U. S. Senate Carefully Considers Nuclear Agreement

BY INEZ ROBB
The members of the United States Senate are now circling the proposed East-West test-ban agreement with the wariness of old Tower scouting a new dog that has just moved into the neighborhood.

The great problem that each Senator must solve, to his own satisfaction, is how much political mileage or advantage can be wrung from the advocacy of and (2) denunciation of the test-ban agreement.

The non-committal attitude of many members of the most exclusive gentlemen's club in the nation leads to the net too cynical conclusion that the Senators may be waiting for the opinion polls that will (or won't) tell which way the wind is blowing across the nation. It is no more cynical to suspect that more than one Senator has already stuck a wet finger into that wind to take his own findings.

It is one woman's opinion that it would be a grave mistake to read any poll figures, no matter what they show, without taking into account their hidden emotional quotient or content. The figures in favor of a test ban are bound to be affected by (1) wariness of the cold-war and (2) a prevailing longing for peace.

Conversely, the figures against a test-ban agreement are certain to reflect the underlying American belief that the Russian word, whether initiated by the late Stalin or by Khrushchev, isn't worth the paper it's written on.

The struggle over a test ban, in or out of the United States Senate, is certain to be the classic struggle of hope vs. experience, as well as hope vs. fear.

Mankind's hope that a test ban could be the first infinitesimal step toward easing the cold war and its corsairing armaments burden will be pitted against its despair that the Russian hierarchy only keeps its word as long as it is advantageous to the U.S.S.R.

There will be hope that this first step could lead eventually to some kind of a workable peace vs. man's fear not only of nuclear destruction in a world war but, in the interim, of poisoning of the atmosphere through nuclear testing.

There will be many who will ask, "Do we dare take a chance?"

and many who will answer, "What do we have to lose? In an atomic war we would lose everything, including our world."

The question devolves into how many will be willing to gamble on a test ban that does not outlaw war, much less nuclear war, but offers only some slight hope that nations may sometime make a start toward disarmament.

Should the Senate confirm the test-ban agreement, that accord will not automatically cut in half the nation's multibillion-dollar defense budget. It would probably not even shave a billion from the annual total, now running at about $54 billion.

It would not ease the tax burden on our present life and times as far as externals go. It would mean a larger share of public moneys for better schools, or roads, or for slum-clearance, or for the arts, or for tackling urban ills.

The test ban, in short, wouldn't work miracles in the national structure or change our way of life overnight. It would offer hope, but it would guarantee nothing, absolutely nothing.

What it boils down to is hope against hope. And man's willingness to gamble on it when he has lived with fear for so long.

Someone Say Something Nice, Please

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a man with a new toupee gets tired of hearing:
"Well, hair today—gone tomorrow!"

"I don't know why you feel so upset about it, Ronald. After all George Washington wore a wig, and they built a monument to him."

"Here comes old goldlocks himself!"

"May I suggest, sir, that you shake a little salt on it occasionally. The resemblance to dandruff will give it that final natural touch."

"He's so absent-minded that some mornings he puts it on backward—and then I can't tell whether he's going or coming."

"I must say that Ronald has real Savoir Faire. When his toupee fell into the bowl in front of him at that Chinese restaurant, he didn't panic. He simply called the waiter over and told him, 'I'm afraid there's been some mistake. I didn't order this bird's nest soup.'"

"I know it must itch terribly in this hot weather, Ronald, but for heaven's sake quit scratching. Everybody's watching."

"Don't sit too close to an electric fan, dear. Remember when it blew out the apartment window and landed in a street, and you had to pay that little boy 50 cents to climb up and get it!"

"Sorry I messed it up, darling. I was just tidying the floor, and when I saw it lying there it gave me such a fright I hit it twice with the mop before I realized what it was."

"If it shrank, sir, I'm afraid it was your own fault. This model does not carry a drip-cut guarantee."

"Don't wear the crew-cut one, Ronald, if you plan to ask for a raise today. Wear the one with the strands of grey in it. That'll remind your boss of the long years of service you've given to the company."

"You must be particularly careful about mouls, sir. Unfortunately they prefer toupees to siren's steak."

"Gee, fellow, I'm new in the office. I don't see why you have to fly off the handle when all I asked you was where there's a good barber around here."

"Wonder what happens when he reads a hair-raising mystery?"

"Yes, it looks fine, Ronald. But the advice is to grow a beard. That would kinda balance it."

Junior Editors Quiz on AIR CONDITIONING

QUESTION: What makes cold air come out of an air conditioner?

ANSWER: Air conditioning means more than just blowing in cool air. The outside air may be uncomfortably hot, but it may also be humid, that is, carry a high degree of moisture; it may also carry dirt and soot. The modern air conditioner corrects all these conditions at the same time, providing a circulation of air that is cool, dry, clean and comfortable.

There are several ways modern air conditioners can do this. We show how the outside air comes in at (1), passing through a filter (2). This is made of fiber glass metal or wool fibers, which have been coated with a sticky substance. The dirt, soot and dust in the air stick to the fibers. Now the air passes through sprays of water which reduce its temperature (3), and a fan (4) moves the clean, cool air into the room so that it can circulate. Sometimes air is cleaned through the use of fine water sprays or with "electrostatic precipitators" which throw positive electric charges on dirt particles. These are attracted to negatively charged collector plates. Some conditioners cool the air by blowing it over coils filled with cold water or chemicals.

FOR YOU TO DO: Few of us have summer air conditioning in our homes, but we all have cold water running out of a tap. If you're hot enough to be uncomfortable, roll up your sleeves and let the cold water run over your wrists.

(Kitty Stephens of Rantoul, Ill., wins the daily grand prize of a 20 volume set of World Book Encyclopedias for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, and you may win a set too.)

Plymouth In Spotlight Once Again

PLYMOUTH, Vt. (AP)—A small group of neighbors will gather here Sunday, as they have annually for 22 years, to recall a moment that put Plymouth in the world spotlight 40 years ago.

On Aug. 3, 1923, Vice President Calvin Coolidge was vacationing at his parents' home here when he was notified that President Warren G. Harding had died. Coolidge's father, Col. John Coolidge, a notary public, administered the oath of office to his son, the new President of the United States.

Since 1924, members of the Calvin Coolidge Memorial Association have gathered in a church here to honor Coolidge.

Sunday there will be choral singing by Plymouth schoolchildren, a speech or two and the laying of a wreath at the Coolidge grave nearby.

American Team In Good Showing

By JIM BECKER
HANNOVER, Germany (AP)—The American track and field squad, off to a disappointing start in Moscow two weeks ago, is honed to a fine edge now as it meets with Poland and Germany.

It showed that in the two-day dual battle with a young West German team which ended here Thursday night, winning by 141 to 32, about as lopsided as these intranational meets can get. Over the two days, the Americans won 18 of the 21 events, and 10 of 11 on the final day. They scored one two sweeps in two events, and won both relays. Four of their performances Thursday were better than the winning marks in the Moscow meet which the Americans won by only 119 to 114, the narrowest margin in the five meetings.

The next anticipated victim is the British team, in London Saturday and Monday. The team flies to London today.

That meet will wind up the tour. "The boys are really performing now," said Coach Payton Jordan.

"Every man came through in the German meet. In fact, all along the line this team has had more successes and fewer failures than we have ever had. We've achieved the edge we needed against the Russians. "Actually we had the shakes the first day in Moscow. We were nervous and tense, and things went wrong. But the Russians had their greatest team, and our's had to be our best to do what they did in Moscow after falling behind.

Thursday, Rex Cawley's 50.1 seconds in the 400 meter hurdles, Bob Hayes' 20.6 in the 200 meters, Frank Covelli's javelin throw of 264 feet, 9/16 inches and the Americans' 1900 meter relay team's 3:02.8 all were better than the Moscow marks.

For the second straight day, the Americans got an incredible anchor leg on the relay. Thursday it was Henry Carr's 44.3, the fastest 400 meter relay leg ever run.

The day before, Hayes flew past a top flight German sprinter in a 100 meter dash that Jordan called the "greatest 100 ever run."

The other American victories Thursday were in the high jump, Paul Stuber, 6 feet 7 inches; steeple chaser Pat Traynor, 8:44.4; shot put, Dave Davis, 58 feet 8 inches; triple jump, Ralph Boston, 52 feet 2/4 inches; 1500 meters, Morgan Groth, 3:42.2 and 10,000 meter walk, Ronald Zinn, 46:50.8.

Injury List Of Yankees Reduced

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
After limping and wheezing to their current commanding lead in the American League chase, the New York Yankees resumed the drive for their 28th pennant tonight with their once lengthy injury list reduced to Mickey Mantle.

"The switch-hitting slugger's present disability is an ailing left knee, which struck him before he had fully recovered from the broken left foot he suffered June 5.

Otherwise the Yanks are well off heading into the four-game weekend series in the Yankee Stadium with Baltimore. Roger Maris will be back in right field and Pepitone at first base.

Maris has been injured by a series of ailments this season, the latest a sprained left hand that sent him to the sidelines last Monday. Pepitone was struck on the right elbow by a pitch Wednesday and taken out of the game against Kansas City.

With Mantle and Maris the Yankees' casualties have had 40 cases of ailing or injured. But their remarkable depth in talent has enabled them to make a runaway of the race.

The entire league was idle Thursday night, with the only game scheduled—Boston at Baltimore—rained out. In the only National League action, the Chicago Cubs whipped Milwaukee 10-2 and St. Louis edged Cincinnati 3-2.

Beauchamp's grand slammer slammed a homer with the bases full in the ninth inning Thursday night and the Texas League beat the Houston Colts of the national league for a second straight season.

Beauchamp's grand slammer brought his league's All-Stars a 7-3 triumph. Last year the Texas Leagueers clipped the Colts 8-1.

With San Antonio's largest crowd of the season—3,368—in the stands, Beauchamp staged his dramatics at the expense of Dick Drott, who was the losing pitcher.

Jerry Richardson, another Tulsa contribution to the All-Star game, went in in the eighth with the bases loaded and pitched the Texas Leagueers out of trouble with two hitless innings. He got credit for the victory.

Chicago's two-time 20-game winner who last year couldn't buy himself, and this year can't find himself?

That's the problem plaguing Reds' officials, who were astounded last year when Jay astounded an unprecedented move to buy his own contract, and are confounded this year by Jay's inability to produce for Cincinnati's National League pennant hopefuls.

The right-hander, 27, absorbed another setback Thursday, logging loss No. 15 to go with only four victories as the fifth-place Reds dropped a 3-2 decision to St. Louis and fell 8 1/2 games behind first-place Los Angeles.

The victory moved the Cardinals into a tie for second place with San Francisco, 4 1/2 games back of the Dodgers.

Only one other NL game was scheduled. The fourth-place Chicago Cubs clobbered Milwaukee 10-2 as Ellis Burton became the

Open Leader Remembers Last Year

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Jim Ferree, who shot an opening 64 to take a one-stroke lead in the $35,000 St. Paul Open Golf Tournament Thursday, has his enthusiasm tempered by memories of other experiences on the Keller course.

"I started playing well last year in the Western Open at Chicago," said the bespectacled 32-year-old Californian whose last tourney victory came five years ago. "I played my best golf of the year Thursday. But I still remember last year and another year."

Ferree was coming down the 18th fairway on the final round last year with a chance of a good-sized check. But he staggered in with a triple bogey eight on a hole many pros figure to be an easy birdie.

"Another time I was eight under par in this tournament and collected $20," he recalled. "Ferreer blazed around Keller's 6,500 yards in perfect golf weather Thursday, hitting 17 greens in regulation and scoring eight birdies and 10 pars.

Ferree held a one stroke advantage over Don Fairfield. Two strokes back at 66 was Jerry Barber, who twice has finished second here.

Tied at 67 were Jerry Pitman and Jack Rule Jr. Doug Sanders carded a 70 and he defending champion said he was having wedge troubles.

Among 18 tied at 68 were Australian Bruce Crampton and Jacky Cupit. The 49 bracket included Dow Finsterwald and Ken Venturi.

Curt Simmons, 10-5, was the winner who needed ninth inning relief help from Ron Taylor and Bobby Shantz.

The switch-hitting Burton connected against Braves' left-hander Denny Lemaster, 7-6, in the first inning and right-hander Ron Piche in the seventh. The feat has been accomplished 16 times in the majors — with Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees doing it nine times.

Steve Boros and Jim Schaffer also homered for Chicago while Larry Jackson, 12-9, scattered seven hits in going all the way.

Candy Spots Favorite In Arlington

Kelso and Candy Spots, two of racing's biggest stars, and an unbeaten son of the great Native Dancer will run as favorites Saturday in three major stakes that will have a strong bearing on title honors in their divisions.

Bohemia Stable's Kelso, going after his fourth consecutive Horse Of The Year title, is the odds-on choice for the $50,000 Whitney Stakes at Saratoga, while Rex Ellsworth's Candy Spots meets some rugged 3-year-old rivals in the $100,000-added Arlington Classic at Chicago.

Raise A Native, who could be Native Dancer's most illustrious offspring, will try for his fifth straight victory in the $100,000 guaranteed Sapling Stakes at Monmouth Park.

In other PCL action, Denver downed Dallas-Fort Worth 11-7, Hawaii Islanders 7-4, Spokane continued its winning ways by blanking Oklahoma City 5-0, and San Diego's Padres edged the Salt Lake City Bees 7-6 in the only close game of the evening.

Third sacker Steve Demeter drove in four runs with a homer and a double. Chi Chi Oliver went the distance for Denver, striking out 13.

Snyder swimmers made a good showing in the AAU Swim Meet held in Lubbock Thursday. The Snyder delegation qualified for the finals in three events.

The Snyder "Boys 10 and under" medley-relay team qualified for the finals and came in sixth. Those making up the relay were Mike Shearburn, Darvi Tyone, Gary Galiman, and Weldon Leard.

Packers Favorites To Beat College All-Stars Tonight

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—The Green Bay Packers, proud National Football League champions the last two years, and the All-Stars, chesty collegiate greats of last season, clash tonight in the 30th annual midsummer football classic at Soldier Field.

The collegians haven't beaten the pros since 1968, when the Detroit Lions were spilled 35-19 in Otto Graham's debut as head All-Star coach.

The Packers whipped Graham's group 42-20 last year, with a three-touchdown spurt in the last quarter.

Green Bay rules a 14 1/2-point favorite to repeat, padding the pro's winning edge to 20-8 in the rivalry sponsored by the Chicago Tribune Charities Inc. Two games have ended in ties.

The kickoff before an expected crowd of some 65,000, is 9 p.m. EST with radio and television starting 15 minutes earlier via ABC. Temperature around 80 degrees. Forecast: with thunder showers likely.

Football fans undoubtedly will see an aerial bombardment by the All-Stars, whose quarterbacks include Terry Baker of Oregon State; Ron VanderKelen, Wisconsin; Tommy Gibby, Texas Christian; and Glenn Griffing, Mississippi.

Although Graham has been non-committal, VanderKelen may be used most of the time. He came unheralded as a Wisconsin senior last fall to steer the Badgers to the Big Ten title and set Rose Bowl records of 33 pass completions, 401 yards gained in the air and 406 total yards. SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—Arthur Ashe, the first Negro ever selected for the U.S. Davis Cup team, today conceded with a big grin that "there's more pressure on me now" to win the Eastern Grass Court Championships.

"They'll all be shooting for me," Ashe said, referring to the other players. "so I guess I'll have to shoot back."

Ashe, 29, a junior at the University of California at Los Angeles, was named Thursday to the four-man team that will oppose Mexico in the American zone semi-final Davis Cup match Aug. 15-18 at Los Angeles.

Although ranked No. 18 among U.S. men players, Ashe's record this year prompted his selection, according to W. Harcourt Woods, South Hills, N.J.

And The Angel

...of Revelations said: "Gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe." How beautiful! How far-reaching is this challenge! It is up to us. Throughout the Bible the grape and the vine hold great spiritual meaning. They emphasize the close union between Christ and His church. We judge the vine from the fruit it bears. St. John warned us in the first place, that the branch cannot bear fruit, except it abide in the Lord. In a spiritual sense, man makes his own harvest. His reaping is strictly in accordance with how well he has taken care of the vineyard, how thoroughly he has supported the charities of the Lord, and how genuinely he has served God.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.
