'Uncle Ben' Ferguson Dies At Home Near Iowa Park At Age Of 93

PIONEER LIVED IN WICHITA FOR 43 YEARS

Benjamin Newton Ferguson Succumbs Thursday At 6:15 p. m.

LAST RITES TODAY

Masons to Have Charge Of Final Services For Wichitan

Benjamin Newton Ferguson, 93, a resident of Wichita county for 43 years and known over this entire section as "Uncle Ben" Ferguson, died at his home near Iowa Park Thursday night.

Death came gently to the pioneer Wichitan at 6:15 o'clock. His sons and daughters had been called to his side Wednesday, when it became evident that the dauntless spirit and great constitution could carry on little longer. For several weeks it had been known that he was growing weaker, and when pneumonia developed, hope for his recovery was abandoned. His condition Wednesday night was reported as extremely critical, and he succumbed early Thursday night.

Funeral services will be held from the First Methodist church at Iowa Park Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Marshall D. Masters, pastor of the First Christian church of Iowa Park, assisted by Rev. H. T. Wood, pastor of the First Christian church of Wichita Falls, will officiate. Members of the Iowa Park Masonic lodge will be in charge of Masonic rites at the grave.

Active pallbearers will be W. L. Hodges, Carey Fields, Earl Knox, J. N. George, and Marshall Clark, all of Iowa Park.

Confederate Veteran

A Confederate veteran, a charter member of the Iowa Park Masonic lodge, one of the oldest Shriners in Texas, a business man, land owner and ever a builder, Mr. Ferguson retained almost until his death his keen interest in the life and progress of this county and this section of the state. In May of this year he gave an interview to newspaper men celebrating his 43rd year in Wichita county, and recalled with remarkable keenness conditions and events when he came here nearly a half century ago.

His wife preceded him in death several years ago, after the couple had been married more than 60 years. He is survived by a son, W. R. Ferguson of Wichita Falls.

South Carolina Solons Abandon Cotton Bills

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 24. (UP)—The South Carolina general assembly adjourned sine die tonight with the Louisiana "no cotton" bill the only legislation enacted during its special session.

The senate late today passed a cotton acreage reduction bill identical to the measure recently passed by Texas, limiting cotton planting next year to 30 per cent of the cultivated acreage, but house refused to consider the bill.

The cotton holiday bill, although adopted, is considered a nullity in that it provides a complete ban on cotton planting in 1932 only if states producing three-fourths of the nation's crop adopt similar measures.

Its rejection by Texas doomed it to failure.

Will Rogers Arrives Safely After Delay

CLAREMORE, Okla., Sept. 24. (AP)—Will Rogers, humorist, arrived with members of his family by automobile late this afternoon from Tulsa, where they had flown from Roswell, N. M.

The party had been unreported until almost 6 p. m. and some uneasiness had been caused by the lateness of the arrival.

Friends at Claremore had not been notified that Rogers would come by motor from Tulsa, and attaches of the Municipal airport at Tulsa had not noted the arrival about 4 p. m. of the private plane in which Rogers traveled.

KILGORE MOB VOICES THREAT

Feeling Against Constable Becomes Intense

KILGORE, Texas, Sept. 24. (UP)—This East Texas oil field town's antagonism for its constables' force flared into open and angry demonstration tonight. A crowd gathered making threats against Constable A. P. Farrar, after a fight Farrar had with A. W. Parshley, attorney for members of a vaudeville troupe arrested here recently by the constable and his deputies.

Chief of Police Pike K. McIntosh announced he had a warrant for the arrest of Farrar. Mob action was regarded as unlikely as other peace officers were keeping close guard.

The fight between Farrar and the attorney was an aftermath of the arrest of the troupe, when it was necessary for Parshley to go to Longview and see a district judge before the constable would allow bond.

Parshley said in a signed statement in a newspaper here today that the constable ejected him from the constable's office without allowing him to see his clients. He also said that Justice of the Peace Homer Glover held court at 2:30 o'clock in the morning, collecting vagrancy fines from members of the troupe, part of whom were women.

After the paper appeared, Farrar and his only remaining deputy approached Parshley on the street. The constable removed his two guns and he and the lawyer began fighting. Witnesses said that Deputy Constable Frank Fleury stood by with his hands on his guns. At one time the lawyer had the constable down but, they said, Fleury made the lawyer get up and the two started battling again.

After the fight, Farrar claimed he had surrendered to Deputy Sheriff John Reeves. Parshley filed a complaint with the city police against Farrar, for assault. The police chief called the sheriff at Longview and was told that Reeves was not a deputy.

Farrar discharged all his deputy constables Tuesday, after the burlesque troupe's arrest. When the troupe was arrested several hundred angry oil field workers followed them and the officers down the street, threatening to mob the constables.

The constable's force has been the center of discussion here for several months, and before martial law, two assistants attorney general were sent here from Austin to investigate it.

SHIPMENTS IN 1931 TO SHOW LITTLE LOSS

Southwest Freight Movement Near Level of 1930 Says Report

CONVENTION CLOSES

Unregulated Competition By Trucks Scored By Speakers

The shipping business in the Southwest this fall is practically as good as for the same period last year, according to the report of the commodity committee to the Southwestern Shippers Advisory board, which held its one-day session here Thursday.

Features of the meeting were criticisms under which railroads are forced to compete for business with truck carriers; subsidized inland waterways; and efforts of various agencies "to establish fictitious prices for agricultural commodities."

Approximately 300 rail, traffic and cotton men, representing Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, attended the session of the advisory board and the meeting of the Southwestern Industrial Traffic league, which also held its meeting here Thursday.

Beaumont was unanimously selected as the meeting place of the advisory board during its midwinter or "gulf states" session.

Cotton Meeting

The meeting held here was primarily to discuss the movement of cotton. However, cotton shipments this fall seem to have automatically adjusted themselves, due apparently, it was said, to the current economic situation. With the problem of moving cotton to market already settled, discussions moved to other subjects.

The commodities committee of the board reported that commodity shipments of the final quarter of 1931 will be only slightly less than for the same period of 1930, according to the committee's estimate. Certain commodities are expected to decrease heavily, it was said, although shipments of cotton, grain and grain products are expected to be exceptionally heavy. The number of car loadings will be about the same, according to the estimate, due to cotton and grain shipments.

Actual figures of the committee indicate that a decrease of 1.6 per cent will result for the final three months of 1931.

Cotton this year is expected to

Father and Sons Tried On Bankruptcy Charge

AMARILLO, Texas, Sept. 24. (AP)—E. E. Boxwell and his two sons, Howard and Paul, operators of a local mortuary, went on trial in United States district court today on charges of concealing assets in bankruptcy.

The firm was adjudged bankrupt in 1929. Indictments were returned against the Boxwells a year ago.

Thurman T. Hickey, Roscoe farmer, was found guilty of counterfeiting and sentenced to 18 months in the federal reformatory at Chillicothe, Ohio. He denied any knowledge of the passage of a "split" $10 bill with which he was charged.

Bill Asks Inquiry Of Defamatory Broadcasts

AUSTIN, Sept. 24. (UP)—Gov. Huey Long's radio attacks on Gov. Ross Sterling and the Texas legislature brought a resolution today from J. J. Olsen, author of the Texas cotton bill which was adopted in place of Governor Long's Louisiana bill.

It called on the federal radio commission to check broadcasts "defaming" individuals or groups. The resolution failed to pass. Another was withdrawn. It jocularly appointed Representative T. H. McGregor to carry the Texas bill to Louisiana and ask its substitution there. McGregor recently pictured his view of Governor Long to his colleagues of the Texas legislature.

Gigantic Dirigible Up Again

AKRON, Ohio, Sept. 24. (AP)—The new navy dirigible Akron launched upon its second trial flight early tonight from Akron Municipal airport. The voyage, designed primarily to further test flying factors given their first tests yesterday, was started at 6:45 p. m. eastern standard time.

The test flight was a continuation of the initial flight yesterday.

During the day minor adjustments were made on the controls, the motors and the gas cells which hold the buoyant helium inside the hull, Lieut. Com. H. V. Wiley said. The flight is designated as No. 1-Q, with the same general characteristics being tested as yesterday.

He said flight No. 2 will be to determine the dirigible turn-radius; No. 3 will be a speed test with the motors for a short wile running wide open; No. 4 will be a climbing test to determine the dirigible characteristics as she ascends into the clouds, and No. 5 will be a 48-hour flight recapitulating all the other tests.

MARKET DIVES TO NEW LOWS

Wednesday Gains Wiped Out in Slump

NEW YORK, Sept. 24. (AP)—The New York stock market today dove headlong to depths unpenetrated since 1925.

The London market, in contrast, was irregularly higher, with industrial, oil, rubber and mining shares attracting substantial buying. The New York market's widest break, however, came in the afternoon here, or after closing time in London.

Some reaction in shares after the violent upsurge of the previous session, had been expected, but the wide open break, more than cancelling the previous day's impressive gains, was a shock. Losses ranged from $1 to $15 a share, with many prominent issues showing the wider losses.

Today's losses in some of the leading shares, in contrast to yesterday's gains, follow (shares recording new bear market lows marked "x"):

	Today's Loss	Wed. Gain
American Can (x)	$ 6.62	$ 3.37
American Telephone	8.25	5.75
Atchison R. R.	15.50	10.25
Bethlehem Steel	3.25	1.87
Consolidated Gas (x)	5.25	4.00
DuPont (x)	6.00	3.62
Eastman (x)	9.50	2.50
General Electric	3.37	2.75
General Motors	3.00	1.50
New York Central	7.00	7.87
North American (x)	7.25	2.25
Union Pacific	11.87	14.37
U. S. Steel	7.75	3.25

Explanations for the startling about-face of the same market varied widely in brokerage and banking circles.

One explanation was that the short interest had been almost completely eliminated in yesterday's flurry of short covering, coming after two sessions of banned short selling.

Senate Favors Leasing Of Sabine River Bed

AUSTIN, Sept. 24. (AP)—The senate late today voted, 14 to 11, to print on minority report a bill directing the state to lease the Sabine river bed for oil and gas development purposes. The motion carried despite a plea by senators from the district through which it flows that development of the river bed would endanger the water supply of Longview and other cities.

It was estimated there were 13,000,000 barrels of oil belonging to the state under the river bed that would be drained by adjoining property owners, unless it was leased by the state. Unfavorable report has been given the bill by a house committee.

HYDE TO LEARN HOW REAL BEER WOULD BENEFIT

Secretary Orders Survey To Determine If Farmer Would Profit

LEGION ASKS VOTE

Veterans Demand National Referendum on 18th Amendment

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (US)—The government will conduct a nation-wide survey to determine to what extent the farmer would benefit through manufacture of real beer, Secretary of Agriculture Hyde announced at the White House today.

The decision to have the department of agriculture make the survey was regarded as highly significant. It came almost coincident with the information that the American Legion had adopted a resolution advocating a referendum on the beer question, the high spot in the growing demand for the modification of the Volstead act.

Views Unchanged

In circles close to the president, however, it was said that the survey does not indicate a change in the views of the president or the administration. More like, it was said the information is being sought so that the facts may be at hand to refute claims of anti-prohibitionists in the fight for beer before the next session of congress.

The survey will be begun at once. Secretary Hyde said:

"I am going on a brief trip to St. Louis. Upon my return I will have the department make a survey of the economic aspects of beer to the farmer. We want to find out how many farmers will be benefited, how many additional farm hands will be employed and how they will benefit from the cultivation of hops, barley and other ingredients which go into the manufacture of beer."

Confers With Hoover

Secretary Hyde made his announcement after a long conference with the president. He said that the president had not directed him to make the survey, but it is understood that the matter was discussed in official circles before Secretary Hyde made the announcement.

The secretary of agriculture explained survey had become necessary because of the mass of demands on the subject being made upon the government. He said his office was literally swamped with letters from industrial and business leaders discussing the return of beer as a measure of economic relief.

Walter Newton, secretary to President Hoover had already obtained from the census bureau statistics on employment in the beer industry during the days before prohibition. He did not ask for statistics on the allied industries or the possible revenues which may be raised, but this information is to be obtained.

LEGION'S VOTE IS OVERWHELMING

DETROIT, Sept. 24. (AP)—To the accompaniment of cries from the floor of "we want beer; we want beer," the American Legion today aligned itself with forces seeking a change in the prohibition laws and asked congress to submit a referendum on the 18th amendment to the people of the states.

At the same session, the veterans' organization turned down a proposal that immediate full payment of bonus certificates be asked, and declared its belief able bodied men should refrain at this time from

Passenger on Ship Leaps to His Death

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24. (AP)—A radiogram received here today by the Proctor Steamship line from their vessel the S. S. Western Wave said "H. P. The steamship offices here said the Western Wave probably was in Sabine lake on the way to the Gulf of Mexico from Beaumont when the man went overboard.

The vessel is due here tomorrow afternoon.

Senate Kills Salary Reduction Bills But Sterling Lists 16 Topics

Governor Assails Upper House for "About Facing" on Economy Measures After Asking Vote

AUSTIN, Sept. 24. (AP)—The senate today killed five of the six salary reduction bills which Gov. Ross S. Sterling had submitted but the chief executive opened the way for 16 more bills on which the law makers may labor a few days longer.

Most of the new subjects were minor or local and were not expected to provoke much discussion, however many were doubtful the legislators would end their session this week. They were called into their second special session Sept. 8, to give relief to the cotton farmers.

Salary Cut Killed

The proposals the senate killed would have affected a 10 per cent cut in salaries of all state employes making $1,800 a year or more. The house approved the bills by overwhelming majorities. The senate killed them by majorities ranging from 17 to 12 to 23 to 5.

The only bill saved for further consideration would effect a 10 per cent reduction in appropriations for sheriff's and witness fees. Advocates said the fee charges were not so large since the state-wide investigation of alleged exorbitant claims. They added that even if a deficiency appropriation had to be made late that would come from the revenue of another biennium.

Witnesses said a disagreement arose when McCullers insisted that Cash and his son pick their own cotton instead of picking for other tenants of the farm.

TRIO CHARGED IN '$3 MURDER'

Brutal Killing Aged Storekeeper Solved

PALESTINE, Texas, Sept. 24. (UP)—Murder charges had been filed tonight against three young men for the "$3 murder" of Jasper A. Smith, 79-year-old farmer and storekeeper. Smith was brutally and fatally clubbed Saturday night in a fearful struggle with unknown assailants. He was robbed of about $3.

Monroe Graham, Howard Graham and Oran Hogg are named in the murder charges. Two state rangers aided peace officers here in the investigation that led to the filings. County and district attorneys continued the investigation today, questioning several persons.

Smith was attacked in the yard between his store and his home. His body was laid on his bed, after he had been clubbed into unconsciousness. He lived alone and it was more than a day before his light was discovered.

Hogg, 20, and Monroe Graham, 25, were taken to see Smith's corpse before the funeral, while officers and a crowd of indignant citizens from the sandhills watched intently for their reaction. Both appeared unconcerned.

Hogg and Monroe Graham admitted having gone to Smith's store the night he was attacked, but asserted they left him alive and active.

1931 BUDGET EXCEEDED BY OVER $2,000

Wichita Falls Goes "Over the Top" on Final Day Of Campaign

WORKERS CELEBRATE

Chest to Extend Aid Only To Worthy Families, Says Cline

Wichita Falls' established record for "going over the top" in its annual community chest budget campaign remains unbroken, for at the conclusion of a four-day drive Thursday night at the Wichita club, tabulated results revealed the subscription of $61,964.38, an excess of $2,043.38 over the 1931-32 budget adopted by the organization one month ago.

Thursday "Big Day"

More than 200 workers who have labored unstintedly since Monday morning—and some of them throughout the entire preceding week—assembled Thursday night for the closing session of the campaign. Their satisfaction in learning that the citizenship of Wichita Falls had crowned their efforts with an oversubscription of the budget found enthusiastic expression in the applause which greeted the compilation of returns.

More than $20,000 was subscribed Thursday as a result of the energetic drive staged by the army of campaign workers in their effort to make four days suffice for the attainment of their objective. Of this amount, $8,686.79 was obtained by the group solicitation committee; $8,360 by the special gifts committee; $1,425 by the multiple units group; and $1,673 by the sales army which solicited individual donations to the chest.

The last group donation to be reported as the drive closed at Thursday night's dinner was a subscription of $315.32 brought in by a committee representing the colored people of the city. They were especially commended by Walter D. Cline, general chairman of the campaign, in a brief talk in accepting the report.

100 Per Cent Firms

Included in the reports given Thursday night for the work of the closing day was the following list of firms whose executives and employes scored 100 per cent in chest donations: Wichita Mill and Elevator company, Goodner Wholesale Grocery company, Wichita Gas Engine company, Sears-Roebuck company, John Oechsner Electric company, Railey Printing company, Wichita Falls Window Glass company, DeLuxe Cleaners, Peoples Ice company, Fannin school, P. B. M. company, Perkins-Timberlake company, W. B. Gambling, Bootlegging and Dual Killing Laid to Tammany Clubs

NEW YORK, Sept. 24. (AP)—Gambling, liquor selling and a double killing were described today to the Hofstadter legislative committee as incidents in the night life behind the heavily barred doors of Tammany district clubhouses.

A city detective, discussing two slaying in 1926 which he said occurred in a club headed by Harry C. Perry, chief clerk of the city court, testified that police had known for five years the identity of the "actual perpetrator" of the killings.

To back up his contention before the committee investigating the municipal government, he presented a police "wanted card" bearing a picture of the suspect.

"Is there an indictment pending or has a bench warrant ever been issued for this man?" asked State Senator John J. McNaboe, Democrat.

"No," replied the witness, Detective John O'Neill.

After a long argument, the committee voted to admit into its records the "wanted card" and photograph which gave the suspect's name as Lorenzo Fuzzio, alias Larry Young Gilmore, 38.

Earlier in the day Capt. Lewis J. Valentine, a former police inspector, told of what he called unsuccessful attempts to persuade Perry and John H. McCooey, Democratic chieftain in Brooklyn, to suppress gambling in Democratic clubs.

He also testified liquor had been on sale in a gambling room of Sheriff Thomas M. Farley's club and that a loaded revolver was found when police raided the place.

increase 25 per cent; grain and hay five per cent; and grain products, such as flour, meal and other mill products, eight per cent.

Car Loadings

Decreased shipments are expected in the following commodities: Cottonseed and products, excepting oil, 10 per cent; coal and coke, 15 per cent; gravel sand and stone, 5 per cent; lumber and forest products, 10 per cent; petroleum and petroleum products, 6 per cent; machinery and boilers, 5 per cent; cement, 15 per cent; brick and clay products, 15 per cent; lime and plaster, 25 per cent; agricultural implements, 40 per cent; automobiles, trucks and parts, 25 per cent; chemicals and explosives, 10 per cent, and canned food products, 10 per cent.

Commodities expected to remain at about the same figure for shipments are wholesale drugs, fertilizer, glass and glass products; iron and steel, livestock, paper and paper products, perishable products, rice and products, salt and salt products, sugar molasses and cane, and sulphur.

Prospective shipments for the fourth quarter of 1931 were estimated at 494 231 car loadings, as compared with actual car loadings of 502 175 for the fourth quarter of 1930.

L. M. Betts, Washington, D. C., manager of the car service division of the American railways, led the attack on subsidized inland waterways. He was applauded by the assemblage when he declared inland waterways required the taxation of all the people for the benefit of some of the people.

O. C. Castle, Houston, superintendent of transportation for the Southern Pacific lines, discussed the conditions under which railroads must compete with truck lines. In speaking of the injunction obtained to temporarily withhold the enforcement of the truck maximum load legislation, he declared that if the courts finally hold the law valid, "the railroads will have their hands full in getting it enforced."

Trucking Under Fire

The speaker charged trucking concerns as unable or unwilling to pay for damage caused highways by accident. He told of an instance where a gasoline truck exploded on a bridge, destroying the bridge. The bridge, he said, will not be reconstructed by the trucker, but will have to be rebuilt by the county in which the accident occurred.

Frank Leffingwell joined Mr. Castle in the attack on truck lines. "Shippers," he said, "are not interested in removing trucks from the highways, but I believe they will join with the railroads in seeking regulation of trucks so that the shipper will know the rates he is paying on his shipment. The shipper would like to be certain that he is paying no more for the hauling of a commodity than in his competitor for the same commodity."

Claims have been materially reduced since 1921, F. E. Winburn, Chicago, member of the freight claims prevention bureau maintained jointly by railroads, told the gathering. Much room is available for improvement, however, he declared.

Claims in 1930 ranged from 11 cents per carload on coal to $11.25 per car on fruits and vegetables, he cited.

The speaker said that considerable racketeering has been done on freight claims, particularly on fruit and vegetable shipments, with shippers taking advantage of the competitive spirit between railroads.

In speaking of price fixing of farm products, Dr. A. B. Cox, chairman of the agricultural committee, declared: "The depression has shown that efforts of groups of individuals and even of governments to establish fictitious prices for agricultural commodities like coffee, rubber, cotton, sugar, or any commodity of general use, are doomed to failure regardless of how powerful the agency undertaking the job or the means used may be."

The law of supply and demand, he said, has amply been demonstrated as the agency regulating price levels for commodities.

Before the convention of the advisory board, J. L. Jackson Jr., president of the local chamber of commerce, welcomed the delegates to Wichita Falls. Adjournment was called early in the afternoon.

Cecil E. Munn of Enid, Okla., general chairman of the board, presided. Carl Giessow of New Orleans is alternate chairman, John W. Daniel, Houston, general secretary; and C. P. Wasson, Dallas, secretaray.

the pay of district and high court judges, employes of state departments and eleemosynary institutions and members of faculties of state colleges.

After the senate's action, the governor made a lengthy statement to the press in which he said, "I believe the people of Texas know that I have done all in my power to keep down taxes and the cost of government and to assist the general public welfare."

The governor pointed to the previous action of the senate in voting 15 to 13 for a resolution declaring in favor of salary reductions and asking for submission of the subject.

"In deference to the demand of both branches of the legislature and to desire to avoid new tax burdens, I consented to submit the budget bills," the governor said.

Senate "About Faces"

"The house of representatives has kept its word about passing them, but the senate has about faced from its repeated committal."

The governor said the senate "must stand responsible" for its record. He added he considered the reduction in salaries an emergency measure and entirely justified.

Fees of county and district officials in delinquent tax suits would be reduced by a bill passed by the house. The fee of the district clerk for filing a delinquent tax suit would be cut from $2 to $1 and the sheriff would be allowed $1 for serving citations in each suit.

The bill also would prohibit the district or county attorney from accepting a fee in delinquent tax collection suits where the county commissioners court had contracted with a collecting company to collect the taxes. Representative Milton West of Brownsville, author of the amendment said it was aimed at knocking county and district attorneys "off the gravy train."

The bill also would revise the statute governing notices in delinquent tax suits. The statute provides for both personal service and citation by publication in newspapers. The citation by newspapers would be eliminated by the bill.

Among the bills submitted today by the governor was one to postpone the penalty for non-payment of last year's taxes from Oct. 15, 1931 to Jan. 1, 1932 and another to tighten the law against slot machines.

HYDE ORDERS BEER SURVEY

Farmers' Benefit Under Repeal Sought

placing added financial burdens on the government.

The prohibition resolution by a vote of 1,008 to 394, was adopted after uproarious debate of more than a half an hour. Cheers and antagonistic cries mingled with shouts of "we want beer." No resolution proposing beer came before the convention, however.

So loud at times was the uproar that Ralph T. O'Neil, national commander, frequently beat on the small reproduction of the Liberty bell in an effort to obtain order and speakers had difficulty making themselves heard.

Just before final adjournment of the convention, Henry L. Stevens Jr., young Warsaw, N. C., attorney was elected national commander of the legion by acclamation.

The discussion on prohibition was the first on the national convention floor in the legion's history and was carried on under a ruling of Commander O'Neil that the issue was not political.

The majority report of the legion's resolutions committee asking a referendum on prohibition was read to the convention by Dr. Neal D. Williams, of Missouri, committee chairman, amid wild cheering. A minority report asking no action be taken on prohibition was presented by Lloyd Kain, Lexington, Neb., and was met with a chorus of boos.

Conditions Cited

"We want beer," came the cry from the floor.

The prohibition resolution declares the 18th amendment "has created a condition endangering respect for law and security of American institutions," and asks that congress submit to the states a proposal for repeal or modification with the request that each state submit this question to the voters."

In the argument against the bonus payment proposal, Past Commander O L. Bodenhamer and others told the convention a demand at this time for full bonus payment might weaken the legion's influence in carrying out the rest of its program.

The proponents of immediate payment called the bonus an obligation of the government and referred to other disbursements to federal money in connection with the war. A detailed argument of the financial side was made by Representative Wright Patman, of Texas.

DR. C. TRUE WILSON ASSAILS LEGION

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 24. (AP)—Dr. Clarence True Wilson, general secretary of the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal church, issued a statement today declaring the American Legion has "taken the wet side" and asserting "numbers of staggering drunks disgraced the unifor mand yelled for beer," at the Detroit convention.

Dr. Wilson said he was surprised that 394 men (the number of delegates who voted against the legion resolution in favor of a referendum on prohibition) could be found among the legion gathering "who would stand up for the constitution and decency."

"The wet propaganda for which the legion has been used," he said, "has so alienated thousands that they no longer attend the conventions."

"There was a marked absence of the sober, well-behaved typical American; the other crowd is in power; that is why the headquarters over in Windsor (Ontario) was placed in the government liquor store. That is why such numbers of staggering drunks disgraced the uniform and yelled for beer."

NEW COMMANDER ANSWERS WILSON

DETROIT, Sept. 24. (AP)—Henry L. Stevens Jr., of Warsaw, N. C., new national commander of the American Legion, tonight answered Dr. Clarence True Wilson's comment on the legion's action in calling for a national referendum on prohibition with a denial that the legion had gone over to the "wet" side and an assertion that the legion has and always will support the constitution.

"I certainly do not take the view that the legion has taken the wet side," Stevens said. "The legion did not take the wet side by calling for a referendum, but simply called for full expression of the opinion of the citizenry of the country.

"I have seen fewer drunks at this convention than ever at any convention.

"A million of us have stood up for the constitution and still do stand for it."

Col. Frederick M. Alger, Detroit, chairman of the legion convention corporation, replied to Dr. Wilson as follows:

"Tell the gentleman, if he is such, that had he been here in Detroit he would have seen 92,000 men entirely sober, march down the street.

"I would recommend that Dr. Wilson find out what he is talking about. When a man stays far away from the front and tries to criticise from the rear, his criticism is of no weight."

A Harmless Prescription, but How it Moves the bowels!

DON'T you want this way of making the bowels behave? A doctor's way to make the bowels move so well that you feel better all over! Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin doesn't turn everything to water, but cleans out all that hard waste clogging your system. It cleans you out without any shock, for it's only fresh laxative herbs a famous doctor found so good for the bowels combined with pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients.

A doctor should know what is best for the bowels. Let Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin show you how soon you can train the bowels to move freely, every day, the way they should. It's wonderful the way this prescription works, but it's perfectly harmless; so you can use it whenever a coated tongue or sick headache gives warning that you are bilious. Fine for children, too (it tastes so nice) and they ought to have a spoonful the minute they seem fretful, feverish, or sluggish, or become stuffed up with a cold.

You can get the original prescription Dr. Caldwell wrote so many years ago; your druggist keeps it all ready in big bottles. Just ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and use it any time anyone in the family is constipated.

STONE WOMAN EXCITES TOWN

Petrified Body Found In Rio Grande Valley

EDINBURG, Texas, Sept. 24. (AP)—People of this entire section have become excited over the mystery of a stone woman, dug up in the midst of the famous petrified forest near Rio Grande City by E. A. Brown of this city.

Whether the object is the petrified body of a real woman, a piece of ancient statuary, or a discarded figure from one of the old missions in the valley in early days is a mystery.

The fact that the body was dug up in the midst of the petrified forest has given considerable credence to the theory that it is the petrified body of a woman.

Brown had a crew of workmen at the petrified forest digging around for unusual specimens of petrified wood to be used in building a fountain at his home here, when the pick of one of the workmen uncovered the feet of the woman.

The workmen all helped to bring the body from the ground and after it was cleaned Brown found the perfectly formed figure of a woman. Considerable difficulty was experienced in cutting it loose from roots of trees which had grown around it.

The figure is about five feet in height and perfectly proportioned.

The fact that it appears to be of a substance not used in statuary or masonry of any kind lends to the theory that it is the petrified body of a human being.

The perfect contours of the body, however, make it difficult to reconcile the theory of a petrified body with the circumstances which must have surrounded such a change in chemical form.

The body, if such it is, must have become petrified a very short time after death to have maintained its present appearance.

Brown indicated he would seek the aid of specialists in identifying the object. It is at his garage here now, and is creating much interest.

GASOLINE PRICES CUT

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 24. (UP)—Retail gasoline prices were reduced one cent a gallon here today by major companies. Continental Oil company led in the slash. Anti-knock was cut to 18 cents; regular grade, 15, and "blue," 13 cents.

Grain Sorghum's Grazing Value To Be Determined

LUBBOCK, Texas, Sept. 24. (AP)—An experiment that will test the value of grazing grain sorghums, especially milo maize, while the grain is in the dough is being made by Claude B. Hurlbut of Lubbock.

Hurlbut began his experiment last year when he found it necessary to graze 120 acres of maize that was not considered worth harvesting. He grazed 30 cows with calves for 70 days and sold the herd for a profit, above all expenses of $470. He estimated the value of the immature feed, handled in any other manner, at $60, or not more than 50 cents an acre.

He is trying the experiment again this year with 79 cows and as many calves. The feed is of better quality, and Hurlbut says he will make a better showing than last year. With maize selling at present prices he expressed the belief that grazing would be more profitable than putting the maize on the market.

"The cows I turned into the field last year were poor and the calves were all late, being born after July 1," Hurlbut said. "The calves weighed only 175 pounds when I started grazing them, and were marketed at an average of 462 pounds. The cows fattened rapidly on the green stuff, although they continued to suckle the calves. I don't believe they could have been fattened as fast in a feeding pen.

"The maize was planted on sod and it was hit by the drouth. It would have been impossible to handle it profitably in any other manner."

Amateur Radio Men Communicate Abroad

AMARILLO, Texas, Sept. 24. (AP)—This city has two amateur radio operators who communicate with the world at large daily.

Max Fisher, who operates short wave station W5ALK, and Ben Wimberly, operator of an authorized short wave station W5BEN, are among the most active amateurs in the country.

Wimberly once relayed a message to Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd at the South Pole, through a California station. Fisher recently picked up a message from Los Angeles inviting Gov. Huey P. Long of Louisiana to attend a celebration to be held there. He relayed the message to an amateur near Baton Rouge.

Garden Club Opens Season With Autumn Garden Talks

Autumn's royal colors marked the decorations when members of the Garden club met at the Forum Thursday in a luncheon and program inaugurating their work for the club year. Enthusiastic gardeners and lovers of wild flowers brought the magnificent collection of colors that sustained enthusiasm through the luncheon. There were zinnias in purple and gold; a great vase of royal purple thistle; a central bowl filled with statis, ageratum, rosebuds, zinnias, gallardia, dahlias and clusters of purple heather; a green bowl from which the purple bachelor buttons overflowed and a cluster of ageratum and pink roses as dainty as an old fashioned garden.

Mrs. W. W. Cook gave the invocation at the luncheon table with Mrs. J. C. Mytinger presiding and Mrs. C. E. Bailey in charge of the program.

Included in the program were talks on disbudding and fertilization of chrysanthemums, Oriental poppies and work to be done in a garden in the autumn. Mrs. Frank Mercer, who is noted for her success in the culture of the chrysanthemum, stating that the chrysanthemum was her favorite in flowers because one could put more of herself in them than in any other blossom. This is the season to help them, she said, telling her audience that from Sept. 1 they should be fed at least every two weeks with a good fertilizer until color began to show in the bud.

Mrs. Bert Bean quoted authorities on the cultivation of the oriental poppies, stating that not until 1780 had there been any break in the original brick red of the flower but that now they come in the most beautiful assortment of colors. She read names of several special varieties, telling how to plant them and how to water them.

Indian Music

Accompanied by Mrs. Wayne J. Holmes, Mrs. R. M. Wilhite, dressed in Indian costume sang "Pale Moon" and "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water". Mrs. John Abbott concluded the program with a clever and interesting talk on "What to Do in the Garden in September".

In the business meeting a number of new members joined the club and it was moved and voted that the Garden club should sponsor the flower show to be given in the forum building this autumn.

By MRS L. N. CASON

A friend of mine called me Wednesday morning to tell me that a colored maid whom she employed at stated times had asked her if she had any old copies of the Record News.

"Why yes, Lillian," she told her; "I have a few and you may have them. What do you want to read in the Record News?" "Well'm," the maid told her, "I read the funnies and then the Peeps at People."

Do you think I did not get a kick out of that? Particularly when the maid explained she liked to read about birds and flowers; she could almost see them. Not long ago, I phoned one of the old settlers in the town and as she wasn't at home I left my name and number with the colored girl who answered the phone. "Did you get the name?" I asked and she answered, "Yes'm, I read your column."

A most representative woman of this city told me last week that I reminded her of her mother because I was so interested in people. They are of constant interest to me; the preacher, the lawyer, the doctor, the architect, the teacher, the mechanic, the merchant, the housekeeper and the chauffeurs and maids who read what I say have some sort of kinship with my hopes and fears and dreams, else they'd never read me.

Rich and poor, young and old, good and bad, white and black, they are the actors on a stage on which the curtain falls only with death.

I thought of the community chest and the work the negroes were doing and I remembered last year when a negro woman who lived in a servant house on the alley back of my home was in distress. Her husband had no work; she had three small children and a fourth was about to make an appearance and the family had been given notice to move. Their own race helped them.

All people are interesting. I know dainty old ladies who are aristocrats to the tips of their fingers and poor little old ladies who have never known anything but work and trouble, but who are saints to the cores of their souls. Their lives are full of interest.

I know men who are abrupt in the offices where they work but whose voices become tender when they talk over the phones to their wives; and I know men who are exquisitely polite in public and wear all their roughness off at home.

I do not believe I ever look at a person—who is really a person (I mean mentally and spiritually), without considering their lives and actions. What men and women think interests me, how they live, how they will meet death.

The attention I give human nature is given for no end. But how I am paid! It's a great brotherhood or sisterhood that loves the skies and earth and those upon it. Some one who knew how I love flowers this very day left me a great bowl of blossoms and some one who read this morning my homesick plaint that not for years had I seen a quince, put two she had received from Illinois aside to bring to me.

Our Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Shifting Visions

"I feel so encouraged about Robert. I always wanted him to be a scientist and lately he has begun taking the greatest interest in all such things. He is making an airplane; he loves to tinker with the car; he mended the bell when it was out of order. I think that we will enter him in the technical school for the scientific course right away."

When the principal of the elementary school heard this he shook his head. "Maybe you are right but we have seen nothing that would make us think that this boy was a scientist. He may be. It is too soon to decide. At present, he is an ordinary student doing well in the general course but showing nothing beyond the average in science. All boys like to make planes, and tinker with the car. It's what we used to do when we had wagons and lightning rods. Nothing more. Better leave him as he is for a time and see what happens."

We are too likely to jump to conclusions about what children do and what they are to do in the future. A child sings well and picks out melodies on the piano and at once he is told off as a musician. A girl recites well and makes a good public appearance and her future as an actress is sealed. The musician and the actress may come into being. The signs may have been read correctly. As a usual thing only the genius indicates his trend early. The gifted children, the well equipped children, grow slowly and develop their powers through long years of training.

The usual child experiments a great deal. He follows each interest as it comes along. For a time he is absorbed in an idea. He talks and acts as though this hobby of his was his life's vocation. Nothing matters so much, at the time. Usually the pet occupation shifts to another and that with little warning. When this happens the family are indignant. "Here I have spent a lot of money on his notion. He wanted materials and I bought them for him. He wanted lessons and I paid for them. Now, off he goes to something else. Sheer waste of time and money."

Cheer up. Nothing has been lost and much has been gained. Every experiment counts. The more completely the child followed his idea the more power he gained. The next activity is the stronger for the attention he gave the first. Each leads to the next. Music may turn into mathematics. The musician is often an engineer. The gardener may turn into a scientist, or a writer, or something else. Whatever it is, give the child all the encouragement he needs.

As long as a child works there is hope for him. The one to worry about is the one that will lie down beside his work and go to sleep. He finds excuses for not doing things. He avoids doing anything that may give him trouble. Nothing holds his attention and he craves entertainment and excitement all the time.

The busy, active child whose vision keeps shifting, whose hands keep time with his mind, is all right. All he needs is your good word.

Library Opens Monday

The Snider library will be open to the students of the Wichita Falls High school Monday, according to a statement made by Mrs. Roberta Ryan, librarian.

Instructions in the form of a tour will be given to all new students in the high school Friday by the librarian to enable them to use the library correctly.

Collegians Back Coyotes

Led by Miss Betty Jane Sehmann as yell leader, the Junior college Girls' Hiking club will make its presence known Friday morning at the pep rally which is to be held in the auditorium as a general assembly program.

The members of the Hiking club have already pledged their support to the Coyotes, in lieu of having a junior college football team, and they promise to be present at all of the coming games.

All prospective pep squad leaders will try out for the position, previous to the student election. Marvin Pierce, Paul Barnett, and Reggie Humphrey have already declared that they will be in the competition.

Girl Reserve Meeting

Several hundred girls attended the first meeting of the high school and Junior college Girl Reserve organization in the auditorium Thursday morning.

Miss Billie Leslie Stimson gave a reading, "Gettin' Acquainted," a one-act play with three characters. An instrumental trio furnished music. Miss Frances Marye Krauss gave the devotional.

Announcement was made that contributions from the girls to the poor would be received in the school cafeteria, where each girl could also pay her dues.

Club Holds Initation

Colorful hair ribbon bows, lopsided dress and one-sided application of cosmetics were suffered by approximately 35 junior college girls Thursday all day at the school, after the girls had been initiated into the college Girls' Hiking club Wednesday night.

Cries of "Razzberry!" were heard in the halls and on the campus constantly, as each candidate complied with instructions from old members by answering every question only with the one word, for fear of being penalized by the officers.

Miss La Verne Harr, president of the hiking club, was hostess Wednesday night to 52 girls, including about 17 old members, at her home on Elizabeth street. All the new comers present were first welcomed and then initiated by a mysterious process, after which refreshments were served to all present. Mrs. Chas H. Harr, mother of the hostess, assisted her daughter with the preparations and the refreshments.

Preceding the initiation, Misses Lona Betty Brown and Kathleen Melat were introduced as the club sponsors for the ensuing year.

Club Schedule

A. F. Edwards, R. O. Jonas and Miss Lona Betty Brown, comprising a faculty committee to prepare the activity schedule for the high school and junior college, are now receiving reports from the various club sponsors in regard to the time and place of each meeting.

FLYING CORPS MOVES OCT. 1

Randolph Field Ready For Occupancy

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 24. (AP)—Transfer to Randolph field by Oct. 1 of the air corps training center headquarters and by Oct. 25 of the primary flying school at Brooks field and March field, is directed in orders received from the war department.

The orders covered in detail the transfer of organizations from March Field, Calif and Brooks field. Troops from both places will be moved to Randolph field by Oct. 25, and approximately 111 airplanes will be ferried from March field to San Antonio.

Cadets to Pilot

Three transport planes, piloted by air corps officers, will take 19 pilots from Kelly field and Brooks field to March field to act as flight leaders in bringing the airplanes used by the primary flying school to Randolph field. Approximately 90 cadets who are students in the March field school will pilot other planes in the 19 flights led by the San Antonio officers.

Other plans for the organization of the primary flying school at Randolph field are proceeding within the training center. Capt. T. W. Hastey has been relieved from duty as adjutant at Kelly field to become adjutant of the primary school under Maj. Frederick L. Martin, who has been relieved from duty as commandant of the advanced flying school and assigned to command Randolph field and the primary school.

Officers Transfer

Removal of the training center headquarters will involve the transfer of four officers: Brig. Gen. Charles H. Danforth, assistant chief of the air corps, in command of the training center; Capt. John K. Cannon, director of training; Capt. Arthur Thomas, adjutant, and First Lieutenant R. W. Douglass, aide and assistant adjutant.

Brooks field and March field will pass to the control of the commanding generals of the eighth corps area and ninth corps area, respectively, on departure of the school troops. Dodd field will remain under control of the eighth corps area commander, but will be made available as far as practicable to the training center for use in flying training. The flying school will help maintain the field.

The twelfth observation group headquarters, twelfth observation squadron and first photo section will move from Dodd field to Brooks field by Nov. 1.

A pursuit squadron and a bombardment squadron from Rockwell field, California, will be moved to March field.

Eleventh school group headquarters at Brooks field will be demobilized Oct. 1 and the personnel assigned to other organizations.

Headquarters 24th school wing will be demobilized at Kelly field Oct. 1 and the enlisted personnel, numbering 20, will be assigned to air corps training center headquarters.

The 52nd school squadron at Brooks field will be increased to 200 men before its transfer to Randolph field.

Earl Quinn's Grey-Haired Mother Hears Son Accused of Murders

NEWKIRK, Okla., Sept. 24. (UP)—A frail, grey-haired woman, broken with the age of 61 years, sat in district court here today and heard state's attorneys demand that her son, Earl Quinn, be sent to the electric chair for murdering two Oklahoma school teachers last Christmas time.

Mrs. George Quinn of Kansas City, Mo., winced and twisted a small handkerchief each time County Attorney Bruce Potter accused her son of killing Jessie and Zexia Griffith. She was dressed all in black.

Behind Mrs. Quinn sat Mrs. J. F. Griffith, mother of the two victims.

The jury, composed of married men, all members of Protestant churches, was selected at noon after 73 veniremen had been questioned by Potter and Defense Attorney James Mathers.

"I am being framed, mother," Quinn said.

"I am innocent. I never killed those girls. I will be acquitted."

The Griffith girls, both school teachers, were found dead along a deserted county highway last Dec 28. Both had been shot through the head.

Potter started, outlined the history of the fiend murder to the jury as crowds fought for standing room in the large courtroom.

The prosecutor spoke in a deliberate, calm voice. He did not mention Quinn's name. The jurors were moderately attentive. All residents of Kay county, they showed they were familiar with details of the killing.

Quinn, his head cocked to one side, followed Potter closely, seemingly interested in the story of the murder the prosecutor told.

Potter said state witnesses would relate that the sisters left the Blackwell home of their parents in a new coupe to drive to Norman and Warner, where they taught school.

This, he said, was at 5 a. m. He then told how a hunter found the bodies lying beside a lonely road, some 20 miles from Blackwell.

Potter said state witnesses would testify that Quinn roved the highway early that morning, that he carried a gun and was drunk.

The jurors turned their gaze on the debonair defendant as Potter said evidence would show a gun firing bullets similar to those found in the girls' bodies was found hidden six miles from the murder scene and that Jean Quinn, the defendant's wife led police to it two days after the slaying.

JURY INDICTS 4TH SHERIFF

Lee County Officer Billed On Excessive Fees

AUSTIN, Sept. 24. (AP)—The Travis county grand jury today returned two indictments against Sheriff J. J. Burtschel of Lee county in connection with alleged excessive fee charges in felony cases.

The indictments charged Burtschell with charging a fee of $2 for serving a subpoena and $42 for transferring prisoners. It was alleged neither service was performed.

Sheriff Burtschell was the fourth sheriff to be indicted by the Travis county grand jury in connection with alleged irregularities in fee claims. Other sheriffs indicted were Woody Townsend of Bastrop county; Clint D. Lewis of Burleson county, and John Bigham of Bell county.

The indictments were returned on evidence presented to the grand jury by a special legislative committee inquiring into the fee system.

Burtschell's county is in the 21st judicial district, presided over by J. B. Price of Bastrop. Judge Price has been charged with negligence and incompetency in approving accounts of Burtschell, Townsend and Lewis in articles of impeachment voted by the house. He is awaiting trial on the article by the senate.

JIM BUSEY ACQUITTED

Coal Operators Seek To Curtail Production

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (INS)—The coal operators are endeavoring to reach agreement on a production curtailment program, which may take a form similar to the oil conservation plan effected in the western states, President Hoover was advised today.

William S. Bennett, vice president and general counsel of the Continental Coal company, of Fairmont, W. Va., told the president the governors of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio have been asked to appoint an operators' committee of either three or five members to study the various plans to limit production. Two of the plans call for state curtailment and a third is based on the oil plan, attacking the problem from a conservation standpoint.

Autumn's royal colors marked the decorations when members of the Garden club met at the Forum Thursday in a luncheon and program inaugurating their work for the club year. Enthusiastic gardeners and lovers of wild flowers brought the magnificent collection of colors that sustained enthusiasm through the luncheon. There were zinnias in purple and gold; a great vase of royal purple thistle; a central bowl filled with statis, ageratum, rosebuds, zinnias, gallardia, dahlias and clusters of purple heather; a green bowl from which the purple bachelor buttons overflowed and a cluster of ageratum and pink roses as dainty as an old fashioned garden.

Mrs. W. W. Cook gave the invocation at the luncheon table with Mrs. J. C. Mytinger presiding and Mrs. C. E. Bailey in charge of the program.

Included in the program were talks on disbudding and fertilization of chrysanthemums, Oriental poppies and work to be done in a garden in the autumn. Mrs. Frank Mercer, who is noted for her success in the culture of the chrysanthemum, stating that the chrysanthemum was her favorite in flowers because one could put more of herself in them than in any other blossom. This is the season to help them, she said, telling her audience that from Sept. 1 they should be fed at least every two weeks with a good fertilizer until color began to show in the bud.

Mrs. Bert Bean quoted authorities on the cultivation of the oriental poppies, stating that not until 1780 had the e been any break in the original brick red of the flower but that now they come in the most beautiful assortment of colors. She read names of several special varieties, telling how to plant them and how to water them.

Indian Music

Accompanied by Mrs. Wayne J. Holmes, Mrs. R. M. Wilhite, dressed in Indian costume sang "Pale Moon" and "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water"; Mrs. John Abbott concluded the program with a clever and interesting talk on "What to Do in the Garden in September."

In the business meeting a number of new members joined the club and it was moved and voted that the Garden club should sponsor the flower show to be given in the forum building this autumn.

By MRS L. N. CASON

A friend of mine called me Wednesday morning to tell me that a colored maid whom she employed at stated times had asked her if she had any old copies of the Record News.

"Why yes, Lillian," she told her; "I have a few and you may have them. What do you want to read in the Record News?" "Well'm," the maid told her, "I read the funnies and then the Peeps at People."

Do you think I did not get a kick out of that? Particularly when the maid explained she liked to read about birds and flowers; she could almost see them. Not long ago, I phoned one of the old settlers in the town and as she wasn't at home I left my name and number with the colored girl who answered the phone. "Did you get the name?" I asked and she answered, "Yes'm; I read your column."

A most representative woman of this city told me last week that I reminded her of her mother because I was so interested in people. They are of constant interest to me; the preacher, the lawyer, the doctor, the architect, the teacher, the mechanic, the merchant, the housekeeper and the chauffeurs and maids who read what I say have some sort of kinship with my hopes and fears and dreams, else they'd never read me.

Rich and poor, young and old, good and bad, white and black, they are the actors on a stage on which the curtain falls only with death.

I thought of the community chest and the work the negroes were doing and I remembered last year when a negro woman who lived in a servant house on the alley back of my home was in distress. Her husband had no work; she had three small children and a fourth was about to make an appearance and the family had been given notice to move. Their own race helped them.

All people are interesting. I know dainty old ladies who are aristocrats to the tips of their fingers and poor little old ladies who have never known anything but work and trouble, but who are saints to the cores of their souls. Their lives are full of interest.

I know men who are abrupt in the offices where they work but whose voices become tender when they talk over the phones to their wives; and I know men who are exquisitely polite in public and wear all their roughness off at home.

I do not believe I ever look at a person—who is really a person—(I mean mentally and spiritually), without considering their lives and actions. What men and women think interests me, how they live, how they will meet death.

The attention I give human nature is given for no end. But how I am paid! It's a great brotherhood or sisterhood that loves the skies and earth and those upon it. Some one who knew how I love flowers this very day left me a great bowl of blossoms and some one who read this morning my homesick plaint that not for years had I seen a quince, put two she had received from Illinois aside to bring to me.

Our Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Shifting Visions

"I feel so encouraged about Robert. I always wanted him to be a scientist and lately he has begun taking the greatest interest in all such things. He is making an airplane; he loves to tinker with the car; he mended the bell when it was out of order. I think that we will enter him in the technical school for the scientific course right away."

When the principal of the elementary school heard this he shook his head. "Maybe you are right but we have seen nothing that would make us think that this boy was a scientist. He may be. It is too soon to decide. At present, he is an ordinary student doing well in the general course but showing nothing beyond the average in science. All boys like to make planes, and tinker with the car. It's what we used to do when we had wagons and lightning rods. Nothing more. Better leave him as he is for a time and see what happens."

We are too likely to jump to conclusions about what children do and what they are to do in the future. A child sings well and picks out melodies on the piano and at once he is told off as a musician. A girl recites well and makes a good public appearance and her future as an actress is sealed. The musician and the actress may come into being. The signs may have been read correctly. As a usual thing only the genius indicates his trend early. The gifted children, the well equipped children, grow slowly and develop their powers through long years of training.

The usual child experiments a great deal. He follows each interest as it comes along. For a time he is absorbed in an idea. He talks and acts as though this hobby of his was his life's vocation. Nothing matters so much, at the time. Usually the pet occupation shifts to another and that with little warning. When this happens the family are indignant. "Here I have spent a lot of money on his notion. He wanted materials and I bought them for him. He wanted lessons and I paid for them. Now, off he goes to something else. Sheer waste of time and money."

Cheer up. Nothing has been lost and much has been gained. Every experiment counts. The more completely the child followed his idea the more power he gained. The next activity is the stronger for the attention he gave the first. Each leads to the next. Music may turn into mathematics. The musician is often an engineer. The gardener may turn into a scientist, or a writer, or something else. Whatever it is, give the child all the encouragement he needs.

As long as a child works there is hope for him. The one to worry about is the one that will lie down beside his work and go to sleep. He finds excuses for not doing things. He avoids doing anything that may give him trouble. Nothing holds his attention and he craves entertainment and excitement all the time.

The busy, active child whose vision keeps shifting, whose hands keep time with his mind, is all right. All he needs is your good word.

Collegians Back Coyotes

Led by Miss Betty Jane Sehmann as yell leader, the Junior college Girls' Hiking club will make its presence known Friday morning at the pep rally which is to be held in the auditorium as a general assembly program.

The members of the Hiking club have already pledged their support to the Coyotes, in lieu of having a junior college football team, and they promise to be present at all of the coming games.

All prospective pep squad leaders will try out for the position, previous to the student election. Marvin Pierce, Paul Barnett, and Reggie Humphrey have already declared that they will be in the competition.

Several hundred girls attended the first meeting of the high school and Junior college Girl Reserve organization in the auditorium Thursday morning.

Miss Billie Leslie Stimson gave a reading, "Gettin' Acquainted," a one-act play with three characters. An instrumental trio furnished music. Miss Frances Marye Krauss gave the devotional.

Club Holds Initation

Colorful hair ribbon bows, lopsided dress and one-sided application of cosmetics were suffered by approximately 35 junior college girls Thursday all day at the school, after the girls had been initiated into the college Girls' Hiking club Wednesday night.

Cries of "Razzberry!" were heard in the halls and on the campus constantly, as each candidate complied with instructions from old members by answering every question only with the one word, for fear of being penalized by the officers.

Miss La Verne Harr, president of the hiking club, was hostess Wednesday night to 52 girls, including about 17 old members, at her home on Elizabeth street. All the new comers present were first welcomed and then initiated by a mysterious process, after which refreshments were served to all present. Mrs. Chas H. Harr, mother of the hostess, assisted her daughter with the preparations and the refreshments.

Preceding the initiation, Misses Lona Betty Brown and Kathleen Melat were introduced as the club sponsors for the ensuing year.

Club Schedule

A. F. Edwards, R. O. Jonas and Miss Lona Betty Brown, comprising a faculty committee to prepare the activity schedule for the high school and junior college, are now receiving reports from the various club sponsors in regard to the time and place of each meeting.

THOUSANDS of people have a low red-blood-cell count and don't recognize it.

Bodily vitality . . . the urge to be up and doing, depends upon the right number of red cells.

A low red-blood-cell count often exhibits itself in one or more of the following symptoms: — paleness, quick fatigue, lack of normal resistance to disease, pimples, boils, and general run-down condition.

A lagging appetite often leads to underweight and ill health in various manifestations.

Take S.S.S. as a tonic and notice how much better you will "feel" . . . it has effect in aiding Nature to build red-blood-cells and creating an appetite for food. These two things working together aid the human body in its struggle for health and vitality.

FLYING CORPS MOVES OCT. 1

Randolph Field Ready For Occupancy

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 24. (AP)—Transfer to Randolph field by Oct. 1 of the air corps training center headquarters and by Oct. 25 of the primary flying school at Brooks field and March field, is directed in orders received from the war department.

The orders covered in detail the transfer of organizations from March Field, Calif and Brooks field. Troops from both places will be moved to Randolph field by Oct. 25, and approximately 111 airplanes will be ferried from March field to San Antonio.

Cadets to Pilot

Three transport planes, piloted by air corps officers, will take 19 pilots from Kelly field and Brooks field to March field to act as flight leaders in bringing the airplanes used by the primary flying school to Randolph field. Approximately 90 cadets who are students in the March field school will pilot other planes in the 19 flights led by the San Antonio officers.

Other plans for the organization of the primary flying school at Randolph field are proceeding within the training center. Capt. T. W. Hastey has been relieved from duty as adjutant at Kelly field to become adjutant of the primary school under Maj. Frederick L. Martin, who has been relieved from duty as commandant of the advanced flying school and assigned to command Randolph field and the primary school.

Officers Transfer

Removal of the training center headquarters will involve the transfer of four officers: Brig. Gen. Charles H. Danforth, assistant chief of the air corps, in command of the training center; Capt. John K. Cannon, director of training; Capt. Arthur Thomas, adjutant, and First Lieutenant R. W. Douglass, aide and assistant adjutant.

Brooks field and March field will pass to the control of the commanding generals of the eighth corps area and ninth corps area, respectively, on departure of the school troops. Dodd field will remain under control of the eighth corps area commander, but will be made available as far as practicable to the training center for use in flying training. The flying school will help maintain the field.

The twelfth observation group headquarters, twelfth observation squadron and first photo section will move from Dodd field to Brooks field by Nov. 1.

A pursuit squadron and a bombardment squadron from Rockwell field, California, will be moved to March field.

Eleventh school group headquarters at Brooks field will be demobilized Oct. 1 and the personnel assigned to other organizations.

Headquarters 24th school wing will be demobilized at Kelly field Oct. 1 and the enlisted personnel, numbering 20, will be assigned to air corps training center headquarters.

The 52nd school squadron at Brooks field will be increased to 200 men before its transfer to Randolph field.

Earl Quinn's Grey-Haired Mother Hears Son Accused of Murders

NEWKIRK, Okla., Sept. 24. (UP)—A frail, grey-haired woman, broken with the age of 61 years, sat in district court here today and heard state's attorneys demand that her son, Earl Quinn, be sent to the electric chair for murdering two Oklahoma school teachers last Christmas time.

Mrs. George Quinn of Kansas City, Mo., winced and twisted a small handkerchief each time County Attorney Bruce Potter accused her son of killing Jessie and Zexia Griffith. She was dressed all in black.

Behind Mrs. Quinn sat Mrs. J. F. Griffith, mother of the two victims.

The jury, composed of married men, all members of Protestant churches, was selected at noon after 73 veniremen had been questioned by Potter and Defense Attorney James Mathers.

"I am being framed, mother," Quinn said.

"I am innocent. I never killed those girls. I will be acquitted."

The Griffith girls, both school teachers, were found dead along a deserted county highway last Dec. 28. Both had been shot through the head.

Potter started, outlined the history of the fiend murder to the jury as crowds fought for standing room in the large courtroom.

The prosecutor spoke in a deliberate, calm voice. He did not mention Quinn's name. The jurors were moderately attentive. All residents of Kay county, they showed they were familiar with details of the killing.

Quinn, his head cocked to one side, followed Potter closely, seemingly interested in the story of the murder the prosecutor told.

Potter said state witnesses would relate that the sisters left the Blackwell home of their parents in a new coupe to drive to Norman and Warner, where they taught school.

This, he said, was at 5 a. m. He then told how a hunter found the bodies lying beside a lonely road, some 20 miles from Blackwell.

Potter said state witnesses would testify that Quinn roved the highway early that morning, that he carried a gun and was drunk.

The jurors turned their gaze on the debonair defendant as Potter said evidence would show a gun firing bullets similar to those found in the girls' bodies was found hidden six miles from the murder scene and that Jean Quinn, the defendant's wife led police to it two days after the slaying.

JURY INDICTS 4TH SHERIFF

Lee County Officer Billed On Excessive Fees

AUSTIN, Sept. 24. (AP)—The Travis county grand jury today returned two indictments against Sheriff J. J. Burtschel of Lee county in connection with alleged excessive fee charges in felony cases.

The indictments charged Burtschell with charging a fee of $2 for serving a subpoena and $42 for transferring prisoners. It was alleged neither service was performed.

Sheriff Burtschell was the fourth sheriff to be indicted by the Travis county grand jury in connection with alleged irregularities in fee claims. Other sheriffs indicted were Woody Townsend of Bastrop county; Clint D. Lewis of Burleson county, and John Bigham of Bell county.

The indictments were returned on evidence presented to the grand jury by a special legislative committee inquiring into the fee system.

Burtschell's county is in the 21st judicial district, presided over by J. B. Price of Bastrop. Judge Price has been charged with negligence and incompetency in approving accounts of Burtschell, Townsend and Lewis in articles of impeachment voted by the house. He is awaiting trial on the article by the senate.

Coal Operators Seek To Curtail Production

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (INS)—The coal operators are endeavoring to reach agreement on a production curtailment program, which may take a form similar to the oil conservation plan effected in the western states, President Hoover was advised today.

William S. Bennett, vice president and general counsel of the Continental Coal company, of Fairmont, W. Va., told the president the governors of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio have been asked to appoint an operators' committee of either three or five members to study the various plans to limit production. Two of the plans call for state curtailment and a third is based on the oil plan, attacking the problem from a conservation standpoint.

Texas Facts

By BILL EDWARDS

MONDAY SEPT 21

Texas has more counties than any other state—254 against 160 for Georgia, next in rank. Texas counties range all the way from the 149 square miles of Rockwall to the 5,935 square miles of Brewster county, but the average county is approximately 900 square miles in area. Delaware, with only three counties, is at the other end of the list from Texas.

HELPING BUILD TEXAS

How bountifully Texas farms are producing this year is shown by comparisons between the totals of this year, made and estimated, and of 1930, as made up (with one exception) by the state bureau of agricultural economics:

	Production in 1,000s
	1930	1931
Cotton (bales)	4,038	5,094
Corn (bushels)	86,710	112,203
Wheat (bushels)	33,638	58,729
Oats (bushels)	40,012	76,398
Barley (bushels)	3,570	7,844
Rice (pounds)	8,463	9,463
Grain sorghums (bushels)	46,816	71,346
Sweet potatoes (bushels)	3,570	6,003
Pecans (pounds)	9,500	32,000
Peanuts (pounds)	52,800	92,400
Irish potatoes (bushels)	5,012	5,328

Increases are shown also in wild and tame hay, alfalfa, sorghum and sugar cane syrups, broom corn, apples, peaches, grapes. Almost or quite the only decrease in the list is in pears, of which 338,000 bushels were produced this year against 350,000 last.

Atlanta Store Offers To Swap for Cotton

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 24. (INS)—A leading Atlanta department store became the pioneer here today in a movement that may mean a return to the "swap and barter" system of purchase in vogue in this country a century ago.

Cotton will be accepted at one cent above the market quotation in exchange for merchandise, the concern announced. It pledged itself to accept up to 5,000 bales worth now approximately $150,000, with the premium of one cent a pound approximating $25,000.

The offer was made in an effort to afford sorely-pressed growers some relief from the cotton crisis.

Iowa Corn Problem Occupies Farm Board

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (INS)—The federal farm board is still considering ways and means for aiding Iowa corn producers confronted with huge crops and low prices, but has reached no definite conclusions, Chairman James C. Stone reported today.

He said that to his mind there were only two ways in which financial assistance could be given. These were the organization of a credit corporation to rediscount loans through immediate credit banks, and loaned to individuals on warehouse receipts, or the setting up of a cooperative organization that would tie its operations through Farmers National Grain corporation.

Jones County Taxes Increased 15 Cents

Special to The Record News.

ANSON, Texas, Sept. 24.—Taxpayers of Jones county will pay a 15-cent increase over levies of last year, following the setting of the state rate by the automatic tax board. In addition to the state increase of 6 cents, the general county rate has been raised 5 cents and another 5 cents added to the rates in the two road districts in which the county is divided. In road district No. 10, of the south two-thirds of the county, the total rate will be $2.24 while in district No. 1, comprising the north part of the county, the rate will be $1.40.

Wichita Falls Has Done It

EVERYBODY, or nearly everybody, said it couldn't be done. But it has been done. Wichita Falls community chest fund has been oversubscribed, and that within the time limit set for raising the fund. The oversubscription isn't large. As this is written it is certain only that the quota has been subscribed. It may be that the total of the subscriptions will exceed the quota by several thousands of dollars when all the subscriptions are reported.

It has been a great achievement for Wichita Falls, one of the greatest in its history when all the conditions are taken into consideration, this newspaper believes. In the first place it means that the welfare organizations of Wichita Falls will continue to function during the coming 12 months, even if they are called upon to do a greater work than ever upon smaller appropriations than heretofore. They will do it because this is the time when all organizations and everybody are doing the things that must be done upon smaller incomes. And only second to the benefits from the expenditure of these funds in the many thousands of acts of helpful service rendered by our welfare organizations must be the strengthening of the community's morale in the accomplishment of a seemingly impossible task.

The subscribing of this fund is an example of courage and cooperation and spirit such as would have aroused the admiration of the founders of the city whose cooperation and courage helped to build it. To those who live and make up our community the doing of this thing that everybody said couldn't be done must be an inspiration that might well be carried into other community and individual problems and tasks from which we hold back from the fear they can't be done. A lot of things can be done and they will be done. The subscription of the community chest program is a sign and symbol. And a community which can give such an example of courage and cooperation is going to be in mighty fine morale one of these days, we hope right soon, to take full advantage of the revival of business, no matter how slowly this revival moves.

To Walter Cline, general chairman of the campaign, whose faith has been mighty and whose courage has been contagious, and to the scores of workers who have followed his leadership so vigorously, the community owes an appreciation which we can express in our rejoicing over the accomplishment of a great task.

Those who have given so generously and many sacrificially to make this accomplishment possible will have the reward which must come to all who have done a good deed.

Skimmed Milk

ONE OF the most costly features of the present economic stagnation is that the milk of life has been made so devoid of cream for the great majority of American people.

Skimmed milk long ago was classified as inadequate food for human beings. But so far as the component interests which make up life are concerned, the average American family has been placed again on a skimmed milk diet.

The flavor and the nourishment is in the cream. With equal truth, the flavor and richness of life are found after the primary needs of the body have been filled. These elements have increased tremendously during the present century through the increase of leisure time and a generally higher standard of tastes.

Leisure time is not lacking now. Millions of men and women have had leisure forced upon them. But hours of leisure can not be adapted to the pursuit of fuller life and happiness when every impulse, every thought, every ounce of strength are driven in a search for bare necessities.

Physical emaciation inevitably results from a skimmed-milk diet for children. Intellectual, cultural, and spiritual emaciation is imminent for a large part of our population because the qualities of meditation, contemplation, artistic recreation, and spiritual reflection have been removed from the stream of today's living for them.

Petticoats Behind Mutiny

NOTHING in all of the stories about the British naval mutiny has been more interesting than the following little paragraph, taken from a cable dispatch from London.

"The men will be granted week-end leave and will have a chance to talk over the recent events with their wives, who are blamed by many officers in naval circles as the real originators of the strike."

This provides an unsuspected angle from which to view the whole affair. Navy Jack is apt to be a married man these days. He isn't the carefree, roistering rover of the old days. When his pay is cut the little woman will call it to his attention just as she would if he were a factory hand.

The British government, one imagines, may have a tough time smoothing its "naval unrest" down if it fails to take the wives into account.

THE GIRL WHO WON

By May Christie

Nollie Day, pretty and ambitious, longs to escape the unhappy life she leads with her aunt and uncle in the small town of Yapahank. She wins a $50 newspaper prize and goes to New York. After three days of fruitless search for a position, Nollie's funds become depleted. Exhausted, she faints on the street and later finds herself in a tawdry house, where a woman called "Daffy," tells Nollie she could make "easy" money.

One of Daffy's "friends" makes advances to Nollie. She strikes him and flees from the house in fear.

Nollie secures a position as public stenographer in an exclusive hotel. Mrs. Virginia Judson, a wealthy widow, takes an interest in her. Mrs. Judson asks Nollie to model some of her gorgeous gowns for her.

Later while she is preparing to sail for Europe, she asks Nollie to substitute for her at a theater party.

Instead of the elderly Mr. Hiram who was expected, a handsome young man enters the theater and sits next to her.

He is Tony O'Brien whom Mr. Hiram sent in his place. Tony and Nollie are attracted to one another immediately. Nollie tries to explain that she is not Mrs. Judson but Tony does not hear her.

After theater, they attend a night club.

CHAPTER XII.

D'you know—it sounds idiotic and like a terrific bid for sympathy—but often I'm the loneliest chap in the world?" said Tony O'Brien.

They were in the night club whose walls were Italian waterways by moolight . . . and a real waterfall, in miniature, was trickling by them.

"Lonely? You . . . lonely?" repeated Nollie Day, her eyes on his, and her heart going out to him.

"Yes, you naive little soul. I'll bet a girl like you, with everything in the world she wants, and any number of men—bad cess to them!—stravaiging after you hell-for-leather and divvil take the hindmost, hasn't the least conception of loneliness?"

If it hadn't been for his misconception of her she could have laughed aloud at that!

Lonely? She knew what that could mean. Why, no solitary, penniless damsel in New York knew it better!

But fling that thought away. Forget her drab identity. Tonight she was Gloria.

He called her that. All-glorious he thought she was. Not a silly little imposter.

He'd thrust her in that role. She was playing up to him. Trying to be the marvelous person that he imagined she was.

Why not? She felt the part. She was a dual personality, and this was her real self.

Beauty! Glamor! Romance!

What else was worth living for?

She'd been asleep for 20 years—those "years that the locust had eaten"—

Or—apter still!—she'd been the Sleeping Beauty awaiting the kiss of Prince Charming!

Tonight — figuratively — it had come, that kiss. If she thrilled to it in her imagination, what would be the reality?

"I'm the loneliest fellow in the world—with heaps of friends," Tony was repeating, "isn't that an anomaly?"

"It's queer. I—I should have thought—a man like you—so many invitations—"

"Yes? It's true. I've had a good time, in a way. But d'you know what's been always at the back of my mind?"—and he moved nearer her.

She did not speak. He touched her hand. That touch of his thrilled her.

"Tell me. I like to hear you talk." Her voice came in a whisper.

"At the back of my mind—and I'm a pretty busy chap, I want to have you know—I've always had an idea that somewhere, somehow, I'd run into her—"

"Into whom?" Nellie spoke very low. But above the sound of the music he heard her.

He paused. He touched her hand again. He said, restlessly: "The one woman in the world. The ideal person all of us men—if we're real men at all, and not just business automatons. God help us!—are looking for."

Was she that girl? Oh, was it possible? Was earth turning into heaven?

Had she taken leave of her senses? And had he? Was he Adonis seeking the Holy Grail? Or Sir Galahad on his quest? Was he a god, this handsome O'Brien?

Dancers went by them as they sat in their dim corner in the night club. The orchestra played on. A trick moonlight shone upon the dance floor, not on them.

They sat there in a spell, wrapped in their dream. They saw no one clearly. Figures swayed past them.

No one in the world was real, except themselves.

"And maybe you and I are only phantoms after all . . . because it's all too beautiful to be real, if it is true!" whispered this young Irishman.

Love! Could this be love? Were her feet on the floor, or on the clouds? Was she riding a rainbow?

Blessed dizziness! thought Nollie in the dream as she and Tony, elbows on the table and sitting very near together, stared at each other.

"You're real, my dear. You're real. And the loveliest girl I know!"

Such music in her ears! The Pipes of Pan! Forever let him play that harmony.

"Go on. I love to hear you speak—"

"God bless you, child! You're nothing but a child—and to think I'd heard the lying devils say you'd been three times married!"

That brought her back to earth. She was deceiving him. She wasn't Jinny Judson. She was a substitute.

"I'm not married at all. Not tonight I'm not. I—everything's new for me—don't you understand?—it's like being reborn!"

He caught her hand in his and held it tight. Her stammered words had gone straight down to the heart of him.

Her beauty, too. Her sweetness. The whole fragile, flying charm of her.

She was the girl he wanted. He was sick—sick to the soul—of the other sort of women.

She had left her little day-dress and her shabby hat and gloves in the Hotel Luxor. Deposited them at the desk in a brown paper bundle.

It was after 3 a. m. when Tony drove her to the hotel and lingered at the entrance to the lobby with her.

"I'll call you tomorrow morning. This has been the most wonderful night of my life, acushla."

"Wonderful for me, too. Thank you—thank you so much—"

He couldn't let her go. He wanted to say many things—they wouldn't come—he stood there looking at her—

"The happiest night of my life—"

"And the most marvelous for me," breathed Nollie.

Then he was gone, with a quick pressure of her hand, and the repetition that he'd call her up in the morning.

Call up whom? She hadn't told him who she was! And he would ask for "Mrs. Judson" . . . for "Gloria" . . .

Shaemas O'Shiel Roars Long and Loud Against Dial Telephones

NEW YORK, Sept. 24. (UP)—Shaemas O'Shiel offered himself today as the leader of a crusade against the dial telephone.

It was last spring that Shaemas O'Shiel's wrath against the dial telephone rose to unsupportable limits. Either the New York Telephone company would have to remove the "fool contraption" or he would not pay his bill.

Quietly, the company discontinued his service, whereupon O'Shiel brought his case before the public service commission.

So it was that for the past two days the commission's halls have resounded to the musical brogue of Shaemas O'Shiel, pouring his scorn upon the telephone company. He contended that when he dialed a number and got an intercepted operator, it was the operator's duty to complete the call and not to order him to redial.

In rebuttal, the company introduced evidence seeking to show that O'Shiel was a peevish fellow anyway.

"On June 2, 1931," C. E. Ryder, counsel for the telephone company, read into the record, "the complainant called Lexington 7850. The operator asked him if he meant Lexington 2-7850 and he replied, 'what the h—l do you think it is?'

"On June 18, 1931, complainant refused to dial a number for the second time. The operator remonstrated. Complainant said, 'shut up and get the number for me'."

Ryder continued, citing several other occasions when the complainant refused to dial the number and accused him of using loud and profane language. Finally, Shaemas had his say.

"I would assure any operator who may have heard me use profanity," he said, "that I was not swearing at her. I was swearing at the company."

During the recess, Shaemas left the room to call his wife. He returned pale and trembling.

"I dialed for my wife," he said bitterly, "and I got an operator."

Failure to Gather Cotton May Slice Ultimate Output

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (INS)—The 1931 cotton crop may be reduced through failure of planters to pick poor, late cotton and the possibility that much cotton may not be ginned, in the opinion of agricultural experts here.

Despite the present big crop, the census bureau reports show but 2,091,513 bales ginned to Sept. 16 as against 3,736,120 on the same date last year.

Reports to the crop reporting division of the weather bureau also showed slow progress of ginning in virtually all southern states.

Although the information received from experts in the field fails to disclose a definite explanation, the opinion was expressed by some experts that financial difficulties of planters and the low price of cotton may be factors.

Address The Record News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C.

Q.—In taking the census of the United States is a person counted where he works or where he lives? R. D.

A.—The enumerators under the census law were instructed to enumerate persons at "their usual place of abode"—that is, at their permanent homes or regular lodging places. Thus it happens that the business or industrial population of any large city includes a considerable number of persons who are not counted as part of the census population of the city, their residences or lodging places being outside the municipal limits.

Q.—What is the oldest tree in the world? C. V. B.

A.—It is said to be a giant Clubmoss which flourished in the Devonian era. It was restored, natural size from the only known fossil, found in New York state, and is now in the New York State Museum.

Q.—Did any people ever have a law providing that a town or city had to restore stolen property? K. L. I.

A. The Hammurabian code, which antedated the code of Moses by about a thousand years, included the following provision: "If anyone has committed a robbery and he is caught, he shall be killed. If the robber is not caught, the man who has been robbed shall make claim before God to everything stolen from him, and the town and its governor within the territory and limits of which the robbery took place shall give back to him everything he has lost."

Q.—Was Woodrow Wilson a lawyer?—G. R. F.

A. He studied law at the University of Virginia, was admitted to the bar, and practiced law in Atlanta, Ga., before entering the field of education and literature.

Q.—Where are the Bitter lakes? —N. M.

A. These two lakes in Egypt form part of the Suez canal.

Q.—How many buffaloes are there in Yellowstone park?—H. G.

A.—There are now about 1,200. Since this is too many to have proper winter grazing, the government is willing to give away 100. These animals can not be killed and the expense of removal must be borne by the applicants.

Q.—Which is the better solvent, alcohol or water?—N. B. V.

A.—More useful solids can be dissolved in water than in any other liquid.

Q.—Were enlistments closed when the draft law went into effect in this country during the world war?—S. C.

A.—They were not. Between April, 1917, and the armistice 377,458 men enlisted. The total forces at the time of the armistice numbered 4,971,172 men, including peacetime organizations, and drafted and enlisted men.

Q.—Had Browning's "How They Brought Good News from Ghent" any foundation in fact?—H. T.

A.—It was purely an imaginary incident.

Q.—For whom was the ampere named?—C. B.

A.—Andre Marie Ampere was a famous French physicist who lived from 1775-1836. He showed brilliance in mathematics at an early age and became professor of that study. He later engaged in scientific researches, particularly in electricity and magnetism. The ampere, the practical unit of electric current, is named for him.

Q.—What does White Christmas mean?—A. B.

3. It refers to a Christmas day when it is snowing or when the ground is covered with snow.

Q.—Has the S. S. Leviathan ever entered the Baltimore harbor?—A. C.

A.—It has not.

Q.—If a person jumped from a high building would he be unconscious when he struck the ground? —M. C.

A.—Experiments conducted by the army air corps indicate that the popular belief that a person falling from a great altitude will be killed or rendered unconscious before reaching the ground is not correct. A man falling from a great altitude does not necessarily lose consciousness.

Q.—Who invented the autogiro? —F. T. S.

A. It was invented by the Spanish inventor, Juan de la Cierva.

SLOT MACHINE LAW PROPOSED

Adj. Gen. Sterling Pleads For New Statute

AUSTIN, Sept. 24. (UP)—Wearing the cowboy boots for which he was famous as a Texas ranger, "Wild Bill" Sterling, adjutant general of Texas, tonight asked a legislative committee for a new law to stamp out the "slot machine racket."

"Racketeering started with slot machines," the noted Texas "law on the border" told the committee. "Machines are furnished by a $30,000,000 corporation. A federal injunction gives weak-kneed officers a chance to evade enforcement of the present law."

The new law he asks was offered in the house of representatives by Preston L. Anderson of San Antonio. It takes the operation of slot machines out of the list of penitentiary sentence offenses and makes it punishable by 30 days to six months in jail and by fine of $100 to $500.

That will get convictions more readily, Anderson said. Besides it puts teeth in enforcement by declaring slot machines that have any element of chance a public nuisance. As public nuisances they can be stopped by injunction. The slot machines may also be seized and destroyed. Raffles and punchboards are put under the same ban.

"It is the damndest racket that ever was brought into the state," said Representative Anderson. "Few people realize how widespread it is. I would rather see a regular gambling house in operation than the presence of slot machines and punch boards all over town. Many of them are near our public schools. Children are playing them."

The committee recessed without decision on the bill.

Chairman Alfred Petsch said that he has read the federal injunction. He said it only protects slot machines so long as they are used strictly for vending. "When they have any element of chance, they are not protected by injunction."

Rose returned home to discover 14 sacks in his yard.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

ARREST MADE IN SLAYING

Dallas Salesman Held In Death of Youth

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, Sept. 24. (AP)—The arrest in Dallas of John A. Hill, burglar alarm salesman, on a charge of murder, was the latest move of Corpus Christi officers today in attempting to solve the mysterious slaying of Alfred Steinbach, 20, Cincinnati, Ohio, whose body was found near here Sept. 2.

Hill was arrested in Dallas last night on a warrant from Corpus Christi issued after murder charges were filed here. District Attorney D. S. Puri and Sheriff Ben D. Lee left for Dallas to take Hill into custody.

The skeleton of the Cincinnati youth's body was found near here Sept. 2. Apparently he had been slain last July. He had been shot and struck on the head.

V. Don Carlis, Corpus Christi automobile body worker, young Steinbach's roommate, was arrested several days later and charged with murder. He was wearing his roommate's shoes when taken into custody. Carlis denied knowledge of the crime when arraigned at a preliminary hearing Sept. 10 and was remanded to jail without bond.

S. J. Steinbach, Cincinnati, the youth's father, established identity of his son's body by supplying officers with X-ray pictures of the boy's teeth.

The elder Steinbach testified at the preliminary hearing for Carlis that he gave Hill $1,500 about a year ago to invest in oil properties in Texas and sent his son back to Texas with Hill. Later, he testified, his son learned the deal was a hoax and they attempted to regain the money from Hill.

The youth roomed with Carlis in Corpus Christi from April until he disappeared last July.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 24. (UP)—Mrs. H. F. Godfrey, Shawnee, today presented Lew Wentz, state highway commissioner and philanthropist, a quilt which required 10 months to complete.

FIRST AIR MAIL TRIP MARKED

Pilot of 1910 Delivery In Another Flight

BURBANK, Calif., Sept. 24. (AP)—Two men who admitted they didn't know what they were starting when they were the principals in the first authorized air mail delivery—a [illegible] mile flight on Long Island, N. Y., 20 years ago—have completed a 1,000-mile flight in commemoration of that event.

Soaring off in an ultramodern tri-motored mail plane with special mail consignments yesterday morning were Frank H. Hitchcock, postmaster general of two decades past, and Earle Ovington, the pilot of the first mail plane. The ceremonies at the start were broadcast.

Hitchcock had given Ovington authority to carry the first air mail—a single sack in a single-seated plane.

Yesterday Ovington was at the controls of the huge plane and Hitchcock was a passenger in it. They flew to Phoenix, Ariz., and Tucson, Ariz., returning here late last night.

Mother and Son Claim Auto Speed Record

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., Sept. 24. (UP)—David Driscoll Jr., New York, and his mother today claimed an all time speed record for automobile travel after driving 1,776 miles from his home to Battle Lake at an average speed of 57 miles an hour. They were stoped only once by a motorcycle policeman just outside of Chicago, but convinced him that they were not violating the speed laws. They wanted to see how fast it was possible to cross the eastern half of the continent on modern paved roads.

With a group of Kansas associates he has purchased 160 acres of land in Child's park above Lake City. The group plans to establish a fishing resort. Reports from Lake City revealed that White and his associates also had purchased a half block of ground and some old buildings in the old mining town. With this property, it was said, they will establish a park and fish pond.

Loose DANDRUFF?

Get rid of it overnight

Dermatologists tell us that many serious cases of dandruff and falling hair could have been prevented by simple, early treatments.

If you have any evidence of dandruff, go after it with Listerine, the safe antiseptic. It has checked this humiliating condition for tens of thousands. You simply douse it on full strength and massage the scalp vigorously. Often you get results over night. Stubborn cases require more systematic treatment to see a real improvement.

If infection is present on the surface of the skin, Listerine attacks it. A powerful germicide, it kills bacteria in 15 seconds, the fastest killing time accurately recorded by science.

Listerine helps to dissolve oily crusts and quickly removes them, as well as horny scales. And Listerine quickly relieves that burning, itching sensation. It soothes inflamed or irritated areas of the scalp.

If scalp is excessively dry, a little olive oil may be used in connection with the Listerine shampoo, or independent of it. The oil aids in dissolving crusts and scales and keeps hair from drying out. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

The Safe Antiseptic

kills 200,000,000 germs in 15 seconds

An eminent scientist writes the head chemist in our Research Department:

"Chesterfield Cigarettes are just as pure as the water you drink"

THE WATER YOU DRINK is tested from time to time by expert chemists to make sure that it is free from all injurious substances—that it is pure.

So it is in the manufacture of CHESTERFIELD cigarettes. Expert chemists test all the materials that are used in any way in CHESTERFIELD'S manufacture, to make sure that everything that goes into CHESTERFIELD is just right.

THE LEAF TOBACCO IS PURE. Long steel ovens—drying machines of the most modern type—scientifically "dry" and clean and purify the natural tobacco leaves by exact high-temperature treatment.

Then the shreds of cut tobacco, as you see them in your CHESTERFIELD, are again heated, cleaned and purified. From these pure tobaccos the cigarettes are made, and only the purest paper—the best that can be made—is used for CHESTERFIELD.

Cigarettes used to be made in an old-fashioned way, by hand. Now, no hand but yours touches CHESTERFIELD—another purity safeguard.

CHESTERFIELDS are made and packed in clean, sanitary factories where even the air is changed every four and one-half minutes—purity again.

ALL THIS CARE is taken to give you CHESTERFIELDS as nearly perfect as cigarettes can be made. Delivered in a moisture-proof, sealed package, they reach you just as good, just as pure as when they leave the factory. Good . . . they've got to be good—they're just as pure as the water you drink!

RECIPES

Yellow Tomato Hors d'Oeuvres

Scald, chill and peel the small pear-shaped yellow tomatoes, then scoop out some of the center and fill it generously with chopped pickle. Marinate in French dressing. Serve very cold on an attractive lettuce leaf or garnish with watercress.

Barbecued Rabbit

Have the rabbits dressed with heads removed, opened all way down on the under side and pressed flat. Lay in a pan of salt water for half an hour, keeping as flat as possible. Drain well, wipe dry and make several slits down each side of the back. Place the rabbits on the broiler rack after first greasing it, skin side to the flame. Just before putting the broiler pan into the oven which has been preheated for 10 minutes, brush the surface with dressing made as follows: One-half teaspoonful salt, one-half teaspoonful paprika, two teaspoonfuls garlic vinegar, one-third cupful olive oil or salad oil; heat all together. When slightly browned, brush again with the dressing and turn a moment later. With the bony side now up, brush heavily with the dressing so that the shell-like cavities hold some of it. Baste frequently, exposing each side at least three times to the heat. When done to your taste, remove to a hot platter and brush with a little of the dressing, then cover and set in a cool oven for a few moments. If the rabbit is cooked before time to serve it, place in a covered roasting pan three tablespoonfuls water and one tablespoonful of the dressing. Place the cooked rabbit in the roaster, baste and cover and place in a slow oven of 350 degrees F. There is just enough heat to keep the rabbit moist and hot until served even if the meal must be delayed. Place on a platter and pour over the rabbit any liquid left in the roaster. Garnish with parsley or cress and serve hot.

Sweet Potato Snowballs

Two cups mashed sweet potatoes.
One-half cup brown sugar.
One-half teaspoon ground spice.
One tablespoon butter or two of sweet cream.
One cup shredded coconut.
Ten marshmallows.

Blend the sugar, spice and butter with the mashed sweet potatoes until smooth and well mixed. Roll each marshmallow separately in the potato mixture until well covered, forming a round ball, then roll in coconut. Place in oven and leave long enough for the marshmallow in center to become slightly soft, but not melted.

Rolled salad is very pretty and unusual. Use the larger lettuce leaves for this salad, and see that they are clean, cold, crisp and dry. Mix together one cupful of cottage cheese, one-half cupful walnut meats, and one-half cupful of maraschino cherries. Moisten with cooked dressing which has been seasoned with paprika and lemon juice. Spread the lettuce leaves, roll them up and then place a green pepper ring around each. Serve one, two or three rolls on each plate, garnishing them with cress.

Coronation Butterscotch Pie

Six tablespoons of butter.
One-third cup flour.
Three egg yolks.
One and one-fourth cups brown sugar.
One-half teaspoon salt.
Two cups milk (hot).
Flaky pastry.
Meringue: three egg whites, six tablespoons sugar. Mix sugar, flour and salt. Add milk and cook until mixture thickens. Just before removing from the stove stir in beaten yolks and butter. Let stand while preparing pastry. Divide the dough into three parts and roll each out to a sheet. Cut into rounds eight or nine inches in diameter. Place separately on baking sheets, pricking each well. Bake in a hot oven (425 F.) until delicately brown. Put pie together like a layer cake with filling on the top also. Cover with meringue made by beating egg whites thoroughly with six tablespoons sugar. Brown slightly in a slow oven (325 F.). Serve as soon as cool.

Flaky Pastry

Two cups flour.
Two-thirds cup shortening.
Three-fourths teaspoon salt.
Six to eight tablespoons water.

Sift flour and salt. Chill shortening at least half an hour before using. Cut shortening quite coarsely into flour. Add ice cold water, just enough to hold dry ingredients together. Roll pastry one-eighth inch thick on lightly floured board. For baked shell cover inverted pie plate. Trim dough so that there will be enough to fold under to make a firm double edge. Prick bottom and sides with a fork to prevent bubbles and distortion while shell is baking in hot oven (450 F.) for 15 minutes.

Chicken Salad (Molded)

One tablespoonful gelatin.
One-fourth cupful water.
Two cupfuls cooked chicken (cut in small pieces).
One cupful mayonnaise or cooked salad dressing.
One-half cupful chopped celery.
One-fourth cupful pimento.

Soak gelatin in cold water; place over hot water until dissolved; add to the salad dressing; fold in the chicken, celery, pimento and more dressing, if necessary. Turn into individual molds and chill until set. Serve on crisp lettuce garnished with radish roses and stuffed olives. It may be served on slices of pineapple and garnished with 1000 dressing.

French Fried Asparagus

Drain canned asparagus and roll in beaten eggs and fine dried bread crumbs and fry quickly in deep fat. If the correct temperature 400 degrees F. or 205 degrees C. is maintained in the frying kettle the fat will not be absorbed by the food. When the fat is heated too much, it breaks down into products that are indigestible. The safe way to judge the temperature in the kettle is to use a thermometer. This may be served with a sauce or plain. It is delicious served with chicken a la king. Be careful not to place too much of the creamed mixture on the stalks or the crispness will be destroyed.

Prunes

Some fruits, such as prunes, are termed food fruits. They are not only valuable for flavor, but also for their nutrients as they contain certain carbohydrates and valuable ash. Dried prunes contain calcium, phosphorus and iron—three of the most desirable forms of ash occuring in foods. Only four medium-sized prunes are required to yield 100 calories. Prunes are laxative and are often recommended in cases of constipation.

Prunes are often badly cooked and not as highly esteemed as they might be. Long, slow cooking in plenty of water to cover them well is necessary to make them soft and juicy, no sugar being added during

TAX REVISION NOW PROBABLE

Decision Expected Soon on Course of Action

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (AP)—The American taxpayer probably will know in a month or six weeks if congress will be asked to dig deeper into his pocketbook.

Treasury experts are trying to solve the problem presented by declining tax receipts and mounting expenditures.

A decision may be expected several weeks before congress convenes in December.

Whether it is for tax revision or continuation of the present borrowing policy with consequent increases in the public debt, President Hoover must pass on it before it goes to congress.

Hoover Urges Economy

The president has been represented as opposed to higher taxes during the depression if it is at all possible to avoid them. He has urged drastic economy all along the line, but whether or not it will be enough without more taxes remains for the treasury to find out.

Mr. Hoover's latest expression on taxes was given Monday before the American Legion convention at Detroit.

Evidently referring to proposals of some Republicans and Democrats in congress for higher taxes on the wealthy, the president warned the legionnaires not to be misled by "those who say that we need only to tax the rich to secure the funds we need.

"We must face the absolute fact," he said, "that the rich can be taxed to the point of diminishing returns, and still the deficit in our ordinary and necessary expenditures would not be covered even upon a basis of the utmost economy. Make no mistake; in these circumstances it is those who work in the fields, at the bench and desk who would be forced to carry an added burden for every added cent to our expenditures.

Senators Divided

Senators and representatives in Washington in both parties are widely divided on the question of a tax boost.

Some senators have expressed opposition to higher taxes. Others have come out for them.

Senators Sheppard, Texas, is among those who are for higher taxes on large incomes; Representative Bacharach, Republican, New Jersey, favors higher surtaxes and a luxury tax; Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, wants higher surtaxes and also extension of the lower brackets; Senators Bingham, Republican, Connecticut, proposes broadening the tax base to impress on those with incomes now tax-exempt the responsibility for a share in government upkeep.

Treasury experts for some time have been trying to find new sources of revenue.

This work was intensified late in the last fiscal year when income tax receipts declined approximately $580,000,000 as compared with the previous year. It has continued since the start of the new fiscal year as the fall in receipts has grown.

Receipts Toboggan

For the fiscal year to the close of business Sept. 22 income tax receipts amounted to $306,594,578 as compared with $538,353,914 in the same period of the previous year.

Total receipts to date from all sources have amounted to $549,962,789, while expenditures totaled $914,221,026, leaving the government with a deficit of $364,258,237.

The receipts are $241,000,000 less than for the same period last year while the expenditures are $170,000,000 greater.

In addition, the government has to meet obligations incurred in other years and pay interest on the public debt left over from the world war. It must pay more than $100,000,000 on the public debt on Dec. 15 and pay approximately $890,000,000 for maturing securities.

Faced with this imperative need for larger income, experts recalled today that both Secretary Mellon and Undersecretary Mills have pointed out that the income tax as a base for the government's tax system had failed to meet the needs. They said that in times of prosperity the income tax had provided large returns to the government, but that it was so responsive to business depression that it did not afford a dependable base.

GETS HELP

$100 Check Sent O. U. Anti-Military Leader

NORMAN, Okla., Sept. 24. (UP)—Orville English, Guthrie, leader of the anti-compulsory military movement at the University of Oklahoma received a letter today from John Simpson, national president of the Farmers union, enclosing $100 to carry on his protests.

The check, English said, was the first of a $500 fund which will be used to test compulsory military training in a supreme court suit.

President W. B. Bizzell will preside at a student mass meetings on the subject Saturday night.

Texas and Oklahoma Solons Visit Hoover

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (INS)—Two new members of the 72nd congress which will convene in December, presented President Hoover today with a program of what they believed should be done in the current depression.

Representative Martin Dies, Democrat, of Texas, and Representative F. B. Swank, Democrat, of Oklahoma, called at the White House and recommended that congress authorize a new and nation-wide public works building program as a measure of unemployment relief.

In the carrying out of such a program they proposed, moreover, that "labor saving machinery" be dispensed with and man-power substituted for it, to the end that as many men as possible be provided with work.

STIMSON ACTS TO AVERT WAR

Secretary Sends Notes To Japan and China

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24. (UP)—Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson tonight sent identical notes to Japan and China again urging them to cease hostilities in Manchuria and to settle their dispute by peaceful means. The notes will be delivered by the American envoys in Tokyo and Peking.

Stimson said the American people and government viewed with "regret and concern" the recent fighting in China's eastern province. He said it was America's hope that "principles and methods of peace shall prevail."

Without citing either the Kellogg anti-war pact or the nine-power Pacific treaty, Stimson called attention to "the existence of treaties designed to regulate the adjustment of controversies between nations without resort to the use of force."

Late yesterday Stimson assured the League of Nations he would dispatch to the two oriental nations such appeals in behalf of peace. Notes in a similar spirit already have been sent to Japan and China by the league council.

FEDERAL SITE SOLD

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 24. (UP)—The district attorney's office today received a $24,000 check and final approval for purchase of a site for a new Ada postoffice.

Old Cowpunchers To Meet at Canyon

CANYON, Texas, Sept. 24. (AP)—When the Old Cowpunchers association holds its annual meeting in 1932, it is likely that it will occur at the headquarters of the T Anchor ranch, which was the first house built in Randall county.

The T Anchor ranch is now a part of the prosperty of the West-Texas State Teachers college and is the college farm, but the old house is being preserved and restored for its historic associations. T. M. Moore, who has charge of the farm, has received a letter from John Arnot of Amarillo, president of the Cowpunchers association, saying that they appreciate the invitation to hold their reunion on their old grounds. Many of those who attend this meeting were cowboys before 1890.

SENTENCED TO DIE

HAWKINSVILLE, Ga., Sept. 24. (INS)—James F. Barbee, 45-year-old mill operator, today was sentenced to die in the electric chair at the state prison farm for shooting to death his son-in-law, Delmar Cannon, 22.

Seaworthy Boat Auctioned at $5

BEAUMONT, Texas, Sept. 24. (AP)—The tug Edgar F. Coney, formerly seagoing and considered by her owners and crew to be sturdy and seaworthy, was sold at federal court auction here for the sum of $5.

"But the vessel that sold for that small amount is lying in 65 feet of water about 35 miles from Sabine Pass.

Howth, Adams and Hart, attorneys for the survivors of the 14 men who lost their lives when the Edgar F. Coney went down, bought the boat. They expect to have it raised as soon as possible for an inspection by marine surveyors in an effort to prove the contention of the litigants that the vessel was unseaworthy. Damage suits against the former owners, the Sabine Towing company, amount to many thousands of dollars.

The $5 bid was the only one received at the auction.

James Buchanan, 15th president of the United States, was the only man ever elected to the presidency who remained a bachelor throughout life.

FOR THE BEST ANSWERS EXPLAINING THE
MYSTERY of the "HIDDEN QUART"
AND TELLING HOW THIS QUART BENEFITS MOTORISTS

Fact No. 1—Thousands of motorists and service station men have observed that after a car has been given its first fill of Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and is driven 200 to 350 miles, a look at the crankcase gauge shows that about one quart of oil is apparently missing . . . but

Fact No. 2—These same people have noticed that on the second and later fillings with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil, scarcely a drop of oil will disappear during the first 350 miles, and practically none at 500 and up to 1,000 miles!

The above facts have been checked by actual tests with cars that use six quarts of oil for the crankcase, cars in good mechanical condition and driven at ordinary rates of speed. These facts will also prove true for your car, in proportion to the amount of oil your crankcase usually holds, your car's mechanical condition and the speeds at which you drive.

What becomes of the "hidden quart"? The answer is easy if you study the Facts given above and keep in mind the things that only Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil can do. The explanation of the whereabouts of the "hidden quart" is simple—no technical knowledge of motors or oil is necessary.

Remember—The "hidden quart" of Germ Processed Oil does not escape through leakage . . . does not burn up, wear out nor evaporate. It is "present but unaccounted for." Fact No. 2, given above, proves all this.

After you've found where the "hidden quart" goes, you can easily see the special benefits it gives the motorist—advantages that no other oil can give.

Ask at any Conoco Station or Conoco Dealer for free Entry Blank which contains information about Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil that may help you win. Conoco Station and Dealer employees will gladly answer your questions. Remember, you do not have to buy anything to enter this contest.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Nourishing the Hair Roots

Question—Gene writes: "What causes my hair to fall out so rapidly? I have tried all kinds of tonics but they do not seem to be beneficial. I have heard that "sweet oil' is good. What do you recommend?"

Answer—Be sure to use plenty of the green vegetables in your diet so that you can obtain the natural food elements of calcium and silicon needed for hair growth. Next, have your scalp treated by radiations from the ultra-violet light. When your scalp has been sunburned by this treatment, use applications of ice to your scalp twice daily, rubbing in some kind of vegetable oil afterwards. You must first supply your blood with hair building material and then increase the circulation to your scalp so that the hair roots will get plenty of nourishment.

Arthritis and Rheumatism

Question—Y. E. C. asks: "What is the difference between arthritis and rheumatism?"

Answer—Arthritis simply means an inflammation of the joints, usually from rheumatism. Acute inflammatory rheumatism is sometimes found in the muscles but often rheumatic toxins will settle around the joints causing arthritis.

Intermittent Claudication

Question—Mr. S. inquires: "I would like to know something about intermittent claudication and what causes it."

Answer—Intermittent claudication is lameness characterized by the absence of pain when the limb is at rest, but in walking the symptoms of discomfort become intensified until walking becomes impossible. The symptoms again disappear after resting. This condition is not really a disease, but is brought on by some disease of the blood vessels of the limbs, such as narrowing or hardening of the arteries.

UPSETS FEATURE FIRST ROUNDS IN WICHITA GOLF TOURNEY

The Rambler's Corner

By FRED THOMPSON

Pretty Fair Showing

Of the 119 golfers in the current invitation golf tournament 79 are from Wichita Falls. Naturally, it was expected that Wichitans would make up the biggest part of the field, but the turnout this year was larger than was expected, and officials of the country club are more than pleased. They particularly want to thank employers of this city for leniency in allowing their golfing employes time off from work, in order that they may participate. There are several instances of this leniency, and club officials are particularly grateful.

Of the 79 Wichitans entered in the tournament, 15 made the championship flight. In other words, about half of the flight is made up of home town folks. Electra is represented by its two aces, John Marriott and Jack Parr, who easily qualified. Marriott shot an 85 while Parr took an 86.

Most of the golfers from our neighboring cities are unused to grass greens but the turf is not interfering so much with their games. What trouble in putting they do encounter from this source is made up for by the fact that they do not have to labor over dragging the greens. By the time a golfer has dragged 18 greens he's done a fair days work, let alone playing his game.

Old City Walker, the hero of the extra-hole battle at Clarendon this spring, is among us. The Rambler saw him the other day for the first time since the memorable Greenbelt tournament on Clarendon's wind-swept plains. He was putting on No. 18.

We started to go out and say howdee, but on second thought decided Walker might take in after us with a driver or a brassie. The folks in Quanah got after me, you know, because they thought I gave a prejudiced and unfair account of Walker's battle with Merchant.

Well, City got through with his game and went to the locker room and there we met. Instead of knocking my block off City grabbed my mitt, and we placed a bottle between us on the table, and had a nice friendly chat.

Now don't get evil-minded, because that was a bottle of ginger ale.

Old City still contends that he was right in his Clarendon protest and that he was not unsportsmanlike in making the protest.

His contention seems to be supported by a story I heard. Somebody in Memphis, it goes, wrote the details of that match to the U. S. G. A., asking if Merchant shouldn't be awarded the title. The U. S. G. A. replied that the decision of the referee was final.

Oh, well, let's don't revive an old battle. As I told Walker the other day, it's the success and spirit of the Greenbelt Golf association that counts in the long run, and his heated battle with Ira Merchant, that excellent golfer, did the association more good than any championship match that ever was played among its members. It not only was discussed all over the state, but it still is being talked. The Greenbelt next year, we predict, will attract a record field of entrants.

Mr. James Galloway, otherwise Jim the bowling magnate and Texas league umpire, is disporting in the tournament. At least he was when this was written. He might have been eliminated since. Anyway, he's having a good time.

Jim wants to tell the world that his bowling alley on Scott avenue is open around noon these days to any who care to take on practice rounds in anticipation of the opening of the season. Regular competition will start when it turns a little cooler.

About Mr. Zipp

Zipp Newman, sports editor of the Birmingham News, burned up his Barons for their lack of hits the other day, and we reprinted his story in our column yesterday morning. What he didn't tell his Barons wasn't worth telling.

Well, it seemed to have done some good. In Wednesday's game the Barons banged out 23 solid blows in downing the Buffs, 14 to 10, squaring the series.

We don't know if Zipp's article had such a whale of a lot to do with the team's success, but certainly it reflected the opinion of Birmingham followers. Newman was very courageous in lambasting his team, for it deserved every bit of it.

We hope Mr. Newman holds his job. There are some club presidents who can't stand to see their club criticised in print, and there have been club presidents who just happened to have enough influence to get sports editors fired if they cracked the whip over the home town team too much.

Such club presidents never did rate very high with the author of this corner, and with few exceptions, their teams never did rate so high with the fans. A club president has got to take the razzberry just like the rookie.

A Good One on Dizzy

J. Alvin Gardner, the Rambler's private spy in the Dixie series, made a flying trip home Wednesday night to report on the series thus far, and then hastened toward Houston Thursday, expecting to be on hand at the final battle today.

Fans from all over Alabama and Georgia flocked to Birmingham to see that great opening battle last week—but more particularly to see Dizzy. Great crowds met the special train from Houston, crying "We want to see Dizzy!" And the great one appeared at the train door and modestly let them see him.

But at the park is where Dizzy pulled one of his good cracks. A fan in the stands yelled:

"Hey Dizzy, I see where the Athletics have offered the Cards $50,000 and a player for you."

Dizzy replied: "What player did they offer—Grove?"

If this column doesn't appear after today, and if the Rambler appears on the streets in his underwear, don't be surprised. I've got everything I possess including typewriter and pants, on Dizzy to win that final game of the Dixie series!

Office Lore

One of the hired hands on this newspaper came to the Rambler yesterday making a great howl. As we make it out his story was like this: "Rambler, while you were out of the office today a fan called up wanting to know the batteries in the third game of the Dixie series. I told him I'd look it up and I went to considerable trouble and wasted several minutes of my time getting the information. Then when I returned to the phone, he had hung up. My one great wish is that fan never gets that information as long as he lives."

Orion Daniel Stars With Two Snappy Victories

By FRED THOMPSON
Record News Sports Editor

In the process of reducing itself to eight players, the field of 32 golfers in the championship flight decided to stage a real show yesterday, and one startling upset followed another as match play got under way in the fourth annual Wichita Falls Golf and Country club invitation tournament.

S. J. Barnett of Eastland, comedalist, and Morris Norton, defending champion, successfully weathered the two opening rounds, but their victories were put in the shade by the accomplishments of an unheralded bunch of scrappers.

To begin with, Charles Quails of Post, ruling favorite of the tournament, and the high man in the Calcutta pool, lasted only through the first round, going down in the second before the accurate shots of Jack Parr of Electra. The score was 2 and 1.

Donovan Defeated

Buck Donovan, who tied Barnett's 79 Wednesday to share medal honors, wilted sadly once match play started and was whipped right at the start in the first round by E. W. Marriott of Wichita Falls, 4 and 3.

The second largest upset of the day, which drew a gallery as large as that which followed the Parr-Quails match, was the sensational golf played by Orion Daniel of this city. Daniel in the first round provided one of the biggest sensations of the morning by eliminating L. T. (Bobby) Burns, winning 1 up in a match that went 19 holes; and then followed through with a second round victory in the afternoon over R. C. Farrell, a young dark horse from Vernon, a fine golfer whom many picked to go far in this tournament. Daniel won from Farrell, 2 up.

E. W. Marriott, after providing a morning upset with his victory over Buck Donovan, pulled another in the afternoon when he eliminated J. H. S. Bonner, president of the Wichita Falls Country club. Marriott won the second round match 5 and 4, sprinkling six 3's in 14 holes and laying three stymies to completely bewilder the country club prexy.

L. S. (City) Walker strode into the quarterfinals, as was expected, by a first round victory over Dr. J. N. Arvin of Brownwood, 3 and 2. Paul Oles kept pace with the others with a first round victory over F. T. Johnson by the score of 3 and 2, and a second round victory over T. P. Duncan, 2 up.

Phillips Stays In

The eighth to enter the semifinals was James Phillips of Ranger, one of the finest shots entered in the tournament. His medal score of 80 Wednesday led many to believe he would go far in match play, and his record yesterday bore the prediction out. In the first round he eliminated the hard-fighting John Marriott of Electra, 5 and 4; and in the second he came out victorious over Ralph Pond of Wichita Falls, 4 and 3.

Barnett, the Eastland ace, encountered stiff competition only in the first round, when he was pushed rather hard to win a 4 and 3 verdict from R. A. King of Wichita Falls. His second round victory over B. A. Duffey of Abilene was not so close, the score being 8 and 6 and 6.

Norton, whose crown appears to be in dire danger, defeated George Putty in the first round, 6 and 5, and then in the afternoon disposed of Paul Landes, former Wichita Falls all-city champion, by the score of 5 and 4.

Of the eight quarter-finalists, four are Wichitans—Norton, Daniel, E. W. Marriott and Oles—but the strength of the outsiders, particularly Barnett, Parr, and Walker, makes it appear that Wichita Falls will have a tough scrap on its hands if it is to retain the invitation crown. When the excellent shots of Phillips, the Ranger ace, are considered, it makes the battle seem all the harder.

Play will be resumed this morning at 8 o'clock, with the third flighters teeing off first. The championship flight will start at 9 o'clock.

Jack Parr's defeat of Quails, champion of the West Texas Golf association, was one of the outstanding events of the early rounds. Quails, whose game has been rocky ever since the tourney opened, was four down at the turn. He rallied somewhat and they halved the 10th and 11th. Quails finally winning the 12th. The 13th they halved and Quails then won the 14th, his last of the match, for Parr held him to halves on the next three.

Farrell Loses on 17th

Daniel's victory over Farrell of Vernon was equally spectacular. They went into the 17th with the match squared, but Farrell lost the 17th when he missed a three-foot putt. On the 18th, Farrell's drive was short and it took him three to get on the green. Daniel sunk a 10-foot putt for a four, while Farrell took a five.

Under the able supervision of Phil Hessler, club profesisonal, two rounds in the first four flights, and one in each of the four consolation flights were played yesterday.

Hessler announced that Barnett and Donovan would play a nine-hole play-off for the qualifying medal some time during the tournament. Definite date for the play-off was not set.

Olney B Squad Defeats Throckmorton Team, 6-0

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, Texas, Sept. 24.—The Olney Cubs B squad won a 6 to 0 victory over Throckmorton High school at Throckmorton Thursday afternoon in a practice game. Morris and Carraway led the attack for the Cubs while Martens, Tratt and Williams starred in the line for Olney. The Olney club completed eight of the 13 passes attempted. Throckmorton was never able to break through the Olney line for a first down. Coach Acker was well pleased with the showing of the B squad in this game. The two teams will meet in Olney next Thursday for a return game. The Throckmorton club played much better football than the results would show. Five or six times the Olney club carried the ball within the Throckmorton 5-yard line, only to be held at bay by a brave stand from the home club.

Dizzy Dean Faces Bob Hasty Tonight In Deciding Game of Dixie Series

HOUSTON, Sept. 24. (AP)—Dizzy Dean and Bob Hasty will be opposing pitchers in the seventh and deciding game of the Dixie series here tomorrow night.

The Birmingham and Houston teams arrived here tonight, travel-worn, but confident. The Barons, after a 23-hit splurge yesterday that called out every pitcher on the Houston staff, feel they can touch Dean for enough base knocks to take the Dixie title back to Birmingham.

"We're hitting now, and no pitcher can stop us," one of the Baron stars said.

On the other hand the Buffs are equally as confident that Dean, who has allowed the Barons but eight hits and one run in 18 innings, will hurl the Texas champions to victory tomorrow night.

Wichita All-Stars Play Saint Jo Nine Sunday

Saint Joe baseball fans are looking forward to another pitchers' battle Sunday afternoon between George "Dummy" LaRue and Steve "Iron Man" Franklin when Maurice Cox leads his Wichita Falls All-Stars into Saint Jo. The Wichita Falls club dropped a tough luck 1 to 0 decision to Saint Jo last Sunday when Saint Jo bunched two of their five hits in the last half of the ninth inning after one was out. The Wichita Falls Iron Man will be going after revenge in this game and a record breaking tournout in Saint Jo is expected. The Wichita Falls club under Lefty Cox will present a much stronger lineup than they had last Sunday.

OLNEY PLAYS HASKELL TODAY

Cubs to Make Debut On Home Field

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, Texas, Sept. 24.—The 1931 edition of the Olney Cubs will perform before home fans for the first time Friday when the Haskell High school invades the Cub lair.

Several positions on Albert Acker's team are in doubt as a result of the showing made by some of the reserves against Electra. It is certain that all the starters will not play a full game. If Crawford, Pratt, Perkins and A. Pyeatt in the line and Morris in the backfield do not start the game, they are certain to get a chance to show the home fans a few things before the final whistle. Pratt and Crawford were especially impressive against the Tigers at Electra last week. Crawford played the entire game at tackle and gave no ground to the Tiger. Pratt relieved Wright at end late in the final quarter and looked good.

In the backfield Acker is likely to be without the services of Graves, the 190-pound quarterback and defensive demon, and Carraway, a reserve back that looks plenty good. The former has an injury that needs rest and Carraway is threatened with appendix trouble. Unless olive oil comes to his rescue he is likely to be lost for the season. If he drops out Acker will be hard pressed for reserve strength, as Alsup, a letterman of last year and a good prospect for a regular backfield position, has withdrawn from school to look after business connections in El Paso. G. Gilmore can be used in the ball carrying department if needed. In event he is used another guard will have to be found to take his place in the line, where he is teamed with Vaughn to give the Cubs another pair of star guards that compare favorably with last year's Hill and Sullivan combination.

Probable starting line-up for Friday's game will likely find Sloan and Wright at ends; Ellis and Brown tackles; Vaughn and Gilmore at guards; Co-Captain O'Brian, center. Rue and Elmore halves; Co-Captain Duckworth fullback and Morris at quarter.

Hog Coach Tries For Working Combinations

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 24. (AP)—In anticipation of hard going when his Razorbacks tackle the College of the Ozarks Mountaineers Saturday, Coach Thomsen today shut down on rough and tumble tactics and began testing his team for working combinations.

Thomsen sought to perfect a passing combination while Coach Chuck Bassett carried linemen aside and drilled them on blocking and charging.

JANEWAY BACK WITH COYOTES

Ball Lugger Expected to Bolster Attack

Their offensive polished some what after one of the toughest weeks of practice since training started, the Wichita Falls Coyotes whose goal line has yet to be crossed this season, are matched with the Bowie Jackrabbits today.

The game will be played on the practice field in the rear of the school building, and will start promptly at 3:45 o'clock. Admission will be 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for students.

The Jackrabbits, a class B team, are not doped as powerful, and a Coyote victory will not be news. Should the Pack display more system on the offensive, however, that would be news of the first order, for many defects appeared in the Coyote attack when they defeated the Temple, Okla., Tigers here last Friday, 25 to 0.

Previously the Pack held both Olney and Archer City to a scoreless tie.

A development in the Coyote camp that may turn out to be significant is the return of Orien Janeway to the squad. Janeway, a beefy field man, put plenty of punch into the Coyote attack last season, participating in most of the conference and practice games, but at critical times was out with injuries. His late return—he came out for practice last Tuesday—will prevent him participating in the first conference game with Childress Oct. 10, but he will be eligible thereafter. An interscholastic league rule provides players must have reported for practice by Monday of the second week of school to be eligible for conference play the first 30 days of the season.

Janeway's return was balanced by the departure of a bulky lineprospect, Bedford Cunningham, of Iowa Park. Cunningham, it was found, lived more than 15 miles from the school, and therefore was ineligible to play with the Coyotes.

The probable lineups for today's game follow:

W.FALLS	Position	BOWIE
Brandon	LE	Woodall
Luclus	LT	Young
Reynolds	LG	Cone
Holton	C	Stagg
Mauldin	RG	Black
Sepkovitch	RT	Tucker

Powell	Q	Overstreet
Withrow	LH	King
Jenkins	RH	Murphy
Daugherty	F	Latham

Time—Friday, 3:45 o'clock.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Sept. 24. (AP)—A further vance in cotton at the opening here today on a continuation of the recent buying movement promoted by strength in foreign markets was followed by a severe decline under increased southern selling or liquidation promoted by the weakness in stocks. December sold off from 6.85 to 41 and closed at the lowest with the general market closing easy at net declines 18 to 21 points.

Liverpool cables attributed the advance there to heavy general buying and extensive short covering on the weakness of sterling exchange and also reported a large turnover in cotton cloths and yarns. Spot sales in Liverpool for the day amounted to 5,000 bales of all kinds, including 18,000 bales of American and the opinion was expressed in some quarters here that the English trade was showing a disposition to turn its sterling into cotton.

Egyptian cotton futures market at Bombay was 4 rupees higher, with the Indian spot quotation in Liverpool 50 points higher. Southern selling here was said to be more active today, being particularly active in the last half hour.

Exports today 15,641 making 564,649 so far this season. Port receipts 34,679. U. S. port stocks, 3,032,400.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24. (AP)—Cotton experienced quite an active session today and in the early trading scored a sharp advance of fully a dollar a bale on strong foreign markets and big spot sales at Liverpool, that market reporting sales for the day of 45,000 bales of which 18,000 bales were American.

Futures at Alexandria, Egypt, advanced 245 points. After advancing 20 to 22 points during the first hour, the market gradually eased off under pressure of profit taking, more or less hedge selling and selling induced by reports of an easier spot basis. An easier stock market also induced liquidation.

As a result of this selling prices eased off 16 to 17 points by mid-session.

The market turned weak during the afternoon owing to the sharp break in stocks, and to the report that the federal reserve bank would advance its rediscount rate. Prices made new lows for the day right at the end, 42 points down from the high, and the market closed barely steady at net declines for the day of 21 to 25 points. Liverpool is due tomorrow 18 to 20 penny points down on New Orleans.

Port receipts 34,629; for week 179,675; for season 890,083; last season 1,908,409; exports 12,641; for week 63,640; for season 550,864; last season 945,894. Misguided Optimism Found as Basis Of Stock Rally as Decline Sets In

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, Sept. 24. (US)—It became very evident today that Wednesday's exhuberant securities markets had no foundation but misguided optimism. Both stock and bond quotations today not only retraced all of the previous day's price advances but depreciated in addition. Industrial and public utility shares plunged to new low prices for the entire bear market, while railroad issues were barely able to hold above their previous bottom. How important a role short-covering played during Monday and Tuesday, when new short-selling was banned by the exchange, was very apparent in the light of yesterday's experience.

No worth while explanation could be advanced for today's sudden turnabout, even the most prominent bankers having nothing more to say about it than that the previous day's upturn was unwarranted under prevailing circumstances. The advance was too rapid, it was pointed out. The volume of offerings today, however, had more than short-selling character. It aggregated over 3,000,000 shares for the day.

Surely, renewed short-selling was not responsible for the decided weakness in the bond market. Some of the foreign bonds broke as much as 20 points, and even the treasury 3s, and the 3¾s, of the United States, likewise were sold down to new lows. Weakness in the foreign bonds obviously was in response to the widespread rumors that other nations now on a gold basis may be forced to follow Britain's action in suspending the standard. These rumors involved virtually all countries still on gold. Excepting the United States and France. Selling of the U. S. bonds was a result mainly of forced liquidation, in no way representing any doubt concerning their stability and value. As a matter of fact, the entire world finds the United States markets as the outstanding place of refuge for funds, and the U. S. government obligations form the great foundation-stone of the entire capitalistic world today.

There was a great many rumors afloat today, possibly more than ever before during the bear market. The most insistent was to the effect that a large part of the liquidation was coming from Holland, especially among the public utility stocks. This group suffered probably the worst of any major section of the market, but this selling has been noticeable for many weeks, having been interrupted only during the early days of this week. There was also a repetition of the rumor that Holland may abandon the gold standard. That nation represents one of the leading markets of the world and has been a large holder of American securities.

Anaconda Copper Mining company did the expected in suspending dividend payments, which had been 37½ cents quarterly. Liquid Carbonic cut its rate to 50 cents quarterly, from 75 cents previously. New York Air Brake omitted its dividend, as did General Realty and Utility. Against this Johns-Manville official stated the $3 common dividend will be maintained "this year." Pierce-Arrow preferred dividend will also be maintained, according to an executive.

Attempt was made to surround the drastic decline with a great deal of mystery. Actually, the fact still exists that a celebration such as staged Wednesday was hardly warranted under the circumstances of a great nation such as England abandoning the gold standard. There is a growing belief that inflation may be next experienced, but if this be carried to the degree witnessed for example in Germany the repercussions will be sad indeed.

Once again, the market very emphatically demonstrated the danger of drastically curtailing the short interest. This was the caution uttered in today's column, when it was pointed out that the inability to extend the bear account during Monday and Tuesday, and the further elimination of a goodly part of the short interest Wednesday removed a powerful prop from under the market. Short-selling alone could not have brought about the decline experienced. The market's chief hope for a rally exists in the possibility of developing another oversold condition.

Grain

TEXAS CASH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, Sept. 24. (AP)—Wheat was in good demand on the cash grain market today and was fair for the other light offerings. Exporters are bidding 47@48c for wheat delivered Texas gulf ports.

Quotations, basis carloads delivered Texas gulf ports, export rate, or group three points, freight paid, ranged as follows:

Wheat—No. 1 ordinary hard milling 48@49c; No. 1 hard 13 per cent protein 50@51c; No. 1 hard 14 per cent protein 54@56c; 15 per cent 58@60c; 16 per cent 58½@62½c.

Corn—No. 2 mixed 40@42c; No. 2 white 42@43c; No. 2 yellow 48½@50c.

Barley—No. 2, 35@38c.

Sorghums—No. 2 milo per 100 pounds 70@72c; No. 2 kaffir 72@75c.

Basis delivered Texas group three points.

Oats—No. 2 red 23@24c.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 24. (AP)—Breaks in Wall street securities threw a wet blanket on grain prices today and more than overcame bullish effects of transpacific war tension. Announcement from Washington that the department of agriculture was investigating economic possibilities regarding legalization of beer fell flat as a market influence, and so did later word that the American Legion national convention at Detroit had voted heavily for repeal or change of prohibition laws. Deliveries on September corn contract kept heavy.

Wheat closed nervous at about the day's lowest level, ⅛@⅝ cents cheaper, corn ⅝@⅞c down, oats ¼@⅜c off, and provisions varying from 10 cents decline to a rise of 37 cents.

Wheat displayed a decided upward trend until about midday, even in the face of stock market setbacks, but finally succumbed to the bearish showing made by securities.

Corn and oats reacted with wheat and stocks. Deliveries on September corn contracts were 596,000 bushels. Chicago receipts, 177 cars compared with only 30 a week ago, were a further drag on the market.

Provisions averaged lower with hogs and grain, lard touching new bottom records.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—Sept. 46⅜c bids; Dec. 47⅛c, 49⅛@49⅛c; May 51⅞c, 53½@53⅜c. Corn—Sept. 36½@39⅜c; Dec 36¼@36⅝c, 37¼@37⅜c; May 40⅛c, 41⅜c.

BOVINE TESTS CARRIED OUT

Chief Insurgent Held By Guardsmen

TIPTON, Iowa, Sept. 24. (US)—With the chief insurgent, J. W. Lenker, under military arrest, the "tuberculin test rebellion" was virtually at an end today in Cedar county.

Working under the protection of the guns of the state militia, veterinarians tested nine herds of cattle whose owners had resisted the state health regulations.

Lenker, who is president of the Iowa Farmers Protective association, was placed under arrest after state troops had marched to his farm today and found his cattle gone.

Troops of the 113th and the 168th infantry left for the farm before daybreak under the command of Col. Glenn C. Haynes. The guardsmen surrounded the farm and set up machine guns in the highways, stopping all traffic within a mile of the farm.

Lenker made no resistance. He was taken to "Camp Bovine" and placed in solitary confinement. He declared he had sold his cattle. He may be court-martialed.

Another owner had driven his cattle into another county which is across the road, but with the arrival of the military, he quickly drove them back again and they were tested at once.

Perrine Predicts Oil Will Recover First

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 24. (AP)—A prediction that the oil industry probably will be one of the first of the nation's major businesses to recover from the depression was made today by Irving Perrine, consulting geologist, before the 14th annual convention here of the National Association of Securities Commissioners.

Perrine in discussing creation of oil companies from the standpoint of the state commissioner who must pass on the safety of the ventures to investors, also said not enough attention is paid to the character of men behind oil promotions.

Lovett Waits Death In Chair Early Friday

M'ALESTER, Okla., Sept. 24. (AP)—His last hopes apparently dashed by Governor Murray's statement that he is "as sane as you or I" and "should be executed promptly on time," Henry Lovett waited silently tonight for death.

He was scheduled to die shortly after midnight in the electric chair for the murder of Dee Foliart, 28-year-old El Reno high school coach, during an attempted bank robbery the day before last Thanksgiving.

Lovett continued today to maintain the silence toward prison employes and visitors he had observed for two weeks.

Foliart, planning a trip home to his mother in Westboro, Mo., was shot to death after he had entered the First National bank at El Reno to cash a warrant.

CHARLIE ROAD FIRE
Two small buildings located on property owned by Mrs. W. C. Tyson, two miles out on the Charlie road, were destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon, according to fire officials. Damage was estimated at $250. One of the structures was a chicken house. Origin of the blaze was undetermined.

DEATH CLAIMS B. N. FERGUSON

and three daughters, Mrs. Frank Boyd of Wichita Falls; Mrs. Dan Hooks of Iowa Park, and Mrs. J. D. Mickie of Childress.

Native of Mississippi
Mr. Ferguson was born in Carol county, Mississippi, March 21, 1838, the son of Harvey and Lucindy Lee Ferguson. When he was 5 years of age, his mother died and he was taken in charge by his Grandmother Ferguson.

In the winter of 1849, when young Ben was approaching his 11th birthday, the Ferguson family sold its farm in Mississippi and moved to Drew county, Arkansas.

Arkansas was a new country then. But, even in recent years, despite his advancing years, Uncle Ben's memory reached back to the events of those days. All kinds of wild game abounded in the country, bear, panthers, wolves, wildcats, turkeys. It was no trouble to kill an abundance of game.

His father, upon moving to Arkansas, put up and operated the first grist mill, cotton gin and sawmill of that section of the country. The father married again in 1853. Ben was 15 years old then. He has described his stepmother as one of the best women he ever knew.

"She was a school ma'am," he said of her. "I loved her and I have loved all school ma'ams ever since."

The youth's father put Ben to work in the new Arkansas home. Mr. Ferguson, in describing those days in more recent years, said that he thought he knew more about the work than his father's several workers. "In fact," he said, "I thought I was running the whole thing. Father called me down one morning and I gave him a little slackjaw, and he gave me a good old fashioned thrashing."

Married in 1860
The thrashing, he has told, resulted in his running away from home. Tying up a suit of clothes and a few other articles, the boy left. He traveled about 20 miles, and went to work.

Reaching the point where he secured his first job, Mr. Ferguson wanted to hear from home, he said. He declared that he "figured everything at home would be going to the bad," and was surprised when finally he did hear, and learned that his father's business was running smoothely.

His first job was as overseer on a large farm.

In 1859, he formed a partnership with a man named Johnson and put in a dry goods and grocery store.

The store prospered, and in 1860, Jan. 22, he was married to Miss Susan E. Myers.

Believing he would have to go to war, Mr. Ferguson sold his interest in the store to his partner in 1862. He took a note to be paid at the end of the war, part in gold and a part in Confederate currency.

On May 12, 1862, he left his home, wife and baby son, and enlisted in Captain Wolf's company, Monroe's regiment of Cable's brigade.

In 1863, Mr. Ferguson's former business partner, Johnson, went to war. Johnson was killed in a battle in which Mr. Ferguson also participated.

The war ended. "We got licked, the negroes were freed, and it is best," the aged Iowa Park veteran said recently.

Moves to Texas
The war over, the young man came home. The Yankees had already been there. Anything of value had been destroyed. The young husband, his wife and child moved into the swamp, and went to work, without money and with few clothes.

On June 1, 1870, they left Drew county, Arkansas.

Their possessions were three horses, a wagon, harness and $632.

They had no place in view to go, but started west. They reached North Louisiana, and from there to East Texas. Finally they stopped at Waco, Texas, where they arrived July 4, after a month of traveling. Here they remained for five years.

Mr. Ferguson then went to Bell county and bought 100 acres of raw prairie land. After building a two-room home, in 1875, the family moved in.

The family prospered in Bell county, and more land was purchased. When Mrs. Ferguson's health began to fail, however, the land was sold and the family again moved, this time to Wichita county.

Moves to Wichita
It was on May 4, 1888, that he arrived at Burk Station, where Iowa Park now stands, and settled on three sections of land. The land was purchased for $4 per acre.

The farm now owned by the Ferguson family is an original purchase. Now, it is quiet and peaceful, little descriptive of that time, 43 years ago, when he settled there. Then it was bare prairie, thinly settled. Wichita Falls a few miles to the south was only a hamlet where the farmers and ranchers came to buy supplies.

Prices of land have increased. Tax rates have jumped. One of the changes which impressed Mr. Ferguson before his death was the difference in the amount of taxes. The total tax on his three sections of land when he purchased them was only $92.

When Mr. Ferguson first came to Wichita county, wild game filled the country. Since, the antelope, wild turkey, prairie chicken, plover and quail have vanished.

The first school of the little community was held in a room in the Ferguson home now used as a bedroom.

He was a charter member of the Iowa Park Masonic lodge, and was one of the oldest Shriners in Texas. He became a Mason in December, 1891. He progressed through the lodges of Masonry until, in May, 1924, he became a Shriner. He was a member of Maskat Shrine temple, Wichita Falls.

Until his death, Mr. Ferguson was known widely in this section, not only for his many years as a citizen of Wichita county, but also for his remarkable vitality for one of his years, his mental alertness and keen wit. His memory of the events of his life was always bright and clear, recalling to his mind happenings of early childhood with a vividness of yesterday.

Fifty-five people have been killed and 10,794 injured in Hollywood studios during the past five and a half years.

Investigations of Officers Show Negro Here on Night of Slaying

Richard Brown, young negro now held in Tarrant county jail under a charge of murder in connection with the death of Ted Nodruft about two weeks ago, went to Gainesville shortly after the offense and returned to Wichita Falls last Friday, according to information obtained by Assistant District Attorney Mike Anglin in Gainesville Thursday.

Mr. Anglin's investigation in Gainesville was designed to check statements allegedly made by Brown in a confession last Saturday relative to his trips to Gainesville and return. Information obtained Thursday, Mr. Anglin said, provided ample corroboration of the negro's statement.

Shortly after his arrest, it was said, Brown declared to officers that he had just arrived from Gainesville when apprehended, and denied having been in Wichita Falls at the time that Nodurft was shot and his fiance attacked. Later, according to local officers, he confessed a part in the robbery and assault, and stated that he went to Gainesville on the following day.

WICHITANS SEE GRAHAM FAIR

Referee in Bankruptcy Hears Archer Petitions

Examination of the affairs of W. L. Andrews, partner in the defunct People's Exchange bank of Archer City, was begun before Judge Walter Nelson, federal referee in bankruptcy, in the 89th district courtroom here Thursday.

Individual bankruptcy hearings for most of the other partners in the bank were held here several weeks ago. Judge A. H. Carrigan of this city was appointed receiver for the bank and its partners.

Young County Jury To Reconvene Friday

Sam B. Spence, district attorney, will return to Graham Friday morning, he announced Thursday, to be present for the final session of the Young county grand jury for this term of court before Judge Allan D. Montgomery for the 30th district.

The jury will be reconvened by Judge Montgomery Friday morning. Mr. Spence was in Graham during the first three days of this week as prosecutor in a number of criminal cases.

Waits for Wife on Wrong Corner; Goes to Hospital

PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 24. (UP)—When Gerald Hines gets mad, he is mad.

Hines, 30, had a date to meet his wife on a street corner. He arrived. He waited. He became peeved. He got mad. Finally his rage overpowered him and he smashed his fist through a nearby store window.

He was taken to the hospital and treated for cuts.

Meanwhile Mrs. Hines had been standing on a nearby corner waiting for her husband. He had been on the wrong corner.

Prunes High In Food Value

the process. When done, they should be moderately sweetened and allowed to stand at least 24 hours before serving. They will then be plump and well seasoned to the center. Prunes of the cheapest grades are often little but skin and stone, and even careful cooking will not make them attractive. Hence, it pays to buy prunes of good quality. The addition of a few slices of lemon while cooking gives a pleasant change of flavor. Prunes keep well, and there are many uses for them. Prune whip or prune souffle, made of sifted pulp and egg whites, is attractive and wholesome dessert. The juice may be stiffened with gelatin and served as prune jelly. Prunes and brown bread may be baked with milk and eggs like a plain bread pudding. A prune pie may be made with two crusts and a filling of prune pulp thickened with a little cornstarch. Soaked prunes may be cooked until tender, cooled, pitted and stuffed with nuts, cream cheese or celery and served as a confection or in a salad.

The following recipes are recommended for variety.

Prune Delight
One cupful dried prunes.
One cupful sugar.
Four eggs.
One-fourth teaspoonful salt.
One-fourth cupful sugar.
One-half teaspoonful lemon extract.
One-half cupful browned almonds.
Three cupfuls milk.
Three cupfuls cold water.

Soak the prunes overnight in the cold water. Then simmer slowly until the prunes are very soft. Discard the pits and rub the prunes through a coarse strainer. Meanwhile melt the one cupful of sugar in a frying pan until carmel in color. Pour one-half of it into the mold in which the custard is to be baked and the other half on a greased pan to harden. To the prune pulp add the milk and bring to the scalding point. Beat the eggs slightup, add one-fourth cupful sugar, the salt, lemon extract and the hot milk and prune mixture, adding the latter a little at a time while stirring constantly. Pour into the mould, place in a pan of warm water and bake at 325 degrees Fahrenheit for one and a quarter hours or until firm when tested with a silver knife. Cool the custard slightly and turn out on a serving dish. Meanwhile remove the hardened carmel from the pan and together with the browned almonds, crush very fine. Sprinkle over the custard and serve either hot or cold. Serves six.

Prune Jellied in Grape Juice
Two tablespoons granulated gelatin.
Four tablespoons cold water.
One cup boiling prune juice.
One-half cup grapejuice.
Three tablespoons lemon juice.
One-half cup sugar.
One cup seeded prunes.

Soak the gelatin in cold water for five minutes. Add the boiling juice and stir until gelatin has dissolved. Add the lemon juice and prunes. Mix well and add the grape juice. Pour into a mould which has been rinsed out of cold water. Set in a gold place, unmould and serve with plain, whipped or ice cream, or custard sauce. Serves eight.

Prune Pudding
One cupful cooked prunes, seeded and chopped.
Three-fourths cupful sugar.
One cupful chopped nuts.
One-half cupful milk.
One teaspoonful vanilla.
One tablespoonful butter, melted.
Three crackers, (one-half cupful) rolled fine.
One tablespoonful baking powder.
Sprinkle of salt.

Mix all the ingredients. Pour into a buttered baking dish. Place the baking dish in a pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven for 20 minutes or until the mixture is firm. Serve hot with plain or whipped cream.

Prune Pie
Cook one and one-half cupful prune pulp, one and one-half tablespoonfuls lemon juice and sugar to taste, (about one-third cup sugar), to the consistency of marmalade. Beat an egg to which a speck of salt has been added, until light. Combine with marmalade, place in an uncooked pastry shell and bake. Serve with whipped cream. Two egg yolks may be used instead of one whole egg in the filling, and a meringue made of the whites, if desired. One-third cupful pineapple juice or a sweet pickle syrup may be added to the prune pulp, lemon juice and sugar, if desired for additional flavor. Shredded cocoanut is a pleasing addition. It should be sprinkled over the top before baking. Serves five.

Stuffed Prunes
Soak large and perfect prunes in cold water to cover overnight. Steam until they are tender, cool, take out the stones and fill the open space with a mixture of chopped dates, figs and candied fruit. Press the prunes into symmetrical shape and roll in fine graduated sugar. Let stand several days before serving.

Prune Whip
Prepare one cupful of prune pulp (cooked). Beat three egg whites until blended. Fold the fruit pulp mixed with a little lemon juice into the egg whites. Chill and serve with custard sauce or pour into a greased baking dish and bake at 300 degrees Fahrenheit for 30 minutes.

Cinnamon Prunes
One pound prunes.
Two slices lemon or orange.
Three-inch stick cinnamon.
Cold water.

Wash the prunes carefully, cover with cold water and soak overnight. Add the cinnamon and slices of lemon or orange. Cook slowly in a covered utensil until tender. If cooked very slowly no sugar will be needed. Serves six.

Prune and Pineapple Salad
Steam large prunes, extract stones and divide in quarters lengthwise. Arrange on slices of pineapple radiating from the center. Place mayonnaise or boiled dressing in the center, top with a halved maraschino cherry. Serve on crisp lettuce.

The sales army's total number of subscriptions for the four days' campaign was reported at 1,080, with a total amount of $11,539.35 pledged.

The remainder of the $61,964.38 was obtained by the following groups of workers: Group solicitation committee, $15,577.21; special gifts committee, $24,047.50; and the multiple units committee $1,485.

When reports of the various divisions indicated Thursday night that the 1931 campaign was successfully culminated, Walter D. Cline heralded the fact with a pronouncement of the policy which he declared will be followed in use of the chest fund for charity during the ensuing year.

Cline Gives Policies
"This information is given particularly in the hope that our newspapers will broadcast it to the public in far-reaching circles," Mr. Cline said. "Word that Wichita Falls has gone over the top again will go out, and will be observed. There are probably many transients who at once will begin making their plans to board in Wichita Falls this winter on chest funds. It is to that sort of folks that we want to say right now: there will be no permanent boarders entertained in this city next winter by the community chest agencies.

"The city manager, the county judge, and the heads of these relief organizations have been in a huddle. They all are definitely agreed that every penny of this money which has been pledged by our citizens will be used to help deserving folks whom we rightly regard as citizens of this city. We are going to keep very strict records. Written applications will have to be made to obtain help from the family relief association. Those applications are going to be investigated with the utmost thoroughness. Folks who regard the raising of this budget as a sign of easy living for them in Wichita Falls during the winter are just barking up the wrong tree; this money will be used for bona fide residents of our own community."

Preparation for the campaign was begun about a month ago under the leadership of C. E. Basham, president of the board of directors, and Mr. Cline, chairman of the budget committee during the past year. With the arrival of Linden E. Brooks and Frank Jaynes of the American Cities bureau about three weeks ago, definite organization of the campaign army was started. Mr. Jaynes delivered a series of about 50 addresses before many local gatherings, discussing relief work throughout the country and Mr. Brooks acted as organization director in conjunction with Mr. Cline.

At a board of directors meeting held Thursday night following the army dinner, P. B. Flynn was unanimously elected a member of that body, and was complimented by Mr. Cline and Mr. Brooks for his services in the campaign this week.

MAJESTIC: Nancy Carroll in "Personal Maid," with Pat O'Brien and Gene Raymond. Our Gang comedy, Mickey Mouse cartoon and Paramount news.

STATE: Warner Oland in "Daughter of the Dragon," with Anna May Wong and Sessue Hayakawa. Novelty, comedy, cartoon and news reel.

GEM: Hoot Gibson in "Wild Horse" and chapter 10 of "Heroes of the Flames." Paramount screen song.

I sat entranced when Anna May Wong played and sang to her lover Wednesday evening in "Daughter of the Dragon." Music of instrument and voice was so sweet and throaty; so different from what I had thought Chinese music was. Then I learned Thursday that it was not Chinese music just wooing, mystic oriental music. There are only five notes in the Chinese scale.

As the beautiful daughter of Fu Manchu expressed abysmal passions so that one could feel them, yet wore the delicacy of a piece of porcelain, I imagined I would like to see her in a native play.

She went to England (where she gained fame) hoping that she would be featured in plays where she did not die. I wonder if she was. She and her lover—her native lover—died again at the State, and will keep on portraying death, revenge to the last breath and love to the last death even when love has meted out justice. Both Sessue Hayakawa and Anna May Wong are equal to their parts; the former so tense and so honest, the latter so intense and so beautiful. And Warner Oland was as usual, equal to his part.

I learned a lot about Chinese theaters. That minstrels always sing on the stage, sing in high nasal tones, sing songs that have nothing to do with the play, which, as a piece of history, the audience knows by heart. That Chinese sets are changed by coolies who wear masks so the audience will not "see" them; no curtain falls. In Japan, they have revolving stages and simply turn to the next set.

Men sit on one side and women on the other; if you have an escort, you may not sit with him. Before your seat, there is a small shelf and melon seed, candied orange rind and other dainties are passed; then down each row comes a bath towel moistened with cologne water so that each row may clean their sweetened fingers. Better system than popcorn.

Theater Gives $25 For Solution Of Mystery Serial

When $25 is given away in these days of a decreasing depression, it sounds like money. And $25 is to be given away at the end of some 10 weeks at the State theater.

A new serial, "The Vanishing Legion," is being run at the State theater in the Thursday, Friday and Saturday matinees. The first installment began this week and left the audience gasping at the moment when it seemed the end of the world had come for that side of the fighters for whom sympathy was felt.

For 10 weeks, hazardous perils will be encountered by the small boy who is such a good actor in the play, by his father, who trusts no man, by the black horse which, we suppose, will kill a man in every serial, and every one will be gasping with excitement to know how it is going to turn out.

The week before the serial is finished, letters giving the writer's idea of the solution must be sent the manager of the States theater and the writer of the best solution will win $25.

The story of the preceding chapters will be outlined each week; but those who watch the unfolding of the plot will be best able to guess at the solution.

Conine died 20 minutes after reaching the hospital.

J. F. Frazier, 30, school bus driver, who roomed at the Conine home, said that when he went into the bath room he saw Conine sitting on a bed cleaning his pistol. He had been in the bathroom about five minutes when a shot rang out, he said.

TAX MEETING HERE FRIDAY

'Nothing Barred But Profanity,' Says Committee

"Profanity will be the only thing barred" in the open discussion of community affairs at the "taxation" meeting of the chamber of commerce business council Friday noon at the Kemp hotel, it was announced Thursday.

The program will be in charge of the taxation committee of the chamber of commerce, which has taken the task of working out a solution to the city's and county's financial and tax problems. At a meeting of the committee recently the decision was reached that a more economical system of tax assessment here is imperative.

The general public is invited to attend the luncheon. Those attending the program are requested to speak their views, it was said, in order that a mass of ideas may be accumulated toward effecting a change in the unsatisfactory condition of taxes and public finance.

Preceding the opening of the meeting to general discussion, brief talks will be made by V. R. Smitham, city manager; Judge John P. Marrs, county judge; and W. W. Brown, secretary of the school board. Each speaker will discuss the financial condition of the public branch with which he is connected.

The response to notices indicated Thursday that an exceptionally satisfactory attendance will be had Friday, according to J. S. Hargett, council chairman.

OFFICES MOVED

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, Sept. 24. (AP)—General offices of Gimy Campbell and Howard Rosenblum company, shippers of onions, have been moved from Laredo to Corpus Christi, L. V. Stewart, manager, announced that warehouses and offices would be constructed near the Missouri Pacific tracks. The company handles about 75 per cent of the onions produced in Southwest Texas. Branch warehouses will be erected at Robstown, Bishop, Driscoll, Odem, Sinton and Taft.

City Officials to Attend Utility Rate Conference at Fort Worth

V. R. Smitham, city manager, and Mayor Walter Nelson Jr., will go to Fort Worth early Friday to attend a meeting of the Texas League of Municipalities to be held at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The meeting has been called to formulate recommendations to the state railroad commission relative to the use of $93,000 appropriated by the legislature early this summer for the investigation of utilities rates in this state.

More than 200 Texas cities are expected to have representatives at the Fort Worth meeting. Immediate investigation of gas companies' wholesale and retail rates probably will be asked, it was indicated, in view of a state-wide fight now being made for lower domestic rates on that commodity.

Mr. Nelson has attended meetings of the league held earlier this year, and procedure of the local city council in its fight for lower gas rates here has adhered closely to plans approved by the state league of municipalities.

Canyon Farm Agent To Judge Exhibits

Upchurch is one of the most successful exhibitors in Texas, having won first place at the Amarillo Tri-State fair five times out of the last seven years. Last year his exhibit brought first place to Randall county in the contest at the Dallas state fair.
