TALCO, TITUS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1949

NUMBER 14

Installing Pump Hagansport Well Paluxy Wildcat

Stephens, Byars and Peveto wildcat oil test three-quarters of a mile southeast of New Hagansport, which set casing last week, swabbed 36 hours and got 25 per cent oil from liner perforations at 4,392-436 feet. The fluid level was 325 feet from the top at the end of the period. All water was formation water, but not salty or blackish. Operators are running rods and installing pump.

The new well is 11 miles south of Bogata and ten miles north of Mt. Vernon and about the same distance west of Talco. This well along with those in the Mitchell Creek pool, further substantiate the claim that Talco and Sulphur Bluff field connecting links are gradually being established.

Wet, Cool Weather Causes Insects to Damage Crops

Four types of insects have been causing damage in Red River County crops during the recent spell of cool, wet weather, Herman Lynch, county agent, said.

Widespread reports from this area indicate that cutworms are doing considerable damage to early planted cotton, but Lynch indicated that dusting will probably eliminate or minimize this problem.

Dusting has also brought under control the pea aphid, which has been attacking singletary peas and hairy vetch cover crops here, Lynch said.

The county agent said he had received some reports that the night-eating May bug was eating foliage on sandy-land pecan trees, but that damage was not general.

Lynch also warned that the period for nut case bearers was imminent and advised immediate spraying of trees.

The general picture, Lynch summarized, is good for crops, as relates to the insects, since little more than usual damage has been reported, and the problem seems well under control.

Mrs. George Keeling is visiting her son, Luther Keeling and family in Dallas.

Assistant Agent is Named for Lamar

Appointment of Harold Calhoun of Sherman as new assistant Lamar County agriculture agent was approved Monday by the Commissioners Court, effective as of June 6.

Mr. Calhoun holds a B. S. degree in animal husbandry from Texas A&M where he will graduate June 4. This is his first Extension Service position. A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ben Calhoun of Sherman, he is married to the former Martha Ann Ashlock, also of Sherman. They expect to move to Paris about June 4.

Mr. Calhoun is a veteran of World War II, with 41 months service, 28 months of which were with the Army airborne troops in China. He is a member of the American Legion and the VFW.

The new assistant agent will succeed Herman A. Walters, who has resigned to accept a county agent's position in Morris County.

Fulbright Wins Dist. Championship

Games to determine the district champion baseball team between Fulbright and Avinger were played at Avinger and Fulbright respectively Friday and Tuesday. Fulbright won both games. The first by a score of 7 to 3 and the second 10 to 1.

BROTHER TALCO TEACHER DIES AT PARIS

Cruse I. Mora of Cooper, brother of Mrs. Lucille Perkins, Talco teacher, died at a Paris hospital where he had been taken for treatment. Deceased operated a cafe at Cooper. His widow and four children survive.

Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Jerry Caldwell and Miss Merl Flanagan attended the funeral in Cooper Saturday.

JOHNSON BABY WEIGHED THREE AND QUARTER LBS.

A three and one-quarter pound son, named Galen Irvin, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur (Pete) Johnson of Bogata at the Grant Hospital in Deport on Sunday. Both mother and baby are reported doing nicely. He has been placed in an incubator at the hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of Deport and L. I. Hume of Cunningham.

Talco Oilers Take Mt. Pleasant Cubs 2 to 0 Friday

Talco Oilers and Mt. Pleasant Cubs played to a capacity crowd at their first game under the lights on Friday night, defeating the Cubs 2-0. F. A. Jones lead the hitting, 3-3.

Talco High School band, under the direction of Alton Willms, played a concert before the game and it was a gala gathering that saw the Oilers take their traditional opponents into camp.

The first official game of the league will be played on Tuesday, May 17 at Oiler park against Mt. Pleasant Cubs at 8 o'clock.

Sulphur Springs Eagles defeated the Oilers at the Hopkins Co. capital on Monday night, 10-2. This gives the Oiler fans an idea of the competition the local team will face this season from that source.

Thursday night, the Oilers played Paris Electric, after the Times went to press and will meet Hugo at Talco on Friday night.

W. W. Ashley Dies Pueblo, Colo.

W. W. Ashley of Pueblo, Colo., died of a heart attack Monday, May 2, according to a message received by Mrs. Gordon Allen. Mr. Ashley was a jeweler, and with his family lived in Bogata for a number of years. They went to Beaumont and then in 1926 moved to Pueblo, where Mr. Ashley was in the jewelry business until his death.

Mr. Ashley was a member of the Methodist Church and was a Mason. He took an active part in both.

Mrs. Ashley, a daughter, Mrs. E. L. Mendenhall, and three grandsons of Pueblo, and two sisters survive.

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER HONORS TALCO LADIES

The Talco school faculty and trustees' wives honored Mrs. P. C. McPherson and Mrs. A. A. Jacobs Monday afternoon with a pink and blue shower in the homemaking department. The pink and blue color scheme was carried out in the registers, decorations and refreshments. Miss Marion Trimble served punch to compliment the sandwiches and cake.

R. Brown Captures Dairy Show Prizes

Raymond Brown of Mount Pleasant took top honors with his entries for senior and grand championship for females, senior and grand championship for males and for the best-uddered cow, a total of five rosettes, at the second annual Camp County Dairy Show Friday. There were 100 entries from Titus, Wood, Hopkins and Camp Counties. Visitors came from ten counties.

Co. Graduation Grammar Schools On Saturday

Annual graduation exercises for grammar schools thruout Titus county will be held at the school gymnasium in Mt. Pleasant next Saturday morning, according to County Superintendent Marvin Amerson.

The exercises are scheduled to get underway at 9:30 o'clock, and at the conclusion all students taking part will be guests of Ray and Shelton Gerhard at a free picture at the Martin Theatre.

Grammar schools participating in the program will be all in the county under classification as rural. Independent districts, including Talco, Winfield and two ward schools in Mt. Pleasant will not take part. These schools will hold individual programs later in the month, Amerson said.

PARTY IN HONOR OF DAUGHTER'S BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J. W. Patterson entertained Tuesday evening honoring her daughter, Miss Ruby Patterson, a Paris Junior College student, on her eighteenth birthday. Homemade ice cream and cake were served to the following guests: Misses Julia Biles, Francis Pitts, Ruth McAfee, Nora Lee Pitts, Bonnie Dunagan, Gene and Edward Dixon, Duane Welch, Johnny Giddens and Jimmy Patterson.

Decorations and refreshments. Miss Marion Trimble served punch to compliment the sandwiches and cake.

The Rev. F. H. Ogilvie and D. J. Smelley brought in a 35 pound Opelousas catfish from Sulphur on Monday night. A small perch was used for bait.

Recommends 5% DDT for Cutworm

During the past week many farmers have reported considerable damage to cotton by cutworms. There are several types of cutworm that are causing the damage, and a few armyworms have also been found in the fields, according to Herman R. Lynch, Red River County Agri. Agent.

Dr. H. G. Johnston, Extension Service Entomologist, advises that 5% DDT will control the pest, and recommends dusting at the rate of 20 lbs. per acre. The nozzles of the dusting machine should be set 8 to 10 inches above the bed, and a noticeable white streak of dust should be visible after the application of the dust.

Dr. Johnston advised that the cutworms would probably be causing farmers damage for another ten day period since many of the insects are still small. Where the worms are migrating from a grass or other sod strip into the fields a barrier of dust should be applied to stop their damage.

Legion to Sponsor Baseball Team

Burks-Clear Post will be unable to sponsor a ball team in the Legion tournament because of player shortage, but will sponsor a team of the boys from the high school only and will give all the boys an opportunity to play.

To quote Horace Heidt, "Building boys is better than mending men", and we want you to keep in mind that this is the boys team and the Legion is just a sponsor.

We are having tickets printed with the word sponsor and one of them will be the same as a season ticket. The price will be $1.00, but if you care to give the boys more for one they will appreciate it. So come on Talco, let's support our boys.

Talco Students Stage Walkout

Talco High School students who are taking shop work training under A. A. Jacobs, staged a walkout from classes on Tuesday morning and paraded the business district of Talco with banners reading, "We Want Jacobs."

The shop instructor was not re-employed by the school board at a meeting held recently.

On Monday evening a committee from the class presented a petition to the School Board, asking that body to rescind its action and employ Mr. Jacobs. The Board refused to do so.

A meeting of the School Board and parents was held at the school building Tuesday afternoon. Wednesday morning the workshop students were all back in the class rooms.

Clarksville Youth Killed by Car

Billy Cain, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Cain of Clarksville, was fatally injured early Sunday when struck by an automobile on Highway 82, about two and one half miles west of Texarkana.

Sheriff E. G. Hensless and County Atty. Bun Hutchinson charged Charlie Bradley, 20, negro of near Nash, with murder with an automobile and failing to stop and render aid after an accident.

Cain died en route to the Texarkana hospital where he was taken by a passing motorist.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams and daughter, Pamela of Mt. Pleasant, Ike Coker of California and Sam Coker of Mt. Pleasant, have recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith.

Old timers recall the days when it was not uncommon to work sixty hours a week. That was before week-ends and autos were invented.

Although we do everything possible to avoid work, we must still admit that work is among our greatest institutions. The Creator thought so much of it that He commanded everybody to work six days in the week. He knew it was good for their happiness and general economy.

The good neighbor policy is commendable, but it is costing our dear Uncle in Washington a pretty penny. For instance, the two billion dollars we gave to China to help settle the civil war. The war has again broken out in all its fury. Next—

We try to be optimistic over the future of our country, but when we think of the billions we are spending for pensions, billions for social security, billions proposed for free medical care, millions for free transportation, millions for free education, millions for free lunches, and billions for a thousand other free causes, we begin to tremble for the future of our country as it approaches nearer and nearer Socialism.

JUSTICE I THOT!

The junior member of a law firm was sent out of town to try a criminal case. "Let me know immediately when a verdict has been reached," counseled the senior member.

Last Year's Cotton Crop Smaller Than That for 1947

Texas, 1948 cotton crop was 3,150,000 bales, the Department of Agriculture estimates.

That compared with the 1947 crop of 3,437,000 bales, and a 10-year average of 2,289,000 bales.

The department found the nation produced 14,868,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight in 1948. The national crop in 1947 was 11,857,000, and the 10-year average is 12,014,000 bales.

Combined value of cotton lint and cotton seed from the national 1948 crop was estimated at $2,641,336,000. The 1947 figure was $2,294,543,000.

Texas harvested 8,600,000 acres of cotton last year, with an estimated yield of 176 pounds an acre.

The 1948 average price received by farmers for cotton sold prior to May 1, 1949, was 30.1 cents a pound against an average of 31.93 cents for the 1947 crop. The season average price of cottonseed was $67.40 a ton or about $18.50 below the 1947 average.

The yield of cotton per acre last year was reported at 313.1 pounds compared with 267.3 in 1947.

Paralysis

On March 14, at the direction of one man, our nation's coal production was choked off. More than 400,000 coal miners were asked to leave their jobs for two weeks to be followed by 67,000 railway employees whose jobs depended upon transporting coal.

The cause for this paralysis to a large section of our economy was not any grievance about working conditions, pay, pensions, or vacations. It appears, however, to result from personal dislike of one man for another. In response to the President's appointment of Dr. James Boyd as director of the U.S. Bureau of Mines, John L. Lewis ordered his United Mine Workers on a two-weeks layoff.

Excessive Power?

Within his field, John L. Lewis possesses the nearest approach to dictatorial powers of anyone to appear on the American scene. He has defied Presidents and Congresses, crippled production in the face of economic crises, and flouted the war effort by strikes in wartime. By directly controlling the output of a basic industry, he holds power to strangle our entire economy with a prolonged strike.

With this "spite" strike Lewis has encroached upon two basic fundamentals of our democratic progress: (1) The right of government to make appointments free of pressure, and (2) Freedom of work.

Warning Sign

This action presents a real danger signal to the American public. It shows what can happen when irresponsible leadership of a great body of influence—American labor—goes on a rampage. The implications are alarming. If any one individual were powerful enough to dictate governmental appointments with threats of strikes, a new era of demagogues would indeed be at hand. Such power would be potentially disastrous.

The weapon of indiscriminate strikes is one which labor leaders alone control. Neither government nor management possesses such a power. The rank and file of labor, too, because of their organization, are subject to the orders of those leaders. Many labor leaders recognize this situation and act in a far-sighted manner. However, the selfish actions of any one leader casts unfavorable reflections on the whole movement.

National Responsibility

No more loyal group of American citizens exists than the miners themselves. It is sad irony these people should suffer the brunt of the strike. According to the Associated Press, they will lose about $68 million in wages during the two week layoff. This means $68 million in food, clothing, and other essentials must be forfeited to the whims of one leader who was elected by workers to safeguard their interests.

This points up sharply the need for adequate labor legislation. Without violating the rights of labor, we must draw clearly the line where those rights end and national responsibility begins. The average worker has everything to gain in such legislation. Labor must be accorded complete protection from irresponsibility—found within its own leadership, or elsewhere.

Honoring the birthday of Lee Puckett, a dinner was enjoyed at Bogata Community House on Sunday. Those attending were Mrs. Puckett, Mrs. John Vickers and son, Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Ona Hudson, Larry Ripley, Mrs. Mary Ripley and Betty Puckett of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Puckett and Miss Roberta Kidd.

Attending a Mothers day dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Selman at Paris Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Mitchell and daughter, Alice Ann, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Selman of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Selman of Kiomitia and Mrs. Rissie Kirkland of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Martin of Big Spring, and her mother, Mrs. Thompson of Sonora, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Martin and children of Camp Chaffee, Ft. Smith, Ark., have returned to their homes after a visit here with Elmer Martin and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bolton and other relatives and friends.

Prompt Renewals Insure Missing No Editions

Subscribers to this newspaper are always notified two weeks before their subscriptions become delinquent, and due to the shortage of newsprint, none are sent after the time paid for has expired.

It is also the policy of the paper to date all new subscriptions on the first of the month. If they arrive from the 1st to the 14th they are dated back; if they arrive after the 14th they are dated ahead to the 1st of the next month. Kindly remember this in case your expiration date does not agree with the exact date you ordered the paper.

The best way is to renew promptly before the time paid for has expired, and you will not miss any editions and the date of your subscription will not change.

We appreciate very much the large subscription patronage we enjoy, and often wonder why a subscriber fails to renew. With the high cost of newsprint, printing materials and labor, it certainly is not because he is not getting his money's worth. Procrastination and forgetfulness account for about 99 per cent of those who miss editions, due to being delinquent.

Army Refuses Any More Mustang Creek Drainage

Deport will not get any more aid toward channeling Mustang creek further south of Deport at this time, according to the following letter from Col. John R. Hardin, Department of the Army Corps of Engineers, to Mayor Frank Griffin. It says in part:

"Pursuant to the request of Congressman Patman and Mr. Tom Jeffus, a representative of this District on 22 April, 1949, made an inspection of the Mustang Creek Project at and below Deport, at which time you were contacted.

"It was found that the condition of the channel in the recently excavated section through Deport and extending about a mile below the city was in very good condition, with every indication pointing to an excellent job of maintenance by local interests. Some minor silting has occurred, particularly in the vicinity of the railroad and highway bridges. It is not of sufficient amount to cause any important stage increases, and is of such a nature that it is felt no further silting will occur so long as present soil conservation measures are continued.

"In the lower 5 1/2 miles of the project where work done was limited to channel clearing, a definite need for effective maintenance is indicated. There is a strong tendency for debris to collect at various points. In addition, willow trees which were cut down are now sprouting and filling the stream with their growth. Both of these conditions present formidable obstructions to the flow and certainly prevent full realization of the benefits expected of the project.

"It is most important that this section of the stream be adequately maintained. I would like to point out that a bridge was submerged by about five feet during the recent flood. Flow conditions would be materially improved by either raising the bridge deck above high water level or replacing it with a paved ford. In any event any accumulation of debris such as that shown should be removed as quickly as possible. It is believed that the obstruction at this bridge produced stages several feet higher along the lower reaches of the improved channel than would otherwise have been experienced.

"The recent flood is understood to have caused very little damage despite the fact that the attendant rainfall was reported by local interests to be about 2 1/2 inches in 45 minutes, which is a very unusual precipitation that can be expected to recur very infrequently. In fact a rainfall of this intensity might be expected only about once in 25 years on the average. Even under these unusual conditions while the water backed up in some of the streets for a very brief period, the stages at Deport receded back well within the banks within a few hours. It is recalled that the improved channel handled several previous heavy rainfalls that might be considered more normal in a very effective way. In view of the above it is felt that the present project as designed is adequate, if proper maintenance is provided.

"It is accordingly urged that

"Yes; the dear boy simply can't stand to hear me crack peanuts."

Camel's Head In The Tent

AESOP, in his famous fables, tells the familiar story of the camel who asked his Arab master for permission to put his head in the tent. His master readily agreed. Then the camel wanted his neck in, then his forelegs, then his whole body, and finally he shoved his master out of the tent.

That is the way Socialism works in a Democracy, as illustrated in Britain today and in the United States. A little government control of our lives is like a soothing drug. It is pleasant at times but it grows to be a habit and insidiously undermines self-reliance until the weakened citizens welcome somebody from Washington to take care of them—and make their decisions for them—even if it should be a dictator.

The British Socialist-Labor government already deep in the quicksands of government control, with private investment in housing at a standstill because of laws and regulations, now proposes to put the government not only in the rental business but also in the restaurant and laundry service business, and also authorize city governments to operate boarding houses and sell furniture on the installment plan. They propose to delete the words "working class" from the Housing Act of 1936 and open the blessings (?) of government subsidy to all.

In the T. V. A., the Tennessee experiment in State Socialism, it was first stated by the do-gooders in Washington that the purpose of the project was flood control, soil conservation, and rural rehabilitation, and that hydro-electric power was merely incidental. Now it is proposed to take more government funds to build a new steam generating electric plant which will put the government directly in the power and light business. The supporters of the new generating plant say it is necessary to make the whole project function and to protect the government's investment.

Truly, the camel is almost all the way in the tent. How soon will he begin to shove out his master?

HUBERT M. HARRISON.

What is advertising, anyway?

A lot has been written about advertising.

A lot of speeches have been made about it.

But the whole fact in a nutshell is—advertising is simply a time-saver.

It saves time for the man or woman who wants to buy something—and for the store or factory with something to sell.

And like most time-savers, it's a money-saver too.

THE TALCO TIMES

"Your Home Newspaper"

LOST: Many opportunities to sell goods, if you fail to advertise in this newspaper.

FOUND: An advertising medium of real value, which is READ by thousands of residents of this and adjacent territory.

STRAYED: Your customers, if you fail to keep them informed of your values by advertising in this newspaper.

STOLEN: Trade that you might have kept if you had protected it by advertising.

FOR SALE: Advertising space that will bring you rich returns on a small investment by reaching the buying public of this area.

WANTED: Wide-awake business men who will improve their own businesses and their community by progressive advertising.

REWARD: Increased business and profits for all who keep their values before the public by wise and consistent advertising.

Radar Cooking for Farm Homes Urged

Washington. — Congress has been asked to do something about making "radar cooking" available to farmers' wives.

The suggestion came from Clark T. McWhorter, president of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, who testified before a Senate sub-committee.

Urging a bigger appropriation for farm electrification research, McWhorter said:

"There are many fields that ought to be explored at once. For instance, there is radar cooking. What could be more important to the farm wife than to be able to cook meat in one minute, her beans in less than two minutes, the whole meal in five or ten minutes?"

McWhorter said the idea is more than just "a possibility." He said "it is being done in some of the hotels and restaurants, but nothing has been done toward adapting it for farm use."

HIS POOR FATHER

Have you heard about the two cats who sat watching a tennis tournament? One of them seemed quite intent on the match, following the ball back and forth without missing a stroke. The other cat appeared quite bored and also a bit irritated at his companion's interest.

"I didn't know you cared so much for tennis," he finally purred. "I don't," the other purred, "but my old man's in the racket."

Mrs. James W. Haynes and children returned home Friday after a few days' visit with her parents in Cooper.

Learns How to Stop Erosion Without Aid of Experts—He Just Stops Plowing

Editor's note: Achin Alcorn, philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sulphur, if you ask us, is merely hunting an excuse to loaf, his letter this week reveals, but we're publishing it for what it's worth.

Dear Editor:
For years and years I've been listening to people tell farmers how to conserve their land, and according to the city advisers it's easy, all you have to do is terrace your land and do a few simple things which they make sound about like sendin your suit to the cleaners, and sit back and grow prosperous, but it don't work that way. Buildin a terrace is hard work, re-buildin it after it washes out is harder, and gettin the money to do it with is harder'n that.

However, I believe in savin the soil, and I have a method that will do it, without technical advice from the experts, without no Washington bulletins, without no appropriations, without even callin up the county agent.

Just stop plowin.

Plowin is what causes erosion. Didn't have no erosion to speak of when the Indians and the buffaloes was in control of this country. Leave the ground alone and it'll stay where it is. It took me a long time to discover this fact, for years I plowed my land without knowin it was helpin it wear away, although I knew all along somethin was wearin me

P. MP. Agent Held Up by Hijacker at Mt. Pleasant

M. G. Colley, agent for the Paris and Mt. Pleasant Railroad at Mt. Pleasant, was held up and robbed by a lone hijacker about 2:30 o'clock Monday morning while on duty at the depot.

According to Colley, the bandit entered the building with a gun in his hand and with the statement, "Do as I tell you and you won't get hurt." When asked what he wanted, the man told Colley to open the safe and give him what money was inside.

After opening the safe, the railroad agent handed the bandit a small box containing between $75 and $80. After the latter left Colley called local police who made an immediate investigation.

The money box was found between the station and a box car, Sheriff Coy Coker said, but no trace was found of the bandit. All of the contents of the box were gone. It is being held for possible fingerprint information. A full investigation into the theft is now underway by city, county and state police.

Latimer Buried At Cuthand

Funeral services were held on Saturday in the Cuthand Methodist Church for Thomas David Latimer, 70. He was a prominent farmer of the Cuthand community. Survivors are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Roy Capps, Clarksville, and Miss Delene Latimer, Marshall; one brother, J. B. Latimer, Cuthand; four grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Light travels at the speed of 186,324 miles per second.

away and ain't no doubt in my mind it was plowin.

As I see it, if a man's gonna lose money farmin anyway, he might as well lose it and be a conservationist at the same time. It's easier and you can do it from the front porch. The thought of me out there goin up one row and down another helpin deplete this nation's greatest resource was too much for a thinkin man, a man who has some consideration for future generations, and I quit. Left my plow where it broke down last, sold my mules for five dollars apiece, and turned my land into pasture, which is the easiest operation I ever undertook, all I had to do was leave it alone.

Now I ain't recommendin every farmer ought to follow my example, some of em seem to enjoy plowin and believe in free enterprise and lettin a man do what he pleases, but as for me I have decided to practice soil conservation a hundred percent for awhile. May slow down my income, but it sure does cut off my overhead. The next time somebody tells you I'm lazy, will appreciate you pointin out I'm in the vanguard of progress, savin my land for future generations.

Yours faithfully, A. A.

Weekly Swing of SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

Despite numerous weak spots, southwest farm markets ruled mostly steady to strong during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Cotton scored advanced of 50 cents to $3 a bale. Spot middling 15-16 inch closed Monday at 32.55 cents a pound at Dallas.

Most grains sold from 1 to 3 cents higher than a week ago, although corn declined slightly. No. 2 yellow milo closed Monday at $2.57 to $2.62 per hundred pounds at Texas common points. No. 1 wheat brought $2.36 to $2.43 a bushel. No. 2 white corn sold at $1.66½ to $1.69½ and yellow corn $1.55½ to $1.57.

Butcher hogs netted gains of 25 to 50 cents and feeder pigs advanced around $1 in Texas and Oklahoma. Other swine saw little change. Top butcher hogs closed Monday at $18.25 at Texas markets. Receipts fell off slightly. Pork sold weak to $3 lower.

Cattle sold unchanged to $1 higher at most markets, but Houston and San Antonio recorded losses up to $1 or more compared to a week earlier. Calves declined most at the south Texas markets. Medium and good slaughter calves sold $24 to $27 for good and choice. Last week's cattle receipts about equaled the week before, but calves increased in Texas. Steer beef sold weak to 50 cents lower for the week, and veal as much as $1 lower. More liberal marketing of hens lowered prices this week. Light hens brought 22 to 25 cents a pound at Dallas, where heavy weights brought 26 to 30. Eggs held mostly steady at around 40 cents a dozen.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How Would You Say It?

Curley Lawson's cousin from back East and a few of us got talking when he was here visiting, and I couldn't help noticing how different he said things.

For instance, he said, "Lifting that 200-pound bag of cement almost killed me." "You mean sack of cement?" asks Curley. (That's the way we'd say it.) "No," interrupts young Elliott who'd spent a lot of time down South, "He means a 'poke of see-ment.'"

It was good for a chuckle, anyway. Bag, sack or poke—we knew what he was trying to say. It just depends on where you are in the U. S., which way sounds right.

From where I sit, whenever we criticize someone for sounding funny to us, we ought to think how we sound to them. It's the same as choosing your liquid refreshment. I'm accustomed to a moderate glass of beer—you may like ginger ale—but who's to say the other's wrong? I'd say we're both right!
