STATE SERVICE OFFICER HERE

RENDERING AID TO WORLD WAR VETERANS AND THEIR DEPENDENTS BY OBTAIN-ING FEDERAL AID

Ray L. Sloan, Amarillo, field representative for the Veteran's Service Office, is in Perryton today at the American Legion Hall for the purpose of rendering assistance to war veterans or their dependents in connection with claims against the Federal government. Mr.
Sloan will be at Spearman, tomorrow, Friday, October 22.
Mr. Sloan, who for many years was assistant and service officer of the Ochiltree American Legion Post, states that there is one type of claim which is usually very easy "to put through". These are cases where the parent or parents of a child who lost his life in the service through lack of information concerning their rights have neglected to claim for death, adjusted compensation or other such benefits as they may be entitled to.
War veterans or dependents who think that they have claims of any kind should see Mr. Sloan today.

Theatre Attractions

At the Theatre for the coming week:

Zola."

OCTOBER RAINFALL TO MAKE GOOD AVERAGE

The prospects for a good wheat crop are enhanced this year with enough precipitation already totaled up to make a good average for the month of October. A reasonably wet Fall and Spring will insure a good crop yield.
General rainfall over the county totaled 1.67 of an inch up to October 20, with the following amounts falling on:
October 8 33
October 12 1.24
October 1504
October 1605
Total 1.67
Much of the moisture that has fallen has been in the form of slow drizzles and mists, which have been of great benefit.

culties continually met by the representatives from the agricultural to San Antonio, taken in connection with her club work, while Miss

Ellis To Give Favors

Those Attending Saturday Matinee
Will Be Presented With Autographed Pictures

Virby Conley, manager of the Ellis Theatre, announces that twenty-five motion picture machines will be given to those holding lucky autographed pictures of the "Three Stooges," which will be presented to everyone attending the Saturday matinee, October 23.

The machines come complete with two sets of comedy subjects featuring the "Stooges" in clever sketches and will prove very amusing to the young folks.
On the program will be a short subject entitled "Dizzy Doctor" with the "Stooges." The feature is Zane Grey's "Thunder Trail," with Marsha Hunt, Gilbert Roland and Charles Hickford. All the glory of the West is revealed in this fast moving story of western intrigue and romance.

Those not receiving the machines at this time may be able to do so on three other dates, which will be announced later.

OCHILTREE PREPARING FOR GRASSHOPPERS NOW

R. R. Reppert, Entomologist of the Extension Service, visited the county Tuesday and conferred with E. W. Thomas, county agent, in regard to the prospects of a grasshopper infestation in 1938.
Examinations for eggs of the hoppers were made on Wolf Creek and near Black School House and eggs found in both localities. Indications are that considerable trouble may be expected from the hoppers next year. Two carloads of government bran and a supply of poison has been left over and is stored for use next spring as soon as infestation starts. If poison materials had been available the past spring, damage to many thousands acres of wheat could have been avoided. It has been estimated that damage to wheat last spring amounted to at least $30,000.00.

AAA SETUP IS CHANGED HERE

WHEAT COMPLIANCE WILL BE CHECKED ON THE BASIS OF PLANTED ACREAGE
FOR NEXT YEAR

Information has just been received by the County Agent's Office from the State AAA Office at College Station to the effect that wheat may be sown under the 1938 program to the amount of approximately 85 per cent of the 1937 general base. This means that approximately 80 per cent of the cultivated land may be sown to wheat in Ochiltree County, subject to some adjustments that must be made to comply with the requirements that a certain amount of the farm land must be taken out of cultivation for restoration in grass.
This information differs from prior information from the Washington Office to the effect that only 80 per cent of the general base could be sown. Positive information has been received that wheat compliance for 1938 will be checked on the basis of planted acreage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Witt and Mrs. Ervin Gerlach were in Balco, Okla., Wednesday to attend the funeral services of Miss Vern Cothran.

Panhandle Stockmen Get Re- duced Feed Rate Shipments

Austin, Texas, Oct. 18.—Livestock raisers and railroads, which have been locked in litigation over emergency freight rates for feed in 34 counties, agreed today on a 25 per cent reduction.

The rates on livestock feeds shipped into the counties, in the upper Panhandle and Southwest Texas would be three-fourths of the regular published schedules, effective as of October 1 and to expire November 30, 1937.

The railroads agreed to apply to state railroad commission to put the lowered rates into effect.

The commission in orders of August 24, September 8 and September 23 instructed a reduction in the regular rates of 50 per cent on hay and similar feeds and 33 1-3 per cent in cottonseed cake and grain.

On application of the railroads
the commission was temporarily restrained by a Travis county district court from enforcing the orders, and last week an extended hearing was held on whether the injunction should be continued or vacated.
District Judge Roy Archer has had the matter under advisement.

County Agent E. W. Thomas and C. S. McGarrugh of Ochiltree county and other cattlemen and county agricultural agents, supporting the commission, contended the drouth situation was serious in many sections of the counties and conditions in every sense justified the lowered tariffs.

Travel between Perryton and Canadian is now being routed over the ryton were 60 miles apart by a travelable highway. The new cut-off is now being maintained by the state highway forces.

Missouri Farm Prepares for Big Event of Corn Belt—National Husking Contest

ON Nov. 4, on one of the largest farms in Saline county, Missouri, close to 100,000 people will gather for a show which they consider far better than any football game or world series.

They regard the National Cornhusking Championship as tops. And tops it is in many respects.

Wherever farmers gather in the great corn belt of the United States, the ultimate topic of conversation is the National Husking Championship.

It all started 14 years ago when an enterprising individual named Henry Wallace debated with friends the question of how much corn a man could shuck in any given time. The only way to decide was to have a contest.

So Henry Wallace, now secretary of agriculture, started the ball rolling. When entries from Nebraska and Illinois took part it assumed a national aspect.

EIGHT HUNDRED people came to see Fred Stanek, an Iowa farmer, win that first title.

Last year more than 100,000 people gathered in Licking county, Ohio, to see Carl Carlsen, also of Iowa, win the 1936 championship.

The sport has grown with mushroom rapidity. The 80-minute test of eye and muscle provides plenty of entertainment. A city dweller might think it monotonous for both spectator and contestant, but the high-speed stripping of ear after ear of corn from tall, dried stalks can be very exciting.

Armed with a short steel husking implement, the contestants sweep down their rows of corn, shucking it as rapidly as possible and bouncing it off the backboard of a wagon that follows them.

The tension can be terrific. Each state in the corn belt, including Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin, and neighboring states, sends one, two, or three champions. The partisanship is as intense as at any college football game.

Wives, sweethearts, friends—all follow as closely as possible the progress of their favorites. And not until the judges have gone through a lengthy checking and weighing process can the final results be determined.

LAST year's titlist succeeded his brother, Elmer Carlsen, who in winning the 1935 contest set a new record of 41.52 bushels husked.

The stand of corn on the Webber brothers' farm north of Marshall, Mo., where this year's event is to be held, is being made ready for some of the most spirited competition yet seen.

Newspapers will make much of the story, interest being so widespread. A simple enough event, with its lack of ostentation and commercialism, no admission is charged to the contest field. The cash value of the championship is a $100 first prize.

But it's just as much a show for the city folks as it is for their country cousins—and 100,000 people can't be far from right.

International Sunday School Lesson

The Quest for Truth

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Oct. 24
Text: Titus 3:1-11.

THE letter from Paul to Titus strikes as a very vital lesson into the problems facing a large number of Christians throughout the world today. Paul tells Titus to put his people in mind to be in subjection to rulers and authorities, to be obedient and to be "ready unto every good work."

Suppose there is a conflict between this subjection and obedience and the readiness unto every good work. In Germany today leaders of the church are in conflict with the government because they believe that Hitler is demanding what the state has no right to ask. In Italy there is no liberty of the individual against the dictates of Mussolini, but can one say that the will of Mussolini is the will of God? Men are being put to death in Russia because they are unwilling to submit to the dictates of Stalin.

Stalin, Hitler, and Mussolini are "rulers." They represent authority and they demand obedience. Does what Paul is asserting here demand that Christians must, as a matter of right, give obedience to such rulers, or is there a higher law of right affecting a man's relation to rulers and the state?

FORTUNATELY, the New Testament itself answers these questions, and reminds us that Paul's injunctions to obey rulers is to be taken subject to considerations of conscience and reason. There were times when these early Christians said, "We ought to obey God rather than men," when they chose to defy the law or the decree of the state, accepting imprisonment or persecution rather than going against their consciences.

There ought to be no mistake about this. Everyone who teaches this lesson in a Christian church ought to avoid very clearly the attitude that has too often been taken of approving of rule and authority, regardless of its justice and its right.

Nor are these matters settled simply by reference to dictatorships in Europe. There are times when even the government of a democracy may demand of the individual what he cannot conscientiously do. The individual ought not hastily to set his judgment against the judgment of society.

Cardinal Newman took the view that "private judgment, where it is not a duty, is a sin." That was an extreme view, but there is some truth in it. The individual must not be a slavish yes-man. But when he stands upon his rights of conscience, he ought to be very sure that he is standing on solid ground, that he is, in fact, reasonable and conscientious, and not just a crank or cantankerous person.

THE balance of this lesson offers no difficulty, or need of qualification.

To speak evil of no man should not mean that we are not to denounce the evil courses of men where they are evil, and where good is to come through the denunciation. But even toward sin and sinners we ought to show the attitude of graciousness and love. We cannot go too far in avoiding contentiousness and in cultivating gentleness.

When Christ comes into a man's life, old things pass away, and all things become new. His outlook is one of love toward his fellow man, and his purpose is to be righteous in all his words, acts, and relationships.

Equally wise is the advice to shun foolish questionings and contentions. A great Scottish church leader once said that the great need of our age is good controversy. Controversy has its place. It is a means of establishing better mutual understandings and larger conceptions of truth where men pursue it in the right spirit; but controversy defeats its purpose where it is blind and bigoted and contentious.

The peaceful quest of truth represents far more truly the part of the Christian.

During the storm, Capt. Ned Hearn, inset, was washed overboard, and saved his life only by grasping desperately at a trailing rope and hauling himself on board.

Beyond The "Lost Horizon"

Donald Colman and John Howard are seen above in a scene from Columbia's "Lost Horizon," produced by Frank Capra, which shows at the Ellis Sunday and Monday, October 24-25. The plane in which they have been kidnapped from Baskul has just crashed in snow-bound Tibet. The crash is considered one of the most thrilling scenes ever photographed.

TRA TRIUMPH IN POPULAR PARTY RUN AT ELLIS; THE LARGE CAST INCLUDES
MANY CELEBRITIES

What promises to be one of the most important screen events of the season takes place at the Ellis Theatre Sunday and Monday, October 24-25, when Columbia's Frank Capra production of "Lost Horizon" makes its awaited bow at popular theaters following its sensational nationwide roadshow tour.

Starring Ronald Colman, and featuring Edward Everett Horton, H. B. Warner, Jane Wyatt, Margo, John Carr, Thomas Mitchell, Isabel May, Sam Jaffe in the much discussed High Lama role, the picture is an adaptation by Robert Riskin of James Hilton's celebrated novel of the same name.

Basically, the story of "Lost Horizon" concerns five persons who are trapped in an airplane in China. When the plane crashes into the heart of unexplored Tibet, picked up by a band of Chinese, they are escorted to a perhaps the most unusual of the face of the earth—the valley of Shangri-La.

Enclosed securely by mountains impenetrable to the uninitiated, a setting of indescribable beauty and serenity, peopled by members of the wildest cult of modern times, and adventure fall to the lot of the five survivors, and soon, but one surrender to the utter beauty and rare loveliness of the Shangri-La.

The personalities involved in the making of "Lost Horizon" give the picture a distinguished advantage. On the technical side, there are Frank Capra and Robert Riskin, producer and writer of such prize-winning films as "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," "It Happened One Night," "Lady for a Day"; James Hilton, author of the original novel, who wrote "Goodbye Mr. Chips"; and Walker, noted photographer, who has been the greatest success; Harry Foreman, American explorer, author, who acted as advisor on the Tibetan phases of the film; and Ned Thomlin, internationally known composer, who wrote the musical score.

Among the actors, of course, Ronald Colman, star of such recent pictures as "Under Two Flags," "A Tale of Two Cities"; again "Lost Horizon" the English actor plays a role of sweeping adventure. Supporting the cast, is Edward Everett Horton, a star in his right, whose eccentric comedy roles have made him a favorite of the audience. H. B. Warner, veteran actor, who has been prominently featured in "Deeds Goes to Town," Jane Carr, who portrays the leading role opposite Colman, recently played the title role in "The

Canadian-Perryton Conference Battle Friday

DOPE FAVORS THE RANGERS TO WIN FRAY

BURK'S MEN IN FINE SHAPE FOLLOWING DEFEAT OF FOLLETT ENTRY IN FRIDAY'S CONTEST

Tomorrow afternoon on Ranger field will see another conference encounter come to Perryton in the hopes of hurdling what now appears an obstinate barrier to the conference title when the Canadian Wildcats tangle with Coach Burk's Rangers.

The Rangers are favored to win this tussle, having disposed of Follett last Friday, after the pre-game read that it would be a hard tussle, and possibly an upset.

Barring accidents during scrimmage for the Rangers they should take Canadian by about six touchdowns (and that isn't any Mammy Okum dope either).

The Rangers will outweigh the Wildcats some as a whole, however not as much as has been reported. Most of Burk's men have had more and stiffer experience on the turf than Canadian's squadmen, which will mean more confidence.

However, Coach Waggoner sends word that his Wildcats don't know what it means to let up before the last whistle sounds, and his spinners, passers, reverses and laterals will keep the Rangers in a quandry all the time.

The game will be called at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon, and he who misses being there will forever regret his carelessness.

Punts—Perryton 2 for 38 yds., Follett 6 for 145 yds.
Penalties—Perryton 1 for 5 yds., Follett, none.
Yards lost in scrimmage—Perryton 14, Follett 35.
Yards gained in scrimmage—Perryton 194, Follett 26.

RANGERS WIN EASILY FROM FOLLETT HERE FRIDAY 25-0

BURK MEN SCORE DURING LAST THREE QUARTERS WITH PERFECTED RUNNING ATTACK

Local football fans weren't disappointed last Friday afternoon when the Perryton and Follett teams met and clashed on Flowers field here at Perryton, the Rangers winning 25-0.

Judging from the poor start at the first of the season it was thought by some that the Rangers played over their heads when they defeated the highly touted Shattuck team in the mud that preceding Friday, but they came back to demonstrate to the rest of the home folks that mud was their dish and did they relish it last Friday!

During the first quarter nothing of a spectacular nature took place, except that Laubhan, punting for the Follett entry, outdistanced Schroeder, Ranger kicker, considerably. In fairness to Schroeder, however, during that quarter, he was kicking crosswise to a rather stiff wind, carrying the ball out of bounds on each attempt. There was no punting during the remaining three quarters by Perryton.

During the second quarter pay dirt was reached twice and an extra point from goal kick for thirteen points for the Rangers and nothing for Follett.

Both touchdowns were made from Follett's 1 yard line. Lewis took the ball from his tailback position to go over right guard for the first counter, but failed to convert the extra point when he attempted to carry the ball across on a smash through the line. McWilliams chalked up the next touchdown from practically the same spot a little later when he plowed through the center of the line, and C. Flowers converted the extra point with a beautiful goal kick.

One hundred and five yards from scrimmage were piled up by the Rangers during this first half, all of it from straight football, with the exception of one completed pass for nineteen yards, the only attempt via the aerial route during the first half.

In the third quarter, Lewis skirted his own right end, behind the best blocking possible to cross the line standing up, but C. Flowers' attempt at conversion was blocked by Glasgow, who surged through from his guard position.

Again in the last period, Lewis plunged over from Follett's one-yard line to make the last touchdown of the game. Again, C. Flowers' placement kick was wide and no good.

Only once did the Follett boys make a first down, and five of those yards were a penalty against the Rangers for off-side play.

During the afternoon's work, the Follett boys were "in the red" so far as their ground gained from scrimmage was concerned. At the end of play they had lost seven yards more than they had gained all afternoon. Many times the Ranger forward wall sifted through the Follett line to grab the ball carrier for losses of from one to eight yards.

Lewis was the standout in the Ranger backfield last Friday, but plenty of credit for his gains must go to the remainder of the backfield and the line for the good blocking they gave him.

The most of the Ranger reserves saw action during the last half of the game, during which they accumulated five first downs.

Following was the starting lineup:
Perryton LE Davidson
Lilly LT Kilpatrick
Johnson LG A. Laubhan
Morris C Matlack
Gyger RG Glasgow
Horne RT Myer
Garrison RE Arthurs
C. Flowers QB T. Laubhan
McWilliams HB Hell
W. Flowers HB Terrell

VINES POINTS OUT TWO TENNIS "MUSTS"

"Two things make a bang up tennis player," says Ellsworth Vines, brilliant court star. "The fun he has and the condition of his muscles." To his program for keeping muscles and interest in top form Vines attributes the fact that in last winter's tour of exhibition matches with England's ace, he won 32 to 29 matches.

"In professional tennis," he says, "I have to be in fighting form every match. There's only one way to do it—through keeping up that great old amateur spirit of doing the thing for the fun of it." Vines lays his day's ground work before ten o'clock. "I get up at six-thirty, play a stiff set for nothing but the sheer fun you get out of using your muscles hard in the sharp early morning air. Then I come in, take a brisk shower and rub-down and finish up with a hearty rib-sticking breakfast with emphasis on cereal, eggs, milk, bacon, biscuits, food with real muscle making value."

This regime keeps him in A-1 physical condition and it irons any quirk out of his stroke early in the day.

Phillips Continues Toward Grid Title

Whittenburg.—"Who will stop the Blackhaws?" is the question going around, following Phillips' fifth straight victory including their win over Groom, 44 to 6, here Friday night.

The Blackhaws, accompanied by plenty of support, journey to Claude for a conference game Friday afternoon. The Claude Mustangs tied Clarendon but were beaten by Tulsa, White Deer and Panhandle. Unless there is a terrible dope upset, the Blackhaws should win.

Phillips boosters are looking for a battle royal the night of Oct. 29, when Panhandle plays Phillips at Whittenburg. This game may decide the conference championship.

Wheeler Loses To Lakeview

Wheeler.—The Lakeview Eagles came down to earth long enough to defeat the Wheeler Mustangs 18 to 12 in a hotly contested game on the local gridiron Friday night.

Wheeler's aerial attack was much more effective than the line smashes through center which they tried repeatedly.

Painter, fullback, and Merrel, halfback, did some good ball carrying on end runs for the visiting team.

The local herd will play Shamrock next week on the Wheeler gridiron.

Higgins—Spectators were thrilled Friday afternoon when the inexperienced Higgins Coyotes held the veteran Spearman football team scoreless in a 0 to 0 tie.

Although the day was cold and rainy, the business section of town closed during the game and the sidelines were crowded. A good representation from Spearman was also present.

The newly organized Coyotes have bravely encountered some tough and powerful teams this season and are not daunted by their scoreless record. The encouraging outcome of Friday's game will spur them on to greater efforts.

Texhoma Red Devils Continue Win Streak

Texhoma, Okla.—The Texhoma Red Devils continue to win their way towards the championship of the Panhandle conference. Friday of last week they defeated the Stratford Elks by a score of 13 to nothing.

Friday they met the fast Boise City gridsters on the Texhoma field. Boise City has the heavier team, but Captain Osborn, who plays the fullback position, and Jerry Thompson, co-captain and quarterback, will rely on strategy and fast playing to keep them in the lead.

Oklahoma A. and M. Frosh Lick Aggies

Goodwell, Okla.—The Oklahoma A. & M. freshmen defeated the Panhandle Aggies, 7 to 0, here Saturday afternoon before a large homecoming crowd.

The Frosh scored in the last few minutes of the game on a long pass. The game was played on a muddy field. The Frosh outshined the Aggies.

MILLIONAIRES INCREASE

Washington, D. C.—A group of 41 individuals with incomes of $1,000,000 or more in 1935 paid $41,000,000 of their $74,000,000 gross income into the U. S. Treasury last year. In 1934, 32 incomes of a million or more paid taxes of $32,000,000. The net revenue from income taxes in 1936 was 16 per cent greater than in 1935.

London, England.—In the course of a Parliamentary debate on the cost of living, Sir Arnold Wilson, Conservative, drew attention to the fact that the cost of British funerals had more than doubled in 20 years, and that the cost of dying was quite as important an item in the family budget as the cost of living.

Sarron, Armstrong to Make Final Claims to Featherweight Title in Garden Bout

BY IRVING DIX

AND so, maybe, on October 29, we'll have this world's featherweight box-fighting championship settled once and for all—or shall we say for the time being.

On that particular date, young, tough Mr. Petey Sarron of the Birmingham, Ala., Sarrons, will climb into the ropes at Madison Square Garden, to do battle with equally young, but perhaps a little tougher Mr. Henry Armstrong of Los Angeles.

They're only featherweights are these boys, but they can and probably will throw a terrific amount of leather. In other words, they're just what the paying customers are looking for.

Young Petey claims the title. Young Henry also claims the title. They've decided that only one of the two should remain in legitimate and final possession of this little prize. It took your Uncle Michael Jacobs to figure the best way out, and so Mike brought 'em together.

PETEY'S claim to the crown was based on his National Boxing Association recognition in the 126-pound division. This recognition was based on the fact that Petey had belted the daylights out of N. B. A. titlist Freddie Miller of Cincinnati, one fine evening down in Washington, and although the state of New York never had considered Freddie the champ, Petey immediately fitted himself out for the imaginary crown.

And then Petey got the wanderlust. Birmingham, Washington and New York seemed to lose their appeal. So Petey took himself off to the fistic wars in Europe and South Africa, where he was followed by Freddie Miller. Just to keep the habit going strong Petey again whacked Freddie around quite vigorously in Johannesburg.

But while Sarron was collecting fancy luggage labels and seeing the sights, the copper-colored Henry Armstrong was building himself a reputation as the finest fighting man in the world, pound for pound.

Maybe he is. Henry is a high-class scrapper.

At any rate, he has knocked over the best boys in his class on the coast, most notable Petey Sarron, left, of Birmingham, claims the featherweight title, but so does Henry Armstrong, right, of Los Angeles. Henry will be the favorite when they decide this matter once and for all, Oct. 29.

And Henry rates the edge. Fast, clever, he hits like a mule can kick. From the waist up he looks like a middleweight, so powerfully built is his torso.

Petey is a stayer. He's rugged, hard to knock off his feet and can absorb a lot of punishment. But maybe not enough.

Henry, of the Los Angeles Armstrongs, says there is room for only one man in this championship business. He's out to kill off his competition.

McLean Defeats Memphis 21-6

McLean—McLean and Memphis battled on even terms here Friday night as far as first downs and yardage gained from line of scrimmage were concerned. The McLean came off the field with a 21 to 6 victory.

The first score came early in the first period as Ralph Wells, 205-pound tackle, blocked a Memphis punt deep in the Cyclone territory where it rolled out of the end zone for a safety and two points. In the same period, Humphreys, Tiger half, plunged the line for the first touchdown.

McLean scored once more in the first half. Braxton, running hard behind perfect interference, scored standing.

In the second half, Watson completed a pass over the center of the line to Norman who had a clear path for a counter. Nicholson converted. The score stood McLean 21, Memphis 0.

Memphis opened up with a wild passing attack.

Rain had made the ball slick, but the Cyclones started from their own 25 and passed all the way down the field for their only touchdown. The passing arm of Pounds, Memphis quarterback, kept the stands wild. All of Memphis' yardage was made by passing and the majority of them were intended touchdown passes.

Panhandle Takes One From Claude

Panhandle—The Claude Mustangs, of Coach Bill Gibson's, galloped into Panhandle Friday night, and showed the shivering spectators a ball game. It was Panhandle all the way. In the first half, and the second half won to the Mustangs. The score was 24 to 14.

Panhandle turned on the heat in the first half, scoring three times, taking all the breaks and fumbles, and holding the Claude team short of a first down. Shortly after the second half started, the Panthers scored again. From here on the Mustangs took charge.

The Mustangs ripped off two first downs, and then Howe, 160 lbs., of greased lightning, took off on a 22 yard sprint for six points. A few minutes later, Howe shortened his trip to 25 yards but it was good for a touchdown. Doshier added both extra points with his kicks.

For the Panthers, Sparks scored twice on 6 yard plunges. Crawford, best ground gainer of the evening, scored from the 12 yard marker while Smith other half, plunged two yards for the other marker.

Reports from the Shattuck, Okla. hospital state that John Stubbiefield of the Booster station, who underwent a serious operation there last Wednesday is recovering nicely. His friends wish him a speedy recovery.

NEWS of the WEEK by FOSTER GILROY

BANKER ANALYZES STOCK SLUMP

Rochester, N. Y.—While Wall Street puzzled over reasons for the recent loss in stock prices, Winthrop W. Aldridge, brother-in-law of John D. Rockefeller and Chairman of the Chase National Bank, told the local Chamber of Commerce that the slump was directly due to "high income taxes and the very high rates of taxation on capital gains... that men of substantial means cannot afford to engage in any kind of active trading in securities." He pointed out that "few men, however legitimate their transactions, welcome continual governmental inquiry into them."

BRITISH KEY TO ORIENT

Hong Kong, China—While Great Britain's desire for world peace has almost created a loss of "face" in handling her differences with Japan, the fact is that the flow of British and Czechoslovakian munitions through this port may enable Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to prolong his resistance to Japanese invasion until Japan's resources are imperilled. In London naval and military experts say that it will require two years to bring British strength to a point where she may take a determined stand in the Far East.

PREHISTORIC MAMMOTH FOUND

Moscow, Russia—Perfectly preserved for 20,000 years in the frozen wastes of Wrangel Island, north of Siberia, the remains of a long-haired mammoth, complete as to hide, flesh, bones and vital organs, will be brought here for scientific study. Mammalogists believe that the analysis of its stomach will determine even the nature of the last meal the huge beast consumed, so well is it preserved.

YOUNG MUSSOLINI RETURNS

New York City—Vittorio Mussolini, 21-year-old oldest son of Il Duce, ended a month's American tour during which he visited Hollywood and the White House, then took ship denying specific rumors that the movie colony had snubbed him so thoroughly that his projected picture venture with an American producer collapsed; also that President Roosevelt's speech advocating "quarantine of aggressor nations" had so angered the Italian dictator that he ordered his offspring back home.

AIR YACHT PLANNED

Seattle, Washington—The last word in aerial yachting has been ordered by Capt. George Whittle, California rector, at a cost of $300,000. It will be a modification of the Boeing "flying fortress," with sleeping accommodations for seven, including a master's suite and four guest bed rooms. During the daylight hops thirteen passengers can loiter in its roomy lounge or dine from the

The Swallows Leave

Is Annual Broadcast Over NBC Hook Up Saturday Morning, Oct. 23 Eleven Forty-five

If you will tune in your radios at 11:45 Saturday morning for the National broadcast you will hear the departure of the swallows from the mission of San Capistrano in California. These birds, who build their nests in the eaves of this mission and live here unmolested a greater part of the year, fly away each year at the same time and return in the same manner, a behavior very puzzling to bird lovers.

So confident is NBC of the annual departure of the 5,000 mysterious swallows, that announcer Buddy Twiss will be on hand to describe the flight and the microphone will pick up the actual sound of their exodus.

C. B. BARBER RETURNS FROM SUCCESSFUL DEER HUNT

C. B. Barber of the Waka community, brought home proof of his success when he returned Friday with part of an 800 pound elk, which he killed. He and a friend, Ray Hayter of Anthony, Kans., enjoyed an eight day hunt in northwestern Colorado and this elk was the "big moment" of their trip. Mr. Barber is proudly displaying the twelve point horns, which measure several feet across and are a prize for any hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Glisson, Tulsa, Okla., were guests Monday night of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Evans. Mrs. Evans who is a sister of Mrs. Glisson, accompanied them to Guyton, Okla., Tuesday, where they will visit relatives several days.

resources of a complete electric galley. Four 1,100-horsepower Wright engines will speed it across the continent in 12 hours, with only one stop for refueling, or permit a 3,300-mile cruise at a leisurely 180 miles-per-hour.

FEMININE COMMANDMENTS

New York City—The 12,000 girl students of Hunter College will have an opportunity to take an eight-weeks course presided over by Mrs. Katherine B. Meigs, director of the Postal Telegraph Personal Service Bureau. Among her "commandments for working girls" are: Thou shalt not use scented powder as a substitute for soap and water; Thou shalt not wear flashy clothes, screaming colors, regardless of what the Duchess of Windsor wears; Thou shalt not perfume thyself so that strong men reel when they pass; Thou must keep thy love light outside the office. Says Mrs. Meigs: "You can't teach men; they are always sure they're right."

THE WEEK IN BUSINESS

August exports were $277,695,000, compared with $178,975,000 a year ago. Imports of $245,707,000 represented an increase of $52,643,000 over August 1936. Agriculture Adjustment Administration is buying eggs to avoid a price collapse due to an abnormal surplus. About 11,290,000 cases of eggs were in storage October 1st, against 8,578,000 a year ago. Eggs bought to sustain the market will go back to state relief agencies. Chain stores face further curbs when Congressman Patman introduces a bill forbidding any chain to operate in States other than in which it is incorporated; also banning interlocking personnel between chains in different States.

In the projected changes being considered in the income tax laws, the Capital Gains tax may be modified and somewhat increased. As soon as decision is rendered on the railroads' demand for increased freight rates, the Interstate Commerce Commission will study the carriers' request for an increase in passenger rates from 2 to 2 1/2 cents per mile, with the returns of the round-trip for fare plus half-fare. Since these moves are designed to reimburse the road for recent increase in wages, both measures stand a good chance of being granted.

BRITISH MIDAS GIVES AGAIN

London, England—Lord Nuffield, "Henry Ford of Great Britain," has given another $5,000,000 to Oxford University for a new college devoted to post-graduate social studies, bringing to $37,000,000 his total gifts to educational and charitable purposes in less than two years. Starting as William Richard Morris, a bicycle mechanic, Lord Nuffield ranks as one of England's richest industrialists, and makes not only lower priced cars, but others in the higher brackets. Because last week he forgot his ticket, he stood meekly in line with thousands of others to pay a $1.25 admission fee to the British Motor Show.

LONG MASQUERADE UNCOVERED

New York City—Unable to land a man's job, William M. Richeson of Albany, N. Y., ten years ago rigged himself up as a woman and successfully held jobs as waitress, nurse, laundress and burlesque chorus girl. Six years ago he "married" a Brooklyn plumber, who never discovered his sex, but when he accosted a policeman his masquerade was discovered. The judge sentenced him to 90 days for accepting $30 a week for six years from his husband.

PRESIDENT'S SON-MAKES GOOD

Washington, D. C.—So successfully did James Roosevelt pinch-hit for Marvin McIntyre in handling the newspaper "boys" on his father's western trip that several Washington correspondents have suggested to the President that "Jimmy" permanently succeed Stephen Early as public relations secretary when the latter retires to private business. With about 80 percent of the country's press opposing New Deal policies, those close to the White House expect an early Presidential blast against newspaper editors, along the lines of critical remarks about lawyers and economic royalists. It was noticeable that the President in his last radio talk praised the radio and movies for recent improvements in public education but made no mention of newspapers.

JAPAN CURRIES FAVOR

Washington, D. C.—Conscious of popular feeling against Japan's invasion of China, Japanese sources have not only distributed among local correspondents a brochure defensive of her aims, translated in almost incredible English, but have contributed for the first time golf trophies to two of the leading local country clubs.

NAVY SCENTS SABOTAGE

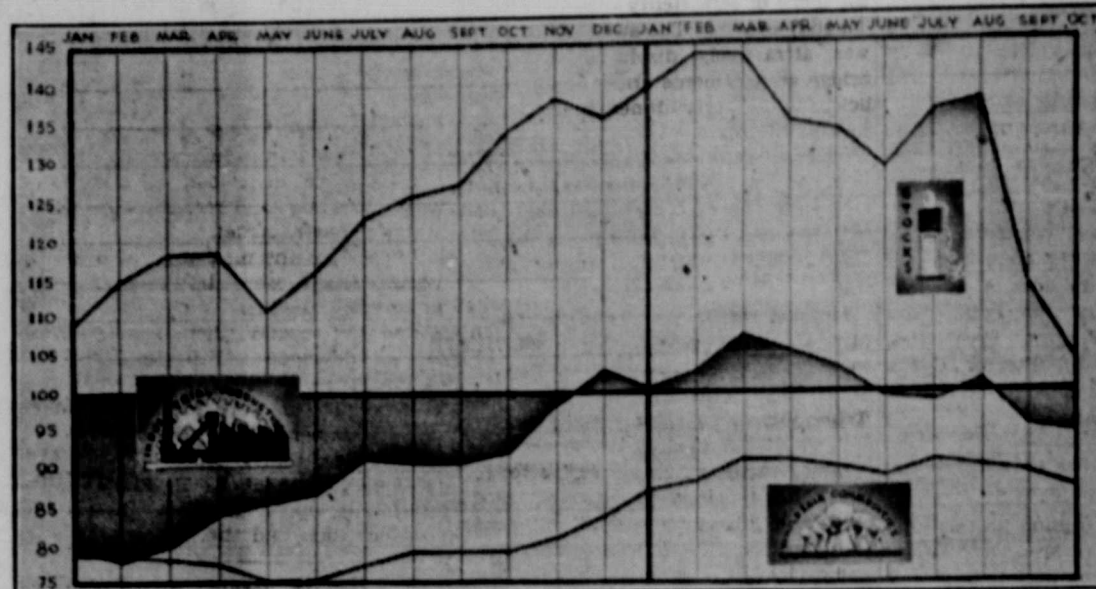

Quincy, Mass.—Navy officials are more concerned than they admit over the finding of tools in the turbine gears of the new cruiser Vincennes. Twice before naval craft have been damaged both here and at New York Naval Yard, and inquiry had revealed nails driven into main power cables so as to cause fires from short-circuits.

SUPREME COURT'S DIVISION

Washington, D. C.—With all danger of "packing" remote, the Supreme Court is expected to show marked divisions between Liberal and Conservative leanings at its present session. Recent sharp questioning of lawyers by associate justices have indicated this trend, with only Chief Justice Hughes, as peacemaker, and the "freshman" Justice Black remaining aloof.

THE NEWS-WEEK IN PICTURES

THE STOCK CHART HAS ECONOMISTS PUZZLED

With 1926 levels as an average (100), neither industrial production nor commodity prices during the last 21 months seem to justify the violent drop in stock prices indicated in the above chart. The "paper" loss in security prices as quoted on the New York Stock Exchange is estimated at $7,590,000,000 in September alone, yet Government analysts as well as private sources failed to attribute the unexplained fall in security prices to any logical development in basic industries. General financial opinion credited the recession to a "levelling-off process" in anticipation of an active boom in prices.

IL DUCE STUDIES GENERAL GOERING'S LION

One of the few impromptu shows put on during the visit of Italian Premier Mussolini to Reichsfuehrer Hitler of Germany was this exhibition of a pet lion cub at the country estate of Colonel-General Goering, Hitler's "Number One" man (in white coat). Il Duce next to the right.

A. F. OF L. LEADER TAKES THE OFFENSIVE

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, not only read John L. Lewis's C.I.O. out of A.F.L. ranks at the Denver Convention, but made public a committee report condemning the Federal National Labor Relations Board as little more than an apologist for "lawlessness" of C.I.O. activities.

THE COUNTY FAIR DRAWS ITS THROGS

More than two thousand county fairs are held during early Autumn throughout the country. New England's oldest, at Danbury, Conn., held its 60th meeting and attracted 130,000 visitors, who watched championed teams pull five times their own weight in granite blocks piled high on "nose-boats."

Nearly all cars in the low-

The smallest car on the market

September Dip Due to Manufacturing Pace

This map represents business conditions as of October 1, 1937, as shown in "Nation's Business", official publication of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

The Map
Increased shading in the Map reflects the generally slower pace of any lines of business and industry during September.

The Barometer
The lateness of the opening of fall trade, the reduced pace of steel and other manufacturing activities and the lower level of commodity prices contributed to the September dip in the Business Barometer.

MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR PUBLIC AT ANNUAL WTSC EVENT: BUFFALOES TO MEET TEACHERS

Canyon, October 19.—"Mamma don't 'low no drinkin' in here" but the bar tenders at the Homecoming night club at West Texas State College are reported to be dressing several varieties of soft drinks in labels which will give much realism to the oldtime bar to be set up in the western room at Cousins hall.

The bar tenders will include Irby Carruth and Seymour Rusk. The head waiter will be Dr. B. P. Pronabarger, head of the English department.

From the kitchen a variety of sandwiches and candies will be sold by cabaret girls in festive costumes. These girls will have appropriate souvenirs, including carved Buffalo hats or collar pins designed for the occasion by Durwood Brown, an ex-student.

Visiting "grey beards" will be "koshed" by such notables as Klondike Lou and Artful Annie (alias Goveella Goodman and Helen White Moore) from the Yukon. Par-flung at the night club, which has attracted the interest of Dead-eye Pete, Smokey Joe, and many another picturesque oddtimer.

There will be an oldtime dance orchestra arranged by H. O. Price of Canyon, who hints that a bit of mountain music wouldn't go bad with the vittles. From Pampa will come a dance club group to do authentic Colonial dances. Mattie Kirk (Mrs. Irv E. Duncan) an amuseur, is making up the party, oldtime singing, solos, and table dances will be included in the general program. Many of the entertainers will be in costumes of the earlier days.

The exhibit being arranged by Miss Isabel Robinson will include paintings by ex-students in various parts of the Panhandle. This will be hung in the coronation room, where a fine arts program will be given and where, as a finale, the queen of the homecoming will be picked from among the contestants by secret judges. The queen will be crowned and the other contestants will form a beauty court which will be honored on various homecoming occasions.

Another portion of Cousins hall will be called Little Mexico. Bingo and other games of longstanding favor will be played, Mexican and gypsy dances and music will be enjoyed, and several solos will be given by Fidel Reyes of Amarillo.

Bob Clark of Erick, Okla., magician of national fame, will be among the ex-student entertainers. Oscar Croson of Pampa will be another. Miss Helen Hickman will be gypsy fortune teller.

Hosts at the western room will be Prof. L. P. Sheffy and J. Evetts Haley. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lassers will be in charge of Little Mexico. In the fine arts room will be Mr. and Mrs. Wallace R. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Miss Elva Pronabarger, Miss Ada V. Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Ingham.

Admission to the Homecoming night club will be free to everyone. A public speaking program at 11 p. m. Saturday, October 23, a John Alder barbecue at noon, a football

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 24.

The Golden Text is: "He that shall endure until the end, the same shall be saved" (Matthew 24:13). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them" (Revelation 14:13). The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "As death findeth mortal man, so shall he be after death, until probation and growth shall effect the needed change" (page 291).

Stop Diphtheria

Parents Should See That Children Are Immunized Early In Life. Consult Physician

Austin, Texas, Oct. 20—State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox urges all parents of children between the ages of six months and ten years who have not been immunized against diphtheria, to take them to their family physician and have this done at once.

The first ten months of 1937 saw 1,635 cases of diphtheria reported to the Texas State Department of Health. This is an increase over 1936's figures, and shows the need of immunization of children in this age group.

It was not many years ago that parents dreaded diphtheria because of inability of the medical profession to either prevent or cure the disease. But today when we know both the cause and the cure there is no obstacle but negligence which will prevent the complete elimination of the disease in Texas.

Diphtheria is the most dangerous to the very young children, and it is especially important that immunization against it be given early in a child's life. In young children there is practically no reaction to the in-

Beware Quack Cures

State Department of Health Urges Prompt Attention and Proper Treatment of Cancer

Austin, Texas, October 14.—"The increasing number of persons in Texas dying from cancer justifies a warning at this time against quacks and so-called cancer cures," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"While newspapers as a rule, do not carry the cancer type of advertising, there are many other ways for misinformation to reach the public. Undoubtedly there are persons who, being thus deluged from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims, while others not having cancer are fleeced out of much money for a cure," Dr. Cox continued.

There are but two ways of treating cancer. First, by surgery; and second, by the use of radium or X-ray. Treatment must be started early and in the hands of a competent surgeon. Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors and is used in nearly two-thirds of the cases. X-ray or radium is used to advantage in one-third of the cases, frequently the two methods are combined. Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves and diets are valueless.

Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

until beyond a permanent cure. No hope should be placed in fake cancer prophets and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to your physician of any symptoms which may be suspected to be the beginning of cancer, should be relied upon. Those symptoms are: any unusual bleeding from any body opening, any lump in the breast or other part of the body; any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion. These conditions may not be cancer, but sometimes they are forerunners of the more common types of the disease. Where cancer is suspected, do not delay, but consult your family physician at once." Dr. Cox admonished.

Conservative, Modern Home

Before you are an unusual dwelling that the average American family will regard as original and efficient in character and design, but pleasingly economical in cost. It is a perfect modern home with true architectural features, such as a wide open porch and an abundance of windows that harmonize with the low, broad lines of the general design.

ALTERNATE ARRANGEMENT FOR BASEMENT STAIRWAY

A Glimpse Behind the Scenes

An important phase of the behind-the-scenes activity in Michigan's giant automobile industry consists of the arrival of raw materials by rail and water from all quarters of the globe. In the picture, great magnetic hoists, lifting nearly two tons of ingots at a time, are building a mountain of "pigs" beside the steamship dock. These are for use by Chevrolet's huge Saginaw Grey-Iron Foundry in turning out Chevrolet cylinder blocks.

GOVERNOR ALLRED PLEAS FOR REVENUE IN HIS RADIO TALK

Austin, Oct. 17 (Special).—Governor Allred charged in a fireside chat Saturday evening that the most powerful lobby in Austin legislative history confidently awaited the verdict of no taxes while the "destiny of our unfortunate people rested in the hands of the State Senate."

"Unless this Legislature within the next eight working days raises additional revenues," Allred declared, "payments to our needy old people will be absolutely suspended for two or three months after November 1st. Not only that, but unless this Legislature raises additional funds, even after the payments have been completely suspended two or three months, the amount of each check will have to be cut down."

"In addition to the urgent need for more money for our aged, we are obligated by a vote of the people to help the blind and to assist underprivileged, neglected, unfortunate children! As yet, the Legislature has not provided a thin dime for this purpose!"

"The house has passed a tax bill on natural resources just as it did during the regular session. The tax bills they passed then died in the Senate State Affairs Committee; and these senators who are now loudest in their condemnation of me were members of that committee."

"The tax bills died in committee without the remainder of the senators ever being given an opportunity to vote on them. The bill the lower house has just passed is now before the same committee. So I say that the destiny of our unfortunate people is in the hands of the State Senate."

"The biggest, most powerful lobby Texas has ever witnessed is gathered in Austin, complacently and confidently awaiting the verdict, 'no taxes.'"

"Out over the state, others, unable to come to Austin, some of them without voting power, are watching too."

Denying that his program levied taxes upon the people, Allred said, "I have only proposed a reasonable tax upon those who are able to pay; upon a few great pipe line companies, upon those who are draining our oil, sulphur and other irreplaceable natural resources."

"The truth is that most of them who condemn me and who say we do not need new taxes, are themselves advocates of laying heavy taxes upon the people. These people are the biggest taxers of all. They are the advocates of a general sales tax to be levied upon the bread and beans, blue shirt and overalls, milk and medicine—all the necessities of life."

The governor placed his economy record beside that of the Senate and said that his recommendations against increased appropriations in the regular session had been ignored while "those senators who criticize me and cry through the press that they want to economize, voted for every one of the appropriations of which they now complain."

Allred pointed out that he had vetoed seven million dollars in additional appropriations "while these senators then voted to override my veto and tried again to give to Harris County three and a half million dollars of the taxpayers' money."

"The record shows that I am stronger for economies than any one of the small group in the senate who howled to high heavens for ten days that if economies had been submitted to them they would work wonders. On the tenth day they declared by their votes that I had already submitted the subject of economies to them. But it remains to be seen whether they will perform in a statesmanlike manner all the wonders they promised.

"How can this small group in the senate economize at the expense of the old folks when we haven't provided enough money for them as it is? How can they provide by economies for the blind, and for dependent children and for teachers, when they haven't levied a single tax, for any of these purposes?"

The cry against taxes at the special session was raised by special interests, said the governor, who charged a campaign of propaganda had been raised to frighten the people after he had announced his program of taxing pipe line companies and other natural resource groups.

"These death bed converts to economy, these advocates of taxes upon the poor, these men who indict social security as a dolt, do not represent the people of Texas. To them I say that when we have placed a just tax upon our natural resources, 85 percent of which goes outside the state, when we have passed an income tax levied upon the earnings of twenty pipe line companies who made over seventy-eight million dollars net profit in one year, when we have done these things, then it will be time to talk about a sales tax!"

"I didn't have to call this special session. I could have let things slide. I could have taken the easy route; and these very interests would have called me great. But I've gone about the state, and I've seen misery and want. I've received letters from needy old people, from the blind and from others who point to the squalor and poverty of underprivileged homes."

"I've done my part. I've called this legislature in special session and made my recommendations. For these things I shall continue to fight! But the destiny of our unfortunate people lies in the hands of the Legislature of Texas. It is now up to them."
