Larry Bullard Has Leg Wound

Sp-4 Larry Bullard, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bullard of 1604 Dallas St. has been wounded in action in Vietnam and is hospitalized at Chu-Lai.

Letter written in the hospital Jan. 16 reached his parents Tuesday.

According to the letter Bullard's Army platoon was entering a village when he was struck by an enemy bullet in the leg.

"I am already getting around some on crutches," Bullard wrote. He added that he expects to be hospitalized at Chu-Lai until Feb. 1, at least, but that he is "all right."

Sp-4 Bullard has been on duty in Vietnam for the past 7 months. His wife Geneva and their children Quinton and Stacey live in Lamesa.

Cliff Neely's Funeral Today

Funeral service for Clifford Dewitt Neely, 55, manager of Villa Inn Motel here, will be held at 10:30 Thursday (this morning in Kiker and Son Chapel with the Rev. Billy Wilkerson, pastor of First Methodist Church conducting.

Neely died unexpectedly about noon Tuesday of an apparent heart attack while playing with a grandchild in the kitchen of the Neely apartment suite at the Villa.

He was active in the Lakes, Sports, & Tourism committee of the Chamber, in the Lions Club, and was a member of the Masonic Order and the First Methodist Church.

MOD Nets $1,102 Total

Contributions to the 1969 Mothers' March on birth defects for March of Dimes Wednesday morning had reached $1,102 with several area captains still to report.

This amount is just $93 short of the complete total of donations made by local citizens in the 1968 annual drive.

Final tabulation of contributions are expected to equal or surpass last year's total, according to drive leaders.

Mrs. Lacy Boles served as this year's Mothers' March chairman. Billy Erwin is county chairman for March of Dimes.

Born in Marion, Ind., Feb. 16, 1913, he was married to the former Miss Juanita Jones in Lovington, N. M., in 1937. The family moved to Colorado City in 1965. They had formerly lived in Kermit, Sandown, and Odessa.

Surviving Neely are his wife of the home; one son Clifton D. Neely of El Paso; two daughters, Mrs. Kathryn Bullington of Denver, Colorado, guest in her parents' home at the time of her father's death, and Mrs. Elizabeth Blair of Colorado City.

Two sisters, Mrs. O. W. Hadley and Mrs. Velma Neely, both of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and two grandchildren also survive.

Following the chapel rites here the body will be flown to Tulsa for burial there.

Sam Baugh Added To Maynard Day

Sammy Baugh is coming to the party.

Baugh, conceded by most sports writers to be the greatest passer in the history of football, will be greeting Don Maynard, greatest record-breaking pro pass receiver, here at the coming celebration saluting Maynard.

Baugh, who ranches now near Rotan, first became a West Texas favorite as a Sweetwater High School Mustang star back in the thirties. As quarterback for TCU's Southwestern championship Horned Frogs, he shone as the era's greatest all-around player - passer, kicker, runner - and led Texas Christian to the National championship in the Sugar Bowl.

His renown spread to pro circles when he played with the Washington Redskins. Later he returned to West Texas as coach at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, then joined the coaching staff for Houston Oilers, now the Houston Astros.

Baugh coached Maynard when the team played under the Titan banner and will be one of three Maynard ex-coaches to take part in the program set for next week.

Don Maynard Day plans, continued to expand, according to Bob Reilly, chairman of the Lakes, Sports, & Tourism Committee for the Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the special event.

Banquet, set for 7:30 Thursday evening Jan. 30 in Civic House, will have as master of ceremonies Truman Nix, head coach and athletic director at Colorado High School.

Mayor John H. Chinn will deliver a welcome address and Don Benson, president of the Chamber of Commerce will make the presentation of a gift for Maynard from his hometown fans.

Mike Brumbelow of El Paso, former college football coach when Maynard starred for Texas Western, now University of Texas at El Paso, will make the chief address.

Brumbelow is widely known as a seasoned and humorous public speaker.

Review of Maynard's three-letter high school athletic career will be given by another guest speaker, Jerome Duxkemper of Austin.

Duxkemper was head coach at Colorado High School when Maynard took part in football, basketball, and track.

The honor guest, Maynard, will respond with his own reminiscings.

A 30 minute period will follow the formal portion of the program for open questions and answers.

During the informal period students and grownup guests will be invited to ask the ex-Wolf star who is now a pro star questions about the world of professional sports.

Maynard will be accompanied to Colorado City by his wife Marilyn and his mother Mrs. E. T. Maynard of Odessa.

He is the famous flanker for the New York Jets professional football team which won the American Football championship this year and then went on to take the all-pro world title by beating the Baltimore Colts, National Football League champions.

Maynard currently holds the all-time record for yards gained receiving passes in pro football. He and his party are expected to arrive Thursday morning, Jan. 30 in time to visit his old hometown and to be saluted with an all-town banquet.

Luncheon meeting of the Sports Committee, Monday, completed program plans.

Working with Reilly, chairman, are Truman Bodine, director representative, Jeff Taylor, Sefton Pickens, Aldred Pickens, Mrs. Nathan Rogers, Frank Derogibus, assisted by Lacy Boles of the Colorado City Record and Drew Fallard, manager-owner of KVMC radio station.

Tickets went on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office Friday. Ticket sale began at Colorado High School Monday morning. All Sports Committee members also have tickets to sell, said Reilly.

Capacity crowd for Civic House dinners is 400. Students and adults expecting to attend the Don Maynard Day dinner party are urged by the committee to reserve or buy their tickets as soon as possible.

Well over 100 tickets were sold the first day and a half they were offered, said Reilly. Tickets are $2 each for the seated dinner.

'Paint Your Wagon' Musical Planned By Playhouse

Colorado City Playhouse, local amateur theatre group, will have tryouts for a new musical, "Paint Your Wagon," Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:30 in the high school auditorium.

"Paint Your Wagon" is one of their less known plays but is also one of their best, said George Womack who will direct the production here with Bob Newman to direct the music.

Soon-to-be released as an $18 million movie starring Lee Marvin, "Paint Your Wagon" features the popular song "They Call The Wind Maria."

Time is Gold Rush time in California. Scene is a mining town.

There will be roles for 24 men and 12 women making the musical the most ambitious production attempted by the Playhouse. All Playhouse members are invited by Don DeLaney, Playhouse president, to attend the tryouts and to bring an interested friend or neighbor is possible.

To be cast are singing parts for major roles of Ben Runson, father of Jennifer, Ingenu, who also has a singing role.

Some of the best songs will be sung by the men who plays Julio Valveras, in love with Jennifer. Male voices are needed for the parts of Steve Bull-nack, Jake Whippany, Jacob Woodling, Salem Trumbell, older general store owner, is a non-singing role.

Girls and young women are needed for Jennifer, Elizabeth Woodling, Leah Woodling, Cherry Jourdel, and eight dance hall girls.

Speaking parts for men are available for the roles of Mike Mooney, Dr. John Newcomb, Edgar Crocker, Pay Janney, gambler; Sandy Twist, Pete Billings, Rocky, Jasper, Sam and Joe, all miners; Rueben Sloane, Butchie, saloon owner, and the coachman.

Tentative date for "Paint Your Wagon" is mid-April.

Presented, to date, have been the musicals "The Fantasticks," "Stop The World I Want To Get Off," and "Lil Abner."

County Cancer Society To Meet

Meeting of the Mitchell County Cancer Society will be held Thursday night in the Community Room of the City National Bank at 7:30.

Judge Elmer Martin will preside. Reports will be made in service, education, and publicity areas.

Outstanding Woman Of The Year

Mrs. Bill A. Jackson, center, received the third annual trophy given by Colorado City Business & Professional Women's Club to the Outstanding Woman of the Year. Presentation was made by Mrs. O. R. Houser, at left. Mrs. Witt Hines, at right, was presented a special award in recognition of her service as chairman of the County Historical Committee.

Banquet Speakers

Distinguished Service Award

Wolves Win 65-60, Aim For Snyder

Colorado High, already with one puncture on the District 3-AAA path, spurred from behind in the third quarter and defeated a stubborn Sweetwater High club, 65-60, here Tuesday night.

For Coach Caddo Matthews' Wolves, who move over into Scurry County Coliseum Friday night for another important district battle with Snyder, the triumph kept them in South Zone championship contention with 2 wins and a single loss to undefeated Lamesa.

For the Mustangs, who were beaten by the Wolves before the zone schedule began, it was loss No. 3 in title play with no victories.

While C-City and Snyder were winning to set the stage for their Friday night encounter, Zone leader Lamesa was whipping Lake View, 69-44, for its third straight.

Benny Word led the Snyder offense that scuttled Brownfield's unbeaten record. Word hit for 17 points, but he was capably assisted by Jerry January and Jodi Williamson with 13 and Lee McNair with 11.

Colorado City's B-Team broke into the win column against South Zone competition with a 72-66 triumph, leading all the way.

Wendell Mays and Carl Devorce were the big guns, each hitting the scoreboard for 19 points. However, Sweetwater's Randy Smith scored 22 points for top honors.

Unlike the varsity, the B-Team hit 64 per cent of its free throws - 18 out of 28.

Box scores of the varsity and B games follow.

C-City: Matthews 3-1-4-7, Parker 7-0-1-14, James 10-2-5-22, Bender 4-0-1-8, Hopkins 4-2-3-10, Riley 1-0-2-2, Safford 1-0-4-2. Totals 30-5-2-65.

Ponies: Williams 6-3-1-15, Walker 3-3-4-9, Thompson 2-2-3-6, McCain 2-2-3-6, Redwine 0-0-0-0, Teston 6-1-1-13, Monroe 4-3-1-11. Totals 17-18-9-16.

James went off the court via the foul route with less than three minutes to play, but Sweetwater couldn't cash in on the loss.

Just as last week when they lost to zone favorites Lamesa, the Wolves were woefully weak in the free throw department against Sweetwater. They hit only 4 of 15 tries for a thin 33 per cent.

Sweetwater scored 14 points by the foul route, hitting 50 per cent of its 28 chances.

James led scorers with 24 points, scoring all but 2 of those points in the first three quarters. Sweetwater's Harold Williams counted 15 points and the Wolves' Parker was nearby with 14.

Snyder, who will have not only a home advantage Friday night when they play the Wolves but also the extra lift of being acquainted with the big coliseum, Tuesday night knocked Brownfield from the South Zone unbeaten list, 65-59.

That sizzling win put the Tigers and Wolves abreast of each other with the same 2-1 record. And the loser Friday will have an uphill job of staying in title contention even with South and North Zones each sending two top leaders into district playoffs next month.

C-City was on the verge of disaster Tuesday after Sweetwater rallied in the second quarter for a 33-35 halftime lead.

The Mustangs kept up the pace in the opening moments of the third quarter and stretched their advantage to 6 points before the Wolves rebounded.

Big Lynel James hit 3 field goals, Willie Hopkins and Randy Parker added 2 each to spark the offensive. Robert Bender and Johnny Matthews contributed field goals as the Wolves outscored the Ponies 18-9 in that decisive third period and moved into the final quarter with a 51-44 margin.

They needed it, too. For the Ponies bounced right back and hit for 16 points in the last 8 minutes while the Wolves were scoring 14.

Rev. Hamilton 4-H Girl Shows New CAP Coordinator Reserve Champ

Board of directors for the Community Action Program here employed the Rev. Richard C. Hamilton as new coordinator for the program here in a meeting at Community Center.

Rev. Hamilton, pastor of Mount Zion Baptist Church, is a retired Air Force sergeant. He has been an on-call relief mail carrier at the Colorado City post office, a part-time job he resigned in assuming the post of CAP coordinator.

He follows Mrs. Harfis Hamilton of Loraine who resigned as CAP coordinator first employed by the board.

The new coordinator, and the two aides, Cecilia Valdez and Florence Green, began work Wednesday morning at the CAP headquarters located in Community Center, said Eddie Piliand, chairman of the board of directors.

First program to be undertaken will be organization of a "Golden Age Group," a project approved in a recent CAP board meeting.

Plans call for the program to get underway not later than the second Wednesday in February. Games of checkers, dominoes, cribbage, canasta, bridge, jigsaw puzzles, arts and crafts will be offered at Neighborhood Center which is located in the city-owned Community Center, East 19th St.

"Golden Age" citizens who prefer reading to games. Refreshments will be served at each meeting.

"Golden Age" program is not eligible for federal funds, said Rev. Hamilton, who has issued a plea for volunteers to help with refreshments and meetings. Small donations to the refreshments fund will be welcomed, said the coordinator.

Telephone number of Neighborhood Center is 728-5060.

Volunteers are asked to notify the center if they can help with the program or can contribute to the volunteer "Golden Age" fund for it. Workers are asked to specify particular interests or skills. Needed are volunteers willing to help with child care; work with maintenance or repair; teach or tutor; prepare and serve refreshments; supervise arts and crafts; read stories for children; do community survey work.

Under consideration are an on-job training program, a day care center for children of employed parents, a family planning program, perhaps a clean-up campaign, he added.

Federal funds will be requested through the Office of Economic Opportunity which finances 90 percent of the CAP projects.

The city of Colorado City has assumed 10 percent of the expense and is providing space in Community Center for the neighborhood center.

Volunteers are asked to call or visit the center and to specify number of hours per week or per month they can help.

Home on Furlough

Sgt. Cleve Moore of Clark Air Force Base in Manila is here on furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Therman Moore.

Mitchell County 4-H girl, Becky Merket, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Merket of Loraine, showed the Reserve Champion steer in the district livestock show at Sweetwater, Jan. 10.

Her Reserve Champion was an angus steer bred by L. C. Jennings of Cooper's Cove and fed under supervision of Bobby Lemons, county agent.

Grand Champion steer of the show was a Hereford exhibited by Freddie Freeman of Roscoe.

Jerry Dell Strain, 4-H daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waddell Strain of Colorado City, took Grand Championship award in the commercial (carcass) contest.

Other Mitchell County feeders winning prizes for live steers were Larry McClure, fourth, and Kenny Hammond, fifth, in the lightweight division, Becky Merket's middleweight steer places second in its class, with

Stanley Hackfeld's exhibit third, Jeff Merket's sixth, and Eddie Merket's ninth in middleweight division.

Eddie Merket won third prize for his heavyweight steer with his sister Becky winning fourth for her heavy exhibit. Charlie Smith won twelfth, Kenny McClure, fifteenth in the heavy class.

Three Mitchell County feeders came home with prizes in the lamb show.

David Brownfield showed the Grand Champion finewool lamb. His sister Janet showed her mediumweight lamb to seventh place in its division, and Bruce Rich had the ninth place crossbred lamb.

Swine show prize went to Bill Dockrey for his 9th place Hampshire, and to Gary Ritchey for his 10th lightweight Poland China pig.

Loraine Man Dies In Crash

Pedro (Pete) Martinez, 18, of Loraine, died shortly after arrival at Root Memorial Hospital Sunday at about 2 p.m. as a result of injuries sustained in a two-car accident at 1:45 Sunday afternoon.

Fernando Silva, passenger, was given emergency treatment at the hospital and dismissed. Another passenger, Jesse Aguilar, was shaken up but uninjured.

The accident occurred at the south edge of Colorado City on State Highway 163. Santos Contreras, 20, of Colorado City, was driver of the second car. He and his three passengers escaped injury. Riding with Contreras were Alex Rocha, Joe and Fidel Silva.

Jim Mauldin, Texas, State Highway Patrolman, said that both cars were traveling south at a high rate of speed and that the crash happened when the Martinez auto passed on the right.

Martinez' car left the highway, swerving to the right, to hit a highway sign before running into a field of brush. Martinez was thrown from the car he was driving when it hit the sign.

Born in San Benito June 12, 1950, he moved to Loraine with his parents in 1957. He was son of Mr. and Mrs. Donato Martinez.

His parents, five brothers, and five sisters, survive him.

Funeral services were conducted in the Catholic Church at Loraine at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Burial was in Loraine cemetery under direction of Kiker & Son Funeral Home.

DON'T BE MISLED BY SO-CALLED 'RURAL CO-OP INSURANCE'

Letters flooding the Mitchell County area advertise a so-called "Rural Co-op Plans" hospitalization insurance program. The advertising, mailed to residences, implies this "insurance" is special for co-op members and other citizens after a "special enrollment in your county."

The insurance firm has no connection with Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Inc. It is not associated in any business manner with Lone Wolf Electric Cooperatives, Inc. or with Texas Electric Cooperatives, Inc.

Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Inc. regrets if this wrongfully implies a local cooperative is sponsoring the insurance plan and considers any attempt by the Dallas firm to gain interest through the use of "Rural Co-op Plans" confusing to our members, their families and friends.

The Board of Directors of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Inc., in view of the serious implications of this type mail advertising, takes this means to set the record straight by informing the citizens of this area Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Inc. is NOT a sponsor for this insurance, has NOT hired this insurance firm and has NO interest in its insurance plan.

CONVERSATION CORNER

THOSE of you who watched all of the inaugural ceremonies — or saw part of them reviewed on the TV night news — don't need this column to tell you all about it.

Feel constrained to say this much. Liked President Nixon's address. Liked the smile in President Johnson's eyes better. But then, that was to be expected!

Love the sprightly way the US Marine Corps Band played Irving Berlin's "God Bless America!" and the way that magnificent Mormon Choir sang "This Is My Country."

Liked the way Senator Dirksen presided. He's a character. And a real American.

All in all it was a good day. It was as painless as any Republican triumph ever could be to any Democrat.

— So much for the ceremonies in general.

IN PARTICULAR, being feminine, little irrelevant and sometimes irreverent bits kept popping in and out of the mind... bits of trivia distracting attention from the solemnity of the historic occasion.

Bits of trivia... like these... almost to a man the main participants on the rostrum had on striped ties. Except of course for men of the cloth.

President Johnson's tie stripes were horizontal. President Nixon's, diagonal, and Billy Graham's were vertical. Which may, or may not, mean something.

BOTH first ladies wore fur hats with cloth coats. And the audience below the rostrum was a sea of fur hoods. Many of 'em white.

Daughters of both the Johnson and the Nixon families looked beautiful and... more trivia... the Agnew family came across a bit like dressed-up country cousins.

Fey! And "Yes Virginia, there is a Mrs. Everett Dirksen." She was there up front beaming at her man. Did you notice that he and she look sorta alike? His and hers smiles, anyhow.

WONDER why men of all faiths, when asked to pray at a state occasion, invariably read their prayers?

Maybe it's because they are men — very special and dedicated men, but still men who quake at the thought of getting befuddled within the hearing of the whole nation.

God, who knows priests and preachers are mortal, surely looks down and understands... and just as surely hears petitions mixed with oratory.

FINAL bits of trivia picked up on the morning of rest (Monday) would have to include satisfaction that no camera and no comment concerning the Yippies disrupted the protocol.

This was a purely American event. No top hats. Matter of fact no hats on most of the gentlemen.

And, finally, a man who likes and appreciates poetry enough to read lines from Archibald McLeish at his own inaugural address as new President of the United States, can't be all bad, my fellow Democrats!

MEET THE PRESS, Sunday, featured an interview with George Christian, press secretary to President Johnson.

Christian is moving back to Austin to head his own Press Relations firm. He sounds like a Christian gentleman. (Pun intended.)

His move means our Mrs. John Brown of 532 Elm St. will get to see her granddaughters Susan and Elizabeth Christian more often. The girls are daughters of the late Betty Brown Christian.

COLORADO HIGH graduating class members of 1953 are busy receiving replies to their out-of-town invitations for their Feb. 1 reunion honoring Don Maynard, pro football star who plays with the New York Jets.

Louise Hart Crenshaw (Mrs. Paul Jr.) of Midland will be here for the occasion with three of her four children.

Bob Richardson, his wife Robin, and their two small sons will be here from Dallas.

Bill Worrell and family of Lubbock will attend.

Lee Mitchell of Independence, Mo., can't come but sent a stamped, self-addressed envelope asking for an autograph from Maynard for his son David Mitchell, aged 11.

JUST HEARD that Randy Robertson, son of the M. D. Robertsons who moved from C-City to Sand Springs, was on duty on the flight deck of the Enterprise, giant carrier struck by explosions and fire.

Randy, who was 18 last June, joined the Navy in August. A call to his parents after 11 p. m. last Thursday assured them that he is pretty much all right in spite of knee injuries and slight burns.

First aid took care of him and he was still on duty helping to clean up the deck. His bunk and all his worldly possessions were blown to bits by the explosion.

"All I've got right now is what's on my back," he told his father who works for Cosden.

PLENTY GOING ON

Something or other is always going on around here. Well-rounded people have a real wide choice when it comes to both endeavor and entertainment in this community.

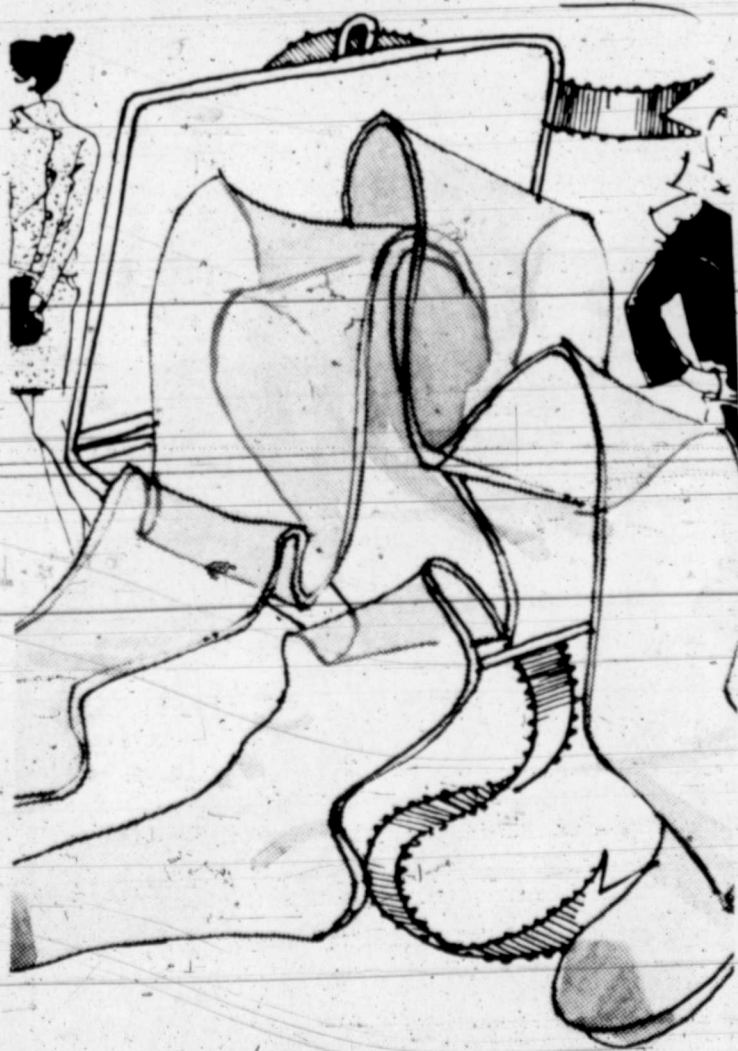

Like, say, the Chamber banquet and the 4-H & FFA Livestock Show, same week... and the traditional favorite Howl Night coming up tonight in Colorado High auditorium.

Notice C-City Playhouse is calling for three dozen people who want to act and/or sing in their spring musical "Paint Your Wagon." Tryouts are Monday and Tuesday.

That's all good entertainment. Now when it comes to endeavor, how's about volunteering for the CAP... joining in the Go-For-Industry Fund... and — for women who care — the hospital auxiliary?

The Stranger Here

The Stranger was in town this week advertising the movie, "The Stranger Returns", which begins Thursday and runs through Saturday at Palace Theatre. "The Stranger Returns", a sequence to "A Stranger in Town", stars Tony Anthony and will be shown as a double feature with "Danger Diabolik". The Stranger (characterized here by Oscar Haney, manager of local theatres) is shown here with Virginia Aguilar.

Stranger Returns Opens Here at Palace

In "The Stranger Returns", a MGM movie which begins Thursday at Palace, Tony Anthony again plays the title role in the vivid characterization he created in "A Stranger in Town".

The movie is on a double bill with "Danger Diabolik" to show Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

This time The Stranger has learned of a plot in which the bandit gang intend to lay hands on a shipment of gold to be transported in a six-horned stagecoach and he has decided that if there is any gold to be had, he will have it.

Circumstances involve him with a white-haired, hellfire and brimstone preacher with a penchant for setting off fireworks, who becomes his partner in a strategem by which the bandits capture the wrong stagecoach.

A postal clerk, who also wants to get in on the easy money has arranged for two duplicate coaches - one an ordinary one; the other with thin wooden panels concealing a framework made of gold. It is this gold framework which both the bandits and the Stranger are after.

An army lieutenant has been called in on the case and has figured out that the captured stagecoach is in the hands of the notorious bandito, En Plein, and is ready to deliver a $10,000 reward to En Plein's captor.

The Stranger is not only after that reward, but the fortune in gold as well.

Ironie ending of the movie is filled with surprise.

Together with Tony Anthony, who is creating a special movie image for himself with his popular Stranger roles, the cast of "The Stranger Returns" has Dan Vadis as En Plein; Daniele Vargas, Marco Guglielmi as The Preacher; Raf Baldassarre and Hill Banner as a young wife.

Vance Lewis, who directed the earlier "Stranger" adventure, also directed "The Stranger Returns", filmed in color from an original story by Tony Anthony and screenplay by Bob Ensescalle Jr. and Jone Mang.

Stelvio Cipriani composed and conducted the musical score for the Allen Klein production.

Annual Howl Night to Reveal King, Queen of Colorado High

King Howl and Queen Howl will be crowned Thursday evening 8 p. m. in Colorado High School auditorium.

The presentation of king, queen and their court will highlight an evening of entertainment sponsored annually by Quill and Scroll, an international honor society for high school journalists.

Following the court presentation a command performance will be by twirlers, cheerleaders and a quartet of concert choir members.

Another feature of the program will be the installation of new Quill and Scroll members.

Sammy Majors will be master of ceremonies. Alfred Lynch will be trumpeter.

Command performances by students will include a dance routine by Cheryl Hines.

Twirlers on the program will be Vickie Cotton, Janine Hodge, Nancy Wood, Patty Eodine and Martha Kinard.

Cheerleaders presenting a dance number will be Mary Lou Wilkerson, Sara Harris, Cindy Waldrip, Linda Banks and Rose Ann Elum.

Paula Harris will accompany four concert choir members - Sharia Aeff, Sally Smith, Don Feaster and Robert Jones - in a vocal number.

Don Feaster is general chairman for this year's event.

Stage managers are Kenny Key and Randy Mix. Lights will be operated by Larry Parham.

Ushers will be Renee Ebernard, Christy Hammond, Wilma Currie, Melinda McCloud, Debra Price and Judith Myers.

A reception for Quill and Scroll members, their parents and members of the court will be hosted following the program

Jaycees are the young men of action in our community.

Throughout the year, the Jaycees have demonstrated their interest in making this community better by spearheading many projects. Support the Jaycee activities.

This is National Jaycee Week... the week 7,300 Jaycee chapters celebrate their birthday. Urge young men, you know to join the Jaycees this week.

Homemaking Girls Visit Trailer Home

Third period homemaking class of Colorado High School, instructed by Mrs. Caddo Matthews recently visited the trailer home of Mrs. E. H. Winn.

Purpose of the field trip was to gain a better understanding of the advantages and disadvantages of trailer living and to discover unique ways that minimum space can be utilized for storage.

The visit climaxed the group's study of home management and storage in the home.

Mrs. Winn, grandmother of a homemaking student, Elaine Winn, recently moved into the trailer home at the corner of Sixth and Chestnut Streets from a large home where she had lived since her marriage.

Mrs. Winn welcomed the group to "Golden House" as she has named her new home and conducted the short tour.

She explained the reasons for her decision in buying a trailer home, placing furniture, etc.

Mrs. Winn displayed her round dining table, a special hobby room, an arrangement of doll china and a collection of antique buttons, some of which were over 100 years old, which Mrs. Winn used to decorate a pillow.

Here with Parents

Home from Baylor University in Waco during spring vacation were Dale Morris and Jeral Graves.

Morris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlene Morris. Graves is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Graves.

1969-70 Officers for Hesperians

Officers to be installed next fall for the ensuing club season for Hesperian Study Club are, left to right, Mrs. Bennett Scott, recording secretary; Mrs. John Hale, treasurer, and Mrs. J. A. Sadler Sr., Federation counselor. The new officer slate was named Friday in a meeting in Hesperian Room of Mitchell County Public Library.

4-H'ers Honor Marricles

A surprise going-away party honored Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Marricle and David Saturday evening in Medallion Room of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative building.

Cupps Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Cupp of Odessa visited here Tuesday night and Wednesday.

They were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cupp, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Greenfield.

Hosting the fete were members of Mitchell County 4-H Club.

The Marricles were presented an electric percolator and a plaque for five years of service to the club.

Steve Hill, co-chairman, presided during a business meeting. Mike McClure led the U. S. Pledge. Bill Dockrey directed the 4-H Pledge and motto.

Miss Christy Stubblefield installed new officers.

Hey, You! We're Talking About Power

But all these are confined to certain force, certain influence. No more. Each has its limits.

Only one power has no bounds -- the power of FAITH. FAITH in God reaches beyond military power, auto power, money power and all the rest... even death. Yet, this mightiest power is so available and ready even a little child can lead us to it if we truly seek.

Power comes in many packages. Horsepower speeds our cars while rocket power thrusts us toward the moon and nuclear power propels us to no-one-knows-where.

There is money power, too, and some people seek it by any means just as others use political power to corrupt.

Club Hears CHS Librarian, Votes $25 for Industry

Members of Self Culture Club heard Colorado High School Librarian, Mrs. Charles Godwin, speak on "How to use the Library" and then visited Mitchell County Public Library Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Godwin, a guest speaker, was introduced by Mrs. Keith.

She advised members to acquaint themselves with library regulations and obtain membership cards.

Club members heard information describing various parts of a book, classification of books and arrangement of the library Dewey Decimal System which is used in CHS library, and card catalog arrangement.

Mrs. Godwin distributed cards of "Readers' Guide and Abridged Readers' Guide" and explained their use.

She said that the guide will help you know which of your magazines to keep. "Some magazines have an index at the end of a year," she explained.

In speaking of the dictionaries as an important reference, Mrs. Godwin said, "It tells much more than how to spell a word. If you do not use yours for other things, find out what it has in it by reading the preface which shows you the scope and about the table of contents."

She spoke of encyclopedias and other reference books such as those with quotations, biographical, scientific dictionaries, etc.

The group also heard information of the vertical file which contains pamphlets, newspaper clippings, etc. and about audio-visual materials.

Following the program and a refreshment hour, members browsed through the public library putting into practice

Local Girls Travel With Chanters

Miss Mary Wood and Miss Gloria Richardson, members of McMurry College Chanters, are currently touring with the choral group in Texas and New Mexico.

Miss Wood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wood of 505 Oak Street.

Miss Richardson is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Richardson of 1736 Chestnut Street.

The Chanters will visit 16 cities and perform 18 concerts during the 10-day tour. They will travel 4,502 miles.

They will appear in Brownfield, Lockney, Levelland, Muleshoe, Midland, Big Spring and Sweetwater, Texas and Clovis, Fort Sumner, Las Vegas, Espanola, Los Alamos, Albuquerque, Tularosa, Alamogordo and Artesia in New Mexico.

Chanters are directed by Bernhard Tiede, associate professor of music and former director of the division of fine arts at Kilgore College.

Both, Miss Wood and Miss Richardson, are freshman students at the Abilene College.

Final Rites For Kin

WESTROCK - Funeral services for Mrs. Will Herring were conducted recently in Hamilton.

Mrs. Herring is an aunt of Price Hendrix of Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Richards of Midland were guests last week end of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anson Henderson.

In Odessa last Saturday with Miss Donna Bryant were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bryant.

MITCHELL COUNTY'S

Champions on Parade

4-H & FFA STOCK SHOW

Grand Champion steer in the 1969 County Livestock Show was exhibited by Eddie Merket, left, Loraine 4-H Club member. The Champ was a crossbred Shorthorn-Angus and also took the prize as best calf bred in this county. At right is Randy Hoyle and his Grand Champion lamb. Randy showed his lamb under the Colorado City FFA Chapter banner.

David Brownfield, near right, fifth-grade pupil had the Reserve Champion lamb in the Saturday Mitchell County 4-H & FFA Livestock Show here. He was sponsored by the CHS Chapter of the FFA and showed his lamb in the fine wool class. At far right is Steve Smith and the Grand Champion barrow he exhibited to first-place honors. Steve is a 4-H project feeder.

Reserve Champion Steer was this Hereford calf fed and groomed by Kenneth Hammond, left, Mitchell County 4-H'er. The calf, "Red," also judged as the best steer bred in the county was bred by Albert and Billy Hammond. At right is Marsha Brownfield and her lightweight barrow which took Reserve Champion trophy in the swine division, under Colorado City FFA colors.

Crow Shoot Set By Kiwanis Club

Kiwanis Club members have announced as their new money-making project a crow shoot to be started by the civic club Saturday, Feb. 8, from Buford Gin.

Registration fee of $1 may be made at Jay Adams Chevrolet, Rogers Delinted Cotton Seed Co., or at the town office of Dell Barber, attorney.

A number of crows captured by Kiwanians and marked with numbered leg bands will be released to be hunted by the registered hunters in Kiwanis crow shoot.

Merchants and other businessmen and organizations will be asked by the Kiwanis Club to donate prizes for numbered crows shot. Other prizes are to be announced, said a club announcement.

Rules of the crow shoot specify that any hunter who shoots a crow with a numbered leg band within two months (through April 8) from the date of the crow shoot will be entitled to the prize for this numbered crow.

Another rule states that only registered crow shoot hunters are eligible for prizes. Designated territories will be provided on opening day, Saturday, Feb. 8. After that date hunters must have permission from land owners to continue the hunt.

Hunters will drive only on the turn-rows and not out in the fields, will shoot nothing but crows, will stay away from vacant barns and houses, and will hunt only with a shot gun. No rifles or pistols can be carried," reads another rule.

Possession or drinking of intoxicants is barred for registered crow shoot participants.

Miss Lee Dies Of Long Illness

Miss Georgia Pauline Lee, 58, died after a long illness at 12:05 a. m. Tuesday in Root Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient for several months.

Born in Eastland County Jan. 5, 1911, she moved with her parents to Mitchell County in 1913. She had lived in Colorado City since 1938 and was employed in the old Max Berman Department Store for many years.

Miss Lee was an active member of the Oak Street Baptist Church, and until her illness was teacher of a woman's Sunday School Class.

Funeral services were conducted in Oak Street Baptist Church at 2 p. m. Wednesday by the pastor, Rev. Calvin Gustin, assisted by Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor of First Baptist Church.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Frank Dearen, 213 East 13th St., and Miss Mabel Lee, 831 Chestnut St. Colorado City. Three nephews and five nieces also survive.

Survivors are his wife of the home, one son, Leroy Childs of Lubbock; a stepson, James Simmons of Berkeley, Calif.; two brothers, R. D. Jackson of Ennis and Pat Jackson of Arkansas; two sisters, Irene Jackson of Hullwood and Ophelia Young of Honey Grove.

Funeral service will be held in the CME Payne Chapel Methodist Church at 2 p. m. Thursday (today) with burial in Mitchell County cemetery, directed by Kiker & Son Funeral Home.

prizes. Each participant will agree by signature to assume his own risk, the rule sheet points out.

Money netted from the crow shoot will go into the Kiwanis Club projects fund to be used to help needy children and to add to the scholarship fund presented at a graduating senior each May, said Larry Kinard, Kiwanis Club president.

Burial was in the Colorado City cemetery with Kiker & Son Funeral Home in charge.

Pall bearers were Dr. W. K. Cowan, Fob Ramage, Lester Horn, Virgil Eaton, Fred Smith, Wendell Thomas, and Lucien Maddin.

Funeral Rites Held For Seals

Richard Seals, 74, died early Monday in the Veterans Administration Hospital at Big Spring after an extended illness.

He was a veteran of World War I. Born in Honey Grove July 15, 1894, he moved to Colorado City in 1922 and had lived here since.

Survivors are his wife of the home, one son, Leroy Childs of Lubbock; a stepson, James Simmons of Berkeley, Calif.; two brothers, R. D. Jackson of Ennis and Pat Jackson of Arkansas; two sisters, Irene Jackson of Hullwood and Ophelia Young of Honey Grove.

Funeral service will be held in the CME Payne Chapel Methodist Church at 2 p. m. Thursday (today) with burial in Mitchell County cemetery, directed by Kiker & Son Funeral Home.
