LET'S ALL GO out and support the Cisco Lobos this Friday night when they take on the Comanche Indians at Chesley Field in their second district game of the season. The Lobos defeated the Clyde Bulldogs last week in Clyde by a thrilling one-point lead. The game was exciting right down to the last few seconds.

Although the Lobos are only 2-3 for the season, they have given their fans the opportunity of watching some thrilling games this year, keeping the suspense alive until the last few minutes of the game.

AN ITEM OF interest which we were told one day this week, is that the City of Cisco will be 100 years old in the year 1981. Perhaps we can all look forward to a big celebration at that time.

ISN'T IT NICE to be able to drive along Front Street now without the bone-jarring, teeth-rattling holes in the road. The paving was completed last week and the road is a credit to the city. One block of 11th Street, just east of Front Street, was also paved.

WITH HALLOWEEN less than two weeks away, I thought the following article from the Texas Medical Association might be of interest.

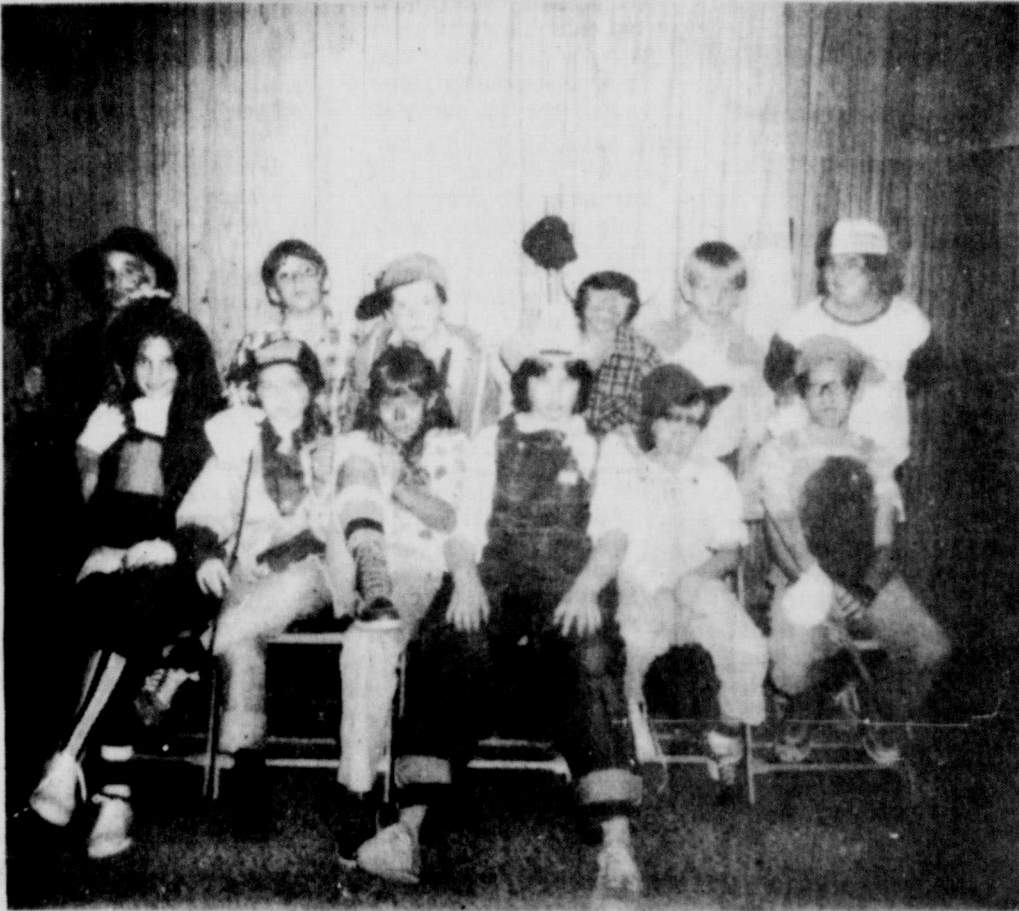

HAZARDS HAUNT HALLOWEEN

In recent years Halloween has been scarier for adults than children. Children can imagine a world of spooks and goblins. Adults must face the very real threats of poisoned candy, vehicle accidents, dangerous costumes and other hazards endangering children. Seeking ways to avoid these problems and decrease vandalism, parents increasingly are steering their children toward organized activities such as school carnivals and parties.

Such efforts have been at least partially successful—or maybe children simply are forbidden to go out on Halloween. In any case, the number of trick-or-treaters in many places has declined dramatically.

Yet Halloween is too well established to die out completely. Since people probably will continue celebrating it in some form or other, here are some tips from the Texas Medical Association (TMA) to cut down on Halloween hazards.

Giving balloons, pencils, coins or other small, inexpensive items probably will please children as much as receiving candy. Some inedible treats may be cheaper than candy and will not be wasted by parents who have to throw away treats that might be poisoned.

Adults can decrease the possibility of poisoning by giving only treats in their original wrappers that could not be poisoned and then re-wrapped. Parents should use the same standards when inspecting treats. Parents also should throw away fruit and other treats that could be injected with dangerous substances because they easily could overlook the pinhole a needle would make.

Costumes are another responsibility parents have. They should avoid costume masks that could slip and block a child's vision or breathing. Painting a child's face with cosmetics, grease paint or burned cork can be a good substitute.

The costume itself should be light-colored to help motorists spot children, flame resistant and not so loose or long it could trip a child or catch on obstacles. Costumes also should not include sharp objects, torches or candles. Adults can improve safety by putting reflective tape or luminous paint on costumes and objects children carry.

People can make their property safer and cut down on vandalism several ways. For instance, keep the property well lighted and put away hoses, lawn furniture and garbage cans. If possible, put cars in the garage and lock them. Bring pets inside to protect them and children from each other.

Simple preparations such as these can help both children and adults survive the season, TMA says.

AWARD WINNERS: Kenneth Reese (left) was awarded a plaque for best dressed boy Hobo and Kristi Hogan as best dressed girl Hobo at the "Hobo" party of the Junior Department of East Cisco Baptist Church.

East Cisco Baptist Church Jr. Department Hosts A 'Hobo Party' Friday Night

The Junior Department of the East Cisco Baptist Church had a "Hobo Party" last Friday night. After games the "Hoboes" were treated to a hamburger supper. Following the meal a contest was held for the best dressed "Hoboes." The judge for the event was a "real Hobo," Gary Stennett. After much serious thought, the award for the best dressed girl Hobo went to Kristi Hogan. Kenneth Reese was awarded the plaque for best dressed boy Hobo. The hamburgers were cooked by Cliff Covington.

Teachers for the Junior Department are Janie Wilson, third and fourth grade girls; Dessie Covington, fifth and sixth grade girls; Linton Batteas, third and fourth grade boys; and Ollie Moran, fifth and sixth grade boys. The director for the Junior Department is Juanita Bentley.

Gary Stennett was judge for the Hobo contest.

CHS Lobos To Take On The Comanche Indians Here Friday

The Cisco High School Lobos will be looking for their second district win, and their first win of the season on their home turf, when they host the Comanche Indians at Chesley Field Friday night. Kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m.

The Lobos, now 2-3 for the season and 1-0 for district play, defeated the Clyde Bulldogs last Friday night 15-14 in Clyde. The Indians were defeated last week 26 to 7 by Breckenridge.

Comanche is now 4-2 for the season and 0-2 in district play. Comanche's other district game was lost to the Eastland Mavericks. This week, the Lobos were listed third in 9-AA standing.

Wranglers To Face NEO-JV

Cisco Junior College's Wrangler football team will be on the road this weekend traveling to Miami, Oklahoma, where they will face Northeastern Oklahoma's (NEO) JV at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 20.

The Wranglers are now 4-3 for the season following their shut-out victory over the Texas Lutheran JV at Seguin Monday night by the score of 28-0. Cisco led 14-0 at halftime.

In Monday night's game, Terry O'leary, 188 pound freshman from Cleveland, Ohio, scored two touchdowns to lead the Wranglers to their victory.

Tailback Mark Wilkerson, 196 pound sophomore from Killeen High, scored on a 40-yard run and Paul Chatmon, 170 pound freshman from Fort Worth, caught a 40 yard pass from 175 pound freshman quarterback Jerry Trevino to complete CJC's scoring. The Cisco defense forced four fumbles and an interception.

The Wranglers wound up with 231 yards on offense while Texas Lutheran had 192.

'To Russia With Love' To Be Shown Sunday At East Cisco Baptist Church

To Russia With Love will be shown at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 21, at the East Cisco Baptist Church. Rev. Armo Bentley invites the public to view this film.

This gripping motion picture speaks to the heart. Many of the shots were filmed inside Russia and give eloquent testimony to that fact that hunger for the Word of God is very real in that land of multiple closed churches. It graphically portrays life today for many thousands of Christians in the communist third of the world.

Secret arrangements were made in advance for an English-speaking Russian Christian to rendezvous with a UE

Correction

Mrs. Green Stayed With Mrs. Buford

Information concerning Mrs. Zona Buford was erroneously reported in the Sunday edition. It was stated that Mrs. Buford stayed with Mrs. Green while Mrs. Buford's husband was in the service during the war. The statement should have read Mrs. Green stayed with Mrs. Buford during the war, while Mrs. Green's husband was in the service.

Eastland County Extension Homemakers Council Meets

The Eastland County Extension Homemakers Council met recently for their annual meeting.

New officers elected for 1980 were Mrs. Glenn Jordan of Kokomo, chairman; Mrs. T.L. Hale of Cisco, vice-chairman; Mrs. Morris Underwood of Morton Valley, secretary; Mrs. Bernard Campbell of Eastland, treasurer.

Highlight of the annual meeting was yearly reports of accomplishments and work presented by Council and club officers.

The Eastland County delegates to the Texas Extension Homemakers Association annual convention in Fort Worth last month reported on the state convention which was attended by 688 E.H. delegates. Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Bessie Marie McCollum and Mrs. Edith Wilson reported on a good meeting with outstanding speakers.

Council delegates voted to make 4-H aprons to be presented to the 4-H Food Show participants on November 17th. Mrs. Twila Lee, of the Council 4-H Committee, is in charge with all clubs assisting.

The next meeting of the Extension Homemakers Council will be on November 7th. This meeting will be the annual Achievement Day. Members and clubs will have exhibits on display throughout the day with special awards being presented. Highlight of the noon luncheon will be the presentation of Outstanding Club Woman of the Year recipients. A program will be given by Shirley Kidd and Robin White, Eastland

4-H'ers. The 4-H'ers will tell about their experiences in hosting Japanese LABO Exchange Youth in their homes for four weeks during July and August.

Monday Shower

The Eastland County area received approximately .10 to .20 of an inch of rain the morning of Monday, October 15th, according to County Extension Agent, De Marquis Gordon.

Pea-sized hail was also received. Enough fell to almost cover the ground, Gordon stated, but it wasn't enough to damage any crops. The rain was not hard enough to cause damage and did little good except to calm the dust, and make the weather cooler, Gordon said. There was a 30 percent chance of more rain on Monday.

Mrs. Judy Coan To Be Speaker At Joy Fellowship

Mrs. Judy Coan of DeLeon, will be the guest speaker at the Joy Fellowship this Thursday night at 7:00 p.m.

Joy Fellowship is for women of all ages who are interested in spiritual growth and Christian fellowship. Everyone is invited to hear Mrs. Coan's testimony and enjoy the fellowship Thursday night, Oct. 18th at the Assembly of God Fellowship Hall, 1608 W. Commerce.

The Sunday School workers of the Eastland Assembly of God will be going to a Sunday School Convention this coming Friday night, Oct. 19, in Irving, Texas. The workers will learn new teaching techniques, as well as new ideas in church growth.

Eastland County 4-H Council Meets

The Eastland County 4-H Council met Monday night, October 15, in the Community Room at the Eastland National Bank. The following members were present: Brenda Kidd, Truet Hart, and Jim Moylan-Eastland; John Bailey, Dusty Petree and Mrs. Petree-Cisco; Sam Scott-Rising Star; Lily McDonald and Amy Weekes-Ranger; and Ruthie Hagood, Caye Little, and Terry Jeffs-Gorman.

Topics of discussion were as follows:
1) County Awards Banquet -- Each council member was given their written part for the banquet. We had a brief rehearsal so all 4-H'er's would know their part.
2) Christmas Party -- The Council voted to cancel the November meeting and plan the party this month. The Christmas party will be a skating party with each club bringing refreshments. Further details will be given at a later date.

Church in Cisco. This seminar is an excitingly new approach to Bible learning. With the use of audiovisual material and participation of all present, the Bible comes alive. By the end of the Day, one will be able to understand how the entire Bible fits together and be able to share its full story.

This is a family opportunity. Children 5 and up can profit from this special excursion through the Bible.

The cost is $6.00 per person with registration beginning at 8:30 a.m. and the seminar ending at 5:00 p.m. The host church will be providing nursery facilities. A meal will also be provided (donations will be accepted for the meal).

This trip down 'ole Route 66' (Genesis to Revelation) is a new concept with lots of benefit.

For The Men Who Succeed

There Must Be Something Wrong -

....with the men who falls down and refuses to get up or is perfectly content to allow society to look after his well being, or is there? What is wrong, if anything, with the seller who refuses buyer an abstract? Maybe nothing, but there is something wrong with the buyer who weakens at this point and buys hastily without complete title information before him. Think it over and in the meantime, don't do it. Remember - we have your welfare in mind.

Library Facts

Library Resource Centers are practical demonstrations of the belief in universal education as a life long process.

The CHS Library has upgraded its reference section this year. Added to our collection were the 1979 editions of the following encyclopedias: 30 volume set of Encyclopedia Britannica; 11 volume set of Encyclopedia Americana; 29 volume set of The New Book of Popular Science; 22 volume set of Encyclopedia International; 21 volume set of the Science Encyclopedia, The Living Earth.

Students or teachers interested in subjects which deal with society will find the new Social Issues Resources Series of interest. These four volumes include information on all phases of these subjects: Crime, Money, Corrections, and Mental Health.

Five sets of pamphlets material which are new this year in our collection deal with "Alternative Energy Strategies: Facts, Data, Opinions, and Perspectives", "Child Abuse", "Abortion", "Our Nation's Energy Problem", and a set of 50 pamphlets dealing with "Diseases".

CHS Chatter

Cisco High School's football team is starting off right with their first district win. It seems as though they don't want things written about them.

Karen and Audie didn't have such good luck, though they're going strong as ever and we hope it stays that way.

Kory is having problems, seems as though he can't keep Laura straight from Laurie. On this one I just hope things turn out for the best.

Sue and Sy are still going strong. It was getting a little shaky there for awhile but as soon as Sue can find Sy on Sunday night's, I'm sure things will go fine.

Other things we hope for is that Connie learns the proper way to set down in a skirt at football games. I was also wondering if Cyd has finally learned how to stay out of car trunks.

Cookie and Terrie are going to have to stay away from the College. Everytime they go by the College they always get into trouble.

On the last note it seems as though a freshman won the "Howdy Doodie" look-alike contest. His name--Brian Fleming.

subjects in Biology, Career Education, Drivers Education and Classics.

But don't forget we have a room full of books and magazines.

Avoiding Report Cards

STUDENTS BEWARE! There seems to be report cards coming out this week and many students have to really be clever.

There are many ways to avoid the issue of report cards with your parents. The first is to not come home with them. By this we mean that it is accidentally lost by you losing it in a sudden sand storm (accidentally, of course).

Other things that happen are that they get too close to a burning match and the flames are so unbearable that it is unable to be exterminated.

Another way that these report cards are abused is by the uncoordination of other people. It seems as though everytime they pick up two different corners of the paper in confusion. Their hands never seem to go the same way. In the end, the paper is shredded into little bits and pieces.

CHS Resource Center

The Cisco High School Lobo Library has a variety of materials other than books. We have 449 filmstrips, 266 cassettes, 151 records, 98 charts, 453 tapes and 263 maps.

The Instructional Resource Center has films of classics such as: Romeo and Juliet, Moby Dick and Treasure Island. There are also films in History, Homemaking, Science, Math, Spanish, Speech and Religion. Cassettes include

Sports Spotlight

This week's "Sports Spotlight" goes to Steve Hopson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hopson.

Steve, a Senior Lobo, number 25, has played varsity football for four years. He plays defensive cornerback and offensive tailback. He was recently voted a team captain for the 1979 football season.

Steve has played basketball for 3 years and has been a trackster for 3 years. Last year Steve placed second in the 880 at district and then went to Regional.

Steve's future plans are to attend a Junior College and play football. He plans to major in Physical Education.

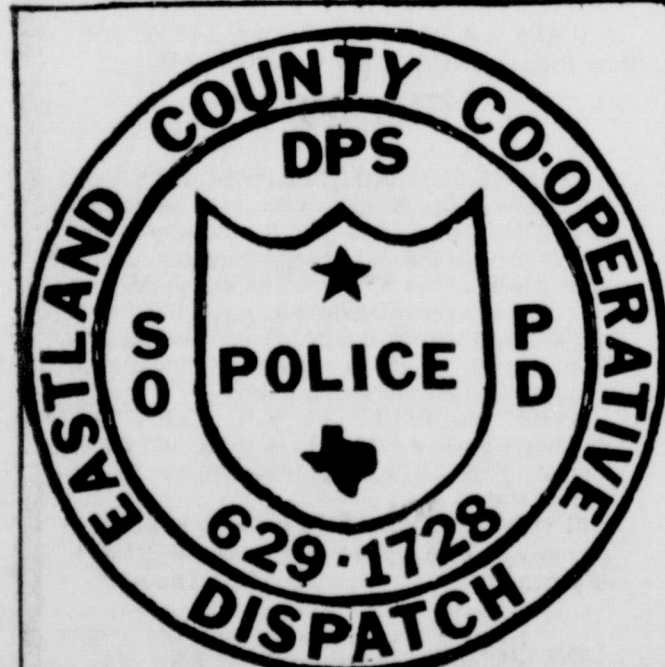

A "Meet the Lady Lobos Night" will be held in the Cisco High School Gym at 7:00 p.m., October 22. The seventh through twelfth grade girls basketball teams will be introduced. They will perform drills to show off their skills. All parents and friends of these athletes are invited. Please attend!

This paper does not necessarily reflect the opinions of the school administration.

The second way to avoid the issue is to use the "play dumb" method. Everytime they ask to see the report card, you conveniently forget what they are asking as you are heading out the door, or just act like you are hard of hearing. This is the time of the year when parents have to see what their child's hearing.

Another way is to see how conveniently you can find something to do around the house. For example: the dishes, your bed or even the yard.

These are not all the ways to avoid the report card issue, but maybe they will help those poor souls who can't think up any of their own.

BY LAURA JEFFCOAT

Understand Words

Look the word up! This should be a cardinal rule for all students when an unfamiliar word is confronted.

After trying to guess the meaning of a word from its use in a sentence, reach for a dictionary. Read all of the definitions of the word and select the one that applies to your particular reading.

Keep in mind that some dictionaries list the most common meaning first. Others list meanings historically. Look in the introductory pages of the dictionary to be sure.

Don't forget to take a few seconds to check the pronunciation of the word. You may, sooner than you think, hear it spoken or wish to use it yourself in conversation.

Remember that no one knows the meanings of all the words in the English language. In fact, no one even knows the exact number of words. Estimates are in excess of one million. The average adult is familiar with less than five percent, or 50,000 words.

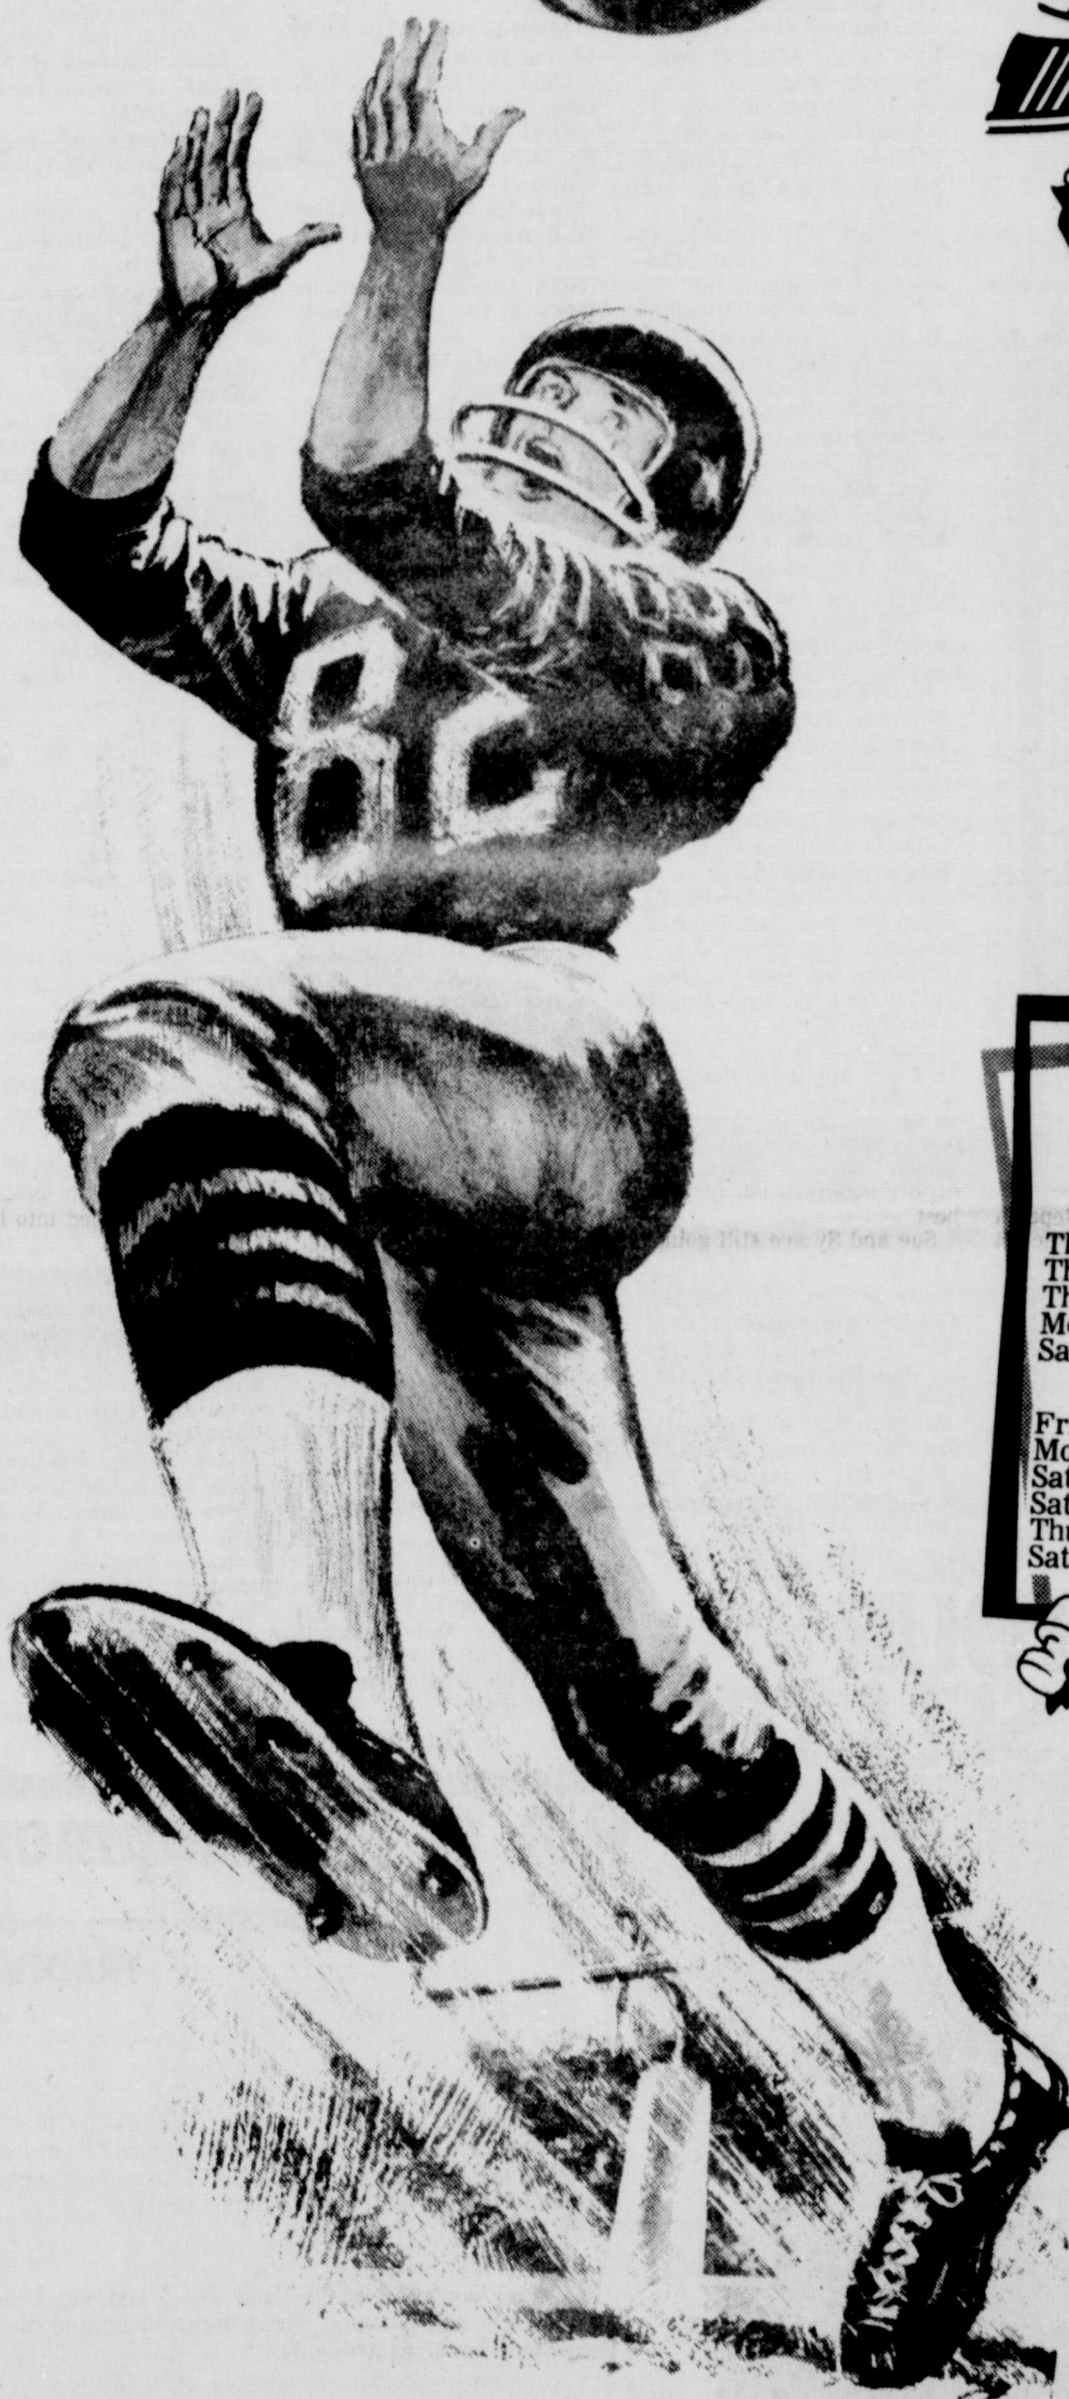

Hundreds of new words come into the language each year; by the same token many become obsolete. Makers of dictionaries must decide which words to include in new editions.

If a word can't be found in a standard high school dictionary, don't give up. Consult a college, unabridged or specialized dictionary. Visit the library and become acquainted with the various lexicons available.

WE'RE SOLD ON YOUR HOUSE BEFORE WE SELL IT.

Our theory is simple. We take the time to know your house, price it correctly, and discover its distinctive features. Because when we're sold on it, it's much easier to find the right buyers and close the sale.

Then we even save you time after the sale by helping with the time-consuming paperwork. It's all a matter of spending our time wisely so it doesn't waste yours. This is another reason why CENTURY 21® helps more people buy or sell their homes than any other real estate sales organization in the world.

Thursday,

October 18, 1979

THERE ARE a lot of contests in Eastland County. If you're not one, you might tell the rest of us how you resist the temptation. Most of us clip "official" entry blanks" out of magazines and newspapers [and make the rest of our family wonder how a story ends where they find the pages gone.]

And surely everybody is on Readers' Digest mailing list. They must run more "sweepstakes" than anybody. They tell you in advance they are coming; that they're here; and that they've been acknowledged. [We also wonder if the envelope that says "no" [you don't want to extend your subscription] gets as much attention as an envelope marked "yes." We just dutifully send our "official numbers" in, and wonder where we'd borrow the money to pay the taxes, in the unlikely event that our number should be picked some day.]

THEN TOO, the specialty catalogs [Sunset House, etc. always seem to have a SUPER

BIG SWEEPSTAKES going. Does anybody ever win?

BUT, THE ONE contest we never enter is the one we get asking us to "pay to play." That sorta takes the fun out of it.

NOW, WE LEARN of one that's even flakier... AND THE KIND, WE ALL SHOULD AVOID.

We're indebted to Youvonne McMillan, Cisco real estate broker, for sharing this warning with us.

She recently was reading a Las Vegas newspaper feature article exposing the "Church of the Children of the Desert Puzzle Club" which told that an investigation showed that there is no such church, and from all indications no prizes awarded even though puzzles were invited to play their bingo games for big prizes, PROVIDED they send along donations for the "worthwhile projects" of the church. Many did and received nothing for their efforts.

Then, low and behold, just a few days after reading the article, Ms. McMillan received a mailing from you guessed it: Church of the Children of the Desert Puzzle Club, offering "an opportunity" to win "your share of over" $16,000, with "70 guaranteed winners" and a choice of "entry fee" category: $5, $7 or $9. "The more you send, the more you COULD win."

It's labeled a "fund raising skill game, sponsored by The Church of the Children of the Desert," so PERHAPS it clears Postal Service regulations -- but we doubt it.

SO, FOR THE benefit of the Postal Service Mail Fraud Division, here's the address: P.O. Box 528, Pittman, Nev. 89044. The contest letter is signed by a "Rev. Shelly" and a paragraph just makes you hopping mad: "The honesty and integrity of the Church is the reason you should have implicit faith in the honesty and integrity of the contest and the awarding of prizes."

IMAGINE! Thanks again, Ms. McM for sharing this warning.

OBSERVATIONS FROM...

The River Road

BY VIOLA M. PAYNE

In the early 1950's one of my Grandfathers spent a lot of time in my home. At that time radio stations still carried continued stories in which heroines struggled through various miserable situations. Grandfather, at age 93, found these interesting, and usually sat near the radio to look it straight in the eye. I will never forget one daily introduction to a melodrama, given in the deep voice of the announcer.

"Can this poor girl, who once knew love, happiness, security and fulfillment with a loving husband two children, ever find happiness again?

And dear old Grandad, the eternal optimist, would answer right back to that radio: "I say she can!"

As I listened to that story I wondered how that husband could have once been so "loving," since all he did was lurk around the edges of the play and snarl that now since he had divorced Marianne he was not going to let her and the children have another cent!

But the caption of the announcer is more long-lasting than the story, and can still be applied. Right now I am amusing myself with this application: "Can an Eastland County woman, Viola Payne, find love, happiness, security and fulfillment shopping in the new Mall of Abilene?"

I continue to be amazed at pre-planned Shopping Centers, which are springing up like mushrooms in various areas. They spring up so fast, in fact, that it appears more like an Alladin's Lamp situation. Other resemblances to the Mid-East (inner courtyards and fountains, etc., etc.) could almost lead one into innocent little questions such as: "Where does all the money come from for these establishments? Is it Intra-State or Multi-National, or simply an oil company playing with some loose change?"

These days it is hard to tell. The Mall of Abilene is estimated to have cost over one hundred million, which would keep me in beans, tortillas and typewriter paper for a long, long time.

And one unhappy thing about these Malls is that not only do the stores inside the complexes resemble their chain-store counterparts all over the country, but whole Shopping Centers in different cities resemble each other. This gives rise to a situation where a shopper - if he travels at all - can lose a certain sense of place and identity. In a Mall in Fort Worth I had a feeling that I might step out to the stark outlines of Mt. Franklin above El Paso. Or in the Mall of Abilene one could be in Dallas, Midland, Albuquerque or anywhere. It is the same deadening repetition of chain stores, chain clothing, chain food.

My first introduction to the Mall of Abilene came in the form of some unsolicited credit cards. One day I was tempted to go look over the establishments, although I heard rumors that a chain Book Store there did not keep works by local authors. When I finally located the Mall-perched in an unhandy place on the south side of town - its first effect was rather jolting. The outlines were vast, a dirty beige color, and constructed in a style which I could only consider as "sick Spanish Castle." As I drew nearer I saw acres and acres of paving around the monolith - a sort of ecological graveyard. How long, I wondered, can this country destroy productive farmland, yet continue to feed an expanding population crammed in cities?

I decided that rats weren't the only things to get caught

Women's Study Club Goes On Tour

The Women's Study Club went on their yearly tour Monday. Due to circumstances some were out of town and others had their reasons. Only four met at the Community Center bringing their picnic lunch. They were Mmes. Fry, Petty, Pruet and Isenhower. We started out at eight o'clock went to Albany and saw the bluebonnets club project which was an old "depot" railroad station which is now a museum also. Mrs. Harold Law, member of Albany Study Club, took us to their project called the Pioneer Store built in 1875, quite interesting. Went to the place where Ann King makes her "monkey bread." She told of sending monkey bread to be served in the White House at one of President Carter's dinners.

Then on to Fort Griffin, and to Fort Belknap where we ate lunch under the huge in a maze, so I found a method of attack and entry. A sea of cars stretched around the parking area, emitting humans of every size, shape, and color. We all headed toward the Mecca beyond the walls.

One thought intruded - this new Mall did provide a safe and easy passage for persons in wheel chairs. That was good. It wasn't long, however, before I decided a wheel chair might be the best vantage point for me to see the place too! Provided that I had a strong person who didn't mind pushing me through a half mile of pathways. After all, the area was supposed to contain 88 stores, stuffed with everything material needed to sustain life on this planet.

Some of the inside of the Mall, of course, was beautiful. Fountains are always chanting, even if set in rather plastic surroundings. And plants - even if imported - add a lot to the scene. I wondered why I kept thinking of the mesquites and yucca which once stood on this spot - not to mention the wheatfields? But some things on this earth are always expandable, if they get in the way of "development."

I saw innumerable shops, ranging from specialty cubby-holes to enormous carpeted expanses, a veritable smorgasbord of goods. There were fast food places - even fast Mexican food. But the prices - except for one large mail-order store - ranged above what the same goods cost in Eastland County. Few bargains were in the Mall, and almost nothing old. There were enormous expanses of clothing crammed on racks - the latest and the newest.

Such a massive display left me more bewildered than in a buying mood, although there was soft, happy music to soothe me. Perhaps the mass psychology - display abundance and create a desire for more things - worked on a majority of shoppers. But I wandered and blundered about, finally hunting sunlight. I found myself muttering that it was easier to shop in Cisco and Eastland, especially if you didn't have a million dollars.

So - did one poor Eastland County woman find love, happiness and fulfillment while shopping in the Mall of Abilene?

No, those commodities were not for sale there.

grape arbor. It is really a nice place for an outing. Then we came by the Stovall wells and on to Cisco and stopped and saw Mrs. Jewell Shirley and her new home and then to Putnam at 5 o'clock.

The citizens met Thursday at the Community Center. We will bring our lunch this Thursday.

Mellowdrama Family Affair

More Sinned Against Than Usual

That is the plight of poor persecuted Queenie De Lorme, harassed heroine of "On The Bridge at Midnight" that will be presented under the direction of Virginia Russell, and written by the well-known playwright, Bruce Brandon, whose sensational mellowdrama gives signs of attracting large audiences.

A specially chosen cast and crew is busily engaged at the present time in rehearsing the play and getting ready for the big event. Everyone has gathered together like one happy family. When one mentions the family that word can be taken very seriously. In this fall production, husband and wife teams are very common throughout both cast and crew. Brother and sisters-in-law are working diligently making their individual part a complete success. Newcomers to the play show their interest and enthusiasm which cannot help but spread throughout the entire cast and some faces the audiences will no doubt recognize as being in past productions.

Each member of the large cast is determined to distinguish himself and this is the type of play that will long be remembered.

Make plans now to attend this great performance at the Bell Hurst Theater in early November. There is not a person in town who can afford to miss this important theatrical event. "On The Bridge at Midnight" will be remembered after all other plays you have seen have faded into the limbo of forgotten things.

!!!!!!Guess What: Creature To Be At Spook House !!!!!

Through negotiations that have been going on ever since the Creature of Eastland County was captured last Friday in downtown Eastland the Eastland Jaycees, are announcing what they feel is one of the biggest attractions this county has ever seen or will see for some time to come.

On the nights of October 26, 27, 29, 30 and 31, the Eastland Jaycees will exhibit in their first annual Haunted House THE CREATURE OF EASTLAND COUNTY it was announced today by Jaycee President Pat Howrey.

Howrey stated that through difficult and long talks with officials over the first part of this week arrangements were made to have the Creature featured in the Jaycee Haunted House. The Jaycees are being allowed this privilege due to the fact that they led the search and capture of this creature or rather Werewolf as has been identified by authorities this week.

Only once will the Werewolf be displayed before the Haunted House and that will be this coming Saturday at two o'clock in the afternoon in conjunction with the Eastland Chamber of Commerce annual auction sale on the square in downtown Eastland so if you won't be able to attend the Jaycee Haunted House do plan to come to the auction this Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey King of Jacksboro spent several days last week with his brother, J.R. King and Mrs. King.

Paul Howard and son, Bart, of Monahans spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howard.

Joe Branham has been employed by the City of Moran as water superintendent.

Hugh Harwell of Dallas is visiting relatives in Moran. W.H. McKelvin entered Hendricks Hospital Wednesday to have a cataract removed from his eye.

Mrs. Irene Kinnison is receiving treatment in the Baird hospital.

Mrs. Rheba Cannon and Mrs. Elma May Huskey attended Clyde Chapter Order of the Eastern Star last Thursday night.

Mrs. W.S. Moore and son, Shof of Monroe, North Carolina, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.L. English. Other guests of Mr. and Mrs. English recently were Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Johnson of Houston, Dr. and Mrs. John Howard and children of Louisville, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Criswell and Mrs. George Goree of Olney.

Roger Scott of Odessa spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Roe Scott.

Those from Moran attending the 95th annual session of the Cisco Baptist Association at the First Baptist Church in Ranger Monday, Oct. 15, were Rev. and Mrs. T.J. Medart, Tammy and Candy, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harper, Mrs. Garland Shelton, Mrs. Britt Phippen, Mrs. Carroll Louder, Mrs. C.H. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crayton and Mrs. Etta Terry.

Mrs. Bill Howard and Sunny of Midland are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howard.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

The Moran Snack Bar was decorated in the Halloween colors for the Birthday Club party last Tuesday night, Oct. 9. Two spooks made their appearance, much to the enjoyment of the group present. The meal was served buffet style with fried chicken and roast and gravy, corn, baked potato, salad and cake for dessert made by Mrs. Lucion Brooks. Lucion Brooks and A.J. Thomas celebrated their birthday. Tom Stark, also a honoree, was in the hospital and unable to attend. Others present to help with the celebration were Mrs. Lucion Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Williams, Ezra Weir, Frances Green, Elma May Huskey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Bessie Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cockrell, Mildred Smith, Merle Newton, Mrs. Joe Moore, Rheba Cannon, Barney Midkiff and Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Fuller.

CLASS MEETING

The T.E. Sunday School Class of the Baptist Church met in the fellowship hall of the church on Friday, Oct. 12, for a salad luncheon with the class as hostess. Mrs. C.H. Bridges, president, was in charge.

Mrs. Etta Terry gave the opening prayer. Eleven members answered roll call with their favorite scripture.

Mrs. Jay Herring brought the devotion from the third Chapter of James, using the subject, The Tongue to Be Bridled.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. E.E. Harris.

At the close of the meeting, the members gathered around the table for the salad course.

MR. ERIC HILTON, head of the far-flung Hilton Hotel chain, made a fine impression on Cisco last Friday when he flew here to take part in the presentation of plans for restoration of the old Mobley Hotel, the first Hilton Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton, who live in Houston, flew here in a business jet airplane that had to land at Eastland airport due to the condition of the runway at the Cisco airport. They were informed that the City of Cisco has started an extensive improvement program for the local airport.

The Hilton plane was met by Banker Dick Woolley, who is vacationing this week at the family farm. Mr. Hilton paid our town a nice compliment, noting that "I am pleased to find a small town that is pulling together."

Mr. I.G. Mobley of Putnam, member of the family that sold the Mobley Hotel to Conrad Hilton back in 1918, was at the Friday gathering and talked at length with Mr. Hilton, Architect Rinaldo Petrini and others. Understand he has in storage at Putnam some furniture of the old Mobley Hotel era that will be made available in the restoration project.

Others have items of furniture that will likely fit into the building. And if you know of any such items of furniture or furnishings, call CoFC Manager Gene Abbott.

Needless to say, the first Hilton will be a top tourist attraction when the restoration is completed; and, doubtless, Cisco will be ready to cooperate in every way possible.

WENT OVER TO Big D last weekend to look in on the State Fair of Texas and to attend the annual Texas-OU football game. It was a fine day with temperatures in the 70s. A big and colorful crowd turned out. The Goodyear blimp cruised around over the fair grounds during the afternoon. There was a strong easterly wind a few hundred feet up and the blimp seemed to stand still in the air when it headed into the wind.

The stadium's 72,500 seats were all full, and we Texans "lived it up" like the Oklahomans did last year.

The automobile show, international exhibits, woman's building products, livestock, and the like attracted good crowds. Probably the cleverest thing we saw was a 3-foot high wire ferry's wheel. There were six miniature seats for riders and each was full of grain. Baby chicks were in the pin, and, as the wheel turned, the seats came down near the floor. Chicks would hop on a small platform and eat grain as the wheel turned. A dozen chicks might be on the wheel at one time. Needless to say, children were attracted.

It's a nice show and you can spend all day there and not see everything.

AFTER A WEEK'S visit in Lubbock with the Mike Wragg family, Mrs. Roy Hathaway reports that she never realized how nice and smart young grandchildren can be. Mrs. Bill Wright visited her daughter Ann and family and attended the Texas-OU game in Dallas last Saturday. From the road, it appears that the Bill Hester's new restaurant is coming along nicely and will be opening up before long.

THEY JUMPED the gun last Sunday and honored Old-Timer Lee Lieske on his birthday. He'll be 92 years of age on Oct. 19th and is enjoying life every day. He is probably this region's leading authority on paper shell pecan growing. Understand the outlook for a good crop of pecans is better than in the past few years. Peanut harvest is in full swing and there's reported to be a shortage of drying wagons. Three tenths of an inch of rain fell in our town early Monday. A sprinkle of pea size hail accompanied the rain.

VISITING UP in the Colorado country last week, we accepted the invitation of friends to see some of the sights in the Colorado Springs area. A trip to nearby Canon City was highlighted by seeing the Royal Gorge, a deep and colorful canyon with the Arkansas River flowing at the bottom. A tram takes you some 1,000 feet to the bottom. Very scenic.

DROVE TO THE top of Pike's Peak - 14,110 feet above sea level - and it was something. It's a 20 mile highway from Cascade, at 7,391 feet, to the top, and it is known as the most expensive 20 miles of road in the world. It is paved about half way up and gravel the rest of the way. They charge you $3 to drive up. You can ride a train up for about $10.

Pike's Peak is probably the best known mountain in the USA. It is a City of Colorado Springs project. From the top, you can see 100 or more miles in all directions. Snow on the mountain in winter melts into four or five lakes to provide Colorado Springs with its city water supply. Auto racing fans gather there in early summer each year for the annual Pike's Peak race, a grueling run for powerful and fast cars up the world's most hazardous race course. Big money goes to the race winners.

Pleasant Hill Homemakers Club Meets

The Pleasant Hill Extension Homemakers Club met in the home of Dora Schaefer with Allen Smith as co-host. This was an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon Thursday, Sept. 20.

In the morning a quilt was quilted and the afternoon was their regular meeting. The meeting was called to order by the president, Twila Lee. Opening exercises were led by Vallie Parker. Devotional was given by Betty Hastings. The devotional was "The Gift of Giving a Blessing." Roll call was given by Diane Carlile. Reading of the minutes and approval of minutes and treasurer's report was presented by Diane Carlile. The reports of all committees was given. The council report was given by Vergie Hale. Unfinished business and new business was discussed. Members were going to take part in the Eastland County Fair main in proper operation in the future, according to David Gill, fire dispatcher. The department needs, and desires, additional equipment to make fire fighting and rescue operations safer; however, funds for this needed equipment is not readily available.

Although the Cisco fire department has come quite a ways since its formation October 19, 1896, most of its equipment is getting old. Hand-drawn wagons were used by the department until 1915, when it got its first automated vehicle.

In an issue of The Cisco Press dated

November 7, 1927, the department was reported to have 26 firemen and the following equipment: a Brockway fire truck, 1924 American LaFrance truck with 50 foot extension ladder, city service ladder and a Packard pumper and hose wagon.

The department now has 30 volunteer firemen, three paid firemen and the following equipment: the 1924 American LaFrance (kept because of the extension ladder), 1948 Chevrolet fire truck, 1956 Seagraves fire truck

Some of the present fire department personnel are: Fire Chief C.W. Guthrie, Assistant Chief Freddy Anderson, Captain Richard Connell, Training Chief Gerald Jackson, secretary-treasurer Bill Bacon, Jesse Reynolds (with the department for 15 years), Bill Webb (city's first certified fireman), David Gill (city's second certified fireman) and a number of other volunteer firemen.

He explained that the type of equipment owned, and its condition, determine the key rate figure on fire insurance for the city. In 1927 the key rate figure was 50 cents on each $100 valuation. In 1975 the key rate figure was 39 cents per $100 valuation. He said the figure could be lowered more if the department had more and better equipment.

Mr. Gill stated volunteer firemen, as well as the city's government, are the backbone of a good fire department. The fire department depends on the city for good water supply and good streets. The citizens are depended upon for their support. He went on to say that firemen are "a special breed" of person since they must drop everything they are doing and risk life and limb to combat a fire. He also stated the firemen's families are special too, since they sometimes have to give up certain plans when a fire alarm is

Lee Lieske Honored Sunday With Birthday Celebration

Lee Lieske was honored Sunday, Oct. 14, with a birthday celebration at his residence, 1100 Avenue F. He will celebrate his 92 birthday October 19.

Family members attending were Albert Lieske of Midland, Erna Gunning of Cisco, Pat Metcalf of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Stephens of Stephenville, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Speir of Big Spring, Joe and Lisa Whittman and Gregg of Fort Worth, Miles Metcalf of Fort Worth, Richard and Sarah Byrum of Fort Worth and Tony and Francis Hodnett and Brandy of Big Spring. Mr. and Mrs. Lieske are happy to introduce their two new great-grandchildren, Gregg Whittman and Brandy Hodnett.

Mr. Lieske's family and a host of friends have been congratulating him this week.

He was born October 19, 1887, in Poland. He came to America as a small lad, and farmed and did pecan growing and grafting for many years.

He and his wife live at their home at 1100 Avenue F and are very active in church and community affairs. He and his dog 'Lucky' have become a familiar sight around town.

Twenty years ago the family of Mr. Lieske got together in a surprise party for him. Mrs. Lieske and the five children and their children made it a complete surprise. They had so much fun, that they decided to meet again. Now since that first get together, 20 years have come and gone, and yes, Sunday, Oct. 14, marked 20 years and 20 get togethers. There were two sets of five generation children.
