BALE BRINGS $510

Brothers Are Named Top Young Farmers

A bale of cotton, Scurry County's first, was chanted into $510 Chinese auction style for a 14-year-old farmer at the Farmers-Business Men's Banquet held at the high school cafeteria Thursday evening. The "young farmer of the year" was also announced at the affair which was co-sponsored by the Snyder Chamber of Commerce and the Snyder Jaycees.

Eldon and Weldon Perry were named young farmers of the year and presented a plaque from the Jaycees and grain seed from the Ezell-Key Grain Co. Kenneth Baker, president of the Jaycees, made the presentation.

The Perrys were picked from a list of young farmers between the ages of 21 and 35 and were judged as the young men who made the most progress during the year in soil and natural resource conservation, responsible contribution to community affairs and general success in farming.

Gene Dulaney, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presented a $100 bonus check to Curtis Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, for bringing in the first bale of cotton in Scurry County on Aug. 20. Curtis irrigates about 40 acres about 6 miles south of Snyder, doing all the plowing, planting and cultivating himself. He even rode his motor scooter to Snyder and hired a group of cotton pickers to pull the first bale. He and his mother encountered great difficulty by not being able to locate a gin that was ready to operate.

Rev. Harry Vanderpool, pastor of the First Methodist Church, spoke to the group on "public relations" among peoples and particularly between the farmer and the business man. He emphasized that as long as the farmer worried about farm problems and the businessman worried about slumping business, neither group would help situations which could not be overcome by whining about the status quo and worrying. When the two get tied up together and work together for a common cause, Rev. Vanderpool continued, then there will be better business and better farming with these good "public realtions".

The bale of cotton was auctioned Chinese style which makes each person bidding pay the difference between his bid and the previous bid.

Bidders on the first bale of cotton were West Texas State Bank, Snyder National Bank, McCormick Oil Co., Inc., Head Tractor Co., Snyder Truck and Tractor Co., Snyder Co-Op Gin, Von Roeder Seed Farms, Thompson Shoe Store, John W. Jordan, D. T. Pierce, Doug McGlaun, Eldon Perry, Weldon Perry, Billy Huddleston, E. D. Floyd, Poe and Wasson Warehouse, Snyder FFA, J. N. Eicke, Radio Station KSNY.

Gerald Johnson was master of ceremonies with Rex Robinson, chairman of the Chamber's agriculture committee, welcoming the farmers.

Demos Can Win, Local Group Told

Texas Democrats face a challenge but they can carry the state for the Kennedy-Johnson ticket, in November if they buckle down and get to work.

That was the admonition of Tom Webb, Abilene attorney and Taylor County Democratic Party chairman, who spoke at a party gathering here Thursday night.

Webb's address climaxed a $5 per-plate barbecue staged by Scurry County Democrats in the Towle Memorial Park pavilion.

Webb deplored what he described as subtle efforts of Republican Richard M. Nixon to keep the religious issue at the forefront in the presidential campaign.

The Abilene attorney said Nixon is "too smart" to hop on the religious issue in a positive approach, but he never fails to mention it negatively whenever he speaks.

Webb said he believed the religious issue would be resolved once and for all if all voters had an opportunity to see the film on Sen. John F. Kennedy's conference with Protestant ministers in Houston.

The Republican administration has brought on economic problems with its "tight money" policy, Webb declared. He said the Republicans quickly claim that the national debt has not increased as rapidly during the Eisenhower administration as it did in some previous periods. However, he said higher interest rates caused by the tight money policy actually means that the national debt has soared to fantastic heights during the present administration.

Tight money also has affected real estate, particularly the housing market, Webb said. Higher interest on mortgage loans means that the equivalent of one room has been taken off each home in the $10,000 to $12,000 bracket, he charged.

Webb was introduced by J. Mark McLaughlin, who was a delegate to the National Democratic Convention in Los Angeles. The event was arranged by the Scurry County Democratic campaign organization headed by L. A. McClanahan.

Announcement was made that the Kennedy-Johnson campaign headquarters on the west side of the square in Snyder will be open daily throughout the campaign.

Secretary's Arrest Protested By U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department expressed today its "greatest indignation at the gestapo methods" of Cuban military intelligence agents in detaining a secretary from the U.S. Embassy in Havana.

A department spokesman said a protest described as "blistering" has been delivered to the Cuban government by U.S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal in connection with the arrest of Marjorie Lennox of San Francisco. The protest was both oral and in writing.

U. S. Takes Firm Stand Backing Dag

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States declared today the paramount issue before the Security Council is whether or not to support the Congo role of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold and on that there can be no compromise.

The new U.S. declaration dimmed hopes of finding a formula which might avert a threatened Soviet veto and thus prevent the chaotic Congo situation from being tossed to an emergency session of the 82-nation General Assembly.

U.S. Ambassador James W. Barco addressed the 11-nation Security Council after Sir Claude Corea of Ceylon had asserted that both the United States and the Soviet Union had the same objectives on the Congo problem. Korea urged that they find a united approach.

Diplomats expressed the belief that the United States would propose and get an emergency assembly if the Soviet Union vetoes a U.S. resolution endorsing the policies of the secretary-general in the Congo.

Corea's appeal for a compromise was interpreted as meaning that private efforts by himself and Tunisian Ambassador Mongo Slim had failed.

Lumumba's Staff Is Arrested By Troops

By LYNN HEINZERLING

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Col. Joseph Mobutu's Congolese troops arrested Patrice Lumumba's personal staff today and some reports said the disputed premier also was taken into custody today.

The Congo's rising pro-Western strongman also prevented a meeting of the National Parliament, which has been largely on Lumumba's side, by putting a cordon of heavily armed soldiers about the modernistic parliament house on a bank of the Congo River.

Mobutu men, continuing their crackdown on the Communist-supported Lumumba faction, drove up in a truck to his official residence.

With U.N. Ghana troops standing by but taking no part, Mobutu's soldiers deployed round the residence and the premier's administrative offices across the street.

The soldiers herded all the members of Lumumba's staff they could find into the truck and drove away—presumably to Camp Leopold II on the outskirts of Leopoldville.

Lumumba, who was reported in hiding in another villa of the capital's European section, was also believed to have been picked up.

The actions constituted the most decisive show of force since Mobutu, the 29-year-old chief of staff, proclaimed Wednesday that the army was taking over control of the young nation's chaotic government.

Mobutu has recognized President Joseph Kasavubu as chief of state, but at the same time sought to impose a "neutralization" of all political activity.

The disputed premier had lost control over many Congo followers in his struggle against Mobutu and Kasavubu.

Meanwhile, Kasavubu sent a protest to the United Nations against the action of Ghana troops who protected Lumumba from angry Congolese soldiers at Camp Leopold Thursday.

The president said the Ghana troops had prevented Congolese troops from carrying out an arrest warrant he had signed against Lumumba and thus were interfering in the Congo's internal affairs.

Witnesses of the incident in Camp Leopold said the troops actually tried twice to lynch Lumumba who just managed to get away, with his shirt torn, from fist-shaking men shouting "kill, kill."

A SHOWCASE FOR CAR—Not displayed exactly right in this showcase, this 1958 Oldsmobile owned by A. C. Alexander, 2902 Avenue U, nevertheless attracted quite a bit of attention this morning as it rested half in and half out of Everybody's Supermarket on the Big Spring Highway. Alexander said his wife evidently thought she had the car in reverse and then shoved on the accelerator instead of the brakes when the car went forward instead of backward. A customer in the store, Roy Bank, who was knocked down when the car pushed a line of grocery carts into him, was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by a Bell ambulance, treated for bruises and released. Damage was tentatively estimated at around $200 for the car and also for the window. Above, Rex Miller, owner of the store, sweeps up glass as wreckers prepare to pull the car from the window.

W. H. Cauble Dies Today

William H. Cauble, member of a pioneer West Texas ranching family, died this morning in a Santa Fe, N. M. hospital where he had been under treatment since a Sept. 6 traffic accident.

Mr. Cauble, 80, his wife, a son, Billy Cauble, and a daughter, Mrs. Clyde Bingham, all were injured when the jeep in which they were riding plunged down a hill in New Mexico. Mrs. Cauble still is under treatment for injuries in a hospital in Albuquerque, N. M.

Relatives were to go to Albuquerque today to confer with Mrs. Cauble, after which funeral arrangements will be announced.

Storm Spreads Rain

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—Shortlived Hurricane Ethel, now only a rain storm, blustered northward from the Mississippi Gulf Coast today threatening eastern Mississippi and western Alabama with heavy rains and flooding.

Up to 10 inches of rain could be expected from Ethel in some areas, with possible floods, the New Orleans Weather Bureau said. The storm's winds were expected to diminish rapidly by daybreak.

Ethel, spawned rapidly in the gulf off the Yucatan Peninsula Wednesday, became a full-fledged hurricane with winds over 75 miles per hour in the afternoon. It moved erratically up the gulf and went inland slightly west of Biloxi about noon Thursday.

Ethel packed 150 m.p.h. winds for a brief time Wednesday but when it slammed into the coast the winds had decreased to 75 m.p.h.

Middle coast residents, with Hurricane Donna's devastation fresh in their minds, hurried away along a 500 mile stretch from New Orleans to St. Marks, Fla.

One Red Cross official said more than 48,000 were housed in shelters, while Civil Defense estimates of evacuees ranged near 65,000.

Officials said precautions taken last week for Donna proved a dress rehearsal for Ethel. No monetary estimate of damage was yet available but it was expected to be minimal.

Unofficial reports indicated the highest winds packed by Ethel when it struck the mainland were near 80 m.p.h. Three Mississippi coastal cities—Biloxi, Gulfport and Pascagoula—were the hardest hit.

Threat of high tides in the wake of Ethel diminished as westerly winds sprang up along the coast. Weather Bureau forecasters said the winds would help keep the tides from running too much above normal.

As the storm hit the coast, it brought tides as high as five feet and one Weather Bureau observer estimated they were as high as eight feet in some bays. There were no reports of general flooding.

The New Orleans Weather Bureau said official reports on wind velocity and tides would not be available until sometime today.

Power failed along the coastal area as the storm struck and moved inward.

Eastward, Alabama's port city of Mobile—once almost directly in Ethel's path—received little more than a wet buss from the hurricane.

Drive Nearing End For Concert Assn.

The Scurry Concert Association membership drive is entering its final two days with the drive scheduled to end Saturday. Headquarters are set up just north of the Brownfield building on Avenue S for the convenience of all those not personally contacted by members.

Four programs have been signed by the association for the season as against the three for last year with memberships set at $10 for adults, and $4 for students.

Italy's celebrated "Societa Corelli" will start the season on Oct. 20 as part of their fifth tour of the United States and Canada. The 13-piece string orchestra has had superlatives heaped by critics in their performances being "astonishing", "remarkable" and "sheer perfection" in New York, "breathtaking" in Boston, "superb" in Montreal, "extraordinary" in St. Louis, "exciting" in Denver and "memorable" in San Francisco.

On Dec. 10 "Caledonia!", the singers and dancers of Scotland, will present music and dances that will range through the entire panorama of Scotland. Moods will travel the entire breadth of Scotland to present the ballads of Robert Burns and the wry humor of Sir Harry Lauder, the elegant country dancing of "The Duke of Perth" and the spirited flings of the Highlands, and the nostalgic airs of the pipes to "mouth music" from early Gaelic.

The Texas Boys' Choir, recently returned from a triumphant European tour where they gained international acclaim, will be in Snyder Feb. 2. Wherever they sang in Europe, the Choir met with enthusiastic approval as an outstanding cultural accomplishment, acknowledged as equal to the best.

Final place on the season's program will go to the United States Air Force Band and the Singing Sergeants on April 17. Billed as America's Musical Ambassadors, the group has completely captured the fancy and the imagination of the musical world. It consists of a 100 piece marching band, a 90 piece symphony and 85 piece symphonic band, a 25 voice glee club, and five dance bands. The repertoire includes anything from symphony to jazz, opera to be-bop, and symphony to swing.

Roger Gee, president of the Scurry association, said Snyder is extremely lucky to have such a diversity of good programs this season and urged all who have not signed up to do so now so they will not regret it when these groups are in Snyder.

Plane Mishap Investigated

DALLAS (AP) — A Braniff spokesman said Thursday an investigation to determine the cause of the DC7 collision at Dallas Love Field Wednesday was in the hands of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

The CAB investigators dodged questions concerning their investigation and said any announcement would originate in Washington.

George R. Clark, heading the 3-man CAB team from Fort Worth, declined to make any speculations as to what made the airliner suddenly turn from the taxi strip and smash head-on into the firm's huge maintenance building.

Elmer Tiffany, 43, a Braniff inspector who was taxiing the plane was fatally injured. Five maintenance men, some trapped in the twisted nose for more than an hour, were hospitalized.

Braniff spokesmen called the accident the worst to occur at its base.

Many Problems In Space Not Solved

By GARTH JONES

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Air Force scientists say a successful 30-day simulated trip into the wild blue yonder didn't solve all space travel problems but it plugged a few holes.

It might even help marriage counseling, one expert at the School of Aviation Medicine suggested.

Capt. William D. Habluetzel, 36, Ingleside, Tex.; and 1st Lt. John J. Hargreaves, 30, Castle Air Force Base, Calif., emerged Thursday after 30 days, 8 hours and 21 minutes in a 8-by-12 foot pressurized steel tank.

Hargreaves lost 8 pounds but said he could have gone another 30 days.

Habluetzel lost 5 pounds and said his knees got wobbly near the end.

The two pilots, both with considerable jet flying experience, take more tests today then leave to visit their families.

Before leaving the cabin they hung a sign inside saying: "Never volunteer, always submit an application."

Dr. Billy E. Welch, project director, said it would take some time to evaluate all aspects of the experiment "but it is my opinion this was a very successful experiment. I feel we have taken another step up the ladder in determining the factors in man's flight into space.

"Prior to the time we put men in space, for exploration, for work on a space station, we must determine in tests like this what is likely to happen," he said.

Welch said the test produced valuable information on recycling of water, an important weight and space problem in loading a space ship. The two pilots started the trip with 22 gallons of fresh water. Waste fluids were purified and added to the remaining fresh water. Solid wastes were incinerated.

Lt. Col. Don Flinn, chief of the neuropsychiatry branch, said important information was gained in selection of space crews.

"These are two very special people with their background and training," Flinn said. "We know now that a mature individual with high motivations can tolerate frustrations more than others.

"Many marriages could take a tip from this in learning to cope with tensions," Flinn said.

Krush Sees Better Times

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev expressed confidence today that "better times will come" in relations between the Soviet Union and the United States.

He expressed this view in a message from the vessel Baltika, carrying him to New York, rejecting a lecture invitation from the forum of the Harvard University law school.

His reply, broadcast in Russian by Moscow radio's home service, said Khrushchev would be unable to accept because of the U. S. decision to confine him to the limits of Manhattan.

Khrushchev remarked, however "I am sure that better times will come in the relations between our countries.

"The sun will finally rise, the gloomy clouds will clear, and all people will understand the necessity of friendship and cooperation between countries.

"I think that the government of the U.S.A., too, will in time realize the need for improving our relations and joining in efforts toward the main aim—that of agreement among all states on total and universal disarmament under the strictest international control."

Machinists Backing JFK

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The International Association of Machinists convention has endorsed the Democratic presidential ticket.

The action by the million-member union came by voice vote of 1,500 delegates Thursday seven hours after Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon spoke to the convention.

The Democratic nominee, Sen. John F. Kennedy, addressed the convention Wednesday.

The IAM approved a resolution that it concur with the parent AFL-CIO in endorsing and actively supporting Kennedy and the Democratic vice presidential nominee, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Another resolution said the endorsement was made on "the presumption that (the Democratic platform) will be enacted into legislation as soon as possible after election."

Korean Veterans Stage Sitdown

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Some 1,000 wounded veterans today staged a sitdown in front of the National Assembly demanding a 400 percent increase in government relief.

The veterans, many of them amputees, blocked traffic for three hours.

Find Coors' Bleached Skull

CASTLE ROCK, Colo. (AP) — The bleached skull of Adolph Coors III was found in a mountain clearing Thursday and laboratory technicians sought from it today some clue to how the 44-year-old millionaire met his death.

Coroner C. Douglas Andrews found the skull near the trash dump where Coors' clothing and human bones were discovered last weekend.

Andrews declined to say whether the skull showed any sign of damage.

Dist. Atty. Leo W. Rector of Colorado Springs said there was some damage which could have been caused by animals.

The skull was identified as that of Coors from dental charts.

Discovery of the clothing and bones by a passer-by last Sunday provided the first break in the mystery since Coors vanished last Feb. 9. He was en route from his foothills home west of Denver to the Adolph Coors Co. brewery at Golden.

Officers and members of the family said at the time they believed the lanky, popular brewer was the victim of a kidnaper.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

WOMEN

Trim Grandmother Heads Hadassah

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—A trim, attractive grandmother who has spent a good part of her life helping victims of oppression is the new president of Hadassah, the first woman not reared in this country to hold the high office.

The Women's Zionist Organization of America, which has a membership of 318,000, elected Lola Kramarsky on Sept. 14.

She says: "I can never forget this date. It was on Sept. 14, in 1923, that my husband, my little girl and I left Germany for The Netherlands. That was 10 years before Hitler came to power, but my husband felt what was coming—that Germany would no longer be any place for Jews to live."

Her husband, Siegfried, is a banker, now retired.

Mrs. Kramarsky was born in Hamburg, Germany, and very early fell under the influence of the Zionist movement. She was a friend of Dr. Chaim Weizmann, Zionist leader and later Israel's first president.

Her father, a well-to-do importer, disapproved of the whole thing.

"He thought I was keeping company with subversive people," she recalls with a smile.

She says she never thought in those days that Israel would become a reality in her lifetime, certainly it seemed very far away in The Netherlands where she and her husband, after 1933, worked day and night with the refugees flooding across the border from Nazi Germany.

Shortly before The Netherlands was invaded in 1939 they got permits to go to Canada. The family spent six weeks in Lisbon before they were able to get both ship passage and a transit visa through the United States to Canada. Dr. Weizmann left Portugal with them.

By 1940 the Kramarskys were able to enter the United States. And within a year a friend on Hadassah's board had interested her in the organization. "I have worked for Hadassah every day since," she says.

She and her husband live in a Manhattan apartment.

Jaycee-ettes In Session

The Jaycee-ettes met for their regular monthly session at the home of Mrs. Howard Gray. Mrs. Ken Baker, president of the organization, presided at the business meeting.

The club voted to have a bake sale on Wednesday, Sept. 21, at Piggly Wiggly Super Market with the members selling home-baked pies and cakes.

During the second week in October the Jaycee-ettes will have their annual rummage sale and will welcome the donation of clothing for the event.

Mrs. Coleen Butler, membership chairman for the Hospital Auxiliary, presented a program on the auxiliary's work. Mrs. Butler mentioned the usefullness of the baby layettes the Jaycee-ettes provide for the indigent families at the hospital.

Refreshments of coffee, iced tea, and Jello cake were served to the 12 members present.

Guests from Rotan included Mrs. Ava Young, Mrs. Frances Neeley, and Mrs. Veleria Donahoo who were visiting in view of organizing a similar club in Rotan.

El Catorce Bridge Club Has Meeting

El Catorce Bridge Club of Fluvanna met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Guy Turner.

Eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Ray Herring, attended.

Refreshments of strawberry shortcake and punch were served to the group.

Mrs. Paul Turner won high, and Mrs. Earl Sneed won second high.

Rebekahs Hold Rummage Sale

Inventors Are Still Making Some Amazing Discoveries

BY INEZ ROBB

No one can deny that we live in the best of all possible worlds when a genius, Herbert Hermann Bauer of Middletown, Conn., receives a patent from Uncle Sam for a one-hand lipstick.

Mr. Bauer's contention that all previous lipsticks have required a two-hand operation is quite correct. This is a major problem to which I had never given much thought until I read about his splendid invention. But I now realize that only an acrobat could deal one-handedly with the current crop of lipsticks.

And I am likewise terribly impressed with the invention of an atomic clock that will aid the first astronaut to check the accuracy of the instruments in his cocoon and to time correctly his arrival back in the earth's atmosphere.

The clock will also offer a partial test for the Einstein Theory of Relativity while it is whirling around in a satellite, all of which makes it a pretty versatile clock and a good bit more sophisticated than the one at Chez Robb that turns the coffee percolator on at 6:45 a.m. every working day.

Futhermore, I am considerably impressed with the men who have invented a way to build prescription eyeglasses into a gas mask for the individual user. And then there is Edward H. Arnold Jr. of New Orleans who has just patented a magnetic checker set.

So the world's business is getting done and at a fast clip. And while all the above impresses me tremendously, the latest scientific development that has me jumping up and down with joy is the perfection of a new dog food that is fatal to any flea that subsequently bites Towser.

The anti-flea ingredient, locked into the deepdown goodness of this new dog food doesn't harm Fido at all. The anti-flea element simply saturates the dog and is death on fleas that bother him at their peril in the future. The U. S. Agriculture Department has just announced this discovery of Dr. R. J. Goulding of the Oregon Experiment Station, Corvallis, Oreg.

It is obvious that Dr. Goulding has got hold of something bigger than himself, anw dog or a flock of fleas. If an anti-flea mickey can be harmlessly slipped into a dog biscuit, is it too much to hope that within a few years man can munch a meal that will make him fatal to mosquitoes, chiggers, black widow spiders, sand flies, gnats, ants and even fleas?

If man's best friend can be made insect-proof, why not man himself? A biscuit suitable for man or beast that will moth-and-mosquito-proof both would be a far greater boon to the vast majority of mankind than any atomic clock ever invented or even bifocals in gas masks.

Most men are willing to take Einstein's Theory on trust, since that's about the only sensible way the majority of us can deal with it. An eight-day clock will get most of us through our engagements as handily as an Atomic ticker.

And a woman really intent on using a lipstick with finesse and artistry will probably always make a two-haanded job of the business, no matter how many one-handed lipsticks flood the market. When a woman is really serious about lipstick, what is she going to do with that extra hand, anyway? Drive a car, perish forbid!

But a little something slipped into man's food or drink that would make him repugnant to the insect world would deliver him from misery, free him from so-called healing lotions, make garden parties endurable and fishing trips a pure pleasure.

Dr. Goulding is the man who deserves the gold medal. If he can free Fido from fleas, surely he can fix it up so there ain't no flies on man.

Husband Is Truly Happy

LOS ANGELES (AP) — This item appeared Thursday under the heading of "legal notices" in the classified section of the Los Angeles Evening Herald-Express:

"I am responsible for all debts & obligations of my wife, Margaret, both present and future and am delighted to be the provider for a woman who has borne me two fine children, listened patiently to all my gripes & with an overbundance of love and care made the past 21 years the happiest I have ever known. Ray Ogden."

A reporter for the paper found the slim, blonde wife being treated to breakfast in bed by her husband.

"I mean it," said Ogden, an auto agency employe. "I'm proud to express myself privately"—he poured a second cup of coffee—"and publicly."

The French village of St. Bertrand-de-Comminges (population 350) once was the capital of a Roman province and had a population of 60,000.

Everybody Has Remedy For Theater

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The American theater is in one way like a Bowery bum.

Everyone knows there is something wrong with it, and nearly everyone has figured out a way to lead it to salvation.

Ralph Bellamy, president of Equity, the actor's union, has a solution, too. He sees pay television as the remedy.

To Bellamy the plight of the theater is financial rather than artistic.

"It's a result of a general economic pressure from all sides," he said.

"Even a simple play now costs $75,000 to $100,000 to produce. The same play 20 years ago would have cost $25,000 at the most.

"There are 75 to 80 plays brought into New York each year—and we are lucky if 25 to 30 stay awhile—but only four or five of these are real hits. Too often a play is either an instant hit, or an instant flop.

"There wasn't so much money lost in the old days. Even a flop might last a season. Everybody went to the theater then. There weren't so many other distractions."

Bellamy is convinced that pay television is on the way and that it will give the theater the biggest revival it has ever seen.

"The best of Broadway—everything—will be made available almost instantly to 180 million people," he said.

"There will be no flops. Every play will recover its money in one showing. All the big movies will be shown first on television, thus creating the world's biggest box office.

"In order to compete, commercial TV will have to improve its standards, so the public will gain all around."

A veteran of 89 films and more than 600 roles in the theater and television, Bellamy started acting at 18, never took a lesson in his life.

Recently he completed the film "Sunrise at Campobello," in which he appears as Franklin D. Roosevelt, a role he did on the stage 837 times. Currently he is rehearsing a role as Thomas Jefferson in "Odd Destiny" in the American Heritage series on CBS-TV. He played Jefferson before in the initial program of the series.

"This is becoming a professional problem," said Bellamy. "I'll have to find a way to escape presidents."

Huge Dope Load Seized

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—An arrested Thai army captain told U.S. narcotics investigators he thought 55 pounds of morphine in his luggage was food seasoning which he had agreed to carry from Japan to Korea.

Capt. Nanong Samrantin was quoted by the U.N. command today as saying a Japanese paid him $20 to carry the drugs aboard a U.S. military flight from Tachikawa Air Base, near Tokyo, to "some relative in Korea."

Fifty-seven soaplike bars found in the Thailander's luggage by a GI inspector at Seoul Airport Sept. 13 were worth perhaps one million dollars to dope traffickers. It is believed the largest seizure of morphine ever made in this part of the world.

Tigers, Mustangs To Meet Tonight

MIKE MOFFETT
GAME

CAPTAINS

Local Lineup Is Shuffled

Snyder's Tigers were to have hit the trail for Andrews at noon today, hoping that it will also be the win trail following last week's 26-6 defeat at the hands of Borger.

Their opponents for the evening —the Andrews Mustangs—are also thirsting for their first victory, although they managed to come from behind to tie Tom S. Lubbock in their opener of last week, 14-14. Tonight's kickoff time is 8 o'clock with the site of the contest being Mustang Stadium.

It will be a perfect record which Snyder carries into the game as far as rivalry between the two schools is concerned. Having met on the gridiron only three times, the Tigers may boast of wins in games of last year (37-8); 1958 (34-12); and 1961 (12-7).

A light line and fast backs will characterize the Pony attack, while the Tigers will rely on a bulkier line and medium speed in the backfield. Several changes have been made in the starting offensive and defensive lineups which Snyder will field in an attempt to gain a more workable combination.

Two variances from the listed lineup are possible in the offensive picture, as David Wiman may start at right guard in the stead of Bob Smith and Jesse Crawford is a possible starter at quarter in the place of Steve Free.

Defensive starters for the Tigers will see Reg Scarborough and either Joe Fowler or Larry McNair at guards; Bill Weaver and Charlie Gladson at tackles; George Wiley, Jack McDonald, and Mike Moffett backing the line; and Perry Culwell, Crawford, and Frank Moore at halfback.

Moore is slated for only limited action, as he is still hampered by a bronchial condition. Halfbacks Spencer Dyer and Billy Harless will see no duty, Dyer being sidelined with a calcium deposit in the upper left leg and Harless out of commission with a bruised knee.

For the Mustangs, the defensive setup is expected to be: Rodney Noble and Dudley Mitchell, ends; Billy Burk and Robert Sandlin, tackles; Mike Ford and Charles Hillis, guards; Jim Mac Parker, Tommy Walker, and Darvis Cormier, linebackers; and Leslie Blackburn and Larry Edge, halfbacks.

Sandlin is the only heavy one at 220.

Accompanying the Tiger squad to the Mustang confines are coaches John Conley, Horrace Bostick, and V. V. Shearburn.

Junior Highs Take 4 Of 6

Lamar 9th 60, Runnels 18

Lamar's 9th grade Texans gave Big Spring Runnels a lesson in fundamentals in Big Spring last night, blasting them by a lopsided 60-18.

The Texans roared to a 24-0 halftime lead, and were never threatened throughout the game. In fact, two first-half Lamar touchdown plays—one on an intercepted pass and another on a punt return—were called back by penalty, as was a third one in the final quarter on an intercepted pass by Edward Schulz.

Quarterback Jim Wilson unleashed a 45-yard scoring toss to left half Gale Potter to touch off the fireworks in the initial period, Schulz ripping through left tackle on the conversion.

The second six-pointer was carried over by Schulz, a one-yarder off tackle, followed by Potter's running of the extras. Eddie Kirby marked up the final touchdown of the half in the second quarter, skipping five yards over guard, after which Potter added the points to bring the count to 24-0 at halftime.

Halfback Sterling Kessler slipped over right tackle for five yards and a touchdown to instigate second half scorin for the Texans. Schulz whelled around left end for another tally soon thereafter, Kirby making good the conversion by bulling over left tackle.

Kessler scored one other third quarter tally on a 10-yard off-tackle slant. Jim Marcum carried over tackle for the extra points following that one.

Schulz intercepted a Runnels aerial and stepped off 40 yards to open up the point productin in the final quarter. Potter added to the spectacular later in the period by taking a kickoff and rambling 80 yards for the last touchdown of the night for the Texans. Kessler converted on a run following the latter tally.

Sweetwater 16, Travis 9th 8

Travis 9th fought a bigger, heavier Sweetwater team on even terms here on the junior high field last night, coming close but not quite close enough as the Sweetwater eleven slipped to a 16-8 victory.

The first half was scoreless, but the young Ponies came to life in the third stanza to score all their points and take a 16-0 advantage. The initial scoring jaunt carried for 35 yards, the conversion points being successfully run over, and the second was a 10-yarder around right end, the bonus points once again being gained by the ground route.

Travis surged back in the final quarter of play, however, as Ygnacio Benitez skirted right end for three yards and a touchdown with 3:58 left to go. Billy Stewart took a pitchout and romped around the end for the extra cal scoring with 1:44 left in the game, stepping over from a yard out on a quarterback sneak, then flipping to Jerry Vestal in the right flat for the two points.

Runnels scored once in each of the third and fourth quarters, both on running plays.

A total of 33 Texans saw action during the game, with Coach Roy Carter reporting that all turned in a top-flight effort.

Travis 8th 16, Sweetwater 0

Travis 8th made their 1960 debut an impressive one last night in Sweetwater, winning out by 16-0 on the strength of the running of halfback Leslie Brown.

Brown was responsible for all but two of the Travis points scored. He broke the scoring ice in the first quarter by lugging around end for 45 yards and a touchdown, then dove over on the successful conversion try.

He carried on another touchdown sweep in the second stanza, a 30-yarder, after which Robert Foree went wide to pick up the extra points and bring on the final tab of 16-0.

The Travis defenses were rockribbed, as Sweetwater was unable to penetrate the Blue Devil 35-yard line throughout the contest, and the longest gain as marked up by them was only seven yards.

The outstanding lineman of the game was the Blue Devils' J. B. Murphy, who was a whiz on both offense and defense. Also, defensive backs Gary Bergeron and Kenneth Dower played hangup games, while Brown represented the outstanding offensive back of the contest.

Runnels 20, Lamar 7th 0

Big Spring Runnels uncorked all its offensive fireworks in the first half last night in bouncing Lamar 7th, 20-0.

The Runnels runners ran the ends to perfection during that half, scoring on sweeps of 12, 30, and 65 yards in marking up their three scores. Their sole successful conversion following the second touchdown was also an end run, too.

Lamar threatened seriously on only one occasion when they drove to the Runnels 20-yard line during play of the second quarter. An intercepted pass quelled the march at that point, however.

Looking most impressive for Lamar on offense was halfback Eddie Greenfield. Keeping the Big Springers bottled up down the middle defensively were Kenneth Deike, David Holt, and Bill Blum.

Travis 7th 8, Sweetwater 6

"We played the first two minutes and the last two minutes of the game," Travis 7th mentor Willie Bigham commented following last night's game involving his boys and Sweetwater. It proved to be sufficient, however, as the Travisites brought home an 8-6 victory.

Travis struck with a vengeance as the game got underway, as fullback Jerry Kinchloe took the opening kickoff and waltzed 65 yards befefore being hauled down on the Sweetwater 10. On the third play from scrimmage halfback Paul Kimzey carried off tackle the final three yards for the marker, after which Kinchloe plowed through the middle for the bonus points and the eventual margin of victory.

Midway through the second quarter, Sweetwater got to rolling aided by a completed pass and a 15-yard penalty, the combination of which took them to the Travis 10. Their lone touchdown was scored on a three-yard plunge, but the attempted conversion run was stymied, and the scoring was completed for the day.

Late in the contest Travis began to move the ball, primarily on the running of halfback Marvin Mayfield, the drive carrying from one 30-yard line to the other. The clock caught up with them at that point, however.

Showing up well from Travis defensively were Kinchloe and Danny Howell.

Lamar 8th 44, Runnels 18

Lamar 8th had its offense geared and well-oiled here in the home confines last night, as that eleven spanked Big Spring Runnels by a merry 44-18.

The outcome was never in doubt, as Lamar bolted out to a 20-6 advantage at halftime, then breezed home to the win.

Tom Kincaid, a real warhorse throughout the game, started the onslaught in the first quarter, skirting right end on a 33 yard scoring romp, after which quarterback Jay Williamson faked to the fullback and went wide on a keeper in running over the conversion points.

Kincaid tallied the remaining pair of Lamar TD's of the half, also, plowing five yards up the middle on the first and taking a pass from Williamson in the left flat for the second on a play covering 12 yards.

Runnels scored its lone first half touchdown in the second quarter on a 40-yard pass play.

Tickets For Cage Contest Still On Sale

LUBBOCK—Basketball fans in the Snyder area may still obtain choice seats for the Oct. 4 professional cage game between the Cincinnati Royals and St. Louis Hawks in Lubbock Coliseum.

The 8 p.m. Lubbock contest will be the only Texas appearance for the two powerful NBA clubs during a six-state exhibition tour.

St. Louis is led by the highest-scoring forecourt trio in pro history—Bob Pettit, Cliff Hagan and Clyde Lovellette. Last season, each of these three stars averaged better than 20 points a game as the Hawks captured their fourth consecutive Western Division crown.

Cincinnati is due to feature Oscar (Big O) Robertson, hero of the recent U. S. Olympic basketball victory. The Royals also boast 6-6 Jack Twyman, who last season averaged 31.1 points a game to gain runnerup honors in the NBA scoring race. Cincinnati is also expected to sign two other Olympians, Jay Arnette of Texas and Bob Boozer, ex-Kansas State All-American.

Tickets for the Lubbock game are priced at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00 with all seats reserved. In addition, there is a special student rate of $1.00 for end-zone tickets—provided they are purchased prior to the date of the game. Fans may now order tickets by mailing a check to Pro Basketball, Box 3005 Lubbock, Texas.

Jimmy Harris Case In District Court

DALLAS (AP)—The professional football fate of Jimmy Harris today is due to be placed in the hands of a 98th District Court jury.

The jury must decide whether Harris, former University of Oklahoma quarterback, belongs to the American Football League Dallas Texans or the National League Dallas Cowboys.

The Cowboys, in filing the suit, contend Harris is legally under contract to them, although Harris has signed a contract with the Texans. The Cowboys claim ownership on the retirement aspects of a standard NFL contract which Harris signed with the Los Angeles Rams, who later traded Harris to the Cowboys.

Harris claims the contract should not be binding in that he did not actually retire from pro football but chose to sit out the 1959 season because of a salary disagreement with Los Angeles.

A BIG BUNCH—J. L. Bunch, bowling under the McAlister Van Line colors, rolled the high series of the season in the Men's Summer League. His 652 total was more than enough to outdistance his contemporaries on the hot weather circuit. (Photo by Jackson)

"Come, Let Us Reason Together"

In the past 4 weeks much heat has been generated but very little light has been produced on the proposed legalization of the sale of alcoholic beverages. The so - called Wets have been called "nothing but a bunch of drunks that were willing to pervert their children for a good time and a few pieces of silver." "They were more interested in PROFITS than PEOPLE." "More concerned about MONEY than MORALS." These so-called Drys even imported an out of town expert who said that the people in behind the legalization were actually "Communist or Communist Stooges." We have been told that if you signed the petition that the Drys would bring economic reprisal to bear on any businessman who signed the petition. They even had a youth parade to bring innocent children into this fight.

This is a small town that is badly divided as it is. Do we have to treat our friends and neighbors this way? After the election is over we are still going to have to live together, wet or dry, so as the Holy Bible says, "Come let us reason together." What are the facts about these allegations? Some of Snyder's outstanding business, civic, and church leaders are for the legalization of alcoholic beverages. Are they drunks or communist? Or stooges? We think not. Do you think they are perverted? Do you think they are going to intentionally pervert their own children? Do you think it is Christian, or even fair, for individuals to coerce or blackmail business people for signing a petition? The 1st amendment to our constitution specifically states that Congress shall make no law which abridges the freedom of speech, or the press, or the right of people to peaceable assembly, or to PETITION the government for a redress of their grievances. If Congress does not have the authority, who do these people think they are? To petition for an election is not a vote. Many who did sign the petition will vote dry. Many who did not sign the petition will vote wet. Why should people be subjected to all forms of abuse for doing something that is guaranteed in our Constitution?

We are told that there is a great moral problem involved with alcohol. Is it with the selling or the drinking? We are not advocating that anyone should drink unless he wants to, which they will do anyway. Is intoxicating beverage some new curse put before the people? Or has it been with us since recorded time? Do you think that prohibition is the right answer? Remember, we tried that once before and think of countless people killed or maimed directly by poison liquor. One of the goriest parts of our American History was written during the prohibition era. If prohibition is the answer, why don't we prohibit smoking? We are told that smoking kills untold thousands. Or does it really boil down to this: "I don't believe in drinking so I am going to stop you." Is this the American Way?

Here are some questions we ask you to ask yourself. Think with reason instead of emotion.

1. Will people in Snyder quit drinking if we vote dry?
2. Can the sale of alcoholic beverages be more easily controlled if sold by licensed package stores or if sold by bootleggers?
3. Will it be easier for teen-agers to get beverages from licensed package stores or from a bootlegger?
4. Do you think having legal package stores will help keep Snyder money at home?
5. Do you think voting Snyder wet would hurt or help Snyder to get industry here?
6. Snyder has the lowest overall taxes in West Texas, has the only North & South, East & West railroad connection in West Texas, has ample water, fuel, a labor surplus, a centralized location with almost 1,000,000 people living in a 100-mile radius, has outstanding schools, parks and churches. WHY is all the industry moving to the wet areas, and Snyder is getting nothing?
7. Do you think there are not as many Christians living in a wet town as a dry?
8. How many Christians living in Snyder keep alcoholic beverages in their homes, but do not use it in excess?
9. Mr. Businessman and Property owner: How much do you have invested here in Snyder? Ranger HAD 30,000 and Eastland HAD over 20,000 people. They now have 3,500 and 5,000 respectively. Who will be the big loser if this happens to Snyder? Which way are we headed now?
10. Voters of Snyder: Did you know that only 5 out of 20 pastors who fought the 1st sale of alcohol in 1956 still live in Snyder?
11. Where did the pastor that lead the dry forces in 1956 settle in his new church? If a wet town is such a vile and wicked city, Why did he take his own wife and children to live in such a place? Is he planning on drying up the 4th largest city in Texas?
12. The wets are supposed to be more concerned about profits than people, more concerned about money than morals. Are profits and money such terrible things? Does it not take profits to run our churches? Does it not take money to build our schools? If the people cannot make a profit or money, what incentive is there for merchants and business people to stay? How are we going to attract new people and industry if the present people are not prosperous? Profits are basic to our free enterprise system. There are two forms of Government that don't believe in profits, and every thinking American is opposed to both.

Those are some questions that we believe you should sincerely ask yourself. Search your heart; then if you still believe that Snyder should remain as it is, that is fine. We will respect your opinion, but please be as tolerant of the other fellow.

This election is for OFF-PREMISES use only. There will be no honky-tonks, taverns, or saloons. We Honestly believe that this will help not hurt our town or our people.

Fish Dies Of Starvation

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — There's no telling what was on the mind of Flathead the catfish, but if he wanted another beer he didn't get it.

The huge catfish died in his 1,700-gallon tank at the zoo Thursday of self imposed starvation. It was his second and final hunger strike.

The first one, coming right after his capture, ended when zoo men poured a bottle of beer down his throat. That stirred Flathead into a healthy appetite that lasted six months.

But he quit eating again three weeks ago. His weight dropped from 57 to 44 pounds. The zoo is looking for a replacement that won't be so choosy.

Saturday Only, Scalp Specialists In Big Spring, Texas Will Show How to Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

Saturday, Sept. 17, at the Crawford Hotel in Big Spring, Texas Staff Director, Mr. J. C. Peak will give free hair and scalp consultation between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. to hair worried men and women.

Erickson Hair and Scalp Specialists, the oldest and largest organization of its kind makes regular visit to Big Spring, Texas throughout the year to assure you of success in a minimum period of time. Erickson is now in its seventh year. Last year alone, one-quarter million Erickson home scalp treatments were sold. This is evidence alone of success. So, why put off your hair problem any longer?

Before After
Mr. T. A. Melton, Jr.

Before After
Mrs. Virginia Barnes

In a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss (a condition described as male pattern baldness), we know of no treatment including the Erickson treatment that is of value. None of the persons shown have male pattern baldness.

GUARANTEE SATISFACTION

You will be given a written guarantee by the Erickson Hair and Scalp Specialists for the length of time treatment is required on a pro-rated basis. Don't be skeptical—this guarantee alone assures you of success. So, why put off your hair problem any longer?

Before After
Mr. K. Fryer

Baldness is slow and gradual, even in the most common forms. The source of the most common causes are mistreatment and neglect.

If you now, or have in the past, noticed dandruff, itchy scalp, excessive oiliness or dryness, excessive hair fall or thinning at the temples or crown, you should see Mr. J. C. Peak Saturday. He will determine the type of individual treatment required, explain to you what results you can expect, how long you will have to use Erickson treatment, and how much the cost will be, which is usually less than imitators.

FREE CONSULTATION

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for your free hair and scalp consulation. The only obligation is to yourself, to save your hair and gain more coverage if your "hairfactory" is still producing even "fuzz." You can easily follow this new modern method in the privacy of your home.

For your free hair and scalp consultation, go to the Crawford Hotel between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. on Sept. 17, in Big Spring, Texas and ask the room clerk for Mr. J. C. Peak's room number, or call him. He does not make appointments, so come at your convenience. Consultations are given in private. You will not be embarrassed in any way.

Prophets of GOD

That's what they were. They were of great faith, these Trail Blazers, and most surely they were commissioned of God. On their westward trek, they built homes, planted families and erected churches and schools. These dedicated pioneers set out to finish what had been intended in the first place. God commanded, "go ye into all the world," and these imbued started their journey which has made life more abundant for all of us. No sacrifice was too great. They were living examples of Americanism and true ambassadors of a great God. Now, may we take heart and from their consecrated example, erect crosses for Christ and lead those about us to a richer, fuller life in Him.

You In The Church
The Church In You

— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.
