8 PAGES — 1 SECTION COLORADO CITY RECORD, SUNDAY, JAN. 14, 1968 10c PER COPY — $5.00 PER YEAR

Grand Champion Sanco

Noble Lamp 40, grand champion bull of Mitchell County Hereford Association's 1968 sale, is shown here by the animal's breeder, I.A. Bird, 86-year-old Sanco cattleman, and his son-in-law, N.C. Pentecost, Sanco, at left. The bull was calved Nov. 22, 1965, and sold for $600.

County Employees' Pay Going Up 15 Per Cent

Mitchell County officials and employes are getting a 15 per cent payboost.

Commissioners Court approved the across-the-board increase this week following months of study.

It is the first major pay hike for the Courthouse in 10 years and is aimed to help county employes meet climbing living costs.

Commissioners revealed in the summer they were hopeful of providing larger pay checks to the entire county working force, long considered below pay levels in business.

NO TAX INCREASE

However, the court had to adjust the higher pay with available income in the county budget which has ruled out higher taxes.

Approximate cost of the pay increase will be about $21,726 per year — an estimate figured on base salaries of county and precinct employes and not including hourly labor.

This amounts to about $1,810 per month with the 15 per cent hike varying slightly at some levels.

Last time county workers received a pay boost was in early 1958 — an increase that ranged upward from 10 per cent. Only other boost came a couple of years later when the county made up for higher withholding taxes taken from employes' checks.

TOP SALARIES

Top salaried posts at the Courthouse under the higher levels are Tax Assessor-Collector Montie Hardegree, County Auditor Dwayne Feaster and County Judge Elmer Martin, all three at $575 per month.

Next high are County Attorney Frank Ginzel, County Clerk Gilbert Leach and Sheriff Lewis Claxton at $552.

Third highest are the four commissioners — Moody Richardson, Drue Cawthron, Marcus Vest and J. C. Northcutt at $489.

HIKE NECESSARY

Commissioners Court, as reported previously in the Record, decided that a pay hike was imperative in order to keep county employes. However Commissioners also considered the possibility of starting a retirement plan under a new state law and making available a group disability insurance program for county employes.

Commissioners decided this week to go ahead with the 15 per cent pay plan and withheld decisions on the insurance and retirement plans. One major reason for the delay on retirement was the fact that the administrator of the program in Austin could not meet with county officials for several months to discuss key provisions of the retirement.

Cattleman, 86, Scores

With Hereford Sale's Champion Bull

Fifty-one years ago I. A. Bird began breeding Hereford cattle in Coke County.

Thursday the 86-year-old cattleman watched with pride as Noble Lamp 40 was named grand champion bull of Mitchell County Hereford Association's 19th Annual Sale.

His son-in-law, Nolan Pentecost, showed the Hereford for the Sanco rancher, who was proud of everything except the $600 price his champion brought in the auction ring.

LOW PRICE TAG

Bird, who moved to Coke County 81 years ago, figured the senior yearling bull, calved Nov. 22, 1965, was worth more.

But actual buyers Thursday were not heavy in number and the $600 price tag was second high for the day.

The reserve champion, calved Jan. 2, 1967, Golden Superior C6, consigned by Pied Piper Farms of Hamlin, brought $615.

Forty-two Hereford bulls sold for a total of $13,915 and averaged $331.71 per bull. Only one heifer was consigned and sold for $230, bringing the total for all 43 Herefords to $14,145.

HIGHER IN '67

Last year 36 animals sold for $15,240, averaging $423. Bulls averaged $445 in the 1967 sale with 32 selling for $14,240. Four heifers sold for $1,000, averaging $250.

Two Colorado City men paid the top prices and bought the two winning bulls. Les Terry paid the $600 for the champion and Charles C. Thompson paid the $615 for reserve champion.

Thompson, who had two class winners in the judging, won the award for the best group of bulls.

BUSY BROTHERS

Busiest buyers were Mertz Bros. of San Angelo, who bought 10 bulls with a total price tag of $3,380.

Showing class winners in addition to the grand and reserve champions were: A. K. Treadaway, junior yearling bull; Bird, spring yearling bull; Thompson, early summer yearling bull and late summer yearling bull; Sam C. Thompson, senior bull calf; S. F. Buchanan, winter bull calf.

Thief Arrested In Stolen Truck

State Highway Patrolman Jim Mauldin Thursday put a quick end to an Odessa thief's attempt to get away in a stolen truck with rental uniforms and other supplies.

He arrested the 27-year-old Odessa man at 12:30 noon about a mile south of Colorado City on State Highway 163 (to Sterling City).

A tip from Sterling City minutes earlier had alerted local officers for the truck owned by Dickey Uniform Rental Service of Odessa.

Driver for the rental service had parked the truck at his home in Odessa Wednesday night. It was stolen early Thursday morning or late Wednesday night, but was not discovered missing until up in the day.

Sterling City notified police here to be on the lookout for the truck driver who aroused suspicions in Sterling City when he traded grease rags for gasoline.

"He didn't look like he belonged with the truck," officers here were told.

The driver, who was on probation and has a record of 28 arrests in West Texas, had picked up two hitchhikers before being stopped by Mauldin.

He was apprehended without resistance and turned over later to Odessa authorities.

Constable Lowe Asks 2nd Term

D. L. (Delmer) Lowe announced Saturday that he would be a candidate for re-election to Constable, Precinct 1.

His candidacy sets up a race for the Precinct 1 post with A. G. (Red) Ballard already definitely a candidate.

Lowe, who lives at 628 Walnut and has been a resident here all of his 56 years, will be seeking his second term as constable.

"I will seek the office on my own qualifications and mertis as shown during my first term as your constable," Lowe told The Record.

"During these last four years I have cooperated with all law enforcement agencies in an effort to be of best service to the citizens of Precinct 1.

"I appreciate the support and cooperation extended to me in previous years and I sincerely ask for your continued support, your influence and your vote, in the coming Democratic Primary," Lowe concluded.

Burditt Denied New Trial In Car Death

County Judge Elmer Martin has overruled Jim Raymond Burditt's motion for a new trial.

Burditt's attorney, James G. Baker of Perryton, had filed a motion for the new trial following Burditt conviction here last Nov. 16.

A jury in County Court had found the Snyder youth guilty of negligent homicide in the auto crash death of J. P. Nunn and assessed him an 18-month Jail term.

When probation was denied Burditt, Baker asked for a new trial.

Checking Town For Mothers March

Bill Erwin, Mitchell County March of Dimes campaign chairman, Mrs. Wendell Jarnagan, and Mrs. George L e are pictured checking the map of Colorado City township in preparation of the Tuesday evening Mothers March for the March of Dimes.

MARCH OF DIMES

Mothers To March Here Tuesday Night

The front door of Colorado City homes will be the front line in the fight against birth defects Tuesday evening when Jaycee-Ettes and volunteers will stage the annual Mothers March for the March of Dimes.

"We hope this drive will be the most successful in our 30-year history in the health field," said Miss Betty Williams M.O.D. local campaign chairman.

"In the past we conquered polio through the March of Dimes. With polio conquered, the National Foundation, founded in 1938 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, turned its resources and know-how to fight birth defects," said Miss Williams, herself a polio victum.

"The nation's marching mothers are grateful that they can help a child," added Mrs. George Lee, chairman of the Mothers Marchers. "The 16 city area captains and their volunteer marchers feel the same way. It is a privilege to serve such a cause," said the Jaycee-Ette president Mrs. Lee.

Much of the money contributed to the March of Dimes goes into a vigorous research program which seeks to shed light on the complex mysteries of birth defect, explained Bill Erwin, county March of Dimes chairman.

Another part is earmarked for public education programs and yet another part goes to support a nationwide network of nearly 100 Birth Defect Centers where children may receive teamcoordinated, specialized treatment, Erwin said.

Birth Defect Research Center in Texas is at Baylor University College of Medicine, Houston.

March starts here at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday and will be a door-to-door drive with young mothers doing the marching.

Working as area captains will be Mrs. John Morgan, Jr., Mrs. Ray Prescott, Mrs. Bobby Nobles, Mrs. Dink Rees, Mrs. Calvin Van Zandt, Mrs. Aubrey Williams, Mrs. Jerry Kraatz, Mrs. Lacy Boles, Mrs. Dan Majors, Mrs. Dan Fisher, Mrs. Wendell Jarnagin, Mrs. Johnny Molina, Mrs. M. W. Palmer, Mrs. Manuel Molina, Mrs. Tony Alvidrez, and Mrs. George Lee.

"Sorry envelopes," for use of contributors to the fund, will be left at all homes where families are away Tuesday evening.

"When a mother rings your door bell or knocks on your front door, give to help another mother and a child less fortunate," said Miss Williams.

Families not at home are urged to use the "sorry envelope" for donations to the March of Dimes.

Four Teams Win Series At Duplicate

A team from Snyder, Mrs. Verdi Kimbro and Mrs. Ken Davis won fourth place for the day.

Both the Speed Wash, 1719 Vine, and Econ-O-Wash, 103 West Fifth will be closed temporarily while the equipment at 103 West Fifth is moved and installed for expanded operations at Speed Wash 1719 Vine.

Just as soon as the installation is complete — Speed Wash at 1719 Vine, in the E-Z Way Supperette shopping center, will be re-opened.

The Morrises regret this inconvenience with temporary closing of Speed Wash, 1719 Vine.

However, they are sure you will welcome the expanded facilities and the addition of a new location to the fine laundry service already provided Colorado City by Mr. and Mrs. Morris.

Be sure and use the facilities at our 344 West 4th St. location during the temporary closing of the 1719 Vine St. location.

Fox On Indoor Circuit

Saturday In Kansas City Meet

The small town kid and the big city, Freddie Fox and Kansas City, get together Saturday night, and square dances aren't part of the menu.

Fox, McMurry's new national track figure, puts his best jumps forward against several of the top broad jumpers in the country at the Third Annual NAIA Indoor Track and Field Championships in spacious Municipal Auditorium.

The Colorado City product who has taken up where Bill Miller left off at McMurry, Fox rates as one of the pre-meet favorites to capture the long jump, a title which slipped through his feet one year ago.

Fox, a gangly junior who is the current NAIA outdoor champ, placed second on the inside in 1967 at Kansas City.

The leaping lad who dealt Fox one of his few defeats last season returns, and the competition is boiling up as a feature attraction. Harvey Nair of Southern University is the defending champ. Fox hit 24-4 for second best against Nair.

Then after a second in Kansas City, Fox smashed the Lone Star Conference mark with 25-6 and won the NAIA outdoor crown with 24-8¾.

Long jump competition is slated for 9 p.m. Saturday with both prelims and finals being run off until conclusion.

Fox will jet to Kansas City Friday and fly Saturday night, hopefully, to a national championship.

Ruth Coffey's

EVERYBODY has a collection of hidden strengths as well as little secret weaknesses.

One of life's most amazing lessons is learned by watching people bear up nobly in the face of tragedy with strength, dignity, and unsuspected fortitude.

And part of this world's comic relief is found when people you know, like, or maybe love show their funny little human weaknesses.

Stranger yet is the fact that most people — nearly all of us — can stand the big grief, the terrific disappointment, the real worry far better than we can cope with minor irritations and frustrations.

Minor irritations are like the common cold . . . coming on suddenly, hanging on stubbornly and a bit more bothersome in general than some major illness.

At least with a major illness, a person can lie down. With a common cold or the minor irritation people have to keep plugging away.

WHAT'S your secret weakness?

Well, course, once you admit what, then it's no longer secret so you don't have to answer.

Had an algebra teacher, once, who was the most magnificent spinster. She wore her hair in a bun and a watch tucked in her belt. She loved mathematics like an only child and spent hours trying to give a measure of that love to her classes.

Her one weakness was a personal war against chewing gum. A pupil could flunk a test and get another chance.

Only time she ever raised her voice was when somebody dared get caught chewing gum. And then she came unbuckled all over study hall!

MY MOTHER would forgive her broad almost any shortcoming except one.

She had this reverence for the English language and her children spoke it properly or not at all. "Gosh," to her was a form of profanity and ain't was downright immoral.

Daddy held on to his aversion to pants instead of skirt for any female of any age as long as he lived in this world. The very thought of 'em brought out a string of stern sentences beginning "No daughter of mine . . ."

NATURALLY, with those genes and such a double heritage, I wound up with a collection of weaknesses — some of them not-so-secret as others.

Here goes. Love piano music and every piano on earth. But the sound of any little child "banging" on one brings out the wildcat.

Have to curb a loud laugh when anybody starts saying "I don't believe a word of this but have you heard . . ."

Feel frustrated and guilty when somebody walks in out of the clear blue yonder and begins with "You don't remember me, do you?"

Coupons in magazines and circulars on the lawn . . . ants on men in restaurants . . . recipes calling for thyme and oregano . . . best-dressed lists raise the blood pressure.

That's how come my favorite man for now is the fellow who got up his own worst-dressed list. It was a heck of a lot more fun!

FAMILIAR FACES at the Mexican buffet, Thursday evening belonged to Lena and Gwan Strange . . . The Rev. M. A. Smith, Jr., and his pretty little wife Cleo, just back from a short visit with her daughter in Dallas.

George and Frences Witten were entertaining his mother, Roxie Witten . . . Chief of Police Jesse Browning, his wife, daughter and cute little grandchildren were there.

So were the T. J. Goss family . . . Inez Hock, Margaret Oxler, Ethel Hardegree, and Nelda Garrett who was saying she and her brother Jesse C. Garrett had a New Years visit down at Austin with their brother Lt. Col. Charles Garrett, recovering from a heart ailment and now at home from the hospital.

In a corner booth sat Blanche and Frank W. Wilson . . . Saw cute Sharon Hammond and her husband Morris . . . Annie Dixon and Lona Pritchett, too.

SEEN LATELYS, other places were Minna Berman (Mrs. Philip) . . Jimmy and Addie V. Payne at the Down Town . . . Dits R. H. and Betty Drennen Clydine Stickney and Vicki (Mrs. Lindy) Moore . . . Jo Tiller, wife of Johnny.

Saw Margie Treadaway (Mrs. Kelly) on the shopping scene . . . Nelle Palmer (Mrs. Sims) . . . Sefton Pickens . . . Naomi, wife of Dr. Bill Rhode . . . Mattie (Mrs. Witt) Hines.

Chatted a bit with Ellon (Mrs. Guy) Burson . . . Mrs. Graydon Howell . . . Jay Craddock . . . Arlene Morris, the PM (postmaster) . . . Ruth Dozier and Clorine Stewart (Mrs. A. B.) . . . and Glen Thomas.

HEAR TELL that three of our newly re-organized Jaycee-Ettes, Beverly Lee, wife of George, Dolores Boles, wife of Lacy, and Mrs. Calvin Van Zandt plan to attend the tea party in the Governor's Mansion, to be hosted by Mrs. John Connally, for Texas Mothers Marchers in the March of Dimes campaign, Thursday.

CLOUD NINE hovers over the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Yost, 101 East 22nd St.

The Yosts are grandparents of a little boy, baby, Morris Leon Shouts, II, born to their daughter Janet and her husband the Rev. Morris L. Shouts in a Lubbock hospital, Jan. 8.

Morris Leon has a sister Shanda, who is 16 months old. Father of the Yost grandchildren is pastor of the Highland Assembly of God Church in Lubbock.

Miss Janet Kimbrell Exchanges Vows With Gary Gene Parker

Double ring vows exchanged in Plainview Baptist church at three o'clock in the afternoon, Sunday, January 7, united Miss Janet Ann (Muffet) Kimbrell and Gary Gene Parker in marriage.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kimbrell, 976 Marshall St. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Parker, of Texas Electric Service Company Village.

Officiating for the wedding ceremony was the church pastor, Rev. Caddo Matthews. Traditional nuptial music was played by Mrs. Robert O. Sayger, organist for Oak Street Baptist Church.

Altar of the Plainview church was decorated with greenery and white wedding bells, flanked by twin baskets of white gladioli and carnations.

Entering with her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a white satin [illegible] designed and made by her mother. The bodice and long tapered sleeves were graced with Alencon lace appliques re-embroidered in seed pearls. The Watteau train which swept from the shoulder-line was scalloped and trimmed with lace and pearl appliques.

The bride's veil of white tulle was attached to a satin bow and petal headdress centered with a seed pearl heart. Her bouquet was of white carnations and gardenis, in heart design, carried on her white Bible.

Miss Donna Carter, student in Texas Technological College in Lubbock, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Parker, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Linda Banks.

Bridal attendants wore street-length dresses of blue bonded crepe with matching headpiece and brief tulle veils. Each carried a single long stemmed carnation.

Don Higginbotham, student in Texas Western College at El Paso attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Randy Parker, brother of the bridegroom, and Larry Paul, student in Tarleton State College at Stephenville.

Ushers were the bride's brother Don Kimbrell of Midland, and her brother Skeet Kimbrell of Colorado City.

Fellowship Hall at the church was setting for the wedding reception honoring bridal party and guests.

The bride's table was covered in white net over white satin with blue swags and bows as color theme accents. An arrangement of white glads and carnations in a gold-footed crystal bowl and gold candle holders belonging to the maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Clyde Storey, centered the table. The three-tiered cake was served with punch by Misses Shirley Gary and Danna Brown.

For a honeymoon trop to Abilene the bride traveled in winter white two-piece suit with royal blue scarf and accessories, worn with a gardenia corsage.

The couple will live at Cottage 126, Sul Ross State College, Alpine. Both the bride and groom are 1967 graduates of Colorado High School and are second semester freshmen at college.

Among out-of-town guests here for the wedding and reception were paternal grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parker of Gorman; the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Storey, Lake Colorado City. Other guests were present from Abilene, Midland, Odessa, Snyder, Aplin, and Santa Ana.

Rehearsal dinner party, Saturday evening, January 6, was hosted by parents of the groom at Villa Inn Restaurant. Blue tapers were used with arrangements of white glads and carnations.

Essay Contest Winners Read For Zeta Delta Club

Americanism program for Zeta Delta Study Club was presented in the home of Mrs. Randy Hicks, 929 Walnut St., Thursday evening.

Featured on the program were the two Americanism essay contest winners, both students in Colorado Junior High School eighth grade.

Becky Camp, winner of the Zeta Delta essay contest first prize of $10 read her prize essay. Scott Sherman, winner of the $5 second prize, also read his essay.

Scott, who read first, said "Americanism is not dead. It is just not social . . . Americanism as a thing for teens could be bigger than LSD, Johnson, or war protests. Americanism is contagious. It could spread from teens to parents, even to the peaceniks."

Becky, in her essay, said "Americanism is like freedom. It is a feeling of pride security, warmth, unity, and love. It is a feeling that God smiles down on our country."

During the business session Mrs. Hubert Bassinger reminded club members of the deadline for registering to vote s and that citizens who expect to vote must register before Jan. 31.

Community Attitude poll recently completed by Jaycees, assisted by Zeta Delta members, was read. Schools received excellent rating, it was noted, with job and recreation opportunities for all ages given lowest rating and showing greatest community need.

Annual election of officers followed a report by the nominating committee.

Mrs. David Sanders was named president-elect, Mrs. Dennis Wright, vice president, Mrs. Jackie Corbell, recording secretary. Elected as corresponding secretary was Mrs. Mike Wadlington; historian, Mrs. Tom Rees; reporter, Mrs. Eddie Piland; treasurer, Mrs. Hubert Bassinger; parliamentarian, Mrs. Bobby Nobles.

Attending were Mmes. Carl Bell, Eddie Braswell, Don Fite, Rodney James, Bassinger, Corbell, Nobles, Rees, Sanders, Wadlington, and Wright.

Next meeting, Jan. 24, will highlight "Health Problems."

C-City Joins Drive

For West Texas Rehabilitation Center

Colorado City will join other towns in this area with a drive to benefit West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene.

With Zetagathian Study Club as sponsor of the campaign for funds, George Womack, vice president at City National Bank, will accept cash and checks for the Center.

Spontaneous response by citizens at Abilene had accounted for $36,533 in four days collected by Wednesday morning.

Other sympathetic drives have been started at Stamford, at Sweetwater, by the Lions Club at Rotan and by the Community Fund at Clyde.

The Center, which serves and helps a wide area of West Texas, has never had an all out drive for money before. Its financial plight became known to the public early this month.

Colorado City has reaped direct benefits from West Texas Rehabilitation Center, it was pointed out by Mrs. W. S. Rhode, Zetagathian Club member who announced the proposed drive here.

Special reading teachers in Colorado Independent Schools have sent many local children with speech defects and reading problems to the Center, without charge.

Any number of Colorado City adults have also received physical therapy at the Center.

One donor started the Colorado City contribution with a personal check for $100.

Checks are to be made to West Texas Rehabilitation Center and will be accepted at the bank by Mr. Womack.

"Colorado City, the power city, will back the cause if past drives for emergency funds are any indication of the big hearts in this little town," said the first anonymous donor to the emergency fund for West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

Money is needed if the Center is to continue to serve the sister cities in West Texas.
