Home Ends US Talks; Leaves For England

Differences Still Exist

WASHINGTON (AP) — Britain's Prime Minister Douglas-Home left for home today with the expressed hope that the accomplishments of his visit with President Johnson will benefit "a great many other countries also."

Douglas-Home spoke at a brief farewell ceremony marking the wind-up of his two days of conferences with Johnson on issues around the world.

The main purpose of the Anglo-American summit, spokesmen stressed, was for Johnson and Douglas-Home to get to know each other before each is caught up in the whirl of election campaigns.

In this respect the get-together was a complete success, said a high American official, who commented: "The farmer from Scotland and the farmer from Texas understood each other perfectly."

Although Thursday's joint communique at the conclusion of the two-day meeting mentioned only points on which Johnson and Douglas-Home agreed, both sides conceded that there were issues on which—as the British leader put it at a later news conference — "differences in emphasis" exist.

They were trade with Cuba, and trade with and credits to Communist countries. Britain views trade as its lifeblood and, as Douglas-Home put it, does not believe in boycotts.

The two government leaders and their foreign policy chiefs, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler, devoted most of their time to the crisis in Cyprus.

Relatively little time was devoted to other issues, informants said. Where opinions differed, the positions were stated forcefully and it was quickly recognized that no persuasion would close the gap.

Briefly, these were the issues:

1. On Southeast Asia, the British pledged complete support for U.S. policies in Viet Nam, and the United States reaffirmed its support for Malaysia.

2. Both sides asked for stepped-up efforts to formulate new proposals aimed at breaking the deadlock in East-West talks on Germany and Berlin.

3. It was agreed that further relaxation of East-West tension depends largely on the outcome of the Geneva disarmament conference and action on Western proposals for a nuclear freeze and the stationing of control posts on both sides of the Iron Curtain to detect preparations for a surprise attack.

4. Though the interests of the two countries are not exactly identical, both sides pledged to work toward the success of the forthcoming tariff cutting negotiations in Geneva.

5. The British are not quite convinced about the military effectiveness of the U.S.-proposed multilateral nuclear force.

6. On trade with Communist countries in general and with Cuba in particular, the British maintained their traditional attitude which Douglas - Home summed up this way: "We have to trade if we want to live. We do not believe in boycotts." Britain will not sell arms or other strategic materials to the Communists, the prime minister promised.

Johnson disagreed but U.S. officials conceded that the United States can do nothing but watch closely what the practical consequences of Britain's more liberal trade policies toward the Communists will be.

7. The same applies to long-term credits to the Communists. DouglasHome made it clear his country does not believe in trade discrimination and would grant such credits to the Communists in the same way it does to other countries. Thus far, however, no long-term credit has been granted.

Clinton Is Appointed Superintendent Here

Dr. Robert Clinton was named Superintendent of Snyder Schools last night.

The board of trustees voted unanimously to appoint Clinton to the post at a special session in the school administration building.

The new superintendent was extended a three - year contract, beginning next July 1, at a salary of $15,500 per year.

Dr. Clinton will succeed T. E. McCollum, who has been superintendent of schools here since 1958. McCollum had requested in January that the board not consider extending his contract, which expires on June 30.

Dr. Clinton has been associated with Snyder Public Schools since 1953, including a one-year leave of absence in 1960-61 when he completed requirements for his doctor's degree at Texas Tech.

From 1953 to 1960 he was director of choral music at Snyder High School. After receiving the doctor of education degree at Texas Tech in 1961, he returned here as high school principal, the post he will continue to hold until his contract as superintendent begins in July.

DR. ROBERT CLINTON

Dr. Clinton came to Snyder from Cisco where he had been director of music for Cisco Junior College and prior to that had taught in Cisco High School and Eastland High School.

He received his bachelor's degree and master's degree from North Texas State University. He also has studied at the University of Illinois, the University of Colorado and the University of Texas.

He is a former president of the Snyder Rotary Club, former director of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce and was named the city's Outstanding Young Man by Snyder Jaycees in 1955. He also has been active in several professional organizations, including membership of the Fine Arts Commission of Texas Curriculum Studies.

Erhard, DeGaulle Begin Conferences

PARIS (AP)—West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard arrived today for two days of talks with President Charles de Gaulle on their differences about the Atlantic Alliance, China policies, and European union.

Their program provided for three private talks today and Saturday. In addition there will be two or more full sessions to be attended by Premier Georges Pompidou, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder and their top aides.

The visit is one of the semi-annual French-West German summit conferences provided for under the cooperation treaty of January 1963.

Missile Explodes, Burns Near Roswell

ROSWELL, N.M. (AP) — An Atlas ICBM missile exploded and burned Thursday in an underground launch silo about 32 miles east of Roswell.

An Air Force spokesman said all personnel were evacuated and there were no injuries. Three Air Force personnel were killed last year in a similar missile explosion and fire north of Roswell.

The 82½ - foot missile was about one-third of the way to the surface, in what appeared to be a practice alert, when the blast occur d.

The spokesman said it would take several months to determine why the $1.5-million missile exploded.

Cyprus Rejects New Peace Plan

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — President Makarios today rejected the British - American proposal to land an international peace force on embattled Cyprus and will take the matter to the United Nations immediately, authoritative diplomatic sources said.

Sporadic fighting persisted between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

There was no immediate official statement from Makarios or from U.S. Undersecretary of State George Ball, who ended three days of discussions in Nicosia.

Presidential palace sources said the Greek Cypriot leader insisted that any international force be under control of the U.N. Security Council.

The U.S.-British plan called for an Atlantic Alliance army of 10,000 men with about 2,000 U.S. soldiers to keep peace.

There was no reaction to the hint from high Washington sources that Makarios wants an international peace force of British Commonwealth nations excluding American soldiers. Cyprus has been a commonwealth member since independence from Britain in 1960.

Greece and Turkey have treaties to defend Cyprus from aggression and both keep small garrisons on Cyprus for that purpose.

Turkey is determined to protect the Turkish Cypriot minority, which charges Makarios wants to curb its rights by constitutional changes. These set off the fighting that began last Christmas and brought in more British troops as a truce force.

The cease-fire reached after savage fighting Thursday at Limassol on the south coast restored relative calm in this eastern Mediterranean island.

Sporadic shooting was reported, however, in the western coast city of Paphos this morning.

British truce officials said that before the guns were silenced in Limassol, at least 16 Turkish cypriots and one Greek Cypriot were killed. More than 35 Turks were wounded but the number of Greek wounded was not known, the British said.

Boy Crushed By Huge Concrete Slab

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A boy was crushed to death Thursday beneath a 500-pound slab of concrete. Inez Esparza, 9, and two playmates were bouncing on the slab, trying to dislodge it from a 10-foot-high embankment.

Negroes In School At Notasulga

NOTASULGA, Ala. (AP) — Six Negro pupils entered Notasulga High School today under the protective cover of a new federal court order and a strong force of state troopers.

No white spectators were seen across the street from the school, in contrast to the Feb. 5 situation when a sullen crowd gathered and the Negroes were turned back by Mayor James Rea.

A federal court order prohibits city officials from any further attempt to block the Negroes. About 40 state troopers kept the school grounds clear of all but pupils.

For the fifth day in a row, however, white pupils boycotted the school.

Rea stood across the street watching. A federal judge had told him Thursday that a fire safety ordinance used last week to bar the Negroes was a subterfuge to preserve segregation.

Rea agreed earlier this week to let the Negro pupils enroll on the grounds that it no longer was necessary to limit the number of pupils.

But the Negroes made no attempt to get back in school without a federal court order.

Kohler, Gromyko Talk On Red Defector

MOSCOW (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler was called to the Foreign Office today for a stern talk from Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko about the defection of Yuri Nossenko, informed sources said.

Nossenko, a Soviet expert at the Geneva disarmament conference, sought asylum in the United States. His decision was reported in certain Russian circles here to have caused the gravest concern about the effect it may have on the conference in Geneva.

One source said the Russians are surprised at American silence about the defection following the State Department announcement that he had sought asylum in the United States.

Injured Man Found After Three Days

AUBURN, Calif. (AP)—Floyd A. Edens, 53, who lay undiscovered for three days after his car plunged 1,000 feet down a near-vertical cliff, remained unconscious today in a hospital.

He was discovered by a rescue party Thursday morning at the bottom of a cliff in a remote area in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada.

His rescuers said a single groan led them to where he lay, 200 feet from where his car came to rest after hurtling off narrow Mosquito Ridge Road high above.

The Oakland man, they said, was on his way from a driver's test in Auburn to the tunnel site where he worked—in Hell Hole Canyon.

Capt. Richard Langer of the highway patrol said he believed this is what happened:

Edens, a worker on the Middle Fork American River water project, left Auburn sometime Monday. He was traveling the narrow road 40 miles east of the city when he lost control of his car.

As the car tumbled end over end. Edens was thrown out about 500 feet from the cliff's edge. Blood was found nearby and it appeared he was trying to crawl back up when he slipped and feil the rest of the way down the face.

R. Strayhorn, Dr. W. R. Johnson, F. G. Sears, Ernest Taylor, W. C. Shull, E. E. Mathews, W. M. Curry, W. R. Bell and J. O. Dodson.

The first organization lasted but a short time, but was reorganized in 1924. There was also a brief period during the depression years when the club was not active.

Directors Roessler and Evans were both elected to the International Board of Directors of the club at the annual convention in Nice, France in June of 1962.

Roessler is executive vice-president and general manager of the General Ship and Engine Works, president of the Boston Shipyards Association and president of the YMCA. Evans is a building contractor, and is a member of the National Association of Home Builders.

Both Mrs. Roessler and Mrs. Evans will be accompanying their husbands on their visit to Snyder.

The dinner tonight is scheduled for 7:30. However, a tour of some of the local points of interest, including a gasoline plant and Lake J. B. Thomas is planned this afternoon for the visiting dignitaries.

Bert Belcher, Lions Club District 2T-2 from Seagraves will bring Mr. and Mrs. Roessler to Snyder from Lubbock.

Judge's Decision Awaited On Ruby's Venue Change

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Attorneys for both the state and defense, awaiting a decision today on a change of venue motion, said they are prepared to start questioning prospective jurors Monday for the Jack Ruby murder trial.

Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown said he would rule at 3 p.m. (EST) on the defense's request to move the trial to another city in Texas. He could grant the motion, deny it, or could reserve a final decision until after efforts are made to empanel a jury here. The trial is scheduled to begin Monday if it is not transferred.

Melvin Belli, chief defense counsel, said Thursday he believed "the chances are pretty good" that Brown would direct the lawyers to try to get a jury here. But Belli predicted that a jury could not be picked and that he would then get a change of venue.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, who opposed trasnferring the case, said he is ready to start the trial of Ruby, who killed Lee Harvey Oswald in the city jail Nov. 24 before a nationwide television audience.

Oswald, 24, a professed Marxist, had been charged with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy two days earlier.

During the more than three days of testimony — enlivened by heated arguments in the legal maneuvering—Belli sought to prove his contention that "there is a blueprint in Dallas to deprive our client of a fair trial."

The defense insisted that "the Dallas oligarchy" composed of civic organizations and leaders had so emphasized, "the shame brought on the Dallas image" that a juror "would be obligated to convict Jack Ruby of murder with malice to prove that Dallas is a place of law and order."

Belli and his staff sought to link articles published by Dallas newspapers, and the role of a Dallas public relations firm in making court arrangements for the press, with "the blueprint that was laid out when the district attorney said he would demand the death penalty for Ruby."

Most of the 48 witnesses called by the defense said they did not think an impartial jury could be obtained in Dallas, because residents were so saturated with news about Ruby they could not lay aside their opinions.

The witnesses included several civic, government and religious leaders, a number of attorneys and some persons who were personal friends of Ruby.

Some of the witnesses called by the defense said Ruby could obtain a fair trial here, and attorneys for the state drew agreement from other defense witnesses that efforts should first be made to empanel a jury here.

Hoffa Trial Nearing End

By GAVIN SCOTT

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The government completed its case against James R. Hoffa today on the last day of the fourth week of his jury-tampering trial.

Special prosecutor John J. Hooker of Nashville rested the government case at 10:14 a.m. after presenting Albert J. Gasdor, a court reporter from Washington, D.C., as his final witness.

Gasdor was the reporter at Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy trial in Nashville, and simply certified a statement by the judge that a juror was excused at the start of the 1962 trial because he reported a $10,000 bribe offer.

The Nashville judge declined witness against Hoffa at this trial.

U.S. Dist. Judge William E. Miller of Nashville was quoted by a source close to him as terming such an appearance "an act of judicial impropriety."

The government, which asked Judge Miller to tell of his dismissing a juror at the start of the earlier trial, planned to end its three-week old case against Hoffa today—his 51st birthday.

The charges on which Hoffa and five others are being tried here spring from the 1962 trial—which ended in a hung jury.

During that trial Judge Miller told attorneys that juror James C. Tippens had reported the offer of a $10,000 bribe.

Tippens, a Nashville insuranceman, testified Thursday over bitter defense protests that what he said was the "rankest hearsay."

Tippens told of being seated tentatively on the jury, of a conversation with Lawrence W. Medlin and then of his meeting with Judge Miller.

Tippens was not permitted to tell the jury details of his conversation with Medlin—a Nashville sandwich maker indicted at the same time as Hoffa.

In a statement released by the court at the conclusion of the 1962 trial, Tippens said Medlin offered him $10,000 in $100 bills if he would vote for Hoffa's acquittal.

Compromise Tax Cut Bill Due Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — House and Senate conferees expect to hammer out a tax reduction compromise in about three days next week—which would mean millions of Americans could begin drawing bigger pay envelopes before mid-March.

One day of preliminary discussions this week apparently demonstrated willingness on both sides to resolve amicably the more than 200 changes the Senate made in the House bill. All but a handful of these are technical or minor.

The conferees get back to discussions and probably start voting Monday. One of them predicted agreement by Wednesday—possibly even by Tuesday—on a bill to reduce personal and corporate income taxes by about $11.5 billion. This would be bigger than the House cut and smaller than the Senate version.

Last week the Senate approved a cut of $11.6 billion. The House had approved a cut of $11.1 billion last Sept. 25.

The rest of the week would be needed to write a conference report and the House would be expected to act—with approval virtually assured—about Feb. 24. Senate leaders have spoken of taking the measure up the day the House finishes work on it. Under such a schedule, the bill could go to President Johnson for his prompt signature before the end of February.

Withholding rate cuts—the equivalent of a small pay raise for wage-earning and salaried Americans—would begin a week later if, as expected, the conferees retain the Senate wording on this point.

Two big issues are in controversy between the two chambers. The House voted more lenient tax treatment of certain long-term capital gains than present law provides. The Senate deleted this provision.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow with two grown children. For almost two years I went with a widower. We got along very well and seemed made for each other. He asked me to marry him and I said yes. Then all of a sudden, just before the holidays, he said he needed more time to think things over. He said he wanted the approval of his two older sisters, and he also wanted to talk it over with his deceased wife at her graveside in another town. I haven't heard from him since. Aside from the hurt and humiliation I have suffered, I can't help wondering what happened at his wife's grave. Or do you think he was just trying to find an escape because he changed his mind about marrying me? Can you offer an explanation to ease my torment?

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: His sisters probably turned thumbs down. What the graveside consultation turned up only the mystic widower knows. Who knows — perhaps you are the lucky one.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I sizzled when I read that letter from "GOOD NEIGHBOR" who found two little tots playing inside an old refrigerator he had stored in his garage. He said he scolded them and explained how dangerous it was, and then he gave them each a good swat on the behind so they'd remember it. Then he got a call from their mother telling him it was against the law to lay hands on someone else's child, and he'd be hearing from her lawyer! If I had been that mother I would have baked that man a beautiful apple pie and presented it to him with my own thanks. And then I'd have paddled my kids soundly for going onto other people's property.

ANOTHER MOTHER

• • •

DEAR ABBY: How stupid can one be? When that "Good Neighbor" found the two little neighbor children playing in the old ice box he had stored in his garage, he should have been told that if he had turned the ice box with the door up against the wall he wouldn't have to worry about anybody crawling into it and suffocating to death.

SAN DIEGO DOCTOR

• • •

DEAR ABBY: We have our old refrigerator out in the garage, but it will never be a death trap for little children, or pets who chance to wander into the garage, and find it a cozy place to curl up. You see, we have taken the door off!

British Plan More Trade With Castro

LONDON (AP)—Plans to sell British road building equipment to Cuba and to extend a huge credit to the Soviet Union for massive purchases of factories were reported today.

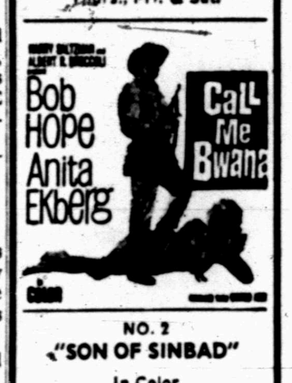

The disclosures came as Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home headed home from Washington after making clear to President Johnson that Britain intends to continue trade with Cuba and the Communist bloc. He says Britain must trade to survive.

Three Cuban government officials arrived to negotiate for the purchase of road rollers and earth-moving equipment, said to value $1.4 million.

At the same time a group of London banks was reported preparing a credit to finance a deal with the Soviet Union for up to $448 million worth of British fertilizer and other strategic chemical plants.

Colin Ryan, managing director of the Aveling Bargord plant at Granham, said his firm is negotiating to sell road rollers and earth-moving equipment to Cuba. He did not give the value of the transaction but said the amount is substantial.

Sinatra Swears Kidnaping Was Real And Frightening

By JAMES BACON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A trio of defense lawyers, bent upon proving a publicity hoax, try today to shake the story of Frank Sinatra Jr. that his kidnaping was real and frightening.

Young Sinatra has only a few minutes of direct testimony left today as a government witness. Then his cross - examination starts.

Sinatra, 19 at the time of the kidnaping but since turned 20, testified in U.S. District Court Thursday that he was kidnaped from Lake Tahoe last Dec. 8 "with a gun in my ribs."

He told how he was blindfolded, given sleeping pills and held captive for 54 hours until his father paid $240,000 ransom.

Prime target of the cross - examination undoubtedly will be Sinatra's own story of how he cooperated with his alleged abductors to elude a police roadblock. The defense has charged that Sinatra cooperated in the deed so that the publicity would make the girls swoon over him as they did over his papa."

Sinatra, under oath, denied any such motive.

"My state of mind was fear—and the question: Why was all of this happening to me?" Sinatra said.

He testified he cooperated in the roadblock evasion because of two remarks made by the two men in the car.

He said they said: "If there is any trouble, there's going to be shooting."

And "Jeez, this gun is uncomfortable in my belt."

The frail witness, sometimes extremely poised, occasionally nervous, told the court that his ordeal began when a tall young man entered his room at Harrah's Lodge with a wine carton, ostensibly a gift.

"Then he removed a black leather glove from his right hand and produced a small caliber revolver.

"At first, I just stared blankly at the weapon. I thought that it might have been a very bad joke."

The intruder was identified in court by Sinatra as defendant Barry Keenan, 23. The other defendants are Joseph Amsler, 23, and John Irwin, 42. Sinatra said he was blindfolded all but a few minutes during his captivity. He could not identify the other defendants.

Berliners Refuse Red Offer To Open Wall For Easter

BONN, Germany (AP)—The West German government and the West Berlin Senate turned down today the East German offer to reopen the Berlin wall for the Easter holidays.

A joint announcement by the government and the Senate said they were fully agreed on the refusal.

The East Berlin government said Thursday night it was willing to allow West Berliners to visit East Berlin during Easter on the same basis they had during the Christmas holidays.

The East Germans suggested renewal of the old agreement Thursday at the sixth meeting between Erich Wendt, East Germany's deputy cultural affairs minister, and Horst Korber, a West Berlin city official. They negotiated the previous agreement.

The holiday agreement gave West Berliners their first chance to visit relatives in East Berlin since the Communists erected the wall in August 1961. Thousands of West Berliners waited for hours in bitter cold and snow to apply for one-day crossing permits.

West Berlin newspapers bitterly assailed the East Germans for insisting on such an ordeal of red tape. Since then, Western officials have demanded a new method of handling crossing applications.

To meet these objections, the East Germans proposed opening temporary permit offices in West Berlin schools as early as Feb. 25 for an Easter crossing period from March 21 to March 30. Easter Sunday is on March 29.

The East Germans gave no indication how long they would keep the wall open for the Whitsun holiday. Whitsunday falls on May 17.

Injecting two new elements, East Germans indicated they favored special rapid processing for family emergencies and suggested easier requirements for the reunion of separated husbands and wives.

CHOCOLATE CHIFFON PIE has a crumb crust and a rich filling that tastes like chocolate mousse.

Chiffon Pie, Rich, Thrifty

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

DOES YOUR family favor chocolate? Then you may be interested in this new recipe for chocolate chiffon pie that is rich tasting but economical because it uses evaporated milk rather than whipped cream. When we tried the recipe, we found the filling set so rapidly that we were able to serve the dessert shortly after it was made.

NEW CHOCOLATE CHIFFON PIE

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1-3 cup cold water
½ cup sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 tall can (15 ounces) evaporated milk
1 package (6 ounces or 1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
9-inch Crumb Crust

In a 2½ - quart saucepan, sprinkle the gelatin over the cold water. Mix in well the sugar, salt, 2-3 cup of the undiluted evaporated milk and the chocolate. Stir constantly over low heat until gelatin dissolves and chocolate melts — 5 or 6 minutes. Remove from heat; beat with a rotary beater until chocolate is blended. Stir in vanilla. Refrigerate, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds when dropped from a spoon — about 15 minutes.

Meanwhile pour remaining undiluted evaporated milk into ice-cube tray and place in freezer until ice cyrstals form around edge — 12 to 15 minutes. Turn into a small mixing bowl; beat until stiff. Add cream of tartar; beat until very stiff. Fold whipped evaporated milk into chilled chocolate mixture and turn into prepared pie crust; fill as full as you can and refrigerate pie about 5 imnutes or until top is set, then spread with any remaining filling (left at room temperature.) Chill until firm. Top with whipped cream if desired.

Note: For the crumb crust, use a standard recipe made with graham crackers, corn flakes or nuts.

POLITICS IS NO LONGER OLD HAT!

Dollar Sign Main Block To US, British Compatibility

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analayst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two allies stumbled over the dollar sign when President Johnson and British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home met two days and then issued a rather uncommunicative communique.

It was at a news conference afterwards that Douglas-Home revealed he and Johnson had failed to agree on trading with Communists or, rather, not trading. The communique didn't mention that.

The point he made—business is business—illustrates as well as anything, probably better than yards of speeches and a dozen games of diplomatic shuffleboard, the changing temperature of the cold war.

The Briton, explaining that his country opposes a ban on business deals with a Communist country just because it is Communist, said he declines to stop British trade with Fidel Castro's Cuba.

This country, wishing it could tie Castro in an economic sack away from everybody, has been irritated because Britain, and France, too, are selling Castro buses, trucks and tractors.

Since they will help him survive, the United States looks on this as a form of aid. But this country is in a bit of a contradictory position on this.

It wants to shut off aid to Castro, who is right in America's backyard, but it is willing to sell $250 million worth of U.S. wheat to the Soviet Union which has had a real shortage of it. President John F. Kennedy authorized this last year.

He took the position that the Russians could get the wheat anyway because other countries, including allies, could buy it here and sell it to the Soviet Union.

"Our allies," he said, "have long been engaged in extensive sale of wheat and other farm products to the Communist bloc."

Douglas-Home stated the British position this way. His crowded country needs to trade to live. It doesn't discriminate against Communist countries in selling them peaceful goods but it won't sell them materials for war.

He added something he had said before. The more comfortable a Communist is, the less fanatical he is likely to be.

So, whether the United States likes it or not, its allies, and no one of them more than France, will not only sell to Communist countries but try to step up their business, as France is doing.

Since nothing short of an American invasion seems likely at this time to put an end to Castro, who is selling Cuban sugar like mad to friends of the United States, he figures to be around quite a while.

Nobody in a responsible position in this country is talking of invading him. So the British, French and others are operating in the belief he will be in business and able to pay his bills.

This scramble for trade with Communist countries, with goods which build their economy and help them flourish, indicates an increasing lack of fear in the West about Communist aggression and world war.

This mood has been building up since Soviet Premier Khrushchev backed down in the Cuban missile crisis in 1962. The more the allies do business with the Communists, the more it seems likely this country will want its share.

Where this leads is unpredictable. But it appears safe to say that after almost 20 years of it the cold war's era of intense and dogged hostility between the West and communism is ending, except for this country's relations with Cuba and Red China.

As for the communique issued by Johnson and Douglas-Home, it was a collection of the obvious, with surprises for none.

Valentines Are Always For Others

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Two valentines came to me this year. Both were from strangers.

One counseled, "Stay as sweet as you are."

The other said, "Here's a little heart today, especially for you—'cause you're a purr-fect valentine, and I sure like you, too!"

My wife, Frances, delivered these tender missives as I was going through my morning exercises with my new heavyweight barbell — the 12½-pounder.

"Once a lover always a lover," I crowed to her, after putting on my bifocals.

"Lover, I hate to break your boyish heart, but these valentines aren't for you. They're addressed in care of you-for our cat, Lady Dottie."

Passed over on St. Valentine's Day in favor of a cat!

Cupid never pierces me with a loving arrow. He kicks me square in the solar plexus.

In kindergarten, we drew lots to determine who should send a valentine to whom. Our teacher thought this would be a good lesson in democracy.

The little red-haired girl who drew my name turned blue at what destiny had done to her. She stayed home on Valentine's Day.

This set a kind of pattern of disaster that haunted me all through grammar school, high school and college. Love has many battlefields in life, but none is crueler to the growing spirit than that fought over in the years of puppy love.

In third grade I thought my luck had changed. A freckle-faced Cleopatra handed me a valentine, and my heart soared until I read its message.

"Roses are red, violets are blue, why do you have two heads when one will do?"

In fifth grade another ruinous beauty waylaid me in the cloakroom and pressed a valentine into my perspiring palm.

"Oh, thank you, thank you, Esmerelda," I whispered.

"Ith not for you, thilly," she lisped. "Ith for roger. Tell him ith from me."

I kicked one of her skinny little shinbones and left her howling.

At 13, when I was riding a drug store delivery bike, I bought a $2 box of face powder as a valentine present for a favorite customer — a sweet-voiced married lady of about 30 years.

That evening she phoned the store to order a pint of ice cream for her and her husband, and when I delivered it she handed me an envelope. Under the nearest lamplight I tore it open eagerly and found inside—nothing but a dollar bill. Paid off by an older woman! The world has never seemed quite as dark since as it did that night.

But every cloud has at least a pewter lining. Later in life for 20 straight years I did get a valentine regularly from one person — my life insurance agent.

This year he didn't send me a valentine. The policy was paid up last year.

-Junior Editors Quiz on- THE ZODIAC

QUESTION: Is the zodiac a real thing or something astrologers dream up?

• • •

ANSWER: The zodiac is a zone of the heavens within which the moon and planets appear to travel. This zone extends for a fixed distance on either side of the "ecliptic", an imaginary path in the same shape as the earth's path around the sun, only much bigger. In this zone, or belt, are 12 major constellations, the "zodiacal signs," most of which represent animals. The name zodiac comes from the Greek words "zodiakos kylos," meaning circle of animals.

Ancient astrologers divided the zodiac into 12 parts, naming each one for the constellation nearest it. The astrologers then tried to determine the fortunes of people by finding out where the sun, moon and planets stood when a person was born. For example, if the moon was travelling through the part of Pisces, the fishes, when someone was born, this would show something about that person's character and might suggest his future. Today, only people who believe in astrology, think that the signs of the zodiac influence a person's life.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Get a book from the library showing the different constellations or signs of the zodiac. See how they look like the animals they represent. Then try to locate some of these constellations in the sky.

(Leslie Stern of Pompton Plains, N. J. wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, and you may win a set too.) 2-14

DENNIS THE MENACE

FERDINAND

Tigers, Cubs Meet Tonight In Finale

About 2½ weeks ago the Snyder Tigers roped a last - ditch field goal to nip the Brownfield Cubs, 60-58, in the Brownfield Gym.

The Cubs, a front-runner for District 3-AAA basketball honors this season, promptly went on a 3-game losing streak that took them out of contention.

Tonight, the Brownfield quintet steams into Tiger Gym for their second game with the Tigers and the last of the season for both clubs.

It doesn't require much imagination to conjure up visions of a Brownfield team thirsty for an opportunity to avenge that earlier defeat on its home boards.

It was Phillip Floyd who poked the final field goal through the hoop at Brownfield with less than 20 seconds remaining in the game to shut off what appeared to be a certain overtime session.

The Tigers have an opportunity to finish at the top of the heap in District 3-AAA standings if they can beat the Cubs this evening. A Tiger victory tonight would give the local team and its fans a lot of satisfaction, although it would mean that the district would have to send a second-rate quintet into the playoffs. The Tigers were disqualified for play beyond the district confines by the Interscholastic League in a ruling on an awards violation at the outset of the season.

Three members of Coach Ned Underwood's Snyder quintet will be performing for the last time tonight in the Black and Gold colors of Snyder High School. Jimmy Wilson, Billy Stewart and Jackie Stewart are the seniors on the Snyder team.

Wilson and Billy Stewart have been regular starters and Jackie Stewart has logged considerable playing time during the season. Three juniors round out the regular starting five for Snyder. They include Leslie Brown, Drew Bullard and Jerry Vestal.

Brownfield probably will start a quintet composed of Gary Nunn, Connie Vernon, Archie Jennings, Bill Spears and David Sherrod.

The Snyder B team will be seeking a tie for the top spot in its game with Brownfield B in the preliminary game tonight.

Snyder B has won 7 and lost 2 during the campaign to match Lamesa's district record.

Tonight's B game will get underway around 6:15 p.m. and the A game will follow at 8 p.m.

Modest O'Hara Eyes 3:54 Mile

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom O'Hara is a red-haired, freckled little fellow about the size of a football waterboy who talks — when pressed — about running a mile in 3 minutes, 5 seconds.

This, of course, puts him on the modest, self-effacing side.

Modest? Well, yes. Particularly so when his coach says he's going to go 3:53 before the season is out.

"He definitely is the man to beat in the Olympic 1,500 meters in Tokyo," jubuliant Coach Jerry Weiland said today. "I think he will break Peter Snell's outdoor record with a 3:53 mile before long."

O'Hara, a 21-year-old student at Loyola of Chicago, was a little more conservative, even after trimming two full seconds off the indoor record in the New York A. C. Games in Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

"I believe I can do 3:5," the soft-spoken little guy said.

He convinced 13,677 Madison Square Garden customers with a brilliant 3:56.6 effort in the mile Thursday night—the fastest ever run indoors—whipping over the last two laps virtually alone while the crowd howled: "Go, go, go."

Big, burly Bob Hayes of Florida A&M also turned in an outstanding show, equalling the indoor mark of 6 seconds flat in the 60-yard dash, the fourth time this season he has hit it.

Other major winners included Gary Gubner, NYU, in the shot put, at 63-2½; Lew Hoyt of Southern California in the hig jump at 7-1; John Uelses, LaSalle, pole vault, 16-1¼; Roy Hicks, U.S. Army, 60-yard high hurdles, 7.3; Wendell Mottley, Yale, 440-yard dash, 48.3; Bill Crothers, Toronto, 880-yard run, 1:50.8; Jay Luck, New Haven Track Club, 500-yard run, 57 flat, and Bruce Kidd, Toronto, 2-mile run, 8:2.6.

4th In Row For Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Gordie Howe shook off a painful groin injury and scored two third-period goals against Boston Thursday night as Detroit won its fourth straight National Hockey League game and moved within four points of third-place Toronto.

The Red Wings bumped the Bruins -1 in a bruising match that sidelined Boston's rookie sensation, Gary Dornhoefer, and Detroit defenseman Doug Barkley.

Both Dornhoefer, who played the last two periods with a helmet after being knocked unconscious early in the game by Larry Jeffrey's elbow, and Barkley were taken to Detroit Osteopathic Hospital where examinations disclosed broken cheekbones. Barkley was injured in a collision with Guy Gendron. Both players will be out indefinitely.

Rex Baxter, Vossler In Tie For Lead

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Rex Baxter beat darkness to tie Ernie Vossler, and the situation might well be reversed today in the $30,000 Tucson Open Golf Tournament if someone else does not cloud the issue.

A signal flare calling a darkness halt flashed into the sky with the 27-year-old Baxter from Amarillo, Tex., still on the fairway playing his last hole Thursday.

PGA rules said he could complete it and he did in almost total darness with a par and a six-under-par 66 for a round which included four birdies and an eagle.

That equaled the score set by 35-year-old Vossler more than four hours earlier over the 49ers Country Club in warm sunshine.

A dozen pros didn't finish and will complete their opening round today amid hopes that frozen greens wouldn't again delay the start of play.

Perez, Valdez In Opening Feature

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

FORT WORTH (AP)—Welterweights Manny Perez of Amarillo and Jesse Valdez of Houston clash Friday night in the feature bout of the 28th Texas Golden Gloves Tournament.

Perez won the 1962 championship, but failed to gain the state tournament a year ago.

Valdez, the lightweight runnerup last year, trimmed 1963 welter champion Charles Cordova to win the Houston regional this year.

The session tops a 24-bout card as the charity tourney moves into its second night in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum.

Three 1963 champs will see action as they resume their bids to win a trip to the National Golden Gloves Tournament beginning Feb. 24 in Louisville.

Sammy Alvarez of Odessa, the flyweight kingpin who drew a bye in the opener, challenges Jesse Avalos of Corpus Christi. Alvarez is fighting as a featherweight this year.

The defending feather champ, Fort Worth's Floyd Molina, goes against Larry Carpenter of Beaumont. Molina won his opener with a technical knockout over Jimmy Kee of Tyler.

Another Fort Worth product, light-heavy Wayne Morris, takes on Gary McCamey of Beaumont in his second appearance. He knocked out George Karty Jr. of Wichita Falls in the second round.

Mike Brown, a Dallas Negro, became the first member of his race to participate in a state gloves tournament. He lost a close decision to Henry Rodriquez of San Antonio.

Four heavyweight bouts are set with the feature matching Lynn Farr, a 230-pounder from Tyler, against Phil Paris, 200, of Odessa.

Farr was runnerup last year and Parris was a semifinalist in 1962.

Tommy Briscoe of Dallas nailed a unanimous decision against Waco's Wren Dillard in the only heavyweight bout opening night.

San Antonio fighters won all four of their contests and took a narrow lead over Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston in the race for team honors. Each had three triumphs.

The largest first night crowd since 1954 — 4,956 — viewed the action.

History Repeats For Furman Team

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Furman made college basketball history a decade ago when the Paladins walloped Newberry 149-95 and Frank Selvy scored 100 points for an individual single game NCAA record that still stands.

Exactly 10 years from that historic night of Feb. 13, 1954, Furman turned in another memorable performance by upsetting the Davidson Wildcats, the nation's fourth-ranked team 70-55.

"We have some special plans for them, and we're going to make them work letter perfect," said Furman Coach Wyles Alley before the game.

That's just what his boys did as they avenged an early season 89-63 trouncing by Davidson to hand the Wildcats their second defeat of the season in 20 starts.

A capacity crowd of 5,600, including Frank Selvy as honor guest, howled in glee at Greenville, S.C. as the Paladins turned the game into a rout with a 14-4 burst late in the game.

Drake stayed on top of the Missouri Valley Conference with a 53-50 victory over North Texas, Bradley downed Tulsa 73-64 in overtime, Providence won its 12th straight by defeating Rhode Island 86-72, Wyomi beat Denver 77-68 and Houston whipped Miami, Fla., 93-83 in other Thursday night games.

Davidson, the only team in The Associated Press Top Ten to play, took an early 10-point lead, was ahead at 33-32 in the second half when the inspired Furman players spurted and opened a 17-point lead at 64-47.

Don Frye, with 18 points, and Frank Selvy's brother, David, with 17 led Furman along with Norman Schaffer who held Davidson's star, Fred Hetzel, to 16 points.

Former catcher Clint Courtney is scouting for the Houston Colts.

Liston, Clay Swap Jabs

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"If you whup me, I'll crawl across the ring on my hands and knees and kiss your feet. If you lose, will you do the same? Answer me, chump, will you do it?"

Cassius Clay, who seems unusually interested in foot kissing, was challenging Sonny Liston Thursday at a unique news conference. Theater Network Television, which will handle the Feb. 25 heavyweight title match, arranged for special closed circuit television from the fighters' camps in Miami Beach to their lab on Long Island.

"About kissing my feet, Cassius," said the heavyweight champion. "If you last through the third round into the fourth, I'll kiss your feet."

Clay and Liston answered questions from newsmen and then jawed back and forth from opposite ends of Miami Beach.

"You want to fight me, winner take all?" asked Liston, a challenge that would have warmed the heart of the late Jack Kearns. Jack always was proposing fight - to-the-finish, winner-take-all battles in Nome or Vladivostok.

"I tell you what we'll do," said Clay. "Your backers take their cut and mine take theirs and I'll meet you at the front door."

"Listen, Cassius," said Liston. "I'm gonna give you half of mine if you show up."

Sonny sat at ringside without a smile while Clay tried to bait him with his prediction:

"I'm gonna upset the whole world. I'm bigger than he is. I'll be about 221 pounds. This is not going to be a giant fighting any Floyd Patterson. This man is scared to death. He'll still try to back out of the fight."

When asked if he belonged to the Muslims, a Negro supremacy organization, Clay replied:

"This is fight talk. I have no answer to that kind of question. I want two whole hours on television to tell my whole story after the fight. If I am bad and done wrong, I'm ready to go to jail. I haven't set the dogs on anybody. I'm tending my business."

Liston was asked if he hated Cassius and got this type of an answer:

"I want to leave him with his pretty face so he can get by with it."

Oh yes, Cassius the poet said it again:

"I'm predicting eight to prove I'm great."

The whole show lasted 45 minutes. That may be about 43 minutes longer than the fight.

Groups Disagree On Crop Support

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)— Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has received conflicting recommendations from two national farm organizations on the level of price supports for the 1964 soybean crop. Soybeans have become one of the top income-makers for farmers.

The American Farm Bureau Federation has written Freeman urging a reduction in supports from the 1963 crop level of $2.25 a bushel. But the National Farmers Union also has written the secretary asking that he raise the supports to $2.50, effective immediately, which means for 1963 crop soybeans still in farmers' hands.

Since Freeman took over in 1961, he has raised the supports from $1.85 to the present level. In most of the recent years, producer prices have averaged above the support levels, reflecting an expanding domestic and export demand. Soybeans are an important source of edible oil and high-protein livestock feed.

The secretary is expected to make a decision soon.

The Farm Bureau said that the soybean market had proven it can raise producer prices above supports whenver demand and supply conditions warrant.

It added, however, that industry developments indicate it would not be wise to increase supports this year. It said increased stocks of soybean oil have reduced processor margins, closing down some crushing mills or reducing their operations. An increase in supports, it argued, could aggravate this situation.

The Farmers Union, on the other hand, said processors "have stubbornly held down" their operations to persuade growers that the soybean market outlook is not favorable and that they should sell their soybeans at prevailing prices.

The Farmers Union has generally supported Freeman programs, while the Farm Bureau has been critical of many of them.

The Lenten Season is a period of both physical and spiritual fasting. This also ought to be a period when we re-evaluate our Christian commitment.

The Sermon "Self Centerness," taken from Matthew 15:1-20 and Isaiah 58:1-11, points the way each Christian ought to look at his own personal commitment to the work of our Lord. It is hoped that everyone will begin the Season of Lent by going to a house or worship this Sunday.

Transport Workers Strike In Italy

ROME (AP) — One hundred thousand public transport workers were ordered out on a one-day nationwide strike today. Millions of Italians were stranded by a shutdown in bus and streetcar service.

Communist and non-Communist unions joined in the strike after prolonged negotiations deadlocked in a contract dispute.

Author Uncovers 'Common Faith' Of Denominations

NEW YORK (AP) — When viewing Christianity, the attention tends to focus on the denominational differences, the theological conflicts which separate the believers.

In "The Way and Its Ways," author George W. Cornell strips away the dividing factors among and within Protestantism, Roman Catholicism and Eastern Orthodoxy. He uncovers "a common ground of faith, compatible and essentially undeviating, that runs through them all."

Cornell brings to his task a qualification shared by few professional writers. During his 12 years as religious news editor of The Associated Press, he has covered national and international church meetings, visited Rome and traveled the Judean paths Christ trod.

"It has fascinated me," he writes, "to find how much one church environment seems an echo, an almost hauntingly familiar repetition, of another, even at times when they themselves don't realize it."

As a practicing Christian, a vestryman at New York City's St. Mark's - In - The - Bowery Church, Cornell is concerned that "we have given a false facade to Christianity, partially fooling ourselves, and cheating those outside the church."

Thus, this book, written with the beautifully flowing mastery of language for which Cornell is famous within the fraternity of newsmen, came into being.

"There is one 'way,' even though it has many ways," Cornell writes. "It is this, it seems to me, that needs to be more fully recognized if the believers are to know their brothers and the wanderer is to see the way home."

Although he focuses on the commonly shared truths of Christianity, the author devotes one chapter to an examination of some of the by-ways of its many forms.

He remains true to his professional calling.

"One point should be made quite clear," he advises the reader. "The insights set down here are not of my own making, but are the bequests of the Christian community. My place as a reporter is not to originate definitions and interpretations, but to absorb and disseminate them reliably and in proportion."

Cornell's viewpoint offers the churchgoer an opportunity to see over the walls of his denomination, and the nonbeliever a challenging refutation of his nonbelief.

Trail Riders En Route To Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — Three of the eight trail groups that journey annually to Houston to take part in the opening of the livestock show and rodeo were on the way today.

The three include the Old Spanish Trail Group which originated in Logansport, La.; the Tejas Trail Ride from Lovelady; and the Texas Independent Trail Ride, which began at Sour Lake.

The Old Spanish Trail group includes some 250 men and women who began the 200-mile horseback and wagon ride Wednesday. The Tejas Trail group includes 125 riders on the 120 mile journey, and the Texas Independent group has about 200 riders on the 60 mile ride.

The other five groups are scheduled to begin Saturday and Sunday and Monday.

The eight groups with nearly 3,000 riders, will camp in Houston's Memorial Park next Tuesday and then participate in a Feb. 19 downtown parade to open the 12-day livestock show and rodeo.

Much Revealed In Handwriting

A torrent of mail flows across Ruth Fowler Brown's desk each day — letters that amuse, amaze and astound. You'll enjoy reading about the escapades, the problems, the successes of the young, the old, and the in-between who write to Mrs. Brown for help and advice.

Her column THE "WRITE" WAY will appear in this paper daily starting Sunday. It's a new and unique column, for Mrs. Brown is a skilled graphologist, trained in the techniques of analyzing personality through handwriting.

Is graphology a fake, or is there really something to it? Says Mrs. Brown, "No one whose handwriting has been analyzed by a competent graphologist will ever ask that question. For the benefit of doubters, let me say that graphology is taught as a scientific subject in several of the world's leading universities abroad, and is included in the curriculum of at least one American university as part of its psychology course.

"A number of the largest corporations in the United States retain staff graphologists whose work it is to study the handwriting of job applicants, of individuals with whom contracts are contemplated, of employees scheduled for promotion or dismissal, to the end that the right person is slated for the right job, and corporate business is conducted with maximum efficienty and a minimum of mistakes.

"Although it has its humorous side, as you'll see in reading THE "WRITE" WAY, handwriting analysis is, after all, a serious matter. And many people realize this. . .just consider this sampling of the letters I receive. A young man studying law wants to know if his character inherently fits him for the legal profession. A mother writes to learn if her daughter, a college student, is suited for a commercial career. A young woman asks whether or not her character traits indicate she'd be good at meeting the public. A man writes to find out about the character of a prospective partner. A boy sends his girl friend's handwriting for analysis (he's a cautious type!). And a young secretary sends the handwriting of her boss — she wants to know all about him so she can please him and get a promotion. Handwriting analysis does answer questions like these. And it does it accurately, as thousands will testify."

Ruth Fowler Brown does not flatter, nor does she critize. She points out the truth, impartially, as she finds it in your handwriting. Her praise is encouraging, her suggestions helpful. And secrets are safe with Mrs. Brown — she does not reveal names or use letters in her column without the writer's permission.

Perhaps a personality analysis of your own handwriting, pointing out the emotions, appeals, and talents it reveals, can be of real value to you. Why not give it a try — even, or especially, those of you who are still saying "show me." Use the coupon which will accompany each THE "WRITE" WAY feature by Ruth Fowler Brown.

Baby Boy Abandoned In Laredo Shack

LAREDO (AP) — A newborn baby boy was abandoned in the backyard of a Laredo home late Thursday night.

Lino Torres told police he heard the infant screaming from the inside of a paper sack, where, it had been wrapped in a pink towel.

Doctors at Mercy Hospital said the baby must not have been more than a half hour old when it was left in the 40-degree weather.

The six-pound boy was reported in good shape and taking nourishment.

Fireman's Car Burns

HAMDEN, Conn. (AP)—Walter Thomas' car caught fire and burned in a parking lot Thursday while he was at work in a building about 100 feet away.

Thomas is a dispatcher for the Hamden fire department.

"For the workman is worthy of his meat." Matthew 10:10.
Oh heavenly Father, on this day
Oh bless our work, we humbly pray.
As we are divinely led
In our struggle for daily bread,
Help us love the work we do,
Being kind to those who labor too.

Egyptian Prisoners Granted Amnesty

CAIRO (AP) — President Gamal Abdel Nasser has declared an amnesty for an unknown number of political prisoners, including at least three one-time followers sentenced to life imprisonment for plotting against his regime, informed sources said Thursday.

The amnesty was declared on the eve of Bairam holidays which end the Moslem holy month of Ramadan.

Snyder Catholics Plan New Church

A project launched by the Rev. Peter Vergauwen when he came here in October of 1962 reached a significant milestone with the awarding of a contract for construction of a new building for Our Lady of Guadalupe Church.

The contract was let to Wadleigh Construction Co. of Snyder for $29,050. The contract price includes construction of the building and church furniture.

Due to enthusiastic response of the members of the church, after 13 months of fund-raising, a total of $5,000 was placed in the building fund of Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. The Catholic Extension Society of America has added $10,000 and plans have been made to retire indebtedness of $15,000 through a fund-raising campaign.

The church will have a capacity of 330 people. There are now about 450 members, not including small children, attending the church. The present church will be remodeled into a hall.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Church for Catholics of Mexican ancestry, had been served by priests of Big Spring, Hermleigh and the St. Elizabeth's Parish of Snyder prior to Oct. 28, 1962, when Father Vergauwen came here at the request of the Most Rev. Thomas Drury, Bishop of San Angelo.

A native of Belgium, Father Vergauwen is a naturalized American. He speaks and writes Flemish, Dutch, French, Spanish, German and English. He is a graduate of a Belgian College of Greco-Latin Humanities accredited by the University of Louvair, Belgium.

He served for a year in the Belgian Army, and escaped from a German concentration camp in 1941. He gave up a parish in Miami Beach, Fla., to take on the project at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church.

Almost every great teacher of morals or of religion has said just what Jesus of Nazareth proclaimed. In every land and in every age it is the basic rule of good living; you cannot improve on it. Therefore do not try to change it, but live it. It will work in the experience of every man and of all men; it will make for happiness for each man and for each society of men; it works in the home, in the school, in the business, and in the nation and world.

What do you really wish that men would do to you? Let you alone and allow you to go your own way? Try it, and you will have a lonely world. There could be no homes, no neighborhoods, no nation.

Do you wish other men to work for you and for your success, while you forget their welfare? What sort of a world would that make, if all the rest did the same? Strife and war, with bitterness and suffering and sorrow for all. If you toil only for your own good and every other man works only for himself, we shall have a poor sort of a world. If we help no one and no one helps us, we shall be poor together; we shall turn the whole universe into one vast poorhouse.

Do you wish others to be friendly and kind and generous in their dealings with you? Then join with the rest in making all life friendly and kind and generous. Homes and neighborhoods and nations will find happiness and prosperity together.

Do you wish others to be honest and truthful and trustworthy? Match them with the same high virtues and all of life becomes trustful and free and dependable.

Do you wish others to be courteous and appreciative of you? Then form the habit of speaking with grace and with good words for their efforts and their deeds. You will bring the glow of happy inner satisfaction for them and they will give your life a sense of worth; each thus becomes important to the other.

Do you wish others to be ready to lend a hand when you have a hard task to do? Then form the habit of helpfulness and we build for mutual prosperity and for a cooperative society.

They who keep "the Golden Rule" will discover that it is the "rule of God"; God helps those who help each other; He is the Father of love and of saving helpfulness; it is the divine way. The "Golden Rule" is still golden.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.
