Insurance For Fight Against Reds Planned

Special Message On Subject Will Be Sent Congress

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, April 30. — President Truman will ask Congress next week to back western Europe with American guns, planes and tanks as "military insurance" against Communist aggression, informed sources reported today.

The President, it was said, will send the lawmakers a special message on Monday or Tuesday asking military lend-lease for the 16-Marshall plan nations.

To Get Early Action

Highly placed congressional sources said the program would receive early Senate and House consideration in an effort to complete action before Congress' scheduled June 19 adjournment date. Senate President Arthur H. Vandenberg already has consulted twice with Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett on the proposal.

The new project would be aimed at backing the 51-month program for European economic recovery with American assistance on the military front. The President, it was said, will ask for no commitment at this time to pledge America's armed forces in event of war in Europe.

Details Are Secret

Details of the new proposal were a closely guarded administration secret, shared only by top policy-making officers.

But advance indications are that the proposal will be the first step in fulfilling Mr. Truman's recent pledge of U. S. support for the "western union"—the five-nation defense alliance of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. In addition American aid would be pledged to the other arms-needing nations in the European recovery program.

Later, when the "western union" establishes a common general staff and a supreme commander, further promises of American support will be forthcoming, it was said.

Proposals On Desk

Proposals now on the President's desk for drafting into final message form, it was learned, included these:

1. Outright promises of lend-lease shipments, drawn in part from surplus U. S. war goods located both here and Europe.
2. Diversion of some ERP funds

Military Pool To Be Talked

LONDON, April 30 (AP)—Defense ministers of five European nations meet today to began a pool of military resources under their Brussels alliance.

The nations are Great Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. They signed a 50-year military, political and economic treaty in Brussels March 17 pledging joint defense of Democracy.

The ministers are expected to sit in closed session for a day or so to make a start and then turn the job over to a military committee. Their military chiefs are on hand to help them.

To Make List

One task before them is to set down what their countries have to give and what they need in war material for the common defense.

The list would be useful not only to those countries themselves but also to the United States, in the event the U. S. should decide to ship them arms.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall told a Washington news conference Wednesday the question of giving military lend-lease to western Europe is under active consideration.

HUGE CUT IN MEAT PRODUCTION DUE IN 30 DAYS

Sad Warning Given As Empty Cattle Lots Dot Middlewest

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 30.—Empty lots dot the midwestern landscape today, a ghostly reminder of last summer's short corn crop. They provide a sad warning to people who like to eat meat.

Market analysts said today the empty feed lots mean a tremendous reduction in meat production, starting in about 30 days.

Normally Are Jammed

At this time of year, midwestern farms normally are jammed with cattle undergoing a luscious grain diet prior to being shipped to market. It's that grain, mostly corn, which puts weight on the animals to provide tasty meat. But it isn't that way this year.

H. J. Gramlich, agricultural agent of the Chicago and Northwestern railway, said "many cattle feeders have temporarily folded up."

"In a three mile strip paralleling our line west of the Omaha stock yards, where normally several hundred thousand cattle are fattened each year, there does not now appear to be a single head," Gramlich said.

Pessimism Expressed

Mark Pickell, secretary of the Corn Belt Livestock Feeders association, was equally pessimistic.

"In a trip through southern Illinois," he said, "I stopped at a farm where I never have seen less than 400 cattle on feed. The feed lot gates were open. Not a head was in there.

"Around Pleasant Plains, where I've never seen less than 5,000 or 6,000 cattle on feed, and I've often seen 10,000 to 15,000, I couldn't find more than 1,000."

Arthur Large, agriculture agent of the Rock Island lines, said there was a substantial decrease in cattle on feed but added, "I do not consider it alarming."

They Run In Cycles

Large said cattle numbers run in cycles. "It is an old time tradition," he said, "that no one has been able to stop the cattle cycle. We are now on the downside of the cycle and it will no doubt run its course before it starts up again. The drop in the 1947 corn crop accentuated the downside of the cattle cycle."

H. M. Conway, market analyst for the National Livestock Producers association, said, "cattle feeders are not refilling their feed lots. They are putting in about 50 per cent of the number which went in last year. It means a tremendous reduction in meat production starting in about 30 days."

While last year's short corn crop was held partly to blame for the situation by Conway, he said that a decline in cattle prices since the start of the year had thrown a scare into cattle feeders.

"Cattle fed over a long period are a losing proposition in view of inflated grain prices," Conway said. He added some feeders were losing as much as $100 a head on long fed cattle.

Proposed Truce Is Failure In Council

LAKE SUCCESS, April 30 (AP)—A proposed truce for the old walled city of Jerusalem appeared to have fallen through today when Jewish and Arab representatives failed to agree on terms.

Moshe Shertok, Jewish agency representative, told the United Nations trusteeship council his people would agree to a truce on condition that they would free entry and exit through the gates of the walled city.

Jamal Husseinini, vice-chairman of the Arab higher committee for Palestine, replied that these conditions had "blown up the whole scheme" for a cease-fire.

Gerald L. K. Smith Forms New Party

ST. LOUIS, April 30 (U.P.) — Gerald L. K. Smith, who changed the name of the old "America First" movement to "the Christian National Crusade," said today he had formed a new "nationalist" party and predicted it would be one of two big parties in the United States by 1952.

The other, he said, will be the Henry A. Wallace party.

Four Soda-Sipping Teen-Agers Are Held For Blasting Teacher's Home With Guns

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 30—Four soda-sipping teen-agers were accused today of blasting a pretty young high school teacher's home with gunfire after a telephoned death threat warning her not to flunk anybody in mathematics.

MISS JOKIEL

A 14-year-old freshman desperately afraid of failing an algebra exam organized the raiders in a candy store, police said. They used an automobile stolen for the occasion and loaded with seven .22 calibre automatic rifles taken from a Coney Island shooting gallery.

At least 26 shots peppered the teacher's home in Brooklyn and two adjoining houses.

A 12-year-old boy was left behind to phone the warning—a few minutes before the burst of bullets.

The shooting occurred Wednesday night. The boys were nabbed yesterday, authorities said, because the ringleader had thought up a third scheme to pass his al-

SCHEDULES MEETING FOR MAY 18

John L. Calls For New Negotiations

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 30—John L. Lewis today asked soft coal operators to meet with him May 18 to negotiate a new contract.

The United Mine Workers' present contract expires June 30.

Lewis said in letters to all coal companies and associations which had signed the current agreement last July that he is ready to start negotiations in the Shoreham hotel, Washington, May 18 at 10 a. m.

He said the meeting would be "for the purpose of negotiating a successor contract" to the present one.

Labeled "Notice"

The UMW chief pointed out that the present contract pledges the parties to attend any conferences under terms of the agreement.

The letter was labeled "notice" and was dated today, April 30. The Taft-Hartley act requires that either party to a labor agreement, desiring to end that agreement, must give notice 60 days before ending the contract.

Lewis apparently was observing that provision, since his contract with the operators expires June 30.

There was no advance indication directly from Lewis on the nature of the demands he would make of the operators for the new contract.

To Talk Pensions

Still outstanding is a dispute over payment of pensions from a welfare fund provided in the present contract.

Lewis wants $100 a month pensions for all elderly members of the United Mine Workers.

As trustees of the welfare fund, he and Senator Styles Bridges (R-NH) have agreed on $100 pensions for miners aged 62 with 20 years service. Era Van Horn, the

Tax Return In '49 Forecast

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 30. (AP)—Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky, Democratic minority leader in the Senate, made three political predictions here last night:

1. President Truman will be re-elected.
2. The Republican-dominated Congress will have to eat its tax-cut promises after the election.
3. Despite southern threats of rebellion, the Democratic national convention will endorse part of the Truman civil rights program.

Speaks At Dinner

Barkley made the first two forecasts at the annual Jefferson-Jackson day dinner of Oklahoma Democrats, where he was the principal speaker. The third was made at an earlier news conference.

"President Truman is an honest, sincere, God-fearing man who has done his best," said Barkley. "Like all humans he has made mistakes. No man ever had so many problems thrust on him so suddenly and none, considering the magnitude of the job, ever did so well as Truman."

As for the Republicans, Barkley said their recent tax-cut was for political motives.

To Re-Impose Taxes

"After the elections they will be re-imposing those taxes," he told his fellow-Democrats. "Last year they were going to reduce expenditures by six billion—and they wound up with no reduction.

"This year they were going to reduce by two and one half billions —but they will wind up in the red at the present rate."

Congress May Probe Meat Packers Strike

WASHINGTON, April 30. (AP)—Senator Edwin C. Johnston (D-Colo) said today he plans to ask for a congressional inquiry into the 46-day-old meat strike.

Johnson told a reporter he intends to introduce a resolution, possibly today, to provide for an "examination of all the facts" and arbitration of the wage dispute.

"The strike has gone on too long," he said. "It is disrupting marketing and injuring both consumers and farmers."

Trans-Jordan King To Lead Joint Forces

Five Nations Will Send Troops In Try To Take Palestine

(By The Associated Press)

AMMAN, Trans-Jordan, April 30.—Official Trans-Jordan sources predict Arab nations will send at least 30,000 regular troops to "rescue Palestine before May 15," when Britain gives up rule over the Holy Land and its embattled Arabs and Jews.

These sources said yesterday Trans-Jordan's King Abdullah will be titular commander-in-chief of forces from Trans-Jordan, Iraq, Egypt, Syria and Lebanon, each under its own national leader and represented on a supreme military council based here in Abdullah's capital.

TROOPS ENTER PALESTINE

DAMASCUS, Syria, April 30 (AP) — An Arab news agency report received here tonight from Amman said Arab troops of Iraq and Trans-Jordan entered Palestine at 4 p. m. No further details were available here.

Jews Give Estimate

Jewish sources estimate the Jew's strength in Palestine, actual or potential, at 60,000 to 70,000 in the Jewish agency's Haganah, 2,000 to 5,000 in Irgun Zvai Leumi and 500 to 2,000 in the Stern group.

Trans-Jordan government quarters said that of the five Arab states, Trans-Jordan, Iraq and Egypt will supply 90 per cent of the invasion troops and Egypt and Iraq air forces also. They said Saudi Arabia will provide mainly arms and money. They did not mention Yemen, only other country in the Arab league.

The informants said Trans-Jordan and Iraq, operating jointly, will strike for Jerusalem, Egypt into southern Palestine toward Jaffa and Syria and Lebanon into northern Palestine. High Arab sources said Gen. Ismail Safwat Pasha of Iraq probably will be overall chief of staff.

Conference Held

Abdullah talked again yesterday with his nephew, Iraqi Regent Abdul Ilah, and Secretary-General Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha of the Arab league.

Lebanese Premier Riad Bey Es Solh, who arrived yesterday, was reported to have told the king last night the Syrian and Lebanese parliaments voted Wednesday for invasion of the Holy Land by their countries' regular armies, and in Syria special war taxation and censorship were approved as well.

A meeting is scheduled today among an Egyptian army comman-

DENVER, April 29 (U.P.) — In airplane lingo the term "fasten your safety belt" means just one thing. But to a portly man traveling from Denver to Kansas City, Mo., it meant another.

On the takeoff yesterday the hostess, Clara Kern, told the passengers to "fasten your safety belts." But the heavyset man didn't move. The next time she spoke directly to him, "Please, fasten your safety belt."

"Don't have to," he replied. "Wear suspenders."

Spur Sailor Is Puzzled Over Marriage Customs In Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO, April 30 (AP)—William Roy Randall, an American sailor from Spur, Tex., learned Thursday you have to know at least one Portuguese word to get married in Brazil.

That word is "sim," which means yes.

Randall appeared in marriage court with his fiance, Miss Benta Bento, who hails from the Brazilian cattle raising state of Santa Catarina.

The judge began reading the ceremony. The bride said "sim" when asked if she took Randall for her husband. Randall said nothing when asked if he took Benta as his wife. A witness answered "sim" for him, but the judge ruled this out and suspended the marriage.

Two hours later, with the aid of a translator, Randall answered "sim" and was married.

Angry Judge Bangs "Shut Up!" Orders

Chief Justice Vinson Tires Of Harangue In Court And Brings A Dramatic Climax

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 30—An angered Chief Justice Vinson, his gavel banging out virtual "shut up" orders, brought to a dramatic close late yesterday the Supreme court's first hearing of a Taft-Hartley act test case.

Vinson, squirming in his high-backed chair at Associate Justice Frankfurter's questioning of a CIO lawyer, broke into the attorney's reply to say emphatically:

"Your time has expired!"

That sharp statement amounted to an order to Attorney Lee Pressman to "shut up and sit down." It also told Frankfurter in effect to "shut up"—the presiding justice wants no more questions and no more answers.

The tense moments that followed were almost without precedent in the cathedral-like tribunal.

Frankfurter had been contending that the government and CIO had joined hands to bring before the court a case involving constitutionality of the labor act's ban on political spending by unions.

The CIO, which maneuvered the first test by an intentional violation, and the government, which is defending the spending ban, had been allotted a total of two hours for oral arguments.

The wihte signal light indicating five minutes of time left had long since turned to red. But Frankfurter persisted in his questioning.

When Vinson stepped in, the CIO lawyer looked at Frankfurter, bowed to the chief justice and sat down.

But Jesse Climenko, a special assistant to Attorney General Clark, jumped to his feet. He had

21-NATION PACT TO BE SIGNED

Bogota Conference To Adjourn Today

(By The Associated Press)

BOGOTA, Colombia, April 30—The ninth Pan-American conference which survived a bloody revolution, comes to a close today with the signing of a 21-nation pact pledging united efforts toward western hemisphere peace and security.

Resolutions against international Communism and foreign colonies in America also will be signed at the formal closing ceremony in the historic residence of Simon Bolivar, South American liberator.

Results Satisfactory

Most delegates agreed that the results of the month-long conference were satisfactory.

Eduardo Zuleta Angel of Colombia, conference president, declared the results "surpassed our fondest hopes."

William D. Pawley, U. S. delegate, told newsmen "I will be glad to challenge anyone who attempts to define this Bogota conference as anything but a magnificent success and a great achievement in the spirit of American solidarity."

The conference began March 30 and was disrupted by a bloody uprising April 9, which drove the delegates from their meeting place in the capitol building in Bogota.

Many Were Killed

American Red Cross officials estimated that 1,500 persons were killed—1,200 in Bogota—in three days of rioting, officially blamed on the Communists.

The decision of the delegates to continue meeting here was generally acclaimed as a victory for Pan-Americanism and a moral aid for the Colombian government in checking the revolt.

In the opinion of many, the revolt strengthened the determination of the conferring nations to ward off Communism infringement in the western world.

The new 5,000-word treaty creating new organization of American states contains 112 articles. They define the principles of Pan-Americanism, the rights and duties of the member states, and provide for united action against aggression against any one state. They also provide for peaceful solution of controversies and collective security.

Loot Is Small In Burglaries

Burglary of Pearl's Barbecue place, at 1714-A Ave. A, was being investigated this morning.

Pearl Carrol, operator, said she informed Pete Hubbard and George Hall, police investigators, that entrance had been made at a back door and that a cigaret vender mechine had been damaged. Whether money was taken had not been determined, pending examination of the machine by an agency that supplies them, she said.

Residence Burglarized

Police and the sheriff's department were informed by the sheriff's office at Tahoka and by Dep. Sheriff Ernest Ward of Slaton that the E. H. Brock residence five miles south of Slaton had been burglarized. Loot reported taken were: A .32 caliber pistol, a gold locket and chain, a pearl necklace, and a pair of nylon stockings.

A negro suspect was named to investigators.

A camera, a flashlight and a fishing reel, total value $33.50, were stolen from the automobile of Mrs. S. R. Kuts of 2213 Seventh, police were informed.

Police received several calls in the night protesting the activities of motorists.

German Woman Says Hitler Is Too Smart For Russians And Is Now Alive In Soviet Sector

WIESBADEN, Germany, April 30 (AP)—There is a woman here who says she lived next door to Adolf Hitler last year on President Roosevelt street in Liegnitz.

The woman, Frau Dora Mai, told her story to American military government officials here. They are skeptical; say it is Russia's problem because Liegnitz is in Polish-occupied Silesia.

Frau Mai's story:

"He has a triangular mustache now and he grows sideburns, too. But it is he, all right. I lived next door to him for a year in Liegnitz. We both lived on President Roosevelt Strasse.

"It is my moral duty to tell you this. Hitler is too smart for the Russians. They don't know that he is living there on their doorstep. He is living with a small, dark woman. She isn't Eva Braun. Sometimes he poses as a schoolmaster, sometimes as a Polish army lieutenant.

"He has formed a new party—the TPZ. I don't know what it stands for. . . . I never asked him if he was Hitler. I just knew it."

Frau Mai is one of thousands of refugees flowing in here from the east. She is the first to claim that Hitler is alive in Germany. Other persons claim to have seen him in foreign countries since he disappeared in the flames of Berlin just three years ago.

American officers heard Frau Mai through to the end, patiently. Then they said:

"Well, it's a Russian worry. Let them catch him."

Chrysler Will Feel Pinch As 75,000 Quit

Legal Barriers To Walkout Removed; Pay Hike Sought

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, April 30.—The CIO United Auto Workers today scheduled a strike May 12 of 75,000 employes of Chrysler Corp.

The walkout, if called, would be the first on a large scale in the auto industry since the costly 113-day General Motors Corp. strike of 1945-46.

The UAW-CIO asks from Chrysler a 30 cent an hour wage boost.

18 Plants Affected

Affected would be 18 Chrysler plants, 14 in Michigan, three in Indiana and one in California.

The union's top policy committee approved the strike deadline on recommendation of its national Chrysler director, Norman Matthews. He said the company could meet union wage demands without raising car prices and still make a profit "any business man would envy."

The UAW-CIO will continue negotiations with Chrysler until the strike date, he added.

The UAW-CIO and Chrysler began negotiations Feb. 27 with the union asking a straight wage boost of 30 cents an hour. The current wage averages about $1.50.

"Fringe" Concessions

The union also asked "fringe" concessions such as better vacations, pensions and the like totalling about five additional cents.

Chrysler's only offer to date came a few days ago and was for six cents an hour. The UAW-CIO promptly rejected it and the corporation then withdrew it.

All legal barriers to a strike previously have been removed.

There was no immediate comment from the company.

Layoffs To Be Made

Meanwhile Chrysler and Briggs Manufacturing Co. prepared to put into effect layoffs blamed on the steel shortage. General Motors Corp. continued a program of similar layoffs.

Briggs announced yesterday its Mack avenue body plant would be closed from May 3 to 10. Chrysler planned to lay off assembly workers in the Plymouth plant for a week starting Monday. Closing of the two factories will idle an estimated 6,000 workers.

Eleven of General Motors Chevrolet assembly plants across the country will be closed next week, while GM plans to reopen most of the factories it shut down last week to permit rebuilding of steel supplies.

Houston Taxi Strike Is Set

HOUSTON, April 30. (U.P.)—An estimated 500 Houston and Pasadena taxicab drivers were scheduled to go on strike at midnight unless an eleventh hour settlement could be made with 11 operating companies in a labor dispute.

Negotiations bogged down today after an unsuccessful union-management meeting yesterday afternoon. Only one company, Black and White, has signed a new agreement with local 349 of the taxicab drivers union.

Asked To Take Cut

"Operators are asking us to take a wage cut, and the men can't afford it now," said Clarence A. Ebelt, business agent for the union.

"We're asking for our former commission of 50 per cent and the operators said their final offer was 45 per cent for six days and 40 per cent for less than six days," he said.

The present contract that expires at midnight provides a commission of 50 per cent for a six day week and 45 per cent for less than six days.

Last year, the city's taxicabs were tided up for 25 hours until a wage dispute was settled.

Little Hope Held In Railroad Strike

CHICAGO, April 30. (AP)—Mediator Frank Douglas said today that if the threatened railroad strike is averted, only direct negotiations between management and labor will do it.

"There doesn't seem to be any feeling for arbitration of the disputed issues," the chairman of the National (Railway) Mediation board said as he went into his first conference with management spokesmen.

U. S. Steel Goods To Drop In Price

PITTSBURGH, April 30. (U.P.)—Prices on a wide range of U. S. Steel Corp. products, including steel used in automobiles and home appliances, drop $1 to $5 a ton tomorrow.

The specific price cuts came one week after the corporation, traditional "bellwether" of the industry, announced its $25,000,000 anti-inflation price slashing "experiment."

Tips On How To Get Dogs Out Of Pound Are Offered Owners

"We are happy that the thing has worked out as it has. It is going to be a big help to us here in the health department," Gerald Jarvis, director of the city laboratory, said in referring to the city's new dog pound.

Give 'Em A Bouquet

Jarvis said, "I think we should give a mighty big bouquet to the boys who donated." Referring to work of W. B. Yeager, local lumberman, in promoting the project, he said, "If we needed anything, he saw that we got it."

He said the new pound "will handle the situation I think very nicely, for several years."

Dog owners should obtain licenses for their dogs and have their dogs vaccinated for rabies, according to the health department suggestions. The owners of vicious animals should keep their dogs confined. Jarvis suggested muzzling of dogs which have a habit of biting persons.

In addition to picking up dogs which are unlicensed and unvaccinated, the dog catcher may pick up a dog which bites someone.

Must Curb Situation

Stating that five to 20 dogs a month have been quarantined because they have bitten individuals, Jarvis said the situation needs to be curbed or it probably will call for more drastic laws. Some dogs which have bitten persons are second and third offenders.

Owners of dogs which have bitten someone will have the choice of putting the dogs in a private animal hospital and paying the quarantine fee themselves, or letting the dog be taken to the quarantine area in the new pound, where they will be cared for, the Health department announcement stated. Dogs are quarantined 10 to 15 days to determine whether they have rabies. The health department authorizes the dog catcher to pick up a dog which has bitten someone.

Owners sometimes tell the dog catcher or health department representative that, "I keep my dog up all the time and didn't see any reason to have it licensed."

To Be Held Three Days

Provisions for disposal of dogs specify that they are to be held three days in the pound and may be killed at that time or released to someone other than the owner. There have been times when dogs have been held longer, to give someone opportunity to claim them.

In connection with obtaining release of a dog after one has been placed in the pound, it was suggested that owners call the city health department when a dog is missing. Each morning, the dog catcher presents to the health department a list of dogs placed in the pound the day previously. Sometimes an owner may learn from the description whether his dog is in the pound and sometimes may need to go to the pound to identify the dog. Then the owner goes to the city hall and obtains a release, which costs $1.

No Profit For City

The $1 release fees do not bring a profit to the city. They do not pay for food for the dogs, it was stated.

Reminder was given that $1 release fee will be cheaper for an owner than attempt to release his dog himself.

Anyone tampering with the dog pound will run the risk of prosecution, it was stated.

The city health department inherited the job of supervision of the city pound because of its interest in quarantined animals and any that might have rabies. Far from being disinterested in the recent stir over conditions at the pound, representatives of the department have been happy over improvements.

Plans Were Drawn

Plans had been drawn several years ago for a 12-40 feet pound but no action was taken to proceed with the project. Original plan had been to build the pound in a different location.

V. A. Cross, superintendent of the typhus control program in Lubbock and who has directed rat proofing and rat eradication work, is supervisor of the crew which did the labor on the new pound.

The city is to provide a light, intended to keep prowlers away from the premises at night.

The pound is not considered by the health department as a permanent solution to the pound problem—but as an extremely welcome solution for several years.

Southwestern Bell Earnings Decline

ST. LOUIS, April 30 (AP)—The Southwestern Bell Telephone company's net operating income for the first three months of 1948 amounted to $4,383,597, it reported yesterday. This was $1,491,243 less than for the same period in 1947.

The company announced that earnings in the same quarter were 4.14 percent of total capital invested for those three months, compared to 7.19 per cent for the first three months of last year.

Dividends of $1.25 a share were paid for the first quarter this year. Stock is owned by the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

Burkitt's new gadget looks something like the conventional mouse trap. But in place of food, all the housewife has to do is pour in a little water. Plain H20 (H-Two-Oh).

Idea From Farm

Burkitt says he got the idea for his all-metal, liquid-lure trap about two years ago while visiting a farm. He watched a bunch of rats scurrying back and forth to a pond for long drinks of water.

He hurried home and began experimenting. Using an ordinary wooden trap he scooped out a space for water, improvised a larger trigger and set it, loaded. He killed rats by the dozen.

Burkitt says his liquid-lure succeeds where other means fail because rodents must have water above all other needs. Bitter experience has made them wary of food-baited traps or poisoned food, but they will go for water without the slightest hesitation.

Food bait fails to attract rats or mice, Burkitt says, because they are naturally suspicious of it, they may not be hungry at the time or the food may be spoiled. They eat mostly after dark, but they drink water frequently and at all times.

Has Wide Trigger

Burkitt's gadget differs from the ordinary trap in that it has a wide, perforated trigger that virtually covers the space that contains the water.

There is no way for the mouse or rat to get at the water without springing the trap, Burkitt says. A mouse, he explains, will always try to get under the trigger but it will still get it in the neck.

The rat, though, is a sucker for the liquid-lure. Being suspicious, Burkitt says, a rat will invariably seek the highest point from which food or water can be reached. That makes it sure. In hundreds of tests, he says, the rats always tried to climb up on the trigger to get at the water.

Then they were good rats.

Town's Santa Claus Will Be Remembered

WINNER, S. D., April 30. (AP)—Winner's "Santa Claus," George C. McDonald, is dead, but he won't be forgotten for a long while.

McDonald, better known as Shorty, died in February and his will went through circuit court yesterday. He left two-fifths of his estate to build a community playground. "Give it to the kids," shorty said.

Shorty owned a small cafe here. He saved all the pennies he took in each year. At Christmas time Shorty would gather up the small fry and pass out the year's take.

That's partly why no one was surprised when he remembered his best friends so well The town's attitude was summed up by one man who said "He'll live on in Winner for a hundred years."

Deputies Learning Courtroom Decorum

CHICAGO, April 30 (INS) — Thirty Cook county sheriff's deputies went to a charm school for bailiffs today to learn courtroom decorum.

The bailiffs were attired in new uniform jackets, the first such regalia they've worn in 15 years.

They were told how to handle people during court sessions; how to open and close court, escort juries to and from the jury room and how to keep order.

Instructors were circuit court Judge Julius H. Miner and Sheriff Elmer Michael Walsh.

The population of the Union of South Africa is now more than 11,000,000 but when the British came there 150 years ago it was only 50,000.

Pickets To Make Employer Stop Business Dealing Held Illegal

By NORMAN WALKER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 30. (AP)—Picketing one employer's plant to make his stop doing business with another employer was held illegal today by a National Labor Relations board member.

The decision by Sidney Lindner is the first in NLRB history holding that any form of peaceful picketing by unions is barred by law.

Linder said that picketing ordinarily is regarded as a form of free speech—a method of telling the public that a labor dispute exists.

Violence Outlawed

But he said that union action to compel one employer to stop doing business with another is a secondary boycott—banned by the Taft-Hartley labor act; hence any picketing to enforce such a boycott is illegal too.

Lindner's ruling closely followed another by NLRB examiner Martin S. Bennett yesterday dealing with picket line violence.

Bennett held that a union which authorizes picketing must take legal responsibility for any violence that may occur on the picket line.

Both examiner's reports become final and subject to federal court enforcement — through contempt five-man National Labor Relaaction — unless reviews by the tions board itself are asked by either side within 20 days.

Alabama Case

The Lindner decision grew out of a dispute between local 1796 of the AFL Carpenters union and the Montgomery Fair Co., which operates a department store at Montgomery, Ala.

The examiner found that the store's carpenters went on strike and began picketing in an effort to force the store to stop dealing with Bear Bros., Inc., a building contractor employing non-union carpenters on a job of renovating the store.

The picketing continued until stopped by a federal court order last February 14.

In reaching his conclusion Lindner quoted from a Supreme court opinion of Justice Jackson saying that where violence or other law violation occurs in picketing "the constitutional remedy would be to stop the evil, but permit the speech, if the two are separable; and only rarely and when they are inseparable to stop or punish the speech or publication."

Said Not Separable

Lindner said it is his view that the picketing at the Montgomery store "was an integral part of the strike, in support thereof, and not separable from the strike."

Bennett's ruling was based on violence which flared last winter during a strike authorized by the CIO furniture workers and its local 309 at the Smith Cabinet Manufacturing Co., Salem, Ind.

The pickets carried clubs, had piles of bricks ready for throwing, threatening other workers trying to enter the plant, and blocked plant entrances with railroad ties and automobiles, Bennett found.

Saying officials of the union and its local sanctioned and personally directed the picketing, Bennet added:

"The strike and its corollary activities were participated in by the international and its local as a joint venture and both are legally responsible for the performance of such acts in furtherance of the common purpose."

No damage claim is involved in the Bennett ruling. The case went before the examiner on the employer's contention that the union's activities represented and unfair labor practice. Bennett agreed that they did.

Bicycle Parade To Be Held Saturday

Expectations that 2,500 to 3,000 bicycle riders will take part in the bicycle parade which is to start at 10 a. m. Saturday in 1900-block Broadway were announced Thursday by A. C. Hamilton, superintendent of the City Recreation department.

The parade will start at the building site of the Broadway Church of Christ, will proceed down Broadway to Texas avenue, turn left on Texas avenue, go to Main, turn left on Main and go to 1800-block, turning left to Broadway and then back to the starting point.

The parade will form in ranks of six with 10 yards between each rank. The recreation department stressed request that motorists in cars be on the lookout for bicycle riders at time of the parade.

Prizes will be awarded immediately after the parade. There will be three women judges to judge all girls' events and three men judges for the boy events.

Each bicyclist competing for prizes will be asked to show his membership card in Lubbock Bicycle club, the recreation department announced.

More than two thirds of the $805 million which the American people spent on reading matter in 1940 was spent for newspapers and magazines. The remainder was chiefly for books and maps

Women's League Now Supports Aid Bill

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP).—Reversing its previous stand, the League of Women Voters came out today for the Senate-passed bill authorizing $300,000 a year in federal aid to states for education.

Anna Lord Strauss, the League's president, said in a statement the organization had felt a provision granting each state, regardless of wealth, at least $5 for every school age child was "undesirable."

She added the league's national board decided to support the bill now because of "the increasing evidence of member interest" in the measure.

The bill is before the House education committee.

Play Day Program Set For Saturday

Activities of the Eighteenth annual Texas Tech Play Day, sponsored by the women's physical education department, the Women's Recreational association and the Major-Minor club, will begin at 8 a.m. Saturday.

Several hundred are expected to participate in the day of fun which is open to all women students and will be held in the gymnasium.

Registration and team organization will start Play Day activities. As each girl registers, she will be placed on a color team, and must remain on the team throughout the day. Winners will be determined on the basis of points earned, five points for the winner in each activity and three points for the loser. Awards for the first four place winners will be given at 3:30 p.m. with the stipulation that each girl must participate in at least two team sports and two dual or two individual sports.

All girls entering sports events for the day will be given excused absence from classes, Miss Mary Peacock, instructor in physical education, has announced.

LET'S TRY TO STOP RISING COSTS

IN AN ENDEAVOR to aid in halting further advances in living costs, U. S. Steel will decrease certain steel prices on May 1, 1948, to the extent of $25,000,000 annually, these price reductions being applicable so far as possible to steel products related to the cost of living.

Announcement of these price reductions was made on April 22, 1948, concurrently with the denial by U. S. Steel of the request of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO) for a "substantial wage increase."

United States Steel believes that costs and prices in general are to high for the good of the nation. It shares the firm conviction that American industry and labor should cooperatively do everything in their power to avoid further increases in costs, which, if permitted to occur, must result in higher prices for almost everything we buy. Certainly the best interests of all of our people will not be served by a further lowering in the purchasing power of the dollar.

We are hopeful that our action in reducing the prices of a number of steel products associated with the cost of living may have a beneficial effect throughout the nation and may be helpful in bringing about an early stabilization or reduction in the cost of living. If this should prove to be the outcome, everyone in this country will benefit. If, on the contrary, costs should continue to advance, then in fairness to our employees and to our stockholders we will have to consider at some later date the adequacy of both wages and steel prices under then-existing conditions.

Our answer to the Union was that the granting of its request for a "substantial wage increase" will not in the long run bring benefit to anyone, as it will lead to similar substantial wage increases in other industries and to higher prices generally. Such a wage increase would make necessary a general advance in our steel prices. We are unwilling so to increase steel prices at this time, as we believe this would be contrary to the best interests of the nation.

The Union's demand for a "substantial wage increase" was based on increases in the cost of living. The index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, records an increase of 67.2% in the cost of living between 1940 and February, 1948. During that same period, average straight-time hourly earnings of our steel workers rose 73.3%; their average actual hourly earnings advanced 81.3% and their average actual weekly earnings advanced 91.7%. These advances are substantially in excess of the increase in the cost of living during that period.

If there is to be a halt in the surge of rising costs, there must be full and effective cooperation to this end on the part of every segment of our economy.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Smugly Religious Sister's Evangelism Becomes Final Straw For Ailing And Depressed Woman

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I have read your column for quite a while and get great pleasure from your good advice. Several of your discussions have helped me, and now I am bringing you a problem that has been on my mind for 15 years.

My elder sister Gwen and I were married the same year, and our husbands are as different in type as two men could be. Gwen's husband is interested only in making and saving money and going to church, and my husband—although a good worker, good sportsman and all-around likeable person — has no desire to go to church.

Ever since Gwen took up church work with her husband, she writes me sermon-letters telling me how much of a sinner I am, and whenever she spends time in my home she can't discuss anything without bringing in her faith in God and the hereafter.

FEARS MARRIAGE MAY BE BROKEN

I HAVE done my best to ignore her sermons and hints without offending her or causing family trouble; but I have been very sick and despondent for almost four years and the pressure of her attitude added to my other worries makes me so irritable with my husband that I fear we may part eventually if the problem isn't remedied.

It isn't that I don't believe in church or that I think Gwen's belief is wrong; but I feel that if Jed and I are to be active Christian church workers, we shall be guided to it; and also, that my first duty is to him, regardless of his indifference to church.

However, Gwen's insinuating remarks are turning me against everything, even my only brother and his family. It is difficult to explain, but as best I can express myself, I feel so inferior and depressed that I despise almost everything; and Gwen rarely inquires in a sisterly way about my welfare. Please tell me how to handle the situation.

Signed A. V.

ANCIENT HISTORY OF RIVALRY HERE

DEAR A. V.: As I get the drift, your problem with Gwen started in childhood and consists of emotionally vehement rivalry, with you unduly impressed by Gwen's claims to superiority and she (unconsciously) sharply envious of various attributes of yours that you don't know you possess in her eyes, hence don't give yourself credit for, in relation to her or generally.

In my opinion, there is droll significance in her evangelism. She is five years your senior, got married the same year you did, and has been making much ado about husband's religiosity and her church activities ever since—as if to say, oh! sainted contrast to your ungodly helpmeet and way of life.

I think she feels she got married by the skin of her teeth, straining to reach that goal nip-and-tuck with you, and is none too happy with her bargain; but to save face, down her misgivings and, above all, never let you suspect that you did better than she (from her repressed viewpoint) in marrying a more expansive man, is "making a virtue of necessity" in doing what she must do to humor her provider.

HEALTH INHERES IN SELF-ESTEEM

A HEALTHY personality hectored by her self-glorifying preachments would find the performance amusing or tedious, while also wondering what's "eating" her; but he wouldn't take it as a reproach to himself, and the fact that you feel anxiously defensive means that you're rather seriously neurotic.

The clue to your sickness is given in the statement, "I feel so inferior and depressed that I despise almost everything." In brief, unconsciously you reject (or hate) yourself. And why? Because it's a habit with you to set store by Gwen's judgments and she has always made a point of verbally tearing you down, so that as of today you hardly dare face anybody, including your brother's family; and have begun to reject your husband, too, in line with her carping.

If your life were based on a sturdy foundation of self-esteem and self-acceptance — as it should be — you'd feel sorry for Gwen and sympathetic to her hidden problems; but no need whatever to fend against her neurotic zealotry. For advice; Read Emmet Fox's two books, "The Sermon on the Mount" and "Power Through Constructive Thinking."—M. H.

Jason Allens To Live Here

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Childers of Tulia are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bobby Lee Childers, and Jason Harold Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Allen of Hale Center, which took place Saturday, April 17, in the Tulia First Presbyterian church. The bride will graduate from Texas Technological college in June; the bridegroom graduated from the college in January, 1947.

Rev. J. L. Aldridge, pastor, performed the ceremony and H. M. Baggarly, organist, and Miss Elaine Turney, soloist, provided wedding music. Baskets of white stocks, gladiol and greenery decorated the altar and an archway was entwined with greenery and white flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white satin with a shoulder length veil which fell from a halo of white roses and satin. She carried a white Bible topped with white roses. Miss June Stine of Lubbock, maid of honor, wore an aqua crepe dress with white and sable mist accessories. Her nosegay was of pink roses. Miss Esther Cobb lighted candles.

Brother Is Attendant

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Oscar Allen, and ushers were Olin Monk of Lubbock and Sam McGill of Hale Center.

Following the ceremony, wedding guests attended a reception in the Childers home. In the house-party were Mrs. Bill Gillispie of Lubbock, Mrs. Jesse Jenkins of Walnut Springs, aunt of the bride, Miss Estes Cobb, and Mesdames Lee Henderson, Reed Clayton, J. C. Childers and Hardy Feelings. Receiving rooms were decorated with pink hyacinth and aqua and pink candles

For a wedding trip, the bride wore a rose gabardine suit with brown accessories and a white rosebud corsage. The couple will be at home near Hale Center. At Tech, Mrs. Allen is a member of Las Vivarachas social club; she is a graduate of Tulia High school. Mr. Allen, a veteran of World War II, was a member of Centaur social club at Tech.

Traditional Matrix Dinner Held By Journalism Group

The annual award to the outstanding senior girl in the Tech journalism department was presented to Mary King of Graham at the traditional matrix table dinner held at Hilton hotel Thursday night by Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary fraternity for women journalists. Aline Whitby who presided at the dinner made the presentation.

Anita Oliver and Oleta Stewart reported the state Theta Sigma Phi convention which was held in Dallas last week-end. Mrs. John Collins, director of women's activities at KFYO, outlined opportunities for women's journalists in the radio field. A round table discussion followed the program.

Special Guests Attend

Special guests were Mrs. James G. Allen and Mrs. Tom Allen, sponsors, and Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Carter Wheelock, Miss Vicki Martin and Miss Jane Watson, alumnae.

Members attending other than those mentioned were Mrs. John Wade, Bill Hervey, and Misses Jayne Thompson, Mary Louise Clayton, Margene Fry, Mary Ellen Duffy and Anne Carothers. Other journalism students at the dinner were Misses Jane Skinner, Lois Jean Weekes and Mary Faye Bonds.

Miss Whitby announced the annual news feature writing contest which will be sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi for freshmen and sophomore women journalism majors from May 7-14. Length of the stories is to be from 350 to 500 words.

The dinner table was centered with an arrangement of purple iris and snowballs.

Jilted Parisienne Wants Dowry Back

LOS ANGELES, April 30. (AP)—The French girl lost her man and wants her dowry returned.

Georgette Gambin, 22, petite Parisienne, alleged in a superior court suit that former GI Altar B. Abrams, 26, of Long Beach, Calif., kept her dowry including valuable documents signed by the Emperor Napoleon, Louis XIV and other French kings.

This, after he jilted her. She said that upon arrival here last October she found Abrams had married Patricia Ray, 21.

Mlle. Gambin asked return of the documents or $20,000. Abrams contends he received the items as gifts from Georgette's mother and that he notified the girl of his change of heart.

Sophomores' Picnic To Be Held Monday

Lubbock High school sophomores will hold their annual spring picnic from 1 to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon in Mackenzie park, it was announced today by Mrs. Dick Cozby, head sponsor of the sophomore class.

All sophomores will meet on the north side of the high school building at 1 p. m. and those having drivers licenses and able to bring cars are requested to do so. Students will bring their own picnic lunches, and ice cream and cold drinks will be available for purchase at the park at approximately 4 o'clock.

The park amusement center will be open from 1 to 4 o'clock.

Garnett Reeves and Johnny Sue Corcorran are in charge of refreshments and Jimmy Sexton and J. C. Chambers will handle all general arrangements for the outing. Terry Young, Mona Powell and Jimmy Sexton compose the entertainment and games committee. Jim Wilson will be in charge of cleanup.

J. W. Reid, coordinator of safety in the Lubbock public schools, will supervise transportation. Mrs. Cozby will act as sponsor at the picnic, and assistant sponsors of the class will assist following junior high school pre-scheduling activities set for Monday afternoon.

Somewhat Cooler Weather Expected

(By The United Press)

Texas sweltered in temperatures as high as 104 degrees at Presidio yesterday, but brisk southernly winds were expected to make the heat less severe today.

Coolest spot in the state yesterday was Texarkana with a reading of 80 degrees. Amarillo reported 85 degrees, Lubbock 90, Abilene 91, Big Spring 94, Del Rio 92, Crystal City and Wind 96 and Fort Stockton 97.

Minimum overnight readings from 53 at Pampa and Salt Flat to 73 at Galveston.

Generally fair weather prevailed over West Texas today, but increasing cloudiness was reported from the eastern part of the state.

The forecast called for partly cloudy skies in East Texas today and tomorrow, with showers in the northeast portion tonight or early tomorrow. Fair weather was expected in West Texas, with little change in temperatures.

Borger Will Build New Disposal Plant

BORGER, April 30 (Special)—Bids will be received by the mayor and city commissioners of Borger on May 20 at 2 p. m. for construction of a $250,000 sewage disposal plant, it was announced today.

A Lubbock engineering firm, H. N. Roberts and Associates, has prepared plans tod will supervise construction of the project.

The modern system will include plain primary sedimentation facilities, high rate fillers with rotary distributors, final sedmentation and sludge digestors. Also included are a pumphouse, laboratory and 18-inch sewer lines to tie the plant in with Borger's present sewer system.

RURAL LIFE PALLS

American Occupation Forces To Remain At Posts, Draper Says

DALLAS, April 30. (U.P.)—American occupation forces are staying on the job until real security and a real peace have been achieved, Under Secretary of the Army William H. Draper, jr., said today.

"Their mission and their orders are from the people of America," Draper said in a luncheon address before the American Cotton Shippers' association convention in Dallas.

"Occupation by American soldiers is the best guarantee that any former enemy nation can have today that it will be able to work out a peace-loving and truly representative form of government by itself.

Staying On Job

"Even more important, in today's uneasy world, is the assurance that the American flag in Europe and in Asia gives to freedom-loving people everywhere.

"America is staying on the job—until real security and a real peace have been achieved. And it is made clear just because our man and our flag are there in the occupied nations, actually upon the ground—whether it be in Tokyo, Frankfurt or Berlin.

"It is their mission to be there until America's postwar work is done, and they're going to stay there until that time."

Draper said the United States has nine divisions overseas, "all well below strength." And in this county, two divisions and part of a third.

"Compare this with the Russian army, which, as our Army Chief of Staff, General Bradley, reported recently, has some 170 divisions. It is reported that they could be expanded to 300 divisions within 60 days."

Draper said the United States was short the necessary manpower to carry on efficiently our occupation duties in Europe and Asia and short of manpower at home.

"Peace can best be kept if we are strong," he said. "We need at least the forces to keep attacks, if they should come, away from our own shores.

"We must deny to any potential enemy any foothold or any base on or near the American continent, and if war should come we must be ready to seize and hold airbases perhaps far from our shores but so located that our bombers could carry the war decisively to the enemy."

Praises Leaders

Draper praised both Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commander of occupation forces in Japan, and Gen. Lucius Clay, commander of similar forces in Germany.

The speaker said Japan can use huge amounts of American cotton. Since the occupation, he said, we have shipped into Japan some 1,300,000 bales of American cotton. Although sales have slowed down, he added, there are signs of improvement.

He predicted the European Recovery plan would ease the world's dollar position.

"The world, and particularly the Far East, needs Japanese production. But peace and tranquility and the restoration of normal trade practices and currency values are vitally needed for any complete solution," Draper said.

Saturday Rites Set For Mrs. Marquart

Last rites for Mrs. Ella Jane Marquart, 67, will be held at 5:30 p. m. Saturday in the Rix Funeral home chapel with the Rev. Jeff Welch, pastor of Central Baptist church, officiating. Mrs. Marquart died Thursday afternoon at the home of a son, Cecil Marquart, 2208 Ave. T.

Mrs. Marquart, who had been a resident of Lubbock since 1924, suffered injuries in an accident at her home several weeks ago from which she was unable to recover.

She is survived by four sons, Sgt. C. N. Marquart, U. S. Army, Chanute Field, Ill., Clarence O. Marquart, Hobbs, N. M., Staff Sgt. Eugene D. Marquart, Tokyo, Japan, and Cecil Marquart, Lubbock; a daughter, Marie Couey, Lubbock, three sisters, and seven grandchildren.

Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery with Rix Funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Taylor has been living with her daughter the past eight years, and has been in ill health for the past year. Burial will be in Ennis alongside her husband.

Survivors include Mrs. Hiatt; two other daughters, Mrs. Olan F. Hardy, Mt. Vernon, and Mrs. E. M. Starlinger, Ft. Worth; nine grandchildren, including Jane Hiatt of Lubbock and Dean R. Hiatt of Ft. Worth, and four great grandchildren.

Pioneer Airlines Will Launch New Schedules Here Saturday

Lubbock will have two daily round trip flights to five New Mexico cities and three round trips to Dallas, Fort Worth, Abilene and other Texas cities with the inauguration of Pioneer Airlines' new services Saturday, Bob Izzard, local traffic manager, announced today.

Pioneer will have early morning and late evening flights to Clovis, Tucumcari, Las Vegas, Santa Fe, and Albuquerque and from those cities to Lubbock and other Texas cities, Izzard pointed out.

Flight Time Announced

Jack Boydston, Lubbock city manager for Pioneer, said flights for New Mexico would depart here at 10:12 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. arriving in Albuquerque at 12:22 p. m. and 9:25 p. m. respectively. Flights will leave Albuquerque at 7:30 a. m. and 2:35 p. m. arriving at Lubbock at 11:40 a. m. and 6:45 p. m. These flights will continue on to Abilene, Mineral Wells, Fort Worth and Dallas.

Pioneer will have one more round trip through Lubbock with the new schedules. Going north, flights will leave Lubbock at 9:20 p. m. for Amarillo; at 11:41 a. m. for Amarillo; at 7:47 a. m. for Abilene, Austin, and Houston ;and at 3:32 p. m. for the same points. Boydston pointed out that the new schedules would give Lubbock a greatly improved Dallas and Fort Worth service.

Serves 17 Texas Cities

An example of the time required on the new routes will be a 44-minute flight to Clovis; arriving 16 minutes before leaving Lubbock, since the change to Mountain time. Flights to Tucumcari will require an hour and 13 minutes; to Las Vegas, an hour and 59 minutes and to Santa Fe, two hours and a half, the local official said.

This service will be augmented by the addition of flights from Amarillo to El Paso via Clovis and Roswell within a few weeks. Lubbock passengers will make connections at Clovis.

"Pioneer hopes that this new service will open new fields for the Lubbock businessman and pleasure seeker. Our schedules should provide a maximum of time at destinations with a minimum of time lost while traveling," Izzard said.

Pioneer now serves 17 Texas cities with daily round-trip flights of passengers, air mail, air express and air freight. The company has flown more than 27,000,000 passenger miles since operations were started in August, 1945.

Band Contests Set Saturday

The Lubbock High school band will leave by bus at 6:30 o'clock Saturday morning to compete in the full day Interscholastic League Music contest to be held at Canyon. Other high schools sending bands to the Class AA competition will be Amarillo, Pampa and Borger.

The band, under the direction of Lewis L. Stoelzing, will play the following selections: "The Andante" and "The March" from the Sixth Symphony of Tschaikowsky, the Second Symphony by Borodini, and "El Caballero," a march.

Awards will be given on an A-B-C rating basis; however, a compilation of ratings will be made by judges at the clase of the day's competition to determine the ranking of individual bands.

In Solo Competition

Lubbock High school band members competing in solo competition will be. Vern Scott, trombone; Eddie Goetze, clarinet; Ned Hardin, flue; Don Medlock, clarinet; Patsy Gibbs, cello; Donald Davis, drums; Kenneth Cox, cornet; J. A. Wyatt, cornet; Tubal Cain, cornet.

The local organization will also enter four trios in the regional meet. Cornet trio: Garnett Reeves, Charles Whitfield and Johnny Boswell. Cornet trio: J. A. Wyatt, Kenneth Cox and Stuart Nichols. Clarinet trio: Don Fedlock, Harvey Roth and Eddie Goetze. String trio: Dorothy Dale Kennedy, violin, Patsy Gibbs, cello, Anne Adams, piano.

Entries from L. H. S. in the student conducting division are J. A. Wyatt, Kenneth Cox, Van Scott, Stuart Nichols, Caroline Hardin, Leroy Malouf and Kenneth Brown.

The band will return to Lubbock at 9 o'clock Saturday night.

Adamson Rites Are Conducted In Tahoka

TAHOKA, April 30 (Special) — Funeral services for Delbert R. Adamson, 82, will be held today at 3 p. m. in the Post First Christian church. Mr. Adamson died at his home in the Dixie community early Thursday morning following an extended illness.

Born Nov. 1885, in Collin county, Mr. Adamson left there in 1918 and moved to Garza county. He established residence in Lynn county in 1942.

He is survived by his wife, Bonnie Adamson; four daughters, J. A. Cornelius of Ralls, Mrs. H. C. Hoover of Crosbyton, Mrs. Roland Clem of Tahoka, and Mary Adamson of Dixie community; three sons, D. R., jr., Donald, and Robert Dean Adamson, all of Dixie community; two cousins, Mrs. R. L. Adamson and Aubrey Adamson of Lubbock.

Pallbearers will be Jesse Ray Adamson, Dwight Townsend, Winfred Carpenter, Robert Warren, Dewayne and Billy J. Warren.

Bus Driver Employs Sarcastic Approach

DALLAS, April 30 (AP)—A Dallas bus operator has a solution for a great problem — how to make passengers move to the back of the bus.

He said he asks the passengers three times to move to the rear, then sarcastically invites them to come up to the front, "where there's just lots of room." Unfailingly, they move to the rear.

"It always works," he said.

Price Funeral Is Held This Morning

Services were held at Rix Funeral Home chapel at 10 o'clock today for Pugh Williamson Price, 88, of 2623 Twentieth, who died about 5:30 a. m. Thursday in Lubbock Memorial hospital following an illness of two months. The Rev. Claude Canterbury officiated.

Following the services, the body will be taken to Weatherford for burial alongside his wife. A Masonic graveside service will be held there at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Bratton Funeral home will have charge of arrangements at Weatherford.

A Mason for over 50 years, Mr. Price had been very active in local Masonic work, and at one time was the organizer of a Masonic lodge at Portales, N. M. A resident of Lubbock since 1942, he has formerly lived in Weatherford, Amarillo and Portales.

Surviving is a son, Edward P. Price, of 2623 Twentieth.

Senior Banquet Is Scheduled Monday

The annual banquet of Lubbock High school seniors will be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Lubbock Supper club.

While the banquet has been free to seniors in the past, the class voted this year a minimum assessment of 25 cents per senior for the purpose of increasing the senior class gift fund. The class recently named the gift as an organ for the high school auditorium.

Bill Tatum, president of the senior class, will act as master of ceremonies at the banquet, and T. C. Root, head of the commerce department at Texas Tech, will be the guest speaker.

Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Honey, Mrs. Root and husbands and wives of graduating seniors.

Approximately 425 seniors and guests are expected to attend. The banquet will be an informal dress occasion.

100 Runs Scored In WT-NM; Hubbers Walloped By Dukes

An even 100 runs were scored last night in the West Texas-New Mexico League, as both Amarillo and Abilene slipped into a first place tie ahead of the Lamesa Loboes.

Amarillo took a direct hand in the assault on first place by trouncing Lamesa, 11-6. Abilene kept pace with a 17-12 triumph over Borger. And Albuquerque went into the first division by downing Lubbock 14-1, while Clovis sank deep into the cellar on a 22-7 shellacking handed out by Pampa.

There wasn't much question, when the dust had settled, that the Gold Sox defeat of Lamesa outweighed the run productivity. Lamesa had been clinging to the lead from the league's inception on opening day. They lost it once, when Amarillo went into the first place spot briefly, but went right back the following night.

Whether Amarillo can turn the trick again tonight remains to be seen. If Lamesa and Abilene both win, the Blue Sox will have the lead to themselves, followed by Lamesa and Amarillo. If Abilene and Amarillo lose, the Loboes again will set the pace.

The champion Hubbers found the going against Don Cantrell a little too rough and lost their first division berth gained the night before. Hubber bats rapped 10 hits, two less than the Dukes picked up off Lefty Frank Cobo, and their run production hit a new low for the year.

Wild Pitch Aids Hubbers

The Hubbers almost were blanked and, if a wild pitch hadn't been injected into the picture, there is some question as to whether they would have scored at all. In addition, the Hub City crew almost got themselves into a triple play as the victims, managing to slip out of that by the skin of their teeth.

The victory put Albuquerque into the first division and dropped Lubbock into a tie with Pampa, which trounced Clovis 22-7. The defeat anchored the Pioneers a little more securely in the depths of the league basement, a full game behind the Borger Gassers.

The same teams meet again tonight, before the current road trip comes within two games of completion.

Golf Tourney To Be Like Old Home Week

FORT WORTH, April 30. (AP)—There will be a reunion of Texas golf stars here May 27-30—and it will be just like old times.

At least six Lone Star starters will be in the field of 36 that seeks $15,000 in the third annual Colonial National invitation tournament.

Lord Byron Nelson, who has been in semi-retirement for a couple of years, will drive over from the Roanoke, Tex., farm to participate.

Ben Hogan, who won the Colonial tournaments in 1946 and 1947, will be back to defend his laurels.

Lloyd Mangrum, the year's leading money-winner, will join Jimmie Demaret, Dick Metz, and Harry Todd in the battle for $3,000 first money.

About three million people left American farms for cities between 1940 and 1947.

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

The Hubbers are concluding a two-game series with the Albuquerque Dukes tonight and this game could mean the difference between a successful road trip and a poor one. The Hubbers, looking more like the team of old, took two straight from the Pioneers, only to fall victims of Don Cantrell's hurling last night. If they win this evening's bill, they will have three out of four and an excellent chance to split with Pampa for a winning percentage.

We weren't surprised to see them lose three out of four in their opening series at home. They were performing before a partisan home crowd that remembered only too well the Hubbers of last season. The pressure was on them. They weren't deaf and they heard the talk around town. They felt that they were being held up to comparison and they felt that the comparison was bad. Playing under such conditions, it is almost surprising that they won a single game.

Talking with the players in the clubhouse after Monday night's game, we made the prediction that they would win more games on this road trip than they had at home. It wasn't a startling prediction. It stood to reason that they weren't as bad as they appeared, that they were under pressure before the Lubbock fans. In strange parks, where the fans were against them and weren't critical in the same vein as Hub City fans, they were bound to do better. And they have.

But that still doesn't do away with the fact that this year's team is destined to stand still, or go backwards, unless they get an experienced catcher and at least two experienced pitchers. While the receiving hasn't been the worst in organized ball, it could be better, much better. An older, experienced backstop would make the rookie pitchers 50 percent better. He would steady the team, provide it with the direction that only a smart catcher can give.

As for the current crop of pitchers, there's nothing wrong that more experience in Class D wouldn't correct and which three new, good hurlers couldn't improve. The best 18-year-old rookie in the world hardly can step into Class C ball and be a whiz. And even Class D hurlers often find the slight jump a little too stiff for them until after more experience. From the press box, it doesn't appear that Manager Jackie Sullivan has more than two men who can throw them in there with speed and intelligence.

The Hubber front office realizes that they aren't going anywhere unless they make some improvements. They jumped when they heard Mike Dooley could be bought, only to find that the Detroit Tigers consider him one of their most likely prospects. They wouldn't part with him—at least not to Lubbock. So the search continues for a catcher, with several rookies offered, but no one who fills the bill.

While George Schepps was with the Dallas Rebels, even as business manager, the Hubbers could feel secure. All they had to do was to tell George they needed this player or that and presto! the player was in Lubbock. Now it's a different story. George is on the outside himself and with him are the Hubber hopes. He's still trying to do something, but it's different when you aren't in a position to jockey for players with players. Dick Burnett, the new hurricane in the Rebels front office, is blowing his players to Texarkana. You can forget any possible assistance from there.

That checks the problem squarely up to the local front office and make no mistake, it is a problem. If the Hubbers have a successful road trip, the crowd will be there to see them on their return. If they blow their games, look for a dwindling turnout. This city can't stand a loser and, with other teams showing improvement, the Hubbers must show an equal advance. Right now the future is in the balance and we'd hate to have fate blow too hard on the scales.

Associated Press Staff Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30.—Frankly, there's not much important left to be said about the 1948 Kentucky derby until the cream of the three-year-olds go out and get it over with in a couple of exciting minutes tomorrow afternoon about 4:30 p. m. (CST).

It still looks as though only four colts will dare tackle the Calumet Farm bundle of double-trouble, Citation and Coaltown at Churchill Downs. The answer will come when the entry box opens and closes today. All the owners have to do is plank down $1,000 each and take a shot at the best part of $100,000.

Crowds Swarm In

With only six probable starters, officials at Churchill Downs will decide today if they will eliminate place and show bets.

Jammed trains, planes, buses and other conveyances keep coming with people in them, all eager to get sardined into the rest of the crowd, expected to swell to 100,000.

Prices are taking the expected upward curve, yet nobody seems to mind. The derby comes just once a year, so it's fun while greenbacks and strength hold out.

The real curious, though it requires determinations, arise with the birds and wander out to the barns on the backstretch to stare at the various contenders while trainers apply the final polishing touch.

Swarm Around Stables

It isn't difficult to determine the ones they're going to sink the bankroll on. The visitors clutter up the premises around the stalls of Citation and Coaltown, Warren Wright's derby darlings. The two are the only ones who don't know they are destined to be the shortest-priced favorites in derby history.

Another fair representation of the curious hangs around barn 16, a quarter of a mile up the way. They want a glimpse of Ben Whitaker's My Request and W. L. Brann's Escadru, stabled at opposite ends of the barn.

Another Big Hope

Hard to locate, but right close by is Billings, the big hope of R. W. McIlvain. Billings is cooling out after a gallop and a groom slowly leads him around the inside stable area.

Several barns over from Calumet a limousine rolls up with a chauffeur up front and his passengers asking where can they find Grandpere. It's not hard to track down this California colt. Neatly folded blankets on a rail bear the letters "JPA" for his owner, Mrs. John Payson Adams—the former Muriel Vanderbilt.

Making the rounds, about all that develops is another quick look, some dusty shoes and lots of fresh air.

San Angelo To Take On Unbeaten Cosden

The Ragsdale Sports of San Angelo will attempt to change the unbeaten record of the Cosden Pipeliners of Big Spring in the featured game on the Texas Softball League schedule Saturday.

While the Pipeliners and Sports are battling through a twin bill at San Angelo, Bluebonnet of Lubbock will travel to Stamford, Nathan's of San Angelo will go to Baldridge at Lubbock, and Monahans to Odessa. Crane draws a bye.

Two Batters Tied

Louis Heuval of Cosden and Guy Watts of Monahans currently pace the league batters with .600 each. Clyde Wood of Odessa collected four for seven in his one appearance for .570.

One-armed L. D. Cunningham, veteran moundman of Cosden's, Jackie Neel, the Bluebonnet sensation who won the state ASA for Harlingen in 1947, and J. W. Teague, Crane fireballer, are tied for pitching honors with two wins and no losses. Severn Jackson of Nathan's has won one against no losses.

Neel paces the strikeout department with 32 in two games. Warren Stringbean Pope of Odessa's Elks is next with 25 in two games. Loy Hubbard of Baldridge has 21 in two and Red Denham of Crane has 20 for two games.

Westerners To Meet Borger

Borger's rebounding Bulldogs will invade Rosenthal field at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon to battle the Lubbock High Westerner nine, leader of the District 1-AA baseball title race with a record of three wins and no defeats this season, in the first home conference game for the local schoolboys.

The Westerner nine jumped into the top spot in the district standings this week by defeating the Pampa Harvesters and receiving credit for a forfeit victory over Amarillo's Golden Sandies in a loop setto last weekend at the Panhandle city, but the Lubbock schoolboys must turn back the cellar-post Bulldogs today to retain their slender margin over the Amarilloans.

Lubbock Mentor Fred Taylor has nominated Lefty Jackie Martyn to start on the mound for the local nine, while Dick Hill is expected to handle the hurling chores for the visitors. Martyn, a fireball wrong-hander, allowed only one hit in his last appearance and is fast developing into one of the top hurlers of the district.

Same Batting Order

The Lubbock batting order will probably be the same lineup that fared so well in the three previous loop contests, according to Taylor, with Bobby (Rip) Griffin at third; Jackie Cook, shortstop; Jack Alderson, center field; Charles Galey, second base; Dorrance Guy, first base; Dwight Moore, left field; Royce Jones, right field; and Bill Wylie, catcher.

The Westerner nine, which has had a sharp-fielding crew all season, has shown more power at the plate in recent tilts and will be favored to block Borger hopes for an initial victory today.

Sandies Test Plainview

Tickets for the tussle will be priced at 30 cents for students and 60 cents for all others, school officials have announced, and the box office at Rosenthal field will be open an hour before game time. No seats will be reserved.

In other conference games today the Amarillo Sandies will invade Plainview for a tilt with the Bulldogs at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, while Brownfield is scheduled to journey to Pampa for a double bill. The only setto slated Saturday sends the Brownfield schoolboys to Borger.

Probable starting lineups:

LUBBOCK	BORGER

Alderson, cf	Hill, p
Galey, 2b	Hall, 1b
Guy, 1b	Dalton, 3b

Indian Skipper Has His Eye On Ball

Boudreau Proves Up Theory That Manager Also Can Play

BY JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Lou Boudreau, batting .519 for his unbeaten Cleveland Indians, is a solid argument for the survival of the player-manager in the major baseball leagues.

Last of the big leaguers who still combine the two difficult jobs, Boudreau almost lost his portfolio last fall. Only a flood of mail from aroused Tribe fans induced owner Bill Veeck to call off a tentative trade with St. Louis.

Instead of a trade, Boudreau was signed to "virtually a two-year contract," according to Veeck.

Also Hot At Shortstop

The "cares" of bossing the Indians to six straight wins have weighed so heavily on Lou that he has been able to hit safely only 14 times in 27 at bat. This is tops in the league. With nine runs batted in, he is tied for the lead. His shortstop work remains unchallenged.

Boudreau pounded out four straight hits, including a double and home run, in yesterday's 5-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns. The team now needs only three more triumphs to tie the modern day record for wins at the start of the season.

The New York Yankees got their Joe DiMaggio-Joe Page combination working for a 5-4 edge over Washington in 10 innings. The result moved the Yanks into second place, going into the important three-game series with the Red Sox at Boston today.

Three Homers Not Enough

Homers by George McQuinn, Charley Keller and Yogi Berra weren't enough for the champs. They had to go an extra frame and finally won on DiMaggio's long fly with the bases loaded and none out.

Page relieved Frank Shea, who was in trouble again by giving seven walks. Lefthanded Joe picked up his first win on four hitless innings.

Boston cut loose with a barrage of homers — one each by Ted Williams, Sam Mele, Joe Dobson and Jake Jones — to smother Philadelphia, 11-5, although they were outhit by the A's.

Eddie Mayo's error on Don Kolloway's grounder enabled Chicago to down Detroit, 5-4, for their second victory. Catcher Aaron Robinson, had a perfect day for the Sox with three hits, including a homer and double.

Jinx For Giants

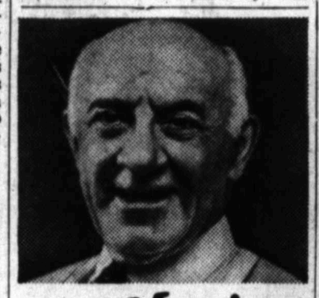

Ebbets field proved to be the same old unhappy hunting ground for the New York Giants. Brooklyn smashed the leaders' six-game winning streak with a 17-7 shellacking.

Preston Ward, Dodger rookie first baseman, homered with the bases loaded and Pete Reiser drove in five runs with a homer and triple.

Pittsburgh climbed into second place on another fine mound job by the veteran Elmer Riddle. He scattered seven Chicago hits for his second win, 4-2.

Rookie Hank Sauer enjoyed a field day in Cincinnati's 14-inning 5-4 non over St. Louis. Sauer tied the score with a homer in the eighth and won it in the 14th with a single. He had four hits, boosting his average to .364.

Freak homers by Dick Sisler and Harry Walker enabled the Phillies to edge the Boston Braves, 4-2.

Cats Hold Lead By Rally In Seventh

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

The fellow who said "never put all you eggs in one basket" would get a Bronx cheer from the Fort Worth Cats today. The Brooklyn farm club concentrated eight runs in the seventh inning, erased a 4-0 Houston lead and protected a one-game lead in the Texas league race.

Young Dave Thomas had pitched one-hit ball until the Cats unsheathed their claws.

Missions Beat Rebels

In another game last night, San Antonio stayed right behind the Cats with a 6-1 victory over Dallas and Beaumont used home runs to wallop Tulsa, 10-3. Shreveport made it two in a row over Oklahoma City, 9-4.

Houston built its four run lead by scoring twice in the third and fourth innings. Four walks and a single by Solly Hemus produced the first pair of tallies. Hemus singled in the other two after Gerry Burmeister had been hit by a pitched ball and Bud Hardin had singled.

Ed Nulty started Fort Worth off with a double, two men walked and so did Thomas—out in favor of Tom Poholsky. Pohlosky gave up a walk, two singles, a triple by Walter Rogers and a home run by Deen Fondy. And that was the ball game.

Bill Deininger's two home runs and a homer and triple by Bill White placed Beaument's easy victory.

Hits Well Scattered

Boyd Sorelle scattered eight Dallas hits, two more than his mates collected of Quentin Altizes But Sal Madrid hit a two-run homer and Joe Frazier a two-run triple for the Missions.

Rookie Steve Sakas notched his first win of the year for Shreveport as the Sports ran away with the game—scoring eight runs in the first two innings.

Oklahoma City rallied for two runs in the ninth, but hardly dented the sport margin.

Tonight, the same teams wind up three-game series.

Former All-Staters On All-Star Squad

EL PASO, April 30. (AP) — The North all-star squad, which meets the South team in the all-star cage game at the annual school of the Texas High School Coaches association Aug. 2-6 in Abilene, includes four former all-state basketball players.

Their names were announced yesterday by Clyde Wafrer, athletic director of Ysleta High school, who selected the 10-man squad.

All-state players named to the team were Maurice Campbell, guard, from the class A Mount Vernon team; Mart Halbert of Throckmorton, center; Bryan Miller, forward from the Class AA champion Crozier Tech team of Dallas; and Kenneth Pemberton, Stratford, who was named all-state in 1947.

Other members of the North team are Ramon Orona, center, El Paso high; Bill Frazier, guard, from Cary; Tommy Hancock, guard, from Prairie Valley of Nocona; Walter Kearnes, center, Denton; Gene Landrum, guard, Abilene; and Luther Scarborough, forward and center, Fort Worth Polytechnic.

Cloverlake Noses Out Laundry 2-1

Cecil Hale and Whistle Banks collaborated last night to turn in one of the major upsets of the South Plains Softball league season, the two hurlers limiting the Sunbeam - Bluebonnet Laundry nine to six hits for a 2-1 victory for the Cloverlake Diary team.

G. W. Warden nearly matched this performance in the second half of the twin bill, letting the Baldridge Bakery team down on three bingles and shutting them out, 1-0.

Banks was slightly terrific last night. Not only did he take over pitching chores in the sixth inning, but he also belted a 282-foot home run over the centerfield barrier in the third inning to single-handedly defeat the Laundrymen.

Bennett Gets Triple

The Texas Tech student was magnificent. He came in to relieve Hale, who had twisted his knee fielding a bunt, at a time when the bases were loaded and there were no outs.

Banks proceeded to retire the Sunbeam team in order, leaving the tying and winning runs stranded. In the seventh, when there still was a chance for victory, Banks again strapped the Sunbeam batters, setting them down one-two-three.

Wayland Bennett, Cloverlake shortstop, bashed out a triple in the two-run third inning for the victors. His blow, with Banks' home run, were the only two extra base hits to be given up by Neel in eight games this season.

Neel had a total of nine strikeouts to his credit, off his usual pace, while Hale and Banks racked up only seven whiffers for the winners.

Hubbard, Warden Duel

It was the first defeat of the season in the South Plains Softball league for the league-leading Sunbeam-Bluebonnet team.

In the nightcap, Loy Hubbard and Warden staged a beautiful pitching duel, with the latter winning by virture of a single run in the first inning.

That run, as it turned out, was enough and it looked bigger and bigger as the game progressed. Neither team could hit the offerings of Hubbard or Warden.

Warden had the best of the mound duel. He held the Baldridge batters in the palm of his hand, giving up two scratch infield singles and striking out 13 opposing batters. At no time was there an indication that Baldridge power was about to break loose.

Meanwhile, Hubbard also showed pitching prowess. Hubbard had hurled a one-hitter Tuesday night and his performance last night was almost as impressive. He eased over the rougher spots, striking out eight batters and, whenever he got in a jam, pitched his way out nicely. The Jewelrymen had nine men left on bases.

Tonight's game were the final ones this week in the South Plains Softball league. A double header will be unreeled again Tuesday and Thursday nights of next week.

Saturday night at Webster Field, the Texas Softball league resumes play, with a doubleheader between Nathan's and Baldridge.

The line scores:

CLOVERLAKE	002	000	0	2	6	2
SUNBEAM	100	000	0	1	6	2

Hale, Banks (6) and Ray; Neel and Clark.

Home run—Banks 3rd.

BALDRIDGE	000	000	0	0	3	3
THOMAS JEWEL	100	000	0	1	3	1

Hubbard and Griffin; Warden and Kelley.

Raiders Take Top In Bowling League

The Raider pin-topplers took over first place in the College Bowling league Thursday night by defeating the Press Bulls in two of three games at Lubbock Bowling club. The Press Bulls copped the first game, but the Raiders rebounded to take the second game and, after an overtime frame, the decisive third tussle.

The Pin-Men gained a two of three games victory over the Snipes, the Lucky Strikes swept a series with the Dallas Demons and the Shamrock Rollers blanked the Turkey Trotters in other league tussles.

T. I. Brown's 184-525 series paced the Press Bulls, while Alex Kiosis' 182-517 topped the Raiders. Jimmy Oates led the Snipes with 180-503.

The standings:

Teams	W	L	Pct.
Raiders	11	4	.733
Press Bulls	10	5	.666
Snipes	10	5	.666
Lucky Strikes	8	7	.533
Pin-Men	8	7	.533
Shamrock Rollers	6	9	.400
Dallas Demons	4	11	.266
Turkey Trotters	3	12	.200

North Texas State Wins Track Meet

DALLAS, April 30 (AP)—North Texas State ran away with a triangular track meet with Southern Methodist and Texas Christian university here yesterday, piling up 103 1-3 points.

Southern Methodist finished second with 41, while Texas Christian scored 25 2-3 points.

Tech Net Team Rallies To Win

AMARILLO, April 30 (Special)—Texas Tech's highly-rated net team rallied from an initial loss to defeat the Amarillo college tennis squad, six matches to three, before a large crowd at the Elwood Park courts here Thursday afternoon.

The Raiders' top stroker, Glenn Ivy, lost in straight sets to the Badgers' No. 1 man, James Saunders. Although the score was 6-2, 6-2, the match was much closer than the count indicated.

Carl Schmidt countered for the Raiders in the second singles tilt with a 5-7, 6-2, 6-3 win over Amarillo's Johnny Allen. The match, featuring fast net play, was the best played singles tussle of the day.

Schmidt, Scudday Win

Schmidt and Eddie Scudday teamed to defeat the top Amarillo doubles duo of Allen and Dick Hardin, 6-4, 2-6, 8-6.

Other results included:

Singles—Joe Wheatley of Tech defeated Dick Hardin, 6-2, 6-1; Eddie Scudday, Tech, beat Hayden Hardin, 6-4, 6-4; Ernest Northcutt, Amarillo, defeated David Hester, Tech, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2; and Jack Prentiss, Tech, defeated Leslie Balmein, 6-1, 2-6, 6-2.

Other doubles results: Saunders and H. Hardin of Amarillo defeated Ivy and Wheatley of Tech in the No. 2 doubles, 6-3, 6-1; and Prentiss and Hester, Tech, edged Northcutt and Balmein, Amarillo, 7-5, 6-4.

Select Field Of 16 Point To Goodall

McSpaden Says Round Robin Gives Golfer Thorough Test

BY OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 30 — A select field of 16 professionals pointed today toward the Goodall round robin and Jug McSpaden, once known as Byron Nelson's "Shadow," declared that the man who wins this one can claim ranking as the world's finest match player.

McSpaden, who finished second to Lord Byron a humiliating 18 times during 1945 and 1946, gives his event the nod over any match play tournament ever devised. And his contention makes sense on close inspection.

He Cites Example

"Take the P.G.A. tournament for example," he said. "Two men can be playing wonderful golf and they may battle even through two rounds. Then one gets a lucky streak and wins on the 39th and the other fellow is eliminated.

"It isn't really fair," he added. "But in this tournament nobody is eliminated. A man can lose to one opponent but it isn't over until he has met every other player in the field at match play and his plus and minus scores are tallied.

Bobby Locke, the defending champion, heads a crack field which will play in the Goodall at New Rochelle's Wykagyl Country club, May 6-9.

Others In Tourney

Others entered are Ben Hogan, Lloyd Mangrum, Jimmy Demaret, Henry Cotton, Dutch Harrison, Herman Keiser, Bob Hamilton, Claude Harmon, Herman Barron, Jim Ferrier, Johnny Palmer, Cary Middlecoff, Vic Ghezzi, Chuck Harbert and Ed Furgol.

It's a rough outfit when it comes to hammering pars and birdies. Yet that isn't the reason McSpaden, who with Nelson formed golf's "Gold Dust" twins during the war years, is happy to be on the sidelines.

The lantern jawed Jug could hold his own with any of them when he was at the peak of his game. Ten triumphs over Nelson attest to that. It's just that McSpaden is happier as manager of Goodall's sportswear division.

Much Easier On Nerves

"Much easier on the nerves," he grinned. "That tournament golf is really tough.

"You have to practice hard, play hard and concentrate hard all the time," Jug recalled a bit wistfully. "After a couple of years you start to click and you knock them lopsided. Then it just gets to be too much work. You're tired and you don't practice or concentrate as hard. Soon your concentration is gone completely.

"Even after you start to slip, you go along on your momentum for a while," McSpaden pointed out. "But then all of a sudden the roof falls in and you're done."

McSpaden still hopes to play in the open and "a couple of others" but has little hope of ever again approaching his former peak. It was during that time he shot a 59 at Breckenridge Park in San Antonio.

"I guess that's about as close to a perfect round as anybody ever had," he argues.

Black Hubbers To Play Detroit Here

Lubbock's Black Hubbers have announced they will play the Detroit Senators, negro professional baseball team, here Sunday afternoon.

Game time is 3:15. The Detroit team played here recently, beating Houston 21 to 1.

New light, low-cost wall panel made of insulating material covered with stainless steel may cut costs in several-family houses and other multi-story buildings, the Department of Commerce disclosed.

Race Tightens In Big State

(By The Associated Press)

Big State league clubs switch sites today, still so bunched standings could change overnight.

Greenville retained a half-game lead over Waco on a 7-4 decision over Texarkana. Last night the Pirates squeezed by Wichita Falls, 5-4, while Austin hammered Gainesville, 15-2, and the Sherman-Denison-Paris game was halted after five innings because of power failure.

To Complete Game Later

Paris was ahead, 13-1, when a high viltage line fell, but officials of the two clubs agreed to complete the game at a later date. Twelve of the Rockets runs came in the first inning.

Waco pushed over its winning run the bottom of the ninth. The Pirates had scored twice in the first on Don Cena's two-run homer and added another tally in the fourth and one more in the fifth.

Frank Pawlik and Jack Bradsher hit homers for the Spudders in the sixth.

Errors Are Costly

Austin used ten hits and four Gainesville errors to easily crush the Owls.

Texarkana collected 11 hits off Greenville, but couldn't hit in the clutches, 16 men dieing on base. D. C. Miller hit a two-run homer for Texarkana in the first. Greenville's 11 hits came at opportune moments.

Tonight, Austin goes to Sherman, Waco to Greenville, Paris to Gainesville and Texarkana to Wichita Falls.

Odessa Woman Wins In El Paso Tourney

EL PASO, April 30 (AP)—Mrs. C. D. Lee of El Paso, medalist in the 17th annual Women's Southwestern Golf association tournament, was defeated 2 and 1 today by Mrs. Sam O'Neal of Odessa.

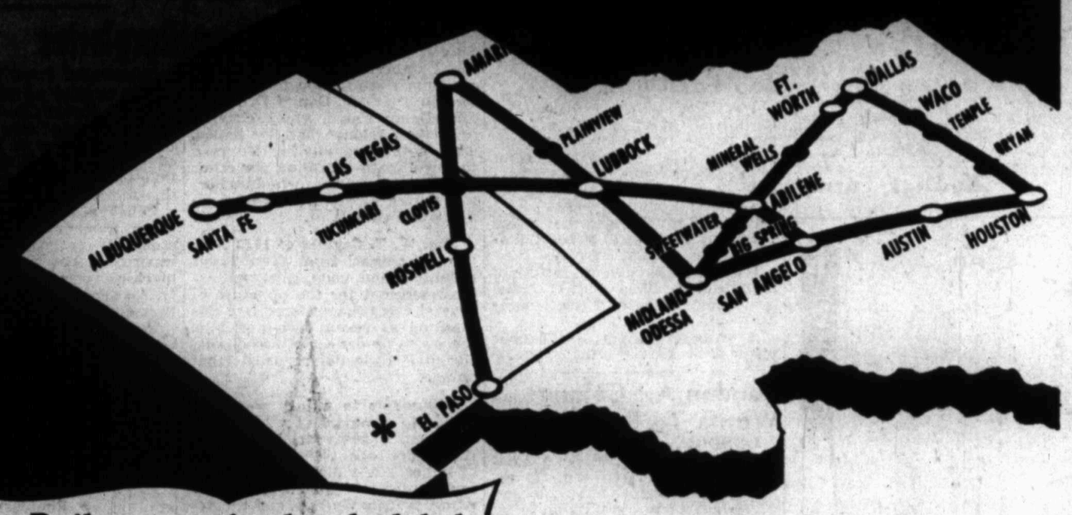

The first round match was marked by a forfeited hole, which contributed to Mrs. Lee's defeat. The two women were all even on the 16th hole. Mrs. Lee saw her caddy pluck a dandelion near her ball to improve her lie. She immediately called attention to the violation and forfeited the hole.

Mrs. O'Neal won the 17th hole with a par four to win the match. Her medal score of 79 was the best carded during the day. Mrs. Lee had an 81.

Strike Threats Faced In Italy

ROME, April 30 (AP) — Italy today faced the first threats of strikes since the Communist-dominated Popular Front was beaten in last week's elections.

The Gas Workers National Federation asked the General Italian Confederation of Labor (CGIL) for permission to call a nationwide strike May 6 if the privately owned companies have not by then met demands for better working conditions.

Transport workers also threatened a nationwide 24-hour strike if employers do not "very soon" heed requests for renewal of wage contracts.

In the meantime, however, there are growing indications that the ship may be in for some internal CGIL and its Communist leader difficulties. The CGIL executive committee has not yet acted upon a proposal from its minority — including Christian Democrat, Republican and moderate Socialist representatives — to reconsider the organization's opposition to the Marshall plan.

The minority groups are reported to be getting ready for a drive to force some action, which may result in splitting the powerful national labor organization in two.

Another splitup also appeared to be in the making. Leaders of the pro-Communist wing of the Socialist party called a national council meeting for May 14, at which demands for a national congress of the party are to be considered.

Giuseppe Romita, leader of a faction within the pro-Communist group dissatisfied with the alliance with the Communists, has demanded the congress in order to change the fellow traveler policy.

Military Pool

the alliance has been given informal assurances that U. S. military material will be forthcoming once its defense plan is finished.

Responsible officials in touch with the alliance say the plan probably will include:

Plan Set Out

(1) Standardizing weapons and training.

(2) Trading military information.

(3) Setting up a quota system by which each member nation would keep a certain number of troops ready for action.

(4) Establishing a network of airbases under control of individual countries but used in common.

(5) At length, forming a high command representing all the members.

In Brussels early today, finance ministers of the five nations announced an okay in principle of proposals to make payments easier between European countries during the four years of the European recovery program. Details of the proposals were not given in the ministers' communique.

Angry Judge

sat silently through Frankfurter's questioning of Pressman and CIO Attorney Charles J. Margiotti. But now he called to Vinson for recognition.

The usually calm chief justice bit his lips, then said once again:

"Your time has expired."

Climenko nevertheless began, "I deplore the accusation . . . ."

Vinson's face turned white. He pounded his gavel. In cold tone and measured words he said for a third time: "Your time has expired!"

Climenko retreated.

The usually hushed courtroom was in momentary confusion.

But Vinson quickly called the next case and order returned.

Climenko told newsmen outside the courtroom that what he had tried to say was this:

"I deplore the fact that I have lived to see the day when such a suggestion should be made — a suggestion of pre-arrangement."

Conference Ends

organization will operate.

They are the Inter-Amtrican conferences, consultative meetings of the foreign ministers, a council or governing board, the Pan-American union, special conferences and specialized agencies.

The conference economic committee unanimously approved Buenos Aires as the sight of the forthcoming Inter-American economic conference, to be held in late 1948 or early 1349. The next Pan-American conference is to be held in Venezuela in 1952 or 1953.

The economic committee said the Buenos Aires conference will concentrate on:

1. The creation of an Inter-American bank, as proposed by Argentina, Mexico, Peru and Colombia.

2. A United States proposal that the American nations agree to reduce tariffs and eliminate other obstacles to Inter-American trade as a means of improving hemispheric economic conditions.

PERFORMANCE INDIFFERENT

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP) — Stocks closed out a generally rallying month with an indifferent performance in today's market.

Disquieting news on several labor fronts clamped a tight rein on attempts to resume the advance. Many pivotals sagged somewhat in late dealings. Some favored oils and aircrafts were principal exceptions, reaching new highs for the year or longer.

Transactions held well above the million-share pace they have maintained with but one exception in every full session during April. Total for the day was approximately 1,500,000 shares.

At lower levels were Chrysler, U. S. Steel, Chesapeake & Ohio (at a new low for the year, Pennsylvania Railroad (reporting net loss for March and 3 months), Firestone, National Distillers, Schenley, Distillers Corp., Union Carbide, American Tobacco, Western Union and Owens Illinois.

New 1948 highs were attained by Socony-Vacuum (on early transfers of large blocks including one of 7,000 shares), Richfield Oil, Sinclair Oil, Atlantic Coast Line and Santa Fe.

Futures closed 20 cents to $1.40 a bale lower than the previous close.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP) — Cotton futures declined today on scattered liquidation which met scale down trade support. Lack of fresh incentives in the export situation until the foreign aid program gets into operation, favorable crop reports, and the continued buyer resistance to prices for cotton textiles had an unsettling effect on trade sentiment. Evening-up operations in nearby May were stimulated by the issuance of 35 additonal May transferrable notices.

One private crop survey said acreage ideas continued to climb in the eastern cotton belt, which some observers predicting an increase in the southeastern states of as much as 15 per cent if weather continued favorable.

Local Keglers Enter Tourney

Lubbock will be represented at the Women's International Bowling Congress this week end by two teams, both composed of outstanding local keglers, who will make the trip to Dallas to complete in the national tourney.

Play for the local women will get under way Sunday night at 7, when they will take the lanes to roll team scores. Doubles and singles will be rolled by the Hub City women Monday morning at 9.

Teams Are Listed

The personnel on the team, sponsored by Hemphill-Wells, will consist of Noralee McCasland Leonora Roberts, Herbie Ranton, Aleene Hilton and Artie Galloway, team captain.

The team sponsored by the Southwestern Public Service company will consist of Norma Crosland, Maxine Buckner, Bertha Thomas, Marcelle Curlee and Arlys Wondle.

Schedule Is Given

After the two teams have bowled as units, they will split up and bowl in pairs in the doubles competition. Pairings have been announced as McCasland-Curlee, Roberts-Ranton, Hilton-Galloway, Crossland-Thomas and Buckner-Wondle.

These same bowlers will follow their doubles competition with individual rolling in the singles competition. Each player also will have her individual total for the team, doubles and singles bowling count toward the all-events stake.

Longview Wallops Tyler For Top Spot

(By The Associated Press)

Manager Dixie Parsons took a personal hand in leading the Longview Texans back to the top of the Lone Star league standings, but staying there may be an entirely different matter.

An 11-2 decision over the Tyler Trojans put the Texans on top and dropped Tyler back into second place.

Parsons hit a home run in the eighth to add to a lead Longview manufactured on 11 hits.

Other results last night in the closely fought race saw Marshall win its first game of the young season, 12-3 over Gladewater; Kilgore squeeze by Bryan, 7-6, and Henderson beat Lufkin, 5-2.

Leroy Jones and Willis Chamness held Bryan to five hits in Kilgore's victory and Marshall jumped on two Gladewater hurlers for 15 safe blows.

Henderson's manager Guy Sturdy was ejected for protesting a decision at second base in the first inning and Lufkin catcher Ben Hibbs was thumbed out of the game by umpires for protesting a plate decision in the seventh.

Houston Tourney Is In Quarter Finals

HOUSTON, April 30 (AP)—The 39th annual Texas state amateur golf tournament moves into quarter-final play today with the field trimmed of several highly regarded contenders.

Former champion Reynolds Smith of Dallas, Tyrrell Garth, jr., Beaumont, Ed Tyer and Bobby Riegel, both of Houston, bowed out yesterday.

Medalist Dick McCreary, Howard Creel, Ed White, Harry Webb and Ed Herron, all of Houston, and L. C. Taylor, Tyler; Jack Cameron, Baytown, and Claude Wilde, jr., Austin, make up the quarter-final field.

Taylor, won 1 up from F. E. Ames, Beaumont, and from Garth, 1 up.

Taylor had beaten L. M. Atwell, Greenville, 4 and 2, in the morning.

Wilde advanced on a 4 and 2 win over Leroy Roquemore, Palestine, and a 3 and 2 decision over Bob Watson, Wichita Falls.

Locke Leads Way In Capital Open Play

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—South African Bobby Locke, a sparkling 65 on his first-day scoreboard, led the way today into the second round of the 72-hole National Capital open golf tourney.

Locke's seven-under-par play yesterday gave him a two-stroke lead over the quartet sharing second place: Johnny Palmer, Badin, N. C.; Tommy Wright, Knoxville; Walter Romans, Baltimore, and Johnny Weitzer, Reading, Pa.

third trustee and representative of the operators, has filed a suit to keep the Lewis-Bridges plan from going into effect.

Seeks Concessions

Van Horn contends the pensions would bankrupt the welfare fund.

That fund comes from payment by mine operators of a royalty of 10 cents on each ton of coal mined.

In addition to the pension issue and the royalty which supports it, there is speculation Lewis will ask for a substantial wage increase and other concessions such as more holidays and vacation.

At present the mine workers receive $100 as a vacation payment.

The vacation time is scheduled this year for June 26 to July 4.

If the 400,000 soft coal diggers walk out June 26, Lewis can say they are on vacation — not on strike.

Super-Speed X-Ray Movies Will Be Useful In Various Studies

BY FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—Development of super-speed x-ray movies — 2,000 times faster than a wink — was reported today by a Westinghouse scientist.

Dr. Charles M. Slack told the American Physical society that the new technique of x-ray analysis will have numerous future uses in medicine, industry and rocket research.

Slack is director of the Westinghouse Lamp Research laboratories, Bloomfield, N. J.

Speeds Process

He said x-rays have been recorded on motion picture film previously but the new machinery has speeded the process tremendously. It involves teaming up x-ray exposures of 10 millionths of a second and a shutterless camera shooting movies at 100 frames a second.

In a prepared address to the society Slack said:

"With exposures of such rapidity — 2,000 times faster than a person blinks — we are able for movies of speeding objects without blur."

Dr. Slack said these future developments are possible:

1. Capture, on movie film, of visible evidence of the fastest-moving organs within human bodies.

2. Making pictorial records of feet in a running or walking action — to aid foot doctors and shoe manufacturers.

Study Of Fliers

3. Pictorial study — under simulated conditions — of the bodily distortions fliers endure when catapulted from a speeding plane or when they make crash landings.

4. Solution of many of the mysteries of how metal is deposited from an arc welding rod, and of how molten metal flows into a casting mold.

5. Study of the internal action of airplane and automobile engines, looking toward smoother and safer performance.

Dr. Slack said the Navy plans to utilize the super-speed x-ray movie in rocket research to find how various fuels burn.

Russian Troops Threaten To Shoot Down U. S. Flag On Grounded Excursion Boat

LINZ, Austria, April 30. (AP)—Sgt. Frank Druschel of Aurora, Ill., told today how he defied Russian troops who threatened to shoot down an American flag on a grounded excursion steamer a mile from here.

The American-leased steamer, Stadt Passau, struck a sandbar after an oil line broke last night. The Danube river forms the boundary between the United States and Russian occupation zones at that point.

Reds Withdrew

Druschel, in charge of the boat, said a Russian officer on the Russian side of the river shouted a demand that the flag be lowered and threatened to have it shot down. The Russian also threatened to have the steamer blown up if any attempt was made to move the vessel.

Druschel said when he refused to lower the flag the Russian troops withdrew from the bank.

There were 19 passengers aboard the steamer at the time. Three Austrian crew members and an Austrian policeman were arrested by the Russians when they went ashore on the Russian side to seek help. They were held until this morning.

Go For Help

Cpl. Joseph Ballen and Pfc. Robert Simard, both of Boston, Mass., rowed 500 yards to the American side of the river to get help from U. S. Army authorities.

The 12 soldiers and their seven guests were removed from the steamer to the American side by boat early this morning. Druschel and five crew members stayed aboard until the vessel was pulled off the bar and towed to Linz.

Dallas Doctor To Head Medical Body

HOUSTON, April 30 (U.P.)—Dr. Tate Miller of Dallas took over officially today as president of the Texas State Medical association, following installation ceremonies at the organization's convention here yesterday.

According to association policy, Dr. G. V. Brindley of Temple was elected president for 1949. Dr. Brindley, senior surgeon of Scott & White hospital, will be installed at next year's convention, to be held in San Antonio.

Other officers elected to serve next year were Dr. Robert Homan of El Paso, speaker of the house of delegates; Dr. R. E. Windham of San Angelo, vice president; Dr. Harold M. Williams of Fort Worth, secretary; and Dr. Merton M. Minter of San Antonio, re-elected to the board of trustees.

Mrs. S. M. Hill of Dallas was installed as president of the TSMA women's auxiliary, while Mrs. Joe Foster of Houston was named president-elect and will be installed at the 1949 convention.

O'Daniel Seeks Tax Job For Dallasite

WASHINGTON, April 30. (AP)—Reuben Williams of Dallas, a former Texas state highway commissioner, will be the next collector of internal revenue for North Texas if Senator W. Lee O'Daniel (D-Tex) has his way.

Sen. O'Daniel yesterday asked President Truman to appoint Williams.

Williams said in Dallas last night that he had talked with O'Daniel by telephone and told the Senator he would accept the post.

A lawyer, Williams is a former resident of Fort Worth.

London Art Colony Wants To Rebuild

LONDON, April 30. (AP)—Chelsea, the Greenwich Village of London, is seeking legislation to replace its war-damaged studios and preserve its traditions as an artist community.

A committee of the Chelsea borough council says that of the 316 studios in use in 1939, 47 were destroyed by bombs and 42 made unfit for occupation, and 85 are occupied by private families, leaving only 142 of the pre-war total in possession of practicing artists. Of these, 66 are damaged or dilapidated, leaving only 76 in good repair and used by artists.

Trieste Again Faces Tension

TRIESTE, Free Territory, April 30 (AP) — Civilian police used pistols and fire hoses last night to break up a pre-May day Communist demonstration in the heart of Trieste.

Several hundred Communists massed to protest an Allied military government order that pro-Yugoslav and pro-Italian groups confine their May day celebrations to their own sectors. The Communists want to celebrate in the city's main square.

Police moved into action as soon as groups of pro-Yugoslav demonstrators left the Slovene sector and started toward Piazza Garibaldi and Piazza Impero.

Rocks Are Hurled

They followed the crowd into the Communist sector, where rocks were hurled from rooftops. The police fired over the crowd, then soaked it down with fire hoses. Motorcycle patrols were busy breaking up little knots of demonstrators more than an hour after the first disturbance.

No casualties were reported.

The Allied military government all but sealed off the British-American zone as a precaution against threatened Communist May day disorders.

Today at 9 a. m. all highway block posts except one into Italy and one into Yugoslavia were closed. No one will be permitted to debark from ships until further notice.

gebra exam and escape his father's wrath.

Police said Anthony Durso, grimly-faced and clad in dungarees and, a plaid cowboy shirt, got a smart neighborhood youngster to be his proxy at the examination.

Police, questioning 165 of the teacher's pupils, uncovered the masquerade during the tests and quickly corraled the five other boys, the oldest 16 years of age.

Throughout it all, the teacher, blonde Margaret Jokiel, 24, went quietly about her examination duties under police guard.

Police were told the raid ringleader ordered "now shoot if you're not chicken-hearted" and the car, its license plates and headlights covered with handkerchiefs, slid slowly past the teacher's home, with four guns blazing.

After the shooting the four boys relaxed over ice cream sodas.

Durso and the other raiders under 16 face juvenile delinquency charges, and the 16-year-old will be charged with assault. No police action was planned against the boy who served as sit-in at the examination.

LARGE SUM TAKEN BY CAB DRIVER IN ROBBERY

76-Year-Old Tippler Doesn't Care Where His Money Went---He Has Plenty, Police Are Told

BY COE CRAWFORD
United Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, April 30—Arthur Geist waggled a bony finger under a police captain's nose today and bawled him out for "messing around" in things that don't concern him.

The captain, Walter Healy, tried to explain that the police department was only trying to help him recover the money that was stolen from him yesterday. But Geist would have none of it.

The 76-year-old former insurance broker heatedly insisted that it was his money "and if some punk wants to roll me for it, that's my business. There's lots more where that came from."

Police Confused

The police admitted they were a little confused by the whole case, which began yesterday morning when Vincent Calargo, 24, a bartender from Westfield, N. Y., walked into the police station and announced that he had inadvertently helped in a robbery.

Calargo said that he was in a saloon early yesterday morning when an elderly man, "who was pretty drunk," flashed a big roll of money.

The bartender asked Calargo to find a cab to get the man home. When he found one, the cab driver asked Calargo to ride along.

Calargo said the cab stopped in a section he had never seen before. The driver took the elderly man into an areaway, returned alone, and said:

"That was easy. Here's your cut."

Walks Into Station

When Calargo told the story and showed the police the money, they started a city-wide search for the victim. He turned out to be Geist.

Geist walked into the police station wearing parachutist's coveralls, a floppy army service cap and a pair of bowling shoes. He was accompanied by a friend, Harry Marinos, who drives a taxicab but not the one Geist and Calargo rode in yesterday morning. He had another roll of bills.

"This is a lot of nonsense," Geist thundered. "I don't know how much was taken and I don't care."

He told police he gave up a successful insurance brokerage business in 1932 and since then has made a hobby of visiting Chicago taverns.

He pulled a pint bottle of whisky from his back pocket and another from the valise he was carrying.

Has Reserve

"I get around to quite a few taverns in a day," he told police, "but sometimes its a long way between taverns and I like to have a reserve."

Healy said he was much more interested in Geist's fiscal policy than in his drinking habits But Geist brushed his references to money aside.

"Oh, I don't worry about money," he said. "Whenever I run short I send Harry, here, down to the bank to get some more. Sometimes when I think I've got too much on me, I go and deposit it in the closest bank."

He said he didn't know how much he lost yesterday and didn't care.

"Why only yesterday I gave Harry $1,000 because he hurt his hand and I thought it should be looked after."

All Are Booked

Marinos held up a bandaged paw for confirmation.

Police booked Geist, Calargo and Marinos on technical charges of disorderly conduct. The officers resumed their search for the missing cab driver and his $1,300-plus loot.

Geist posted bond for all three picked up his whisky and his valise and started toward the door.

"By the way, Captain," he called to Healy, "why don't you and all the boys come have a drink on me down at the corner?"

NOW ALL HE HAS TO DO IS BUILD HIS CAR—Maurice Fawcett, right, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Fawcett, 2614 Ave. K, is looking over a set of wheels for a Soap Box Derby car at the local Firestone store. Floyd P. Nesbitt, left, store manager, is explaining to young Fawcett phases of the Derby car's construction. In the background is a sample car displayed in the store window at 1112 Broadway. Supply of the wheels for the cars has already been exhausted locally but an order has been placed for 148 additional sets and 175 sets of steering gears. Next week the boys will be given booklets with instructions on how to build the cars. The Avalanche-Journal-Chevrolet Soap Box Derby will be held in Lubbock for the first time on July 5, (Staff Photo.)

Instructions Given To Tech's Veterans

A list of instructions pertaining to summer school and dependency benefits for veterans attending Texas Technological college under the GI Bill has been released by H. A. Anderson, coordinator of veterans affairs at the college.

Those attending under part VIII of the bill who do not intend to go to summer school and who do not want to be granted leave between semesters should contact their training specialist at the veterans guidance center as soon as possible. This will insure their not having leave time charged against them if they do not attend the summer sessions, Anderson said, adding that the deadline for this service is May 15.

Veterans under part VII of the bill who wish to interrupt their training must see their training specialist also before the May 15 deadline.

Transfers Must Check

All veterans who wish to transfer at the end of the spring semester must check with their specialist before May 15 in order that their records may be processed for transfer which will insure their receiving subsistance checks with less delay than would be experienced otherwise.

There has been a change in the process for claiming a dependent when a veteran marries, Anderson said. He must report to his training specialist at the guidance center or at the coordinator's office and fill out a Form 686-C, and this and his marriage license will now be required for a raise in subsistance. The old system whereby the veteran filled out a statement of intention is no longer adequate, the coordinator stated.

The American people spent $467 million for educational reading matter in 1940 and an additional $338 million for recreational reading.

Ex-Communist Leader Of Costa Rica Jailed By Panama Police

PANAMA, Panama, April 30 (AP)—Manuel Mora Valverde, exiled Costa Rican Communist leader, arrived here last night in a bullet-riddled plane and a Panama official said he was immediately placed in police custody to await the first available transportation out of the country.

Mora, accompanied by two women, was among five American World airways passengers whose plane was fired upon as it readied for flight from San Jose, Costa Rica's capital.

The Communist leader supported the government of President Teodoro Picado Michalski, deposed this month by rebel chieftain Jose Figueres. One report said Figueres accompanied him tothe airport.

Mora had been given refuge in the Mexican embassy at San Jose since April 24, when the rebels took over. Reports here said he probably would go to Mexico from Panama.

Forced To Leave

Officials who talked with Mora at the airport here quoted him as saying he would rather have stayed in San Jose to face his enemies, but that he was forced to leave. His companions were identified as Judith Ferrero, 39, and Maria Isabel Carvajal, 59, Communist writer whose pen name is Carmen Lira. A report said police found a copy of instructions he had left for Costa Rican Communists.

A Pan-American airways spokesman said five khaki-dressed youths rushed up to the plane and pumped five pistol bullets into it as it stood on the runway. No one was struck.

Although one of the bullets punctured a tire on the plane, it landed at nearby Albrook field without mishap.

Flights Suspended

Pan-American said it had suspended all flights into Costa Rica until the Costa Rican government assures that the planes will be fully protected.

In an interview at police headquarters Mora said he believed the bullets were intended for him, but that apparently the assailants mistook another passenger for him. He said he did not attach much importance to the incident.

In reply to a query whether he is a Communist, Mora replied he is a Vanguardista (Vanguardia Popular), which used to be called the Communist party. He said the party's activities would continue in his absence, although most of its leaders are in hiding.

Coleman Celebrates Completion Of Dam

COLEMAN, April 30. (AP)—Coleman yesterday celebrated the completion of Hord's creek dam.

The celebration was held at the dam, eight miles west of here. It was built by Army engineers as a flood control and water supply project.

Coke Stevenson, former Texas governor, said in a speech that the dam "typifies the policy of land and water conservation the state and nation must have."

When the lake fills the city of Coleman will have a water supply sufficient to carry a city of 30,000 through a drought equal to any recorded here in the past 50 years, said Col. B. L. Robinson, Army district engineer from Galveston.

Population of Coleman is nearly 10,000. It has been hauling water in railway tank cars from Lake Brownwood.

Fifteen per cent of all grade schol pupils in the United States learn their three R's in one-room, one-teacher schools. The average has 16 pupils.

Drive To Restore Constellation Set

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—A nationwide drive is being planned to raise $1,000,000 to restore the famous old fighting ship Constellation.

A group of high Navy officials and prominent citizens met today—the 150th birthday of the Navy—to work out details of the fund-raising campaign.

The famed frigate's sister ship, the Constitution, was restored 20 years ago through penny contributions by the nation's school children.

Members of the restoration committee include the four Fleet Admirals King, Nimitz, Halsey and Leahy, Gen. Alexander A. Vandergrift; Thomas Watson, sr., president of International Business Machines; Philip Murray, CIO president; William Green, AFL president; the Rev. Patrick A. O'Boyle, Archbishop of Washington; Rabbi Aba Hillel Silver; and Justin Miller, president of the American Association of Broadcasters.

Traffic Death Toll Declines

CHICAGO, April 30 (AP)—The nation's traffic deaths in the first quarter of 1948 dropped to four-fifths of the immediate postwar l[illegible]eached in the first quarter of 1946.

...announcing the figures today the National Safety Council attributed the drop to the most intensive and highly-organized accident prevention campaign in the nation's history.

The 6,480 traffic deaths reported in the first three months of this year amounted to a seven per cent reduction from the 6,990 killed in the corresponding 1947 period. For March alone the toll of 2,250 was five per cent under the 1947 total of 2,370 for the same month.

The council estimated traffic accidents in the first quarter of 148 caused actual and potential production losses of $320,000,000.

Of 191 cities reporting no deaths from accidents in March, Syracuse, N. Y., is the largest. The largest of 177 cities maintaining no-death records for the three months period is Wichita, Kas.

Main Line Tracks Blocked By Cars

POTTSTOWN, Pa., April 30. (AP)—Six cars of a ten-car freight train were derailed today at nearby Linfield, blocking all four tracks of the Reading railroad's main line from Philadelphia to New York, a Reading spokesman said.

Reading officials said no one was injured, but said that no trains would be able to move over the line until late this afternoon. Meanwhile all Reading trains were being re-routed over the Pennsylvania railroad's tracks.

The pile up occurred right in the town of Linfield, a community of 800, the Reading officials said. Of the six cars that jumped the tracks, two tank cars overturned, a Reading spokesman said.

The train was en route from Jersey City, N. J., to Reading, Pa.

ITU Is Charged In Labor Violations

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—A National Labor Relatiodns board attorney formally charged the AFL International Typographical union today with continuing Taft-Hartley labor act violations in contract negotiations with New York newspaper publishers.

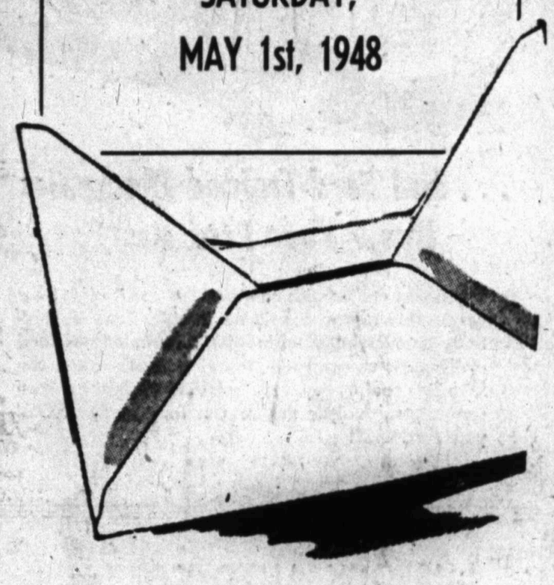

Allen Sinsheimer, the attorney, told reporters it was not his province to say if the alleged continuing actions violate a federal court injunction issued March 27 at Hammond, Ind., against certain ITU practices.

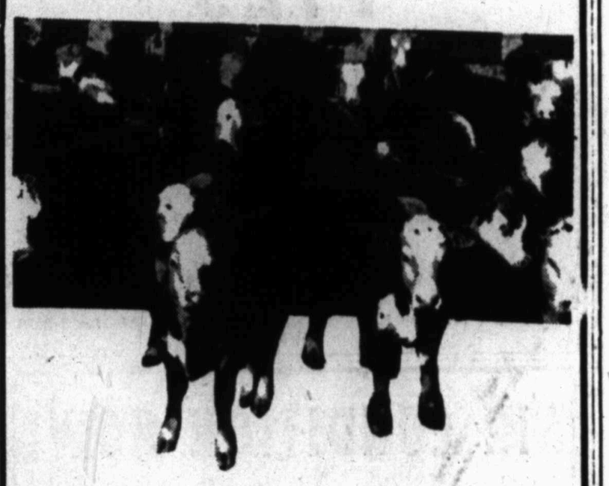

The ITU's New York local reached a tentative agreement with newspaper publishers there 10 days ago but the proposed pact was vetoed by Woodruff Randolph, union president, and the ITU executive board.

Hostility To Communism Grows Among Many European Parties

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Hostility to Communism's ruthless aggression continues to grow apace in the Democracies, and among the many striking evidences of this is the British Socialist party's purge of extreme Leftist members in the House of Commons.

John Bull's Socialists are, on the whole, middle-of-the-road politically but until recently had regarded their left wing with considerable toleration. The Bolshevists' brutal rape of Czechoslovakia, however, produced a tremendous reaction against the Red Ism throughout Western Europe. This was intensified by Communist threats of taking over the Italian government by force if the national elections went against them.

Socialists Saw Red

Small wonder then that the leadership of the British Labor (Socialist) party should have "seen Red" when left wing members in Parliament sent a telegram to Pietro Nenni, leader of pro-Communist Italian Socialists, wishing them success in the elections. The aggravation was doubly severe since the message was counter to the British party policy of supporting anti-Communists in the election.

John Platts-Mills, regarded as ringleader in sending the message, has been expelled from the party. This doesn't deprive him of his seat in Commons, but excludes him from caucuses and deprives him of party support if he is a candidate again. Twenty-one other members whose names appeared on the message were warned to affirm their loyalty to the party by May 6 or face further action. Another 15 have already retracted or have denied signing the telegram.

That is the most sensational house-cleaning which the Socialists have undertaken since they came to power in '45. It's a fair example of the position being taken by the Socialist countries of western Europe as a whole. And here it should be noted that there is small relationship between the ordinary or garden variety of Socialism and the Soviet brand of totalitarian dictatorship maintained by force.

Others Active

British Socialism isn't by any means alone in striking at the Bolshevism which hangs on the left wings of Socialist parties in general. In Italy the loyal Socialists are dissociating themselves from those who call themselves Socialists but take their orders from Moscow. The same is true in France, and in numerous other countries.

This tendency is further emphasized in an AP news dispatch from London, reporting that there will be a sharp cleavage in tomorrow's May day celebrations in the Democratic countries of Western Europe. The Reds will have to celebrate on their own, for the Socialists and moderate Laborites are holding separate demonstrations.

Dual Celebrations

Dual celebrations have been called by Communists and non-Communists in London, Oslo, Paris, Berlin, Amsterdam, Brussels and Copenhagen. Even Finland produced a split in Helsinki and some other places, despite the recent pact of mutual assistance she was forced to sign by Moscow.

Meantime, of course, most of the western hemisphere has turned thumbs down on international Communism, as witness the strong resolution of condemnation adopted at the recent Inter-American conference in Bogota. Numerous countries also are taking direct action against the Reds within their borders, and the United States Congress has before it legislation calculated to outlaw totalitarian activities.

Well, Communism has asked for it. The Bolshevist wolf pack runs alone.

Carl Hart, Jr., Will Receive High Award

Scouting's highest award, the Eagles scout badge, will be presented tonight to Carl Hart, jr., 15, of 2332 Nineteenth when the session is held in the district courtroom at 7:30 o'clock.

Carl, a ninth grader at Central Junior High school, joined Troop 3 here when he was 12 and has been active in scouting for three years and one month. He has worked from tenderfoot to assistant patrol leader, troop librarian and now is patrol leader for the Beaver patrol.

To gain the Eagle award, Carl had to serve six months after receiving his Life badge and pass 11 additional required merit badges. Civics, he says, was "the roughest." In all, Carl has 37 merit badges to his credit.

Following graduation from high school, Carl plans to attend Texas Technological college and major in civil or mechanical engineering. His father is a civil engineer for the state highway department.

Carl's summer plans include an outing at Philmont Scout ranch.

New Way Is Found To Beat DWI Rap

ST. LOUIS, April 30 (INS)—Raymond Richardson came up today with a new—and legal—way to beating a driving-while-intoxicated rap.

At St. Louis, City Judge George Grellner dismissed such a charge against Richardson when his attorneys pointed out that the defendant was not driving the car when it struck another.

They explained it thusly: Mrs. Richardson was pushing it when it rammed the car. An automobile, to be sure, must be propelled by its own power before the man at the wheel can be charged with careless and drunken driving.

Judge Grellner agreed, dismissed the charge—and then fined Richardson three dollars for not having a safety sticker.

Hardships Of Early Texans Are Illustrated By Story Of Woman

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff

Many Texas counties this year are celebrating their centennials with speeches, barbecues and parades.

Maybe your county is one. If it is, take a look behind the bunting and the barbecue—look back a hundred years or so to the hard, dangerous times when the ground on which you now stand was fought over and bought with human life.

For to use the words of W. Churchill, Texas too was built on blood and sweat and tears.

Incident Related

Tomorrow, for instance, Williamson county in central Texas, celebrates its 100th anniversary. Let's consider one incident in the history of that county. Let's look at what happened to Mrs. Webster.

The late J. H. Griffith, Taylor, Tex., banker and historian, furnished details of the story of John Webster, his wife and his two children.

Webster, a prosperous Virginia farmer, brought his family to Texas in 1838. They came down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers and sailed to Matagorda, Texas, on the Gulf coast.

By wagons, they proceeded to Gilliland's creek, near the Colorado river, in Travis county. In the fall they moved to Hornsby's Bend, a settlement on the Colorado, 10 miles south of Austin.

Webster wanted to establish a settlement in nearby Burnet county. In 1839 he made up a party of his family and 12 men and set out on horseback and by wagon for Burnet county.

Met By Indians

The party crossed Williamson county and in Burnet county, a few miles from their objective, was met by a band of 200 hostile Indians. There was a fight, one man of the party was severely wounded. The Indians withdrew temporarily and Webster and his companions began retracing their steps, heading back toward Travis county.

All night they traveled, and at sunrise they emerged from timbered land into an open prairie about two miles south of what is now Leander, Williamson county.

"At that point," Griffith said, "they discovered the Indians following their trail. The party was quickly surrounded. They placed the wagons in a position side by side and here the party made their final defense."

Men Killed

The odds were overwhelming. Webster and the 12 men were killed. Mrs. Webster and her two children, a boy and girl, were taken captive. The Indians took the three to their camp in San Saba county. After four months of inhuman treatment, the woman and her children managed to escape. Living on berries and wild pecans they travelled 80 miles through wild country to a point near Round Rock. At that point, the mother saw some men on horseback. They were dressed in civilized garb. She made no attempt at concealment and when the men rode up, she saw to her horror they were Kiowa indians.

The Indians took the three captive, proceeded westward and ran into a band of Commanches. The Commanches bought the prisoners for two ponies and a mule. The mother and girl were sent to one Commanche camp and the boy to another.

Again the mother managed to escape and after several days, when her strength was almost gone, she reached San Antonio. As the result of a treaty with the Indians she regained her children.

Returns To Virginia

Mrs. Webster returned to Virginia and soon died. The son, Booker Webster, grew to manhood in Virginia, fought with Gen. Winfield Scott's army in Mexico and died of yellow fever in Veracruz.

And the daughter, Patsy Webster. She stayed with relatives in Virginia until 1851 and then returned to Texas!

She married a man named Marmaduke Strickling.

They moved to Burnet county and settled on the very land her father had given his life to reach.

Their descendants still live in Burnet county, in Texas today.

School Aid Is Studied Here

Miss Lois Gray, National Education association field assistant and immediate past president of the Texas Classroom Teachers association, outlined the provisions of the proposed federal aid plan for schools before approximately 50 key members of local Parent-Teachers associations, school board members, teachers, school officials and others Thursday afternoon at Junior High school auditorium.

The purpose of the plan, according to Miss Gray, is to help the states, particularly those in greatest need, to set up schools for all children, and to help equalize educational opportunity by establishing a minimum or foundation school program in the nation.

$5 For Each School Child

Under the program, which involves an expenditure of $300,000,000 annually, each state would receive $5 for each child of school age. The remainder of the fund, about $250,000,000, would be distributed to the states in proportion to their needs and to their own efforts to take care of those needs.

Texas, the speaker indicated, would receive about $13,675,000, an allowance of approximately $400 per classroom unit or $11.90 per student. The money would be earmarked to provide instructional aids in the classroom and to pay teacher salaries. Additional funds for salaries, she said, would make it possible for Texas schools to secure a higher type of teachers in the schools, since low salaries keep many competent educators from remaining in their chosen field of work.

Federal Interference Denied

In refuting arguments of opponents of the plan that the bill would bring federal control of state schools and violation of states' rights, Miss Gray pointed out that specific provisions of the bill state that "nothing contained in this act shall be construed to authorize any department, agency, officer or employe of the United States to exercise any direction, supervision, or control over, or to prescribe any requirements with respect to any school" receiving any funds under the federal aid to state schools.

The only requirements for receiving such aid, the speaker said, are that the state pass an act accepting the funds and agreeing to use the money for instructional aids and salaries.

In states where separate schools are maintained for racial groups, such schools would receive funds in proportion to population ratios, and in no way would the act interfere with the segregation system, Miss Gray said.

The bill has already passed the Senate by a majority of 58 to 22, and has gone through the House sub-committee. It is now under consideration in the Education and Labor committee of the House, she stated.

What is believed to be the world's largest rose bush is located at Tombstone, Ariz. A white Banksia about fifty years old, it has grown from one trunk over forty inches in diameter and has an estimated 150,000 blooms cover it in May.

Mass Suicides Are Staged By Greek Girls Nabbed By Rebels

LAMIA, Greece, April 30. (INS) — Three captured Greek rebels said today that frightened Greek girls kidnaped by the guerrillas have in some cases staged mass suicide.

The story of kidnaping, seduction and death was unfolded in military prison headquarters of the first Greek army corps on the edge of the plains of Thessaly. The narrators were three newly-captured guerrillas who termed the events they described "common practice" among their erstwhile Communist comrades.

Jumped Off Cliffs

The unshaven, bedraggled prisoners said some of the captured Greek girls jumped off cliffs at the first opportunity they had to escape submission to their captors.

According to one story seven young captured Suli girls committed suicide in a group by jumping off a cliff in Epirus near the Albanian border.

Before they died, they were said to have performed the age-old "Zalongo dance," which their ancestors before them performed a century ago as the Turkish conquerors descended on their homes.

Others Made Escape

Other more fortunate women captives managed to escape, in the face of almost certain death if they failed, the prisoners said.

Gen. Papadoloupos, commander of the first army task force, said 27 Greek girls were known to have managed a mass escape from their guerrilla captors "ten days ago."

The captured rebels told of the hard life that made "Amazons" of young women forced to remain with the guerrillas.

Some were trained to become deadly machinegun operators.

The three captives, who claimed they had been shanghaied into the guerrilla forces, were brought to Lamia from the slopes of snow-capped Mount Ghonia.

Greek troops are pursuing 300 guerrillas in the area. The guerrillas are said to have 700 non-combatant with them.

New Ben Franklin Coin Is Released

PHILADELPHIA, April 30 (AP) — A new half-dollar, honoring Benjamin Franklin, went into circulation today.

The coin, designed by the late John Sinnock who sculptored the Roosevelt dime and purple heart medal, is the idea of Mint director Nellie Tayloe Ross.

"It is really appropriate that the Franklin half-dollar becomes a reality at this time," said Mrs. Ross.

"He was the great apostle of thrift and his picture on the coin should remind people that in this time of world unrest it would be a good policy to husband our resources."

The Franklin coin is the first U. S. half-dollar to display anything except the American eagle on the reverse side, Mrs. Ross said. On the reverse side of the coin is a picture of the liberty bell.

"But," she added, "in order to conform with the law a small scale eagle was inscribed next to the "E. Pluribus Unum" seal.

Bachelor, Flames, Women Don't Mix

WACO, April 30 (AP)—An old bachelor, J. T. Boleman, 74, said he was getting along all right fighting a fire in the Thompson Dillars rooming house here today until . . .

He explained it this way:

"I was getting along all right, putting out the fire which started from an oil stove in my room when some women came around. I'm an old bachelor and women make me nervous. So I just quite fighting the fire."

The 12 - room, two - story white frame rooming house, built about 38 years ago, was a total loss.

Stevedore Is Fatally Shot

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—Police today probed into conditions at a so-called "hot pier" on New York's sprawling waterfront in an effort to solve the killing of a 30-year-old boss stevedore.

The victim, Thomas Collentine, was wounded fatally by a gunman yesterday as he left his uptown Manhattan apartment for work at pier 92 where he was hiring foreman.

The pier at the end of 52nd street on the Hudson river reportedly has been a hotbed of trouble in recent months. It has figured in two of four waterfront slayings.

Assistant District Attorney William Keating said racketeers were reported seeking to set up bookmaking and loan shark concessions at the pier. Unrest among longshoreman there also was reported after a recent reshuffling in desirable jobs.

Collentine was shot as he walked from his doorstep with two other longshoremen. Police said a man leaped from a black sedan and fired seven shots, hitting Collentine with three of them.

Before the stevedore died several hours later, he was quoted by police as saying he did not know who had shot him.

"I wouldn't tell you if I knew," he added.

Held in $10,000 bail each as material witnesses were the victim's two companions, John White, 34, and George Courchesne, 23.

Commission Seeking Solution To Water Problem Facing City

SEVERAL actions relating to the immediate and long-range water problems of Lubbock were taken by members of the city commission at a special meeting Thursday afternoon.

In an effort to improve the immediate supply problem, steps were taken toward the securing of sites for numerous additional city wells.

New Mayor W. H. Rodgers, in office less than three weeks, predicted that deals for some of the sites will be closed within a few days and that wells will be drilled and in production within a few weeks.

Until then, officials acknowledged, temporary shortages and low pressure inconveniences almost certainly will occur in some sections of the city if the weather continues hot and dry.

"But I am confident the available supply will be increased substantially before the hot weather of July and August sets in," the mayor predicted.

Joining him in this forecast were new Commissioners E. K. Hufstedler, jr., and Clarence Whiteside and holdover members W. B. Price and John Spikes.

During the discussion of the long-range problem, Hufstedler and Whiteside, who took office at the same time as Rodgers, each came up with a suggestion received with favor by the entire commission.

To Make Tests

Hufstedler proposed that City Manager Marlin R. Smith, jr., ascertain the cost of making one or more 1,500-foot tests to ascertain whether usable water is to be found at those depths. All water now used in the city comes from around 150 feet. The commission approved the suggestion.

Members of the commission said that the logs of numerous oil tests have established definitely that several stratas of water exist below 150 feet. One log examined during Thursday's session showed rich water sands at depths of approximately 300, 900 and 1,300 feet. Whether the water is sweet or salt remains to be determined. If water suitable for human use can be found in quantity at any of those depths, members of the commission said, it might be the permanent solution of the water problems, not only of Lubbock, but of the entire South Plains.

Whiteside's suggestion was that the commission investigate the feasibility of the city buying its own rigs and drilling its own wells. In the past, all such drilling has been done under contract.

Reservoir Not Finished

Considering the wells that must be drilled, Whiteside argued, such equipment might pay for itself many times over within a few years. He pointed out also that drilling equipment owned by the city always would be available. It often is difficult now, officials said, to obtain drillers for city wells. Most contract drillers are so busy digging irrigation wells, for which they often are paid premiums, that they are not interested in drilling city wells, the commission was told.

Pertaining to the immediate problem, Mayor Rodgers said that all city wells now available for use will produce only 11,800,000 gallons of water daily when pumped at full capacity. During some days this month, he estimated, 14,000,000 gallons were needed to fill the demand, and this peak is expected to increase to 16,000,000 or more gallons daily during the worst of the summer.

The chief reason for shortages experienced thus far, members of the commission said, has been the failure to complete a 10,000,000-gallon reservoir at the northeastern edge of the city. Because of the failure to finish the reservoir, only a small portion of the water produced by 11 new wells beyond the project has been available for use.

Report Is Asked

The city manager was directed to request of W. G. McMillan, who has the reservoir contract, to report to the commission on prospects for the completion of the project. Work upon it was started almost a year ago and, according to the city's record, should have been completed not later than last Feb. 4 under the contract. McMillan's contention has been that delays in completing the reservoir have been unavoidable and that he is entitled to more time.

McMillan is liable to a penalty of $100 for each day of delay beyond the contract time in finishing the job. It remains to be determined, however, what, if anything, McMillan may owe as a penalty when the reservoir is completed. The latest report as to the probable completion date is "about June 1."

When the reservoir is finished and the production of the wells which will flow into it can be utilized, officials said the Lubbock water problem will be improved considerably.

But even then, according to Mayor Rodgers, several more wells will be desirable, if not urgently needed.

The commission's announced determination Thursday was to drill them on the sites which, the officials predicted, will be secured within the next few days.

Mayor Rodgers tentatively set another meeting of the commission for Monday afternoon, expecting that deals for some of the sites can be closed at that time.

Area 4-H Clubbers Will Be Alternates

Winners of this year's 4-H club awards in the state, announced yesterday by Texas Extension service officials, included Novis Allison of Rule, Haskell county, as winner of the Maggy W. Barry scholarship, and four delegates to the national 4-H club camp in Washington, D. C. June 16 to 23.

Awardee the Washington trip were Howard Altenhof of Guadalupe county, Patsy Jo Delevan of Devine, Medina county; Reta Nell Baldwin of Vernon, and Edward Hill of Garland, Dallas county.

Alternates for the trip to Washington are Harold Rampy of Hall county, first boy's alternate; Jessie Lou Boyer of Tarrant county, first girl's alternate; Alvin Glenn Davis of Garza county, second boys' alternate; and Jeanelle Thompson of Hale county, second girls' alternate.

The Maggie W. Barry scholarship entitles Miss Allison to a year in any state college. The 18-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allison, she has been in club work eight years, is a senior in high school, has held positions of leadership in her club and is active in school, community and church work.

The four delegates to the National 4-H Club camp will spend a week of instruction and entertainment in Washington with delegates from every state and territory of the United States. They will be accompanied by Miss Lorene Stevens and J. W. Potts, state 4-H club leaders. Each winner has a long record of successful club work. The boys are recognized livestock breeders and showmen; the girls are leaders in their clubs and have contributed to better family living through their demonstrations.

Atomic Development Program Is Gigantic, Covers Wide Range

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 30. (AP)—President Truman speaks of this country's "gigantic atomic energy program.

He did this yesterday in a statement urging the Senate to keep the five members of the atomic energy commission in their jobs for up to five years.

But what is so "gigantic" about the program which is under their direction?

Idea Given

That can't be answered fully by an ordinary citizen, since a great deal of atomic work is secret. But some idea of the program's size can be given.

In the first place, this country so far has spent about $3,000,000,000 in developing atomic weapons and other uses of the atom.

To get a wide view, think of a pyramid. On the peak sit the five atomic energy commissioners. They're the big boys.

The pryamid has four sides: Medicine, biology, farming, industry. Atomic work is going on in all four of those fields.

Staff Of 5,000

The five commissioners have a staff of about 5,000 people, directly employed by them. They're the administrative group, or overseers, to keep the whole show running.

About 300 companies—including some of the biggest, like General Electric — have been given contracts by the commission to carry out and develop various parts of the program.

These big contractors have about 60,000 people working on atomic problems.

In addition to all this, 53 American universities are directly taking part in atomic work. Others are taking part indirectly, which means a great many scientists working.

Centers Named

Oak Ridge, Tenn.; Hanford, Wash.; Los Alamos, N. M.; the Argonne National laboratory, Chicago; the Brookhaven National laboratory, Patchogue, L. I., N. Y.

The universities are teaming up to do the work at the national laboratories. The government work on atomic weapons is centered at Los Alamos. At the other big centers some huge American firms are doing the job.

So, the atomic work spreads all through the country.

The four sides of the pryamid—medicine, biology, farming and industry—were mentioned above. This will show a little of the work being done in those fields.

Work Reviewed

Medicine — Atomic scientists have found that cobalt, treated in a certain way, can be used as a substitute for radium in doctoring cancer, and is far cheaper.

Biology and farming — these fields often overlap. For example: in studying how plants use fertilizer.

Some of the secrets of life may come out of the work being done in those two fields. For instance, if the scientists can find how plants use the energy of the sun.

Industry—Work is being done to find a way of using atomic energy to give power. Such power, if found and harnessed, could run ships or cities.

Heavy Airport Use Flayed By Soviets

LONDON, April 30. (AP)—Tass said today the United States and Britain have systematically violated agreements for use of air fields in the Russian zone of Austria.

The Soviet news agency dispatch from Vienna said such violations "cannot be regarded as tolerable."

A 1945 agreement gave the U. S., Britain and France control over two airfields to insure transport facilities for their commanders in chief.

Tass said 350 operational flights were made from the Tulln field, and that "excessively large" air traffic by the British is taking place at Swechat airport.

Soviet circles, Tass said, regard the traffic as being in excess of needs outlined by the agreement.

Abilene Youth Held On Assault Charge

ABILENE, April 30. (AP)—Billy Ray Davis, 19, of Abilene, was charged with assault to murder today after his father-in-law, Vol Hargrove, operator of a radio shop here, was wounded with a bullet from a .22 rifle.

Hargrove was taken to the Hendrick Memorial hospital, where his condition was described as serious. The bullet struck him in the abdominal region, hospital attendants said.

CITY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL SOFTBALL CHAMPS—Geo. R. Bean's girls' softball team won the city elementary school championship in contests this spring, chalking up an unbelievable total of 107 runs to their opponents' 11 in five games. Record of the girls follows: Bean 32,, Harwell 2; Bean 41, Harwell 6; Bean 12, Hunt 3; Bean 21, Guadalupe 0; and Bean 1, Central Ward 0. In the picture, back row, left to right, are: Imogene Jeffcoat, catcher; Billie Sue Williams, pitcher; Zelma Carlisle, 1b; Loyce Spurlock, 2b; Mrs. E. F. Dawkins, coach; Doris Jean Moore, outfield; Shirley Gholson, ss, Glenda Ingram, outfield; and Betty Jo Clifton, outfield; front row: Rhonda Jean Wells, outfield; Margaret Jernigan, outfield; Modean Cone, ss; Patricia Singer, outfield; Shirley Roberson, 3b; Winnie Lee Car, outfield; Joan Eddleman, outfield; and Jerry Lynn Dane, outfield. Wanda Bray, 2b and outfield, was not present for the picture. (Staff Photo.)

Cincinnati Enquirer Is Offered For Sale

CINCINNATI, April 30 (INS)—Cincinnati's biggest newspaper — the Cincinnati Enquirer — has been offered for sale to the highest bidder.

Officials of the 107-year-old daily said today that trustees of the John R. McLean estate, which owns the publication, have reserved the right to reject any and all bids "if they wish."

Listed among prospective purchasers are chain publisher Frank Gannett of New York; the Ridder brothers, owners of New York, New England and Midwestern papers; and Silliman Evans of the Nashville Tennessean.

Housing Shortage Faces Quadruplets

LATROBE, Pa., April 30 (AP) — The ten-week-old Zavada quadruplets are just about ready to go home — if their parents can find a home big enough for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zavada of nearby Dorothy have been searching fruitlessly for the last several weeks for a house large enough to take care of the four newcomers and Mrs. Zavada's son by a previous marriage.

Officials at Latrobe hospital said yesterday the youngsters are coming along fine. The weight of the three girls and boy now averages nearly six pounds.

Tests For New Planes Slated

DAYTON, O., April 30 (AP) — The Air Force had three new planes here for tests today. One was Howard Hughes' famed XF11, a two-engined photo reconnaisance craft.

Hughes' speedy plane landed at nearby Wright field last night at 9:30 p. m., eastern standard time, after a flight from Culver City, Calif.

Col. Albert Boyd, chief of the air materiel command's flight test division, said he flew the C97A, Boeing transport version of the B50 bomber, from Seattle to Wright field in six hours and 20 minutes Wednesday night.

New Jet Bomber

North American's XB45, a four-jet engine bomber, arrived at Wright field at 5 p. m. yesterday on a flight from Muroc Air base, Muroc, Calif.

The XF11, which figured in a Senate inquiry into Hughes' affairs last year, will be flight tested, Colonel Boyd said. He wouldn't say whether the Air Force had ordered the plane put into production.

Capt. William Elliot was at the controls of Hughes' plane. It took off from Culver City at 2:51 p. m., Pacific standard time.

Communist Leader Criticizes Bill

NEW YORK, April 30. (AP)—Passage of a pending congressional bill requiring Communist to register with the Justice department would drive the Communist party underground, says William Z. Foster, its national chairman.

If the legislation passes, Foster said last night, party officers and members will be instructed not to comply.

"Registration itself is an insult," he said. "Communists are just as good Americans as can be found in this country. We refuse to be placed in the category of second-class citizens."

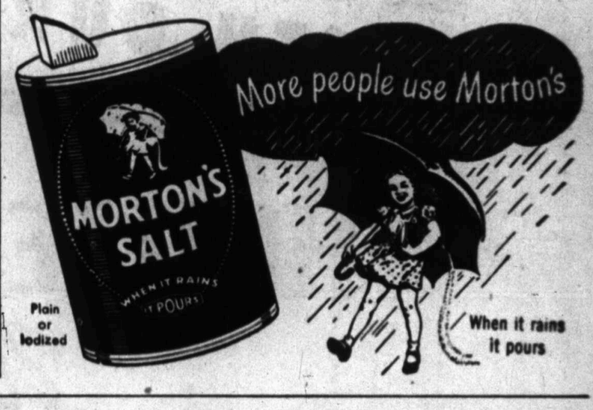

Foster made his statements at a press conference in which he assailed the so-called "subversive control act of 1948", a bill introduced by Rep. Karl E. Mundt, (R-SD), and sponsored by the House un-American activities committee.

The bill, among other things, would deny Communists federal employment and passports.

Describing the bill as a "long step toward fascism," Foster said it would nullify constitutional guarantees of "freedom of speech, thought and association."

Figures based on U. S. government specifications for an adequate diet indicate that such a diet for every American would have cost $17.5 billion in 1940 compared with actual expenditures of $16.4 billion by the American people for food in that year.

American Leaders Are Blamed For Whooping It Up For War

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, April 30. (AP)—Henry A. Wallace, accusing Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) and President Truman of "willful distortion to whoop it up for war," says Russia today cannot be compared with Nazi Germany of 10 years ago.

"The war-clouded situation we face today bears absolutely no resemblance to the world crisis" Adolf Hitler created at Munich, Wallace said last night in ending a two-day campaign tour of Iowa.

He Rests Today

After speaking to nearly 8,000 persons and traveling 800 miles in his home state, the third party candidate for President rested today at Des Moines.

He resumes his "peace and prosperity" campaign tomorrow in Topeka, Kans., Sunday in Kansas City, Mo., Monday in Columbia, Mo., and Tuesday at Peoria, Ill.

Speaking to nearly 1,000 persons who gave $1,700 when the hat was passed at a Cedar Rapids Czechoslovak hall, he said the United States rather than Russia threatens war.

He said he hated dictatorships, both Nazi and Russian, and he is "distressed," by the recent Red coup in Czechoslovakia.

U. S. Is Blamed

But he said our "utterly insane" foreign policy greatly helped it, and the Michigan Republican senator and Mr. Truman are guilty of "propaganda leading us to war" in their recent statements.

"The Russians have no necessity to expand their borders, nor will they for many decades to come, except as external threats and pressures compel them to seek military security."

The former Democratic vice president said "it just isn't true" that Russian armies are "poised on our borders for attack or are at least occupying such countries as Czechoslovakia." He said he didn't like the Czech Red seizure by force, but he said our own State department "forced" major parties out of cabinets in France and Italy."

Francis Cardinal Spellman of the Archdiocese of New York was presented with "The Ring of the True Cross" by Pope Pius XII. It is set with a large sapphire surrounded by diamonds and contains a relic of the True Cross.

UP IN THE WORLD—A. W. (Bud) McCann, high stilt walker, is among features of the Gainesville Community circus which will play four performances here May 7 and 8 under sponsorship of the Federated Women's clubs and the Lions clubs. McCann, who operates a restaurant in Gainesville, has been walking high stilts for 10 years, and figures he has tramped many miles around the hippodrome track.

Money Bill Given Approval Of House

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP) — A $969,050,000 money bill for the Federal Security agency was approved 271-35 by the House late today after brisk debate on an anti-Communist provision. The measure now goes to the Senate.

The House voted down, 108 to 28, an amendment which would have killed a section barring from government jobs the members of any union whose officers have not signed the non-Communist affidavit required by the Taft-Hartley law.

The House also passed a compromise bill appropriating about $750,000,000 for miscellaneous federal agencies. It goes to the Senate.

Ceremonies Are To Be Held Here Sunday

Final Plans For Dedication Of Memorial Circle Revealed

Final plans have been made for the dedication of Memorial Circle at Texas Technological college Sunday, Gene Nowlin, president of the Tech War Veterans Association who is sponsoring the ceremony, has announced.

A luncheon given by the TWVA and honoring Maj. Gen. Andrew D. Bruce, deputy commander of the Fourth Army, Fort Sam Houston, who will deliver the principal address, will be given at the Lubbock hotel beginning at 12:15 p. m. preceding the dedication ceremony, which is to begin at 2 p. m., Nowlin said.

To Discuss Security

Guests at the luncheon will include Dr. Robert A. Millikan, eminent scientist, author and lecturer who will deliver a series of four lectures at Texas Tech next week and who will be the principal speaker at the Recognition day services on the campus Sunday; Dr. W. M. Whyburn, Texas Tech president; T. C. Root assistant to the president; Lt. Col. L. C. Adams, head of military science and tactics; R. C. Goodwin, dean of arts and sciences; Dr. C. C. Schmidt, head of the physics department; Floyd Read, master of ceremonies; Roy Grimes, TWVA chaplain; and Nowlin.

The playing of the national anthem will begin the dedication ceremonies which will be held near the center of the circle. Following the anthem the college all-male chorus will sing "Sleepers Wake" after which T. C. Root will introduce General Bruce who will speak on "National Security."

Gene Nowlin will give the dedicatory address with the acceptance being made by President Whyburn. The ceremonies will be officially closed with the singing of the college song, "Oh College Mother Beautiful."

Immediately following the dedication, the Texas Tech ROTC unit will pay tribute to General Bruce with a formal parade. Route of march will be from the ROTC area, down West Engineering drive, around the end of the drive and up its east side to finally break up behind the military science buildings. General Bruce will review the troops from a position on the drive, north of the West Texas museum and opposite the Engineering building.

A large crowd is expected to attend the dedication which is being held in conjunction with Parents' day on the campus. Nowlin said that the Tech veterans group believed that a program entirely appropriate to the occasion has been prepared. An invitation has been extended to anyone who wishes to attend, he said.

Permit Is Granted

The Communications commission in Washington, D. C., announced Thursday that an FM construction permit had been granted to radio station KCBD.

Station officials said last night that planning for construction was still in the engineering stage, and that definite information on the project would be announced at a later date when the terms of the permit have been considered.

IT'S GOOD TO KNOW
Mrs. Tucker's HOME MAKING HELPS

©1948 M.T.F.

Everyone knows window shades have their ups and downs... but if yours look particularly paned... Mrs. W. T. Smith, Honey Grove, Texas, suggests you paint them with one of the new water base paints recommended for painting interior walls. Works fine on paper lamp shades, too. $10 for this suggestion.

Mrs. Dudley Mathers, Jr., Dallas, makes $10.00 for this hot ironing idea that is guaranteed to save time and effort:

In ironing men's shorts, fold one leg of the shorts inside the other. This allows easier ironing because the garment fits easily over the small end of the ironing board, and less handling is necessary. Frequently it is possible to iron only one surface, the other being sufficiently smooth. Touch up the band and fold.

$10.00 to Mrs. F. Q. Poyner, Clarksville, Ark., for a flavorous recipe using leftover meat or fowl:

MEAT PIES

1½ lbs. ground cooked meat or fowl (part beef, part pork, if desired)
Salt and pepper
2 tablespoons flour
¼ cup water
1 cup or more gravy or broth
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon grated onion (more if desired)
1 recipe plain pastry

Thicken gravy or broth with paste of flour and water. Add seasonings and add to ground meat, making it just moist, not too soft. Roll pastry and cut in 4-inch squares. Put a large spoonful of the meat mixture on each square and fold into a triangle, crimping edges to seal. Pierce top of each pie with a fork to allow the escape of steam. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 425 degrees, 12 to 15 minutes or until brown. Serve with additional gravy or with rich white sauce. Cooked peas added to the white sauce are very nice.

Note: If meats contain more fat than the average, omit 1 or 2 tablespoons of the shortening called for in Plain Pastry.

It's just like finding $10! So send your favorite recipe or home-help suggestion to Mrs. Tucker's Homemakers' Dept., Sherman, Texas. $10 paid if printed.

With emphasis on thrift, MRS. TUCKER'S SHORTENING merits three!!! One for the money ... two for the time ... and three to mix readily.

LUBBOCK EVENING JOURNAL
Lubbock, Texas, Friday, April 30, 1948

AFTER—This is the new city dog pound photographed Wednesday, when work was almost complete after lumbermen and individuals had donated material and money and the city had provided labor for the project. The wooden portions had not been painted at time the photograph was made, but painting was planned for Thursday. A sign and a spotlight are to be other additions to the pound, which was constructed on the site of the original pound. The wooden portion of the old pound was stuccoed to form a portion of the new pound.

PUBLICITY CAUSES CONSTRUCTION OF NEW POUND

Homeless Dogs Will Live In Comfort, Thanks To Help From Lubbock Individuals And Firms

Transformation of Lubbock's dog pound from a small shack and wire enclosure patched with pieces of wood and tin to a neat stucco, steel and concrete pound expected to be adequate for several years has taken place in the last nine weeks.

Shocked at the state of conditions at the pound, Lubbock residents made contributions to improve conditions.

Lubbock lumbermen provided the material, several Lubbock individuals have given cash donations and a packing house has promised donations of food. The city provided the labor to build the new pound.

Yeager Took Lead

The pound was described as an "orphan's home for dumb brutes" by W. B. Yeager, lumberman who took the lead in promoting plans, taking donations and arranging for material for the new pound, following publication of a story and pictures on conditions in the old pound in the Evening Journal on Feb. 25, nine weeks ago Wednesday.

Interest of many Lubbock residents in the treatment of animals was evidenced both before and after publication of an account of conditions in the pound. The story and pictures were the result of reports to the newspaper of existing conditions.

Here is an excerpt from a letter which was received by the Avalanche-Journal along with $1: "I'm a newcomer; just left a place that did not care for animals in pound but thought for sure Lubbock wouldn't do a thing like that; and here found have to be disturbed about the 'orphan animals'." Many expressed their thoughts verbally, over the telephone and in person.

Much Interest Shown

Robert L. Stewart of south of Lubbock, who gave a donation to promote improved conditions, was in Waco when he received his copy of the newspaper describing conditions. Upon returning to Lubbock, he went to Yeager, who had offered to make a donation of material immediately after learning of conditions and who later had taken the lead in receiving donations and promoting plans.

Stewart was shown a preliminary copy of plans for a new pound when he went to Yeager. He asked where the idea for the plans had been obtained.

Yeager explained the original tentative plans had been drawn off on the ground. Present at the time were Gerald Jarvis, director of the city laboratory; V. A. Cross, superintendent of the city typhus control program; Bob Gee and Yeager, lumbermen.

Stewart said the plans resembled those of the Waco dog pound, which he had visited with a friend calling to claim a dog.

Dogs Are Separated

The entire pound covers an area 27 feet, 6 inches by 30 feet, with a concrete floor in that entire space.

Five separate lanes provide for separation of dogs into groups. Each lane is partially under the roof, which covers 13.10 feet over the north side of the lanes. The lanes then extend from under the roof to the southward, each enclosed by steel partitions. A walkway for persons calling to look

Parents' Day Set For Tech

Parents' day at Texas Technological college, to be held Sunday, will get underway with the registration of parents in the Recreation hall from 12:15 until 2 p. m., James G. Allen, dean of men and chairman of the Convocations committee, has announced.

A registration table will be provided for each division in the college, and all parents should go to the table of the division in which their sons or daughters are enrolled, Dean Allen said. The dean of each division and the head of its various departments will be on hand to greet the parents as they sign up.

Scientist To Speak

Following registration, they may tour the campus, attend the Memorial Circle dedication ceremonies or view the various other activities taking place before the beginning of the Recognition services which will begin at 3:30 p. m. in the gymnasium.

Dr. Robert A. Millikan, world famous scientist, will give the principal address at the Recognition service as the first of a series of four lectures, the other three of which will be presented in the recreation hall at 7:30 p. m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. He will address the Parents day audience on "Man's Place in the Evolutionary Scheme."

Program Is Given

The program will begin with the processional march of those being recognized followed by the invocation by Dr M. Norvel Young, pastor of the Broadway

DEMOS, GOPs TO NAME DELEGATES

Precinct Sessions Are Set Saturday

Precinct conventions will be held in Lubbock county at 2 p. m. Saturday by both the Democratic and Republican parties — the Democrats in possibly each of the 26 precinct polling places, the Republicans in 17 of them — it was announced Thursday afternoon.

Announcements came from L. C. Ellis and John L. Vaughan chairman respectively of the Democratic and Republican county committees.

Delegates will be elected to Tuesday's county conventions which, in turn, will name representatives to state conventions.

Considerable Interest Seen

Neither would speculate on what resolutions, if any, might be drafted.

However, indications point to considerably more interest this year than in the past in the precinct conventions, particularly those being held by the Republican party.

Vaughan declined to announce precinct chairmen, but said 17 precincts are organized.

Ellis said the following precinct chairmen would preside, or would be responsible for chairmen to represent them, at the following places:

Precinct 1, southwest corner of the courthouse, H. C. Bowlin.
Precinct 2, southeast corner of the courthouse, Frank L. Jones.
Precinct 3, northeast corner of the courthouse, M. M. Styles.

Reds Said Trying To Convert Indians

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP)—Senator Bushfield (R-SD) said today he has had reports that Communists are trying to win over Indians on South Dakota reservations.

He wrote letters to Attorney General Clark and William Zimmerman, jr., head of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, asking for a prompt inquiry.

Bushfield told Zimmerman:

"Apparently the same tactics are being adopted by Communists among the South Dakota Indians as have been employed by the Reds in over-running many nations of Europe.

"While this is a free America and I believe in allowing any individual all of the freedoms, including the freedom of political affiliation, I sincerely hope the South Dakota Indians do not provide a fertile breeding ground for the seeds of Communism."

Bushfield took particular exception to an Indian relief petition charging white merchants with price-gouging.

His letters said evidence indicates that Communists are trying to create dissension between Indians and whites.

Neither Clark nor Zimmerman was immediately available for comment.

The PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says if a man's really a wise old owl he won't hoot at new ideas.

Judging from what we see after dark, youth not only now has its day—but also more than half the night!

THERE is no accounting for the sub-conscious in the human mind. Or, perhaps it is better put to say there is no accounting for the gyrations of the human memory, which plays many tricks upon us all.

Batting around in The Plainsman's head, for instance, are brief meetings with two individuals—one 10 years ago, the other more than two years past. And for some reason or another, we've never been able to get the two out of our mind for very long at a time. Recollection of them keeps popping back and, while there's no particular reason for our continued interest in them, we find ourself wondering about them from time to time.

It's that "ships that pass in the night" business, we suppose, yet never-the-less some sort of mysterious alchemy of the mind has made the passing, in these two cases, something quite unusual.

Back in Philadelphia, in 1936, we met a fellow named Bill at the Democratic National convention. He gave us his full name at the time—in fact, handed us a business card. But we've forgotten the last name. He's just "Bill" to us and has been over the years.

Bill was a delegate to the convention from New York. He was in the business of selling heavy curtain materials and the sort of stuff that is used in re-upholstering and covering fine chairs and sofas.

We weren't with Bill over a couple of hours after a night session of the convention. We started along about 1:30 a. m. in the elevator of the hotel in which both of us were staying, after having sat in Lew Tendler's Grill eating clams on the half-shell and talking—mostly about Bill's domestic difficulties which had beset his life for a decade or more.

WHY he confided in us, a total stranger, we'll never know, but we do know he laid his life bare in his discussion of the loss of his wife and two daughters through an indiscretion while in his early twenties.

What we remember most about Bill was his unusual personality. A handsome man in his early forties, he had the physical appearance of a natural athlete. But it was his eyes, a somber brown bordering upon black, that we can't get away from. We can see them yet and it must be true that the eyes are the "windows of the soul," because they reflected the trouble which had pushed him down over the years.

To this day we find ourself wondering if Bill ever mustered the nerve to go see his wife and daughters in Ohio and if he ever got the wreckage of his home cleared away.

From his story, we can see Bill in our mind's eye, standing in a telephone booth in the railroad station of the Ohio city to which his wife and daughters had fled after the break-up. Six times in the 10 years preceding he had gone to the Ohio City to attempt to arrange a reconciliation. Not once could he summon the nerve to seek out his former wife. Once, after she answered the only phone call he ever could bring himself to make to her, he hung up the receiver without speaking a word.

There is no accounting for the vagaries of Life and truth, verily, is stranger than fiction.

The other individual we cannot forget and whose path we crossed in a way most casual, was the direct antithesis of Bill. She was a girl—a kid, really, of about 14 or 15 and between the two of us there passed not even a word. We never had any idea of what her name might be, or of her background or antecedents. Yet she seemed to The Plainsman, and still does, to be what all of us would like to call the "typical American young girl."

We ran across this youngster several years ago when we were in Detroit doing a series of articles on the war plants there. We took an afternoon off from watching the production lines in order to go through the famous Ford museum, at Dearborn, a few miles out of Detroit.

The young girl happened to be the guide for the group of visitors into which we fell as the crowd was divided up to tour the museum.

NEATLY and nattily dressed, this youngster literally was as fresh as a rose. From the standpoint of pure, classical beauty, she didn't surpass many youngsters. But there was something about the bloom on her cheek, the sparkle in her eyes, the wave of her dark hair and her youthful neckline that made her one of the most attractive little girls we've ever seen.

She had that vague, indescribable something people call "personality." She had bubbling good humor, too, and she was unaffected. As she told the stories behind the various exhibits there was no "put-on." She was as natural as a sunrise or a sunset and had the over-powering charm of both.

As we look back on the occasion, we confess we were more interested in studying the little girl than we were in some of the exhibits. With no daughters of our own—and always regretful of the fact—we probably were more impressed than would have been the average adult. Yet we thought during the tour of the museum—and have thought many time since—that if we had a daughter we'd like her to look and to act exactly like the little girl at Dearborn.

This is in spite of the fact that all we ever knew about her was that she was one of a group of outstanding high school girls of Dearborn who were trained to conduct visitors through the museum—an honor for which the girls strive; a civic duty for Dearborn, and, to boot, a very nice way to pick up spending money.

But some father and mother in Dearborn—perhaps citizens of Slavic, Irish or plain Anglo background—are raising something extra-special in the way of a daughter. If there wasn't something extra-special about her she wouldn't be remembered, as she is, by a stranger old enough to be her father and who never saw her but once!

BY DREW PEARSON: REPUBLICANS APPROVE HIS GO-EASY POLICY ON NAZI LEADERS

Secretary Royall Frowns Upon Nazi Prosecution

WASHINGTON — During the closing months of the recent war, ex-Secretary of War Robert Patterson remarked to this writer: "I am worried for fear our present determination to punish the Nazi war criminals will cool off. If we are to prevent future war we must convict and punish several thousand of the guilty, and do it right away. If we don't do it quickly, it may never be done.

PEARSON

Secretary Patterson was referring to the tolerant spirit of the American people. What he didn't foresee was that the chief exponent of letting the Nazis off easy would be his own successor—Kenneth Royal, now Secretary of the Army.

During the war, Royall made a brilliant defense of the Nazi saboteurs who landed on Long Island by submarine. Appointed as attorney for the saboteurs, his argument was so able that some people seemed almost convinced they should go free.

Now, before the House appropriations committee, he seems equally anxious to forgive other war criminals. In addition, he has summoned Gen. Teleford Taylor, able war crimes prosecutor, back to Washington.

Republicans Defend Nazis

Royall's testimony before the House appropriations committee, hitherto secret, has now been made public. It reveals that G. O. P. Congressmen John Taber of New York and Richard Wigglesworth, Boston blueblood, were just as anxious as Royall to let Nazi criminals down easily—possibly more so.

Cross-examined by these two congressmen as to why the anti-Nazi trials weren't stopped, Royall replied:

"Last August we eliminated approximately three-fourths of the cases. When I went over there (Germany) I approved that elimination. The reason they were not entirely stopped was that General Clay felt, and convinced me, that to stop suddenly would create a disparity between people who had been de-nazified and those who had not."

"It is very much of a headache, I think," growled Taber.

"I had very firm views against the whole approach to it originally," chimed in the Secretary of the Army. "When I was there in August I prescribed that only those cases of a limited class could be tried. No additional war-crimes trials will be held except those now in process."

"WHAT would happen if we just pulled the curtain down tomorrow," asked Congressman Wigglesworth, "and said 'no more money'?"

"I don't think it would be terribly serious if we stopped them at all," was Royall's amazing reply. "But I believe the better policy is to let those that are being tried be continued. My initial reaction when I went there in August was exactly what you intimate, that we ought to stop these immediately. I do think the reasons advanced by General Clay were sound."

Cross-examined further by the two Republican congressmen, the Secretary of the Army made this significant statement about U. S. policy in Germany:

"I agree entirely," he said, "that the prime objective we have in Germany is to build up a strong Germany both politically and industrially. I fully realize that too great an extension of the denazification trials is a danger that must be reckoned with on both these grounds."

Meanwhile, some of he indictments against the famed Krupp munitions executives already have been dropped, while wires are being pulled to let off executives of I. G. Farben. The latter operated a slave-labor camp where thousands of people were killed.

Australian Foreign Minister Evatt informed the Washington Merry-Go-Round by Trans-Pacific phone that Australia will not permit the United States to revitalize Japan as we did Germany after World war I, and as we are doing again today. Truman hasn't decided yet to appoint him. Furthermore, Truman can't appoint him until the end of this Congress, because Hatch voted to raise the pay of federal judges and no member of Congress can draw a salary which he has voted to increase . . . Desperately anxious to stem the labor trend to Stassen, Senator Taft and campaign manager Clarence Brown have sent letters to all Ohio labor leaders. Taft cohorts fear that if Stassen makes heavy Ohio inroads, he will have a hard time even being re-elected to the Senate in 1950. Taft was elected only by a slim vote in 1944, though running against a weak candidate.

Hard Luck Has Failed To Put End To The Careers Of Stars

THEY All Came Back!—Marjorie Lawrence was holding an audience entranced that night at the Mexico City opera house—singing "Brunehilde"—when suddenly her rich voice broke and trailed off in a moan of agony. Paralysis had struck — and the young singer on the parapets of fame, who was doomed to die, compromised for a wheel chair. Nurse Kenny, time, and the indomitable will of the singer triumphed and, from that wheel chair, she fought her way back to the Metropolitan Opera in "Tristan and Isodle." One of the hundreds of telegrams she got after her triumph was "from an old veteran to a raw recruit"—with the admonition—"Carry On."

It was signed, "F. D. R."

Comic Joe E. Lewis defied "Machine Gun" Mike McGurn, owner of the Green Mill night club, and opened in a rival club—with police protection. But Chicago was a tough town in the late, 1920's, and even the police couldn't stop three McGurn hoodlums who banged into Joe's room—beat him up—slashed his cheeks and hacked away at his tongue. Joe couldn't talk, and talking was his stock in trade. For the next three years, Father Heister of Notre Dame spent days and nights teaching Joe E. Lewis to talk again. Joe learned, too—and how! Drop in any night club where he's the star—or ask lovely Martha Stewart how he talked her into that wedding ring.

WHEN Jane Froman came out of the crash of the ill-fated Yankee Clipper in 1943, Broadway was sure the curtain had been rung down on an up-to-then brilliant career. An arm and a leg were broken, but her spirit wasn't. Scarcely out of the hospital, Jane was backstage, all set to start over again. But not yet. Her leg still in a cast, she tumbled backwards from a bench and landed back in the hospital. But not for keeps. Between operations (she's had 25), Jane has sung her way back to a top spot among radio songbirds.

When Jimmy Savo lost a leg Broadway wept. But bad luck couldn't squeeze any tears out of Jim. He took time out to laugh . . . He stayed right in character. Convalescing in the hospital he convulsed the other patients. There was a new show every day. Hit number was when he balanced on his good left leg — waved his crutches and played airplane up and down the corridors. In other words, Jimmy just kept on with the business of playing it for laughs, come what may. And when he was back doing "River" and "Meat Ball" for adoring audiences he figured he couldn't find a better guy to show disabled vets the loss of an arm or leg didn't mean loss of life, liberty or the pursuit of happiness. He showed 'em . . . It was just another challenge . . . Another chip on Fate's shoulder.

Came the ingenue role in "Tish," and producers saw a star—where a little girl had stood before . . . The top was hers when she co-starred with Ronald Colman in "Random Harvest." Her rise was fast, but tough luck strikes lightning-fast. Duck-hunting, she accidentally discharged her gun; the bullet entered her spine. Partial paralysis! A wheel chair! No more "lights, camera, action."

But Susan Peters is a fighter. She read one story after another—looking for the role that would bring her back to the screen. Then she found it in Margaret Ferguson's "The Sign of the Ram." The role of Leah (who ran things from a wheel chair) was just for her. Columbia thought so, too, so Susan Peters is back in pictures co-starred with Alexander Knox in "The Sign of the Ram," . . . Just Let Him Know We Haven't Forgotten

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

SOME things are true of most women. For instance:

Most women don't enjoy hearing a good-looking woman praised for some quality other than her looks.

MILLETT

Most women need to have at least one woman friend with whom they can discuss men's faults and shortcomings.

Most women get real enjoyment out of changing a man's mind for him, without letting him know that he is being influenced.

Most women think they are infallible when it comes to sizing up another woman.

Most women resent a man's thinking he can tell them anything at all about running a house.

Most women are insulted if a man questions their taste when it comes to selecting clothes or home furnishings.

MAMA KNOWS BEST

Most women consider other people's children a nuisance.

Most women remember a slight far longer than they remember a favor and are far more anxious to pay back the former.

Most women honestly believe they are different from most women.

MRS. BIMBLEHOFFER strutted into the dining room of a resort hotel sporting a brand new, bejeweled wrist watch of which she was obviously very proud. To please her, a friend asked loudly, "Do you happen to know the time, Mrs. Bimblehoffer?" "A pleasure," said Mrs. B., consulting the dial of her new bauble. Conservative Label Irks Taft, Who Took Some Liberal Stands

WASHINGTON.—The two contestants in the Republican presidential primary in Ohio are really warming up. Harold Stassen and Sen. Robert A. Taft are throwing assorted crockery at each other as the campaign goes into the final week.

CHILDS

Stassen intimates that Taft is the arch enemy of labor. And Taft comes back with the most lurid of all charges, Stassen, he says, is a New Dealer.

The Senator's ire is rising. If it had not been for this brazen upstart from Minnesota, he would not have had to go barnstorming through his own state appealing for votes at hamlets and crossroads.

One thing this contest demonstrates, and that is how little meaning political labels really have. Taft is aggrieved that Stassen should be considered a liberal and that, by contrast, he himself is made to seem a conservative or even a reactionary.

Looking at the record, one must admit that he has reason to feel he is being treated unjustly. What has just happened here in Washington underwrites Taft's claim that he has just as much right to the "liberal" label as the ambitious young man from Minnesota.

The Senate has passed the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill. Taft can rightly claim credit for its passage. It was his persistence and his parliamentary resourcefulness that put it through in spite of all the obstacles set in its path.

As adopted by the Senate, the heart of the measure is the provision for slum clearance with federal funds. The government will put in $160,000,000 over a period of five years to help build 500,000 low rental units. In spite of screams of Socialism and Communism from the building and real-estate lobbies, Taft has stuck by this public-housing provision. He has stuck by it with the stubbornness of a man who has the courage to be right once he has made up his mind.

McCarthy Is Opponent

Interestingly enough, the chief opponent of this public-housing provision in the Senate was Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin. McCarthy is Stassen's chief senatorial supporter. He campaigned for him in Wisconsin and Nebraska.

Stassen cannot, of course, be held accountable for the things his friends say and do. He himself has urged that the federal government use a billion dollars a year "for a major large-scale construction effort."

Not only on housing but on health and education Taft has fought for the minimum of federal aid which he believes essential to raise the lowest-income families to a decent standard. He has fought McCarthy and other conservatives in the Senate and the Tory band in the House that has held the fort against any constructive legislation. This gives point to Taft's accusation that Stassen deliberately stayed out of the Senate in order to run for President and thereby avoided the day-to-day struggle to shape Republican policy.

Primarily it is on foreign policy that Stassen is judged a liberal, and Taft a conservative. Repeatedly Stassen has spoken his approval of Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg and the European Recovery program. Taft tried to reduce the recovery appropriation by a billion dollars—which would have made it a futile breadline operation.

EVEN here, however, the labels will not stay put. Stassen advocated a provision denying any recovery funds to countries that proposed further nationalization or socialization. Such a provision would have been regarded in Europe as an attempt to dictate internal policy and, if it had been included, most nations would have been unable to cooperate in the program. Taft was against the provision, saying he believed it to be unworkable.

When you get away from principles and onto personalities, then the difference between the two battlers in Ohio is really striking. Taft is plain-spoken to the point of bluntness, and his speeches are never spiced with fine phrases. Stassen impressed the voters with his sincere eloquence, his hopeful generalities about America and the world.

The Stassen formula has worked wonders in Nebraska and Wisconsin. Behind the eloquence is skillful political organization. Taft managers have conceded up to 9 delegates for Stassen out of the 23 he is seeking in Ohio, and his total is likely to be larger. The moral seems to be that most people never bother to look behind the label once it has been fixed.

Today's Journal Editorial

THE NATION'S OIL PROBLEMS

The several recent proposals which have the common purpose of trying to insure ample oil supplies for the United States during the long range future demand the thoughtful consideration fon Congress, and almost certainly will receive it.

In broadest concept, the various proposals fall within one of two categories. One is a thorough investigation of all the possible sources of oil supply, including coal, shale, gas and synthetic. The other involves proposed research into methods of recovering oil from the various potential sources.

None of these suggested investigations would have to start from scratch. A good deal of useful knowledge already is available. But not enough has been learned to permit even an intelligent guess as to when any source, other than natural petroleum, can be developed to the point of producing sufficient oil at a price the users can afford to pay.

The sooner the nation can be provided with such a source—or several such sources—the safer it will be. Anything within reason Congress can do to hasten that time will be a service to the nation.

Relatives Of Local Residents Killed

Relatives in this area have been notified of death of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Allen of Mexico, Mo., in a car accident about 1 p.m. Wednesday between Mexico and Kansas City.

Mr. Allen was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Evelyn Allen of 1618-A Fifteenth and Mrs. Allen was a sister of Roy Burrows of 2407 Sixth.

Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Burrows of Floydada, her brother of Lubbock and two sisters, Mrs. Luther Ham of Plainview and Mrs. Buck Formby of Amarillo have gone to Mexico to attend funeral services, which are to be conducted Saturday afternoon.

The blood pressure of children are normally lower than those of adults.

Dog Pound

for their dogs extends across the front of the live lanes with a steel gate opening to each lane. The person calling to search for a dog may enter the walkway, go up and down and look in each of the five lanes.

In addition to the lane arrangement, the pound includes a 7 feet 5 inches by 8 feet storeroom and a quarantine area, which are roofed. The shed which formerly was the dog pound building was stuccoed to form the quarantine portion of the pound.

Walls Stuccoed

Lumber companies providing material for construction of the pound were: Galbraith Steel and Supply, seven sacks of stucco; Home Lumber and Supply Co., 500 bd. feet of 1 inch sheeting; C. D. Shamburger Lumber Co., 550 sq. ft. of aluminum roofing; Greer's Iron Works, where five 2 x 6 steel gates and two 3x6 steel gates were made; Lubbock Sash & Door Co., 28 seven foot steel posts; Builders Supply Co., 20 sacks of cement; Hal Harpole Lumber Co., 500 sq. feet 1 inch netting wire; Maxey Lumber Co., 120 sq. feet 1 x 6 CM and 100 sq. feet 1x4 S4S lumber; Leftwich Lumber Co., 32 2x4-12 and 24 2x4-8; Cicero-Smith Lumber Co., 4 yards plaster or stucco sand; Higginbotham Bartlett Co., 330 feet 6-inch now-climbable wire fence, pipe for wire gates, 50 pounds nails, and Forest Lumber Co., 400 sq. fe. 1 inch sheeting.

Donations Listed

Cash donations were: John E. Toles, $10; Robert L. Stewart, $5; anonymous, $5, and Mrs. C. A. Lininger, 1914 Twenty-ninth, $1.

L. A. Ellis furnished the sign. The Painters union donated painting work.

Materials donated had a retail value of more than $500.

Features of the pound are to include separate cages for dogs in the quarantined area; a gas chamber which will be used to kill dogs not claimed, and a spotlight which will illuminate the chutes at night.

The quarantined area will result in saving to the city of hospitalization expenses for dogs.

Parents' Day

Church of Christ. The Texas Tech concert band will play excerpts from Les Preludes, by Liszt. Pres. W. M. Whyburn will introduce Dr. Millikan.

Recognition of eligible students and organizations will follow Dr. Millikan's talk and the services will be closed with the playing of the college song, "Oh College Mother Beautiful," by the concert band.

"It would be impossible to send a personal invitation to the parents of each student on the campus to attend the Parents' day activities, Dean Allen said, therefore we are attempting to reach them through their children and through the newspapers. All parents are cordially invited and we sincerely hope that a great number of them find it possible to attend."

81 Per Cent Of American Homes Have At Least One Drunk, Baptist Leader Asserts

BOSTON, April 30. (AP)—The Methodist general conference today studied a Southern Baptist leader's report that 81 per cent of all American homes have at least one drunk.

Dr. Louie D. Newton, president of the Southern Baptist convention, made the statement in a conference address yesterday.

He said that the liquor industry promoters boast that half the population indulges in alcoholic beverages, but he added:

"They do not boast that they have made total alcoholics of 750,000 men and women in the United States, and heavy drinkers of 10,000,000 men and women."

"At least one person in 81 per cent of the American homes," he added, "has a record of drunkenness."

The convention's temperance board reaffirmed its stand on prohibition, asserting that "as soon as possible beverage alcohol should be outlawed in the United States."

ONLY A "FRIEND"

NEW YORK, April 30. (AP)—A 24-year-old French movie actress, arriving today from Rrance, described herself as a friend of circus executive John Ringling North, but denied reports she came here to marry him.

The actress, Maritine Carroll, arrived on the liner America.

Washington Observers Believe That Russia Is Ready To Try Something New In War On West

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 30—The belief here is that Russia soon will attempt something new in her war against the West. She may even try — or at least threaten — the use of force.

Russia, it is pointed out, has definitely reached the end of another phase of her march since 1939. First she sided with Hitler to weaken the Democratic West. Second she used diplomatic pressure—at Moscow, Tehran, Yalta, Potsdam, London, Paris, San Francisco and Lake Success. Third came military pressure against her smaller neighbors and fourth, political pressure against the Marshall plan countries — especially France and Italy. (Her war against Hitler was not part of her plan, hence doesn't count.)

Some Were Failures

Some of these campaigns were successful. Some were failures. Now, like any other power in the middle of a war, it is observed, she must pause, regroup, and change tactics if she wishes to advance. Otherwise she seems to be marking time.

Here in Washington the danger is held to be as great or greater than ever. Similar anxiety is known to exist in London, Paris and the other capitals of western Europe. Few believe the Kremlin seeks war now, but almost all fear Russia may make a "mistake." She may "miscalculate" and start something that can't be stopped.

West Is War-Weary

The Kremlin knows, for example, that the West is war-weary. It knows, too, that the west is unprepared, that it is less prepared today than it was in 1938-39, both mentally and physically. Now has it forgotten how, back in those days, Chamberlain and Daladier were hailed as national heroes when they returned from Munich. By surrendering to Hitler, it was said, they had made possible "peace in our time."

Hitler, the Kremlin may recall, got what he wanted by bluster and threats—in the Rhineland, Austria, Sudetenland, Czechoslovakia, Memel. When he tried it in Poland, World war II followed. Will Stalin, officials on both sides of the Atlantic ask, follow Hitler's pattern?

Danger Is Real

Lord Rothermere recently declared in this country that "peace-at-any-price" sentiment exists in Europe. He suggested that the danger is real. This writer (who returned last September) found few Europeans who did not regard the idea of war with horror. For years they have been trampled by advancing and retreating armies. Their cities have been flattened and their countrysides ravaged. They have lost almost everything, their living standards are low and their future offers little except misery.

If Stalin suddenly confronted these people with an ultimatum such as Chamberlain and Daladier faced at Munich, it is asked, what would happen? Chamberlain's answer to Hitler at Munich was ratified by frantic cheers in the streets of London and in the House of Commons by a vote of 366 to 144—a resounding majority in both places.

UN Is Powerless

Senator Vandenburg and other informed leaders in Congress do not underestimate the situation. They say that dollars alone won't cure it. The United Nations has proved powerless to stop bloodshed in Palestine, with a total population of two million Jews and Arabs. Clearly it can do nothing now in Europe, with 530 million population.

But the UN charter contains a stop-gap answer. Chapter VIII expressly provides for regional security arrangements and there are signs that Congress may act under this provision to keep despairing Europe from grasping at another Munich.

COLLECTIONS IN FAMILY

POTOMAC, Ill., (AP)—Harmon Copeland, 86, and his wife, Nelle, 79, have a sizeable—and somewhat surprising—collection. She has 150 baskets from all parts of the world and a hoard of antique dishes and glassware. He has a clock made of 150 pieces of wood, a 1900 model gas buggy, two hearses of the horse-drawn type and a casket made in 1887.

Naval Group Plans Move On June 15

As Lubbock's first organized division of the Naval Reserve looks forward to moving by June 15 into the training center under construction on Texas Technological college campus, plans aimed at formation of another organized surface division are being made here.

An organizational meeting of those interested in forming another division is to be conducted at 8 p. m. today in the engineering auditorium on the campus.

Would Receive Pay

Naval Reserve officers and former service men and also all men between 17 and 40 who have not had previous military service are invited to tonight's meeting, said Lt. Marvin Hunter, who has charge of the Naval Reserve Recruiting office here.

The new unit, if approved by Naval authorities and organized here, would receive pay on the same scale as that of the division already in operation.

Would Use New Center

Wednesday night was pay time for members of the division in operation and the quarterly pay roll amounted to $6,637.37, averaging $3.34 per man. A total of 198 men are listed in the pay roll. Of the total pay roll, which was for the quarter ending April 1, $5,421.01 went to enlisted men and $1,216.36 to officers.

The contractor has notified Hunter that he expects to have the training center ready for the division to move into by June 15. If a new division is formed, it also will use the training center, said Hunter.

Six Girls Suspended After "Deskirting"

NORTH BEND, Ore., April 30 (INS)—Six senior girls at North Bend High school were suspended today for enforcing an old school custom and removing freshman girls' skirts on the school grounds and in the building.

Principal Herb Armstrong said they were suspended when the school board insisted on a halt to the 40-year-old custom of "deskirting" girls and "de-pantsing" boys.

The six girls were suspended from classes and all school activities and ordered to stay off the grounds for two weeks. They will be reinstated at the end of that time if they promise good behavior.

Senior boys usually take off freshman boys' trousers and senior girls take off the skirts of freshman girls, often in the halls in the lunch hour. Armstrong expressed belief that no other school in the state has such a tradition.

There are about 250,000 churches in the United States claiming close to half the country's population as members.
