Curt Gowdy, the old pro of the microphone from Wyoming, pulled a real boo-boo the other day during the telecast of the Dallas Cowboys-New York Jets football game when he observed that the taxpayers of Irving provided that palatial football facility called Texas Stadium. Obviously, the phones began ringing quickly because a couple of plays later, Gowdy confessed that he had jumped at a conclusion—that no tax money was involved in construction of Texas Stadium, but it was revenue bonds that financed the venture.

And it is a rather sweet venture for Clint Murchison owner of the Cowboys, according to a Houston sports writer, who says Murchison "makes Roy Hofheinz look like a door-to-door peddler."

Murchison's own construction company built the $27 million stadium. Moreover, he has a substantial interest in the company that handles the concession, gets half of the parking lot profits, and owns an interest in the insurance company that has a contract on the stadium.

Word that the City of Snyder has another "waiting list" for containerized garbage collection service comes as no surprise. The containerized (Dumpmaster-type) service undoubtedly is one of the most desirable innovations in this field in ages, and Snyder is a pioneer in its use for residential service. When it was first developed, most cities considered it only for commercial zone service where the demands were greatest. But in extending it to residential areas, sanitation has become much nearer an actual fact than ever before.

The last shipment of containers was exhausted a few weeks ago, but the demand for expansion of the service goes on. So, the city is ordering 100 more containers. The service is self-sustaining, since there is an extra charge to the users, but it appears to be a real bargain, nevertheless.

C.H. DeVaney, for many years a practicing farmer at neighboring Coahoma, who later became President of the Texas Farm Bureau, received the TFB Distinguished Service Award some three weeks ago at the organization's annual convention at Amarillo. This brought to mind the fact that two men who lived "down the road a few miles" from each other (in this case US 80 or Interstate 20) were top leaders in the Texas Farm Bureau for many years. DeVaney, who now lives in Washington, D.C., where he is on the legislative staff of the American Farm Bureau Federation, succeeded Walter Hammond of Tye as TFB head in 1962 after serving nearly two decades as vice president. Hammond had been president of the Texas organization for many years prior to that.

HOUSE AND SENATE DEADLOCKED

Foreign Aid Program Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — A drive for stop-gap extension of foreign aid into next year was in the works today with the program legally out of business since midnight and the House and Senate deadlocked over reviving it.

By a 214-179 vote, the House passed a $3-billion foreign-aid money bill with some $400 million for Israel and almost none for India, Pakistan and Ecuador. The vote came hours before the program's present spending authority expired Wednesday night.

But Senate leaders refused to consider the money bill without a break in the deadlock over a separate bill to reauthorize foreign aid. They conferred with House leaders instead on simply extending the present program to next February or March.

Foreign-aid backers are looking for the impasse over a six-month Indochina-war deadline in the Senate foreign-aid authorization bill to be broken after President Nixon's February announcement of troop withdrawals from Vietnam and his Peking summit meeting.

The peacemakers did not include Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, author of the six-month war deadline, who opposed putting off a vote on the war halt with interim foreign-aid extension.

"I will not cave in," Mansfield said.

The 214-179 House approval of the $3-billion foreign-aid appropriation came after leaders rose one after another, appealing to the House not to kill the bill.

"We cannot just plunge out of this business," said Speaker Carl Albert.

Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford called the Indochina security aid in the bill vital to continued withdrawal of U.S. forces from the war.

The bill would withhold all but humanitarian and refugee relief to India and Pakistan until they stop fighting. And the House shouted down all $15.5 million for Ecuador because of its seizure of 52 U.S. fishing boats in the past year.

A $100-million cut in America's United Nations contribution—the entire 1972 U.S. share of the UMN.'s own major foreign-aid program—was upheld by the House. The vote was 268 to 119 against restoring $50 million of it.

But the House increased Peace Corps funds $8 million to a total $68 million on a 68-35 vote and restored $150 million for the Inter-American Development Bank by voice vote.

India, Pakistan Claim Advances

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

India claimed today its troops had pressed to within 25 miles of Dacca, that thousands of fleeing Pakistani soldiers were trying to cross the Ganges River to that East Pakistan capital, and that enemy planes had been driven from the skies.

Indian troops were reported holding their ground in Kashmir on the western front.

Pakistan's eastern command in Dacca countered with reports of fierce fighting on most fronts in the east and said "enemy thrusts are still being successfully countered by Pakistani troops."

An Indian army communique reported its troops had advanced to the Meghna River 25 miles from Dacca.

Lt. Gen. Jagjit Singh Aurora, commander of India's eastern front, said in Calcutta that thousands of Pakistani troops under air attack were trying to reach Dacca or the port of Chittagong in the east in an armada of sampans, barges and river boats.

Of these eight Pakistani battalions, about 7,000 men, were attempting to cross the Ganges from the west to make a stand at Dacca, he reported.

Aurora told reporters that Indian forces were making a swift advance and were isolating many Pakistani troops.

India earlier reported the capture of the major towns of Comilla in the east and Sylhet in the northeast. Pakistan's command in Dacca was sill reporting fighting in Jessore 24 hours after foreign newsmen from Calcutta visited the southwestern town and found the Pakistani army had fled.

The Indian government announced it had ordered limited bombing pauses for the next two days to permit the evacuation of foreign nationals from Dacca and Karachi.

2,190 On Permanent Voter Roll

Voter registration in the first year of permanent registration reached the 2,190 figure this morning at the Scurry County Tax Office in the Hugh Boren and Son building on College Avenue.

Don Adams, tax-assessor-collector, said that under a new law passed by the state legislature, he is able to deputize people to assist in filling out voter registration applications.

"If there is anyone who wants to assist in filling out the applications, he should come by my office, so that I can deputize him," he said.

Adams pointed out that he received a block of application forms earlier in the week that had to be returned since the person who sent them in was not an authorized deputy. Senate Bill 51, Amended Article 5.20a gives tax assessor-collectors authority to deputize persons to help with voter applications.

The applications are available at the tax office.

"If anyone writes and asks us to mail him an application form, we will be glad to do so," Adams said.

If voters do not register by Feb. 1, 1972, they will have to wait 30 days before becoming qualified to vote. However, qualified voters may register any time during the year.

"Registration is a little ahead of last year," Adams said. The tax office is the only place where registration certificates can be issued.

Authorized deputies may send blocks of applications, and individuals who fill out applications may mail in their own applications.

EAST-WEST PARLEY TOP OF AGENDA

NATO Meet Opens

BRUSSELS (AP) — The foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization opened their annual winter meeting today, with the proposed conference with the Soviets on security and cooperation in Europe at the top of their agenda.

The East-West parley Moscow wants seems unlikely before 1973. The Western powers have made plain they would not start to prepare for a meeting until the new Berlin agreements are firmly nailed down, but Moscow refuses to sign the supplementary Berlin agreements East and West Germany are now working out until West Germany ratifies its 1970 nonaggression pact with the Soviet Union.

The West German parliament is unlikely to complete this before next summer. If preparations for the security conference don't start until then, the conference probably could not begin until the next year.

Authoritative sources said the 15 NATO ministers in their usual conference communique Friday would strike an optimistic note on the situation in Germany and the idea of a conference with the Russians. But on the subject of mutual reduction of armed forces in Europe, they have less ground for optimism.

There still has been no Soviet invitation to exploratory talks two months after NATO appointed former secretary-general Manlio Brosio of Italy to represent it. The communique is expected to remind Moscow that the alliance is still interested in mutual, balanced force reductions and is ready to start talking.

One economic issue may be settled in talks parallel to the main meeting. U.S. Secretary of State William Rogers has brought with him Nathaniel Samuels, deputy undersecretary for economic affairs, to negotiate with Axel Herbst of the West German foreign ministry on the U.S. bid for $2.4 billion worth of help with the expense of keeping 200,000 U.S. troops in West Germany for the next two years.

The West German aid is expected to include loans, purchases of U.S. weapons and planes, and for the first time in such agreements West German contribution to the U.S. budget.

House Approves Food Bank Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, blocking bids to curb federal payments to giant agricultural combines, sent to the Senate today a massive food-bank bill that the President's critics claim is needed to stave off a Farm Belt depression.

Efforts to gain consideration of a $20,000-per-farmer annual limit on federal subsidies for cotton, wheat and feed-grain growers, sharply lowering the $55,000-per-crop individual-payment ceiling built last year, failed in parliamentary moves Wednesday night.

After crushing Republican-backed amendments, the House overpowered the President's farm-policy supporters and voted 182 to 170—at three minutes past midnight—to:

—Set up a $1.5-billion national food bank of wheat and feed grains, at an annual average storage cost of $215 million.

—Raise wheat and feed-grain price supports by 25 per cent, thus increasing the total grain-crop value by more than $2 billion, through a mandatory two-year boost in minimum loan-rate levels to protect producer income. Estimated cost to the government is $281 million in the year ending next June 30.

The food bank would lock up "an important part of the huge surplus of wheat and feed grains presently burdening the American market," Agriculture Committee Chairman W. R. Poage, D-Tex., told the House. The bank would be stocked with 300 million bushels of wheat and 25 million tons of feed grains. The grain could be released for emergency use, such as in the case of a natural disaster.

The price-support hike, Poage said, is needed "because many grain farmers are on the brink of financial ruin." This legislation, he added, might provide enough additional income "to possibly prevent utter chaos on the farm."

But Republicans repeatedly attacked what they described as a highly costly federal project that they said could yield more mischief than relief. Republican opposition is expected to grow in the Senate, where the legislation appears set to receive an enthusiastic welcome from Democrats.

13 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS

Dacca Orphanage Bombed

DACCA (AP) — High-altitude Indian bombers today made a direct hit on a Dacca orphanage which housed 400 children and a staff of 100.

A stick of four bombs landed in the middle of the Moslem Mission home. Frantic rescue workers clawed into the wreckage with their hands and have so far recovered 17 bodies. Many boys were reported missing.

The children living there, 300 boys and 100 girls, were 7 to 16 years old. A staff of doctors and missionaries also lived on the premises.

The founder of the orphanage, Mohammed Ral mann who said he had been an associate of Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's grandfather in Calcutta, said the bombs landed at 3:15 a.m.

"I heard a sound and thought it was a helicopter," he said. Then suddenly the explosions came—one, two , three, four ... children were screaming. It was dark and we couldn't see them in the mud and under the wreckage.

"The girls were safe because they were in a building at the back. But many boys are missing.

"We can't have a roll call because our registers were destroyed."

Rahman, his head cut by flying debris, said at least one bomb lay unexploded in the mud.

The bombs blasted craters more than 20 feet deep and more than 20 feet wide. Bodies lay in the mud covered with bright cloth.

Tremor Felt In Denver

DENVER (AP) — A mild earthquake that registered 3.3 on the Richter scale struck the northern part of the city and suburbs at 10:28 p.m. Wednesday, but police reported no injuries or property damage.

Most who felt the tremor said it rattled windows and shook their floors for a brief second before subsiding.

"It sounded like a crack and rumble, then the whole house shook," said Mrs. Harvey Nicholson of Northglenn.

Lack of trust forces confrontation at home

By Abigail Van Buren

[c 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.]

DEAR ABBY: I am a 20-year-old girl. I have a good secretarial job, my own car and I live at home and pay room and board.

My parents frequently go away on weekends, and my boy friend comes over, and sometimes stays until after the late show on television. Everything is on the up and up, and I never lie about what time he goes home, but now my parents say I can't have him over unless they are home.

Abby, this is ridiculous. Dad says it "looks bad" for the neighbors. Mom says in a few years I'll be married and gone, but they will have to face the neighbors and all that gossip.

I told my parents if I couldn't have my boy friend over unless they were home, I'd move out, and they said if I moved out, I could never set foot in their house again.

Abby, that's the way we left it. I would like your opinion of the situation. "HAD IT AT 20"

DEAR HAD IT: I think you should be allowed to entertain your boy friend at home whether your parents are home or not. And for them to have laid down such a rule because of what the neighbors might think is narrow-minded and shortsighted. As well-intentioned as they are, they are literally driving you out of the house.

DEAR ABBY: About two years ago, an older male relative started taking a great deal of interest in our little girl. It never entered my mind that something could be wrong because this man is a well-known, well-liked prominent citizen.

After putting four or five little incidents together, they all added up to one thing. Child molesting! When it finally dawned on me I didn't know who I hated more. The man, or myself for having been so stupid.

Because I never actually caught him, we decided the best thing to do would be to watch him very carefully, to make sure he never was alone with our child for even a minute.

I hope he reads this. I will be happy when he dies, then I won't have to worry anymore. Please print this so other mothers will be on the lookout for sick people who are around them every day. Sign me DAZED

DEAR DAZED: Waiting for him to "die" is no solution. [He may outlive you.] And making sure he isn't alone with your child "for even a minute" isn't the answer either. What's to stop him from molesting other children? Confront him with the facts as you know them and insist that he get professional help. He is sick, sick, sick.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the lady who wondered if it would be all right to post a sign near her doorbell, requesting guests to please remove their shoes before entering her house. [She had just installed wall-to-wall carpeting and wanted to keep it nice.]

I think it's a great idea! I was in Japan early this year and it's a custom to remove one's shoes before entering the house. I was wearing high lace-up boots, and did a lot of lacing and unlacing, but I didn't mind it one bit. In fact, it felt good to take my shoes off and walk around in my stocking feet.

Needless to say, the Japanese have the cleanest carpets in the world. So, tell people to quit being so stuffy. To remove their shoes and discover a whole new world at their feet. BAREFOOTER

Bunche Dies At Age 67

NEW YORK AP - Ralph Johnson Bunche, 67, undersecretary-general of the United Nations and winner of the 1950 Nobel Peace Prize for mediating an end to the 1949 Middle East war over Palestine died today in New York Hospital.

Death came at 12:40 a.m., the hospital said. No cause of death was given but Bunche had been ill many months.

The grandson of an American slave, Bunche rose to world prominence in 1949 when he hammered out armistice agreements between Israel and the Arab nations that ended the Palestine War.

He later oversaw both the U.N. military and civilian operations in the Congo when the organization went into that African nation in 1960. He also played a key role in 1956 negotiations that led to the stationing of the U.N. Emergency Force in Palestine after the Suez crisis.

At the time of his death, Bunche was the highest-ranking American on the U.N. secretariat and had charge of special political affairs.

Bunche's hand in settling the 1949 Palestinian War came at a crucial time in the history of the then-fledgling United Nations.

He took over as acting mediator of the dispute after assassins gunned down the U.N. mediator, Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, in Jerusalem and also killed the man at his side, wrongly assumed to have been Bunche.

Refusing the protection of an armed guard, Bunche gathered all parties on the Island of Rhodes and wrote the settlement that finally ended the fighting after seven weeks.

Col. Mohamed Ibrahim Seif Eddine of Egypt later hailed him as "one of the world's greatest men," and Israeli diplomat Walter Eytan called his efforts "superhuman."

Bunche, himself, marked the occasion by presenting each delegate at the Rhodes talks with a reproduction of ancient Greek pots made in a local factory.

Cold Front Moves Inward

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The cold front which swept across the Panhandle and Northwest Texas the last 24 hours moved into Central Texas early today while a warm front moved through East Texas.

There is a little bit of weather for everyone.

Northwest Texas was under travelers warnings earlier today as freezing rain and snow covered the roads with ice, making driving conditions hazardous.

Moderate thundershowers along the frontal system dumped additional rains on already well-soaked Northeast Texas causing a danger of flash flooding.

In Southeast Texas, a heavy fog blanketed the areas reducing visibility to less than one-half mile. Light rain was also reported.

Elsewhere cloudy skies and rain prevailed.

There was a 50-point spread on the thermometer as the Panhandle shivered in the 20s and the Gulf Coast lingered in the 70s.

The National Weather Service siaid the frontal systems will move slowly eastward today. Skies will remain cloudy and snow is expected in Northwest Texas.

Thundershowers will fall along the front and rain or drizzle will plague the rest of the state.

Young Farmers Plan Building

FLUVANNA — Fluvanna Young Farmers discussed and drew up plans for a building to house the organization's fire truck at a special meeting Tuesday night.

Buddy Drum and Don Wills volunteered to pick up the building materials.

The resignation of R.D. Lewis as treasurer was accepted and Jeff Martin was elected to fill the position.

The program was presented by Buddy Stewart, who recently attended the National Young Farmers Institute at Greenville, S.C.

Refreshments were served to 13 members and one guest.

Money Bag Is Found

Dick Moles, manager of the Sonic Drive-In, is an honest man.

City Police gave an account of an unusual incident involving Moles early this morning, as follows:

Moles had driven up to Snyder National Bank to make a deposit in the night deposit box at 12:53 a.m. He saw a bank bag laying inside the foyer of the bank. He picked it up and discovered that it contained $4,287.66 in cash and $25,265.94 in checks. The bag had been cut open at the bottom, and a deposit slip in it indicated $20 had been taken from it.

Moles took the bag to the City Police station, and officers turned the money over to E.W. Schrader, bank president.

The money had been deposited in the night deposit box by Richard English, 2700 Avenue F, manager of Furr's Supermarket, and Milton Bruce Diggs, 901 Twenty-seventh Street, an employe of Furr's. The deposit had been made at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday. It was a mystery how the bag got out of the night depository and into the foyer of the bank.

Probe Clears Gen. Donaldson

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
AP MILITARY Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has decided after a five-month investigation to dismiss charges that Brig. Gen. John W. Donaldson murdered six Vietnamese civilians.

The Associated Press learned a formal announcement was due later in the day from Ft. Meade, Md., where the military equivalent of a grand jury investigation, an article 32 hearing—was conducted.

The decision completely exonerating Donaldson of all charges was made by Lt. Gen. Claire E. Hutchin Jr., commanding general of the 1st Army. Sources said Hutchin determined that evidence did not support the charges which included six counts of murder and assault against a seventh Vietnamese civilian.

Donaldson was the highest ranking officer to be accused of murdering civilians in the Vietnam war and the first U.S. general in 70 years to be charged with a war crime.

Earlier this year the Army cleared two other generals of involvement in the coverup of the My Lai massacre but these charges did not involve war crimes. However, the two officers, Maj. Gen. Samuel W. Koster and Brig. Gen. George H. Young Jr., subsequently received administrative punishment, which included demotion for Koster.

A 47-year-old West Point graduate, Donaldson was alleged to have shot civilians on the ground in Quang Ngai province while flying over them in a helicopter on various occasions between November 1968 and January 1969. The accusations were made by helicopter pilots.

At the time Donaldson was a colonel commanding the Americal Division's 11th Infantry Brigade.

Donaldson's operations officer, Lt. Col. William J. McCloskey of Wilkes Barre, Pa., was accused of murdering two Vietnamese civilians.

Sources said the grand jury-type investigation in McCloskey's case was not expected to be completed until next month.

Both Donaldson and McCloskey were formally charged June 2; the Article 32 hearings began two weeks later.

It was understood the investigation in the Donaldson case involved testimony from more than 80 witnesses. The Army's investigation officer, Maj. Gen. [illegible], submitted his findings and recommendations to Hutchin on Nov. 24. It was Hutchin's responsibility to determine whether a court martial was warranted.

As commander of the 11th Brigade, Donaldson succeeded Col. Oran K. Henderson, whose trial on charges of covering up the 1968 My Lai massacre is expected to be completed next week at Ft. Meade.

The My Lai massacre and the incidents allegedly involving Donaldson were not related. Donaldson, however, was a prosecution witness in the Henderson trial, testifying on a matter involving the search for records in the brigade.

Until the charges were made, Donaldson served as a key planner for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He was reassigned to Ft. Meade to await outcome of the investigation. Dismissal of the charges should enable him to continue a career that has included several prestigious assignments which have marked him for higher command.

A native of Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., Donaldson was graduated from West Point in 1944.

Oranges Are Tops In Citrus Fruits

Oranges top the list in popularity of all citrus fruits in U.S. households, report Extension foods and nutrition specialists at Texas A&M University. According to a nationwide consumer survey conducted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, nine out of 10 homemakers reported using fresh oranges and orange juices in a one-year period. Seven out of 10 used fresh grapefruit and lemons during the same period.

Homemakers interviewed in the survey indicated tht they thought oranges were the best of the citrus fruits for health, taste and family appeal. They considered grapefruits as good for health, low in calories and high in Vitamin C, and lemons as good for flavoring.

Barrie's Jackets For Skinny Women

By ANN HENCKEN
AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Skinny women should feel full of ginger in Scott Barrie's short, punchy jackets over slacks for spring.

But heavier women would feel like muffin creatures in them.

The skinnies will be high-stepping and proud in his backless halter blouses, dolman sleeve tops and his black peddle pusher outfits shown Wednesday. They may snap up the open-crown hats and high wedgies worn with the outfits.

The broad-beamed will avoid the jackets with three-quarter length sleeves, puffed up like cotton candy. They'll avoid the high, bound waistlines with pants.

The short jacket looks good, but it gives wide women no disguise when it's worn with slacks. There they are, with no length of sweater to pull over the hips. For the high waisted, there's no low slung belt to break the long line from waist to thigh.

The hippy would be happier with Barrie's long, butter yellow off-the-shoulder evening dress with raised hem line in front. They may like his long white lace dresses with wrapped waists.

Or if they must have a short jacket, perhaps his three-piece grey slacks suit with grey vest and white shirt.

They could take a chance with his gambling print dresses, sporting big dice. They might try his strapless floral print dresses with pull-on elasticized sleeves.

Four out of every five ducks begin life in Canada.

Tricia Doesn't Feel Generation Gap

NEW YORK (AP) — Tricia Nixon Cox says, "I don't think there is any generation-gap tension. I don't feel that there is any generation gap."

Mrs. Cox made the remark Wednesday while accepting a Salvation Army Association award that praised her parents, President and Mrs. Nixon, for raising their children free of "generation-gap tension."

The citation of merit cited the first family and its "children who are wholesome and well-mannered and who, with their husbands, reflect a lack of generation-gap tension and a refreshing absence of self-importance."

Quiet Saw

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. W.L. Minor looked out her window Wednesday morning to gaze at her beautifully decorated 15 to 20-foot cedar Christmas tree.

Only it wasn't there on the front lawn. Someone had sawed it down and taken it with him.

Mrs. Minor, who said she heard no noise during the night, was left only with a six-inch stump.

Carolyn Is A Grease Monkey

DENISON, Tex. (AP) — While Carolyn Goodwin's husband cruises around the Vietnam area in an aircraft carrier, she's flat on her back repairing automobiles. She may have started a trend.

Carolyn, 19, is the first female to enroll in automobile mechanics here at Grayson County College.

The main reason she's taking the course, she said, is because she does a lot of driving. "If I'm ever stranded, I want to know what to do."

And .... "My father-in-law is a mechanic and I help him a lot. I just picked up the habit."

Mrs. Goodwin set some wheels turning in the college administration after she enrolled in the course and other girls became interested.

Walter Oyler, the mechanics instructor, said several girls have made inquiries about a course, and Carolyn said, "I think a lot of girls are interested."

She added that most of the males in her class "would probably like their wives to take the course so they would know more about the cars they drive."

The only trouble Carolyn has had in the course, she said, was with the heavy lifting and getting a tire on a wheel so it would hold air. "I had the most frustrating time trying to get the tire on straight," the blonde said with a frown.

On the lifting, "the guys pitch in and help her," Oyler said.

"We plan to offer a for-girls-only basic course in the spring," Oyler added. "It'll cover such things as inspection of automobiles, drive line, suspension and steering and the elemental checks to be made if something goes wrong on the road." The course also will have a few tips on how to buy new and used cars.

Oyler failed to say who would do the lifting in a for-girls-only class, but he looks like a strong man who could take a lot of lifting when his distaff mechanics weaken.

Free Toll For Poolers Working

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Toll-free passage for car-poolers may be the answer to easing traffic congestion during the commuter rush hour, say San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge officials after the first day of the experiment.

Cars with three or more persons in them were channeled into two special lanes Wednesday and did not have to pay the usual 50-cent toll for westward crossing to San Francisco. Eastbound traffic to Oakland already is toll-free.

"It worked very well, a lot better than we expected, with no major problems," said a bridge official.

While there were fewer car pools than expected, he said, the average westbound traffic of 23,000 cars between 6 and 9 a.m. was down to 22,455 as some 1,262 car pools were logged through the toll gates.

Even so, there was some congestion due to the change in traffic pattern, he said. The experiment of letting car pools through without paying was conceived as a way of relieving traffic congestion during the commuter rush hours.

Charles Cieloha, a bridge employe who was assigned to monitor the project, said the reaction from the car pool groups was enthusiastic.

"They come through smiling and waving at us and making "V" signs with their fingers," he said.

"It is amazing the number of little Volkswagen beetles that come through with four or five people packed into them."

In deciding whether the experiment is a success, authorities said they must weigh an estimated loss of $80,000 a year in tolls against improvement in traffic flow the plan can achieve.

Dorm Plans Being Drawn

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP) — Plans are being drawn for the first dormitory to be built at Temple Junior College since its founding in 1926.

The dorms to house about 120 students, will cost in the neighborhood of a half-million dollars.

Dr. Hubert M. Dawson, president of the college, already has received verbal assurance from the Department of Housing and Urban Development that the agency will provide an annual interest grant to pay the interest on indebtedness for the building above the 3 per cent level. This would amount to $476,000 over a 30-year period.

Reef Tournament Set Friday

LA LAKERS Win 18th Straight

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"As we win more games, we become more confident, we work harder and hopefully play better," said Los Angeles Coach Bill Sharman. "Winning also takes pressure off the team because our position in the standings is secure."

If Sharman's philosophy is correct, the Lakers have to be supremely confident and extremely relaxed—and apparently they are.

The rampaging Lakers tied the second longest winning streak in National Basketball Association history, holding off the surprisingly stubborn Houston Rockets 125-120 Wednesday night for their 18th consecutive victory.

The triumph enabled Los Angeles to equal the 18-game winning skein compiled by the New York Knicks two seasons ago and put the Lakers within two of the NBA record of 20 set last season by Milwaukee.

The Lakers can move within one victory of tying the Bucks' mark by beating Golden State tonight at Oakland. The Warriors were the last team to beat Los Angeles, edging the Lakers 109-105 on Oct. 31.

Elsewhere in the NBA Wednesday, Boston whipped Cleveland 126-107. Philadelphia downed Cincinnati 115-109, and Baltimore walloped Portland 115-97.

The Rockets, whose 6-22 record is the second worst in the NBA, gave Los Angeles unexpected resistance. They led 105-104 with 7:38 remaining and were not beaten until the Lakers' Jerry West hit six free throws in the final two minutes.

West finished with 33 points, but yielded game scoring honors to teammate Gail Goodrich, who poured in 42 points.

'This team is winning because of enthusiasm, pride and dedication to hard work," said Sharman. "And also, this is one of the most intelligent group of players I've ever been associated with."

John Havlicek's 28 points, 12 in the first quarter, and Jo Jo White's 27 paced Boston's victory and moved the Celtics 2½ games in front of the idle Knicks in the Atlantic Division.

Kevin Loughery scored 11 straight last-period points for Philadelphia, enabling the 76ers to stave off Cincinnati. Loughery wound up with 20 points, one less than teammate Bob Rule. Cincinnati's Nate Archibald was high for the game with 26 points.

Auto Club Member Dies

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Everett R. Schlegel, 56, Plainfield, Ind., a member of the technical committee of the U.S. Auto Club, died Wednesday at Methodist Hospital here.

He had participated in USAC activities for the last 15 years at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Schlegel also was an employe of Eli Lilly and Co. and a member of the Indiana Midget Racing Association.

Irving's Tigers will be favored to win the Seventeenth Annual Canyon Reef Basketball Tournament, which will be held in the Scurry County Coliseum Friday and Saturday.

Irving is one of three Class AAAA teams in the tournament. The visiting Tigers won their own tournament last week, beating Irving Nimitz 75-66 in the finals. The sparkplug of the Irving team is Tom Weilert, a 6-6 junior varsity letterman, who averages 21.7 points per contest. He'll get plenty of help from David Johnson, a two-year letterman senior, who averages 16.7 points per tilt. Irving is 9-2 for the season.

Snyder's Tigers are expected to give the Irving team the most competition in the lower bracket. Coach Bob Moore's Tigers are 5-2 for the season. Probable starters are post men Jerry Brooks (6-3) and Kent Horsley (6-8), wingmen Tommy Washington (5-11) and Dub Preston (6-5) and guard Fred Liner (6-2). Horsley and Preston are seniors; the others are juniors. The Tigers have one of the most experienced teams in the tournament with 10 varsity lettermen, including the five starters.

Big Spring (6-3) and Brownfield (5-1) are expected to battle it out for a finals berth in the upper bracket. The Class AAAA Steers have two lads who are two-year lettermen—seniors David Carter (6-3) and Mike Randle (6-5). They also have two one-year lettermen seniors in Mike Smith and David Newman.

Brownfield has seven senior lettermen and one junior letterman. Leading their attack will be Duane Baccus, 6-5 senior, and Van Garner, 6-6 senior. The Cubs and Steers both have good height.

Records of the other teams are Hereford (4-5), Dunbar (3-6), Estacado (0-8) and Phillips (2-5).

The first round Friday pits Brownfield against Hereford at 3:30 p.m., Irving against Phillips at 5 p.m., Dunbar against Big Spring at 7 p.m., and Snyder agianst Estacado at 8:30 p.m.

The winner of the Irving-Phillips game will meet the winner of the Snyder-Estacado tilt at 12:30 p.m. Saturday. The winner of the Brownfield-Hereford match takes on the winner of the Dunbar-Big Spring clash at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Games on the losers' side of the bracket are set for 8 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Saturday with the consolation finals on tap for 5:30 p.m. Saturday. The battle for third place will get underway at 7 p.m. Saturday with the championship finals set for 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

Hereford has four lettermen, Dunbar has four, Phillips has only one, and Estacado has three. The Whitefaces, however, have been busy with football and are just now jelling into a tough competitor.

Dunbar's Gary Howard, a senior letterman, and Larry Collins, a junior letterman, are considered two of the best performers in the tournament.

Estacado will be led by James Lewis, a senior letterman, and Kenneth Williams, a senior from the junior varsity.

Tickets for the tournament cost $1 for adults, 75 cents for college students with activity cards and 50 cents for students through high school age for each session.

School officials are predicting this year's tournament will be as exciting as any held here in the past.

Landry Tells About Upsets

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Coach Tom Landry believes the stunning upsets rocking professional football can be attributed to the balance of talent and the era in which we live.

"Everybody will lose games from time to time because the talent is spread pretty thin," Landry says.

He adds "Sometimes the best team won't even be in the Super Bowl because you've got to have a lot of luck nowdays besides having a good team."

But he suggests there might be a more deeper meaning from the roller-coaster rides of near perfection to dismal failure from week to week.

"We're in an era where the top teams are getting beat because it's hard to sustain your momentum from week to week," Landry says, "I'm not sure what it is.

"Perhaps, it is the approach to things of our young people ... They don't have as much a driving force as they used to ... There's a lot of complacency on the athletic field like everywhere else. We are in an affluent age where everything comes easy. There's a tendency not to work hard. In athletics, you must work hard or you'll get your head knocked off."

Dallas has won five consecutive games in posting a 9-3 record. If the Cowboys defeat the Giants in New York Sunday they clinch a wild card berth.

A&I Lands Two On All-America

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Strong-armed quarterback Gary Wichard, a millionaire's son from C.W. Post College on Long Island, was named to The Associated Press Little All-America football team today along with super running backs Terry Metcalf of Long Beach State, Bruce Laird of American International and Gardy Kahoe of Delaware's national small college champions.

Wichard, who probably will be one of the top quarterbacks picked in the National Football League draft next Feb. 1, completed 145 of 271 passes for 2,287 yards and 23 touchdowns and scored six times himself. He was intercepted only nine times.

Metcalf set an NCAA College Division record by scoring 29 touchdowns and his 1,673 rushing yards broke the Long Beach mark set in 1969 by two-time Little All-American Leon Burns, now with the San Diego Chargers.

He also punted for a 37-yard average, caught 15 passes for 130 yards and returned 13 kickoffs for more than 21 yards per return.

AIC's Laird, who played both ways in the past, stuck to offense this season and set a New England record of 1,402 yards. Kahoe was the No. 1 ground-gainer on the top small college rushing team. Delaware averaged 371.2 yards per game, with Kahoe accounting for 121.6. He also scored 23 touchdowns.

Two members of the Little All-America backfield—Wichard and Kahoe—will face each other on Saturday in the Boardwalk Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J.

Arkansas State, Grambling, Tampa and Texas A&I placed two men apiece on the select team, which consists of 18 seniors and four juniors.

The rest of the offense shows ends Jerome Barkum of Jackson State and Eldridge Small of Texas A&I, tackles Lionel Antoine of Southern Illinois and Ron Mikolajczyk of Tampa, guards Wayne Dorton of Arkansas State and Solomon Freelon of Grambling and center John Hill of Lehigh.

On defense are ends Kelvin Korver of Northwestern of Iowa and Grambling's John Mendenhall, tackles Larry Brooks of Virginia State and Steve Williams of Western Carolina, guard Sammy Gellerstedt of Tampa, linebackers Harry Gooden of Alcorn A&M, Jim LeClair of North Dakota and Jimmy Youngblood of Tennessee Tech and backs Cliff Brooks of Tennessee State, Levi Johnson of Texas A&I and Dennis Meyer of Arkansas State.

Antoine, a 6-foot-7, 245-pound giant, is expected to be one of the first offensive linemen drafted by the pros. This season, he started for Southern Illinois at three positions—tackle, tight end and defensive end.

As a tackle, he graded out above 76 per cent. As a tight end, he caught 10 passes for 105 yards. As a defensive end, he made five tackles behind the line of scrimmage. All that while having to adjust from position to position.

Nitschke To Be Honored

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The one - time tough street kid from Maywood, Ill., will almost, but not quite, be at peace with his violent world Sunday.

It will be "Ray Nitschke 'Day" at Lambeau Field, where 56,263 fans for the moment will forget the travails of the Green Bay Packers to honor one of their most popular players.

Horn-rimmed, baldish, almost professorial in business suit, Nitschke's granite visage in uniform reflects the leather burns of uncounted muggings of National Football League ball carriers for 14 years.

Sunday will bring a millenium of sorts—a college scholarship fund in his name.

Rated Terrapins Fall To Cavaliers, 78-57

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Yes, Maryland, there is a Virginia.

The Virginia Cavaliers were bigger than life Wednesday night, burying the fifth-ranked Maryland Terrapins 78-57 in college basketball.

Leaving no doubt as to their authenticity, the Cavaliers clouted the highly-touted Terps with a 67 per cent shooting percentage that built a 13-point halftime lead.

The bruising battle of Atlantic Coast Conference clubs highlighted a busy night of basketball, although only one other ranked team was in action.

Louisville, the nation's No. 16 team, ripped Dayton 88-60 behind guard Jim Price and forward Ron Thomas.

Kansas, led by Bud Stallworth's 34 points, pounded Notre Dame 88-72; Danny Beard poured in 23 to pace Kansas State to an 87-60 success over Texas and East Carolina defeated Davidson 67-57 for the first time in its history.

Junior Barry Parkhill, who scored 21 points overall, directed the hot-shooting Cavaliers to a 42-29 halftime lead over the heavily-favored Terrapins.

The crowding Virginia offense shut off Maryland star Tom McMillen. The 6-foot-11 sophomore sensation could only score four points, several below his average.

A six-point binge midway through the second half moved Virginia's margin to 22 points and Maryland was out of it by that time.

The winners finished with a 58.6 shooting percentage in the game.

Price had 12 of his 26 points and Thomas delivered 13 of his 14 in the second half as Louisville pulled away from a 32-31 halftime margin over Dayton's Flyers.

Stallworth's point-making helped Kansas' Jayhawks rub out a 34-33 halftime lead by Notre Dame; Beard hit nine of his 11 first-half field goal attempts to spark a commanding 48-27 halftime edge for Kansas State and East Carolina defeated Davidson for the first time in 10 tries as Earl Quash scored 20 points.

Other results Wednesday night: Niagara 71, LaSalle 70; Dartmouth 86, Harvard 68; Brown 86, Yale 68; Massachusetts 93, Holy Cross 82; Providence 76, Buffalo State 58; Seton Hall 94, UC-Irvine 86; Navy 86, Johns Hopkins 57; St. Joseph's, Pa., 88, Mt. St. Mary's 62; Wake Forest 75, William & Mary 60; Wisconsin 92, DePauw 69; Chicago-Loyola 92, Loras 54; Oklahoma City 102, SMU 87; Wichita State 70, Colorado 55 and Air Force 87, Concordia, Minn. 73.

Westerners Test Odessa Tonight

The Western Texas College Westerners will have their work cut out for them when they take on the Odessa Junior College Wranglers at 7:30 p.m. today in Odessa.

The Wranglers have six sophomore lettermen—Nate Hearne (6-0) of Andrews, Tim Dry (5-10), Alvin Bailey (6-2) and Quincy Wallace (6-4) all of Odessa, Allan Carter (6-5) of Detroit, Mech., and Mike Henderson(6-0) of Baton Rouge, La.

WTC will be operating without the services of their leading scorer and rebounder, Walter Hanibal, 6-4 freshman from Fort Worth Kirkpatrick, who sustained a fractured ankle in the game against Schreiner Insitiute Monday night.

Coach Sid Simpson listed probable starters as post men James Houston (6-3) of Charlotte, N.C., and Ralph Jackson (6-5) of Brownfield Union, wingman Jimmy Hill (6-4) of Amarillo Tascoas, and guards Johnny Neff (5-11) of McAdoo and Steve Sparks (5-8) of Krum.

The Westerners will be seeking to improve on a 4-5 record.

Wallace, one of the sophomore lettermen for Odessa, is averaging 31 points per game. However, the Wranglers at the beginning of the week had only a 1-7 record.

Both teams are about equal in height.

Other Westerners expected to see a lot of action are guard Mike Simpson (5-9) of Denison, wingmen Cliff Gardner (6-2) of Tahoka and Gary Henderson (6-5) of Amarillo Tascosa, and post man Joel Dyess (6-4) of South Garland.

Opinions Play Big Role On Wall Street

By JOHN CUNNIFF
CAP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Wall Street thrives on opinions, often valuing them more than facts. It's own opinion of itself, the public's opinion about business, business' opinion of the future.

Following are reports on each:

Gerald M. Loeb, one of the grand old men of the securities business, author of two investment classics, "The Battle for Investment Survival" and "The Battle For Stock Market Profits," broker, investor, wit, is also a man of strong opinions.

For years he has been giving advice and a lot of people have profited by it. But day in and day out the advice business sometimes is trying. When you are uncertain you cannot admit to confusion, but sometimes your forecasts are so obviously hedged that they give you away.

"We're all guilty of it," says Loeb. "Anybody who gives advice knows how difficult it is to give good advance regularly-and to accept it."

This holiday season Loeb has decided to send a greeting card that, well, sort of looks into next year. It's theme is a Zodiac containing advice for all investors.

It begins with a general greeting. "A Good And Adverse Year" it says in language as straightforward as that sometimes used by astrologers and investment advisers.

"I do not believe in astrology," Loeb says, but confesses, "one wonders if it can be any worse than the boondoggling that goes on in Wall Street. The gobbledegook of market advisers seems no different from those of the astrologer."

For those born under the sign of Taurus he advises that "Dialing a wrong number when calling your broker is desirable." And for Aries: "Investment decisions made while in the shower can bring possible profit."

Aquarians are informed that 'Discussions can be enlightening if ignored." Scorpians are told that "Buying in the a.m. can be unlucky, in the p.m. downright dangerous." Caprisorns: "Cancel any orders now. This can be helpful."

Loeb sort of doodled his idea onto paper during some lulls at the San Francisco office of E.F. Hutton, where he works after having officially retired sometime in the dim past.

"I showed the idea to my wife and she thought it was funny and so I thought others would see something in it. You don't think it will offend anyone, do you?"

"Most people will understand the intention is humorous," he was told. But as an afterthought the listener recalled a memorable line from a freshman psychology teacher: "As a man doodles, so he thinks."

The public's view of business which generally is reflected in Wall Street, is shown in a survey that The Wellington Management Company conducted among its mutual fund shareholders.

Among other questions, they were asked their opinion on the following:

"I would be interested in purchasing shares of a mutual fund investing only in corporations that contribute to society beyond the traditional goal of maximum profit."

If you think in this age of growing social consciousness that investors wish to express themselves through stocks you may be shocked. It's an old story—a matter of putting the money where the mouth is.

Only 8.5 per cent checked the line that read "strongly agree." Another 19.9 per cent said they generally agree, 21.6 put themselves in the "not sure" category, 31.1 said they generally disagreed and 18.9 said they strongly disagreed.

And finally, the third ingredient in the opinion market—what business thinks of the future. It's really hard to say. Wall Street reports that businessmen are talking a lot of goddledegook.

Junior Editors Quiz on D.D.T.

QUESTION: What is D. D. T. and what are its effects?

* * *

ANSWER: D. D. T. is the abbreviation of the chemical dichlorodsphenyl-trichlowethane, a powerful insecticide which was introduced by a Swiss chemist, Paul Mueller in 1939. It has been used extensively since 1944 in the fight against typhus, encephalitic malaria, diseases which are carried by mosquitoes or lice. It has been effective in controlling 40 to 50 different kinds of harmful insects including Japanese beetles and termites. It has helped in saving the cotton crop from the boll weevil.

At first D. D. T. was hailed as a modern day miracle. It was considered necessary to successful farming and for curbing disease. The enthusiasm for D. D. T. has waned since it was found that it killed many other things besides bugs. It has been blamed for the death of fish and young birds. Conservationists blame D. D. T. for the decline of the American bald eagle and the peregrine falcon.

The trouble with D. D. T. is it may be effective for 15 years, lingering in the ground and in the water. It is gradually being phased out by the government. It was not as effective against bugs in recent years, since many insect species have built up an immunity against it.

Few Hunters

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — The two-day Panhandle prairie chicken hunt drew few hunters this year, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

Hunters totaled only 116 and bagged only 179 chickens.

They confessed firing 664 times to down the birds.

Shotgunners saw an estimated 2,060 birds during the 326 hours they spent in the field.

The Pittsburgh Penguins have the lightest team in the National Hockey League. They average 175.9 pounds.

Coffee Is Mom's Specialty

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — What can you say about a 20-year-old girl who is a far more accomplished cook than her mother?

You can say "hooray!" and turn over to her the mixing spoons, apron and keys to the pantry.

In addition to acquiring a knowledge of history, psychology and French at college, our daughter has learned everything she always wanted to know about cooking but was afraid to ask.

Since I myself didn't become acquainted with the facts of kitchen life until after I was married and the little I know I picked up in supermarkets and [illegible] benches, I admit to being both uninformed and uptight on the subject.

But from the time Gay first noticed there were two kinds of cake—bakery and homemade—I've tried to answer her questions honestly and keep the lines of communication open.

Being admittedly inhibited in the baking department, I may have looked a bit embarrassed the first time she asked me why I couldn't produce a coconut cream pie like Joan's mother down the block, but I didn't register shock when she asked me what made a souffle different from a casserole, and I didn't blush at all when she demanded to know where little cupcakes come from.

It wasn't until her junior year in college, when she had moved out of her dorm and was sharing an apartment with two other girls, that we realized she was reading cookbooks as well as schoolbooks.

On one of her visits home she offered to make Swedish pancakes with whipped lime butter. Since I cook from a freezer rather than from a cabinet, this necessitated the purchase of all kinds of raw materials, including flour.

Her efforts met with such enthusiastic response that the next trip she proceeded to make bread—the real thing, starting with yeast.

All the neighbors were called in to admire my talented child and to hear the satisfying "woosh" when she pushed down the risen dough.

But it turned out there was still something she could learn at her mother's knee. It seems she and her roommates always used instant coffee and she wanted instructions on making the percolator kind. I proudly explained to her how to measure, and put her on her own.

A while later I heard a few soft plops and turned to find her dumping the coffee into the water instead of into the basket.

It helped my inferiority complex in the cooking department no end.

Dayan Denies Avnery Charges

JERUSALEM (AP) — Defense Minister Moshe Dayan, under criticism for alleged unlicensed archaeological digging, says, "To the best of my knowledge I have never contravened the antiquity laws."

Dayan made the statement in parliament Tuesday in reply to questions by Uri Avnery, sole house representative of the Haolam Hazeh party.

Avnery has accused Dayan of amassing a fortune in antiquities through unlicensed digging and purchasing in Israel and occupied Arab territory.

Dayan, an ardent amateur archaeologist, also denied Avnery's charge that he used military equipment for his excavations, and that he assigned soldiers to assist him.

Tunnel Is Planned Under Busy Harbor

By DAVID J. PAINE

HONG KONG (AP) — The two halves of the divided city of Hong Kong, lying on the rim of China, will be linked directly for the first time when a tunnel under the picturesque harbor that separates them is opened in 1972.

The mile-long underwater route from Hong Kong Island to Kouloon, a small peninsula on the mainland, is more than half completed.

Cars will be able to speed through it in about a minute and a half, and specially constructed roads will lead them into the downtown areas on each side.

At present, vehicles going from one half of the city to the other must cross the harbor by ferry. On the main route this takes 12 to 15 minutes, but long lines at rush hour and on the weekends when the Sunday drivers are out in force can mean a holdup of one to two hours.

The tunnel will be for vehicles only, with no pedestrians allowed. It is estimated it will cost $54 million and is one of the largest engineering tasks undertaken in Southeast Asia by private enterprise.

The direct road connection between the island and the mainland portion of this British colony is badly needed and when it has been in operation for a year or two people probably will wonder how they managed without it.

But it also threatens a nostalgic tie with the past. Some of the small ferries which churn busily across the harbor are likely to become victims.

"It's just progress," says Robbie Brothers, executive officer for the company constructing the tunnel. "No city in the world on the scale of Hong Kong relies just on ferries. Ferries are outmoded."

The ferries which now provide the only mass transport system between the island and Kouloon—a small helicopter service also is available—are, indeed, outmoded as a form of modern transport.

But the ferries of Hong Kong have a special place in the colony's life and history. They have served Hong Kong well since last century and evoke many sentimental memories.

In a year, the efficiently run ferries carry 240 million passengers across the harbor, mostly between the two downtown areas. Other ferries run from Hong Kong Island to more distant parts of the mainland and to the outlying islands.

Best known to visitors are the Star ferries, which hurry between the island and Kouloon. Second class, on the lower deck, costs 10 Hong Kong cents (less than 2 U.S. cents) for this seven-minute voyage, one of the cheapest in the world. First class, at 25 Hong Kong cents (about 4 U.S. cents), is less crowded and less interesting.

All 10 green and white passenger ferries on this run have the word star in their names, like Celestial Star and Twinkling Star.

Operating more widely is the Hong Kong and Yaumati Ferry Co., which has 61 ferries and last year carried 170 million passengers and six million vehicles.

The effect the tunnel will have on the passenger ferries is uncertain and may depend largely on what cross-harbor services the bus companies decide to operate. But the vehicular ferries will be hard hit. Officials think they will lose 80 to 90 per cent of their vehicular traffic as soon as the tunnel opens. The tunnel company thinks most of this traffic will switch immediately from the ferries, and that many drivers who now leave their cars behind and travel by passenger ferry will instead drive through the tunnel.

The tunnel-in reality two tunnels lying side by side - is being constructed by the immersed tube method. Huge steel pipes are being sunk to the bottom of the harbor and will be joined up to form twin tunnels.

The prefabricated twin-tube sections are 320 to 370 feet long and each weighs about 6,000 tons. They are lined with about 16,000 tons of concrete and sunk into a specially prepared, rock-lined trench.

Each of the tubes is 34 feet in diameter and will provide a two-lane road surface 22 feet wide. At low tide there will be 40 feet of water above the tunnel, enough for most of the ships using the harbor to pass safely overhead.

The project was begun in September 1969 and is scheduled to be completed by September 1972.

Pension Plan Reform Asked

By MARGARET GENTRY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — An administration plan designed to make it cheaper and safer to save for old age comes under scrutiny in Congress today.

In a special message to Congress Wednesday, President Nixon asked approval of pension reforms which he said would "do a great deal to protect the rights of the average American during his working years and...enhance the quality of his life when he has retired.

The President's proposal would:

—Allow workers to claim tax deductions for up to 20 per cent or $1,500, whichever is less, of the amount contributed annually to a pension fund.

—Permit self-employed persons who set up pension plans for themselves and their employes to increase deductions to $7,500 or 15 per cent of income, whichever is less.

—Set up a system aimed at protecting a worker's pension claim in a company retirement plan although he might leave the company before retirement age.

The system, called "vesting," would operate under a "rule of 50," guaranteeing an employe 50 per cent of his accrued pension benefits at the time his age and years of participation in the pension plan equalled 50.

For example, an employe who began contributions at the age of 30 would, at the age of 40, be guaranteed half his pension benefits upon retirement, although he might quit or be fired from his job and cease his contributions.

He would receive another 10 per cent vesting for each succeeding year of contributions after hitting the 50 mark.

Presidential counselor Peter Flanigan told newsmen only 31 per cent of the nation's work force now is enrolled in pension plans that include any form of vesting.

Flanigan said the proposal would cost the government about $300 million in tax revenues the first year, gradually increasing to $480 million in the fourth year.

Jane, Antiwarists To Visit Japan

TOKYO (AP) — Actress Jane Fonda and her antiwar troupe have been given permission to enter Japan for three days beginning Friday.

Justice Minister Shigesaburo Maeo granted a provisional entry permit after the 33-year-old actress and her group filed an appeal with him when their official entry permits were denied by immigration officials.

Miss Fonda and the troupe had been barred on grounds their planned activities in Japan were incompatible with their tourist visas. The group has been performing antiwar shows for U.S. servicemen.

IN SHARPSTOWN BANK PROBE

Jury Indicts Novotny

HOUSTON (AP) — Joseph P. Novotny, former president of the Sharpstown State Bank, has been indicted by a federal grand jury for alleged violations of banking laws.

The grand jury, which has been probing the financial empire of Frank W. Sharp since February, returned the indictments Wednesday before recessing until January.

The same grand jury returned indictments Sept. 29 against eight men, including two former federal and two former state banking examiners.

One Wednesday indictment against Novotny, 32, now of Dallas, dealt with a loan to a [illegible]. Another added Novotny to the longer September indictment.

The shorter indictment alleged Novotny caused a loan of $125,000 to be made to John G. Paxton. It alleged the loan was inadequately secured and that $50,000 of the sum was used to buy bank stock from Novotny. The indictment described the Oct. 31, 1969 loan as a subterfuge to make bank funds and credits available to Novotny.

The superceding indictment returned Wednesday adds Novotny to a conspiracy charge alleging conspiracy to make loans to bank examiners through a corporation. It alleged bank funds were misapplied and false entries made in bank records.

It adds two new counts, charging Novotny caused the bank to grant unsecured loans totaling $28,350 on June 26, 1968 in the name of W. Allen Gage, trustee, and the same amount July 12 to Carl Lundquist, then a state bank examiner.

Gage, of Houston, a bank officer for about five months in 1968, is not charged with any offense.

Lundquist, of Houston, who later became a Sharpstown State Bank vice president, was indicted in September on charges of conspiring to misapply bank money and credit through the making of many small loans in names of people, designed to evade notice of other officers and examiners.

The indictments against Novotny came one day after he appeared before the panel. He had not appeared here before but had appeared before a state grand jury and a federal panel in Dallas.

He also was among the 28 defendants named in a Securities and Exchange Commission civil injunction suit filed last January in Dallas. The injunction suit charged Sharp and others with manipulation of stock and with efforts to influence state officials to support two state banking bills favored by Sharp.

Sharp's bank in Southwest Houston closed its doors less than two weeks after the Dallas injunction suit was filed.

A Travis County grand jury in Austin indicted Texas House Speaker Gus Mutscher and three others Sept. 23. Mutscher was charged with accepting a bribe and conspiracy to accepting a bribe.

Mutscher posted $10,000 bond on each of the counts and last week his attorneys obtained a change of venue for his trial from Austin to Abilene.

RECORD SNOWFALL—A record snowfall of 6.5 inches hit Tucson Tuesday, and this Volkswagen was just one of the victims of the rare occurence. The last measureable snow fell here in 1968 when .4 of an inch fell on Dec. 20. The previous record was 6.4 inches, which fell on Nov. 16, 1958. (AP Wirephoto)

Wrestler Turns Santa Claus

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Jolly Jim Dean, an 825-pound wrestler turned Santa Claus, has converted his log cabin home into a toy factory.

With the help of neighbors, "Man Mountain" Dean is repairing cast-off toys for underprivileged children this Christmas.

"There's nothing I can't fix with nail polish, glue or a little paint," Dean declared.

His Christmas project also includes tours of hospitals, juvenile homes and other institutions as Santa Claus. It takes 15 yards of flannel to make his red suit and he cinches his 128-inch waist with an elephant's harness.

Fifteen years ago Dean packed in 150,000 sports fans a night to show off his famed airplane spin and made up to $20,000 a performance as a professional wrestler.

Now he lives in an unpretentious log cabin that was once a buffalo ranch and spends his time repairing toys.

"Broken dolls, games, you name it, it's here," said the 52-year-old Dean. "Toys in the kitchen, bedroom, living room." When he dons the familiar red and white outfit to make holiday appearances, kids just know it's Kris Kringle.

"They say I've got to be the real Santa. They even lift my coat to see if it's all me," he said in a booming voice.

"Four other Santas could fit into one suit for me," he added.

The most unusual Christmas request Dean has received was for a wheel chair for a child's brother.

"We got it. We begged and pleaded with merchants. And we got it," Dean said.

Dean said he has always enjoyed helping needy children and since his retirement was devoted much of his time to them. He lives on income from Ocala Caverns, a tourist attraction.

In his sunshine workshop he sits on a throne—a specially made wooden chair covered in leather.

Come Christmas Eve he will forego the reindeer for wheels—a car reinforced with 4-by-4s.

Goldwater Raps Conservatives

By RICHARD BEENE
Associated Press Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Speaking via telephone from Washington, Sen. Barry Goldwater unleashed an attack Wednesday night against conservative critics of President Nixon.

Such critics "are hurting a cause which next year is going to be very vital not only to them but to the entire party, the entire country, the entire free world and freedom itself," Goldwater charged.

The Arizona Republican, himself a renowned conservative, spoke to a crowd of more than 250 at a $125-a-plate fundraising dinner for Sen. John Tower, R-Tex.

He was scheduled to appear in person but was held up in Washington by the debate on William Rehnquist's nomination to the Supreme Court. His speech was carried over an amplified telephone hookup.

Goldwater said he has heard talk that if the conservatives find no candidate to run against Nixon, "they can always stay home."

"This is nothing but default," he declared. "I say this is a brand of political cowardice which is not worthy of good conservatives and good Republicans."

President Nixon will have a "real tough battle on his hands" in the next election, Goldwater said.

"And it behooves every patriotic American who believes in an adequate defense system and who believes that this country should play a major role in the leadership of the world to be in there fighting hard, shoulder to shoulder with Richard Nixon."

Tower, who flew here from Washington and planned to return the same night, voiced support for Goldwater's views.

"Any alternative to President Nixon means the imminent decline of the United States as a great power in the world," Tower said.

Pollution Knowledge Necessary

HOUSTON (AP) — The assistant administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency says pollution research and monitoring is absolutely essental for a wise solution of the nation's environmental problems.

Dr. Stanley M. Greenfield said in an interview Wednesday that ill-informed, emotional actions could ultimately do the environment more harm than good.

Greenfield was in Houston for speaking engagements including one before a symposium on underground disposal of industrial wastes. The U.S. Geological Survey and the American Association of Petroleum Geologists sponsored the three-day meeting.

Greenfield said there is a great public unrest, a hue and cry to "do something" about pollution.

"But I think it is absolutely essental to operate from a base of knowledge and understanding," he said. "Otherwise we may later find out we have spent more and done less."

He said the EPA "won't hesitate to blow the whistle" on disposal of industrial wastes in deep wells if the agency feels it is necessary.

He said the agency is not opposed to the practice under certain conditions but fears it might endanger ground water supplies through pollution.

He said the EPA has no specific authority to control underground waste disposal but that power is implied in the law that directs the EPA to protect fresh water supplies.

He said the EPA's research goal is two-fold—to clean up the mess, and eventually get far enough ahead in the game to avoid making messes in the future."

"Right now, noting is as important to me than protecting people's health," he added, "by determining all the different pollutants that insult man's health, and how those pollutants reach him."

Osorio Granted A Delay

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Former National Bankers Life Insurance Co. president John Osorio, complaining that he can't find a lawyer to represent him, has won a delay of his pre-trial hearing until March 27.

Osorio's preliminary hearing had been set for Thursday. He is accused of lying to the State Insurance Board.

District Atty. Bob Smith said Osorio called him Friday and told him he had been unable to hire an attorney.

Osorio was indicted Sept. 23 on charges he filed a false financial statement on NBL's condition with the State Insurance Board in 1969. He was a key figure in a federal civil suit alleging that NBL's stock was inflated artificially in 1969.

Blackwell last week granted a change of venue sought by House Speaker Gus Mutscher and two of his top aides, who were indicted on bribery and-or conspiracy charges in connection with the stock scandal. That trial was moved to Abilene.

4 Killed In Week's Combat

SAIGON (AP) — American casualties in the Vietnam war last week were the second lowest since the U.S. Command started keeping weekly totals nearly seven years ago, the command announced today.

Headquarters said four Americans were killed in combat and 14 were wounded.

Another 11 men died from nonhostile causes, the command said. This total presumably did not include any of the 34 men who died in a helicopter crash Nov. 28. Their bodies were not recovered until this week, and until then they were listed as missing in action.

The South Vietnamese Command reported 314 men killed in action, 125 less than the week before, and 630 wounded. The two allied commands claimed 808 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed, a sharp drop from the previous week's claim of 1,333.

Last week was the ninth in a row that the U.S. Command has reported less than 10 men killed in action. The lowest American casualty toll of the past seven years was reported three weeks ago, five killed and four wounded during the week of Nov. 14-20.

The allied commands now have reported these total casualties for the war:

American-45,617 killed in action, 302,297 wounded, 9,965 dead from nonhostile causes.

South Vietnamese—136,725 killed in action, 295,783 woundedm

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong—785,572 killed.

Third Child Also Has Leukemia

SALISBURY, Mass. (AP) — Mary Nugent has watched two of her children die from leukemia. Now she's told a third has the incurable disease.

"After the first one died, they told me I could go back and have other children," she said.

"After the second one, they said it was very unusual, that it would never happen again.

"Then when I went in with this one, the doctor said, 'There's no reason for it, no answer.'"

But, Mrs. Nugent is not relying solely on doctors for answers anymore. Her home is filling with religious articles and she's taken Billy, 2, to a faith healer. She's sprinkled his head with "miracle water" sent in the mail and tried pinning a lock of a dead nun's hair to the boy's bed.

"I'm at the point where I'd try anything-anything," she said.

West Has Much Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter storms smacked the West with a combination punch last night that left a foot of snow in parts of New Mexico and stranded motorists in Oregon. In some spots wind-whipped snow reduced visibility to zero.

One storm lashed the Pacific Northwest coast with rain and gales and dumped snow on interior regions. Omak, Wash., recorded 8 inches. Some 50-100 motorists were stranded along Interstate 80 near La Granden Ore., as huge drifts and high winds halted travel.

Police and volunteer teams searched for stranded persons. As motels filled up, local families took in travelers.

A second storm continued to sift snow over the southern Rockies and the desert states. One foot of snow buried Los Alamos, N.M., while 10 inches hit Jemez Springs, N.M. Freezing rain or drizzle glazed the central and southern plains.

Travelers warnings were posted for the region. In addition, heavy snow warnings were up in the south central Rockies and the adjacent New Mexico plains. Freeze warnings were in effect for Arizona as cold air spilled in behind the storm front.

Blizzard warnings were posted for parts of southwest Montana as snow and high winds cut visibility. Livingston, Mont., recorded wind gusts as high as 70 miles an hour with one gust hitting 90.

A little snow fell in the upper Mississippi Valley. Travelers warnings were posted in New England where light snow mixed with freezing drizzle iced highways.

Most of the remainder of the nation was mild and cloudy.

Ruling Keeps Inmates Busy

DALLAS (AP)—An order from U.S. District Court Judge Sarah T. Hughes, forbidding authorities to censor the mail of prisoners in the county jail, has resulted in keeping many of the inmates busy.

Chief Night Jailer Burl White said one prisoner wrote 50 letters on the first day that the judge's order became effective and 20 more the next day.

"I don't know what was in them, but they were to every magazine and newspaper in the country," the jailer said. "He apparently was appealing for help."

White said the amount of outgoing mail from the jail has now slowed down to between 700 and 1,000 a day.

The federal 20-day restraining order was granted following a lawsuit filed by a group of inmates against county officials. The prisoners contended their right to correspond with their lawyers was infringed by censorship.
