Braves Even Series Count

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves defeated the New York Yankees 4-2 in the second game of the World Series today before 65,202 spectators and squared the series at one victory each. A two run fourth inning broke a 2-2 tie and sent Yankee pitcher Bobby Shantz to cover.

Milwaukee pitcher Lew Burdette limited the Yanks, 3-1 winners of the first game, to seven hits, including a game-tying homer by Hank Bauer.

Bauer's wallop into the lower left field stands in the third inning made the score 2-2 after the Braves' Johnny Logan had hit a homer in the first half of the inning.

Three straight hits and a costly error by Tony Kubek at third gave Milwaukee the deciding runs in the fourth and ended Shantz's hopes for a World Series victory.

Art Ditmar pitched good relief ball for the Yanks until removed for a pinch hitter in the seventh. Bob Grim finished.

The third game will be played in Milwaukee Saturday, starting at 1 p.m. Central Standard Time.

SPOT MUSE

THE FLUVANNA SCHOOLS have started using new cafeteria and homemaking facilities provided in a new building which was under construction during the summer. The building was not quite complete when school opened, and the old facilities were used. The new lunchroom will seat more than 100, or about three times what the old lunchroom, which was really a classroom, would seat. There is still some equipment to be installed in the lunchroom, and there is also some equipment lacking in the homemaking area, but things are going well.

OUR WEATHER is still running hot and cold. The mercury zoomed up to 95 degrees yesterday, a respectable reading for any summer day. That's good for the cotton hereabout — makes the bolls pop open. The nights are a different story. It was down to 50 degrees again last evening — good for sleeping.

Enrollment Here Hiked To 3,938

The Snyder schools had 303 more students enrolled at the end of the fourth week of school this year than at the same time last year, according to a report made to the school board this week by M. E. Stanfield, assistant superintendent.

Last week was the fourth week of school. On Friday, enrollment stood at 3,938 students, compared to 3,635 at the same time last year.

Enrollment figures stand at 849 for high school, 561 for junior high, 457 for East Elementary, 319 for North Elementary, 779 for West Elementary, 547 for Central Elementary, 339 for Northeast Elementary, and 95 for the Lincoln School.

By grades, enrollments are 171 seniors, 174 juniors, 246 sophomores, 258 freshman, 268 in the eighth grade, 285 in the seventh, 295 in the sixth, 383 in the fifth, 389 in the fourth, 405 in the third, 442 in the second, and 513 in the first. There are eight in the class for exceptional children.

Lincoln School has four seniors, three juniors, 10 sophomores, five freshmen, eight in the eighth, eight in the seventh, 12 in the sixth, six in the fifth, 10 in the fourth, nine in the third, six in the second and 14 in the first.

Knowland Throws Hat In Race For Governor Of California

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Sen. William F. Knowland officially entered the race for the California governorship today.

The Senate minority leader told a crowded news conference of his decision—long expected—to oppose Gov. Goodwin J. Knight for the Republican nomination in the state's primary next June 3.

Knowland, his usually booming voice subdued, read a statement which replied to Knight's previous assertions that the California senator sought the governorship as a buildup for the 1960 Republican presidential race.

President Eisenhower's name was brought into the campaign yesterday when Knowland released a "Dear Bill" letter praising the Californian for "stalwart leadership" of the Republican minority during the last session of Congress.

Knowland offered the letter, dated Sept. 11, in answer to Knight's assertion that "it is generally known throughout the country that the senator on many occasions has opposed the President, particularly in the field of foreign relations."

Knowland, who has differed with the administration notably on China policy, told a Vallejo news conference that figures compiled in Washington show he voted 93 per cent in support of the President. He accused Knight of trying to create a false issue.

The govenor also viewed his prospective contest with Knowland as a showdown between the reactionary and progressive wings of the party.

Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown, only Democrat holding statewide office, has all but agreed to be his party's gubernatorial candidate.

The Democrats have elected only one governor in 64 years — in 1938.

All the early maneuvering looks ahead to a primary that will eliminate one of the three principals involved in a continuing struggle for state GOP control.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Health Department's Bureau of Chronic Diseases has started a five-year survey to find out what part smog plays in causing lung cancer.

EFFIGY STRUNG UP

Little Rock Students Walk Out

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Some 75 white students walked out of Central High School today and a Negro dummy was hung in effigy in an effort to incite a mass protest against racial integration at the school.

The white boys and girls left minutes after the 9 a.m. bell.

A boy climbed a tree and hung a crude Negro dummy in effigy before federalized Arkansas National Guardsmen, stationed outside the school, hurried over to disperse a gathering crowd.

Sixty guardsmen, rifles across their chests, advanced on the milling, shouting students who slowly gave ground.

Threats of an organized mass walkout had been circulated at the school since troop - enforced integration began there nine days ago. But like today's, they met with little success.

At his news conference today Gov. Orval Faubus said he had given President Eisenhower "unequivocal" assurance that he would maintain order and not obstruct integration if the president withdrew federal troops and returned the Arkansas National Guard to Faubus' control.

The President earlier today had said an "unequivocal" assurance would be the basis for withdrawal of the federal troops.

Eisenhower described Faubus as a mistaken man doing disservice to his city and state. The Arkansas governor made no reply to this.

The white boys and girls began straggling from the main entrance of the building within moments after the 9 a.m. change-of-classes bell rang.

They walked quietly across the campus and massed on the curbing across from the building.

There they called to other students peering from the windows and doorways to join them.

"Come on, you chickens," the demonstrating students shouted.

"Dirty chickens," they yelled.

The students reportedly had been threatened with suspension if they took part in the demonstration. One brunette girl ran from the building and joined the demonstrating group. Almost in tears, she said:

"I couldn't get anyone else. They won't come out. I am so ashamed I could scream."

Another girl said many of her fellow students assured her, "We'll go. We'll go." But then they refused to walk out on the signal.

The first student demonstrator out of the school identified himself as Bill Davis, an 18-year-old senior.

Some of the demonstrating girls said the presence of the principal, standing inside the main entrance, discouraged many of the white students from leaving.

The same girls said their own parents had supported their plan to join the walkout.

The teen-agers said their parents had told them that if enough joined the walkout it would be impossible to discipline them. They conceded the demonstration was a failure and that they probably would be punished.

After the students left school a boy climbed a tree and hung a Negro in effigy and ran as guardsmen hurried over to disperse the crowd gathered around the crude dummy.

Most of the white students who walked out gathered across the street and about 60 Guardsmen started moving them from the area.

The Guardsmen, with rifles across their chests, advanced slowly down the street moving the students to the end of the block.

As the soldiers advanced one boy set fire to the straw-filled dummy and threw it in the path of the Guardsmen. The troops kept after the demonstrators and later moved them a block away from the school area.

Earlier 30 Guardsmen, forming a solid military box, escorted eight Negro students into school through ranks of hooting, jeering white students.

Gov. Faubus Hit By Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower described Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas today as a mistaken man doing a disservice to his city and state. The President also said he sees two avenues of hope for pulling troops out of Little Rock.

In response to news conference questions, Eisenhower said two different situations could justify withdrawal of the troops now being used to enforce racial integration at Little Rock's Central High.

1. The giving of unequivocal assurances that the U. S. District Court integration order will not be obstructed and that peace and order will be maintained.

2. An actual, factual development of peaceful conditions to the extent that local police could control the situation.

Eisenhower noted further that a committee of four Southern governors still is seeking a solution.

The integration-troops issue was the dominating subject at the President's news conference. Only now and then did questions and answers diverge to other subjects.

One reporter asked whether Eisenhower feels that Faubus "really wants to put an end to the problem in Little Rock."

The President said he wouldn't want to answer that as he never tries to interpret motives of persons with whom he disagrees. He said he simply believes that Faubus is mistaken in what he is doing and is doing a disservice to his city and his state.

Eisenhower declined to go beyond the Little Rock crisis to say whether his public pledges to support all measures necessary to uphold the courts meant that he would use troops to enforce integration elsewhere.

He said he didn't want to get into hypothetical questions, and that each case is different.

But Eisenhower said court decisions must be sustained or this is not America.

He also said that no one deplores use of troops more than he does. This, Eisenhower said, is not really American except as it becomes necessary in the support of institutions vital to this country.

The courts, Eisenhower said, are not here just to enforce integration. He said they are the bulwark, the shield against autocratic government.

If they can be defied in one respect, he went on, they can in all others and the result would be chaos or anarchy.

It was 15 minutes before the 30-minute news conference got around to any other topic. Then it covered such subjects as:

TEAMSTERS - Eisenhower said federal agencies were alerted long ago to corruption which has been revealed in the union. He said this was with a view to seeing whether any action could be taken beyond legislative steps already proposed.

He spoke in response to a question as to whether the administration is planning any action as a result of widespread corruption in American life, particularly involving Teamsters and the trucking industry.

Statement By Saudi Arabia Surprises Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today he received a message of warm friendship from King Saud within hours of the time when a representative of the Saudi Arabian King broke with the U. S. policy line on Syria yesterday.

Eisenhower left no doubt that he was surprised and bewildered by the U. N. speech of Saudi Arabian spokesman Ahmad Shukairy. He told his news conference he did not know what particular thing inspired it.

Eisenhower's attitude coincided with suspicions privately expressed at the State Department that Shukairy had distorted Saudi Arabia's real policy.

Eisenhower told questioners he thought the Arab's U. N. speech was correct on one thing—that Middle Eastern affairs should be handled locally and internally.

This presidential view appeared, superficially at least, to be somewhat at variance with Secretary of State Dulles' appeal to the United Nations Sept. 19 to consider and discuss the shipment of Soviet arms to Syria. Shukairy sharply opposed that.

Nevertheless Eisenhower said the United States must continue to watch the Red arms buildup in pro-Soviet Syria with concern, must confer with friendly nations and must see what can be done about the whole situation.

The Shukairy speech was delivered at New York shortly before the State Department announced that Secretary Dulles will meet here late Saturday with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko for a far-ranging discussion of world problems. U. S.-Soviet conflict over the Middle East is due to be the major concern of this meeting.

Eisenhower said he thought the Syrian situation seemed to be solidifying. Apparently he meant it was settling down. He said the original alarm of Arab Syria's Arab neighbors, Lebanon and Iraq had decreased somewhat. He said the alarm which also had been expressed to some extent by Saudi Arabia seems to be quieted.

Airman Electrocuted

LAREDO (AP)—A television antenna being moved by two men from Laredo AFB touched a power line yesterday and killed Airman Kenneth Funk, 21, of Clarksville, W. Va.

TOMORROW'S LEADERS—The Salvation Army is increasing services to youth with the purpose of developing Christian leadership for the future, providing guidance and recreation. Part of these activities is at the Salvation Army Camp Hoblitzelle near Midlothian, a year-round and state-wide camp center where hundreds of boys and girls are given camping opportunities they could not otherwise afford.

Salvation Army Units Grow

The growth during the past few years of the service unit department of the Salvation Army has been its greatest development in Texas for many years.

The Salvation Army, one of the agencies in the program of the Scurry County United Fund, has expanded its service unit department to the present 156 committees serving more than 1,100 Texas communities during the past 10 years.

The service unit committee here is composed of Herbert Feather, chairman, Ford Caperton, Mrs. Vertna Sherrod, Mrs. Raymond Williams, D. D. Warren, Jr., Herman Trigg, the Rev. Jimmie Nelson, the Rev. Robert Owens, and Travis Steele.

This group, like the other service units throughout Texas, serves voluntarily to carry on the welfare program of the Salvation Army locally. There are no paid workers and no local administrative expenses. Members of the local committee make their own decisions on problems presented to them, and are able to meet needs without delay or red tape.

Dan Eddy, state service unit director for the Salvation Army, said the organization's service

About $6,500 Is Raised In Drive

Donations in cash and pledges to the Scurry County United Fund grew to about $6,500 today as the first week of the 1957 campaign neared an end.

Campaign workers are encouraged by contributions but are still hoping for a sharp gain before the week ends. The United Fund goal for the entire campaign is $38,934.

The $6,500 has come from two divisions, advance gifts and general business. Those divisions are still at work but have made reports on a large portion of their prospects. Turned in so far has been $5,657.50 by the advance gifts division and $875 by general business.

Other divisions are to kick-off their drives next week.

Probably more than 100 businesses and individuals have already contributed to the United Fund campaign this year. Some of the cards are still in the hands of workers who have not made reports, while others are being processed in the United Fund office.

Those already registered in the UF receipt books as donors this year are:

Sixth Party Enters Case

A sixth party has filed a motion in 132nd District Court here to vacate a court order in the suit held here last month involving the Maude Donaldson estate.

A hearing is set for 10 a.m. tomorrow in court here.

The case, tried in court last month, was settled by the five parties then involved. There were four wills and a fifth party contesting all the wills at that time, and they reached a settlement. About 12 sections of land, most of it in south Scurry County and part in Lynn County, were involved.

The sixth party is Mrs. W. D. Harrell of Fayetteville, Ark., formerly of Snyder. Representing her is the Snyder firm of Park, Hemphill & Auforth.

Egypt Says Syria Not Threat

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Egypt pledged today it would not "tolerate that even a finger tip of Syria be hurt, or a hair of Syria be ruffled by any aggressor."

At the same time, Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi told the 82-nation U. N. General Assembly that Syria offered no threat to anybody. He called for a cooling-off period on the Middle East situation.

Charges that Syria's arms buildup was a threat, he said, were simply a balloon which already had "exploded and faded into nothingness."

Referring indirectly to assertions that Syria has come under Soviet domination, he said if anyone says Syria is throwing away its independence "that one fools nobody but himself."

Fawzi did not mention specifically that Soviet arms shipments had been sent to Syria. He spoke of arms pouring into Israel and other countries in the past and said: 'All the arm twisting, all the commotion and all the hullabaloo have obviously been reserved for such occasion as Syria's taking a modest step or two to provide for its own defense."

He said it is high time everybody began "using some restraint and a minimum of alarms."

Without mentioning Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and other Western leaders by name, he said he hoped he could make his own voice heard above "the shouting of some busybodies from outside."

The Egyptian foreign minister also spoke at length on the Suez problem.

"The Suez Canal," he said, "is rapidly emerging from the results of last year's tripartite devastation, and showing a serviceability and dynamism under its present administration, consonant with modern times."

U. N. sources said Egypt was openly concerned over Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's remarks on the Middle East early in the Assembly general debate.

Two Are Left In Race With Hoffa

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Thomas L. Hickey of New York today withdrew as a candidate for the Teamster Union presidency in favor of William A. Lee of Chicago.

There were indications, too, that Thomas X. Haggerty, also of Chicago, might pull out to leave Lee as the sole opponent of James R. Hoffa, leading contender for the union's presidency.

Hoffa appeared a sure winner, but his opponents were determined to carry the convention decision for control of the giant scandal-scatted union to a record, rollcall vote.

That would serve the purpose of lining up Hoffa and anti-Hoffa forces against one another for what could shape up as a big secession of the anti-Hoffa forces from the Teamsters.

Election of Hoffa almost certainly means a Teamsters Union ouster from the AFL-CIO, with secession of some Teamsters units back to the AFL-CIO. Hickey, for one, has said he will do just that.

Hickey's withdrawal statement said he has been a candidate against Hoffa because he firmly believes the union owed an obligation to its members to "restore the good name of the Teamsters Union" and keep it within the AFL-CIO.

With voting for new officers scheduled to start this afternoon, and Hoffa an apparent certain winner, the union faced a possible new court challenge of its convention actions because of alleged rigging of delegates.

OIL ROUNDUP

N'West Scurry Venture Staked

A new venture has been staked in northwest Scurry County to test the Glorieta.

The Humble Oil and Refining Co. No. 1 C. W. Guthrie will be a 3,100-foot operation four miles east and slightly south of Fluvanna. The drillsite is 990 feet from the south and west lines of section 457, Block 97, H&TC Survey. The location is a mile and a quarter north of the Revilo area and about the same distance south of the Varel (Glorieta) pool.

FISHER COUNTY

General Crude Oil Co. No. 2 Neel plans to deepen to 7,300 feet following an hour and a half drillstem test at 6,113-73 feet, which returned 60 feet of mud and 2,640 feet of sulphur water. The venture is located in section 211, block 3, H&TC Survey. It is on the west side of the Claytonville Canton reef pool and three quarters of a mile southeast of the recently opened Aiken Ellenburger pool.

HOWARD COUNTY

The Varel (San Andres) field of Howard County has been extended a half mile north with completion of the Russell Maguire No. 1 W. B. Wray. It was completed for a daily potential of 148.98 barrels of 28 gravity oil, with production through perforations between 1,161-71 feet. The location is in section 43, block 33, T2N, T&P Survey, or 11½ miles northwest of Big Spring.

unit committee is set up to meet needs of individuals not covered by any other existing organization. It does not propose to take over the work of any already-established agency but is designed primarily to meet needs on an emergency basis if they are not covered otherwise.

Typical examples here of service rendered by the service unit committee include grocery orders to families to meet emergency needs, giving food and shelter to transients in need, optical and dental care for needy school children, supplementing other forms of aid by supplying medicine, glasses, and other necessary items not otherwise available.

The Salvation Army portion of the local United Fund budget is $8,000. The United Fund campaign is its only local source of income.

The Salvation Army is also widely known for emergency disaster relief, made available wherever needed, such as in emergencies caused by floods, tornados, and other disasters. During the first five months of 1957, the Salvation Army served more than 14,500 hot meals to survivors in disaster areas, gave out 73,000 cups of coffee from mobile canteens, and served more than 32,000 sandwiches and 2,000 dozen doughnuts. More than 5,000 individuals were furnished clothing and several hundred given grocery orders.

All Salvation Army officers are trained in emergency disaster relief. Texas has 12 mobile canteens always equipped and ready to be moved to any disaster area.

The Salvation Army also provides home and hospital care for unwed mothers, rehabilitation of alcholics, summer camping programs for underprivileged children, hospital visitation to sick and aged, prison work and parole supervision, and its widespread Christmas Cheer program.

Catering Firm Is Sued By Los Angeles Bride

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A bride is suing a catering firm for $25,000 damages because the cake and other food didn't arrive at her wedding reception.

Mrs. Joanne Gilden's breach-of-contract suit, taken under consideration by a judge, says this made her wedding day one of "tears and unhappiness and shame and humiliation."

It says 55 guests assembled at Beth Zion Temple last June 1, when she and Raymond Gilden were married, had only champagne and after-dinner mints. Caterers Alfred and Leonard Marks finally were located at a boxing match, the complaint adds.

Loan To Cage Described As Just Routine

AUSTIN (AP)—Dallas banker Meyer Rachofsky testified today that the $200,000 loaned Ben Jack Cage to establish the ICT Insurance Co. was "just ordinary routine business."

Rachofsky, vice president of the Mercantile National Bank, also said the bank loaned about $1,730,000 at various times to the now-defunct ICT firm or its subsidiaries in five years.

The banker was the first witness today as the House Investigating Committee inquired anew into the ICT collapse.

The House group concentrated its questions on the banking and legal assistance given Cage and the 74 corporations he founded.

Rachofsky said the signed financial statements presented by Cage and his father, Jack Cage, were taken "at face value" and the bank made no attempt to verify them.

The bankes said he was correct and accurate in signing an affidavit that the $200,000 deposited to the account of the ICT Insurance Co. When the firm was granted a charter, Cage and his father borrowed the money and were indebted, he said.

He was asked about an agreement that Cage made not to remove the $200,000 from the ICT account except to repay the loan. Rachofsky said the agreement was written by Frank Newman, acting as legal advisor to the bank, but the bank would have had to honor any checks written by ICT officials on the account.

Rachofsky said "to the best of my memory" similar agreements had been made in other loans granted by the bank.

Before the committee hearing began it was announced that Milton Brown, president of the Mercantile National Bank, would appear tomorrow instead of today as originally scheduled.

Also called were Paul Carrington, Newman and Otto Mullinax.

Strike Is Continuing At Lone Star Steel

LONE STAR, Tex. (AP) — The strike at Lone Star Steel continued today as the company claimed new production records.

E. B. Germany, president, said a pipe mill plant broke tonnage records for one shift Friday and again Saturday. He said every department was operating except the cast iron pipe foundry, which diverted workers to other jobs because it had a sizeable inventory.

United Steel Workers attorney Chris Dixie asserted the company had not sought a settlement of the strike in talks conducted by Federal Mediator C. A. Wheeler. Discussions were broken off Tuesday. No further talks were scheduled.

Lone Star said earlier employes who did not return to work last week were fired. Company officials said they are taking some former workers back as new employes.

He'll Keep Flute Mute

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Robert L. Dietrich will have to keep his flute mute at home from now on.

Dietrich, a flutist for the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, was piped into city court yesterday by neighbors who complained that Dietrich practiced three to five hours a day—playing the scale "up and down—never a tune."

Judge James B. McKenna invited Dietrich to blow in his own defense and listened carefully as Dietrich fingered a scale or two.

"That," said the judge, "could drive a person insane."

He found Dietrich guilty of "disturbing the peace, quiet and comfort" of neighbors, suspended a $250 fine and placed him on probation for one year.

Savory Salad Bread

For a delicious accompaniment to tossed green salads, toast French or Italian type bread this way: cut the bread in thick slices then brush each piece with Spanish olive oil (using a pastry brush) and sprinkle with your favorite herbs and garlic salt or garlic powder. Place bread in the oven (350 degrees) until edges are golden brown and crisp, about 10 minutes. Or the bread may be placed under the broiler about 5 minutes. Any leftover bread can be used for croutons, broken into small pieces, add these to soup and the most bland soup will take on new exciting flavor.

Buddhism Report Given At Acacia Study Club

The Acacia Study Club met Wednesday afternoon at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Mrs. Elmer Etgen, hostess.

Refreshments of pie and coffee were served to 18 members and two guests, Mrs. Bob Peacock and Mrs. Wm. A. McClatchy.

Mrs. Bob Dawson gave the current events on "Everything new under the sun".

Mrs. Elmo Weyel presented the program, the first of two on Buddhism. "The history of Buddhism dates back 2,500 years and was one of the greatest civilizing forces the world has ever known, having stimulated the arts and contributed profound ideas to the great Taug Dynasty culture of China in the 7th to 10th centuries and brought civilization to Japan.

"Buddhism is the result of the teachings of Siddhartha Gautama, whose life because a profound example to millions of his fellowmen in the centuries that followed.

"Today it is the dominant religion of Burma, Thailand, Tibet, Cambodia, and Ceylon with 500 million believers. A supreme test for Budahism began in 1949, with the communist victory in China. Buddhism appeared to many westerners to be the sole great positive force round which opposition to communism could be built.

"In 1954, U. Nu, as Prime Minister of Burma, sponsored a meeting of the World Buddhist Council, the first of its kind in 500 years and only the sixth since the death of Buddha. It drew Rungoon over 2,500 monks and thousands of devout Buddhists from all over Asia. U. Nu saw in this meeting a chance to build a Buddhist ideological front in Southeast Asia.

"Two years later, the 2500th anniversary of the birth of Gautama, there were celebrations all over Southeast Asia. One western observer commented: 'In 1956 there will be few things that will touch the lives of more people'. Realists feel this is no time for undue optimism of such an ideological front," Mrs. Davis related.

Following the program the business meeting was held.

Further reports were heard about Cargill Productions, which will be presented in early February, sponsored by the Acacia Study Club, Cosmorama Study Club, and The Athenuem Study Club.

That leftover sliced meat for Sunday-night supper will look attractive if you serve it on a platter surrounded with cauliflowerets, peas, carrots, and green beans. The meat may be heated in a little natural gravy; the vegetables should be cooked separately (or some of them can be canned). Or meat and vegetables may be cold; in that case serve tartar sauce with them.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

BIG SPRING SCRIBE Tommy Hart comes up with this statement regarding the District 3-AAA race:

"Likeable Elwood Turner, who has had his troubles since moving from Albany to Sweetwater, appears to have the material to gain Sweetwater its first district championship since the 1930's. As of this moment, judging from scout reports and performances, one would have to take the Mustangs over Snyder, Lamesa it still a factor for the District 3-AAA crown, however. You may beat O. W. Follis' team on paper but taking their measure on the football field is something else again."

Brer Hart's last statement does not add up.

Lamesa has both Snyder and Sweetwater beat on paper. She has the most returning lettermen and most starters back.

Haven't Forgotten

Local fans will disagree with Hart, too, on the "likeable" tab he placed on Turner. Fans here haven't forgotten Sweetwater's investigations of Tiger ages in 1955 following the Tigers' win over the Mustangs that season.

And then, too, they haven't forgotten that Turner loaned out the film of last year's Tiger-Sweetwater game to the Tigers' bi-dsitrict foe, Graham.

As for the Mustang team itself, everyone does agree the Ponies will be tough. They always are, especially when they play Snyder.

We're not trying to get ahead of ourselves in looking into the future.

The Tigers aren't even concerned with the district race at the moment. There's three games to be played before the district chase starts and the Bengals would like to win all of these and then start thinking about the district race.

The Tigers right now are aiming to get them some Lobo meat, that being from the Levelland Lobos tomorrow night.

Climb Again

The Tigers jumped two notches in the state Triple-A ratings with last Friday's 19-7 win over Big Spring. The UP ratings this week listed the Tigers as the 7th ranking team as compared to 9th last week.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram still has the Tigers in 6th place. The Tigers have been in this spot every week since the season began.

While the Tigers have stayed in the same spot in the Star-Telegram ratings each week, the Bengals have been in a different spot each week in the UP ratings.

In the pre-season ratings, the UP had the Tigers in 8th place. Then the Bengals dropped to 12th when they lost to Borger, 12-7, in the season opener. The Tigers regained the top 10 following week, to 9th, with their 33-0 over Dumas.

And now the Tigers have climbed to 7th by virtue of last week's 19-7 win over Big Spring.

Rated ahead of the Tigers in the UP ratings are Nederland, Breckenridge, Graham, Kilgore, Port Neches and San Antonio Edison, in that order.

There are still some good tickets left to tomorrow's game with Levelland here. Most of the West side seats are gone but there are some choice seats left on the East side.

Yank Odds Boosted To 12-5 As Braves Bow In Opener

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees ruled a solid 12-5 choice to capture the World Series as left-hander Bobby Shantz and Milwaukee right-hander Lew Burdette prepared to take the mound today in what is regarded as the key game.

Should Shantz subdue the Braves, following Whitey Ford's five-hit 3-1 triumph for New York, the Yankees could conceivably sweep the set in four straight. Should the Braves even the series, the outlook is for a knockdown and drag-out seven games.

The Braves were nervous and restrained in the opener. They didn't hit, their fielding wasn't sharp and they didn't play alert, heads-up ball. The Yankees outhit them, outfielded them, outpitched them and outthought them. Yet the Braves weren't exactly outclassed. Certainly the Yankees didn't overpower them. They just did everything a little bit better than the Braves.

Warren Spahn, who was batted out in the sixth inning to suffer the loss, may have sounded the keynote for his team when he remarked in the clubhouse after the game: "The Yankees showed us they were human too. They didn't exactly roll over us. We were in the game all the way."

If Manager Fred Haney was discouraged, he failed to show it.

"We have no excuses," he said. "We got beat, that's all. We had several opportunities, but we just didn't hit enough. The Yankees can be beaten. I'm still confident we'll win."

Haney was banking on Burdette, second only to Spahn during the Braves' stretch run in September. The slender 30-year-old Virginian is an experienced pitcher even though he never before has appeared in a World Series. A 17-game winner, Lew's best pitches are a curve and a slider. He pitches something like Spahn, who gave up seven of the nine Yankee hits before leaving underfire in the Yankees' two-run rally in the sixth.

For Shantz, as well as Burdette, this was series assignment No. 1. The little southpaw, acquired in a trade with Kansas City last February, earned his shot at Milwaukee with an 11-5 record and an earned run average of 2.44, lowest in the majors. The 5-7, 145-pounder also relies on breaking stuff, slow curves, screwballs and knucklers.

Manager Casey Stengel's selection of Shantz was based on the winning effort of Ford, who held the Braves to five hits, only one of which was longer than a single. Casey said had the left-handed Ford been ineffective, he would have come back today with Bob Turley, his strong-armed right-hander.

Ford turned in a neat performance but he has pitched better games in World Series. He issued four passes and was in several trouble spots but remained firm in the clutch. Milwaukee batters swinging at bad pitches and watching good ones go by didn't hurt him either.

In the sixth, Stengel left the dugout to give a few words of advice and encouragement to the compact little left-hander. There were two out and two Braves on base, via walks, with a count of 2-1 on the batter Andy Pafko. The veteran outfielder ran up a full count, fouled off three pitches, then ended the inning by missing a high curve.

Big 10 Dominates NCAA Statistics

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time in the 21 years of the NCAA service bureau, teams from one conference—the Big Ten—dominated all departments of offense and defense, as well as kicking after last Saturday's games.

Although Big Ten clubs divided their openers, the NCAA bureau reported today they led the major colleges in seven departments, with Iowa tops in total offense, forward passing, and rushing defense. Michigan State led in rushing offense and total defense, while Ohio State was the forward pass defense leader, and Minnesota excelled in punting.

In total offense, Iowa ran up 648 yards in its 70-14 route of Utah State, as Michigan State followed with 555 yards and Minnesota was third with 552 yards. Iowa's Big Ten champions connected for 328 yards. Iowa's Big Ten champions connected for 328 yards in the air, while the University of Utah in two games is second, averaging 241.5 yards. Iowa's defense allowed a minus six yards, and Dartmouth was second, permitting New Hampshire but 33 yards.

Michigan State, in defeating Indiana, 54-0, averaged 426 yards rushing, and Minnesota was second with 390 yards in the Gophers' 46-7 victory over Washington. Michigan State yielded only 80 yards to Indiana in 48 plays, topping Dartmouth, which permitted the same number of yards in 45 plays.

Ohio State is the only major team not to allow a single aerial yard, although Texas Christian, in defeating the Buckeyes 18-14, threw only three passes. Similarly, Minnesota gained the punting lead for the week on one kick, which traveled 50 yards. Boston University is second with a 49-yard average on two kicks.

Whitey Gives Credit To Sal

NEW YORK (AP)—The hero of the opening World Series game was Yankee curve-baller Whitey Ford, but he was a hero with a trailer. He said so himself.

The trailer was Sal (The Barber) Maglie, the corner-cutting veteran whose tour of duty has included the outlaw Mexican leagues, New York Giants, Cleveland Indians, Brooklyn Dodgers and now the New York Yankees.

Bought by the Yankees Sept. 1, after the deadline for World Series eligibility, The Barber couldn't be put on the firing line against the Milwaukee Braves.

But some of his wizardry was in every pitch as Ford mowed down the National League champions 3-1 on five hits for his fifth World Series victory.

The schedule will be shorter but the games more important this weekend as 89 teams try to retain on the unbeaten, untied roster of schoolboy football.

Abilene, winner of 40 straight, goes against Breckenridge at Breckenridge Friday.

This is the top game and will determine whether Abilene is so far below last year's strength as to mark it off as a championship contender. Breckenridge is unbeaten but once tied.

Except in one instance, the upper echelons will be playing non-conference games. Lubbock and Plainview open the conference race in Dist. 3 AAAA.

Classes AA and A are spotted with conference tests.

Fifteen undefeated, untied teams remain in AAAA and all except Corpus Christi Ray has a game this week. Amarillo, generally considered the No. 1 team, takes on tough Odessa.

Feature games in AAA send Handley against Cleburne and Weatherford against Stephenville. In each case an undefeated, untied team is meeting one that is unbeaten but has been tied. There are 20 teams with perfect records left in this division.

AA, where Coleman, Seymour, Taylor and Gilmer stand out, has the major share of important games. In four instances unbeaten teams either step up or down to play undefeated, untied outfits.

Gonzales plays Cuero of Class AA. Denver City goes against Sundown, Hamilton clashes with Clifton and London takes on Gaston, with the opposition in each case being a Class A toughie.

There also are some purely Class A games matching perfect record teams, such as Kountze vs. Warren and Rylie vs. Wilmer-Hutchins.

Stinnett, kingpin of Class A, goes after its 19th straight victory against Amarillo Price College.

LASATER RECOVERS

Frogs, Hogs In Near Top Shape

By The Associated Press

Illness and injury had some Southwest Conference coaches jittery Thursday, but Arkansas and TCU, who grab the spotlight this week with the first conference game, reported most players in fine shape.

TCU halfback Marvin Lasater had almost completely recovered from a bruised leg muscle Wednesday.

Arkansas had only two members nursing injuries, fourth string end Buddy Ruter and third team center Fred Hageman.

Coach Jack Mitchell ran the Razorbacks through extensive wind sprints and drilled them on pass defense, backfield timing and dummy scrimmage.

At College Station, Coach Bear Bryant said his Texas Aggies' practice was the best of the year.

A&M had 19 players out with assorted ailments and some freshmen players scrimmaged with the varsity to provide enough players.

Regular halfbacks John Crow and Loyd Taylor, and Don McClelland and guard Jim Langston will not play against Missouri Saturday.

Coach Sam Boyd cancelled Baylor's workout after several players reported colds, sore throats, sniffles and fever. Boyd said he planned a two-hour scrimmage but cancelled it on the advice of the team coach "to keep something more serious from developing."

Baylor plays Miami Saturday.

Texas eased up with the first two units drilling in sweat clothes polishing their offense, here was no heavy contact work.

Halfbac Rene Ramirez missed practice because of the death of his grandmother.

Ticket Sales Brisk For Tiger, Levelland Game Here Friday

Ticket sales to tomorrow's Tiger-Levelland game at Tiger Stadium were going at a rapid clip this morning but there are still some tickets left, according to Mrs. Mary Ellen Headstream, who is in charge of ticket sales.

Only 450 remained to be sold for the West side and 280 for the east side at 10 a.m. today.

Tickets may be purchased at the Chamber of Commerce office. Reserved seat tickets are $1.50.

A crowd of 5,000 and upwards is expected for the Tiger-Levelland game.

Meanwhile the Tigers began tapering off for tomorrow's game. Due to several injuries, contact work was cancelled at yesterday's drill.

Five Tigers missed yesterday's workout. Three missing workout yesterday were ends Tony Anger, Bill Dubose and Rex Wilson. Anger is ill, Dubose has a bad knee and Wilson a sprained ankle.

The other two out yesterday were tackle Ronnie Giles and fullback Israel Hinojos.

Hinojos, who hasn't played a down this season due to a dislocated elbow suffered in a pre-season workout, may return to action tomorrow. The cast has been removed from Hinojos' arm and the doctors have given him the "green light" to go in for kicking extra points.

Coach John Conley said today that "if we can score tomorrow Hinojos will attempt the extra points."

Bill Rinehart returned to the practice field yesterday after a two-day seige with the flu.

Although most of the Tigers will be suiting out tomorrow, several will be below par.

Halfback Dick Hayes, although he only carried twice against Big Spring last week, continues to lead the Tigers in rushing while tackle Bill Phillips continues to lead in defense.

Hayes has gained 155 yards in nine carries for a 17.3 average. Four other Tigers have surpassed the 100 mark in rushing. Richard Mahan, Bud Morgan, Mickey McGrew and Jimmy Allen. Phillips, with 19 tackles, tops the Tiger defense.

Following are the Tiger statistics:

RUBBER TILT TOMORROW

Tigers, Lobos Are All Square

It only began in 1951 but the Tiger-Levelland football rivalry is becoming more heated with each passing year.

The two teams will clash Friday night for the seventh time and the winner tomorrow night will take the lead in the series.

In the previous six games, the two teams are all even with three victories apiece. The Tiger evened the count by capturing last year's defensive thriller, 2-0.

The Tigers and Lobos have been meeting each other each year since 1951. Levelland took the lead in the series by winning in 1951 and 52 with the Tigers coming back to win in 1953.

Levelland again took a two-game lead by winning in 1954 but the Tigers have battled back to win the last two and even up the count.

In the previous games of the series, the Tigers have outscored the Lobos, 85-53.

The biggest margin of victory in the series was the Tigers' 32-0 victory in 1953.

Levelland's biggest margin was the first game played between the two teams, in 1951, by 18-0. The '51 tilt is the only time the Lobos have blanked the Tigers.

The Tigers hold two shutouts over Levelland, 32-0 in 1953 and 2-0 last year.

Following are the scores of the previous Tiger-Levelland games:

1951—Snyder 0, Levelland 18.
1952—Snyder 12, Levelland 16.
1953—Snyder 32, Levelland 0.
1954—Snyder 6, Levelland 13.
1955—Snyder 33, Levelland 6.
1956—Snyder 2, Levelland 0.
1957—Snyder ???, Levelland ??

Triple-Header Here Tonight

Freshmen teams from Snyder and Colorado City high schools open a big football program at Tiger Stadium at 4 p.m. today.

The game is the first of three games on the card. Meeting in the second game will be the Snyder Junior High 7th graders against Big Spring 7th at 6:30 and Snyder 8th against Big Spring 8th at about 8 p.m.

Snyder Freshmen currently is sporting an unbeaten record, having won two and tied one in three starts.

Both of the local Junior High teams own 2-1 records.

Another game carded for a local team tonight, Snyder B vs. Colorado City B at Colorado City, has been cancelled. C-City asked to cancel the game because of a schedule mixup.

New Division Is Formed By Telephone Co.

The Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. has formed a new division to serve West Texas and the Panhandle.

The new division will take in most of the company's exchanges west of Abilene and from the Panhandle to the Big Bend National Park area. Headquarters for the new division will be located in Lubbock, which is the approximate geographical center of the territory.

"The tremendous growth of this area has made this new division necessary," said D. D. Dillard, district manager for the company.

Ten years ago the company had about 87,000 telephones in this area. Today, it serves almost 290,000 telephones in the same area, Dillard said.

All of the territory in the new division was formerly part of the company's Northwest Division with headquarters in Fort Worth.

Abilene will continue to be Southwestern Bell's district headquarters for this area. Other towns in the district include Anson, Colorado City, Hamlin, Hermleigh, Roby, Roscoe, Rotan, Snyder, Stamford and Sweetwater.

"Our district has more than tripled in size in the past 10 years," Dillard said. Total telephones in this district 10 years ago numbered 17,700, as compared to almost 56,000 today.

"The telephone company is confident that the Panhandle and West Texas will continue to grow. This new division demonstrates the faith in the future of this area," Dillard said.

Services Set Friday For Former Resident

Funeral services for Mrs. Edward E. Dudley, former resident of Snyder, will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the First Methodist Church in Hobbs, N. M.

Mrs. Olive Dudley died Wednesday afternoon in Hobbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley and their daughter, Carol, 18, and Charlotte, 6, moved from Snyder about two years ago after having lived here for about five years.

In Snyder they lived at 3758 Dalton Avenue.

Savings & Loan Open House Set

Formal opening of the Snyder Savings & Loan Association, 2605 Avenue S, will be held from 9 o'clock to 5 o'clock tomorrow.

Max West, president and general manager, said that members of the board of directors and officers of the association will be present throughout the day to greet guests during the association's open house.

"Authorization was received last week for insurance of all deposits up to $10,000 under the Federal Savings & Loan Depositers Insurance Corporation, which was the final step in organization and activation of the association.

West said that about one year has been required to arrange the organization and complete it to the present stage where deposits can be accepted and loans made by the association.

"All deposits made before Oct. 10 will receive full interest for the last three months of this year," West said.

During the open house guests will be served punch and cookies and several gift items will be given each guest.

"All guests will be asked to sign the opening day register, and three prizes of savings accounts will be given in a drawing of names from the guest register list," West added.

The savings accounts will be $100 first prize, $50 second prize, and $25 third prize. It is not necessary to be present at the time of the drawing to be eligible to win one of the savings accounts.

Snyder Savings & Loan Association is housed in modern offices at 2605 Avenue S. Interior of the offices are finished in Philippine Mahogany with furniture of the same finish.

In addition to a spacious customer lobby at the front, the association has a spacious business and records area in the main room, a board of directors meeting room, and the president's office.

The Snyder Savings & Loan Association is capitalized at $125,000 with $100,000 capital stock and $25,000 reserves.

Before insurance under the FSLDIC could be obtained, however, the association was required to have a minimum of 175 depositers and at least $200,000 in deposits.

It is a state chartered organization which operates under regulations of the Texas Banking Department, and it is a member of the Home Loan Bank in Little Rock, Ark.

Officers of the Snyder Savings & Loan Association are West, Lee Smyth, accountant, secretary-treasurer, and Gene Best, owner of Caprock Materials Co., vice president.

The three officers are also directors. Other directors are C. O. Holder, head of Holder Construction Co., Fred Auforth, attorney, Dr. Robert H. Hargrove, dentist, and Harold Bennett, owner of Bennett's Office Supply and mayor of Snyder.

CORPORATE BUSINESS

Every corporation organization under the Texas Business Corporation Act is required to deliver stock certificates to its shareholders.

And, as a protection to corporate creditors, a certain minimum amount must be received by a corporation for the issuance of shares of stock before it commences to transact business.

Formerly, a corporation was required to have received $1,000 or ten per cent of its total capitalization, whichever was greater. However, the 1937 amendments to the Texas Business Corporation Act have removed the second requirement. Now it is only necessary that a minimum amount of $1,000 have been received for the corporation commence business.

There is no requirement that the organizers earmark any money at all for the corporation before filing the articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State. The requirement is merely that the minimum be received by the corporation before it commences business.

As amended, the Corporation Act permits a corporation to use a reasonable amount of the proceeds received from the sale of its stock to pay organizational and sales expenses without thereby rendering the stock subject to further assessment.

The price to be paid to the corporation for its shares is fixed by its board of directors, subject to the restriction that it be in an amount at least equal to the par value of the shares. The directors may also specify whether payment must be made in cash, or whether payment may be in the form of property or labor performed for the benefit of the corporation.

Stock certificates must be signed by the president or a vice president and the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation, or by such other corporate officers as may be specified in the bylaws. If the certificate is countersigned by a registrar or transfer agent, facsimile signatures of the corporate officers may be used.

On the certificates must appear certain formal statements such as the name of the stockholder, the name of the corporation and the number of shares. They must also contain a statement of any preferences afforded to any class of shares, any restrictions on the transfer of the shares, and any provisions denying preemptive rights to the stockholders.

As a result of the 1957 amendments to the Texas Business Corporation Act, these statements may be made in full or in summary form or there may merely be a reference on the stock certificate to the document in which a full statement can be found.

Stock certificates are not required to be in any particular form. They need not even by typewritten or printed so long as they contain the statements required by the statute.

RECEPTIONIST—BOOKKEEPER—Mrs. Bill Early, shown above in the office of the Snyder Savings & Loan Association, will be receptionist, bookkeeper and secretary for the organization's office at 2605 Avenue S. (Lee Watson photograph)

World Of Jinn Full Of Charms

CAIRO (AP)—After darkness falls on the Nile Delta, inhabitants of a weird village near Cairo creep out of their mud huts and gather round an old man who unrolls a sheet of ancient Egyptian papyrus.

From the sheet he reads ancient incantations — the key to contact with the world of the "jinn," those shadowy beings who hover between the natural and the supernatural.

This is the village of Aghour Alward, the seat of rites which the inhabitants say date back thousands of years.

An Egyptian ill with a mysterious disease, a man who wants to make a beautiful girl love him, a woman who wants to keep her husband from going out too often at night—all these go to Aghour Alward. They see one of the magicians, pay the equivalent of 15 cents, and get a charm to serve their needs.

When you seek such a charm, you have to go to Aghour Alward after dark. The houses are mud huts. The streets are narrow passages barely two yards wide. Most of the huts have no windows.

The dark figures of black-veiled women dart in and out, but you'd better not stare. Legend has it you may find yourself turned into a monkey, a snake, or a donkey by the wizards of Aghour Alward.

An Egyptian who recently visited an old crone in the village says that in her hut he listened to an uproarious "conference of the jinn." Then a tiny hand, like that of a baby, held his and handed him the charm he needed. He assumed the hand was that of a jinni.

Two men and a woman are the chief magicians in Aghour Alward. But the village as a whole is noted for the secrets that it keeps within its own little circle.

Belief in jinn is widespread in the East, especially in the Arab world. Jinn have the power to do evil or good, depending on the charm you hold. Aladdin happened to conjure up a good jinn when he rubbed his magic lamp.

He Finds Out Reason For Being 'Sorehead'

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—After two months of being a sorehead Gale Dean Singleton now knows why—he was shot.

The 10-year-old Oklahoma City boy felt something like a wasp sting while playing in his front yard about Aug. 1. He fell to the ground and struck his head on the family pickup truck.

When the wound failed to heal properly the boy's parents took him to a physician, and were told to watch it closely. Weeks passed and the bump over his right eye still didn't go away, so the boy was taken to a physician again yesterday.

The doctor probed the wound, and out popped a 22-caliber slug. Mrs. W. L. Singleton, the boy's mother, said she had no idea who fired the shot, adding that it apparently caused no serious damage.

Man, 76, Is Wed To His Sweetwater, 14

HERNANDO, Miss. (AP)—A 76-year-old great-grandfather from Missouri married his 14-year-old sweetheart here yesterday.

The bride, the former Mary Lou Lawson of Zelma, Mo., felt it would be a happy union. "I would rather be an old man's darling than a young man's slave," she said.

Her new husband, John G. Tatro of Sturdivant, Mo., beamed. He said he has nine children, six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, but had been a lonely man since his first wife died last December.

Mary Lou was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lawson. The newlyweds said they will head back to Missouri tomorrow.

Small Loan Probe

AUSTIN (AP)—Investigations into credit insurance and the small loan industry are being wrapped up, two state departments said yesterday. The investigations are a prelude to a Board of Insurance hearing here Nov. 4 on credit insurance rates.

Cologne toilet water was created in honor of Colonia Aggrippina, mother of Roman Emperor Nero.

Here's Some Advice On Heart Ailments

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Dr. Paul Dudley White, President Eisenhower's cardiologist, gives this advice on avoiding heart disease:

Pick ancestors who were free of heart disease.

Don't put on even a pound of overweight after you're 23 or 24.

Get some exercise every day of your life.

Dr. White addressed a luncheon meeting of the motion picture industry's Heart Committee yesterday.

COMMITTEE WARNS

Watch Out For Swindling Games

The fall season brings on many things, and one of them is increased activity in various swindle games.

While there are legitimate businesses, agencies, or individuals in each of these fields, there usually appears at this time of year swindlers in the fields of coupon books, investments, and other get-rich-quick gimmicks, as well as in such things as orphans homes, children's home, old folks homes, or other institutions of which no one here is acquainted.

The merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce, headed by Gene Thompson, this week warned merchants and residents to know who they are dealing with before they donate money or invest in special promotions.

Last year, several thousands of dollars were lost here in a coupon book "gimmick."

Probably the only way to keep from losing money in any of those schemes, or to keep from giving it to racketeers posing as representatives of benevolent agencies, is to thoroughly investigate them if there is any doubt, the committee said.

Here are a few guide rules residents might possibly observe:

1. If a person approaches a resident for a donation for some out-of-town cause not known to the resident, he can tell the person he gives to such causes through the United Fund and that the person could apply to the United Fund.

2. Be wary of the letter or person saying "You have been chosen" for the opportunity specified.

3. Investigate thoroughly a person selling coupon books for anything.

4. Don't invest in any company unless you know you are dealing with a bona-fide representative of that company.

If a person is approached for some cause and desires to check on it, he can probably do so by calling the Chamber of Commerce or city police department.

Haitians Fear Outbreak Of Civil War

PORT AU PRINCE, HAITI (AP)—Hundreds of Haitians are clamoring for visas to the United States, fearing this Negro republic is at the brink of civil war.

Many even urge publicly that the U.S. Marines return to maintain order. The Marines occupied Haiti from 1915 to 1934.

The ceaseless political warfare that has unseated six governments on this Caribbean island since December has nearly paralyzed the economy.

Tourist hotels are all but deserted. Many businessmen are trying to sell out and leave.

The military junta in power since last June hopes for quick economic aid from the United States. Business leaders see little hope from this quarter, however, in view of the political turbulence.

The presidential election Sept. 22 only made matters worse. Dr. François Duvalier was declared the winner of the presidency on the basis of unofficial returns. Former Sen. Louis Dejoie, the defeated candidate, charged the election was a fraud. His backers vow blood will flow once more in the streets if Duvalier takes over the presidency Oct. 14, as expected.

ROBERT HOPSON
. . . Home on leave

Pvt. Hopson Is Back Home

Pvt. Robert W. Hopson of Snyder is now home on leave after completing basic Army training.

Hopson, who entered the Army in July, took basic training at Fort Carson, Colo., and he will be assigned to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., after his leave ends next Thursday.

Hopson attended high school here and was employed by the city before entering the Army.

He is the son of Mrs. Birdie Puryear of Modesto, Cal. In Snyder he is visiting Mrs. Buford Thornton, 106 Avenue R, his grandmother, as well as other relatives, including Cora McDonald, Frances Lankford, and Dorothy Puryear.

Flu Strikes More Schools

By The Associated Press

Influenza—some Asian but mostly the common variety—had struck at more Texas schools Thursday.

Dallas had two schools reporting an absentee rate of more than 20 per cent. Health Director J. W. Bass said tests show "that about one of every 10 flu cases in Dallas is of the Asian variety."

Dallas' Booker T. Washington school had 304 absent out of 1,460 and Julia Frazier school 257 out of 1,078.

Mildred, near Corsicana, closed Wednesday until Monday. Supt. J. H. Lanier said 52 of the 207 pupils were absent.

Four weekend high school football games were cancelled.

Palestine High closed Wednesday after 135 of 693 students were absent. Elkhart reopened Wednesday. Some 96 of its 106 students were absent Friday and the school was closed.

The Hudson, Beaumont-Port Arthur and Omaha areas also reported heavy flu tolls, as did Emory, near Sulphur Springs.

Tanks Arrive In San Marino Area

SAN MARINO (AP) — Italian police today brought up tanks and armored cars to the borders of this tiny mountain republic divided into armed camps of Communists and anti-Communists.

The arrival of 20 or more armored vehicles at the border was without explanation.

Italy has recognized the anti-Communist regime set up Monday night and is blockading all roads leading into San Marino to keep out any Italian Communists who might try to enter.

Inside the 38-square-mile mountain republic, the anti-Communist regime issued World War II German machine pistols to guards around its headquarters in an abandoned steel factory near the Italian border.

A guard officer said the weapons came from hidden stores inside San Marino. He claimed that the anti-Red forces have enough hidden arms to equip a division.

The Communists still held control of all San Marino except for the small area around the steel plant. But most of the Reds concentrated in San Marino village, eight miles from the anti-Communist headquarters.

Squads of armed Communist volunteers set up roadblocks on San Marino's side of the border to bottle up the anti-Red supporters and to keep out any reinforcements.

The Communists, who have ruled San Marino since the end of World War II, called on the United Nations to send in a U.N. police force to keep them in power.

At the old steel mill where anti-Communist members of Parliament set up their provisional government, searchlights played nervously across the nearby countryside at night to spot any Communist invaders.

Inside the building a member of the four-man provisional government declared it will accept "no other solution than unconditional surrender of all powers by the Communists, who are holding them now unlawfully."

Safecracking Job Foiled

SULPHUR SPRINGS (AP) — A light, two-way radio being tried out by police foiled a safecracking job today and almost resulted in a frozen yegg.

Officer George Shirly was making his rounds, carrying the radio, which had been in use about two weeks.

He saw a supermarket store back door open, went in and spotted three safecrackers at work. He slipped back out and called for help, then posted officers at strategic points through their car radios.

When the officers burst in one thug ran through a plate glass window and was captured. A second was nabbed in the swinging doors at the back of the store. The third hid in a 32-degree self-service meat case and wasn't found for nearly an hour, very cold and ready to give up.

Officers said the thugs were about 15 minutes away from forcing the safe, which held $4,000.

Warning Is Sounded On Hog Production

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal farm officials looked to the livestock markets today for help in limiting hog production.

Field surveys indicate large supplies and relatively low feed prices are causing farmers to step up hog production. Secretary of Agriculture Benson says there is danger of a ruinous drop in prices if too many hogs are produced.

The Department said last week hog prices had declined for the fourth straight week. Prices broke sharply early in the week but toward the close when supplies were curtailed, the markets stabilized.

Officials conceded that despite the price downturn, the relationship between hog and corn prices was still favorable from the standpoint of producing meat animals.

Raymond Foy Dies

DALLAS (AP) — Former Dallas Morning News Sales and Research Manager Raymond Foy, 62, died yesterday. Foy retired from the News in 1949.

It's A Good Thing He Wasn't Old Man

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — When Robert A. Shurter Sr. started from Chattanooga Sept. 10 on a motor scooter for Atlantic City, he vowed nothing would prevent him from completing the trip in time for the American Legion convention parade.

Five days later, he arrived in the New Jersey city, one day ahead of schedule. Behind him were 800 miles, three wrecks, a fractured foot, wrenched neck muscles and assorted bruises.

Shurter made the return trip on his scooter in three days.

The trip cost him only $9 for gasoline.

"If I had been an old man, I couldn't have taken the knocks," he said.

He is 70.

He Got His Evidence

MEDFORD, Ore. (AP)—Policeman Tomlin Furnas went to investigate a complaint that a dog had bitten a man. Furnas got his evidence. The dog bit him.

Porter Sees GOP Benefit

DALLAS (AP)—Republican National Committeeman H. J. Porter of Texas predicts his party will benefit in the long run from developments in the Little Rock integration controversy.

Blaming extremists on both sides, he said yesterday President Eisenhower's use of troops was necessary to prevent mob rule.

Porter spoke to the state GOP Executive Committee, which adopted a statement from him as the official stand of Texas Republicans.

Asserting the Little Rock crisis will have no permanent effect on his party in Texas, Porter said:

"The fundamental reason is because the Republican Party is the only party where the conservative-thinking people can go. If we are to maintain the private enterprise system in America, conservatives must get into one party. People of socialist tendencies dominate the Democratic Party."

LEMON-MACE PIE IS TASTY FROZEN DESSERT
. . .the spice-mace, is natural complement for dairy desserts

Wide Variety Of Spices And Herbs End Menu Monotony

American homemakers are becoming far more daring cooks than their mothers and grandmothers.

Only their constant attempt to vary the family's menu, disguise left-overs and avoid monotony can account for the current boom in spices.

At the turn of the century, it would have been hard to find more than six spices in a grocery store. Now many markets carry as many as 50.

Servicemen and tourists returning from abroad with exotic recipes have given impetus to the sale of spices. But homemakers in general account for the 30 per cent increase, per capita, in the use of spices and herbs in the last 20 years.

Time

Perhaps the age of packaged and pre-mixed food accounts for it, since it gives the cook more time to think of ways to vary a basic recipe than her grandmother who had to spend hours in just preparing the whole recipe itself.

At any rate, the kitchen shelf in many homes holds bay leaves, parsley flakes, cassia sticks, sage, sesame seed, saffron, coriander, mustard, cinnamon, black pepper, chili powder, oregano, turmeric, anise seed, ginger, poppy seed, fennel, nutmeg, paprika, mace, marojam, carraway seeds, and sage.

Here are a variety of recipes or desserts, salads and entrees which call for spices to give special flavoring.

LEMON-MACE CREAM PIE IS FROZEN

2 eggs, separated
1/3 cup fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
¾ cup sugar
¾ teaspoon ground mace
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
9-inch baked vanilla wafer crumb crust
Whipped cream for garnish

Set the freezing compartment of the refrigerator at coldest point. Beat egg yolk, lemon juice and rind together. Add ½ cup sugar. Mix well. Cook over very low heat until the mixture thickens, 8 to 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Cool. Stir in mace. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Gradually beat in the remaining sugar and fold into the cooked mixture.

Fold in whipped cream. Pour into the baked vanilla crust which is placed in a pan. Place in freezing compartment to freeze until firm and ready to serve. Garnish with additional whipped cream and ground mace. Makes 6 servings.

PEPPER POT STEW INCLUDES VEGETABLES

1½ lb. lean stew beef
2 tablespoons shortening or beef suet
3 cups beef broth or bouillon
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup sliced green onion
½ cup sliced celery
½ to ¾ cup sliced fresh carrots
½ cup diced raw potatoes
¼ cup instant minced onion
½ teaspoon ground black pepper
1 tablespoon dried parsley flakes

Cut beef into one-inch cubes. Brown on all sides in hot shortening or suet, in a Dutch oven or heavy saucepan. Add broth or bouillon and salt.

Cover and cook 1½ hours or until meat is tender. Add vegetables, onion, ground black pepper and parsley flakes. Cook until vegetables are tender, about 35 minutes. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

TOASTED SESAME SEEDS FLAVOR MIXED SALAD

Head lettuce
Escarole
Romaine
Sliced fresh tomatoes
Sliced cucumber
Onion rings
Radish roses
Roasted sesame seed
French dressing

To roast sesame seed, place seed in pre-heated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until lightly browned.

In a salad bowl, arrange first 7 ingredients in the amount desired. Sprinkle with roasted seeds, toss with creamy french dressing.

For the dressing, combine 2 cups salad oil, 1 clove garlic, 2 teaspoons grated onion, ½ teaspoon powdered dry pepper, ½ teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 teaspoon paprika and let stand one hour.

Add 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ cup catsup, 2 tablespoons sugar, ¾ cup cider vinegar and 1 egg white. Beat vigorously with a rotary egg beater. Makes 3 cups dressing.

'PAPRIKA' FISH IS HUNGARIAN RECIPE

Saute 1 1-3 cups chopped onions in 2 tablespoons shortening in heavy skillet. Combine 1½ teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon paprika, and 1 1-16 teaspoon ground cayenne pepper. Sprinkle on both sides of fish (2 lb.).

Place in skillet over onions. Add ½ cup water. Cover. Simmer 15 minutes until fish is flaky. Garnish with more paprika. Serve with boiled potatoes. Makes 5 servings.

MARJORAM BRAISED CHICKEN IS UNUSUAL

1 3-to-4 lb. frying chicken, jointed
½ cup flour
1½ teaspoons powdered marjoram
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon celery salt
¼ teaspoon onion salt
½ teaspoon paprika
¼ cup butter or other fat
1 cup water or giblet stock
1 cup baby green limas
1 cup sliced carrots

Sift flour, salt, marjoram, pepper and paprika together. Place in paper bag. Drop pieces of chicken in bag and shake to coat each piece. Fry in butter until golden brown. Add water slowly.

Cover and cook over low heat 30 to 40 minutes. Add carrots and limas and cook 15 to 20 minutes longer or until vegetables are tender.

Remove meat and vegetables and arrange on serving platter. Make gravy from liquid in pan. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Pour over chicken on platter. Serves 4.

JAR FILLED WITH CINNAMON COOKIES

½ cup butter or margarine
¾ cup sugar
¼ cup molasses
1 egg
2 cups sifted flour

½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon

1 to 2 tablespoons milk or cream

Cream butter or margarine, add sugar, gradually. Add molasses slowly, then egg. Sift flour, baking powder and salt and cinnamon into a large bowl. To molasses mixture, gradually add dry ingredients and vanilla.

Add 1 to 2 tablespoons milk (enough to make dough easy to handle). Chill dough about half-hour. Roll out on floured board. Cut with cookie cutters in small and large shapes. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) for 8 to 12 minutes. Makes about 12 large and 24 small cookies.

Vermont Has Lot Of Cows, More People

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — The head of a Vermont civic group says it is not true Vermont has more cows than people, as had been popularly believed.

Frank Ward, president of the Greater Vermont Assn., told a banquet meeting of the organization last night that he was informed by State Agriculture Commissioner Elmer E. Towne that the state has 4,000 more people than cows.

He did not give any figures. The 1950 census lists Vermont as having 377,747 humans.

Open House Slated By Snyder Heating And Air Conditioning

The Snyder Heating and Air Conditioning Co. will hold "open house" Friday at its new plant on the Big Spring Highway.

The firm moved to the new location several weeks ago, and now that operations are in full swing in the new facilities the public is being invited to inspect it.

Vernon Rannefeld, manager of the concern, said the public is particularly invited to visit the establishment throughout the day Friday. Coffee and doughnuts will be served all day during business hours.

At the same time, Rannefeld reminded that "brand name" is only half the story of dependable service where heating and air conditioning is concerned.

"That may sound a little unusual, coming from a dealer who handles one of the best known brands in the industry," he admitted, "but there is a good reason."

Unlike refrigerators, television sets and other home appliances, today automatic heating and air conditioning equipment, regardless of its high quality, cannot be "plugged in" and be expected to operate efficiently, Rannefeld explained.

According to Rannefeld, there are three technical problems with which the installer of heating and air conditioning equipment must contend, if he hopes to give his customers all the advantages of comfort and economy built into the equipment itself.

The first problem that confronts the dealer is proper sizing of the furnace or air conditioner to suit the house. This must take into consideration the type of home, the climate, the insulation and even the family's living habits.

If the unit installed is too small to produce sufficient heat or cooling, it will not perform satisfactorily no matter how excellent its design and construction. If the unit is too large, it usually will do the job—but for a needlessly high initial expense and at a wasteful operating cost.

Second on the agenda is design of the air distribution system or ductwork. Assuming that the size of the furnace or air conditioner is just right, for the house, the heated or cooled air must be distributed in a way that produces even, comfortable temperatures throughout the house. Draft-free operation of the blower system, heat loss in different rooms, tendency of air to form pockets in certain areas (stratification)—all must be considered to get the balance that produces year-round comfort.

With this problem out of the way, adjustment of the controls and the air distribution system enters the picture. In a fully automatic heating and air conditioning system of the type used today, the entire operation of the equipment depends on a series of sensitive thermostatic switches—all of which must be properly installed, set and checked to insure maximum performance.

Then, the ductwork system, even though properly designed, must be given a final adjustment (called balancing) after the equipment is in operation.

"Every ounce of performance that we have come to expect from today's automatic heating and cooling equipment has been built into top-quality brands like the Lennox units we handle," Rannefeld said. "However, whether or not we get that performance—year-round comfort we paid for in the first place—depends on how the installation is made and then serviced.

"We feel that our customers—both home builders and individuals who purchase equipment from us—have a definite advantage," he added. "This is due to the fact that, under the Lennox Comfort Craftsman program, our personnel have been factory-trained by Lennox engineers to perform these services properly.

"In addition to this thorough training of our own men, we obtain regular assistance from a highly-trined Lennox factory engineer and have a mobile factory service team available to us at all times.

"The end result amounts to bringing the tremendous technical know-how of one of the country's foremost heating and cooling engineers, Lennox President J. W. Morris, directly to the customer through dealers like ourselves. And we certainly agree with this Lennox policy. Over the years it has proven itself time and time again—in satisfaction for our customers and in goodwill for our business."

3 Of French Quints Die During Night

TOULON, France (AP) — Death during the night took three of the quintuplets born prematurely here yesterday.

A doctor said the chances for survival of the other two babies, Roland and Michele Christofle, were "not too bad."

The 29-year-old mother, Mrs. Camille Christofle, was reported doing well. The husband, 33, is a social security worker. They have been married eight years and the quints were their first born.

The two boys and three girls, born three months prematurely, ranged in weight from 2 to 2.3 pounds.

Tiny Philippe died shortly before midnight. An hour and a half later Helene died. Genevieve died at 6 a.m.

Only two sets of quints are known to have survived more than a few days — the Dionnes of Canada, born in 1934, and the Diligents of Argentina, born in 1943.

The two boys and three girls of the Diligentis family are all flourishing. Four of the five Dionne girls are living. Emilie died three years ago.
