. Muns was born Dec. 31, 1867, in Alabama, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nelson. When she still was a small child, the Nelsons started for Texas.

During the trip, which included a portion of the way by boat on the Mississippi River, the family's savings were stolen.

And the Nelsons were forced to revise their plans and stop at Little Rock, Ark. A short time later Mrs. Muns' father died.

Mrs. Muns, her mother and brother went in 1884 to live with an uncle after the death of Mr. Nelson. Then in 1884 three families — including Mrs. Muns and her mother and brother — loaded four wagons and began a journey to Texas.

They settled first in Freestone, where the birthday party honoree met and married J. S. Muns on Feb. 28, 1889.

Two years later — in 1901 — Mr. and Mrs. Muns moved to Mitchell County, settling on half a section land they purchased six miles north of Loraine.

After Mr. Muns' health began to decline they rented their farm in 1920 and moved to Loraine, where they purchased a home and where Mrs. Muns still resides.

Mr. Muns died in 1926 and Mrs. Muns only brother succumbed in 1949 in San Antonio.

Mrs. Muns has been a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for more than 65 years, but attends the Loraine Methodist Church since her community does not have a Presbyterian church.

30 Persons at Farm Clinic Near Loraine

Approximately 30 persons attended the farm and home development clinic Thursday on the Price Hall farm near Loraine.

They saw first-hand the conservation and development program at the 160-acre farm.

And they heard talks and reports by Associate County Agent James Trammell, Harold Stephens of Soil Conservation Service, County Agent Jack Burkhalter, Mike Custer of Agricultural Stabilization Service, Cecil Parker of College Station and Extension Service's farm and home development program, and John Russell of Farmers Home Administration.

Stephens pointed out the characteristics of the farm, which has 126 acres in cultivation, and showed how seven spreader terraces are used to spread runoff water over a large area has has considerable slop.

He also explained how Hall planned to use a 150-gallon irrigation well to water 100 acres before planting and to irrigate about 40 acres, during peak growing season.

The SCS unit conservationist recommended a border disc plow to be used in the skip row of the growing crop so that the crop would have better benefit of rain moisture. The disc throws up a bed of dirt equivelent to two listed beds.

Included also on the Hall farm are stubble mulching and chiseling of cropland, which Stephens described as a good one-year practice for aiding moisture penetration in the soil.

Parker told the group that the farm and home development plan is aimed at coordinating family purposes and activities for better family living and to arrive at a farm program to suit each individual farm family best.

Wolves Face Stamford '5' In Crucial District Battle

The most important basketball game of the season faces Colorado High squad here Tuesday night in Junior High Gym.

The Wolves meet Stamford High in the District 4-AA opener. And the winner will probably leave the court a decided favorite to win the cage crown.

Stamford has dominated the district in basketball since they entered the circuit in 1951.

And it's been many a moon since a Colorado High quintet has defeated a Stamford squad.

The game could be rated a toss-up. Stamford has the more experienced club with center Dallas Christian and guard Truman Childress still around from last year's district championship club.

But they've had only a few weeks to practice due to the elongated grid season.

Wolves return with only center Billy Simmons from the club that finished second to the Bulldogs last season.

Wolf Coach Ronald Servies has been hampered in the past few games due to the absence of key players.

Frank Mackey, senior guard, has been ill and Charles (Chili) Black, senior forward, has an injured ankle.

Mackey will be ready Tuesday night. Other starters will probably be Simmons at center, Jimmy Hock and sophomore Jimmy Rice at forwards with Bobby Williams at the other guard slot.

Sophomore Don Black will be ready for relief duty as will senior Jimmy Johnson.

Wolves will place their big hopes for victory on Simmons, the leaping 6-3 pivotman.

He has ripped the net in 13 games for a 17-point average. Colorado's record for those 13 games is five won, eight lost.

Second high scorer is Hock, the 6-2 forward. He has averaged around 10 points per game.

If the Wolves could capture the Tuesday night game here, they would be on a downhill grade to the crown.

But if they lose, it would be uphill all the way with the deciding game at Stamford in the round robin.

There's always the district tournament for a possible victory if the Wolves lose this one.

The other teams in the district — Anson, Hamlin and Rotan — are very weak this year, but could possibly spring a few surprises further along in the season.

The B-game will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the main tilt at 8 p.m.

Wolves lost their eighth game of the season Friday night at Ballinger when the Bearcats swamped the local cagers, 62-39. Harold Hudgens, 6-6 center, paced Ballinger with 20 points.

Simmons was high for the Wolves with 18.

Mackey, back in the lineup after several weeks illness, notched seven points.

Wolves were behind 11-9 at the first quarter mark, but Ballinger raced to the front, 28-19, at halftime.

Bearcats increased the lead to 41-23 at the third quarter mark.

Wolves were scheduled to play Merkel Saturday night in Merkel.

Westbrook Boys, Girls Win District Openers

Trinidad Rosas paced the boys to a 53-25 win with his 26 points.

Robby Robinson was high scorer for Hermleigh boys with 10 points while Violet Davis paced the Hermleigh girls with 16.

The win gave Westbrook boys a season record of 16-1. Their only loss was to Big Lake in a tournament before Christmas.
