Martin Sponsored Resolutions For REAP, ASCS Passed By House

The Texas Legislature's House of Representatives Tuesday passed without opposition two resolutions, both of which were sponsored by Colorado City's Elmer Martin.

One resolution, sponsored by Martin, representative from the 61st district which includes Mitchell, Jones, Nolan, Martin and part of Taylor County, asked President Nixon to abandon a plan to consolidate a number of Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service offices (ASCS).

Under a plan released in January by the Department of Agriculture, the Mitchell and Scurry ASCS offices would be combined.

Another resolution introduced by Martin, E.L. Short of Tahoka and Joe A. Hubenak of Rosenthal, asked the Nixon Administration to restore the Rural Environmental Assistance Program (REAP) and to restore loans "at a reasonable rate" to rural electric cooperatives.

The Nixon administration in December announced it would end all low interest rates to REAP's and stopped REAP funding although it had been approved by Congress.

Each year, Mitchell County receives some $50,000 for conservation work under REAP.

Martin told the Record from Austin that he would like to hear from residents of his district so that he will know what his constituents want him to do.

"I would like to hear from as many constituents as possible on the issues confronting the legislature, so I can better represent all the people of the 61st District," Martin said.

"There are several major issues confronting us in the legislature and I would appreciate my constituent's response in deciding on them," he added.

Martin sent out 1,000 questionnaires to his district to people picked at random from the telephone book.

Here are some of the questions to which Martin would like answers on what his constituents believe in:

--Do you favor a 2¢ per gallon tax increase on gasoline to maintain and construct our highways?

--Do you favor open competitive insurance rates?

--Do you think first offense marijuana charge should be a misdemeanor instead of a felony?

--Do you approve of recent Supreme Court decisions concerning abortion?

--Would you vote for four year terms for members of the Texas House of Representatives?

--Do you favor annual sessions for the Legislature?

--Do you favor pari-mutuel betting in Texas?

--Do you favor the death penalty?

--Do you favor abolishing the ad valorem tax for local schools except for building programs, bonds and enrichment programs and the state paying 100% of state requirements?

Answers to these questions and any other item you would like Martin to consider should be addressed to Rep. Elmer Martin, Box 2910, Capitol Station, Austin Texas 78767, or phone 512-475-7239.

TOWN TALK

By MAC MCKINNON

Colorado City voters will have a choice for the first time since 1970 when they go to the polls to vote in the City Council election.

This year there are nine candidates for four positions. It has been many years since there have been that many candidates.

I am a firm believer in the Democratic processes and it is with a great deal of joy that I have witnessed so much interest in our city government.

The city, and for that matter all government entities, are for the people and it behooves us to be interested in the actions and policies of the agencies that determine our destiny.

It has been said that Colorado City is at the crossroads. We are on the verge of regaining much that has been lost in preceding decades because of the decline in population in rural areas. This decline was in no way the fault of the city. But the city and its council can do things which will help us recoup those losses.

It is extremely important that we have a city government that is alert to every situation. We must capitalize on our many assets and opportunities.

The city has made progress in many areas in the past, but there is much to be done to make this a city that will outshine any other.

One of our greatest assets and one which I believe no other city or town can equal is our people. And there are nine of those fine people who want to be our city councilmen.

All nine are upstanding members of our community. All believe they have the best interests of our city at heart and only want to be on the council so they make sure the city achieves the aspirations of its people.

In issues of the Record just prior to the election, the Record will publish the views and beliefs of each candidate, as set down by the candidate.

I encourage every voter to seek out the candidates, to question them and determine for yourself who you believe will do the best job on behalf of all city residents.

It is my hope that no one will become bitter during or after the campaign. I have heard that some persons are taking the campaign as personal, and in politics, nothing can be taken as personal.

And the last thing we need in Colorado City is bitterness. It is going to take cooperation and work from everyone to get Colorado City past the crossroads and along the right path to progress.

Political Pot Boiling

Statements Issued Here

The race for the city council of Colorado City gained momentum this week as four candidates banned together to run as a ticket and another candidate issued a statement.

Four positions are up for election on the council and there are nine candidates. The four positions are now held by Mayor C.C. (Mike) Burt, Mayor Pro Tem J.C. Brown, J.C. Britton and Frank Brownfield.

The election will be held Tuesday, April 3.

Candidates for the four positions include incumbents Burt and Brown, J. Lee Jones Jr., Rick Perkin, Bobby Kimmel, Hank Bryant, John Billings, Mrs. Tom (Jody) Neff and Dan Pfeuffer.

All of these candidates have been asked by the Record to prepare a 500-600 word statement to appear in the Record in the last few issues prior to the election so that voters can take a look at the stand and beliefs of each candidate.

Volleyball Team Wins

Colorado High School volleyball teams have scored victories in their last three outings.

Against Westbrook, Tuesday night, the freshman team won third place in a tournament in Big Spring with Jackie Palmer being named all tournament player.

The Wolves won against Big Spring 15-12, lost 6-15 and won 18-16 with Leslie Greenlee scoring 10 points. The Wolves then lost to Crane 11-15, won 15-12 and lost 8-14 with Leslie Greenlee scoring 8 and Jackie See VOLLEYBALL Page 8

Four of the candidates met Sunday afternoon and decided to run as a team in the election. They issued the following statement:

"We Bobby Kimmel, J. Lee Jones Jr., John Billings and Rick Perkin, as a united team, are for: Improved cemetery care; an enforceable stray dog ordinance; more paved streets, including paved streets to the park and other areas; clean, adequate water supply to all areas; the elimination of old, vacant buildings; and the improvement of the appearance of Colorado City.

"This united team would constitute a majority of City Councilmen who can, and will bring about these improvements, but only a majority can. To insure unity of your City Council, vote for the united team of Kimmel, Jones, Billings and Perkin."

Monday afternoon, another candidate, Mrs. Neff, issued this statement:

"As the only woman in the City Council race, I believe a woman's viewpoint will be a positive step towards a more diversified, interested and active City Council.

"I wish to assure you that if elected to the City Council, I will do my best to further the progress of Colorado City," Mrs. Neff said.

"Running as an individual, I agree with each of the needs that the four candidates, running as a ticket, have stressed -- the quality of our water, the needed repairs to the streets, the beautification of our community as a whole. However, I wish to assure you that I plan to be willing to work with whoever, you as the voters, elect to the City Council.

"There is a definite need for cooperation among individuals. The City Council, Chamber of Commerce, County, School, Hospital, and local organizations should strive toward this cooperation," she concluded.

$23,360 Chamber Budget

Fishing Tourney Planned For April 14-22

The Colorado City Chamber of Commerce board of directors in its regular monthly meeting Monday night approved a budget of $23,360.08 for 1973 as compared to a budget of $21,530.68 for 1972.

Out of the 1972 budget of $21,530.68, only $19,214.26 was spent.

Jackson Selected All-District

Colorado City's Melvin Jackson Wednesday was named all-district basketball player by District 3-AAA coaches and the Wolves Ed Warren was named to the honorable mention team.

Other members of the all-district team, unanimous choices were Harry McCurley, 6-1 senior of Lamasa; Kent McCurley, 6-4 junior, of Lamasa; Calvin See ALL-DISTRICT Page 8

Most of the budgeted items in the 1973 budget remain the same as for 1972 with only a few exceptions.

One exception was the salary of executive vice president Seton Pickens who received a $30 a month pay raise. Another change was an increase in the out of town travel budget which in 1972 was $300 and $1,200 is budgeted for 1973.

Pickens explained that the board wanted to provide adequate funds in order for committees, the Industrial Committee in particular, to be able to make needed trips on behalf of securing industry for Colorado City.

Another item in the budget which was not in the budget in 1972 is $500 for brochures. Director John Martin has been placed in charge of the committee to develop a brochure.

In other committee action, the chamber approved sponsorship of a fishing tournament by the lake committee, headed by Bob by Sparks. The tourney has been tentatively scheduled for April 14-22.

The attorney for the Hickman Estate suggested to the heirs that the land be given to the city for a park as an appropriate and befitting memorial to their deceased brother.

However, the attorney said the Hickman heirs expressed fear that the city would fail or refuse to dedicate and designate the land as Hickman park; would fail or refuse to establish and maintain such a park or would fail or refuse to erect adequate appropriate and attractive markers and signs.

The Hickman heirs were assured by their attorney that the deed would be drafted so as to afford them protection and the provision was made that the land would revert to the estate in six months unless the city completed the conversion of the Hickman lands to a public park by the cleaning and clearing thereof and by the erection of adequate and appropriate and attractive markers and signs See PARK Page 8

WHY HOLD AN ELECTION?

Or is this the election to stop all elections?

The "Four Horsemen" that have banded together for a Block Vote can pass or kill any legislation that comes before the City Council.

According to "Murphy's Law", what can happen will happen.

Are we naive enough for this Rubber Stamp coalition or clique in our city government? This does win a prize of some kind and I would be glad to furnish it, but I have sold my horse.

Culture Club 'Visits' Old Homes, 'Tours' Texas Friday

The Self Culture Club met with Mrs. A.A. Herrington Friday with the program for the day being presented by Mrs. A. H. Jackson and Mrs. Earl Brown.

Mrs. Jackson spoke to the group on "Famous Old Homes of Texas" and Mrs. Brown's topic was "An Arm Chair Tour of Texas".

Mrs. L.A. Keith led the club collect and pledge to the flag and the club treasurer gave a report.

Mrs. L.B. Elliott will be the alternate delegate for the club at the Mesquite District Convention of Texas Federation of Women's Club to be held March 27 and 28 in Abilene.

The roll call was "Birthstone mini-sketch of life in Texas".

Mrs. Jackson began by saying "Texas is truly a variety vacationland with scenery ranging from the Gulf of Mexico to the hill country, east to the deep tangled woods, north to the high plains, west to the mountains.

"Along almost every highway in the state, around each bend and over the next hill lie travel experiences too diverse to summarize.

However our subject today is not scenery, but old homes of Texas.

"These old homes are scattered over this big beautiful state of ours. Many of them have been restored and are being used to house museums, libraries, almost any way for tourist attraction."

As she continued, she gave mini sketches of many famous homes in Texas such as the Governors Mansion in Austin, the home of O'Henry, Stillman House Museum, the Hahn home, the Delves Harris Place, the Carriage House.

Also, the Sunday Houses of Fredericksburg, the boyhood home of Lyndon B. Johnson, Robert E. Lee's home, the Heritage Garden Village and many others.

"The ever-growing highway system converts more than 69,000 miles, from farm to market roads to broad interstate routes," began Mrs. Brown.

"Every mile offers driving convenience. But there are some special routes which lead to adventure and legend, sunny recreation areas and landscapes and scenic grandeur.

"It spans the vast high plains whose agriculture bounty stretches from horizon to horizon.

"The beauty of acres of golden wheat as far as the eye can see. In contrast, the field white with cotton makes you hold your breath. The red heads of maize for miles looks almost like a big red flower garden."

Then she took the group on a tour of Texas beginning with Palachura Canyon.

And the group also mentally visited Prairie Dog Town in Lubbock's McKinney Park, the red hills of Post, the hollow dam at Cisco, Tyler Rose Parade, the Big Thicket, the Astro-dome and the Azelia Trail. Also Galveston, Beaumont, Kings Ranch, Big Bend Park, McDonald Observatory, Corpus Christi and others.

"You will find pleasure all along our highways and farm to market roads and interstate highways.

"You can explore every corner to heartland, majestic high plains, to the border tropics through the vast green forests in the east and lofty mountains in the west. You will never find it all in any other state in the USA," she concluded.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Paul Beeman, Mrs. L.A. Strain, Mrs. A.A. Herrington, Mrs. J.L. Strain, Mrs. R.M. Reed, Mrs. A.H. Jackson, Mrs. L.A. Keith, Mrs. Earl Brown.

Mrs. L.B. Elliott, Mrs. E.L. Tiller, Mrs. Homan Posey and Mrs. Wilfred Fox.

Culture Club 'Visits' Old Homes, 'Tours' Texas Friday

The Self Culture Club met with Mrs. A.A. Herrington Friday with the program for the day being presented by Mrs. A. H. Jackson and Mrs. Earl Brown.

Mrs. Jackson spoke to the group on "Famous Old Homes of Texas" and Mrs. Brown's topic was "An Arm Chair Tour of Texas".

Mrs. L.A. Keith led the club collect and pledge to the flag and the club treasurer gave a report.

Mrs. L.B. Elliott will be the alternate delegate for the club at the Mesquite District Convention of Texas Federation of Women's Club to be held March 27 and 28 in Abilene.

The roll call was "Birthstone mini-sketch of life in Texas".

Mrs. Jackson began by saying "Texas is truly a variety vacationland with scenery ranging from the Gulf of Mexico to the hill country, east to the deep tangled woods, north to the high plains, west to the mountains.

"Along almost every highway in the state, around each bend and over the next hill lie travel experiences too diverse to summarize.

However our subject today is not scenery, but old homes of Texas.

"These old homes are scattered over this big beautiful state of ours. Many of them have been restored and are being used to house museums, libraries, almost any way for tourist attraction."

As she continued, she gave mini sketches of many famous homes in Texas such as the Governors Mansion in Austin, the home of O'Henry, Stillman House Museum, the Hahn home, the Delve Harris Place, the Carriage House.

Also, the Sunday Houses of Fredericksburg, the boyhood home of Lyndon B. Johnson, Robert E. Lee's home, the Heritage Garden Village and many others.

"The ever-growing highway system converts more than 69,000 miles, from farm to market roads to broad interstate routes," began Mrs. Brown.

Then she took the group on a tour of Texas beginning with Paladur Canyon.

And the group also mentally visited Prairie Dog Town in Lubbock's McKinsey Park, the red hills of Post, the hollow dam at Cisco, Tyler Rose Parade, the Big Thicket, the Astrodome and the Azella Trail. Also Galveston, Beaumont, Kings Ranch, Big Bend Park, McDonald Observatory, Corpus Christi and others.

"You will find pleasure all along our highways and farm to market roads and interstate highways.

"You can explore every corner to heartland, majestic high plains, to the border tropics through the vast green forests in the east and lofty mountains in the west. You will never find it all in any other state in the USA," she concluded.

For every '1 Texas cotton growers invested in TEMIK 10G they got back an average $3.13

ALDICARB PESTICIDE

TEMIK at planting time paid back a total $24.75 more per acre than acreage not treated with TEMIK. This was demonstrated in comparative field tests in East, West & Central Texas last year. The reason is longer and more effective protection than other systemic insecticides provide.

One planting-time application of granular TEMIK 10G aldicarb pesticide controls mites, thrips, aphids, leafminers for up to 12 weeks... and gives 6 weeks or longer control of overwintering weevils, fleahoppers, Lygus and other plant bugs. Protection like this can eliminate the need for 2 or more conventional early-season sprays. You pay more for TEMIK. But like every superior quality product, you get more from it.

See us for all the details today.

*Data obtained from 51 growers in East, West & Central Texas.

TEMIK 10G makes cotton pay like it should

TEMIK is the registered trade mark of Union Carbide Corporation for aldicarb pesticide.

The Golden Year

Kirschbaum's Appliance Store, owned by Mrs. Ida Kirschbaum, is celebrating its 50th anniversary this week.

Mrs. Kirschbaum and her late husband, Maurice, who died last year, opened their first store March 3, 1923. The store has always been at its present location in the 100 block of W. 2nd Street.

For 17 of those 50 years, the store was operated as a dry goods store. In 1940, the Kirschbaums went into the appliance business.

The store has handled a number of name brand appliances as long and in some cases, longer than any other store in West Texas.

Reaching the Golden Year of business is a tremendous achievement, and we extend our congratulations to Mrs. Kirschbaum, her grandchildren, Joe and Susan, and employees of the store.

The deed was issued March 1, 1972 and the provisions had not been complied with by Sept. 2, 1972 the attorney said. Therefore, the land automatically reverted to and is now owned and held by the Hickman heirs.

The city has passed an ordinance designating the park as "Hickman Park" and has done some cleaning but had not erected markers and signs.

The attorney called the lack of action by the city as a "demonstration of irresponsibility."
