Bitter Cold Spell On Way

By The Associated Press

The Weather Bureau warned stockmen Thursday to protect cattle in Northwest and Southwest Texas from a massive cold wave bearing down on the state.

Forecasters expect zero temperatures by Friday morning in the upper Panhandle.

Severe weather with probable hazardous driving appeared in store for the northern portion of the state and possibly into Central Texas.

That terror of motorists—freezing rain or drizzle—was expected in North Central, Northeast and Southwest Texas. Possible freezing moisture was expected in South Central Texas.

The Weather Bureau predicted these minimum temperatures Friday:

Northwest: Zero to 20
North Central: 15 to 38.
Northeast: 22 to 45.
South Central: 26 to 38.
Southwest: 23 to 39

Southwest 32 to 42
Extreme Southwest: 20 to 40.

The cold air was to come from a massive movement of bitter weather in the Plains States which will move through Texas.

The severe weather is expected to arrive only two days later than a similar but probably more destructive storm which hit Texas Jan. 9 last year.

That ice and snow storm was in many ways the worst since 1949. It took more than 31 lives directly and indirectly, and virtually paralyzed the northern portion of Texas.

A few days later—Jan. 20-22 last year—an ice storm covered much of the state again, taking at least 14 lives.

The new storm was expected to snap the unusually mild weather which has prevailed over the state for the first 10 days of 1963.

Skies were fair over Texas early Thursday morning except in Southeast Texas, where they were partly cloudy. Dalhart, with 29 degrees, was the only point reporting freezing temperature. Elsewhere readings ranged up to 65 degrees at Brownsville.

McAllen recorded a balmy 83 degrees Wednesday afternoon for the highest reading in the state.

TAIL OF TALENT—That fellow on the left with furry ears may be Baltimore's answer to Picasso. Jack, the burro, has just sold the above picture for $50. Talent scout Arthur Watson, the Baltimore zoo director, read that Khrushchev described abstract art as looking as if it were done with a donkey's tail. Watson decided to put Jack to work, and Jack, with the help of a paint-smeared tail, produced "Black Wisk." Watson is also holding additional orders for the burro's talented tail. (AP Wirephoto)

Don't Resist, Troops Told

By JOHN LATZ

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—With his army disintegrating and his control over Katanga shattered, President Moise Tshombe, yielded a bit today to the United Nations after a brief period of house arrest.

Accompanied by a police jeep, he set out ahead of a U.N. column to urge his scattered troops not to resist a movement to Sakania, an important border point about 120 miles southeast of this Katangan capital.

In ordering his house arrest, the United Nations had demanded that the president guarantee freedom of movement through the secessionist province. Apparently he was released, however, after giving assurances only for the Sakania movement.

"I am authorized to declare," said British Consul Derek Dodson, "that President Tshombe grants to the United Nations complete freedom of movement on the road to Sakania."

Remnants of Tshombe's disorganized forces have fled to the Sakania area, a crossing point into northern Rhodesia.

Tshombe's arrest was ordered Wednesday night by U.N. Secretary-General U Thant after the Katanga leader again threatened to blow up the big industrial installations and hydroelectric dam at Kolwezi, 190 miles northwest of Elisabethville.

Thant demanded that Tshombe guarantee peaceful U.N. entry into Kolwezi. The U.N. also has repeatedly demanded freedom of movement throughout the province.

It was not clear why Tshombe was released with only a partial guarantee of freedom of movement in Katanga, or why U.N. forces did not move on Kolwezi, the most important town still in Katangan hands.

George Sherr, a member of the U.N. staff in Elisabethville, took the view that Tshombe's offer "means freedom of movement everywhere in Katanga," declaring: "Either one implements Thant's plan or one doesn't."

The United Nations may be holding up an advance on Kolwezi in fear that white mercenaries and their Katangan soldiers will blow up vital mining and power installations there.

AP Correspondent Adrian Porter in a dispatch from Kolwezi said Tshombe's lieutenants have little control over the town.

The unruly mercenaries have planted explosives at the huge copper and cobalt plant of Union Miniere du haut Katanga and the hydroelectric plant there, he said.

Whites in Kolwezi fear the Katangan forces, angered by their defeat at the hands of the United Nations, might touch off the blasts without waiting for orders from Tshombe.

Union Miniere officials also fear any word that U.N. forces were approaching would prompt the die-hard elements in Katanga's beaten forces to set off the explosions, Porter reported.

The dam at Kolwezi supplies most of the province's power. The plant turns out more than half of Katanga's mineral production, the source of income that has financed Tshombe's secession. The central Congo government badly needs Katangan revenue.

U.N. Forces are concentrated at Jadotville, about 80 miles southeast of Kolwezi in northern Katanga.

A U.N. spokesman said the U.N. column in south Katanga had advanced about 40 miles down the road to Sakania without encountering resistance. He added that the operation was going according to plan.

Ellis Service Set Friday

Funeral services have been set for 3 p.m. Friday for Mrs. Eva May Ellis, 90, of 2800 Thirty-fifth Street.

Mrs. Ellis died this morning at 4:20 at Cogdell Hospital.

Born Dec. 19, 1869 in Bosque County, Mrs. Ellis had been making her home with a daughter, Mrs. Wright Huddleston. She was married to the late Thomas Jackson Ellis in 1888. Mr. Ellis died in 1935.

The services will be held at the First Methodist Church of Snyder with the Rev. D. W. Copeland, pastor of the Knapp Baptist Church officiating. He will be assisted by Dr. Jimmie Nelson, pastor of the Colonial Hill Baptist Church and by the Rev. Harry Vanderpool, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Burial will be in the Ira Cemetery under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Mrs. Ellis is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Jude Huddleston of Snyder, Mrs. Cloe Cox of Baytown, and Mrs. Bama Clark of Snyder; one son, Jackson Ellis of Snyder; 43 grandchildren; 85 great-grandchildren; and 20 great-great grandchildren.

Snyder firemen were called to the Paymaster Gin west of Snyder at noon today when some loaded cotton trailers caught fire.

State Senate Set To Pass Back-Pay Bill

AUSTIN (AP)—The Senate prepared today to pass the first bill of the legislature, a $40,000 back-pay bill.

The measure, sponsored by Sens. Charles Herring of Austin and Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, provides for back-pay for Senate employes, supplies and per diem pay for senators for about the last two weeks of the last special session.

The House in the waning minutes of a special session last year refused to pass a bill which included the pay provision.

Speaker Byron Tunnell says he intended to name membership of the 43 House committees today.

Tunnell led the House through its final stages of organization Wednesday.

Both houses were expected to meet briefly then adjourn until Monday.

Tunnell said Wednesday that he had most of the committee assignments completed, but late requests for assignments and other matters caused some last minute delay.

Senate committee assignments cannot be named until Lt. Gov.-elect Preston Smith takes office Jan. 15.

The speaker said that House members probably will not draw for bill numbers until Monday.

Members draw for the first 150 bill numbers, each hoping to pick a low number. The lower the number, the earlier a bill can be heard by committees and brought before the floor for debate and a vote.

A low bill number also determines its priority on the daily House calendar.

Some senators indicated they planned to leave today and return home for a long weekend because of the light work agenda.

Wednesday, outgoing Gov. Price Daniel addressed the Legislature.

He submitted a detailed book to the lawmakers outlining progress during his six years in office and pointed to several areas he thought this Legislature should look into.

Daniel actually submitted only one subject for legislative action—the purchase of land west of the current capitol grounds to prevent construction of an 18-story apartment and office building.

Daniel has protested the building saying it will block the view of the capitol and University of Texas main building tower.

He said action by the Austin city council in adopting zoning changes to allow construction of the building conflicts with a capitol area master plan adopted by the city and state.

Warden Nips Plot To Free Convict

By HUBERT J. ERB

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Alcatraz Warden Olin Blackwell, who uncovered a plot to free a notorious bank robber with forged documents, said Wednesday night it's possible a convict could be freed by such papers "but it's highly unlikely."

"We double check all such orders. It was last week when we got this court order setting aside a term for Roy Drake. The reference numbers to his commitment papers didn't jibe.

"So, I sent the papers back, suspecting perhaps a typographical error. But even beyond that we would have somehow checked had everything appeared OK."

In Washington, the Justice Department said it is conducting an investigation of the plot but declined to comment on its scope.

The Indianapolis Star said the forgery of papers to set aside one of two 15-year sentences imposed on Dr. Rudolph Drake, 38, of Indianapolis, in 1956, was discovered Monday as the result of Blackwell's action.

The court order setting aside the 15-year term bore the rubber-stamped signature of federal judge Cale J. Holder of Indianapolis.

Also termed forgeries were a cover letter to Drake explaining the order, a similar letter to Blackwell and a memorandum entry, all bearing the forged signatures of court clerk Robert G. Newbold. Newbold said a preliminary investigation had cleared members of his staff.

Had the order gone through, Drake would not have been freed but would have been made eligible for immediate parole.

"With the forgers we have nowadays," Blackwell said, "it's conceivable papers like these could be made good enough to stand up. But we check so carefully I doubt it would work.

"I don't know Drake's role in this. I do know whoever handled the paper work knew an awful lot about Drake and about his case. Everything got here almost letter perfect — through the regular mail."

Dock Strike Losses Exceed $400 Million

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP)—Because of the East Coast dock strike workers at a West Germany automobile factory will get an enforced two-day vacation next week.

Fifty thousand banana farmers in Ecuador, lacking insurance on their perishable crop, fear for which is sold in the United States, are threatened with ruinous losses.

A million tons of U.S. food consigned as aid to foreign nations is dammed up in nearly paralyzed ports from Maine to Texas.

Losses to the domestic economy alone are estimated at beyond $400 million, and rising $20 to $25 million a day.

These are some of the effects of the work stoppage that has tied up general cargo at 41 Atlantic and Gulf coast ports since Dec. 23.

The strike stemmed from a contract dispute between 60,000 members of the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association and the New York Shipping Association, representing the shipping industry.

Alexander P. Chopin, association chairman, appraised the dollar cost domestically.

Each day longer the strike lasts, the farther it ripples back into the nation, squeezing off commerce.

In Chicago, a shipment of bananas in a 40-pound box to $5.25. Imported photograph record players were in short supply in New York. Dealers in imported cars ran low on, or out of, some popular models.

In a New Orleans wharf shed, a $150,000 shipment of government-owned cheese lay exposed to spoilage.

Chief sufferers so far have been the payless dock and allied maritime workers, port city stores and taverns they patronize, steamship lines and import-export businesses.

No major industrial shutdowns were reported because of inability to move goods from factory sites, or store them. Many businesses adjusted to shipping and storage problems.

The day after the strike began, rail shipments of general cargo to affected ports was embargoed.

Even so, more than 14,000 rail cars clogged yards and approaches to the docks this week. Two-thirds of them were filled with grain for export elevators.

Elevators neared their working capacity of 3.9 million bushels in Philadelphia and 11.5 million bushels at New Orleans.

Oil, coal, sugar, ore and other bulk cargoes moved unaffected into or out of Boston, Norfolk and other ports. This type cargo is loaded and unloaded automatically — without longshoremen labor.

Despite this, about 400 ships were immobilized at pierside and harbor anchorages, one-fourth of them at New York.

Talks continue here today in efforts to settle the dispute between the dock union and the New York Shipping Association, which represents 145 shipping and stevedoring companies. Over the years, contract terms reached between the two groups here traditionally set a pattern for settlements in other ports.

Assistant Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds, who met separately with representatives of both sides Wednesday, reported no progress toward settlement.

Wages are a major issue in the dispute. The union is seeking a package increase of 50 cents an hour, including 26 cents in wages, over two years. The industry has offered 22 cents over two years. The prestrike basic wage average was $3.02 an hour.

Nation's Job Situation Has Little Change In December

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today the nation's job situation remained virtually unchanged in December. Employment declined seasonally by 420,000 and unemployment increased by 16,000.

The usual cold weather effect on employment brought the total number of workers holding jobs to 67,361,000 compared with 67,781,000 in November.

Unemployment rose to 3,817,000 compared with the 3,801,000 in November. The December idle increase was considerably less than the 100,000 normally expected in December.

The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment in the work force was 5.6 per cent in December, compared with 5.8 per cent in November and 5.5 per cent in October. The jobless rate has been in this range through most of 1962.

Harold Goldstein, assistant labor statistics commissioner, said the December figures reflected no basic change in the job situation. He said it has remained much the same since early 1962.

Non-farm employment rose seasonally in December to 63.5 million or about 1.5 million above a year earlier.

Farm employment dropped more than seasonally between November and December to 4.1 million. This was believed due to extremely cold weather. Farm employment, however, is on a continuing decline.

Goldstein said the indicated growth of the labor force in 1962 was about 600,000 to 700,000, or considerably less than the growth anticipated on the basis of population figures.

The number of workers unemployed for more than 15 weeks rose seasonally by more than 100,000 in December to 909,000. This was about 250,000 below a year ago.

Goldstein suggested that the failure of the labor force to grow as much as expected was largely because the number of women seeking work had not increased as much as expected.

Compared with a year ago employment is up by about 1.1 million and unemployment is down about 275,000.

The idle rate for adult men was reported at 4.7 per cent, for adult women 5.2 per cent and for young people below the age of 20, 12.7 per cent.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz had announced Wednesday that he planned to have the panel of technicians release the job report in the future.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: About a year ago I met a man. I'll call him Paul. We went together constantly and I learned to care for him deeply. He said the feeling was mutual.

Then I found out from a friend that Paul was getting married. In September he married a very respectable girl. He has called me since his marriage and has begged me to see him again. So far I have refused although my feelings for him have not changed. I want to know two things: 1) Why would a man with a young attractive and newly acquired wife want should I do?

DEAR MIXED UP:

DEAR MIXED UP: (1) Some men are more interested in the chase than in the prize. Once they've caught it, they seek the excitement of the chase again. Your friend is such a man. (2) Tell him the only married man you'd have time for would be your own husband. And hang up.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who has travelled a lot and thinks she knows everything. She says that in the Middle East, the traditional bridal dress is RED. I have been unable to find this in any book. Is it true?

CHECKING UP

DEAR CHECKING: Yes. In East Pakistan. And the groom's face is covered with gilt (not guilt) to complete the picture.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Where do I start if I want to check the character and background of a person? A young woman with a solid crimes to my home unvited and Sundays for guests at a time. She is trying to capture my 33 - year - old son. He is a very smart man in some ways, but he's never been married and is stupid when it comes to women. Please, before he marries her, tell me how to get some information on her.

BOX 443

DEAR BOX 443: You could hire a private detective to check up on her, but it seems to me that a "smart" man of 33 should be smart enough in all matters to take care of himself. The woman is not "uninvited" if she visits you on your son's invitation. Why don't you have a talk with your son and get the facts, ma'am?

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am an interior designer and free-lance artist and sometimes I work from 8 P.M. until 4 A.M. My work requires light. My next door neighbor threatens to call the police because she claims my light keeps her awake. What if her window opened on a street light or neon sign? Is there any law against keeping one's lights on 24 hours if necessary? I don't want to make trouble, but I want your opinion on this.

NIGHT WORKER

DEAR WORKER: It is your privilege to keep your light on all night if you wish. If the light bothers your neighbor, SHE should get herself a heavy shade.

Annulment Is Sought By Linda Christian

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Linda Christian, describing herself as "truly sorry," says she has filed for a Mexican annulment of her brief marriage to actor Edmund Purdom.

Miss Christian, 38, and Purdom, 37, married last March.

She said Wednesday the annulment petition was filed in a little town near Mexico City and may already have been granted.

She said Purdom, now in London, was informed of the annulment action.

The actress said she plans to fly to Italy soon to visit her daughters by the late Tyrone Power, Romina and Taryn. The girls are in school in Rome.

Cigarette Likely Cause Of Blaze

NEW YORK (AP)—A carelessly discarded cigarette may have caused a smoky fire Wednesday in the 102-story Empire State Building.

No injuries resulted from the blaze, during which night workers had to flee offices from as high as the 85th floor of the world's tallest skyscraper.

The fire marshal's office, later advanced the "educated guess" that a workman's discarded cigarette fell on the felt-like covering of a cold water pipe that rises to the 85th floor through a utility shaft.

The fire apparently smouldered for hours before developing into

Mac Begins Seventh Year

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan began his seventh year at the head of Britain's government today with problems crowding in on him from every side.

The appointment book on his desk at 10 Downing Street called for a Cabinet meeting and consultations with his senior ministers but no ceremony to mark the anniversary.

Macmillan had little to celebrate. Macmillan's political fortunes are at a low ebb. It is widely assumed that if a national election were held now, the Conservatives would take a hammering from the opposition Labor party.

Macmillan must make up his mind soon whether to continue efforts to take Britain into the Common Market or withdraw from this project before he backs himself into a political corner.

He must quiet critics—including a number in his own party—of his Polaris deal with President Kennedy.

Nevertheless, his close associates say he is confident of continuing as prime minister for some time yet.

Macmillan can pick the time for the next election, which must be held sometime before October, 1964.

His friends say his health is remarkably good for a man of 68.

New Phone Books Due Here Jan. 16

Snyder's 1963 telephone directory will be mailed to customers here on Jan. 16, telephone company manager, G. G. Strickland disclosed. The new directory copies is coming it to the Brazos and the while with an overprint of these result is that some of the things changes.

Strickland said some of the pickles of what may be found in the new book have been pointed. He said that additional copies are needed throughout the year for new subscribers, for out-of-town people who request copies of the Snyder telephone book and as replacements for directories which are used a great deal.

Strickland cited public telephone booth directories as an example. "We know the manager said, "that we will have to replace some of them as many as four or five times a year. So we want enough extra copies on hand."

This year's directory has a total of 140 pages, about the same number as the 1962 telephone list. Strickland said the old copies of the telephone book should be thrown away when the new ones arrive. He cautioned customers to check each book carefully in order to remove telephone number lists, address lists and other papers.

According to Strickland, many people often use the directory as a depository for pictures, personal papers and keepsakes. Then when the new directory arrives they fail to check the old one before are lost or destroyed before they are missed.

Hearing For Dunn Delayed

By FINIS MOTHERSHEAD

PECOS (AP)—Dist. Judge William Ward delayed today until Thursday a hearing which in effect seeks to restore Dr. Joon Dunn to the staff of this West Texas city's only hospital.

Dr. Dunn, 35, claims to be the man who first tipped the FBI that Billie Sol Estes was engaging in illegal financial maneuverings.

Shortly thereafter, Estes was arrested on federal fraud charges and his business empire collapsed of its own weight.

Ward flew here from El Paso to preside in the place of the Pecos judge, J. H. Stanley.

Stanley asked Ward to sit for him after Dunn's lawyers filed motions asking Stanley to disqualify himself, charging that he is biased.

Kensington Palace Hit By Blaze

LONDON (AP)—Fire broke out at Kensington Palace, the home of Princess Margaret, today and brought part of the roof crashing down over her apartment, being prepared for her.

The princess watched, clutched, firemen train hoses at the top of the palace as smoke gushed from upper story windows.

The blaze started in the palace rafters near the 20-room apartment being prepared for the princess and her husband, Antony Armstrong-Jones. When it broke out, Margaret was in her present quarters at the other end of the palace.

London Fire Brigade sent 15 fire trucks to the blaze after an alarm was sounded by a palace painter. It took an hour to bring the flames under control.

Damage was mostly confined to a section of roof over the servants quarters in the apartment of Princess Marina, Duchess of Kent. This adjoins the home being readied for Margaret.

Servants fled from the building as flames crackled through the roof.

Princess Marina came out with Princess Margaret to watch the fire. They were joined by Princess Alexandra, and Prince Michael, Marina's son and daughter.

A fire brigade spokesman said the servants' quarters in Princess Marina's residence were badly damaged.

Margaret and Armstrong-Jones —who now bears the title Earl of Snowdon—moved into No. 10 Kensington Palace after their marriage in 1960.

The new apartment is known as No. 1A and is being remodeled at a cost of $238,000—a sum which brought growls from Labor's members of Parliament.

The Ministry of Works had hopes to have No. 1A ready in about a month's time.

Vending Machine Hit

A soft drink vending machine at Travis junior high school was broken into Wednesday night.

School principal Robert Smith reported the theft to Snyder city police who are investigating.

Helayne Buttons Still Loves Red

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Red Buttons' wife says she and the comedian still love each other—although she has just divorced him.

Helayne Buttons, 33, got the divorce and an $84,000 settlement Wednesday on grounds of extreme cruelty.

They had the 13-year-old comedian's ghost act trained out to 100 weight.

"I love Red," she said, "and he loves me. We will always love each other, but we are no longer in love with each other."

The couple married in 1949. They have no children.

FAMILY DESSERT—Chopped fresh cranberries are added to cottage pudding and the dessert is served with the traditional lemon sauce.

Cranberry Pudding For Family Meal

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE

GOOD COOKS everywhere enjoy the game of giving new twists to old recipes.

Latest addition to these recipe ranks: Cranberry Cottage Pudding.

This dessert is an unassuming ending to a family meal. Lemon sauce, tangy with the rind and juice of the fresh fruit, is its traditional partner.

When I was a little girl, cottage pudding was sometimes served for Sunday dinner. It went into the oven when the roast came out so it could be rushed to the table while it was piping hot, bursting with freshness. The lemon sauce was passed in a gravy boat with a matching china ladle, and we children helped ourselves to copious amounts. Your small fry will probably do the same!

CRANBERRY COTTAGE PUDDING

2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1 ½ cups coarsely chopped fresh cranberries
1 ½ cups sugar
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 eggs
2-3 cup milk

Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Mix cranberries with ½ cup of the sugar. Cream butter and remaining 1 cup sugar; beat in eggs thoroughly, one at a time. Stir in flour, mixture alternately with milk, fold in cranberries. Turn into well-greased lightly floured baking pan (9 by 9 by 2 inches). Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cut in squares in pan and serve hot with Lemon Sauce.

LEMON SAUCE

½ cup sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons butter

In a saucepan stir together thoroughly the sugar, cornstarch and salt. Gradually stir in water, keeping smooth. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until slightly thickened and clear. Stir in, off the heat, the lemon rind, lemon juice and butter. Serve hot.

Now You're Neat

The 1963 teen-ager will hitch her star to the First Lady's image, if she hasn't done so already.

And she'll be the most elegant young girl we've seen in decades, predicts hairdresser Michel Kazan. The evolution is already under way, he says, judging by his youthful customers.

"Hollywood was the big influence until the leather-jacket rock 'n' roll tribe displaced them with their beatnik hairdos, Kazan says. "But Jacqueline Kennedy has changed that with her ladylike fashions and cultural interests. The teen-age cults now try to emulate her individuality."

Michel couldn't sell his average teen-age customer on a shaggy, short-crop hairdo these days, if he wanted to. But perish the thought any hairdresser would try, he says. They hated it.

"And the big thing is that instead of being look-alikes, because they're all doing it, the teen-age girl wants to be completely different. She won't wear a hairdo copied from her friends. She wants something created for her type, and she wants to keep it a secret until she makes a grand entrance."

Even if she likes bangs, she'll give them a new slant, he says. She'll wear them brushed down brought to the side revealing part of her forehead, or with all the hair on one side for a one-sided effect. Every hairdo must have the element of surprise, whether a girl does it herself or has another do it, he says.

Young girls from 14 to 16 are really on the charm beam, he says. They merely competed for boys' attentions before. Now everything has taken on a flirtatious note in clothing, hair and grooming. Michel says. They have beautifully shining teeth and fingernails, a lustrous look to their hair. Little bows or barrettes go to the head in modern versions of Little Women hairstyles that would intrigue those perennial favorites, Jo, Beth, Amy and Meg.

Hair is short, but not short short, cut just below the ear so that it may be flipped around the shoulders in coquettish fashion or piled on top of the head in one of many hairstyles. Popular versions include little curls that dribble down the back of the head," he explains.

Michel noted the cultural revolution a few months ago, he says, Heretofore, though girls grudgingly gave in to being neat for classes, they were intent on going to the dogs, shaggy as possible, when the weekend rolled around.

"Now they can't wait to put on their little white gloves and girlish frocks when Friday rolls around," he says.

EASY TO HANDLE — Youthful coiffure for teenagers with full bangs cut one length, blended into forward curled sides.

FIRST DATE—A Michel Kazan coif of wispy bangs softly waved and partly side brushed. Sides are flipped into a wing-wave.

Versatile Dessert Mix For Speed Artists

By Cecil Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

AFTER ALL the holiday baking of cakes, cookies and pies, a cook's mind is likely to turn to easy desserts.

Here's where the dessert mixes make their re-entrance. So many ways to vary them, and all speedy.

A custard - flavored dessert mix is just bland enough to team well with fruit. The English favor this flavor and have good ideas for using it.

In England such a dessert mix might be served with coddled apples. But don't let that "coddle" put you off. A coddled apple is nothing more than one that is pared, sliced and stewed in a vanilla-flavored sugar syrup. The following recipe is a pleasant variation on this theme.

CODDLED APPLE CUSTARD

1 cup (1 medium) diced jared apple
¼ cup water
2 tablespoons dark brown sugar
⅛ teaspoon cinnamon
1 package (2¼ ounces) custard-flavored dessert mix
2¼ cups milk
Glazed or salted pecans (if desired)

In a 1-quart saucepan stir together the apple, water, sugar and cinnamon. Simmer until apples are tender and syrup has evaporated—about 15 minutes. Spoon apples into five 6-ounce custard cups or heatproof dessert dishes. Turn dessert mix into saucepan; stir in the milk. Cook and stir constantly over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat. Don't worry about mixture being thin, it thickens as it cools. At once pour over the apples into the custard cups. Chill without stirring. Makes 5 servings.

QUICK TRIFLE

English cooks sometimes use custard-flavored dessert mix for their famous Trifle. If you would like to follow suit, buy a couple of sponge-cake layers and fit one into a deep glass serving dish. Sprinkle the cake with sherry and add a layer of fruit; canned apricots and pineapple plus sliced bananas made a delightful combination. Now add the prepared dessert mix. Add the second layer of cake, sprinkle with sherry and top with whipped cream. You may garnish the cream with cherries, if you like. At our house we usually keep a jar of miniature Italian macaroons plus a jar of candied violets for adding the last touch to Trifle.

REFRESHING DESSERT—After the rich food of the holidays, this custard-flavored dessert with its layer of apple is just right.

Paul Brown Booted Out At Cleveland

By LARRY FRIEDMAN

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Paul Brown, the football master who led the professional Cleveland Browns for 17 years after gaining coaching glory at the high school and college level of the game, has been fired.

The end of a gridiron era in Cleveland was announced today with an announcement from Arthur B. Modell, club president.

"Paul E. Brown, head coach and general manager of the Cleveland Browns, will no longer serve the team in those capacities. Brown will remain as a vice president. He will finish out the balance of his six-year contract at the same compensation and will continue to be a stockholder."

Brown, 54, signed an eight-year contract two years ago. He was unavailable to callers Wednesday. And there was some doubt he would remain with the National Football League club he founded in 1946.

But Modell, who hopes to name a successor within 10 days, said: "I fervently hope Paul Brown will continue his association with the Browns for a long time to come. I have every indication he will stay with us."

Modell indicated Brown's shoes would be filled by two men—one a coach and the other a general manager.

"As for a coach I have four men in mind now," Modell said. "One is in the college ranks and the other three are pro coaches, but not necessarily head coaches."

Some names that drew speculation were Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys; Bill Austin, an assistant with Green Bay; Ohio State's Woody Hayes and the Browns' backfield coach, Blanton Collier.

Modell said he had been thinking about removing Brown for the past three weeks. He told Brown Monday.

"It was not a pleasant thing to do," said the 39-year-old former New York advertising executive who bought the club for $4 million in March 1961.

"Paul Brown has made enormous contributions to the game of football, legendary contributions. I hope the club will continue to have his advice and guidance.

"The only reason I will give for the change, is that I believe it will serve the best interests of the Cleveland Browns."

Brown is believed to be drawing in excess of $50,000 a year from the Browns. But it was no secret that friction was building up between him and Modell, both of whom are strong personalities.

Until Modell came on the scene, Brown was the boss of everything to do with the Browns. He had a free hand. He was the only man in the NFL with a team named after him.

The name was given to the team when it first started in 1964 in the All-America Conference. The Browns won every championship in the four years that league lasted, piling up a record of 52 victories, four defeats and three ties.

In 13 NFL seasons the Browns have won seven Eastern Conference titles and three league championships.

Brown's 33-year coaching record is probably unmatched. It spans two seasons at Severn Prep, nine at Massillon, Ohio, High School, three at Ohio State University, two at the Great Lakes Naval Station in Chicago and the last 17 with the Browns. He won 296 games, lost 75 and had 15 ties.

As a coach, Brown was a cool precisionist. He revolutionized many coaching ideas since copied by others in the pro ranks. A master organizer, he took movies of all games, kept exhaustive statistics on players and was the first to employ an entire coaching staff for 52 weeks and keep them all busy.

Brown's oft-criticized method of sending in plays from the bench has been imitated in varying forms by nearly every coach in the NFL.

Despite growing criticism in recent years because the Browns had not been in a championship game since 1957, Brown never gave a thought to stepping down.

Two years ago he said: "I love my job. I love the challenge of it. It's my life."

Strict and demanding, Brown would not tolerate what he called "boozers" or "chasers" no matter what their football ability.

"We want men who are willing to pay the price," he said in announcing the squad at the opening of pre-season practice each summer.

"High-class players win the big ones. These are the real pros; the men who can be stunned early in a ball game and have the courage to come back and take it all."

One man who fits that description is Lou (The Toe) Groza, the great place-kicker who is the only surviving member of the original Browns.

"I'm shocked and surprised," said Groza when he heard the news. "I've enjoyed my association through the years and I have only the highest admiration for the man. His influence on pro football will remain for a long time."

GOING TO BALTIMORE—Detroit Lions defensive backfield coach, Don Shula, 33, smiles from his desk in Detroit after the Baltimore Colts announced they had hired him to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the National Football League club. Bert Bell, spokesman for the Colts, said Ewbank had been asked to remain with the club in another capacity. Bell would not say what Shula's salary would be. Shula is a former Colt player. Services For Rajah Today

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' baseball figures, players and writers, were to turn out Thursday afternoon to pay their last respects to Rogers Hornsby, who began his career in Texas and went on to the major leagues as baseball's greatest right-handed hitter.

Funeral services for the 66-year-old Hornsby were to be held in an Austin mortuary. Burial was to follow at Hornsby's Bend, a small Central Texas community 9 miles east of here on the Beautiful Colorado River.

The Rajah, a member of baseball's hall of fame for 20 years, died in a Chicago hospital Saturday from a heart condition. He had entered the hospital Dec. 9 for eye surgery and suffered a slight stroke a few days later.

The services here will be the second within a week for Hornsby. Rites were held Tuesday in a Chicago chapel and about 250 persons, many of them National and American League players and officials, attended.

Hornsby, born in Winters, Tex., began his baseball career in Denison and ended it in 1962 as a coach and player scout for the New York Mets in their first National League season. He had a 22-year major league batting average of .359, second only to the immortal Ty Cobb. He also managed four major league clubs.

There were to be 105 honorary pallbearers for Hornsby's funeral today including ex-major league pitcher Monty Stratton; umpires Lee Ballanfant and Dusty Boggess; ex-St. Louis Cardinal great John "Pepper" Martin; Paul Richards of the Houston Colts and Dick Butler of the Texas League.

Pallbearers were eight of Hornsby's cousins, all from Texas. They were Sam Platt, L. E. Hornsby, George Shafer, Will Platt Jr., Fred Rogers, and George H. Rogers, all of Austin; Sam Rogers of Houston and J. E. Johnston of Bryan.

Oilers Sign Hopkins

HOUSTON (AP)—Jerry Hopkins, Texas A&M center, was signed Wednesday by the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

Hopkins was the Oilers' fourth draft choice. He was co-captain of the 1962 Aggie team and was starting center in the Blue-Gray game and the Southwest Challenge Bowl.

Four-Point Policy Approved By NCAA Conventioners

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Delegates to the National Collegiate Athletic Association convention headed home today after adopting an unexpectedly tough four-point policy that shows they intend to keep fighting the Amateur Athletic Union.

The delegates also reaffirmed their support of three new sports federations which have invaded fields governed by the AAU. The immediate affect of the strong stand—which was particularly unexpected in the wake of apparent progress toward arbitration of the dispute under Gen. Douglas MacArthur—will be on the AAU sanctioned major indoor track and field meets in the East, which begin at Boston Saturday night.

It was learned that none of the NCAA Eastern colleges entered in the Boston meet would compete.

After Wednesday's action, the 600 NCAA member schools are pledged to a policy that calls for withdrawal from membership in the AAU until the situation improves, a boycott of AAU events not sanctioned by the federations, withdrawal of all personnel from AAU committees in basketball, gymnastics and track and field, and a limitation which restricts use of institutional facilities and equipment to collegiate and federation activities.

The policy on facilities and equipment carries the provision that the AAU may "enjoy these same privileges" if it either accepts membership in the federations or agrees to a form of dual sanctions.

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, doubted any defiance of the policy, which came in the form of a resolution.

While the AAU indoor meets are the immediate losers, the cut-and-dried over-all meaning of the NCAA policy is that the colleges and universities are out of events not sanctioned by the federations until some sort of a settlement is reached in the 2½-year dispute that has raged over administration of amateur athletics.

The AAU holds international recognition as the U.S. governing body in three sports in which federations have been created—track and field, basketball and gymnastics.

President Kennedy's entrance into the matter followed collapse of a coalition plan for track and field worked out in New York two months ago and was directed at saving the makeup of U.S. squads for the Olympics in Tokyo next year.

Arbitration is limited to track and field because it is the No. 1 Olympic sport by tradition and because it is felt that if agreement can be reached in the track squabble the other groups can draw on the settlement as a guide.

Unanimous adoption of the resolution followed withdrawal of an amendment that would have cost collegians a year's eligibility for NCAA championship events for competing in open events not sanctioned by the federation.

Grid Banquet Has Huffman As Speaker

Berl Huffman, armed with a seemingly bottomless bagful of quips, will appear on the scene here Saturday night when the Snyder Quarterback Club stages its annual football banquet in the high school cafeteria.

All local football players from the seventh grade through high school will be guests of the Quarterback Club that night. The function annually ranks as one of the high spots of the mid - winter season.

Huffman is a well - known figure in the West Texas and New Mexico areas. Formerly head basketball coach and football aide at Texas Tech, he is presently serving as varsity baseball and freshman football coach there.

Irish Enjoy Role As 'Spoil-Sports'

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Notre Dame's tender sophomores may not set the basketball world on fire but they're turning into a bunch of old spoil-sports.

New Year's Eve, they knocked Illinois from the unbeaten ranks, the only blotch on the record of the 5th-ranked Illini.

Wednesday night, proud DePaul, boasting a spotless 8-0 record came into the South Bend fair of the Irish. With three sophs leading the way, the Irish pushed to a five-point half-time lead, then raced away for an 82-62 decision.

The sophs who did most of the damage were Larry Sheffied, who scored 23 points; Don Reed 17, and Walt Sahm 16.

Reed was the big man. He came off the bench to ignite the Irish with nine minutes left in the first half. When he left the game with eight minutes to go, Notre Dame held a solid 66-58 lead.

Notre Dame now has a 9-3 record. DePaul will have an opportunity to get even on its home court next Wednesday.

Sophomores have been standouts all over the country this season. In another game Wednesday night, soph Billy Radio of Georgia dunked in 23 points in a losing cause. Georgia Tech, 7th-ranked nationally, barely eked out a 72-70 decision over the Bulldogs to keep its record a perfect 9-0.

Billy Cunningham, another super-soph, also did Herculean work for a losing cause. His North Carolina club, No. 10 in the current Associated Press poll, lost a 78-70 Atlantic Coast Conference decision to Wake Forest. Cunningham led all scorers with 25 points.

Virginia turned back North Carolina State 78-69 in another ACC game. The results left Wake Forest and Duke, which crushed past Navy 85-70 in a non-league game, tied for the loop lead.

Nick Werkman of Seton Hall, the nation's top scorer among the major collegians, registered a paltry 21 points in the Pirates' 79-47 victory over Rider, a New Jersey rival.

Toledo turned back Bowling Green 60-56 in a Mid-American Conference game.

Return Title 'Go' Under Discussion

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson has finally called the shot on a return bout for the heavyweight championship, but Sonny Liston may fire another knockout punch.

That was the situation today in the off-again, on-again, return battle which seemed settled Wednesday when Patterson's attorney, Julius November, announced the bout will be held in Miami Beach, Fla., April 4, under the auspices of Championship Sports Inc.

From his corner in Chicago, Liston said he knew nothing about the date and site for the return with Patterson and emphasized "they better start talking to me about this thing."

Liston's Chicago publicity chief, Ben Bentley, said the champion had not talked recently with Championship Sports, or his own adviser, Jack Nilon, about the details of a rematch.

Liston added: "Unless this thing is explained to my satisfaction, I'll express my stand in a press conference."

In New York, November said the details had not all been worked out for the bout at Miami Beach's Convention Hall, but indicated the fight would be telecast to theaters around the country.

That was the setup for the first fight in which Liston hardly gave the paying customers enough time to settle back in their seats before dispatching Patterson in 2 minutes, 6 seconds of the first round at Chicago's Comiskey Park last Sept. 25.

Patterson received about $1 million for the fight. Liston got $230,000 from the gross of $665,420 and $2 million from the ancillary rights—theater television, radio, etc. Liston received only 12½ per cent of everything, but will split 60 per cent with Patterson this time.

Patterson had the contractual right to name the date, site and promoter for the rematch and did so despite the opposition of Jack Nilon, Liston's adviser, who feels April 4 is too late in the tourist season for Miami Beach.

"But," said Nilon, "if Patterson demands Miami Beach there is not much we can do about it."

Explaining why Liston was not in on the discussions, November said, "Liston sent Patterson a letter on Nov. 26 in which he told Floyd to negotiate the return with Nilon."

Nilon, contacted in Chester, Pa., expressed doubts about the success of this proposition in Florida April 4. The Philadelphia Daily News said Nilon will need a real selling campaign. I just don't think it can be done at that time of year in Miami Beach."

But, he said, he will have to buy it. Now he has to sell it to Sonny.

Texans, Blue Devils Both Busy Tonight

Stamford Junior High cagers invade Lamar Gym here tonight to do battle with the Lamar Texans for the second time this season.

Lamar 9th, sporting a gaudy 7-3 record for the year, will take the floor initially against Stamford 8th for a 5:00 battle. The Texans decisioned the visitors in their earlier meeting, humbling them by a 39-25 count.

Lamar 9th, all even up at 4-4, follows up at 6:15 for the likes of Stamford 9th, a team that slipped past them 39-38 a month ago.

The Blue Devils of Travis 8th and 9th are both in Colorado City for a pair of tussles tonight in other junior high action involving local teams.

The games rank as the first of the season between the two schools.

Travis 8th (4-8) will be striving to enlarge on a three - game winning streak when it engages the C-City 8th graders at 6:30 in the evening's opener. Following on the heels of that contest will be the one matching Travis 9th (2-6) and Colorado City 9th.

A pair of 7th grade games are also on tap for this afternoon in Travis Gym, with Travis White meeting Lamar Gray and Travis Blue clashing with Lamar Red.

Tigers Finish Non-District Play Friday

Snyder's cage Tigers, in the throes of a four-game losing skein, will be attempting to reverse the trend in Tiger Gym Friday night when they wind up their non-district slate of games against the Vernon Lions of District 6-AAA.

Tipoff time is 7 o'clock and there will be a B game at 5:15 preceding the varsity encounter.

The Lions are currently 4-4 for the year, with their most recent defeat being handed them by the Vernon eleven. The Lions copped a 47-43 decision in that one the past Tuesday in Vernon. It ranked as the first time this year in which every Tiger team member was held to sub-double digits, with Stuart Long's nine-point effort being tops for the Bengals.

Snyder B is prospering at present, with the last four-team outings ending in victory. For the season, the Tiger juniormen stand 7-6. They defeated Vernon B by 65-55 in their most recent court tussle.

Two Tiger varsity players are cruising along with 100-plus seasons—seniors Long (183) and William Robinson (125). Sophomore Leslie Brown is also nearing the century mark in individual scoring with 84.

Sophomores Leslie Anderson, with 148, and Jerry Vestal with 128, pace Tiger B in scoring.

Following an open date Tuesday, the Tigers are to trek to San Angelo January 18 for their 3-AAA opener against Lake View.

Flattery Loses Its Appeal With Price Tag Of $1,000

BY INEZ ROBB

Flattery will usually get anyone some place with me. A little soft soap goeth a long way toward making most columnists happy, in my experience of the breed.

But flattery is going to get some Democratic fund raisers no place with this member of the true faith, who has just been invited to chip in $1,000 for a dinner in honor of President Kennedy on Jan. 18.

In the first place, I am staggered that anyone thinks I can pay that sum even for a political blue - plate special, and — in the second — that I can eat that many vittles. It is probably a noble thing to try to pay off the party debt through breaking bread, but not through breaking me.

I am one of the party faithful to whom the $5 table d'hote is an adventure in expensive - account living, and a $1,000 - a - plate dinner smacks of a Cecil B. de Mille bacchanalian revel wherein slave girls light Nero's cigar with a treasury note.

Not to put too fancy a face on it, I was brought up on plain living and high thinking, for the simple reason that my Democratic forebears couldn't afford any other. And before it plans any further $1,000 - a - plate repasts, the party of my choice and inheritance ought to ponder the fact that if I had $1,000 to pay for a dinner I might, in all probability, be a Republican.

From time to time, in the not-too-distant past, I have complained about the number of $100 - per - person dinners, testimonials and fund - raising events to which I am bidden. Even these are pointless flattery. Now to have the ante raised tenfold, as far as I am concerned, is merely an exercise in hope over experience of the Democratic party fund raisers.

As I have pointed out before, if I am to attend a $100 - per - person charity benefit, I must have at least a $1,000 dress, if I am to hold up my battered head, a $2,500 wrap and another $500 in accessories.

In that case, Brinks would be in for the second - largest snatch in its history. And when a CPA multiplies that outlay for a $100 event by the goods and gear for a $1,000 dinner, it seems doubtful if Brinks alone could bear the burden.

From the invitation and advance publicity, it isn't at all certain that President Kennedy will even appear at the $1,000 - a - plate dinner, which goes to show how well the Kennedys eat at home. But even were he to appear, such is my standing in the party that I would be so far below the salt that I might as well be on a salt-free diet. It would be just my luck to be so far down the table that I wouldn't rate a glimpse of Mrs. Kennedy's latest hairdo.

Since this invitation arrived, I have been trying to think of someone for whose conversation at table I would be willing to swap $1,000. Jack? Lyndon? Charlie? Ev? Nelson? George? Dick? Barry? And the answer to all is "NO!" Why pay our fancy money for something that's going to be a drug on the market by the time the new Congress is open a fortnight, and a commodity that is sure to be so fulsome in 1964 that we shall all be snapping off radio and teevee for surcease?

Now, if it were possible, it might be worth $1,000 to break bread with Socrates or Plato (Aristotle would be a bit sticky, probably), or Dido. It would be interesting to get her first - person story about why she took on so. Or wouldn't anyone else like to know what the last Mrs. Julius Caesar thought of her husband?

At one time it might have been worth $1,000 to know what Cleopatra thought of J. Caesar, but I am off Cleopatra at the moment. Overexposure, so to speak. On a dinner with Sir Francis Bacon, discussing the authorship of Shakespeare's output, could be worth a grand.

But $1,000 for a dinner with a mixed grill of contemporary politicians? Someone is out of his mind, and it ain't me. Let 'em lower the boom to $10 and I might be willing to help out.

Widow Gets Most Of Powell Estate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dick Powell left most of his estate, valued at more than $1 million, to his widow and their two children.

The bulk of his shares in Four Star Television Co. went to actress June Allyson, the couple's son, Richard, 12, and their adopted daughter, Pamela, 14.

The will, filed Wednesday, left the remaining shares to Powell's children by his second wife, actress Joan Blondell. They are Norman Scott Powell, 25, of West Los Angeles, and Ellen Powell Hayward, 23, of North Hollywood, Calif.

Powell died of cancer Jan. 2.

January Is Month Of Hope, Pep

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the month of the 31-day wonders in the average U. S. business office.

A business office, like the human heart, operates by pulses and pauses.

January is a pulse month, a perpetual month. It makes up only about a twelfth of the year, but in most offices at least a sixth of the year's work is done in January.

Now is the time when new enterprises are launched. The old year with all its failures and disappointments is buried. The new year shakes a strong and eager fist at tomorrow.

January is a hope month. January is a pep month. Everybody pops and crackles like a brand new box of breakfast food, freshly opened.

The boss calls the top yes-men into conference and shows them neat charts showing business going up...up...and way up!

"We'll do at least 15 per cent better this year, or my name isn't Phineas T. Boggle," he growls cheerfully, chomping on the rump of a six-bit cigar.

"Why not set a goal of at least 20 per cent better, chief, and then let's go on from there?" burbles his favorite cheerleader.

Everybody nods enthusiastically. Why not? The big boss leave the conference room all fired up, as if they had just caught the ball on the one-yard line and were running it back for a touchdown.

The enthusiasm seeps from the executive thinking level down to the working level.

It is as if a beneficent plague had infected the office. Each hired hand seems determined to outdo the guy at the next desk.

The staff gets to work on time, the coffee breaks get shorter, the line at the water cooler is small-er.

Yes, January is the month of the 31-day wonders in most business offices.

But what happens?. January ends, and February begins. The pulse has pulsed. A pause inevitably follows.

Silently and invisibly enthusiasm wanes. The office staff suddenly tires of the thralldom of winter, the sense of rush...rush...rush. The erosion of the workaday rut begins to chafe again. The feeling of high and holy enterprise vanishes. The problem again becomes one mainly of merely getting the job done.

The white collar peon no longer sees the "Do It Now!" sign on his desk. His glazed eyes are fixed in fancy on a green isle far away, washed by a murmurous sea.

But the boss doesn't just sit there daydreaming. He does something. Something constructive.

"I'm going down to Miami for a couple of weeks and take a look-see into the possibility of us opening a branch office there," he tells his yes-men. "Guess I might as well lug along my golf clubs—on the off-chance I'll be able to crowd in a few rounds."

One by one the staff begin to come in a few moments late to work. The coffee breaks stretch from 10 minutes to 20. The hour lunch to an hour and a half. The suggestion box is empty.

Junior Editors Quiz on CATS

QUESTION: Do all cats dislike water?

• • •

ANSWER: Any one who has tried to wash a cat knows how it dislikes water. The reason is that cat fur is not adapted to water, since cats don't have to swim for a living. Animals who stay in water most of the time, such as beaver, seal and muskrat, have fur with a dense undercoating which keeps the skin dry. Of course we love to swim and have no woolly undercoating. But our skins dry off quickly when we come out of the water and we can take our damp bathing suits off. The cat's fur is like a damp suit of clothes hanging around him after he gets wet and this is very uncomfortable. Not all of the cat family dislike water, however. The South American jaguar lives by the edge of rivers which are frequently flooded and he has learned to swim across them. He is also very fond of fish (what cat isn't) and scoops them out with his paw, sometimes leaping in to catch them. When it is very hot, a jaguar will often jump into a water hole and splash around just to cool himself off, much as we might do.

• • •

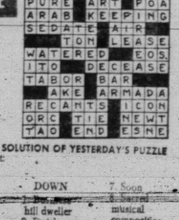

FOR YOU TO DO: In spite of what our friend in the picture seems to think, cats are clean. They rarely need bathing because they clean themselves by licking. But you can help your cat by brushing its coat gently (use a bristle or nylon brush, never a wire one.) The cat will probably enjoy it and it will remove loose hair.

GOP Is Planning Counterproposals

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP)—More of President Kennedy's legislative proposals will be met with counterproposals, rather than simply fought headon, if newly influential younger Republicans have their way.

This policy of "more alternatives" was described today by Rep. Charles E. Goodell, R-N.Y., as a principal objective of the younger Republican House members who installed Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. of Michigan as chairman of the House Republican Conference and increased their voting strength in the Republican Policy Committee.

Goodell, a third-term congressman, was one of the organizers of a smooth operation with the limited aim of capturing for the younger members a share in the House Republican leadership—but not its top command. Mounted in little more than a weekend, and taking the older leaders by surprise, the coup was a complete success.

Goodell talked about it in an interview, and others — including some who did not want to be quoted—contributed their versions of the group's objectives.

These included:

1. Generally shaking up the GOP House leadership, whose main figures are Rep. Charles A. Halleck Jr. of Indiana, the minority leader, and Rep. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, the whip.

2. Making the Republican conference, the mass meeting of all Republican members, "a more imaginative influence" on party policies.

3. Increasing the self-confidence of the younger Republicans and encouraging them to act on good ideas when they have them.

4. Providing what the insurgents regard as a more attractive image of the party leadership to the country in general.

Ford, 49, in a separate interview, left no doubt he regards himself as a representative of the less senior Republicans. His election, he said, was symbolic and "gave the younger people a feeling that 'by golly we can do something—we have a spokesman of our own choice in the party.'"

Both Goodell and Ford, however, were emphatic that no permanent bloc within the party is planned.

Both cautioned against viewing the division that resulted in Ford's election as a liberal-conservative split.

Ford said he considers himself fully as conservative on domestic matters as the older House GOP leaders.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — The Christmas season here is long and glamorous and somewhat tedious.

It is long because it begins as soon as the vendors can get their wares and credit systems before the public and it keeps on until January 6 which is the day the Three Wise Men reached Bethlehem.

It is glamorous because you ought to see all the lights and decoration they have draped around the city. Nativity scenes in colored lights, neon Christmas trees up the sides of 12-story buildings and strings of rainbow lights and tinsel across the big avenues.

Then it gets tedious because of the Lady from Puebla. She wants to get out and see all these things and attend the posadas (Christmas parties) and you would scarcely believe what has to be done before she will leave the house.

This is my fault because I was foolish enough to get a full length mirror one day and when the Lady from Puebla looked at herself, she gasped, "For Heaven's sake!"

A week later, she came home from a shopping expedition with a custom built corset made out of circus tent material and chrome hooks down the middle.

So it comes Christmas and the Lady has to be packed in this contraption before she will open the front door.

And the other afternoon when I got home from a horrid day at the office, she was practicing Beethoven's Ninth on her tuba and she looked up and said, "How about taking me to the posada at the Press Club tonight?"

This, of course, is not a request but an order and naturally I told her I had already made plans to kill myself after supper.

A posada used to be an old Spanish custom of people forming a procession and walking with lighted candles to somebody's house (oh, they still do sometimes) singing religious songs.

Now it is mostly a question of testing Yule spirits and trying to talk louder than the hi-fi.

Well, the Lady said I could kill myself tomorrow because she was looking forward to the posada and I told her, "Aw, the Press Club is always full of newspaper people and other undersirable elements." So she said she wouldn't count Martinis on me that night and went upstairs and got out the corset.

Now this operation calls for me and two maids. A block and tackle would be more efficient but the Lady from Puebla is very strict and will not permit such equipment on the premises.

So she climbed inside the corset and stretched out on the bed and all we had to do was close the 10-inch gap.

One maid must get on one side and the other goes to the opposite corner and each one gets a grip on the corset. At this point, I stand on the Lady's midsection and walk it down until the maid's can pull the edges close enough to get the hooks together.

On this particular evening, something had happened. The Lady said the corset had shrunk (a three pound box of chocolates I brought home the day before was empty) and a terrible amount of foot-work and pulling was needed to get the hooks in place.

No sooner did she take a breath than the hooks rattled off like a machinegun. One of the maids was slightly wounded and the rest of the hooks were so deeply imbedded in the walls that we just puttied the holes and painted over them.

Finally, the Lady from Puebla wiggled into three girdles and we got her in a dress with some tire tools. We made it to the posada and she was as good as her word. Didn't count a single Martini on me.

Which is just as well, all things considered, because I could never have gotten her out of that contraption by myself. And if she had spent the night in the corset, she couldn't have played her tuba for a week.

The Hearing Aid Industry Conference reports that almost one-fifth of the hearing impairments in men are caused by injury. The ratio is one in 25 among women. Exposure to industrial noise is cited as one of the major factors in the higher incidence among men.

Most Texas Solons Back 15-Man Panel

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Texas delegation in the U. S. House supported the administration proposal for a 15-man rules committee by a vote of 14 - 9 Wednesday.

The delegation's two republicans — Ed Foreman and Bruce Alger — were joined by seven Democrats in opposing the controversial rules committee issue which was passed 235 - 196.

It was the first day in Congress for both Foreman and Congressman-at-large Joe Pool, a Democrat. The two freshmen members were sworn in earlier in the opening day ceremonies.

The vote of the 23-member delegation, which is one larger than in the last Congress: for the 15 - man rules group — Reps. Brooks, Gonzalez, Mahon, Patman, Poage, Pool, Purcell, Roberts, Teague, Thomas, Thompson, Thornberry, Wright and Young. Against — Reps. Alger, Beckworth, Burleson, Casey, Dowdy, Fisher, Foreman, Kilgore and Rodgers.

Welcoming ceremonies for new and returning members were held and others are planned for later.

The Texas State Society of Washington will hold a reception on Sunday afternoon in the spacious House Ways and Means Committee room so that its thousand members can meet the new members and greet the returning ones.

Rep. Wright Patman, Texarkana democrat and successor to the late speaker Sam Rayburn as dean of the Lone Star State delegation in the 88th Congress, and Mrs. Patman have invited all Texas congressmen and their families to a luncheon in the House restaurant Saturday.

Wednesday was the first opening of Congress since 1913 in which the late Bonham congressman was not a participant. Rayburn opened the 87th Congress two years ago, then died late in 1961.

In the Senate, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas presided at the opening ceremonies of that body. He administered the oath of office to all new and reelected senators.

Johnson stode over to the House side of the capitol Wednesday to have a late lunch with the Texas congressional delegation. He also attended some of the reception parties in the capitol.

Rep. Joe Kilgore, democrat of McAllen, is scheduled to be the delegation's chairman during the coming session.

Mona Lisa Draws Crowd

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mona Lisa continued to pack them in today and headed for a possible record as a drawing card at the National Gallery of Art.

While the Leonardo da Vinci masterpiece basked in the glory of her first American showing, word came that another famous lady and a Paris Louvre companion—Whistler's Mother—may be headed for the United States.

Mona attracted 11,250 visitors Wednesday and museum officials looked for a pickup in attendance on succeeding days.

Whether Mona would surpass the record of about 900,000 remained to be seen. This was set in 1948, when art treasures, secreted by the Germans in salt mines during World War II and found by triumphant Allied troops, were exhibited here.

A French Embassy aide said the James Whistler portrait and another famed painting, La Veilleuse, a 17th century work by Georges de la Tour, may be shipped from the Louvre next month for display at an Atlanta, Ga., museum.
