So far, science has devel- oped no process to make pupils like to study.

Democracy, like religion, suffers most from its care- less advocates, not from its enemies.

Dr. Allen Cordts, new dean of the college, delivered a short address to the crowd which he whimsically titled, "Plato, What Has Happened to Your Grove?"

Dr. Cordts speculated on what the Greek philosopher would have thought of female coeds, women's lib, the black push for equality and other academic innovations of our era.

No wonder Plato was a great teacher, with no worries about tenure, no faculty politics, no deans, no trustees, just students.

Dr. Cordts noted that "we cannot go back" and tried to answer the question of why bring up Plato at all.

He concluded that in Plato's time and ours "that which endures is the value of great teaching." The dean also lamented that "the reward of great teachers is too often the cup of hemlock or the cross on the hill."

Mersha Elliott sang, accom- panied by Cindy Graves on guitar, also on the program.

Athena Study Club Enjoys "Edgar Allen Poe"

"Edgar Allen Poe" entertained members of the Athena Junior Study Club October 12 in the home of Mrs. Wilbur Mize. Mrs. C. E. Ball, former teacher and actress dressed and acted out some of Poe's famous poems. Among her selections were "The Raven", "The Bells", and "Annabelle Lee."

The dramatic selections were well received by the members and guests from Wayne Coleman's Junior English Class, Diane Fry, Ginger

Henderson, Robin Smith and Becky Smith. Mrs. Ball is a former Lockney teacher who has developed her love of Poe and his poetry into a presentation worthy of stage performance where she once performed.

This particular week was chosen for the program about poetry because Sunday, October 15 is Poetry Day. The Arts Chairman, Jan Mize, asked members of the club to memorize at least ten lines of good literature before the next meeting in observance of National Poetry Day.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Jan Mize and members were led in the Junior Club Pledge by President Kay Williams. Roll call was to name an American poet and a title from his works.

Following the program co-hostess Virginia Owens served Mrs. Ball, guests Vida Hrucek, Jan Widener, the Lockney High students and members with spiced tea, coffee and homemade cup cakes of different flavors. The serving table was attractively arranged with a centerpiece accenting the poetry theme.

Conservation Chairman Jill Golden gave some thought provoking ideas in a three minute talk entitled "Conservation Speaks Out." Very cleverly using the letters of her department, the chairman told of everyday things we could do to conserve our land, water and other natural resources. Some ideas were to turn the water off when not in use, use biodegradable products, and use a litter bag in your car.

President Kay Williams presented Diane Fry with a charm engraved "Miss Congeniality." Diane was the club's representative in the Miss Floyd County Fair Contest and she received this honor from her fellow contestants. The club recognized her and thanked her for being their representative.

Other departmental chairmen to report were Peggy Wiley, International Affairs, who asked members to support UNICEF by saving labels from various products supporting a campaign to help needy children in other lands. She also pointed out the United Nations Day was to be observed October 24 and hoped that members would observe it the Sunday prior to that day, October 22 since that day was to be the International World Day for Peace.

The Arts Chairman, Jan Mize reported on the progress of music lessons for the girls at Girls' Town. Americanism Chairman Virginia Owens reported that posters urging citizens to vote had been placed in businesses around Lockney.

Federation Councillor Sally Carthel reminded members about the District Board meeting to be held in Silvertown on October 14. Several members are planning to attend. Junior Director Emma Lou Fry reported on the meeting she attended in Abilene. She said that leadership was to be emphasized and that Junior Clubs were to be accented during this administration.

Members voted to honor teachers and personnel of the three schools during American Education Week, October 24-30. They have volunteered to each take a day at a different building and will take home-made "goodies" to the lounges as a means of thanking the teachers for their work in the field of education.

Jan Mize, club representative on the park committee, made a report on its progress and plans for the future.

Members are to bring cookies to the next meeting to be donated to the High Plains Children's Center in Plainview. Peggy Wiley is in charge of making decorations for the party to be held the last of October.

The club initiated a program called "Operation Friendship." During the next month members will seek out a teenage friend and try to develop a deeper friendship with this person.

The next meeting of the club will be in the community room of the First National Bank in Lockney. Members will be presented a panel on "Spanning our Educational Heritage." The panel is to consist of a former school teacher, a present school teacher and a future teacher.

Members present were Beth Calvert, Sally Carthel, Emma Lou Fry, Jill Golden, Barbara Mathis, Jan Mize, Virginia Owens, Virginia Taylor, Peggy Wiley, Kay Williams, Ann Foster, Kay Bowles, Sheila Poole, Nida Peck, Barbara Saul and JoAnn Matthews.

HOW do you like the slogan "You're A Stranger Here Only Once?" A newcomer moved into the community "The last place I lived was terrible - I sure was glad to leave," he complained to a local citizen. "The people were hard to get acquainted with, set in their ways, didn't cooperate. No spirit. What kind of a community is this?" he asked.

Neva Calahan of Lockney and Mrs. Sid Brown of Floydada, were held Saturday afternoon in the First Baptist Church in Borger. Orman was pronounced dead on arrival at 7 p.m. Thursday at North Plains Hospital in Borger.

Orman was a retired shop foreman for the Chevrolet House and was a member of Isom Masonic Lodge and North Plains Knife and Fork Club. He had been a resident of Borger for the past 35 years.

Survivors include his wife, four sons, a brother, four sisters, eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday, at 2 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church in Lockney for John Sankey McCullough.

Mr. McCullough died about 8 a.m. Saturday morning at his home after an apparent heart attack. He was 67 years of age.

Rev. Gene Hawkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Seminole, officiated at the service, and burial was in the Plainview Cemetery under the direction of Carter Funeral Home of Lockney.

Whitfield of Plainview, Mrs. W. H. Messick of Plainview and Mrs. S. D. Ballard of Halfway; 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Rev. Huckabee

Funeral rites for Rev. Robert N. Huckabee, 85 year old former pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Floydada, were held Monday morning in Lubbock. Rev. Huckabee died Friday morning in Lubbock Medical Center Hospital.

He had been in the ministry 65 years and retired in 1953. The Rev. Huckabee served churches in Ralls, Wellington, Lockney, Rotan, Paducah, Shamrock, Quanah, Brownfield, Borger, Haskell, Muleshoe, Amarillo and in Floydada in 1949-50.

The deceased was a Mason, a member of Scottish Rite and a charter member of Khiva Temple, in Amarillo, member of South Plains Shrine Club and the Knife and Fork Club and the Lubbock Commission in Alcoholism. He received the Legion of Honor Award, the highest award that Demolays give to an adult.

Rev. Huckabee and Anne Campbell were married in 1911. She died in 1960 and in 1966 Rev. Huckabee was married to Lois Revelle.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Veteck of Denver, Colo.; a step daughter; two step sons; two grandchildren and 11 step-grandchildren.

T.H. Orman

Services for T. H. Orman, 78 year old brother of Mrs.

Mrs. Abrams

Memorial services for Mrs. Arla Vee Bishop Abrams, 45, daughter of Baird Bishop of Floydada, were conducted yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Floydada. Mrs. Abrams died of a sudden illness Sunday afternoon in Los Angeles, Calif., where she had been making her home for the past several years.

Mrs. Abrams was born in Kress March 12, 1927, and moved to Floydada in 1934. She attended schools here and was a 1944 graduate of Floydada High School, later attending West Texas State University.

Survivors include two sons, Walton Arthur Foster of San Angelo and Steven Abrams of Flint, Mo.; her father, Baird Bishop and a brother, Kenneth Bishop, both of Floydada.

Dr. Floyd C. Bradley officiated for the rites with interment following in Floydada Cemetery under the direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were James Lovell, Wayne Collins, Bill DuBois, Bill Brown, Elvis Warren and Ken Bishop, Jr.

"You won't like it here - too much like the place you left," was the sage reply of the local citizen.

A week later another newcomer came into the community. By chance, he talked with the same local citizen. "I sure hated to move from the last place I lived," he confided. "The people there were great neighbors, everyone helped each other, it was so easy to become acquainted. What kind of a community is this?" he asked. "You'll like it here - our community is just like the one you left, the greatest," was the reply of the local citizen.

Moral of this story, of course, is that your community is what you make it, good or bad.

A LOT is being planned for Homecoming and I sure hope I didn't forget and leave someone's coffee they are giving out of The Hesperian. If you are an ex-student from a class of 1934 up to '62, I think you are expected at a coffee somewhere in Floydada.

SPEAKING of Homecoming, Future Teachers of America, Floydada Chapter, is needing early day school books, old pictures and other pioneer school relics for use in the Museum during Homecoming. If you have such items and wouldn't mind loaning them for a few days, contact Emily Potts at 983-3916 or 983-2303 immediately.

Emily has in her possession a Blue Back Speller and McGuffey Reader which her mother found recently in some items packed away belonging to her father, the late A. B. Davis, and used in the 1900's. These two books will be on display at the Museum during Homecoming, along with many other old school items.

I DON'T know why but I predict snow for this area around November 12 to Nov. 15!

Two Females Challenge For 72 World Drag Race Honors

AMARILLO, TEXAS - Not all the race drivers in next weekend's (October 20-22) 8th annual World Finals of drag racing are good looking, but two of them at least are down right pretty.

According to officials of the National Hot Rod Association which sanctions and produces the $220,000 classic at Amarillo Dragway two attractive ladies have qualified for entry into the select field and will bid for World honors in two of the seven Eliminator categories.

Judy Lilly, a housewife and mother of two from Golden, Colo., is a serious challenger for the coveted Super Stock championship with her 130 mph Barracuda, while Shay Nichols also a housewife from Abilene, Texas, goes after the Pro Stock crown in a Camaro.

This will be Judy's fifth attempt at winning the World title. Last year she qualified for a starting berth by becoming the first female ever to win a divisional championship but lost out in the quarter-finals.

She placed second in the regional rating this year but did win the NHRA Winternationals in California last February and recently was named Super Stock driver of the year.

Mrs. Nichols, who writes a weekly newspaper column that is syndicated throughout Texas, is the only woman currently competing in the rugged Pro Stock ranks which consists of highly modified production machines capable of covering the quarter-mile in 9 seconds, at speeds of over 140 mph.

This will be her first shot at a world championship, and she earned her way into the field by finishing well up in point standings during the regular season of points races in the Western Conference.

Both girls will be facing strong competition in their individual fields when the World Finals classic begins unfolding next Friday at Amarillo Dragway.

Among the top-ranked Super

Stock entries is defending champion Ken McLellen of Friona, Tex., former champion Dave Boertman of Muskegon, Mich., and high point winner Bobby Warren of Clinton, N.C.

Mrs. Nichols challengers include Bill Jenkins, the Malvern, Pa., driving ace who has dominated Pro Stock activity with his Chevy Vega this year, and National champion Ray Allen of Orange, N.J., also in a Vega.

Friday's qualifying action gets underway at 12 noon while Saturday's continued qualifying will take place from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday's Eliminator finals will begin at 1 p.m.

The Methodist Mission Home, San Antonio, Texas, owned and operated by the six Conferences in Texas and the New Mexico Conference, and considered one of the finest agencies for unwed mothers in the United States, will celebrate the retirement of the $1,250,000.00 debt on the facility, with dedication services at 10 a.m., Friday, October 27 at the HOME site, 6487 Whitby Road, San Antonio. All Methodists and their friends are cordially invited to share in this celebration.

Bishop O. Eugene Slater, presiding Bishop of the Southwest Texas Conference Area, will make the dedicatory address. Bishop Slater was named General Chairman of the Building Fund Campaign in June, 1964, at the beginning of the Capital Funds Crusade, and gave outstanding leadership through the endeavor.

Dr. Spencer L. Stockwell, Administrator, and Dr. Darrel D. Gray, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, will assist with the dedication services.

Mrs. Ted Dotts, wife of Dr. Ted Dotts, Superintendent of the Pampa District in the Northwest Texas Conference, will be the organist at the dedication services. She is the daughter of the late Rev. Dr. J. E. Shewbert and Mrs. Shewbert. (Dr. Shewbert served as a member of the Board of Trustees at the Mission Home from 1956 until the time of his death in March, 1972.) Mrs. Dotts received a Degree in Religious Education and Organ from McMurry College, and she completed two years of graduate study in organ at McMurry.

The original HOME began in 1895 as a mission and maternity home for the unwed mother, located at 223 San Saba Street, San Antonio. It was called the "San Antonio Rescue Home." In 1936, the HOME was moved to 103 Ninth Street (old Baylor Hospital building, where it continued to operate until January, 1968, when it was moved to the present modern and fully equipped seven building facility, located on a beautiful 20 acre tract in northwest San Antonio.

Special invitations to share in the services of dedication have been sent to the active and retired Bishops in Texas and New Mexico, members of the Board of Trustees, to the District Superintendents, Conference Treasurers, Conference Program Directors, Conference Auxiliary Executive Officers, all of whom would be considered "key people" during the Crusade in helping to promote the need for funds for the completion of the building program. The wives, or husbands, of those mentioned were included in the invitation. In addition, special instructions were sent to the two former Field Representatives and their wives, the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Pitzer (1961-66), and the Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Bell (1966-1971). They were instrumental in keeping the pastors and congregations of Texas and New Mexico informed about the rehabilitative services of the Mission Home, and the need for the support from the churches.

During the dedication ceremony, the Chapel at the Mission Home will be named the "J. W. Perry Memorial Chapel." During Mr. Perry's lifetime he was a staunch supporter of the HOME, and a bequest in his will benefitted the HOME's building program in the amount of $139,657.38. He was a long time member of Travis Park United Methodist Church in San Antonio.

The fall meeting of the Board of Trustees will be held in conjunction with the dedication of the facility on October 27. The Board will convene at 1:30 p.m. The various committee meetings will be held on the afternoon of October 26.

Trustees from the Northwest Texas Conference area are Dr. H. Dewitt Seago, Lubbock; Rev. James T. Carter, Lubbock; Mrs. A. N. Gamble, Lubbock; Mr. Leo Southern, Amarillo; Rev. Alby J. Cockrell, Levelland.

cards since the DPS began issuing them September 1, 1971.

The cards, which were authorized by the 62nd Texas Legislature, are laminated and contain a color photograph of the holder. They are the same size as a Texas drivers license.

Information appearing on the cards includes the holder's date of birth, height, sex and eye color. Each card has a special identification number issued by DPS.

"These cards are especially valuable to those persons who do not hold a Texas drivers license, but who need some sort of official card to help establish their identity. Applicants have included the elderly, persons too young to obtain drivers licenses, and blind and handicapped persons. All Texans are eligible, however," Speir said.

In order to obtain a personal identification card, the applicant must appear at a DPS drivers license field office, execute a special application form, present a birth certificate or other documentary evidence of identity and date of birth, be fingerprinted and pay a statutory fee of $5.00.
