STORM DUE TO STRIKE FLORIDA TODAY

STRONG WINDS EXPECTED TO LASH AREA

WARNINGS ARE BEING RAISED; GEORGIA ALSO IN PATH

(By The Associated Press)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., July 30—A 200-mile stretch of Florida's west coast battened down to withstand hurricane winds early today while a tropical storm moved in from the Gulf of Mexico.

At 1:45 a. m. (Central time) the weather bureau reported the storm centered about 90 to 100 miles south-southwest of Apalachicola.

Heavy Winds Due

The bureau warned that the disturbance carried winds of minimum hurricane force (75 m. p. h.) at its narrow center and estimated it would reach the coast at or slightly west of Apalachicola sometime this forenoon if it continued moving northwestward at its then rate of 12 to 15 miles an hour.

Hurricane warnings, already flying from Cedar Keys to Apalachicola, were ordered extended to Panama City, 80 miles northwest of Apalachicola. Warnings were withdrawn from Key West to Tampa as the disturbance moved north but were maintained from the latter city to Key West and from Panama City to Pensacola.

Boats Move To Shelter

All along the danger zone small boats were moved to shelter.

Southern Georgia was warned to expect rain and possibly gales when the storm moved inland.

Love Affairs Of Doctor Revealed

NURSEMAID'S STORY OF POST-MARITAL LOVES OF MARY ASTOR'S EX-HUSBAND IS RELATED

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, July 30.—A nursemaid's story of Dr. Franklyn Thorpe's four post-marital loves countered today his charge that Mary Astor of the screen admitted having a lover named "George" before their divorce.

No sooner had the Hollywood physician filed an affidavit citing the actress' alleged confession in her diary of an illicit romance than Nursemaid Nellie Richardson started her sensational disclosures from the witness stand.

Aids Actress' Fight

Attendant to the Thorpe's four-year old daughter, Marilyn, Miss Richardson was called in Miss Astor's fight to regain the child's custody, surrendered to Dr. Thorpe when he divorced her 15 months ago. The divorce was obtained under threats to "scandalize" her, the actress asserted.

Supporting the physician's charges that his ex-wife was a person of "gross immoral conduct," his affidavit offered diary entries which Miss Astor allegedly wrote in February, 1935.

These read:

"I love George and the least I can do is to save him from a messy scandal. Maybe I am being foolishly gallant but maybe also I can do one nice thing in my life.

She Sought Peace

"For the sake of peace and respite from all this emotionalism I told him Dr. Thorpe I would do nothing at present. My main reason for saying that is, quite honestly, I want to be able to see George for the rest of his stay here without being all upset—I want to have the last few times of completely enjoying him, then when he has left town I can start in again. I must go through with this.

"Later on I can move to have the custody (of Marylyn) changed over to me. It would be very hard for him Dr. Thorpe) to bring up an old affair against me."

To show that Dr. Thorpe's conduct since the divorce, has not been gauged to the best interests of the baby Miss Astor's attorneys placed Miss Richardson on the stand in the second session.

Amorous Chapters Told

In swift, concise strokes, Miss Astor's attorney brought her around to the assertedly amorous chapters of Dr. Thorpe's life. She peered through steel-rimmed spectacles at three intimate photographs, presented earlier, in which the surgeon and a full-blown blonde are locked in close embrace.

"Do you recognize that girl?" the attorney, Roland Rich Woolley asked.

"Yes, that's Norma Taylor."

"Was she ever at the house while Dr. Thorpe, the child, and you were living there?

"Oh yes, several times. Many times, rather."

"Did she ever stay there all night?"

"She usually did," the nurse replied.

Found In Bedroom

"When she stayed overnight, where did you find her in the morn-

LOUIS TABER SPEAKS ON FARM PROGRAM AT CENTENNIAL

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, July 30.—Louis J. Taber, master of the National Grange, said today the first great fight of the order was for justice to the southern farmer.

"Today, agriculture stands at the crossroads of progress, fighting for its future," the Columbus, Ohio, agriculturist said in a speech at the Texas Centennial exposition.

Farmer In Major Role

"The farmer composes one-third of the nation's population, one-sixth of those gainfully employed, and almost one-sixth of the nation's wealth; yet last year received but one-twelfth of the nation's income."

He said the first step in the Grange's program is to give to agriculture equivalent rewards per hour for toil on the farm as enjoyed in other occupations. This, he added, will require balancing production, the protection of the American market, the finding of new uses for farm products and tariff justice.

Justice Demanded

"I want to remind you that the National Grange was the first organization in America demanding tariff for all or tariff for none," he declared. "Ours was the first organization to fight for tariff justice and for the export branches of

"It's my birthday," said Nancy Jo. "Let me have my stove."

Her glee over her gift drew a disgusted grunt from her two-year-old brother, Jack.

"Aw, I don't want your stove," he muttered. "When I get to be a girl, I'll get a stove, too."

HOWDY FOLKS!

I jest wanted to tell you a little bit about that swell new movie I made with Bing Crosby—it's called "Rhythm on the Range" and believe me it's gonna give you Lubbockites some real entertainment. Course it's my first picher and I'm naturally enthused over seein' myself on the screen—in fact when I used to play my bazooka down in Arkansas I never dreamed that sometime I'd be on the screen jest like them movie stars, but anyway I'm in the movies now and I know you are going to like "Rhythm on the Range", jest remember Bing sings some swell songs in the picher and I do my best with my bazooka. Before I close for today I want to give a little advice to you mothers: there's one thing every mother should do if her son grows up and gets the big head. That is to get out the family album and show him his baby pictures! See you tomorrow!

Officers Named In New Pythian Unit

A Pythian Sister Temple was organized here Wednesday at a program which included an afternoon meeting, a banquet attended by 80 persons and an initiation ceremony, all at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Twenty-eight local women became members of the Temple and 35 men became associate members.

Officers elected were: past chief, Mrs. G. H. Ater; most excellent chief, Mrs. Riley F. Rule; excellent senior, Mrs. Elmo Payne; excellent junior, Mrs. O. A. Brock; manager, Mrs. B. F. Stephens; mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. A. F. Huddleston; mistress of finance, Mrs. E. P. Norwood; protector, Mrs. H. E. Logan; guard, Mrs. A. F. Wood; senior past chief, Mrs. A. C. Sanders.

First In Northwest Texas

The organization culminated several years of effort on the part of local persons and of state officers for a Temple here. The unit is the first Sister Temple in Northwest Texas.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tipps of Dallas, past grand chief, was the instituting deputy. Mrs. Trucie Sink of Houston, state grand chief, assisted in the institution.

Dr. G. H. Ater, deputy grand chancellor, presided at the banquet, which was given in honor of the visiting women. Elmo Payne, chancellor commander of local knights, spoke briefly.

Visitors Speak

Visitors who spoke were Mrs. Mittie Phillips, Tyler, grand recorder; Mrs. Francis Redies, Abilene, grand guard; Mrs. Lulu Johnson, Santa Anna, past grand chief; Mrs. Odell O'Connor, Fort Worth, past grand chief; Mrs. Iva Rockett, Dallas, past chief; Verna Vautrain, head of a delegation of women from San Angelo.

Eight women came here from San Angelo, where a unit was organized recently.

Glenn D. Chase, district deputy grand chief, and J. F. Wilmeth and R. A. Rogers, all of Plainview, attended.

E. W. Moore sang at the banquet, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Paul Morgan.

Bill Donnell, 2108-B Thirteenth street, left Wednesday for Austin. Returning Friday he will join Mrs. Donnell and his sister and brother-in-law of Wichita Falls for a vacation trip to Colorado.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking acids and wastes out of the blood. A healthy person should pass about 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, waste stays in the body and may become poisonous. It may start nagging backaches, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't let it lay you up.

Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief, and will help to flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

SALARIES ARE GIVEN HIKE

SCHOOL TEACHERS OF THIS DISTRICT TO RECEIVE RAISES

Salaries of Lubbock Independent School district teachers for the 1936-37 year will be approximately 10 per cent greater than for the year just closed, it was announced last night following a meeting of the board of trustees. The board, after consideration of the problem, decided to authorize the increase.

The increase will not effect any increase in taxes, it was pointed out, the tax rate to be the same as that of last year, 86 cents per $100 valuation.

Heavy collection of delinquent taxes was attributed as a reason for no necessity of an increased tax rate.

Revaluation Discussed

A survey for the purpose of a revaluation of taxable property was discussed, but no action was taken.

Current bills and routine problems were passed on by those members present, Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, R. F. Bayless, W. B. Atkins, Dr. Allen T. Stewart, W. G. Alderson, and Maple Wilson. Supt. Kenneth E. Oberholtzer and A. C. Jackson, business manager of the system, also attended the meeting.

Kentucky spends approximately $14,000,000 annually to build, maintain and improve its roads.

Anton Pulls Upset To Beat Lubbock's Hubbers, 4 To 2

ANOTHER DOUBLE BILL IS SCHEDULED FOR FANS HERE TODAY

It just goes to show you.

The national pastime, a game of more potential upsets and surprises than any other, lived up to its reputation again yesterday—the fourth day in a row—to thrill another goodly crowd of hot fans attending the sixth annual Lubbock invitation baseball tournament.

Lubbock Is Defeated

The surprise yesterday was Lubbock's defeat at the hands of Anton. It followed Sunday's opening day upset when Lubbock defeated Amherst. Monday's surprise when a "pick-up" gang of former Hubbers and collegians downed the organized Ropesville team, and Tuesday's fireworks when the favored Wilson club lost a heart-breaking, 14-inning pitchers' battle to Enochs.

So it was in keeping with tournament tradition when Anton's hustling ball players upset the reinforced Lubbock team, 4 to 2, in a fiery encounter yesterday.

Others Follow Today

Potential surprises follow today, tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday—and maybe Monday, if things don't work out just right. Ropesville and Wilson are meeting this afternoon, the loser to be eliminated, and in the second game today, starting at 4 o'clock, Berl Huffman's rowdy ex-Hubbers and college boys, a powerfully hitting club, meets the nifty Enochs team of ex-professionals. Then tomorrow, Amherst meets the winner of today's first game. Preceding that the Lubbock Hubbers will play the losers of today's second game.

It was in keeping with tournament tradition, then, when Anton's hustling ball players upset the reinforced Lubbock team, 4 to 2, in a fiery encounter yesterday.

It surprised and hurt Skipper Sled Allen most of all because he has gone to some trouble and his sponsor, the Hub Clothiers, has gone to considerable expense to reinforce the Hub team.

The clubs might have been playing yet, trying to break a 2-2 tie, had the Hub defense held up at the start. It cracked, letting in a couple of unearned runs, one in the first, another in the third. It fell off again in the fourth, and two more runs came in. Anton, however, played smart baseball in that frame and earned, although not officially, both tallies.

Late Rally Fails

But it gave Anton a 4-0 lead and it stayed that way until two were out in the last half of the ninth frame. Lubbock rallied then, but briefly. Bill Bilberry, stout fellow in right field, clubbed a single, his third consecutive hit, and Charley Presley, who had gone hitless for three trips, lifted a high one over the left field wall for a round trip, Bilberry scoring ahead of him. Things looked better for a few seconds, but Lefty Bettes, who also went hitless, popped out to Manager Freddie Rich at second for the last out. And it was a bi[g] day for Rich.

The pitching of Mr. McGuire, a tall right hander who has been Anton's ace all season, was the big reason for the poor Lubbock showing at bat. He didn't appear to have much on the ball, but apparently he did. It's hard to win a game in this league with five scattered hits, and that's all they got off Mr. McGuire. Bilberry got three of them, a double and two singles. Presley got the home run and Scott another single.

Charley Teas, a big righthander imported from the strong Roswell staff, pitched fine ball for Lubbock, besting McGuire in the hit department. Anton was credited with only three hits, but infield boners that were awfully close to base hits helped the Anton cause to all of its four tallies. Shortstop Stephenson and Firstbaseman McWilliams were the only Anton boys to hit safely, and one of McWilliams' was a double that went for nothing.

Tapley Team Moves Up

Back into the win column yesterday went the snappy red-panted Amherst club, the pre-tournament favorite which got knocked off in its first attempt Sunday by the Lubbock club which lost to Anton yesterday.

Sudan's team of trying youngsters did their best, no doubt, but were no match for the Amherst veterans, who worked on three pitchers for a dozen hits, and capitalized on numerous errors.

Sudan passed from the tournament picture under the burden of a 14 to 2 defeat, leaving seven teams remaining in the fight for gold and glory.

Amherst won with a couple of pitchers drafted from the outfield. Bradley, who plays first and right field, pitched the first four innings, allowing two hits and a run. George Harmon, regular left fielder, came in then and pitched five innings, scattering six hits over all of them and permitting a run in the eighth. H. Wingo's double turned into a run when Lumpkin sent him home, with a single. C. Nall, veteran first baseman for Amherst who relieved on the mound in the late innings, accounted for the first Sudan score when he singled, stole second and scored on Dameron's single.

Amherst tallied once in the first, Walker walking, advancing on a sacrifice and scoring on a pitcher's error. Five times Amherst players crossed the platter in the 2nd, "Daddy" Gee scoring two with a single which went for three bases when the Sudan infield cracked. Sudan changed pitchers during the party, but Tidwell could do little better. He chunked a pair of scoreless frames, went out after Anton had made two runs off two hits. C. Nall came in then, but was handled fiercely, Craig and G. Harmon greeting him with a single and a double, making possible two runs when T. Wingo dropped a fly in left field. Gee singled in the eighth, scoring ahead of Bennett when Garner in right field let a high fly get away from him and bounce over the fence for a four-base error.

Amherst meets Anton Friday.

Charley Teas pitched winning ball for Lubbock yesterday, but lost on bad breaks. Everything favored Anton, very little came Lubbock's way. R. D. Prather, a shortstop of professional experience, one of the best looking infielders in the section, was victim of three bad breaks, batted balls to him failing to "hop" and getting by for errors, bases and runs.

Scott Prather, No. 1 catcher of the new Lubbock outfit and by far the most active seen so far, had an injured hand and could not start. Big Train Clements started for Lubbock, and had too much to do in defending himself against the tirades of the spectators, about 600 of whom jammed the grandstand and permanent bleachers. He let a couple of balls get by that helped in the scoring. Prather padded his mitt, however, and came in to take charge in the fifth, and there was no more Anton tally-marking.

From the fourth to the ninth it was a rapid, shutout ball game for both sides, by far the fastest so far in the tournament. Lubbock got men on bases in every inning after the fourth, starting with Bilberry's booming double to center, but were unable to capitalize.

Anton threatened in the ninth, after Teas had pitched four hitless, runless innings, when McWilliams got his double, but two were out and Bob Rich whiffed to retire the side.

Hope faded for Lubbock supporters when Chapin went in as pinch hitter for Blackie Hilliard to start the last half of the ninth, and flied out to shortstop, followed by Holloway's high infield fly which Catcher Tot Allen caught. Then Bilberry, who had singled in the seventh with two out, blasted another single through short. Presley took a toe-hold and teed off for the left field fence, and trotted around. School was out when Rich sacked Bettes' high fly to second.

WHAT BASEBALL NEEDS is more fire like that generated in semi-pro and independent baseball—like that they're playing at the tournament.

The wiseacres shake their heads like an old timer whose best coon dog has just keeled over. Baseball's through, they say, because there are too many automobiles, too many paved highways, too many golf courses, too many other things to see, places to go. They give those as the reasons why attendance has fallen off, since the beginning of the decade, at major and minor league games.

Our grandchildren and their descendants will read in pages of American history something about a depression that started along about the third decade of the 20th century. It will require no super-intelligence on their part to figure out that baseball, like everything else, sort of slumped.

The same heirs may sometime look through old newspaper files, and read that during the latter days of John McGraw the baseball bosses got the idea of making a gentleman's game out of baseball. "Players on the field must not recognize, let alone converse with, friends or enemies in the stands," they'll read, "must not commune, on friendly terms or otherwise, with players of the opposing team, must not get into arguments with umpires, must not say anything stronger than dog-gone, must not engage in fisticuffs, etc., etc., ad finitum."

Baseball itself has contributed more than any other factor toward what is thought to be the gradual but sure decline of baseball. Our heirs and their heirs, gnawing peanuts and watching baseball games in the future, will laugh at 1930-37 baseball, because by then the powers will have realized the detrimental factors and will have corrected them. Baseball wasn't intended as a gentleman's game, stretching the meaning of the term, and never will be.

What brings million dollar gates to championship prize fights, corresponding crowds to wrestling matches, especially when villians are on the card—and what makes Brooklyn and New York fans turn out when the Giants and Dodgers play? The possibilities of hand to hand combat, vigorous rivalry, mob jeers and cheers—that's what.

As one of the parties responsible for the baseball warfare now going on at Lubbock's new park, we are not encouraging members of teams to light on each other with fists or bats, or to attack our umpires with the same weapons, or to engage in physical combat with fans. Far from it, and Heaven forbid! But we don't have to encourage the possibilities. They're there, and it's what makes baseball.

There are rules and amenities to be observed in anything, and punishment to be dealt for violations. But there's too much of both in baseball. There is just enough, let us say, to make tournament baseball, here in Lubbock, safe and sane for players, umpires and fans alike. Which doesn't mean that there's anything sissy about our baseball.

There was nothing sissy, for instance, about the way Anton mauled the Lubbock Hubbers yesterday in an important tournament game. There were no violent outbreaks, but plenty of pepper and arguments. The fans who were there enjoyed it, and the fans who stayed away would have gotten a huge kick out of it. There was no panty-waist stuff about the way Amherst clouted Sudan, sending the latter from the tournament scene.

And there'll be nothing sissy about the manner in which Wilson and Ropesville play the first game today, and even less girlishness when Berl Huffman's Tip-Toppers battle the Enochs club.

Tomorrow, the tournament really gets tough. Anton and Amherst battle in the main event, starting at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, and that'll be plenty rough. Anton looked like a major league team yesterday in making the vaunted Hubmen kotow in a 4-2 defeat, and Amherst played errorless ball to beat the hard trying but far outclassed Sudan bunch. Put these two together in the same bull ring and it's bound to be a scrap.

But no more of a scrap than the first game tomorrow. The Lubbock Hubbers will be striving to stay in the tournament, and they've a job on their hands. They may be playing the second Lubbock team, the Tip-Toppers, or they may play Enochs, depending upon how today's second game turns out. It would be fun to watch the two Lubbock teams play.

Look out for Enochs and Wilson to be awfully tough. They're already that way, and it took fourteen innings before they could settle their differences in an airtight ball game Tuesday. Enochs came through, but there's little to choose between the clubs. It's a pretty safe bet that one of them, maybe both, will be in there at the finish.

There'll be plenty of seats for all customers for the balance of the tournament. Sled Allen is generously providing bleachers from his Auditorium, and there'll be plenty to go around.

That new grandstand is sort of small, but it'll grow just as fast as baseball enthusiasm grows. And it's been kicking up its heels this week.

TO SOFTBALL TEAMS planning to compete in the district tournament at Littlefield next month: Get your applications in soon. The deadline is August 10, and we've just been informed by the state commissioner of the Texas Softball Association, a branch of the national order, that certified rosters must be turned in pronto. Send your application for membership to this department, or to Harold B. White, the state boss, at Wichita Falls.

And be sure all your players can qualify under the amateur rule. Don't enter a team which contains professionals, because if you're caught, you're out.

There are some 22 counties in this district, and if we're ever going to put softball over the top, now is the time to start.

Winner of the district tournament gets a free trip, transportation and living expenses paid for all team members, to the state tournament, sponsored by the Star-Telegram at Fort Worth, early in September, and it's a prize worth scrapping for.

GIANTS PROVE HOT THREAT IN CHASE

EASTERN FORCES ARE TURNING TABLES TO AID NEW YORKERS

BY SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National league's eastern forces, a collective thorn in the side of Bill Terry and his New York Giants for years, have turned over a new leaf.

Instead of standing in the Giants' way—a habit that more than once has cost the New Yorkers the pennant—the eastern contingent is helping the Terrymen's current climb by making life miserable for the western leaders—the Cubs, Cardinals and Pirates.

In the past, the Phillies, Dodgers and Bees usually were easy pickings for the westerners, and then, up against the Giants, turned on the heat to whip the New Yorkers.

Things have been different since the last western trip. The combined eastern assault has shot the Giants securely into third place, dropped the Pirates into fourth and made the New Yorkers a red-hot threat to the Cards in second.

The Giants have been leading the way. Fresh from a two-out-of-three edge over the Cardinals, and three-out-of-four over the Reds, they belted out a 7-2 victory over the Cubs yesterday to pull up nearer the gas house gang and the league leaders.

Burgess Whitehead made four hits to lead the way as the Giants clubbed Bill Lee, who shut them out in their last two meetings.

The Dodgers handed the Cards their worst beating of the year, 22-7, in the opener of a doubleheader, and then fell short with a late-inning rally to lose the nightcap, 5-4. Ducky Medwick belted two homers to save the St. Louis club from complete humiliation.

The Bees also split, losing the nightcap to the Pirates, 10-4, after Danny MacFayden's nine-hit pitching won the first game, 4-1.

The Yankees, with Lou Gehrig poling his 32nd homer of the season, slugged out a 13-3 triumph over Detroit.

Although the Yankee victory sank the Tigers out of the first division, it didn't stop the American league lead of "murderers' row" from being clipped to 8 1-2 games by the twin victory of the second place Indians over the Washington Senators, 11-6 and 6-5.

The Red Sox could not solve Elon Hogsett's slants and wound up on the short end of a 9-3 count against the Browns.

The White Sox, with Sugar Cain pitching tight ball in the pinches against his old mates, sent the Athletics into the cellar and climbed back into fourth place themselves with a 7-5 edge.

THREE SOFTBALL CLUBS UNBEATEN

Three softball clubs are undefeated for the second half of the local City league, by virtue of Terry & Childress club's defeat Wednesday of Slaton Santa Fe club, 7 to 3.

The Slaton club is a new entry. Tip-Top cafe and City Bus are the other undefeated teams.

Long pitched five-hit ball for the Hardwaremen who collected eight bingles off Manuel of Slaton and capitalized on three errors.

In today's game starting at 6:30 o'clock at the softball park, Buster Honey's Tip-Top Cafe team and the Lubbock Poultry & Egg company club are playing their second games of the second half.

The score by innings of yesterday's game:

SOUTH PLAINS TOURNEY SET

RULES FOR SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT BEING MADE PUBLIC

All teams of the South Plains district which plan to compete in the district softball tournament next month are required to submit applications and membership fees before August 10, it was learned yesterday by letter from Harold B. White, state commissioner of Texas in the Amateur Softball Association of America.

Dates for the district tournament will be announced within a few days. The place is Littlefield's well lighted softball park. Citizens of Littlefield have guaranteed sponsorship of the tournament and will send the winning club to the state softball tournament at Fort Worth early in September.

Must Be Amateurs

Not to be confused with the Texas Amateur Athletic federation tournament, which caters to teams in larger cities, the national, state and district tournaments are sanctioned and sponsored directly by the Amateur Softball Association of America.

There are three steps to the national championship—district, state and the national tournaments.

To compete in the district tournament, a team must signify its intentions by submitting the name of its team, record for the season, and a certified list of team members. The squad is limited to fifteen players, and each must be able to make affidavit regarding his amateur status. The application must be accompanied by a membership fee of $1.50, if the team is a member of an organized league, or $5.00 if it is an all-star or independent team.

The eligibility situation is one of the most important. Strictly amateurs only may compete, and failure to obey this requirement will result in suspension of the entire team.

Applications should be sent direct to Collier Parris, commissioner of District 3, or to Harold B. White, state commissioner, at Wichita Falls. Teams are urged to remember the deadline for certified rosters—August 10. Each club must show a membership certificate before entering the district tournament at Littlefield.

Counties from which softball teams are eligible to compete in the district tournament are Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Dickens, King, Stonewall, Kent, Garza, Crosby, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry, Yoakum, Cochran and Hockley.

Winner of the district tournament at Littlefield will go to Fort Worth to compete in the state tournament, expenses of the Fort Worth trip to be paid by the district tournament set-up.

The Lamb County Leader, Littlefield newspaper, is official sponsor of the tournament. Morley Drake, publisher of the paper, is president of the tournament committee, and Bob Cannon, reporter, is secretary and deputy district commissioner in direct charge of the tournament.

Detton Takes Hagen In Wrestling Show

UTAH MORMON RALLIES TO TOSS SHREVEPORT GRAPPLER IN THE FINAL TWO STANZAS

Rallying in the last two innings after being shadowed in the first by a clean but cruel headlock, Dory Detton, the Utah Mormon, emerged victorious in the main event of last night's wrestling show over Jack Hagen, clever grappler from Shreveport.

The initial fall went 37 long minutes. And for the last 11 of those 37 minutes Hagen held Detton's noggin in his murderous clutch. Finally Detton succumbed. It wasn't a case of avoiding punishment that made Dory pat the mat. It was to avoid unconsciousness. He had long passed the point of feeling pain. Something had to give, and Detton's neck was it. Hagen has been trying for some time to wrap his arms around an opponent's ears and make him give it up. Heretofore he has wrestled the type of gentlemen (?) who gnaw and slug their ways out of these things. But it was different last night. Hagen and Detton were not biting or hitting and they were not crawling off the mat.

In the second stanza Detton opened with a flying tackle as the bell rang. Hagen pulled himself together after weathering five of

OLYMPIC TEAM IN BAD WAY

AMBULANCE SQUAD IS LIKELY TO BE BIG AMERICAN NEED

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

BERLIN, July 30—The American Olympic team will need an ambulance section unless developments on all training fronts take a quick turn for the better.

Most of the athletes' ailments were of a minor character, featuring an epidemic of colds and sore throats and muscles, but there was a watering eye for every salute in the Olympic village as the result of the wet, chilly weather.

Over 100 Treated

More than a hundred of the American girls and boys—nearly one third of the team—have been given medical treatment. The track and field athletes had the biggest aches and pains, including 300-pound Jack Torrance's sore shoulder.

Already minus the 1932 gold medal winner, Eleanor Holm Jarrett, and lacking in Olympic experience; the women's aquatic team was handicapped further by the continued indispositions of Lenore Kight Wingard, who has a cold, and Ann Govendnik of Chisholm, Minn., who has an infected ear.

Time To Recuperate

There was still time for recuperation, but the American mermaids may have the Dutch treat them the same way Japan did the American men four years ago.

The most serious hospital case among the rowers quartered at Grunau is Donald Bruce Hume, stroke of Washington's eight-oared crew. He has a severe chest cold.

WRESTLING

them. Then both went at it so hard they were nigh exhausted. After eight minutes of gruelling going Detton hooked a hammerlock on Hagen's good left arm. Seven minutes later he won the fall without having relinquished the hold on Hagen's left arm more than momentarily. The clever Louisianan was so worn down that he fell prey to a figure-four head scissors that Detton added to the hammerlock and was pinned.

"Flies Through The Air"

The final session went just a little less than ten minutes. Dory nailed his man with the same hold that won him the second tumble. He did it only after escaping from a couple of Hagen's killing headlocks. Jack as visibly weaker in the arms during the closing fall and could not make his headlock stick. Dory obtained the deciding hold by quitting the earth and taking his man with a flying head scissors. He added the arm lock after they hit the mat.

Big Train Clementa, referee, had a picnic during the main go. Never did he have to separate the boys. He was just one of the spectators. But he did not have to pay to get in. Sied Allen should collect.

Cyclone Mackey gave Gene La Belle, the bewhiskered Canuck, a wrestling lesson in the semi-windup. But Gene's greater weight and superior strength made it possible for him to get a draw with the little Clovis speedster who quit barbering to take to the mat. Cyclone did a little barber work on La Belle's beautiful whiskers in self-defense during the evening.

Parks Is Winner

It took the clever Herb Parks of Seattle about 17 minutes to subdue Ernie Arthur in the curtain raiser. He did it with a new type of slam. It is difficult to describe the slam, but not difficult to understand how it laid Ernie-Wernie low.

Kirby Watkins, the big sissie, failed to appear for the prelim. The Post cowhand, sailor and alleged toughie stuck a nail in his foot and was at home nursing the injured dog. Some fans said it was an alibi, but it was Tex's story and the mat bugs were stuck with it.

AVERY BRUNDAGE IS SELECTED FOR OLYMPIC POST; SUCCEEDS JAHNCKE

BERLIN, July 30 (AP)—Ernest Lee Jahncke of New Orleans was ousted from the International Olympic committee today and Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic committee, was elected in his place.

Jahncke, who was assistant secretary of the navy during the administration of President Hoover, was dropped on the technical grounds that he failed to attend two consecutive meetings of the international committee.

Opposed Participation

The ouster of the New Orleans sportsman, well known in yachting circles, came several months after he opposed the United States participation in the Olympic games because they were to be held in Germany.

Brundage's name was presented to the international body by William May Garland of Los Angeles, a member of the committee, who lauded the career of the Chicagoan both as an athlete and leader.

The former all-around champion and one time Olympian has been a dominant figure in amateur sport for the past decade. Brundage also was president of the American committee for the 1932 Olympic games held at Los Angeles.

President Of AAU

Brundage was president of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States six successive years. He retired from office at the end of 1934.

He was elected to the A. A. U. presidency again last December at the annual meeting where he led a successful fight against an attempt to keep the United States out of the Olympic games.

Altogether five new members were elected including representatives of two countries admitted to the I. O. C. for the first time. The Philippines and Liechtenstein were the new countries, bringing the total membership to 68. Applications from Malta and Jamaica were tabled.

The official withdrawal of England's bid for the 1940 games was noted by the committee. Great Britain, however, reserved a claim for the games eight years hence.

Japan's representatives formally presented her offer to conduct the 1940 games. Finland, also bidding to hold the next meet at Helsingfors, will present her case this afternoon.

SECOND DIVISION CLUBS IN LOSSES

(By The Associated Press)

Second division clubs of the Texas league shared a common fate—all four were defeated last night

Curt Fullerton turned in his fourteenth victory of the season for the league-leading Dallas Steers in defeating Galveston, 3 to 2. Fullerton allowed 11 hits but was unyielding in the tight spots.

Houston's second place Buffs made 18 hits to defeat the Fort Worth Cats, 11 to 4. The Panthers, who got 14 hits, piled up a three-run lead in the third but it faded quickly.

Tulsa employed three double plays to check San Antonio rallies and, behind good hurling, won, 5 to 2. Stein allowed the Missions eight hits and shaded Elton Walkup in a pitchers' battle.

The slipping Beaumont Exporters rushed across three runs in the eighth to tie the score but Oklahoma City did the same thing in its half and won, 9 to 5. Joe Bilgere's triple with two on won the game.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press)

Burgess Whitehead, Giants—His homer, double and two singles led way to 7-3 win over Cubs.

Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio, Yanks—Collected six hits, including Gehrig's 32nd homer, driving in seven runs against Tigers.

Buddy Hasset, Dodgers, and Ducky Medwick, Cardinals—Former's two triples and single batted in five runs in winning doubleheader opener; Medwick belted two homers in nightcap.

Mule Haas, White Sox—Had three hits in win over Athletics.

Danny MacFayden, Bees, and Paul Waner, Pirates—Former's nine hit pitching won doubleheader opener; latter's triple set off winning rally in nightcap.

Hal Trosky and Earl Averill, Indians—Their homers accounted for five runs in doubleheader victory over Senators.

Ab Jenkins Seeks To Capture Title

SALT LAKE CITY, July 30 (AP)—Ab Jenkins, who has driven a million miles without an accident completed plans today for a motor car endurance run.

He seeks to recapture at Bonneville Salt Flats, 130 miles west of here, the 24-hour automobile speed title which Captain George Eyston of England won with a 149.09 miles an hour average two weeks ago.

DETAILS TOLD OF ROBBERY

AMERICANS ARE HELD UP BY BANDITS ON MEXICAN ROAD

MEXICO CITY, July 30 (AP)—Holdup and robbery by Mexican bandits of seven carloads of United States tourists, among them Senator Robert Reynolds of North Carolina, was described today by Campbell Jones of Abilene, Tex.

The polite holdup-men took money, watches and jewelry from the Americans near Taxco, Guerrero, Jones said when he came here.

Jones, with his wife and daughter, Geraldine, and Miss Catherine Collier of Ardmore, Okla., was traveling north toward Mexico City. The others, including Senator Reynolds, were going south.

Were Not Abusive

"We came around a curve," Jones said, "to find three men aiming rifles directly at us. A little farther on was a pile of rock blocking the way.

"The bandits were not abusive, only businesslike. They took 80 pesos (about $20) from me, 15 from my daughter, my watch which my employees presented to me, and Miss Collier's wrist watch."

While one bandit kept a rifle at his ribs, two others made him open suitcases, Jones said.

Howard's ace was not scored on any "pitch and putt" hole either. It came on the 234-yard 14th at the Washington golf and country club, a poke that the finest professional golfers would be proud to make.

Has Perfect Day

While Howard's ace was the oddest among 50 reported during the week, H. B. Hackelman of Waco, Texas, ran a good second for the human interest angle. Hackelman became the father of a baby daughter and, after seeing all was well, went out for a game to control himself. On the 13th hole, a 100 yarder, at the Waco municipal course, Hackelman scored an ace to make it a perfect day.

Bill Healey of Atlanta collected the longest ace of the week—on the 270-yard 8th at Capital City, Kenneth Ross of Arkansas City, Kas. scored one from 269 yards at the Arkansas City C. C., his ball hitting a player and bouncing into the cup.

Texas still led the inter-state parade with 89 as against 78 for Indiana and 71 for New York.

Marion Balch of San Angelo, Texas, who made an ace on the 11th hole, 200 yards, of the Park Hill course, was among the new members of the club.

BY FELIX R. McKNIGHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, July 30.—Golf booster Arthur Pfeil of San Antonio, who made the trip to the National Public Links tourney with San Antonio's four man team, says Texas will be awarded either the National Amateur, National Women's or National P. G. A. tournament in 1937 . . . Pfeil quoted R. Arthur Wood, Public Links representative on the U. S. G. A. committee, as his source of information.

Wood advised Pfeil the tournament committee had decided to award one of the three mentioned tournaments to Texas and that the particular event would be named at a November meeting . . . Dallas and San Antonio were listed as the most likely spots for the joust . . . Dallas, offered the National Amateur last year, turned it down . . . San Antonio has the 1937 Women's Trans-Mississippi scheduled.

Warnock, Palestine second baseman, picked up five straight singles and a double in six trips to the plate recently.

Billy Edwards, the Kansas City mat terror who almost had his career cut short in an automobile accident, is back in the ring . . . He appeared in Waco and acted as mean as ever in pinning Roughhouse Nelson . . .

Judy Truelson, another Texas Christian lineman, has been named assistant coach at Riverside High, Fort Worth . . . And Darrell Lester, All-America center who turned down that job, is with Fort Worth's Chamber of Commerce.

John Henry Lewis Is Facing Threat

PITTSBURGH, July 30. (AP)—John Henry Lewis, 22-year-old world's light heavyweight champion, faces one of his severest ring tests tonight in meeting the hard punching, 26-year-old Al Gainer, of New Haven, Conn., in a 12-round nontitle bout.

Promoters predicted the two negroes would attract a $45,000 crowd, with Lewis' superior boxing ability making him a favorite over his left hooking, body punching opponent.

Grass Greens Will Be Ready For Play

If response shown Wednesday is matched today, Country club's 18-hole grass-green layout will be opened for play Sunday, announced Manager Cotton McAfee.

Members showed up with all sorts of garden implements and, after the day was done, 11 greens had been conditioned.

"There is a lot of work to be done yet," McAfee said, "but if we can get members to cooperate we'll have everything ready by Sunday."

There'll be a 36-hole medal play tournament to open the grass greens. Members who helped most to make possible the new greens will be favored in the pairings, invited to start ahead of the field.

Sharpe And Tucker Are Missing Here

All was regular about Wednesday night's gathering in 99th district courtroom to hear William J. Tucker, state game and fish commission secretary, and T. W. Sharpe, secretary of the Texas Wildlife federation, lecture on the game and fish situation in Texas—except that Messrs. Sharpe and Tucker failed to put in an appearance.

Forty South Plains persons, hunting and fishing sportsmen, were in their places.

Nor could Game Warden Donley of the Lubbock District nor any other interested parties give any reason for the failure of the Austin men to be present. They were scheduled to speak to sportsmen in Big Spring Tuesday night and here last night, but the crowd of sportsmen, including about 20 from Slaton and at least one from Spur, were sadly disappointed.

W. G. "Bill" McMillan, one of Lubbock's outstanding sportsmen, entertained the crowd with moving pictures recording his big game hunt in Alaska last winter.

Nelson Eddy would like to get tanned by the sun, but his skin is so tender he can take only a few minutes sunning daily.

HORTON SMITH IS VICTORIA WINNER

VICTORIA, B. C. July 30. (AP)—Led by Horton Smith who captured the Victoria Open tournament yesterday, 130 golfers moved on Seattle today for the $5,000 Seattle Open on the Inglewood country club's course.

The Chicago professional toured the 72 holes of the par 68 Oak Bay course at Victoria in 64-65-72-68—269.

Three strokes back of the winner, Byron Nelson, Ridgewood, N. J., placed second. His score was 64-68-69-71—272.

Ted Longworth, Portland, Ore., shot a 66 in the afternoon to give him third place with 70-71-69-66—276.

Victor Jory once was a circus strong man. In his youth, he was a professional fighter.

THE accident yesterday out where the entrance to Meadowbrook golf course intersects with Highway No. 9 was a terrible, terrible thing. Everyone, of course, regrets it and sympathizes with those involved. The physical layout of the highway and the golf course entrance is such that it is a miracle that a bad accident has not occurred there long, long ago.

It certainly is to be hoped that something will now be done to improve the condition; that some way, somehow, the situation will be altered to where the hazard is eliminated.

The most puzzling thing about nudism is how the male addict solves the problem of carrying pen and pencil set, notebook, smoking equipment and key-ring.

ONE thing the depression has done for us. It has taught us the foolishness of trying to live on an economic plane higher than we have money to support.

Millions of people went through torture in the 1920's trying to maintain a champagne appetite on a beer pocketbook, just to "keep up with the Joneses."

Now that there are so few "Joneses" to keep up with, we're all better off.

This is the time of year when temperatures are long and tempers are short. Men and their wives being human, this considerably more frequently than they do in, for instance, November's bright blue weather.

Being a married man, The Plainsman has given quite a bit of thought to the question, "how to torture a wife," and has a few hints for husbands who simply must have to do something to combat the heat and the humidity.

Ask the Little Woman over the morning paper if she thinks Knox will get many votes for Landon. She won't know Knox from a large load of hay — and she may never have heard of Landon. But she'll know you're trying to catch her and that will ruin her morning.

Remark some evening at the dinner table that "that old sister Emily Post can go bark up a tree whoever told her she was a dictator anyhow." That will get a rise out of the wife who like all other wives thinks Emily Post a lot more important than anyone outside her immediate family.

Observe some night when the family is pursuing a truant breeze on the front porch — and is getting nowhere in the pursuit — that you can't see any reason for women making beauty parlor appointments and insisting on getting a particular operator at a particular time. Men just drop into a barber shop and fall into the first vacant chair they see and that ought to be good enough for anybody. The Little Woman won't take THAT one lying down.

Then, as a grand windup, drop the hint that women these days don't know the first thing about house work; that women of a generation ago had time to bring up big families, do the washing and ironing, freeze ice cream via the old cranking system, do all their own cooking and still think about keeping a pitcher of cold lemonade in the ice box for use on hot nights! (If that doesn't get the job done, you're married to a saint!)

UP in the Panhandle they're just getting over a hectic battle of ballots in which Curtis Douglass, a resident of the town of Panhandle, almost ran the legs off Senator Clint C. Small who was running for re-election.

Senator Small slipped in by less than 2,000 votes and the campaign was one of the roughest and toughest ever seen up that way.

Apparently Douglass ran his race on the system which is often tried —and sometimes works—down in this neck of the woods, namely, by claiming that "big Amarillo is trying to hog the political pie and won't leave us little fellows anything".

That same type of campaign against Lubbock brought results in George Mahon's first race for Congress two years ago and in Hobert Nelson's Senate race a year ago, but it didn't click in the legislative race this year when George Bond, of Crosbyton, tried to drag it out of the mothballs but failed miserably to hang any dead cats on the line.

Our distinguished contemporary, Colonel Erasmus (Gene Howe) Tack, of the Amarillo Globe-News, seems to be a shade worried over the situation.

It appears that the Globe-News was criticized much as has been the Avalanche-Journal—and no doubt just as unfairly—in connection with the campaign. Commenting on the situation, Colonel Tack "gets 'em told", but he also says this:

"It sure is to be hoped that the next senator from this district is NOT from Amarillo. Every time an Amarillo man runs for office the charge is made that Amarillo wants to hog all the political offices. But this is not true. We want to keep down this feeling; there's room for all of us on these Plains if we will play fair with each other."

HAVING seen the same situation down here on the South Plains, and having yet failed to grow any gray hair or lose any sleep worrying over it, The Plainsman would advise Colonel Tack to dry his eyes and keep his shirt on.

No candidate can fool all of the people all of the time and sooner or later Mr. Average Citizen catches on to any sort of flubdubbery.

Knowing South Plains people, The Plainsman figures they're going to vote for those whom they think are best fitted for the job, whether they live in Lubbock, or elsewhere in the section.

North Plains folks are undoubtedly the same—which is a good thing for all concerned.

'Look What I Did!'

Man Aide To Only Woman Film Director; Dorothy Arzner Is Efficient And Soft-Spoken; Gives Indirect Orders

BY PAUL HARRISON
Journal Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, July 30—The only woman director in Hollywood—Miss Dorothy Arzner—is at work again. She's bossing "Craig's Wife" at Columbia.

"Bossing" may not be quite the word, for all the directorial bellowing of "Quiet!" and "Let's try it again!" and "Action!" comes from Miss Arzner's assistant, a Mr. Art Black.

She goes about her job very quietly, more quietly, even, than the almost silent Frank Capra. She squints through the camera at Rosalind Russell, John Boles, and the other players, but when she sits by the camera to watch the ensuing action, a visitor might mistake her for a script girl.

A nod from her and Black gives the orders. When something goes wrong she says "Cut!" in a voice scarcely audible.

Her instruction to the players is given individually in an undertone. If any of them is reprimanded, the rest of the company never knows it. An uninformed observer never would guess that she has any authority at all, yet anybody can sense the change of atmosphere on an Arzner set.

Her silence and deadly earnestness are communicated to performers and technical crews, and the work goes forward in an atmosphere almost funereal.

Oh, For A Cuss Word!

All this may make for efficiency, but the effect on morale is debatable. A woman whose name I wouldn't like to mention told me she'd give a day's salary if the director would only cuss a bit, or give somebody the old hot-foot, or otherwise relieve the tension.

Practically all successful directors are dominant people who know when to do a bit of outright bullying, and how. Players might not take kindly to bullying from a woman; they'd call it nagging. And so there's only one woman director in Hollywood.

Mannish In Dress

Miss Arzner dresses in tailored suits, wears low-heeled shoes, mannish shirts and has her hair cut short. She knows her job. She started in the Paramount stenographic department in 1920, became a script girl working with Nazimova, and won a chance in the cutting room.

She supervised the patching together of Valentino's "Blood and Sand." Officials were so impressed that they asked her to cut "The Covered Wagon."

She wrote after that, and did a good deal of script editing. She has been directing for nine years, and part of that time has been an associate producer. Clara Bow, Claudette Colbert, Katharine Hepburn, and Anna Sten have been stars of her pictures.

"Nana," vehicle for the Sten debut in 1934, was Miss Arzner's last directorial job prior to the current "Craig's Wife."

She directed "Sarah and Son," the only picture made almost entirely by women. Stars, author (Zoe Akins), director, supervisor (Elsie Janis), business manager, and cutter all were women. The camera was operated by a man, and the producer was Al Kaufman.

Hard-Hearted Women

Ruth Chatterton had to sing a lullaby in that picture, and Kaufman assigned a song-writer to produce one. He wrote an ordinary, elemental lullaby, full of go-to-sleep-my-precious, and the-stars-are-watching-over-you stuff.

Kaufman, for whom ae first played and sang it, was entranced. B. P. Schulberg, the president, went into raptures.

Other male executives were left misty-eyed by the saccharin hush-a-bye. The composer sang it again for the studio manager, and twice for parties of visiting exhibitors.

Finally he was ordered to the sound stage to sing it for the Misses Chatterton, Akins, Janis, Arzner, and numerous other ladies.

They paid not the slightest attention to the lullaby, but Miss Akins' male mastiff was so affected that he howled. Nobody tried to silence the dog, and after half a dozen beginnings on the song he was still howling.

Finally the composer closed the piano with a bang. "I have sung this lousy ditty for everybody on the lot from the president to the gateman," said he. "But I'll be ?.(' ?.:;! if I'm going to sing it for etaoi .:;: dog!" He walked out of the studio and hasn't been back since.

MURPHY REALIZES HIS DUTY!

The American Legion has reason to be proud of its national commander, Ray Murphy. America can be proud of him.

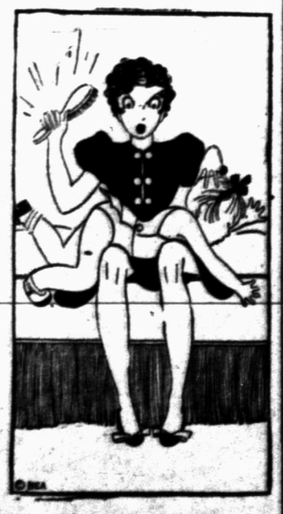

After the death of Senator Louis Murphy of Iowa in a motor accident, Ray Murphy was mentioned as his possible successor, by appointment from Gov. Herring, and by nomination and election this fall. Mr. Murphy lost no time in stating his position:

"No candidate for remunerative and elective public office may hold any elective office in the American Legion. This is a wise provision intended to keep the Legion from partisan politics. I shall complete my term as national commander."

The country and the legion need more men like Commander Murphy—men who will finish the jobs they start before seeking newer and, perhaps, more promising ones.

Murphy's decision and immediate statement doubtless seems strange to a lot of Americans—which may be taken as a further indication he is right.

Dutcher's News And Views OF WASHINGTON

(Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 30 — It wouldn't look nice for the Democratic national committee to assess government officials for the campaign fund and try to collect. In fact, there would be a terrible roar about it.

But when the committee goes into the publishing business, charging high prices at a fancy profit and soliciting the better paid New Deal employes as its customers, that's presumed to be something else again.

And so some thousands of officials in the higher salary brackets are hearing from W. Forbes Morgan, the committee treasurer, who offers them a chance to buy one or more copies of a de luxe, presidentially autographed Democratic Convention Book at $" a copy.

There's nothing compulsory about it, of course, but recipients of the offer are rather more than likely to be impressed by the fact that the prospectus comes to them by registered mail, with return receipt requested.

To tell the truth, many of them are regarding it as an attempt at a "shakedown," differing only in method from those of previous administrations, when word used to be whispered down the line that holders of the better jobs were expected to contribute tiny percentages of salary.

Smooth Sales Talk

"Dear Mr. ——" writes Morgan, presumably with tongue in cheek. "This is an invitation for you to join with a few of President Roosevelt's friends who have asked us to prepare for them a de luxe edition of the Democratic Convention Book of 1936.

"The edition—absolutely limited to 2500 copies—will be individually autographed by the president, serially numbered, leather bound, and stamped in gold with the purchaser's name. It contains, among other priceless documents, the masterful and now historical acceptance address made by the president at Franklin Field on June 27.

"The promptness with which you sign and return the enclosed order form will determine the serial number of your copy, which will constitute an imperishable record of your share and part in the Roosevelt administration.

"The opportunity which is offered you to become a registered subscriber will not be open long. You will, I know, be proud to join with the party leaders, who conceived the de luxe edition, in making it a success.

"You must act at once, however, to be included in the company of those who may possess this volume. All the necessary forms for your order are enclosed."

Only $25 Down

Just to make it easier, the buyer can pay on the installment plan —$25 down and $25 on each of the next three government paydays.

Morgan's letter and order forms are accompanied by an attractive bound prospectus similar to those used to ballyhoo big encyclopedias, wrapped in a black, gold, and white cover, which tells you "What the Cabinet Members think about" the convention book.

Every member of the cabinet except Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau contributes a signed endorsement, on official department stationery, of the de luxe edition. Whether Morgenthau's absence from the lineup has anything to do with the fact that he has been more active than certain other New Dealers in discouraging "undue" political activity among Treasury employes is not known.

"An extraordinarily interesting, as well as beautiful, compilation," says Attorney General Cummings.

"Furthermore," says Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, "I believe that this is a far more Democratic method of raising funds than by replying (that's the way it was written and reproduced) upon favors from special interests."

It Sounds Profitable

The book carries explanations of the workings of all the government departments and many handsome pictures. Assuming the original cost to have been $25,000, which seems high, the return to the campaign chest from 2500 copies at $100 a crack would be $225,000. But many ordinary copies have been sold at $2.50 and big money comes from the advertising, with which the book is packed, at from $2000 to $7500 a page.

Many of the country's largest corporations are represented and advertising solicitors are said in some cases to have suggested that space buyers might have an easier time getting government business than would non-advertisers.

So Much for Love

by HARD JONES
© 1936 NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

HELENA DERRIK, young and ambitious, has recently been promoted from the selling force to take charge of the women's sportswear department of Helvig's store.

One of her best customers, SANDRA LEIGH, invites Helena to join a week-end party at Great Mountain Lodge. Although others in the party are strangers to Helena, she soon feels at ease and enjoys herself. She is particularly attracted by handsome PETER HENDERSON who lives in a nearby town.

Awake before the others, Helena goes for an early morning swim. Peter joins her on the beach. Almost immediately he tells her he is in love with her.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"You mustn't, Peter," Helena protested, withdrawing from his arms. "Someone might be watching from the lodge."

He laughed. "That's encouraging," he told her. "If that's your only reason for not letting me kiss you, then I'm a cinch!" Then his tone grew suddenly serious. "Look here, Helena. I haven't been able to sleep for 10 minutes straight since we left each other last night. I'd heard of that happening to a fellow when he met the right girl —but I'd never really believed it. Last night I told you I was in love with you. And it still goes in a chilly and unromantic dawn."

"It's an awfully short time in which to decide that," Helena smiled, wondering if he could detect the pounding of her heart beneath the thin white swim suit.

"But I'm not afraid of the decision," Peter answered quickly. "Not even if it was a little quick on the trigger. I've met lots of girls, Helena, but I've never had one hit me like this. Not even near it."

"That's nice of you. I—I'll admit I feel the same way, Peter. But . . ," she broke off with a whimsical, helpless smile. A scant second later she regretted the admission, for Peter held her firmly by the shoulders and kissed her hard.

"That settles it!" he said. "If you feel just as I do, then there's only one answer."

"W-what's that?" asked Helena breathlessly.

"That's the good old-fashioned institution of marriage, darling." He took her wrist and turned back toward the lodge. "Come on, let's wake the gang and tell them!"

But Helena planted her small feet solidly in the path and protested. "No, Peter, please! Not yet, anyway." He turned to her again, and she went on slowly. "We can't do a thing like that. We don't know anything about each other. Tomorrow it might all be different."

"I don't believe that, and neither do you," he said, meeting her level gaze. "I'm in love with you. I can care for you comfortably. There's nothing more to know about me. You're young and beautiful—and that's all I want to know about you. The rest of it I can discover."

"Suppose you discovered something you didn't like?" Helena said curiously. "What then?"

"I'll take that chance. And if you mean something that might have happened before we met, it doesn't matter. So far as I'm concerned, you didn't exist before last night. You arose out there on the lake, in a mist, like—like—who the devil was it that arose in a lake mist?"

"Oh, Peter!" Helena laughed while her eyes filled suspiciously. "You —you're really a sweet person. And aren't we both insane?"

Then, beyond Peter's shoulder, she saw Sandra Leigh slowly emerging from the lodge. Over her flaming pajamas she had thrown a robe, and her bobbed hair was in attractive disarray. She waved toward the two on the path below her.

"I thought I'd get a load of sunrise," she called to them. "But it looks as if I'm a little late."

Peter turned, hiding his annoyance at the interruption. "Good morning, Sandy. You aren't denying that a sunrise is no novelty to you?"

Sandra smiled. "I've seen them in evening clothes, Peter. That is, I was in evening clothes; not the sunrises. But that's different. Have you two tardy persons been in the lake already?" She turned her eyes knowingly toward Helena, and the latter thought, "I wonder if she believes I'm taking advantage of her invitation and trying to capture Peter?"

Aloud Helena said, "I've been in, and Mr. Henderson's just trying it. Why don't you join him? It's grand."

Peter faced her humorously. "Darling, if we're to be married you mustn't refer to me as Mr. Henderson. It's Peter. And after we've been married a while you can call me Pete."

Helena reddened, praying that he wouldn't go further before Sandra Leigh. But Peter was too delighted to be discreet. "Helena and I are marrying, Sandy!"

The Leigh girl came down from the veranda, searching Peter's face. "You're serious, Peter." Then she turned to Helena. "And why shouldn't he be? You know, last night at dinner I had a fleeting thought that it would be no surprise if you two hit it off in a serious way. I'm psychic about those things."

"T-then you think it's all right?" Helena faltered.

"All right?" repeated Sandra. "What difference would it make what I thought? But, since you've asked me, I'll tell you. I think it's I'm excited about being the first to congratulate Peter and wish you happiness. I am the first?"

The Leigh girl's enthusiasm warmed Helena's heart. Somehow she had feared that Sandra might not quite approve, that she would resent Helena's coming with the "gang" as a stranger, as a girl out of Helvig's, and winning Peter Henderson's interest so quickly. Now she realized how absurd this feeling was. Sandra Leigh was too genuine, too interested in people as human beings rather than as representatives of cliques to show resentment. Her delight at the news was instantly apparent, obviously sincere.

"When does it happen?" Sandra wanted to know.

Peter grinned and reached for Helena's hand. "Right away, doesn't it?"

"W-why, I haven't thought—" She looked at Sandra helplessly.

"Peter," said the other girl, "I want to make a suggestion. It's that you literally go and jump into the lake. I'll help Helena make her plans."

"Very well, Miss Leigh . . . . ."

COULD HARDLY RAISE ARMS SO STIFF WITH RHEUMATISM R. U. X. BRINGS QUICK RELIEF

"Can Now Use Arms and Hands to Do My Own Work. Am More Than Pleased With Results," —Says Grateful Housewife

Many men and women who read this are desperate with the fear and agony of rheumatic pains. How well you know!—you sufferers—what this scourge of mankind means to its victims! Long, sleepless nights—racked with pain; dull, half-alive days—crippled with the horror of neuritic agony; inflamed aching muscles and joints—every fibre of your body crying for relief and peace; tissues loaded with impure deposits of body poison . . . in desperation, you have tried salves, liniments, "cure-alls." Disillusioned —discouraged —life has little meaning for you today.

Amazing Relief

But at last there is a message of genuine hope for you. Read the amazing sworn testimony furnished to the John Halsey Drug Store, from Mrs. Rebecca J. Newmon, R. F. D. 5, Abilene, Texas:

"I suffered with rheumatism or neuritis in my hands and arms for some time, gradually getting worse. My fingers became so stiff that I finally had no use of them, and I got to the point where I could hardly raise my arms.

"After commencing to take Williams R.U.X. Compound, my trouble has disappeared. My hands and fingers are now so that I can do my housework, and I have even begun to do sewing again. Am more than pleased with the results as I had taken other medicines with absolutely no benefit and am happy to recommend R.U.X. Compound to anyone."

Doctor's Prescription

Developed from the experience of an army doctor during the World War, this remarkable medicine is now available to you under the name of Williams R.U.X. Compound, and local pain-ridden people by the score are daily finding that this medicine actually does the work. Get a bottle today at the John Halsey Drug Store, and if you are not completely, absolutely satisfied with the results from the every first bottle your money will be refunded. Mail orders accepted.—Adv.

WOMAN OFFERS MAN ALIBI

DECLARES LITTLE PHIL WAS WITH HER ON MURDER NIGHT

LOS ANGELES, July 30 (AP) — ...ing to the aid of the man who "courted" her 15 years ago, Mrs. ...y Covina testified in the "hat murder" trial of Felipe Alguin that he was in her home at the time Frank W. Rudeen, pool hall operator, was slain in 1921.

"Little Phil," as he is known, is serving a life sentence for the killing of Detective Lieut. John Fitzgerald, who was shot down about an hour before Rudeen was. The state contends Alguin lost his hat at the place where Fitzgerald was killed and slew Rudeen to obtain another so he would not be so conspicuous.

Called At Home

Rudeen was killed between midnight and 1 a. m. June 19, 1921.

"He called at my home that night," Mrs. Covina testified, "and was with me between 12 and 1 o'clock in the morning."

Relatives of Alguin testified he wore a cap on the night of the killings.

Former Police Chief Louis D. ...ks, now a detective lieutenant, testified Alguin recently confessed to him at Folsom prison he slew Rudeen for the hat. Alguin repudiated the confession later, however.

DROUTH RUMOR

...e said. "He pointed out that after the drouth of 1894 there had been good crops in 1895, 1896 and 1897."

Asked what long term plans could be made to offset drouth Wallace said "every normal granary" to store surplus crops during good years should be worked out.

Present Problem

He said the "drastic thing of the moment" was whether "there would be widespread rains in the corn belt" to save part of the present corn crop.

Unless there are rains, he said, the crop may be the smallest since 1881, falling short of the 1934 drouth crop of 1,386,000,000 bushels. The normal crop was 2,550,000,000 bushels, he added.

Col. Raymond Phelps of San Antonio commands the new heavy artillery regiment.

In the division air service this year will be another prominent figure in Texas politics, Captain William McCraw of Dallas, attorney general of Texas.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, July 30 (AP)—Stocks nibbled at recovery in today's market although the shake-out of the previous session had the effect of bringing more careful appraisals for the general run of equities.

Steels and motors cancelled part of their Wednesday's losses and buyers appeared for the alcohol, aviation and amusement issues. Dealings, however, were quiet near the fourth hour.

Improvement was shown by U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, American Commercial Alcohol, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, National Distillers, Boeing, Trans-Continental Air, Warner Bros., Radio, Twentieth Century-Fox, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, American Telephone, Western Union, American Smelting, Coca-Cola, Westinghouse, Du Pont, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Great Northern, Wesson Oil, Lambert, Kennecott and Anaconda.

Adverse drouth forecasts brought selling in the farm implement department. J. I. Case, International Harvester and Deere were rather heavy.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, July 30 (AP) — Cotton prices showed little net change at the opening here today. Oct. opened 2 points higher at 12.03, but Dec. at 11.97, Jan. at 11.96 and March at 11.96 were 1 to 2 points off.

The Washington announcement that the cotton pool had completed liquidation of its holdings was received with pleasure by the trade. While 3,000,000 bales of loan cotton still remained according to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, final disposal of the pool's spots and futures was considered highly constructive.

The market worked up to small advances on scattered buying by trade interests.

Oct. sold at 12.06, Dec. at 12.02, Jan. at 12.03 and May at 12.01.

Contracts came mostly from long liquidation and some hedge selling against new crop cotton.

Americans spent $600,100,000 for sugar during 1935.

BLOODY FIGHT

the passes of which are gateways to Madrid, the government announced leftist forces were hurling fascist insurgents back to Avila and Segovia.

Might Be Forced

French senators said Premier Leon Blum told the foreign affairs committee France might be forced to aid the Madrid leftist regime with arms to prevent being "surrounded by dictatorships."

Blum was quoted, however, as denying airplanes or arms had been supplied the Spanish government so far.

Nine more Americans, fleeing revolt-torn Spain, left Madrid for the port of Valencia. Other foreigners, including at least 75 Americans, planned to leave tonight.

At the same time the insurgent radio station in Seville announced the garrison at Valencia had revolted and gone over to the rebels.

Ships Confiscated

To bolster its defense forces, the government confiscated its merchant marine. Authorities ordered all military and civil fliers not yet on duty to report for instructions at the Cuatro Vientos airdrome.

The government was optimistic regarding the rebel strongholds of Zaragoza, Seville, Cordoba and Granada, insisting the insurgents were demoralized by lack of citizen support.

As the British government began an urgent investigation to determine whether British and American banks and factories had been confiscated in Spain, the Ford Motor company said it had received a report its factory at Barcelona had been occupied for an unknown purpose.

Await Reinforcements

Spanish rebels in the northern sector contiguous to Bayonne, French border point, apparently were waiting for reinforcements from Pamplona before attempting to regain lost positions.

From Perpignan, France, came a report that in Barcelona the relations between fascists and the provincial government were becoming increasingly strained. Lawlessness and violence were the rule there.

Loyalist forces, victorious in the desperate struggle for control of the summer resort of San Sebastian, set up a new provincial government. Republican forces were reported to have recaptured Tolosa, south of San Sebastian, which rebels had held for two days.

and the flag" for the notification ceremonies.

The intention, McCormick said, was also aimed at signifying the party's stand on "an American way" of government.

The rectangular auditorium was hung with flags and bunting for the occasion. A fan-shaped stage was erected in the east end to accommodate some 600 Republican leaders, and distinguished guests, including Illinois candidates.

Stages Are Set Up

A second stage was set up outside the building. When the program opens, two casts of stage, radio and opera stars will perform on both the stages, one for an officially expected attendance of 25,000 inside and the other for those on the outside.

Edward A. Hayes, of Decatur, Ill., former national commander of the American Legion, will introduce Chairman John D. M. Hamilton of the Republican national committee.

Hamilton will introduce Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, keynoter of the national convention who will make the address formally notifying Col. Knox that he is the party's choice.

Then about 9:30 o'clock Col. Knox will respond.

our agriculture.

"The service charges to agriculture must be maintained at the lowest possible level. Interest rates, transportation costs and taxes—the major items in this group—all can be reduced by efficiency, organization and honesty."

Speaking on the Centennial farm day program Taber asserted the Grange was in Texas to stay. He said it had put money into the pockets of every farmer in the state and can, if used, put confidence into the inhabitants of every rural community.

RELIEF LABOR

employed more than 120,000 in Texas, Drought said, the number now is approximately 74,000 and includes comparatively few skilled laborers such as needed for most PWA projects.

"I am confident that a substantial majority of the workers released from WPA projects have found steady jobs with private employers," he said. "Many others are working at seasonal occupations."

Chicken Barbecue Planned For Club

Because of ladies' night program, the American Business club will not meet in regular session Friday noon at the Hotel Hilton, L. Earl Hunt, president, said.

Instead a chicken barbecue will be given Friday at 7:30 in City park on Twenty-seventh street.

M. T. Hill is chairman of the committee in charge of the serving. Sam Richardson and William Collins are the committee on program and entertainment.

Not since the days of Woodrow Wilson's presidency had light wines been served in the White House until President Roosevelt resumed the practice.

Drilling Is Slow—Drilling in the Bahan, Rhodes and Fitzpatrick No. 1 Alice Henard, Yoakum county, is slowing up due to hard lime formation. Eight feet had been drilled yesterday, the bottom being reported as 5,122 feet. The bit is in hard gray lime, it was said. The test is northwest of Plains. Several Lubbock men, interested in the oil development there, are making frequent trips to the location.

Stealing chickens in daytime is petty larceny in Kansas; but if the theft be at night, it is grand larceny.

Arthur Bullock Is Transferred Here

Arthur V. Bullock, field supervisor of the National Youth Administration, with headquarters formerly in Abilene, has been transferred to Lubbock, with headquarters here, he announced this morning.

Mr. Bullock will be in charge of four districts, 13, 16, 17 and 18, with offices at Amarillo, Lubbock, Big Spring and Abilene.

Mr. Bullock is well known in this section. He was for several years secretary of the Ralls Chamber of Commerce, going to Quanah about three years ago. Last December he resigned to accept the NYA post.

Just as soon as he can locate a house, he plans to move Mrs. Bullock and their family here, he said. The transfer is effective Aug. 1.

E. Kancher, division freight and passenger agent, knows Mr. Burton well, having known him for a number of years. He has been in charge of location of industries on the railroad.

Tall Story

BOWLING GREEN, Ky.—A novel plea by Henry Johnson, one-eyed negro charged with petty larceny, failed to save him from a 30-day jail sentence.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Orlando's city fathers believe in attacking an evil at its source.

Canine Attorney

SIOUX FALLS, S. D.—Bill Hughes, charged with intoxication, appeared in court with his dog "Prince." When Judge Ransom L. Gibbs found the defendant guilty, "Prince" emitted a pleading whine.

"That dog's the best attorney you could ever get," Judge Gibbs told Hughes. "I'll fine you $25, but because of your dog I'll stay it until Jan. 2."

ing."

"In the bedroom upstairs."

"Was that the same bedroom Dr. Thorpe occupied?"

"Yes, it was."

Woolley then established the fact that this bedroom was connected to the one in which the baby slept by a short hallway.

"Now how many beds were in the doctor's room?"

"There were two."

"And when you made them up in the morning, were they both rumpled?"

"No, only one was."

"Did you ever see Miss Taylor in bed?" Woolley continued.

"Yes."

"How did that happen?"

"I served breakfast to her and Dr. Thorpe," she replied.

Brought Breakfast

The nursemaid went on to say that she brought breakfast for two on "several occasions." She fixed the hour "between nine and ten o'clock," and said there were instances when she found only Miss Taylor and not Dr. Thorpe in bed at breakfast time.

There were three other women, too, she said. She named them:

Miss Betty Graff, otherwise unidentified.

Mrs. Lillian Lawton Miles, who was Dr. Thorpe's wife when he married Mary Astor, the star's affidavits charge.

And a Mrs. Madge Scofield.

It previously had been testified to, by Dr. Thorpe and other witnesses, that one Paul Scofield, a scenario writer, came out to the house to live in the months immediately after the divorce. The physician said Scofield was a close friend.

Through the testimony of the nursemaid, Woolley tried to show that Mrs. Madge Scofield was estranged, but still married to Paul Scofield during the time she and the other three women were visiting Dr. Thorpe.

Judge Knight ruled this inadmissible, however, on the ground that Miss Richardson did not know the exact marital status of the Scofields.

NAMES in the NEWS

One of the first things a cub reporter learns is that names make news. There are two kinds of names which make news. Names of people. And names of things—products and services—things which touch you more closely than the thunderings of a Senator or the escapades of a Prince.

Look through the advertisements in this newspaper and you'll see names you've known most of your life. Dependable names—names that stand for value—announcing improvements in quality, improvements in service, new and better ways to perform old household tasks, ways to save money and raise your standard of living.

Follow the news those names are making, day after day. Read the advertisements regularly, and use them as millions of other people are doing—to keep up-to-date in the world of goods and services; to save time, effort and trouble in shopping; to help budget your expenditures and get the most for your money.

DEATH VICTIM IDENTIFIED

W. S. COLLIER LEAVES BY PLANE TODAY ON TRIP TO TULSA

After identifying his woman companion who was killed in an automobile mishap near here Wednesday morning, W. S. Collier, Tulsa airport operator, left by airplane for Tulsa at 7:30 o'clock this morning.

The woman, Collier said, was Miss Ava Courtney, 30-year-old Tulsa stenographer. Her parents, he said, were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Courtney of near Tulsa.

Jones Is Pilot

Frank Jones was pilot of the airplane which carried Collier.

Officers investigating the crash and others who talked to Collier yesterday reported the woman was Mrs. Collier. Late in the afternoon, the licensed transport pilot insisted to a reporter that the victim was his wife.

In "A Flat Spin"

Later declaring he had been in "a flat spin" because of injuries and shock, Collier declared, "I can't remember a thing I said at first."

Joined Him In Abilene

The airport operator, who said he had been in several airplane crashes and had suffered fractures of both hips, said that he had been on a fishing trip on the Texas coast and that Miss Courtney had been vacationing in Texas. He said Miss Courtney, a friend of the family, joined him in Abilene yesterday morning.

They were, he continued, returning to Tulsa by way of Plainview, where he was to transact business.

The crash between the coupe driven by Collier and one operated by Mrs. Lelah Treadgill, 1602 Twenty-second street, occurred at the juncture of highway 9 and the Meadowbrook golf course side-road north of Lubbock. Mrs. Treadgill was entering the highway.

Miss Courtney's body will be sent by rail to Tulsa this afternoon, said Rix Funeral home.

Identity of the crash victim was questioned after Oklahomans declared Collier had telephoned them that Mrs. Collier was not in the mishap, the Associated Press reported.

Had Letter From Mrs. Collier

Mrs. Gordon Wright said late Wednesday she had been informed Mrs. Collier was not injured. Mrs. Wright, a close friend of the Colliers, said she had a letter from Mrs. Collier Monday written from Eagle Rock, Calif.

CHARRED BONES OF THE DEFENDERS OF ALAMO ARE EXHUMED THIS WEEK

SAN ANTONIO, July 30 (AP) — Practically all the bones of three men, believed by some to be those of William B. Travis, James Bowie and David Crockett, the three senior officers who defended the Alamo from Feb. 23 to March 6, 100 years ago, reposed in a vault of San Fernando Catholic cathedral today.

They were exhumed Tuesday and Wednesday in two graves about 15 feet behind the present altar of the cathedral. They were buried there under the original altar by Captain Juan Seguin after the battle of San Jacinto, late in April 21, 1836. Captain Seguin commanded a company at that battle.

He Left Letter

The captain left a letter, now well known, describing his return to San Antonio after the decisive battle, and finding the charred bones of his friends and comrades in arms still lying where they had been burned by Santa Ana's order. He gathered the bones, he wrote, and buried them under the altar of San Fernando. Captain Seguin's letter has never been questioned but Tuesday's excavation produced the first absolute confirmation history has had.

The bones discovered ranged from charred bits the size of the eraser of a pencil, to a jawbone with all the teeth intact. Most of the bones, particularly the skulls, crumbled in dust in the hands of excavators. Some bits of fabric were also found along with a few buttons. Part of what appears to have been an officer's epaulet also was found.

Remain In Vault

The bones will remain in the cathedral vault until the return of Archbishop A. J. Drossaerts which will probably be in about ten days, Flores said.

The archbishop will take the lead in arranging an appropriate ceremony at which the charred remains of the Alamo heroes will be placed in some niche in the cathedral.

EXPENSE REPORTS SHOW HUGE TOTAL

Sixty nine Lubbock county candidates for 21 posts in the recent Democratic primary, spent an average of $140, or nearly $10,000 in all, on their campaign expenses, it was revealed in a check of the expenses filed in the county clerk's office.

The total may be slightly larger, it was said, as eight candidates, all defeated, had not filed their expenses. Tuesday was the final date for filing. Total to date was $9,707.42.

Spent More Than Opponents

Eight of 10 candidates elected in the first balloting spent more than any of their opponents, and two others without opposition listed small amounts. The remaining candidates paired for run-offs in August generally spent more than their opponents.

An elected candidate spent the least amount, $10.54, and a defeated candidate spent the largest sum, $580.29.

Offices included in the tabulations were those of precincts and the county and of district clerk, attorney and 99th district court judge. In other offices, a complete check was not available as the candidates had sent statements to the secretary of state at Austin.

File Final Accounts

Eight candidates in the first primary election had their third and final expense totals listed with the county clerk late Tuesday but were not available that night for tabulation.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 30 (AP)—Sanford Bates, director of prisons, sent telegraphic instructions here today to U. S. Marshal W. C. Gears to take Ben B. Laska, Denver attorney, to Leavenworth penitentiary to serve hir 10-year sentence for accepting ransom money for defense services in the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping case.

Laska was expected to arrive here Saturday from his home at Denver.

Instructions For Applicants Given

AUSTIN, July 30 (AP)—Frank Moss, assistant state liquor administrator, urged dealers today to follow instructions carefully in applying for permit renewals. He said a number of the renewal applications filed thus far has been improperly prepared.

Most of the faulty applications resulted from misunderstanding of the bond "rider," Moss said. Permit holders had been instructed the "rider" would be sufficient if a valid bond already was on file but that it would have to be executed properly by both dealer and surety.

Moss reminded dealers that notice of application must be published in two consecutive issues of a newspaper, and clippings must accompany the application sent to the state liquor board.

So Much for Love

He bowed low, dropped his beach robe and sped down toward the lake. At its edge he leaped an amazing distance and struck the water neatly.

"And that," said Sandra smiling, "is the way he does everything. I'm not surprised he's going into matrimony the same way."

"What have you to say for me?" asked Helena.

Sandra put her arm around Helena Derrik's shoulders. "A woman's different, darling. Nobody should be surprised when a woman jumps into marriage at five minute's notice. I think every girl carries around subconsciously the image of the kind of man she'd fall for. Of course it's an image that's changed a little maybe, as one grows older—or perhaps forgotten altogether. But—" She stopped suddenly. "You're really in love with him, aren't you?"

"I wouldn't be marrying him if I weren't."

"I thought so," Sandra smiled. "That sticks out all over you, Helena. Do you want me to help you with the wedding? I'd love it."

"I—I don't know. The whole idea of a—a wedding sort of frightens me."

Sandra thought a moment. "Peter seems all set. Why [illegible] you set to doing it now? The [illegible] would pitch in and give you a great send-off and it would avoid an expensive church wedding."

Though [illegible] had never [illegible] so swiftly through Helena's brain as they did in that moment. Why should she wait after all? Peter Henderson was in love with her and she with him. Why should they waste one precious moment of two lives that were all too short at best?

"I could telephone your mother," Sandra said.

"She wouldn't come," Helena said. "She couldn't stand the trip and I'd hate not seeing her first."

"I'll explain everything to her," the Leigh girl said. "I might even fib a little and tell her you've known Peter longer than you have. One thing's sure—when she sees Peter she'll agree with you. No woman can resist that charm."

Helena looked out toward the lake, saw Peter threshing powerfully toward shore. Yes, her mother would approve of him. She might be a little shocked at the sudden marriage—but she had always wanted Helena to marry when the right man came along.

"Sandra, I'll never be able to repay you . . . ."

"Repay me?" said Sandra, amazed. "I'm a romantic woman, darling. And there's nothing snaps up a week-end like a wedding." She faced Helena, her eyes serious. "You mean this, don't you, baby? Don't let me rush you into something you're not sure of."

Helena smiled. "I mean it. I never meant anything more in my life and I never will."

"I'm not recommending Peter Henderson, you understand. I know him just as a charming young man who sometimes appears at parties and week-ends. But if you're sure—and that means if you're in love with him—I'll go the limit."

"I'm in love with him," said Helena slowly.

"Then," answered Sandra, "nobody can stop you and I may as well have my fun and help you." She called down to Peter. "It's all arranged. The wedding is to be at Crest Mountain Lodge—today!"

Four Persons Hurt In Car Collision

One of four persons who received emergency treatment at West Texas hospital last night after an automobile collision one and one-half miles east of Lubbock on highway 24 remained in the hospital this morning.

The patient was Mrs. J. L. Tidmore, Vernon, about 40, who suffered bruises and a nervous condition.

V. B. McBride, about 40, of 1623 Tenth street, suffered a lacerated face and forehead and contusions of the back.

Billy Joe Adams, McBride's nephew, suffered lacerations of the face.

James Tidmore, student of Texas Technological college and the driver of the Tidmore machine, received minor bruises.

Jack Reaves, state highway patrolman who investigated the mishap, said the McBride machine was turning into a lateral driveway when the accident happened.

Tidmore and his mother were en route to Vernon.
