question — requiring a answer.

ey is Needed for War

ttle of Japan has just be- must be backed up, paid ht for by a free people, sweeping the Pacific clear t hate—forever.

With the war in the west our first and major concern, we have not yet been able to go all-out in the east. But neither has the Jap.

The war to crush Japan will be bigger, tougher and longer than most Americans expect. The Allied Military Command has estimated that it will take years, not months.

The destruction of Japan's armies has not yet reached the annual rate of normal replacements—between 200,000 and 250,000 men a year. And the Jap, as our men in the Pacific know, fights to the death.

As far as Japan is concerned, the outer empire—and the men who defend it—are expendables. The Jap will fight the Battle of Japan from inside the inner empire, of which Iwo Jima was an outpost. And Iwo Jima, according to Admiral Nimitz, was a pattern of the resistance our forces may expect to meet in future offensives.

New Tasks, New Needs

The single greatest obstacle to our crushing of Japan is distance. While in the Battle of Europe supply ships from our bases in England had only an over-night run to make, ships in the Pacific have long-reach round trips taking up to five months to make.

To crush Japan will take time, heroic and backbreaking effort, overpowering equipment.

Millions of fighting men—freshly outfitted and equipped—will have to be moved from Europe halfway around the globe; and supplied day-in, day-out by hundreds of new ships now building.

More of everything will be needed. More B-29s. More tanks, halftracks, jeeps and trucks. More rockets, mortars, airborne radar.

A whole new air force is in creation—huge new bombers dwarfing the Superfortress—fast new jet-propelled combat planes, the P-80 or 'Shooting Star," coming off the lines by thousands.

These are just some of the 101 ways in which your dollars are needed more than ever to bring America's might to its full strength —so that we may crush our foe the faster, make an end of killing, and bring our men back home.

And Lest We Forget

The sick, wounded and disabled will require medical attention and care. Many millions of dollars will be required for mustering-out pay and benefits voted by Congress to help our veterans get started again in civilian life.

That's the least we can do in return for what they've done for us.

Winning the Peace

There are other weighty reasons for supporting the 7th War Loan—reasons that take us from the present to the future.

By investing in the 7th War Loan, the patriotic American is safeguarding his own future, his country's future.

By putting every dollar over rock-bottom expenses into the purchase of War Bonds, he is delivering a body blow to wartime inflation—

Seventh War Loan Drive Opens May 14 With an E Bond Quota For County of $320,000

Individuals of Ochiltree county will face the largest E bond quota of the war when the 7th War Loan opens on May 14. The county has been assigned an E bond quota of $320,000. The 7th War Loan will end June 30, however Carl Ellis, co-chairman with Van W. Stewart of the Ochiltree County War Finance Committee, states that E bond sales from April 9 through July 7 will be credited to the county's quota.

Mr. Ellis also pointed out that the over-all quota of $405,000 for the 7th War Loan is comparable to the past four loan drives. He said: "Our September, 1943 over-all quota was $489,800; February, 1944, $365,000; July, 1944, $410,000; and December, 1944, $390,000."

While this is the largest E bond quota yet assigned to the county, it is not so much more than has been sold in previous drives. In the 3rd War Loan in September, 1943, Ochiltree sold $292,612 in E bonds with a quota of $230,800. Other E bond results were: February, 1944, $241,762; July, 1944, $240,712; and December, 1944, $254,808.

Ochiltree county's patriotic citizens have oversubscribed every War Loan since the start of the war and they will do so again. To reach the high individual E bond quota in the 7th War Loan, every person must buy E bonds to the full extent of their ability.

As in past special War Loan drives, there will be no personal solicitations, no bally-hoo patriotic programs. Ochiltree folks do not have to be prodded to support the war effort. They will, in the 7th War Loan, just as they have in the past, go voluntarily without persuasion, to their banks and post offices and put Ochiltree "over the top" in the 7th War Loan.

JUST HERE and THERE

The president of the American Federation of Labor, in objecting to the Russian proposal that German labor be forced to rebuild damaged cities in war-torn Europe, says: "Hitler and those responsible for the war must be punished, but the people throughout the world, including labor everywhere, must be made free and must be guaranteed the right to enjoy the blessings of freedom, liberty and democracy."

Without arguing the merits of the Russian proposal, the remarks about guaranteeing the freedom of labor will be taken with several grains of salt.

In the United States, a man cannot work at the basic trades without first joining specified labor organizations, whether or not he wishes to, and paying initiation fees and assessments. Just try to work without "joining" if you doubt this.

Is this the kind of labor "freedom, liberty and democracy" the world is to have?

Why kid ourselves about freedom in the United States when an individual must pay for the right to work, even on a government job!?

Herald Apologizes For Carelessness

In last week's Herald appeared letters from Lt. Edwin W. Thomas, who was reported missing while flying the hump between India and China, and Sgt. Harold Hudson, stationed in Germany. Both were splendid letters. However, carelessness in making up the paper caused parts of the letters to be interchanged. We sincerely regret this blunder, and apologize to Edwin and Harold for the inexcusable bungling.

Archie Correll Wounded in Italy

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Correll received a telegram from the War Department Wednesday morning stating that their son, Pfc. Archie E. Correll was seriously wounded in action in Italy, April 17. The telegram stated that the hospital would send his address and further details. Monday morning the Corrells had received a card from the hospital, saying that Archie was wounded in the large bone of the upper part of the arm, and that his hospital was located somewhere in Italy. It also stated that his condition was improving.

Archie has a sister, Virginia Correll, serving with a Red Cross Club Mobile in England. His brother, Sgt. R. T. Correll Jr., was killed in an

Business and Professional Men to Join Forces With City Officials in Cleaning Local Streets

Mud, dust and dirt is due to capitulate on Friday, May 11, when Perryton business and professional men and their employees shoulder brushes, brooms and shovels and give the streets in the business district a thorough cleaning.

Following the announcement of the success of such a clean-up in Liberal and Dalhart, numerous Perryton business men offered their services to Mayor G. T. Leatherman if the city officials would sponsor the clean-up.

The City Council, at their Tuesday night meeting, endorsed the plan and pledged every facility of the city.

The clean-up will be under the supervision of Mayor Leatherman. He will appoint block foremen to see that the streets are cleaned and assign workers.

Every business house is expected to co-operate one hundred per cent. The clean-up will start at 8 a.m. Those that can furnish trucks and pickups are requested to have them on the job.

Car owners are requested to not park cars on the pavement Friday morning and if they just have to park them on the pavement, then put them in the center of the street.

Mayor Leatherman and his committee will announce definite plans for the clean-up in next week's Herald. He hopes to line some women's organization to serve coffee and doughnuts to the workers.

The city has purchased a street sweeper with a sprinkler attachment. Delivery has been promised within a few weeks.

Pioneer Guns Sought for Canyon Museum

O. T. Nicholson of Shamrock is seeking pioneer firearms of the Panhandle to be placed in the Panhandle-Plains Museum, Canyon. Mr. Nicholson is presenting to the museum, his collection of more than 300 pieces, the result of 40 years of effort and the expenditure of thousands of dollars.

Guns wanted are preferably six-shooters of the early cattlemen, pioneer law officers and even desperadoes of this section of the country.

Mr. Nicholson will buy, if possible at a reasonable price, and add to his collection, or if the owner prefers, he will accept the guns, put them in condition for exhibition and label them with history of gun and name of owner.

Owners of pioneer firearms are requested to get in touch with Mr. Nicholson at Shamrock.

No Indictment Action in April Term of Court

Grand jurors for the present term of the 84th Judicial Court of Ochiltree County re-convened Wednesday morning, May 2, and were dismissed. For the second time in the history of Ochiltree County, no indictments were made by the grand jury.

Revival at Olive Schoolhouse

Evangelist Tica L. Taber, Senaca, Mo., will open a revival meeting at the Olive schoolhouse, 4½ miles north of Balko, tonight, Thursday, May 3. Taber is well known as an evangelist in this part of the southwest. He has appeared in Perryton and at other points in this locale.

Rev. Taber will be assisted by Singer Bennie Stanberry, Katy, Texas. Stanberry is a noted musician, singer and composer.

Rev. Hap Watkins, pastor of the Olive congregation, extends a welcome to all to join in the revival.

Pfc. W. C. Peters Killed in Action

Pfc. W. C. Peters Jr. was killed in action in Germany April 18, according to word received here by his wife's relatives. He had served overseas for many months with Patton's 3rd Army.

His wife is he former Arlene Wilkerson, daughter of the late Ray Wilkerson and of Mrs. Wilkerson. They have a son, W. C., 21 months old whom the father had never seen. Mrs. Peters and baby are living with her mother at Moore, Okla. They paid an extended visit here last summer.

Darrouzett School Head Back to Pulpit

DARROUZETT—All members of the Darrouzett school faculty have been re-elected for the next school year, but several of them will not remain another year. Among those who will leave the faculty is Supt. J. A. Wheeler; he plans to return to the pastorate in the Methodist Church.

Home Dem Council Providing Pineapples

All orders for pineapple must be in before May 20. Those desiring pineapples should give their orders to Mrs. Albert Ackley, marketing manager of Ochiltree County Council. The marketing committee has asked that every one get their orders in as they expect to have all pineapple sold before a trucker is sent after the fruit. Mrs. Ackley has already received orders for approximately 200 dozen. Whether you belong to a Home Demonstration club or not, you may buy pineapple, but you must get your order in now.

Harold Gidley in Hospital; Wounded On Iwo Jima

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Gidley recently received a letter from the Navy Department telling them that their son, Cpl. Harold Gidley, was wounded Feb. 27 on Iwo Jima. Prior to that time they had received a telegram from Harold that he had landed in the states and would be home soon.

A letter from Harold carrying an April 24 date line give further detail regarding his wound. Excerpts of the letter follow:

"Just a few lines to let you know that I am feeling fine and will be home before too long. They have been moving me around so much that I haven't been able to write but I will be here for about two weeks yet and then I will be home in a short time for 30 days.

"I guess you are wondering what happened and how serious it is. Well, I caught a 'Nip' slug in the jaw and it lodged at the base of my skull in the back of my head. But was nothing serious. It broke my jaw and tore up the nerves in the right cheek, but they have the braces off my teeth now and I can eat once more."

Cpl. Gidley was a member of the 3rd Marine Division which took part in the Iwo Jima campaign. He has participated in several campaigns and has received the Presidential Citation for heroic achievement in action against the enemy on Guam in July, 1944.

His address is:

Cpl. Harold W. Gidley, USMC,
Ward 11, Naval Hospital,
Portsmouth, Virginia.

Lone Tree Revival Begins May 5th

The revival of the Perryton Mennonite Church, scheduled to start May 3 at the Lone Tree schoolhouse, has been postponed until Saturday, May 5. The change in the opening date was caused by the inability of Evangelist I. Mark Ross, pastor of the Woodland Mennonite Church, Wichita, Kan., to arrive sooner.

Ross was detained due to the death of a relative. He has been on the west coast in a series of meetings for the past few months.

R. L. Showalter, pastor of the Perryton church, announces there will be revival services each evening for approximately 10 days. There will be both morning and evening services on Sunday with Sunday School starting at 10:30 a.m.

Lt. Leatherman Interned in Switzerland

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Leatherman of the Gray, Okla. community have learned that their son, Lt. Glenn C. Leatherman, is an American internee in Adelboden, Ewitzerland. In a cablegram his wife, Mrs. Sally Parham Leatherman of Denver, Colo., received April 16, he stated: "Am safe in neutral country. Am O.K. Do not worry. Will write." This is the only word the family has received to date; they have had no word from the War Department regarding his whereabouts.

Lt. Glenn Leatherman

A pilot on a B-24 Liberator bomber based in Italy, Lt. Leatherman left the states Dec. 15 and has been on duty with the 15th Air Force since that time.

Lt. Leatherman has two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Kuder of Huntington Park, Calif., and Mrs. Leo White of Littlefield, Texas; and five brothers; Ray Edward, Kansas City, Mo.; Franklin Harold, Gray, Okla., Robert Warren, Perryton; Roy Leon, in the armed forces and Cecil, Gray, Okla.

He is a graduate of the Bethany high school, and was engaged in farming until his induction into the air corps Sept. 26, 1940, at Amarillo.

P. H. S. Graduates Of 1940 to Hold Reunion May 17

Graduates of the Perryton High School in 1940 will hold their first homecoming on May 17, though another affair will be held at a later date when more of the members will be able to attend. The reunion will be in the form of a pot luck supper at the Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m.

All students of that class and faculty members at that time are invited and urged to attend. Members who are in the armed forces or for other reasons cannot be present should write to Miss Verna Harris telling of their experiences since graduation time, so that those at the homecoming may learn of the ones who are not present.

More Men Go For Physicals

Another group of men were in Oklahoma City this week to take their pre-induction physical examinations for the armed forces. They left early Wednesday morning.

Included in the list are: James D. Goucher, Ernest D. Ferguson, Carl C. Scroggs, Gerald P. Miller, George W. Settles, Carl E. Kerns, Finis Nelson Hollaway and Paul Allen Pletcher.

Those who transferred to this board for physicals were J. P. Robertson from Corsicana, Texas, Elburn Clarence Robison from Maud, Okla., Glen Keeton Ogden from Wheeler, Texas, Finley W. Vandenburg from Pampa, and Tom V. Slack Jr., from Quanah, Texas.

Transferring from this board to other boards for physicals were Marvin L. Coburn to Fort Worth; Herbert T. Sutherland, to Portland, Oregon, George Rex Philbrick to Lubbock, and Ralph H. Francis to Wichita, Kan.

The group who left Monday for induction included Joe Wayne Yoakum, Oliver O. Townsend, J. D. Rouse, Kenneth Lee Anderson, Morris F. Moore, Gail S. Rogers and Edward G. Blackwell. Kemper Aris Warren and Louis Dale Turner, registrants from other boards, went with these men for induction.

More Donations to Youth Center Plan

Bond Issue to Pave Farm-to-Market Roads And Purchase Airport Site Favored by Group

That a county-wide election should be called for the purpose of voting on the question of buying an adequate airport site and hard surfacing of a county-wide system of farm-to-market roads, was the sentiment of most of the group that met at the courthouse last Thursday evening.

The group gathered in response to postal card invitations asking them to attend a meeting for the good of the county with no particular purpose stated in the invitation. Approximately 65 farmers, business and professional men attended the meeting.

Sam Hergert, president of the Perryton Chamber of Commerce, presided. Discussions were frank and above board, both for and against the propositions. Among those speaking were Sheriff W. H. Lance, County Judge Dave Shanks, Commissioner Audie Conley, Rev. Ward H. N. Gregg, L. R. Conner, Ray Batman, Rev. O. C. Curtis, Harold Kershaw, O. R. Truax, Alton Boxwell and Glen McGibbon.

While the meeting had no official sanction, it did serve a very good purpose. It opened up two subjects about which little is known, questions that will come before the voters soon.

It developed that it is probable that the state and federal government will co-operate in the building of about 16 miles of farm-to-market roads. This program will not cost the county any thing, but any other farm-to-market roads will have to be constructed entirely at the county's expense. It is hoped, but there is nothing definite, that the federal government will participate in post-war public improvement programs on a 50-50 basis.

It is estimated that a 200-mile system of farm-to-market roads will be needed to serve the farms and ranches of the county. Costs of such roads are not available and estimates run from four to ten thousand dollars per mile.

Two bond issue propositions were given an overwhelming endorsement. The first favored the purchase of an airport site of sufficient size to meet the approval of the Civil Aeronautics Authority. The second was for a $500,000 bond issue for the post-war building of farm-to-market roads.

County Judge Dave Shanks, Commissioners W. G. Yeary, J. S. Slaughter, George Jackson and Audie Conley, and Sam Hergert met with the Texas Highway Commission, Monday, in Austin, in an effort to find out more about the farm-to-market highway program. The Commissioners' Court is investigating types and costs of construction for such roads.

There appears to be no question but what that most people are very much interested in both of these propositions and it is very probable that elections will be called just as soon as adequate information can be obtained.

The Herald asks that men and women from this community serving in the armed forces write letters to this department for publication. Letters to relatives that would be of interest to the public will be published under this heading.

20 April 1945
Headquarters, Pacific Fleet

Dear Van, Jessie and Gang.

Hi there! Received your newsy letter yesterday and was very pleased to hear from you. No, hadn't figured myself scratched off your correspondence list as I realized how busy you must be. Besides, I get the paper airmail every eight days and certainly enjoy reading it. Thanks again.

The innovations to the building sound swell and I sure would like to work with all of you, providing of course you'll have me after the war. The boys are always talking about what they're going to do when this is over and I always tell them I'll take Perryton, Texas, and to hell with all the rest. They get a kick out of that, especially the ones from Brooklyn and such, but I really mean it. Ha.

Was sorry about the Japs getting Ernie Pyle at Okinawa. He was here only a short time ago and I got to talk to him over at the Public Relations office. He was really a nice fellow and was all enthused about covering the war and his travels. I thought at the time that if I was in his boots I'd let up on trying to be on every operation; that's tempting fate too much. Even the GIs aren't required to do that.

I eagerly scan the ships present list each day watching for the Yosemite, but as yet haven't had any word of "Gabby." If he does touch port here it will be a dry reunion from necessity. There is absolutely nothing here in the way of refreshments, except the two bottles of beer per day. Some of them call us "beer" friends as we are always chasing somebody down for their beer card. Some fun.

They still kill Japs here for excitement. The Marine guard down by the pump house bagged one the other night and he was still wearing his uniform, although it was somewhat ragged. There was another one with him, but he got away. They'll never get them all as anyone could hide in these jungles for years. A patrol tracked a bunch of them into a cave recently and be damned if they didn't have a cache of food equal to our rations. (Which isn't saying very much).

Yes, I listen to all the broadcasts. They originate here at Cin Cpos. Am really "sweating out" the European war as a notable milestone in this mess. This Pacific business will take longer unless something unforeseen occurs.

Jessie, I see that you're up to your old tricks telling jokes. That was a good one and nobody had heard it out here. We all got a kick out of it.

I wrote Jake a letter last month, but haven't heard a word from him.

Well, had better close and do a little work as my desk basket is beginning to overflow as usual. Bye.

As ever, Bat

Dear Folks:

Was sorry that I didn't get to come through Perryton on the way here, but it was only 97½ hours from the time I got my orders until I arrived here. I have to start in the morning at 6:45. I am in the dormitory and have a roommate, a Methodist chaplain from Ohio.

In our class of 25 enrolled to begin tomorrow, we have Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Diciples, Catholic and perhaps some others, that I have not met. We are all thrown together and have a fine fellowship in learning to co-operate and work together. It is a pity that more people don't have the opportunity of working with other faiths—much dissention could be avoided if that could happen.

I will be stationed here 12 weeks, but only six of that will actually be in school. We spend the first three weeks in school, go out on assignment for two, back here for two, and out again for four and back here for the final one. For the most part our work here is getting used to navy ways. We are under strict discipline—learning rules and passing inspection as well as taking a physical education program to toughen us up.

This is a famous place historically. The Jamestown Colony is near here, and this is the oldest college in America. Rockefeller spent $20,000,000 restoring some of the early historical buildings, etc. I'll get a chance to look around later and write more about it.

My official title is lieutenant, junior grade.

I am writing you a few lines to thank you for the paper. I surely do enjoy getting them. Here is a poem or whatever you might call it that some more of the boys and myself on the section wrote.

"From Cherbourg to Germany"

Beneath the trees where poppies grow,
Lie our soldiers row on row.
Through the still dark night, came the call of a bird
To many a soldier who never heard.

We hear the whistle of a shell over-head,
We knew it was going to add more to our dead.
And scour the trees for miles around.
But we knew all the soldiers would hold their ground.

We hear the angry grind of a "tiger" tank.
As the P-47's close in from each flank,
And drop their bombs right on the spot;
The infantry yells out, "Thanks a lot."

We hear the loud reports of our guns repeating;
We knew the enemy was still retreating.
Around and through the Siegfried Line,
And on across the river Rhine.

Any time of the night, we soldiers bed down
In our foxholes, dug deep in the ground.
We hear the hum of a plane and bombs screaming down,
Heading straight for each foxhole for miles around.

Our heavenly Father, who watches us close,
Never, for a minute does he leave his post.
As we walk through the valleys to the approaching hillside,
We have the Lord with us, as our trustful guide.

As we lie on the banks of the old muddy Rhine,
And think of the loved ones, we left behind;
And of our sweethearts who promised to be true,
But as we are not with them, they care not what they do.

We are fighting for our country, whose rights we defend,
But this is the story of some soldier friends.
So, here's to the American people, who think we should do more,
Than live such a life we never lived before.

Dear Van:

I might as well add another to your growing collection of newspapers. It would surprise you to see how these boys as well as myself look forward to getting this little news sheet every day. It's our own Battalion newspaper. By the way, its editor is a former feature writer for the Miami, Florida, Herald.

Have a little story and some pictures you will probably enjoy. Will send them at a later date. I have been getting my Ochiltree papers pretty regularly. That helps a lot. When I read all about all the good things you and the people are doing around, it makes me feel good. I am glad I can still call Perryton my home, for I still give it as my address. By that you know I plan to return. It's people like these that make us feel we are fighting for something worth while.

If only the Japs had of known in December, 1941 what they know now they would have probably stayed away from Pearl Harbor and the Philippines. For now they are feeling the sting.

Better say so long for now. Good luck and regards to all. As ever,
O. C. Watson.

P.S.—Thanks a million for the Xmas card. Just got it the other day.

Dearest Elva and family,

Thought I had better attempt to answer your letter even if a V-mail is the best I can do. Received your letter about four days ago but haven't had a chance to write before now. How is everyone getting along? Sure hope the babies are over their sickness by now. Tell Dad I will write him soon but right now time is rather expensive and I am figuring on this for you both.

Thought you would like to know I received my promotion to captain the 23rd of March. Give my regards to all the family and tell them I like to hear from them. I know I don't do much writing but I don't have much time for it.

Must close for now. Love to all,
W. B. Stapp.

Somewhere in Germany
April 15, 1945

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Stewart,

Just a line to say hello and to let you know I am getting along ok at the present time. I am somewhere in Germany; this makes the second time I have been in Germany. We were back in Holland for a rest period, and then came back across—we crossed the Rhine early one morning and have been on the go ever since.

Van, Germany is a beautiful place and all the homes are well built and beautiful, but what this war is doing isn't making them look so good anymore, and I wouldn't trust one of the German civilians any more than I would a German soldier for none of them are any good. The only good Germans are the dead ones.

At the present time I haven't received an Ochiltree paper, but I get most of the news from letters my wife writes me and that is most every day now. I am not kicking about not getting the paper but am wondering if they were held up some place.

I haven't seen the Brillhart boys since I was in England and none of the other boys that left when I did. Maybe in the near future I will see some of them. Sure hope so any way.

I am cooking with the company I am with and I like it fine. I baked several cakes and pies and made biscuits three or four times.

I will close for the present and write again soon. Answer if you have time. As ever, a friend,
Dempsey Maloney.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Herndon will leave today for Austin where they will visit their daughter Anne, a freshman at the University of Texas. They will return by way of Lawton, Okla., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Collins.

It sure is a headache!

Sure, everybody knows that right now quality oil is more important than ever before...but even motorists who are twenty times as old as our troubled little friend, don't know how easy it is to choose a quality lubricant.

They may be misled by bad advice from well-meaning friends, befuddled by claims, or low in sales-resistance to high-pressure selling. So choosing a quality oil can become a chore, a bore, and a headache.

Well, Phillips puts an end to your oil worries, and tells you how you can pick quality with certainty every time.

You know that oils may differ greatly...in chemical composition, in lasting power, in stability...and in other ways. And Phillips offers a number of differing lubricants to meet various preferences of car-owners.

But if you want our best oil, remember that Phillips tells you frankly that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality...the highest grade and greatest value...among all the oils we offer to motorists like yourself.

Don't forget! It's time to drain and refill with fresh, summer-grade Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

"The Man Who is Twelve Years Old"

"The Man Who is Twelve Years Old", a poem by Maurice Smiley, has become a symbol of the prayers and hopes with which countless Americans, and people of all nations, are following the International Conference at San Francisco.

Mr. Smiley's verses, saluting youth, have been given nation-wide prominence as a result of a campaign undertaken by one of our country's leading business concerns, to help center public attention on the Conference.

Without mentioning their own business in any way, except for a sponsorship signature, the General Cable Corporation has run the Smiley poem in newspapers from coast to coast. An inspiring illustration of a twelve year old boy is used as a background for the poem.

Because of this broad publicity in more than a thousand newspapers, delegates to the Conference as well as the general public undoubtedly will have a clearer vision of the deliberations which are taking place to-day.

Mr. Smiley's poem, which has found a place in the hearts of countless thousands, will be found in the advertisement of the General Cable Corporation in this issue of the Ochiltree County Herald.

Open House for C. R. Hartman on His Birthday

Clayton R. Hartman spent a very pleasant afternoon, April 26. Comfortably seated in his wheel chair, he received friends and former neighbors. The occasion was Mr. Hartman's birthday.

Mr. Hartman's niece, Mrs. Lester Baumann and Mrs. Frank Easdon were hostesses for the afternoon in the later's home.

On the lace covered table in the dining room, tulips in slender, cut glass vases were placed at each side of the beautiful birthday cake. Bouquets of cut flowers and many flowering plants, gifts from friends, were placed at vantage points in the rooms. Many other lovely and useful gifts were presented to the honoree.

The guests were entertained by reminiscences of Mr. Hartman, Wm. Shrader and J. L. Flowers. Even Judge Shanks, who had but a few minutes to stay, was intrigued by the stories of the early days of Ochiltree County; so he, too, remained to listen.

Mrs. L. D. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Rogers sent gifts; and many lovely greeting cards were received from friends who remembered the date.

Cake and punch were served to the following: Mrs. Arthur Slavin, Mrs. Travis Flowers and son, Donald, Mrs. Kauffman D. D. Shanks, Jack Payne, Bill Thomas, Glenn Tarbox, J. C. Taylor, Lester Baumann and Bruce, Messrs. and Mmes. Leon Shrader, Wm. Shrader, O. C. Shearer, J. L. Flowers and Otis Ives and children of Follett.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hartman called in the evening, and Mrs. Jess Pinkard, Follett, called the following morning to bring greetings.

Home Dem Agent Visits Wolf Creek And Notla Women

When we think of tailoring a garment we usually think of a suit, stated Virdie P. Wheeler, home demonstration agent, when she demonstrated "Steps in Tailoring a Garment" in the home of Mrs. L. F. Waggoner with women from Wolf Creek and Notla communities present. A completed zipper placket, a set-in pocket, and slip stitching the inner lining to the garment were the three steps in tailoring given by Mrs. Wheeler.

By request of those present, Mrs. Wheeler made a sample of machine quilting while the women watched the details of quilting and padding.

Mrs. D. D. Shanks, Missouri Ave. Club, at the invitation of the hostess and others present, gave helpful information on planting, transplanting and growing of annual and perennial flowers. She stated that it requires 15 to 20 days for many of our flowers to germinate and that most folks fail to grow beautiful flowers because they wait too late in the season to plant. She also stated that she patted small flower seed and carrot seed into finely pulverized soil, then placed a sack or board over them and kept the ground moist until the seeds were through the ground at which time she removed the cover.

Mrs. Waggoner served delicious refreshments in the form of jellied home canned strawberries and angel food cake to Mesdames W. E. Tandy, Sam J. Handly, J. H. Callihan, Carol Wall, J. O. Wooten, D. D. Shanks, Virdie P. Wheeler and the hostess.

Lorene Littau is expected home Saturday from Enid, Okla., where she is attending business college. She will return to school Wednesday.

New Tomato Plants For Club Women

Mrs. Fred Huston got an idea in February when she received tomato seeds from the Woodward, Okla. Experiment Station. Now she worked to make that idea a realization.

First, she called Mrs. Wheeler, the HD agent, telling of her plan and asking for information on how to make a hot bed. Then she used all the tactics and knowledge of managing a husband that she has gained through 28 years of married life in persuading Fred to dig the pit and make the hot bed.

About the middle of March she got the HD agent out to her home and talked her into planting the hot bed which now contains two packages each of Bison, Bounty, Danmark and Porter tomato seeds. These seeds were sent by the experiment station. Mrs. Huston watered the seeds following planting, which was no small job, since it was necessary to carry water. She has carefully watched over the hot bed since, watering it when necessary.

Her idea was to supply each club member in the county with at least one dozen tomato plants to try out in this section of Texas, but to date she is doubtful if she will have that many plants. Mrs. Huston says she is sure she will have plants for the food demonstrators in the county, which will still prove a nice project for one club woman.

Tom Collingsworth has returned to his home at Downey, Calif., after a three weeks visit with his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Collingsworth and family, and with relatives at Hardesty, Okla. Pvt. Tip Top Collingsworth, recently home on furlough, and now stationed at Colorado Springs, enjoyed a visit with his brother Tom for the first time in five years.

Rub-a-Dub-Dub!

A sure sign that spring has come to the Western Front is this scene, artillery Cpl. Car- men Peladino of Belleville, N. J., scrubbing off battle grime out- doors in a tub he found in a German pillbox. Behind him stands a big gun. (Signal Corps photo.)

Walter R. Allen Resigns OPA Post

Walter R. Allen, attorney of this city, has resigned as enforcement officer of the West Texas OPA dis- trict office at Lubbock. He has join- ed the law firm of Allen, Cunning- ham & Boles.

The firm will specialize in work- men's compensation representation. The firm's main office will be in Lubbock. They will establish either offices or connections at Amarillo and Borger.

Mr. Allen advises that he will re- open his law office in Perryton and that he hopes to make arrange- ments to have an attorney in the office at all times as he will be unable to spend all his time in Perryton.

Fish Story

Judge W. R. Ewing brought a party of fishermen from Pampa up to try their luck in Lake Fryer and Sam Handley's Tuesday. Meeting them at the lake were Judge Jack Allen, A. C. Witt, L. T. Tucker and Henry Cutter.

Last year on May 1 the two judges claimed to make the record catch in the lake, and they then planned the party for this year, May 1. Al- though they were able to have a bountiful fish dinner at noon Tues- day and to take home a nice string, and although they claimed to have caught the largest bass and the largest crappie to come out of the lake this year, still they have no picture to prove that their catch was as great as last year.

Saturday was named for Saturn.

New Ration Stamps Validated May 1

WASHINGTON — A total of 10 new blue and red stamps with 100 ration points for buying processed foods, meats and fats became good May 1, OPA announced today.

The five new red stamps for buy- ing meats and fats are Q2, R2, S2, T2 and U2. Each one is worth 10 points.

The five new blue stamps for buy- ing processed foods are Y2, Z2, A1, B1 and C1.

Five red stamps—T5, U5, V5, W5 and X5—which became valid Dec. 31, 1944, and five blue stamps—C2, D2, E2, F2 and G2—validated on Jan. 1, 1945, will not be good after today, OPA said.

The new sugar stamp, No. 36, be- came good May 1. Sugar stamp No. 35 will be good until June 2 and sugar stamp No. 36 will be good un- til Aug. 31.

thus putting a lid on the cost of liv- ing and maintaining intact the pur- chasing power of the dollar. At the same time, too, he is insuring the country and himself against the catastrophe of a possible post-war deflation—with its depression, un- employment, misery, and heartache.

So save for your country—save for yourself. In helping your country, you are also helping yourself. Comes peace, we'll all need money for edu- cation, replacements, retirement, new homes, a new start—and we'll need a lot of it. There isn't a better or safer highroad to your goal than United States Savings Bonds.

Only Two Drives in 1945

This year there will be only two War Loan drives, not three. But in those two drives the Government will have to raise almost as much money from individuals as in the three drives last year. That means bigger extra bonds in the 7th. Be- cause only by buying more can we make 2 take the place of 3.

The 27 million Americans who buy bonds regularly are already off to a flying start These patriotic men and women began their buying in April. And they will keep on buying extra bonds through May and June!

It's now up to the rest of us. It's our turn to swing in line To raise the vast sum needed every American will have to dig deeper into current income— dig deeper into cash re- serves. Only by buying bigger extra bonds can we stretch 2 into 3!

Let all American do their part— for their own sake, for their coun- try's.

Human Skin Made Into Trinkets at Buchenwald

On this table is displayed gruesome evidence of bestiality at Buchenwald concentration camp near Weimar, Germany: lying flat on the table are tattooed and stenciled sections of human skin, "curios" from an SS woman's "collection"; lamp at right is made of human skin; third exhibit from left, two shrunken human heads. Some of the many thousands of victims died of starvation and disease. Others simply had unusual tattoo marks, which proved fatal. Behind the table stand German civilians, brought there to see what they had been blind to. (Signal Corps Radio-Telephoto.)

Hog Support Price Raised

COLLEGE STATION — A 50 per cent increase in the support price for good and choice butcher hogs, Chicago basis, on all weights up to 270 pounds, effective immediately and continuing to Sept. 1, 1946, has been announced by War Food Administrator Marvin Jones. The increase is from $12.50 to $13 a hundredweight.

A joint statement by the WFA and OPA received by the A&M College Extension Service said that the support price increase, along with a larger 1945 fall pig production, are planned to insure the largest practicable production and marketing of pork products. The national fall pig goal has been set at 37,000,000 or 18 per cent more than raised in the fall of 1944.

At the same time, the statement continues, Price Administrator Chester Bowles announced that there would be no reduction before Sept. 1, 1946, in the ceiling prices for live hogs from the present levels of $14.75 a hundredweight, Chicago basis, for butchers and $14 for sows.

The statement points out that about 240,000,000 more bushels of corn are available for livestock feeding now than one year ago. If normal yields are obtained on the 96,000,000 acres of corn which farmers indicated on March 1 they intended to plant, WFA officials believe that sufficient feed supplies should be available to fatten a 37,000,000 fall pig crop this year.

Judge Jones explained that the 1945 fall pig production goal calls for the largest number for which it is safe to plan upon the basis of the expected feed supplies. The expected heavy demands for pork makes it advisable to maintain hog production at the highest possible level.

Chief Petty Officer and Mrs. H. J. Anderson will leave today for Taft, Calif., after a two weeks leave spent with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hergert left Sunday morning for Fort Worth, where they will visit their son, Vernon Dale's wife. Mrs. Hergert is living with her parents in Fort Worth while Vernon Dale is with the 20th Bomber Group on Guam.

DRASTIC MEASURES TAKEN AS TIRE PROGRAM BOGS AGAIN

Carbon Black, Cord, Wire and Crude Rubber Shortages Cut Production—2nd Quarter Civilian Supply Less Than Half Previous Schedule—Camelback Output Also Cut as Quality Reduced—Little Improvement Expected Till Fall.

Here's the Situation in a Nutshell as Regulations Are Made to Fill Military Demand:

- Passenger tire production cut back to 1,000,000 per month for second quarter with present production behind even this. Quotas cut to same figure. (Production for first quarter was 1,8000,000).
- Camelback production cut to 68% of December-January.
- Quality of tires reduced through reduction of carbon black in passenger sizes up to 25% and smaller cuts in truck tire carbon black content.
- No more rayon cord in 7.50 and smaller truck sizes.
- All truck tubes now synthetic instead of crude.
- New passenger tire eligibility rules tightened.
- Less crude rubber in larger truck sizes.

Carbon black shortage has now received proper attention from various government agencies involved and measures are now in effect that should nearly double the present short supply. However, even with top priorities on materials and manpower, it will be many months before the supply can catch up with full production capacity. Shortages of cord, bead wire and certain other raw materials are also serious.

It was this shortage that caused most of the orders that will have such a serious effect upon civilian tire supply. As carbon black is an irreplaceable material in both civilian and military tires and camelback, it was decided to use most of the supply available for military equipment.

Let Us Inspect Your Tires, Make Needed Repairs, and Recap with Grade A Camelback Before Too Late!

FFA Project

The project of the FFA boys this year was the building of concrete walks at the back of the school building. The walks were joined at the archways and extended 112 feet to the west, and one starting at the cafeteria door and extended 75 feet west. The thickness of the walks average six inches, and 10 feet in width. The walk from the north arch to the cafeteria door is 90 feet long, about six inches thick and about six feet wide.

C. H. Williams, sponsor of the project and vocational agriculture teacher, took the responsibility of directing the boys.

The walks will serve the school buses in bad weather. Buses will drive up to the end of the walks, let the children out on the walk, thus saving considerable mud tracking into the building.

Approximately 350 sacks of cement, about 70 yards of sand and gravel, 3,000 pounds per yard, was required in completing the project.

Tom Slack, football coach and teacher, devoted many hours with Mr. Williams and the boys in the construction of their project. The classes that worked on the project were Coach Slack's mechanical drawing and P.E., and all of Mr. Williams' agriculture classes. Boys were also used out of the fifth period study halls.

The FFA boys want to express their appreciation for the use of the county maintainer in moving considerable dirt.

Music Department

At the beginning of this 1944-45 school year, a high school chorus, senior band and a junior band was organized. Due to lack of transportation and war conditions, very few accomplishments have been made. The senior band provided entertainment in many assembly programs at the first of the year. The main program in which the chorus took part was the Christmas pageant in December. Visits have been made throughout the term to the various churches where the choir presented many hymns. On March 29 the chorus had charge of the assembly programs and presented a very nice musical program to the student body.

The senior band made a trip to Canyon March 23 to take part in the Panhandle's All Star Band held there.

A swing band, directed by Jim Bill Dodson was organized for the purpose of playing at dances, but has only played at one.

The future for the music department next year is uncertain, but there are hopes of continuing the good work heretofore presented by this department of the school.

This year the Perryton High Players, assisted by A Capello Choir, produced a Christmas pageant. The club also produced a three-act play, "Are You Mr. Butterworth?" To finish up the year's work the Players have started a costume department. This is being accomplished with amazing results. Perryton high school should work on the costume department each year. To be assured that the Players will be continued next year, they have elected Kay Kizziar as the next semester president.

Meet the Seniors

Shattuck, Okla., June 3, 1927, was the birthplace of Betty Pshigoda. Betty, being 5'4" with blonde hair and green eyes, has a natural charm for red and blue. In her spare time she likes to ride horseback and embroidery. She likes the show "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo" best of all, but has no favorite stars. "One Life to Lose" and Temple Eaily hold her interest when it comes to reading. Betty certainly has a yearning to travel because she plans to attend college in Michigan. Her pet peeve is "babies crying in church, and girls wearing high heels with slacks." Betty's favorite subject is shorthand.

Billy Tregellas, the boy with the curly hair, blue eyes and cute smile, was born in Alva, Okla., on Feb. 9, 1927. Being very neat, his pet peeve is "dirty fingernails." Billy, like most senior boys, is 18, but after the war he wants to ranch. In the cinema world, Spencer Tracy, Deanna Durbin and "Between Two Women" hold the spotlight. Most seniors like "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo" one way or another, and Billy being no exception, likes the book. His eyes light up with delight when pork chops and chocolate pie are mentioned.

What About the Third Act?

Ring down the curtain, the second act is nearing an end. The act of High School life comes to a close.

The first act passed four years previous. That was the time the girls donned their first long dresses, and the boys their new suits, and marched proudly across the stage to receive the little piece of paper that meant so much to them.

Now the second act draws to a close, and the third act lies before us, the act of positions and obligations in the world of today, and the world of the future.

In the limits of our reasoning power, it seems the last two acts have been reasonably successful, but what about the third act?

We had no choice, we weren't asked to choose our program of life. Had we our choice we would not have chosen this life, involving the trials and temptations of a world, instead of one nation. They didn't set a golden platter, bearing the fruits of life, before us and let us choose between them. Has there ever been a life without obligations and tribulations? No, there has not.

The world is waiting in her torn and shattered state. Is it punishment to us for some unknown wrong, or is it a test? I believe it is God's test, a test that will prove whether or not the ideals of a pure and liberty-loving nation still exists.

Will the third act be a success? Will the curtain close on the third act, leaving our audience smiling and applauding our success entitled: "The Play of Life?"

Dramatics Club

Remember when Vance Apple, Mattie Maud Guthrie Caylor and Glen Schrader were in the Dramatics Club of Perryton High School? —only that was in 1927 and it was called "The Players' Club." The club had a grand motto, "Drama Is Life," and produced three plays that year, "The Pot Boiler," "The Impertinence of the Creature" and "And Home Came Ted."

In 1940 the Dramatics Club was titled exactly that. They made a study of costumes, make-up and characterizations. No long productions were given that year.

In 1943 the club became known as "Perryton High Players" and produced the play, "Wings Over Washington," directed by Miss Verna Harris.

Another play was given in 1944 by the Perryton High Players titled "New Fires." It was also directed by Miss Harris.

CLASS WILL

To Whom It May Concern:

We, the senior class of 1945, being, with some few exceptions, in full possession of our mental capacity, of sound minds, loose tongues and weak hearts and having but a few short hours to dwell among the horrors of the trials and tribulations of our high school days (namely no money, late hours, broken bones (due to the cafeteria rush), and lost fountain pens) do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament. Declaring any previous wills, promises or written documents, valid and void.

Section I Article I

First, we will and bequeth any space that happens to be left on the study hall desks, for the juniors to write their names on, too.

Article 2

To our beloved faculty members, as a whole, we will all our failing grades, they'll probably need them again next year.

To Miss Harris, Kenneth Pearson wills his ability to raise chickens.

To Miss Gary, Clara Louise Davis wills her undying attempt at homemaking.

To Mr. Henry, Delos Pugh's ability to argue, he'll need it when he has to argue with J. C. Jones.

Section II Article I

Lola McGarraugh wills her ability to attract attention of out of town boys to Carmen Keith.

Yvonne Trollinger wills her height to anyone in the junior class who will take it because she's tired of having it willed and "just imagined."

Nona Holdeman wills her flowing mane to Pat Barlow.

Ann Patton wills her ability to drive to anyone about to take a driver's license test.

To Jean Osterburh, Don Eudy wills his football suit and physique, where he's going he won't need them anymore.

Lois Burger leaves her timidity and ability to keep her mouth shut to Nettie Mac Brillhart.

Shannon Daniel wills her ability to give out with the vocal to George Wiggins.

Alverna Records leaves her ability to get around on her feet to Lucy Lee Taylor.

To Keith Bray, Jim Bill Dodson gives his dancing feet. ('nuff said).

Helen Hudson wills her ability not to blush to Darlene Bull.

Mary Lou Rupprecht leaves her unique ability to play the piano to Marjorie Hummer.

Sue North wanted to will something but she's getting married and will need everything she has.

Calvin Schroeder leaves his ability to play tennis to Albert Littau.

Jo Layne Allen wills her freckles to Patsy Ruth Patton.

Jack Hurter, Dwayne Trosper and Leland Wilson leave their perfect attendance records to Kenneth Turner and Delmar Igou.

Paul Dowers leaves his trade mark, a loud mouth, to Henry Pletcher.

To Benny Lippold, Quentin Engleman wills his tenor voice, to be used only on special occasions.

To Bobby Schell, Billy Tregellas' ability to make love, not that he needs it.

Section II Article II

Some of our noble seniors have special traits that they want to pass on to the juniors, they'll need something next year.

1. Rosa Lee Reed's jokes to Jimmy Dick Key, his are getting stale.
2. Virginia Williams' ability to flirt to Helen Unruh.
3. Coleen Epp's excess weight to Paul Tucker.
4. Naomi Ediger, Kathleen Pinkerton and Imogene Harrison's Spearman associations to any girl with enough extra gas coupons to go after them.
5. Jerry Carmichael's attractive hair styles to Georgia Cameron.
6. Georgine Lallement's speech making ability to Oletha Newman.
7. R. A. Flowers' unlimited knowledge of chemistry to Pearl Merydith.
8. Georgia Brown's last name to Mary Helfenbein, because we can't spell Mary's last name.
9. Dwendle Atchison's self adopted name, "God's gift to women" to Don Elledge.
10. Bruce Baumann's pinch-penny technique to Floyd Enterline.
11. Irene Latham's ability to roll those eyes, to Betty Sue Morgan.
12. We would will Ara Nell Gann something but she's got a date with Robert Bowles, so she must not need anything.
13. Woodrow Handly's ability to get to the cafeteria on time to Merl Cudd.
14. Paul Noe's way with women to Bob Urban.
15. Pat Arnold's wardrobe to anyone lucky enough to wear the same size.
16. Eldon Gurley's 1-A draft rating to Gene Johnson.
17. Weldon Bull and Darrell Teater's natural blush to E. R. Bell.
18. Mildred Moore's bookkeeping notes to anyone with enough courage to take the course.
19. Lucille Batman's knack to write poetry to Dwayne Jameson.
20. Martha Pattison and Mary Alice Frazier both have husbands, but it wouldn't be our duty to leave them to anyone.
21. Mary Helen Brown gives her shadow, Geraldine Martin, to Kay Kizziar.
22. Mickey Edge's skill at playing ping-pong to Ruby Peterson.
23. Florence Peterson's excess material from the bottom of her graduation gown to Beth Trollinger.
24. Max Clark's other name, Herman, to anyone that was blessed with the same given name.
25. Ozella Pearson and Betty Pshigoda's blonde hair to Madine Mitchell.
26. Ina Mae Fluitt and Billie Jean Hoy give, with interest, all their English notes, pencil stubs, ink bottles and waste paper that they will leave in their haste to get out o' school, to all unfortunate juniors.
27. Gwen Phagan's technique with boys to Betty Jean Quick.

Signed, sealed and delivered by the senior class of 1945 as its last will and testament.

Witnessed by:
Verna Harris,
W. T. Puryear,
Doris Abbott,
Flora Rhine.

Signed: The Senior Class of 1945.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Slack and daughter Sydney spent the weekend in Canyon with relatives.

Why did Virginia Williams refuse to go to the junior-senior banquet with a certain senior boy? Could it be Spearman wouldn't approve of local girls going with Perryton boys?

Spearman seems to be doing O.K. with the Perryton girls. Yvonne T. was seen with Jack T. and Ruby Ann with Jimmy L., both from Spearman. My! My!

Say Paul D., did it ever occur to you that Ann P. might not accept the excuse, "I'm so tired I'm going home and go to bed"? It might not work next time.

Don't feel so bad Dwendle, about last week. Remember this little saying, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again."

Jo Layne stepped a little past Spearman this time. Borger has been a'courtin' her (Jack).

Naomi and Doc R. were doing very well, but golly—what's happened now, kids?

Jean Osterbeaur seems to be stepping high these days—with Veva Jo Mitchell too.

So Lola and Betty Jean are tired of Spearman, but now it's Garden City. Oh well, some people can do it.

Clara Revis and Gene Stinson have been enjoying themselves quite frequently lately. Will these two ever make up their minds?

Nona H. and Donald Schell—everywhere and every night. Things can't be getting that serious, can they Nona?

Irene Latham seems to be getting the flirting ability now. How did Sunday turn out with about five different soldiers? Can you handle that many?

Weldon B., don't get cold feet when you're about to ask a certain brunette to go somewhere. After all is said and done, she can't ask, but she certainly can give you encouragement.

Don't be so mysterious, Lois B. Really, we'd like to get acquainted with those two cute hired hands of yours. If you don't like them, I imagine others will!

Diddy, you had better watch your step when it comes to sitting by Robert E. Bowles, because Ara Nell might not like the idea.

Again Patsy Patton had company Sunday, but this time Melvin's friend and Carmen K. made a very nice twosome. (From Borger, of course).

Say, did anyone know there was an Indian tribe in Spearman? Anyway, a certain Cherokee is causing mighty high blood pressure around Perryton.

Senior Day

What a day! So, the seniors had a day all to themselves—eh? The school was in a turmoil when W. T. Puryear, principal, informed the seniors that "they" would run the school all day Thursday, April 26. Don Eudy was elected principal and began his duties Thursday morning. Seniors were elected teachers and taught all classes.

The morning began very peacefully, rolls were checked, then the so-called teachers began instructin' the fundamental readin', 'riting', and 'rithmetic.

Now, the juniors didn't seem to relish the idea of letting a senior boss them around—so they started the day by throwing spit-balls, erasers and anything else within reach. But did the seniors let them get by with this? No siree! They picked them up by the ear and marched 'em right down to the principal's office. Why, before the first period was over, five spit-ball experts (juniors) received their first lesson on "How to Be On the Receiving End of the Principal's Paddle." The juniors weren't any problem at all up to sophomores. They fairly tore the place apart. The minute the teacher's back was turned, everyone disappeared by magic. Upon further investigation the teacher would find her students (the dear children) out in the hall wandering around. Things continued like this until noon. Then with the pangs of hunger obliterated from the starving students, things settled down. To climax the day's adventure was a chapel program, made up entirely of the faculty, and a vow to never have another "Senior Day."

The state of Virginia is called "The Old Dominion."

Three acres constitute a farm, for census purposes unless a tract of smaller size produces at least $250 a year in crops.

With the wonderful romantic feeling of our own "West" . . . square dances, box lunches . . . Richard Hudnut redesigned the Yanky Clover packages. The same tangy, sparkling fresh fragrance goes in them. Prices plus tax.

Christian Science

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 6.

The Golden Text is: "Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?" (Ezekiel 18:23).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it" (Malachi 3:10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Spirit blesses man, but man cannot 'tell whence it cometh.' By it the sick are healed, the sorrowing are comforted, and the sinning are reformed" (page 78).

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Israel's History Shows Importance Of Strong Leaders

The International Sunday School Lesson for May 6
Scripture: I and II Samuel; I Kings 1-11

THE history of the Hebrew monarchy strikingly illustrates what strong leadership can accomplish; and conversely the decay and downfall show how quickly a state can disintegrate and a people go down in ruin, when leadership fails.

It seemed a great moment when Israel hailed its first king, and the bashful Saul, head and shoulders above all the people, was brought forth from his hiding place and proclaimed monarch. But within the one first reign came the dire things that Samuel had predicted. Saul died a suicide in the ignominious hour of an overwhelming defeat of the armies of Israel.

Then came David. Or rather, David, the young shepherd boy who had killed the giant Goliath with his sling-shot, emerged from the guerrilla warfare, and his leadership of a band of discontented men, to become the man of the hour, and the saviour of his people. We picture David as the author of psalms, the sweet singer of Israel, playing on his harp. This he was. But actually David was a warrior.

David in his 40 years of rule established the kingdom securely, defeating external enemies and building the kingdom strongly from within.

But he appeared sometimes almost as a saint and at other times as a flagrant sinner. There was the affair with Bathsheba, wife of Uriah, and the foul conspiracy to do away with Uriah by setting him in the battle where he would be surely killed. Yet when the prophet Nathan fearlessly brought home his sin to him, instead of destroying the prophet he acknowledged his guilt.

And against this is that noble picture of his pouring out as an oblation to God the water from the well of Bethlehem, which three of his mighty men had brought at great risk to their lives. That story (II Samuel 23:14-17) is surely one of the most tenderly beautiful in all the annals of war and fighting men.

Midnight or high noon, in winter's sleet or summer's sizzling sun, your electric service employees are on the job keeping war-vital electricity flowing.

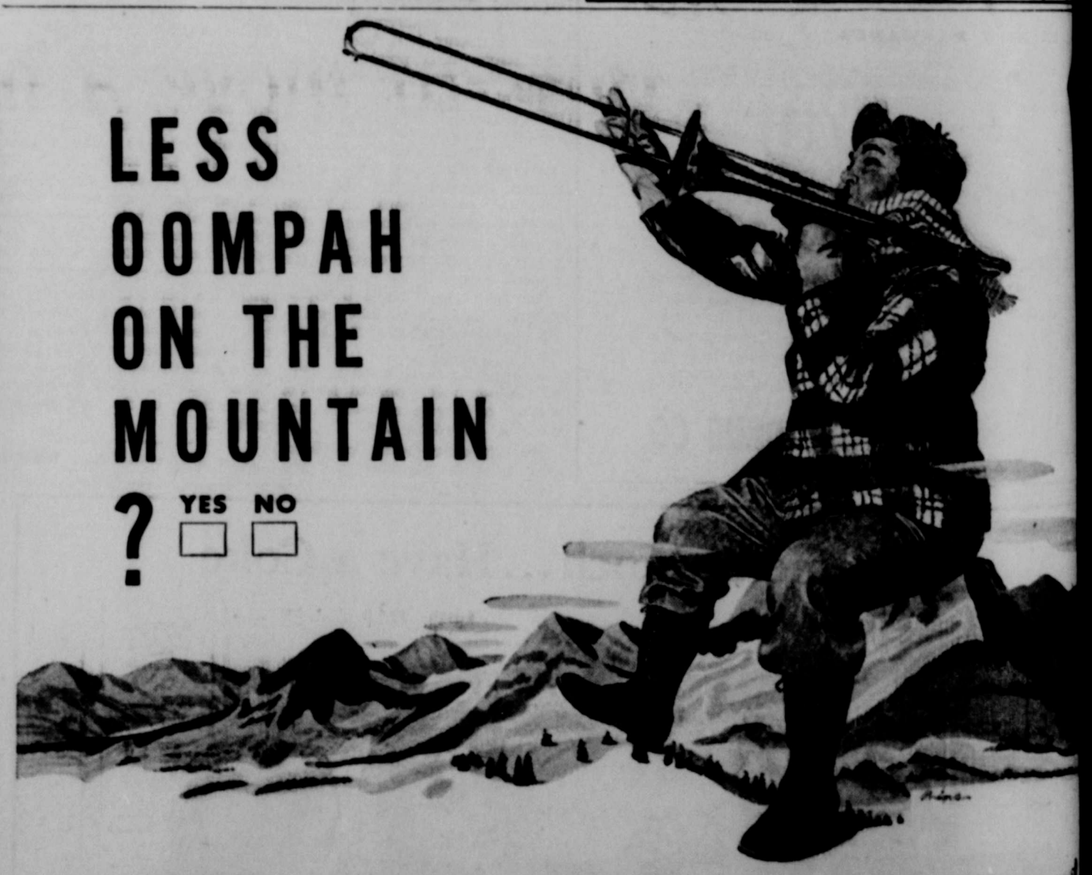

With so many of their former co-workers in the service, they're being called upon to do more work with less help than ever before. So if occasionally it takes a little longer than in the past for a service call to be answered or storm damage to be repaired, remember that the manpower shortage is responsible.

Like the fighters in uniform, the men who man your electric system have an important war mission to perform—and they're doing their best to live up to their responsibilities, regardless of weather conditions or personal hardships involved.

LESS OOMPAH ON THE MOUNTAIN ? YES ☐ NO ☐

Any man's chestful of mountain air—compared to his chestful at ground level—can't blare out as much of an oompah. For mountain air is thinned, but up in the Rockies—or out on the plains—or anywhere else right now—it's this air of Spring that's really important! It warns of danger to your car, crying for the real thorough safety of a Springtime change to Conoco Nth motor oil—a change that will OIL-PLATE your engine's insides!

Patented Conoco Nth oil includes an added life-saver—an extra ingredient. This product of long costly research adds little to price, but it bonds protective lubricant to metals direct, in the form of OIL-PLATING—an extra that goes even beyond Conoco Nth oil's great liquid film to curb grinding wear!

Another great quality of OIL-PLATING is its resistance to acids. They're always part of combustion, but they can't freely corrode OIL-PLATED parts. Save those parts to save oil and gasoline—to conserve power and your battery—to fight carbon and sludge. It pays to remember that exactly what you want is Conoco Nth oil—today. How to move a bed— and make your 7th War Loan Quota

Moving a bed upstairs can be a pretty tough job—if you try to move it all in one piece!

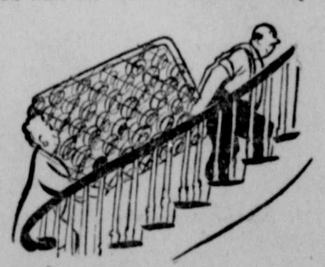

It's a lot easier to separate your burden into pieces and take care of each one separately.

It's the same with your personal quota in the 7th War Loan. That quota will be the biggest yet.

Recognizing this, the 26,000,000 patriotic Americans on the Payroll Savings Plan have boosted their allotments to take care of part of their quota right now.

It's a smart way to do it. And you can, too.

The drive doesn't officially start until next month. But if you wait till then to take care of your quota you'll find it a lot tougher job than if you get a head start now.

Why is this War Loan going to be such a whopper? For two very good reasons:

First, Uncle Sam needs just about as much money this year to fight the war as he did last. Even if our job in Germany were over—which it is not—we still would need every cent we can spare to beat the Jap.

Second, there will be only 2 War Loans this year, instead of the 3 there were in 1944. That means we've got to lend, in 2 chunks, approximately as much as we lent last year in 3.

Make it easier for yourself. Start putting part of your pay check right now into your share of the War Bonds we'll all have to buy to make this 7th War Loan a success.

It's a tough job no matter how you tackle it. But it's the least we can do to support our fighting men overseas and help bring them a little closer home.

New Western Film With Roy Rogers a 'Musical Round-up'

Gayest, most exciting of "musical round-ups" is Republic's "Utah," latest starring vehicle for Roy Rogers, which plays this Saturday at the Ellis.

For Rogers' fans the picture offers entertainment of the high quality that has made him the country's No. 1 cowboy star. He rides Trigger, sings and outwits the villains with the breezy charm that has earned him the title of King of the Cowboys.

In addition there is the comedy supplied by the act of Western funny-men, George "Gabby" Hayes in another of the roles he enjoys most, that of a cantankerous well meaning but bungling old rancher. Dale Evans tops the feminine cast and introduces two new songs destined to become hits. Then there's music by the Sons of the Pioneers. Grant Withers turns in an excellent characterization as the heavy, and Peggy Stewart, Beverly Loyd and Jill Browning add to the eye-appeal of the film.

'Frisco Sal' Plays Ellis Next Week

"Frisco Sal" is coming to town and if ever there was a girl—or movie—worth making a date to see it's "Frisco Sal," playing Thursday and Friday of next week at the Ellis. Susanna Foster as Sal, and Turhan Bey and Alan Curtis have the leading roles.

Its fast-moving, interesting story is told against the colorful background of the Barbary Coast in the gusty, lusty Nineties. Susanna, as Sal, a New England choir singer, arrives in San Francisco to trace her brother, who is believed murdered. She maneuvers herself into a singing job in Turhan Bey's music hall, suspecting him of some connection with her brother's disappearance.

Bey, who is having trouble with a gang of hoodlums led by Alan Curtis, at first wishes she would go back to New England. But gradually he and Susanna become attracted to each other. Their romance is short-lived, however, when Susanna is told by one of Curtis's men, that Bey murdered her brother.

It is only after she walks out on Bey that Susanna gets a clearer perspective on the track that leads her, not to her brother's murderer, but to her brother himself.

"National Velvet," in Technicolor, Chockful of Thrilling Scenes

With the big race only hours away and no rider found for their horse, Mickey Rooney and Elizabeth Taylor take a desperate gamble by cutting the girl's hair and hoping that they will escape detection, in a scene from the Technicolor production, "National Velvet," playing next Sunday and Monday at the Ellis.

Climaxed by the most thrilling horse racing sequences ever caught by Hollywood cameras, MGM's "National Velvet" provides exciting and fascinating entertainment from beginning to end.

The story, based on Enid Bagnold's best-seller novel about a girl who rides to victory in the celebrated Grand National at Aintree, England, emerges as a heart-warming, moving document which will be enjoyed by the entire family.

Mickey Rooney, who stars in the film, plays Mi Taylor, an ex-jockey who wanders the countryside until he finds a home with the Browns, as delightfully human a family as you will find anywhere. The adventures of Mickey and Elizabeth Taylor, as a 12-year-old whose passion is horses, make for most absorbing film fare.

Mrs. Jake Kelley is in Denver with her husband, who is in Fitzsimmons hospital there, after being wounded in action in Germany. Sgt. Kelley hopes to be able to return to Perryton with Mrs. Kelley soon.

Funeral Services For Ford Hamker Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Ford Hamker, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamker, were held Wednesday morning, April 23, from the Baptist Church at Canadian. Burial was Wednesday afternoon in the Llano cemetery, Amarillo, with the Booker Blue Lodge officiating.

Roy Ford Hamker was born June 30, 1913 in Lipscomb County, Texas. He departed this life at his home in Canadian, Sunday, April 29, 1945. He attended high school at Perryton and received his diploma in 1931, after which he served in the U. S. Marine Corps. He was married to Jo Vineyard of Amarillo in 1939.

He was converted in 1934 and at the time of his passing was a member of the First Baptist Church of Canadian. He was also active in Masonic work and held membership in the Blue Lodge at Booker, the Royal Arch at Perryton, the Commanderate at Canadian and the Shiva Shrine at Amarillo.

He is survived by his wife and daughter, Kay Nell; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamker; a brother, Wallace; and sister, Mrs. Aileen Mitchell, all of Booker.

Lt. and Mrs. George Parker Jr. and baby girl were in Perryton Saturday and Sunday, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Parker. Mr. and Mrs. Parker took them to Amarillo Sunday, from where they entrained for Georgia. Lt. Parker expects to be in Georgia about a month, and then to sail for overseas duty. The baby returned to Perryton with her grandparents and will stay with them while her mother is in Georgia.

Distinguished Service Cross To Lt. Burke

Mrs. Robert C. Burke has received the citation for the Distinguished Service Cross which was awarded her husband, First Lieutenant Robert C. Burke. Mrs. Burke is the former Miss Joy Nowlin; she is making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Nowlin of the Huntoon community.

The citation reads as follows:

"First Lieutenant Robert C. Burke, 0-1180187, Field Artillery, while serving with the Army of the United States, distinguished himself by extraordinary heroism in connection with military operations against the enemy. On 4 October 1944, in Germany, Lieutenant Burke was serving as forward observer for the 118th Field Artillery Battalion which was supporting the 117th Infantry Regiment in an assault upon the Siegfried Line.

"The enemy launched a determined counter-attack throughout an active front, which threatened to overrun positions. After he had delivered effective artillery fire upon the enemy in his sector, Lieutenant Burke learned that the forward observer at another post had become a casualty and the enemy was succeeding in counter-attacking the sector which had no effective artillery support.

"Voluntarily and in the face of seemingly certain death, he left his position and moved over a route which was being subjected to extremely heavy enemy fire including direct fire from a German tank. Arriving at the observation post at which his fellow observer had been wounded, he discovered that it was now occupied by the enemy. Moving on to the vicinity of the first company he had supported, he selected an observation post on the third floor of a building from which he directed effective artillery fire which turned the hostile attack into a decisive defeat.

"An estimated regiment of the foe was defeated in its attack on a single infantry company. The courageous action and indomitable fighting spirit displayed by Lieutenant Burke reflect great credit upon himself and are in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service."

Lt. Burke, the son of Mrs. Margaret R. Oyster of Alliance, Ohio, wears the Silver Star, a Battalion Citation, the Purple Heart with two clusters, three theater ribbons and the American Defense Ribbon with six campaign stars. He entered the service in May, 1941, and at present is on limited duty in Paris, France.

Sugar Ration Is Slashed

WASHINGTON — A 25 per cent cut in sugar rations was announced recently by the Office of War Information, which declared United States sugar reserves to be at "rock bottom."

The new sugar stamp, No. 36, good for five pounds and valid May 1, must last four months instead of three, OWI announced in behalf of OPA and the War Food Administration.

Home canning allotments also were slashed. Only 70 per cent as much sugar will be available for rationing as in 1944, and the maximum 1945 canning allotment will drop to 15 pounds, compared with 20 pounds last year. No family, however large, may receive more than 120 pounds of canning sugar, as against the 1944 limit of 160 pounds.

Restaurants, hotels, schools and other industrial users were cut considerably, and such industrial users as bakers and canners may expect a reduction on July 1 when their next allotment is due.

Danny Ellis, who broke his leg while playing baseball at TCU April 19, returned home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ellis Monday morning. His leg is in a cast, but he is able to get around on crutches. He does not plan to return to school this semester.

The bulk of the battle of Okinawa is being fought by the army—my old friends, the doughfoots. This time the marines had it easy, and by the turn of circumstance the army is the one that has the job to do.

But my self-assignment on the Okinawa blitz was to write about the marines and that's what I continue to do. I landed with the marines, crossed the island with them, and have been living with them amidst fleas, mosquitoes, goats and a few Japs, hiding under bushes. So naturally I want to tell you about them.

Marine corps blitzes out here have all been so bitter and the marines have performed so magnificently that I had conjured up a mental picture of a marine that bore a close resemblance to a man from Mars. I was almost afraid of them myself.

Finds Marines Human, After All

I did find the marines confident, but neither cocky nor smart-alecky. I found they have fears, and qualms, and hatred for war the same as anybody else. They want to go home just as badly as any soldiers I've ever met. I found them good, human Americans.

They are proud to be marines. They wouldn't be in any other branch of the service. Yet they are not arrogant about it. And I found they have a healthy respect for the infantry.

One day we were sitting on a hillside talking about the infantry. One marine spoke of a certain army division—a division they had fought beside—and was singing its praises.

"It's as good as any marine division," he said.

"What was that you said?" a listener cut in.

The marine repeated it and emphasized it a little. Another marine stood up and called out, loudly:

"Did you hear what he said? This guy says there's an army division as good as any marine division. He must be crazy. Haw, haw, haw!"

And yet other boys chimed in, arguing very soberly, and sided with the one who had praised the army division.

Before I came into the field, several marine officers asked me to try to sense just what the marine spirit is, just what causes it, and keeps it alive.

In peacetime when the marine corps was a small outfit, with its campaigns highlighted, and everybody was a volunteer, you could understand why marines felt so superior.

But since the war the marine corps has grown into hundreds of thousands of men. It has been diluted, so to speak. Today it is an outfit of ordinary people—some big, some little, some even draftees. It has changed, in fact, until marines look exactly like a company of soldiers in Europe.

Yet that marine corps spirit still remains. I never did find out what perpetuates it. They're not necessarily better trained. They're no better equipped and often not as well supplied as other troops. But a marine still considers himself a better soldier than anybody else, even though nine-tenths of them don't want to be soldiers at all.

The marines are very cognizant of the terrible casualties they've taken in this Pacific war. They're even proud of that too, in a way. Any argument among marine units is settled by which has had the greatest casualties.

Many of them even envisioned the end of the marine corps at Okinawa. If the marine divisions had been beaten up here as they were on Iwo Jima, the boys felt it would have been difficult to find enough men of marine corps caliber to reconstitute all the divisions.

They even had a sadly sardonic song about their approach to Okinawa, the theme of which was, "Good-by, Marines!"

HEDGING AGAINST INFLATION

ROGER W. BABSON

Babson Discusses Twenty Big Industries

BABSON PARK, Mass. — On a recent vacation in Florida, I had time to study America's greatest industries with special thought as to their safety for postwar investments.

The Big Five

(1) The industry, best able to meet inflation, should be Retail Trade. Those concerns having a book value approximately equal to the selling price of their stocks are to be preferred. The variety chains should be safest of all.

(2) The Oil Group should come next in order. With these should be included certain metal shares although I do not like the coppers. Probably the greatest gamble, for good or ill, are the gold stocks.

(3) The Chemical Industry should emerge from the war a leading postwar industry when the pharmaceutical group is included. Many new miracles are still in the laboratory stage.

(4) The Electrical Equipment Industry, including electronics and plastics, offers attractive fields, especially for returning servicemen.

(5) Aviation should be included with the "Big Five," although its future is somewhat uncertain. I like best the transport companies; but their stocks now seem high compared with those of the airplane manufacturers.

An Investment Group

(6) The Paper and Container Industry should have better days ahead. This especially applies to some of the companies which have diversified in cans, plastics, glass and fibres, as well as paper.

(7) The Rubber Companies should make more money after the war. Current quotations, however, suggest that this group is only fairly priced, rather than attractively priced at the moment.

(8) The Textile Industry should remain a sound investment for some years after the war. It also has a good ratio as to book values. No spectacular rise, however, can be expected in textile securities.

(9) I am not an authority on the Tobacco Industry. My friends, however, insist that the tobacco stocks —other than cigar stocks—are reasonably priced and should be included in a diversified portfolio.

(10) Certainly the Building and Furniture Industry should be mentioned at this point as having a good postwar future. This includes the cement, paint and certain steel companies.

Uncertain Industries

(11) This group includes the Heavy Steels which are in the "feast or famine" category; I am not now forecasting their postwar outlook.

(12) As a rule I like the Food Stocks — baking, canning, dairy products, meat packing, quick freezing, beverages, shortenings, etc. They, however, are now too mixed up with government regulations. However, I rate the Dairy Products first, and the Canned Fruits last.

(13) The postwar outlook for the Automobile and Truck Industry looks good to me now. I class it in this uncertain group because my associates believe prices of some automobile stocks are too high.

(14) Banking and Insurance stocks should be held to a limited amount by all investors who want gradual growth rather than yield.

(15) Equipment, for other than war purposes, should be in demand after the war. This applies to Agricultural Machinery and perhaps to Railroad Equipment. The immediate postwar future of Office Equipment depends upon what the Allied governments do with their surpluses.

Industries To Avoid

(16) The Machine Tool Industry has had and passed its honeymoon.

(17) Certain Public Utility stocks, being, or to be, liquidated, have profit possibilities, but the bloom is off of the rest of the group.

(18) Profits of the Coal Industry should severely decline after the war. This especialy applies to the antiracite companies.

(19) It seems as if the receipts of the Motion Picture Industry would fall off after the war if television becomes universal.

(20) The worst of all industries is likely to be the Railroad Industry, including perhaps hotels, etc. Beware of the rails!

Earns His Wings

Billy Louis Mays, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mays, 303 S. E. 2nd St., Perryton, has received his silver pilot wings and a commission as flight officer. He graduated from the Marfa Army Air Forces Pilot School, an advanced two-engine pilot school of the AAF Training Command. After his graduation, April 16, he spent two weeks in Perryton with his parents. Coming to Perryton when a small boy, Flight Officer Mays attended the schools here, graduating from high school in 1941. He is also a former student of West Texas State College, Canyon. He has two brothers, Lt. Forrest D. Mays, a flight instructor, and Olaf Mays.

Former Resident Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Emmett Hethcock, age 33 died suddenly Monday, April 30, in San Bruno, Calif., according to word received here by Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hethcock. She was the former Miss Lorene Thrush. She lived in Perryton for several years, and attended the Perryton schools.

According to the message, she had a stroke Monday and only lived four hours. M. F. Hethcock and his daughter, Mrs. Cliff Osborn of Pampa, left by plane from Amarillo, Tuesday.

Survivors are: the husband, Emmett Hethcock, one daughter, Patsy; two brothers, Roy Thrush, with TWA, and Harold Thrush of California; and her mother, who resides in California.

No details were available.

Mrs. Frank Spencer had as her guests over the weekend Mrs. Liel Lewellen Borger; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thidle, Fritch, and Miss Pauline Spencer and Miss Aldah Hevron, Amarillo.

Miss Mary Kathryn Stephens of Quail, Texas, and Miss Nelda Stennitt of Childress, Texas, school mates of Miss Betty Pugh at Canyon, accompanied her home for the weekend.

While representatives of almost 50 United Nations are meeting in San Francisco, the real peace is being made by the men fighting abroad. Spear-headed by the 'Texas Army'—the famed 36th Division, American troops are fast convincing the Nazis of the virtues of peace and the penalties of war. And on the other side of the world, where tens of thousands of Texans are fighting the Japs, our "peace" program also is being enforced to the tune of roaring guns.

And wherever there is fighting, Texans continue to be in the midst of it.

The Nazis learned something of Texas ingenuity recently when a group of 32 German soldiers, heavily armed, captured Cpl. Worth Modesett of Thrall and two companions. Taken to a Nazi prison camp deep in Germany, the Texas trio dug out their German dictionaries and quickly learned a few phrases of the enemy tongue. Then they convinced their captors of the futility of continuing the fight against onrushing Allied troops—and ended up by capturing the town and 16 German soldiers, without firing a shot!

Even in the WAC, Texans lead. In one WAC platoon stationed at advanced Allied force headquarters in Italy, more than half the unit's strength is made up of girls from the Lone Star state.

Among Texans in the group are Cpl. Ivah Knight of Lubbock, Sgt. Eva Brown of Apple Springs, Sgt. Marion M. Kee of Austin and Fort Worth, Cpl. Edith Legg of [illegible] and Cpl. Ethel Kilgwin of Galveston. The girls are doing a full share of winning the war, handling telephone switch-boards, radio communications and general office work.

Deep in the heart of Germany, two fighting men from Llano, staged a reunion last week. They were Granville Smith and Amos Underwood, Texas cousins.

In a letter to relatives, in which he told of the meeting, Underwood also told of the destruction heaped upon German cities by Allied airmen.

"I have seen Cologne," he wrote "and I have never seen such total destruction in all my eight months of battle through France, Belgium, Luxembourg and Holland."

And back home in Texas, one of the airmen who helped pound Germany into submission this week told one of the most remarkable stories of the war—the story of his escape from behind enemy lines after being shot down over Austria. The flyer, S/Sgt. Joe Prikryl of Taylor, walked and crawled for 48 days through enemy territory, after being injured when he parachuted from his flak-riddled plane. He is at home now for a rest, but soon will be back in the fight.

And on the home front, Texans are now organizing war chest units in all counties, in preparation for the annual drive "for our own and our allies" which will start on October 1. Field representatives of the state war chest are enrolling county chairmen, special gifts chairmen, treasurers and publicity chairmen, to direct the campaign in each county. If you are called on, accept! It is your chance to help win the war and serve our fighting men!

• Black Club

"Your felt hats can be cleaned and made to look like new," stated Mrs. Virdie P. Wheeler as she demonstrated cleaning a hat for the Black Club in the home of Mrs. Deck, April 20. "Do not dry [illegible] the house," observed Mrs. [illegible]

She also demonstrated restoring veils by placing them between two sheets of wax paper and pressing.

Home furnishing was ably discussed by Mrs. Schubert, Mrs. Bagly and Mrs. Pope. Mrs. Wheeler displayed samples of material of curtains and wool rugs. The hostess served refreshments to the following members and visitors: Mesdames C. F. Moses, L. A. Takenhorst, C. U. Pope, E. D. Clement, W. A. Schubert, Bagly, Sid Beck Jr., Wheeler and Mrs. S. J. Powell and Mrs. O. J. Crane, guests.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Andy Simmons, May 18.

When's the next time you'll be broke?

Hard to say, isn't it? In fact, you haven't given it much thought. Things are going mighty well now. Crops have been good, prices are way up . . . looks like it might last forever.

But it won't! One of these days the picture is going to change. Soaring real estate prices will go down. Wages will go down. Farm income will go down. Then will those War Bonds you've salted away look mighty good. They'll be a nice soft cushion to fall back on if and when things don't go right. It's mighty smart business to invest heavily in War Bonds.

THE 7th WAR LOAN starts May 14. America is taking on its biggest quota to date—7 billion dollars, 4 billion in E Bonds alone. By putting every dollar over rock-bottom expenses into the purchase of War Bonds, you are delivering a body blow to wartime Inflation—thus putting a lid on the cost of living and maintaining intact the purchasing power of the dollar. At the same time, too, you are insuring the country and yourself against the catastrophe of a possible postwar inflation—with its depression, unemployment, misery and heartache.
