"Out In The West, Where The Air Is Pure, The Climate Agreeable, And The People Friendly ---- The Best Place On Earth To Call Home."

His

I have learned from chamber of commerce directors and through the grapevine that an outside-based publication has planned an I-10 magazine to cover cities and towns along the I-10 route from San Antonio to El Paso. I understand that the proposed publication will only appear once a year with circulation left entirely up to each chamber office at a cost of $1 per copy, with advertising rates geared to magazine price schedules.

As the economic crunch marches on with all its jagged edges, pocket books get slimmer and slimmer. More merchants talk about slow collections, and more phone calls are made by bankers as reminders of how serious the whole thing really is. Merchants frantically grasp at anything that might pull them from the clutches of the economic decline while some fail. But, we do have one thing in our favor that other communities don't, and that's I-10, with its endless progression of dollars passing us by every day.

There has to be some way of luring travelers into Ozona for a hot meal, a tank of gas or even a good cup of coffee. They might even buy a pair of socks or visit the local museum while they are here. But, before you can lure them, you have to show them, and the best way to do that in my opinion, being an ink slinger, is through the ink bucket.

Publishers of several of the community newspapers in towns along I-10 have put our heads together and come up with the idea of producing a quarterly, and possibly even monthly, insert. Each town will have its own section with stories and photos covering its top attractions and coming events. The tabloid will be inserted in each participating newspaper along the I-10 route in convenient newsstands and on counter tops all along the trail. Advertising rates will be well within merchants' grasp at low newspaper rates, and the best thing of all is that the publication will have total circulation. Every household, cafe, filling station and convience store along the route will see your ads. It all comes back to the same old trick, you have to show them before you can lure them. And we think we can do the job best to the tune of approximately 15,000 circulated inserts. And there is one more thing that is even better. Our money stays at home where it belongs.

I will keep you informed on the progress and deadline date as things gel. At the present time, five community papers on the I-10 trail from El Paso to San Antonio are jumping at the chance to use the tool of their trade to help their communities survive. After all, their publishers, editors and staff members are part of the community with kids in school and folks buried in the cemetery.

ON THE COLDER SIDES

This cold snap nearly got my old beat-up pickup. As always, I forgot to check the antifreeze in the vehicles, and lucky enough, the brown buggy survived. But, the old white pickup may not. I pulled the radiator cap off late Saturday, and the radiator was full of half-frozen mush. It runs, but for how long, we will have to wait and see. I imagine there are a few people who would be glad to see the old thing off the streets for good.

Glittering icicles sparkling in the dawn light greeted Ozonans' who failed to turn off their sprinklers this weekend. Temperatures in the teens delayed thawing until Tuesday.

Deadline now for incentives

Producers who have not filed for their 1988 wool, mohair and unshorn lamb incentive need to do so by Thursday, Feb. 9. Any applications received after that date will result in late incentive payments. Incentive payments are expected to be ready around the 20th of April.

The LTA (Long Term Agreement) sign-up is underway and will end Feb. 17. Producers may choose a three to five year contract and draw up to $3,500.00 per contract year. All practices under the annual program are included in the LTA program. SCS has the technical authority for the program. For more information, stop by the office or call 392-3702.

The emergency feed program will end March 31. Anyone who has not signed up for the program or needs more information should stop by the office. Producers are asked to bring in all feed tickets through the end of January by Feb. 17 so that payments can be made by the end of the month.

"We do not have any information as to what will happen on April 1 with the feed program," said local ASCS head Herb Schwertner. Producers should use caution when buying feed. If the feed program ends on March 31, producers will be charged for leftover feed they received payment on.

"If you need to know how much feed you are eligible to purchase, call or stop by the office," said Schwertner.

Paper poll favors center

An informal opinion poll conducted by The Stockman drew 32 ballots in favor of having a detention center in Crockett County and 23 against. The poll, which appeared in the Feb. 1 issue of the paper, ran almost neck and neck until Friday afternoon, closing date for the response.

Those favoring the center being considered by county commissioners talked about the need for jobs and general economic improvement in the community.

The majority of the people giving their reasons for not wanting the center expressed fears that the county might become heavily indebted by becoming involved in the project.

County Judge Kathryn Mayfield talked with former Zavala County judge Ron Karr this week about the center there. That facility is the one in West Texas most like the one proposed for Ozona, she said.

The Zavala County detention center resulted from the county seeking the center as a basis of making money.

Judge Mayfield said she expected to obtain more information on the detention system at Pecos before next week's court meeting.

The matter of a detention center will be included in the Feb. 13 agenda.

Sharp to make another try

A hearing for convicted murderer Michael Eugene Sharp has been set for Feb. 24 in Ozona. The hearing follows an October 1988 appeals rejection by the U. S. Supreme Court.

The court upheld rulings that he had received a fair trial and was sentenced properly in the fatal stabbing of Brenda Kay Broadway and her daughter, Christy Elms, on June 11, 1982 in Winkler County.

Sharp was given the death sentence after exhausting all state appeals of his murder conviction.

Police said Sharp abducted Ms. Sharp and her two daughters from a Kermit car wash.

Court records indicated that Sharp forced the woman and girls to remove their clothing, then bound them with rope before forcing the woman and older daughter to perform sexual acts.

When he began stabbing the woman, the older girl ran away. The body of the mother and 8-year-old were later found in a shallow grave.

Sharp received a life sentence in a Lubbock court for the child's murder.

Aims of the Feb. 24 hearing are to take depositions, put forth a motion for discovery and inspection of evidence, and disqualify Judge James H. Clack who presided at the Crockett County trial.

Steven James of Beck, Pierce and James of El Paso has been appointed to represent Sharp during the appellate phase of the case. He is being assisted by Mitzi Turner of the El Paso firm of Kemp, Smith, Duncan and Hammond.

Sharp is not expected to be brought back to Ozona for the hearing.

Water district plan to go to legislature

by Jacquelyn Shacklette

Organization plans for a county-wide underground water conservation district are progressing.

"The legal notice of Intent to Introduct Legislation is being published," said Pleas Childress III, steering committee co-chairman. "Everything is in place to present the plan to the state legislature. That will probably be next week."

The proposed district will include all of Crockett County except that part included in the present Crockett County Water Control and Improvement District #1 which serves the town of Ozona.

The new district provides for a five member board of directors to serve staggered four year terms. These directors would represent each precinct plus one member-at-large.

Five temporary directors have been selected to serve until a creation election can be held after passage of necessary legislation by the state. Temporary directors are Wade Richardson - Precinct 1; Larry Williams - Precinct 2; George Bunger - Precinct 3; Reid Holmsley Precinct 4; and director-at-large Johnny Jones.

"Hilderbrand and Sims are ready to go so this thing is starting to move," Childress said. Harvey Hilderbrand represents the 67th State Congressional District, and Bill Sims represents the 25th State Senatorial District.

Legislation must be introduced by congressional representatives and senators.

"It's in place and coming along," Childress said.

The proposed legislation provides for a five cent per $100 valuation tax ceiling subject to an additional five cent per $100 valuation. A much lower tax is anticipated however. Provision for ample taxes will forestall the necessity of returning to the state legislature in the event a tax raise higher than that provided by legislation is needed at some future time.

Front chills, thrills Ozonans

The ground hog saw his shadow Thursday, and winter arrived in West Texas Friday bringing bitter cold but little moisture. Midweek temperatures in the high 70's plummeted into the teens.

Blowing snow and below freezing temperatures throughout the day Friday put an end to comments of "we just haven't had any winter". Although snow fell through most of the daylight hours, there was no accumulation.

Saturday's high of 24 and 12 degree low kept many residents inside. Stockmen spent the early hours breaking ice and feeding in an attempt to minimize stress to livestock while pumpers checked their wells as part of an effort to keep gas flowing.

Livestock losses have not been severe yet, but "newborn lambs could freeze right to the ground," said County Agent Billy Reagor.

Closing of I-10 from Junction to Houston caused many truckers to take refuge at Circle Bar 76 near Ozona while waiting for roads to clear.

Supplies of bread failed to arrive in Ozona early Monday due to the closing of bakeries to the north because of fuel shortages.

Some classrooms at Ozona High School were reported without heat Friday and Monday.

Only a few reports of broken pipes at homes had been received by the water district, and Energas experienced no problems due to the weather.

Sunday afternoon's high of 36 brought temporary relief before sinking to 8, 10 or 12 degrees Monday morning depending on the source of information.

Forecast for the week includes a warming trend by Thursday with more cold weather to come.

Counterfeiters leave paper in Ozona

Counterfeit traveler's checks turned up in Ozona Feb. 2 during an investigation prompted by a teletype warning. Local officers began checking with local businesses after receiving the warning.

One of the checks was found at Shots #2 on Hwy. 290.

Broadcast of a description of the suspects resulted in the arrest of three people in Boerne.

In custody there are Mary Ann Hays, Daryl Nichols and James Charles Nichols. Officers believe these names are aliases.

"The trio is wanted by Canadian authorities and the FBI for charges relating to their counterfeiting activities," said Sheriff Jim Wilson. "In addition, felony charges have been filed on the trio in Crockett County for passing the forged document."

The counterfeit travelers checks were styled "First Federal Travelers Cheque, Monroe First Federal, Monroe, Oregon".

A word from the wise

By Charles Huffman, Pastor
Faith Lutheran Church
Hope Lutheran Church

"Where is the Child who was born King of the Jews? We saw His star rise and have come to worship Him". - Matt. 2:2 (Read Matt 2:1-12)

The story of the Wise Men stirs our imagination. WHO were they? WHERE did they come from? WHAT KIND of star guided them? HOW MANY were there? Although some Old Testament prophecies give us a few hints, we don't know much about their story. The fact that they were "Wise Men from the East" identifies them as a priestly class of men who were recognized and respected for their learning, especially in the study of the stars. In verse 2 above are the only words every recorded of the Wise Men. But what if God somehow allowed them to travel across the distance of time and space to appear before us today? What would they say to us? What would be A WORD FROM THE WISE?

Their first word would be SEEK HIM. They might say to us: "It really doesn't matter WHO we are, WHERE we came from, WHAT KIND of star led us, or HOW MANY of us there are. The only reason our story's in your Scriptures is because we came seeking the Christ Child and found Him. Nothing else really matters, because we found in Him that which satisfied us, which made our journey worthwhile, and which changed our lives. To find Him we followed a star, and your own Scriptures declare in Psalm 97: 'The heavens tell about His righteousness, and all the peoples see His glory'. He who created and named and put each star in its place also made a special star to announce this Child's birth to us - a star so bright it could be seen in the daytime!

"Your own Scriptures say in Numbers 24: 'I behold Him who will come later. A Star will come out of Jacob, a Sceptor will rise from Israel'. So we left our lands and began to follow this star which announced the birth of this King. But when we arrived in Jerusalem, the capital city of the people of Jacob - whose name God changed to Israel - no one there knew anything about this newborn King. Our quest caused quite a stir, and king Herod was troubled by the threat of a new king. So he called in the religious leaders for Bible study, in order to find out where the promised Christ was to be born. And they found that it was in Bethlehem, only five miles away!"

So the Wise Men might add: "We followed a star in our search, but you people of the 20th century have much more to go on than we did. You have the wondrous light of God's Word to lead you to Christ, and not only the Scriptures that were at Jerusalem in our day. You have those Scriptures and the testimony of His disciples - all in one book called the Bible. Its testimony declares Him to be the Son of God and Savior of the world, born of a woman to share our humanity, born to save mankind from sin and death, born to give eternal life to all who believe on Him. And in that Word you have His own testimony, who tells you in John 8: 'I am the Light of the world. Follow Me, and you'll never wander in the dark but will have the Light of Life'. So we urge you to follow the light you have and let the Word be your guide - so that under the gracious influence of God's Spirit you will also see the glory of Jesus Christ and find in Him what we found - relief from the burden of sin and guilt, a new joy and purpose in a new life, and a new hope of a better life to come."

The second WORD FROM THE WISE would be WORSHIP HIM. The Wise Men might say to us: "When we finally found the Child in his mother's arms He looked like any other of a thousand children. There were no signs of royalty or splendor. But we had been led to THIS Child, and when His mother told us of the wonderful circumstances of His birth - the angel's message to her, the angel's announcement to the shepherds, and the song of glory by the angel chorus - we knelt and worshiped Him. Some might call us naive or simple-minded, but there was a mysterious power at work opening our hearts to see what our eyes could not - a glory in that Child which is not of this world. And seeing His glory, we offered Him our gifts as Isaiah had prophecied in chapter 60: 'gold and incense'; gold as a gift fit for a King and incense for worship. He's worthy of the very best you can offer Him! The other gift listed by Matthew, 'myrrh', is used for embalming and without it our story would be incomplete. For when we saw the promised Christ who had been laid in a manger, we also saw Him who would be laid in a tomb - after giving Himself into death for the sins of the world, also for you who live nearly 2,000 years later. The Christ of Bethlehem would be of little value if it weren't for the Christ of Calvary who was nailed to a Cross for our sins. There, another Gentile recognized Him by placing a sign above His head which read: 'Jesus from Nazareth, the King of the Jews'. And you can read about the meaning of 'myrrh' from the words of His disciple John in chapter 19, verses 38-40."

This same disciple named John also "beheld His glory", especially when Jesus the Christ arose from the dead on the third day in His glorious resurrection as the Victor over sin and death. So the Wise Men might add: "We came to find Him who was born 'King of the Jews' and discovered that He was born to the Saviour - King of ALL people. By God's grace, you Christians of the 20th century have been drawn into fellowship with us, through the Good News of His Son. This Gospel leaps across the barriers of race, nation, culture, and rank. It's the Good News of a God whose forgiving love embraces ALL people, in a Savior who died and rose again for ALL!"

The Wise Men might also add: "Don't let any obstacle keep you from Christ! We traveled far and long to worship and serve Him, enduring hardship and danger. We traveled for months by camel, and there were temptations to quit but we didn't let anything turn us aside. You people now have Churches nearby where you can worship and serve Him, and they're only minutes away by car! So don't let anything keep you away from Him!"

Well, we have now received A WORD FROM THE WISE, as these mysterious strangers from a distant place and time have told us their story. By God's grace may we ALL continue to seek and worship Him whom the Wise Men found in Bethlehem, and guided by the light of His Word be at last led into His glorious presence in that eternal Bethlehem!

Bentsen bill to assure hospital equity

Senator Lloyd Bentsen, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, introduced legislation in late January designed to correct an inequity in Medicare reimbursement that threatens the survival of rural hospitals.

Bentsen was joined by Senate Republican Leader Robert Dole in offering the Equity For Rural Hospitals Act of 1989.

"This bill provides urgently needed short-term relief for the escalating problems faced by rural hospitals and long-term structural reforms as well," Bentsen said in remarks accompanying his legislation.

"In 1988, 43 rural hospitals closed across the United States, 19 of those in my home State of Texas. Hospital administrators surveyed recently by Touche Ross suggest that as many as 600 hospitals could close their doors in the next five years."

Bentsen said inequities in Medicare's prospective payment system (PPS), which was inaugurated in 1984, are a big part of the problem Under PPS, reimbursements to hospitals are no longer based on individual costs but on a system of average costs. In 1987, half the rural hospitals in the U.S. lost money on their Medicare patients.

Because rural hospitals have historically incurred lower average costs than city hospitals, their Medicare payment rates are currently 12-13 percent lower than the payments received by their urban counterparts.

Under the Bentsen bill a new uniform reimbursement will be phased in, beginning in 1991, to ensure equity for rural hospitals. During the interim, Medicare will guarantee that rural hospitals with large numbers of elderly patients and 100 beds or less receive reimbursement for their full costs.

The Bentsen bill also creates a special review board to look into complaints by "border" hospitals -- located near cities -- that they are unfairly treated by Medicare; increases funding for the new "transition grant" program which helps rural hospital administrators improve services; expands a demonstration program under which teaching hospitals are encouraged to send resident physicians to rural areas for training; and adds new demonstration programs which encourage students to enter the nursing profession.

"Rural hospitals are the cornerstones of health care delivery systems in their communities. Without them, people residing in small, often isolated areas can be denied vital health care services. This is particularly true for older Americans enrolled in Medicare. The elderly comprise 12 percent of the nation's population as a whole, but 25 percent of the population or rural areas," Bentsen said.

"I encourage my colleagues to join in supporting this effort to give rural hospitals a new lease on life by assuring them of equity under Medicare," Senator Bentsen said.

Nineteen Texas hospitals close in 1988

For the third consecutive year, Texas led the nation in the number of hospital closures, with 19 hospitals closing in 1988, according to the Texas Hospital Association, the industry's trade association. Since 1984, Texas has lost 72 hospitals.

Slightly more than half (37) of the closed hospitals were located in rural areas, which the hospital association defines as a county that is not part of a metropolitan statistical area. Only five of the 72 closed hospitals had more than 100 beds.

Texas Hospital Association President Terry Townsend noted that a key factor in hospital closures is inadequate payment for services rendered to the elderly and poor under the Medicare and Medicaid programs. "Congress cannot continue to solve budget problems at the expense of health care for the elderly and the disabled. Texas covers fewer of its citizens under Medicaid than any other state. Hospitals cannot continue to break-even or lose money under Medicare and Medicaid and remain open," Townsend said.

Townsend noted that rural hospitals have felt the impact of inadequate Medicare payment most acutely. "For 1986, Texas' rural hospitals' Medicare operating losses of 23.9 percent were 336 percent lower than the national average of 0.69 percent loss," he said.

In addition to financial difficulties, rural hospitals are adversely affected by the difficulties in attracting and retaining physicians and other health professionals. Rural Texas has been suffering from the overall decline in the state's economy, Townsend noted.

Of the 19 Texas closures, 11 were for-profit, four were not-for-profit and four were public. In terms of size, only three had more than 100 beds.

Three of the closures were in Houston and included facilities with 70, 47 and 84 beds. Locations of other closures were: Cameron, 71 beds; Hearne, 33 beds; Grand Prairie, 13 beds; Lubbock, 76 beds; Taft, 88 beds; Dallas, 104 beds; San Antonio, 35 beds; Shiner, 30 beds; Comfort, 22 beds; Teague, 30 beds; Bastrop, 25 beds; Denton, 166 beds; Borger, 99 beds; El Paso, 355 beds; Kirbyville, 24 beds; and Jefferson, 37 beds.

Cancer hotline now available

Residents of Crockett County now can have all their questions about cancer answered by calling a toll-free number which will be staffed by trained American Cancer Society volunteers with access to a comprehensive database of information, according to Becky Childress, president of the local unit of the American Cancer Society.

The toll-free number is 1-800-ACS-2345 and can be called from anywhere in Texas. Hours of operation are 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. (CST).

"People often have a lot of questions about cancer when they find out a loved one has the disease or when they suspect they have a warning sign of cancer or when they have read an article that leaves them with a question. Now anyone in Texas can have their questions answered with just a phone call - and it's free," said Mrs. Childress.

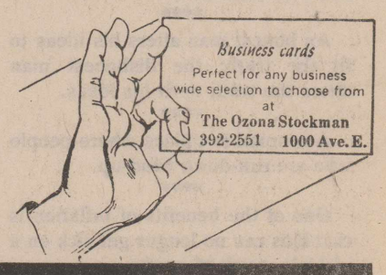

Callers may ask technical questions about the disease, about cancer detection and warning signs, and about treatments. But the unique aspect of the new phone line is that callers can find out about services available to cancer patients and their families in their own city or area.

The American Cancer Society loans equipment to cancer patients and offers free classes and information to cancer patients and their families. Information about these local services, as well as education for public groups, can be obtained by calling this toll-free number.

In order to be named to the Dean's Honor Roll, a student must be registered for 15 or more semester hours and earn at least a 3.75 grade point ratio, out of a possible 4.0, during the most recent grading period.

In addition, felony charges have been filed on the trio in Crockett County for passing the forged document.

2-2 Kenneth Harris, 1118 11th Street, reported that someone had broken the window on his 1986 Chevrolet. The offense occured at about 11:30 p.m.

Puffed red satin hearts trimmed with white lace were stuffed in Monday morning's craft class by Frances Davis, Moriama Perez and Consuelo Sarabia. The words "I Love You" were written and then painted with gold glitter paint across in front of the hearts. Throw pillows were also stuffed.

Target ball and exercise class was scheduled for Monday afternoon's activities. Residents taking time to stay in shape and have a little fun were: Tomasa Ramos, Consuelo Sarabia, Moriama Perez, Nellie Harp, Lucia Rios, Edna Wallace, Virginia Hoover and Juana Hernandez.

Prize winners in Tuesday morning's bingo were: Consuelo Sarabia, Alice Ross, Bertha Miller, Elvira Pena, Theo Burns, Lucy Meinecke and Moriama Perez. Melinda Hokit, Georgia Kirby and Sophie Kyle were the helpful volunteers. Thank you, ladies.

Spain was the country featured in this month's "It's a Small World". The dining room was decorated in a Spanish decor, thanks to the assistance of volunteers Jo Davidson and Beverly Preddy. Souvenirs were furnished by Beverly Peddy and Linda Sherek. Refreshments were served by Jonesy Williams, Jo and Beverly. The imaginary trip was very enlightening thanks to the volunteers mentioned above. Brazil will be the next place featured on Feb. 10. If you have been there, or have any souvenirs that you would like to share with us, please call Joanne Marshall at 392-3096.

The weather didn't cooperate with the regularly scheduled activity of a Sunshine Hour Wednesday afternoon, so dominos was played instead.

Residents enjoyed getting their hair styled by volunteers Joann Williamson, Lola Rios, Audrey Smith, Gerri Pesson, Michele Wooten, Yolanda Avila and Martha Tijerina Thursday morning. Residents left the beauty shop looking better and feeling better. Thank you, ladies. We appreciate the time and effort you spend on us.

Maxine Brown played lovely piano music during the mid-week Bible study Thursday afternoon, and Jim Gray not only led the singing but delivered an inspirational message. Our many thanks go out to both of them.

The day ended with an activity planned for the Spanish speaking residents called The Spanish Hour of Praise. A large number of visitors attended, and the residents enjoyed a short visitation afterwards.

Volunteer Melinda Hokit was kept busy serving popcorn and assisting residents with their cards in Friday morning's bingo. Prizes consisted of various types of Valentine candy. Winners were: Moriama Perez, Bertha Miller, Nellie Harp, Elvira Pena, Lucia Rios, Alice Ross, Harry Blatchford and Santos Martinez.

Friday afternoon, residents played dominos and listened to legends concerning Valentine Day, Mardi Gras and several other festivals and holidays that take place in February.

Sunday's worship service was presented by Rev. Ken Harrison of Ozona United Methodist Church. Communion was offered.

Houston show this month

Seventeen 4-H members from Crockett County will be joining other 4-H and FFA members from throughout the state for showring competition at the upcoming Houston Livestock Show Feb. 16 - March 5 at the Astrohall.

These 4-H and FFA exhibitors compete in one of two divisions of the Houston Livestock Show - the junior show division. The other division, the open show, attracts its exhibitors from the world's agricultural industry in the form of professional breeders and ranchers.

Entries in both the open and junior shows combine with horse show entries to make the Houston Livestock Show the world's largest.

Entering market lambs from Ozona are: Nancy Arrott, Tammy Arrott, Sunny Jon Bailey, Tres Bailey, Wesley Bean, Julie Carson, Carri Chandler Leigh Chandler, Adrienne Dickerson, Martin Martinez, Tamie Reagor, Cody Sutton, Stefny Sutton, Gary Thompson and John Williams.

Exhibiting market steers are Tamie Reagor and Andy Stokes.

Representing 817 Texas 4-H clubs and FFA chapters, the junior show is expected to exceed 12,000 entries this year. A variety of animals is shown in the junior show division: market steers, market swine, market sheep, market poultry, beef and dairy heifers, breeding sheep, goats, commercial steers and breeding rabbits.

The four market animal categories represent animals raised by the exhibitor as food sources. Top animals in each of these categories are eligible for their individual market auctions. Total money paid in 1988 at the four junior show auctions exceeded $4 million.

Hughey likes small town living

OHS girls' varsity basketball coach Frank Hughey comes to Ozona from Fort Davis. Previous coaching experience for the Sul Ross State University alumnus also includes the Gordon and Kopperal school systems.

Coach Hughey holds a degree in P.E. and biology. He teaches three history classes and one health class in addition to his coaching duties. He will assist Coach Jim Green in coaching golf this spring.

"I hope to get to the point we can be competitive year end and year out," Hughey said of his girls' team. "I know it can be accomplished. We have good athletes and a good athletic director."

Efforts to build a more consistent program from the junior high level on will pay off in better playing, Hughey believes.

The Georgetown native likes the pace of living in a small community. He and wife Crystal have a kindergarten age daughter, Leigh, and a daughter, Liz, who is a freshman at Stephen F. Austin College.

Lions add more victories

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona Lions cruised to dominating victories over Stanton and McCamey last week, improving their district record to 3-0 for the second half.

Stanton knew what hit them but could do nothing about it when Ozona grabbed an 18-8 first-quarter lead and never looked back in their Tuesday, Jan. 31, match-up. The lead stretched to 13 by halftime and finished at 22 as the Lions won 65-43.

"It was the best game of the season," Coach John Curry said. "Our defense played sharp and created turnovers that led to some easy baskets early on and helped us take charge of the game."

Curry also pointed out the Lions' shooting at the free throw line where they hit 13 to 16 attempts.

Lalo Rodriquez and Oscar Galindo led Ozona scorers with 18 and 14 points respectively. Robby Tambunga contributed 10 of his own points.

Against McCamey the Lions took a greater opening lead but almost saw it give way completely during a final-quarter onslaught.

The 20-4 first-quarter lead still held true going into the fourth quarter with Ozona up by 22, but the Badgers hit four three-pointers en route to scoring 30 points in the last eight minutes.

However, the fury fell short and the Lions held out for a 64-56 win.

"Shooting well early helped as well as play from the bench," Coach Curry said. "Our defense continued to produce turnovers that we took advantage of, but our free throws were terrible."

The Lions made 19 of 39 at the line. Galindo again had his hand in the scoring, collecting 17 points. Javier Martinez scored 16 in his efforts.

Ozona ends its regular district competition Friday at Forsan. Depending on the outcome of other games, the Lions might be involved in playoff games next week to determine district representatives.

WATCHIN' and WONDERIN'

with Zeke Smith

Howdy! Well, next Tuesday is the big day for hearts! I've always enjoyed Heart Day - ever since a little cutie sent me some heart-shaped cookies when I was a boy. There's nothing in the world that makes you feel so alive as "bein' in love". Your old heart beats fast, you write silly poems and dream all kinds of ridiculous stuff. Goodness, gracious, it's fun. I'm kinda like old E. E. Cummings who said, "Unless you love someone, nothing else makes any sense".

But you know, love is a strage bird. It's awful hard to understand. Half the time we think infatuation is love. Love ain't a feelin', it's an action word. It's somethin' you do, not feel. Sometimes we confuse love and romance. Sometimes they go together and sometimes they don't. And if you're not sure you love someone that you used to love, if you'll start actin' like you love 'em, you'll find you do! Did you follow that?

Anyway, here's the truth I found in a song relating to love. Song goes like this, "The years brought the railroad, it ran by my door. Now there's boards on the windows and dust on the floor, and she passes the time at another man's side, and I pass the time with my pride."

Friends, love should have no pride - no strings - no 'I do for you if you do for me' stuff. Love, if it's love, is unconditional. It's "I love you, Period!" Not I love you if - you don't get fat, you don't cut your hair, you clean the house, you go nuts when I walk in the door. No, love has no pride, if it's real love 'cause love comes from God who swallowed all the pride a person could have to say "Look, you sorry, selfish creature - even if you kill me, I'll still love you." That's love, and if it ever gets you, you're got. It'll set you free - to really love and be loved. "You'd better let someone love you before it's too late" - Desperado.

Happy Heart Day!

1988 Seniors offered career scholarships

Concho Career Institute, with Texas campuses in Lubbock, San Angelo and the Houston area, again this year is offering scholarship awards to high school graduating seniors interested in pursuing a vocational career.

This scholarship program has been developed as part of Concho Career Institute's commitment to community service. CCI wants to participate in helping young people who demonstrate their willingness to commit to achievement. Many well-paying positions require more than a high school diploma. Scholarships are a way for students to create their career opportunities through their own efforts.

Winners are selected on a merit basis in a variety of career fields. Their ability to effectively communicate why they have made a particular career choice is also evaluated. Applicants must apply for a specific scholarship at CCI. Courses available are: welding technology, basic welding, cosmetology, computerized accounting, English As A Second Language, administrative assistant, medical transcription technology, nurses' aide, medical assistant, word processing technology, accounting technology, legal secretary, word processing clerk, refrigeration (A.C., heating), apartment, building, plant maintenance; major appliance repair, collision repair technology, automotive trim, diesel mechanics, small engine repair, small engine outboard and motorcycle repair; electronic maintenance technology, plumbing apprentice and offset printing technology.

Courses are distributed throughout the CCI system; not all courses are found on all campuses.

Contact your high school counselor or call Lynn May at 1-800-6827 or 915 653-2453 for more detailed information.

Cubs take No. 2 spot

The 8th grade Cubs traveled to Big Lake to play in the Owl Tournament where their efforts earned them second place.

The boys opened against Stanton and their 38-34 win put them in the semi-finals. Joe Hernandez scored 11 points for the Cubs.

Big Lake's "B" team proved no match for the Cubs who stormed to a 55-15 victory. Alonzo Hernandez led Ozona scorers with 16 points.

In the championship game, the Cubs faced Big Lake's "A" team who played mightier than the B's and won the battle as Ozona settled for second.

Cubettes drop season closers

The junior high Cubettes failed to convert their home-court advantage when they hosted Iraan for their final games of the season in what proved to be close match-ups.

Staying close all the way, the 7th grade Cubettes lost by only three points. Iraan pulled ahead by five in the third quarter. Ozona replied by outscoring their opponents 6-4 in the final quarter, but Iraan still came out on top 20-17.

Maribel De La Garza scored 10 points to lead Cubette scoring.

Down six points in the first half, the 8th grade Cubettes failed to gain control as Iraan went on to win 23-21.

Myra Sanchez scored five points while Julie Childress and Myra Wilson added four.

"This group of girls has been a joy to coach these past two years," Coach Robyn Payne said. "Their desire to learn and do well has been above and beyond my expectations of a junior high team."

Cubs go out with wins

Both the 7th and 8th grade Cubs won their last games of the year after traveling to Iraan Jan. 30.

The 7th grade won by a huge margin of 27-7. Forcing Iraan down by 15 points at halftime, the Cubs never looked back.

Keith Miller and Daniel Caldera contributed 11 and eight points respectively.

The 8th grade Cubs had their opponents down five points at halftime and extended that to seven in the third quarter.

Iraan fought back in the fourth but Ozona held out for a 29-26 win.

Manny Munoz scored seven points in his efforts.

Williams chosen Student of Month

Ozona Junior High 8th grader Hollie Williams has been selected Student of the Month for February.

Hollie moved to Ozona from the Houston area with her parents, Rose and Tom Williams.

Although she definitely likes small towns, Hollie says she misses McDonald's.

The athletic student plays basketball and runs track. She also competes in UIL literary events and is a member of 4-H Club.

"Hollie is a great student," said Principal Buddy Hooper.

Selection as Student of the Month is based on scholastic achievement, appearance, attendance, attitude, citizenship, community service and school spirit.

REMEMBER OUR DEADLINE: 5 p.m. MONDAY

Showing some of the selections available at Ozona Primary Book Fair this week are Rhonda Borrego, Alma Longoria, Romelia Arredondo, Mark Dearruda and Kevin Lara. The book fair will be open through Friday from 1:45 to 3 p.m. in the school library.

Freshmen girls tackle J.V.s

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona Freshman Lady Lions traveled to Iraan last weekend to compete in the Iraan J.V. tournament. Although they dropped both games, the Lady Lions proved that they could play upper level basketball as they played well agains Iraan's JV and Rankin's JV.

In the first game against Iraan, Ozona fell behind early on and could never recover as they lost the game 32-15.

Iraan was able to get off the line quickly in the first quarter, scoring seven points while holding the Lady Lions to only two.

In the second quarter, Ozona pulled a little closer to closing the gap as they were outscored by the Lady Braves by a mere two points, six to four.

At the half, Iraan led 13-6...and they were about to explode.

In the third period, the Lady Braves unloaded their entire arsenal. They reeled off 12 points while holding Ozona to one single bucket. With a 17-point lead, they decided to relax.

The Lady Lions put together their best quarter of the night in the final quarter. They scored seven points, but gave up seven as well. The final score was Iraan 32, Ozona 15.

Ozona's leading scorer was Tricia Hartnett with eight while Haley Carson and Claudia Avila had four and three, respectively.

In the second game, against Rankin, the Lady Lions overcame a slumped first half to come back and nearly win the game in the last half.

Rankin jumped out on top in the first quarter, scoring 14 points while defensively holding Ozona to a rather bleak total of six. In the second quarter, Rankin cranked out 17 points while the Lady Lions upped their output but still trailed with 11 points. At the intermission, the Lady Red Devils led by a more-than-comfortable 14 point margin.

In the second half, Ozona finally found themselves on top in a period, outscoring Rankin 11-19 in the third quarter.

During the final eight minutes of the game, the Lady Lions hit a flurry of scoring. They reeled off 16 points while a stingy defense held Rankin to eight. Although the Lady Lions were able to mount a comeback, they ran out of time. The final score was 48-44, Rankin.

Ozona's Coach Renee Schultz commented that the Lady Lions played one of their best games of the season, and, "...was really proud of them!"

Leaders, 4-Hers learn new clothing methods in workshop

Eighteen Crockett County 4-H leaders and members attended the District VI Clothing Leaders Training at the Ozona Civic Center on Saturday, Feb. 4.

The workshop was held to familiarize the leaders with opportunities and project ideas they could use in their own counties. Leaders and 4-H members from other counties also attended the workshop, along with Extension Agents from 13 counties.

Sessions included designing computer-graphics t-shirts, judging and modeling training, and project opportunities.

Attending from Ozona were Nancy Vannoy, Carmen Sutton, Jean Connor, Tina Moran, Linda Usener, Karen Childress, Karen Bishop, Whitney Vannoy, JoLynn Vannoy, Stefny Sutton, Nikki McCarley, Dana Bishop, Rusty Bishop, Dana Berry, Robin Myers, Melissa Childress, Julie Childress and Martha Mayfield.

According the County Extension Agent-Home Economics Tedra Ulmer, who coordinated the workshop, clothing projects are beginning soon, and anyone who has not already signed up needs to do so as soon as possible.

"If you're not already in 4-H, it's not too late to sign up and be a part of this year's clothing project," the agent noted. "We've added a 'Consumer Buying Division' to our clothing project, so those who really don't like to sew can still learn and be in the fashion show," she stated.

For more information about 4-H clothing or other projects, contact the County Extension Office at 392-2721, or come by the office, located on the second floor of the county Courthouse Annex. Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or handicap.

Self acceptance not easy

Learning to accept and value yourself isn't always easy. It's also not easy to teach your kids those skills--unless you work at it.

Working at teaching these skills means biting your tongue when you want to criticize your child. For example, "Oh here, let me do it--you can't ever do anything right."

Or putting pressures on a child that come back to haunt him when he fails, like saying, "I'll be disappointed in you if you don't make the team."

It's also important to praise a child in the right way. In other words, make the child feel good about who he or she is--not about what he or she can or can't do. Children need to feel loved and confident about themselves--not because they're talented or smart or beautiful, but because they're a unique human being.

Do you have trouble accepting compliments? Many people do, because we can't take them at face value. We secretly feel we don't deserve the compliment, and that we would be considered braggarts if we accept the compliment.

Teach your children to accept compliments gracefully--if they have a strong feeling of self-acceptance, this will come easily to them.

Many times, children who seem obnoxious to others--braggarts and bullies--are really searching for acceptance or trying to shield themselves from being rejected. By showing these children that they are important and special and loved for themselves, they can learn to relax and relate to others in a more positive manner.

How many of us know adults we can't stand to be around because they're "know-it-alls" and pushy? Think back to their childhood and see if the problem doesn't stem from that time.

So how do you work at teaching self-acceptance to kids (and maybe yourself)?

--Make love unconditional. Don't say "I'll love you if you make the team." Instead, try saying, "Look, I love you even if you never learn to dribble a basketball. You're successful in other things, so don't worry about it."

--Be encouraging--not discouraging. "You'll never make the team, so why even try? You're hopeless." Instead, say, "You can usually accomplish something if you set your mind to it and really try. If you don't make it, maybe there's something else you'd be better at or enjoy more."

--Make praise specific, so the compliment can be accepted for what it is. "You made those free throws tonight with no problem. Your shooting has really improved," instead of saying, "You're going to be another Larry Bird."

--Make criticism specific, if you must criticize. Instead of "I don't want you to hang around with those kids--they're no good," try, "I really worry about you when you're out with Tom and Jane because they drink and stay out too late, and I don't want you to do those things."

It's not an overnight process, but by some gradual changes, you can help your young people learn to accept themselves and be happy about who they are.

Girls endure McCamey defeat

by T. C. Tucker
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The third-quarter dry spell struck again as the Lady Lions fell to Stanton Tuesday, Jan. 31; however, Ozona created sparks in their game with McCamey rallying in the final quarter to pull to three but failing to come any closer.

Stacy Lay scored 24 of the Ladies' 40 points in their match-up at Stanton. Still, all scoring for Ozona suffered in the third period when Stanton, leading 27-21 at halftime, outscored the Ladies 14-7.

Though Ozona played evenly with Stanton in the final quarter, they could not overcome the deficit, losing 40-56.

Assisting Lay in scoring, Adriane Wilson added 10 points.

Another negative margin did the Lady Lions in during their next game on Friday when they hosted McCamey. This time, though, the first half played against Ozona while the second proved their better half.

Down six in the first quarter, the Ladies kept pace with their opponents in the second period and went into halftime down 14-21.

Third quarter marked the beginning of Ozona's rally as they scored 13 points to McCamey's 10 and cut the gap to four.

However, McCamey held off the onslaught, capitalizing on the Ladies' desperate last-minute fouling to ensure a 38-33 victory.

"We had several chances to tie or even win the game," Coach Frank Hughey said. "We just couldn't get any of our shots in during those situations."

Lay and Kriss Corley provided Ozona scoring with nine and seven points, respectively.

The Lady Lions close out their '88-89 basketball season Friday, Feb. 10, at Forsan with games beginning at 5:30.

Area 4-H members enjoy the clothing workshop held Saturday in the Civic Center.

J.V.s drop from top spot

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona JV Lions took on the Stanton JV Buffalos last Tuesday in a battle for the top spot in District 6-2A. In a game that went right down to the wire, the Buffalos weathered a violent storm and took a 60-59 victory.

In the first quarter, Stanton took a rather uneasy 2-point lead 16-14.

The Buffalos added to their lead by one in the second quarter, outscoring the Lions 14-13.

At the half, Stanton found themselves atop a volatile lead by a score of 30-27.

After the intermission, the Buffalos increased their slowly growing lead to four, scoring 16 points compared to Ozona's 15.

In the final period, the Lions made a move. However, their move was too little too late as they outscored the Buffalos 17-14, but still came up one point short when the clock ran out. When the final buzzer sounded, Stanton was on top 60-59.

Ruben Borrego led all scorers with 17 points while Lonnie Martinez followed with 15. Also hitting well for Ozona was Danny DeHoyos with eight.

J.V. Ladies swamp Stanton

by Copie Davis
STOCKMAN SPORTS

The Ozona JV Lady Lions took on the Stanton Lady Buffalos last Tuesday and came away with a hard-fought and determined 42-36 victory.

From the opening tip-off, the Lady Lions sought to control the game. In the first quarter, Ozona took a slim lead, outscoring the Lady Buffalos 10 to eight.

In the second quarter, the Lady Lions widened the gap between the two teams by five points, outshooting Stanton by a score of 17-12.

At the halftime intermission, Ozona led by seven, 27-20.

In the third quarter, the tempo of the game slowed to a crawl as Stanton struggled to keep the Lady Lions from getting out of reach. However, Ozona still increased their lead by outscoring the Lady Buffalos in the period eight to six.

In the fourth quarter, Stanton could still not find a way to break the Lady Lions' stride. In the final period, Ozona ripped the net for 12 points while Stanton could only manage 10 points. The final score was 42-36, Ozona.

Ozona's leading scorer was Misty Fowler who burned the Lady Buffalos for 16 points. Kim Coy also hit in double figures as she had 10. Sandra Fuentes was also near the top of the scorebook with six.
