Mustangs Turn In Great Finale But Lose To Bobcat Team 26-19

Arch rival Dimmitt's tough 1-AA district champs geared a slashing ground attack to the winged heels of mercury-footed Keith Lowe to nip Olton's Mustangs 26-19 before 2500 well-entertained homecoming fans here last Friday night.

Although the confident 'Cats edge in speed proved to be the difference, they nonetheless had to battle up hill all the way in order to nose out the inspired, upset-minded Mustangs.

Mustang Band Marches Tonite

"The finest in marching bands," including the OHS Mustang Band, will appear in the Second Annual Gridiron Jubilee in Jones Stadium, Lubbock, tonight (Thursday) beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Director Fred Stockdale states the 54 bandmen, five twirlers and one drum major will be judged on marching, playing, overall effect of the show, and a separate inspection before their appearance on the field.

The Mustangs will perform the routine they presented at half-time of the Homecoming game last Friday, in addition to a precision maneuvered Tele-scope to the tune of "I Love A Parade."

The Mustangs will be the 23rd of some 30 AA bands marching in the jubilee.

Entertain 225 Church Delegates

About 225 delegates from the Reorganized Churches of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in the eastern New Mexico-Panhandle-South Plains area met here Sunday for a district conference.

Apostle D. Blair Jensen of Independence, Mo., was special guest for the occasion. Mrs. Lee Brice of Olton was hostess for the luncheon at noon. Mrs. Raymon Carson, district women's leader, conducted a council meeting in the afternoon, and reported unanimous representation of all churches in the district.

Raymon Carson, district president, accompanied Apostle Jensen on a tour of the Olton community, and this week the pair is visiting all churches in the district. They will go to Oklahoma City this week-end for a joint district meeting.

Itinerant Is Asphyxiated

Delfino Cruz, 46-year-old itinerant farm worker, was found dead in a half dugout on the Gordon Thomas farm north of Olton about 1:00 p.m. Monday.

Coroner F. L. Burrow said death was by asphyxiation, presumably by fumes from a gas stove.

Funeral services were to be held in Bishop, with Lemons Funeral Home, Plainview, directing arrangements.

Cruz is survived by his wife and six children of Bishop, his mother and a brother of Lubbock.

Halfback Ronnie Dennis intercepted a Touchstone-to-Lowe pass and scampered 60 yards down the sideline to score standing up. Straw was stopped cold on a running conversion attempt to give the Mustangs a 6-0 lead with three minutes and 12 seconds left in the first quarter.

Dimmitt started rolling with Lowe on a pass interception and runback to the Olton 28. Gilbreath and Bradley alternated line bucks to the three, where Lowe hit tackle, bounced off and circled right end to score unopposed. His conversion was wide, making the score 6-6.

Straw quick kicked dead on the Dimmitt 34, and the deadly passing arm of Bobcat's Truman Touchstone was pressed into service. The accurate little quarterback looped a long pass to Townsend who galloped over to give Dimmitt a 12-6 edge at intermission. With two minutes left in the third, Touchstone threw a perfect 35 strike to the versatile Lowe to up the Bobcats' lead 19-6.

Olton drove 70 yards on the fine running of Straw, Bodkin, Jones and the pin-point passing of Arno Hall and James Hyatt. Hall climaxed the drive with a three yard dive to cut the 'Hosses' deficit to 12-19.

Lowe applied the clincher on the kickoff when he raced 80 yards to score and put Dimmitt out front 26-12.

Olton drove 80 yards following the kickoff with Hall going the last five yards at a buck lateral for the score. He also booted the conversion to make the final score 26-19.

Dimmitt stalled the ball for the remaining 50 seconds.

Wozencraft, King, Billingsley, Adams, Hysinger, Carson and Edwards were the outstanding Olton linemen.

Olton's potent multiple offense rolled up 20 first downs to Dimmitt's 17, and they also led 5-4 in penetrations.

Lamb Co. Teachers Hear Educator Discuss Plans For School Survey

A good representation of Olton school administrators and teachers attended a meeting in Sudan Monday evening of the Lamb County Teachers Association.

Harry Ford, Olton High School instructor, is president of the organization. Speaker for the evening was John Lovelady, assistant director of field service for the Texas State Teachers Association. In speaking on the Hale-Aiken long-range study program for Texas public schools, Mr. Lovelady pointed out that teachers have a dual responsibility: to become informed, and to stimulate interest in the study.

"We believe that something great will come out of this study," the educator said. "A greater innovation in the public school systems than that which came as a result of the Gilmer-Aiken school laws."

Mrs. Myron Crawford of Spade was elected second vice-president of the Lamb County group at Monday's meeting. Special music was furnished by the Sudan High School Band, directed by Jimmy Strange. Table appointments were prepared by Sudan elementary pupils on a Thanksgiving theme.

Olton teachers will be hosts at the next meeting February 17, in the school lunchroom.

GREEN LIGHT ON LANDSCAPING; MEMBERSHIP DRIVE LAUNCHED

Thanksgiving Day will mark the unofficial opening of the golf course at the Olton Recreation Center—the first step toward the ultimate goal of establishing complete recreational facilities for the Olton community.

Golf Pro Glenn Miller said at a called Center meeting Thursday evening, November 14, that the nine-hole course was ready for play. Construction of a pro shop got underway this week and will be completed prior to the opening.

Carroll Cox, who as president has guided the Center through its initial stage of work and planning, announced that annual dues of $60 a year will go into effect when the Center is opened for use. Members voted at last week's meeting that payment of the annual dues shall be made December 1 of each year. In the event a member should require a monthly payment plan on his dues, he is to make such arrangement with Owen Norfleet, Center treasurer. Membership cards will be issued following the payment of dues.

At last week's meeting members authorized the purchase of trees for landscaping the Center grounds, these trees to include Chinese elms, maples, honey locusts, ash and sycamores. Donations for the procurement of these trees will be sought by a committee headed by Mrs. Melvin Hines and consisting of Mesdames Laulis Hair, Herman Meyer, H. E. Owens Jr., Jim Fite, and Martin Phillips.

An intensified membership drive to be launched in the near future will be spearheaded by E. J. Moore. Others appointed to serve on the membership committee were Martin Phillips, Fred Smith, Roy Roberts, Frank Cornelius, Owen Norfleet, Melvin Hines, Ed Harris and Ed Thompson.

This new membership drive will have approximately 100 new members as its goal in an all-out effort to assure the construction of a swimming pool at the Center before next summer. It is the expressed hope of Center directors and members that an official opening of both the golf course and the pool can be planned for the spring of 1958.

An increased number of memberships will be required over original estimates before the swimming pool can become a reality. This unforeseen circumstance followed the recent payment of $2500 to A. G. Hayes who was in possession of a lease to the 90-acre tract utilized by the Center. This figure representing the damages incurred by Mr. Hayes was set by a neutral party of local men and was accepted by both Mr. Hayes and the board of directors of the Center.

Further business transacted at the Center meeting included the appointing of a pro shop committee composed of Eldon Franks, chairman, H. D. Thomas, G. T. Sides, J. C. Hamby, C. S. Silcott, Elmer McGill, Howard Hall and Lynn Fite. The greens committee, including Louie Mack Hardy, chairman, Don Spain and Glen Phillips, was instructed to work with Mr. Miller in working out score cards and rules.

The first Monday night of each month was set as the regular meeting date for the board of directors of the Center.

Christmas Program Plan Laid

Ideas for street decoration and a Christmas program are in demand.

This announcement came this week from Basil Sherman, Mr. Sherman and V. L. Smith hope to stage a full-scale Christmas program complete with a Santa Claus by December 16.

Festivities will begin with a parade, culminating on the east side of the hospital square. Bags of candy will be distributed to children and a program, planned by Rev. Russell McAnally, will be presented. Mr. Smith will be parade marshal, and Ralph Glover will be in charge of decorations.

Rev. Winfred Ritter, chairman of arrangements, announces that five groceries will be collection stations for contributions or donations may be mailed to "Christmas at Olton Fund" in care of The Olton Enterprise, Box 498, Olton. The groceries are Botkin's, Cashway, Gallaway's, Gray's and Sherman's.

Toys which may be repaired may be brought to the fire station.

Ministerial Alliance is steering the plans for Olton's community Christmas program. The group met with Mr. Sherman and Mr. Smith Saturday for discussion.

First Snow Falls Here Thursday

Snow began falling in the Olton area early Thursday afternoon, further complicating the harvest problem across the territory.

For the eighth consecutive week-end, rain fell across the South Plains.

Even so, some estimates set the amount of grain harvest completed at 60 percent of the entire crop.

The six gins serving Olton had ginned 7,107 bales of cotton at press time. A year ago this week gins had processed 36,543 bales of the 1956 crop.

One Olton farmer this week said he believes about one-third of the Olton crop is out. This

Former Olton Slide Rule Expert Is Electrical Engineering Major

(By James Hamm)

The "slipstick," used to facilitate the solving of math problems, hanging from the belt is the trademark of an engineering major. More than anything else, an engineer must be able to use a "slipstick" efficiently.

Olton High graduate Bill Boverie, now enrolled in the electrical engineering division of the School of Engineering at Texas Tech, proved his proficiency with a slide rule even before leaving high school. He won first place in the 1956 Interscholastic League I Meet slide rule contest at Lubbock.

The likeable sophomore is planning a four-year course in electrical engineering. He proves his capabilities as college material by claiming a 2.33 average—a 3.00 average is the best possible.

He belongs to the powerful 940 member Engineering Society and AIEE-IRE, electrical engineering departmental club.

The Engineering Society is the fastest growing club at Tech, sporting a 700 member increase over last year. Electrical engineering is the largest department in the engineering school, and, with a large, efficient staff of instructors and the best equipment in the southwest, ranks high nationally.

Boverie was a recipient of the Kuykendall Scholarships for Entering Freshmen during his first year at Tech.

To select recipients for the scholarships, the Kuykendall Foundation notifies top ranking students of the graduating class. Boverie ranked second at Olton that they are eligible for the scholarships.

During the summer before their freshmen year, the students desiring to compete for the scholarships assemble at Tech where they take a series of examinations. Choices are made on the basis of these examinations.

This semester Boverie is taking history, physics and lab, electrical engineering and lab, technical writing, calculus and golf. He lives in Sneed Hall, a dormitory that houses about 400 men.

The 19-year-old was born in 1938. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Boverie, who farm northeast of Olton.

Boverie belongs to the Pioneer Church of Christ at Lubbock. By the way, he won a $25 prize in extemporaneous speaking at his church recently. He belonged to the Olton Church of Christ until moving to Lubbock to attend Tech.

Besides being salutatorian of the 1956 Olton High graduating class, he was a member of the Olton chapter of the National Honor Society his junior and senior years. He was also president of the Honor Society both of these years.

He played the lead role in the junior play, "Jumping Jupiter," but his part in "The Sisters Mcintosh" kept him from working in the senior class play.

He was president of the Olton Masquers, a thespian organization, his senior year. He worked in two plays sponsored by the Olton Masquers and one play sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association the same year.

Boverie belonged to the Olton chapter of Future Farmers of America for three years. As a freshman he competed on the junior quiz team that won second in the district meet.

He showed Duroc swine in the Lubbock stock show, Houston stock and Olton Olton fat stock show.

Boverie lists as his favorite pastime listening to the radio. As far as sports, he is satisfied to get outside in the sunshine and play some golf.

When he is at the movies he likes to see pictures with Kim Novak starring.

The only time his pleasant disposition will give way to a stormier or more disagreeable one is the time just preceding an hour exam. It's better to stand clear during these periods. However, after finishing the test and getting a good night of sleep, he's his good-natured self again.

As would be expected of an electrical engineering major, his electrical engineering courses are the most agreeable to him. He also likes math courses.

She is also survived by three sisters, four brothers, two stepchildren, and a number of other relatives.

Is Homecoming Queen at Baylor

Miss Peggy Jones, daughter of former school superintendent J. T. Jones, was crowned Homecoming Queen of Baylor University at halftime of the Baylor-TCU game at Waco recently.

Miss Jones, a 21-year-old senior student, will graduate from Baylor this month with a major in marketing. She is president of Alpha Omega girls social club at the university.

Miss Jones will be employed at the A. Harris Stores in Dallas next month.

Her father is now superintendent of schools at Goldthwaite.

Two Ministers In Accident

Heavy damage was done to two cars involved in an accident Friday, November 8, in front of Olton Butane Company on Main Street.

The two vehicles involved were operated by Rev. Russell McAnally, pastor of Olton Methodist Church, and G. B. Stanley, minister of Main Street Church of Christ.

Neither minister was seriously hurt, although Rev. McAnally was treated by a physician for bruises and abrasions.

What a shame that someone thought it sporting to make off with the flags the Olton Study used on their prize-winning float for Homecoming.

The eight flags belonged to the Brownies, and between parade-time and game-time, they disappeared from the float.

What possible use could the vandals have for them? What sort of satisfaction could anyone get from taking flags? We must have a flag-bug (like fire-bug) in our community. If my memory is correct, this is not the first time that flags have been the object of robbery.

Oh people, please be careful with your gas and butane heaters! It is SO easy to fall asleep in a nice cozy house made warm by UNVENTED heaters when the weather outside is frightful. But SO DANGEROUS!

Pay the extra price for having your heater vented; or if you just can't afford that, then whatever you do, don't go to bed with the stove on. Just pile on more quilts.

Carbon monoxide is so sneaky. And . . . IT CAN HAPPEN TO YOU.

Please don't let it!

Have you tried Russell Rucker's new cheese bread? Maybe I'm terribly behind times. Maybe they've been selling it already in big towns in super markets. I wouldn't know, since I never buy groceries anywhere except in Olton.

Anyhow, I hadn't seen any before last week. But it is delicious. Even Troy, who is not particularly a cheese-eater, likes it. It's sliced very thin and is very fine-textured and soft. (Not so good for the calorie-counter, perhaps, but delicious.)

And the children love its bright yellow color!

Just 22 more shopping days till Christmas!

Is it just me, or has Christmas really sneaked up on us this year? Seems like everyone was all aglow this time last year with holiday plans and preparations. And I haven't seen one single person even making or wrapping gifts yet. Maybe it's because we're having such a late (Hm—ANY) harvest this fall.

And now I'm going to really stick my neck out and butt my nose in! But this is something I feel very strongly about, and do not take lightly.

It's this business of churches who have Christmas programs for their youngsters, and invite SANTA CLAUS to give away the goodies!

This used to puzzle me; then it became ludicrous to me; but now it almost enrages me!

SANTA IS AN IMPOSTER. Whose birthday is Christmas, anyway?

What is supposed to be the symbol of our giving and gifts, after all?

How did this whole thing begin, anyhow? Over in Europe with Saint Nicholas a few centuries ago?

Or about 2000 years ago in the county seat of Judea, with the unseemly birth of a baby on a bright starry night?

We all gripe so much about how Christmas has become commercialized, and how we've lost the true meaning.

Well, if there's any group empowered to preserve Truth, it is our churches, is it not?

If the real celebration of Christmas is to be observed anywhere, where else but in the house of God.

Why do we DELIBERATELY compromise at Christmas-time? Why is it necessary for Santa to crash the birthday party of Jesus Christ? Why do we give a non-existent idol all the credit for Christmas charity? Why knock ourselves out to create a fictitious god to epitomize love and the spirit of giving. When even that very effort results in emphasizing the spirit of RECEIVING.

The very small tots ring the truth more than they could ever realize when they react to the sight of a Santa by crying. This could be construed as proof of his artificiality, for who can sense more keenly the absence of genuineness than a small child?

This is not directed at any single church, person, or denomination. Furthermore, there are many people who will disagree with me and maybe get peeved with me. I do know there are at least a few who concur with me. Maybe that number will increase each year. I am not a preacher; I am not a crusader; I am not a reformer.

But this is one matter about which my convictions are firm; perhaps even forceful. If I had my way, I would never teach my children to believe in a Santa Claus. My almost-five-year-old boy knew nothing about him until he was nearly three. Then they talked about him at SUNDAY SCHOOL. So now Kaysee, just two, already recognizes his picture.

Oh, I could go on and on. There are many reasons and arguments. Perhaps you have some for the other side. I invite you to write me about them if they are reasonable sounding. I must assure you, however, that I believe in Christmas; I love the decorations, the presents, the gaiety, the singing, the greetings.

But I do not believe in Santa Claus.

Saunter With Sue

BY SUE MAY

Boy! Would Amy Vanderbilt be "shocked" if she visited the May household! (And we—Husband and I—have not felt like our manners were "out-of-place" at any of our friends' homes.)

In "Amy Vanderbilt's Everyday Etiquette" book, you will find—"The mother is always the head of the table and is responsible for the leading of the conversation, whether or not guests are present."

(Wow! I wonder who really begins the conversation?)

"Dunking doughnuts or cookies, eating chicken, pie, and other things with your fingers depends very much on the circumstances. If you are having coffee with a friend in the kitchen, dunk if you wish."

(Ugh!—enough said!) "Gravy is never poured or ladled onto rice, noodles, or other than meat on the plate (unless it is a gravy in which meat is incorporated)."

(How many folks, including yours truly, puts gravy on their potatoes or bread?)

"Drinking bottled drinks from the bottle is certainly informal and may be done when people are standing around in a playroom or outdoors. When they are seated at a table such drinks are poured into glasses or mugs."

(We Mays drink our Cokes straight from the bottle at meal-time and I've been to several parties where Cokes-in-the-bottle were served.)

"Chicken must be eaten with knife and fork except at picnics. (I've always heard the chicken is a finger-food. Can't see the point 'cause like to now the meat off the bone.)"

"Corn on the cob—only a row or so at a time is buttered and seasoned, never the whole ear at once."

(That does sound better! We always butter the entire ear and smear butter from nose to chin.)

In Katherine Hillyer's "Life's Little Mysteries," I found some good ones this month:

Why do children prefer the boxes that toys come in to the toys?

Why are all kittens females? Why do recipes tell us to "correct seasonings?" Shouldn't it be correct if you've followed directions? If incorrect, how on earth are you supposed to figure out how to correct it?

Why do so many women spend their lives in hair curlers? "My hair was a fright," one will say. "I had to do something." What does she mean "was?"

Or take "coincidences":

It's a general rule that everyone on the block will simultaneously produce little girls named LaVonne or Taffy or Daven, and the boys will all be named Sherlock or Jeroboam.

And books on such subjects as "The Dilettante in Patagonia" will appear in a rash all the same month.

Of course, any reader who comes across an unfamiliar word may be certain it will pop up three more times within the next 24 hours. Inevitable, but why?

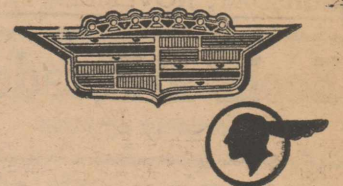

Everybody in town likes Lillie Mae (Mrs. C. S.) Silcott; somehow their faces light up and they feel a little warmer inside when she comes into view.

This is a true and dramatic story of a great human conflict—a clash between a woman's love and loyalty to her husband and her love and loyalty to her country.

Mrs. Terasaki has written a stirring account of how she as a young American girl from the mountains of Tennessee fell in love and married Hidenari Terasaki of the Japanese Foreign Office in Washington DC in 1931. Simply and beautifully she told of their life together at all their various diplomatic posts. You learn to admire this woman and her husband, who at great risk to his personal safety made a futile attempt to avert war shortly before the attack on Pearl Harbor.

The author with her young daughter chose to remain with her husband during the months of internment in the US following the outbreak of the war, and then she accompanied him to Japan on the exchange ship, Gripsholm.

Their life in Japan during the war years was something akin to unbearable. Danger, hunger, and the sufferings of a war-ravaged country left their marks on the Terasaki's.

The account of how the Japanese people accepted their defeat and faced the occupation forces with friendship instead of defiance and of how the kindness and understanding of our GI's

For it tells what can be learned from the tiny instruments inside the man-made satellites circling the earth that will enable man in his next important steps to explore the moon and later the far reaches of the universe.

Rocketships, jet propulsion, how men will live where there is no gravity, what dangers will be faced by these pioneers in space—all these and many other subjects are discussed at length.

This is not a science fiction book, but it is a book laden with scientific facts. (Available at Ogletree's Home Bookshop.)

TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE is the way we Dodge dealers feel about competitors' efforts to match the Swept-Wing 58. They lowered the roof some; but left the sides high. Their windshields got smaller while ours got bigger. So much for styling. Then, for another important comparison, take ride. Here's Dodge with Torsion-Aire suspension that just about everybody admits is the greatest advance in sway-free, dip-free, silent going that any car offers. So what do these other cars do? They borrow an air suspension system that's been used in buses for two years! (Costing well over $100.00 extra.) And most of 'em still don't have push-button driving—much less Dodge TorqueFlite—the proven automatic transmission. If you're a little disappointed in the '58 version of your car, come on in and see our Swept-Wing 58. The others are catching on—but they can't catch up.

The small Knipco heater at the top puts out enough heat to warm a 3-room house, but you can pick it up and carry it anywhere. It weighs only 42 pounds. IN 58 DAYS A '58 PLYMOUTH RAN 58,000 MILES—EQUAL TO

MORE THAN TWICE AROUND THE WORLD

AND IT DROVE EVERY INCH OF THE WAY!

We knew this car was tough.

We designed it that way.

That's why we weren't afraid to give Plymouth the toughest test run of all time... with all America as the "track."

We didn't coddle this Plymouth. Didn't crate it and ship it carefully from place to place. Instead, we aimed it out of Los Angeles one misty morning and sent it through a course that ran 58,000 miles through 37 states.

The time limit? Only 58 days.

A thousand miles a day!

The equivalent of 6 years' driving crammed into little more than 8 weeks!

Three times this Plymouth crossed the Rockies. Three times it wound its way up and down across the country... passing through more than 1200 cities and towns. Whipping over turnpikes... creeping through city traffic... arrowing down super-highways... feeling its way through 500 miles of rutted detours. And when the drivers turned the key to end the marathon, it still looked, ran and rode like new.

This is what lasting value really means. The ability to take everything that American roads and weather can dish out—and come up grinning. Why don't you give Plymouth a test drive yourself—today? You'll see what we mean.

That's the Plymouth "track"... and just look at that route! Every possible road and weather condition. Plymouth ran every inch of that murderous route 3 times in just 58 days. What greater proof of lasting, built-in stamina!

Star of the Forward Look...

ahead for keeps!

Guess who was the surprise recipient of a mum for homecoming from Rande Buchenau? Janet Oak, no less! That's one surprise that should have taken everyone by surprise. Jean Williams receiving a mum from Harvie Jordan.

dan wasn't predicted, either! (Harvie, I finally found out who your mum was going to!)

The football jackets are so pretty this year. Maybe, I should say attractive since the jackets belong to boys. Congrats to the boys and the coaches of the Mustang team on a fine fighting season!

Wish somebody would find something for the football boys to do after school. They're roaming all over town after school.

The basketball teams really made a good showing at Spring-lake Tuesday night. Although both of the girls' teams were beaten, the boys won in an overtime thriller. Hurray for them and better luck to the girls' teams next time!

At the ball game in Spring-lake Tuesday night were John Paul Jones, Darryl Dennis, Houston Hamby, Kay Sherman, Oneeta Yates, Ronnie Dennis, Judy Ogletree, Judy Moore, Kent Wozencraft, Don Kidd, Juanelle Hatley, Jean Williams, and John Adams.

"Whooping it up" Saturday night were Ronnie Dennis, Lonna Thomas; Joyce Gray, Arno Hall; Jack Royce Straw, Linda Clark; Elmer Houston, Sharon Porter; Carl Nafzger, Linda Oak Thompson; Hayden Hankins, I. A. Webb; Johnny Crawford, Bill Boverie; Oneeta Yates, John Paul Jones; Lennon Young, Deeda Kemp; Jimmy Mann, Joy Doggett; Don Kidd, Juanelle Hatley; Jackie Pinson, Mary Scribner; Walter Coventry; Janice Campbell, Judy Lacwell; Winfred Hair, Nancy Brown; Butch Hulse, Lois McAtee; Freddie Gordon, Koenia Schenck; Sharron Dennis, Houston Hamby; Butch Hatley, Donnie Findley; Gayle McAnally, Freddie Davidson;

"Mobiling" around on Sunday night after church were Lonn Miller, Kay Gregory; Koenia Schenck, Freddie Gordon; Lonna May, Marion Green; Donna May, Coy Carlisle; Joyce Curtis, Harvey Garrison; Freddie Davidson and myself.

On the town Sunday evening were Don Kidd, Juanelle Hatley; Judy Lacwell, Gayland Graham, Deeda Kemp, Koenia Schenck, Janice Campbell, Joyce Gray; Judy Moore, Kent Wozencraft; Syd Hair, Jerry Meyer; Rande Buchenau and Janet Oak.

Congrats to the football team, the coaches, and the student body on such a fine football season. We really had Dimmitt on their toes Friday night! Now that football season is over, let's back basketball.

Many, many congratulations and bouquets to Patsy Moss, the Football Queen of 1957. Patsy's attendants also deserve bouquets.

Rollicking Three-Act Comedy Will Be Played Friday Nite By Juniors

Three acts of constant laughter and hilarious surprises are in store for persons who attend the Junior Class presentation of "Do You Trust Your Boyfriend?" Friday evening in the high school auditorium.

Curtain time is 7:30 p.m. and directors are David Howton and Don Johnson, assisted by student director David Hamm. Tickets are $1.00 for adults, 50 cents for high school students, and 25 cents for grade school students.

Two teen-agers, played by Charla Granbery and Linda Clark, take advantage of their housekeeper, portrayed by Gayland Graham, while their parents are out of town. The arrival of Sydney Hair—the daughter of an important customer of their father's—puts a damper on their fun, and they begin—with the help of Charla's chum—Ellen Jones, to keep their band-playing boyfriends, Jerry Meyer and Sonny Bryant, from meeting their charming guest.

L. H. McAdams, too timid for his own good, gets roped in on their scheming. Charla and Ellen manufacture an alibi that Charla has a business interview with an important man, in order to miss the concert being presented by the band and consequently, keep Sydney out of sight. Jerry Hatter appears on an unexpected mission, and Judy Price, the high school history teacher, assumes too much and adds to the confusion.

A party at the sisters' home, a serenade by the band, the revelation of a "crackpot" in their midst, and the cat-and-mouse game the girls play with their boyfriends, build the play into a riot of fun and action.

In Paris... the most style-conscious fashion critics in the world had a deep, low bow for Ford's latest style creation. In the mighty Himalayas, Ford's new Interceptor V-8 engine with Precision Fuel Induction won the day!

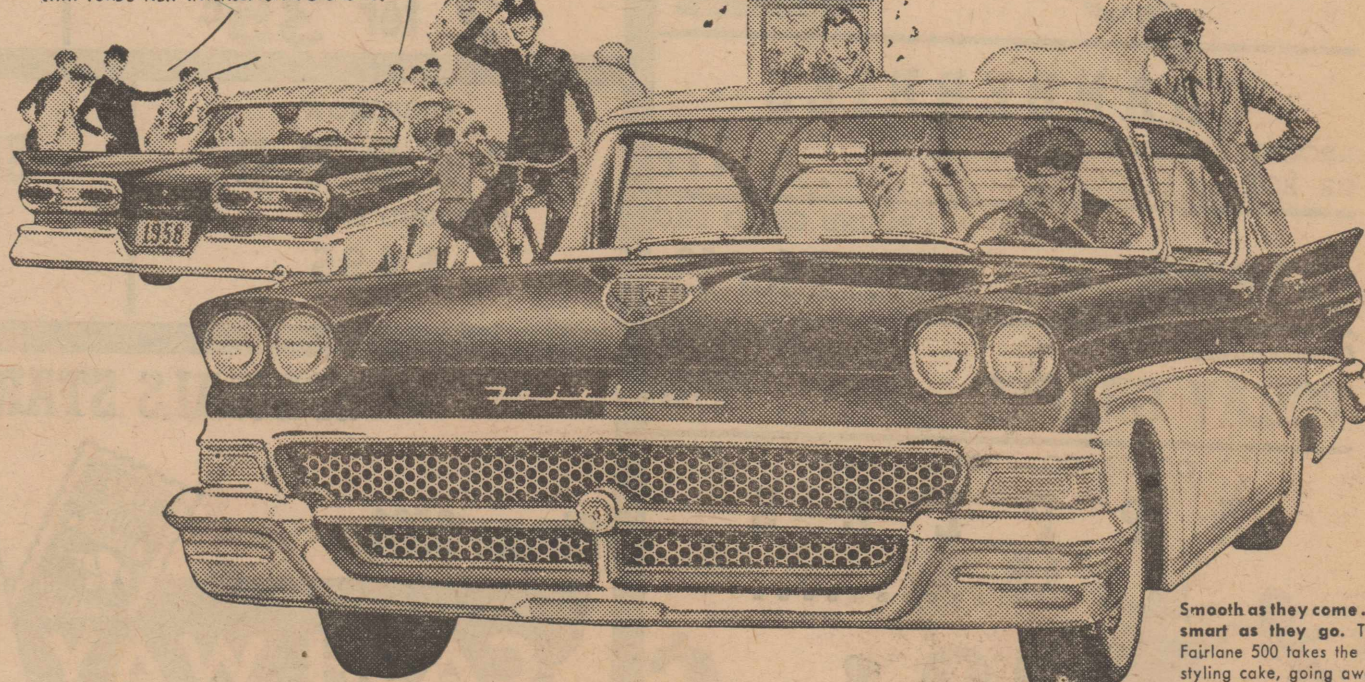

Then there's nothing newer than the true air ride of Ford-Aire Suspension. It's like riding on a cloud! But, you don't have to go to foreign soil to drive this newest Ford. We'll gladly save you the trip. Come in today!

From London to Bangkok... the whole world loved it!

The '58 Ford stopped traffic in Trafalgar Square when it passed through on its round-the-world trip. And that was typical of the excitement this Ford caused in Paris... Rome... Athens... Istanbul... Calcutta... and Bangkok. For this Ford was proved around the world in the toughest "shakedown" cruise in history.
