Mother Of Slain Youth Testifies To Climax Trial

State Plays Its Strongest Card When Mrs. Walton Takes Stand To Tell Of Events Before Shooting

Hamilton Recalled

Defendant Denies Rebuttal Testimony Presented By State; Arguments Are To Begin This Morning

(By Associated Press)

WEATHERFORD, Tex., Nov. 5.—Dramatically and almost theatrically the H. H. Hamilton murder trial today approached a jury verdict, the defendant and the mother of the 21 year old man he slew closing the cases for the defense and state. Arguments are to begin tomorrow.

Less than two hours after Mrs. Grace Walton, clad in black, had told of her last few minutes with her son, Tom Walton, Jr., Hamilton testified for the second time, denying Mrs. Walton's testimony.

Mrs. Walton Called

The state in rebuttal, after assailing the stories of the defendant and two defense witnesses played its strongest card. It called Mrs. Walton as its closing witness. District Attorney Edward Tomerson held her hand under Mrs. Walton's elbow, helped her to the witness stand. The space inside the railing was so crowded by attorneys and managers that she had to walk directly in front of the jury, her dress touching those in the front row.

Mrs. Walton said that the morning of the killing her son came to the Tourist Inn at Amarillo where she was manager and placed a telephone call to a woman who she said scarcely could be heard despite the extra-quietness of the court room.

Spirit Dressed In Cheese Cloth

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5. (AP)—Milwaukee has a "spook school."

For from 10 cents to $1 a lesson, according to civil court testimony today one could take courses in "trumpetry," "materialization," and soon graduate as a "trans medium," capable of communicating with the spirit world. Three of the 15 students enrolled were dissatisfied and wanted their "tuition" back.

Fred Ingersoll, 47, a millwright, said he paid Mrs. Katherine Meander $75.00 to teach him to become a medium. After a year of lessons he could not produce spirits and he believed the thing was a fake.

He became suspicious of the school, he said, when one night he saw a "spirit" that didn't look filmy enough to be genuine. He pounced on the "spirit form" and retrieved its dress—cheese cloth.

Expansion Plans Laid By Country Club Directorate

Additional Buildings Will Be Constructed And Golf Course Improved Under New Elaborate Program

To Increase Stock

One Hundred New Members To Be Added To Present List, Stockholders Say In Meeting Tuesday

IN ORDER to keep step with the very rapid growth of the city, and to keep pace with prospective growth, stockholders of the Lubbock Country club at a meeting held last night, discussed elaborate plans for expansion and decided to construct additional buildings, improve its golf course, landscape its grounds, increase its capital stock to $60,000 and to secure 100 more members.

The meeting was the most enthusiastic and best represented ever in the history of the organization. Eighty per cent of the stock was represented either in person or by proxy.

Plan Club House

A new club house is to be built, dressing rooms are to be erected at the swimming pool, a custodian's quarters added and a bridge will be placed across the lake in front of the club house. Improvements to the club's 18-hole golf course are to be made with the end in view of making this course inviting to the holders of inter-sectional tournaments.

Landscape will be done to the area surrounding the club house. This will include driveways and approaches to the bridge that is to span the lake, which is the largest body of water in Lubbock county.

Idealistic Sight

The country club site is idealistic and long recognized as one of the best spots of all West Texas. It is located a proper distance from the city.

Democrats Take Lead In New York And Virginia Elections

Winners In Heated Elections

Jimmy Walker Is Conceded Win By Heavy Plurality

Pollard Has Three To One Lead Over His Republican Anti-Smith Opponent In Virginia Gov. Race.

(By Associated Press)

SMASHING Democratic victories in Tuesday's elections were recorded in Virginia and New York City with a repulse in Kentucky of the Republican offensive to obtain control of the state legislature.

In addition the Democrats made a net gain of five mayors in other New York cities; elected a mayor of Indianapolis, were leading in the Boston mayoralty contest and had a number of their candidates for municipal offices in Chicago in the lead.

Republican Leading

The Republicans saw their candidate in the only congressional election, that in the Twenty-first, (Manhattan) New York district, running far ahead of his Democratic and socialist opponents on the face of early returns and also re-elected a Republican mayor of Louisville by an unprecedented majority.

The anti-Smith Democratic Republican coalition challenge to the Democratic organization in Virginia was answered by a landslide for John Garland Pollard, gubernatorial candidate of the regulars, with almost half of the state still to be heard from at midnight. Pollard's majority had mounted to more than 40,000.

Hopeful of retaining the bulk of the advantage gained in the presidential election last November the Republican leaders both state and

James J. "Jimmie" Walker again proved the favorite of New York voters in the mayoralty race yesterday, piling up a commanding lead over his opponents.

Five Keep Polls For Lone Voter

NEW YORK, Nov. 5. (AP)—The solitary voter of the 38th election precinct of the 10th assembly district, for which four election clerks and a policeman had to keep the polls open 12 hours today, is a Democrat.

When the vote of the lone resident, George Schrader, was reported to police headquarters, it disclosed that he not only voted for Mayor James J. Walker, but had voted a straight Democratic ticket. He also cast a ballot in favor of increased pay for policemen and firemen.

Schrader did not vote until late in the afternoon, although early in the morning he walked to the polling place and peered in. Even after he had cast his ballot, the election board was required by law to keep the polling place open until the official closing time at 6 p. m.

Mullican Renders Decision Soon As Testimony Closes

Motion Overruled After 23 Witnesses Are Called In Attempt To Move Trial From Lubbock County

Trial Comes Today

Case Becoming Interesting To Defendant, Held For Slaying Of Wife; Special Verdict Is Called

"THIS case is becoming interesting,"

Such were the words late yesterday of Clay Lester, charged with the murder of his wife, as he reached eagerly for a proffered paper through the bars of his cell in the Lubbock county jail.

His arms extended the front page from his eyes, and he hastily scanned the account of the change of venue hearing Tuesday in 99th district court.

Motion Overruled

Judge Clark M. Mullican overruled the motion for change of venue in Lester's trial yesterday afternoon. His decision was announced one minute after the final witness had testified for the state.

The state used 11 witnesses while the defense used 13.

"I'm really enjoying the court proceedings," he told a reporter. "And another thing—like the way you fellows are writing it up. I think you are fair to both sides."

Scheduled to be brought to trial today, Lester seemed collected last night.

Has No Fear

"Why, I have no fear," he said. "I know that I will some day be a free man."

"I have only one worry," he continued. "I will be restless over thinking of my 10-year-old son."

Growth Shown By Poultry Raising On South Plains

Giant Strides Made Over Section During Past Few Years, Survey Reveals; Turkey Season Opened

The poultry raising industry has had one of the most remarkable growths on the South Plains of Texas at any point in the entire country, according to an unofficial survey made yesterday.

Only a few years ago, one could ride across the level prairies of the Plains and never see a chicken or turkey. Now that condition has undergone a change and with the advent of the turkey season today Lubbock poultry houses are expected to handle more this year than ever before.

Several years ago, one major packing plant was located at Abilene but it was soon found that farmers of the Plains were raising more poultry than they could consume at home. At plant was located at Lubbock to handle the surplus. As first the poultry was shipped live to abilene and later, as the volume grew, a killing plant was located here to dress and ship the birds out in refrigerated cars for eastern markets.

Two other poultry plants have since made headquarters in this city.

Years ago, when the first plant

South American At Tech Tells Of Volcano Action

"It would be impossible to draw a word picture of Santa Maria in its eruptive state. It is a wonderful sight and yet it is terrible."

Thus Albert Melendez, a student of Texas Technological college, last night explained the destructive force which towers but two miles from his native home, Quetzal Tenango, Guatemala.

Viewed In Action

"The volcano Santa Maria? Why yes, I have seen it in action though I cannot describe the sight with words."

"It was back in 1917, when I was but a child and I can still remember the horror with which my people viewed the destructive monster which moved down the mountainside toward them."

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Hoping to be the first to fly around the world by airplane, west to east, the four Russian aviators who last Saturday completed a 12,500 mile flight from Moscow to New York, have wired the Russian ministry for permission to fly across the Atlantic.

If the permission is granted, the Russians hope to hop from Harbor Grace, New Foundland, to England in their plane, "Land of the Soviets" within three weeks.

Two Steps Planned

Their plan stops in England and France before returning to Moscow to complete the world flight in a heavier than air machine following closely over the route that the Graf Zeppelin took last summer. The U. S. army fliers were first to fly by airplane round the world but their route lay into the setting sun.

The Russians' flight here from Moscow required 70 days but they were delayed frequently by adverse weather conditions and once were halted nine days by motor trouble.

Mead Resigns As Prison Official

General Manager Of Texas Prison System Blames Money Shortage; Board Accepts Resignation

HOUSTON, Nov. 5. (AP)—Weary of what he termed the "pernicious attitude of some of those who should be helping," and disappointed at the money shortage in the Texas prison system, W. H. Mead resigned today as its general manager.

Accepting the resignation with "regret" the prison board named successor, Chairman W. A. Paddock said. He reiterated late today that he could not say who was under consideration for the post. It was reported unofficially that Joe Simmons, of Sherman, a member of the board, might be selected.

Accepts New Post

After the board meeting, Mr. Mead said that he had accepted a position as engineer manager of the Salt Flat Water company, a concern organized to dispose of salt water in the Salt Flat Oil field, with headquarters here.

Opening his letter of resignation with an offer to remain on the job "in order to assist my successor to familiarize himself with the work provided the board so desires," Mr. Mead took a sharp fling at "politics" in connection with his office.

"My contacts," he said, "with the political phase of this position during the current year have convinced me that my further service here would be under excessive handicaps, and the pernicious attitude of some of those who should be helping confirm this belief."

Senator Brookhart Gives Eye-Witness Account Of "Wall Street Booze Parties" To Attentive Senate

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Senator Brookhart, Iowa, thrust his heralded expose of "Wall Street booze parties" before a recently attentive senate today in an atmosphere here with suspense generated by the recurring furor over drinking among the nation's lawmakers.

His eye witness account of a dinner held for some republican senators in the Willard hotel three years ago occupied more than an hour. Through in the galleries the legislative guests to be revealed were disappointed, however. The Iowa mentioned none of his colleagues as having imbibed from the "beautiful silver flask" which were the dinner favors.

Senators Not Charged

The only word he gave about any senator's use or non-use of the attractive containers of "booze" was that Senator Brock of Utah and the late

Senator Brookhart

Senator Gooding of Idaho had not availed themselves of the refreshment.

"As to whether the other boys did, they can answer for themselves," Brookhart told the tense senate. He named Walter J. Fahy, New York broker, as the dinner host.

Condemns Alcohol

While the Iowa condemned alcohol in a high pitched voice as an "evil" and "poison" and in fast words told his story of Washington liquor parties and prohibition enforcement in general, another mid-western prohibitionist—Senator Howell of Nebraska—was busy preparing an address on his research into lawlessness in the capital.

Up in the gallery sat Judge William S. Kenyon, a member of President Hoover's law enforcement commission, and beside him there was Senator Morris

He said it was his opinion that both Griffin's brain and spinal cord were affected, and that he suffered a partial paralysis of the lower part of the body.

A Dr. Johns, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist of Dallas, formerly a general practitioner, testified he had treated Griffin for such an organic trouble as described by Dr. Schwenkensberg more than a decade ago.

As soon as possible Mr. Horne hopes to add another series of Journalism classes to the curricula. The new class will study feature writing during the winter term, and copy reading during the spring term. In time, enough courses may be added so a student can secure a bachelor of Journalism degree from the college.

How to Achieve Beauty

BY MISS HELENA RUBINSTEIN

It is far more interesting to take one's exercise through rhythmic dancing than through set exercises, for one can then develop grace as well as strength. It is also much more beneficial to feminine bodies, which are so much more delicate than the masculine physiques. The complex Swedish exercises are much too heavy for women.

The rhythmic school of dancing was founded many years ago and must appeal to the imagination of a great many women and children. For it has flourished amazingly and developed innumerable disciples who go about the country spreading the teachings of their first leader.

Dancing is taught through word pictures, after some few simple exercises have been mastered. The pupil imagines that she is a dainty girl sailing the sea, and with an airy, stiletto-like step to her waist, she swings and sways to soft music very much as the sail does in the light summer zephyrs. Often the teacher will ask her pupils to listen to a bit of music and then tell them to dance and to interpret what the music means to them. This is when they are more advanced and are ready for improvisation.

It is very difficult for the average woman to bring a pianist into her own home, while she learns to transform the music into the dance. But the fundamental calisthenics are

Wife Of Convict Condemns Self To Life Imprisonment After Her Husband Is Condemned On Charges Of Murder

Woman To Join Mate On Devil's Island Following Trial

BY MINOTT SAUNDERS
NEA Service Writer

PARIS, Nov. 5.—Although it now means for her a life of desolation and hardship, "until death do us part" is the marital vow which Mme. Charles Mestorino, wife of a former Paris jeweler, is resolved to keep. She is preparing to join her husband, condemned murderer, on Devil's Island, French Guiana, where he must toil away the remainder of his days.

Mestorino was sentenced to life imprisonment for killing a fellow jeweler, Gaston Trupheme, in March, 1928. He committed the crime in his well appointed office, burned the body with gasoline and abandoned it in a ditch. The horror of the crime caused a sensation and the long trial was full of dramatic incidents.

Murderer for Debt. The prosecution was able to prove that Mestorino owed Trupheme a considerable sum of money and the motive of his crime was to clear himself and continue to live in the comfort which he and his wife enjoyed.

Mestorino tried to mitigate his act by laying it to jealousy over a love affair with his wife's younger sister, Mile. Charnaux. He hoped to get a light sentence on the plea of "crime of passion," which so often moves French juries to leniency. Mme. Mestorino dramatically forgave her sister and declared that she would take back her husband when he was free.

The police, however, were able to prove to the satisfaction of the jury that this aspect of the defense was all a frameup, and that both women had gone to this extreme to save the prisoner.

Mestorino escaped the guillotine, but was sentenced to life imprisonment, which in France means manual labor in Devil's Island.

Wife To Share Hardships.

When the jury's verdict was heard, Mme. Mestorino, who had been a conspicuous figure in the court room, openly vowed that she would follow her husband to French Guiana and share his sufferings. Among other hardened criminals, he is now on his way to Devil's Island in a convict ship and his wife, who is pretty and attractive, is preparing to follow him.

Husband and wife must live in separate colonies on the island. They will see very little, if anything, of each other, but if Mestorino's behavior is exemplary during the next 15 or 20 years they may then be allowed to live together.

Questions Likely To Arise During Parley Discussed

Ambassador Dawes, Hoover And Stimson Talk Over Problems Preparatory To Naval Conference

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Questions likely to arise at the approaching naval disarmament conference in London were discussed by Ambassador Dawes, President Hoover and Secretary Stimson today.

The ambassador, Mrs. Dawes and their daughter, Mrs. Carolyn Ericson, will be guests at the White House until leaving Thursday night to embark on the Homerick for London.

While no official information was given regarding the conversations, it was indicated that the president took advantage of his first visit with General Dawes since Prime Minister MacDonald was in the United States to assess the progress made in the naval negotiations and to discuss probable additions to the American delegation to London.

The president is expected to name two more delegates to the delegation for which he has already selected Mr. Dawes, Secretary Stimson, and Senators Reed of Pennsylvania and Robinson of Arkansas.

The ambassador was expected to be informed during his stay at the White House about the president's Armistice Day speech Monday night. It has been indicated that Mr. Hoover will deal primarily with foreign affairs and will outline the relationship of the United States to efforts for world peace through reduction of armaments and friendly understanding.

Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Munger and son, Henry, are in Hillsboro this week attending the Central Texas Methodist conference of which Rev. Munger is a former member. He will preach at both services at the First Methodist church Sunday returning to Lubbock late Saturday.

Mrs. Tom Foster has returned to her home, 1708 10th street after visiting for ten days in Dallas.

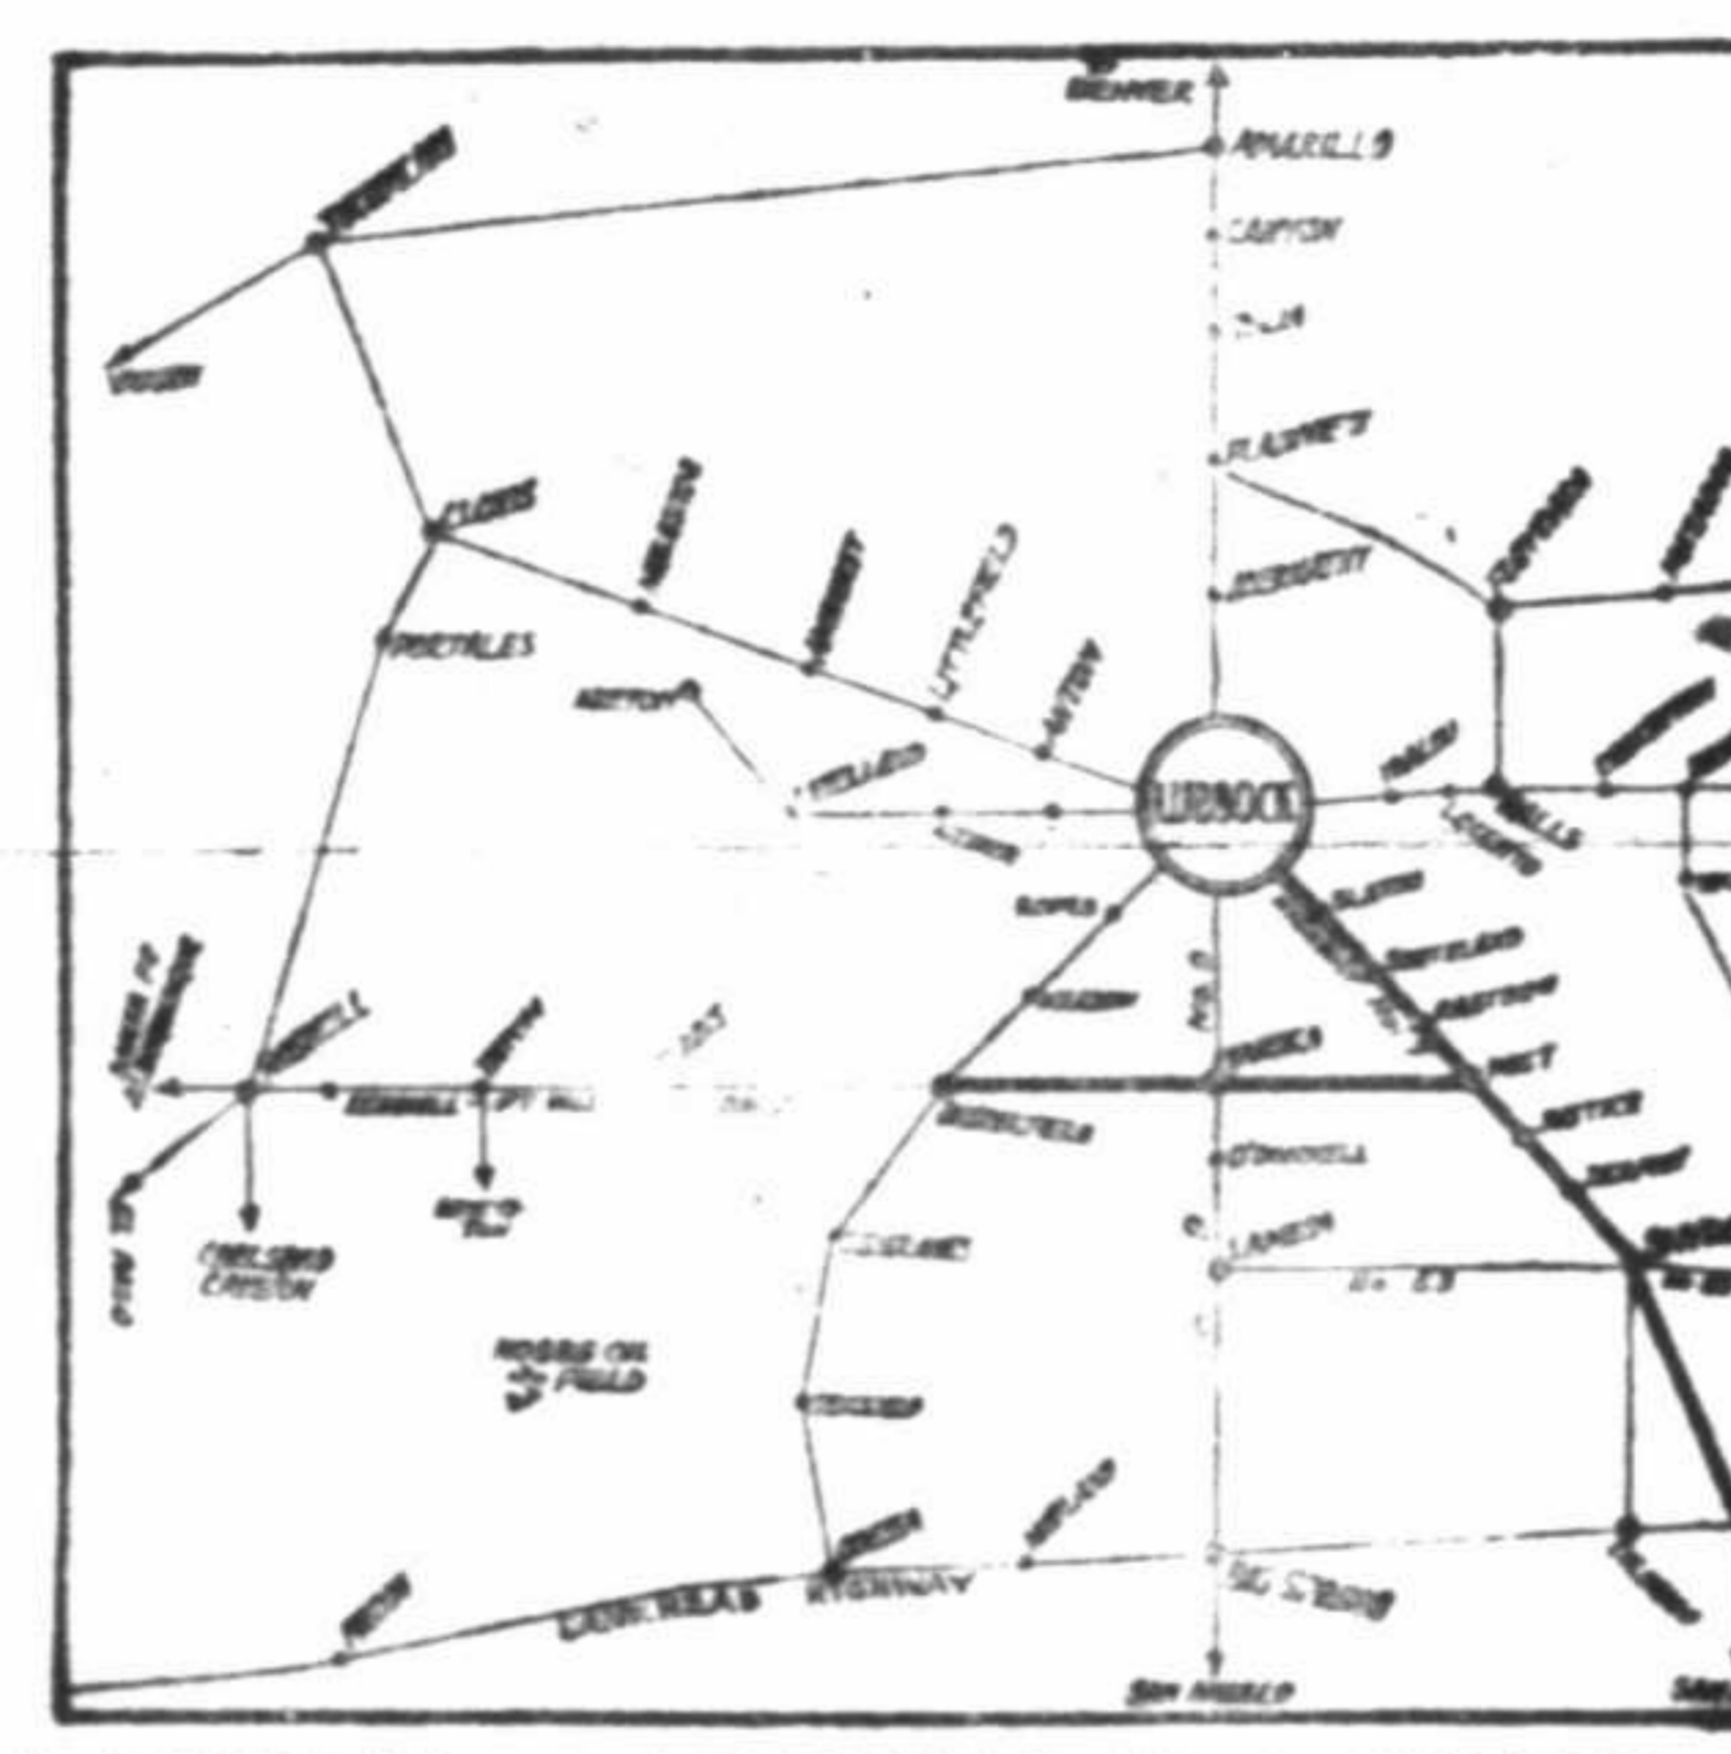

worthy of some consideration, as they can be done in one's own boudoir.

One very good one is done in the following manner: Dressed in a bathing suit, or some scanty costume, you lie on the floor relaxed. Then, pressing the palms of your hands down on the floor, you raise your body with only the tips of your toes and the palms of your hands for support. You will find that two or three of these movements will exhaust you at first. Then turn on your back, relax for a moment. When you feel rested, raise your legs and stretch, imitating the movements of bicycling. Ten movements such as these are supposed to have the same effect on your muscles as your initial attempt to ride horses back.

Mme. Charles Mestorino and her husband are pictured above as they appeared on the stand at his trial for murder. Below you see the embarkation of prisoners for Devil's Island, from which few ever will return.

Wheat Prices Off Due To Congestion In Domestic Ports

Indifference Of Foreign Buyers Helps To Soften Values; Market Is Not Affected By Stocks

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Congestion of wheat in domestic ports and the continued indifference of foreign buyers softened prices in the wheat pit today.

Going its own way without the guidance of the stock market, the trade in wheat was dull and heavy throughout the day. Opening around 2c a bushel lower than yesterday, wheat drifted downward to end 2 3/4 to 3 3/8 below Monday's finish. The close was: December wheat $1.21 3/8 to 1-2; March $1.23 5/8 to 3-4; May $1.31 7/8 to $1.32.

Nine Cents Off

The day's lowest prices were about nine cents a bushel less than the top price of last week. Despite the declines of yesterday and today, wheat values seemed still unattractive to the continental market. Stocks of wheat at Minneapolis gained 75,000 bushels for three days, and at Galveston there was still a considerable quantity of wheat on tracks awaiting port storage or shipment.

The WOMAN'S DAY

Now that the situation on the stock market has calmed down a little and the bank book, though deadlocked, is at least balanced, one can look about and see what really happened.

And we find that the slump in stocks was reflected by a slump in the matrimonial market. Comparing the number of marriage licenses issued this year with last, the New York City hall found that stock was down 84 points—that is, 2,954 licenses were issued during this October as compared to 3,038 last year.

Here is another evidence of the power of Wall Street! It can command even Romance.

Certainly the last week in October, was not conducive to added responsibilities and there is no way of checking up on just how many young people, who were playing the market with the idea of getting money for a home, decided to wait until another next-egg could be hatched.

On the subject of marriage—a pleasant subject upon which to write as there is much to quote—dear old England is not so merry over the way her 30-year-old daughters are picking on young boys for husbands instead of seniors.

Checking up on the 30-year-olds, the London Daily Herald notes that of last year 21 of them married youths of 20, while one went the rest better and married a youngster of 13, and it seems a woman of 25 wedded a boy of 19. And once they went in to the matter, they found more grief—a woman of 51 married a man of 24, one of 63 married a man of 24.

Then it appears that the older the women grew, the more the desire for youth manifested itself. I quote: "Women of 70 and upwards married men of 35, 37, 40, 44 and 48."

However, when all the horrible facts were collected, and the averages made it was found that the greatest number of women—30,064—married at the age of 33. And the statistician felt better.

McCulloch Named New Ohio Senator

Canton Man Appointed by Governor Cooper To Fill Vacancy Caused By The Death Of T. E. Burton

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 5.—Governor Cooper today appointed George C. McCulloch, Canton, as United States senator from Ohio to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Theodore E. Burton, a week ago.

The governor pointed out that McCulloch's three terms as representative in congress from the Canton district and his work in public offices in Ohio had fitted him to take over the unfinished work of Senator Burton.

McCulloch's appointment is for a period of one year.

Antiseptic Remedy Corrects Fermented Condition

If you can not eat what you like, if you have to avoid certain foods because they disagree with you, your trouble is no doubt due to fermentation (souring of food)—a condition that can be quickly corrected if proper methods are used.

The use of soda, magnesia, dyspepsia tablets, laxatives and common patent medicines require continual dosing and at best can furnish only temporary relief.

QUALITY so fine that half the world doesn't realize that Buick is priced so low!

It is an impressive fact that men and women are buying from two to five times as many new Buicks as any other car priced above $1200.

Moreover, during August and September, Buick monopolized its market to such a degree that it won 41% of the total sales of the 15 makes of cars in its price class.

And yet this marked preference for Buick would be still greater if all motorists realized that they can buy six of the fourteen luxurious Buick body types for less than $1300, f. o. b. factory.

These are Buicks through and through, embodying the full array of Buick quality features: Buick's new and surpassingly beautiful Bodies by Fisher; the famous Buick Valve-in-Head engine—most powerful engine of its size in the world; Buick's new Controlled Servo Enclosed Mechanical Brakes; the new Buick steering gear; new Road Shock Eliminator; and Buick's new, longer rear springs with Lovejoy Duo-Draulic Shock Absorbers.

The new Buick, with these features, will introduce you to new and unequalled performance, driving ease, riding comfort and reliability on any day you put it to the test. And yet these six Buick models are offered at the price of cars which motorists never think of comparing with Buick!

Visit our showroom. Bring your present car. Learn how easily you can obtain one of these new Buicks. All are available on the extremely liberal General Motors time payment plan.

In addition to these lower priced models, Buick offers eight other distinguished body types, representing the ultimate in luxury, and priced from $1405 to $1995, f. o. b. factory.

Brownsville Holds Spotlight In High Football Race

Tremendous Scoring Record And Uncrossed Goal Line Of Southern Texas Team Holds State's Attention

Abilene, Breckenridge, Amarillo, Waco, Cleburne And Central High Of Fort Worth Are Among Contenders For High School Title

DALLAS, Nov. 5. (AP)—The state high school grid race fast is simmering down to where it is possible to put a finger on the half-dozen outstanding schoolboy eleven in Texas. The holder critics already are predicting what team will clash in the final struggle for the championship now held by Abilene.

Westerner Crew To Resume Work On Field Today

High School Gridmen Are Fully Recuperated From Amarillo Battle And Ready For Action

Following two days of complete rest, the Lubbock Westerners will don their football harness again today to resume training for the remaining three games on their District One grid schedule, the immediate objective being the clash here Nov. 15 with the Wichita Falls Coyotes.

Settlement on the change of the date for the Wichita fray came yesterday in the form of a communication from Coach Harry Holton of Wichita, who agreed to the change from Saturday to the Friday before.

The Westerners are fully recovered from their hard tussle with the Amarillo Sandies last week. Coach Friska said last night that the gridmen were anxious to get back into action and that a strenuous period of training would be given the squad before the battle with the Coyotes.

Wichita's 14-0 triumph over Vernon last Saturday stamps the team as a dangerous team and the Westerners will have no chances when Holton brings his forces here for the District One game.

Texas Tech gridmen continued their preparation Tuesday afternoon for the mission of the A. C. C. Wildcats here next Monday in the feature attraction of the Armistice Day program at Lubbock.

With several regulars still missing from practice, the Matadors went through another long signal drill yesterday. Absence of the injured regulars leave a number of reserves an opportunity to break into the regular squad.

Chenoweth, halfback on the 1927 freshman squad, occupied one of the backfield posts, along with Green, Hodges and Woodrider. Another quarter of backs, Campbell, Hill, Walker and Bergfelt ran signals with the other eleven.

Marvin T. Varick, manager of Tech athletics, expressed the belief yesterday that one of the season's largest crowds would be on hand for the holiday battle between the Matadors and Wildcats. Added attractions are planned for the football game. The majority of local football fans are expected to cheer for the Armistice Day celebrations.

Wagoner, the owner of the Three D Stable, has announced his determination to give Texas teams by the highest calibre and make it popular, although the lure of betting is absent.

Among the entries for the meeting are Carl Lopez and Pancho Wagoner Jones which have competed in the Kentucky Derby, Central Point, Collier Handicap, Seneca, and Uncommon Gold, leader of the handicap division at the fall meeting held at Fairmount Park St. Louis.

Three feature attractions are on the program, the $2,500 Dallas handicap over a mile to be held Saturday, the $1,500 three to the handicap for 2 year olds on November 13, and a mile and a quarter race the final day with a purse of $5,000 and added money.

ARLINGTON DOWNS AT FORT WORTH OPENS 10-DAY MEETING OF TEXAS JOCKEY CLUB TODAY; NO BETTING

FORT WORTH, Nov. 5.—Horse racing, which better is to be tried here with the opening tomorrow of a 10-day meeting of the Texas Jockey Club at Arlington Downs, a place built by W. T. Wagoner, multimillionaire oil and cattle man, in an effort to revive the racing in the state.

Mustangs Ready For Aggie Clash

DALLAS, Nov. 5.—Far from convinced that a scoreless tie with Texas has ruined his chances at the Southwest Conference flag, Coach Ray Morrison is drilling his Southern Methodist squad hard in preparation for Saturday's fray with the Aggies at College Station.

With the probable exception of Malcolm Powell, range center for the S. M. U. squad will be intact for the Aggie bout. Powell injured a knee in the Texas game and is not likely to play this week. Mason, halfback and Hammon, tackle who also incurred injuries against the Longhorns will be ready to go.

Bears' Outlook Looms Brighter

WACO, Nov. 5.—With Verge Gilliland Baylor's club a halfback retaining some of his old form, the Bears' chances for defeating Texas Saturday, appeared somewhat brighter today. Coach Jennings who saw the S. M. U. Texas game, came back armed with a book of notes on Texas' plays, and he put his eleven through a fast pace today.

The Baylor eleven is in fine physical shape for Saturday's fray.

Dartmouth Star Feared By Teams Throughout Land

"Special Delivery" Leads Nation's Scorers With Grand Total Of 102 Points; Likes Classics

BY WM. M. BRAUCHER
NEA Service Sports Writer

All-American pickers quit worrying the other day about one of the half-back berths on the 1929 team. The job has been applied for by young Mr. Alton Kimball Special Delivery Airmail Please Rush Marsters, the Hanover, N. H., heckle salesman.

During the first five games of the current football frenzy, Dartmouth scored 256 points to seven for the enemy. People who saw Dartmouth in action against Norwich, Hobart, Allegheny, Columbia and fair Harvard wrote in to the papers asking if something couldn't be done about it. Apparently, with the Marsters loose, nothing can.

Ties and Tacklers
He's working his way through school by selling ties at Jim Campbell's store in Hanover. He works his way through the enemy lines by shaking off all the customers who lie onto him. And, though he will necktie, he doesn't tackle that way. The other day the statisticians got busy and figured he had sneaked across the enemy goal lines for 15 touchdowns and 12 points after a grand total of 102 to lead the nation in the goal-croaking business.

Away back in Al's ancestry was an Indian, and Al is proud of the original American blood. You can imagine you see it in him when he goes gung and dodging across the field following his interference. He follows it perfectly like one of the Aborigines following a trail of trees in the tall forest. When he carries the ball you get the impression he is hidden ready to fling out suddenly at some unexpected place, peering through for an opening that he can wiggle through.

Goals to School, Too
Marsters is majoring in English and admits a liking for classical poetry. His classmates testify, however, that he isn't offensive about it; he can take it or leave it alone.

If you see Dartmouth play this fall, it will be easy to pick out Marsters. He wears a number "4" on his back and always has since his sophomore days when he was unanimously chosen for the All-American. The reason for that "4" is superstition. Al likes that number.

Resides training for football, opening an mail in considerable bulk, sitting for his portrait in oil by an amateur painter at Dartmouth, he finds time to sing an occasional bathroom tenor.

He may care a mean tenor in the bathroom, but when you get him out there in a football suit he sings basso profundo.

The unerring toe of Thad Brock, end and captain of the Davidson (North Carolina) eleven, has been of great aid to the Wildcats this fall. Brock is the South's leading kicker and has missed but one attempt for point after touchdown. He added the extra point that gave Davidson a lead over the Army at the halfway mark in the game at West Point. He also provided the margin of victory for the Wildcats in their 7-8 game with Citadel. In addition to his kicking ability, Brock calls the signals from his end position.

Reach Agreement To Speed Action

By D. HAROLD OLIVER.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5. (AP)—After reaching an agreement to accelerate action on the tariff bill by limiting the time individual senators may talk on amendments, the Senate today proceeded with little ado to eliminate proposed increases in duties on pottery and china wares around which a stiff dispute had been pending.

Time Individual Senators May Talk On Amendments Limited; Several Proposals Erased

Earlier a move to hasten debate by restricting discussion beginning tomorrow had failed, when Senator Tom Denham of Washington objected to such a request by Chairman Smoot of the finance committee.

Limit Proposed
Later, however, Smoot proposed that each senator be limited to talk ten minutes on each committee amendment proposing reductions in duties on China clay and crude silica, the Democrats and Republican independents joined again in helping to eliminate the committee recommendations for higher levies on cheap classes of pottery. China wares had in approving committee proposals wiping out house increases.

When Vick VapoRub was introduced mothers especially were quick to appreciate it, because it is just rubbed on and cannot upset children's delicate stomachs, as "dosing" is so apt to do. Of course it is equally good for adults.

Today, the whole trend of medical practice is away from needless "dosing," and the demand for Vick's has grown until it is necessary to again raise the figures in the famous slogan. There are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly."

Rail Rates Are Offered To Aid In Home-Coming

Littlefield Faces Task Of Keeping Steers Primed For Two More Weeks; Meet Frogs Next

AUSTIN, Nov. 5. (AP)—The largest football crowd of the season here is expected to find its way to Memorial Stadium Saturday when the University of Texas meets Baylor. Neither team has suffered a conference defeat.

It will be homecoming at the University and thousands of former students and lettermen of other years will be on hand. Special rail rates have been offered and the attendance may reach 30,000 if the weather is favorable.

After the grueling battle with S. M. U. Saturday, Coach Clyde Littlefield faces the herculean task of keeping his charges primed for two more Saturdays in succession. T. C. U. follows Baylor to Austin. A let-down in either of the next two battles probably would prove the end of the Steers' dream of a second straight conference championship.

Southern Tariff Funds Are Given To Four Employees

Records Reveal Figures In Senate Examination Of Tariff Association Head; Questioning Heated

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Records produced today by the senate lobby committee showed that $77,034 of the $209,285 received last year by the Southern Tariff association and the American Taxpayers league was turned over to four employees of the organizations.

The figures were read by Senator Blaine, republican, Wisconsin, during the examination of J. A. Arnold, vice-president and general manager of the Tariff association and manager of the Taxpayers league.

The examination became heated at times and once Arnold accused Blaine of ridiculing the work of the organizations instead of seeking information.

"I must confess that I am ridiculing the work of Blaine retorted, adding that he was going to show that contributors to the associations were used as a sucker list from which to obtain collections and that a large portion went into your own pockets."

"That's not true," Arnold shot back angrily.

Made Up Deficit
The witness said he had made up out of his own pocket a deficit of $13,843 in the funds of the Tariff association and the Taxpayers league for the year ended Aug. 31.

"They owe me that money," he said.

Blaine's records showed that Arnold received $19,519 from the Taxpayers league during the year ending August 31, and $3,100 from the Tariff association. They also showed that Mrs. Ida Darden received $1,144 from the Taxpayers league and $9,804 from the Tariff association; Fance Muse $12,416 from the Taxpayers league and $7,193 from the Tariff association; and W. N. Wyrick $14,678 from the Tariff association.

Salaries Given
The witness said Muse, Wyrick

Amarillo Woman Sometimes Felt Almost Helpless

Orgatone Overcomes Her Rheumatism And She Is Feeling Just Fine—Suffered Three Years

"When I began taking Orgatone some times I almost felt helpless—just hardly able to be around—on account of swelling in my joints and limbs. But now I have gained back my lost strength, feel fine and can get around nimbly as I could years ago."

Mrs. S. C. Vaughn, who made the above remarkable statement, lives at 310 North Fillmore St., Amarillo, Texas, and whose husband is a well known mechanic at the smelter.

"I didn't know at first," she continued, "what my trouble was, but about three years ago I commenced to be bothered with swelling in my limbs and stiff joints which warned me I was in the clutches of rheumatism. No one who has suffered with these pains can realize the intense misery I went through. I was badly constipated and nervous, my stomach was out of order and I couldn't get much rest. My appetite was very poor and my stomach so upset that I couldn't eat food of any kind without suffering from pains in my stomach."

"I tried the best of treatment and medicines I could get but got no relief and at times I got so blue and discouraged I didn't think I would ever find anything to reach my case. So, when I read of Orgatone and made up my mind to try it, I had just about abandoned all hope of ever recovering."

"I noticed an improvement almost from the time I started on Orgatone. My stomach was soon feeling better and my nerves quieted down so I could sleep. My appetite improved, then the pains and swelling in my joints gradually diminished and I became less constipated. So I kept taking Orgatone and getting better and finally my pains about disappeared and I went to feeling like a different person. Now I can lie down in my bed and sleep all night long, and find no trouble in looking after my household duties. These are the results I have gotten from three bottles of Orgatone and I certainly don't believe anyone suffering as I did, will make a mistake by giving it a trial."

Genzyme Orgatone may be bought in Lubbock at Downs Drug Store. Adv.

He will appear before the committee again tomorrow.

COULD SAYS THE THERMOMETER

"I SHOULD WORRY" SAYS YOUR CAR

Motorists who would enjoy carefree winter driving are switching to Phillips 66. Their cars start "right now"—warm up fast—pick up quickly. These motorists get, too, an instant flow of able-bodied power and mileage that's gratifying—all at no extra cost. The secret of Phillips 66 is controlled volatility which makes each gallon you buy fit the season and the climatic conditions of the locality in which you buy it. For best results try a full tank of Phillips 66 or 66 Ethyl.

Phil-up with Phillips 66

CONTROLLED VOLATILITY

WHEN THE THERMOMETER GOES DOWN THE VOLATILITY GOES UP. Gasoline must vaporize before it can be fired in the cylinders of your motor. Volatility refers to the ability of gasoline to vaporize. With volatility controlled, Phillips 66 vaporizes as quickly in cold as in warm weather.

Avenging Parrot

Sharp, I've never met Mrs. Hogarth. Dundee laughed. "Then you are not so curious. I am, Mr. Dowd. The thin, commonplace man took off his glasses and polished the rimless oval lenses very deliberately. "I mind my own business," he said quietly.

"I've never met Mrs. Hogarth either, but after hearing the story all over again this evening, I'm beginning to get curious myself," Bert Magnus admitted. "You're always telling me to put some comedy relief into my scenarios, Cora. Maybe I'll look in on her this evening, if Dundee will give me an introduction."

To Dundee's relief, but also to his bewilderment, Cora Barker interrupted with passionate vehemence. "Don't call on Mrs. Hogarth this evening, Bert! Promise me you won't!"

Mrs. Rhodes, advancing rather majestically to the table to inquire if her guests had enjoyed their dinner, prevented Cora's getting the promise she had begged for so strangely.

"I was wondering, Mrs. Rhodes," Bert Magnus said tentatively, "if we couldn't hope to have our window screens in soon. I had noticed any flies yet, but the light bug are rather annoying when I'm trying to write."

"Oh, dear! That Dusty!" Mrs. Rhodes sighed. "Dusty! Come here!" How many times have I got to tell you to put those screens up! Here it is almost the first of July, and not a screen—

"No, Cora!" her husband protested suddenly. "Ain't I got other things to do besides put up screens? And on top of all my worries, that old hellion upstairs has to have a special screen, two layers of copy wire and a padlock and the Lord only knows what else! Hope she can't get no air through it and'll smother."

"Well, have you finished making her screen yet?" his wife prodded contentedly, stroking her face and in the hall of her tongue. Easy to see who wore the trousers, Bert Dundee thought.

"I told her it'd be up Monday, and up Monday it'll be," Dusty Rhodes answered with weak violence. "Old fool! Threatenin' to have me arrested for mismanagement funds. Huh! Old fool!"

It was a relief to Dundee to see Norma, a slender body weaving through the crowded dining room toward him.

"Mrs. Hogarth doesn't like to have visitors too soon after her meals, she confided with a delicious air of intimacy. "I'm sure about 8 o'clock will be all right. You'll be nice to her, won't you, Mr. Dundee? Not laugh at her, even to yourself! She's really a darling, even if she has got queer ideas about— about some of us."

"Then other people besides Mrs. Hogarth must think Emil Gevers's bad eye," Mr. Sharp, who had been listening unabashed, cut in. "This fiddler Seiler had the room next to the old lady," he explained to Dundee, "and she had Mr. Rhodes kick him out. We never knew the straight of it," he added indignantly. "But it seems that the old lady got it into her head that Cora's boy friend—"

"He's not my boy friend!" Cora Barker denied vehemently.

"Well, was your boy friend then?" Mr. Sharp corrected himself amiably. "Anyway, it seems like the old lady got it into her head that Seiler was plotting to rob her of her money. Guess he was behind a desk or two with his board sign, and Mrs. Rhodes told him his company Mr. Henry Dowd our talkative new boarder has sisters, so room and they do not he nearly talks the old lady to death—"

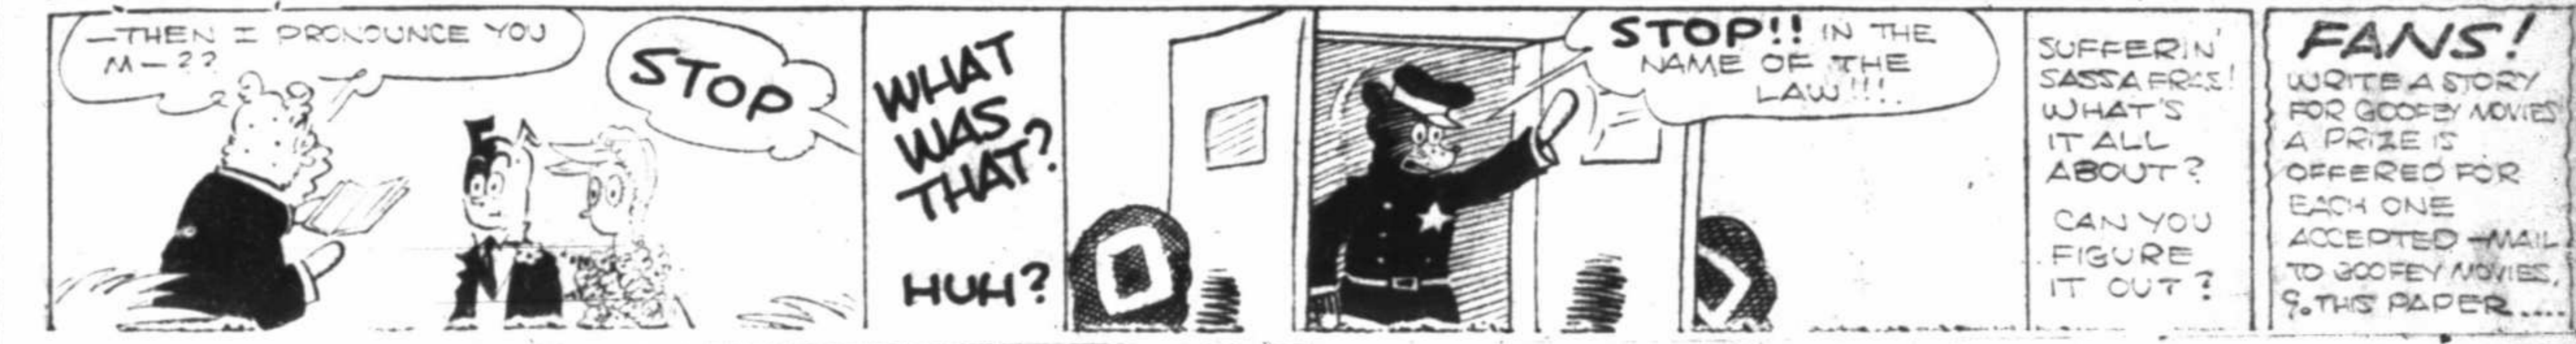

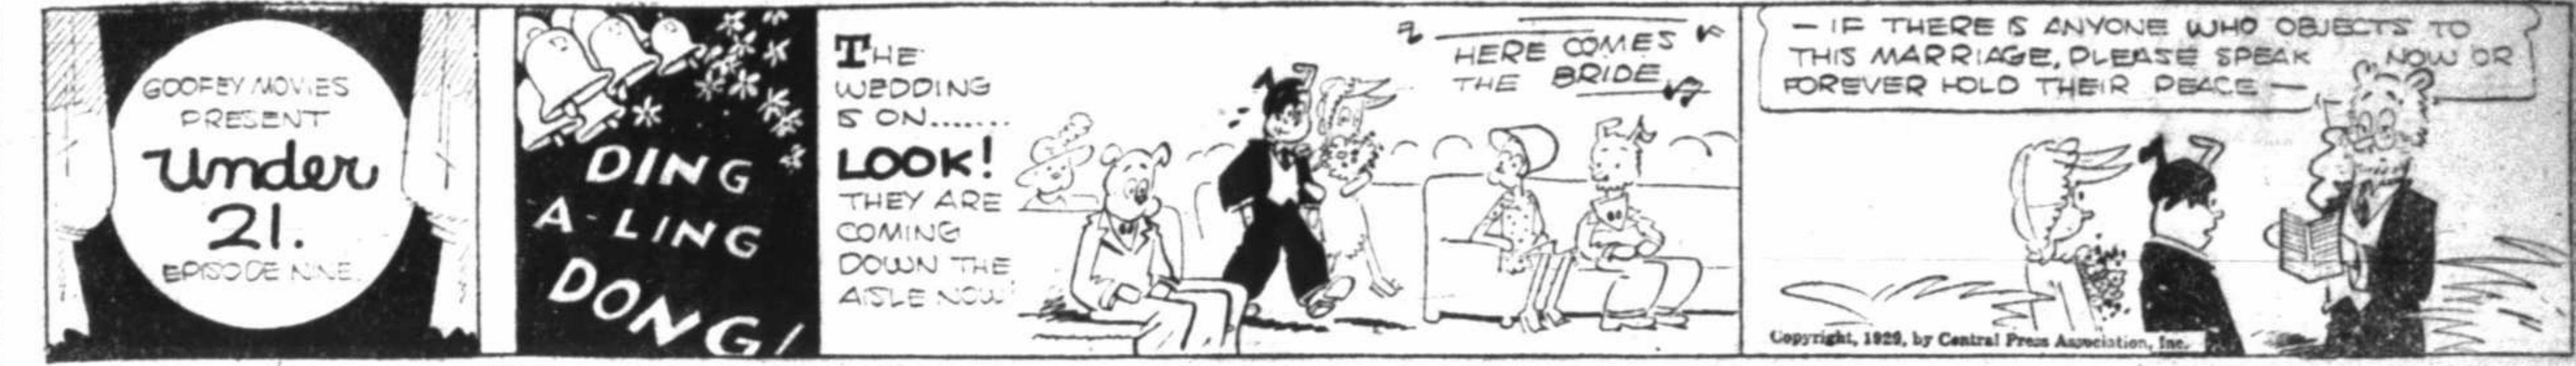

"This was obviously intended to be very humorous, for Henry Dowd had not spoken during the entire meal, except to ask for salt or bread.

"He spoke now. "As you know, Mr.

Booze Parties

Sheppard, of Texas, the "father" of the Eighteenth amendment, Judge Kenyon later conferred with Brookhart, said he "enjoyed" the talk and remarked about the commission's interest in the situation.

To Answer Subpoena

Tomorrow Brookhart will answer subpoena to go before the District of Columbia grand jury to tell his story of the 1929 party dinner. He promised the senate to answer every question put to him in the grand jury room, and said the three reporters for the Washington Times who are in jail because they would not name those from whom they said they purchased liquor should have given the grand jury whatever information they had.

Telling his story of the "Wall Street booze party," Brookhart said he was urged to attend by "our distinguished president pro tem." The president pro tem is Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, and he was presiding at the time.

The House said it he broadcast tales about his host, the suspicion that you are a charter member of the Great American Political club seems empty conceit. The chamber roared with laughter.

Market Steadies In Final Session After Early Drop

Prices Work To Low Ground For Season Under Heavy Selling Pressure On Pre-Bureau Liquidation

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5. (AP)—Cotton worked to low ground for the season today under selling pressure on pre-bureau liquidation and holding. In late trading the market recovered and final prices showed recoveries of about 50 cents a bale. January dropped to 17.37 or 36 points, net down but rallied later and closed at 17.47 or 26 points net lower. The general market closed steady at net losses of 25 to 26 points.

Liverpool cables were about as usual and first trades here showed losses of 2 to 3 points. The market weakened sharply in sympathy with a late break in Liverpool and on liberal liquidation in advance of the government's report.

Overseas Unsettled

The flood of offerings uncovered stop loss orders on the decline which added to the weakness. December ultimately traded off to 17.25 January 17.37, and March 17.68 or 33 to 36 points net down.

Toward noon the market steadied and prices rallied to 11 points from the lows with December at 13.36 and January 18.47. The improvement was maintained to the end, final prices showed a net loss of about $1.25 a bale.

Receipts, 74,377, for week 21,449 for year 4,492,287, last year 4,433,860. Exports 27,412, for week 173,067, for year 2,310,298, last year 2,480,038. Stocks 2,336,202, last year 2,120,239. Wheat Market Is Marked By Sharp Break On Monday

Prices Drop 3 1/2 Cents A Bushel Due To Large Immediate Supplies On Hand In Market

By JOHN P. BOUGHAN, Associated Press Market Editor

CHICAGO, Nov. 5. (AP)—Wheat breaks in wheat trade the market down 3 1/2 cents a bushel today making the drop 9 1/2 cents from last week's top level. Huge immediate supplies on hand both appeared to be largely responsible. The market here closed at within 1/2 cent of the lowest point reached.

Latest Chicago quotations on wheat were nervous 2 3/4 to 3 3/8 under yesterday's finish. Corn closed 1 to 1 3/8 down, oats 7 1/8 to 1 1/8-9 1/4 off, and provisions unchanged to a setback of 1/8 cent.

With foreign prices showing much greater downturn than had been looked for, the market displayed weakness from the outset.

Adding to the downward swing of wheat values were assertions that Europeans appear disposed to let holders of wheat on this side of the Atlantic carry the load and pay storage charges, knocking at the door only when pressing needs require.

Clear, cold weather excellent for field work did a good deal to pull corn prices lower. Many traders were inclined to look for a larger movement of new corn soon to market centers. Oats declined with corn and wheat.

Provisions reflected downturn in the value of hogs.

Hamilton

he said she heard Walton say "Is Judge Hamilton in? Is this Judge Hamilton? This is Tom Walton."

Then, she said her son left the inn, and within half an hour she was at an Amarillo hospital beside his body, battered by four bullets fired in Hamilton's law office.

Hamilton on Stand

Hamilton took the stand only to deny state rebuttal evidence. One state witness, Mary Wright, Amarillo long distance operator, had testified that three or four days before the homicide she had seen Hamilton long distance call from R. H. Hamilton to his brother, Dexter Hamilton, Dallas lawyer.

After the connection had been made the 19 year old witness testified she "pushed the key back and listened to see if G. C. Hamilton, known Dallas brother, manager of the telephone company at Amarillo and Dallas said their files showed no record of the call. And the defendant himself said he had not "at any time" talked with either of his Dallas brothers about his daughter, Theresa, Walton's 17-year old bride, or a divorce.

Hamilton positively denied that any one ever had called his office and said "This is Tom Walton." He also attempted to impeach the testimony of R. E. Coon, public stenographer, who had said he was in Hamilton's office at 10:30 a. m. when Walton visited a Hamilton, the first time he was on the stand, insisted he saw Walton only on March 9 and March 30. He stuck to this story today.

Expert On Stand

As the state concluded its case it brought from Dallas a hand writing expert, W. A. Weaver, who examined letters Mrs. Hamilton testified she sent her husband from Austin telling him of threats Walton had made against him. Weaver said the envelopes were not addressed and the letters written, in some instances, with the same pen or the same kind of ink.

Walton's brief stay at the University of Texas, where he and Theresa were married February 10 while they were in school, first was brought in to the case by a state witness when Harry Blackwell of Weatherford testified he saw Walton's "marriage certificate" in the "John Thomas Walton, Jr., and Theresa H. Hamilton" and a series of letters Walton had written to Theresa which were included in Mrs. Hamilton's letters were mailed when she was with Theresa and the girl was recovering from an appendicitis operation in an Austin hospital last April.

District Judge J. E. Carter had not decided tonight how long he would allow for arguments.

Venturemen Called

The special venire of 125, dismissed Monday when the motion of change of venue was filed, will report again this morning at 10 o'clock.

The reported statement of District Attorney Durwood Bradley, as issued from a copy of the Lubbock Daily Journal, was the axis around which C. C. Triplett, of the defense counsel of Schenck & Triplett, propounded questions in seeking to prove that minds of qualified jurors in Lubbock county had been influenced by newspaper reports.

In the statement Mr. Bradley was quoted as having characterized the case as "the most heinous he has investigated in several years and not callable."

The defense placed its last witness on the stand at 1:55 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and five minutes later the roster of state witnesses were being called.

Clark Testifies

A. J. Clark, Lubbock county tax collector, stated that there are 7,532 qualified voters in this county, according to the 1928 poll tax receipts. His testimony was introduced by Mr. Bradley, who sought to show that there is a great number of qualified jurors who probably have not been affected by discussion of publicity with reference to the case.

Testimony of A. L. Harris, Lubbock county surveyor, concerned the dimensions of the county and the population of rural communities.

Venturemen Identified

O. B. Conley, chief deputy sheriff, identified the list of special veniremen summoned for the trial and stated that of 56 he had summoned 33 veniremen live outside the city of Lubbock in surrounding communities. Twenty-three, he said, live in Lubbock.

J. J. Clements, local contractor, testified that he had heard no general discussion of the circumstances in the case and expressed opinion that a fair and impartial trial could be held in this city.

Wright Influenced

Stating that he knew little as to general opinion in the county, Nell H. Wright, local insurance agent, said that he has been influenced by newspaper accounts in forming an unfavorable opinion.

That a fair and impartial jury could be selected in Lubbock county was the opinion expressed by L. C. Ellis, vice-president of the Lubbock National Bank.

W. O. Stevens, vice-president of the Citizens National Bank, answered in the negative when asked by the state if he had any fixed opinion which might influence him if he were called to sit on a jury.

Cone Not Prejudiced

S. E. Cone, local grain dealer and real estate man, testified that he had heard no prejudiced expressions in the case, and answered affirmatively when asked if he thought a fair and impartial trial could be rendered in this city.

P. B. Brown, farmer, who lives near Lubbock, testified that he had heard 8 or 10 persons discuss the case but that he had heard no opinions expressed.

Testifying that he has no opinion himself as to the guilt of innocence of Lester, Lonnie Williams, of the Slide community, answered to a question that he knew no reason why the accused man could not receive a fair and impartial trial in Lubbock county.

Of four or five men he testified that he heard discuss the case not one expressed an opinion, stated W. L. Pruitt, Idaho city secretary.

Editor On Stand

Asked by Mr. Triplett, while on the witness stand during the morning session, if he thought the reading session had been influenced by Mr. Bradley's statement, Charles A. Guy, managing editor of the Avalanche-Journal publications, answered: "I believe that the statement of a prosecuting attorney would have less credence in the minds of readers than would a statement from a disinterested person. Such would also apply to a statement from the defense." He said, however, that the statement would have some influence on the average reader.

Two witnesses, W. F. Revell, local insurance man, and Fred C. Pearson, promoter of discussion and publicity of the shooting has prejudiced their minds in the case.

Others who testified that they have heard little discussion of the case were J. H. Brewer, Slaton banker; F. V. Williams, Lubbock dealer; R. W. Walker, local contractor; F. W. Green, Atchison, district court clerk; Sheriff Wade Hardy, and R. T. Williams, of Slaton.

"All employees of public eating places, or where food is handled must have health certificates. These certificates must be obtained from a physician in the county where business is carried on and must be renewed every six months."

He also pointed out that dishes must be sterilized in boiling water, all broken dishes discarded, and similar violations.

Fines for offenses range from $5 to $200.

nation were surprised by the tremendous vote which the Democrats rolled up in the Old Dominion.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5. (AP)—John Garland, former professor of law at the college of William and Mary, was elected governor of Virginia tonight in what turned out to be a landslide for the democratic party.

The democratic nominees led his opponent, Dr. William Moseley Brown, nominee on the anti-Smith democratic and republican, in every congressional district and with less than two-thirds of the total vote tabulated, had amassed a lead of close to 50,000 votes. Pollard's election was conceded by Brown headquarters at 10:40. At that hour returns from 1,050 of the state's 1,683 precincts gave Pollard 99,038, and Brown 51,457.

De Priest Circulars

Probably the most widely discussed phase of the unusual campaign was the "De Priest circular" incident. A circular was anonymously distributed containing pictures of Oscar De Priest, republican representative from Chicago, and his along with an account of a White House tea which the negro representative's wife attended and excerpts from a number of De Priest's speeches. The assertion in this circular that Henry W. Anderson, republican leader, De Brown and the republican platform stood for poll tax repeal as a prerequisite to voting, drew a somewhat heated exchange between party leaders.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5. (AP)—New York City, traditional stronghold of democracy, ran true to form in the quadrennial municipal election today and on the basis of more than half of the election districts, gave Mayor James J. Walker a lead of nearly 300,000 over Representative Fiorello H. LaGuardia, republican fusion candidate.

The vote from 1950 districts out of 3,411 in the city was:

J. J. Walker, democrat, 502,348.

F. H. LaGuardia, republican, 204,131.

Norman Thomas, socialist, 95,117.

R. E. Enright, square deal, 3,285.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5. (AP)—Congressman Fiorello H. LaGuardia, republican fusion candidate for mayor, conceded the election of Mayor Walker at 8:37 p. m. tonight.

Mr. LaGuardia sent the following telegram to Mayor Walker:

"Accept my congratulations on your victory and best wishes for a successful administration."
