High Wind Hits County Sunday Night

The highest wind the area has experienced this season struck Wellington Sunday evening, May 18, with unofficial recordings of above 70 miles per hour.

At the same time, Wellington's storm warning was sounded for the first time, sending many of its residents to cellars until the storm passed.

This warning was sounded after the sheriff's department received a call from the Hall County Sheriff's office reporting a tornado sighted near Memphis.

Damage was light considering the wind speed. Claude Savage lost a barn at his farm southwest of town.

In Wellington, Sullivan Hardware and Furniture had a large plate glass window blown out, and there was damage to the Wellington State Bank sign.

Immediately south of town, a house trailer belonging to Leo Popwell, parked by Wellington Cottonseed Delinting, was overturned, and a new truck was blown up against a combine, with little damage to either.

In the north part of the county, Buck Martindale reported a small house destroyed.

An antenna fell across a power line at the Marshall Peters place south of Wellington.

At Dodson, Clarence Black said the main power line fell down in his back yard. Because phone communication was also out, it was necessary for him to drive to Wellington to notify West Texas Utilities Co.

Jack Kennedy, WTU manager, said no poles were down nor was there any major damage to the company's lines. One transformer went out and there were numerous service problems because of the wind.

All lights around the square were shorted out due to wind, but they were due to be restored by mid-week.

Greenbelt Electric Co-operative reported several poles lost, and numerous service problems throughout the system. Service personnel worked from midnight Sunday until around noon Monday restoring service to all users.

City Asks Injunction In Gas Rate Action

A hearing is set in 53rd District Court, Austin, Friday, May 23, in which the City of Wellington is seeking a temporary injunction which would prevent Lone Star Gas Company from putting into effect rate increases retroactive to January 28, 1975, which it is seeking.

Paul Spillman, the city's legal officer, will represent Wellington at the hearing. If the temporary injunction is granted, the next step for the city will be to seek a permanent injunction.

Preceding this, an interim order was issued by the Railroad Commission on May 9, allowing Lone Star Gas to flow through to the individual customer additional fuel cost and also the retroactive fuel cost since January 28, 1975.

The City then filed suit in 53rd District Court in Travis County (Austin) asking a temporary restraining order against the interim order granted Lone Star Gas by the Railroad Commission. The restraining order was issued by District Judge Herman Jones, ordering Lone Star Gas not to put in effect any rate increase for the City of Wellington at this time.

Rate increases requested by Lone Star were considered by the City Council and an order was passed offering Lone Star a percent of the rate increase requested but without the retroactive clause.

Lone Star, it has been brought out, is faced with rising costs of natural gas which it must purchase from Lo Vaca Gathering Company at an increased price. It's proposed rate increase to consumers is system wide, affecting more than 100 Texas towns.

At this point, 13 are still opposing the increase, among them Irving, Wichita Falls, Burk Burnett, Waco, and Wellington.

Slogan Chosen for 'Beautify Wellington'

"Wellington in '75 - Full of Pride and So Alive!"

This is Wellington's official slogan for the Beautify Wellington Program which will continue through the year. More immediately it is the slogan for the city-wide Clean-Up Campaign which gets under way Monday, May 26 and will continue through Friday, May 30.

This first place slogan was entered by Mrs. Hezzy Jones, who received a $25.00 bond presented by the Wellington State Bank and City State Bank, according to Mrs. Margaret Vines, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

The second place entry, from Bob Cummings, was:

"Wellington -- My Home Town; Spring Cleaning the Year Round." Third place went to Mrs. C.O. Wilkerson for: "Everyone Cleaning Makes Wellington Beam-ing!"

The winners were selected by an anonymous committee, none of whom were Chamber of Commerce Directors, Mrs. Vines said.

The winning slogan, "Wellington in '75 - Full of Pride and So Alive!" will be used throughout the year as part of the governor's beautification program.

Mrs. Vines emphasized that this does not replace the official C-C slogan: Go and Grow with Collingsworth."

Intensive County-Wide Clean-up Campaign Planned May 26 to 30

Wellington and Collingsworth County move Monday, May 26, into the most intensive clean-up campaign to be conducted in recent years. It will continue through Friday, May 30.

This clean-up campaign is especially significant in Wellington, since it marks the kickoff of Wellington's entry into the Governor's Beautify Texas program.

Clean-up Week is sponsored jointly by the City of Wellington and the Chamber of Commerce. During this time, residents are urged to clean up their premises of trash, rubbish and refuse, and in Wellington, to put them in the alleys for pick up.

City Manager Glen Taylor said that all other work by the city will stop during the week of May 26-31, and city employees will devote full time to working in the clean-up drive.

He gave this schedule: Tuesday, May 27, will be Free Pick-up Day. City trucks will begin picking up trash, rubbish and refuse in alleys and will continue until the entire city is covered.

Residents are urged to put all rubbish in the alleys if this is at all possible.

"If you have something you cannot put in the alley, but you want it picked up, you can call the Chamber of Commerce and they will relay the word to us," Mr. Taylor said.

He emphasized that there is no limit to the size of things to be carried off.

At the same time, City

The annual meeting of the Farmers Co-operative Enterprises at Dodson will be held Tuesday, May 27, at 8:00 p.m., in the American Legion Building on the main street of Dodson.

Bundy Moore, manager, announced plans for the meeting.

Rebate checks will be delivered to members of the co-operative, and business for the last year will be reviewed.

Students who will serve as ushers and distribute the programs are Randall Sims, Richard Sims, Neal Cochran, Sammy Gonzales, Paul Hanna, Jeff Hanna, Alicia Terry, Lana Lacy, Denise Archer, Linda Coffee, Kim Goforth and Karen Jeffrey.

The high school administration this year includes Supt. Clement and Melvin Cardwell, principal, while the class sponsors are James Williams, Phil Bailey and Mrs. Perry Mack Scott.

Class officers are Jim Bob Nall, president; Kelly Cook, vice president; Renee Mitchell, secretary; Beth Derryberry, treasurer; and Steve Emmert, reporter. Student council representatives are Tanya Watson and Terry Anderson.

City Receives Sales Tax Check Totaling $5,798

Comptroller Bob Bullock has issued a check to the City of Wellington for $5,798.30, in the second round of monthly city sales tax payments. Checks to Texas cities totaled $19.9 million.

A summary of the city sales and use tax allocation for Wellington included $6,212.34 quarter allocation, less $289.79 retained by the Comptroller of Public Accounts for administering the sales taxes.

The May payments were up from the $16.1 million rebated April 15 when the monthly system replaced the old quarterly rebate system with its 60 to 90-day lag time.

But, Bullock said, the big payment will come in June when city allocations are made of the quarterly returns paid by merchants since April 30. The great bulk of that money hadn't reached the Comptroller's office by the May 2 cutoff date for the May payments.

The May rebates were made from money received by the Comptroller between April 4, the cutoff for April's payments, and May 2, Bullock said.

Checks put in the mail went to 700 of the 809 cities which have the one per cent sales tax. The remaining small cities fell below the $500 level at which monthly payments aren't made.

The gin handled 5,310 bales of cotton during the 1974-75 ginning season, Mr. Moore said.

There will be an election of directors to replace those whose terms expire. The full board includes Tom Birchfield, Louis Patterson, Roland Mayhugh, Wilton R. Jones, Elbert Watts, Art Kane and Fred Covey.

All members of the co-operative are urged to attend.

VFW Buddy Poppies On Sale Saturday

The Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold its annual Buddy Poppy Sale for the benefit of disabled veterans on Saturday, May 24.

Plans for the sale were announced by Mrs. Don Jones, auxiliary president.

Poppies will be on sale all day in downtown Wellington, with one table in front of Parsons Drug and the other at C&H Pharmacy. Auxiliary members will alternate at the tables during the day. Should the weather be bad, poppies will be sold inside these two stores.

Mayor Bill Hatch has issued a proclamation designating Saturday as Buddy Poppy Day and asking the support of the public in this campaign.

Money from the poppy sales goes to benefit the thousands of disabled veterans and their dependants, Mrs. Jones pointed out.

"Every Day is Poppy Day for them," she declared.

The theme of this year's Buddy Poppy Sale, nationwide, is "He gave his best! Can you do less?"

"For hundreds of long-term disabled veterans in Veterans Administration Hospitals and Domiciliaries and in State Veterans Homes, every day is FVW Buddy Poppy Day," said Mrs. Jones.

"These are the men who assemble the Poppies, tie them in bunches of 10 and pack them in boxes of 500 or 1,000 for shipment to some 10,000 Veterans of Foreign Wars Posts and Auxiliaries throughout the nation.

"Poppy assembly is a year-round project in some 15 veterans facilities and a part-time project in others. Some are under the direction of the VFW organization in the state in which they are located and others are supervised and directed by the National VFW Buddy Poppy Department.

"The Veterans of Foreign Wars pays the disabled veteran for his work. In most cases, the money provides extra income for the disabled veteran to pay for the little luxuries which make hospital life tolerable.

"Sometimes the Poppy assembly is used as a therapy program, under direct supervision of hospital personnel.

"One of the most successful adaptations of the Buddy Poppy assembly program is its use as a step toward the rehabilitation of psychiatric patients," Mrs. Jones concluded.

The annual Pinewood Derby for Cub Pack 231, was held Friday, May 16, in the American Legion Hall.

The cars were judged for appearance and design with a first place trophy going to Jay Warrick of Den 34 and a second place plaque to Jim Warrick of the Webelos den.

The award, a special "Silver Dollar" plaque, was presented to Gollighugh for exceptional customer service.

Gates sponsors this nation-wide contest every year to reward Automotive Parts Jobbers for maintaining adequate inventories of replacement cooling system parts.

A fleet of Gates "Mystery Shoppers" travel across the country stopping at authorized Gates Jobber outlets. If the Jobber's stock includes certain "Mystery" part numbers, the Jobber is awarded one of two special plaques.

All boys and girls wishing to ride are urged to be there. Each youngster must provide his or her own mount. The meeting will be at the VFW rodeo arena at 7:30 p.m.

Horses not present at the first meeting will be vaccinated the following week.

Assisting Mr. Reeves with the program this year will be Mrs. Gary Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wilson.

Parents who want their children to take swimming lessons must register at the city office, in the community building, by June 9, giving each child's age so they can be grouped before lessons begin. The $6.00 pool admission fee (for 12 lessons) must be paid at the time of registration.

At present it is planned to have two classes. One for beginners and intermediates, from 9:00 to 10:00 and 10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

Mr. Taylor said that if there is a need, other classes will be held as soon as these are over, and if parents want to enroll a child in more than one class, they may do so.

"With three instructors, we can handle a lot of children in these classes," Mr. Taylor commented.

The pool will be carefully supervised, and special care will be taken of small children.

At all times, two of the coaches will be on life guard duty and the third will be in the concession stand.

There will be no change in the price of season tickets and single admissions also will be the same as last year, 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for children.

Those wishing to hold private parties at the pool will make their arrangements with the manager, Mr. Glenn.

Work will be completed this week repainting the pool and doing a large amount of repair and improvement, Mr. Taylor said. He emphasized that the pool will be cleaned thoroughly each Monday and inspected between times.

At this time, the City of Irving and the City of Wellington are the only cities which have restraining orders against Lone Star Gas regarding the interim order.

These 14 cities have representatives on the board of advisories of the Texas Utilities Advisory Committee, which met Wednesday, May 21, at the conference room of the City Attorney of Dallas for the purpose of formulating a policy for the member cities. Mr. Spillman represented the City of Wellington at this meeting.

Members of the city council were brought up to date on this action by their attorney in the regular meeting Monday night, May 19.

Rain was scattered and for the most part light. Wellington recorded .22 inch, according to Charles Floyd, weather bureau observer.

Rainfall was heaviest in the Cross Roads community, where 1.5 inch was reported, and in the Samnorwood area, where 1.3 inches of rain was recorded and a little hail was reported.

Barney Glenn said he had .40 inch at his ranch on Elm Creek, but a good rain fell toward Shamrock.

"Texas" Opens Tenth Season On June 18

CANYON..The sounds of "Texas", Paul Green's Musical Drama of Panhandle History, will roll through the crags of the Palo Duro Canyon for the tenth season this summer - 1975, from June 18 through August 23.

Echoing from the great cliffs behind the stage, the bugles, the hymns, the banjos and guitars, the songs of celebration and sorrow, the cry of the wolf and the roar of a train, the words of warning and waiting, the shots of 45's and rifles, and thundering crashes of storms swirl around the listeners, creating the story of the 1880's.

The theatre where "Texas" plays lies in the magnificent Palo Duro Canyon near Amarillo and Canyon, Texas - the crossroads of six interstate highways and four airlines.

This drama, one of Paul Green's great declarations of faith in America, has been celebrating the strengths and struggles of this country ever since the summer of 1966. At the end of the 9th season, 677,472 people have seen "Texas".

A company of 140 including a cast of 80 actors, singers and dancers tells the story and the sound of their words and songs carries to the farthest corner of the theatre.

In the last century, the settlers on the plains faced many battles with the elements. The sounds of these surges of nature are added to the show by sensitive and powerful sound equipment which reproduces the winds and the rains and the crackling of the prairie fires.

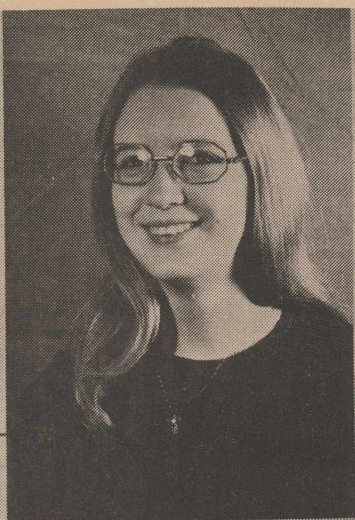

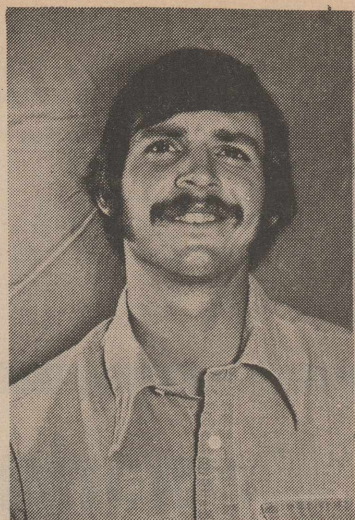

Fine lighting instruments, gay costumes and the movement of lights on the cliff supplement the sound and an evening at "Texas" leaves an impact to be remembered.

Everyone in the audience will feel and hear this sound-almost seems to be inside of it.

To have this experience, come to "Texas".

For tickets and information, write to "Texas", Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 806-655-2182.

For good home decorating, one color in a room should be dominant-all other colors in the room should be subordinate, according to Denise Beigbender, housing and home-furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Dove Harvest Down Slightly in 1974-75

AUSTIN -- Texas hunters harvested an estimated 4.9 million mourning doves during the 1974-75 North and South Zone seasons, according to recently completed Texas Parks and Wildlife Department tabulations.

This represents a small decline from the 1973-74 harvest total of 5.2 million doves, but biologists at the department still label the past season a good one.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hurst of Amarillo visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Hurst and Lyn this weekend.

Attendance Growing at Slow-Pitch League Play

First Baptist Slow-Pitch Softball team defeated the Skyrockets 9-4 in a well-played game at Marian Airpark Field Sunday, May 18.

The Skyrockets are improving rapidly, as are all the teams in the league, according to Tony Stephens, league president.

In the second game of the double header, 3-C Construction defeated the Dodson Co-op Team 14-2. The Co-ops had trouble with some errors, while 3-C played an excellent game defensively and hit the ball well as a whole.

The well-balanced Martin Seed Team beat First Baptist 15-8 in the first game Monday, May 19. The Baptists played a strong game and the score was tied 8-8 in the sixth, Martin Seed rallied to win.

In the second game, the Skyrockets beat Dodson Co-op in an exciting game. The Rockets trailed 13-6 in the top of the fourth, but rallied the next time at bat to score 5 runs. The inning ended 13-11, and the Skyrockets went on to win 20-15.

"Attendance at the games is improving," Stephens said. "People are showing more and more interest as the season gets under way. We are certainly glad to see people coming out to watch the games and hope they enjoy them."

"The league will be split in two this year and the winner of the first half of the season will play the winner of the second half to determine the 1975 league winner," Stephens continued.

There will be two tournaments. The first will be the week of June 16 to 22 and the second will follow league play, the week of July 14-20.

"I expect both tournaments to be a big success, as I have already been contacted by two teams from Vernon, one from Quanah and Childress and three from Amarillo wishing to enter our tournament," Stephens announced. "I will also contact Memphis, Clarendon and Shamrock. Trophies will be awarded in both tournaments."

Quarter Million Youth in 4-H Club Program

A quarter of a million young people can't be wrong!

And 125,000 Texas boys and girls are part of the modern-day 4-H program.

"As the nation's largest youth-serving organization, 4-H continues to provide educational experiences for young people in a variety of ways," says Miss Yvonne Garcia, 4-H and youth specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Youth between the ages of 9 and 19 can learn new skills and interests in short-term project groups, clubs, camps, special interest groups and other activities. Fairs, contests, field trips and tours are also a part of every 4-H member's program.

"With the help of 4-H volunteers, youth can select which project they want to learn and how they will learn them, notes the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Youth make their decision by considering time, available resources and their particular situation."

Practicing good citizenship and developing leadership talents are important activities in 4-H. Public appearances, speeches, committee work and officer elections are just some of the ways 4-Hers learn the important skills of decision-making, democratic behavior, social competence and self-esteem.

"It's not all work either. 4-H means making new friends, going places, helping others and sharing talents, skills and hobbies," points out Miss Garcia.

Schedule for Men's Softball Announced

The men's Slow Pitch Softball Schedule for the remainder of the season was announced this week by Tony Stephens, president.

Former Wellington Girl Tells Of Vietnam Refugees on Guam

A first hand account of the plight of Vietnam refugees on Guam--and the effect on the residents of the island as well--comes from a young woman who was born in Wellington. She is Mary Mew, wife of Airman First Class Frew Mew. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Austin of Plainview, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.F. Isaacs.

At the time her first letter was written, 60,000 Viets had reached the island.

"The Viets are in barracks, tents, hotels, apartments, people's homes--just everywhere, and at Anderson (Air Force Base) they're working round-the-clock," she wrote. The island of Guam is only 28 miles long and four miles wide, with a population of 87,000.

Mrs. Mew in her letter indicated that authorities were having a rough time housing the refugees. The evacuees were flown directly to Guam from South Vietnam immediately before the Communist take-over.

Here are excerpts from two other letters written by Mrs. Mew to her parents.

"The island was totally unprepared; the island is a madhouse! Today (April 25) over 700 Viets were landing in Guam every hour--so there's no telling how many we have now...They don't have any money or clothes, so Fred took two families to buy clothes and look for jobs for them.

"I'll help feed them...so that's all I can do for them; it's hard enough over here for us. All of our stores are out of food, because the ships only bring in a supply for two weeks. We are busy now trying to locate lost wives and kids and cousins (for the South Vietnamese). Some of the camps here have over 5,000 people in them. We gave them Cokes and our radio, and I got to baby sit with five Viet kids. They are all very polite and couldn't speak or understand English, but we did all right."

Mrs. Mew wrote also that she had taken a job at $2.50 an hour babysitting and feeding South Vietnamese children.

And in another letter she said:

"They're even moving guys out of barracks and putting them in ships or tents."

MRS. JAY THOMAS KOLB

Miss Fulton, Jay Kolb Wed In Ceremony at Fort Worth

Wedding vows were repeated by Miss Jeanie Quinn Fulton and Jay Thomas Kolb in University Baptist Church, Ft. Worth, on Saturday, May 17, at eight in the evening. Dr. James G. Harris officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quince David Fulton, 2925 Hartwood Drive, Fort Worth, and the granddaughter of Mrs. D.E. Fulton of Wellington and the late Mr. Fulton.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Kolb, 5468 Cedar Creek, Houston.

The bride wore a gown of ivory English net and jeweled Alencon lace. Tiny silk buttons closed the back of the empire, lace bodice. Scallop lace formed the portrait neckline and cuffs of the long net sleeves. More lace rose from the hem of the slim skirt, and a wide panel of the lace fell from the waist to the hem of the chapel train.

She wore a long mantilla of matching lace on illusion which swept back from a lace covered coif.

The bride was attended by Miss Carol Chris Garrett of Fort Worth, maid of honor, while the bridesmaid were Mrs. Susan Kolb McInnis, Miss Ellen Kolb and Miss Ann Kolb, sisters of the groom, all of Houston. Mrs. Robert Dechert of Dallas, Miss Bonnie Mixon of Cuero, Mrs. Dean Cochran, Miss Pati Fuller, and Miss Debra Gillespie of Fort Worth.

Their sleeveless gowns of apricot chiffon were styled with an empire silhouette and a double flounce around the scoup neckline. The skirt fell to carpet-length from the waist in a slim line.

They wore apricot picture hats. Matching chiffon covered the brim and formed the band around the low crown.

Mr. Kolb was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Paul Kolb, brother of the bridegroom, David Broilier, Rob Kerr, Thad Grundy, Jr., and David Anderson, all of Houston, Todd Hunt of Dallas, John McDowell of Bellaire, and Hunter Nelson of Beaumont. Ushers were Roy Bowman, Ed Patton and Timm Wooten, all of Houston.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton were hosts at a reception to honor the couple, held in Colonial Country Club.

The bride was graduated from the University, where her sorority was Kappa Alpha Theta. Also a graduate of the University with a B.B.A. degree in accounting, the bridegroom is a member of Phi Delta Theta and has served as treasurer.

The couple will live in Houston upon returning from their wedding trip along the southern coast of Mexico, including Puerto Vallarta and San Blas.

Lydia-Esther Circles Hear Review of "Modern Parables"

The Esther and Lydia sub-groups of the United Methodist Women met in the home of Mrs. Cal Hurst, Friday, May 16 at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Robert Karnes called the group together and Mrs. Earl Alexander gave the opening prayer. The project of the renewal of the playing of the church chimes, the bicentennial project of the UMW, was reported as nearing completion.

Mrs. J.D. Wilson gave a very thought provoking and entertaining review of the book "Modern Parables" by Fulton Oursler.

Mrs. Wilson chose eight parables from the book which portrayed the miracles of modern life from true stories related to the author. (1) "Strangers with Wings" taught the lesson that Messengers from High might wear ragged coats which cover wings. (2) "A Useful Life" relates a young boy's decision to will his body for cancer research. (3) "A Brother in Distress" reminds one that by helping others in need, we, personally, may benefit the most. (4) "The Closed Door" warns us against closing out God-sent help. (5) "Jungle Trial" proves that God's help is ours for the asking. (6) "The Tie That Binds" tells the story of the English

Good Neighbors Tell Memories Of Tornadoes of Other Years

The Good Neighbor Club met Friday, May 16 at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. R.L. Karnes.

Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch presided during the business session, and the minutes were read by Mrs. Karnes, in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Ray Clubb.

Roll call was answered by recalling happenings on the last day of school. Mrs. Merritt James remembered one last day of school when a terrible tornado struck Snyder, Oklahoma. Her family lived near there. The death toll was heavy.

Mrs. Coy Vaughan and Mrs. Willie Smith recalled the last day of school at Houselog in 1928 when Mrs. Lowell Wells brought her pupils to the Smith home to seek shelter from the storm. The school house was badly damaged and a window was blown out of the Smith residence. On the humorous side, the next morning the Smith boys found an old hen in their bedroom that had been blown through the opening.

Mrs. Karnes gave "Ten Rules for Living" and "Hope in Action".

Mrs. Barjenbruch read an article describing the oldtime cream separator, which, for the younger reader, had two spouts - one for cream and one for skimmed milk. The writer declared that the cream check was certainly earned after washing those 35 revolving discs and milking those cows.

Those attending were Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. R.H. Ball, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. James, Mrs. O.A. Kiker, Mrs. Barjenbruch, Mrs. Earl Alexander, Mrs. Nell Cook and the hostess.

Fix-It Tip

If it's time to put on summer-weight clothing then it also is time to store woollens. Just casually hanging them in a closet or stuffing them in a chest is a way to invite damage from moths.

First of all, it's the larva that does the damage, not the moth. Larvae feed on wool and other animal fibers (down, mohair, feathers, fur). The adult moth fluttering about isn't eating anything.

First step is prevention. Keeping everything clean will cut down or eliminate infestation. Lint, dust and hair that has accumulated give the larvae something to feed on and hide in. Store clothing away in a dirty closet and you are asking for trouble.

Mrs. Thomas Hosts Club

The Lillie Home Demonstration met Thursday evening, May 8, with Mrs. Zook Thomas as hostess. She also gave the devotional and prayer.

Mrs. Dudley Phipps, vice president, conducted the meeting.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Phipps, Mrs. Bill Langford, Mrs. Bill Lindsey, Mrs. Elmer Haralson, Mrs. Henry Langford, Mrs. John Alf Thomas, Lindy and LaVonda Thomas, D'Jon and Diana Lindsey, Mr. Thomas and the hostess.

Beta Skates At Altus, Ok.

BOYS RANCHERS AND THEIR CITY

Boys Ranch 5th Grade Builds Minature City

By Ed Bawcom

The fifth grade social studies class at Boys Ranch decided to build a city under the direction of their teacher Buddy Sparks, who is a graduate of Boys Ranch himself. Some of the students worked on the projects in groups while others worked individually. The materials for the projects were gathered by the boys and consisted of a variety of things from toothpaste boxes to blocks of wood. One of the boys brought his miniature train set. The city was complete with high lines and a water tower made from a paper cup and straws.

The project created much interest among the boys and they showed great pride in building their segment of the city.

Reddy's helpful tips for your Room Air-Conditioners

Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.

Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.

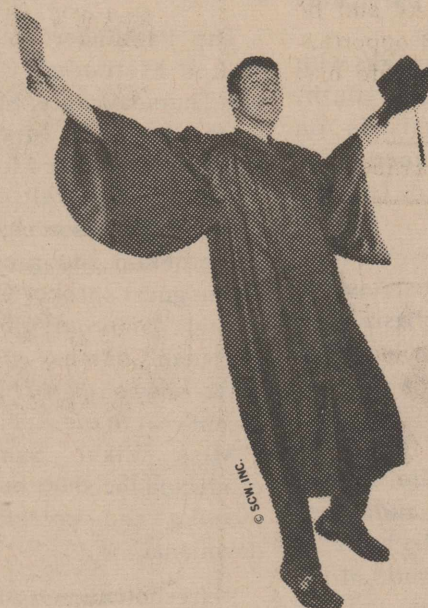

Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

You purchased fine-home comfort when you bought your air conditioning unit. Properly maintained, it will offer you years of efficient service. A once-a-year check-up by your dealer pays dividends in savings on operating and breakdown costs.

Boys Ranch Host for First VOCT Contest

By Ed Bawcom

The first area contest for the members of the Vocational Opportunities Clubs of Texas (V.O.C.T.) was held at Boys Ranch recently. The contests were held on the junior and senior high school levels.

Participants came from the northern section of Area VI in Texas. These towns included Perryton, Dumas, Friona, Amarillo (Tascosa), and Boys Ranch.

The contests were divided into the following categories: opening and closing ceremonies, prepared speech, parliamentary procedure, mechanics (tool identification), mechanics (engine identification), painting, carpentry (tool identification), carpentry (materials identification), plumbing, meat, job application and interview, and club scrapbook.

The Boys Ranch club is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Daylon Johnson (formerly of Shamrock), Mrs. Julia Roach of Amarillo, and Mrs. Virginia Kennedy of Amarillo. The club started on a local level in 1969, and became a state organization in 1972. The club presently has approximately 40 members.

Health Tips

Texas Medical Association

TAKE MEDICINE WITH CARE

Ever wake up, or at least about half awake, in the night with a splitting headache? Or a pain in the tummy? And stumble into the bathroom and reach for a bottle in the medicine cabinet? And gulp down a pill or two, or a spoonful of medicine?

Sure. All of us have. And we're risking serious trouble in taking medicines carelessly.

The medicine was prescribed by your physician, and he included specific orders for size and frequency of dose and how to take it. The Texas Medical Association reminds that there is a good, sound reason for these orders, and they're meant to be followed.

A few simple rules for taking medicine can help to avoid an accident that may make your minor discomfort a lot worse.

* Never take medicine in the dark. Be certain you can see the bottle or pill box, to make certain it's the right one. If you need glasses, put them on.

* Read the directions carefully before taking. Those directions are there for a reason -- your health.

* Don't increase the dosage or take more often than directed without checking with your doctor.

* If the label says, "Shake well before using," it means what it says. Shake it.

* Don't take medicine prescribed for someone else. Just because it helped your husband's cough doesn't mean it's right for you.

* Keep medicine out of reach of children. The small child who is rushed to the hospital after eating a whole bottle of sugar-coated tablets is an all too common occurrence.

* Put the cap back on the bottle. Some medicines change strength if exposed to air too long.

* Keep the medicine in its original box or bottle. Shifting sleeping pills to an aspirin bottle, for instance, could produce dire effects for someone else in the family.

Home Management

BY MRS. ARLA FELTS, CO. EXTENSION AGENT

How would it feel to be physically abused by an angry parent for something you didn't do and don't understand?

Everyday hundreds of young children are abused by parents or guardians who are unaware of the seriousness of their actions.

Most of the reported cases of abuse occur to children under 3 years of age, who are unable to defend themselves.

Child abuse happens in all economic levels and cultural groups in our society. Usually one parent inflicts the injuries and the other parent passively accepts the situation.

Once a child is abused, chances are he may be again. Lashing, bashing, scalding, burning, shaking, kicking, biting or suffocating a child are some of the kinds of physical abuses which cause serious injury or death.

But parents can also abuse a child emotionally by failing to provide the love and affection the child needs or by restricting his social experiences outside the home. And it's difficult for a person who has sustained continual abuse as a child to become a good parent once he's grown.

Incidents of abuse often occur during a time of crisis when parents are under a great deal of stress.

If the parent is unable to talk about or deal effectively with his emotions, the child may become the scapegoat. Although the incident is often short lived, the damage is permanent.

Abuse also happens when parents hold unrealistic expectations for the child. Harsh punishment becomes the way they teach the child to behave in a desired manner, even if he is too immature to act as expected.

And in some situations, an immature and inexperienced mother may injure the child because he can't provide the affection she seeks.

After hearing Judge Noama Harney at our District I Texas Home Demonstration association meeting in Dumas, April 10, I remember feeling bitter toward anyone who would abuse a child.

Child abuse may be viewed from a different perspective, however. This fact was brought to my attention at the recent seminar on Preparation for Parenthood Priority the Adolescent.

During one session we had a beautiful young lady introduced to speak on the topic "Help for a Potentially Battering Parent." After arousing hostile sentiments toward anyone who would abuse a child, she admitted that she herself was an abusive parent. It was very difficult to see her position positively since she failed to take responsibility for her own acts, yet she made one thing very clear--the cry for help. The lady is a member of Dallas Parents Anonymous, an organization similar to Alcoholics Anonymous. As I listened to her cry for help--not spoken--but none the less clear, my concern grew as to what I could do to help. It is true, of course, that the sure way to help abused children is to prevent abusive parents. To me first we must see that the child is physically safe but our responsibility does not end there. We must find a means to answer the cry for help if abused children are to be prevented.

We received .2 inch of rain Sunday night, May 18 with plenty of wind in the clouds.

Rev. Darrell Feemster, pastor of First Baptist Church, Quail was the speaker for the baccalaureate service Sunday, May 18 at 9:00 a.m. in the school gymnasium. After the baccalaureate service the members of the graduating class, their families and their friends, met with the Quail First Baptist Church for services. Rev. Feemster also delivered the sermon and afterward the ladies of the congregation served lunch in the church dining room.

The seniors were all presented Bibles from the church. The boys' Bibles were bound in red leather and the girls' in white.

Members of the senior class were Lenora Oatman, Roland Torrez, Debra Culpepper, Joe Barton and Jim Kennedy.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Robinson for Mother's Day weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Robinson, Mrs. Charles D. The Robinsons and Browns went to a park near Lawton, Oklahoma and spent the day on a picnic. Mr. Robinson enjoyed seeing the old time long horn cows, buffalo and deer more than anything else. However, he realized there were many more worthwhile things to see.

Bi-Centennial Musical Planning Session Called

An organizational meeting for Collingsworth County's Bicentennial patriotic musical, "I Love America," by John Peterson, will be held Sunday, June 1, in the Heritage Room. The meeting will begin at 2:00 p.m. Benny Kilgo is co-ordinating plans. All high school age young people and adults are invited to attend. This production will be sponsored by the Bicentennial Committee of Collingsworth County.

The tentative date for staging this musical is March 16, 17 and 18, 1976.

"We believe there is no building large enough in the county to hold all the people who will want to attend, so we plan to present it on three evenings," Mr. Kilgo said.

This is a brand new work by Peterson, copyrighted this year, he added.

"I Love America" is for all of Collingsworth and adults and youth from every part of the county are needed in the musical, it was emphasized.

Mrs. Bob McAlister will be in charge of narration.

The June 1 meeting will cover all organizational features, including the frequency and dates of rehearsals.

Meeting Begins At Ft. Worth St. Church of Christ

A gospel meeting opened Sunday, May 18, at the Ft. Worth Street Church of Christ and will continue through Friday, May 23, according to the minister, Enoch Fuller.

The guest preacher is LeRoy Durlay of Denver, Colorado, and singing will be under the direction of the local leaders.

On the opening day, Sunday, a fellowship was held at 3:00 p.m. at the Church, following lunch which was served at 1:30.

The services are held each evening at 8:00 p.m. and the public is invited.

Artist Paints Mood Of Texas Panhandle

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) -- A University of Texas artist is busy welding brush and watercolors to capture the mood of the Texas Panhandle.

Prof. Michael Frary of the UT Art Department is preparing the Panhandle paintings for publication in early 1977 in a new series on Texas art to be issued by the Texas A&M University Press.

Mr. Frary's paintings will show the Panhandle in all seasons. Subjects range from crops and cattle to the Palo Duro Canyon and a small ranch house with windmill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur DePauw were in Aztec, New Mexico, last week to visit his mother, Mrs. C.B. DePauw. She is now staying with a daughter, Mrs. Talmage Boyce.

R. E. Nelson Joins Sheriff's Dept. Staff

R.E. Nelson, a graduate of the San Diego, Calif., Police Academy who lived in Wellington as a youth, has been employed as a deputy in the Sheriff's Department. Sheriff John Rainey announced.

He will be remembered here as J.R. Nelson, who attended Wellington high school prior to leaving in 1961. He was reared by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Barnett.

Mr. Nelson is a veteran of 13 years service with the United States Navy, including eight months duty as South Bay supervisor of Shore Patrol, 44 months special warfare duty in Vietnam and work as a naval investigator.

His civilian law enforcement experience includes duty with the Imperial Beach, Calif., Police Department.

Sheriff Rainey said that the City of Wellington is co-operating by paying Mr. Nelson's salary until the new combined law enforcement program becomes effective, now set for about August 1.

Mr. Nelson and his wife, Jackie, who comes from New Orleans, have two children, David 10, and Stacey, four.

Marriage Licenses

James Austin Cross of Oklahoma City and Lois Fern Woolsey Fletcher of Lone Wolf, Oklahoma, May 16.

Firemen's Team Places At Firemen's Meeting

The pumper team from Wellington Volunteer Fire Department placed third in the contests held during the Panhandle Firemen and Fire Marshalls Association Convention Saturday, May 17, in Amarillo.

Team members were Jim Sikes, David Peters, Buster Hughs, L.V. Dunn, John Green and Lonnie Driver.

Representing the Wellington Auxiliary were Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Driver.

First place went to Spur and second to Boys Ranch. Wellington and Spur teams then donated their prize money to Boys Ranch.

The convention speaker was Chief Henry D. Smith, Texas Firemen's Training School, Texas A&M University, who has worked with the Wellington department.

Mr. Peters served on the memorial committee, Mr. Hughs on the by-laws committee and Mr. Sikes was sergeant at arms.

During the business meeting Bill Barrett, Zone 3, was elected president succeeding Roland Black of Canyon. Mr. Barrett was first vice president of the Panhandle organization and is presently fourth vice president of the Texas Firemen and Fire Marshalls Association.

REFUGEES & RECESSION

Between 130,000 and 150,000 Vietnam refugees have entered the U.S. in the past several weeks. The big question is where will 30,000 refugee heads of families find jobs when there are 8,400,000 unemployed Americans?

The majority of the refugees are middle class, including a number of professionals. This lessens the problem somewhat because the relatively few unskilled refugees can be scattered across the country in low-level service jobs, such as janitorial, domestic and hospital work, jobs that the unemployed can reject and still receive unemployment compensation.

The most commendable expression of welcome to the refugees came from George Meany, an outspoken labor leader who said that despite a 9% unemployment rate, this country should be able to find jobs for another 30,000. What many Americans do not realize is that this country admits 400,000 legal immigrants every year and this 30,000 person bulge is only a special situation. The 150,000 refugees represent a pretty sizeable hunk of spending power, too.

Thus far, few of the refugees have had any trouble finding work. The majority are doctors, bankers, shopkeepers and businessmen. There are quite a few women and children but very few peasant, worker-class persons.

The primary problem is convincing the unemployed Americans that they aren't being ignored or pushed aside in order to give jobs to refugees. The government is following the policy of not placing refugees with companies where workers are laid off. But even that policy may not avoid violation of the 1964 Civil Rights Act which prohibits discrimination in hiring on the basis of national origin.

Even if outright hostility disappears in time, resentment will remain for many months and possibly years.

Services Held At Memphis for Ed Wilson, 77

Edwin Trenton (Ed) Wilson, 77, member of a pioneer area ranching family, died Friday, May 16, in Harmon Memorial Hospital, Hollis.

The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jody Jay Wilson, he was born at Corsicana, but as a child lived on the Wilson Ranch west of Quail. He had made his home in Memphis since 1912.

He was a retired rancher and member of First Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at First Baptist Church, Memphis, with the Rev. C.H. Murphy, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery at Memphis.

Mr. Wilson is survived by one brother, Tom Wilson, who lives on the ranch at Quail.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Mrs. Earl Allen, who also lived on part of the family ranch, and a brother, Judge Frank Wilson of Dallas.

Attending the funeral from here were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Lacy and Mr. and Mrs. Don Tarver.

Joining them were Mrs. John Bransford of Shreveport, La., and Col. and Mrs. Fred Barnes of Altus, Okla., and Walter Barnes of Lubbock.

VA Housing Now Easier

The Veterans Administration today reminded married veterans that it is easier than ever before to qualify for housing assistance.

Jack Coker, VA Regional Director, noted the agency now accords full recognition to incomes and expenses of both veteran and spouse in determining ability to repay loan obligations.

Coker said VA is required by law to determine if contemplated terms of repayment bear a proper relation to the veteran's anticipated income and expenses before approving the loan.

"But while the spouse's income has always been considered," Coker explained, "local rules sometimes had the effect of discounting the spouse's income. Now, however, no such local rules are imposed, and the spouse's income is given full consideration."

VA guarantees 60 percent of GI loans (maximum $17,500) private lenders make to military service personnel, veterans and eligible spouses of World War II, Korean and post-Korean Conflicts and the Vietnam-era.

Martin Seed and Dodson Co-op League Winners

Martin Seed slow-pitch softball team defeated the Skyrockets 17-5 Tuesday, May 13, in a make-up game that was postponed because of rain.

On Friday, May 16, First Baptist Church lost to Dodson Co-op in a well-played game. Dodson led 8-7 in the top of the 7th but rallied to widen the margin and go on to win 21-10.

In the second game, Lee's Grocery was plagued by errors and Martin Seed won 10-3.

"Attendance was good and we certainly appreciate the people who didn't forget the donation boxes as they left the game," said Tony Stephens, league president.

With the outgoing president, Mrs. Elmer Keller, presiding, members voted the improvement of Elementary School playground as the long-term project. As this will be a big project, members also voted to undertake more money-raising projects than in the past.

Ruel Alexander On Lumbermen's Executive Board

Kerry G. Merritt of Austin is President of the statewide organization.

A micro-wave oven will be sold as a money-raising project early in the 1975-76 school year, with the drive coming to a climax at the carnival. The City State Bank and Wellington State Banks have made donations already in this project.

It was brought out that much can be done this summer toward solving the playground drainage problem.

Hospital Is Accredited, But Improvement Urged

The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals has awarded Collingsworth General Hospital a one-year accreditation. Dr. John D. Porterfield, director, has notified Garner Altom, administrator.

A report to Mr. Altom, Dr. Carter Holcomb and C.T. Hubbard, chairman of the hospital board, said in part:

"The Joint Commission considers accreditation maintenance as an ongoing educational activity, to be carried on throughout the one-year period. The Commission commends the work that you have done thus far toward achieving accreditation, but recognizes that one-year accreditation indicates that some specific areas deserve special attention."

"For that reason, the Joint Commission has prepared a list of recommendations and comments based on what it believes to be the areas in need of improvement. These recommendations might be considered your educational objectives in regard to accreditation, and should be put into effect before the next visit by Joint Commission surveyors."

"We believe that you, your hospital and staff and medical staff have the sincere desire to deliver the best care and service possible. It is with this belief in mind that we encourage you to continue your efforts to improve the quality of patient care rendered in your hospital."

Under the Recommendations and Comments there were some two or three in each of the following categories: Governing Body and Management; Medical Staff; Nursing Services;

Anesthesia Services; Emergency Services; Medical Record Services; Pharmaceutical Services and Social Services, dealing mostly with internal paper work, and suggestions for up-grading policies and procedures, Mr. Altom stated.

His explanation continued: "Major Factor Affecting The Accreditation Rating is multiple environmental defi-

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has been officially recognized and endorsed by governmental leaders since 1922; and

WHEREAS: V.F.W. Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fund-raising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans, and ciencies (those having to do with building, construction, fire separations, fire alarm system tied into sprinkler system and smoke censoring system, enclosing present stairway, wired glass vision panels smaller and set in approved steel frames, floor coverings should be flame retardant as well as all interior finish of rooms and halls) along with many other minor named deficiencies. Most of these deficiencies were brought on due to Public Law 92-603 which was passed last year by our congress and included imposing on all health care facilities National Fire Protection Association No. 101 Life Safety Code of 1967.

"Prior to the passing of this legislation, older facilities such as ours were exempt or waived in many areas because they were constructed before Licensing Standards and before Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals.

"Since the passage of PL 92-603 our Texas Department of Health Licensing Division and Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals have no choice but to bring us into compliance with Life Safety Code 101 of 1967 regardless of the date of construction, or the expense involved in bringing about compliance.

"Our area residents will recall from published articles in this newspaper since March 1, 1972, that the management and board of Collingsworth General Hospital have been working on and completed many deficiencies that were listed three years ago and have on the drawing board and tentative approval from Texas State Department of Health for the rehabilitation of many of the areas listed in these comments and suggestions.

"Since February 14, 1975, the date of the survey, sprinkler heads have been added to the system in the areas suggested. Solid Core fire rated doors are on order to replace 15 patient room hollow core doors and the architect is working on new drawings to submit for the enclosing of the stair well and the smoke door and fire alarm system.

"So, as you visit your hospital, don't be surprised at what you may find torn up or torn out or in a state of repair. The hospital employees, the board and the architect will be making every effort to bring into compliance the deficiencies and suggestions listed and will have accomplished or implemented them by next survey. Please bear with us and give us your usual fine spirit of community cooperation."

as record players. PTO members would be asked to contribute one book of savings stamps each next fall. These will be used to provide the teachers with as many needed items as possible.

Mrs. Bartlett, co-chairman for the 1974-75 carnival, made note of the many parents who helped make that event a success, then reported on the money which each game and food concession brought in.

The treasurer, Mrs. John Birkey, reported that approximately $1,000 profit was made from the 1974-75 carnival.

BETTY LANETTE BURBA

Valedictorian of the 1975 graduating class is Betty Lanette Burba, who has attended only Wellington Schools.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Burba, 1301 El Paso, she was born at Pampa June 30, 1957.

She has a seemingly inexhaustible source of energy and probably no senior has so long a list of achievements.

Betty was an officer in the junior and senior chapters of FHA, president of the freshman class, vice president of the juniors, in Beta Club four years and played in the Powder Puff football game.

Talented in music, she was in That Skyrocket Band four years, was secretary-treasurer and vice president, and qualified for All Region Band three years. This year she was Band Sweetheart and received the coveted Arion Award.

She also was on the school newspaper staff and was chosen Most Intellectual in WHS and Most Talented.

There are more honors: she received the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award, was named to Who's Who in American High Schools two years.

This year she was Kiwanis Club Sweetheart, attended Bluebonnet Girls State in 1974, is pianist for First Baptist Church Youth Choir and on the Baptist Youth Council.

Bookkeeping is her favorite subject, while sewing and reading are her hobbies.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nall, 1606 Graham Street, he was born July 21, 1957 at Matador. He moved to Wellington when he was young enough that all of his education has been here.

His outstanding performance on the Skyrocket football team won for him the award as Outstanding Lineman. He played four years, was an all-district choice of lineman, second team, and running back, and this year was captain. He belonged to the Rodeo Club three years.

Jim Bob was on the student council three years and in Beta Club four. A four year member of FFA, he was on its mechanics team. He was also on the golf team and in the one-act play. He was the Mr. of Mr. and Miss WHS.

One of the outstanding 4-H members of the county, he also was in it's Horse Club and represented the county several times at the District and State Horse Shows.

Texas History is Jim Bob's favorite study and his hobbies are skiing and golf.

Her hobbies are crocheting and playing volleyball.

Janie plans to attend college, but she is not sure which it will be.

JOE PORTER

Beyond doubt, there is a flair for drama in Joe Porter's life, and probably no other WHS student in several years has received more honors than he.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Porter, 1202 Haskell Street, he was born in Wellington December 19, 1956, and has attended only Wellington Schools.

This year, Joe was in the cast of the one-act-play that placed first in District 2-A. He was then chosen best actor in the district and named to the all-star cast. This play was chosen alternate to regional ULL.

County-Wide CLEAN-UP

Residential and Business Areas During This Time

May 26 thru May 30

Fix-Up! Paint-Up! Clean-Up!

DURING THIS TIME residents are encouraged to clean up premises of trash, rubbish and refuse, and put in the alley for pick up by City Trucks.

Free Pick Up Tuesday, May 27

TUESDAY, MAY 27 the City Trucks will begin the Annual Free Pick Up and continue through all alleys until the entire city is covered.

PROPERTY IN THE ALLEY THAT IS NOT TO BE HAULED AWAY . . .

Residents having property or articles in the alley that they do not wish hauled off are requested to remove these from the alley and place on their premises. The City of Wellington cannot be responsible for any articles hauled off by mistake.

Vacant Lots

VACANT LOTS . . . Owners or lessees of vacant lots are required to remove trash, refuse, garbage and rubbish at their own expense, and to keep weeds under control throughout the season for protection against mosquito breeding and harboring places. . . .

However, it has long been a practice of the City to keep vacant lots mowed, where owners would keep them clean and mowable, and will continue this program.

Dead Trees and Heavy Junk, Thur. May 29

THURSDAY, MAY 29 . . . County and City equipment and community volunteers will cooperate in one great day of disposing of dead trees, excessive junk that requires front-end loader and dump trucks. If you have dead trees or extra heavy items to be removed, call the Chamber office. . .

This applies to any established community in Collingsworth County. Trees which could fall on utility lines or houses cannot be handled. This would be the owner's responsibility to get the items in shape to be hauled off.

Highway & FM Roads

IMPRESSIONS OF OUR COMMUNITY ARE FORMED along Highway 83, 8th Street, 9th Street, and FM Roads 338 and 1035 . . .

New paving along First Street and Highway 83 will improve the looks of our community, but new paving alone won't make our area sparkle. We would encourage you to help us do even a better job than we are doing in keeping these areas in their "Sunday-Go-to-Meeting" dress-up clothes. Most of us like to be liked. Let's all work together to make people want to like our town even though it might only be a fleeting glance as they pass through . . .

Bushland Field Tour Includes Wheat Breeding

BUSHLAND-- Wheat breeding and production research will be featured at a field tour for interested farmers and agribusiness people on Thursday, May 29, 1975 at the USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland. Dr. Paul Unger, Acting Center Director, states that the tour will begin at 1:00 p.m. and is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Agricultural Research Service, Soil Water and Air Sciences, and Texas Wheat Producers Association.

Observation of commercial and experimental wheat varieties in both dryland and irrigated nurseries will be the high point of the tour according to Dr. K.B. Porter, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station wheat breeder. Previous research at Bushland has produced Tascosa, Sturdy, Caprock, TAM W-101, and TAM W-103, widely grown wheat varieties in the Southern Great Plains. Some of the experimental lines in the 1975 irrigated nursery yielded more than 90 bushels per acre in 1973 trials where varieties Scout & Centurk yielded 76 & 78 bushels per acre. These new lines were developed by crossing Centurk and Scout with other commercial varieties.

Research plots with wheat streak mosaic, tansy mustard control, hybrid wheat, greenbug resistance, wheat rye crosses, and triticale will also be on the tour route. Limited tillage farming of winter wheat and sorghum, and cultural practices for producing sunflowers will be discussed. Finally forage production experiments and alfalfa varieties will be observed.

Mrs. O.M. Ball left Sunday, May 11, to spend the month with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ball of Lompoc, California. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Leach took her to Amarillo to board the plane.

Volunteers Train For Work With Welfare Clients

Training prospective Care Corps volunteers to work with welfare clients as a neighbor and friend was covered in a workshop here Thursday, May 15. Those attending were principally from churches and clubs of the town.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Nova Purdy, regional coordinator for volunteer services, Region 1, State Department of Public Welfare.

Volunteers will give instruction in such things as home management, child care and budgeting.

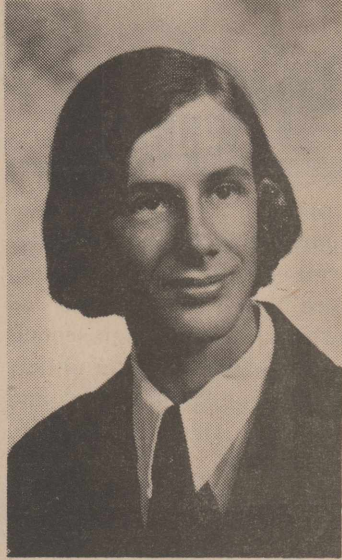

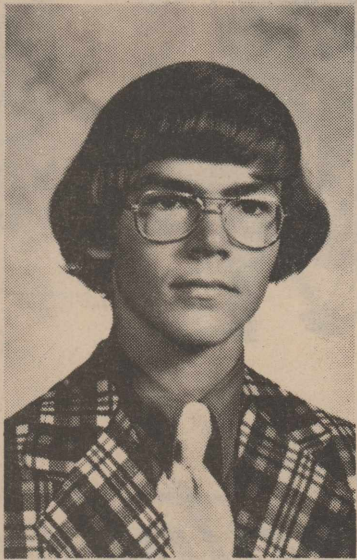

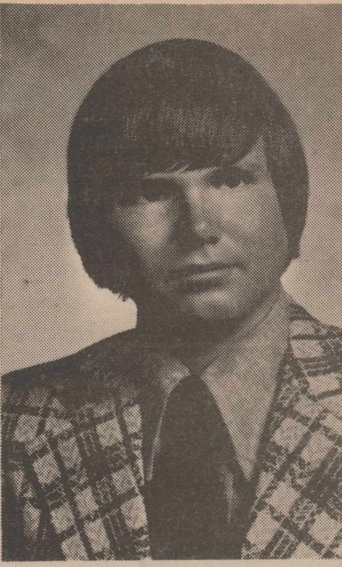

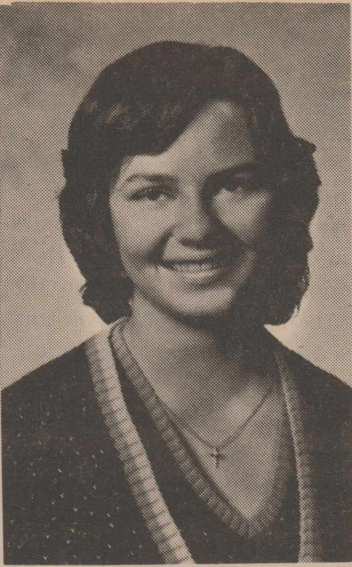

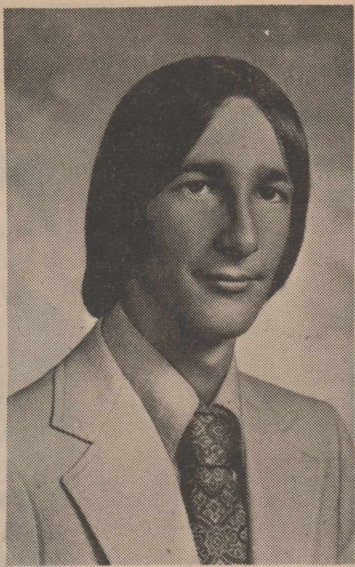

"WE THINK VOLUNTEERS CAN MOTIVATE THEM TOWARD SELF HELP," SAID Mrs. Purdy.

"I think the middle class volunteer will come to some understanding of what the problems of poverty are.

"I see retired teachers and other retired persons who can give tutoring to children," she continued.

Volunteers will work with all age groups.

Mrs. Purdy said before work begins, the volunteer and client will be matched.

One of the valued members of the senior class (and throughout school, in fact) has been Becky Seitz.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Seitz, 705 Floydada St., and was born December 31, 1956, at Shamrock.

STEVEN RAY EMMERT

Few students have displayed so wide a range of interests through high school as Steven Ray Emmert, nor have most in the class received as many honors.

He is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Ervin Emmert, 1008 Amarillo Street, and was born at Pauls Valley, Oklahoma, June 13, 1957. His father is pastor of the Church of the Nazarene.

Steve attended elementary school in Shamrock, then went to Elkhart, Kansas, schools. He came here in 1973.

He played in bands four years, was president of That Skyrocket Band this year and sergeant-at-arms last year. He was on the Student Council a year, was in the cast of this year's District 2-A winning one-act play and received honorable mention for the district all-star cast, and he was in the junior class play.

He played football three years, and this year was a co-captain.

Many honors have come to Steve. Classmates named him Band Beau, senior class reporter, class favorite, the student most likely to succeed, and most dependable.

Chemistry and bookkeeping are his favorite subjects, while golf and water skiing are his hobbies.

Steve will attend Amarillo College.

Geney says speech is her favorite study. She plans to attend West Texas State University next year.

No Handicap in the Hard Work Ahead for Graduates of 1975

The 43 young men and women graduating this spring from the three county high schools have the congratulations and best wishes of their communities.

It is most likely this class, and those for some years to come, will have to work harder and have less choice of employment than those for recent years. This is no handicap in the least.

They are leaving high school well prepared for college, additional technical training or immediately getting a job. They will be called on for more of their ingenuity, greater use of their resources, and again, more hard work, than classes of the immediate past.

Yet in looking back at the distinguished graduates of our high schools, and they are many, these are the very qualities that exercised to a high degree at every step of their careers, that has brought them achievement. They got their background in Collingsworth Schools.

Another facet to be noted is the urgency with which many of these people are seeing the problems of their communities and the need for leadership. Look at the way our young men and women are taking hold of these, at home and in the other communities they have chosen.

Beyond all doubt, the class of 1975 will do as much. Their background and education to this point turn them in that direction.

Other Editors Say . . .

Bob Wills comes home to Tulsa

They buried Bob Wills up at Tulsa last week. That news doesn't strike much of a chord with today's rock fans, but it represents the passing of the man who once reigned as king of country music across rural America.

Wills, 70, died in a Fort Worth rest home last Tuesday. The man who developed western swing music and sold 20 million records was eulogized at a church in Tulsa, his home town. The mourners included many of the original members of Wills' band, "The Texas Playboys."

Wills' classics, including "Faded Love," "Maiden's Prayer," and "San Antonio Rose," were played by a quartet of guitarist Eldon Shamblin and fiddlers Johnny Gimble, Curly Lewis, and Keith Coleman.

Ernest Tubbs, a pioneer country singer whose career skyrocketed during the 1940s when Wills' name was a household word, was present along with Tulsa broadcast personalities and reporters from National Inquirer, Newsweek magazine, Rolling Stone magazine and Dallas, Houston and Kansas City newspapers.

Former Oklahoma Rep. Glen McSpadden delivered the eulogy, recalling childhood memories of Wills' noon broadcasts from Cain's Ballroom in Tulsa.

McSpadden talked of the recent revival in Wills' popularity, citing Wills' last album recorded in 1973 titled, "Bob Wills and His Texas Playboys — For the Last Time."

During the recording session Wills suffered a stroke that put him back in the Fort Worth nursing home where he spent his final days in and out of a coma.

Bob Wills made people happy. He made music to move to, music to make cares lighter, to make the load easier to bear.

Another extinct species?

Passenger railroad service began in the United States in the early 1830s, when the "Best Friend of Charleston" huffed and puffed onto the stage of history. Within 75 years, it was a small hamlet indeed that could not be reached by rail.

Such is the sad state of decay into which the passenger train has fallen since then, however, that today, nearly a century and a half later, a publisher of travel books has found it necessary to answer such questions as, "What is it like to travel by rail?" "How do you make reservations?" "What is a roomette?" "What is a lounge car?"

The questions are answered in "Baxter's USA Train Travel Guide," subtitled, "How to Travel by Train and See the USA and Canada," which is available at major bookstores.

For the person who has seen pictures of railroad trains and has always been curious about them or the person who has heard of Amtrak but has not been quite sure just what it was or whether it really existed, and for the adventurous in spirit (or the gasoline-poor), Baxter's guide may be just the ticket.

AUSTIN — Legislators are moving slowly toward adoption of a scaled-to-income school finance bill, their No. 1 priority item in closing weeks of their 1975 session.

The House, on the third day of trying, finally reached narrow agreement on a $721 million version of education finance overhaul.

Under terms of the bill, now before the Senate, school teachers would draw a starting pay of $8,000 a year.

House Speaker Bill Clayton, who engineered the House bill after representatives seemed bent on running the cost up to nearly $2 billion, termed the product a "responsible compromise."

However, it far exceeded the $500 million to $600 million then expected to be available for additional school spending.

Comptroller Bob Bullock was expected to send in a revised revenue forecast any day which could make it possible to spend as much on schools as contemplated by the House without additional taxation.

Test votes in both the House and in Senate subcommittee have gone against Gov. Dolph Briscoe's so-called weighted-pupil approach to distributing state school aid.

Indications are the bill finally agreed on in conference committee will follow pretty closely present formulas for state education spending, and critics claim there isn't enough money to do an adequate job of equalizing opportunities.

Budgets Drawn

The battle of the budget has shifted to the House.

Senators moved out first with a unanimous approving vote on a record $12.1 billion appropriations act for 1976-77. The bill called for $3.44 billion in general revenue spending, and left $493.3 million in anticipated income unspent.

The House bill was $101 million below the Senate general revenue outlay level — both, obviously, leaving far less money on the table than needed to cover a $721 million school finance bill.

A conference committee will draw the final version of the budget — which will be somewhere between the House and Senate figures.

Bills Advanced

Three bills designed to curb rising cost of medical malpractice insurance, which has led to doctor strikes in California, were passed by the Senate amid heated debate.

One of the bills provides for a malpractice pool to guarantee coverage for doctors and hospitals who cannot buy policies on the open market. Another sets up a system of rate filings with the State Insurance board. The third fixes limits of $500,000 on recovery for malpractice, not including actual medical bills.

State Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie expressed sharp displeasure over some of the measures.

Courts Speak

Texas courts have no authority to block a $45 million Southwestern Bell Telephone Company intrastate rate increase, the Third Court of Civil Appeals held.

The Supreme Court upheld a lower court finding against a widow who challenged her late husband's will on grounds that he was drinking heavily at the time he signed it.

AG Opinions

Public school teachers "unemployed" during summer months are eligible for special federal unemployment assistance benefits when they are seeking work, Atty Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

A sheriff may not permit a defendant to serve his time during off-work hours and on weekends.

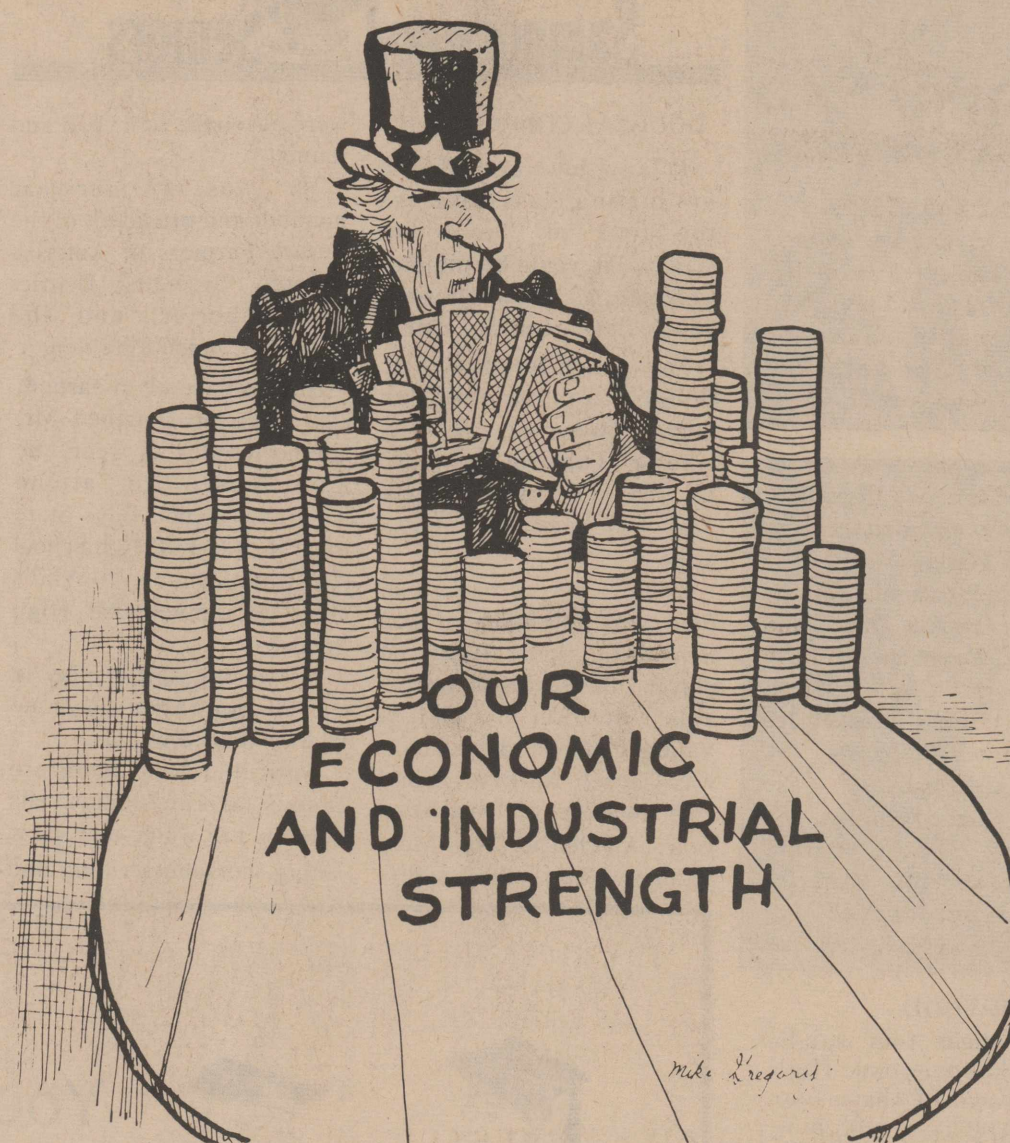

A county commissioners court may not contract with the county and district retirement system for annual payment of tax money to be credited to prior service.

The open records act generally does not require a city to analyze, summarize or evaluate information in response to questions.

More Federal Controls

Federal authority to regulate the disposal of dredged or fill material in the waters of the United States will be greatly expanded under proposed regulations published in the Federal Register and would include practically all lakes, streams and rivers in the U. S.

Still in the Game

Under some of the proposed regulations, Federal permits may be required by the rancher who wants to enlarge his stock pond, or the farmer who wants to deepen an irrigation ditch or plow a field.

The U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia has ordered that the current U.S. Army Engineer regulations be revised and expanded to include the "waters of the U. S." The Corps of Engineers previously confined its permit activities to "navigable waters of the U. S."

All comments or suggestions on the proposed regulations received in writing by the Office of the Chief of Engineers, Dept. of the Army, ATTN: DAEN-CWO-N, Washington D. C. 20314, on or before June 6 will be considered before publication of the final regulations.

Short Snorts

Don B. Odum resigned as Texas Insurance Commissioner, one of state government's top regulatory jobs.

Texas Bureau of Business Research at The University of Texas sees signs of an economic revival just around the corner.

Local and regional chambers of commerce have been called on by the Governor to coordinate the new Texas First program to generate 4,000 new jobs in the next year.

Legislation to encourage development of geothermal energy resources has been sent to the Governor.

The 1976 presidential preference primary bill also has been finally passed and awaits signature.

Drought in the High Plains may cut winter wheat to 137.5 million bushels, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

Smoking in public places will bring fines up to $200 if the Governor approves a bill sent to his desk last week.

Short Takes

It Was Accidental

Bermuda, Britain's oldest remaining colony, was founded by accident. When the sailing vessel Sea Venture, bound from England to Virginia, sank off Bermuda in 1609, her survivors settled on the island.

Business Success

President Warren G. Harding established himself as a business success with the Marion (Ohio) Star, which he and a partner purchased for $300 in 1884.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Dear Deck,

In observance of National Hospital Week I'd like to tell you and your readers how very fortunate this area is to have two great and wonderful facilities that especially need recognition. Due to the serious illness of Mother during the last six weeks I have spent considerable time in both the Thomas Nursing Center and Collingsworth General Hospital, and they are both great. They are staffed with some of the most gracious and compassionate people anywhere. Compassion for the aged and ill must be the most essential virtue of them all. You will find in these centers you are a human being instead of a number at the chart desk; and that race, creed and color does not matter. They are dedicated people to a dedicated cause - one to alleviate suffering of the body. All because they care. I am grateful for their care to Mother, but I am also glad to be a part of a community who has an abundance of love.

Thanking you, I am

Betty Welch Retiring From Teaching Career

After teaching 38 years in Texas Schools, Mrs. Betty Welch, 5701 Hanson Drive, Ft. Worth, has resigned from the Birdville School System to take early retirement.

Twenty-two of her teaching years were spent in Collingsworth County Schools. She began teaching at the age of 18 in Wise County.

Her present plans, says Mrs. Welch, are to enjoy some leisure time and do some traveling.

"At present I have a Holy Land tour scheduled to begin December 27. I also hope to see some of the eastern part of our country, having already seen much of the west, including Washington, Beautiful Oregon, California and Las Vegas."

Concerning her 22 years here, Mrs. Welch added:

"The only grades I failed to teach in Wellington were third and ninth grades."

She served as president of the Wellington Classroom Teachers Association three years.

Since going to Birdville seven years ago, she has been president of the Birdville Classroom Teachers, 1,200 strong, and spent 6 years on District XI Texas

State Teachers Association Executive Board.

Over the years she has taught all grades, first through twelfth for more than one year each.

"I have taught in one room schools to the air-conditioned, carpeted, open concept as team leader," she recalled.

"At a recent gathering of former Wellington people, there were 12 of my former students, ranging from the first year I taught in the system, 1945, to the last year, 1967-68. One of my former English students, LaVelle Harper Mills, is teaching business in the high school of my home town, Decatur. Visiting with La Velle recently, she was telling me that a group of her FBLA students were going to the national FBLA convention. It is very rewarding to see them and hear them relate their successes.

As a retired person, I plan to coordinate an Acteen group in one of our churches, do some painting and as I said, travel some."

Mrs. Welch's son, Charlie Welch, who is with Bates Container, comes through Wellington every other week and often stops to visit with the T.W. Devenports and with friends.

The OPEC nations are doing their best to hold up the price of oil, but sharply falling demand for oil among the consuming nations is forcing the big oil producing countries to figure out ways to boost sales without outright price cutting. Some of the countries are turning to barter in a desperate attempt to hold up sales because any sharp drop in oil sales jeopardizes the ambitious economic development programs of many of the oil producing nations.

By bartering for crude oil an oil producing country can maintain the formal price structure while selling its oil for less at the same time. To do this the producing country swaps oil at the official price. But the companies who take oil in barter trades for industrial equipment will have to unload the oil at the best price around at discounts through oil traders. They will obviously lose money on the sale, so they mark up the price of their goods by enough to cover their losses.

Algeria is shopping for trucks and heavy machinery, and is trying to swap between 1 1/2 million and 2 million tons of crude (worth about $150 million) for heavy trucks and a truck assembly plant. Algerian crude is already being offered by European brokers on behalf of manufacturers. Canada's Massey-Ferguson is offering 100,000 tons. Mitsubishi is trying to sell another 100,000 tons. Altogether, industry experts estimate that Algeria has as much as 7 million tons of crude to barter.

Crude oil prices are slipping slightly as some state owned oil companies, such as Spain's Hispanoil are getting price concessions from Middle East suppliers for large orders. Industry experts doubt that widespread price cutting will appear. The 7 million tons of Algerian crude is a small amount compared to the 27 million barrels per day exported by the OPEC nations as a group.

There is a question as to whether the Algerians will go through with their barter deals because if they did swap large quantities of crude to manufacturers, their present oil customers would desert them to buy oil at bargain prices from the heavy equipment suppliers.
