First Bales of '41 Cotton Received by Gins of Area

J. J. Caudle Gin turned out Abernathy's first bale of 1941 cotton Thursday morning. It was brought in by Fred Benefield from his farm near Lakeview school. From the 1,710 pounds of seed cotton there was 483 pounds of lint and 750 pounds of seed. The lint graded strict low and had a 15-16 staple. W. V. Cunningham, gin manager, stated.

The bale was ginned free and Cunningham bought the lint for 18c per pound. The market price was about 16c. A premium is to be made up for Benefield.

In 1940, the first bale was brought in by Will Darden on September 2. Cloudy, cool weather with excessive rainfall has retarded maturity and opening of this year's cotton crop.

First At Caldwell

M. M. Holbert, farmer southwest of Abernathy, took the first bale of 1941 cotton to Caldwell Gin, 13 miles southwest of here, Thursday. The bale of seed cotton weighed 2,039 pounds and ginned out 566 pounds of lint and 870 pounds of seed. The lint graded low middling with a 15-16 staple. Hub Beavers, gin manager, bought the bale for 17c per pound. The market price for that grade was about 15½c that day, Holbert stated.

Monroe Has Bale

First bale of 1941 cotton in Monroe community was ginned Monday for J. H. Davis of east of Monroe and the bale sold for $147.43, including seed, W. O. Fortenberry, ginner, stated.

Davis brought in 2,540 pounds of seed cotton, half and half. The cotton was wet and Fortenberry had to use a dryer on it, he said. He turned out a 735-pound bale that graded middling.

Merchants of the community contributed $10.80 in premium to the first producer.

Clay Barger brought in Monroe's first bale in 1940, on September 3.

First At County Line

Reports said W. A. Bowles, farmer southwest of town, took the first bale of 1941 cotton to County Line Tuesday.

Bowles also brought a bale to T. B. Stone gin here Tuesday night. T. S. Walser, farmer in the Lakeview community, ginned a bale at Stone's gin just ahead of Bowles.

E. J. Pope, farmer west of town, ginned his first bale at Abernathy Farmers Co-op gin Monday, and brought in another bale Tuesday.

Harvesting weather was cut short by rain Tuesday night and Wednesday.

"Hello, Sucker" Is Free Show

Funny-man Hugh Herbert is featured in the merchants free show, "Hello, Sucker," at the Rita Saturday afternoon. Others in the cast are Tom Brown, Peggy Moran, Walter Catlett, Lewis Howard and June Storey.

Local merchants provide this free program as a trades day attraction. Three programs, to which everybody is invited, will be given. The first show is at 1:00 p. m., the second at 2:20 and the third at about 3:40.

FEED HARVEST RUSH IS ON IN AREA

Thousands of tons of ensilage are being harvested and placed in trench silos in this territory as sunshine and warm weather favors the farmers who have been delayed more than a month by continued rains.

Binders are rolling and hands are busy heading the maize crop. Elevators are receiving grain from the 1941 crop.

Volunteer wheat is being plowed up and drills are seeding the land. Cotton is opening rapidly and if the weather is favorable the fall rush will be underway here next week.

Rains Tuesday night and Wednesday stopped feed harvest activities in this area.

J. H. Brown has returned from Savannah, Mo., where he underwent treatment for a cancer on the bottom of his left foot.

Lillie Lloyd Jackson, teacher at Gruver, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jackson, here last week-end.

L. O'Brien, Thompson and family of Amarillo visited here last week-end.

Mrs. J. O. Brannon and son of Abilene visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Struve, here.

The Diamonds Under Our Feet

In the last ten years the world consumption of cotton has jumped nearly 30%, over the last twenty years approximately 65%—evidence that there is little doubt in the minds of world consumers as to cotton's value.

If domestic consumption of cotton had increased at an equal rate during the last twenty years, our current consumption would be nearly a million bales better than the present record-breaking totals, and almost enough to take care of the current crop even with severely curtailed exports.

Surely if other nations know the value of cotton, America should know it also, for American cotton is the criterion by which the world's cottons are measured.

American cotton is not available to most world markets. But here at home it has never been more readily available than now. Of all textile fibers it is the American consumer's best buy.
