Expect 1,200 Local Students And Fans To See Pampa Tilt

MORE THAN 500 WILL BE ON SPECIAL TO FOOTBALL CLASH

Between 500 and 600 Lubbock students and fans are expected to board the Santa Fe special train at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning with Pampa as the destination. In addition, four big buses, carrying 80 high school students will depart early tomorrow for Pampa. Several hundred are expected to make the trip to the site of the Lubbock-Pampa football game in private automobiles.

These statistics were gathered at noon today as a result of a check up with the Santa Fe officials, the South Plains Bus company and those in charge of ticket sales.

Many Tickets Sold

E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey, business manager at Lubbock High school, in charge of ticket sales here, stated this morning that between 1,200 and 1,500 Lubbock and South Plains supporters would make the trip to Pampa, judging from the number of tickets already sold and the inquiries concerning transportation and seating arrangements.

Nine hundred tickets were placed on sale at the Hotel Lubbock drug store early this week. About 75 were returned, unsold, to Pampa this morning. Some 600 of those sold called for reserved seats, according to Lowrey. This number does not include those sold to high school students, teachers and other officials of the school. It was thought that at least 400 students would make the trip.

Joe Bowman, manager of the South Plains Bus company, announced this morning that four buses would leave at 6 o'clock in the morning. Eighty passengers will be carried.

The special train leaves the Santa Fe station at 9 o'clock, arriving in Pampa at 1 p. m. It is scheduled to start the return trip at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening, arriving in Lubbock at 11 p. m.

Two Mexicans Are Electrocuted Today

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 30. (AP)—Victor Rodriguez, 20, and Nicandro Munos, 26, Mexican aliens, were electrocuted here early today for the murder of Bert Ellison, border customs inspector, last October.

Rodriguez, first to die, went to his death with a shrug of his shoulders.

"I am dying unjustly," he murmured.

Munos went to the chair 15 minutes later. He addressed the warden in Spanish, being unable to speak English.

"They are going to kill me without my doing anything."

NEW ANGLE IN DEATH FOUND

BLOODY KNIFE OFFERS CLUE IN DEATH OF DALHART GIRL

DALHART, Oct. 30—Discovery of a blood-smeared pocket knife in weeds near the apartment in which Miss Juanita Criswell, 20, met death caused officers to believe yesterday they had ferreted out a new angle in the slaying. Miss Criswell died yesterday of knife wounds. Meanwhile, two men and a woman whom officers said were with Miss Criswell were questioned last night. Ownership of the knife had not been established.

Authorities said the four persons attended a show, going later to the apartment.

The woman maintained Miss Criswell took up a long knife which she used in paring potatoes. She said she grappled with the young woman but to no avail.

They were unable to tell investigators what had become of the knife. The coroner's inquest was continued pending further investigation.

ROBBER SLAIN IN PRISON

ED CROWDER STABBED TO DEATH IN FIGHT ON STATE FARM

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Oct. 30.—Ed Crowder, 30, convicted Houston bank robber was killed late last night in a knife fight with another convict in the barracks of the Eastman state farm, according to reports from Captain B. B. Monzingo.

In a desperate battle that threw the barracks into turmoil and sent several hundred convicts scurrying for safety, Crowder met death after suffering 15 stab wounds on his chest, back and body.

Aubrey Scalley, serving 50 years from Dallas county on a highway robbery conviction, was placed in solitary confinement immediately after the fight, captain Monzingo stated.

Lasted Few Minutes

The fight, according to prison barracks inmates and Captain Monzingo, lasted only a few minutes but was of such fierceness that building tenders and trusties were unable to separate the men until Crowder was wounded fatally.

"The two men had been quarreling a little in the day," Captain Monzingo said, "but the picket guard did not think that they were very angry with each other."

Light, Power Rates Slashed At Austin

AUSTIN, Oct. 30. (AP)—The Austin city council has voted a reduction of from 8 to 15 per cent for commercial consumers of light and power and 35 per cent for suburban residential users.

The reductions will become effective November 1. The light and power plant is owned by the municipality.

Suburban customers will pay a minimum of $1 for nine kilowatt hours and city consumers will be charged 50 cents minimum for five kilowatt hours.

Seek Operators Of Still In Arkansas

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 30.—A group of men suspected of being whisky still operators were sought today for questioning in connection with the shooting to death of three men in woodlands near Dequeen.

Sheriff Charles P. Holman yesterday discovered a 50-gallon still in the woods within a short distance of the spot where the bodies of E. S. Chappell, Springdale farmer, and a younger man were recovered Sunday. The younger man had not been identified. A third body, identified as that of Jack Odell, 18, was found a short distance away.

FOUR DEAD IN MINE BLAST LAST WEEK

TWO OF SIX BURIED ALIVE FIVE DAYS RESCUED TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

MOCANAQUA, Pa., Oct. 30.—Rescue workers shortly after six o'clock this morning brought out alive two of the six miners entombed last Saturday by an explosion at the local mine of the West End Coal company. The others were dead.

Those rescued are John Tomashunis, 40, and Joseph Matzoni, 22. Mine officials said both were in excellent condition considering they had been buried alive for five and a half days. Both will survive the ordeal, physicians said.

The dead: John Molitoris, 35, father of three children; Jacob Tinus, 45, father of four; Henry Ceglarski, 23, single, and Paul Novak, 40.

Efforts Redoubled

With but five more feet to go, rescue workers throughout the night redoubled their efforts to get through rock and coal to the miners.

As hope for their rescue ebbed slowly away, a faint tapping was heard on the pipes run through the spot where the miners were entombed.

Early today more signals came from behind the barrier. They were received by means of blows struck on the coal ribs.

At daybreak today the men had been entombed more than 133 hours.

From rescue workers it was learned that two of the dead men had been killed instantly by the force of the explosion and that the other two had been victims of afterdamp.

Rating Of Lubbock Airport Is Sought

An application for rating of Lubbock municipal airport will be filed with the aeronautics division of the United States department of commerce, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce aviation committee decided Thursday afternoon.

Work has begun on a brief to be sent to postoffice department in connection with a proposed airmail line which would include Lubbock, the chamber announced after the meeting. The committee voted to make a revised copy of airmail schedules affecting Lubbock and to distribute the copies to interested persons and organizations.

A folder describing Lubbock municipal airport and bearing an aviation map of the southwest has been printed and will be sent to airports and pilots, the chamber reported.

Raging Oil Flames Dwindle Down Today

SOMERSET, Oct. 30 (AP)—The raging oil tank fire which yesterday consumed $35,000 worth of crude oil had dwindled to a charred hole in the ground and a wisp of smoke today.

The fire started with an unexplained explosion early yesterday day and was marked by a second explosion during the afternoon, when the burning oil ate its way down to the water level of the 40,000 barrel tank.

The second explosion threw burning oil on school children watching the fire but none was injured seriously.

South Plains Is Spotted By Frost

This region was spotted with light frost last night and some tender vegetation was nipped in places where the silvery sheen was formed, the state experiment station here reported. It was the season's first frost here.

Dropping to 33 degrees, the mercury last night set a new low mark for this fall here, the experiment station thermometer showed.

BANKERS WILL TALK CREDIT PROPOSAL

MEETING CALLED FOR NEXT WEEK TO TAKE UP HOOVER PLAN

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, Oct. 30 — Bankers of the eleventh federal reserve district will be called to meet in Dallas next week, probably Tuesday, to acquaint themselves with operating plans of President Hoover's national credit corporation.

Nathan Adams, president of the First National bank of Dallas and director of the credit corporation in this district, said in announcing the conference that it would speed up the organization by having bankers meet him in Dallas. Adams was in Amarillo to talk over the plans with bankers of this city and the Panhandle. He came here from a similar meeting at Fort Worth.

Study Required

"The organization is slow enough at the best," Adams said. "The plan requires careful study on the part of directors and attorneys of the larger banks, and it is generally several days after bankers have had the plan explained before they can endorse it."

Adams said bankers in Dallas had subscribed $2,000,000 and that one of the Fort Worth banks came into the corporation yesterday. He said other banks at Fort Worth and the banks in Amarillo would be ready to announce their decisions within a few days. Officials of many small banks have voluntarily come in, he said.

"The district will easily raise from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000, which would be its proportionate share," he said. "The plan is sound and is in accordance with banking principles. Most banking is done on paper and credit should be extended over a long period. Cash is what we spend for cigars."

Acquittal Motion Denied Bouknight

HOUSTON, Oct. 30 (AP)—A motion for instructed acquittal of F. L. Bouknight on trial as an alleged participant in the murder of W. L. Edwards, was denied today by Judge Whit Boyd.

The defense, in urging the motion, contended the testimony of John Belois, ace state witness, had not been sufficiently corroborated.

Belois, himself under indictment in the murder, testified under a grant of immunity, and his testimony was the testimony of an alleged accomplice. The state rested late yesterday.

Hooper Will Come Here For Hearing

AUSTIN, Oct. 30 (AP)—Elbert Hooper, assistant attorney general, has been assigned to represent the Texas railroad commission in Lubbock November 9 at an injunction hearing involving validity of the new motor truck law as it applies to private contract carriers.

A Lubbock court granted a temporary injunction restraining peace officers and commission inspectors from enforcing the law, the litigation there being similar to legal moves that were made in Limestone county recently.

NAN BRITTON SUES FOR DAMAGES

* * * * * * * * * * * *

Hearing has begun in federal court in Toledo, O., in a libel suit for $50,000 brought against a Marion, O., hotel keeper by Nan Britton, author of "The President's Daughter." Miss Britton is seeking that amount from C. A. Klunk, who wrote "The Answer to the President's Daughter," and who advertised and sold the book in his hotel. She maintains her reputation has been damaged to that extent. Miss Britton is shown here at Toledo at the opening of the trial with her daughter, whom she named Elizabeth Ann Britton Harding, now 12 years old.

Trial Of Britton Libel Suit Opens

BOOK ON PRESIDENT HARDING IS BASIS FOR LITIGATION

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 30—The trial of the $50,000 libel suit of Nan Britton, author of "The President's Daughter" against C. A. Klunk, Marion, Ohio, hotel keeper, continued here today with the jury listening to the reading of Miss Britton's book by defense counsel. The book "The President's Daughter" alleged that President Warren G. Harding was the father of Miss Britton's daughter Elizabeth Ann.

Reading by defense counsel from Miss Britton's book disclosed her assertion that letters received by her from President Harding, while he was United States senator, were from one to sixty pages long. Also that he had characterized both his letters and those he received from the plaintiff as compared to nothing but "French love letters." The senator had suggested, the book states, that all communications interchanged between them be destroyed.

Concern for her child, Elizabeth Ann, became the ruling element in the mother after the death of President Harding while she was on an European trip from which she hurried home upon learning of his death, the book says. This is put forth by the author as the reason for her marriage six months later to a Captain Neilson, an ocean navigator, after he had agreed to set $5,000 aside in a trust fund for the daughter.

The book discussed, as read in court, the author's reluctancy at first in telling the captain that she had a daughter and who was the father. The promised sum never was paid, the author says, and her divorce from the vessel master

All Of The Time, He Was The Last

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 30 (AP)—Meal time, all the time, it was just a case of being last for Merret Bell.

At the dinner table, the platter would be passed first to his mother-in-law. Bell told Divorce Judge Samuel H. Silbert. Next came his wife's two children by a former marriage and then Mrs. Bell. What was left, he got, Bell said.

When the family went for an automobile ride, the mother-in-law got in first and after her came the two children and Mrs. Bell. Never, Bell said, was there enough room for him.

"Family life for me was nothing but last place, last say, or last word," Bell complained.

He got a divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty.

Serious Wreck Is Narrowly Averted

WISTER, Okla., Oct. 30. (AP)—The westbound Memphis-California Rock Island special ran into an open switch shortly after midnight but a serious wreck was narrowly averted. No passengers were injured.

The engineer, C. W. Coulter, was slightly injured, several coaches and the engine were derailed and a wrecking crew was dispatched from division headquarters at El Reno to clear the track.

TEXAN KILLED

VAN HORN, Oct. 30 (AP)—J. A. Partridge, motor parts dealer, was killed last night when the automobile in which he was riding overturned.

EIGHTY-YEAR-OLD MAN WALKS IN ON OWN MOURNING PARTY EARLY TODAY

CLEVELAND, Oct. 30 (AP)—Eighty-year-old Lewllyn Hall walked in on his own mourning party early today.

The aged man slumped over while sitting in a rocking chair at his home. His wife, Emma, could find no pulse. Neither could the police rescue squad she summoned and they departed with Hall for the morgue.

En route, they stopped at a hospital for an official death pronouncement. Physicians could find no heartbeats but decided to try a stimulant anyway.

Hall's eyelids flickered. The astonished physicians applied artificial respiration. Presently Hall sat up.

"I guess I must have been out for a while," he explained.

Police took him home again and found mourners already gathered. Hall finished up by helping revive his wife who fainted at the sight of him.

CITY TO START WORK MONDAY ON BOOKS

COMMISSION IS NOT SATISFIED WITH PRESENT RATE

Scrutiny of books and allied records of the West Texas Gas company and the South Plains Pipe Line company here by D. D. Martin, City accountant, on order of the City commission, is scheduled tentatively to begin Monday, City Manager W. H. Rodgers said at noon.

City commission Thursday afternoon was not satisfied with figures and explanations purporting to show that Lubbock natural gas rate is fair, and assigned Mrtin to make a preliminary investigation of the utilities books.

The decision followed a two-hour conference at the City hall, at which C. C. Crenshaw, counsel for the utilities, read a prepared reply to the commission's order to show why gas rates should not be reduced here, and then answered questions by City Attorney E. L. Klett, Mayor J. J. Clements, and several commissioners.

To Resort To Courts

Court procedure will be resorted to by the gas interests if the City commission rules that gas rates here must be cut, Crenshaw read. Prior to Thursday's conference, a city ordinance had been proposed which would fix the maximum domestic rate at 55 cents a thousand cubic feet, as compared to prevailing charges of 67 1-2 cents a thousand for the first 6,000 cubic feet and 57 1-2 cents a thousand for 6,000 to 50,000 cubic feet.

The nature of City Accountant Martin's findings will determine whether the City will have made an audit and appraisal of the compan-

"Kidnaping" Victim Returns To Dallas

DALLAS, Oct. 30 (AP)—R. C. Brassell, 27, who claimed he had been kidnaped and beaten by two men the night of Oct. 12, returned to Dallas today and informed authorities he had been "out of the city."

Brassell disappeared two weeks ago after causing the arrest of Johnnie Leslie and Jack Darby on aggravated assault charges. He failed to appear at the hearing of the case and police feared he had met with foul play.

Sleeping Airplane Service Announced

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP)—An airplane service with sleeping accommodations between Chicago and Los Angeles is soon to be inaugurated, H. G. McCarroll, experimental engineer of Detroit said today.

The line, he said, would be operated by a railroad with four huge planes which are being rebuilt at the General Motors corporation plant near New York. The service will start in about two months. The planes will be operated on a 19-hour schedule, one leaving both Los Angeles and Chicago each afternoon. Each plane will have sixteen berths.

FRESH ATTACK TO BE MADE ON CRITICS

PUBLIC APOLOGY FOR "UNTRUTHS" IS TO BE EXPECTED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—President Hoover was described at the White House today as shaping a fresh attack on the criticism of his policies by the navy league designed "to show the true purpose of these falsehoods and the people who are interested in propagandizing them."

This statement supplemented a spectacular announcement by President Hoover last night that he would appoint a committee to investigate "untruths and distortions of fact" concerning his naval policy, which he said had been disseminated by William H. Gardiner, president of the league.

To Expect Apology

The president then served notice he would expect a public apology and a correction of Gardiner's "misstatements."

The navy league president earlier had accused the chief executive of an "abysmal ignorance" of naval deeds and an effort to "starve" the navy.

Theodore Joslin, one of the president's secretaries, today made the following statement:

"The objects of the president's inquiry are first, to call the attention of the country and members of the navy league to the tissue of falsehoods that have been spread by Mr. Gardiner, and, second, to show the true purpose of these falsehoods and the people who are interested in propagandizing them."

Joslin said he was not informed as to when the committee to investigate Gardiner's claims would be appointed.

MRS. JUDD IS TAKEN BACK

TRUNK SLAYER BEING RETURNED FOR HER PHOENIX TRIAL

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30 — In custody of officers, Winnie Ruth Judd was traveling by automobile today across the desert toward Phoenix, Ariz., to face trial for the murder of Miss Hedvig Samuelson and Mrs. Agnes Le Roi there October 16.

Mrs. Judd left the Los Angeles county jail at 9:45 o'clock last night in custody of Sheriff J. R. McFadden of Maricopa county, Arizona; County Attorney Lloyd Andrews and Mrs. Lon Jordan, jail matron of Phoenix.

On advice of her attorney, Paul Schenck, Mrs. Judd abandoned her fight against extradition and the superior court here evacuated a writ of habeas corpus clearing the way for her return from this city, to which she shipped the bodies of the victims in trunks.

Following the automobile in which Mrs. Judd left the county jail were two other cars, one containing Los Angeles county officers and the other containing Dr. William C. Judd of Santa Monica, Calif., husband of the confessed slayer, and newspapermen.

Ford Returns To $6-A-Day Minimum

DETROIT, Oct. 30. (AP)—The Ford Motor company has returned to the $6-a day minimum wage, abandoning the $7 "emergency rate" placed in effect December 1, 1928, which it described as a $35,000,000 "contribution to the betterment of conditions."

A statement issued last night said the company reverted three weeks ago to the $6 rate "paid by the company throughout the so-called 'prosperity years' of 1919 to 1929."

INDUSTRY, BUSINESS IN THE SOUTH MOUNTING AND BUILDING FOR FUTURE

BY MARK TEMPLE

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 30. (AP)—Industry and business in the South are mounting steadily and building for the future.

In Georgia, the Clark Thread company has completed a new plant and a mill village of 75 houses at Austell, near Atlanta, and expects to employ some 600 men and women when installation of machinery is completed.

Receipts Increase

Two hundred new workers have been employed in Virginia, beginning October 26, by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company at Richmond, and port of Richmond customs receipts show an increase.

David Clark, of Charlotte, editor of the Southern Textile Bulletin, reports that immense quantities of raw cotton are being bought and stored by the larger cotton manufacturing corporations of the Carolinas and the South, "in anticipation of sharp advances in prices within a year or two."

Tennessee, Florida, Alabama, and other southern states report busi-

Board Dnnier Tonight Will Open Music Meeting In Lubbock

Business Sessions To Be On Saturday

Preceding the formal opening of an annual convention Saturday morning here, officers and committee chairmen of seventh district Texas Federation of Music clubs, will gather this evening in executive session. This board meeting will be at a dinner at 7:30 o'clock in the A. B. Adcock residence, 2601 19th street.

Business sessions will start at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning in the chapel of First Methodist church. There will be a luncheon at Lubbock hotel at 12:30 o'clock. A tea and fine arts program will follow at 2:30 o'clock at the Hilton hotel.

About 19 officers and chairmen are expected to be at the dinner this evening, according to Mrs. Richard L. Douglas, local entertainment chairman. Members of the Lubbock Music club are serving as hostesses for this convention and about 95 delegates are expected to be in attendance.

Mrs. E. B. Graham of Amarillo, president of the district, is to preside at the meetings.

Home Arts Will Be Theme Of Meeting

Home economics from the standpoint of a demonstration agent, a teacher and a home maker will be discussed Saturday at a district gathering of home economics workers. The talks will be made at a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock at the Hilton hotel. Twenty-five reservations have been made for the luncheon. Others are expected.

Miss Margaret Weeks, dean of the home economics school at Texas Technological college, is district home economics chairman.

Speakers for Saturday include Miss Myrtle Murray of College Station, district home demonstration agent, who is to discuss her phase of the work; Miss Sybil Thomas, district supervisor of homemaking, who will tell of the work of the teacher; Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw and Mrs. A. H. Leidigh, who will discuss home economics from the viewpoint of a homemaker.

This meeting is fostered by the Texas Home Economics association. Included in the district are the following counties: Garza, Lynn, Terry, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Bailey, Hockley, Crosby, Dickens and Lubbock.

The group in attendance will include home economics teachers, home makers and others who have had training in home economics, home economics women in business, home demonstration agents and home economics trainers.

Thursday Club Has Party At Kennedys

High scores in bridge were made by Mrs. Joe Telford and Mrs. Bill Watson Thursday when Mrs. I. F. Kennedy entertained the Thursday Bridge club in her home at 1618 8th street. Mrs. K. M. Renner was high in a cut. Hallowe'en appointments were used.

Guests were Mesdames Dewey McClellan, Ray Henson, W. G. T. Robertson, R. E. Dick, T. C. Meincke, Telford, L. A. Howard, W. H. Wright, Watson, C. M. Traylor, George Brewer, Herbert Stubbs, Roy Furr, Renner, J. B. Galland and Earl McKinney.

COFFEE VARIES IN FLAVOR IF ROAST IS "HIGH" OR "LOW"

Hills Bros. Overcome This Variation by Their Patented Process—Controlled Roasting

There is no way to know when a big batch of coffee is perfectly roasted. One batch may be "high," another "low," with the result that there is variation of flavor.

Hills Bros. overcome this uncertainty, with their radically different and exclusive process — Controlled Roasting. As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow . . . a little at a time . . . so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by this patented process that roasts evenly, continuously . . . a little at a time. Positive control of heat develops every berry to perfection — to the degree that insures a rich, full-bodied, unvarying flavor in every pound.

No other coffee tastes like Hills Bros. Coffee because no other coffee is roasted the same way. Controlled Roasting is Hills Bros.' own process.

Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum cans that keep it ever-fresh. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed from cans and kept out. Coffee packed in ordinary cans, even if "air-tight," does not stay fresh. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

Cakes, Pies To Be Sold After School

Luscious cakes and pies on display at the Avalanche-Journal free cooking school this afternoon will go on sale at the close of the class, about 3:30 o'clock. The sale will continue there until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Today marks the close of the eighth annual free cooking school that the daily newspapers have fostered in Lubbock. Miss Christeen Chitwood is delivering her final lecture and giving her last demonstration in connection with the school this afternoon.

Proceeds from the cakes and pies, which were entered in a baking contest, are to go to the treasury of the Parent-Teacher Council here. The money will be used in child welfare work.

Sell Others Tomorrow

Any cakes or pies that are left this afternoon will go on sale tomorrow at the Sherrod Hardware company store.

A general program, such as has been followed each day in the school, will be carried out by Miss Chitwood in her lecture and demonstration this afternoon.

Working in full view of her class, from a model kitchen arranged on a platform, she measures, gives lists of ingredients, mixes and cooks her various dishes. Thursday afternoon another feature was added when she gave a short talk on stain removal for white linens.

At the close of her lecture, the women in attendance were invited to come to the stage to inspect the equipment and the dishes that had been prepared.

Variety of Dishes

Dishes prepared Thursday afternoon were eggs stuffed with sardines, Spanish steak, fancy sandwiches, a burnt sugar cake and icing, a pineapple filling for tarts or to be served alone as a dessert and Mexican salad. With her recipes, Miss Chitwood gave hints on successful combination of ingredients and explained the functions of the various ingredients.

Most dishes that have been prepared in the school during this week have been practical for the ordinary household and extremely economical. Temperatures for cooking have been listed with the various foods, as well as the time for baking and boiling.

W. A. Sylvesters At Home To Society

Bridge was played Thursday evening at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester for members of Coo Coo club. The party was in the Sylvester residence on 19th street.

Mrs. O. A. Terry scored high in the games among women players and M. L. Walker made men's high score.

Those who attended were Messrs. and Mesdames E. J. Parsons, Terry, E. C. Henley, L. N. Thomas, Vestel Lott, Walker, Allen Webb and Mrs. R. J. Keller.

Twenty-four hour service will be provided at the air-weather station operated by the federal government at Abilene on the airways line.

Forty-Two Party Is Seasonal Fete

L'Aiquillee Needle club members and their husbands attended a forty-two party Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Imogene Pace at 2347 19th street. The orange and black of the season were carried through house and table appointments and the refreshments.

Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames H. A. Welmaker, T. L. Biggs, Robert Ellison, Earl Ellison, H. T. Wilkins, Dee Puckett, T. W. Keys, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Mesdames Maude Bradley, William Von Wolff and V. O. Jennings.

Miss M. Ewell Has Party For Society

Miss Myrtle Ewell entertained the Triple Four Bridge club Thursday evening at the Glorieta with a Hallowe'en party. High score in bridge was made by Miss Ruby Lee Brooks and Miss Mary Lois Thompson scored low.

Guests were Misses Pauline Shelby, Thompson, Marie Hale, Lucille Hale, Lyna Tipton, Irma Claye, Bernice Moreland, Johnie Sue Lupton, Ann Lupton, Gladys Hudson and Brooks.

Edwina Booth Wins

After Edwina Booth, screen actress, had said "No" 18 times in succession when questioned by her attorney, Culbert Olson, in a Los Angeles court, she was returned victor in a $50,000 alienation of effections suit brought against her by Mrs. Susette Duncan, wife of Duncan Renaldo, film actor. Miss Booth is shown on the witness stand.

Washes woolens and blankets!

WHEN you wash with hard water there's a dirty ring around the edge of the basin, but that's not suds, it's scum. The hard water is doing that. It's mixing with the soap to form a dirty curdle. Can't wash woolens and blankets in that water.

Soften the water with Melo. Then add soap. The water is now a very fine cleansing agent and the soap is much more effective. Melo did that. Get a can today at your grocer's.

Rebekahs Have Hallowe'en Affair

About fifty guests attended a Hallowe'en party Thursday evening at the Rebekah hall. Visiting lodge members were here from Slaton and Abernathy for the affair.

Shocks of feed, spooks, a room of horrors, a fortune teller, black cats, pumpkins and other symbols of the Hallowe'en season were used in decorations and in carrying out the party. Proverbial stunts of the occasion furnished entertainment. Mrs. J. O. Ford and Mrs. E. Burdett planned the entertainment.

All who attended were in costume. A feature of the evening was a treasure hunt around the block in which the hall is situated, ending with the refreshments.

Entertainment For Party Is Seasonal

Mrs. H. W. Sims directed entertainment Thursday evening for a Hallowe'en party attended by members of the First Methodist Wesley class and their husbands. The party was in parlors of First Methodist church and was attended by about 40 people.

Mrs. O. B. Trinkle sang a solo. Mrs. A. B. Ellis played several selections, fortunes were told and all who were there engaged in general singing.

POISON

in Your bowels!

Poisons absorbed into the system from souring waste in the bowels, cause that dull, headachy, sluggish, bilious condition; coat the tongue; foul the breath; sap energy, strength and nerve-force. A little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will clear up trouble like that, gently, harmlessly, in a hurry. The difference it will make in your feelings over night will prove its merit to you.

Dr. Caldwell studied constipation for over forty-seven years. This long experience enabled him to make his prescription just what men, women, old people and children need to make their bowels help themselves. Its natural, mild, thorough action and its pleasant taste commend it to everyone. That's why "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin," as it is called, is the most popular laxative drugstores sell.

FAMILY LIFE

TIME WAS when moral and religious leaders took the attitude that Mother Nature was wrong and that all we needed to do to grow righteous was to keep from doing what we wanted to do.

Then about 40 years ago came along a group of psychologists, led off by the brilliant G. Stanley Hall, who glorified the instincts. Came next the Freudians (still fairly active), who proclaimed that if one stood in the way of the appetites of human nature one would be in danger of emotional destruction. In more recent years instincts have been less in vogue and even Freudianism is less fashionable. Human urges are more and more thought of in terms of what has seemed most useful to the race as well as to the individual. Of course, not all agree upon what promises to be useful.

Apparently there is a general agreement, however vague, that human beings are endowed with a few basic urges which, when unrestrained or misdirected, tend to interfere not only with other individuals' rights and happiness, but with the happiness of the individual himself, during his lifetime.

No matter what particular brand of theology the preacher dispenses, he is concerned with fostering good family life and with promoting happiness of homes and children.

I wish preachers were less general in their dissertations on sin and good conduct. I believe there is a rich field for them to analyze with their parishioners the thousand little things which parents and children and others of the family do for the most part unawares which annoy one another and, on the other hand, those specific elements of conduct which further family happiness.

Who can acquire spiritual attitudes while annoyed by another person constantly? One pious parent even may be irritated while the other prays for him.

Just to know our likelihood of vexing others we live with will not, however, make us more endurable; but, if we are seeking our own happiness we naturally discover that there is promise in acquired ability to be more tolerable and more lovable. A thing we forget is that the more annoying we grow the more annoying we cause others of our family to become toward us. Successful efforts at correction seem to begin with ourselves—the last place we normally would choose to have them begin.

An occasional preacher speaks on marriage, parent problems and family relationship. From one church bulletin I read these sermon titles for evening meetings:

"Why Family Life Has Changed." "What Are the Foundations of Successful Marriage?" "What are Homes For?" "The Next Generation." Why not more of such?

While there are still some "marrying parsons" who are willing and eager to marry anybody, anywhere, any time, there is an increasing number of preachers who are beginning to see themselves in a strategic position for guiding young men and women towards exercise of more intelligence before entering upon matrimony, helping them avoid matrimonial wrecks, and for helping parents and children to live together reasonably happy.

Of course, the modern preacher has no easy job. He probably does much better than he is said to do.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

FORT WORTH, Oct. 30 (AP)—Reg. L. Robbins, pilot, and Clyde Smith, one of ten passengers stricken with food poisoning in a flight to Dallas from Brownsville Wednesday, were released from a hospital here Thursday. The others had recovered earlier.

COOK CONDITION IS SATISFACTORY

The condition of Alvin Cook, 38, who was injured severely at 11 o'clock Thursday night when his left hand and arm became caught in a gin stand, was "satisfactory" this morning, attendants at West Texas hospital said.

Cook is an employe of the Texas Cotton Growers gin at 101 Thirteenth street, where the accident occurred. The hand and part of the forearm were amputated, as they were mangled by saws.

Cook and a fellow worker, C. C. Shuford, were cleaning out the seed conveyor at the stands when the accident occurred. Shuford and another employe attempted to disentagle the injured workman from the saws, but were unsuccessful until the gin machinery had been stopped.

O. E. Lanham, about 30, employe of Farmers Cooperative gin No. 1 at 404 Avenue H, received emergency treatment at Lubbock sanitarium this morning after a sliver of wood had become imbedded in his arm at the elbow. The fragment was removed.

PLEADS GUILTY

Returned here from Melrose, N. M., where he resides and was arrested, Ben Castle pleaded guilty of swindling by check in county court here Thursday and was fined $1 and sentenced to five days in jail. Castle also made good an allegedly worthless check he had issued for $15, County Attorney Vaughn Wilson said.

COOLIDGE NOT TO HAVE TROPHY OF HUNT MOUNTED

PLYMOUTH, Vt., Oct. 30 (AP)—Even if Calvin Coolidge could find a taxidermist willing to tackle the job, it is safe to say the former president will not have his latest trophy of the hunt mounted for display in his study. It's an ordinary, chicken coop variety of polecat.

As Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge were preparing for their departure for their home at Northampton, Mass., the barking of a neighbor's dog attracted their attention. Investigating, they found the object of the dog's clamor across the street from the Coolidge homestead.

Mr. Coolidge returned to the house for the double-barrelled shotgun with which he had been bagging partridge during the past week. Mrs. Coolidge focused a flashlight on the target. Mr. Coolidge drew a steady bead and pulled the trigger. The skunk dropped.

For sending a postcard to Provisional Commissioner Johnstone of the African Gold Coast Colony, charging that Johnstone had murdered a native, Major H. S. Collins, D. S. O., has been sentenced to nine months' imprisonment in England.

SWIFTEST, EASIEST WAY TO END BILIOUS SPELL

When you neglect those first symptoms of constipation — bad breath, coated tongue, listlessness, the whole system soon suffers. Appetite lags. Digestion slows up. You become headachy, dizzy, bilious.

It's easy to correct sluggish bowel action! Take a candy Cascaret tonight. See how quickly—and pleasantly—the bowels are activiated. All the souring waste is gently propelled from the system. Regular and complete bowel action is restored.

Cascarets are made from pure cascara, a substance which doctors agree actually strengthens bowel muscles. All drug stores have Cascarets. 10c.—Adv.

WESTERNERS OFF FOR CRUCIAL PAMPA GRID GAME SATURDAY

MATADORS EN ROUTE TO BEAR CLASH

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

This department is going to pick Lubbock to win Saturday's game at Pampa because we know that Lubbock is capable of winning, because it is time for Pampa to experience a letdown, because the Westerners are under dogs, because Pampa really expects to win and because we like Coach Chapman, Coach Huffman and the Westerners.

That may be a foolhardy start to what you may term a foolish Friday column, and it may stop a lot of wagering on Lubbock, but that's the way it's going to stand unless we change our mind before reaching the bottom of the page. As for the final score of Saturday's game, we can only hazard a wild guess. We do not believe either team is capable of preventing the other from crossing its goal line. Furthermore, we believe Pampa is as apt to cross Lubbock's goal line as many times as Lubbock is to cross the last marker on Pampa's end of the field. But we believe Bill Davidson and Rosser Abbott can boot more extra points, field goals if necessary, than the Harvester kickers and we're going to suggest as the outcome, Lubock 20, Pampa 19.

We have kept quiet as to that question oft repeated on Lubbock streets, "Is Lubbock's team as strong as the 1930 team?" because so far there has been no definite way of telling. True enough, the Westerners this year have far eslipsed the team of last year in scoring, but it was one of Henry Frnka's habits to keep down excessive scoring. Whether it is a good or a bad habit is one for individual choice. Chapman has not asked his charges to run up great scores, even sending in everybody but the waterboy to keep the tally down, but he has not used the restraining arm that Frnka used.

Pampa came to Lubock last year and caught the Westerners in their unawares, any way you take it or spell it, and Lubbock lost. Amarillo came along a few weeks later and the Westerners had not yet dressed for football. Until we saw Pampa beat Amarillo last week we were quite sure that the Harvesters of 1931 were not as good as the Harvesters of 1930. After the game we were more convinced of Amarillo's scoring weakness than Pampa's defensive strength, even if we did sing the praises of Pampa. All of which has nothing to do with the way in which the Prince of Wales combs his hair or the present strength of the Westerners.

There's only one way to tell. A day or two after Thanksgiving this column will inform both its readers as to whether or not the 1931 team is as strong as the 1930 lineup. At present, we can only compare the individuals. Last year we had Malcolm Martin and Will Ed Watson at ends. This year we have Dalton Blagg and Watson. Blagg is a hard worker, but he is too light to be compared with Martin. Watson has shown nothing sensational so far but we look for him to go in the big games. Last year's tackles were Archie Brawley, an all-district man, and Carroll McCasland. Lubbock was strong there last season. The 1931 tackles are Bert Williams and Rosser Abbott, both veterans but hardly as flashy as those of last year. Williams is showing great promise, however. Reserve tackles, Elmer Calhoun and Louis Spears, are ready.

We had an all-state guard last year in Melton McGehee. Cotton Welch is trying hard to make us forget him and is doing good work, though Welch is lighter. Melvin Griggs was the other guard last year and he is still with us. His fine blocking so far has featured the Westerner line play. Bob Crawford is a better center now than he was last year, and he was good then, about the best in the district.

With the exception of Mack Scoggin, the 1931 backfield is new and inexperienced. Scoggin has been going like an Oklahoma cyclone in a Kansas wheat field so far and Pampa is not going to stop him if he is given any support at all. O. H. Britton is as heady a quarterback as Dub Lawson was last year but the present signal caller is not near the ball toted. Lawson, we admit, was our favorite last year. Gene Barnett is making us forget Mina Watkins so far but how he will react under pressure is another thing. Bill Davidson, as a triple threat man, is practically as good as Barnett at full. Cecil Merrill is faster, heavier and harder than Moody Smith, but Smith was a certainty as a ground gainer against heavy competition. We have yet to see what Merrill can do under fire. Now what do you think?

Now for Texas Tech. As for the other predictions this week, we refer you to J. O. Smith, who can tell you anything you wants know. Tech left yesterday for Waco where they play one of the hardest games of the season. eBcause Baylor is not looking for much and cares little, we opine that Tech will win, say by a score of 26 to 20.

TEAM IS GIVEN SENDOFF BY STUDENTS

CANYON TO BE SCENE OF LAST PRACTICE FOR PAMPA TILT

Coaches Weldon Chapman and Burl Huffman and about thirty of the Lubbock High school Westerner gridsters left Lubbock at 8:20 this morning headed toward Pampa and the game Saturday that means a favored position in the state race for the winner.

The team was given a hearty sendoff by a crowd of high school students and a number of townspeople who came down to the Santa Fe station just at train time. The Westerners were to arrive in Canyon before noon and spend the remainder of the day there, working out this afternoon on the West Texas State Teachers college athletic field. They go into Amarillo to spend the night, continuing the journey to Pampa tomorrow morning.

Dedicated To Coaches

Shortly after a brief workout yesterday afternoon, a delegation of Westerners, headed by Captain Bob Crawford, informed the Journal that tomorrow's game at Pampa would be dedicated to their coaches, "because we believe they'll appreciate it if we get out there and fight hard, win, lose or draw, and because they have worked as hard with us trying to get us ready for the game as we have worked ourselves."

Coach Chapman turned 'em loose shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday, choosing not to keep them out in the cold air to which they were not accustomed and refraining from workouts strenuous enough to keep them hot. Apparently satisfied that they are as ready as they'll ever be to meet Pampa, Chapman reported the men, with the exception of alternate tackle, Elmer Calhoun, all in good shape. Quarterback Britton is expected to do his turn, despite a mouth injury.

Following yesterday's short comparison of the Pampa and Lubbock lines which will oppose each other Saturday, today is presented a like comparison dealing with the backfields.

Lubbock Backfield Heavier

It was found that Pampa's line would outweigh the Lubbock forward wall by 28 pounds. The backfields will be more evenly matched in weight, with the Westerners having a slight advantage, according to weights reported from Pampa. O. H. Britton, Lubbock's 151-pound quarterback, has a 10-pound advantage over Durwood Martindale, reported to weigh about 140. Gene Barnett, starting fullback for Lubbock, weighs 171 pounds as against Hill's 214 pounds. Bost, 163-pound fullback, started against Amarillo for Pampa and was relieved by the heavyweight.

At halfback positions, Coach Mitchell has Captain Chastain, 145 pounds, and Jody Kahl, 140 pounds. Doc Merrill's 165 pounds and Mack Scoggin's 160 overshadow the Pampa halves, though there is the element of speed to consider in Kahl and Chastain. Bill Davidson, when he relieves Barnett at full, will make Lubbock's backfield eight pounds lighter.

BIG TEN WILL SEE ACTION

THREE TEAMS REACH CROSSROADS IN SATURDAY PLAY

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP)—Three more Big Ten football teams, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Indiana, will reach the crossroad of the championship season tomorrow.

The trio, with Northwestern, has not been defeated in Big Ten competition, although Indiana has a scoreless tie with Iowa on its books, and if they run according to predictions, there will be only two teams left in the select circle after tomorrow's chores have been done.

Minnesota and Wisconsin meet at Minneapolis in the top game of the conference schedule and appear so evenly matched predictions on the outcome are few and conservative. Indiana must meet Ohio State and the Buckeyes will enter the battle with a big edge.

Northwestern will be after its third straight victory over Illinois at Evanston and probably will get it without much trouble. Purdue is primed for a big scoring effort against Chicago, aiming at 40 or more points. The Marons' biggest hope is to score on the Boilermakers and maintain their record of counting against all Big Ten opponents this season to date.

Play Starts Today In Student Tourney

ONLY EIGHT QUALIFY IN MEET FOR TECH GOLF TITLE

Match play in the second annual Texas Tech student golf tournament was to begin today with eight entrants seeking the title now held by Billy Holmes of Shamrock. With only the eight qualifiers, Holmes is a favorite to retain the title won this spring over a much larger field.

Lyle Holmes of Shamrock, brother of the champion, and Doyce Clark of Lubbock led the qualifying with eighteen hole rounds of 82 Wednesday. Billy Holmes was not required to shoot a qualifying score. Billy meets Walter Pendleton, who shot an 86 in his qualifying round, in the first match.

Other matches, and the qualifying scores of the players, are as follows: Doyce Clark, 86, vs. Charles Moore; Lyle Holmes, 82, vs. A. W. Norton, 100; Mendall Hughett, 84, vs. W. Massey, 101.

The cold weather yesterday and other athletic contests of this week away from home was thought to have curbed interest in the tournament.

Match play will continue through Saturday with the finals for the championship and for first consolation prize being determined Sunday unless play is speeded up due to the small number of players.

Game At Pampa Is To Be Broadcast

Station KGRS of Amarillo will broadcast the Lubbock-Pampa high school football game Saturday directly from the Harvester field, The Journal has been notified. The Pampa Lions club was credited with making the broadcast possible. It will start at 3 p. m.

The Westerner squad was given a sendoff at the Santa Fe railway station this morning by a crowd of high school students and townspeople. The black and gold pep squad participated. Students attending the sendoff were allowed extra time before their first classes.

A check of ticket sales last night showed that about 600 reserved seats on the Lubbock side had been taken. Business Manager E. J. Lowrey of the Lubbock high school estimated that between 1,200 and 1,500 fans from Lubbock and the South Plains would make the trip Saturday.

TWO CONFERENCE GAMES ON COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30 (AP)—Only scattered shots will be fired tomorrow by football teams striving for Pacific coast conference honors. With two exceptions, loop members are playing non-conference elevens.

The most important battle for a conference standpoint will be at Portland, Ore., where Washington State and Oregon State will attempt to add victory to their records after two defeats.

Stanford university plays the University of California at Los Angeles on the Stanford gridiron in a conference tilt. University of California meets the University of Nevada Wolves at Berkeley. Southern California has no game scheduled and Montana and Idaho, like California, met non-conference teams, respectively, Montana State and Gonzaga. Oregon is in New York to battle the N. Y. U. Violets.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

NEWARK, N. J.—Tony Canzoneri, world lightweight champion, outpointed Phillie Griffin, Newark, (10). Harry Blitman, Philadelphia, and Bud Mangino, Bound Brook, N. J., drew, (10). Ernie Rattner, Newark, outpointed Steve Smith, Bridgeport, Conn., (10).

PHILADELPHIA.—Leonard Dixon, Leiperville, Pa., outpointed Pat Haywood, Kansas City, (8).

TEXAS MUST WIN TO REMAIN IN RACE FOR TITLE

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Oct. 30 (AP)—The University of Texas against Southern Methodist at Dallas in a game that may eliminate Texas, 1930 champion, from the current Southwest conference championship race features the football bill in this section tomorrow.

Texas Christian plays the University of Akransas in a homecoming game at Fayetteville in another Southwestern conference game.

Two Undefeated

Texas Christian, with one victory, and Southern Methodist with two triumphs, are the undefeated and untied elevens in the conference race. Rice holds a 7 to 0 decision over Texas. Arkansas lost a 19 to 7 game to Baylor and a 42 to 6 game to Southern Methodist.

Southern Methodist, undefeated on a straight season campaign, has not been under pressure this year. The Mustangs have won all their games on running plays but against Texas will combine them with a deadly aerial game.

Crushed by Harvard 35 to 7 last week, Texas will fight to make history repeat as in 1930 when Texas was second choice among critics, but played inspired football to beat Southern Methodist 25 to 7. The Longhorns, with one conference defeat, must win to remain a title contender. Texas offense will be around Harrison Stafford, Wilson Elkins and Ernest Koy, three outstanding backfield aces.

Frogs Favorites

Although Arkansas should make a fine stand against Texas Christian critics have established T. C. U. a favorite. However, injuries to Howell and Evans, regular linemen, may prove disasterous to the Frogs.

Rounding out the southwest program tomorrow will be Texas A. and M. against Centenary at Shreveport, and Baylor playing Tech at Waco with A. and M. and Baylor favored.

TWO TILTS SET IN BIG SIX

NEBRASKA - MISSOURI GAME FEATURE OF CONFERENCE

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 30 (AP)—While Bo McMillin shows West Virginia some of the better grade of midwestern football at Morgantown Saturday, four Big Six teams will be involved in a pair of games that may have much to do with determining whether McMillin's Kansas Aggies win the conference title.

Nebraska, regarded as the chief threat to the McMillin men, plays Missouri at Columbia, and Iowa State meets Oklahoma at Norman. The champion Kansas university Jayhawkers, defeated by the Kansas Aggies and Nebraska, entertain Oklahoma A. and M.

Although West Virginia defeated the Aggies 23 to 7 at Morgantown last year, the Wildcats from Manhattan are favored to win Saturday and they may take advantage of the opportunity for national recognition by trying for a big score.

Nebraska must beat Missouri to remain in the running with the Aggies and a Husker victory would tie the leaders at three wins apiece. Coach George Veenker's Iowa State Cyclones have acquired the hue of the dark horse contender. More will be known of the calibre of Cyclone football after the test against the hard-fighting Sooners who have been beaten twice in the conference.

Like Missouri, Kansas has a likely looking squad that lacks scoring punch and the alert attitude so ably demonstrated by McMillin's Aggies.

STOP IS MADE AT ABILENE THURSDAY

TECH GRIDSTERS TO MEET BAYLOR AT WACO SATURDAY

(Special To The Journal)

ABILENE, Oct. 30.—After an unbroken snooze of some eight or nine hours following their arrival here last night, the Texas Tech Matadors from Lubbock took off for Central Texas early this morning in their big motor bus.

The Tech football squad was to work out at Itasca this afternoon, spending the night in Hillsboro, some miles further down the road and nearer Waco, the scene of Saturday's game between the Matadors and the Baylor University Bears.

"Just how badly do you intend to beat Baylor Saturday," Coach Cawthon was asked.

"Now, back up a little," Mister Pete suggested. "We'll do well to hold them to anything under fifty points, because Baylor has a much better team than most of you scribes give her credit for having. They have perfected a pass attack down there that can go great guns, and if they'd had more reserve power they'd have beaten A. and M. last Saturday. With Raymond Alford from Beaumont and your own Esco Walters throwing the passes and a couple of fast ends break— . . ."

What About Tech?

"Hey, not so fast. How about your own team. That's what us folks in West Texas are interested in. Tell us about the Matadors."

"Well, we're going down there hoping to give the Bears an old-fashioned licking. We've worked hard for the game and we're going to do some tall scrapping. We're liable to cut loose with a few passes ourselves, but don't tell anybody. We've got a pretty fair team, even if you didn't know it. Beat the Colorado School of Mines, 45 to 0, last Friday night, but they didn't give us much trodble. Don't spik of the Haskell game, plis.

To Start Shockers

"We've got a pretty fair passer," continued Pete, "in Harold Crites, fullback, and a couple of good receivers in Price and Hitchcock at ends, not to speak of O'Leary, France and Close in the backfield. I expect to start the 'shock troops,' or the second team against Baylor and send in the regulars at the second quarter."

Canzoneri Given A Light Workout

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 30 (AP)—Tony Canzoneri's title "defense" against Phillie Griffin of Newark proved just a light workout for the chunky little New York Italian.

Canzoneri, who holds two world's championships, risked the lesser of them, the junior welterweight crown, last night but had no trouble keeping it in his possession, winning the decision by a wide margin after ten easy rounds. For the first five rounds, when Griffin appeared disturbed by the thought of being in the same ring with a champion, Tony hardly exerted himself at all. Then when the Newark boy began to fight, Canzoneri fought back, had Phillie up against the ropes a couple of times and put on one flurry that looked as if he might knock out his rival before he eased up again for the finish.

Prices Slashed For Games At Illinois

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 30 (AP)—Anyone wishing to watch Illinois' last two home games of the Big Ten season, in which Wisconsin and Chicago will be met, may do so at the cost of $1.

The university board of athletic control has reduced the price of seats in the south stand, behind the goalposts, from $3 to $1, in an effort to increase attendance figures. They will be sold on the days of games. Reserved seat prices will remain at $3.

Bartenders in Juares say women tourists not only increase the custom but elevate the tone of their establishments.

AGITATION TO ABOLISH KICKOFF DUE TO SHERIDAN'S DEATH NOT FAVORED

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—Agitation to abolish the kickoff as a result of the death of Dick Sheridan in the Yale-Army game has met with a somewhat chilly reception from the football rules committee.

Six members of the committee of nine, when asked for comment by The Associated Press, indicated they favored retention of the kickoff. Two others declined to comment and the ninth could not be reached for a statement.

H. J. Stegeman of the University of Georgia expressed the views of most of the rules committee in the game and declared it resulted in no more injuries than other formations.

Opponents of the kickoff have taken the position its danger lies in the fact it permits formation of the prohibited "flying wedge."

Ray Morrison of Southern Methodist wants the kickoff to remain just as it is but he favors the "complete elimination of the flying wedge which I consider the most dangerous formations in football."

M. J. Ahearn of Kansas State, W. O. Hunter of Southern California, W. G. Crowell of Swarthmore, and Amos Alonzo Stagg of Chicago all indicated they favored retention of the kickoff.

"It's elimination," said Stagg, "would not stop injuries in football," and added that punts also would have to be banned under the arguments advanced by opponents of the kickoff.

E. K. Hall, chairman of the committee, declined to comment as did T. A. D. Jones of Yale who saw the game in which Sheridan was fatally hurt. Jones said he preferred not to comment until he could gain a "more sane" perspective.

C. Henry Smith, member from the mountain states, could not be reached for comment.

MINNESOTA PLAYERS OFFERED MONEY TO "THROW" WISCONSIN GRID BATTLE

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 30 (AP)—University of Minnesota authorities today were inclined to minimize reports contained in letters that three Gopher football players had been offered money to "throw" Saturday's game with Wisconsin.

"The attempt is absurd," said Dean J. C. Lawrence, assistant to the president. Coach H. O. Crisler doubted that the letters had been written in a serious vein.

The opinions were expressed after investigation of receipt of three letters, postmarked Madison, Wis., by Captain Clarence Munn, Jack Manders and Kenneth MacDougall of the varsity eleven. The writer, signing himself "W. Burzik," said he would pay $1,500 if they would "do their best to throw the game away to the Badgers."

Another rumor was that a student had been telephoning Minnesota plays to Wisconsin.

"There is nothing to it as far as I can learn," said Crisler.

DR. PITTMAN CHOSEN

AUSTIN, Oct. 30 (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling Thursday appointed Dr. Duke W. Pittman of Mexia to the state board of optometry. The legislature recently increased membership of the board from five to six and Dr. Pittman was chosen for the new place.

UPWARD TREND IN BUSINESS

IMPROVEMENT SHOWN IN CONDITIONS BY TRADE SURVEY

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—Gradual improvement in business conditions was reported today to the unemployment conference of the National Association of Manufacturers, in a trade survey of industries throughout the United States

Eight hundred companies in 26 lines of business answered a questionnaire of conditions as of Oct. 15, J. Lewis Benton, general secretary, said.

Favorable factors, on these bases of these reports, were noted as follows:

1—Better business than last fall is reported by 8 per cent of the companies, compared with 5 per cent last year. Eighteen per cent held the same business, compared with 14 per cent last year.

2—Employment shows a slight increase over October, 1931. Five per cent of the companies increased their forces, compared with 3 per cent last year. Thirty-one per cent have held the same personnel, compared with 29 per cent last year.

3—Wages have held their own or been bettered in 54 per cent of the companies. Decreased production, sales, and prices strike a general average nearly three times that of wage reductions.

4.—Inventories are the lowest in years, indicating that when general buying is increased, plants will be compelled to enlarge forces to speed production.

The employment relations committee recommended that unemployment relief should be on the basis of payment for work actually performed. It urged that politics be kept out of administration of public relief funds, and that local bodies control the work under supervision of a central state authority.

DR. KRUEGER TO ATTEND ANNUAL CLINICAL MEET

A surgeon at Lubbock sanitarium, Dr. J. T. Krueger expects to leave Sunday for Oklahoma City where he will preside over a section on surgery at an annual fall clinical conference of the Oklahoma City Clinical society. Dr. Henry H. Turner, general chairman, announced that Doctor Krueger had been asked to preside, a news dispatch said. The conference will begin Monday and continue through Thursday.

"These fall clinics, which are held annually, bring to the medical profession of Oklahoma and the Southwest internationally known medical specialists and teachers," Dr. Turner said in his announcement. "The program this year consists of daily general assemblies, over 100 hours post-graduate work, round-table luncheons, banquets and dinners, instructive scientific exhibits, scientific talking pictures, entertainment and a golf tournament."

Sixteen distinguished guests will address the general assemblies, it was said. Among the nationally known medical men on the program are Dr. E. Starr Judd, president of the American Medical society, and Dr. Hugh Cabot, both of Rochester, Minn.; Dr. Harry S. Crosson, of the staff of Washington university, St. Louis; Dr. Joseph Beck, of the University of Illinois, Chicago, and Dr. Walter E. Dandy, of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore.

DATES ARE SET

AMARILLO, Oct. 30 (AP)—Dates for the Amarillo Fat Stock show in 1932 were set at February 29 to March 3, at a meeting last night of county agents of District 1, in annual convention here, and W. M. Gouldy, president of the Panhandle Baby Beef club, and Grover Hill, secretary of the Panhandle Cattlemen's association.

What made him get ahead so fast?

You've seen men like "Mac." Always stepping to bigger jobs. With the energy and good health to realize his ambitions.

So often a promising career is handicapped by constipation. This ailment frequently brings headaches, loss of appetite and energy. Ambition is dulled.

Avoid constipation. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. This delicious cereal supplies "bulk," Vitamin B and iron.

"Bulk" gently cleanses the intestines. Vitamin B tones them up. Both promote regularity. How much better than pills and drugs.

Enjoy Kellogg's ALL-BRAN as a cereal. Have your wife use it in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Escaped Prisoners Caught By Officers

VALEDA, Kas., Oct. 30 (AP)—A party of 15, including officers of Labette and Montgomery county, Kansas, and from Bartlesville and Nowata, Okla., late Thursday captured "Slippery" Willie Elms, Elmer Inman and Herman Blanton, escaped prisoners from the county jail at Claremore, Okla., on a farm near here.

The three were turned over to the Oklahoma officers. Jeff Cox, 60, and J. W. Abernathy, 53, who resided at the farm, were arrested and taken to the Labette county jail at Oswego on charges of harboring criminals.

Bill Miller, sheriff of Labette county, said Elms, who has escaped twice from the Claremore jail, dashed out of the house holding a gun but tossed it in the air in the direction of Miller upon realizing the futility of resisting.

Barber Convicted On Striking Woman

Convicted in county court Thursday of striking Alta Mae Galbraith, a Lubbock barber, S. W. Gilbreath was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail by a jury.

The young woman testified Gilreath struck her during an argument ensuing after the man had pulled her into his room at the Cova hotel. S. F. Booker, operator of the hotel, said he struck Gilreath after seeing the barber hit the woman and then ordered the man from the hotel. Gilreath acted as his own attorney.

Hoover Poses

WASHINGTON — President Hoover has found time between conferences and other duties to pose for his portrait. The picture, which shows him seated in his big chair at the head of the cabinet table is being done by Miss Violet Beatrice Wenner of Chicago. It will be exhibited at the Chicago world's fair.

He Likes Jazz

NEW YORK.—Richard Tauber, German tenor, believes jazz is one of the highest forms of musical expression. He says he has never heard of Rudy Vallee.

Costly Dialogue

LOS ANGELES.—It cost Bert Wheeler of the movie comedy team of Wheeler and Wolsey ten dollars to put on a dialogue with Municipal Judge Alfred Paonessa. Wheeler was up for speeding. "How many times have you appeared in this court?" the judge asked. "I thought you were keeping score," Wheeler countered. "Ten dollars or two days and if you think that's a joke, lets hear you laugh." Wheeler paid.

Cries In French

NEW YORK.—John Mitchell Reynolds, 3rd, who is one year old and heir to $1,785,415 from the estate of his great grandmother, understands no English. Ever since he was a few weeks old he has been addressed only in French. His great grandfather was P. J. Sorg who founded the Reynolds tobacco fortune.

Charlie Convinced

NEWARK, N. J. — Charlie Young is convinced of the persuasive power of a hot flatiron. When a holdup man entered his laundry and demanded his money, Charlie offered him the flatiron instead. The holdup man fled.

Tired Of Paying

CHICAGO—William Jeffries is tired of putting up money to return Oscar Miller from Fort Worth to stand trial for swindling him out of $11,000. Jeffries advanced $300 twice and both times Miller escaped from the deputies sent to get him. Now the state is going to pay Miller's fare.

Sing Away Blues

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—Sing away the blues! The executive board of the National Federation of Music clubs thinks formation of choral units in cities and rural districts would go far toward dissipating social unrest.

Hard To Crack

SAVANNAH, Ga.—The pecan problem is a hard nut to crack. Owners of pecan trees, planted along the streets for beauty and shade, complain to the council that pedestrians, passing by before the owners have arisen, are eating the nuts. The city fathers ruled there is no law against eating pecans. If the property owners want to harvest the nuts, let them get up earlier.

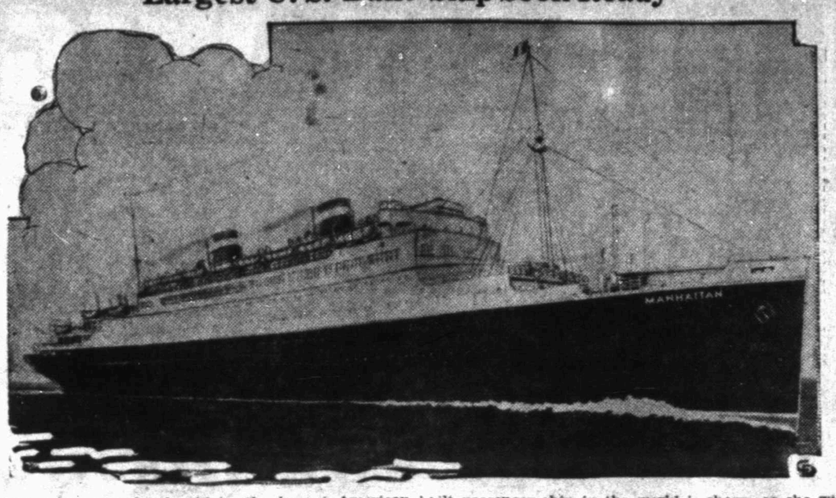

Where Next?

PARIS—Citiens of the free commune of Montmartre are wondering where their mayor, Pierre Labric, will ride his bicycle next. He has ridden it down the great stairs of Montmartre, down the stairs from the first floor of the Eiffel tower and down the steps of the St. Charles station at Marseilles.

King Abdicates

PWLLHE, Wales—The king of Bardsey island has abdicated. John Roberts declared himself king of the island by virtue of being the largest land owner and has ruled over his "kingdom" for several years. His subjects were the 40 farmers and fishermen who inhabit the island on which there were no taxes to pay and no one votes. Roberts said he wanted to be nearer civiliation and a doctor.

Largest U. S.-Built Ship Soon Ready

What, when completed, will be the largest American-built passenger ship in the world is shown as she will appear when steaming proudly over the Atlantic. It is the S. S. Manhattan, of the United States Lines, and its launching has been set for December 5 at Camden, N. J. This huge and luxurious liner, the first vessell for the North Atlantic trade to be constructed in America since 1897, will start its maiden voyage from New York in early Spring. 705 feet long, the ship displaces 32,000.

Announcer Apes Graham McNamee

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (AP)—You've no doubt heard George Hicks, NBC announcer, in action. Sounds something like Graham McNamee, eh?

Well, Hicks might be described as Graham's "unofficial understudy." Every chance he gets he watches McNamee before the microphone, attempting to assimilate his mannerisms and moods both in extemperaneous football broadcasts and regular programs where the continuity is all written out.

Hicks also has a dummy microphone at home, where in his idle moments he practices Graham.

Periodical Pains Relieved In 3 Minutes

Month after month some women still suffer needless pain, but those who know simply go to a drug store or soda fount, get a package or dose of "B-C" and get perfect relief in 3 minutes, continuing their duties in pain-free, easy comfort.

"B-C" is the formula of two North Carolina druggists, contains several ingredients that function together for the relief of headache, neuralgia and periodical pains, accomplishing in a few minutes what no one drug formula can do under 1 to 3 hours.

"B-C" stops the pain, quiets the nerves, is perfectly harmless. No other preparation like it. Nothing else gives such profound relief Ask your druggist, he knows. (Adv).

DELAY ACTION ON TARIFF

GREAT BRITAIN WILL MAKE INQUIRY OF SITUATION

LONDON, Oct. 30 (AP)—Action by the national government on the question of a protectionist tariff policy for Great Britain is likely to be delayed until after New Year's, it was indicated today, while a special committee of the cabinet makes a thorough study of the entire economic and political situation.

The prospect of possible "dumping" of foreign goods in the interim was foreseen, however, it was said in political circles, and there is a possibility some kind of emergency legislation to act as a check on heavy imports may be proposed soon after parliament meets November 10.

All parties would be represented equally on the proposed investigating committee, it was understood, and the committee would make a complete report to Prime Minister MacDonald after the conclusion of the inquiry, which would embrace the question of a protective tariff as well as other matters bearing on the restoration of prosperity.

The understanding was that the members of the committee would be chosen by Mr. MacDonald and would begin their study without any predisposition on the tariff question, or on any other policy.

The prime minister continued today to be occupied with the task of selecting the cabinet ministers on whom he will rely in his fight to reestablish international confidence in Great Britain's stability and to put the country's economic house in order.

GAS PROBE

ies' books and properties, the commission indicated. The utilities invited a separate audit of their books. A New York firm now is auditing and appraising for the companies, Crenshaw said.

Commissioners Ponder

City Attorney Klett said Martin's inquiry would be principally to learn if "entries are correctly identified" in the report of the gas company to the commission.

After Crenshaw had left City hall, accompanied by George W. Dupree, also attorney for the utilities, and R. P. Hinchey, vice president of the West Texas Gas company, the commissioners pondered for nearly an hour. After Crenshaw had presented a skeletonized resume, operations of the gas and pipeline companies were discussed, and hypothetical cases introduced and probed. Profit and loss statements of the West Texas Gas company in Lubbock, the same company as a whole, the South Plains Pipe Line company, has headquarters at Amarillo, and the Red River Gas company, which of the three consolidated, were presented.

Income Reduced

The figures, Crenshaw pointed out, "represent business on the South Plains under gas rates higher than the present rate."

"The reduction made recently," he read, "will reduce the gross income of the West Texas Gas company something like $50,000 per year over the entire system and approximately $20,000 in Lubbock alone," the company anticipates on a basis of last year's business.

If the rate were reduced in Lubbock, the attorney continued, 14 other South Plains towns served by the West Texas Gas company would be entitled to a like reduction, as provided in their franchises. The 14 municipalities are Canyon, Plainview, Tulia, Floydada, Abernathy, Lockney, Slaton, Idalou, Crosbyton, Lorenzo, Ralls, Hale Center, Happy and Hereford.

Losses Predicted

Should the 15 towns receive a reduction, Crenshaw asserted, the company would lose from $50,000 to $100,000 a year income, the estimate being based on 1930 consumption.

Mayor T. M. George of Slaton attended the conference.

Average net return for the West Texas Gas company in Lubbock for three years and three months of operations has been about 1 per cent a year, the highest being in 1930, when about 4.7 per cent was cleared, according to the prepared statement presented by Crenshaw. Average net return of the three companies was 3.2 per cent in 1929 and 4.3 per cent in 1930, the commission was told.

So Near, Yet So Far

Because the United States circuit court of appeals at St. Louis has held his five-year good conduct plea to be "as flimsy as a cobweb," Vincent Kerens, above, of Chicago, cannot immediately gain outright possession of his $1,900,999 share of the estate of his father, the late Richard C. Kerens, once ambassador to Austria. The court, in ruling on application of a St. Louis trust company to be relieved of the trust under which it holds Kerens' share of the estate, declared Kerens' conduct had not been such as his father, by the five-year plan, sought to accomplish. Special reference was made to his divorce and remarriage.

GAMBLERS SHOOT DICE BY PHONE

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 30 (AP)—With one hand the cigar store owner dialed and a telephone produced the right number. With the other he shook a dice box which did not—if one lends credence to the tale of Patrolmen Cole and Clark.

"I got twelve that time, you win," he said into the telephone. "How much do you want to fade me for? O. K. wham! A four a three, Shoot the twenty."

Undecided between a physician and the patrol wagon, "You can't arrest a man for the astonished officers questioned the cigar store owner, shooting dice by himself, can you?" is the way the patrolmen report his reply, which included the explanation that telephonic dice meets have sprung up in the wake of raids on gambling halls.

In the absence of television, the gambler proudly asserted, "the boys" have been trusting each other.

Good Memory Cause For Arrest Of Men

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 30, (AP)—Odie Burke and T. J Bucklan, arrested at Seminole yesterday because Jake Sims, police chief there, has a good memory for faces, were held in the Oklahoma county jail here today for questioning in connection with a store robbery.

The pair, with B. J. Sutton, also arrested, are sought by Longview, Tex., officers as suspects in a robbery, and in Overton, Tex., as suspects in an automobile theft.

Sims and Bucklan and Sutton had served a prison term for a burglary at Blackwell.

Girl Thanks C.-C. For Trip To Fair

"I am one of the Four-H club girls who went to the Dallas fair," she said. "I enjoyed every minute of the time. I think the best scene I saw was the "Battle of Gettysburg." Have you seen it? When you look at the top of the picture it seems like you are looking miles away, but the top is nearer to the spectator than the bottom of the painting.

"I am glad that the chamber of commerce is giving these trips to the girls and boys. We all enjoy them very much."

Miss Dorothy Horton of Hurlwood has expressed her and other four-H club members' appreciation of trips to the state fair awarded them by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, in a letter received Thursday by the chamber.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY — THROUGH THE CAMERA'S EYE

There's a Kick In This Picture

There is a certain snap in the art of punting, football coaches aver, and you'll agree that this is a rather snappy piece of art. Pretty Lois Harper, dance instructor in Dayton, O., shows the University of Dayton gridders how to kick without bending the knee. The football player pictured above with her is Floyd Evans, but of course you aren't interested in him.

Titled Race Driver Ready for Leap From Doomed Car

Motor wide open . . . 100 miles an hour . . . then a tell-tale burst of flame . . . and in this remarkable picture you see Sir Henry Birking, noted British race driver, getting ready to jump from his speeding car as it began to burn at the Brooklands, England, track. He was attempting to set a new lap record for the course when the automobile took fire.

Fights Extradition

Under indictment at Atlanta for kidnaping 11-year-old Rachael Gamble of that city, Miss Ruth Phillips, 25, above, declared she would fight extradition from El Paso, where she was arrested. Miss Phillips was deported from Juarez, Mexico, after she is said to have purchased the Gamble girl a glass of beer in a Juarez saloon.

Survivors Remember Mates

Some of the 15 youngsters who survived the terrible bus tragedy that took the lives of five of their schoolmates near Lamar, Colo., last March, are shown grouped about the monument that has been erected at Holly, Colo., in memory of the quintet who froze to death while their school bus was trapped in a driving blizzard. Bryan Untiedt, the hero of the disaster, is shown in front row at right, holdinging his cap.

Another "Pepper" Martin

Mrs. James J. Martin, of Pittsburgh, with her seventh baby, which she has named John and nicknamed "Pepper," in honor of the hero of the 1931 World Series. Young "Pepper" was born while the famous St. Louis "Pepper" was doing his starring in the series with such deadly effect on the Athletics. Young "Pepper" will have to produce a snappy brand of baseball to beat his red-hot daddy.

Divorce Poisoning

Belief that many an unhappy wife has fed poison to her husband is expressed by Mrs. Loretta Walker Osguthorpe, 18-year-old wife of Thomas Osguthorpe of Ogden, Utah. She confessed to putting strychnine in his coffee because he refused to divorce her, according to police. She was held on $10,000 bail, pending trial.

'Scarecrow Man' Has 'Split Mind'

"The Scarecrow Man," identified as Charles Mays, who was found standing rigid, arms outstretched, in a cornfield, near Holyoke, Colo., and taken to the Denver psychopathic hospital, has been found to be suffering from schizophrenia, commonly known as "split" mind. Doctors say he believed he was being crucified when he stood in the cornfield. Mays was identified by a brother, of Beardsley, Kas. Mays didn't recognize his brother.

Chute-Chute to Safety

Just two seconds after a fire drill alarm was sounded in a Brooklyn, N. Y., hospital, these nurses whizzed through the modern fire escape chute which runs from the top or fourth floor of the institution to the ground. In the demonstration it was shown that the hospital's population, with all its patients, attendants and nurses, could be brought to the ground from three to five minutes after the first alarm was sounded. With the old-type fire escape it would have taken a last half an hour. Mattresses are used for coasting down the chutes.

Labeled "Grafter"

Flatly accusing Sheriff Thomas M. Farley, shown on the witness stand, as a "grafter," Samuel Seabury, counsel for the Hofstadter legislative committee, created a furor in a New York courtroom. Farley, who has been a Tammany officeholder since youth, admitted making bank deposits of $362,500 in five years. He testified that his salary during this time ranged from $6,500 to $15,000. He said the deposits had come from savings he had kept at home.

Best Waitress

Diners served by Laura Adams, 23-year-old Buffalo, N. Y., waitress, don't need to worry about their orders being filled properly. She has just been crowned the most efficient and beautiful waitress in a contest at the National Restaurant Association convention in Buffalo. Here you see her holding the trophy.

Heads Marines

Here To Spend

It sounds like a pipe dream, but Edward S. Smith, shown above, has come to the United States with the avowed purpose of spending $3,000,000. Smith is treasurer of the Hawaiian Islands and he will spend that amount of the sinking fund of the territory for bonds. He is pictured here upon his arrival at Los Angeles on the steamer City of Los Angeles.

Soldiers of Science at War On Cancer

Life and death grimly battle inside tiny glass tubes—while men of science look on. It's a phase of man's long, determined fight against the ravages of cancer that's pictured here, with black robed and hooded technicians of the Hahnemann Hospital at Philadelphia watching through microscopes the growth of cancer upon once healthy cells. Some of the cells "die" quickly; others, though "sick," have their lives prolonged by treatment.

After Yeggs Captured Town

In Church Fray

Rev. Harold O. Teagarden, above, fiery minister of St. Clairsville, O., has been ordered to appear in justice court charged with attacking and choking an elder of a Sewellsville church in an altercation during services. The Rev. Teagarden, who is also a miner, was expelled from his Ohio conference several years ago when newspapers published stories that he would attempt to swim the Catalina Island channel.

Solos In 3 Hours

Ethel Hare, of Bradford Road, Wellesley, Mass., is shown in the cockpit of her plane at the East Boston airport, just after she had completed her first solo hop with only three hours' instruction. Ethel, who is attractive and well known in society of her community, established a record for women fliers at East Boston airport by her solo hop on such short instruction.

Bandit Captive

Bert Nelson, above, American missionary, has been held captive by Chinese Communist bandits since Oct. 5, 1930. A ransom of $10,000 has been paid for him, but the bandits refused to release him, explaining that they needed an English teacher. Nelson has written his family in Minneapolis that he is being well treated.

Gets Fresh Start

Starting life anew at the age of 54, Asa Keyes, former well known Los Angeles district attorney, has left San Quentin prison on parole after serving 19 months of a 1 to 14-year term for bribery. He made friends of all the convicts during his stay, many of whom he had previously sent to prison. He will sell automobiles, he said.

Lived In Ash Can

A passer-by saw 11-year-old Anna Rickowska climb into an ash can, pulling the lid close over her head. Investigating, he found the girl crouched inside, her knees almost touching her chin, ready for her night's sleep. When she was taken to the Camden, N. J., Home for Friendless Children and fed, as pictured here, the child told authorities that the can had been her only shelter for two weeks after she had been abandoned by her poverty-stricken mother.

"Taken For A Ride"

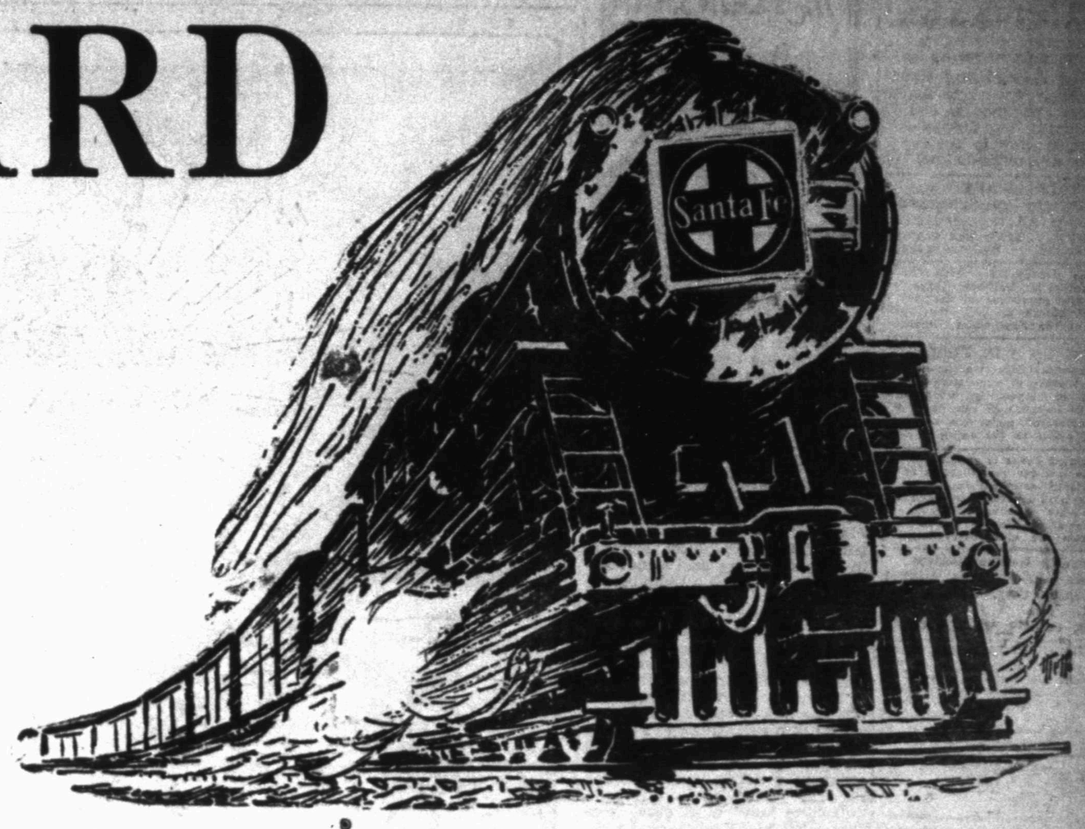

Life is just one jolt after another at Purdue University these da and here you see M. F. White, graduate student, being "taken a ride" on the Indiana school's new "shake table." Professor H. Jacklin, professor of automotive engineering, who designed the t to test the relative effects of different kinds of upholstery on comfort of auto passengers, is shown at the left checking the recordi instruments. Bands stretched across the knees and thighs of the rid record the extent to which comfortable posture is lost.

The Capone Fund

An excellent example of the confusion in which modern society moves was provided the other day by a newspaper story which announced that a "Capone fund" is being collected in Chicago to help pay the expenses when criminal court litigation has brought on the gang leader.

According to this story, $50,000 a week is being raised so that Capone can keep on fighting. The money comes from the speakeasies, and is obtained by the simple process of boosting the price of liquor.

And out of this arises confusion.

The overwhelming majority of Chicago's citizens, undoubtedly, are genuinely glad that the government has finally been able to drag Capone into court and convict him of a crime. He is about to get a small slice of what is coming to him, and they are pleased. In the capacity of private citizens, these people are on the side of law and order.

But a great many of them have another capacity—as speakeasy customers. And in that capacity they are actually contributing to the fund which the gangster is using in his fight to escape punishment. They want to see the man sent to prison, but they patronize beer flats supplied by his organization—and, as a result, are helping to fill his war chest.

Could there be a better example of the chaotic state in which civic consciousness finds itself today?

Capone is a menace to decent government—a jeer in the fact of every man who believes that a great city can govern itself properly.

Yet he exists, not because the arch-fiend went on the loose and raised a horrendous spectre to dismay us, but simply because a large part of the electorate wants something that only he, or someone like him, can supply.

He is a product, in other words, of what American society is today. The evil that he represents will never be wholly abated—no matter what happens to him individually—until American society has somehow emerged from the confusion that just now befogs it.

Aircraft Carriers

One of the most interesting rumors of the year is the one recently circulated in Boston, to the effect that plans are now under way for purchase by a private company of the navy's two great airplane carriers, the Lexington and the Saratoga, which would be transformed into express passenger steamers on a transatlantic route.

The rumor may turn out to be utterly groundless; meanwhile, however, American citizens will probably wonder just why the navy should be considering relinquishing these two expensive warships.

Designed originally as the most powerful battle cruisers on earth, the two ships were changed to airplane carriers because of the Washington naval treaty. If the navy wants to sell them, they must have failed as airplane carriers—in which case they must be listed as the most costly experiments the navy has ever made.

Naval Budget

Every patriotic American, naturally, wants to see the American navy kept at the highest possible point of efficiency. And when naval authorities protest that the proposed reductions in the naval budget will seriously hamper them in the effort to maintain the fleet's efficiency they are entitled to a hearing.

Nevertheless, President Hoover's insistence that the department slash $61,000,000 from its planned expenditures for the coming year will probably win the support of the majority of his fellow citizens. His remark that even meritorious projects "can, must, and will be deferred" is sound good sense.

That Girl on Broadway says Eve must have been a very unhappy woman. Adam didn't have any pockets for her to go through.

The lady next door recalls her experience has been that the newcomer who says "I don't play bridge—I play at it" may even then be exaggerating.

* * *

HAVE you ever seen or heard of a hoop snake? Is there any such thing and have any Lubbock or South Plains people ever had any experience with such a reptile? The Plainsman is interested in the report of the hoop snake, but like in the case of the 'mad stone', has never heard of such a thing before.

Read this:

"Dear Plainsman: I was attracted by your recent articles about 'mad stones' and was very much interested in the letters that you printed from your subscribers.

"It makes me wonder if you've ever heard of or seen a hoop snake, a kind of a snake that puts its tail in its mouth, rolls quickly toward a person, cow, etc., then recoils, striking its victim with its horned head.

"I have heard a lot about hoop snakes but have never seen one and maybe you can find some people who know about them.

"Keep up your good work,
"Plainsman fan,
"Tahoka, Texas."

You folks who know anything at all about hoop snakes are invited to write your experience to The Plainsman.

Admitting ignorance on the subject, The Plainsman makes bold to opine that it's a lot of hooey, giving rise to the statement "no matter how thin you slice it, it's still only baloney".

However, The Plainsman is open to conversion.

FOLKS in these parts who are interested in doing away with the cotton surplus will be interested in an article passed to The Plainsman by Scott Ballard, the well known pill roller. The article is a portion of a letter written to the editor of the Florence Vidette, a weekly paper published in Williamson county, by Scott's father, J. W. Ballard, of Florence. Here 'tis:

"I was surprised and somewhat disappointed when the legislature adjourned as I had a bill I wanted to get passed to get rid of this nine million bales of surplus cotton they are writing about.

"First I would compel all men and boys to wear cotton clothes and every man caught with a pair of those little striped pink and green things called 'shorts' would be sentenced to wear an oldfashioned fleece-lined union suit that would weigh five pounds, summer and winter. This would take care of about three million bales of our surplus cotton.

"Second the women would be compelled to wear cotton hosiery, undies and so forth, with oldfashioned unions that come to the ankles. This would take say another million bales, and if the women had to do this they would wear their skirts clear down over their feet. This would take about two million bales and the men would object so strongly that in a few months they would buy up the other three million bales and donate it to charity".

All we have to say in rebuttal is that that's one way of getting rid of cotton!

That Man on Avenue Q says just because a young couple makes love in a park is no reason for calling it a display of public sentiment.

* * *

Barnum said there was a sucker born every minute but the magazine salesmen, "working their way through college", are gathering their own statistics.

GENE Howe, The Tactless Texan of the Amarillo News-Globe, says he's pulling for Pampa to beat Lubbock because if Lubbock beats Pampa there will be a three-way tie in the district. He figures the three-way tie stuff on the basis that Amarillo will beat Lubbock. Hey, hey.

Old Tack is taking a detour before he comes to it this time because while there may be a doubt about the outcome of the Lubbock-Pampa tilt, the Lubbock-Amarillo game is already in the bag for the Westerners'. It's no secret that Amarillo's 1931 crop of rookies isn't as good as it has been in previous years due to the fact that they've run out of football stars in Sherman, Ft. Worth, Liberal, Kansas, and Hollywood!

Now ain't that telling it to 'em?

* * *

By the way, you ought to go to Pampa with the Westerners tomorrow. That is, you ought to go unless you're like The Plainsman and have to work for a living.

There are only two football games in the United States this year that The Plainsman cares about seeing—the Lubbock-Pampa and the Lubbock-Amarillo games—and he can't see either one of them.

But he's going to be on the sidelines tomorrow in spirit, even if not in person.

* * *

THE Plainsman has asked Prof. Collier Parris, the well known sports authority who will be in Pampa covering the game for the Avalanche and Journal, to keep him in touch with what's going on.

This column is going to get quarterly reports from the scene of the melee and will announce same in front of the newspaper office Saturday afternoon.

Hurrah for the Westerners!

Investigation Of "Third Degree" Launched At Capital When Badly Beaten Police Victim "Spilled The Beans"

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30—This is one city—perhaps the only large city—where revelations of police brutality and the third degree have led to a shakeup in which the very highest police officials are losing their official heads.

DUTCHER

Recurrent police scandals in the capital have been arousing congressional wrath and public resentment for years, but it was after the Wickersham commission last summer revealed widespread use of third degree in American cities that the District of Columbia force found itself facing an actual cleanup.

Things began to move after a badly beaten police victim went to a newspaper here with evidence. Other prisoners and ex-suspects came forward with stories of station-house torture. The Department of Justice, with the approval of President Hoover, investigated intensively after police officials had entered denials, defenses and protestations of ignorance. Eighteen policemen were recently indicted on assault charges and investigators turned over 53 cases which they said demanded disciplinary action against certain policemen.

Now Major Henry G. Pratt, chief of police, has been retired. An inspector is also on the way out, three others are believed due to follow him, a couple of captains are retiring and the whole force is wondering how far this thing is going to go under Brig.-Gen. Pelham D. Glassford, the new chief. The older officials are being eased out as gracefully as possible, their chief offense being that they haven't given the capital a satisfactory police department and were complacent about the third degree and other examples of police lawlessness.

The man behind the reorganization is Maj.-Gen. Herbert B. Crosby, the presidentially appointed commissioner in charge of police affairs. Crosby was the army's chief of cavalry and Hoover named him after he had made known his desire that Washington become a model city for law enforcement. Crosby undertook to build an efficient, law-abiding police force with some semblance of morale. After much effort he came to the conclusion that he was being balked by the police machine which couldn't or wouldn't improve on its old methods and traditions.

Public disclosures that the third degree had been extensively practiced here gave Crosby his sue for action. He decided that Pratt and certain other officers would have to go and the annual physical examinations, through which some of them might be retired without too much of a mess, gave him a chance to begin.

The present reorganization probably has forestalled a congressional investigation of the force. Crosby's attitude is that laziness and inaction of the superior officers has been largely responsible for unsatisfactory conditions and that the new deal will instill morale, pep, discipline and efficiency.

"The police must not break one law to enforce another," he says. He believes the third degree is partly a form of laziness displayed by policemen who consider it easier to beat confessions out of prisoners than to assemble evidence against them. He also believes that the police should make cases against bootleggers and speakeasies instead of attempting to discourage law violators merely by destruction of their property.

About the time the third degree scandal developed this summer a grand jury report on charges that a policeman had been "framed" by other members of the force had also strengthened the likelihood of a congressional inquiry. The grand jury sustained the "frameup" charges and recommended that all police officers who had had any connection with the case be severely reprimanded for negligence and incompetence.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening in care of this paper, 1st Central Press Association, 1433 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining." "Feminine Hygiene." "Indigestion and Constipation." "The Care of the Hair and Skin." "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet." "List of Books for Mothers." "Bed Wetting." "Diet of the Expectant Mother." "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

HEART ACTION

AMONG the most valuable of the new methods of functional testing of the organs of the body is the recording of heart action.

Dr. Clendening

The heart is composed of a special kind of muscle and divided into four chambers. All of these working synchronously produce the pulse beat. The old-time physician, by feeling this pulse beat, could learn a good deal about the action of the heart as a whole. He could tell whether the beat was strong or weak, whether the heart was rapid and laboring under excitement or undue stimulus, whether it was beating regularly and rhythmically or not. But for any purposes of close analysis of the action of the four different chambers or of the different parts of the heart muscle he was at sea.

To enlarge his knowledge the first instruments introduced about 20 years ago attempted to make a tracing with a pen on a moving sheet of paper of the pulse at the wrist, simultaneously with the apex beat of the heart and the pulsation of the veins in the neck. The latter were designed to show the contraction of the upper chambers of the heart—the auricles—while the apex and wrist tracing showed the action of the lower chambers—the ventricles.

When these tracings were completed they were somewhat enlarged views of the pulsations at the various points. They could be analyzed minutely and studied, much as a detective or writing expert examines a signature under the microscope to determine whether it is a forgery or not. They furnished a great deal of valuable information, but they were clumsy and not easily handled. The machines themselves were so temperamental and spilled so much ink that most of us who possessed them found that the only way to operate them was to get into a bathtub full of ink with the patient and the instrument and take the tracing; you did not get ink over so many different places that way. But some patients objected to this, so the methods fell into disuse.

Then an instrument called the electrocardiograph was perfected and it has been a pure joy. Its principle depends on the fact that a muscle in contracting causes a change of electrical potential to occur along its course. The heart is a muscle, and if all other muscles in the body are kept still, and electrodes fastened on the opposite sides of the body, the heart's contraction wave is recorded and can be photographed on a moving strip film.

The use of this instrument reveals more about the mechanism of the heart than any other instrument the medical profession has ever had. It shows how the wave progresses or is held up in any part of the course of the heart muscle. If there is a pulse irregularity it shows where that irregularity originates and what is its cause.

In arterial disease of the heart it locates the exact place where disease exists in a way that to an older generation would have seemed uncanny. Many years ago, when the instrument was first being used, a prominent physician said that the time would come when the blood vessel which was diseased in the heart could be located as exactly and minutely as we can now locate what blood vessel in the brain is obstructed. That prophesy has recently been fulfilled by the work of Barnes at the Mayo clinic.

As to irregularities of the heart, a word of comfort from these studies can be given. Irregularities of the heart are very common, especially after 40 years of age. The commonest of all—the so-called missed beat or dropped beat—is perfectly harmless and indicates no disease of the heart muscle whatever.

A London woman sued a newspaper for saying she had twins. Probably accused the paper of two-timing.

A pact has been signed ending Chicago's movie war for 18 months. Unless they practice tossing bombs in the meantime, there will be many a movie miss exploded.

Any way you look at this post-office budget problem, the two-cent stamp is licked.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—In one of my more statistical moments I figured out that an average $5 hat would wind up by costing a New Yorker a hundred dollars, or thereabouts.

The figures were based on the supposition that the owner of the hat went about a bit. Thus, if he ate in places other than lunch counters, he would check his beanie a couple of times a day and run up a bill of $60 a year. If he went out nights and dropped in at a dance, whether in a night spot, a speakeasy, a Chinese restaurant or a hotel dansant, the tariff would be two-bits more—perhaps as much as $100 a year in all.

Just to give you an idea of what a hat is worth to almost everyone except yourself: a few months ago the concession in the New Waldorf Hotel was sold. It brought almost $45,000!

Something like a million dollars is said to be invested in little coops where you and I and all the rest of us toss our hat for the evening. Gazing fondly upon one or two of my vintage hats, I often wonder why I pay good cigar money to protect it.

After all, it's all velvet—or should I have said felt?—to the gent who bets on a hat concession. If trade comes in, all the concessionaire has to do is go around collecting. The space was already there! So were the racks. And the investment in the hat is yours. So the concession holder gambles on the prospect of people showing up and paying his rent.

Figure how many people have to show up to get back $45,000!

Yet, I am told, the smart boys of the hat check world figure on something like 50 per cent net on their investment.

On paper, $45,000 may appear to be quite a long shot where other people's hats are concerned.

But the hotel concerned has a dozen dining rooms and there are scores of private parties, dinners and other goings on. The turnover runs into thousands of hats.

In the old days, when night clubs could be mentioned in the present tense, a corporation was supposed to control most of the hat check business of the big town—with millions to spend on cornering the hat market.

Hat check girls became colorful, and almost romantic figures of the night life. They were presented as wise young women, hardened by what they had seen and heard. The mental status of many of them was greatly exaggerated. One check girl actually was "built" into one of the better-known Brodway figures. But Renee Carroll, for such was her name, was one of the smarter girls. She remained relatively unspoiled. And then began to cash in on the reputation the newspaper folk had built for her.

Instead of telling the columnistic gents what she knew, as she had for many a week, Renee started writing her own material. A Broadway magazine picked it up. She began to broadcast and even appeared in a movie about Broadway life.

But just between you and me, I liked the color her hair used to be a bit better than I do now.

The best known of the old-time hat check kings was one Leon, who dates back to the days of Jack's historic cafe.

When the restaurant business looked as though it might be taking the skids, Leon looked about and decided that the big steamship lines were getting some of the better spenders. He bought up the check concession on half a dozen boats, but still is interested in the Broadway belt.

Proposed Sale Of Bonds Is Cancelled

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30 (AP)—A proposed sale of $12,000,000 worth of Louisiana highway and bridge bonds has been cancelled because New York bankers are in doubt as to who could legally sign them as governor.

Governor Huey P. Long announced cancellation of the sale, set for November 2, and blamed the ouster suit filed against him by his lieutenant governor, Dr. Paul N. Cyr, who claims Long vacated the governor's chair when he certified his election to the United States senate last March.

THE PLAINSMAN GETS SOME MAIL

O'DONNELL MAN DEFENDS MADSTONE BELIEF

Dear Plainsman: Please allow me just a small amount of space in which to venture a guess as to the vocation of one who signs himself "I. M. Skeptical" instead of "I. M. Simple", from Lamesa, in which he avers that all who do not see as he does is ignorant.

It is not that I object to being called ignorant, "You know the pot called the kettle black". But I wish to call attention to the fact that all who vouched for benefits derived from "mad stones" were more or less "old timers". I only wish there were more of them obliterating the scenery on the South Plains every day, as it is they, who made this country safe for the whole public who reside in it today. Longer and pleasanter life for all those who are left is my heartfelt wish.

I would wager at odds that I. M. S. never did pioneer any man's country and that while these old fellows built up far from neighbors, schools, churches, post offices, physicians, supplies, etc., that he was ensconsed in a protected medical school learning to roll pills of harmless ingredients with which to fool the gullible. And that when the other fellow made the South Plains safe and profitable for such as he, that then and only then he migrated with all his learning and has ever since tried to show the populace just how ignorant they have always been.

I may, as usual, be wrong, but am open for correction, being like "Will Rogers' only knowing what I read in the papers", raised too far from college and being too busy to obtain a degree in one should it have been available. But I still insist that I have witnessed direct and invaluable benefits from "mad stone" to my own mother when and where the learned medico was not procurable.

If this is ignorance, I am proud to say that in those days I was never so lonesome as in these so called modern times.

More power to you, Plainsman, always in the interest of freedom of speech and belief.

Kindly,
George D. Foster, O'Donnell.

(Dear Mr. Foster: That is about as fine a commendation as I have ever read of our pioneers and expresses the same sentiment I have tried to express on numerous occasions when editorializing upon those who laid the foundation for this country of today. It might interest you to know that I am "almost" a member of the Lubbock County Pioneers association, through the kindness of full-fledged members, and attend their reunions regularly and with great enjoyment.—The Plainsman.)

PROSECUTION IS TO BE RENEWED

ARDMORE, Okla., Oct. 30 (AP)—Renewed prosecution in the killings of two prominent Mexican students at American college is scheduled for next month.

Marvin Shilling, Carter county attorney, said that William Guess and Cecil Crosby, former deputy sheriffs, are due for trial November 19, before District Judge Asa Walden.

Guess was acquitted last June 27 of a murder charge for the killing of Emilio Cortes Rubio, kinsman of President Ortiz Rubio of Mexico. Neither defendant has yet been tried in connection with the death of Manuel Gizeta Gomez, young companion of Cortes Rubio, nor has Crosby been tried on either count.

However, Guess took complete responsibility for the actual shooting. The boys were slain in Ardmore while motoring to their homes below the Rio Grande.

She is tubbed each day in a pudding basin.

Matron Walsh, who has been collecting statistics on infants for years, says the new arrival is the smallest on authentic record.

American ships made more than 41 per cent of the 60,000,000 entrances and clearances of United States ports during the fiscal year of 1930.

Man Convicted In Robbery Of Bank

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 29. (AP) — Thomas (Pat) O'Connor of East St. Louis today was sentenced to 25 years in the Nebraska penitentiary for taking part in the $2,500,000 robbery of the Lincoln National bank & Trust co. September 17, 1930.

He was convicted recently by a jury. The sentence is the maximum for bank robbery.

O'Connor told the judge: "Your honor, I am just as innocent of this crime as you are."

He was arrested in East St. Lou's last summer and brought to Lincoln for trial. Howard "Pop" Lee of East St. Louis also has been convicted for the robbery but has not been sentenced. Jack Britt and August "Gus" Winkler also are charged with the holdup.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30 (AP)—Cotton had a steady and fairly active opening today. Liverpool cables were considerably better than due and first trades here showed gains of one to 3 points which was not a full response to the strength of the foreign reports.

The market continued to improve after the start, owing to good trade buying and price fixing. The spot basis also was reported very firm, with producers holding back as a rule. December traded as high as 6.69, January at 6.74 and March at 6.88, or 9 to 10 points above yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour the market was steady and at the highs.

The market ruled comparatively quiet nearly all morning, and prices gradually eased off on week-end liquidation, December dropping to 6.59, January to 6.65 and March to 6.78, down 10 points from the early highs to a level with yesterday's close.

Near noon, the market rallied one to three points on rather bullish week-end statistics, the movement into sight showing some falling off while mill takings for the week were both larger than last week and the corresponding week last year.

At noon, the market was steady and tending slightly upward.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, one point lower to two points higher on southern selling and trade buying. Business was moderately active in the first few minutes of trading.

Orders seemed to be quite evenly divided at the start with moderate southern selling absorbed by trade buying or covering and the market firmed up after the call on a continuation of this demand which included some buying for Liverpool account.

The advance was prompted by reports of a frm spot basis in the southern markets and carried the active months about 6 to 7 points net higher with December selling up to 6.67 and March to 6.86 by the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables reported calling and London buying on easier sterling and said there was a fair trade in cotton cloths for the British home market and India.

The market worked gradually lower in the morning under a continuation of the early selling while the demand tapered off somewhat after the close of Liverpool. At midday December was selling around 6.60 and March 6.80, or net unchanged to 1 point higher.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—Stocks settled back after a fairly brisk early advance today but the market was dull on the moderate reaction from the higher levels.

Extreme gains of a point or so in numerous principal shares were modified and a handful of issues sold slightly under the previous close. At their best prices, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, New York Central, New Haven, Southern Pacific, Illinois Central, Baltimore & Ohio, American Can and Atchison were 1 to 1 3-4 higher, while American Telephone rose 2 and Union Pacific 4. Tobaccos also rallied. North American, Electric Power & Light, Radio Keith, Borden and Pennsylvania sagged.

Call money renewed at 2 1-2 per cent.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP)—Grain prices tended upward early today, influenced by Liverpool reports of scarcity of wheat sellers. Offerings of wheat at Liverpool, it was stated, were confined to tenders of shipments from North America. Opening unchanged to 5-8 cent higher, wheat continued to point upward. Corn started at 1-8 to 1-2 advance and subsequently rose further.

FIRE LOSS LIGHT

Dust and refuse on the floor of the Farmers Bureau gin at East Avenue A and Fourteenth street became ignited and the fire department answered an alarm at 3:15 Thursday afternoon. Damage was negligible, firemen reported. Origin of the fire was undetermined.

JAPANESE ARE OPPOSED TO LEAGUE

PUBLIC OPINION FOR KEEPING ARMY IN MANCHURIA

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Oct. 30.—Japanese public opinion stiffened today in favor of the government's action in Manchuria and its defiance of the League of Nations resolution calling for withdrawal of Japanese troops from the occupied Chinese area by November 16.

Japanese soldiers, holding several Manchuria cities were making preparations for cold weather duty in the Chinese province. Official circles here said evacuation of the occupied zones by November 16 as desired by the league would be most improbable in view of the fact that so far there had not been the slightest indication the the Chinese would be able to organize responsible local governments to assume police powers now exercised by the Japanese.

Japanese Assist

In this connection, it was said, the JaJpJanese themselves had aided to some extent in the organization of Chinese police forces which were assisting the aJpaJnese in maintaining order.

INDUSTRY

ness activity and a healthy outlook.

At New Orleans, 178 new business concerns have opened and 193 old ones have expanded operations since the first of the year, and customs collections for September totalled $1,903,231.32, a gain of 30 per cent over last year.

Plan New Plant

Ground has been broken for a huge sulphur plant on the western end of Lake Peigneur, Iberia parish, Louisiana; construction of the $14,500,000 public belt bridge will start within 90 days, with an employment minimum of 1,000 men for the next 30 months; Anderson Clayton company has completed a new $200,000 Shipside cotton warehouse, and the Leon Godchaux Clothing company has tripled its capacity by acquiring $5,000 additional feet of floor space.

Other Louisiana activities include work on the five and one half mile sea wall fronting the 3,000 acre park created along Lake Pontchartrain by the Orlenas levee board. This is a $1,500,000 project and the complete lakefront improvement program will involve expenditure of $42,000,000.

The Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company has launched a number of liners this year, including the President Coolidge and President Hoover, built for the dollar lines at a cost of $8,000,000 each.

In the Memphis territory, cotton seed mills are operating day and night, and production of kilowatt hours of electric power for September was 500,000 ahead of the corresponding month in 1930.

Increases Employes

The Standard, Appalachian and Cherokee Spinning company knitting mills in Knoxville, Tenn., have been operating at full capacity for the past few months, employing 2,400 persons; the Sterling Wood Products company, manufacturers of wood parts for automobile bodies has increased employes from 300 to 600, and 650 men and women are making light weight clothing for the Goodall Manufacturing company.

Florida is preparing for the citrus harvest and packing plants are taking on additional help.

Baptist Students Leave For Belton

Twelve Baptist students of Texas Technological college left early this morning for Belton to attend the Baptist Student union convention in session at Baylor college. The convention opens tonight and continues until Sunday noon.

About 1,500 college students over Texas are expected, according to Miss Hazel Kokanour, educational director of the First Baptist church, who accompanied the group.

Those going from Lubbock were Raymond Dunn, S. W. Damon, Phyllis Pool, Juanita Pool, Elwyn Walling, Frances Wynn, Ruth Dunn, Patti Hopping, Jim O. Hill, Georgia Knight and Louise Reid.

DALLAS MAN KILLED

DALLAS, Oct. 30. (AP)—William F. Pearson, 54, prominent Dallas real estate and oil dealer, was killed early today when the automobile in which he was riding plunged off an embankment on the highway near Mesquite.

More than half of the farms in the Irish Free State cover 30 acres or less.

'School Wife' Balks

Charges by Miss Margaret Cox, Seattle art student and teacher, that Leonard Case, principal of the Hoquiam, Wash., school where she taught, forced her to sign an agreement to be his "school wife," have resulted in his forced resignation. Despite the fact that Case had a wife and four children, Miss Cox declares he made her promise to divorce herself from all friendship with other men. Although Miss Cox, above, refused to prosecute, police charged Case, inset, with disorderly conduct.

NAN BRITTON

followed in a short time.

In the "Answer to the President's Daughter" written by Joseph De Barthe, Marion, Ohio, now deceased, as a defense of President Harding, and the offending book in the present case growing out of its alleged libelous contents, the assertion of Nan Britton that she had clandestine meetings with President Harding in the White House was discredited on the ground of impossibility. Counsel read portions from the book on this point as follows:

"Let us look for a moment at this historic place—the White House—in which the president's wife is supposed to have led a lonesome life in the executive mansion while the complaining witness found it so remarkably easy to gain admission at will, day or night, and without the knowledge of the wife.

"It is impossible for any one to enter the White House except under rigid surveillance. If you doubt it, try it."

All persons under 21 years old were barred from court by Judge John M. Killits who is presiding at the trial.

Judge Killits explained that he might exclude all visitors from the court room adding that the time might come when it would be necessary to exclude even the press.

"This order is fundamental. It is a part necessary for the decent administration of this court."

Makes Exception

Several young people left the court room after Judge Killits gave the order. Attorney Wm. F. Marsteller of Cleveland, representing Miss Britton, told the court that he was making an exception to the judge's statement. There was nothing salacious in the trial so far, he said, excepting that which might have been read from the book "The President's Daughter" and "The Answer to the President's Daughter."

The reading of excerpts from "The President's Daughter" was then continued.

Arguments in the case may be made today and the case may go to the jury before court adjourns today.

PREMIUMS PAID

The last of the checks made as premiums from the 1931 Panhandle-South Plains fair here was mailed Thursday, the board of directors of the fair association was told. The directors met Thursday morning at chamber of commerce offices to discuss and decide on procedure in distribution of premium moneys.

PETITIONS FOR NATURALIZATION ARE RECEIVED FROM TWO LUBBOCK PERSONS

Petitions for naturalization have been received here from William Frank Helwig, assistant professor of electrical engineering at Texas Technological college, and George Zournas, local restaurant operator, according to C. F. Tucker, district director of naturalization of Fort Worth.

After being filed with Mrs. Olive Fluke, deputy United States district court clerk, the petitions must remain on file at least 90 days before being heard, and they will be heard at the June term of United States district court here, Tucker said. The naturalization director arrived here Thursday night and expected to leave tonight.

Since the state courts have relinquished jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings and it has been transferred to federal court here, a marked increase has occurred in applications received in Lubbock, Tucker said. Previously, each state district court clerk handled the petitions. Now, all by residents of this region come to Lubbock.

Depositions are being taken for persons who filed petitions for naturalization in other states and have witnesses here. The depositions are forwarded to courts in which the petitions were filed.

Naturalization of a man does not make his wife a citizen, and she must file a separate petition to be naturalized, Tucker pointed out.

REPORT ON ROADS

South Plains Automobile club, local branch of the American Automobile association.

Roads throughout the South Plains are in fair condition and all are passable.

Fourteen mile detour from Lubbock to Lynn county line, between Lubbock and Tahoka, bad in wet weather.

Route recommended to Oklahoma City, due to detours on U. S. Highway 66. Follow State road 62 to Dickens, State road 106 and 24 to Seymour, No. 277 from Seymour to Wichita Falls, state road 79 to Devol, Oklahoma, same road to Waurika, Oklahoma, U. S. highway 81 to Chickasha, going to Oklahoma City by way of Amber, Tuttle and New Castle. Paving east to Chickasha, detours most gravel.

Best route to Dallas: Follow Highway No. 7 to Snyder, 83 and 18 to Anson and Breckenridge, U. S. No. 80 to Dallas.

Swiftest of Army's Big Guns

The swiftest-moving piece of heavy artillery in the world is this 8-inch howitzer gun, soon to be given public tests at the Aberdeen, Md., proving ground. Mounted on four forward double-wheels and two rear wheels, and towed by a high speed truck, it is said by army officials to represent the most mobile weapon of its size in existence. Here you see the gun being fired.

JUDGE SAYS 12-YEAR-OLD MURDERER SHOULD "HAVE BEEN HANGED"; LIFE TERM IN PENITENTIARY IS STARTED

SEATTLE, Oct. 30 (AP)—Judge Kenneth MacIntosh, member of the Wickersham crime commission and former justice of the state supreme court, said today that 12-year-old Hubert Niccolls, convicted slayer, should "have been hanged."

"The boy undoubtedly always will be a criminal, a continued menace to society," he said, "and it is reasonable to expect that at some future time he will again be at liberty.

"'Life' under our present system means only a few years in the penitentiary. He should have been hanged."

WALLA WALLA, Wash, Oct. 30 (AP)—Hubert Niccolls, 12, sentenced to spend the rest of his life behind prison bars for murder, arrived at the penitentiary late Thursday. In one hand he carried a cornet and a harmonica was in a coat pocket.

The youngest person ever to be brought here to serve a sentence smiled as he was taken before Warden Clarence E. Long. Within a short time he went through the usual procedure for all convcts.

"He showed little emotion," Warden Long said, "but a bit of curiosity when he was escorted within the institution."

The boy's home will be in a separate cell, away from the other inmates. It will be the one used by Warren Stark, 14-year-old Everett boy, who served part of a sentence for arson here before transferred to a reformatory.

Within the next few days, the prison doctor will give him a medical examination and mentality tests.

The boy's prison life is destined to be lonely, Warden Long said.

He will have no young playmates, only prison employes who will trot along beside him when he takes his daily exercise. An instructor at the prison has been appointed to give him school lessons.

"We will take good care of him," Warden Long said, "until it is determined what will be done with him."

A transfer to a state reformatory is a possibility, officials said.

CLIFTON RITES SLATED TODAY

SLATON, Oct. 30 (Special)—Funeral services for E. C. Clifton, 44, a farmer whom investigators decided shot and fatally wounded himself accidentally, will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Burial in Slaton cemetery will be directed by Foster Funeral home.

Clifton, who lived five miles north of Slaton, died early Thursday in a field near his home a few moments after he was found unconscious. His left shoulder virtually was torn away by a shotgun charge. The gun was near him.

A widow, three sons, and two daughters, all of the home, survive.

About three-quarters of a pound of chewing gum is the annual quota of the average American, the bureau of census finds.

HOMECOMING FETE HELD BY LUBBOCK LIONS THURSDAY

Fifty-two members of the Lubbock Lions club and guests attended a homecoming dinner at the Hilton hotel Thursday night as the local group began observance of Old Monarch's week, which will receive attention from Lions in widely separated parts of the world next week.

Judge E. L. Pitts, president of the club, presided as toastmaster. Rev. J. O. Haymes talked on the subject, "Old Monarch's Week." He related the work and the development of the international organization. Each member who has entered in the spirit of Lionism has gained much which aids him in his every day life, the speaker said.

C. A. Sanford, in discussing "Business Confidences," told his audience he had been through several depressions during his lifetime, and that all such depressions had disappeared in time. He predicted that business soon would experience a recovery. A humorous talk was made by W. D. Girand, sr. Vocal and instrumental music was presented.

New Legion Chiefs Are Installed Here

Officers of Allen Brothers post, No. 148, of the American Legion, were installed formally Thursday night at the post's semi-monthly meeting at the Legion home.

Officials formally taking office were: Ben Kucera, commander, succeeding Glen Hess; Louis Murfee, first vice commander; Walter H. Wright, second vice commander; C. E. Luce, third vice commander; A. M. Scott, adjutant (reelected); W. L. Bradshaw, finance officer; Daniel L. Blair, service officer; Glen Hess, historian; W. H. Waln, sergeant-at-arms; Rev. J. D. Welch, chaplain, and Alex McDonald, mess officer.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The cactus fence was surely strange. Said Scouty, "How do they arrange to have it rise so straight and nice? It's in a perfect row." The Travel Man said, "That, my son, is something very easily done. That's how they plant the cactus. Then they merely let it grow."

Some cactus stalks were tall, some short and Clowny said, "It would be sport to have a pair of pruning shears and trim the fence up straight. And now, a thing that puzzles me, is something that I cannot see. With cactus growing from the ground, how can they make a gate?"

"They can't," replied the Travel Man, "but if this long fence you will scan you'll see that there's an open space where people can walk through. Inside a pretty garden grows with fragrant flowers in great, long rows. We'll stop and look it over, if that's what you want to do."

"Sure! Not a single thing we'll miss" said Coppy. "Pretty sights like this are few and far between, sometimes." So, in the Tinies went. They watched a man pick big bouquets. "I'll bet they last for days and days," said Carpy. Then they roamed around until an hour was spent.

Back into town they slowly hiked and there they saw something they liked. "Ah Nice fresh fruit," cried Clowny. "I could eat an orange or two. What say we slowly stroll around this market place that we have found? We may as well loaf here until there's something else to do."

The market spot was odd, indeed. "They have most anything we need," said Clowny. "And, look overhead. That bumbershoot's a wow. I ne'er saw one as big as that. The cloth spreads far out, almost flat. Another's just been opened and the sun can't get through now."

MADAME CLAIRBERT OPENS COLLEGE ARTIST COURSE; AUDIENCE PLEASED

Opening the Texas Technological college Artist course for the 1931-32 season, Madame Clare Clairbert, one of the greatest of coloratura sopranos, and her accompanists were presented Thursday night in the Lubbock High school auditorium. Francis de Bourguignon, pianist, and Carl Achatz, flutist, accompanied the Belgian songster.

Madame Clairbert, although comparatively unknown to this country, left no doubt in the minds of the thousand music lovers who gathered to hear her sing why she has been chosen to sing at the Chicago Civic Opera in November. Her flute-like voice, combined with blonde beauty and charming personality, made an artist beloved of the audience and an appreciative stillness greeted her numbers, broken only at the close with prolonged applause.

The flute-like quality of Madame Clairbert's voice was best expressed when she sang "The Gypsy and the Bird," accompanied by Achatz, flutist, in addition to the pianist.

The soloist was unusually generous with encore numbers and sang several English selections with an enchanting accent that only added to their charm.

Equal in artistry were the performances of de Bourguignon and Achatz. The unassuming Belgian pianist played difficult numbers such as Liszt's "Rhapsody No. 15," with technique which probably has not been excelled by musicians who have preceded him in other Artist courses.

The flutist played as soos "Concertino" (Charminade) and "The Old Refrain" (Kreisler).

The trio will appear in two other Texas cities before Madame Clairbert goes to Chicago. —F. M. T.

John Dalrymple Is Honored By Masons At Thursday Dinner

As a gesture of tribute to Lubbock's only living thirty-third degree Mason, John Dalrymple, construction company chief, 19 members of the South Plains Scottish Rite club assembled at 6 p. m. Thursday night at the Hilton hotel for an informal dinner.

Dean J. M. Gordon of Texas Technological college, who acted as toastmaster, and John Durham of Lorenzo were the principal speakers. Practically all of those attending made short talks praising the honor guest for his work in Masonry and in civic circles.

Dr. Millard F. Swart is president of the club and County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson is secretary. Among those present, in addition to the honor guest, officers and principal speakers, were Homer D. Grant, R. D. Moxley, G. P. Kuykendall, George Roach, Dr. J. M. Lewis, C. E. Maedgen, Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, B. R. Ferguson, C. H. Grellman, Nell Wright, Sam Arnett, of Lubbock, and Roy Abel and Earl Roberson of Lorenzo.
