Courthouse
ordered by Commissioners Court

Judge J. W. Melton, Commissioner O. W. Welch of Gilliland Patterson of Benjamin and Attorney Carl Patterson and Shady left Tuesday morning to confer with Lawrence administrator of the civil administration regarding public projects including public highways and roads are under way but two, a new court house and the removal of the bridge above the Rhineland being given favor by the officials at this time. At a resolving of the Commissioners Monday it was ordered by the that a new courthouse be erected on the site of the courthouse at an estimated $10,000. The Court authorized the County Judge to make application to the Federal government for grant of thirty percent of the cost and for a loan of the re-tion will also be made for funds in the removal of the bridge, which was considered by the Court as unsafe, to a location near Rhineland.

Local Committee Named for Federal Conciliation Loans

The local Farm Debt Conciliation Committee of Knox County will be composed of five members as follows: Hugh T. Cook of Gilliland, J.
L. Galloway of Benjamin, August Schumacker of Rhineland, B. B.
Cochran of Knox City and J. F. Huxley of Vera. The purpose of this committee is to aid the Federal Government in bringing about an adjustment of Farm Mortgage conditions in the county and to relieve the people that are suffering from excessive loans on their properties. Hoping to bring about a reduction of loans it will be the purpose of the Debt Conciliation Committee to discharge present loans and to reduce the rate of interest on the balance to the borrowers. The work of this department can do more to relieve the stringency situation of the farmers than any other thing that the government has yet undertaken.—Benjamin Post.

Anyone finding himself in a pinch on a loan will do well to confer with these committee men in their respective districts. This is another branch of the government work through which it seeks to aid men who find themselves in a crisis on their loans on farm homes.

Sermon at Baptist Church

December 17th the pastor will give a Song Sermon at the Baptist Church. The subject
"The Wonderful Saviour." The sermon will appear in the local paper next week. We want everyone

FATHER-SON BANQUET NIGHT OF DECEMBER 12

The Father-Son banquet sponsored by the Methodist ladies of Knox City is set for the night of Tuesday, December 12.

The basement of the church will be fashioned into the large dining room of the pioneer home with the spirit of Christmas prevailing. The banquet tables will be arranged for 100 guests, the menu to include turkey with all the greatly appreciated trimmings.

The purpose of the banquet is twofold. First, it is for the promotion of spiritual and recreational fellowship between father and son and second, the proceeds thereof are to be used in repairing the parsonage. Every Methodist man and his or an invited to be present men whose church affiliation is otherwise are cordially invited to attend this affair.

Mrs. J. A. Wilson, general chairman of the entire evening's pleasure is being given perfect cooperation by all the ladies of the church. Mrs.
Wilson is also pleased to announce that the pastor, Reverend R. R. Gilbreath, is arranging the program for the evening and he himself will be toastmaster. Reverend H. C. Hand of Munday will be numbered among those taking part on the program.
Special music for the occasion is being arranged by Mr. Henry White.

Plans are being made whereby the complete banquet menu will be sent by try to any aged or sick person in the city upon the request of any faithful. Orders will be received up to noon on the day of the banquet.

This Father-Son Banquet promises to be one of the nicest affairs both spiritually and from the standpoint of pleasure, that Knox City has had in some months.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thornton have returned to Knox City to continue their residence after an absence of a month or more spent with his brother at Miles, Texas. They will make their home for the present with Mrs.
Thornton's parents Mr. and Mrs. L.
B. Hammock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jones spent a few days in Dallas this week arranging for Santa Claus to hold his carnival at the Orient Drug Store during the holidays.

THE ANNUAL RACE

By Albert T. Reid

Home Demonstration Club for Knox City

On Friday afternoon week, December 15th, at 2:30 p. m., Miss Jewell Faulkner, County Home Demonstration Agent will be in our city to organize a local Home Demonstration club. The meeting will be in the Texas Theatre building and all the ladies of this district who are interested in the work of supplying the home with pure, wholesome food at a nominal cost are invited to be present and learn of the progress being made in home canning and preparation of home grown meats and vegetables.

Miss Faulkner states that a number of requests have been made for the organization of a club here and as the new year's work is just beginning, it is thought to be an opportunity time to organize a club in this district. The club meets twice each month.

Glenn-Buckner

An event of appreciable interest on Knox City's society calendar was the marriage of Mr. G. T. Glenn and Miss Lillian Buckner of Rochester.
The young couple without giving notice to their friends motored to Abilene on Thanksgiving day and the wedding ceremony was performed by Reverend McMillan at the Abilene Christian College. They visited in several of Texas interesting and historical points before returning to Knox City where they are at home to friends at the Pope residence.

The groom has made Knox City his home for several years and has been in the employ of the west Tex as Utilities Company showing a capability that did not go unrewarded for some time since he was promoted to the position of local manager for that company, a position he has filled to the entire satisfaction of his employers and those whom his company has served.

The bride is a winsome young lady of personal charm and fine character. They will each have the best wishes of everyone as they begin the long journey together.

Mrs. Mabel Pysatt returned home Monday after an extended visit with her sister Mrs. Everett Kelly of Austin. Mrs. Pysatt was a delegate from the Knox City Study Club to the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs which met in Austin in November.

LIBERAL AWARDS TO BE GIVEN BY MERCHANTS OF KNOX CITY DEC. 23

As an appreciation for the liberal and unstinted patronage of the buyers of this trade territory the merchants of our city have decided that such home loyalty and courtesy shall not go unrewarded and in order to reciprocate in a most generous way they have made it possible for many of their customers to receive valuable prizes on Saturday, December 23rd at 8:00 to 9:00 o'clock p. m. Only one prize will go to a family and the gift must be present at the time the gift is awarded. Following is the list of prizes that will be given and a circular will be distributed soon describing them and thanking the public for their cooperation. Information as to the conditions of the offer may be had at almost any business firm and no obligation whatsoever on your part is required:

- (1) Living Room Suit, value $125.00
- (2) Bed Room Suit, value $125.00
- (3) Rug value $125.00
- (4) 10 cash prizes of $5.00 $50.00

Baptist News

Every member of the local Baptist church, and every friend of the church is urged to be present next Sunday. We look about $160.00 having the payment on the church raised. We will raise this amount next Sunday morning. Some have given liberally and feel that they cannot give more, some have not given anything, but want to if given an opportunity. Let no one fail to be there Sunday. It is just as important that you be there if you give nothing as if you give a large amount. Don't fail to be at church whether you can give or whether you cannot give.
Come to the service and worship God. Show to the world that you have not forgotten Christ and His Church.

Local Red Cross Issues Good Report

The local Red Cross Chapter with Mrs. McCarty as manager has closed its annual drive with Jimmie Silman as chairman. They report a deposit at the bank of $81.60 with a further contribution of $3.45 to the local fund. Of the $81.60, $39.00 goes to the county chairman Mrs. D. J.
Brookerson, leaving a balance for our city work of $42.60.

Mrs. McCarty wishes to express her greatest appreciation for the aid she received from the drive chairman and the ladies who helped to quilt quilts which were sold to Mrs. J.
B. Jones of Abilene, for $2.00 each, thus enabling Knox City red cross to secure outside funds to the amount of $10.00.

The drive had its hopeful and cheerful times and also some discouraging moments as well reminding one of the following poem:

"THE LITTLE BLACK HEN"

Said the little red rooster, "Gosh all henlock, things are tough; Seems that worms are getting scarce-er, and I cannot find enough.
What's become of all those fat ones is a mystery to me: There were thousands through that rainy spell; but now where can they be?"

The old black hen heard him did not scumble or complain, She had gone through lots of dry spell, she had lived through floods of rain;

So she flew upon the grindstone, and she gave her claws a whet.

And she said, "I've never seen the time there weren't worms to get."

She picked a new and undug spot, the earth was hard and firm.

The little rooster jeered, "new ground, that's no place for a worm."

The old black hen just spread her feet, she dug both fast and free.

"I'll have to go to the worms," she said.

"The worms won't come to me."

The rooster vainly spent his day, through habit by the way

Where fat round worms had passed in squads back in the rainy days;

When nightfall found him supperless, he growled in accents rough "I'm hungry as a fowl can be; conditions sure are tough."

He turned then to the old black hen and said, "It's worse for you, For you're not hungry but you must be tired, too."

I rested while I watched for worms, so I feel fairly pert;

But how are you, without worms too? and after all that work!"

The old black hen hopped to her perch and dropped her eyes to sleep, And murmured in a drowsy tone

"Young man, hear this and weep: I'm full of worms and happy, for I've dined both long and well.

The worms are there as always-but I had to dig like hell!"

Mrs. McCarty did not write this poem for she does not swear but she might well be likened to the little black hen of the poem and Jimmie well he could only wonder at the results obtained in money and bou-ty to be passed on to those in distress.

Mrs. W. F. Bolln spent several days recently in the home of her daughter Mrs. Sidney Turner at Fort Worth. Mr. Bolln says he got as far as Munday on the trip but stopped to see the Thanksgiving foot ball game. You can't keep them from being a boy again on such occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Holmes were down from Floydada Saturday and Sunday to visit Mrs. Holmes parents Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith. They were recompanied by Mr. Holmes's sister Mrs. Fred Taylor who visited relatives and old friends here.

Mrs. A. W. McBeath of near this city sustained painful injuries recently while engaged in milking a cow. The cow tured quickly in the stall and crushed Mrs. McBeath's chest and left side.

T. E. Robbins and family motored to Wichita Falls Tuesday.

C. W. A. to Stage Play

Characters are being assigned this week to parts in the play "Where's Grandma," which will be staged in the school auditorium within the next two weeks, sponsored by the Christian Women's Association.

Mrs. Henry Arledge, newly appointed general chairman of the play, has graciously accepted the responsibility and practice will begin next week.

Mrs. H. M. Jones will head the cast, playing the part of Grandma.
All characters have been well selected and it is predicted this play will be the hit of the year.

Church of Christ

Interest seems to be steadily increasing Sunday by Sunday. Several changes have been recently made which are very advantageous. A complete renovation in the method of conducting the Wednesday evening service has been made and the lessons have been changed from the Acts of the Apostles to the book of Romans which is to be studied using an outline form. A teachers training class, very helpful to all teachers, has been provided for at 6:00 o'- clock each Sunday evening.

Brother Hill has begun a series of sermons on the essentials of salvation, devoting an entire sermon to each particular phase. The discussion for last Sunday evening was a fitting introduction to precede the series on the subject for next Sunday evening will be Faith. Come hear these sermons and judge by your own Bible whether the things he tells you are true.

GENESIS AND GEOLOGY

The higher animals are evolved or created, whichever terms suits you. And last of all, man. His place at the top of the pyramid of creation is the same in both Genesis and geology, the difference being that Genesis compresses into six hundred words what science expands into hundreds of volumes, and Genesis has a reason for man's creation and a goal for his life, while science throws up its hands with the blank admission, "We do not know."

So we have man and woman launched forth upon a brand-new planet. Science locates the beginnings of human life in fertile and fragrant valley of the Euphrates. Genesis is more specific, naming the beautiful spot the "Garden of Eden," and ideas the first couple as Adam and Eve. Let us take a running look at these two interesting people and the importance of their descendants. In the Old Testament, as in all other historical records, the history of peoples is principally the lives of a few outstanding individuals.

A lecturer on woman suffrage once challenged her audience with the oratorical question, "Where, I ask you, where would man be today if it were not for woman?" To which a rather thick voice from the rear benches answered, "In the Garden of Eden eating strawberries." Adam, our first ancestor, does not make a very brave showing. He and Eve were given the run of the Garden, with permission to eat any fruit except that one particular tree. They ate the forbidden fruit and when God discovered them in their transgression Adam took refuge behind Eve. "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me," he complained, "she gave me of the tree, and I did eat." A cowardly excuse which profited him nothing. For their sin they were cast out, and the Garden was closed to them. No longer could they have food without effort.

Cursed is the ground for thy sake. In sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life. Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee:

In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken; for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

Eve had two sons, Cain and Abel. As a shepherd Abel had nothing to do but sit on the side of a green hill and watch his flocks grow fat, making money for him the while. Cain was a farmer, and any one who has ever worked on a farm understands why farmers in all ages have been discontented and will realize how Cain felt. In his jealousy over Abel's easy life and calm demeanor Cain slew him. "Am I my brother's keeper?" he demanded in surly tones when God made inquiry for Abel. The question has come down through the generations as a text for a million sermons.

UNIVERSAL BIBLE SUNDAY

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson commends to the churches of Texas the observance of next Sunday, December 10, of Universal Bible Sunday. Thousands of churches in America and many abroad will stress on Universal Bible Sunday the place and importance of the Bible in the life of church going Christians and in the promotion of missionary work. "Universal Bible Sunday" originated about fifteen years ago and is directed by the American Bible Society and the denominational and international circulation of the Scriptures annually in 500 languages and in more than forty countries.

In urging the observance of Universal Bible Sunday Governor Ferguson says: "I feel that every Sunday we should be Bible Sunday, and that stress should be laid on the teachings of Christ each first day of the week when congregations gather all over the world to hear ministers of all denominations. It gives me pleasure, however, to commend the special observance of December 10 as Bible Sunday, and I trust that such observance may be helpful in bringing a more devoted study of the Bible."

The Methodist Ladies conducted a Rummage Sale last Saturday in the building of Ward's Second Hand. They will do likewise again this Saturday.

The society is planning to send a box of toys Christmas to the Methodist home in Waco. All Methodists are asked to contribute a toy for this box. All toys must be new but need not be expensive.

Mrs. John A. Smith was hostess to the Tuesday afternoon bridge club this week in the home of her sister-in-law Mrs. L. L. Davis. Cut roses made attractive decorations in the reception room. Following the games refreshments of chicken salad, stuffed celery hearts, stuffed olives, cheese wafers, fruit cake topped with whipped cream and coffee were served.

Mrs. R. R. Gilbreath organized a Hi-League Sunday evening with the following elected officers: President, Elina Payne White; Vice President, Elina Payne White; Secretary, L. N. Bridges, Jr.; Pianist, Anna Lee Waggoner; Assistant Pianist, Marion Clonts; Song Leader, Phillis Bess Benedict; Reporter, Paul Hoge.

All children between the ages of 10 and 13 are invited to join this group. The meetings will be held in the church at 6 p. m.

Work which was begun last week on the Methodist parsonage, sponsored by the ladies of the Missionary Society, is progressing nicely.

16 members of the local Missionary Society of the Methodist church attended the Harvest Day program of the Stamford District held all day Tuesday in Rule, Knox City ranked second in attendance, Stamford having the largest number present of the 26 towns in the district 26 were represented at the meeting; the attendance totaling 299 or more. Program given was splendid. Mrs. N. C. Rollins, conference president and main speaker of the day, made a splendid talk on "Why I am a Missionary Woman." Mrs. J. B. Dodson, district secretary presided.

The Methodist ladies announce this week that this is the last call for Folger Coffee bands. Any one saving bands for this group, please send them in by Saturday December 9 or telephone the woman for whom you are saving the bands. All bands will be sent off Monday.

R. S. Brannin Jr. who is attending school in Lubbock, spent the week end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brannin Sr., of the 666 ranch.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Rev. Chas. E. Dunn

Paul in Caesarea
Lesson for December 10th. Acts 21:27-36

Golden Text: Acts 24:16.
The lesson deals with Paul's last journey to Jerusalem after his third missionary tour. His chief desire was to deliver the collection he had gathered to the poor. In response to the advice of the elders he observed Jewish rites in order to pacify Jewish Christians zealous for the Law. But notwithstanding this precaution, an organized mob seized him with murderous intent. Rescued by Roman soldiers, he addressed the crowd, which listened attentively while he told the story of his life, but uttered violent cries of protest when he stressed his Gentile mission.

We then read of how the apostle escaped a scourging in the castle by appealing to his rights as a Roman citizen; we follow him into the presence of the Sanhedrin; we share in his comforting nocturnal vision of the Lord; we learn of the plot to kill him, and are relieved to find that the chief captain, to save the apostle's life, sent him to Caesarea under escort, where he appeared before Felix, Festus, and Agrippa.

Note the virulence of the animosity against Paul. Such venomous hatred is all too common.

Observe how effectively Paul pleaded before Felix and his wife for righteousness, self-control, and the recognition of a future judgement. The guilty conscience of the "true governor" was stirred, but, like so many, he delays a decision.

And now turn to the apostle's eloquent defense before king Agrippa. To Festus his words were more mad than true, but the king, perhaps in jest, said that Paul almost persuaded him to be a Christian.

This stage of Paul's career is outlined at great length by Luke. One fourth of his entire book covers the period from the apostle's arrest in Jerusalem to his entrance into Rome as a prisoner.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Waggoner are happy over the arrival of a young son on Thursday a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neves of Ruby were guests in the home of her sister Mrs. L. N. Bridges of this city the latter part of the past week.

THE HONOR OF THE PLAYING FIELD

"Now this is the law of the Jungle As old and as true as the sky;
And the wolf that shall keep it may prosper,

But the wolf that shall break it must die.

As the creeper that girdleth the tree trunk,

The law runneth forward and back,

For law runneth forward and back,

For the strength of the Pack is the wolf,

And the strength of the Wolf is the Pack."

Many of the great lessons of life come from the games we play in youth. The first consideration in all games is to lay the foundation for a full and splendid manhood and womanhood. We should keep, as one of the mottoes of our outdoor life, the thought that a noble mind lives in a noble body.

We should play the game for its own sake, never spoiling the spirit of all true games nor lowering the dignity of all true manhood, by playing it for profit, at the expense of somebody else.

Our games are our own lessons in noble things. The playing field is, in truth, the High School of life. It is there we find the great distinctive qualities that mark the men of the English-speaking race all over the world. No American boy can be healthy and whole and miss the laws of honor. They run through every school that is worth the stuff it is built of; they are blazoned as in letters of fire over every playing field worth walking on. They are among the oldest things in the world, and they will last as long as the human race.

We must think of the game and not ourselves. That game is lost in which one member of the team seeks his own glory. The unity of all for a single cause, each playing his part for the general end, is the general end, is the condition without which no game is won. Chivalry, the surrender of self, obedience to the law that holds the team together, these things grow naturally with every game we play, and we should cherish them as a part of ourselves. We should be staunch and loyal and true. Our comrades must be able to rely on us.

Especially should we be good losers; we should yield the palm with grace and cheerfulness to a victor who has played the game, leaving bagging, grudging, and quarrelling to meaner souls, and not spoiling the temper of a game by claiming doubtful points or insisting on little rights. We must not strain the rules of a game so that the keeping of them breaks the spirit of them; we should be willing rather to lose a thousand games than win one by the shadow of unfairness. When the time comes, as it comes in all games, when nobody could see if your play was unfair, you will be glad to know that your loyalty is above suspicion, and will do the right thing as quickly as a lightning flash.

The sad side of human life, made up of cunning and intrigue, of seeking selfish ends at any cost to others, of preferring our vain-glory rather than the achievement of a common good, of shutting our hearts to the troubles of hearing others so long as we are prosperous has on encouragement on the playing field where only the flower of life, and not the weed, can grow. We must be loyal, or the game is lost. We could never be mean enough to withhold the applause that belongs rightly to the victor.

The life of the world itself calls for those qualities in us which spring from the holding together of the team. If we hold together in the team, in the boat race, in the tug-of-war, we shall give back to the nation a hundredfold the talents entrusted to us. Thus there grows up in us with our play that part of our life which makes the difference, as the years go by, between the men who help a nation on and the men who pull it back. If we are loyal to our team, to our school, we shall be loyal to our town and to our country. The very beginning of patriotism lie in our games.

IN APPRECIATION

Both the foot ball team and the high school as a whole appreciate the loyal support given them in the Thanksgiving game at Munday by the ardent supporters of the city. We appreciate the fact that your conducted yourselves in such a sportsman-like manner that no word of criticism could be voiced against you and thus reflect upon the school.

DOPE BUCKET KICKED KNOX CITY HIGH AS KNOX CITY WHITE MUNDAY

Scoggs Field, Munday, Tex.—No. 20 Munday's Moguls high school football machine went down to serious defeat at the hands of Knox City's charging, fighting Greyhounds. This defeat piled on them was the worst either team has been able to pile up in three years. Favored to win by at least two touchdowns, the Moguls were swept off their feet from the first whistle to the last. Munday never advanced the ball inside of Knox City's 35 yard line and only made 4 first downs to Knox City's 10 or 15.

Knox City started scoring when the game was only two minutes old. Munday kicked to Knox City and on the third down Knox City punted. Munday fumbled the ball, and it was recovered by a Greyhound. Then Spurgeon Hyde threw a beautiful 35 yard pass into the hands of B. E. Bryan for a touchdown. B. E. Kicked the goal for an extra point, the score Knox City 7 Munday 0. Knox City then held her lead by punting and the ball never was in Knox City territory the first half.

The next Greyhound score came on a 25 yard run around left end for a touchdown by B. E. Bryan. This time the kick for the extra point was wide. In making the touchdown Bryan had but one interference runner this was Homer Rutledge and he took out a Mogul nicely, and then B. E. made his own way though the rest of the team, knee stepping, weaving and stiff arming for another touchdown and 13 points. The score Knox City 13 Munday 0.

Munday was completely outplayed throughout the game in every department of play. The Greyhound punting couldn't have been much finer, while Munday booted 'em 20 and 30 yards.

This puts the conference into a three way tie, Knox City, Rule, and Munday. The conference games resulted as follows:

Knox City 0 Rule 7
Aspermont 0 Munday 19
Knox City 0 Aspermont 0 (Knox City awarded game on 20-yard line penetrations) Munday 6 Rule 0
Knox City 13 Munday 0
Rule 12 Aspermont 0

Standing:
Knox won 2 lost 1 percent .667 Rule won 2 lost 1 percent .667 Munday won 2 lost 1 percent .667 Aspermont won 0 lost 3 pct. .000

Comparing the other conference games Munday was supposed to defeat Knox City around 13-0 or 13-0. But instead of Munday winning 2 or 3 touchdowns they were knocked sky high, and westward and crooked by the Greyhounds from Knox City.

The starting lineup for Knox City was:

Vernon Davis Left End
H. E. Armstrong Left Tackle
Lawrence Dutton Left Guard Homer Rutledge Center
James Dutton Right Guard
Jeff Graham Right Tackle
J. L. Bohannon Right End
B. E. Bryan Quarter Back Spurgeon Hyde (Capt.) Left Half Back Lloyd Huntsman Right Half Back Glover McCarty Full Back

The seniors playing their last high school football game for Knox City were H. E. Armstrong, Homer Rutledge, James Dutton, Jeff Graham and Captain Hyde.

HIGH SCHOOL ASSEMBLES

Friday afternoon, in honor of our "Greyhound" football team, the high school assembled in the stud yhall and enjoyed a forty five minute program afforded by coach Dean and his football squad. One special feature of the program was the presentation of a football to the pep-squad leader, Wynell Edwards, who likewise presented it to the school as a signification of the genuine football playing the Greyhounds did November 30th at Munday winning the victorious score of 13 to 0.

Speeches were made by each member of the football team, including their coach and each member of the faculty. When the program ended, every member of our high school felt indebted to the football players for the high standards they upheld in both their playing and sportsmanship. We are all interested in seeing the team wear Knox City football sweaters, and are willing to help them in any possible to get them. Are you?

WE WANT A GYMNASIUM

We, the school have started a drive to get a gymnasium this year. You who do not attend school do not realize our need for one. We have over four hundred students and only about one tenth of those take part in any kind of athletics. Every school needs a gymnasium and almost every school around here has one, including O'Brien, Munday, Sunset, Goree. We also need something to help our boys and girls and to help them to keep their bodies strong. Can't you see the many reasons why we should have one?

The following are others: Knox City does not have a place large enough for public meetings which the gym would provide and it would accommodate campaign speakers, school programs and high school graduation exercises, all loyal school supporters who have been consulted on the subject believe that we shall have a gym in the near future, while several citizens have pledged their support and offered to donate as high as fifty dollars. The Seniors of 34 have offered thirty-five dollars, the Juniors, thirty-five, the Sophomores, twenty-five and the Fresh as yet no definite amount. As many other schools have done, if we can get a good donation we can let the state receipts pay the rest.

The students are eagerly awaiting to hear the answer that you as citizens will give us as to whether you wish us to have a gym and are willing to stand behind it and see that we do.

Some may bring up the recent difficulty of the school as an argument against it but we wish to assure you that it will not cost the school one cent.

We can tell you why we need one and we are willing to do almost anything to get one. We hope that our supporters will get behind us and help us put it over.

Please—We want a gymnasium!

SENIOR RINGS HAVE ARRIVED

Haven't you heard? The Senior rings have arrived, and are they well? Everyone is saying, "oh let me see your ring and wristlet. Aren't they pretty?" I think they the prettiest rings Knox City has ever had etc.

Well, if you haven't seen those rings you had better see them as you'll miss something. And are those Seniors glad they have come? Well just ask one of them.

Men Who Got Up Before Daylight

... guaranteed your heat for tonight

GAS does seem an impersonal thing when it turns on at a wall cock... just concentrated heat in a pipe... so easy and so silent one might think it came up under its own power, out of one's own backyard.

But there are hundreds of people working to supply the very heat that will warm your house this evening. Many reported on their jobs before sun-up. Some are on guard all night.

Since approximately one-half of all gas required in the home for the entire year is used during the three winter months of December, January and February, you can see why men have to get up before day during this season. Scores of these men are at the wells, at compressor stations, and walking the pipe lines, guarding your gas service every step of the way to keep it dependable.

So your heat is not an impersonal thing. It is an hour-by-hour service, watched over constantly. Through this care and attention it stays so inexpensive that 15 cents' worth a day is the year around average household requirement for heating, cooking, refrigeration, and hot water supply.
