NOT HELD SIGNIFICANT
Diplomatic Contact With Hanoi Bared

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—A U.S. diplomat recently met briefly with a Hanoi government representative and handed him a message concerning U.S. proposals for peace in Viet Nam.

This was reported Monday night following White House disclosure, for the first time since President Johnson's current peace offensive began Dec. 24, that a direct U.S. contact had been made with the Hanoi regime.

However, the disclosure of the meeting did not appear to mark a shift in the present diplomatic or military situation.

No Red Response

The Communists were said not to have responded in any significant way so far to President Johnson's bid for unconditional discussions on settling the Viet Nam war.

Presidential press secretary Bill D. Moyers declined to lift the secrecy wraps on where the U.S.-North Vietnamese contact took place or who was involved. More than a dozen Communist and free world countries have both American and Hanoi representatives at their capitals.

The U.S. diplomat was said to have handed over the U.S. message to a North Vietnamese official in a brief meeting during which the two exchanged routine remarks but did not get into substantive negotiations.

The Hanoi representative did accept the U.S. communication

IN DISTRICT
Water Group Vote Slated

A light turnout is expected today as voters go to the polls to elect three directors and 13 county committeemen to the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District.

Polls open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. Any qualified property owner within the boundaries of the 13-county district may vote, officials said.

The question of whether or not several sections of land in Cochran County will be added to the district also is on the ballot. This land is north and west of Morton and south of Whiteface.

Directors whose terms are expiring are Russell Bean of Lubbock, who represents Lubbock and Lynn counties; Weldon Newsom of Morton, who represents Cochran, Hockley and Lamb counties; and Chester Mitchell of Lockney, who represents Floyd County.

All are up for re-election. Bean, who is chairman of the board, and Newsom, who is secretary-treasurer, are unopposed. Lee Thomas of Floydada is on the ballot with Mitchell in Floyd County.

One nominee will be elected to each five-man county committee in the district. The county committee approves well drilling permits and makes recommendations on various matters to the five-man district board.

Candidates for committeeman from Precinct 2 in Lubbock County are Edward C. Moseley, the incumbent, and Joe Schramm, both of Slaton. District directors and county committeemen are elected to two-year terms.

Vote Split On 19th St. High Rise

Action Is Taken At Unannounced Confab

By JERRY HALL
Avalanche-Journal Staff

LUBBOCK City Councilmen Monday in an unscheduled and unannounced luncheon session removed from the table and approved on a split vote a highly controversial high rise "apartment" project for Texas Tech students at the southwest corner of College Ave. and 19th St.

Although Mayor Max Tidmore and other officials declared the meeting, which was at the Lubbock Club, "was not intended to be secret by any means," no newsmen were informed in advance.

"The purpose of the meeting," Tidmore told The Avalanche-Journal, "was to make some board appointments and to consider the tabled zoning case."

Opposed By Home Owners

Approval of the $4 million-plus structure came after numerous strong protests of a large number of adjacent residents who appeared at two Planning and Zoning Commission hearings and one City Council session.

Councilmen Jack Kastman and W. E. Medlock voted against the zone change, and Tidmore and Councilmen Rolan Simpson and Gene Alderson voted for it.

Changes Pose Question

Two conditions recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission—one of which called for the developers to dedicate "a strip of land on the west side of College Ave. extending from 19th St. to 20th St., and averaging 40 feet to 43 feet in width as shown on the site plan for Zone Case No. 1369"—were changed and two more added by the council in the final version passed.

Speculation arose as to whether or not changing the conditions constituted a change in the zoning body's recommendation because if it did, a four-fifths vote would have been required to override the zoning body.

Street Problem Cited

There was no immediate indication of what might become of plans which were speculated upon by the council last week for a possible future grade separation at 19th and College.

Unofficial sources indicated, however, that the council has

SEVEN MILES
Bike-Riding Mom Races Stork, Wins

By AUSTIN SCOTT

NEW YORK (AP)—Getting through an emergency without subways or buses in New York City can be an experience you don't forget.

It was 6 a.m. when my wife, Jo Ann, expecting our third child any minute, woke me.

"It's on its way," she said.

We live in Brooklyn, and Jo Ann's doctor practices at St. Vincent's Hospital, seven miles away in Manhattan, ordinarily a 15 minute drive by car or a 20-minute subway ride.

Hour To Go 10 Blocks

Traffic reports were not encouraging but we started out in the car.

After taking an hour to travel 10 blocks just to reach a point where we could get out of one traffic jam, Jo Ann turned to me.

"I'm tired of being passed by pedestrians," she said. "Let's ride our bikes."

We returned home and telephoned the doctor, who wasn't enthusiastic but didn't say no.

Half an hour later, we were merrily zipping past the cars that crept slowly over the Manhattan Bridge.

Spectator Encouraging

"Just take it easy," one man yelled. "And you'll get there in plenty of time.

We did—after an hour of leisurely pedaling.

The first thing the guard in the maternity wing did was bring out a wheel chair for Jo Ann.

"But I don't need it," she protested. "I just rode in from Brooklyn on a bicycle."

"I'm sorry," the guard said, as he smiled apologetically. "You have to use it. It's the regulation."

Both Jo Ann and Stephanie Diane, 7 pounds 8 ounces, are doing fine.

Cause of the blast was not determined.

IN TRANSPORT STRIKE
Mayor's Proposals Rejected By Union

By ARTHUR EVERETT

NEW YORK (AP) Mayor John V. Lindsay directed a mediation panel Monday night to take tough measures to end New York's crippling transit strike, but the union scornfully rejected the mayor's proposals.

Douglas L. MacMahon, chief negotiator of the striking Transport Workers Union, charged that Lindsay sought to defer settlement for an adequate wage package proposal for the strikers for two years.

"Mayor Lindsay's statement is not going to contribute to the settlement of this strike," MacMahon told a news conference.

Says Figure Inflated

The union official flatly denied a statement attributed to Lindsay that the union's present wage demands totaled almost $100 million.

"The figure is nothing of the kind, it's inflated," he said.

The fiery tone of MacMahon's remarks, coming only a few hours after an angry speech by Lindsay, indicated that the two sides were still far apart toward settlement of the strike.

Earlier, Lindsay outlined a new fact-finding approach to the deadlock and spelled out the role he envisions for the peace-making panel, which included procedures that could include either advisory or final and binding arbitration.

MacMahon charged that Lindsay wanted to "defer our claims until the end of 1967 to give (Gov. Nelson A.) Rockefeller and Lindsay an opportunity to get together as far as their political problems are concerned.

Heart Attack In USSR Fatal

(By The Associated Press)

TASHKENT, U. S. S. R. (Tuesday) — An apparent heart attack early today killed Lal Bahadur Shastri, 61, prime minister of India's 460 millions, a few hours after he had signed a limited agreement with Pakistan to pull back their opposing forces.

The humbly-born, 5-foot-2, 110-pound Shastri, who succeeded Jawaharlal Nehru 19 months ago, had suffered two previous heart attacks.

Died At Villa

Shastri died at 1:32 a.m. in a country villa he was using during Soviet-sponsored talks with President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan.

Indian Foreign Minister Swaran Singh made the official announcement of Shastri's death, and aides later gave details of his passing.

The body will be flown home today.

In New Delhi, Home Minister Gulzarilal Nanda, 67, was sworn in as prime minister. He had held the job temporarily after Nehru's death.

Lauded By LBJ

President Johnson in Washington described Shastri's death as a "grievous blow to the hopes of mankind for peace and progress." Johnson said Shastri had "proved a fitting successor to Pandit Nehru by holding aloft the highest ideals of Indian democracy."

Johnson and Shastri were to have met next month in Washington.

In New Delhi highly reliable sources said a meeting between Shastri and Premier Chou En-lai of Red China was likely to have been announced for Rangoon. Border tension between India and Red China was one of the main items in the meeting Shastri had with the Burmese leader, Gen. Ne Win, in Rangoon before Shastri's departure for Tashkent.

Call For Doctor

Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, Shastri's host in Tashkent, stood in the foyer of the villa, hat in hand, and called Shastri "a great humanist of our time."

Shastri dined alone at 10:30 p.m. and went to bed at 11 but could not sleep, aides at the villa said.

About 1:20 a.m., they reported, Shastri was seized with coughing spells and stumbled from his bedroom into the hallway crying, "Doctor, doctor."

Battle Seen In Congress

Session Brief; LBJ Message Awaited

(By United Press International)

WASHINGTON — A troubled 89th Congress reconvened Monday in the darkening shadow of the Viet Nam war. Democratic leaders promptly vowed an election-year battle to defend the Great Society at home.

The House and Senate met briefly for routine business and then adjourned until Wednesday, when President Johnson will deliver his annual State of the Union message.

Legislators were looking for Johnson for answers to the overriding question of the second session of the 89th — the prospects for peace or heavier fighting in Viet Nam.

Urge Strong America

On this question hinges the future of the sweeping domestic economic and welfare programs that Congress approved last year. But even before the gavels sounded on Capitol Hill, the Democratic leadership declared it was no time to curtail or postpone the Great Society as many Republicans have insisted.

"Building a strong America at home can't hurt the military posture of the country," said House Democratic Leader Carl Albert, Okla. "Teaching children to read and write, putting food on the table of the poor, will help build the national strength."

The opposition's stand was summed up by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, Ill., in a pre-session

HARMON Jenkins, campaign chairman for 1965, was named the new president of the United Fund of Lubbock, Inc., Monday night and a full slate of officers were chosen during the organization's annual dinner meeting at the Texas Tech Student Union.

Jenkins succeeds Charles E. Pearson as the United Fund's top officer for 1966.

The evening's most inspiring moments were provided by Pat Taggart, president of Newspapers, Inc., and publisher of the Waco News-Tribune and Times-Herald.

Role Is Challenged

Taggart, guest speaker for the occasion, warned the more than 300 civic leaders and community workers in attendance:

"Our volunteer role as leaders of our own movement is being challenged by those who are saying we have failed."

A longtime civic leader and UF backer in Waco, Taggart stressed it is time for United Fund workers to make sure they understand the meaning of the important words, "A voluntary movement."

Twenty-one persons were named to leadership positions as the group determined its new officers, and chose seven members to both the board of directors and Community Planning Council.

Jenkins and the other officers were chosen by acclamation after their names were submitted by the nominating committee's chairman, Loyd M. Lanotte.

Serving with Jenkins in 1966 will be Verlon Bigham, vice

FIRST '66 SESSION

Four Document Files Purchased By County

By KENNETH IRISH
Avalanche-Journal Staff

Lubbock County commissioners Monday morning purchased four document files for the county clerk's office after opening sealed bids, and conducted routine business, including approval of time deposit transactions.

Present for the first session of the court in 1966 were County Judge Rodrick L. Shaw and Commissioners Arch Lamb, George Green, Les Derrick and Alton Brazell.

The court purchased four document files, each six drawers wide and six drawers high, on a low bid basis from McGlaun Office Supply Co. The bid was $632.94 for three files without locks and $229.58 for one file with lock.

Other Bids

Other bids were (given in the order of the bid on the files without locks followed by the bid on the file with a lock): Miller-Howard Office Supply Co., $635 and $235; Thatcher Printing Co., $637.50 and $243.50; Thomas Brothers Co., $639 and $234; Lubbock Printing Co., $687.78 and $258.86, and The Paper Clip, $652.62 and $241.15.

Approval was given to six time deposit transactions. In each transaction, time deposits will mature Jan. 16, and principal sums will be returned to time deposit to mature Jan. 16, 1967. Also in each transaction, interest will be deposited in the fund represented.

Because of a shift in banking procedures, part of the interest was paid Dec. 31 and has already been deposited in the respective funds.

The time deposits are (given, in order, principal sum, interest to be paid and, in parentheses, interest already paid:

Road Bond Sinking Fund 1956: $50,000; $38.19 (interest $1,211.81).

Social Security Fund: $15,000; $11.46 ($363.54).

Warrants Cancelled

The court authorized Royal Furgeson, county auditor, to cancel 17 warrants issued by the county which have been lost or for some reason have not been collected. Total value of the warrants, issued in 1963 and 1965, is $112.27. They include one warrant on the General Fund for $10; one on Road and Bridge No. 1 Fund for $3.50; 14 on the Jury Fund totaling $93, and one on the Idalou Park Fund for $5.77.

Most of the warrants have already been replaced. The cancellation is a routine accounting practice to clear the county books.

Commissioners authorized inclusion of two orders by the county's four district judges in the minutes of the Commissioners Court. One order appointed and set salaries for the stenographic reporters, and the other reappointed Bill Crutcher as county purchasing agent.

Salaries Listed

The court amended the salary schedules in the 1966 county budget to provide two additional deputies for the sheriff's office and a new assistant in the adult probation office.

The deputy sheriff's salaries will be $445 a month. They will work as bailiffs in the new 137th District Court and the central jury pool. The salary for the assistant in the probation office will be approximately $500 a month.

In right-of-way matters, the court authorized relocation of concrete pipe on the Henry Lawson farm by Standard Concrete Pipe Co. at a cost of $844.80 to widen County Road 62 in Precinct 4.

Also, authorization was given to relocation of utility lines by South Plains Electric Cooperative, Inc., along County Road 19 at a cost of $222.

Derrick was authorized to begin acquiring right of way to widen a portion of County 61 in Precinct 3 west of Idalou.

Brazell was authorized to make a firm offer for the purchase of a tract of land needed for improving U. S. Highway 87 North as a preliminary to possible institution of condemnation action.

Brazell told the court preparations were about to get underway for construction of a service station on the property which would be within the expanded highway right of way.

Crutcher was authorized to take bids on purchase of a "compacter - crushercutter" for Precinct 3 and a low-boy trailer for Precinct 2.

The purchasing agent also was authorized to proceed with installation of a ventilation fan in a commodity storage room at the old county folks' home.

Use of county equipment on a soil conservation project was approved by a split vote, with Green and Derrick voting for, and Lamb and Brazell voting against, approval.

The project is the digging of a slush pit for D. J. May. The project will take an estimated two hours at a fee of $15 per hour plus $15 travel time. Judge Shaw voted for approval, to break the tie.

Servicemen Adopt Sixth Grade Class

CROSBYTON (Special)—Crosbyton sixth grade students have been "adopted" by the USS Magoffin of the United States Navy.

Local sixth graders, in English class, have written letters to servicemen, including one to Billy B. Hyatt who is stationed aboard the Magoffin.

They received a reply from Hyatt describing some of the ship's travels. Then the class received a letter from Capt. J. T. Bradley Jr., Hyatt's commanding officer, informing them of their "adoption" by the ship's crew.

Captain Bradley sent the class a colorful six inch patch of the emblem of the ship and stated that, each month, the class will receive a copy of the ship's newsletter.

His letter stated, "You have no idea how much your letters mean to the men away from home. We receive mail regularly from our families and dependants, but to know that 'someone else' cares is heartwarming indeed."

Junior High School Principal Rodger Carter has placed the patch, the first newsletter received and Captain Bradley's letter in the school's trophy display case. Sixth grade teachers are Mrs. David Verner, Mrs. Lillye Jo Brown and Mrs. Sam Brown.

Develop A Powerful Memory?

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique for acquiring a powerful memory which can pay you real dividends in both business and social advancement and works like magic to give you added poise, necessary self-confidence and greater popularity.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by remembering accurately everything they see, hear, or read. Whether in business, at social functions or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can dominate each situation by your ability to remember.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in remembering anything you choose to remember, the publishers have printed full details of their self-training method in a new book, "Adventures in Memory," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Simply send your request to: Memory Studies, 835 Diversey Parkway, Dept. 4071, Chicago, Ill., 60614. A postcard will do. Please include your zip code. (adv.)

Testimony Due Start Today In Two Civil Suits

Civil jury weeks began Monday in two of Lubbock County's district courts. Testimony was begun in 137th District Court Monday afternoon, and testimony was scheduled to get under way in 140th District Court this morning.

A jury was seated Monday for the trial of a personal injury suit, styled Carla Daniel and others, vs. Richard H. Pettyjohn, in which $25,500 damages are sought.

The suit alleges that the plaintiff, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Daniel of Lubbock, was struck by a vehicle driven by the defendant in the 3500-block of 33rd St., Aug. 2, 1964. Testimony is slated to begin at 9 a.m. today. Judge Robert H. Bean is presiding.

A workmen's compensation suit in 137th District Court got off the ground Monday but was recessed until 9:30 a.m. today by Judge James A. Ellis.

The suit brought by Jose Rangel against Maryland Casualty Co., alleges Rangel was injured July 21, 1964 in a fall while he was employed by H. C. Lewis. He alleges the fall and resulting injury permanently injured his back, hip and leg, and asks a judgment of $14,035 for 401 weeks of total and permanent disability.

Members of the jury are Unie Bell Groen, H. M. McEachern Jr., Elvis B. Thornton, Mrs. Bertha Coleman, Mrs. Merle Terry, A. Fred Dahnke, Mrs. Buford Bray, J. H. Johnson, Mrs. H. D. Martin, Mrs. C. W. Cummins Mrs. Roy L. Mullins, and Thelma Scott

Three Assessed Punishment Here

Three defendants in cases before Judge Pat Moore in County Court-at-Law No. 2 here Monday were assessed punishment after pleading guilty to misdemeanor charges.

Travis Mason, 31, Floydada, was assessed a $50 fine and sentenced to 60 days in jail for obtaining telephone service with intent to defraud.

Asst. County Atty. Carson Smith said Mason was accused of charging long distance calls to the number of Mrs. E. M. Kinnison, 4306 Chicago Ave.

David Jaureguia, 18, 1623 6th St., was fined $100 and sentenced to 10 days in jail after pleading guilty to stealing four hub caps from the car of Charles McCasland, 2411-B 8th St.

Joe Lamb, 19, of Ralls was fined $75 and Alton E. Tarrant, 21, 3410-B Nashville, was fined $100 after they pleaded guilty to driving while their licenses were suspended.

Bonds were set for Edward E. Sloan, 22, Plainview, who pleaded not guilty of a check law violation, Dub White, 29, Lubbock County jail, who pleaded not guilty to two counts of check law violation, and Mrs. Warren D. Ellison, Mrs. Robert W. Ellison, and Mrs. Paul D. Ellison, 19, 1617 8th St., who pleaded not guilty to check law violations filed under each of the names.

Brownfield Man Accused In Fire

BROWNFIELD (Special) — A Brownfield man was being held Monday, charged with arson after an early Saturday morning fire that heavily damaged a cafe building and its fixtures in downtown Brownfield.

Oscar J. Ingram, 43, was charged on the arson count according to Chief Dep. Sheriff L. C. Webster, who said the suspect was arrested Sunday and today gave a statement admitting entering the building and lighting a file of newspapers. He was held this morning in lieu of $5,000 bond.

The burned building, property of Murphy May of Brownfield, was known as the Club Cafe but the cafe had not been in operation for some time. The roof of the building collapsed in the 1:45 a.m. fire, and two adjacent businesses, a recreation club and the Brownfield Paint Store, received minor smoke damage, according to Fire Chief Bobby Graves.

Nine To Speak At Vegetable Growers Meet

Theme of the all-day meeting, which opens at 8:30 a.m., is recent developments in vegetable production. The meeting is sponsored by the South Plains Vegetable Growers Council.

Officers of the council will be elected at a business session at 11:30 a.m., according to Bruce Parr of Friona, president. Ed Lewis of Plainview is vice president and Eugene Tannahill of Lockney is secretary-treasurer.

McCoy Keynoter

Orville D. McCoy, associate vegetable crops specialist with the University of California's Imperial Valley Field Station at El Centro, will present the keynote address.

Other speakers will include Gordon Powell, Texas A&M; Dr. William Trogdon, Best Fertilizers, Plainview; Joseph Ward, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Fort Worth; Archie Martin, Rowland-Gordon Co., Plainview; Dr. Bob Berry, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Lubbock; and John Weseloh, Dow Chemical Co., Dallas.

Bob Reed of Texas Tech and Jack Kyle of the South Plains Research and Extension Center at Lubbock will report on results of vegetable research conducted on the South Plains last year.

Crosbyton Chamber Names New Officers

Other new officers for next year are Bill Nickson, vice president, and Nathan Boardman, secretary-treasurer. They will be installed at the annual membership banquet Feb. 22 in Crosby County Pioneer Memorial auditorium.

Present C of C president T. J. Taylor stated that speaker for the banquet will be Joe Hodges, Odessa. Master of ceremonies will be R. H. Farris Jr., Crosbyton Chamber of Commerce representative to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Theme will be "American Heritage."

New directors to be installed at the banquet are John Brown, Dee Cash, Jim Holman, Bob Kral, Floyd McGinnes and W. W. Robertson.

Bird's Award For The Birds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon Johnson will receive a Whooping Crane Award and $2,000 for her favorite conservation project at an award banquet of the National Wildlife Federation and the Sears-Roebuck Foundation tonight.

The White House said she will disclose at the banquet the worthy cause that will get her prize money, part of a $150,000 project to stimulate interest in beautifying America and conserving its natural resources.

Mrs. Johnson also will join in presentation of other national persons, including many congressmen and senators.

She is being honored "for displaying personal enthusiasm, dedication, leadership and charm in such a manner as to enlist broad support for a new national program of beautifying highways, enhancing the attractiveness of urban and rural areas and cleaning up polluted lakes and streams."

AIRPORT BUDGET OKAYED

PLAINVIEW (Special) — A budget of $515,345 for operation of the Hale County Airport which Plainview and Hale County share jointly was presented to the Commissioners Court recently. The city has accepted the budget.

'Fun Night' Slated Saturday At Meadow

MEADOW (Special) — An annual "fun night" will be sponsored by the Meadow High School senior class in the school auditorium at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Each class has nominated a candidate for queen of the night's events. They include, starting with the first grade, Robbi Wilson, Dianne Pendergrass, Josie Branch, Traci Fleming, Mary Beth Ashburn, Susie McNabb, Carolyn Day, De Anne Bingham, Vicki Norman, Cynthia Williams, Dayna Holland and Jan Turnbough.

The winner will be crowned at 9 p.m. Saturday.

Seven Die In Plane Crash In Colombia

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — A Colombian plane exploded in air and crashed five miles east of Bogota airport on its way to a landing Sunday. Seven persons were killed.

The wreckage was found Monday. Dead beside the pilot and copilot were Colombian singer and artist Conrado Cortes; Julian Ospina, a journalist, and three representatives of the Bank of Bogota.

SHIP FOR CHINA

TOKYO (AP) — A Shanghai shipyard has built a 2,500-ton, ocean research vessel, the first of its kind to be constructed in Red China, the New China News Agency has announced. The ship is equipped with laboratories and other scientific equipment.

UPTON TEST SET

Strike Indicated In Ward County

Cities Service Oil Co. No. 1-B McDonald, wildcat four miles northwest of Royalty in Ward County, flowed gas and oil on a drillstem test.

A section from 8,095-120 feet was tested for four hours. Gas surfaced in five minutes and oil flowed out after one hour and 15 minutes. During the first 30 minutes of flow it produced 14 barrels of oil. On the second 30-minute period it flowed 2.7 barrels of oil, and in the final 30 minutes it produced 11 barrels of oil.

The test reversed out 11 barrels of oil with no water. Recovery was listed as 38.75 barrels of 42-gravity oil.

Initial shutin bottomhole pressure was 3,816 pounds per square inch. Flowing pressure ranged from 391-526 pounds, and a 45-minute final shutin pressure was 2,344 pounds.

Another drillstem test, from 8,122-213 feet, was open 3½ hours. Gas flowed to the top in two minutes, with oil surfacing in one hour and 15 minutes. It flowed 24.75 barrels of 42-gravity oil with no water in two hours.

Gas production was rated at 216,000 cubic feet per day, with a gas-oil ratio of 727-1. The test reversed out 16 barrels of oil and recovered 210 feet of slightly oil and gas-cut mud.

Flowing pressure varied from 320-687 pounds. An initial shutin pressure was 3,855 pounds in 45 minutes. Final shutin pressure for the same time was 2,454 pounds.

New Producer

GARZA — Brown Bros., and others, have completed an oil producer at No. 2-G F. B. Robinson, and others, Unit, one-quarter mile north of the Original Post Townsite in Garza County.

Perforations from 3,574-90 feet were completed to pump 86.49 barrels of 37.4-gravity oil in 24 hours. Gas-oil ratio was 250-1. The section was treated with 1,000 gallons of acid.

Location is 958 feet from south and 258 feet from east lines of Section 1,233, EL&RR survey.

DAWSON — Texaco, Inc. has scheduled a re-entry project, No. 1-DB P. W. Jeter, 15 miles southeast of Lamesa in Dawson County.

The project will deepen a 6,873-foot hole drilled by Seaboard Oil Co., to 7,665 feet. Location is 2,018 feet from south and 1,880 feet from east lines of Section 36, Block 34, T-5-N, T&P survey.

Projects Set

GAINES — Associated Oil & Gas Co. of Houston has scheduled two projects in the George Allen (San Andres) field, three miles southwest of Denver City in northwest Gaines County.

The No. 6 Ruth Hudson, and others, is projected to 5,100 feet. It spots 660 feet from north and 1,805 feet from west lines of Section 60, Block AX, PSL survey.

The No. 5-A Ruth Hudson, also contracted to 5,100 feet, is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of Section 61, Block AX, PSL survey.

Wildcat Staked

UPTON — Union Texas Petroleum Corp. of Midland has scheduled a 10,400-foot upper Bend wildcat, No. 1-10 Owens Ranch, seven miles northwest of Rankin in Upton County.

The exploration spots 810 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of Section 10, Block 2, MK&T survey, and is two miles north of BFP (Strawn) field.

Producer Completed

WINKLER — Standard Oil Co. of Texas has completed an oil producer at its No. 3-4 Vest Ranch, a project in the Arenoso (Strawn) area of Winkler County, nine miles north of Monahans.

Perforations from 8,474-542 feet flowed 356 barrels of 37-gravity oil through a 32-64-inch choke in 24 hours. Flowing tubing pressure was 100 pounds per square inch. The section was stimulated with 1,600 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 557-1.

Location is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of Section 4, Block B-13, PSL survey.

Firm Sets Budget For Construction

DALLAS (AP) — Lone Star Gas Co. and its subsidiaries, Lone Star Producing Co. and Lone Star Gathering Co., disclosed Saturday a 1966 construction budget of $33,588,000.

L. T. Potter, Lone Star president, said the budget will include $11,380,000 for the transmission system; $10,949,000 for the distribution system; $9,539,000 for the producing company operations and $17,20,000 for NIPAK, Inc., a chemical fertilizer manufacturing subsidiary of Lone Star Producing Co.

Nipak will use its part of the budget for improvements at its recently completed $25 million plant near Kerens, and two Oklahoma plants in Pryor and Tulsa.

Other construction includes a new $85,000 office building in Brownwood.

Nervousness Can Be Helped

Gynecology textbooks are concerned with the diseases of women, but you can search in vain for that disorder, so common among women, known as "Nervousness."

Nervousness usually means a general debility that affects not only the activities of organs, but also changes the personality and habits of the unfortunate man, woman or child suffering from its debilitating influences.

Its miserable sufferers are told to take up golf, sewing, walking, special exercises, swimming, or just any old hobby that will get them out of the office of their puzzled family physician.

They have about as much chance forgetting nervousness as they would ignoring a cancer or a broken leg.

There is hope, however, for these people.

For example, a very charming lady, age 43, had just such a condition which at one time led to a nervous breakdown requiring 14 days of hospitalization. She had insomnia and extreme depression and was told by a psychiatrist her case might end in suicide. She had also been diagnosed as having a "nervous stomach." Nothing seemed to help. She finally found her way into our clinic for examination.

Our regular spinal analysis and spinographs located nerve disturbances in her spine caused by misalignment of a vertebra. This was resulting in faulty function of several areas of her body. Could this be the cause of her trouble? We thought so and proceeded to correct the condition.

She made a tremendous response. Just last week she told us, "I haven't felt this good in years. I'm sleeping every night, have stopped worrying and am really enjoying life."

This is just another exemple of how chiropractic procedures are restoring people back to health after other methods have failed. Of course, a chiropractic examination is necessary to determine if you are a chiropractic case.

CROSBY TEST SCHEDULED

Andrews Project Completed

George M. Blair and R. H. Meriwether of Midland have completed No. 1-13 University as a northwest extension to the Magutex (Devonian) field, 19 miles northeast of Andrews in Andrews County.

The well potentialed to flow 256 barrels of 43-gravity oil through a 20-64-inch choke in 24 hours from perforations at 12,575-596 feet. That zone was stimulated with 500 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 665-1.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of Section 13, Block 4, University Lands survey.

CROSBY worldwide Petroleum Corp. has staked location for No. 3 Curtis Wheeler as a 4,500-foot test in the Ridge (Clear Fork) area of Crosby County, eight miles northeast of Slaton.

New Producer

HOCKLEY — Pan American Petroleum Corp. has completed its No. 111-A Ellwood, project in Smyer field, seven miles northwest of Smyer in Hockley County.

The well potentialed to pump 37.19 barrels of 25.4-gravity oil plus two per cent water from perforations at 5,880-6,025 feet in 24 hours. Gas-oil ratio was too small to measure. The section was stimulated with 15,000 gallons of acid.

BOTH PLAGUED WITH CARR TROUBLE

Texas GOP, Labor-Liberals In Trouble

TWO SEGMENTS of the body politic in Texas appear to be in serious trouble as the lineups for the year's elections take more definite shape.

One is the Texas AFL-CIO, whose chieftains have suffered two heavy blows. Their "man in Washington," Sen. Ralph Yarborough, felt the call of duty on the Potomac much more strongly than he did Texas labor's call for him to oppose Gov. John Connally in the May Democratic Primary.

He made this decision in spite of finding what he contended is "tremendous discontent" with the Governor among the people of Texas. He hopes the labor-liberal forces will find a strong candidate, but he must know that the AFL-CIO hardly can find a man who shares his hatred of Connally enough to get into the race.

The second blow was Cong. Jim Wright's decision to seek re-election instead of opposing Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr for the Democratic nomination to run against Republican Sen. John Tower. The Wright soul-searching, and the well-publicized call for contributions and expressions of support, had the predictable result — not enough of either.

With its prime prospect gone, the unhappy AFL-CIO is reduced to vague talk about persuading Don Yarborough, Houston liberal and unsuccessful candidate for Governor, to run. Or possibly State Sen. Franklin Spears, if he is ruled ineligible to run for Attorney General.

Because of all this bitterness, the labor leaders are predicting that they might "go fishing" if there is a Carr-Tower confrontation in the November General Election. The idea here is that if they cannot name the Democratic candidate they will be willing for the strongly conservative Tower to win, as they helped him to do in the special election against William Blakley.

With this prospect in view, it is obvious that Carr will be better off if he escapes a bitter primary fight, and is able to conserve his financing and campaigning energies for the bout with Tower.

It could be quite a bout, because the second segment in trouble, the Texas Republican party, is concentrating virtually all its 1966 effort on re-electing Tower. The party's progress toward making Texas a two-party State seemed most promising before 1964. The Republicans had a U.S. Senator, two Congressmen and nine members in the Texas House of Representatives. Now they are down to Senator Tower and one House member.

They have some hope of electing "two or three" Congressmen this year, but their plight is reflected in the fact that their proposed entry against Cong. Earle Cabell of Dallas is Greer Garson, motion picture actress. That at least would be an attempt to get on the "entertainment bandwagon."

However much trouble these two segments, the liberal Democrats and the Republicans, might be in, they could join up, hating each other all the while, in an attempt to thwart Carr's Senatorial bid.

Indications are that Carr, because of an outstanding record and truly Statewide support, should be able to fight successfully on two fronts. Strange bedfellows, though.

'Mission To Hanoi' Calls For Prison

THIS COUNTRY'S three outstanding candidates for jail cells are Professor Staughton Lynd, of Yale University, Thomas Hayden, a founder of "Students for a Democratic Society," and Herbert Aptheker, "Communist party theoretician."

All three are well known for their contempt for the American Government and its laws. The contempt is so thorough that they defied the State Department's ban on travel to North Viet Nam, to visit Hanoi for "the truth" about U.S. failure to bring about peace.

Arrangements for the trip were made by Aptheker, dedicated Communist and father of Bettina Aptheker, dedicated Communist and agitator for the Viet Cong-North Vietnamese cause on the University of California campus at Berkley. Lynd is a hero of the "far-leftists" in the U.S., a frequent speaker against American policy toward Southeast Asia. Hayden is a "civil rights" and "Anti-Viet Nam" agitator.

In other words, their "intervention" was the equivalent of a gang of mice volunteering to guard the cheese supply. Sure enough, they brought back a fat packet of Communist propaganda, including the "chuckle of the week," Premier Pham Van Dong's denial that there are any North Vietnamese troops in South Viet Nam.

In their homecoming statement, Lynd and Hayden made much of Hanoi's doubts about the "sincerity" of U.S. peace efforts. Their visit coincided with the most unmistakable offering of negotiations by President Johnson.

But the point at hand is that they had no legitimate business in North Viet Nam. This applies not only to such pro-Communists but to anti-Communist Americans as well. Dealing by unauthorized persons with a foreign government in an attempt to influence its relations with the U.S. is a crime under the Logan Act. In addition, each is subject to a $5,000 fine, five years in prison, or both, for making the visit without State Department permission.

The maximum should be given the three, not only because they deserve every bit of it, but because the Government needs to show clearly that it will not tolerate such traipsing about by anyone at all who takes the notion.

'Justice Underfoot'

THE PATRIARCH of Moscow and all Russia, Alexei, in his Russian Orthodox Christmas message, accuses the United States of "trampling justice underfoot."

Delivery of the message was in Moscow, where even patriarchs may become experts on such matters.

DAVID LAWRENCE:

Average American Can Learn From A Rhodesian's Letter

WASHINGTON—What's "Rhodesia" all about? Why should anybody in the United States worry about events in that country in Central Afrida? Can the realistic situation be summed up and simplified so that the average American can understand it?

This correspondent has just received from an American businessman a letter that had come to him from a well-informed man of financial and business background in Rhodesia, who penned it primarily for the eyes of his close friend in the United States.

IT READS AS follows:

"Having sold my business interests in Britain, I came here with my wife and two children in 1958. At that time there were three territories—namely, Rhodesia, Zambia and Malawi—federated in one unit under the British government. It was the fact of this single economic unit of 9,000,000 people which attracted a great deal of business at that time, and the potential was very vast. The Federal Parliament was led by Sir Roy Welensky, and the economic and social progress during the years of its existence was remarkable.

"Unfortunately, the spirit of African nationalism which demanded immediate power became rampant, and in the face of nationalist demands the British government broke up this federal unit and returned all of the territories to their constituent parts.

"THE MOST advanced territory in every respect was that of Rhodesia, and it had enjoyed internal self-government since 1925 and was a remarkably well-managed country. The Parliament consisted of fifty European members and fifteen African members who were elected entirely on a non-racial basis and on a qualitative franchise. That is to say, the principle of 'one man, one vote' did not apply, but individuals of all races could obtain their vote by showing that they had some measure of educational or property qualification. In the case of what are known as the 'B Roll' voters, these qualifications were minimal and resulted in the fifteen African seats in Parliament.

"Over a number of years, however, it was predictable that the African representation would increase as more of them qualified for the vote, and in anything between ten and fifteen years the control of government would pass into black hands.

"I have no doubt whatsoever that the principle of 'one man, one vote' is totally opposed to the interests of the people—and I mean all the people—of Rhodesia. There is no doubt that this country is today what it is as a result of the initiative, skill and capital of the white man. He is prepared to accept the African in government over a period as he becomes qualified to govern but not to hand over instantly. Just to complicate the position further the African nationalists, who agreed to all these arrangements being put into force, later went back on their word and resorted to methods of intimidation, thuggery and violence in order to place themselves in power without delay.

"WHILST THE British Government granted complete national independence to the two less-developed territories of the former federation, they refused to grant independence to Rhodesia in view of the majority government of the white electorate which would not disappear until a number of years had elapsed. I consider that this was a grave injustice and, although our leaders tried to negotiate independence and offered guarantees that the constitution which would result in African rule in a number of years would be respected, these negotiations failed. Our cabinet decided that it could no longer recognize the colonial aspect of British Government rule over this territory and declared the country to be independent.

"There is no doubt that this country could exist and take its place as an honorable member of the nations of the world if it were left to itself. But the British and American Governments have put their heads together to destroy Rhodesia. I state this because, if it were not for the action of the British and American Governments, the other nations in the world would be powerless and most of them would accept Rhodesia in a short time as a national entity.

"IT SEEMS to me the utmost folly that this damaging policy should be pursued. There is an international effort being made to ruin this peaceful and delightful country which has been well governed for many years and which is a threat to no other nation in the world. It is, in fact, one of the best bastions against Communism in Central Africa, and we cannot understand why America fights against Communism in Viet Nam but is doing everything possible to ruin the opponents of Communism in Central Africa. We sincerely believe this policy is not only misguided but completely wrong in its conception. For those who live in the vicinity of the Congo and know what happens whan a civilized economy is completely disrupted and savagry takes control, it is appalling to think of the policies which are being adopted against us at the present time."

See! Always Impossible Conditions!

ROWLAND EVANS & ROBERT NOVAK

Bailey's Burden Heavy

NOVAK

WASHINGTON—What really burned up Democratic National Chairman John Bailey was not just the sudden disappearance of his two secretaries, but the loss of the big console television set in his office.

Both the secretaries and TV set disappeared one night in a long-overdue economy move without any notification to Bailey. An ordinarily mild-mannered politician with the comfortable demeanor of an old pro, Bailey blew up. Later he recovered one of his secretaries, along with his composure, and had an audience with President Johnson.

HE DID NOT recover the power to run the National Committee, however. That power now has disappeared.

This fact signifies that the slow transfer from John F. Kennedy's political operatives to Lyndon B. Johnson's is now just about complete. But besides his lost power, the comic opera loss of Bailey's TV set and secretaries underlies two other friends at national party headquarters: a need to cut down the profligate spending of the past year and a general atmosphere of something less than cool-headed efficiency.

WITH KENNEDY-MAN Bailey now powerless, National Committee headquarters is run by Texan Clifton Carter, President Johnson's old political henchman. But Carter really takes orders from White House Aide Marvin Watson, veteran leader of the Texas Democratic party's right wing.

Ex-business executive Watson himself took a hard look at National Committee books when Richard Maguire, a close-mouthed member of John F. Kennedy's Irish Mafia, resigned recently as National Committee treasurer. That look shocked Watson.

Although the President had been told the books would be balanced by the end of the year, Watson found the debt slightly over $1.7 million with no visible means of liquidation.

WATSON FOUND, further, that the highly-touted scheme to hold more than 200 fund-raising movie parties around the country was far less than a complete success. Only one-third that many have been held.

That's not all. Fund-raiser Maguire, a mysterious figure in Washington, also fell below par with his much-advertised "Why I Am a Democrat" contest. Contrived as a major money-raiser by charging contestants $10 apiece, this scheme actually may end up costing more than it brought in.

To cut down the Committee's voluminous spending, Watson and Carter have whittled down the voter registration section, and this worries party pros.

HEADED FOR FIVE years by West Virginia's Matt Reese (a Kennedy man since 1960), voter registration was one of the Committee's most successful operations. Now Reese is out (along with two other top Committee holdovers from Kennedy days) for economy reasons.

This could well have a multiplier effect. The AFL-CIO's political action committee (COPE) usually raises up to $1 million for national registration and spends it in conjunction with the National Committee's own drive. If the National Committee drive is not functioning up to par, the impact of COPE's money will be reduced.

ON THREE of four successive weekends recently at the LBJ Ranch, President Johnson entertained movie man Arthur Krim of United Artists and his wife, trying to entice him into succeeding Maguire as chief fund-raiser. The polite but insistent answer: no, thank you.

Perhaps typifying expensive, confused 1965 at the National Committee was the case of Vice President Hubert Humphrey's missing picture. In a slick new brochure on how to get out a big Democratic vote, (called "Every One Counts"), the National Committee forgot about including either the name or picture of the Vice President.

HUMPHREY DASHED off a tart letter to Bailey pointing out that, even if he is "only" Vice President, he HAS campaigned for the Democratic party for many years. The first edition of the pamphlet was scrapped. In the second edition the Vice President's full-page picture follows Mr. Johnson's.

Stripped of power and facing confusion, empty coffers, a depleted staff, and no fund-raiser, John Bailey would like to quit and devote full time to his job as Connecticut state chairman. The topper to all his troubles is that President Johnson may not let him.

ANDREW TULLY:

LBJ Looks At 'Poverty'

WASHINGTON—Whether or not funds for the war on poverty are reduced this year, it is dawning on the White House that the program has not exactly won the hearts of the nation's consensus.

President Johnson, whose antennae have always been sensitive to public criticism, is annoyed at the bad press the program has been getting. There have been too many scandals and too many complaints about the big salaries paid administrative officials—up to $27,500 in cities such as Chicago, New York and Boston. He has threatened wholesale firings and a general clean-up if Sargent Shriver fails to put his house in order.

The President's mood is reflected in the fate of one of Shriver's more preposterous proposals. This was the plan whereby several hundred dollars annually would be handed over to every family whose income falls below the accepted poverty level of $3,150 a year.

"IT'S DEAD," said a veteran Johnson aide who advises the President on domestic policy. "It might have had a chance a year ago, when everything was bright and shining, but the boss told Shriver he wouldn't give it a second thought now that the rocks are flying."

This is a blessing to be counted gratefully in a day when the Republic seems beset on all sides by political mountebanks. Aside from the $4 billion a year cost—to be paid by those earning more than $3,150 a year—Shriver's brainstorm would be alien to every objective of the anti-poverty program. It would be a plain and simple dole, whereas the central aim of the program is to get at the causes of poverty.

WHATEVER ITS weaknesses, the war on poverty was founded on a solid concept—improving the condition of the poor by helping them to help themselves. It has attempted, with varying success, to train the unemployed and school dropouts, prepare children for school and give economic aid to needy college students. Basically, it is the kind of program the plain citizen can understand and, perhaps grudgingly, approve.

But somebody was suffering from an attack of lunacy when Shriver's dole proposal was leaked to the press. With all the polls showing rising discontent over the anti-poverty campaign, the unveiling of this outlandish piece of flummery was the greatest disservice that could have been done to the cause. It made the whole business sound silly when in fact the program is just getting into high gear.

LYNDON JOHNSON is not one of those Presidents who live in "splendid isolation." He reads all the polls, including some private ones financed out of his own pocket. He is interested in and influenced by what they say, and he was especially disturbed by a recent Gallup job reporting that 48 per cent of citizens polled believed that political favoritism and corruption in Washington was on the increase.

For a man whose fetish is the creation and preservation of the best possible public image for his Administration, such a poll was a reflection on his own integrity and good will. The President has been around long enough to know that the White House cannot escape the final responsibility for its hirelings' mistakes and sloppy performances. He has turned out the tumbrels, and heads will fall.

HENRY J. TAYLOR:

Japan Gets Broad Hint

IN PRESIDENT Johnson's diplomatic foray he handed Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey probably the toughest nut of all when he sent him to Japan.

It's a joy to report the impressive private information I have about his session there from a Japanese statesman of impeccable authority.

Last April Japan's militant, Red-infested Zengakuren "students" movement, centered at the University of Hokkaido in the north, forced the cancellation of talks by State Department policy planner Walt W. Rostow. The Peking-controlled apparatus produced 25,000 demonstrators in snake-dance parades against our Southeast Asian anti-Communist policy.

TWO OTHER large and militant Red groups likewise add to the sound and fury. These are the Association for the Abrogation of the U.S.-Japan Security Pact and the League for the Attainment of Demands. They make the visits by our nuclear submarines and the presence of U.S. bases the hottest political questions in Japan.

In fact, even at the government level, picketing by leftist members of the Japanese Parliament recently forced us to transfer our Little John rocket sites in the Mt. Fuji foothills to Okinawa.

ASAHI, WITH its five million circulation, is the largest and most influential newspaper. Mainichi Shimbun breathes hard in second place. The Japan Times, like the Times of London, is geared to the views of the government. All greeted Mr. Humphrey with utterly isolationist editorials.

Yet, who stands closer to the Red Asian threat than Japan? And who, by the way, is more dependent on the military and economic support of the United States? Nobody.

WE POURED our taxpayers' billions into Japan's reconstruction, and her resulting prosperity rests importantly on her exploitation of the lush American market.

There were 13½ million cotton spindles in prewar Japan. Three million were left at war's end. Her mills were largely rebuilt by the U.S.A. And we subsidize her immense textile industry with American cotton at prices cheaper than our own mills must pay. Then she floods our country with low-priced cotton products that have closed many and many an American factory.

THE WORLD'S largest blast furnace (U.S.-financed) is in Japan. Aggravating our gold crisis and balance-of-payments problem, our 1965 steel imports exceeded our steel imports by about $600 million. Much of this was from Japan. We have to buy from Japan to sell to Japan, of course, but why should we permit dumping?

Japan has 14 automobile manufacturers. An $11 million U.S. Export-Import Bank loan last year to Nissan's at Appama provided a $5.5 million automatic press for metal parts that gives Japan perhaps the world's lowest-cost automobile plant.

JAPAN'S MEMBERSHIP in the Organization for Economic Co-operation and in the International Monetary Fund binds her not to restrict the import of American automobiles. Tokyo has nevertheless delayed liberalizing imports. About all we've gotten is a "So solly."

"There is much room for our sales expansion in America," says Nissan Export Manager Kaiji Uno.

Japan makes more than half of the world's motorcycles — 2½ million yearly. One company alone exports 900,000 a year, chiefly to the United States.

"There are no restrictions on our exports into America," an industry spokesman explains.

JAPAN, LIKE Europe, lives today under the shield of our great atomic retaliatory force (free of charge), without which Japan could have no independence whatever from the Red bloc and might well have been occupied by the neighboring Russians or Red Chinese long ago.

By sheer proximity, as in the case of Berlin, no place on earth should be more alarmed by any American appeasement of Red aggression than Japan.

IN SKILLFUL tones Vice President Humphrey stated to the Tokyo governmen tthat we are now in the process of recounting our friends. He implied that if Japan somehow could not back our Viet Nam purposes we would have to review our own purposes in the many things we do to back Japan. He quietly talked cold turkey.

Valuable statesmen know that the purpose of diplomacy is to achieve results, not to win banquet toasts. Instead of a tour only to build his image here, my information from inside Japan is that Mr. Humphrey's Tokyo performance, come what may, was statesmanship at its best.

GUEST EDITORIALS:

Steamship Sages

MANY FIRMS have had to deal with a tempest in a teapot, but the United States Lines recently became the first company to have to solve a dilemma in a doghouse. Two coeds had applied for doghouse accommodations aboard the liner United States, which offers kennel-class transportation to Europe for only $50. One would travel in a St. Bernard suit, the other in de-Collietage dress.

The firm retrieved the initiative as skillfully as any Labrador. It neither barked nor whined at the problem, but decided to play for howls. In the rejection letter, the line offered some pointers in ethics:

"Can one escape the requirements of life in this case money?—by disguise and pretense? Furthermore, can a society and a steamship company survive on deception?"

The girls could not be allowed to become precedent setters, the firm argued, because this would lead, to "a dreadful chain of events. People would travel as cats, birds, excess baggage or even tangerines. In the end the confusion would become so great that we might be hounded into thinking we were an airline, and by the our collapse would be complete."

The company's contention that it is unethical to put anybody in the doghouse is one that the girls should remember after they have ceased being coeds and become wives. Such reasonable dogma must give them paws, even if they do not completely con-cur.—(Dallas Morning News.)

Youth And Age

THE POET Wordsworth once wrote: "O man, that from thy fair and shining youth . . . Age might but take the things that youth needed not." If we may believe the latest reports, age is borrowing rather heavily from youth these days.

A department store executive observes that Americans no longer strive to keep up with the Joneses. They now fight to keep up with the young and their tastes are dictated by their sons and daughters. Diet fads, exercise, dance lessons, "young" clothes and (heaven help us!) even cosmetics for males are booming. It is reported that the sale of men's hair dyes had increased 73.3 per cent this year. Youth is being merchandised like tooth paste and tomato catsup.

All of which conjures up visions of a nation of perpetual sophomores, lively as mountain goats, eyes sparkling with ersatz gaiety.

Fiddle-faddle. Most mature people, we suspect, just plug along trying to grow old as gracefully as they can, a little thinner on top and a little thicker amidships, content to leave youth to those with stamina enough to survive it.—(Milwaukee Journal)

On Memory Lane

LONDON — A new world's peace organization was founded today in bomb-scarred London with Great Brittain's Prime Minister Attlee challenging all people to choose between "life or death" and outlaw war.

WASHINGTON — Eleven noted German atomic scientists "kidnapped" by Anglo-American forces last spring, are being allowed to return to Germany under orders to remain in the U. S. or British zones, it was revealed today.

SANTA FE — Highways throughout New Mexico are all slippery, but most are still passable, as a result of a heavy snowfall in most parts of the state, State Police Chief Homer C. Ledbetter reported today.

AUSTIN — Tentative nominations calling for production of 2,314,500 barrels of crude oil daily in February will be submitted by operators at tomorrow's statewide oil proration hearing.

Farmers and ranchers welcomed the more than one-third inch of moisture which blanketed thirsty South Plains land Thursday in the form of snow which fell up to early afternoon, part of it melting as it fell.

Offhand Thoughts

It's getting near the time when one has to start thinking about paying his rich uncle in Washington some dough.

U.S. PARATROOPERS MOVE

Violence In Santo Domingo Returns; Quickly Subdued

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Violence returned to the heart of Santo Domingo Monday but it was quickly subdued.

One person was shot and fatally wounded when U.S. paratroopers moved in to disperse demonstrations in support of a strike call by Communists.

Although 70 labor, student and professional leaders expressed sympathy with the strike summons, the rank and file apparently did not go along, judging from the effects.

Foupsa-Cesistrado, a Marxist-dominated labor organization, called the strike in partial support of a government decision to oust military officers on both sides of the April revolution. The strikers, however, are demanding that only army regulars be expelled, not rebels.

Otherwise Normal

The situation in the city was otherwise mostly normal. The greater part of the capital was unaffected by the demonstrations downtown and in part of the northern suburbs where high school students attempted to barricade streets and stoned cars.

Strike agitators spilled down El Conde Street, upsetting trash cans and taunting American troops. The Americans detained some of the agitators and forced them to pick up the litter. One of them refused and in an argument was shot by a paratrooper armed with a shotgun. An inter-American peace force spokesman said the man was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Both the provisional government and the military stuck firmly to their positions in the crisis over the presidential order transferring both army regulars and rebel military officers to missions abroad.

Position Reiterated

Commodore Francisco J. Rivera Caminero, outgoing armed forces minister, reiterated the military's position in the controversy. Asserting once again it was not a question of rebelling against a presidential order, he said:

"We are waiting for the president to carry out his promise to remove the eight officers from the other (rebel) side first, then we will summon the Armed Forces Superior Council to consider the presidential request."

The Superior Council, he explained, is composed of the three chiefs of staff and the three subchiefs, and acts on military decisions which the armed forces minister or the general chief of staff carries out.

Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, former president of the rebel regime, met at the Hotel Embajador with Gen. Indar Jit Rikhye, United Nations representative here. This was one of several meetings between the two men in the past three weeks. It could not be learned what they discussed.

Under the presidential order, Col. Caamano has been designated military attache in London.

OF BURUNDI

Ambassador Ordered Out

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The African state of Burundi Monday ordered the ouster of U.S. Ambassador Donald Dumont and two of his staff members for alleged contact with anti-government conspirators.

The State Department quickly summoned Leon Ndenzako, Burundi ambassador to this country, and asked him to "transmit to his country our deep concern over the possible effect of this action on our bilateral relations."

Sources in Washington said there was a question as to who actually is running the Burundo government in the absence of the premier and king.

The Burundi demand said the diplomats "rightly or wrongly" were suspected of having contacted opposition "conspirators"—presumably those who participated last Oct. 19 in an abortive coup against the government of Mwami (king) Mwambutsa IV.

Ordered to leave along with Dumont, a native of New York City, were his deputy Thompson B. Buchanan of Naperville, Ill., and Nicholas R. Milroy, a public affairs officer for the U.S. Information Service.

Asked whether Ndenzako would be expelled from this country in retaliation, Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey of the State Department said "Appropriate action is being considered."

Prime Minister Leopold Biha was seriously wounded in the coup attempt for which there reportedly have been mass executions — and went for treatment to Europe, where he remains.

One diplomatic source said there is reason to believe that the king and premier, both of whom are moderating influences, are afraid to return to Burundi.

Saddle Stolen From Truck Here

Kenneth Grisham, 4820 46th St. reported the theft of a roping saddle from a pickup truck here to police Monday afternoon. He valued the saddle at $150.

Three breakins and a couple of thefts were also reported to local officers Monday.

Patrolmen discovered a burglary at Frank Newcomb's Humble station, 525 Brownfield Hwy., early Monday. An undetermined amount of money was missing from a cash box, the owner said.

Vending machines were looted at New-Way Products, 123 N. Ave. V, Tri-Way Grocery, 3501 Railroad Ave., and Johnson Manufacturing Co., 1802 E. 50th St.

A .25 caliber pistol was reported stolen from the Western Auto Store in Monterey Center, Monday, and Betty Jo McKee, 3106 Harvard St., reported the theft of a wallet containing $76 from her purse Sunday night at the Buckaroo Lounge, E. 19th St. and Quirt Ave.

State School Will Provide Doors For Service, Group Told

The state school to be opened in Lubbock in 1968 will not solve all the problems of retardation in Lubbock but will only open doors of service to the local association, members of the Lubbock Association for Retarded Children were told here Monday.

The commend came from John Weimer of Dallas, regional representative for the National Association for Retarded Children.

Weimer told the approximately 25 persons present that the major role of the local association is helping in community planning.

He went on to stress the need for a day car service for retarded children in Lubbock to assist working mothers, families in hardship situations and emergency situations.

Weimer concluded his presentation with the showing of a film, "Selling One Guy Named Larry," which depicts the placing of a retarded youngster in a job situation after proper training.

The meeting was held at the Children's Training Center in southeast Lubbock.

SWORN IN AS SENATOR

Younger Byrd Off To Fast Start In Father's Tracks

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harry S. Byrd Jr. was sworn in Monday as a senator from Virginia, succeeding his father and getting away to a fast start in the body where the elder Byrd wielded great influence for decades.

The Democrats assigned him to membership of the Armed Services and Aeronautical and Space Sciences committees. He succeeds his retired father on Armed Services, one of the most powerful of Senate committees and one to which a freshman senator seldom is named.

Already On Job

Actually the younger Byrd has been performing the duties of a senator since certification shortly after being named to the post Nov. 12 by Virginia Gov. Albertis S. Harrison Jr. Harry F. Byrd Sr., one of the Senate's most prominent figures over a 33-year period, resigned for health reasons on Nov. 11.

Administering the oath of office was Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. Escorting the new senator to the rostrum was Virgiania's senior Sen. A. Willis Robertson, also a Democrat.

Byrd will serve until Virginia's next general election in November. Robertson's term also expires this year so Virginia will elect two U.S. senators in November. Robertson already has begun his campaign for re-election. Byrd also will run.

Family Sees Ceremony

Looking on at Monday's ceremony from a front row in the gallery were Byrd's wife, Gretchen; a son, Harry F. III, who is 22; and a daughter, Beverley, 15. A second son, Thomas, is at school in Switzerland. Byrd's father, living in retirement at Berryville, Va., also was absent.

Before his appointment to the U.S. Senate, Byrd served 18 years in the Virginia State Senate. In addition to political activities, he continues in the family business interests — large scale apple growing and publishing two newspapers in Winchester annd Harrisonburg, Va.

After the brief opening session, Byrd was escorted to the Senate office chambers of the vice president where family and friends gathered to offer congratulations while photographers took pictures.

Great Assets

At one point, Byrd called out: "Where's Paul Miller? How are you holding up?"

"I'm holding up," Miller replied.

Head of the Gannett Newspaper organization, Miller also is president of The Associated Press. Byrd, as a Virginia publisher, is a member of the board of directors of AP.

Humphrey presented souvenir bracelets to the Byrd women and cuff links to the men and to Robertson. The presents all bore the vice presidential seal.

"I wish you well, and I am so pleased that we could have this happy occasion," Humphrey told the Byrd family.

Fine Arts Role In Community To Be Discussed

"The Role of Fine Arts in the Community" will be the topic of a panel discussion Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Reddy Room at Monterey Centre, sponsored by the Theatre Guild of Lubbock Theatre Centre.

Representatives of organizations which schedule entertainment for the public will participate in the discussion. The program is open to the public and members of the Theatre Guild are urged to bring guests, Mrs. Eldon Smith, Guild president said.

Jack Sheridan, Avalanche-Journal Fine Arts Editor, will act as moderator for the panel, which will elicit audience participation.

Series Of Programs

Others in the group will be Dorothy Pizan, program director, Texas Tech Student Union; Mrs. Martin H. Benson, representing Lubbock Symphony Orchestra; Carl Gandy, Manager, Auditorium-Coliseum; June Bearden, Drama Department, Lubbock Christian College; Vera Simpson, representing Texas Tech Drama Department; Dr. Harold Simpson, on behalf of the Texas Tech Artists Course Series; and representatives from Lubbock Theatre Centre and Community Concerts.

The panel discussion is part of a series of programs for 1966, which will include a preview of a Children's Theatre production, a talk on "Contemporary Trends in Modern Drama", and a special presentation of a Readers' Theatre production by a new playwrite, in cooperation with Southwest Theatre Conference.

The Guild supports the Theatre Centre by operating concessions during intermissions and by executing other projects.

Individuals wishing to join the Theatre Guild may do so at the Thursday meeting, Mrs. Smith announced.

Body Stuffed In Clothing Bag Is Found In Auto

CHICAGO (UPI) A body of a man, strangled by a clothesline and stuffed into a zippered clothing bag, was found Monday in the trunk of a stolen car parked in the vast parking lot of O'Hare International Airport.

The victim was identified through papers found on his body as Anthony Ponzio, 36, Chicago. He had apparently been dead since the car was checked into the parking lot Dec. 18.

In Zipper Bag

Homicide Cmdr. Francis Flanagan said the body was inside a large zipper bag of the type used to carry clothing during trips. A clothesline had been looped around his ankles, his hands and his neck.

Flanagan said the pressure of the rope apparently strangled the victim.

Police said Ponzio had no arrest record except for a disorderly conduct misdemeanor when he was 19. A check of his north side Chicago address showed an apartment there had been leased to a Gloria Ponzio. She could not be found and the telephone had been disconnected.

INTENSE INTELLECTUAL

Gandhi Disciple Is New Indian Prime Minister

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

India's new prime minister, Gulzarilal Nanda, is an intense intellectual, a disciple of Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri's major opponent for India's highest office when Jawaharlal Nehru died in 1964.

Nanda, 67, was the home minister and No. 2 man in Nehru's government, but his interest in astrology and palmistry, his vegetarian austerity and a long association with leftist trade unions hurt his chances to succeed Nehru. After Nehru's death he was sworn in as caretaker head of the government but stepped aside a few weeks later for Shastri.

Backed Prime Minister

In the following months as various leaders of the ruling Congress party maneuvered to get Shastri's job, Nanda supported the new prime minister vigorously.

As home minister, Nanda ordered police to jail more than 1,000 pro-Peking members of the Indian Communist party. He also issued instructions to shoot to kill if intercommunal rioting between India's Hindus and Moslems erupted.

His tough decisions as home minister did not fit Nanda's physical appearance. A thin, ex-professor of economics, Nanda wears thick spectacles and sports a black moustache.

When he was named to head the caretaker government, Nanda said he never had expected to rise as high as the Indian Cabinet.

In Nehru's Cabinet

"I always thought I was carved out for social and economic tasks," he said.

He entered Nehru's Cabinet in 1952 as labor minister.

He had been a social worker in the labor-union field before entering the government and had founded the Indian National Trade Union Congress to counter the Communist All-India Trade Union Congress.

In the early 1960s he formed a national group to combat private and public corruption and said at that time, "Everywhere I go I create an organization, I have a knack for it."

He identified himself at one time as a pragmatist, "a Socialist but not a Marxist."

Gandhi Disciple

In 1921, when Nanda was 23, he came under the influence of Mohandas K. Gandhi and his philosophy of nonviolent revolution against British rule. Nanda resigned as professor of economics at Bombay's National College to be a Gandhi disciple. Nanda was jailed five times by the British and served seven years for his independence work.

Gandhi had persuaded Nanda to remain in the freedom struggle, rather than flee to the forests to fast and meditate, and then named Nanda to lead the Congress party's labor movement.

Nanda once said that from his days with Gandhi "I believe in freedom of the individual because I believe individual freedom leads to growth. Therefore, I want to stave off totalitarian symptoms wherever they appear." He also expressed belief that Indian communism would be a greater danger to India's democratic socialism than right-wing political groups because "of the proximity of China and the display of power there which has dazzled some of our people."

Nanda was married while an undergraduate and has two daughters and two sons. Both daughters and one son became doctors.

Tech Grad To Head New Liaison Office

AUSTIN (AP)—Wayne Gibbens, 29, veteran of three terms in the Texas House, was named Monday to head the state's new liaison office in Washington.

Gov. John Connally chose Gibbens. The post is part of the governor's administrative staff.

The Breckenridge resident will be responsible for informing state officials about federal programs, coordinating certain state-federal programs, and providing information to the federal government.

Okayed Post

The 1965 Legislature, in which Gibbens was part of Speaker Ben Barnes' House leadership team, authorized the post at Connally's request.

Connally said legislative leaders and other state officials often lacked vital information about federal programs that affect Texas.

Opponents in the legislature called the post "a high-paid lobbyist job." A spokesman for the governor's office said Gibbens' salary will be $13,000 to $14,000.

Tech Graduate

A 1959 graduate of Texas Tech, Gibbens was elected to the legislature in 1960.

Between sessions of the legislature, Gibbens attended the University of Texas Law School.

Gibbens was one of a group of young lawmakers who conducted a successful eleventh hour campaign to elect Barnes speaker after the resignation of Speaker Byron Tunnell to become railroad commissioner.

OU Students' Illicit Parties Investigated

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI)— Sex and marijuana parties involving 23 University of Oklahoma students were under investigation Monday.

Cleveland County Atty. Preston Trimble said charges would be filed against 11 students and three non-student "hangerson," who were arrested in an apartment near the campus.

Officers said one of those arrested was a nude 18-year-old girl found in bed with a male student. Police said they found marijuana, amphetamines, barbiturates, peyote and other drugs in the room.

In a separate and unrelated incident, university officials confirmed that 12 athletes living in the school's athletic dormitory had had sexual relations with a 16-year-old girl during the recent Christmas holidays. One student said the girl came to the dorm and offered herself to everyone there.

Dr. William Rex Brown, dean of OU students, said disciplinary action was being considered against all the students involved in the two incidents, "but we haven't completed our investigation."

Trimble said the marijuana raid also produced literature on homosexuality, torture and attacks on U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

Trimble said some of those arrested had taken part in a recent student march calling on the U.S. to get out of Viet Nam.

LTV Raises Common Stock Cash Dividend

DALLAS (AP) — Ling-Temco-Vought, Inc., announced Monday a doubling of its common stock cash dividend of $1 per share a year, and declared a 25-cent dividend for the first quarter of 1966.

It also declared a $1.35 per share dividend on the company's series A preferred stock.

Both dividends are payable March 24 to stockholders of record March 1.

The dividend increase was authorized, said James T. Ling, board chairman, because of "anticipated earnings from existing business, coupled with the earnings increase which will result from the acquisition of the Okonite Co."

How Fast Can You Read?

Indian Leader Shastri Dies Of Heart Attack

Shastri's personal staff, packing their luggage for a planned departure Tuesday for Kabul, Afghanistan, en route to India, put the prime minister back to bed and called his personal physician, Dr. R. N. Chugh.

Dr. Chugh rushed to Shastri's bedside and examined him. The doctor later reported that at 1:32 he could feel no pulse.

The doctor then tried to revive Shastri with mouth-to-mouth respiration. Aides said that within the next half hour nearly a dozen Soviet physicians labored over Shastri.

Kosygin arrived at the villa with his foreign minister, Andrei A. Gromyko.

Condolences Offered

"He was a great man," Kosygin said, "a great humanist of our time. . . a man who wanted to do much for his people.

"I would like to express profound condolences to the Indian people."

Then Kosygin sat on a low stool beneath coats hanging on a wall rack, signed the Indian delegation's visitor's book, and left the villa.

Shastri's body, lying in a small bed just off the hall, was draped with the Indian flag. At his feet was an armful of red flowers delivered by an unidentified Russian.

India's Defense Minister Y.B. Chavan said Shastri "was in the best of spirits" when he left a reception given by Kosygin Monday night.

Chavan reported that on the motor ride back to his villa, Shastri had said: "We must fight bravely for peace as we fought in the conflict."

It was tentatively planned that Shastri's body would be flown to India at 9 a.m. in a Soviet plane. There was an unconfirmed report that Kosygin would fly to India in the same plane.

Ayub gave permission for the plane to fly over Pakistan en route to India.

When he flew to Tashkent Jan. 3, Shastri had to go around Pakistan, flying first over the Arabian Sea to Iran and then north over Afghanistan before reaching the Soviet Union.

When the summit conference neared an end Sunday and still was deadlocked, Shastri met three times, each time for hours, with Kosygin as the Soviet leader strove to turn the negotiations into a success.

Shastri's last private session with Kosygin continued into the early hours of Monday.

Despite the rigorous routine, Shastri was smiling and in good spirits as he met at noontime Monday with Ayub and Kosygin to publish formally the "Declaration of Tashkent."

Monday night, Shastri and Ayub were Kosygin's guests at a reception. The Indian leader smiled and clapped at a brief program of music and dances.

No Basic Solution

While eliminating most of the after effects of the 22-day undeclared war between their countries last September, Shastri and Ayub solved no basic quarrels in the Tashkent meeting.

But they agreed to start withdrawing troops from each other's soil and to strive for peace.

Shastri's death injected new uncertainties into Southeast Asia.

Ever since hostilities flared with Pakistan there had been mounting pressures in India for the elevation of a stronger, more nationalist-minded leader into the premiership.

The choice of Nanda could be a step in that direction.

Kashmir Disagreement

The question now is how Nanda will set out to fulfill the terms of the agreement Shastri reached with Ayub.

They had sidestepped the quarrel over Kashmir, which touched off two wars in South Asia in 18 years, and official spokesmen of both sides differed on terms of the declaration and how they would be implemented.

Aside from Kashmir, the most difficult — and dangerous — problem to be worked out is how to withdraw divisions of armed troops from along a 1,500-mile cease-fire line stretching from the Kashmir Mountains in the north to near the Arabian Sea in India's southwest.

Interholdings

India struck across the international frontier on Sept. 6 and carved out chunks of West Pakistan in the Lahore and Sialkot sectors.

Pakistan hit deep into India's desert-like Rajasthan state in the southwest and, to a lesser extent, the Punjab in the north.

President Johnson and United Nations Sec.-Gen. U Thant welcomed the agreement. The British reaction was mixed. British officials were glad the two nations seemed to be moving toward a settlement of differences but wary of growing Soviet influence among the feuding inheritors of British India.

Russians Pleased

Soviet officials, who see their influence greatly strengthened now in both India and Pakistan, were joyous at the outcome. One Soviet official quipped to a newsman: "Now we will take our team to Viet Nam and maybe something will come of it."

Indian and Pakistani officials credited Kosygin with hauling the conference out of a deadlock that stretched through almost the entire eight days Shastri and Ayub have been here.

Shastri and Ayub twice nearly severed communications with each other and both times Kosygin stepped in to get things moving again.

Kosygin's final effort started Sunday morning and before he went home Monday morning, he had seen both leaders three times.

Shastri's body will be cremated on the banks of the Jumna River, his family indicated. The time will be fixed by the government because it will be a state funeral.

News of Shastri's death reached India in the very early morning while most of the nation slept.

But the news spread quickly, by telephone and word of mouth. Soon wailing callers began to throng Shastri's house in New Delhi.

UNITED FUND LEADERS—New officers, members of the board of directors and Community Planning Council were named for the United Fund of Lubbock, Inc., at Monday night's annual meeting. From left, they include Archie Huckabee, Fred Timberlake and Harmon Jenkins. Jenkins replaces Charles E. Pearson as UF's 1966 president. Huckabee will head the Community Planning Council, while Timberlake is to serve as campaign chairman for 1966. Seven directors and seven council members were elected, as well as the new officers. Diplomatic — in contrast to last May when the North Vietnamese regime refused to receive a Washington message sent to Hanoi through the British. That was during the previous lull in U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam.

But North Viet Nam's acceptance of the communication this time was not viewed here as of immediate significance pending the receipt of some reply through diplomatic channels. And publicly, the Communists have been continuing harsh denunciation of what they term U.S. imperialist aggression in Viet Nam.

The disclosure of direct contact came at an afternoon White House news briefing when Moyers was asked about three Americans who made an unauthorized trip to Hanoi and returned to report there had been no contact between the North Vietnamese and American governments.

Moyers Evasive

"They are incompletely informed," Moyers said.

Asked if that meant there has been direct contact with Hanoi, Moyers replied:

"That's a safe deduction."

And as far as could be ascertained from Johnson administration sources Monday night, Hanoi has yet to indicate in any way a willingness to start negotiations on a Viet Nam settlement.

The same lack of a favorable response so far had been previously reported after U.S. efforts through third parties to persuade North Viet Nam to come to the conference table.

However, despite harsh public accusations against the United States which continued to emanate from Communist capitals Monday the White House was keeping the door open for negotiations. U.S. sources declined to take the Communists' public statements as final and conclusive rejection of the idea of negotiations.

Congress

copyright interview in U.S. News & World Report.

"At what point must we draw the line in our own interest and for the sake of our own security and our own solvency?" he asked. "To me, that line has to be drawn sometime in the not-too-distant future."

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told newsmen he expected the leadership to try to keep Great Society programs at least at current levels of spending. Albert said certain circumstances could require another look at these progress, "but I don't see it at this time."

Talk of Viet Nam dominated the first day as House and Senate committees prepared for early hearings on the war.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper (D-Ky) proposed that the United States offer a ceasefire of as long as five years, to be followed by a vote in North and South Viet Nam on reunification under a common government.

Rep. L. Mendel Rivers (D-SC) urged resumption of U.S. air strikes against North Viet Nam to "help Ho Chi Minh make up his mind" about peace negotiations.

Political battle lines will be drawn more tightly today at a Senate Republican policy luncheon and at a conference of all Democratic senators.

For the moment, the President was silent on his intentions. Congress will get a clearer idea when he submits his new budget request for the 12 months starting July 1, which now is expected to total nearly $115 billion.

The White House said Johnson probably would send the budget to Congress on Jan. 24—one day before the statutory deadline—with his annual report on the economy going up the same week.

Crew Is Forced To Abandon Ship

NEW YORK (AP) — A Spanish freighter believed to have 38 persons on board, caught in the stormy North Atlantic, reported Monday the crew had been forced to abandon ship.

At the same time, a Greek ship radioed that it, too, was in trouble in the heavy seas and said its crew of 30 might have to abandon ship before this morning.

The Coast Guard sent the cutter Escanaba to a point 840 miles east-northeast of Bermuda where the Spanish freighter Monte Palomares at 4:27 p.m. reported she was "heeling" 30 degrees in 35-foot seas and 48 to 55 knot winds.

A Coast Guard spokesman in New York said the Escanaba was expected to reach the listing freighter at 4 a.m. today.

Two planes, one from the Coast Guard and one from the Air Force, also were sent to the Monte Palomares, en route to Spain from Norfolk, Va.

About 240 miles southwest of the Spanish ship, a 441-foot Greek vessel, the Lampsis, reported she had a cracked deck. The Coast Guard cutter Androscoggin, 36 miles away from her, was proceeding to her side.

Humphrey To Attend Shastri's Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will head a U.S. delegation attending the funeral of Indian Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri, the White House announced Monday night.

He will be accompanied by Sec. of State Dean Rusk and two former ambassadors to India, Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky) and John Kenneth Galbraith.

Gas Explosion Kills Two, Injures Seven

LAROSE, La. (AP) — A newly constructed natural gas pipeline exploded near this southeastern Louisiana town late Monday. The Coast Guard said two men were killed and seven others burned severely.

The blast spewed fire onto a big pit where the men were digging. Intense heat made it difficult to rescue them.

Voluntary Aspects Of UF Work Is Stressed Here

president; Milton Conine, secretary-treasurer; Fred Timberlake, campaign chairman; Archie Huckabee, Community Planning Council chairman; Clyde Owens, budget chairman, and J. C. Chambers, public relations chairman.

Taggart, a former member of the Texas United Fund board of directors, presented a stirring talk on "The Voluntary Ethic."

Person To Person

Emphasizing that the appeal of United Fund must be on "a person - to - person basis," Taggart suggested that this fact can never be forgotten.

"The United appeal of the program is that we are helping people," Taggart said. "Too often, this is forgotten, and we start concentrating on organizations and institutions.

"This is why people are saying that our organization has failed."

Reviewing the voluntary social welfare program from the beginning, Taggart explained the depression years pointed up how voluntary programs aren't strong enough to handle all situations.

"Charity Is Emotion"

"The government entered the field as a partner with existing private volunteer agencies," he said. "Up until now, this partnership has been unchallenged."

Throughout his discussion, Taggart suggested one basic belief that shouldn't be forgotten. "Charity is emotion," he remarked, "and the law of love should always be in our minds."

Early in his talk, Taggart warned that "I'm not going to tell you how to organize your campaign or how to improve it to achieve its goal earlier."

He said, "I do want to say that charity is an emotional and personal thing. When a voluntary program, such as ours, becomes too patterned, too cold or too impersonal, then it loses its personal appeal."

Five Major Goals

Five major goals should be stressed, if the program is to succeed, Taggart said. They include:

1. Do not deny the realities of the time and place, and study the changes and adapt the program to fit them.

2. Keep abreast of the changes in thinking and needs.

3. Reaffirm the long standing commitment of our own workers, by reasserting leadership in our own field.

4. Know both the propositions and the problems and have flexability and changeability in the program.

5. Mainly, don't present "institutions," but sell the needs of the people to the people.

Responsibility Is Cited

Discussing the commitments and how workers should re-establish their meanings, Taggart said, "Why do people volunteer to help in the United Fund? Some do it for social recognition, others to fill a need. But the main reason is that people feel a responsibility.

"It is this responsibility that is the basis for the voluntary movement. This characterizes the voluntary movement and everything it stands for."

He urged workers to sell the idea of "benefits that the donor will achieve."

Something In Return

"We are not only helping others, but giving the donors and workers something in return," he added. He stated that the freedom to conduct a voluntary movement and voluntary program is too important an ideal to pass off lightly.

"We possess the freedom to move about and care for our own," Taggart said. "It is both a right and privilege to set our own goal and then to make it. Let us not lose this freedom."

UF Workers Honored

Five UF workers were honored with plaques for recognition of outstanding community service for the past year. They included Pearson, outgoing president, former budget chairman and past campaign chairman; Jenkins, new president and past budget chairman; L. G. Pierce, 1965 budget chairman; Alex Miller, 1964 and 1965 Community Planning Council chairman; and Bob Nash, public relations chairman in both 1863 and 1965.

Chosen to the board of directors were Dr. John Bradford, Dr. Paul Bumpers, Don G. Furr, Miller, W. I. (Bill) Pittman, Dr. Randolph Rutledge and Robert Whipple.

Named to the council were Odis Haynes, Mrs. Robert Moore, Alton Brazell, Harrell Spears, Jack Strong, Dr. David Vigness and Linus Wright.

Taggert was introduced by Parker Prouty, president of The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. Dr. Lloyd V. Hamilton, minister of St. Luke's Methodist Church, gave the invocation, and dinner music was provided by Mrs. J. P. Kenney.

Community Clubhouse, Wolfforth City Hall, the old county courthouse in Lubbock, Idalou City Hall and the Slaton Community Clubhouse.

Resident within the Cochran County areas applying for admission to the district will vote on the annexation issue. All qualified voters living within the district also are eligible to vote on the proposed addition.

Boundaries Redefined

The Texas Water Commission last April redefined boundaries of the Ogallala formation south of the Canadian River to include additional land in Cochran County, making that area eligible to become a part of the district.

Most of Cochran County already in the district. Landowners in the newly redefined areas, officials said, have petitioned the board of directors to become a part of the district.

Voters must have a valid poll tax and own property in the district. In addition to Lubbock County, committeemen will be elected in Armstrong, Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Hockley, Lamb, Lynn, Parmer, Potter and Randall counties.

County voters go to the polls today to choose three directors for the board of the Lubbock County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1.

Incumbents V. G. Browning, Burl Kizer and Gordon H. Rose are seeking re-election, while Tom N. Hutchinson is the other candidate on the ballot. However, voters may write in other names if they desire.

The top three vote-getters in today's election will be members of the board, serving two-year terms of office.

Voters in Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 43, 44, and precincts at Woodrow, Cooper, Hurlwood, New Deal, Monroe and Abernathy may vote at either the old courthouse building in Lubbock or at first station No. 6, 35th Street and Indiana Avenue.

Polling Placed Listed

Voters in Precinct 32 — the Wolfforth community—may vote at the City Hall building in Wolfforth.

All voters in Precincts 40, 41 and 42, which includes precincts at Becton, Roosevelt and Idalou, should cast their ballots at the Idalou City Hall building.

The Clubhouse, 700 West Garza St., Slaton, is the balloting place for Precincts 35, 36, 37, 38 and 39. This includes the communities of McClung and Posey, and all voters in Slaton.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m.

and let the workers wait."

"The transit workers are not ready to defer for two years their just gains to suit somebody's political needs," he said.

Says Tieup Illegal

MacMahon declared that it was "time for Mayor Lindsay to face the issues realistically and deal with us fairly. He should stop trying to cheat the people of New York with innuendo."

The mayor repeatedly branded the 10-day citywide bus and subway tieup an illegal strike.

"I know New Yorkers want an immediate end to this strike against them. The strike could be settled today — if the city were willing to pay any price. The city is not, but it is willing to pay a fair price — fair to the employes, fair to the employer and fair to the public," he said.

As Lindsay spoke, more than 700 New York businessmen had applied for federal emergency loans as they sought to stave off bankruptcy, resulting from the impact of the strike.

During the day, the Transit Authority pressed ahead with a demand for a $3.2-million fine against the striking TWU, as a record wave of traffic rolled across the city.

"Fantastic," Traffic Commissioner Henry A. Barnes declared in reporting that 850,000 cars inched their way into and out of Manhattan — 250,000 more than normal.

Lindsay, who took office as the strike began, was of grim demeanor during his report from City Hall.

He assessed union wage and other demands currently on the bargaining table as amounting to almost $100 million over two years. He said the Transit Authority has offered in excess of the $40-million transit settlement package of two years ago.

Lindsay then asked the mediation panel to follow one or more of three alternatives:

1. To make specific recommendations on all terms of a settlement.

2. To agree to a fact-finding commission to seek a general framework for settlement. Pending its findings, the mediators would continue their efforts, but the strikers would return to work. All benefits would be retroactive.

3. To arrange an agreement with both sides on new procedures to halt the strike and bring about a settlement — these procedures to include either advisory or binding arbitration.

IN UNANNOUNCED NOON MEET

made some unannounced "arrangements" for acquisition of the right-of-way which will be needed for the street widening in the future and also for any possible grade separations.

Case Highly Controversial

The case was born in controversy. It stems from an obvious need for more student space at the college.

The college about a year ago encouraged private developers to build dorms off-campus for male students.

One is under construction, and now two more have been approved for construction.

Lubbock developers Ray and Harold Chapman first appeared before the zoning commission several months ago about the 19th & College Ave. project. They represent University Dormitory Development, Inc.

Wanted Quick Action

Ray Chapman urged action "even if it's unfavorable," so he could get the case before the City Council.

When it came before the council, Mayor Tidmore, recalling that "the citizens voted a capital improvements program which included widening College Ave. from 19th St. to 34th St.," suggested that the potential builders might "want to dedicate a strip of right-of-way to the public good."

Harold Chapman said at the time "they (the council) want us to give them land worth $60,000," and indicated he did not know if his clients would want to go ahead on those conditions.

Must Extend Lines

The mayor also suggested that the developers pay for extension of sewer and water lines to the nearest existing lines large enough to handle the project. Those last conditions were included in the final version approved Monday.

It is proposed that 198 units be constructed, 187 of which will be two bedrooms.

At the council meeting last week, Chapman's attorneys argued the project was "not a dorm but really an apartment and we are willing to rent to anyone."

Under the apartment classification not as many parking spaces will be required.

330 Parking Spots

The council Monday stipulated that "a minimum of 330 vehicle parking spaces on site . . . be provided irrespective of any subsequent reduction in area of land now described as being in the project, whether by voluntary or involuntary sale of any part or parcel of said property."

Councilmen obviously were referring to the request for dedication of the property, but they were informed earlier that there is a legal question mark on the idea of "swapping" zoning for right-of-way as had been debated.

Therefore, they abandoned the effort to obtain the 40-foot right of way strip in connection with zoning.

Ray Chapman, obviously unhappy with the council last week for tabling the case "on a temporary basis," sat throughout the day in the council room then, and The Avalanche-Journal has been informed that he met later that day with the council informally after the regular meeting was adjourned.

The land where the building is proposed to be is owned by the Texas Tech Foundation, but the Chapman brothers reportedly obtained an option to purchase it for a reported $180,000.

Harold Chapman said Monday night the "overall value of the tract is about $4 per square foot."

In the past, councilmen here have been extremely touchy about trading land right-of-way for zoning.

In other words, when a person seeking a zone change has suggested that he might be willing to dedicate portions of his property to the city if the zone change were granted, councilmen have "bowed their necks," and said no.

The dorm incident, however, is one of the few times in which the council has conversely hinted that zoning might be granted if property were dedicated to the city.

The mayor feels strongly that "our citizens voted to widen College Ave. That intersection is one of the busiest in town."

"If we don't get the land now," he said, "when we do get ready to buy it for the widening, the price will be out of sight."

Lloyd Woodrow Rampy, Housing Authority Board; Horace Humphries, Civil Service Commission, and Kenneth May, Auditorium-Coliseum Operational Board.

Post Office Rates Hiked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Post Office Department announced Monday it plans to raise rates charged for money orders, insurance, and registered, certified and COD mail.

The increases, first since 1961, are to go into effect March 26. The department said the new charges would reduce annual losses on the five special mail services from $60 million to $36 million.

The increases:

—Domestic and international money order fees will be increased five cents.

—The minimum insurance fee will be doubled to 20 cents and the maximum now 40 cents, will be raised to 60 cents.

The present 60-cent and 75-cent registry fees will be combined in a single fee of 75 cents for values up to $100.

—The present 40-cent and 50-cent fee brackets for COD mail will be combined in one fee bracket of 60 cents for amounts up to $10. There will be no change in the fees covering items valued at more than $10.

—The certified mail fee will rise from 20 cents per item to 30 cents.

Negro Rights Leader Dies In Attack

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP) — A Negro civil rights leader died in a hospital Monday of burns suffered in a predawn firebomb attack that destroyed his home and tiny store.

Vernon Dahmer, 58, was burned, along with his wife and 10-year-old daughter, while fleeing the fire that destroyed their four-bedroom frame home near here.

The attack came one day after Dahmer was described in a radio broadcast as leader of a vote registration drive in this area.

AHEAD OF ARCTIC FRONT

Gales, Snow Squalls Hit Appalachian Area

(By United Press International)

Northwesterly gales and snow squalls patrolled the eastern Great Lakes Monday night, ahead of the second Arctic front in three days which was moving into the Northern Appalachians.

Temperatures plunged to zero or below over much of the Upper Midwest. The mercury failed to rise above the 10 below zero mark Monday at International Falls, Minn., which also had 2½ feet of snow.

Gale warnings were up along the Pacific Coast from Astoria, Ore., to Tatoosh Island, Wash. Wind-whipped rain was reported from the northwest tip of California to Washington.

By dusk the temperature had fallen below zero at Green Bay and Wausau, Wis., and Duluth, Minn. Near Oshkosh, Wis., an elderly man burned to death when his clothes caught fire as he attempted to thaw frozen water pipes.

Near blizzard conditions were reported in parts of Michigan's upper peninsula. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., had an inch of New snow.

In contrast, southerly winds brought higher temperatures to the western Plains. Forecasters said the warming trend would spread over the remainder of the Plains into the Mississippi Valley today.

An inch of rain fell in six hours at Destruction Island, Wash, and Tatoosh Island, Wash., got ½ inch.

The rain was expected to change to snow over the mountains of the Pacific Northwest. New rains were predicted for Oregon, but streams were dropping and no danger of flooding was seen.

Spring-Like Weather In Texas Continues

(By The Associated Press)

Cooler air slid southward over Texas Monday, but wide areas of the state enjoyed spring-like temperatures.

High cloudiness and dense fog in some areas accompanied the cool air mass.

No rainfall was reported, and none was forecast.

Fog reduced visibility to near zero at Longview and Tyler.

The cooler air should have brought low readings in the 20s to Northwest Texas to the 40s over most of the state by this morning.

West Texas will have fair skies and warmer readings today while the rest of the state will be partly cloudy. Highs today will be mostly in the 60s and 70s.

NEWS BRIEFS

E. M. Varvel, transmission and protection engineer for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., in Dallas, was the guest speaker at Monday's meeting of the South Plains section of the Institute of Electrical Engineers. Varvel told the group about "The Hardware of Communications, Past, Present and Future."

John Weimer, national representative of Dallas, was the guest speaker for the Lubbock Association for Retarded Children at its meeting at Milam's Training Center Monday night. In charge of the meeting was B. A. Huatt, 1966 president.

Prices Protested By Indonesians

JAKARTA (UPI) —More than 1,000 chanting students marched on the state secretariat building here Monday to protest soaring prices and demand a permanent ban on the Indonesian Communist party.

A dozen were admitted for off-the-record talks with a secretariat official before reading a petition over loudspeakers mounted on the secretariat steps.

They shouted down a speech by the official and refused demands from their leaders to disperse.

State Secretary Mohammad Ichsan announced over Radio Jakarta that personal and business incomes would be taxed 20 to 60 per cent, alcoholic beverages and cigarettes 70 per cent, luxury goods 50 per cent and all other items 20 per cent.

The increased taxes and prices reflect an attempt to pull Indonesia from a severe economic crisis that has seen the local currency fall as low as 18,000 rupiah to the dollar.

Hotel Building Boom Expected For Hawaii

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Hawaiian tourist interests have plans to increase the number of resort hotel rooms available by 114 per cent, reports the American Automobile Association.

By the end of 1966, 7,419 rooms will have been added to Hawaii's present 13,727 resort hotel rooms. Another 8,310 are planned, with no completion date set.

Tourists May Watch Work On Diamonds

NEW YORK (UPI) —Antwerp, the most important diamond center in the world, has a new gimmick for tourists. Visitors, says the Official Belgian Tourist Bureau, now have an opportunity to watch a rough diamond become a sparkling gem.

Three important diamond manufacturers are inviting visitors to their factories and showrooms to see how diamonds are cut and polished. The process of finding and excavating the precious stones also is shown pictorially.

Garden Symposium Is Set In Williamsburg

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (UPI) —The 20th celebration of the Williamsburg Garden Symposium will open here March 20. The theme will be "The World in Your Garden," interpreted by 14 internationally recognized horticultural authorities.

The anniversary program is presented by Colonial Williamsburg in association with the American Horticultural Society.

Cairo Paper Says U.S. Okays Bombing Lull

CAIRO (UPI) —The weekly newspaper Rosa el Youssef said Monday the United States has agreed to an appeal by Egypt to continue the bombing pause in North Viet Nam while Cairo diplomats conduct peace inquiries.

The weekly said the pause would probably extend through the Jan. 20-24 Vietnamese lunar new year.

SUGGESTS EV MAKE VISIT

Job Corps Camp Director Scores Dirksen's Charges

MORGANFIELD, Ky. (AP) — The acting director of the Camp Breckenridge Job Corps center suggested Monday that Sen. Everdog M Dirksen, R-Ill., visit the facility and "learn for himself there is no boondoggling of any kind."

"There have been problems, said James R. Fornear, "but they have been overcome. I am proud of our progress and am sure Mr. Dirksen would feel the same way."

Dirksen singled out the center for criticism when he predicted the next Congress will look into the efficiency of the Job Corps and the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Notes Few Graduates

Dirksen, during a television appearance Sunday, noted that Camp Breckinridge had 756 enrollees out of a potential 2,000; that there have been 250 dropouts. "They have graduated the vast number of eight out of that camp thus far. They have got 50 wives on the payroll."

Fornear agreed that the Senate Republican leader's figures are accurate, to a point.

"The camp opened last June and any program we have would take a minimum of six months to complete. By the end of January, we will be graduating youngsters on a weekly basis," he said.

Fornear said there are about 400 now enrolled at the former Army base in western Kentucky, and more will be coming in at the rate of 50 a week — starting next week.

He admitted there have been about 250 dropouts, some leaving after a disturbance broke out last August. "You can't reach everyone. The dropout rate, I'll wager, is below that of some vocational schools and colleges."

He pointed out that the youngsters, ages 16-21, join the corps voluntarily. "Anyone who comes has a reason for being here." They hope to learn a trade and become useful citizens."

As for Dirksen's statement that 50 wives are on the payroll, Fornear said the number actually is 27. "This allows us to solve one of our most difficult problems — housing."

"If we are able to hire a husband and wife, we only have to look for one house instead of two. And it is difficult to locate skilled clerical help around this area."

Looks For Secretary

Fornear said he, for example, has been seeking a secretary eight weeks.

He has been at the center since April, 1965, and was appointed acting director in November by Southern Illinois University, which manages the project.

"All we need," he said, "is a little time to show the public that we can take these young men and teach them a trade."

Fornear's optimism is shared by a number of residents in the area surrounding the camp. Those questioned said they feel that given a chance, the camp will work.

Castro Held 'Pressured'

By ISAAC M. FLORES

HAVANA (AP) — Political experts in Havana say Fidel Castro was pressured by the Soviet Union into making a public statement dissociating himself from Peking's belligerent brand of communism.

They reason the Cuban prime minister, mindful of an estimated $350 million annually in Soviet aid, took the easy way out. He criticized Chinese trade relations, not ideology.

According to the experts, for almost a million dollars a day in military and economic aid, Moscow expects Cuba to side with it against Red China in their dispute over leadership of world communism.

They said Castro's criticism may be the first step in a series of anti-Chinese statements.

"Something Going On"

The new controversy centers around a charge by Communist China that Castro lied in saying Peking broke the rice-sugar trade agreement. The dispute could have far-reaching repercussions.

"There's no doubt that something is going on among the three nations," said one Havana diplomat, "but the question is what."

Castro could shed some light on the matter when he speaks Wednesday night closing the Asian, African and Latin-American conference in Havana. This is the same forum from which he opened the dispute eight days ago.

Wonder Over Wait

The dispute already has caused tension at the solidarity conference of revolutionaires, and there has been speculation the Communist Chinese delegation might walk out.

Observers wonder why the Red Chinese waited until Sunday to reply to Castro if the Chinese thought the Cuban leader wanted to make the trade question a conference issue.

In its attack, the Peking government said Castro violated norms of international good manners and said timing of his criticism before the Havana conference gives reason to suspect his motives.

BUT 'WE WANT THEM READY'

AID Seeking Volunteers For South Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) —A recruiting drive is under way to raise the number of U.S. AID workers in South Viet Nam from 700 to above 1,000.

Wanted are registered nurses, public health technicians, secretaries, public safety officers, economists, auditors, and — especially — persons able to deal with the Vietnamese in their own language.

The Agency for International Development authorities said here they will send a team to Boston next month to search for qualified volunteers. This follows successful recruiting campaigns in Chicago and Los Angeles next fall.

To reach potential recruits in smaller cities, AID is soliciting help from other U.S. government agencies.

AID authorities report they have received an overflow of applications for civilian duty in Viet Nam so far — for motives ranging from patriotism to the lure of high pay and adventure.

But stiff requirements are holding down the number hired.

Out of some 2,500 persons contacted in Los Angeles, for example, 167 were interviewed, but fewer than 100 are expected to make the grade from there or Chicago.

Most volunteers need at least a bachelor's degree to qulify for the AID job. And AID now is emphasizing ability to learn the sign-song Vietnamese language, a difficult and time-consuming task for most Americans.

This is on the assumption that the big U.S. economic assistance programs, now running some $600 million a year, will go on long after the war is over. AID officials figure that an American going into the Vietnamese interior is 40 per cent more effective from the start if he has a basic command of the local tongue.

Language Training

Currently four groups of 15 men each are getting 10 months of language training here and AID wants to triple the number. But a language aptitude test score of at least 55 out of a possible 80 is deemed necessary to learn Vietnamese, and only a limited number of applicants can meet this standard.

As for those already sent to Viet Nam, AID reports a sizable proportion are staying on for a second or third tour despite the hazard and separation from thei families. Dependents were ordered out a year ago and the fighting has escalated since.

Tours run two years for those whose families are in the Far East, 18 months for single persons and those whose families are in the United States.

The Thai government was said to have allowed 200 families of U.S. AID officials to live in Bangkok, a short flight from Saigon. Another 200 are expected to be allowed in Manila.

Pay for a Viet Nam assignment generally is higher than the U.S. government ever has provided elsewhere. In some cases pay, allowances and extras run above $20,000 a year.

Besides a basic pay comparable to that for similar stateside jobs, those on duty in South Viet Nam get a 25 per cent hardship allowance and other extras such as free housing, medical care and PX privileges.

BIG SPRING

Escapee From Hospital Still Being Sought

BIG SPRING (AP) — One of four patients who fled from the Big Spring State Hospital remained at large Monday night.

Three of the four who escaped Saturday night were returned to the hospital Monday. They are Claude Riley, 33, of Lubbock, Danny Brown, 20, of Midland and Juan Rodriguez, 15, of Brownfield.

Student's Note Answered By Ho

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A Michigan State University student who sent a telegram of New Year's greetings to Ho Chi Minh, president of North Viet Nam, said Monday he received a reply from Ho.

Brian Keleher, a leader of recent demonstrations at MSU against U.S. involvement in Viet Nam, said he received this message:

"Sincere thanks from President Ho Chi Minh. Vietnamese and American people's struggle against U.S. imperialism will surely be successful. Happy New Year."

The telegram was dated Dec. 30 and was delivered last week, said Keleher, a senior.

IN TUSKEGEE

Fine Proposed For Practicing Segregation

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (UPI) — The biracial Tuskegee City Council is favorably considering a proposed ordinance carrying a minimum $1,000 fine to further desegregation in this city, made racially tense with the slaying of a civil rights worker last week.

The proposed ordinance would make it a misdemeanor and permit the city to close a public facility which requires a city license and operates on a segregated basis. At least two "private" clubs would come under its provisions.

Unique In South

Conviction would be punishable by a minimum fine of $1,000. Passage of the resolution would be unique in the South, where cities and towns with similar civil rights problems have come only under the public accommodations section of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

It also would give the city power to close the facility if the owner were found guilty of circumventing the ordinance.

Tuskegee already is one of the most integrated cities in the South and had little recent racial unrest until the slaying of a young Negro last Monday.

Found Dead

Samuel L. Younge Jr., 21, of Tuskegee Institute—an active civil rights worker—was found dead with a bullet wound in the temple not far from a gasoline station.

Marvin Segrest, 67, a white man, has been charged with first degree murder in the slaying in a warrant signed by Younge's father, and currently is being held in the Macon County Jail.

The proposal is the result of marathon negotiations and discussions between citizens of the Tuskegee community, white and Negro, faculty members and students of Tuskegee Institute, and two mediators from the federal Community Relations Service.

Floyd A. Connell Services Today

SNYDER (Special) — Services for Floyd Alexander Connell, 72, retired Scurry County farmer, will be at 2 p.m. today in Union Baptist Church here.

Officiating will be the pastor, the Rev. Guy Wyatt, assisted by Billy Wilkinson, pastor of Oakwood Methodist Church, Lubbock.

Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery under direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Connell died at 4:30 a.m. Sunday in Plainview Hospital & Clinic. He had been visiting in Plainview during the Christmas holidays and became ill there.

A native of Alvarado, Connell was a member of the Baptist Church and had lived in Scurry County for 32 years.

Surviving are his wife; a daughter, Mrs. James D. Armstrong, Kress; two sons, Colo. Royal W. Connell, Fairfax, Va., David R. Connell, Lubbock; one sister, Mrs. Willie Cox, Mineral Wells; two brothers, Raymond Horton, Borger, and E. A. Horton, Hempstead, N.Y., and seven grandchildren.

Funeral Pending For Mrs. Tanner

PLAINVIEW (Special) — Funeral services are pending at Wood-Dunning Funeral Home here for Mrs. Mary Francis Tanner, 65, a former Kress resident, now of Springfield, Colo.

Mrs. Tanner was dead on arrival at Plainview Hospital late Saturday. She had been visiting her brother, Aluah V. Reed, of Kress.

Born in Roann, Ind., she came to Kress in 1907 and later moved to Springfield. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Emmitt; Fort Lyon, Colo.; three sons, Clarence Copess, Pueble, Colo.; James Copess, Lamar, Colo., and Cpl. Richard D. Copess, with the U. S. Marines in Okinawa; two daughters, Mrs. Tom R. Elliott, Amarillo and Mrs. Tommy Rodgers, Sweetwater; and a brother, Aluah V. Reed, Kress.

$1,000 Taken In Eustace Break-In

EUSTACE, Tex. (UPI) — Somebody broke into a vault at the First State Bank of Eustace early Monday and escaped with about $1,000 in small change.

Lee Gray, bank vice president, said the thief or thieves "did pretty bad" moneywise.

"We haven't determined the exact amount taken," Gray said, "but it probably wasn't any more than $1,000 in silver."

Gray said it hadn't been determined how entry into the bank was made. He said someone knocked the knob off the vault to get the money.

He said it was the second time the bank in this small Henderson County town had been broken into recently.

Bill Aimed At Viet Protesters

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Taking aim at anti-Viet Nam demonstrations, Rep. Charles E. Bennett, D-Fla., Monday introduced a bill to impose jail sentences of up to 10 years and $10,000 fines on persons interfering with military operations.

Bennett said his legislation would cover those who interfere, those who would urge interference and those who distribute material urging interference.

Two instances were cited by Bennett. He said one occurred near Madison, Wis., when 11 demonstrators were arrested as they tried to enter Truax Air Force Base to make a citizen's arrest on the base commander.

The other, he said, took place in Oakland, Calif., when a group attempted to block troops trains from going into the Oakland Army Base.

U.S. Ships Sail Into Black Sea

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Two rocket-carrying U.S. warships sailed into the Black Sea through the Bosporus Strait Monday for "training in international waters," the semiofficial Anatolia news agency reported.

The agency did not say how long the ships are expected to remain in the area.

Last week the Soviet Union protested about what it called "dangerous provocations" by U.S. military activity in the Black Sea near the Soviet border.

The Pentagon has said destroyers of the U.S. 6th Fleet have been in these international waters from time to time. The United States has denied violating Soviet territorial waters.

The Anatolia agency named the two warships as the 2,425-ton destroyer Forrest Royal and the 5,600-ton guided missile frigate Harry E. Yarnell.

Nebraska has the nation's longest pheasant season, running 93 days, from Oct. 23 to Jan. 23.

PROVIDES USEFUL DATA

Tech Professor Conducting Tests On Learning Ability

By GAYLE NOLL
Avalanche-Journal Staff

How does a child learn—learn to walk, to talk, to reason?

This may sound like an irrelevant question to some persons, but to Dr. Henry A. Cross, associate psychology professor at Texas Tech, it's the most significant "riddle" he has ever tried to solve.

With a simple research device called a Wisconsin General Testing Apparatus (WGTA), Dr. Cross tests the children's "discrimination" learning ability.

Like Wooden Desk

The WGTA is like a wooden desk with a two-way mirror erected in the middle. Dr. Cross sits on one side of the "desk" and constructs learning process testing problems.

Then the professor slides a drawer containing the "problem" through to the other side of the desk and lets the child try to solve the problem.

For, example, Dr. Cross will place a small piece of candy in one of three slots in the drawer, then the slots are covered with blocks of wood bearing different ornamentation. The candy always is placed under the same block of wood, but is moved from slot to slot.

The professor then marks a chart, designating how long it takes each child to "solve" the problem and "figure out" the candy is always under a particular block.

Reverses Problem

Once the child has mastered this, Dr. Cross then reverses the problem and places the candy under a different block of wood until the child comprehends there has been a change.

Confusing?

It's really a very simple test to administer, and one that provides Dr. Cross with much useful information about the learning process in children of different age groups.

The professor says he has tentatively determined that children "learn primarily by a combination of 'approach' and 'avoidance' processes."

That is, children learn by "approach" (learn to respond to certain factors on the basis of a reward, such as the candy) and by "avoidance" (learn what not to respond to, such as the block of wood which never had the candy hidden beneath it.)

Also, Dr. Cross says children have to learn 'very quickly to respond to subtle changes" and realize that the reward, such as the candy, will be under a certain block of wood under one condition, and under a different block when conditions change, such as using different colored blocks.

Sound complicated?

Perhaps. But the testing results provide very useful data to Dr. Cross and other psychology researchers delving into the "why" and "how" of the learning process.

And the research also is providing educational training for Tech graduate students Reesa Vaughter and Zita Tyer, both of Lubbock, who are aiding with the experiments.

After Dr. Cross completed work for his doctorate at Ohio State University he did research on similar problems at the University of Wisconsin before coming to Tech to teach in 1964.

Mrs. Donald Ashdown, director of Lubbock Day Care Association, agreed to let Dr. Cross conduct the experiments in the day nurseries, hoping that his work may aid the children, as well as be of scientific value.

And the children involved seem to enjoy "playing the game" very much, especially, when they leave the professor's office with a pocket-full of chocolate candy.

"Fast Learning"

Dr. Cross says it usually takes from 20 to 80 "tries" for a child to master the wood-block-candy test. "He considers this rate fast learning."

"Educators have underestimated the learning ability of children. By the time a child is 2, he has learned the most complicated thing of all—to speak."

The Tech professor feels that by the time a normal child is 3½, he can be taught to read by a special process now being used by researchers.

He points out that as a child gets older, his learning ability "slows down . . . because all he has learned before begins to complicate things."

Also, he believes more complicated curriculums at elementary school levels could be used, but only if the children want to learn more and learn faster.

"It would be unfortunate to turn our schools into learning mills that are too serious—schools that the children cannot enjoy because they are too pressured and concerned about grades. More complicated courses could be offered at elementary levels, but, in my opinion, only when the children want to study more complex subjects," Dr. Cross asserted. "It's unfortunate when the romance is taken out of education at any level, and it becomes a grind."

LEARNING PROCESS TEST—Dr. Henry A. Cross, associate psychology professor at Texas Tech, tests the learning ability of 5-year-old Sharon Bunton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bunton, 1808 E. 24th St., through a two-way mirror in a series of experiments being conducted at Carver Heights Day Nursery. BECAUSE OF TRANSIT STRIKE

New York Hotels To Feel Shortage Of Empty Rooms

NEW YORK (AP) — New York City's hotels, which could house most of the population of Albuquerque, N.M., will have few empty rooms this week.

Thousands of commuters are staying in town to avoid the hardships of getting to work during the subway-bus strike.

Conventions On Upswing

And as the strike began its second week, an upsurge of convention and trade show business promises to put an even greater squeeze on hotel space.

"But it will be the commuter who feels the squeeze most," said a spokesman for the Visitor's Information Bureau, a private group which coordinates the city's convention business.

Most convention visitors, he explained, will be occupying space arranged for up to a year in advance.

But a casual visitor may wish he'd stayed at home.

A week ago, when the effects of the strike first began to be felt, many large companies rented blocks of rooms to insure that their employes would be able to report for work.

There was comparatively little difficulty in finding hotel rooms then, because in the first week of the new year, convention business was abnormally light.

Over 400 Hotels

This week, the American Retail Association and its affiliate, the National Retail Merchants Association, moved into the city some 5,000 strong, while another 1,000 were coming in for a meeting of the Transportation Association of America.

A whole raft of trade shows and expositions are scheduled — shows of furniture, home furnishing, sportswear and other lines which will bring large numbers of buyers into the city.

And if the strike lasts out the week, the crush will be even greater as the national motorboat show opens at the Coliseum, attracting many exhibitors, buyers and boating fans from out of town.

New York has more than 400 hotels, with more than 100,000 rooms, most of them capable of housing at least two persons.

But only about 150 hotels, according to the information bureau, are "reasonably convenient" to business in midtown — meaning that you could walk if you couldn't get a cab during the strike emergency.

The spokesman said no conventions or other gatherings scheduled for this week have been canceled but a survey today showed the hotel situation is already tight.

"Most of the larger hotels are pretty well filled up," he said, "and we're getting down to the smaller ones now."

"NECESSITY IS. . ."

TORONTO (AP) — William Bilow's home is near a supermarket and Bilow got "madder and madder" when people kept leaving shopping carts on his lawn. He began returning them to the store for a fee of 25 cents each. Business was so good he quit his job and formed his own company. It now rounds up some 3,000 carts throughout the area weekly.

News About Area Men In Service

The card, received Friday at Reese Village by Mrs. Howard Lamont, 200 George, was sent by her husband, T. Sgt. Howard Lamont from Cam Rahn Bay, where he has been stationed since August, with forces building a giant seaport.

The message of the card: To you who fight by our side the people of Viet Nam send greetings. May victory be ours that we may live in peace, freedom and prosperity. Long live the friendship between Viet Nam and her allies.

Sgt. Lamont was stationed at Reese two years and is in supply work. He wrote of having severe difficulty in getting mail at the base because of water covering a landing strip because of the monsoon.

Three Injured In Beaumont Blast

BEAUMONT (AP)—An explosion shook South Park High School Monday, injuring three maintenance employes.

Pupils were in their classrooms and escaped a shower of bricks that fell on a walkway connecting two buildings in the school complex.

Don Odell, assistant fire marshal, said an accumulation of gas in a ventilation duct caused the explosion.

Frank Harrington, 62, was in fair condition. Robert Phelps, 52, and Albert Stinson, 59, were treated for minor burns and discharged.

The blast lifted the top six-foot section of the chimney, blew the bricks out of the second section and dropped the first portion on top of the third section.

Bricks were tossed over a 50-foot area and damaged three automobiles.

Officials said the chimney would be torn down.

BUILDING BETTER BUSINESS

City Businessmen Take Goodwill Tour To Sudan, Muleshoe, Olton

By LELAND BOYD
Avalanche-Journal Staff

A group of Lubbock businessmen took a day-long coffee and luncheon break Monday to build a better business atmosphere among three of the Hub City's neighboring cities — Sudan, Muleshoe and Olton.

"We are not here to hard sell you on the advantages of Lubbock, but to get to know you better and let you know that Lubbock appreciates her neighbors," was the message spread by M. J. (Bud) Aderton, chairman of the wholesale development committee of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

The group of about 20 city representatives traveled by bus and drank coffee and visited with a group of some 16 Sudan businessmen at the DeLuxe Cafe.

Luncheon At Muleshoe

The ambassadors then hosted a luncheon at Muleshoe First Methodist Church, getting a cordial reception from 28 Muleshoe area businessmen.

Rex Webster of Lubbock gave the invocation, and Aderton told the group how the purpose was to help the businessmen in the area to become better acquainted.

Neal Dillman, Muleshoe School superintendent, welcomed the delegation to Muleshoe on behalf of Mayor Wilbur Leveque.

In a speech, C. L. Kay, vice president of public affairs, Lubbock Christian College, explained five keys toward building a better business climate. He stressed the importance of imagination, initiative, ingenuity, integrity and individualism in successful operation of business.

He described the present climate of the nation as "confusion, ferment, and change" in which the key element has become governmental intervention in every area.

"Integrity is the indispensible element of making a better business climate. It is the quality that holds the society together. We in business must trust one another in order to have a better business climate," Kay said.

Two Senators To Appeal Ruling Of Ineligibility

AUSTIN (UPI) — The Texas Supreme Court apparently will decide whether state Sens. Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Galloway Calhoun Jr. of Tyler can run for attorney general.

State Democratic Chairman Will D. Davis Monday refused to put Spears' name on the ballot on grounds he is ineligible, and said he would do the same in Calhoun's case.

Davis said he wants a Supreme Court interpretation of a clause in the state constitution that says a legislator cannot run during his legislative term for a state office if the pay of that office was raised during the legislator's term.

Immediate Appeal

Spears and Calhoun said they would appeal to the Supreme Court immediately, and both expressed confidence in their eligibility.

The controversy raised the possibility of a completely uncontested primary May 7, since only one candidate has announced so far in every race except attorney general.

However, there was speculation that Spears or Calhoun might seek another office—possibly U. S. Senate — if either should be ruled ineligible for attorney general.

When asked about the possibility of running against Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr for the Democratic nomination to oppose Republican Sen. John Tower, Spears said "I've given no

SPECIAL MEET

Subdivision Plats Okayed By Zone Group

Subdivision plats and other routine items were considered by the City Planning and Zoning Commission at a special meeting in the In Town Inn Monday.

Winding up work left over from a monthly session Thursday night, commission members did not discuss a tabled zoning case involving proposed highrise apartment houses and dormitories just south of the Texas Tech campus.

"Cut and fill" plans for lake areas at 19th St. and Vicksburg Ave. and in the vicinity of 6th St. and Quaker Ave. were okayed, both with a slope of one foot in depth for each 10 feet horizontally.

Subdivision plats approved, most subject to special conditions, were: block 23-A, Lyndale Acres, 60th St. and Ave. A; tracts G, and H, Mackenzie Terrace, Quirt Ave. and Parkway Dr.; lots 1 and 2, McCain Industrial, Erskine St. and Ave. V; block 2, Namron addition, 35th St. and Gary Ave.;

Tract B, Sagemonto 34th St. and Chicago Ave.; lots 141-307, Sagemont, 34th St. and Frankfort Ave.; lot 1, block 21, lot 2, block 22 and lots 1 and 2, block 30, Suburban Homes, 44th St. and Ave. H; lots 1-84, Sun Valley, Chicago Ave. and 49th St.; tracts 1 and 2, Waller-Young, Ave. D and 28th St.; and lot 1, Zahn addition, E. 15th St. and Idaleu Rd.

Georgia Solons Bar Negro From Taking Seat In House

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Georgia House voted Monday night to bar Rep.-elect Julian Bond, a Negro, from taking a seat because of his endorsement of statements denouncing U.S. policy in Viet Nam and urging Americans to avoid the draft.

The vote was 184-12.

The House approved a report by a special committee which spent about four hours hearing testimony and deliberating on the issue after Bond was not allowed to take the oath of office when other members — including seven Negroes — were sworn in.

The action was without precedent in Georgia's recent legislative history. Attorney Denmark Groover of Macon, who represented opponents of Bond, said the last legislative refusal to seat members was in 1868 when about eight Confederate veterans were barred from the

Work Gets Under Way On Theater

$400,000 Building Will Seat 1,000

Construction began Monday on a huge 13,000-square-foot movie theater on a tract in southwest Lubbock.

The theater will be, according to its operators, "the finest . . . in the entire Southwest."

It will seat about 1,000, and will be owned and operated by Lindsey Theatres, Inc., and Preston Smith, according to J. B. Rhea, general manager for Lindsey Theatres.

Tatum Construction Co. is general contractor, submitting low bid among nine bidders for the building. Contract between the owners and the Tatum firm was signed Friday.

$400,000 Investment

The theater, yet to be named, represents investment of about $400,000 in building, furnishings and equipment, Rhea said. It is to be located on the southwest corner of a 10-acre tract bounded by Indiana and Joliet Avenues and 50th and 52nd Streets. Parking for 400 vehicles is provided on hard-topped surface to the front of the theater, with entrances from 50th Street, Indiana and Joliet.

"This will definitely be an all-purpose theater," Rhea said today, "designed for showing of any known movie process in the round auditorium, including Cinerama."

Sure. My calendar reads the way ours does. It's January. But here in New York, where fashion editors are gathered to see the latest via the American designer series and the New York couture group, it's May, June, July.

And that's a reason to report about spring and summer hats thought up by trend-setting designers and meant to suit you when decked out in Easter finery.

By brimming over is meant straw hats with wide brims-up to 18 inches across and capable of shielding you from sun and rain. The big hats with the flat brims figure as a mainstay in the spring wardrobe. Ditto for plain hats made fancy with flowers.

But if such hats are not for you, you can feather your nest of curls strictly the way birds do-with feathers.

Toppings made of ostrich and gifts from other animal kingdom friends figure also in hat fashions for spring.

For the sporty set, hats strictly look to the truck driver and taxi man for inspiration. Hats of this stripe are fancy versions of the old leather cap worn by the drivers.

They score by being made of the same fabric as that of a costume.

But shy types who depend on hats to help them in their incognito travels also will find hat designs capable of supporting their personalities. Sample: A helmet that covers the face and just allows seeing and breathing room the peep-hole way.

"Net" Result

There's also a net result in the hat picture for spring. Most often the net is fashioned into huge turbans of a color meant to coordinate with the colors of a costume.

From the head, consider the other extremity of fashion—the feet. News from trend-setting designers is that bares are out and mules are in. Bare feet, that is, get nixed.

For spring they're done in disciplined tweeds, suedes and grainy leathers, the National Shoe institute reports.

The news in shoes has to do mostly with rounded shaping, jolts of color and a steal from the childish world—T-straps, and other young touches for dame fashion, whatever her age.

Hair, by the way, gets the biggest clipping in many a fashion season —cut or chopped to give a person the look of having hair painted on.

Popular and strictly from the flapper era is a cut that leaves hair on the nape of the neck shaped like an "M." Scissoring upfront fashions some of the locks in a way to let the hair sweep down the cheek and end in a point one inch from the lips.

TOPS Area Recognition Attended By 16 Area Clubs

TOPS Club's Area Recognition Day was conducted Saturday in the Holiday Inn, Parkway, with registration beginning at 8:30 a.m.

Invocation was given by Mrs. B. H. Pendley, and welcoming address was given by Mrs. D. C. Rogers, area captain, introduced by Mrs. L. L. Morrison.

The three TOPS clubs of Lubbock sang a welcoming song, and clubs from Lubbock, Brownfield and Ropesville presented skits.

The TOPS of Ratan won an award for the greatest distance traveled to the convention. An award was given to the Kalorie Killers of Ropesville for having the greatest percentage of members present.

The Lubbock A.R.D. Committee consisted of Mmes. Harold Yearwood, chairman; R. O. Winton, R. R. Burnett and Kenneth Wright. Pianist was Mrs. Darvin Huddleston. Song Leader was Mrs. Dee Courtney. Mrs. Burnett and Mrs. Bill Adams presided.

Clubs attending were TOPS in Brownfield; Thursday Night TOPS, Denver City; TOPS Kalorie Killers, Ropesville; TOPS Pound Rebels, Big Spring; Snyder Topperettes; Community TOPS, Lockney; Texas Tumblin' TOPS, Plainview; TOPS Slim Gems, Andrews; Be Little TOPS, Littlefield; Tip Tops, Rotan; TOPS of Seagraves; Jenny TOPS, Muleshoe; TOPS R.A., Seminole; and Tops in Lubbock, Diet Rite TOPS, and Golden TOPS, all of Lubbock.

The next A.R.D. Meeting will be in July in Seagraves.

Associates Hear Flower Program During Meeting

Mrs. Jimmie Kerr introduced Rod Merritt who presented a program on flower arranging.

Seventy-five members and guests attended.

"It doesn't take many containers of flowers to keep a spot of color in the house at all seasons," Merritt emphasized, as he fashioned an arrangement from greenery and three flowers.

"Use daisies in baskets as a perfect combination for spring arrangements," he concluded.

Mrs. W. G. Rogers presided. Mrs. Jack Goodman gave the devotional.

The next meeting will be at 9:30 a.m. Feb. 14 in Katie Rogers Hall.

Jerry Wyatt, Melody White Exchange Vows In Snyder

SNYDER (Special) — Miss Melody May White and Jerry Lynn Wyatt were married at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 27 in the First Methodist Church with the ceremony officiated by Wyatt's father, the Rev. Elton Wyatt.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. D. White, and the Rev. and Mrs. Elton Wyatt of Petersburg.

The bride wore a full-length gown of ivory silk peau de soie as she was given in marriage by her father. She carried a white pearl Bible topped with a cascade arrangement of orchids and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. James Taylor of Lubbock, and maid of honor was Miss Linda Draughon of Temple. Miss Carol Young of Refugio and Miss Kay Burrill of Jacksonville were bridesmaids. Flower girl was Patti Groves of Morton.

Best man was Conley Bradford of Floydada, and Groomsmen were Terry Stephens of Stephenville, Ray Lashaway of Idalou and Joe Melcher of Lubbock.

Ushers were Tom Herod Jr. of Temple, Keith Bearden of Hale Center, and Dean Powledge of Virginia Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Leonard Groves of Morton was organist, accompanying Mrs. Bob Womack, vocalist.

The bride is a graduate of Snyder High School and a sophomore music education major at Tech, where he is a member of Kappa Kappa Psi and Phi Mu Alpha, band and music fraternities.

MRS. JERRY WYATT

ANN LANDERS
Deserves Extra Love

Dear Ann Landers: I live in Denver. If I lived in Chicago I would go right over to your office and give you a kiss for the letter you printed about the woman who is going through the menopause and whose husband thought she was complaining just to get attention. I am married to the same kind.

For over a year I have had dizzy spells and hot flashes. One minute I feel like I am burning up. Ten minutes later I have to put on a sweater. Last week I got a terrible hot flash during a bridge game. Max and I have a set game every Thursday night with my sister and her husband. Thank God it wasn't strangers. I said, "Max, I'm hot. Please open the window."

He said, "In five minutes you'll be telling me to turn up the heat. I think you are getting nutty."

A person who hasn't gone through the change can't imagine what it's like. Please print this letter and I will put it right under Max's chopped herring tonight.—Grateful

Dear Grateful: Here's your letter and I'd like to add a word of my own. Any wife who goes to the trouble of making chopped herring for her husband deserves extra love and consideration. Now, aren't you ashamed of yourself, Max?

Dear Ann Landers: I am 12 years old and need your advice already.

Yesterday was Mom's birthday. Us kids didn't remember her with a card or anything and neither did Dad. Mom was very quiet until dinner time. Then all of a sudden she said, "I guess I am only a housekeeper and laundry woman around here. Nobody cares about me. Not one of you remembered that today was my birthday."

Dad said he was sorry but he had had a lot on his mind lately. My older sister almost cried. My little brother went to his room and got his piggy bank. He tried to give it to Mom but she wouldn't take it.

We love Mom and feel very sorry about this. What can we do to make her happy again?—Family Troubles

Dear Family: It's too late to do anything about Mom's birthday this year, so stop trying. She will cheer up faster if you are sweet and helpful around the house.

Get a 1966 calendar now and mark off Mom's birthday a week in advance so you don't forget next year. And be sure to remind your Dad. He may have a lot on his mind a year from now, too.

Dear Ann Landers: Four months ago I married a wonderful man. It was a second marriage for both of us. He has three children.

I was born and raised in another part of the country and I'm doing my best to make friends here. The big problem is that I have never met my husband's parents although they live less than five miles from us. My husband says very little about them but I know they are fond of his former wife and children.

Am I being rude by not making the first move? A friend of mine says it is up to me to invite my in-laws to our home. Is she right? Please give me some advice.—Sticky Wicket

Dear Sticky: This whole deal smells like a strong wind from a glue factory.

Either your husband's parents have told your husband that they don't wish to meet you, or he has not had the nerve to suggest it. You are entitled to know the truth. Ask him.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

WILL MARRY—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Worley of Levelland have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Carolyn Joy Worley, and Grafton Gerald Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lewis of Levelland. The wedding will be Jan. 30.

MRS. GREGORY HONORED

Marble, When Used To Enhance Homes, Must Often Be Cared For With Cloth

CHICAGO (UPI) — Marble is a classic material used in the home to enhance floors, walls, occasional and coffee tables, window ledges and fireplaces.

Like any other luxury item it must be cared for properly or it will lose its appeal.

"This does not mean it must be pampered, but stains should be given immediate attention," said Manfred Steinfeld, head of the American of Chicago furniture manufacturers.

The general care of marble consists of wiping occasionally with a cloth dipped in lukewarm water and, twice a year, a thorough cleaning with a mild detergent to prevent dulling, he said.

Stains Easily Removed

Stains and rings from glasses containing alcohol and fruit juices can be easily remedied by applying a small amount of hydrogen peroxide and ammonia (or amyl acetate and acetone) to the stain, rinsing with clear water, and wiping with a dry cloth.

If the table is scratched, lightly sand the top and repolish by hand, using putty powder on a damp cloth. Steinfeld recommends care in waxing white marble because it will turn yellow. A colorless light paste wax is ideal for darker shades of marble.

To remove organic stains made by coffee, tea, and soft drinks, which all contain citric acid, or discoloration marks caused by flowers, paper, or textiles, it is best to use a poultice. It can be made at home from white paper napkins, facial tissues, or blotting paper, Steinfeld said, and placed on the stained area.

Cleansing Time Varies

For organic stains, soak the poultice in a solution of hydrogen peroxide about hair-bleaching strength, and add a few drops of ammonia. Apply it to the stain and allow to set until the discoloration is out. This may take from one to 48 hours.

So that the poultice will not evaporate and lose its strength, cover it with glass or plastic.

Gladiolus Society Will Hear Reports

The West Texas Gladiolus Society will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Municipal Garden-Arts Center for a report by Edgar Jarman and Don Henderson on diseases and insects affecting gladioli.

Jarman will also discuss use of a PH meter in determining advisability of plant food in the soil.

During a business meeting following the program, a February bulb show and auction will be discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor will be host couple for the meeting.

National Questers President Visits Local Antique Chapter

Mrs. Oliver D. Hanna, national president of the Questers, national organization of antique clubs, was guest speaker when the Mackenzie Trail Chapter Antique Club met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Homer L. Cain, 4701 19th St.

Mrs. S. E. Cone was cohostess.

Mrs. Hanna, of Harrison, Mich., and her husband are on a nine month tour visiting Quester chapters throughout the United States.

She recently visited Dallas, where the second Quester chapter in Texas was formed.

Mrs. Hanna presented slides from the 1965 national convention, during which delegates visited several nationally known museums in Michigan, and Canada.

The 1966 convention will be May 16-18 in Chicago.

Quester national projects have included the restoration of a lighthouse in Michigan City, Ind., and restoration of paintings in the Decatur House, Washington, D.C.

A gift was presented by the group to the White House during the administration of the late President Kennedy.

Mrs. Hanna will today tour homes of club members including Mmes. S. E. Cone, 3020 32nd St.; J. C. Davis, 2509 Ridge Rd.; Milt Kinman, 2314 26th St., and Finis Vaughn, 2703 56th St.

Next meeting of the club will be Feb. 22 in the home of Mrs. Vaughn.

Childress Church Scene Of Vows

CHILDRESS (Special) — Following their wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. Jiminie Douglas Neal are at home at 702 Beech St., Plainview. They were married recently in thte First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Neal, the former Miss Carolyn Zane Mooney, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Mooney. She was graduated from Childress High School in 1963 and has attended Wayland Baptist College.

Mrs. Yvonne Neal of Plainview, and Gene Neal of Big Spring are parents of the bridegroom, a 1962 Plainview High School graduate who is employed by Green Machinery, Plainview.

Wedding vows were read by the Rev. Joe S. Allen, minister.

Miss Sandra Moyer was maid of honor, and Jimmy Graham of Plainview was best man. Doyle Wayne Mooney was candlelighter. Miss Darlene Curtis was vocalist, and Mrs. Dean King was pianist.

Paul Easterwood, Linda Tinkle Home In Lubbock After Wedding

DIMMITT (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Easterwood will be home at 2232 Auburn St., Lubbock, after a wedding trip to Denver, Colo. The couple exchanged wedding vows in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Easterwood.

The bride, the former Miss Linda Gayle Tinkler, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tinkle of Plainview. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Easterwood.

Jimmy Wood, minister of the 9th and Columbia Church of Christ, Plainview, officiated the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal-length gown of white satin and carried a bouquet of white feathered chrysanthemums centered with white gardenias.

Miss Debbie Banks Hereford of Plainview was maid of honor, and Arnold Acker was best man. Miss Susan Kimball of Kress lighted the candles, and Miss Anna Gabel was pianist.

The bride is a senior at Plainview High School, and is planning to enroll in January in Lubbock Christian College. Easterwood was graduated from Dimmitt High School and is a freshman at Texas Tech, majoring in pre-law.

MRS. JACK HAYES

Jack Erwin Hayes, Penny Perry Wed

SEMINOLE (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Orval R. Perry have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Penny Lee Perry, to Jack Erwin Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hayes of Plains.

Wedding vows were exchanged at 5:30 p.m. Dec. 31 in Seminole.

The bride is a graduate of Seagraves High School and is a student at Texas Tech. Hayes is associated with his uncle, Bill Hayes, in the Hayes Oil Well Contract Co. in Big Lake, where the couple will make their home after Jan. 22.

Sharon Mangum Given Courtesy

Other hostesses were Mrs. Dub Barnett, Mrs. Houston Miller, Mrs. L. D. Jones and Mrs. Ira Taylor.

Chosen colors of red and white were featured in decorations, including an arrangement of red and white carnations centering the table.

Special guest was Mrs. T. E. Mangum of Littlefield, grandmother of the bride-elect. Others in the house party were Misses Carole Abbott, Margaret Robinson, Judy Ellis, Benita Farris and Jenny Lou Watson.

The couple will marry at 7:30 p. m. Jan. 22 in Ford Memorial Chapel of First Baptist Church.

hints from Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I am one of your old readers, and would like to tell you a trick I've learned.

I wear stockings all the time, so I buy them by the dozen for everyday wear . . . all alike, same size and shade.

On wash day, I have six or eight pairs to wash. After drying, I just fold any two together, and they match.

Whenever I discover a runner in one when wearing them, I pull that stocking off wrong side out.

HELOISE

In folding up the pairs, if one is wrong side out, I know it has a run, so I put it in a bag.

When I have several, I make a mop of them, together with any washcloth (or two) that's worn in the center, catching the washcloths by one corner, and fastening the hose and cloths to a handle.

Works just fine.

Here's an emergency measure that may come in handy:

If you are ready to go out, and find your hem is ripped, put a piece of double-stick tape between the hem and the dress.

This will hold until you have time to mend it.

Dear Heloise:

I use leftover pancake batter, and combine it with leftover mashed potatoes until I have a very thick mixture. I form this into patties, and brown in a sizzling fry pan!

I also learned that French fried potatoes will be deliciously golden brown, if sprinkled lightly with flour beford frying. Tray that!

A tired old housewife

Honey, you may be old and tired, but I just tried putting sliced potatoes in a brown paper sack with flour, and shaking it before frying . . . wow!

I shook off most of the flour, then deep-fried 'em. Cuts down on grease spatters, too.

There's that cloud nine floating around again.

We gals get together once a week, and call ourselves "The Befuddled Club."

We write down the stupid things we do, read them aloud, and the biggest boo-boo wins a prize — a pot of jam, homemade cookies, etc.

I won last week. I lost my glasses for two days, and they had a nice vacation in the clothespin bag!

Another time, my husband found them in the refrigerator!

In order to differentiate between long, short and countour sheets after laundering, I fold the long ones with the wide hem showing; the short ones with the narrow hem showing, and the contour sheets with no hem showing.

I can tell, at a glance, where different sized sheets are located in the linen closet.

Dear Heloise:

While taking care of a friend, I had to devise some means of resting my body.

I placed a box in front of the easy chair, and laid folded blankets and a large pillow on the box, right up to the height of the chair. I covered the seat of the chair and tops of the blankets and pillow with a sheet . . . and oh, was it ever comfortable!

Dear Healoise:

My mother has a three-way paper dispenser in the kitchen but doesn't use the paper towel portion since she likes the regular towel holder better.

I suggested that she use the empty part of the dispenser for the spices she uses most.

Hero

Sure it is. The telephone helps save lives, catch criminals, put out fires, bring help and guard homes. It's had a hand in spreading the alert on tornadoes, floods and hurricanes. It can bring the doctor, the fireman or the policeman—in a hurry. And being a modest hero, it can also do less dramatic things. Like letting you talk with friends and loved ones around town or around the world, quickly and easily. Or letting you shop from your easy chair, call ahead for reservations and do a thousand other things that make life richer, more rewarding, more fun. Isn't it nice to have a hero around the house?

Credit Meet Slated Here Wednesday

"Preparations for These Changing Times in Credit Management" is the theme of a Credit Seminar to be held Wednesday on the Texas Tech campus under joint sponsorship of Tech and the Lubbock Association of Credit Management, Inc.

Association members from Lubbock, Midland - Odessa and Plainview are expected to attend the sessions getting underway at 9 a. m. in the Student Union Building.

Three Topics

Emphasis at the seminar will be focused on three topics: Water in the Future for West Texas; Impact on New Farm Legislation; and Creditors' Rights in Texas.

Jim Price, assistant vice president of the First National Bank in Lubbock is general chairman of the program. Steering committee members are Dean Gerald W. Thomas of Tech and Mrs. Pauline Rutledge, assistant manager of the Lubbock Association of Credit Management.

M. L. Pennington, vice president of business affairs at Tech, will greet participants at 9:30 a. m., and a panel program will follow, with Dean Thomas, Dr. Herbert Grubb of the Department of Agriculture at Tech, and Tom McFarland, district manager of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, participating.

A panel at 10:50 a. m. will include Dr. Willard Williams, Department of Agriculture Economics at Tech, Donald A. Johnson, executive vice president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., and D. G. Nelson, executive vice president of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

After a buffet luncheon in the Union Ballroom, Elmer V. East, executive vice president of Lubbock National Bank, will speak at 1:30 p. m. on "Uniform Commercial Code."

Robert E. Garner, attorney, will discuss 'Creditors' Rights'' at 2:30 p. m., followed by G. E. Lawrence, executive manager of the Dallas Association of Credit Management, Inc., speaking on "Functions of Your Local NACM."

Adjournment is planned at 4:15 p. m.

Museum's Rare Coin Is Finally Returned

TITUSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Drake Museum, operated here by the petroleum industry, says it recently received an unsigned letter with a rare coin enclosed.

The letter said: "Enclosed is an item taken from your museum by mistake. This happened in 1934 during the Diamond Jubilee. I am sorry."

The letter had a Kittanning, Pa., postmark.

Plains Farming

Rulings Awaited On Tax Benefits

By DUANE HOWELL
Avalanche-Journal Farm Editor

Many High Plains farmers are anxiously awaiting an announcement of the rules under which producers who own irrigation water rights in the Ogallala formation may be able to get added income tax benefits for the 1965 taxable year.

Representatives of the Internal Revenue Service and the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District still are working on guidelines which an eligible taxpayer may use when filing a claim for the new irrigation water depletion allowance.

They say it's doubtful these guidelines will be established and published before Feb. 15, when farmers who haven't filed an estimated return must have filed their completed tax forms.

Therefore, eligible farmers who are planning to claim an irrigation water depletion allowance for 1965 may elect to file an estimated return by Jan. 15, says John J. Seibert, area extension farm management specialist.

Gain Extra Time

This would give these taxpayers until April 17 to file their completed 1965 returns, he pointed out. Officials expect to have the depletion guidelines completed before then.

"There's no substitute for complete and accurate records," Seibert said. "This is particularly true where cost basis, annual depletion rate, and thickness of water-bearing strata are used in determining the annual depletion allowance.

"Guidelines are just a part of the total picture. If questioned, farmers no doubt also would be asked to substantiate the information used in arriving at their cost bases—value used as 'water rights'. This also would be true for the thickness of the water-bearing strata."

Seibert advised farmers who elect to file for a 1965 water "deduct" to keep in close contact with their accountant, water district officials or others who are keeping abreast of regulations governing irrigation water depletion.

"Utilizing official rulings may save embarrassing questions and also may result in more income tax savings," he said.

Preparing Maps

The water district now is preparing maps showing the thickness of water-bearing sands, water decline tables and other information for taxpayers in its 13-county area to use in computing the depletion allowance.

High Plains farmers who live outside the district apparently will have to supply their own individual data or rely on information from the Texas Water Development Board and the U. S. Geological Survey.

Eligible farmers also probably will be allowed to claim depletion allowances, on their returns for 1965, for the years of 1962, 1963 and 1964.

Annual water table measurements now are being taken in more than 800 observation wells in the water district. It may be that eligible taxpayers can use the declines for specified areas in these measurements in claiming depletion allowances.

Example Reported

Say a farmer paid $300 an acre for irrigated land. And assume a dryland farm in the same general area was priced at $100 an acre at the time, meaning $200 an acre the cost of the water.

If the buyer of the irrigated farm had 100 feet of water under the land at the time of purchase, the cost of the water was $2 per foot per acre.

So if the water table declined three feet during the taxable year, the farmer's cost depletion allowance would be $6 per acre (2 per foot cost times three feet of decline).

Thus a landowner, in claiming a depletion allowance, needs to determine the thickness of the water-bearing sands at the time he bought the farm; the annual decline of the water table; and what he paid for the underground water, or his cost basis in the water.

Fertility Meet Set

Fertilization will be discussed at a 7 p.m. meeting Thursday at the Bovina school cafeteria, according to Parmer County Agent Joe VanZandt of Farwell.

On the progiem will be James Valentine, soil chemist, and W. M. Lyle, irrigation specialist, both of Lubbock; and James Murphrey, farm management specialist, Amarillo. All are with the Extension Service.

Value of soil and plant food lost in runoff water will be discussed, VanZandt said, along with management of crop residues. Management of fertilizer and water applications to get the highest net returns off various crops also will be discussed, he added.

Enter Rural Contest

Close City and Graham, both in Garza County, are the only South Plains entries to date in the Texas Community Improvement Program.

The entry deadline is Jan. 31, reminds Reagan Brown, sociologist at Texas A&M, who is coordinator of the program. He said a total of 239 Texas communities are enrolled in the program.

Electric utility companies operating in Texas will supply $6,800 in prizes for communities which made outstanding progress during the year ending next March 21.

Five City Men Charged With Felony Offenses

Howarth Summers, 36, of Levelland and Ted Freeman, 2059 Ave. L, were charged in connection with burglary of Peek Seed & Grain warehouse, 4000-block Locust Ave., Friday night.

Freeman had not been taken into custody Monday. Summers was arrested Saturday night after 278 sacks of cotton seed, identified as taken from the warehouse, were located at a seed and delinting plant in Lynn County. The seed was valued at $2,224.

Released On Bond

Freeman was released Monday afternoon on $2,500 bond set by Peace Justice F. R. Land.

Lonnie Ray Coker, 24, 6301 19th St., was charged in the attempted break-in of an apartment of Nadine Nesbett, 1502-B 15th St., early Saturday. He posted $1,000 bond and was released from jail Monday afternoon.

Patrolmen, who answered a disturbance call early Sunday on Erskine St., said they were threatened by a man wielding a knife. Monday, Paul Santos, 26, 2716 Erskine St., was named in a complaint of assault with a prohibited weapon against patrolman Herbert Brink. He was being held in lieu of $2,000 bond Monday night.

Manuel Luna, 28, 2221 5th St., was charged with driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense. He was released on $1,000 bond Monday.

Willis Hawkins Gets New Hart Bank Post

HART (Special) -- Willis A. Hawkins Jr., member of the borad of directors of Farmers State Bank at Hart, has been named its vice president and farm representative.

Hawkins, who served with the U.S. Army Air Corps in 1944-45, has farmed since 1946.

He became active in the American Legion in 1955 and has held local district and state offices. He was district commander in 1960 and served two years on the State Executive Committee. In 1960, he won the national Distinguished Service Award for membership.

Carnival Time Nears In South America

NEW YORK (UPI) — Carnival time in South America, Feb. 19-22, offers a leading attraction to travelers, with singing and dancing in the streets, song and dance competitions, masquerade balls and parties and parades with fantastically decorated floats, says an international airline.

Gay carnivals are held in Montevideo, Uruguay; Caracas, Venezuela; Baranquilla, Colombia; Panama; La Paz, Bolivia, and other cities.

Food Less, But Not Prices, Guests Say

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Hotels have stopped serving evening meals on Mondays in response to Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's appeal to Indians to "produce more, eat less and waste nothing."

Regular residents of the hotels complain that the hotels aren't reducing the monthly food service bills despite the missing meals.

Glaciers cover about one-tenth of the earth's land surface and contain almost one per cent of the world's water, says National Geographic.

NEWS BRIEFS

Funeral services for Mrs. Buena V. Dennison, 73, longtime Lubbock resident, will be at 10 a.m. today in the Sanders Memorial Chapel. Burial will be in City of Lubbock Cemetery under direction of Sanders Funeral Home. She had been a resident of Lubbock since 1924 and was a member of the Church of Christ. Survivors include a son, a daughter, two brothers and three grandchildren.

Funeral services for James O. Teal, 55, a former Lubbock resident of Amarillo the past 10 years will be at 10:30 a.m. today in Griggs Funeral Home Chapel in Amarillo. A graduate of Lubbock High School, Teal was a plumber by trade. Survivors include his wife, two daughters, four brothers and six sisters.

Relatives have returned from funeral services last Tuesday in Cortez, Colo., for J. T. Hay, 81, Floydada area resident from 1929 until 1941. Area survivors include a son, R. C. Hay, 4001 33rd St., Lubbock, and a daughter, Mrs. Jimmie Lee Dewbre of Crosbyton. Also surviving are the wife, three other children, 29 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

Carol Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schmidt, 1322 59th St., and a junior English major at Southwest Texas State College at San Marcos, has been initiated into the college's scholastic honor society, Alpha Chi. She also is a member of the Texas Student Education Association chapter and Chessyre Cheese Club at the college.

A total of $1,033 was netted Sunday in a "walkathon" in Lubbock, where about 50 Hub City teenagers collected funds in a March of Dimes drive. Four "teams" competed to see which group could collect the most contributions, and a group called the "Creepy Crawlers" won by netting over $400. The teenagers were aided by the Lubbock Emergency Corps, which picked up contribution pledges made by telephone.

Defendants indicted by a grand jury of 137th District Court Wednesday were arranged before Judge James A. Ellis Monday. About 27 attorneys were appointed Thursday for indigent defendants.

Critics judged a lawyer and a doctor as best participants of the evening here Monday during a weekly meeting of Lubbock Toastmasters Club at the Country Inn Restaurant. Named best speaker was Dr. M. J. Healy. Picked as best informal participant was Bill Kirk, Lubbock attorney. Fifteen members and two guests were present for the event.

Dr. William T. Reid, Phillips Professor of Mathematics at Oklahoma University, will lecture at 4 p.m. today in Room 364 of the Texas Tech Administration Building on "Strum-Liouville Generalized Differential Systems."

Monterey High School basketball coach Gerald Myers Monday gave approximately 20 Plainsmen boosters a rundown on progress of the Monterey cagers, showing three films of previous games and delivering a scouting report on Lubbock High School's team. Monterey meets Lubbock High tonight in Municipal Coliseum. Following Myers' talk, Coach Joe Michalka reported on progress of the B team at Monterey.

Members of Southwest Lubbock Rotary Club heard Capt. Bill Cox of the Lubbock Police Department speak at a meeting of the club in the Johnson House Restaurant Monday. Eighty-four members and guests were present. The group will elect a new board of directors at noon Thursday in Betty-Jay Restaurant.

Plans to enter the 4-H Club sponsored Favorite Foods Festival to be held in March at Lubbock Childrens Home Youth Center were made by members of OBWAD 4-H Club Monday evening. Royce Burns, club president, was in charge of the Monday meeting at the Lubbock Childrens Home Youth Center.

reconstruction House.

Members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee were seated in the gallery. But there was no disturbance when the House voted to end its marathon opening day of the 1966 session.

Bond is publicity director for SNCC. It was a SNCC statement which caused the trouble. Bond endorsed last Friday the statement labeling U.S. participation in Viet Nam as aggression and calling on Americans to seek alternatives to military service.

Bond, 25, a slender, smooth-faced youth, had told the House committee that he stood on his endorsement of the SNCC statement. But he said he had not advocated violation of any law, while voicing admiration for anyone with the courage to burn his draft card.

Before the lengthy committee hearing, Bond's attorney had said the fight would be taken into court if necessary and an SNCC leader said demonstrations and possibly a boycott of Georgia products would result.

Rep. George D. Bagby of Paulding County, arguing for the majority report against seating Bond, said "I feel this situation that has arisen here today was a planned thing."

"SNCC is in debt. We are fixing to give them a martyr and we are giving them a cause," he said. "I know I'm being used."

But Bagby said despite his feeling about the reason for the dispute he could not in good conscience vote to seat Bond.

Three newly installed Negro members spoke for a minority report to seat Bond. The committee voted 23-3 against the seating.

Rep. J.C. Daugherty of Atlanta warned that the failure to give Bond his seat would "blacken and besmirch the name of our great state."

Bond won election to the House by a landslide vote in his predominantly Negro district of Atlanta last June following court-ordered reapportionment. After the House action, Bond hurried from the Capitol with his lawyers and supporters. He had no comment.

The House had been in recess since about 11 a.m. after Bond was initially refused his seat when the other members took their oaths.

The marathon session of the House came on the opening day of the 1966 session, marked by the seating of seven other Negroes in the lower chamber — the first in 58 years.

Bond told the House committee earlier that he stood on his endorsement of a statement denouncing U.S. policy in Viet Nam as aggression.

Several petitions to disqualify him from serving were filed with the House clerk and the committee was set up to review the issue.

thought to that at all. It's my determination to run for attorney general."

Spears called the question of his eligibility "a spurious issue" and an "attempt to take the decision on who shall be Texas' attorney general away from the voters."

Spears said he does not expect the issue to hurt his candidacy. He said it might even help.

Spears said a recent poll showed him to be the best known of three announced candidates — Spears, Calhoun and secretary of state Crawford Martin.

Martin has said he would not contest the senators' candidacies.

By prearrangement with Davis, Spears appeared at the state Democratic headquarters Monday with his $1,000 filing fee and his application for a place on the ballot in hand. Davis' formal rejection was necessary to set up the Supreme Court test.

Both Confident

Both Davis and Spears said they are confident the Supreme Court will decide the question well ahead of the Feb. 7 filing deadline.

Most capitol sources thought Spears' chances of getting on the ballot were better than Calhoun's.

Spears contends his Senate term ends Nov. 6, exactly four years after his election. If that is true, the constitutional provision would not apply because Spears would not be elected attorney general during his Senate term.

Calhoun, however, is in the middle of a four-year term that will be cut short because of senatorial redistricting. All Senate seats are up for election this year, but the redistricting bill did not say when present senators' terms end.

Davis said one of his reasons for refusing to put Spears and Calhoun on the ballot was to "avoid electing a Republican to public office because of possible ineligibility of the Democratic nominee."

He said his rejection of their candidacies "should not be construed as a preference for any candidate."

Marsha Neunaber Receives Courtesy

Miss Marsha Neunaber, bride-elect of James Diers, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Friday night in the home of Mrs. A. B. Ohlenbusch, 2914 20th St.

Target date for completion is in the late summer of this year.

Largest Movie Screen

To feature the largest movie screen in Lubbock, variable in size for the different movie processes, the theater will not have a stage. All seats will be situated on the one floor.

Exterior finish will be face brick and Egyptian stucco. Inside diameter of the building is 122 feet.

The elaborate facility is on land owned by the Rob Caraway family of Lubbock, and a long-term lease has been signed by the movie operators. Rob Caraway was born on the property that long has been a Lubbock landmark. It still boasts what is believed the oldest tree in the area still standing, a large mulberry tree at northeast corner of the property. Plans are to retain the tree as part of the landscaping.

Plans for a theater at the 50th Street location first were announced in August 1964 by James Eby. Since that time, Eby's interest has been assumed by the present developers.

City Cage Rivals To Clash Tonight

Lubbock, Monterey In League Feature

Teams Both Have Outside Shots At Title Share In 8 P.M. Tilt

By CARLTON STOWERS
Avalanche-Journal Sports Staff

An explosive finale, complete with all the action a grudge match demands, is on tap for the initial go-round of District 3-AAAA cage wars tonight when Monterey Plainsmen and the Lubbock High Westerners renew their colorful cross-town rivalry in an 8 p.m. affair at Municipal Coliseum.

Tonight's encounter will mark the 23rd entry into the Hub City record book and, as has been the rule, the outcome is about as unpredictable as a rich old maid.

Out As Cards Coach

Lemm Out As Coach Of Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Wally Lemm quit as coach of the St. Louis Cardinals Monday, by mutual agreement with owners of the National Football League club.

Lemm, whose Cardinals had a disappointing 5-9 record this past season, still had a year to go on a two-year contract. He did not disclose his immediate plans, and no successor was named.

Charles W. Bidwill Jr., president of the Cardinals, said: "When my brother and I hired Wally, we wanted a coach who would be with us the year around.

"We knew that Wally wanted to be head coach on a six months basis and that was fine. In the ensuing years, however, we felt more and more strongly that we wanted a head coach that would be with us all the time.

"When the issue came up again today, there was no compromise available, and by mutual consent, he is leaving the Cardinals.

"We are sorry that Wally is leaving because we felt he did an excellent job."

The Cardinals were given a good chance to unseat the Cleveland Browns as champions of the NFL's Eastern Division in 1965, but did no better than a tie for fifth in the seven-team conference. Cleveland again won the title.

Lemm is the fourth NFL coach let go since the season ended. The other three were Bill

Both teams enter the contest with identical 6-1 records in league play, good enough for a second place tie behind the unbeaten Amarillo Sandies. And, barring a near miracle by the Borger Bulldogs in Amarillo tonight, the Lubbock battle will, in addition to enhancing citywide prestige, decide who will claim outright ownership of the No. 2 spot.

Odds Slim

Should Borger, which has won but one league game to date, defeat Amarillo, the LHS-MHS winner could earn a tie for the first round title. But odds on Coach Tex Hanna's troops pulling off an upset are near astronomical.

Coach Gerald Myers' Plainsmen, 15-2 for the season and fresh from an impressive win over Pampa, own a narrow 12-10 edge in the colorful series which was initiated in 1956. The Plainsmen snapped a five-game Westerner domination in the final game of the season last year with a slim 47-43 victory.

Both teams' lone district defeat came at the hands of the front-running Sandies in Amarillo. Monterey was the first to fall, 58-57, in a hectic overtime affair, and Coach Max O'Banion's Westerners, unable to get off the floor all evening, fell, 63-49, last Friday.

Deliberate Game

A deliberate brand of ball will likely be the rule of thumb with the Westerners' revolving post offensive and the MHS continuity attack both geared for slowdown, sure-thing basketball.

Monterey enters the contest with the best scoring average, having averaged 55.2 points-per-game through seven league outings while Lubbock has averaged 49.1. The Westerners, on the other hand, have the more impressive defense, giving up just 42 points-per-outing. Monterey has yielded 44 points-per-game to its loop opponents.

The Westerners, entertaining a 14-3 season record, having fallen to Amarillo, San Angelo and Odessa Permian. Monterey's two losses came at the hands of the Sandies and Midland Lee.

All-Senior Offense

Myers will field an all-senior offense led by leading scorers David Reed (6-3, 12.2) and Kenny Coleman (6-3, 12.2) and ace rebounder Steve Hardin (6-5½, 7.4). Rounding out the starting five will be Chuck Lewis (6-2, 5.7) and Craig Wright (6-4¾, 9.1). Danny Sledge (6-6, 5.1), Steve Hurst (6-2, 1-2) and Randy Andrews (6-3¼, 1.2) are also expected to play key substituting roles.

Lubbock High's alignment will be shuffled somewhat with two new faces in the starting lineup. Regulars Jimmy Poe (5.9, 4.4), Wesley Verner (6-1, 10.0) and Ronnie Shuffield (6-1, 5.3) will be joined by Don Burrell (6-3, 11.0) and Nello Armstrong (6-6, 2.2) at tip-off time. Burrell, the team's leading scorer though handling the sixth man chores to date, will replace Fred Dickson

FOR RECRUITING VIOLATIONS

Houston Placed On 3 Years Probation

By W.B. RAGSDALE JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association placed the University of Houston on probation for three years Monday for "severe violations" involving out-of-season practice, recruiting and financial aid to football players.

Only Auburn, Indiana and North Carolina State have been handed stiffer penalties by the NCAA Council. Auburn was disciplined twice for a total of five years, while Indiana and North Carolina State got four-year terms. The probation included all sports, where Houston's penalty covers only football.

The only mention of the NCAA's dispute with the Amateur Athletic Union came in a speech by NCAA President Everett D. Barnes at the opening session.

Barnes said the NCAA would abide by decisions of the arbitration board named by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, but only if the AAU also accepts them.

"There should be no question about the panel's authority to act in the best interests of the amateur," Barnes said.

"Compliance with its findings is essential to any lasting accord with the AAU."

Barnes said that although the NCAA had agreed to accept the panel's findings as binding and permanent, "The AAU has entered reservations about the scope of its inquiry and the permanence of its decision."

In other actions, the NCAA Council terminated the probations voted last year to West Texas State for excessive financial aid and to Arkansas for recruiting violations.

SUPPOSEDLY HIGH IN the running for the head football post at Snyder was Don Orr of Denver City, although he didn't apply for the post. . . . However, Don said last week he was quite content right where he was and that the future still looked all right in Mustangland. He's one of the nominees for the Texas High School Coaching School All-Star game this summer. . . . Despite all the success that has come his way at Denver City of late, Orr's had a few tastes of lean years. Back in 1956, his only year at Irving, his club won one, lost eight and tied one. The next year at Denver City, the Ponies were 5-5 and his first season at Graham, 1951, was 4-5. One game was cancelled due to the death of one of the players. . . .

GENE SARAZEN, ONE of the greatest names in golf who now is a commentator, says it won't be long until you'll see these electric golf buggies on the pro tourney trail. "Probably have to, because there aren't as many caddies around now as there used to be," he claims. . . . And the prize money paid out these days shakes up the fiery little Scot. "Why, when I won the British Open and the National Open, between them, I got around $1,100. And Jimmy Demaret told me once the first tourney he ever won paid him $25!" he exclaimed. . . . What was it Arnold Palmer bagged Sunday in taking home the trophy at the Los Angeles Open, $11,000? Even on these filmed golf shows, the winner of some gets around $10,000 and the loser gets $7,000. Others pay more. . . . Although he didn't win any money, Chris Blocker of Jal played in the Los Angeles Open last weekend and he plans to go all out on the circuit this year. Last year, Chris finished 13th at L.A. . . . Now that Butch Mitchell of Lubbock is off the tour, the only area players besides Chris making the rounds are Terry Dill, the former Muleshoe linkster, and Steve Spray, the ex-ENMU golfer. . . . Understand that Skinny Carter, formerly of Muleshoe, is now the pro at Friona and he has been replaced by Wayne Wash, who was the pro at Friona. . . . Cal Garrett, former pro here, is now an assistant at Ross Rodgers Golf Course in Amarillo. . . .

"Oh, good! I was going to call Barnes there to see if he wanted to make a fourth at golf tomorrow."

HOW TIME DOES FLY DEPT.: It doesn't seem like it was 18 years ago that Pete Ragus and Vitaman T. Smith were playing football at ACC. They were teammates for two seasons and would have been for another, but Smith got a chance to play with the Los Angeles Rams so he took it. After five years with the Rams (and he still holds the record of returning three kickoffs back for toughdowns in one season), he retired and went into business at Andrews for a couple of years, then moved to Mississippi. Over the weekend, ACC signed V. T. Smith III to a football scholarship. He's not as big as Vitamin, 5-10 and 160, but he's just about as fast. He runs the 100 in 9.9. His dad was quite a track star, too, running the 100 and throwing the javelin. . . . The son was regarded one of the top athletes in Louisiana this past season and was all-city and all-state. Several Southeastern Conference teams were after him. . . . And baseball is just five weeks away. It seems only yesterday the Dodgers and Twins were playing in the World Series, but come Feb. 13, the Houston Astros will start working out. Most of the players to be on hand for this session will be youngsters, while the remainder of the team won't report until Feb. 28. . . . Some Astro farm clubs will not report until March 13 and others will show up a week later. . . .

RANDY MATSON HAS BEEN named Sport Magazine's top performer in track and field for 1965 after putting the shot over 70 feet about 10-15 years earlier than experts predicted the feat would happen. . . . Among the coaches named to the advisory board of Coaches of America Life Insurance Co. are Don Williams of Plainview, Pat Patterson of Amarillo, Gene Mayfield of Permian and Truman Nix of Colorado City. . . . Texas Tech will again be the site of the Region 1 Coaches Meeting Jan. 29 and it'll start around 8 a.m. that Saturday with registration. Lecturers and topics will be announced later. . . .

Lobos To Host Tors

By BILL HART
Avalanche-Journal Sports Editor

Seven more area basketball districts start the chore of naming a loop champion tonight, while Lamesa goes to Levelland tonight in a contest that could go a long way in settling things in 3-AAA.

Opening loop play for the first time tonight are 1-AAA, 3-A, 5-A, 4-B, 6-B, 10-B and 11-B. This leaves only 3-AA and 4-AA which is still in non-conference play and they join the league warfares Friday night.

Only Unbeaten

Lamesa and Levelland are the only undefeated teams left in the 3-AAA race with 3-0 records. The winner of this one will have the inside track the rest of the way, since most of the other members have lost at least twice.

For the year, Lamesa is 17-4 and the Tors, with a pair of soplomore starters, have won their last 11 games in a row. Levelland is the defending champion and the Lobos boast one of the tallest players in the circuit in 6-7 Clay Krueger.

Andrews and Kermit are the leaders in 2-AAA and Kermit must go to tough Ector tonight. Andrews travels to Fort Stockton, no easy task itself.

Dumas is the defending champion in 1-AAA and the Demons have been tabbed as the team to beat again although Hereford has looked strong in non-loop play.

Farwell is the past champ in 3-A. Seagraves in 5-A, Nazareth in 4-B, Anton in 6-B, Turkey in 10-B and McAdoo in 12-B.

Close Race

The 3-A race appears to be pretty equal as Kress, Springlake, Hale Center and Farwell have been tough on several occasions this year and this race usually goes right down to the wire each season.

Seagraves has dominated the 5-A race for the past three years, but the Eagles will have tough competition from Stanton, Plains and Tahoka. The Eagles play Plains tonight in a key game, while Stanton is at Tahoka.

Nazareth, Anton and Turkey appear to be strong enough to repeat, but McAdoo will be hard pressed by Jayton and possibly Guthrie.

Meadow, the defending regional champion, is currently tied with Ropesville for first place in 8-B, while Shallowater is head of the pack in 9-B.

Petersburg, Lorenzo and Ralls are setting the pace in 4-A, and two of them, Petersburg and Lorenzo, clash tonight in Lorenzo.

In a top non-conference game, Seminole, seeking its 12th straight district championship this year, takes on Denver City, the winner of 4-AA for the past six seasons.

Reds Set 55 Night Games On '66 Slate

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds said Monday night they have scheduled 55 home night games for the 1966 baseball season, including two twi-night doubleheaders.

The Reds, who traditionally play their first game at home because they are the oldest professional baseball club, open the season April 11 against the New York Mets.

Cincinnati also will close the season at home, Oct. 2 against the Atlanta Braves.

Inevitable Happens To Wes Covington: Phils Trade Him

Baseball's most outspoken critic of Manager Gene Mauch of the Phils, Covington went to the Chicago Cubs for Tene Clemens, an outfielder who hit .221 with the Cubs last season.

Covington, whose then mighty bat helped the Milwaukee Braves to two pennants in the late 50s, hit .247 in 101 games last season, being used mainly as a pinch hitter. His lifetime batting average is more respectable .280 for 1,029 games.

Covington, 33, who is seven years older than Clemens, did not fit in the Phils' 1966 plans, the club announced. It said it sought waivers on him and only the Cubs were interested. Covington is rumored to be getting $25,000 a year. The Phils didn't want money, only players, so it was a straight trade deal — with no cash involved, the club said.

Covington publicly blasted Manager Mauch on several occasions as the cause of the Phillies' 1964 collapse, when they appeared to have the National League pennant clinched only to lose out to the St. Louis Cardinals on the final day of the season.

Clemens, of Leesport, Pa., came up with the Cards in 1960 and saw occasional duty with them before being traded in 1964 to the Cubs, along with pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz, and for outfielder Lou Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Covington said he welcomed the chance to play for a "real manager," Leo Durocher, and would be in the best possible physical shape for the start of the next season.

"This isn't any earth shaking deal but is a definite improvement over what we have," said Manager Durocher in Milwaukee, where a Cub caravan is opening a weeklong tour of cities in four states.

"Every chance we get to acquire a player who is just a little bit better, we will make the move. And we are not through. We will keep pushing to pick up any players available. I'm very glad to get Covington. I know he has some years on him and has occasional knee trouble, but he can really swing that bat.

Keith Miles Named To Snyder Football Post

SNYDER (Special) — Kenneth Miles, who wrapped up two district football championships the past two years at Quanah, was accepted as athletic director and football coach at Snyder Monday.

Harold Bennett, president of the school board, announced that Miles had been given a two-year contract at $9,800 a year. Miles replaces Horrace Bostick, head coach for five years here, who has been appointed high school vice-principal.

The Quanah team went to the semifinals this past season, and the quarter-finals in 1964 in football.

The 33-year-old mentor graduated from Stamford High School in 1953, attended TCU, and then served two years in the Army. He graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in 1959, majoring in psychology and English. At Abilene, he played under coach Sam Baugh and was named to the All-Border Conference team as an end.

No decisions on assistants will be made until after the spring semester, the new coach indicated.

The school board received 45 applications and held interviews with seven applicants Sunday. The decision was made at a meeting Monday morning.

Miles is married and has two children, a daughter, 5, and an 8-month-old son.

Al Heist Named Houston Coach

HOUSTON (UPI) — Al Heist, 38-year-old former outfielder with Houston and the Chicago Cubs, was named Sunday a coach with the Houston Astros.

"Al is not only a hard worker, but a great guy to have around a ball club," Hatton said. "He keeps the players on their toes..."

Heist has been in pro ball 17 years and has a major league lifetime batting mark of .260.

Hotel Waiter To Get Tryout From Oilers

He has never played American football before, but in a two-hour practice session recently at the Oiler field he kicked field goals from as far out as 50 yards.

K.S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the American Football League club, held the ball while Lloret kicked.

Lloret, a member of the amateur Gran Columbia team in the Houston Soccer League, served Adams at a party at a hotel and asked for the tryout.

Navy Aide Takes Job On Pittsburgh Staff

Top Baseball Coaches Selected At Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bobby Winkles of Arizona State University and John Winkin, Colby College, were named coaches of the year Monday by the American Association of College Baseball Coaches.

Winkles, whose Arizona State team won the National Collegiate baseball championship in 1965, was selected the university division coach of the year. Winkin was made the college division choice.

The coaches group also named J. Kyle Anderson, University of Chicago, to the Silver Baseball Award for distinguished service to baseball in 1965. Lefty Gomez, former New York Yankee great, presented the award to Anderson at the coaches annual banquet Monday night.

Named to the Hall of Fame were F.J. Bedenk of Penn State, Jack Barry of Holy Cross, William J. Disch of Texas, Max Bishop of Navy, Sam Barry of Southern California, Clinton W. Evans of California, J.O. Christian of Connecticut and J.A. Hyames of Western Michigan.

Winkin, whose Colby team was the outstanding squad in New England in 1965, was selected from a group that included Arthur Lawrence, Union College; Hal Smeltzly, Florida Southern; Guy Ricci, Western Illinois; L.W. Whitford, State College of Iowa; Houston Wheeler, Trinity; Bob Johnson, Colorado College; and Paul Taylor, Redlands.

Major college nominees were Larry Panciers, Connecticut; Charley Gelbert, Lafayette; Jack Powers, Furman; Robert Wren, Ohio; Tony Sharpe, Nebraska; Bibb Falk, Texas, and Chuck Brayton, Washington State.

George Allen Gets Nod As Head Coach Of Slumping Rams

Allen is 43. He farmerly was head coach at nearby Whittier College, from 1951 through 1956. He also served as offensive end coach with the Rams in 1957 under then Coach Sid Gillman.

College End

Allen played end for Marquette University in Wisconsin and also attended the University of Michigan and Alma College.

Half a dozen or more candidates had been considered for the Ram job by owner Dan Reeves. They reportedly included Paul Brown, formerly with the Cleveland Browns; Sid Gillman of the San Diego Chargers, Buddy Parker, formerly with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Detroit Lions, and George Wilson, now a Washington Redskins assistant.

Flew In Sunday

Allen flew in Sunday and conferred during the day with Reeves.

The announcement came by telephone from the Rams' public relations staff, and a news conference was scheduled for later.

Allen was a scout as well as coach when he first joined Chicago and helped sign such stars as end Mike Ditka and halfback Ronnie Bull.

Said Bear Coach George Halas: "Allen has done an outstanding job, particularly in improving our pass defense."

The Rams, once a power in the National Football League, have had a long series of losing seasons. Svare, who took over after Bob Waterfield resigned, had a 14-31-3 record. Last season's 4-10 left the Rams in the Western Conference cellar.

Cal Eaton, Promoter, Dies At 58

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Cal Eaton, veteran boxing promoter, died Monday at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital where he had been under treatment for a lung disease.

Eaton, 58, and his wife, Ailene, had promoted boxing and wrestling events for many years at the Los Angeles Olympic Auditorium.

26 Title Bouts

He founded the Boxers and Wrestlers Fund in California and once was an inspector for the State Athletic Commission.

Born in Los Angeles, Alva M. Eaton, as he was known formally, practiced law before turning to boxing promotion in June 1942 with the late matchmaker Babe McCoy. Eaton brought back boxing in Los Angeles after it had gone into a slump in the 1930s. For 20 years he staged regular weekly bouts.

"Dapper Dresser"

Short and light of build, standing about 5-6, Eaton was a dapper dresser who was never without a hat. An associate described him as "a real friendly guy" who "had a lot of friends" and "thought there was nothing wrong with boxing that couldn't be cured, that you couldn't judge the sport itself by the few bad apples that were in it."

Besides his widow, Eaton leaves a son, Robert, a Los Angeles attorney whose wife Marilyn is a daughter of former California Gov. Goodwin J. Knight. He also leaves two stepsons, Mike LeBell, business manager of the Olympic auditorium, and Gene LeBell, wrestler, referee, movie stuntman and former U.S. judo champion.

Record Gate

One Eaton promotion, a world double title fight at Los Angeles' Coliseum Feb. 4, 1960, drew a gate of $380,000, which a spokesman said is a western U. S. record.

In March 1963 Eaton booked a triple championship match at Dodger Stadium: Louis Manuel Rodriguez decisioned Emile Griffith to take the welterweight title, Sugar Ramos won the featherweight title from Davey Moore, who suffered a brain injury and died. Roberto Cruz of the Philippines kayoed Battling Torres for the then vacant junior welterweight title.

Denver Broncos Sign No-Experience Player

Mertes, 6-foot-5½ and 245 pounds, is a graduate of Brigham Young University. The American Football League team will try the 24-year-old Mertes as a tight end.

Mustangs Host Caprock Cagers

The Coronado High School Mustangs, hoping to improve on a 6-9 season record, play host to the Caprock 'B' cagers today at 6:00 p.m. in Monterey Gym.

Likely starters for Coach Carl McMillian will be Lynn Shuttlesworth (6-5), Mark Leaverton (6-3), Robert Sweatt (6-6), Ron DeSherlia (5-7) and Sammy Holt (5-8). Others who will likely see action are Gary Kirksey (6-0), Richard Black (6-0), Mark Clark (6-0), Don Gobin (6-3) and Gary Mattison (5-7).

Holub To Speak At CHS Banquet

E. J. Holub, first Texas Tech player to make a major All-America first team, will speak at the Coronado High School Booster Club banquet honoring the football team at the Lubbock Country Club at 7 p.m. Jan. 20.

Holub, who made All-America as a center and linebacker for the Red Raiders in 1959 and 1960, has since played professional football for the Kansas City Chiefs and was chosen again this season to play in the American Football League's All-Star game.

Alex Cooke, the Booster Club's vice-president in charge of football, said that guests would be the varsity team as well as Coach Wayne Wilsher's staff and their wives.

Tickets for others will cost $2.75 and may be reserved by calling Mrs. Cooke, SW9-0756, before 5 p.m. Jan. 17.

Jim Beaty is president of the Boosters Club.

Dunbar Shoots At Rugged Midland Carver Quintet

MIDLAND (Special)—The Dunbar Panthers, owning a 2-0 record in District 1-AAA Negro cage play, travel here tonight to do battle with the Midland Carver Hornets at 8:30 p.m. today.

The Hornets are 0-1 in league play, having lost to powerful Amarillo Carver.

Dunbar, 14-6 for the season, will open with James Gary, Jimmy Gary, James Johnson, Buford Wiley and Larry Blalock. Johnson has been bothered by a bad ankle but should be ready to go tonight, Coach Curtis Gipson said Thursday evening.

Midland is led by Ray Paul Seay, a 6-1 youngster who is averaging 23.7 points-per-game, and Eardie Curry, who is averaging 17.4 points-per-game.

Dunbar's unbeaten B team, now 12-0 for the year, puts its perfect record on the line against Carver's once beaten B squad in a 7 p.m. preliminary affair.

BUT BOSS DOES

Stanky Won't Predict Finish For White Sox

CHICAGO (AP) — After President Art Allyn predicted the Chicago White Sox would win the American League pennant this season by nine games, his new manager, Eddie Stanky, was introduced.

Stanky stepped into the spot left him and let his thinning hair down in a friendly, frank discussion Monday at the Sox' annual winter news conference.

"I'm not going to predict in January how well we will finish next fall," he quietly added. "I don't yield a big stick. I believe in talking to the players and in making suggestions to them, and I want them to respect the suggestions. I demand a well conditioned club, but I'm not corny enough to say I demand a hustling club.

"I don't have a sense of humor. I'm a quiet man by nature and not a tough one. I was labelled 'The Brat' years ago by an old New York baseball writer who did it in a friendly way. The chief objection to this nickname has come from my wife."

Stanky was asked what he thought of managing in the same city with Leo Durocher, new skipper of the Chicago Cubs.

"Durocher recently told me that this town is big enough for both of us. Years ago, he may have said this town isn't big enough for both of us. It shows how we may have mellowed. The best manager I ever played for was Durocher. I will never get in a feud with him. I admit he can out talk me.

"The best baseball man I've ever been with was Milt Stock, my father-in-law. But Durocher, win, lose or draw, is a great guy.

"As a manager, I want to be known as just a baseball man who knows the business. My job as such is to remind a ball player what he has learned previously. Some of the players I have met have called me 'Mr. Stanky.' I told them that I appreciate their politeness but to call me Eddie."

Stanky said he wants to have a track coach or a professional football coach or player at spring training at Sarasota, Fla., to supervise physical conditioning.

"We've got too many injuries in baseball to the younger players who should be healthy and strong at their age," he said. "I think better conditioning, with emphasis on running, is the practical solution and this will be a big item in our camp.

"When I was with the New York Mets last spring, we had Jesse Owens to help in physical training and he was tremendous. I would like to get him to the Sox camp if possible."

Former Raider Returns As Foe

Coach Dennis Vinzant of Midwestern University, Texas Tech's next cage foe, here Saturday night, was a three-sport athlete at Tech.

Vinzant lettered three years in football as an end, beginning in 1926, three in basketball as a forward, and one season in track. He captained the Tech basketball team in 1926-27.

East Solid Choice In All-Star Game

By HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI (AP) — The East will be heavily favored in Tuesday night's National Basketball Association All-Star game but Coach Fred Schaus of the West isn't ready to throw in the towle.

"I don't think this is going to be as big a mismatch as a lot of people think," said Schaus as players, coaches and club owners began arrainging for the game expected to draw about 12,500 to the Cincinnati Gardens. Game time is 8:30 p.m. EST.

All 11,300 seats have been sold and 1,300 standing room tickets will go on sale shortly before game time

Schaus, who directed the Los Angeles Lakers to the Western Division NBA title last year, agreed that the East, with Bill Russell, Wilt Chamberlain, Jerry Lucas and Oscar Robertson has "all the fire power" but, he added:

"I think we'll have a better defense at all positions except for Russell."

He described Nate Thurmond of the San Francisco Warriors and Jerry West of the Lakers as the keys to the West's chances.

"We'll have to get the rebounding and the defense from Nate," he said, "and Jerry will have to anchor our offense."

Red Auerbach, coach of the champion Boston Celtics and the East squad coach, has not decided whether he will start Russell of his own Celtics or Chamberlain of the Philadelphia 76ers in the pivot position.

Both were unanimous choices for the All-Star team.

Lucas of the Cincinnati Royals and John Havlicek of the Celts will be in the forecourt and Robertson of the Royals and Sam Jones of the Celtics in the backcourt.

The West will start Bailey Howell of the Baltimore Bullets and rookie Rick Barry of the Warriors in the forecourt, Thurmond at the pivot and West and Guy Rodgers of the Warriors in the backcourt.

In matching player against player, Schaus figures he'll have to set up a duel between West and Robertson. He said he would figure on matching Barry against Havlicek and Howell against Lucas.

"I can't visualize Rodgers being able to guard Robertson," he said, "so it looks as I'll be forced to match West against Oscar."

The East has a 10-5 edge in the All-Star series and has won the last three in a row. Auerbach has coached the last nine East teams and has a 6-3 record in All-Star competition.

Lema, Casper Named For Philippine Open

MANILA (AP) — American golfers Tony Lema and Billy Casper were among leading international golfers invited Monday to compete in the Philippine Open Championships.

The tourney which opens the Far East golf circuit, will be played at Wack-Wack Country Club Feb. 24-27, with a record purse totalling $37,500.

The winning pro will get $7,500 and the player with the best round each day of the tournament will receive $2,500.

IN AFL ALL-STAR GAME SATURDAY

Bills To Make Extra Effort For Win

HOUSTON (AP) — The American Football League champion Buffalo Bills may make an extra effort Saturday when they play a squad of All-Stars selected from the rest of the league teams in the annual post-season game.

The Bills apparently want to win this one for their head coach, Joel Collier.

Lou Sabin guided the Bills to their second AFL championship and then resigned Jan. 2 to accept a similar job at the University of Maryland.

Ralph Wilson, owner of the Bills, deliberated a few days and then promoted Collier, who was the No. 1 assistant.

"I'm not just talking like a press agent," said Chuck Burr, Buffalo's assistant general manager, "but our guys really wanted him when Lou quit. I don't know of a single man on the roster who wasn't happy.

"Lou was going to coach the team in the All-Star game. But he changed his mind. He figured Joel might as well take over right away. Naturally, the players want Mr. Wilson to know he made the proper choice.

The Bills held their first workout Sunday at Rice University and plan a workout each morning.

Burr said the team was in excellent condition, but pass receivers Elbert Dubenion and Glenn Bass and defensive tackle Tom Sestak will not play.

Dubenion and Bass were injured early in the season and Sestak had a knee operation following the championship game. Dudley Merdith probably will take Sestak's place.

At the All-Star camp, San Diego's fancy pass receiver, Lance Alworth, says he plans to play. Previous reports said he would not make the game because of rib injuries.

All-Star Coach Sid Gillman said, however, he was not going to give his permission for Alworth to play "until I get a guarantee from his doctor that his ribs are okay."

This will be the first time game will match the league champions and All-Stars from the rest of the league. In the past it has been between the All-Stars from each division of the league.

The game will be played in the 700,000-seat Rice University Stadium. The annual meeting of the league will follow next week.

Is Football Success Due To Coaching Or Superior Talent?

By BUD WILKINSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Is football success due primarily to coaching or material? That's a senseless old argument. Obviously, you need both. However, national champion Alabama proved this season that organization and coaching are tremendous factors in the winning formula.

After starting slowly, Alabama coach Paul (Bear) Bryant and his staff had to make major adjustments. The judgment they applied in fully utilizing the talents of their squad resulted in one of the finest offensive teams in collegiate history, and a highly-capable defensive unit.

The judgment factor in theory was simple enough. From the strict two-platoon system, Bryant reverted to a method of play so fundamental it often is overlooked—get your best players in the game at all times.

"We were slow to adjust to this," Bryant said here Monday as he attended the annual convention of the NCAA and the American Football Coaches Association. "Had we done it sooner, I believe it would have made a big difference in our season. We lost one and tied one early, and it shouldn't have happened.

"When I say that, I don't mean to take anything away from our opponents. I'm just being critical of myself in that we didn't adjust to the platoon style of play sooner than we did."

This always is a problem for a coach. There never has been a college team that truly was two or three-deep. The situation on almost any squad is the same. You have a small group of "class" athletes, and another, larger, group a notch below them in ability.

These athletes are comparable to major-league and minor-league players. The minor-leaguers may look good warming up, but they're not capable of willing in the intense heat of competition. It is the "class" players who make the difference between winning and losing. It is basic that your chances are better if they are in the game at all critical times.

"After we adjusted to a system that would get our best players in the game," Bryant said, "we had about 14 boys who might play both offense and defense. About half of those played both ways fairly consistently.

"We changed our practice routine. On Monday, the regular offensive players would learn defensive assignments, and defensive specialists would learn offense. On Tuesday, they'd practice it. Then, on the last three days of practice every week, they'd all go back to their specialities.

"This ability to meet any game situation with our best athletes helped us tremendously.

"There was another little thing that helped us, too. The 'Red' team at Alabama always has symbolized the best athletes. To be able to say you were on the Red team meant you were among the elite. Our student body and fans knew this, and our players took great pride in it. The Red team always was included about 15 of our best.

"At the start of this season, because of the two-platoon rule, we did away with this. But when we finally got straightened out, we reinstated the old system of Red, White and Blue teams. The effect on the enthusiasm of our squad was amazing.

"Although our adjustment to the new rule was successful, I always will be against two-platoon football. It takes away the factor of conditioning and a lot of the dedication and sacrifice necessary to a good football player.

"I always have believed that in a game where all players go both ways, our boy eventually will whip the boy across from him because of superior motivation, or conditioning or something. In two-platoon ball, this contest never comes off, and that takes a lot away from the game.

"Pride is a big thing, too. It was about the middle of the season before it was pointed out to me that better than 95 per cent of our squad had played on high school champions. I knew that, plus the leadership of our seniors, would make us hard to beat the rest of the way."

Alabama's season is a great tribute to coaching judgment. The tactical decisions on what formations and what plays to use in certain situations are important and interesting. But the real test of coaching is getting the best players into the right positions, and into the game at the right time.

Bryant this year did a remarkable job.

Mexican Cagers Bomb Wayland

By BILL HART
Avalanche-Journal Sports Editor

PLAINVIEW — It took the Mexico Olympic Aztecs 25 minutes to warm up here Monday night, and brother they did.

The Olypians, trailing almost all the way caught up with the Pioneers with 14 minutes left to play and literally blew them out of their own gym with a convincing 81-67 victory — their third in four tries on the present tour.

Coach Lester Lane started some of his younger players but they couldn't stay up with Wayland so he went back to his regulars and once they got started the Texans were just no match.

Rafael Estrella, living up to his name which means star in Spanish, sparked the Aztecs to their come from behind win with 28 points, 14 in each half.

But fancy ball handling, controlling the defensive backboards, and hitting 19 of 35 field goals attempts also contributed to the second half surge by the visitors.

Wayland jumped to a 5-0 lead and was ahead all of the first half until Richard Jiminez tipped in a shot for Mexico with 3:17 left in the half. That made it 30-29, but the Pioneers came back on two buckets by Jimmy Saul to take a 37-33 lead to halftime.

Two more buckets by Saul increased it to 41-33 but the Aztecs, with their regulars in there, came back and tied the score at 41-41 only to see Wayland go back in front, 48-44.

Two field goals and a free throw by Estralla put Mexico in front to stay, 49-48 and with 10:45 left the vistors had increased it to 61-50.

Twice Wayland got within eight points but that was it. And, at one time, Mexico enjoyed an 81-61 lead before the reserves took over.

Backing up Estralla were Mario Maldonado with 15 points and Carols Rohana with 11. For Wayland, Terry Bugher had 17 points, 13 coming in the first half while Chester Sample and Saul both had 15.

Tonight Mexico goes to Bartlesville to play the Phillips 66 Oilers then closes out with Missouri, Wichita State, Kansas State, Memphis State and Murray State, all within the next 12 nights.

NCAA

Coaches Rules Committee reported that no major rules changes were proposed at its annual meeting.

"I think there was more satisfaction with the football rules than there has been in a decade," said committee Chairman Jack Curtice, football coach at the University of California at Santa Barbara. "No changes were recommended in the substitution rules.

"The feeling was to leave the rules alone for about three years and let everybody get acquainted with them, then see if we need changes."

The coaches' recommendation will be presented to the NCAA Football Rules Committee this weekend in New Orleans, La.

The University of New Mexico plans to present a proposal to the NCAA convention Wednesday calling for a return to one platoon football and the end of free substitution and defensive and offensive specialists.

In another report, Stan Bates, chairman of the NCAA Extra Events Committee, reported his group heard proposals from Tampa, Fla., and Atlanta, Ga., for post season bowl games and had queries from Raleigh, N.C., and Phoenix, Ariz.

A decision will be made next spring on the two proposals, he said.

The probation for Houston bans the football team from all bowl participation and any game televised under NCAA jurisdiction.

Arthur J. Bergstrom, assistant to the NCAA executive director, said these were "severe violations... the seriousness of them is reflected in the type of penalty."

Dr. Frank L. Stovall, chairman of the University of Houston Athletic Board, and Athletic Director Harry H. Fouke said in a statement that a three-month probe by the school and NCAA had uncovered violations "by some members of the coaching staff and by several well-intentioned, but somewhat overzealous friends of the university of Houston."

"The officials of the university deeply regret that violations have occurred and have taken appropriate steps to make certain that violations do not occur in the future," they added.

Hog Status Faces Test

(By The Associated Press)

Arkansas' Razorbacks, surprise conquerers of pre-season favorite Texas Tech, try to keep their winning ways a-rolling tonight when they engage the hottest team in the Southwest Conference cage race—Texas A&M.

Coach Glen Rose's quintet, which handed the touted Raiders with remarkable ease in Fayetteville Saturday, move into one of the toughest basketball houses in the league in quest of another giant-sized victory.

The Aggies, setting the pace with an unblemished SWC record, could put another big game behind them in College Station tonight. Coach Shelby Metcalf's Farmers already have beaten SMU, the team sports writers once said would be the only thing between Tech and a trip to the playoffs.

Meanwhile, the Raiders take a two-week leave from conference warfare to try to regroup their forces while a basketball public wonders what has happened to the Tech team.

Tech, which trounced Baylor, 115-77, in its league opener, was completely outclassed by Arkansas. The Hogs jumped into an early lead and were seldom threatened throughout the game.

Tech Over-rated?

Is Arkansas that good, or were the Raiders over-rated? That question shrouds the infant race like a giant fog, as all teams prepare for the semester break.

In other action tonight, Texas and Baylor meet in Austin, and Rice—which pressed the Aggies to the limit Saturday night—travels to Houston to meet TCU.

Saturday, A&M goes to Baylor and Texas takes on Arkansas in Fayetteville, while Tech hosts non-conference foe Midwestern in Lubbock.

The Aggies, with a 2-0 mark, are pacing the SWC standing at this point, and six teams are tied for second. Arkansas, Baylor, Texas, Texas Tech, TCU and SMU each owns a 1-1 mark. Rice is winless after two tries.

Texas A&M ranks as a favorite over Arkansas tonight, despite the Porkers' upset win over Tech Saturday. Texas is favored over Baylor in what could be another thriller, and TCU rates an easy nod over Rice.

Eastern Tumbled By Southwestern

WEATHERFORD (Special)—Big Archie McGill ripped the cords for 30 points here Thursday night to lead the Southwestern Oklahoma Bulldogs to an 86-72 victory over Eastern New Mexico University.

The win gives the Bulldogs a 6-3 season record and brought Eastern's reading to 5-6.

Joe Allen hit for 22 and Wilson Watkins had 20 to lead the ENMU attack. Bert Rickner managed 18 for Southwestern.

Eastern will host West Texas State in Portales Friday and Wayland Saturday.

'FLAGRANT TAMPERING'

Halas Upset Over Rams Hiring Aide

Allen, 43, a defensive coach for the Bears, was signed by the Rams after Halas apparently had refused the Los Angeles club permission to bargain with his assistant.

Halas issued this statement:

"I am shocked that the Los Angeles Rams and their president, Dan Reeves, would attempt to pirate our coaching staff.

"It is rather widely accepted that the Bears could be an outstanding team in 1966, and we feel strongly that anything that would disturb our organization would dilute our changes. It would be unfair to the other coaches, the players and the fans.

"Within the framework of that thinking, the Rams were told Allen's legal and binding contract with the Bears had two years to go and we expected him to fullfill the terms of his agreement. In 7½ years with the Bears, George Allen has been an integral part of our coaching staff.

"He has developed into a position of significance in the manner comparable to that of a player who improves steadily and becomes a high caliber performer over a similar period of time.

"In all my years of pro football, the Bears never before encountered such a flagrant case of tampering with a coach under contract to us.

"The Rams' utter disregard and contempt for legal obligations present a serious challenge not only to the Bears but to the entire structure of the National Football League.

"All of this is reminiscent of Reeves' tactics of three or four years ago when he attempted to hire Vince Lombardi away from the Packers.

"It is unfortunate that Allen can be misled through specious representation by the Rams and flout the terms of a legal two-year contract. Distasteful though any altercation is, the Bears must take whatever steps are needed to protect our best interest."

and Armstrong will assume the spot held down by Bill Green Dickson (6-0, 5.4), Green (6-5) 10.6), Steve Leftwich (6-3) and Jimmy Sawyer (6-1) will also be on hand if needed.

A 6 p.m. preliminary will match the B-teams of the respective schools. Coach Joe Michalka's MHS Lancers enter the contest with a healthy 12-1 season record while Don Gardner's Lubbock Cowhands are currently 9-5.

Michalka will open with Jimmy Gressett (5-11), Gary Wright (6-0), Rick Dyer (6-1), Spencer Markham (6-2) and Gary Hays (6-2). The Cowhands will retaliate with Jack Parker (5-9), Ernie Casanova (5-10), Busty Underwood (6-3) Jim Ferguson (5-11), and Ken Thornburg (6-1). Also slated for a good deal of action for LHS are Gary Doyle (5-10) and Travis Horne (6-1).

The Lancers downed the Cowhands, 56-45, for the Snyder tournament title earlier this season.

In other 3-AAAA games on tap tonight send Tascosa to Pampa, and Plainview to Palo Duro.

NCAA Probe On Tap For Crimson Tide

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Southeastern Conference Commissioner Bernie Moore said Monday that he has received reports that Alabama has been giving scholastic scholarships to students to play football.

Moore said in Washington that "I have heard some reports, and we are going to make a check on it."

The commissioner declined to elaborate, but he said the complaints "make it sound like they're giving wholesale scholarships to boys to play football. I think that is an exaggerated statement."

Moore was in Washington for the annual convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. So was Alabama Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, who guided the Crimson Tide to its second straight national football title in 1965.

Bryant was not available for comment on the complaint, disclosed early Monday by the Atlanta Journal.

Moore said an investigation of the accusation will be made at the annual conference convention, which begins in Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 26.

The Journal, in a story by John Logue, said that "at least one SEC member school has questioned the awarding of scholastic grants to outstanding high school seniors who then play football at Alabama."

The Journal said the complaint was that the scholastic scholarships were in addition to the 40 football grants permitted per year by the Southeastern Conference.

The newspaper said the complaint was made after an Alabama newspaper carried a picture of three Scottsboro, Ala., boys signing what the paper called "scholastic scholarships to play football at Alabama."

Kentucky Nips Georgia, 69-65

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — Unbeaten Kentucky scored eight points in the second overtime to protect its second-place perch in the national basketball rankings with a 69-65 victory over battling Georgia Monday night.

The Bulldogs, trailing in the Southeastern Conference game by 13 points at the half, rode a surge led by Jerry Waller to a 60-60 deadlock at the end of regulation play, with Frank Harscher pumping in a basket at the gun for the tie.

The triumph kept Kentucky's record unblemished for a league showdown Saturday night against Vanderbilt, the nation's third-ranked team.

SCORES UPSET

Lemm

Lemm coached the Cardinals for four seasons after a stint with the Houston Oilers of the American Football League. At St. Louis his teams had records of 4-9-1 in 1962, 9-5 in 1963 and 9-3-2, for a second-place finish, in 1964.

The disposition of assistant coaches Ray Prochaska, Chuck Drulis Charley Trippi and Fran Polsfoot was not immediately known. However, Trippi probably would be on the list as a successor.

Lemm, 45, has urged the Bidwills to keep the team intact, rather than clean house. He felt the club was good enough to win if it were not for injuries to key men during the last season.

Lemm, an assistant coach two years with the Cardinals in the 1950s, took over the club from Frank (Pop) Ivy in 1962. At Houston, he led the Oilers to the AFL title in 1961.

Lemm, a native of Milwaukee who now lives in Lake Bluff, Ill., was a halfback at Carroll College in Waukesha, Wis. After three years in the Navy during World War II, he began his coaching career at Carroll as an assistant.

He coached Waukesha High School in 1948, was an assistant at Lake Forest College the next two years and then became head coach of the school in 1952.

Grains 'Easier'

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market became mostly slightly easier after having failed to hold a moderate and brief early bulge in some wheat and soybean contracts.

Losses were limited to fractions of a cent in the early afternoon but dealers said speculators may have placed fairly liberal selling orders at declines of a cent or so.

Commercial buying was light all around and apparently all demand on those accounts had been filled during the first minutes of trading. Export bookings over the weekend amounted to only a small quantity of soybeans and wheat.

Wheat closed ⅛ to ⅛ cent a bushel lower, March $1.68⅞-⅜; corn ¼ to ⅝ lower.

Stock Mart Shows Gains

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market churned ahead in scrambled fashion Monday, making records in some averages and establishing wide gains for selected issues.

For the third straight time, the New York exchanges closed at 2 p.m. EST instead of the usual 3:30 p.m. These hours will continue until further notice because of the transit strike, it was announced.

Because of a ragged performance among some of its component blue chips the Dow Jones industrial average took a slight loss of .72 at 985.41.

In a very broad market of 1,425 issues traded, however, gainers outnumbered losers by 699 to 506. New highs for 1965-66 totaled 101 and new lows 10.

The general uptrend was reflected by The Associated Press average of 60 stocks and Standard & Poor's index of 500 stocks, each of which made record closing highs.

The AP average rose 1.1 to 365.2 with industrials up .4 and rails up 1.8, both to record highs, and utilities up .4.

Standard & Poor's rose .19 to 93.33.

Airlines, rails and electronics showed outstanding group strength. Most steels, however, continued to back away from their strength of early last week, losing fractions. An outstanding exception was Crucible Steel which rose 2¼ at 35¼ as second most active stock. Crucible's continued strength was apparently a hangover from last week's denied rumor that a tender offer at $40 a share was being made.

NEW-SIZE FORDS
Easy, convenient operation and service ease are Ford characteristics that apply even more to the New-size Ford line. You'll like Ford's all new 3 cylinder engines, gas or diesel, available on the 2000, 3000 or 4000, or the rugged 4 cylinder diesel on the 54 hp. 5000 tractor. And the smooth 6cylinder gas, diesel, or LP engine on the powerful Ford 6000. Financing available to suit your needs, with no interest until April to farmers. Ask for a demonstration on a new-size Ford today. You'll be glad you did.

Today's Horoscope
...by Carroll Righter

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You are now able to reduce those New Year resolutions and first-of-the-year plans you have made to a working success by putting every item and particular in its right place. Instead of expanding, reduce your ideals to a successful expression by a very conscientious course in which serving and doing for others is a part.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Getting out to the right places in order to accomplish what you have in mind is half the battle now. Be more systematic. Impress others with your ability to deliver, no matter what the task on hand.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Getting into some hobby that you have enjoyed before will help you to relax now and be happy with good friends. Get some of those hidden talents aired. Why not take a little flyer into dramatics?

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Instead of being so restless, use energy to better all about you, especially at home. Please kin. Know the causes behind your possible lack of progress and remove them. Get ahead faster.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you narrow down the reasons why you are not getting ahead speedily, you can certainly find the right methods to advance now. Study proper course well. Make this a banner day for you.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You want to have a greater abundance and this is an excellent day for figuring out ways and means. Change that budgeting system you have somewhat. Concentrate on the big issues as well as the small.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Find out how you can gain prestige with higher-ups and then get plans working nicely with their assistance. Be charming and magnetic. This will help you to get whatever you desire the most.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You are able to get all those small tasks behind you quickly if you use that neat touch and fine finish for which you are noted. Be efficient. Do whatever is necessary to have more pleasant relationship with others.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) A very fussy partner has the right advice so that you can get your problems cleared up nicely. Follow it. Sociability brings excellent results, even though you may not think so at the moment.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Carry through with systems that have proved successful in the past and increase present benefits. You have a clear picture of what your position is with others. Be generous of spirit with others.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You are able to get fine new ideas and meet worthwhile persons, so keep right on the ball and get ahead. Don't procrastinate any further. Make plans intelligently and then push ahead on them.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You have many responsibilities to meet, so get at them as quickly as you can. They are not so hard as you may think at the moment. Don't be reticent with mate—do what he, or she, expects from you.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Long discussing with associates such problems as now exist will result in far better understanding, more intelligent methods adopted. Get busy on civic or public work. Make the most of present good conditions there.

IF YOUR CHILD Is Born Today he or she will be a very orderly-minded youngster who will do very well in organizational work, so be sure to give the finest training possible, plus studies on the science of mind, how to get along well with others especially higher-ups, etc. Teach early not to criticize others so much and then this becomes a most successful and happy chart. A little religious training is also a must here.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

RESOLUTION

A RESOLUTION REGULATING AND RESTRICTING THE HEIGHT OF STRUCTURES AND OBJECTS OF NATURAL GROWTH, AND OTHERWISE REGULATING THE USE OF PROPERTY, ON AND IN THE VICINITY OF THE LUBBOCK MUNICIPAL AIRPORT BY CREATING LANDING AREA, AIRPORT APPROACH, TURNING AND TRANSITION ZONES AND ESTABLISHING THE BOUNDARIES THEREOF; PROVIDING FOR CHANGES IN THE RESTRICTIONS AND BOUNDARIES OF SUCH ZONES; DEFINING ENFORCEMENT OF THIS RESOLUTION AND GRANTING REMEDIES.

In pursuance of the authority conferred by Chapter 391, Page 784, Acts of 1947 (H. B. No. 333), 50th Legislature, State of Texas, and for the purpose of promoting the health, safety and general welfare of the inhabitants of the City of Lubbock and County of Lubbock, Texas by preventing the creation or establishment of airport hazards, thereby protecting the lives and property of users of the Lubbock Municipal Airport and of occupants of land in its vicinity and preventing destruction or impairment of the utility of the Airport and the public investment therein; and

WHEREAS, a public hearing was held pursuant to the prescribed legal notice on the final report of the JOINT AIRPORT ZONING COMMISSION of the CITY OF LUBBOCK, and COUNTY OF LUBBOCK, TEXAS, on the 3rd day of December, 1965; and

WHEREAS, it appears that the following airport zoning regulations are proper and necessary;

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE JOINT AIRPORT ZONING BOARD OF THE CITY OF LUBBOCK AND COUNTY OF LUBBOCK:

Section 1. Short Title. This Resolution shall be known and may be cited as the "Airport Zoning Resolution, Lubbock Municipal Airport".

Section 2. Definitions. As used in this Resolution, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Airport" means the Lubbock Municipal Airport.

(2) "Airport Hazard" means any structure or tree or use of land which obstructs the airspace required for the flight of aircraft in landing or taking-off at the airport or is otherwise hazardous to such landing or taking-off of aircraft.

(3) "Non-conforming use" means any structure, tree or use of land which does not conform to a regulation prescribed in this Resolution or an amendment thereto, as of the effective date of such regulations.

(4) "Person" means any individual, firm, co-partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association or body politic, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or other similar representative thereof.

(5) "Structure" means any object constructed or installed by man, including, but without limitation, buildings, towers, smokestacks, and overhead transmission lines.

(6) "Landing Area" means the area of the Airport used for the landing, take-off, or taxiing of aircraft.

(7) "Tree" means any object of natural growth.

(8) "Building Inspector" means the duly employed and qualified inspector for the City of Lubbock, Texas, and his successors in office.

Section 3. Zones. In order to carry out the purposes of the Resolution all of the land within the boundaries of the Airport and within three (3) miles of the landing area of the Airport, is hereby divided into landing area, airport approach zones, airport turning zones and air-transition zones, the boundaries of which are shown on the "Municipal Airport, Lubbock, Texas map showing Allowable Elevations or Obstructions in the Vicinity of Airport" and dated April, 1965, which is attached hereto and hereby made a part hereof.

Section 4. Height Limits. Except as otherwise provided in this resolution, no structure or tree shall be erected, altered, allowed to grow, or maintained in the landing area, or in any airport approach zone, airport turning zone or airport transition zone to a height in excess of the applicable elevations (elevation above mean sea level as established by the United States Coast & Geodetic Survey)shown on the attached map and herein established for such zone.

Section 5. Use Restrictions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Resolution, no use may be made of land within the landing area, or in any airport approach zone, airport turning zone or airport transition zone, in such a manner as to create electrical interference with radio communication between the Airport and aircraft, make it difficult for flyers to distinguish between Airport lights and others, result in glare in the eyes of flyers using the airport, impair visibility in the vicinity of the Airport, or otherwise endanger the landing, taking-off or maneuvering of aircraft.

Section 6. Non-conforming Uses. The regulations prescribed in Sections 4 and 5 of this Resolution shall not be construed to require the removal, lowering, or other change or alteration of any structure or tree not conforming to the regulations as of the effective date hereof, or otherwise interfere with the continuance of any non-conforming use. Nothing herein contained shall require any change in the construction, alteration, or intended use of any structure the construction or alteration of which was begun prior to the effective date of this Resolution, and is diligently prosecuted and completed within two years thereof.

Section 7. Variances. Any person desiring to erect any structure or increase the height of any structure, or permit the growth of any tree, or use his property, not in accordance with the regulations prescribed in this Resolution, may apply for a variance therefrom. Such variance shall be allowed where as literal application or enforcement of the regulations would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship and the relief granted would not be contrary to the public interest but do substantial justice and be in accordance with the spirit of this Resolution.

Section 8. Hazard Marking and Lighting. Any variance granted under Section 7 may, if such action is deemed advisable to effectuate the purposes of this Resolution and reasonable in the circumstances, be so conditioned as to require the owner of the structure or tree in question at his own expense, or permit the City of Lubbock, Texas, at its own expense, to install, operate, and maintain thereon such markers and lights as may be necessary to indicate to flyers the presence of an airport hazard.

Section 9. Appeals.

(1) Any person aggrieved, or taxpayer affected, by any decision of the Building Inspector of the City of Lubbock, Texas, made in its administration of this Resolution, if of the opinion that a decision of the Building Inspector is an improper application of this Resolution, may appeal to the Board of Adjustment for which provision is made in Section 11.

(2) All appeals taken under this Section must be taken within a reasonable time, as provided by the rules of the Board, by filing with the Building Inspector and with the Board, a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The Building Inspector shall forthwith transmit to the Board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

(3) An appeal shall stay all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the Building Inspector certifies to the Board, after the notice of appeal has been filed with it, that by reason of the facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case, proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by order of the Board on notice to the Building Inspector and on due cause shown.

(4) The Board shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice and due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

(5) The Board may, in conformity with the provisions of this Resolution, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or modify, the order, requirement, decision, or determination appealed from and may make such order, requirement, decision, or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the Building Inspector.

(6) The Board shall make written findings of fact and conclusions of law giving the facts upon which it acted and its legal conclusions from such facts in reversing, or affirming, or modifying any order, requirement, decision or determination which comes before it under the provisions this Resolution.

(7) The concurring vote of a majority of the members of the Board shall be sufficient to reverse any order, requirement, decision, or determination of the Building Inspector, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under this Resolution, or to effect any variation in this Resolution.

Section 10. Administrative Agency. The Building Inspector for the City of Lubbock, Texas, is hereby designated the administrative agency charged with the duty of administering and enforcing the regulations herein prescribed. The duties of the Building Inspector shall include that of hearing and deciding all applications for variances under Section 7, but the Building Inspector shall not have or exercise any of the powers or duties herein delegated to the Board of Adjustment.

Section 11. Board of Adjustment.

(1) The Board of Adjustment of the City of Lubbock and the members thereof created and existing under the provisions of the Zoning Ordinance No. 1695 are hereby appointed members of the Board of Adjustment here created under this Resolution and said Board is hereby delegated and shall exercise the following powers:

(a) To hear and decide appeals from any order, requirement, decision or determination made by the Building Inspector in the enforcement of this Resolution.

(b) To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of this Resolution upon which such Board may be required to pass by subsequent Resolutions.

(2) The Board shall adopt rules for its governance and procedure in harmony with the provisions of this Resolution. Meetings of the Board shall be held at the call of the Chairman and at such other times as the Board may determine. The Chairman, or in his absence the Acting Chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All hearings of the Board shall be public. The Board shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member upon each question, or, if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall immediately be filed in the office of the Board and shall be a public record.

Section 12. Judicial Review. Any person aggrieved, or taxpayer affected, by any decision of the Board of Adjustment may appeal to the District Court of the Judicial District wherein the Airport is located, as provided in Section 11 of Chapter 391, Page 784, Acts of 1947 (H. B. No. 333), 50th Legislature, State of Texas.

Section 13. Enforcement and Remedies. The City of Lubbock, Texas separately, or in conjunction with the County of Lubbock, Texas, may institute in the District Court of the Judicial district wherein the Airport is located, an action to prevent, restrain, correct, or abate any violation of this resolution or any regulations, orders, ordinances, resolutions, or rulings promulgated or made pursuant to the Resolution and the Court shall adjudge to the plaintiff such relief, by way of injunction (which may be mandatory or otherwise, as may be proper under all the facts and circumstances of the case, in order to effectuate the purposes of this Resolution and of the regulations adopted and orders, resolutions, and rulings made pursuant thereto.

Section 14. Conflicting Regulations. Where this Resolution imposes a greater or more stringent restriction upon the use of land than is imposed or required by any other ordinance or regulations, the provisions of this Resolution shall govern.

Section 15. The zoning provided and established by this Resolution in these proceedings supersedes all other zoning heretofore provided with reference to the Lubbock Municipal Airport.

Section 16. Severability. If any of the provisions of this Resolution or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Resolution are declared to be severable.

Section 17. Effective Date. This Resolution shall take effect January 15, 1966.

Adopted by unanimous vote of the JOINT AIRPORT ZONING BOARD of the City of Lubbock this 17th day of December, 1965.

O. P. Harlan, Jr., Chairman

Chiang Orders Shoot On Sight At Red Targets

TAIPEI (UPI) —President Chiang Kai-shek, angered by the Communist downing of an unarmed Nationalist plane carrying three Red Chinese defectors, sent warships and jets into the Formosa Straits Monday with orders to shoot any Red targets in sight.

Military sources said the Nationalist air force, navy units and the garrison forces on Matsu and Quemoy islands had been ordered to "full alert."

"Nobody knows what is going to happen," said Maj. Gen. Liu Shun-wu, a defense ministry spokesman. The situation here was considered the most critical since 1958 when the Reds bombarded the Nationalist-held offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

MIGs Down Plane

The crisis was touched off when an undisclosed number of Chinese MIGs swooped down on a Nationalist seaplane Sunday about 15 minutes after it left Matsu on a flight to Taipei. Aboard were three Communist sailors who had surrendered their 25-ton landing ship to the nationalists a few hours earlier in what was considered a significant propaganda coup.

Also aboard were an undisclosed number of crewmen and Nationalist officials who had welcomed them.

Nationalist officials said all aboard the twin-engined military plane were killed.

Peking's New China News Agency said the Nationalist plane had been on a "harassing and sabotage" mission over the east China coastal regions and commended the air force for its quick action. It was not immediately clear if the Reds were aware that defectors were aboard the craft.

Baltimore Police Commissioner To Quit In Wake Of Crime Report

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Bernard J. Schmidt said Monday he would retired as Baltimore police commissioner. His announcement came in the wake of a report which said there is organized crime and flagrant vice in the city.

Where vice goes unchallenged, said a report made public by a special state commission, "public officials have either been 'reached' or they are incompetent in the performance of their responsibilities."

Recommendation Of Governor

Schmidt said Gov. J. Millard Tawes told him Sunday of a state commission's recommendation that he retire "due to my recent poor health," and said Tawes also suggested that he retire "since I'm eligible for retirement."

The commission named to investigate the department turned over to the governor with its endorsement a 600-page report by the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

"We think the main thrust of the report points clearly to the need for a new police commissioner and upper echelon of management," said the commission headed by State Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Finan. "We strongly advocate this."

Deficiencies Cited

The report, based on an eight-month survey of the 3,000-member department, recommended an immediate and total reorganization, citing deficiencies in all aspects of police service and all phases of police administration. Specific suggestions made ranged down to meter maids' manners — some are discourteous; and the length of a patrolman's nightstick — it should be shorter.

The $52,000 study by the association's field service division criticized the department for poor criminal investigating procedures, inadequate record keeping, faulty investigation of complaints against policemen, and poor distribution of beats.

It said there is organized crime and flagrant vice in the city and the department is ineffective in crime control.

Notorious Block

A three-block bar and burlesque section of East Baltimore Street, known as "the Block," was termed a "notorious vice center" where — the report said — bar girls at night clubs and bars supplement their earnings by prostitution.

Schmidt, 57, a veteran of 31 years on the force, returned to work Monday for the first time since he went on sick leave last Oct. 15 for a hernia and gall bladder operation.

Schmidt said he would continue on a daily basis until a successor was named, which "will be up to the governor." Tawes said earlier Schmidt would vacate "as soon as the details of his retirement can be worked out."

As to charges in the report, Schmidt said: "I can't comment on the specifics of the report until I've seen it and had time to evaluate it."

State Agency

The department is a state agency, with the commissioner appointed by the governor, although legislation last year gave the city control of the police budget, purchasing and disbursements.

The survey team said there would be "no tangible value" in returning the department to city control, adding: "Indeed, the present political climate in the city might prove such a move to be harmful."

Among the major recommendations was one to revise the rank structure by eliminating chief inspector and inspector and substituting under the commissioner the grades of deputy commissioner, chief, director and deputy chief.

The survey also recommended creating an internal investigation unit to watch for misconduct, corruption and abuse of authority within the department; establishing a disciplinary board to investigate charges against policemen; abolishing the auto theft squad, VIP squad, riot squad and mounted squad, and creating a criminal investigations division to handle felonies and major vice cases.

Wilson Plans To Resist Pressure From Africans

LAGOS, Nigeria (UPI) — Prime minister Harold Wilson flew to the heavily guarded Commonwealth Conference Monday fully determined to resist renewed African pressure for military intervention in Rhodesia.

Arriving African delegates served advance notice they do not share Wilson's belief that economic sanctions will topple the rebel Rhodesian regime. They will demand that force be used if necessary to oust the white-only government of Premier Ian Smith and save Africa from what they predict will be widespread bloodshed.

Wilson has made it clear that he will listen to African suggestions at the conference, but considers Rhodesia a British problem.

"I think it is right for me to go to this conference and listen to the views of other commonwealth governments," he told newsmen in London shortly before boarding the plane.

"I think it is a serious situation and the Commonwealth has been through a very heavy strain in the past two or three months.

"That is why I felt it right to go, even though Rhodesia is and must be a British responsibility."

Britain Hits Russia For Rebuke To U.S.

LONDON (UPI) — Britain rebuked Russia Monday for a statement attacking American actions inn Southeast Asia and accusing Washington of plans to spread the Viet Nam war into Laos and Cambodia.

"We hope that its production and publication do not foreshadow any Soviet reluctance to pursue more constructive exchanges," said a foreign office spokesman.

Russia published the statement Sunday night and suggested that the British and Soviet governments, as co-chairmen of the 1954 Geneva Conference on Indochina, should circulate the statement to other members of the conference.

Corn For Kenya Arrives Spoiled

MOMBASA, Kenya (AP) — Three thousand tons of American corn destined for famine relief were condemned Monday by port health officials as unfit for human consumption.

"The corn was in a good condition when it left the United States, but it took three months to get here and was spoiled en route," said a U.S. Embassy spokesman. It arrived over the weekend on the Greek freighter Orient Liner.

The corn, a gift to Kenya, will be replaced from a consignment of 24,000 tons which the Kenyan government is buying from the United States and which is scheduled to arrive today.

New Zealand Opens Airport For Jetliners

NEW YORK (UPI) —Opening of a new, $30 million International Airport at Mangere has brought the jet age to New Zealand.

New all-jet routes across the South Pacific have been inaugurated to link Auckland with the west coast of the United States by way of Honolulu and Tahiti.

HEMORRHOIDS?

New M.P.O. must relieve pain faster and longer than the preparation you are now using or we will gladly refund your purchase price in full.

If you seek more relief than you may now be getting, join the thousands of hemorrhoid (pile) sufferers now turning to new M.P.O. Developed by famous Mentholatum Laboratories, M.P.O. works in these five ways:

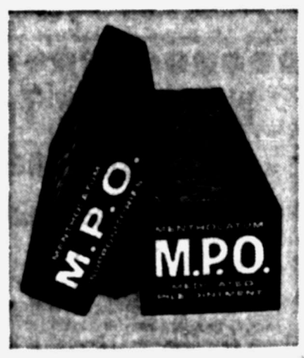
1. Helps ease pain faster. M.P.O. contains more medically accepted pain-relieving ingredients than the preparation you may now be using . . . to help reduce pain and discomfort.

2. Helps shrink swollen tissues. M. P. O. quickly releases the proven vasoconstrictor, Ephedrine Sulfate.

3. Helps relieve embarrassing itch. M.P.O.'s medication is homogenized for faster absorption, faster action.

4. Helps make relief last longer. M.P.O.'s more temperature-stable base holds medication in place for prolonged action.

5. Helps fight danger of infection. Proven germ-killer, Hexachlorophene, combats bacteria.



Test it yourself for the next three days. If not satisfied that M.P.O. helps you more than the preparation you're now using, return unused portion to the Mentholatum Co., Buffalo, N.Y., for refund. Available in stainless ointment or suppositories at drug counters.
