LOCAL BAR ENDORSES RANDOLPH FOR APPEALS COMMISSION

Members of the bar of Floydada last week endorsed Judge H. C. Randolph, of Plainview, for a place on the new Commission of Appeals created by the legislature.

The bar was influenced by two things, it was stated, in endorsing Judge Randolph for the place. One is the fact that the Panhandle of Texas is not represented on any of the prinicpal courts of the state, and the second is the eminent qualifications of the man for the place.

JUDGE RANDOLPH IS URGED BY FRIENDS FOR STATE OFFICE

Friends of Judge H. C. Randolph of Plainview are urging his qualifications and fitness for a place on the new Commission of Appeals lately authorized by the legislature. The appointment of the judges on this Commission lies with the governor, and an organized movement is starting all over this section to urge Judge Randolph for the place.

The press of his section is reciting the fact that the Panhandle-Plains country has never been given proper official recognition at Austin and that its growing power and place in the state's affairs justify the citizens up here to demand that native sons be considered in alloting public favors and proper representation. Joe L. Pope of the Amarillo News, in discussing Judge Randolph, says:

"The friends of Judge H. C. Randolph of Plainview, realizing the injustice meted out to this section in the past, have, without his knowledge or consent, determined to insist upon his appointment upon the new Commission of Appeals created by the Legislature. His qualifications are beyond question. He is a member of the first class graduated from the University, and sat at the feet of the old Alcalde and Chief Justice Gould, together with such lawyers as A. S. Burleson, T. W. Gregory and R. L. Batts. He has never sought public office, but during a practice of more than a third of a century has established a reputation for honesty, integrity and legal ability, which places him in the front ranks of his chosen profession. No man in the Panhandle could represent the legal fraternity with greater honor and ability than Judge Randolph, and his host of friends over this section of the state will earnestly and aggressively insist that the position be tendered him and that he accept it, although they recognize that it will be at a financial loss to him. His father was State Treasurer for more than eight years and as such was known as the Watchdog of the Treasury. As the worthy son of such an ancestor, the best interests of the whole people will ever be safeguarded in the hands of such a judge."

TEXAS CROP CONDITIONS

(The following figures are representative of conditions as of August 1, 1921.)

Houston, Texas, August 10,—Present prospects show a condition of 86 percent of normal for corn which is indicative of a yield of 22.79 bushels per acre and a production of 174,070,000 bushels for the state.

With the exception of the panhandle and the costal belt the two last weeks of July were dry and clear and tough very late corn and June corn though very late corn and June corn on the whole it has been beneficial by allowing for the proper maturity of the bulk of the crop and in the storm sections where some fields were prostrate it has been very beneficial.

The average yield of winter wheat is set at 10 bushels per acre making the state's production 17,610,000 bushels. Some storm damage has affected the grade and rains during and after harvest have caused some losses. The average quality is 86 per cent where 100 represents a high medium grade.

The condition of this springs crop is set at 56 percent of normal, this condition figure including abandonment. The percent of the 1920 crop remaining upon farms is 4 per cent of the crop of that year or 1,764,000 bushels.

TAX RATE FOR YEAR IS SET AT 70 CENTS

Reduction of Tax Rate Will Make Taxes About the Same as Tax For 1920

The total tax rate for Floyd County for the ensuing tax year was set by the Commissioners' Court of Floyd County Saturday at 70 cents, divided as follows: Advalorem, 25; special road and bridge in each of 4 precincts, 15 cents; special bridge warrants, 2 cents; general road and bridge fund, 13 cents; jury fund 5 cents; building fund warrants, 10 cents. The usual poll tax of 25 cents was also levied. This is a reduction of 25 cents under the rate of last year.

With the raising of the valuations and the lowering of the tax rate the Commissioners' Court expects to obtain about the same amount of tax money this year as was received last.

At the same time the county rate was set the levy was made in each of the common school districts in the county. Where the court had no instructions from the trustees the rate was set the same as last year except in cases where the increased local school tax had been voted since last year's change in the constitutional limit. In these cases, unless instructions were had, the court set the rate at the maximum of $1.00.

Under the order passed by the court the lowest local school tax rate in the county is in District No. 12 where the rate was set at 20 cents. In nine districts the rate will be $1.00, in twenty the rate will be 50 cents; in one 60 cents and in one 75 cents.

COTTON CONTRACT IS IRONCLAD PACT

Dallas, Texas, August 14.—"The cotton contract is binding on all signers who did not send in a written cancelation prior to August 1," said C. O. Moser, Secretary of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation in discussing the cotton marketing plans of this organization. Very strict penalties are provided in the law for voilations according to the contract.

Forty thousand farmers are said to have signed the contract. Only 1125 canceled their contracts prior to August 1. This means that more than 97 per cent of those who joined the organization will remain in the big pool which is the largest growers cooperative marketing association in the world. New contracts are coming in every day and these more than balance the few that have been canceled. There are more growers in the pool after the first of August than there was at the conclusion of the membership drive. The successful completion of financial arrangements to secure nearly fifteen million dollars for advances to cotton growers is attracting new signers to the contract daily. The Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association plans to begin handling cotton August 15.

REDISTRICTING BILL IS PASSED BY LEGISLATURE

Second Called Session Necessary to Complete Appropriation Measures

Austin, Texas, August 16.—The House late tonight refused to adopt the free conference report on the educational appopriation bill and thirty minutes later Speaker Thomas announced that "as the hour for adjournment sine die of the special session has arrived, the speaker now declares the House adjourned." The vote on rejection of the report was 66 to 58.

Governor Neff said late tonight that he would not call another special session tonight but would "possibly do so tomorrow."

In discussing the action of the House in rejecting the report and the inability of the Senate to agree on the educational bill the governor said that he doubted if they would be able to agree in another thirty days. It was obvious that he was not pleased with the situation but understood the necessity of calling them to provide for the educational institutions.

The senatorial redistricting bill was passed finally today when both houses adopted the free conference report. The Senate amendment that it shall not take effect until April 1, 1924, was left on the bill. The rural school aid bill report was also adopted by both houses. It carries $1,500,000 for the first year and $1,000,000 for the second.

The Dean prohibition amendment law was adopted by both branches. The bill exempts the purchaser from the offense and the referee makes him a competent witness against the seller of the liquor.. The provisions of the suspended sentence law shall not apply to persons twenty-five years of age.

The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the pink boll worm law and the bill is finally passed.

Both branches also adopted the free conference report on the Johnson bill amending the truck tax bill by the regular session. The tax shall not apply to farmers and non-commercial trucks.

RAINS FALL GENERALLY OVER PANHANDLE; SHORT HERE

Rains fell generally over the territory extending north from Floydada to the Oklahoma line and westward into New Meixco the past week, and local showers have likewise covered the territory in every other direction from Floydada, reports indicate.

Over Floyd County the rain has been quite beneficial, but not generally considered sufficient in portions of the county to mature all the forage grain crop. As much as two inches of rain fell in some portions, but other points report rain in about the same quantity as at Floydada—slightly under a half inch. Probably more than half of the county had an inch or more of rain. The largest scope of country was covered Sunday when Amarillo, Tulia, Plainview, Clovis, Silverton and intermediate points reported good rains. Heavy rain had already fallen in portions of the country on Saturday.

The value of the rain to growing crops, even in territory where the fall was light, is incalculable and it is assured that Floyd County will have an ample feed crop for all needs with a surplus, not counting the hold over from last season, which totals into large figures.

If Governor Neff is influenced to any extent in his appointments by the things that people say and do in the way of endorsement, it is a foregone conclusion that Judge H. C. Randolph, of Plainview, will be seriously considered as a suitable man for a place on the Commission of Appeals to be named to assist the Supreme Court in clearing up its docket. Aside from the consideration that the panhandle has no representation on the Supreme Court or the Court of Criminal Appeals, the qualifications of the man set up as the preference of the panhandle are such that he will fill the place most creditably if the governor appoints him. Seldom does a man with eminent qualifications get the solid endorsement of the bar and the public in general over an entire section as vast as is the panhandle of Texas. But this is one time that such a thing has occurred. And rightly so. If the governor fails to appoint Judge Randolph such failure will prove a keen disappointment to the folks of this section.

The definite announcement of Cullen F. Thomas, of Dallas, that he is in the race for the United States senate will tend to have a clarifying influence on the political situation in Texas at present. While it must be regretted that Senator Culberson sees fit to announce himself again, it must be admitted he will be a large factor in the race. He was elected five years ago, it must be remembered after he had been counted out by many people. Colquitt and Henry and Governor Campbell and Governor Hobby are all in the perhaps-they-will-run class, Mr. Colquitt being the most nearly avowed of these. That Mr. Thomas is the most powerful man in the state on the stump will hardly be denied. The fact he is also a "forward-looking" person and yet not of the "class conscious" variety will make many voters his friend in the campaign. As it now looks he is the choice of the majority of panhandle people.

"Blocs" of one kind and another in Congress, notices of which are seen every few days in the daily newspapers, do not look good to the folks at home who are trying to avoid in the United States conditions which are said to prevail in European domestic politics. In continental Europe there can hardly be said to be a responsible party at any time, but their various policies are governed from time to time by alignments of "class" interests which get together when their "classes" are affected similarly. An agricultural bloc, or a labor union bloc, or any other kind of bloc doesn't look good for the future of America.

It is a most gratifying thing to find Texas is not "eaten up" with graft in its governmental departments as we had been almost forced to believe before the legislature convened by the speeches of our governor. Little irregularities which really amount to nothing bad are the only new things brought to light by the disclosures of the governor, aside from matters which had already had an airing in the public press. The governor should not have done it. There is a fable about the boy who cried "wolf, wolf" when there was no wolf. Nobody believed him then when the wolves did come and eat all the livestock on the place.

The City of Heerford is planning to take some of the "Hallo" out of Hallowe'en, we note in The Hereford Brand, in an article apropos the approach of the evening when "the gnomes of mischance and illfortune" usually have their inning. The City Commission has declared war on the procedure usually incident to Hallowe'en on the part of boys and young men, the Brand says. They have gone so far as to pass an ordinance that will cover such pranks. Heretofore the city of Hereford has been hiring special deputies to try to hold the depredations to the minimum. The announcement is made that no molestation will be offered the "spooks" but that the second verse in the psalm will be sung in city court the next day or the next and each conviction will carry with it a $200 fine. "Tearing up jack" on Hallowe'en night is one of the funniest things a young fellow ever did. Things done in the irresponsibility of Hallowe'en night furnish topics for conversation for years to come. But somehow or other it is difficult for the victims of these pranks to see the fun. And seriously, one of last year's pranks was not funny. Hallowe'en night it was muddy, and the "spooks' threw mud on every front on West Main Street and then smeared it. That was bad for the next day was Sunday and while a few retailers came down and cleaned their windows and fronts Sunday morning others awaited the coming of Monday, and meanwhile visitors in Floydada got a mighty bad impression. Throwing mud on a store front doesn't seem to be the kind of an antic that a "spook" would do.

Farming is enough of a gamble in itself to keep any man from betting it all on any one crop. All cotton, all corn, all wheat or all forage crops, depended on solely for a living and a competence besides, will break the greatest country on earth. Floyd County farmers are far ahead of their brethren farther east who have made theirs strictly a cotton country, but we shall find ourselves in equally as bad shape if we make this an all-wheat country year in and year out. Some wheat, some feed, some cotton, some hogs and some poultry and produce will make this the richest of the rich sections of Texas.

Floydada people should bear in mind that in mid-September we are to entertain a convention ,whose delegates wil come from some of the best towns and cities in the states of Texas and New Mexico. Not only should we prepare to make their stay in Floydada pleasant but we should also see that advance preparations are made for a good impression on every visitor here. Cleaning up and keeping clean our premises will go a long way.

Local showers, which in places have been sufficient for all present needs, have made the outlook for the row crop of Floyd County much better than it was a week ago. However, a forage feed crop will rarely if ever be as good as a cash crop as it will if fed out to home-raised hogs. Feeding hogs and marketing feed this way eliminates a big waste of time and gives a bigger profit on feedstuffs. Ask the successful farmer, who is your neighbor, if this be true.

L. A. White made a business trip to Plainview Monday.

"Yes I've more Time for Myself Since I Got a Fordson"

The Fordson Tractor is taking much of the drudgery out of farm life; it is solving the labor problem; it is reducing the cost of preparing land by almost one half of what it was with horses; and it is saving one third to one half of the farmer's time; and making farm life more attractive.

The Fordson will run your threshing machine—and at the most opportune time for you. It will operate the milking machines, saw your wood, fill your silo, pump the water, and take care of every kind of belt work—

And don't forget—it will plow six to eight acres in a ten hour day, handling two plows with ease.

Thus the Fordson is the ideal year-round tractor. It will pay for its fall and winter keep in many ways.

There's a big story to tell you about the Fordson—and a true one—come in and get the facts. Or, if you prefer, telephone or drop us a card and we will bring them to you.

SYNOPSIS

James Oliver Curwood is an authority on matters pertaining to the Canadian Northwest. He spends a portion of each year in that country and has written several stories using that locale for the background. Many of them have been picturized as special productions and have created a furore wherever they have been shown. Perhaps the best of all the Curwood tales is "The Courage of Marge O'Doone." Certainly it is one of the most dramatic and thrilling pieces of fiction that has come from the pen of James Oliver Curwood. The story moves rapidly and holds the interest from the first flash. The scenic beauty of the backgrounds and their appropriateness to the action are the acme of motion picture photography. A real bear fight; an outlaw dog, wild and ferocious, and the photograph of a beautiful girl, play important parts in the story. It is a picture you will remember for a long time and one that you cannot afford to miss.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

To the Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron, Officers and Members of the Floyd City Chapter, No. 31, O. E. S.

We your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect upon the passing of our Worthy Brother John B. Bartley, submit to you the following:

First; Be it resolved, that we bow our heads in humble submission. He heard his Masters voice call, and he answered the call. He is not gone this

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Floyd City Lodge No. 712, A. F. & A. M.

We your committee on resolutions of respect herewith submit the following:

Whereas our Supreme Grand Master, in His infinite Wisdom, has raised to the glorious companionship of that undissolving lodge, the place of refreshment and rest, the spirit of our beloved brother, John Bell Bartley, past master of this lodge, patriot, and Christian gentleman;

We know not when our heart was made more sorrowful and the dew of its softer emotions came so unbidden to our eyes as when we learned that his noble spirit had passed over the river. His passing will be keenly felt by many personal and Masonic friends throughout this grand jurisdiction.

As a citizen Brother Bartley was progressive and patriotic. His interest in all affairs, civic, social and religious, in connection with the welfare of his church, his lodge, his town and county, was active and zealous at all times. He was ever ready to go his length, financially or otherwise, to the relief of a distressed brother, the widow and orphan, and before his health became poor he was prominently identified with every movement having in view the betterment of Floydada and Floyd county.

While we deeply sympathize with his loved ones left at home, and the family circle in its now broken condition ,nothing we can say or do will heal the wound of his taking away, and while we profoundly lament our loss and theirs, still we bow in humble submission to the will of the Supreme Command, and look forward with ever-living faith in the merits of the lion of the tribe of Judah.

Sleep on, beloved brother, the week has closed, and the Sabbath of eternity has set in. You have wrought well your part on the trestle board of this imperfect lodge. Your work, we know, has the approval of the Great Architect and we feel assured that when the final awakening shall come in the glorious morn of the resurrection, you will be pronounced by the grand master of heaven and earth, a just and upright Mason.

REQUISCAT EN PACE

Therefore, be it resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family of deceased, a copy spread upon the minutes of this lodge, and a copy furnished the local press for publication.

Respectfully submitted
G. A. Lider,
R. C. Scott,

Sometime when our task on earth is done and silently sinks in the west life's sun, with joy we shall meet him there. Our chapter has lost a most devoted member, our town a noble character.

WATER TANK AT HALE CENTER COLLAPSES WHEN FULL

A very disasterous thing happened to Hale Center, Tuesday when the City Water Tank collapsed.

The tank was just recently built, made of concrete, and was 10 feet across and over thirty feet high.

This is a great loss to the town as the funds for building the tank were made up by subscription. Plans had been made for laying a pipe line over the business district of the town, and subscription had already been made for laying the pipe.

The tank evidently was not built as it should have been and some say it is a good thing that it fell as no one was around at the time. Prof. Sears had been up on the tank about ten minutes before it fell.—Hale Center Record.

"CITY WITHOUT A NAME" HOCKLEY COUNTY SITE

Lubbock, Texas, August 13.—The work on the courthouse at the county seat of Hockley, which, by the way, has not been able to find a name that will suit the postoffice authorities in Washington, is rapidly being completed.

It will be a two-story frame building buit on a side street, in order that it may be easily converted into a store building when they build their brick building after a few years. It is the first building erected in this, the "City Without a Name."

NEW SCHEME TO DEFRAUD THROUGH C. O. D. PARCEL POST SHIPMENTS

Persons who have the habit of paying offhand for parcel post packages delivered C. O. D., without taking the precaution of determining something about the senders ,are warned by the Post Office Department to control the habit.

An investigation has been started by postal inspectors into the operations of various persons who have been using the mails to extort. The different persons have all used the same system sending packages of small value at high prices to persons whose names have been selected with considerable care and who were considered likely to pay first and examine afterwards.

Packages in the name of a one-time beauty specialist have been arriving at hotels in the New York section. They contain bottles filled with fluid, which, according to the labels, were invaluable for sunburn and tan. They were, however, too small bottles to balance the $7 paid in each case for the packages.

But the latest of these frauds came to light in Quanah this week. More than 40 of the post office patrons here received yellow slips in their mail which stated that there was a C. O. D. package on which was $1.03. This being a trifling sum, several business men who got such notices addressed to their wives and daughters, dug up the coin and took the packages home. When opened the shipment was a steel needle for embroidery work, valued, at the outside, at 5 cents.

The shipping tags on the parcels showed that they were mailed from Electra, this state. Many have been refused by those to whom they were sent, and every one who took one out and paid the $1.03 got stung to the limit. There are many variations of this sort of graft and we may be on the lookout for C. O. D. parcel post shipments from time to time. The grafters need the money.—Quanah Tribune Chief.

AUTO THIEF LOSES CAR AFTER ALL HIS TROUBLE

Memphis Herald:

W. H. Goodnight had the misfortune to lose his Ford car Wednesday night, when it was stolen out of his garage. But the unusual part of the matter was that the thief had as bad luck as did Mr. Goodnight, and failed to get the car out of the city, it catching fire and being destroyed.

Some of the family came to town in the car Wednesday evening and on returning home ran it into the garage, which was not locked. The next morning a car ran out of gasoline in front of the Goodnight home and asked to borrow enough gas to get to a filling station. A trip to the garage to get the gas disclosed the fact that the car was gone.

Officers were notified and a search begun for the car. During the morning the car was found on the road south of the oil mill, badly damaged by fire, the top and upholstery being burned off and the tires ruined.

The cap was off the gasoline tank and it is supposed that the thief, on reaching the outskirts of the city where the car was found, struck a match to see how much gas was in the tank, and the car was set on fire.

The car was insured.

"REVENUERS" MAKE ROUNDS AND CHECK UP DEALERS

Representatives of the Collector of the Internal Revenue Reed Scott, of Dallas, were in Floydada the latter part of last week, checking up retail stores and fountains on tax collections for war tax.

Other enterprises came in for attention, and as a result the U.S. Treas. is several hundred dollars better off than before their visit.

PLAINVIEW MAN IS SLUGGED ON STREET AT NIGHT

Plainview Herald:

As E. W. O'Brien was making his way from the Perry Motor Company building to the Plainview Hotel Wednesday night a man stepped from behind a bill board near the Green Machinery Company and slugged him a heavy blow which knocked him unconscious for several hours. Passers discovered O'Brien apparently a few minutes after the attack and helped him get to his destination.

A physician was called who found that O'Brien had been slugged with a heavy instrument in the breast which had put him in a critical condition. Although no bones were broken or no gashes cut, his breast was bruised very painfully. O'Brien does not know whether any money was taken from his person.

No arrests have been made as yet, but O'Brien stated to a representative of The Herald and peace officers Thursday that he could identify the man who did the work.

At the time of the tragedy O'Brien was planning to go to Corsicana to attend a funeral of his brother who was killed in France during the World's War. His condition was so critical that he was unable to go.

Geo. W. Foster and Neal Wright, of Lubbock, have been in Floydada since Monday of this week.

James Thomas, of Clarendon, is here on a visit with relatives for a short time, and working with Brown Bros.

W. E. Brown and family left Monday for Abilene and Denton, at which places they will visit while away from home on a vacation.

Dr. Olin May, of Snyder, accompanied by his two sons and daughter, are here this week on a visit with the Gamble brothers and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Shipley and little son, of Clovis, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Shipley and other relatives here the past few days.

Some Things About Banking You Should Understand

The banker's first obligation is to safe-guard the funds in his custody, and keep himself in position to meet all demands for their return. The banking business would disappear if this requirement were not strictly observed. It is not enough that the borrowers shall be a "Good Fellow;" the loan must be collectible when due, if the banker is to be secure in his own position.

As a bank derives its lending power from the community in which it is located, serving only as manager of the funds given into its custody, it is evident that any change in business conditions that affects the amount of liquid wealth in the community will quickly affect the lending power of the bank.

A bank of itself does not create wealth. It is not an industry; it does not carry on production. It is a reservoir of the floating, liquid wealth of the community. Its function is to aid production and trade by making this floating wealth more available and more useful than it could be without being gathered together.

Deposit your money in the bank of your choice and thereby assist producton and trade.
