CINDERS

By Jim Barnett

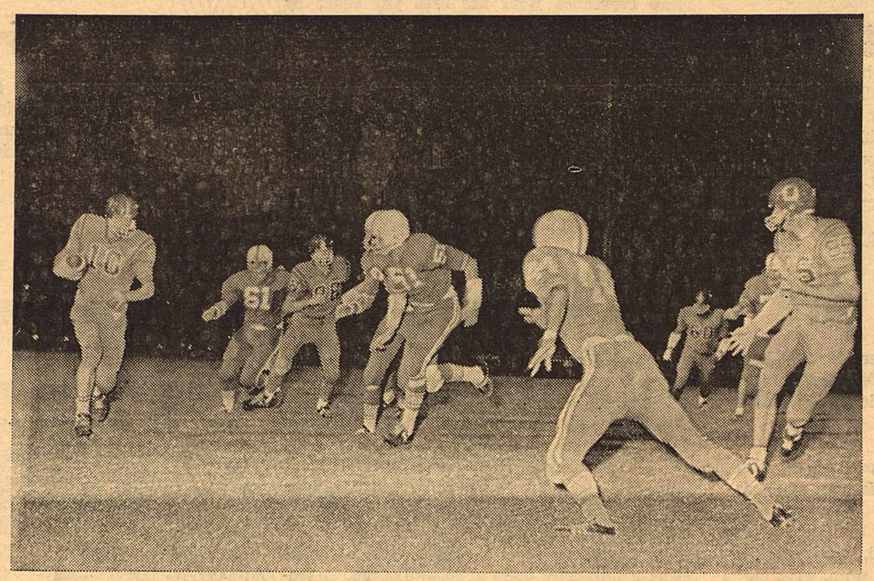

Possibly the most difficult task in the newspaper business is to begin a column that has already been established by someone else. Another problem is the content of the proposd column; should it be devoted to a certain segment of the readers or should it contain some interest for everyone.

As an answer to my problem I consulted with an old, journalism textbook and after reading a chapter entitled, "Writing A Column", I was indeed enlightened. After some 12 pages of rather small type, on old, sick-yellow paper, I was gratified to find an answer to the dilemma. Sure enough, it took 12 pages for the obviously, un-named author to say, "Write what you want to write".

After donating the first book to the Sonora Sanitation Department, I consulted another, and somewhat newer, journalism text for the answer to a question stimulated by the first book, "What do I want to write".

My second book was almost as enlightening as the first, it pointed out several possibilities; politics, private feelings, sports, criticism or crusades. Well, these got elminated one by one. First, what happens when the election is over? Second, feelings are best kept personal while sports offer little interest when the season is over. Criticism too often backfires and crusades are like a good, hot bath; they don't last very long even though it's nice to take one every now and then.

With all of these possibilities eliminated, another question arises: Does anyone have a brand-new journalism textbook they would like to donate to a worthy cause?

First Conference Win Over Lions Keeps Tough Broncos Undefeated

The powerhouse Broncos picked up their third win of the season and their first win in conference play by beating the Ozona Lions 33-0 Friday in Ozona.

With a chill wind to their backs the Lions opened the game by kicking-off to the Broncos. After a short run-back, Ed Lee Renfro crashed the Lion line for a score from his own 22-yard line on the first play from scrimmage. The scoring-play was called back and the broncos lost their score and were penalized 15 yards for offensive holding. The Sonora drive was stopped by an alert Ozona line and the ball went over on downs.

Ozona, with possession of the ball, was unable to gain against the tough Broncos, and was forced to punt.

Sonora took possession of the ball on their 25 and after a series of successful short gainers moved to the 39 yard line. A Sonora power sweep around left end was met with a jarring tackle by Ozona tackle, Gary Sutton, which caused the Sonora back to fumble. Ozona recovered the fumble on the Sonora 39-yard line.

On the first play after the fumble recovery, Ozona's aerial attempt was intercepted by Laney Cook on the 36-yard line to crush Ozona's hopes for a touchdown.

When the Lions lost the ball on the interception, Sonora connected with several long passes by Cook to Noe Chavez resulting in the first Bronco score. The two-point conversion try failed.

The second Sonora score came in the early minutes of the second quarter when Ed Lee Renfro broke through the middle of the Ozona line on the Ozona 47 and moved the ball to the Lion two-yard line. Quarterback Laney Cook took the ball into the end-zone for the second Bronco score. Again, the two point conversion failed.

After Ozona was unable to move after the kick-off and their series of downs following, they kicked to the Sonora 29-yard line. The Broncos began a long drive that moved to the eight-yard line. Sonora scored twice only to have the plays called back on penalties. On the third try Sonora scored again on an end sweep by Ed Lee Renfro, who went into the end zone untouched by the Lion defense. With less than a minute in the half, the two-point conversion was good and the score at half-time was 20-0.

In the second half another Sonora drive was launched early in the third quarter. The Broncos moved the ball from the Ozona 44 to the 10-yard line. Ed Lee Renfro moved the ball into the end-zone for the fourth Bronco score. Laney Cook's extra-point kick was good and the score stood at 27-0 with three minutes left in the third quarter.

After the kick-off, Ozona was unable to move the ball and Sonora took over. At this point, freshman quarterback David Wuest was sent in and successfully moved the ball into Ozona territory.

With only minutes to play, quarterback J. V. Cook connected with a long aerial to end Tom Trainer moving the ball to the Ozona three-yard line. J. V. Cook powered up the middle for the last score of the game. The conversion attempt failed, and the final score stood at 33-0.

In Junior High and B" Team action both the Junior High and "B" Team met defeat September 29 at the hands of Ozona.

The first half was a defensive battle for the Sonora junior high team with no scores made. But in the third quarter one-sided scoring began which left the Ozona team with a 20-0 victory. Greg Stewart scored on an end-sweep from four-yards out, but a conversion failed.

Phillip Perner scored on a drive at the end of the third, and Jim Montgomery ran over for the conversion. The fourth quarter began with a 14-0 score.

With seconds left in the game Vargas ran 30 yards for a touchdown, but the conversion failed and the score ended 20-0.

Roger Langford intercepted 2 passes and Jim Cade, Kerry Joy and Scott Jacoby looked good on defense for Sonora, and Kerry Joy, James Noel, Jimmy Cade, and Scott Jacoby showed-up on offensive.

SONORA "B" DOWNED

Beto Vargas scored for Ozona's "B" team from the one-yard line late in the second quarter to begin a 16-6 football victory for Ozona in last Thursday's game. The score was followed by a field goal that left Ozona ahead 7-0 at the half.

In the fourth quarter a Sonora punter stepped out of the end zone for a safety and the score was 9-0. Then Dennis Schmidt scored on a pass from Jesso Cook, good for 47 yards and a touchdown, but a conversion attempt failed.

Late in the fourth quarter a pass from quarterback to Donald Huff from 25 yards ended in a touchdown. Conner kicked another extra point and the game ended Ozona 16, Sonora 6.

Barry Black blocked two punts and Robert Ramos blocked one punt during the game.

Both Sonora teams play at Junction October 6 with the first game scheduled for 6 p.m.

The Lone Star Gas Company has announced that gas bills may be paid at Frosty Fred's Grocery store.

Bills were formerly paid in the offices of the Retail Merchants Association. The Retail Merchants Association closed its Sonora office last September 15.

Sonora Receives New ANC Telephone System

Telephone numbers in Sonora will have a different look when the new telephone directories are delivered in November, it was announced recently by R. R. McCullough, district manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest. The most modern system of telephone numbering in use today will be introduced with the new directory.

Known as "All Number Calling" or ANC, the system uses seven numerals rather than two letters and five numerals as have been used in several metropolitan systems. McCullough said numbering plans in Sonora will be modernized in order to take advantage of the present and future advances in telephony. Use of the seven numerals will make this area more readily accessible to intersectional calls.

The first three numerals of ANC comprise the central office code. The central office code for Sonora under the new plan will be 387. This code will precede four other numbers making it necessary to dial the full seven digits to complete a local call. A sample number in Sonora will look something like this: Area Code 915-387-3001.

it. McCullough also said that in addition to providing customers with ANC directories the company will mail each customer a new number plate for their dial. This plate will contain their ANC number. Both the number plates and the new directories will be mailed to our customers in November.

We are confident that residents in this area will enjoy the advantages of ANC. The introduction of the system here will mark the area as one having the latest in telephone numbering systems to complement the new dial equipment that is the most modern and efficient in use today in the telephone industry.

Fields Injured

Johnny Fields, working on his masters degree at A&M, received serious hand injuries Sept. 27 while working in chemistry lab with a homogenizer. He was working on a bitterweed experiment when his left hand came in contact with the blades of the machine.

He is expected to regain use of the hand, although it was badly torn. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fields went to College Station Friday to visit him.

Monty Yantis of San Angelo spent the weekend with the Ernest Conns on the Aldwell ranch.

Mrs. R. L. Hardgrave, chairman of the project committee, presented a list of ways in which members of the auxiliary could serve in the hospital.

Members voted to purchase as a memorial gift to the hospital, a stretcher with safety rails. The gift will be put into use immediately.

One of the main purposes of the meeting was to discuss the possibilities of recruiting new members for the organization. Mrs. Dowdy said, "we would like to see more people join our organization and lend support to the hospital staff".

Screwworm Danger On Increase Again

The Sutton County Agricultural Agent has recently been informed that during the week of September 18 there were 48 confirmed screwworm cases in 22 counties in Texas.

Johnson also said that doves were moving into the county and that hunting chances were better than before, although there are still many doves to the north.

Senator's Wife Visits

After laying a wreath on the monument commemorating the Sutton County dead of World War I and II, Mrs. Lou Tower, wife of U.S. Senator, John Tower, met with Tower supporters during a coffee on the Sutton County Courthouse lawn. She had flown into Sonora earlier that morning from San Angelo. About 100 people were present at the courthouse to greet her.

Mrs. Tower is on a 17-city tour of West Texas and has toured 88 other cities in Texas during the seven weeks of the campaign. She said that she had found strong support for her husband in each place she visited.

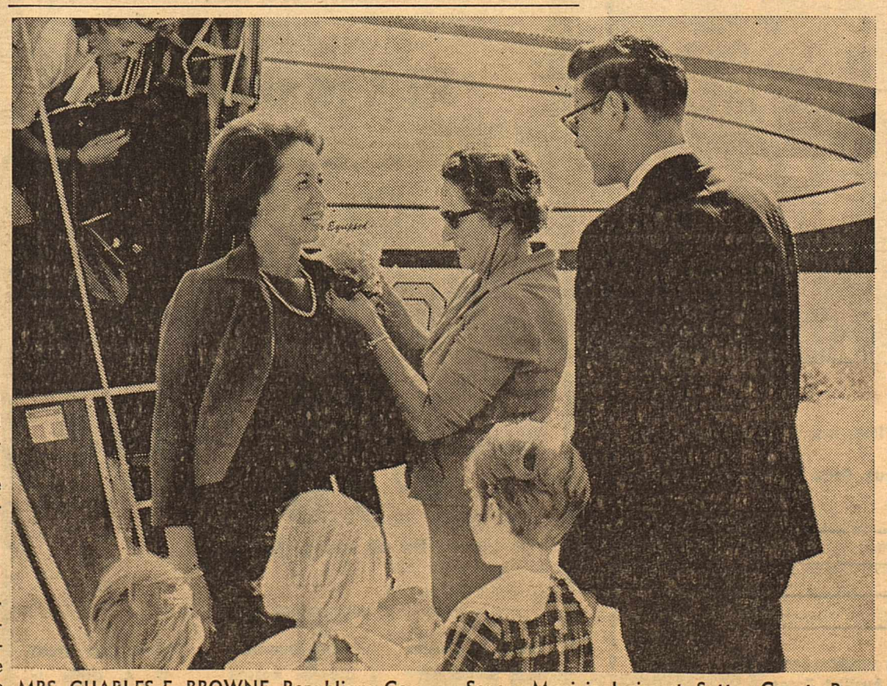

"The Viet Nam war, inflation and lawlessness in the country will be large issues in the election", she said. She felt that voters would, "vote for the man rather than along party lines in the coming election". She indicated that "the man" is the Republican Senator, John Tower.

After her departure, she flew on to other engagements in West Texas and later to South Texas.

She said that in the results of several polls her husband was a slight favorite over Attorney General, Waggoner Carr, who is challenging Tower for his senate seat in Washington.

On hand to greet Mrs. Tower at the courthouse were City Commissioners, Fred T. Earwood and W. B. McMillan, acting on behalf of Mayor A. E. Prugel, who was out of town. Most of the Sonora civic organizations were represented at the event. Also welcoming Mrs. Tower was W. L. Miers, Sutton County John Tower Chairman, John Tedford, county Republican chairman and Mrs. Charles F. Browne, Republican state committeewoman.

Sutton County Sheriff, Herman Moore, led a motorcade to points of interest in the city.

MRS. CHARLES F. BROWNE, Republican Committeewoman, pins a corsage on Mrs. John Tower as she steps down from an airplane at Sonora Municipal airport. Sutton County Republican chairman, John Tedford (right) also greeted Mrs. Tower when she arrived for the campaign tour.

DO YOUR PART TO PREVENT FIRES

Fire Prevention Week will be observed October 9-15 and communities across the nation are being urged by the American Insurance Association to give a thought to keeping fires from happening, not only during Fire Prevention Week, but the year-round.

Fire Prevention Week always falls in the week containing October 9—the anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire in 1871.

Last year fires took 12,000 lives and caused property losses totaling over $1.4 billion.

Many of these lives could have been saved with a little care. Too many little children lost their lives when they were left at home unattended and got hold of matches to play with or otherwise became exposed to fire. And many elderly people, unable to take care of themselves, lost their lives when they could not get out of burning buildings.

"The tragic thing about our fire toll is that three out of four fires in this country resulted from carelessness, and never should have happened."

"We observe Fire Prevention Week as a reminder to all of us that with care we can help save lives and hold property losses down."

Fire Prevention Week has been proclaimed by President Lyndon B. Johnson. Every president since Warren G. Harding has issued a Fire Prevention Week proclamation annually.

Care with fire in the home is particularly important. Last year, 6,500, or more than one half of the nation's fire fatalities occurred in homes, and more than one-half of those who lost their lives in home fires were children.

DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ:

Politicians Are Like Old Cars

Editor's note: The Devil's River News Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River tries to broaden a trend, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editar:

According to this newspaper I found on the road near my house yesterday, a manufacturer of tennis shoes discovered that teen-agers, when they buy a new pair, immediately stomp on them, twist them, drag them on the ground, and generally scuff them up to make them look worn, what they call casual. The style is to always have old tennis shoes, never new ones.

Therefore, this manufacturer is now turning out pre-scuffed tennis shoes. Although brand new, the edges are raggled and a little tattered and bedraggled and, except for the soles, look to be a couple of years old. Kids wear these with pre-faded blue jeans.

I was thinking about this and it seems like a brilliant idea and I would like to see other manufacturers get on top of this new trend. It has great possibilities.

For example, take automobiles. If car manufacturers would turn out the new 1967 models with pre-crumpled fenders, random paint scratches, predented doors, one or two hub caps missing, and such like things to make the cars look casual and lived-in, you have no idea how happy this would make all the people who haven't gotten the dents out of their present cars.

Like it is now, you get a dollar and a quarter dent in a fender and it'll take $40 to take it out, and twice that to re-place a caved-in door, but if we could get people to be happy with a dented fender and rumpled doors to go with scuffed-up tennis shoes and faded blue jeans and over-weight drivers, you can see what we could save.

I know a man who is always secretly pleased when his new pickup gets its first dent, because then he can stop worrying about its newness and go ahead and relax and use it for what it was intended.

It's not a radical idea. After all, very few politicians turn up without a few pre-dented fenders and a flaw here and there, a missing hub cap and windshield wipers that sometimes stick. Why not cars?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Quality Indicates Price On Specials

Not all "specials" are money savers. You can determine if the food item is a good buy by considering if the price really has been lowered; if the item is of truly high quality, or the quality you want; watching prices which vary seasonally and buy when they are at their lowest level; buying only the quantity that can be used by your family while the food is in prime condition. Or, if the food can be stored, consider your storage facilities. This buying checklist comes from Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Texas A&M University Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Tasty Additions

Meal inspiration sometimes comes from the extra attractions which the homemaker adds to the menu. These can make the meal!

Toast onion buns and butter. Serve them hot with the main course, especially if it's a cool one.

Rather than having plain cooked beets for a vegetable, how about a frame of frilly leaf lettuce, sliced, pickled beets, onion rings and a Thousand Island dressing?

Top a fruit salad bowl with a colorful sherbet, orange, raspberry or lime to lift it out of the ordinary.

Double up on some fruits: there are canned or fresh pears that can go with avocado pears, a sprinkling of blue cheese and French dressing.

Always add generous dashes of color where you can because people respond to it. Isn't it prettier to have green and yellow slices of squash rather than just one? Carrot chunks with parsley butter? Green and wax beans in a salad? Pork and beans mixed with some lima and kidney beans for a casserole? Try them.

WMU Coffee Held In Joe Hull Home

A come and go coffee last week in the home of Mrs. Joe Hull honored workers in the First Baptist Church Women's Missionary Union. The table was decorated in pink and gold. Mrs. Bill Williams served cake and Mrs. A. C. Elliott and Mrs. Wallace Wartenbach poured coffee. A love gift was presented Mrs. Rodney Dowdy, wife of the church pastor.

A Parson's Eye View of Sonora

By Rev. Ross T. Welch

A lot of football fans learned one lesson last Friday night: Never underestimate the power of the first norther. Before the game was over there were a few fans who would gladly have given a touchdown for a pair of long handles.

One Ozona patron summed up the situation like this, "If we had been at full strength, we might have made a more interesting game but we have tremendous admiration for the Sonora team. I don't think I have ever seen a better balanced team in a small high school, with capable players at least two deep in every position." We thought that was a nice compliment to our coaching staff, as well as our boys.

There was a good crowd at the Booster Club meeting Monday night to see the pictures Ralph Finklea took of the Ozona game. All the boys showed up well in the films as on the field. The only thing that might stand in the way of a victory tomorrow night is over-confidence. The scouts report that Junction has a scrappy, fast-moving and hard-hitting team. These qualities could go a long way toward overcoming their lack of size.

The M.Y.F. members have started guessing each Sunday night what the score will be the following week. Guess who won the award the first week? If it happens many more times, the kids may decide that Laney is tailoring the scores to fit his predictions.

Life will be a bit more complicated after November 30—instead of five digits in your telephone number, you will have seven. The first three will probably be the same for all Sonora numbers, and when you get used to saying, "387" instead of "2", it will not be much more difficult. Then, when the company gets around to the business of installing direct distance dialing, we will be all set for it.

Saw four nice bunches of turkeys on Robert Hardgrave's home place Sunday afternoon, about 15 to 20 to the bunch. It is possible that we saw one bunch twice. Also saw some horns as well as does and fawns.

Acorns are falling—plump and well developed, so everything should be fat. Bob says his place looked as nice two years ago as it does now, but not many could say that.

Mrs. Joe Logan is back in the Sonora Hospital. Drop by and visit a moment with her.

My wife should be easy to live with until the end of December. She is just one year younger than I am until my next birthday.

With lots of nice pecans available, I am looking forward to the Christmas candy-making season. Having grown up in a family that had no girls under the guidance of a mother who said, "Cook anything you wish so long as you do not make a mess," we early in life inherited the responsibility for making the Christmas candy.

Somehow it has fallen my lot ever since. Used to have trouble with divinity until my kids gave me a candy thermometer.

We interviewed four young men Saturday afternoon who would like to represent their area at the World Scout Jamboree next year. They were all Eagle Scouts. Obviously they were outstanding boys.

But it served as a reminder that children reveal—even in a short interview lasting only a few minutes, a great deal about, not just themselves, but also their family life and school training.

Two of the candidates were twins from Ozona. Fortunately both got to go so it was not necessary to decide between them. That would have been very difficult.

Nobody has strenuously objected to the sample poem yet, so here is another sample:

Father: Ex-mathematician
When Pa was younger and in his prime,
He vows he was mathematics whiz;
He made A-plus in his Algebra,
And a hundred on nearly every quiz.
Well the other night I was really teed off,
I couldn't make a bit of sense
Out of the stuff they call NEW math,
But my sire rose up in its defense.
At our house the teacher is always right;
We kids don't really have a chance.
But this time I just let him have the reins
And watched him do his song and dance.
After the storm had subsided a bit—
And Pa had mentioned his mathematics skill,
I innocently asked for a little help,
And he set to work with determined will.
But's not the same it used to be.
He was as lost as a wild March hare.
He tried hard enough to be of help
And his choice of language was quite rare.
He could work in specific gravity,
Or figure when two speeding trains would collide;
He could prove the square on the hypotenuse
Equals the sum of squares on each other side.
But he was dumb on sets and their intersections,
He knew nothing of bases other than ten.
He was right at home with quadratic equations,
But what I needed was something else again.
He broke pencil points and breathed out fire
'Till he developed an awful pain in his head;
Then muttering maledictions on new-fangled things—
He left me and went to bed. (r.t.w.)

Till next week—for better or for verse.

Teen Scene

by Margaret Bundy

WHO'S WHO . . . Junior girl, brown hair and is a cheerleader. Last week's Mister 'X' was Mike Richardson.

The first thing I have to say this week is a story that a Freshman told me. Charlotte Redman told me that she, Brent Johnson, Wade Stokes and Carol Adamson saw an animal that was half-human and half-deer. Now I wonder just how much truth is in that story!

Wade Stokes had some trouble with his long black hair recently. Say, Wade, SURF'S UP!!

The dreaded thing has finally happened. Our school pictures have finally come in.

Libb Wallace is coming home for the weekend. The occasion is his birthday which is Thursday. Happy Birthday, Libb.

Lots of college kids were home this last weekend. Among these were Bill Elliott, Eddie Howell, Gil Trainer, Joyce Hearn, Bill Glasscock, Eddie Sawyer, Jack Hearn, Gary McGilvray, Billy Sam Chadwick, Ray Glasscock, Erwin Seydler, Janice Caveness, Andy Moore and Larry Bob Moore.

An old friend and teacher was seen at the Ozona game. Quite a few kids enjoyed seeing Larry Behrens Friday night.

The Student Council presented the first of the Southern Assembly programs Friday. A man who had spent quite a bit of time in both East and West Berlin spoke to the student body on the hazards of a communist community. He also spoke on the loose morals of America's adults and teen-agers. The entire school was talking about the way he spoke. We all decided he was wonderful!

Larry Williams from Ozona was here Saturday and Sunday. He is going to school at the Baptist Military Academy in San Marcos this year.

The Broncos have scored three victories now. The next game is here Friday night with Junction. Be there!!!

G. H. Hall Honored On 75th Birthday

Mrs. Jim Sloan of Irving and Mrs. Albert Ward honored their father, G. H. Hall of Quanah, with a surprise seventy-fifth birthday dinner Saturday. Hall is a former Sonoran.

Scene of the dinner was the private dining room at Dutch's Restaurant in Quanah. Table decorations included a 4-tiered birthday cake accented with icing dominoes and topped with the number 75, also made of icing. Red and white flowers completed the decor. Each place was marked with small tiered cakes topped with small gold candles.

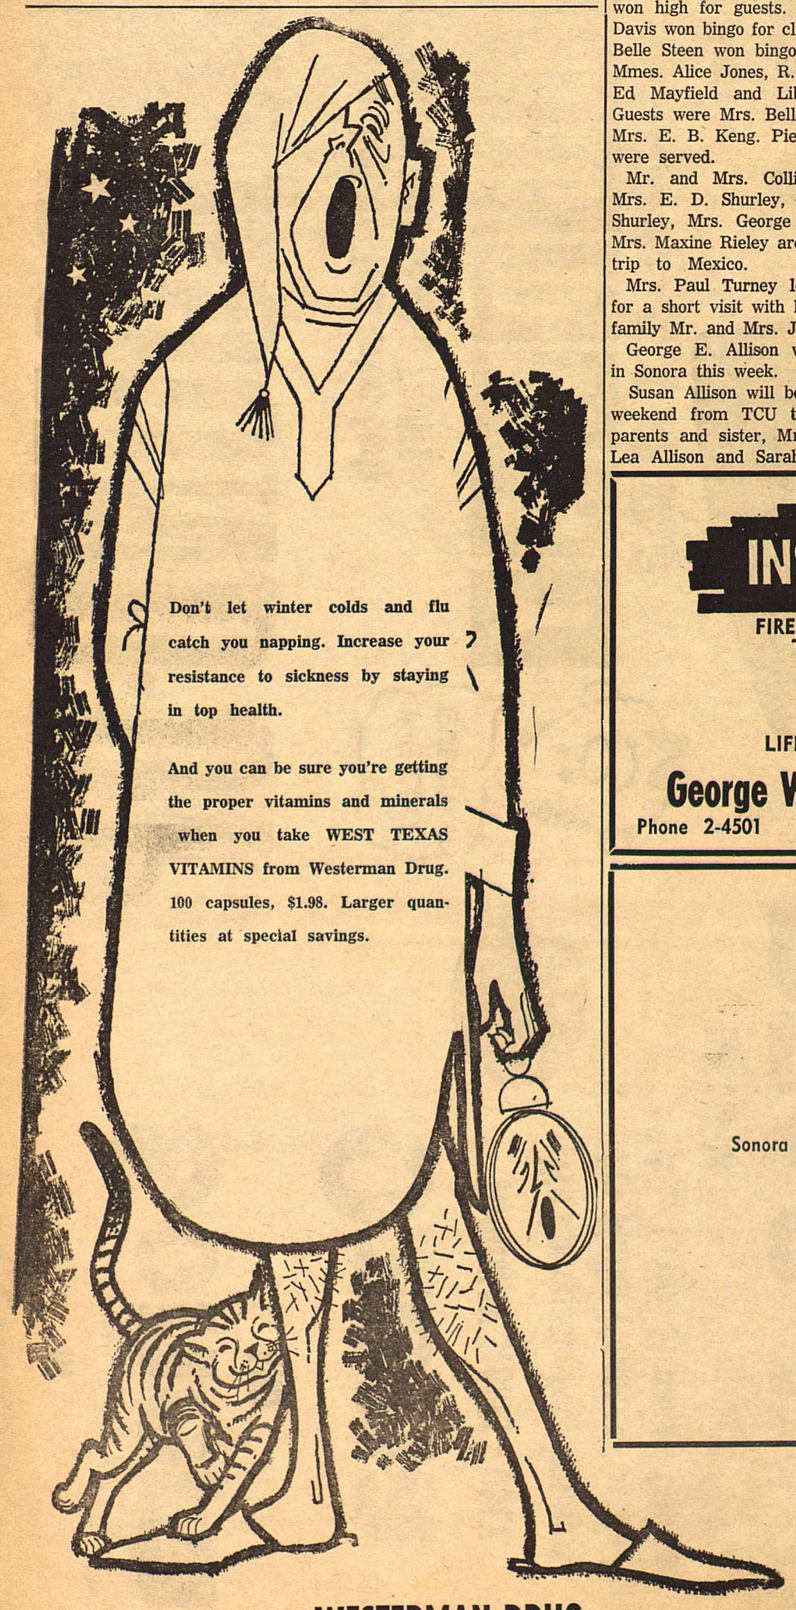

Guests included Mrs. G. H. Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ward, Cathy, Kelly and Gus; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sloan and Bart.

NATIONAL FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

OCTOBER 9 - 15, 1966

Don't Give Fire a Chance to Start!

What's the real cause of fire? Does it start from a match in the hands of a child, a neglected cigarette, a pile of rubbish, faulty electric wiring? Whatever the immediate cause, the basic cause of wasteful, costly, tragic fires is just plain carelessness.

Remember, firemen put out our fires, but only you can prevent them.

Be careful . . . about fire hazards around your home, ranch, or business. Be careful when handling flames in any form. Act now . . . to stop fires and save lives.

GREEN NEWS

Everyone agreed that the women's club championship tournament that took place last Saturday was more fun than any we've ever had. We want to thank Bobbie Fawcett for getting it all organized for us.

Trophies were presented to the winners in each flight.

Wanda Cahill won the championship flight with Jane Caveness as runner-up.

In the first flight Marilyn Bloodworth was winner and Mary Barrow was runner-up.

Second flight winner was Ann Hill with Monica Davis winning the runner-up position.

Allison Powers copped the third flight and Barbara Savell was runner-up.

Peggy Elliott won the trophy for having the lowest number of putts on eighteen holes.

A special trophy was presented to Lunetta Morgan as a going away gift from the auxiliary.

GN

We want to thank the following for donating trophies for the women's tournament: Jack Hext of Eldorado, Lowe Electric, Barrow Jewelry, Hill's Shell, Neville's Store, Teaff Oil Co., Davis Insurance Agency, Web Elliott Agency, and the First National Bank.

GN

Overheard on the patio: "I know why Wanda won the tournament—she's the only one that didn't make any eights."

GN

Among the missing golfers last weekend were Peggy and James D. Trainer. They were visiting in Fort Worth.

GN

Visitors seen around the course this week were Jo Ann and Kenny Teutsch. They've been spending some time with Libby Jo and Shelly Lowe.

GN

We had a three-way tie for the winner of the ladies play last Wednesday. Peggy Trainer, Wanda Cahill, and Sammie Espy all tied for low net. If some of you don't know what low net is, come on out and play with us and we'll tell you all about it.

GN

Yvonne and Darcy Carroll were seen out on the course Monday afternoon with the kids. They just about had the course to themselves but they looked like they were enjoying it. They still don't have that trailer for their cart.

GN

We want to welcome a new golfer to the course. Rick Powers was seen out playing with his dad, Mickey, and George Johnson.

GN

Did you ever try to post scores with a goat standing in the middle of the table staring at you? Libby Lowe can tell you how it's done.
