Wright Patman's Weekly Letter

First Congressional Dist. of Texas
"Heart of the Gulf Southwest"

The $4.7 Billion Cut in Excise Taxes has been signed into law by President Johnson. $1.8 billion will be cut immediately, and another $1.6 billion on January 1, 1966. The remaining $1.3 billion will be cut on January 1, 1967, 1968 and 1969. By the beginning of 1969 only a 1% tax on new automobiles, sumptuary taxes on items such as cigarettes and liquor, and certain regulatory and user taxes such as the gasoline tax, which goes to the highway fund, will be left in effect. I am especially pleased that the provisions of H. R. 7, a bill introduced by me in January to eliminate certain excise taxes, were all incorporated into the final law. This tax cut will benefit businessmen and consumers all over America. Even those not directly affected will benefit from the general stimulus to our economy.

The Vitality of the American Economy has been reaffirmed in the past two weeks. Despite the stock market slide, business continues to prosper. Businessmen have shown little anxiety over the stock market slump and look for increasing economic expansion throughout the year. Reasons for optimism can be readily found in recent measures by the Johnson Administration, notably the cut in excise taxes and the increase in Social Security benefits, which will both serve as incentives to consumer buying.

Credit Requirements of Small Businesses are being neglected by the big commercial banks who are using more and more of their resources to buy tax-exempt securities. Recent figures show that the 100 largest commercial banks in the nation now hold $17 billion in tax-exempt municipal bonds. The giant Bank of America alone holds $1.4 billion, while the Chase Manhattan of New York holds $1.2 billion. The commercial banks have special money-creating powers. They have been entrusted with this by the nation, and these powers should be used to promote the growth and strength of our nation; not to look for safe havens in tax-exempt securities guaranteed by the power of government.

War in Viet Nam is expected to get hotter in the next few months, with more American troops committed and more U. S. casualties. But no one wants a big war, not even Red China. Movements for a cease fire, both public and private, are underway—the most prominent effort undertaken by the British government. The likelihood of any cessation of hostilities is believed in Washington to be at least six months away. President Johnson has made it clear that any agreements must insure freedom for the people of South Viet Nam.

Teachers are still in short supply in our institutions of higher learning. Although over 16,000 new teachers were hired in 1964-65, 940 of 1,650 universities, colleges, and junior colleges in a recent survey reported that they still faced acute shortages of teachers in many fields.

A Busy Congress. In the first few months of 1965, the House of Representatives alone has seen over 9,000 bills and joint resolutions introduced. Many of these are duplicates, but there are still several thousand different bills for consideration. Because of the number and variety of bills, Congress must largely rely on the expert knowledge of its committees in deciding which bills should be considered and passed. The Committees generally do a good job, but Congressmen should also have their own staff to study bills. I believe that the quality of legislation would be vastly improved if each Congressman were given funds to hire two legislative experts to help him in studying the issues and problems before the Congress.

Our American Government—What Is It? How Does It Function? The new 1965 edition of my booklet containing 175 questions and answers about our government has just been printed—

Drive Safely July 4th Week End

All enforcement officers of the Department of Public Safety in this area will be used to bolster the patrol force during the coming July 4th week end.

In making this announcement, Major Guy Smith of the DPS reminded the people of Texas that during this same period last year 33 people died in 32 fatal accidents across the State.

"Patrolmen of the Motor Vehicle Inspection and License and Weight Service will be assigned routine patrol duty during these three days," Smith said. "In addition, all days off for enforcement officers of the Department have been cancelled and tours of duty have been increased during this period."

Texas' motorists driving along the highways will hear a wide variety of appeals, suggestions and invitations to drive safely, legally and soberly if they are listening to their car radios. Radio stations throughout the area will again be beaming safety messages to the motoring public during this holiday period. Thru the efforts of the Dallas Council of Safety Supervisors, the trucking industries will again make available some 35 to 40 cars for "Holiday Road Patrol" duty. The "Holiday Road Patrol" program, sponsored by the truckers is a service program whose purpose is to assist stranded motorists, and at the same time assist the DPS units in any way that might be indicated.

"The solution of the traffic problem in Texas is in the hands that hold the steering wheel," Major Smith said. "Drivers should remind themselves during the 4th of July week end, and every time they drive, that the operation of a motor vehicle is a full-time job. At no other time are your loved ones more dependent upon you."

Here are a few "don'ts" for Texans celebrating the Fourth of July, 1965 compiled by the Texas Department of Public Safety:

1. Don't drink while driving, boating or swimming. Alcohol produces drowsiness much quicker in hot weather and slows reactions.
2. Don't "show off" in a car or boat. The expert professionals shun this sort of thing.
3. Don't drive "part time." A distracted or inattentive driver cannot cope with situations because he is not ready for them.
4. Don't allow picnic food to get hot before mealtime. Spoiled food can result in painful poisoning and could be fatal.
5. Don't stay unprotected in the sun for more than 15 minutes. Tender skin will burn quickly under a July sun.
6. Don't be careless with fireworks. Even so-called harmless sparklers and Roman candles have caused serious burns.
7. Don't go boating without a life preserver and don't swim away from the group. Even the best swimmer can panic.
8. Don't be a "statistic." There really is no reason to hurt yourself while having a good time.

Harvey Bros. At Clarksville Burns

Fire last Wednesday night destroyed the Harvey Bros. Implement Company, on US 82 at Clarksville, the loss being estimated at $150,000 to $175,000.

The owners, Clyde Harvey and L. H. Scott, said the metal building was insured for $10,000 and the contents for $6,000.

Cause of the fire had not been determined, the blaze having originated in the shop area in the rear of the building.

In the building were hay bales, hay twine, tractors, parts and tires, and various other material and implements.

The Clarksville fire department fought the flames about two hours before the fire could be brought under control.

Rebuilding is underway and the firm expects to be in new building and in full operation by July 10, according to Clyde Harvey.

Special Election For Constable In Precinct 3

A special election will be called in the near future for election of a constable for the Talco area. County Judge Cecil Franklin said the special election for Precinct 3 voters would possibly be held in early August.

This was decided Tuesday by the Titus County Commissioners Court and followed resignation of Loyd Graf as a deputy sheriff on June 16. Graf resigned, declining to move from Talco to Mt. Pleasant when asked to do so by Sheriff L. A. Redfearn.

The new constable will be for Precinct 3, which not only includes the immediate area of Talco, but eastward to the county line, taking in Argo, Wilkinson and other northern communities.

Citizens from Talco appeared before the Court to request county law enforcement be continued here. A marshal has been employed for several years in Talco but his enforcement is confined to the city limits.

A. M. BOLIN, W. M.
D. F. DIXON, Secretary

Austin. — Two of the three redistricting plans passed by the last Legislature soon will come under courtroom attacks.

In a legislative redistricting case in Houston, motions will be filed asking that the new plan for dividing Texas into 150 districts for the House of Representatives be declared unconstitutional.

State Republican Chairman Peter O'Donnell Jr. has announced that the Harris County plainiffs in the Congressional redistricting case, headed by George Bush, will drop out of active roles in the case because that county was treated fairly in the redistricting plan.

But the Republicans plan to bring in new plaintiffs from Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, Midland, El Paso, Jefferson, Orange and Brevard Counties to try to convince the three-judge federal court in Houston that the new law violates several apportionment principles.

On legislative redistricting, state Reps. Jake Johnson or San Antonio and Robert C. Eckhardt of Houston, who joined in the suit which led to present reapportionment procedures being declared unconstitutional, will ask the court to say that the new plan violates the U. S. Constitution, too.

Main attack is expected to be purely on the question of whether county-wide districts with more than one legislator serve to discriminate against minority racial and political groups.

No attack is expected on the plan passed to divide the Texas Senate into 31 new districts.

AUTO RATES TO GO UP — A State Insurance Board public hearing confirmed the earlier warning that auto insurance rates will go up an average of some 13.4 per cent on August 1.

Actually, new rates for property damage, liability and collision lines carried by most motorists will be increased more than 20 per cent in most areas.

A rising toll from traffic accidents is blamed for the hike.

Insured drivers paid $404,000,000 in premiums last year against $198,000,000 settled by companies on claims. Another $16,000,000 in pay-outs is pending. Board decides premiums should go up when more than 63 cents of the premium dollar goes to pay claims and adjustment costs.

COURTS SPEAK — State Supreme Court affirmed Court of Civil Appeals finding that the two-year-old law which placed bonded liquor exporters along the Mexican border under state regulation is unconstitutional.

In two separate opinions—from Harris and Matagorda counties—court held that holders of hurricane insurance policies which specifically excluded water damage coverage could not collect for flood water damages to their homes from the Sept. 11, 1961, Hurricane Carla.

UT LANDS LEASED — University of Texas leased 47,014 acres of land for $10,106,000 at the 50th public auction of oil and gas leases.

Active bids were drawn on 159 of 167 tracts offered. All leases were made for five-year terms and a one-sixth royalty on mineral production. Highest and second highest bids — $260,000 and $225,000 — were on 320 acre tracts in Ward County.

Receipts from auction will swell the Permanent University Fund to over $442,000, Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler said.

JULY 4 TOLL WARNING ISSUED — Homer Garrison, Department of Public Safety Director, estimates that thirty-one persons will die in Texas traffic accidents during the three-day July 4 holiday.

DPS plans maximum enforcement with additional personnel from other uniformed services to augment the regular Highway Patrol.

"Operation Motorcade," a DPS-directed coordinated effort among state agencies to reduce traffic accidents, will focus public attention on added dangers of holiday travel.

GOVERNOR'S VETOES — Just before the veto deadline Governor Connally vetoed the bill which would have allowed banks, savings and loans associations and others to charge up to 17 1/2 per cent interest on certain types of loans.

"No evidence was presented to the Legislature to justify these specific rates, either on the basis of reasonableness or need," the Governor said in his veto message. He said he also was concerned about a provision of the bill which would have let lenders require borrowers to purchase or provide insurance as security for a loan. That provision, he noted, would not have limited in any way "the number or types of insurance coverages which (could have been) required."

Connally vetoed a total of 40 bills passed by the 59th Legislature. Among them were:

Insecticide bill which would have affected both commercial insecticide applicators and farmers and ranchers;

Bill which would have authorized the expansion of the Upper Colorado River Authority to include Coleman, Concho, Irion, McCulloch, Menard, Runnels and Sterling Counties; and Bills creating Northeast Texas State College at Texarkana and Permian State College at Odessa.

Alcorn Gets Rainfall Report From Viet Nam, Admits He's Confused

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur apparently has gotten a weather report from Viet Nam, his letter this week indicates.

Dear Editor: When it comes to understanding the problem in Viet Nam, I leave the job to smarter people than me who have a lot more facts, and when one President after another from both parties says it's important that we keep on doing whatever it is we're doing over there, I don't argue.

Maybe I ought to be ashamed to admit it, but news from Viet Nam to me in my ignorance is as baffling as a report on a national golf tournament. I see the headlines but the names are beyond me because I don't keep up with golf. I'm worse on geography, and I don't know any more about Viet Nam than I do Brooklyn.

But I did run across one small fact about the place the other day and I've been thinking.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cotten and family of Pampa, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis, here, Will Cotten in Joliet and Mrs. Cotten in Mt. Pleasant.

According to this article, there are places in Viet Nam where the normal rainfall in November is 29 inches. That's right, twenty-nine inches. It slacks off to eleven inches in August and thirteen in September, with scattered showers and thundershowers throughout the rest of the year, except for a few months when it dries up and the temperature gets unbearable. In the months when it rains every afternoon, everything bogs down, too wet to plow or drive a tank.

Now I'll tell you, a country's in bad shape when it has to plant a crop and fight a war in between showers.

I know the free world has got to take a stand against Communist dictatorship, but it sure is unfortunate we couldn't have found a drier spot to do it on.

On the other hand, think what a snap a weather forecast has over there. One of the few places on earth where, when he predicts rain, it rains every time.

Yours faithfully, A. A.
