Although much more preliminary work must be done before any formal proposal is made, the local junior college study committee has received some encouragement from Austin to take another look at prospects for annexation of Scurry County to Howard County Junior College district. In fact, the unofficial word is that this may be our very best chance to get a two - year college facility here.

It is a certainty that Scurry County would have to go in with someone else to establish a college district, because the trend now, even in the regular public schools, is toward larger and more populous districts. So, Scurry County likely would have to grow into a metropolitan area of its own, or join forces with another county. Since HCJC is already established and in business, is accredited and has experience, it looks like a desirable type of merger.

Speedy Moffett, the Snyder High School baseball coach who has been recuperating following surgery several weeks ago, is back on duty in his classroom at SHS. The piece we had the other day about some present and former residents of Snyder being listed on someone's all-time football team at Big Spring brought back some memories to Moffett. He was on the coaching staff at Big Spring at the time some of the better ones were there.

Also, Moffett recalled that residence requirements for eligibility differed somewhat from those of today, and that it was not unusual for some new residents to appear each year about the time school started. In fact, Moffett noted that one of the greatest kickers he ever saw, a lad named Tack Dennis, moved from Arkansas to Big Spring because he knew the football coach there and wanted to play for him. Another Arkansas boy, named Lynwood Rowe, also agreed to move to Big Spring, but changed his mind at the last minute and signed a professional baseball contract. Rowe went on to Detroit where he helped the Tigers of that city win the American League title in 1934. They called him "Schoolboy Rowe."

FIRST MANNED SHOT IN YEAR

Soviets Have Man In Space

By MICHAEL JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union launched a rookie cosmonaut into space today aboard Soyuz 3, the first Russian manned shot in more than a year, and Tass announced he approached an unmanned sister ship during his first orbit in what appeared to be an attempt at rendezvous.

The Soviet news agency said Soyuz 3, carrying Col Georgy Beregovoi, moved toward Soyuz 2, which it reported was sent aloft in a near-earth orbit Friday, at first by an automatic system, later by manual control.

It added that Soyuz 2 was launched for the purpose of "joint experiments with Soyuz 3, which it said was transmitting television pictures.

Beregovoi, identified as a "Soviet pilot-cosmonaut, Hero of the Soviet Union and a merited test pilot," was launched aboard Soyuz 3 at 11:34 a.m. Moscow time—5:34 a.m. EDT.

First report from him, Tass said, was that he "feels well and that all systems aboard his craft were functioning normally.

The last Soviet manned space flight was Soyuz 1, launched in April 1967. It crashed to earth, killing Cosmonaut Vladimir Kommarov.

Beregovoi is the 12th Soviet cosmonaut to be put into orbit.

Those before him have achieved an impressive list of "firsts," including the first manned launching and Alexei Leokov'a first space walk in March 1965.

Soviet space plans are not announced in advance, so that failures are not publicized unless the circumstances are extraordinary, such as the death of Kommarov.

Although the Soviet space program is veiled in secrecy, there had been indications that the Russians would concentrate on unmanned experiments. Cosmonauts traveling aboard made no mention of plans to send a man into orbit.

Tass said the ship was launched at 11:34 a.m., Moscow time by "a powerful rocket booster."

The ship may have been launched to coincide with the Oct. 28 anniversary of the Communist youth organization Komsomol and the 51st birthday of the Soviet state Nov. 7.

A few cautious public pronouncements in the past have indicated that the Soviets eventually plan to construct a launching platform in space from which cosmonauts will be fired to the moon and other planets. This would avoid the need for booster rockets needed to power spacecraft beyond earth's gravity.

Tass' initial announcements did not indicate whether Beregovoi's mission would involve experiments connected with the platform.

An official biography released later said Bergegovoi is 47 years old, a veteran of World War II and the father of two children.

Beregovoi was born in a Ukrainian village, worked in a metallurgical plant but took an early interest in aviation and in 1938 joined the air force, where he has served since.

Enemy Initiates Strong New Attack

SAIGON (AP) — A strong enemy force attacked U.S. troops today, 59 miles north of Saigon, but was beaten back with heavy casualties. It was the first enemy-initiated combat in a month, coinciding with statements from Hanoi rejecting U.S. peace overtures.

American spokesmen said about 200 enemy, supported by a mortar barrage, attacked a bivouac position of U.S. 1st Division infantrymen two miles from the Cambodian border.

The attack followed an artillery barrage on Viet Cong base camps in the area that triggered 128 secondary explosions, indicating that sizable munitions dumps were blown up.

The storage site was seven miles east of the Katum Special Forces camp, a frequent target of enemy shellings.

The spokesmen also reported that allied troops killed 46 enemy for every American or allied soldier lost in combat in the past two days, an extraordinarily high kill ratio.

In today's battle near the Cambodian border, the U.S. infantrymen called in artillery strikes on the attackers. After a fierce firefight they found 80 enemy bodies around the camp perimeter. U.S. loses were five killed and 28 wounded.

A senior American spokesman said he did not consider today's fighting an end to the month-long lull in the ground war. He said he didn't think the enemy attack was premediated.

"I think this is a traditional Viet Cong infiltration route," he said. "The 1st Divison troops probably just got in the way. Any time we get into an area where they don't want us, they'll fight."

Today's battle raised to 516 the number of enemy troops killed since Friday. Military spokesmen said 963 enemy have been killed in the past five days across South Vietnam.

Striking from land, sea and air, allied forces killed 436 enemy Friday in two battles along a 260-mile stretch of coast from the demilitarized zone to Nha Trang.

HUGHES BUYING HOTEL — Carrol Construction Co., owner of the 28-story Landmark Hotel in Las Vegas, Nev., said Howard Hughes has reached an agreement to buy the vacant building, above, for $17.3 million. The purchase still has to be approved by the state. The Landmark was built in the spring but has been empty while owners looked for a buyer. 32 Perish In Airline Crash

HANOVER, N.H. (AP) — Workers today began removing the bodies of 32 persons killed Friday night in the crash of a Northeast Airlines plane on 2,700-foot Moose Mountain.

The plane carried 39 passengers and a crew of three. Ten survived.

The two-engine propjet crashed in fog about 60 feet from the top of the mountain and then burned.

The injured walked or were carried from the scene Friday night.

The first bodies removed today were taken out by a Coast Guard helicopter and indications were that all bodies would be taken from the site that way. An attempt to have bulldozers clear a path to the scene was abandoned.

Heavy woods and ledge made the slope extremely difficult to traverse by foot.

From the air today, only the tail section of the craft could be seen in the still smouldering area.

The dead included the pilot, Capt. John A. Rapsis, 52, of Nashua, N.H., who had been with the line 14 years.

The airline said he had made the trip "hundreds of times" and the last radio contact with the plane was a half hour after its scheduled landing time, but it did not say why the plane was then still in the air.

The only crew member to survive was Miss Betty J. Frail, 21, of Berkeley Heights, N.J., and Winthrop, Mass., who suffered a broken leg but was credited with saving lives by opening a rear cargo door to let passengers out.

Survivors also included Robert Kimball 45, assistant dean of Tuck Business School at Dartmouth College, and Dr. Richard L. Veech of Oxford, England.

All the survivors were taken to Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital, which said today that none was in critical condition.

The Weather Bureau said fog in the area at the time would have obscured about the top 700 feet of the mountain.

DeGaulle Holds Talks In Turkey

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle of France and President Cevdet Sunay of Turkey talked for nearly three hours today. Premier Suleyman Demirel of Turkey, who was present, said afterward the session was "very valuable."

At a luncheon later for De Gaulle, the first French head of state ever to visit Turkey, Demirel brought up the subject of East-West detente, believed to have been a major topic at the talks.

He said the invasion of Czechoslovakia by Warsaw Pact forces was a "regrettable event" and a blow to hopes for detente.

"However, the disillusionment that we all felt should not create a climate of a nature to injure efforts to improve East-West relations," he added.

He asked for continued French economic aid and support for Turkey's transition toward full Common Market membership.

Charge Filed In Shooting

Evelyn Johnson, 20, Route 2, Snyder, was charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the shooting of Albert Malone, 30, of the same address.

Justice of the Peace J. P. Billingsley set bond at $2,500 Friday, and the suspect was freed after posting it.

Malone was struck in the head by one blast from a shotgun as he stood on the steps of a house trailer in the Helms Addition southeast of town prior to 5 a.m. Thursday.

His condition at Cogdell Memorial Hospital, where he was taken by Snyder Ambulance Service, was described as critical. Friday, he was transferred to a hospital in Houston.

Abdelahad Service Set

Funeral rites have been set for 3:30 p.m. today for Mrs. Mary Salaney Abdelahad, 73, who was found dead Friday afternoon at her home at 135 Browning Street.

Justice of the Peace Jimmie Billingsley returned a coroner's verdict of death from natural causes. It was reported that Mrs. Abdelahad had suffered from a heart condition.

The funeral service will be held at 3:30 p.m. at the Church of Christ at Thirtieth Street and Avenue F. Lynn Fisher will officiate, and burial will be in Hillside Memorial Gardens, under direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

A native of Damascus, Syria, Mrs. Abdelahad had moved here 3½ years ago from New York City.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. J. W. Everts Jr. of Snyder, Mrs. Mabel Hienz and Mrs. Linda Scotellaro, both of the Bronx, N. Y., Mrs. Julia Battie of Watertown, Mass., and Mrs. Elaine Jones of Boston; a son, Joe Abdelahad of Boston; 15 grandchildren and three great - grandchildren.

Expert Sees More Soviet Launchings

BOCHUM, Germany AP) — Heinz Kaminski, chief of West Germany's Institute for Satellite and Space Research, said today the Soviet space vehicle Soyuz 3 seats at least three cosmonauts.

"The fact that only one cosmonaut is aboard indicates that further launchings are planned. the institute expects this for tomorrow morning," Kaminski added.

HANOI DENIES ANY DEAL

Johnson Pushes De-escalation

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (P) — Despite an angry denial from Hanoi of any bombing-halt deal, President Johnson was reported today to be pressing ahead with secret negotiations for an agreement with North Vietnam to deescalate the war.

While the Hanoi blast could be read as a rejection of Johnson's still secret proposals, authorities chose to interpret it as a propaganda attack which did not necessarily reflect the final decision of North Vietnamese leaders.

The broadcast by Hanoi radio Friday, however, was receiving careful study.

As reported in press dispatches from Hong Kong, it said:

"Statements by U.S. propagandists that Hnoi has accepted U.S. conditions in return for a bombing halt are nothing but deliberate lies."

Washington authorities took the position that there was still at least an even chance, probably better, for reaching some understanding on scaling down the war and advancing the Paris peace talks which would enable Johnson to end the bombing in the near future. This estimate presumably figured in a statement made Friday by Republican president candidate Richard M. Nixon in New York.

"I am told," Nixon said, "that top officials in the administration have been driving very hard for an agreement on a bombing halt, accompanied possibly by a cease-fire, in the immediate future. I have since learned these reports are true."

Another Hanoi broadcast recorded by U.S. radio monitors and made available in Washington, spotlighted in North Vietnamese terms the two issues widely reported as being at the heart of the negotiations for the past several weeks.

UF Drive Edges On

The Scurry County United Fund campaign had eased past the $25,000 mark by the end of the week, but still needing a big spurt to reach its goal.

The United Fund is seeking a total of $38,605.60 here this year to support the operations of 10 participating agencies.

As the drive moved past the half - way point during the past week, the percentage of the goal attained compared favorably with the percentage of canvassing cards that had been included in the reports. This indicated that a nudge here and there in contact work could continue to push the campaign toward its goal.

Violence In Jerusalem

JERUSALEM (AP) — Arab Jerusalem united with the rest of occupied Jordan today, staged demonstrations against Israeli rule, and fought with soldiers and police.

Heavily armed troops and riot police wielding night sticks and steel shields, clashed with the Arab demonstrators at the gates of the Old City.

Armored water cannon sped to Damascus Gate as several hundred Arabs struggled with police and soldiers.

A pregnant Arab woman waiting for a bus outside the gate was bowled over by club-wielding paratroops as they fought to control the crowds. A number of Arabs were loaded aboard captured Syrian troop carriers and whisked off.

The Israelis broke up the demonstration, blocked the gateway, and patrolled the streets. Arab Jerusalem shuttered its stores and spurned its busiest shopping day of the week.

Protestors Thin Out

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Student activists at the University of California campus failed to muster support Friday for more protest sit-ins like those which caused three days of campus turmoil earlier this week.

Plans by the Studenis for a Democratic Society to hold a four-hour teach-in at Sproul Hall, the nine-campus university's administration building, were foiled when doors were locked. Student enthusiasm for other demonstrations diminished after suspensions and threats of expulsion.

Angelo Likely To Take Lake Water

Prospects are considered good that the City of San Angelo will contract to purchase from the Colorado River Municipal Water District's new lake at Robert Lee.

Steps have been taken toward providing a pump station to deliver water from the lake to San Angelo, and the San Angelo commission instructed City Manager Dick Howard and Water Supt. J. E. Williams to negotiate toward the adoption of a final contract for water from the Robert Lee reservoir. Earlier, the CRMWD, which is creating the Robert Lee lake, had made a proposal to mark 3,000 acre feet of water annually for San Angelo in return for $72,000 per year. This was based on the ratio which the amount bears to the anticipated costs and yield of the reservoir. Additional amounts beyond the contract figure would be sold as available at a slightly higher per thousand cost.

Williams has tentatively located a site for a pump station toward the south end of the dam. This will have to be constructed promptly, however, because closure of the dam is due to start within about a month.

San Angelo officials voted to request the Upper Colorado River Authority to consider financing the costs of the station, estimated at a quarter of a million dollars. Gerald Allen, Bronte, president of UCRA, indicated his agency could do this and perhaps finance the 29-mile pipeline to San Angelo, a project estimated at $3 million.

CRMWD officials have received no official word from San Angelo but are anticipating a continuation of negotiations.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Al and I have been married for 16 years, if you can call this a marriage. Al says that marriage is a job, like any other job, and since everybody gets at least one day a week off from his job, a man should get a day off from his marriage, so Al works at our marriage 6 days a week, but he takes Sundays off.

He leaves the house late Saturday night, and I don't see him again until early Monday morning. He puts about 200 miles on his car and I don't have the slightest idea where he's been. This doesn't make much sense to me, but I can't talk him out of it. IS he crazy, or am I?

AL'S BETTY

DEAR BETTY: Marriage is a 7-day-a-week job, and there's no time off for good (or "bad") behavior. Al is far from "crazy," if he's able to sell this deal, but I'm not so sure about you, if you're buying it.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Because so many service men read your column, I hope you'll print this. We realize that most men in service don't have time to write letters, but if they are well, they can take 5 minutes to write two words, "I'M FINE" and then sign it.

My brother has been in Viet Nam for 5 months. Our whole family writes to him regularly but he's written only three times. My poor mother refuses to leave the house until the mail comes, and I've seen her age 10 years in 5 months! The first we heard from him in 5 weeks was yesterday. He said he was fine. He could have said that 5 weeks ago!

DISGUSTED WITH BROTHER

DEAR DISGUSTED: A man who is in the service could conceivably have many legitimate reasons for not writing. He could be on the move and unable to write. Also, mail is not always delivered without a hitch from the war zone. Some can't write for security reasons. But how about children who are just away from home and don't write either! Sharper than a serpent's tooth.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter who is 16 says that when a girl brings her boyfriend in after a date, the parents should be in bed.

Brenda came home at 11:30 last night after a movie date and she found me in the kitchen baking cookies for a church bake sale which was to take place the next day. She looked at me like I had no business being there and shouted, "Mother, what are you doing up! Go to bed!" I would like your opinion as I was very hurt and upset over this.

HURT MOM

DEAR HURT: If your 16-year-old daughter can tell you where you should be — and get away with it — you have my sympathy. Children do not become disrespectful and insolent over night. It's not possible for me to accomplish in one letter what you apparently have failed to do in 16 years. Sorry.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: So the "rich relatives" placed their name-address sticker over another signature and sent the Christmas card out again.

A card so beautiful as to merit double-duty deserves more. The folks who received the second-hand card should have covered the sticker with their own, and sent it back for triple duty.

Astronauts Going Home

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Apollo 7 astronauts fly home to Houston, Tex., today for a reunion with their families.

They leave here at 1:30 p.m. EDT in a space agency jet plane for the 3½-hour flight to Ellington Air Force Base near Houston.

Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr., and Air Force Lt. Col. Donn F. Eisele have not seen their families since they were last home Oct. 7. Walter Cunningham's wife and two children came to Cape Kennedy to watch the Apollo 7 launching and he saw them the day before the blastoff Oct. 11.

Whitworth Goes Out Front

CONROE, Tex. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth, second leading money winner on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour, held a three-stroke lead today in the River Plantation Women's Tournament.

Miss Whitworth fired a four-under-par 67 Friday in the opening round of the 54-hole tournament. She played the front nine in 32 and the back nine in 35.

Kathy Cornelius finished the first 18 holes with 32-38—70 to take second place. Clifford Ann Creed, Sybil Griffinin, Sherry Wilder and Carol Mann were tied for third with one-over-par 72s.

The $12,500 tournament at the 6,400 yard Montgomery County golf course will end Sunday.

Conference On Ranch Management

A ranch management conference will be held Nov. 1 on the Abilene Christian College campus in Abilene. The conference will start at 9 a.m. and is sponsored by the Texas Section of the American Society of Range Management, Abilene Christian College and others.

The purpose of this conference is to bring together ranchmen, technicians, and others interested in ranch and range management in an effort to help solve some of the problems facing today's ranching industry. These meetings will provide for discussion of the latest information on brush control, grazing systems, stocking rates, ranch investment, income tax problems on ranches, range seeding, and wildlife management.

Arthur Scharlach of the Fort Worth National Bank Trust Department will talk on Flexible Grassland Lease Agreements. Henry Turney, Dublin rancher, will talk on Grass — The Key to Ranching.

The conference will end about 3 p.m. All ranchers and other interested persons are urged to attend.

Retail Sales Keeping Pace

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas retail sales for the third quarter of 1968 have "inexplicably maintained the frenzied pace" set in the first two quarters, the Bureau of Business Research said Saturday.

A thrumphing 10 per cent increase in sales was registered in the first nine months of 1968, compared to 1967's figures. Durable goods led the way with 18 per cent. Nondurables rose 7 per cent.

Top gainers among durables were lumber and building materials—21 per cent.

The total value of retail sales in September was $1,565,000,000, which was eight per cent lower than August's figure. It was 10 per cent above September a year ago, and when adjusted for season fluctuation, it was a nine per cent gain over August.

Yomiuri Giants Topple Cardinals

TOKYO (AP) — The National League champion St. Louis Cardinals lost to the Tokyo Yomiuri Giants 3-2 today in the second baseball game of their 18-game tour of Japan.

The Cardinals won the opener 9-8 against the Giants, Japan champions, Friday at the same Tokyo Korakuen Stadium.

The Giants' winning run was scored in the bottom of the ninth on a timely single to center field with two men on base off losing pitcher Mike Torres.

'Men Of Song' To Open Series Here

The "Men of Song" quartet, featuring Edmond Karlsrud, bass-baritone, will open the Scurry Concert Association's annual series this afternoon (Sunday) in the Snyder High School Auditorium. Concert time is 3 p.m.

At the same time, the Scurry Concert Association's annual fall membership enrollment drive will come to an end. Season memberships will be available at the door prior to this afternoon's concert.

Other members of "The Men of Song" quartet include Frank Spoto and Jack Horton, tenors; Michael Cousins, baritone, and Eugene Brister, accompanist.

The Men of Song quartet has been rated by many critics as the finest concert quartet ever assembled. This season they are presenting an entirely new program, and the creative partnership of Charles Touchette and Edmond Karlsrud again forms the guiding force behind this highly successful attraction, as it has since its inception. The current program features many new arrangements created especially for the Men of Song by Mr. Touchette.

In addition to enormously popular concert appearances throughout the country, the Men of Song have performed on television, radio, records, and in the movies. The key to the success of the quartet is the ability to please every audience with unique programs and special arrangements. Each member brings to the ensemble the benefit of his own excellent individual musical background and professional experience.

Fatal Mishaps Up From Last Year

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas traffic accidents have killed 2,577 persons so far this year, compared to 2,566 at this time in 1967, the Department of Public Safety reported Saturday.

Fatal accidents this year total 2,147, compared to 2,105 for the same period in 1967.

LTV Inc. Liquidates Greatamerica

DALLAS (AP) — A spokesman for Ling-Temco-Vought, Inc., announced Friday complete liquidation of the Greatamerica Corp., of Nevada, was made by LTV, majority stock owner of the corporation.

LTV Board Chairman James J. Ling said the liquidation of Greatamerica is part of a comprehensive plan to reshape the capital and debt structure of LTV.

Both organizations approved the liquidation agreement earlier this year. LTV will assume all Greatamerica liabilities, cancel LTV stock in Greatamerica, and issue to Greatamerica's stock holders about $25 million of LTV five per cent interest bearing debentures due to mature in 1988, a spokesman said.

The companies also agreed LTV would give Greatamerica stock holders 84,000 LTV common stock purchase warrants to replace the 838,883 shares of current Greatamerica securities, the spokesman said.

LTV will offer Greatamerica stockholders a warrant for LTV stock purchases and debentures with a face value of $300 each to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange, the official added. The LTV stock will be exchanged at a rate of 1.112 shares of LTV for 10 shares of Greatamerica, he said.

The spokesman said LTV would retain Greatamerica's controling interest in Braniff International and the National Car Rental System. This means an 80 per cent share of Braniff and 65 per cent of control of National.

Jaycees Are In Session Friday

A program on Jayceeism and the Jaycees' spoke in the Sparkplug Awards was presented by Dean Floyd at the Jaycees' regular weekly meeting Friday. Floyd has been appointed to serve as vice president to replace Bill Early who has resigned.

Dave Harlin told of the plans of five Snyder Jaycees who will attend the fall Board Meeting in Brownwood this weekend.

President Mickey Nunley was in charge of the meeting; Rev. John Bollinger presented the invocation; pledge by John Jeffcoat and creed by John Jerrel. Bob Lieb attended as a guest.

HONORED — Jodi Snyder of Snyder was named "Corpsdette of the Month" by the Army ROTC's auxiliary organization for women students at Texas Tech. The honor goes each month to the Corpsdette who has shown a special interest in the ROTC program and who has given extra time and effort to promote it. Miss Snyder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Snyder.

Youth Is Held In Burglary At Ira

Sheriff's Authorities arrested a 16-year-old boy Saturday morning in connection with a break-in Friday night at the Corky Kruse Service Station in Ira.

They said his arrest clears the theft of $73.35 from the station, and the youth was turned over to Juvenile Authorities. A plate glass window at the station was shattered during the breakin. Officers recovered the money taken.

The main component of man's diet is carbohydrate starch. It is also his chief source of energy.

Biafran Troops Launch Offensive

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Biafran troops, apparently reinforced by airlifted arms, have launched a major offensive toward Aba, informed sources said today.

The Biarans also claim advances around Onitsha on the Niger River and towards Ahoada, south of the landing strip between Uli and Hiala, a terminal for relief and arms aid being flown from the islands of Fernando Po and Sao Tome, and from Libreville, capital of Gabon.

TO BE HONORED — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Evans will be honored with a reception on Sunday, November 3 at the Union community center in observance of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The couple's children, Noreen Ball of Snyder, Louise Layne of Ira, Loretta Prince of Lubbock, Alma Nell Whatley of Marshall, L. E. Evans of Kermit and Jimmy Evans of Andrews will host the event and invite all friends and relatives to call between the appointed hours of 2 and 6 p.m.

Brownies, don't forget the Hallowe'en Tacky Party. It will be Tuesday, October 29th. from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Towle Park Barn. Prizes will be given for the "tackiest" costumes.

Be sure to remember to bring a dime for the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund! October 31st is the birthday of Juliette Low, Founder of the Girl Scouts in the United States. Proceeds of the JLWFF send Girl Scouts on Scouting Opportuntes in the United States and around the world.

• • •

Brownie Troop 248 (Mrs. Edwin Neves, Mrs. W. F. Allmand, Mrs. Joe Pate) will not meet Tuesday afternoon, the 29th.

• • •

Brownie Troop 239 (Mrs. John Gordon and Mrs. Marshall Parham): Mrs. Gordon invested the following girls into Brownie Scouts on October 21st: Susan Cornelius, Shari Cotton, Tracie Gilstrap, Lois Gordon, Sherry Hicks, Mary Ann LaFlower, Connie Lindsey, Patti McLeod, Laura Morris, Nell Sears, and Donna Willingham.

Mrs. Marshall Parham pinned gold stars on the following girls who had completed one year in Brownies: Anita Jane Anderson, Sheryl Diane Burk, Brenda Gay Clifton, Marca Parham, Shelly Nutt, and Mary Margaret Womack. Mrs. Johnny Hicks served refreshments.

Next week the girls will work on a Hallowe'en project and be entertained by Mrs. Parham with the story 'The Walking Casket."

The big question is WHO will get the first prize in the Tacky Party contest! That is Tuesday, October 29th, at Towle Park Barn, 7-9 p.m. Girls, get busy with your costumes. No store - bought costumes, please!

• • •

Junior Troop 168 (Mrs. Bill Campbell and Mrs. Billy Prince) held a Court of Honor meeting on Monday.

Plans were made for a Hallowe'en party to be held October 29th at the Scout Hut.

• • •

Junior Troop 85 (Mrs. Geo. Stewart and Mrs. John Fagin) opened their meeting on Thursday afternoon by singing "Hey! Ho!"

Karen Stewart was elected their new treasurer.

Plans were discussed for an overnite in November.

The girls talked over the Number 5 requirement on the Cook Badge which is to give a history of your favorite food or spice.

A Hallowe'en party was planned for next Scout meeting, October 31st.

To close their meeting, the troop sang "A Gypsy's Life."

Swordfish Steak

1-pound swordfish steak, perferably about 1 inch thick
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon white pepper
½ teaspoon paprika
1 to 2 tablespoons butter

With a damp cloth, wipe steak. On wax paper thoroughly stir together flour, salt, pepper and paprika; place fish in mixture and (with the help of a small spatula, if necessary) coat both sides of fish. Heat butter in a skillet and add fish; dry over moderate heat, turning once or twice with wide spatula, until browned on both sides and flesh flakes easily and is opqaue through — 10 to 15 minutes depending on thickness. Makes 2 servings.

No fresh ginger root in the house when a recipe calls for it? Simmer a dried ginger root in water for about 10 minutes and use that. The rehydrated ginger should be used soon after it is softened.

Cooking acid foods like tomatoes and apples in an aluminum pan gives the pan a bright inside surface. The outside of the pan can be brightened by using a soap-filled steel wool pad.

District 18 PTA Workshop At Ira On Tuesday

The District 18 Parents and Teachers Association Fall Workshop will convene at Ira on Tuesday Oct. 29th, at the First Baptist Church.

Oven Pot Roast With Tomato Sauce

2 pound boneless lean chuck pot roast
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon ginger
½ teaspoon garlic powder
1 medium or large onion, cut in thin strips
1 medium or large carrot, cut in thin rounds
2 large celery ribs (without leaves), sliced thin
1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
½ cup water

The roast should be several inches thick and tied (without extra fat) around the sides. Rub it with a mixture of salt, pepper, ginger, and garlic powder. Place in a Dutch oven or similar saucepot. Put onion, carrot and celery around beef; pour tomato sauce and water over vegetables. Cover tightly. Bake in a preheated 350 degree oven until meat is tender (2 to 2½ hours.) Skim fat from sauce serve sauce with beef. Or remove beef, then remove vegetables with a slotted spoon refrigerate, covered, together. Pour clear sauce into a bowl and chill; remove hardened fat; before serving, in a large skillet, heat sauce, vegetables and sliced beef. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Instant Sandwich

Here's a "magic formula" for instant sandwich success: Generously spread cream cheese over two slices of your favorite bread. Sprinkle two tablespoons of diced dates on one of the slices. Now sprinkle cinnamon over the dates. Cover with the second slice of bread. Serve. You'll have a delicious and nutritious luncheon sandwich that will delight everyone, from the president of your bridge club to your favorite lunchbox-carrying-student

DECEMBER WEDDING PLANS — Mr. and Mrs. Elwood D. Young of Pleasant Gap announce the engagement of their daughter, 1st Lt. Eva May Young, to Capt. Charles William Roe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Franklin Roe of Snyder. Miss Young is a 1959 graduate of Bellefonte Area High School and was graduated from Lewistown School of Nursing. Capt. Roe was graduated from Southern Methodist University School of engineering in 1961. They are both stationed at Malstrom Air Force Base, Mont. A December wedding is planned.

Travis PTA Has Meeting

The regular October session of Travis PTA met Monday night in the cafeteria with Mrs. Kenneth Smith, president, presiding.

After the reading of the minutes and treasurer's report, it was voted to send two delegates to the State Convention in Houston in November.

The fall workshop is to be held Oct. 29 in Ira.

The program was a round table discussion on "Living With Discipline" with Mrs. James Bellamy as moderator.

Coffee was served and the next regular meeting is scheduled for Feb. 1969.

Elizabeth To Break Royal Tradition

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II will break a royal tradition when she visits Brazil and Chile next month by wearing hot, bright colors.

Until now, it has been a rigid rule that British royalty wear pale pastels because they stand out better and can be seen from the back of a crowd.

Royal dressmaker Hardy Amies never gives out descriptions or specific details of the queen's clothes before she appears in them. But Amies' dresses will include hot pink, a strong lemon yellow, and green.

"We thought they would be better colors to reflect the brighter climate and sun in South America," a spokesman said. "The queen wore one of our suits in turquoise silk at Ascot last year and we believe that gave her a new taste for color."

The Amies wardrobe, from which the Queen will choose what to wear, follows the look of the couture dressmaker's latest collection. This means that her dresses will be simple, straight and uncluttered, depending on color and material for impact rather than on detail.

Amies' hemlines are mostly on the knee in his fashion collection but the queen will, as usual, wear hers a bit longer than that.

Early man believed that if he drew a likeness of game animals he would possess their souls and thus control them.

A SEARCH FOR STABILITY, United States Diplomacy Toward Nicaragua, 1925-1933. By William Kamman, University of Notre Dame Press, $7.95.

Incidents in Nicaragua went a long way in the 1920s and 1930s to brand the United States as imperialist in Latin American minds. Strangely, the country where opinion on this point was mixed was Nicaragua.

Dr. William Kamman tells of the troubles in a new book, "A Search for Stability." He is an associate professor of history at North Texas State University, Denton.

A reader will be struck almost immediately by the parallel between Vietnam and Nicaragua. The United States believed it could go into both countries on a small scale. Then it had to send more troops and eventually it knew no way to pull out without leaving the countries in shambles.

Communism, or Bolshevism, was the big fear in Nicaragua as it is in Vietnam. The whole picture was clouded by the instability of the government as it was in Vietnam at least for a time.

The feeling of Latin Americans, heated by propagandists, was that the United States wished to dominate Nicaragua to protect North American loans and businesses.

Certainly that was a part of the situation. But the main consideration was that the United States would not permit the chaos of Nicaragua to continue in revolution after revolution with communism about to step in.

The United States sent Marines and other forces into the country—at the invitation of some Nicaraguan factions — to try to stabilize the politics and economics:

It wasn't that easy. Democratic elections might be held, but the losing faction simply fled to the hills and began guerrilla warfare.

The U.S. leaders fought between themselves almost as much as the natives. The conflict was between the State Department representatives, several branches and sub-branches of the military forces and the U.S. military men who headed the Nicaraguan Army.

The United States finally pulled out after 136 American servicemen lost their lives from bullets, disease, accidents and suicide. It believed it had stabilized Nicaragua.

The democratic processes lasted only about three years. The outgrowth was the Somoza family dictatorship.

The main lesson from Nicaragua was this: Don't get involved if you can stay out. If you get in, don't vacillate.

MARTIN GUEMES: TYRANT OR TOOL? By Roger M. Haigh, Texas Christian Press, paperback.

Argentina for half a century had no real central government. This was a period after 1810.

Into this seeming vacuum moved chiefs, known as Caudillos. Generally their power rested on family relationships.

Roger M. Haigh has written for the Texas Christian University Press a story of one of these regions ruled by a family chief.

The region was Salta in a remote but prosperous area of North Argentina. It is a microcosm of Argentina of the time.

It may have been isolated but it seemed to be continually at war with larger groups trying to conquer it.

A few families ruled the region with one chief after another until the clans settled on Martin Guemes. He brought unity largely because he was related to most of the families.

It is a story of battles but its main object is to trace family leadership. Many tables and lists show the ties.—The AP.

LANGUAGE AND VISUAL FORM. By Donald L. Weismann, University of Texas Press, $7.50.

One of the creative problems is writing text for pictures or painting pictures to illustrate text.

Donald L. Weismann wondered what it would be like to combine writing and painting.

He took a house in Mexico and set to work. The outcome is remarkably interesting for persons in the higher reaches of creative art.

The artist-author actually seeks, almost but not quite, to use a stream of consciousness to describe how a painting is conceived and developed.

The book largely is for those who have a fine feeling for the arts. It should be of tremendous benefit to painters particularly.

Weismann is highly qualified for this work. He is university professor in the Arts and Professor of Art at the Univerity of Texas-Austin. He is a member of the National Council on the Arts, appointed by the President.—The AP.

Cattle Shipments Increasing

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Shipments of cattle into north central feeding areas continued to incease during September, with total cattle numbers up 10 per cent from the year before, the Agriculture Department reported Friday.

The area includes eight states selected for surveys of shipments of stocker and feeder cattle and calves.

Cattle shipped into the area last month totaled 1,153,000 head. Direct shipments accounted for 73 per cent compared with 70 per cent a year earlier. The remainder were received at public stockyards.

This indicates a continuing trend in private arrangements between shippers and receivers, rather than in stockyard markets, officials said.

The July-September total of cattle shipped into the eight-state area was 2.3 million, an increase of 18 per cent from the third quarter of 1967.

September shipments of stocker and feeder sheep and lambs into the states totaled 181,000 head, down 19 per cent from a year earlier.

The number of cattle received by states during September 1968 and 1967, respectively, included:

Ohio 33,150 in September 1968 and 30,505 a year earlier; Indiana 52,186 and 59,925; Illinois 320,101 and 286,200; Michigan 29,574 and 26160; Minnesota 178,747 and 173,047; Iowa 1,087,456 and 858,339; South Dakota 103,864 and 100,910; and Nebraska 515,944 and 446,440.

Group Plans Tour Of State School

The October meeting of the Scurry County Association for Retarded Children will be a tour of the Abilene State School.

The local group will leave at about 8:15 a.m. Monday from the Humble - Smith School and travel to Abilene by school bus. The tour of the Abilene State School will begin at 10 a.m. and the return trip will begin immediately after lunch. They are due to arrive back in Snyder at 2:30 p.m.

Anyone interested is invited to make the trip, and those planning to go have been asked to call Ruth Banks at 573-9547 so that an estimate may be made of the number planning to make the trip.

Lame Ducks Take One Final Fling

By JEAN HELLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two lame-duck congressmen are taking one last fling as a privilege of their office: Trips abroad at government expense.

For Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo. it is a two-month junket around the world that will take him to 19 countries. Rep. Barratt O'Hara, D-Ill., left Friday for New York and what a House committee spokesman said was the beginning of a one-month tour of Africa.

Normally, congressional trips abroad are for the purpose of making legislative recommendations. But Congress has adjourned for the year and since Long was defeated in the Missouri Democratic primary in August and O'Hara was beaten for renomination in June, neither man will be back for the opening of the new Congress next year.

Long's administrative assistant, Daniel Miles, said the senator was making his world trip for the Senate Banking and Currency Committee "to study export insurance and the Export-Import Bank."

The bank, headquartered here, has no offices abroad but does have projects in many countries. A spokesman said, however, that Long had not consulted anyone at the bank about making the trip.

Miles said the chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee, Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., had authorized the trip. Sparkman could not be reached for comment.

Long and his personal secretary, Miss Helen Dunlop, left Oct. 6 and are expected to return Nov. 24 to St. Louis. Their trip takes them to Hawaii, Japan, Hong Kong, Thailand, Pakistan, Nepal, India Afganistan Iran Lebanon, Turkey Italy Span, Germany, England, France, Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway.

O'Hara 86, is chairman of the House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on Africa.

At his Capitol Hill office Friday afternoon, he said he was flying to New York "but after that I don't know where I'm going."

But Boyd Crawford, staff administrator of the Foreign Affairs Committee, said O'Hara and "several staff members" were headed for South Africa, Somalia, Tanzania, Malagasy, Senegal and Guinea on a tour to last until Nov. 23.

Of the 28 other members of Congress retiring or beaten in primary elections, only one other is out of the country on a personal trip at personal expense.

Normally congressmen traveling abroad on congressional business are paid expenses plus $50 a day allowances.

Completions Continue Behind Last Year

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission reported Saturday that 164 oil wells and 24 gas wells were completed during the past week in Texas.

That raised the total oil well completions for the year to 4,174, compared to 5,206 a year ago, and gas well completions to 1,799, compared to 2,045 at this time in 1967.

The commission said 167 wells were plugged, including 72 dry holes.

Eleven wildcat oil wells were drilled — in the Corpus Christi district, 3 in San Antonio's No. 2 district, 2 in the Abilene district, and 1 each in the Lubbock and Wichita Falls districts. Four wildcat gas wells were drilled — 2 each in the Houston and Corpus Christi districts.

Wheat Scene Is Varied

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wheat pasture available for livestock grazing in the plains areas of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas Oct. 15 varied from good to poor, the Agriculture Department reports.

Fall Seeded wheat, due for harvest next summer, is an important source of winter grazing whe moisture conditions permit ample growth.

The department said wheat pastures were good in central Oklahoma; fair in the remainder of the state and in much of Texas Panhandle, poor to fair in the lowplains area of Texas; and poor to fair in Kansas.

By mid-October 11 per cent of the seeded wheat acreage in the three-state pasture area had sufficient growth for livestock grazing, compared with 10 per cent last year. It also is the highest this year for the date since 1961, the department said.

Good Supply Of Vegetables Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supplies of fresh vegetables this fall are expected to be about as large as last year and "moderately above" the 1962-66 average, says the Agriculture Department.

Among the more important items, production of carrots, celery, lettuce, onions, cauliflower and green peppers will be larger than in 1967.

MAN'S CROWN, WOMAN'S GLORY

Just What Is It About Hair?

By JOHN BARBOUR
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It's only hair after all. Not a man's soul. Not a woman's tears. Not a child's psyche. Not really. It's really only hair. Just plain ordinary hair.

A barber in Phoenix, Ariz., wipes his brow of the difficulties of the day and begins cutting a fathers hair. On the floor lay the shorn locks of the man's son. The son has stalked away in anger. The barber says, "Yessir, it's a pleasure to see someone lay the law down." But both of them look pained.

What is it about hair that awakens passions? A father born with a crew cut and a sense of responsibility breaks into a cold sweat when his teenage son lets his hair grow long. A daughter sobs when her mother insists she cut her hair because summer's coming on. A bunch of young people strip their bodies and ruffle their plumes and step onstage in a wild show called "Hair."

Scientifically, hair stems from a thickening of the middle layer of skin cells, in which a plug forms, and a follicle, blood vessles congregate, and hair grows.

Hair, the ultimate adornment, has always been every man's crown and every woman's glory. It also, by human desire and prejudice, worked its way into law, religion, culture.

Greek children in the early days wore long hair until they reached the age of 18, the status of an ephebe. Then they cut their hair short and curled it in small ringlets. The shorn tresses were sacrificed to Apollo or another of their gods. The Spartans, who tried to be different from the Greeks in many ways, wore short hair in youth, and let it grow long in adulthood.

The Romans wore long hair until about three centuries before Christ when the first barber was brought to Rome from Sicily. As it was, the Romans became hair conscious. The men wore their perfumed hair in piles of curls during Cicero's time, and the women did likewise, adding extra lengths of false hair. The hair they liked best next to their own was blonde hair taken from the conquered Germanic tribes to the north. It was this kind of exploitation that gave imperialism a bad name.

Since the Germanic tribes and the Celts and Franks felt that long hair was a sign of honor, and short hair a sign of submission, the Roman shearing had two effects. It kept Roman wives happy at home, braiding their new hair, and it reminded the conquered tribes who was boss. Ultimately, the peoples of northern Europe recovered the stolen hair and brought down the Roman Empire as a result.

Hair has always had a sexual meaning that has never been carefuly examined, and perhaps for good reason. Japanese women used to remove their eyebrows and blacken their teeth to discourage male attentions. American women blacken their eyebrows and whiten their teeth, presumably with the opposite intent.

Hair is history. But it is difficult to find any pattern to it. About all that seems certain is that an abrupt change in hair usually means an abrupt change in something else — status, age or government.

Reaction shows itself in hair. The roundheads of Oliver Cromwell clipped their hair to the contour of their heads to show defiance to the throne and their Puritan intent. No frivolity for them. They gave the long-haired Royalists a trimming in battle, and succeeded in removing the ruling head of Charles I, hair and all. Englishmen, in typically stubborn style, persisted in wearing longest hair until a tax on wigs helped make them uneconomical, and hence unfashionable.

Massachusetts, then a struggling colony in North America, apparently saw all of this coming. A 1634 law was passed against long hair. And, writes Richard Corson in his book, "Fashions In Hair," the boys at Harvard were not "permitted to wear Long Haire, Locks, Foretops, Curlings, Crispings Partings or Powerding of Ye Haire."

More than 300 years later in 1968, the headmaster at the exclusive Horace Mann School of New York City took another tack. In a prep school where mandatory conservatism was the rule in deportment, he took note of the world around him, and canceled a long-standing rule: "Long or extreme styles of haircuits are unacceptable. Students must be clean shaven."

Said the headmaster: "We have beards among the faculty, and moustaches; and if our boys, whom I believe to be perfectly normal adolescents, wish to try beards or moustaches — more power to them!"

Dr. Frank S. Caprio and Frank B. Caprio, in their book, "Parents and Teenagers," tell parents to cool it when disturbed by the hair styles of their offspring.

"The paradox of fads and fashions is especially marked among teen-agers," they write. "Teen-agers change the way they look and dress in order to look different and the same, to be conspicuous and fade into the square world, that they want to shock. They want to look like each other."

Liz Ready To Retire As Actress

LONDON (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor intends to quit acting soon.

The 36-year-old movie star told the London Evening News today: "I'm planning to retire. I'm not sure if it's going to be next year, but it probably will be."

But Miss Taylor, one of Hollywood's all-time box-office draws, told Evening News correspondent William Hall in Paris is that she might return to the screen if the offers were tempting enough. She is making a movie in Paris.

"I don't want to be a puppet any more. That's why I talk of retiring, although I never say absolutely that I'm quitting .... Some great script might come along that I couldn't resist," she said.

The black-haired beauty whose marriages, tempestuous career and personal life have bathed her in publicity for years, told Hall "Sometmes I long for obscurity. Oh God, yes. I could give all this up without any trouble at all .... I have my husband and my children, and and that's all I want .... We want more time together to enjoy life."

Miss Taylor has undergone five operations and her hair is streaked with gray, but she said: "I'm not worried about growing old. And I don't think you have to be beautiful to keep your sex appeal .... I rather love my gray hair."

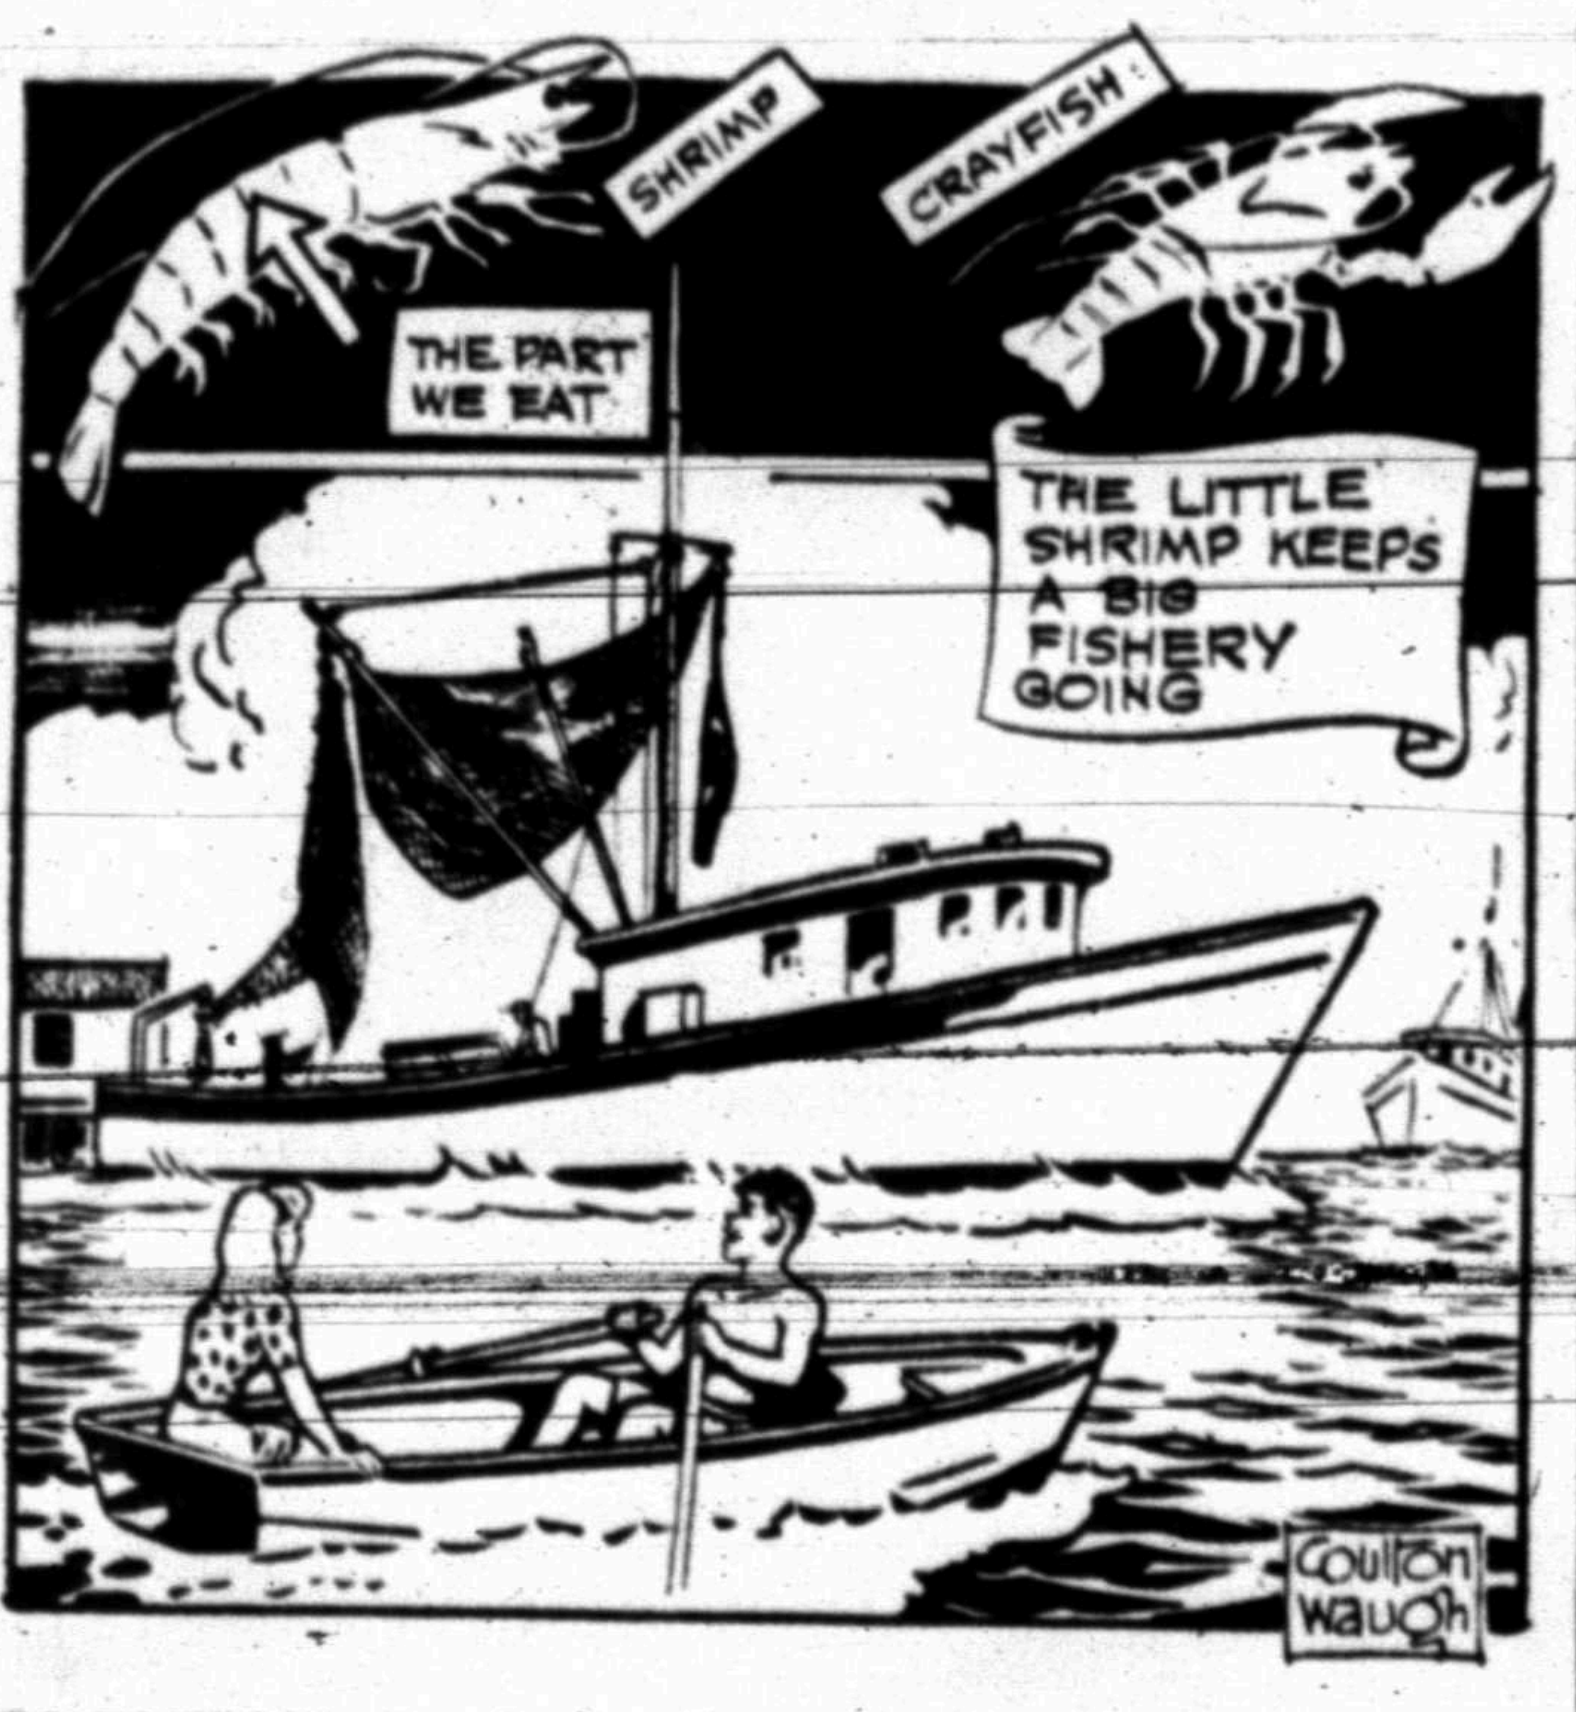
Junior Editors Quiz on SHRIMPS



SHRIMP
CRAYFISH
THE PART WE EAT
THE LITTLE SHRIMP KEEPS A BIG FISHERY GOING
Coulton Waugh

QUESTION: Do shrimps have shells?

* * * *

ANSWER: Shrimps are crustaceans, related to the lobsters and crabs. Their bodies are in two main parts, the front or thorax, and the abdomen or tail. Shrimps generally swim forward, using the little feet under the tail. To get real speed, they hunch the tail in sharply and dart backward. Strong muscles are needed inside the tail part to do this. It is these which produce the delicious shrimp meat we eat. All of the shrimp can be used, for the front part can be ground up for animal food. Shrimps do have shells; jointed ones which protect the body. These are light and translucent, however, rather than thick and rigid like the shells of the sea shell mollusks. As a shrimp grows, he sheds his old shell to develop a new one which fits more comfortably. In our picture, two young visitors to a Florida Gulf Coast port are admiring one of the fine looking vessels used in the important shrimp fishery. Notice the very high bow, useful in riding over ocean waves. The big net is shown hoisted up in the air so that it can dry out.

The Amendments

Following is an analysis of two of the proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution which will be on the ballot at the General election on Nov. 5, as prepared and distributed by the League of Women Voters.

AMENDMENT NO. 1

FOR OR AGAINST the constitutional amendment amending Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas relating to the Employees Retirement Fund and the Employees Retirement System of Texas, revising provisions for investments of money's and other assets of the Fund, and changing other existing provisions and making other new provisions with respect to the administration of the Employees Retirement System.

This proposed amendment to Subsection (a) of Section 62, Article XVI, General Provisions establishes the Employees Retirement System of Texas, up to now a statutory agency, as a constitutional state agency. Operation of the System would be the responsibility of a state board of trustee of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, to be constituted and to serve as determined by the legislature. The legislature is also granted authority to increase the amount of state-matching funds contributed to the State Retirment, Disability, and Death Compensation Fund for officers and employees of the State from the present 5 per cent to a maximum of 6 per cent. Authority is granted to the board of trustees to innvest in federal and other government bonds and in other securities provided that: (1) No more than 1 per cent of the book value of the total assets of the Employees Retirement System may be invested in the stock of any one corporation, nor may it own more than 5 per cent of the voting stock of any one corporation. (2) Stocks eligible for purchase are restricted to stocks of those companies incorporated within the United States that have paid cash dividends for 10 consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and; except for bank and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. (3) at any one time, no less then 25 per cent of the book value of the investments are to be invested in government and municipal securities. (4) Funds available for investment will be those funds remaining after a sufficient amount is kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under the retirement plan.

FOR: Present - day employment practices include retirement plans as an indispensable adjunct to salaries. In a state that has no merit system, it is even more important that employee have confidence in the reliability of the retirement system. By establishing the Employees Retirement System of Texas as a constitutional agency by raising the amount of state - matching funds to 6 per cent and by providing a broader base for investments adequately safeguarded, a healthy retirement system is assured.

AGAINST: This proposed amendment adds nonessential provisions to an already over-long constitution. The Employees Retirement System of Texas is already established as a statutory agency, and the board of trustees already has the broadened investment authority to buy securities that are now or may hereafter be permitted as investments for the Permanent University Fund or for the Permanent School Fund. The Employes Retirement System needs to be placed on a sound actuarial basis. This is not provided for by the proposed amendment.

AMENDMENT NO. 2

FOR OR AGAINST the constitutional amendment raising the limit on the amount that may be expended in any one year out of state funds for Public Assistance payments to Seventy - five Million Dollars ($75,000,000).

This proposed amendment to Section 51-a, Article III, Legislative Department, would raise the ceiling from $60 million to $75 million on the amount of state funds that may be appropriated in any one year by the legislature to be used for financial assistance to needy aged citizens of the United States (or needy noncitizens who have lived in the United States for at least 25 years) who are over 65 years of age; to needy disabled citizens from 18 to 64 years of age; to needy blind citizens over 18 years of age; and to needy children who are citizens and under 21 years of age.

FOR: Adoption of this amendment would assure Texas recipients of Public Assistance that they will not be disqualified from receiving the maximum amount permitted under federal programs because of a deficiency of state funds to meet federal standards.

This proposed increase in Public Assistance funds is justified by the facts that the cost of living is steadily increasing and that present grants do not meet even minimal living requirements. Also, according to the June 1966 report of the Department of Public Welfare, Texas ranked consistently in the lowest percentiles for assistance to its needy: 26th in old-age assistance, 41st in aid to the blind, 45th in aid to dependent children, and 45th in aid to the disabled.

AGAINST: The large increase in the expenditure of state funds that this amendment would authorize would in actuality increase each recipient's income only a few dollars a month, and, in the near future, could require the appropriation of up to $15 million in additional funds at a time when Texas is already having difficulty in meeting its obligations.

Only the fundamental principles of Public Assistance should be included in the state constitution. The practice of including the maximum amount that may be expended in any one year has necessitated resubmitting Section 51-a to the people at frequent intervals, as appropriations are found to be inadequate to keep pace with federal programs, which provide approximately $3.00 in matching funds for each $1.00 of state funds. When Section 51-a was adopted in 1945, with essentially its present provisions, a limit of $35 million was established. It has been necessary to resubmit this section to the people in 1954, 1957, 1962, 1963 and now once again in 1968.

British Business Looks To Queen

By PETER MUCCINI
Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — Britain is sending its best salesman into the setting sun next week, westward to Latin America where some economists conclude there are many untapped wells of trade.

The "salesman" is only 5 feet 4, blessed with lovely grey eyes, a straight, slim figure although slightly pigeon-toed.

She is Queen Eliabeth II.

The queen will be making a state visit to Brazil and Chile, the first time a reigning British monarch has set foot on Latin American soil.

There is little doubt among British businessmen how valuable the state visit can—and probably will—be. The tycoons of trade and money are convinced that the queen will arouse Latin enthusiasm and from that will evolve the cold, beautiful facts of mutual trade.

Buckingham Palace officials say the visit is "to demonstrate the excellent relations that exist between Britain on the one hand and Brazil and Chile on the other."

Behind the pomp and ceremony, however, there is the background of a Britain struggling to put its foreign trade into the black and make sterling devaluation work.

In Brazil and Chile, excitement is mounting. Social columns there are full of news about the visit, and invitations to parties in honor of Elizabeth are the most sought-after status symbols.

With a strictly limited guest list to work from, the queen's hosts have a king-sized problem on their hands. A typical predicament is that of Nilo Coelho, governor of the Brazilian state of Pernambuco. He is to be host at a reception during the queen's three-hour stopover at Recife.

Coelho noted there was room for 150 guests, including 75 members of the British colony.

"Can you imagine having to pick out 75 people out of the hundreds who would like to be invited?" he asked.

This problem also confronts the queen's hosts in Salvador, Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo and Brasilia, the other cities she will visit in Brazil.

The situation is the same in Chile, where the queen will fly Nov. 11 for another seven days crammed with social engagements.

She is scheduled to arrive in Recife Nov. 1 by Royal Air Force VC10 jet. Her husband, Prince Philip, will arrive shortly before her from the Olympic Games in Mexico City.

The Financial Times, British business daily, forecast that with all its untapped potential Brazil may one day outstrip the United States in economic strength.

Knowledgeable British businessmen have seen this market being infiltrated by Americans, Japanese, West Germans and Italians. They are eager to get in before it is too late.

Weathervane Areas Lean Toward Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four of five counties considered political weathervanes because they backed every winning presidential candidate in the 20th Century are leaning toward Republican Richard M. Nixon, a variety of indicators show.

A fifth, Palo Alto County, Iowa, is considered very close, partly because of uncertainty as to how many normally Republican voters will support third-party candidate George C. Wallace.

In all five, an Associated Press survey of local political leaders, newspaper editors and registered voters shows Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey far behind the 1964 position of President Johnson, who carried them then by top heavy majorities.

The four in which Nixon is considered ahead are Coos and Stafford Counties, N.H., Crook County, Ore., and Laramie County, Wyo. The surveys were made earlier this month.

The counties range from predominantly urban Stafford to the farmland of Palo Alto to sparsely settled Crook. Two, Coos and Laramie, combine normally Democratic industrial areas with predominantly Republican rural regions.

Many interviews brought out a feeling of uncertainty or confusion over the three-cornered campaign pitting Humphrey and Nixon against American Independent candidate George C. Wallace.

Another theme, heard in all five, was a desire to change parties in power, if only to try something different.

Rancher Is Top Employer

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Thurmond H. Johnson, owner of Johnson's Turkey and Sheep Ranch of Goldthwaite, Tex., is the winner of the Fifth Annual Employer of the Year Award from the National Association for Retarded Children.

Announcement of the award was made today at the closing luncheon of NARC's 19th annual convention.

Johnson is saving Texas $66,000 a year because 24 of his 27 employes are mentally retarded and all but one come from the Abilene State School, the association said. It costs Texas $2,750 a year just to care for one resident in a state school. This does not include costs for education, vocational rehabilitation, research and demonstration projects and construction.

Johnson pays the young men from the school $160 a month plus room and board. Each has been with him at least eight years.

Grant Goes To Penal Code Panel

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Bar of Texas and the Texas Bar Foundation announced a joint grant of $5,000 Saturday to the Bar's committee on revision of the Texas Penal Code.

The revision committee, assisted by the Texas Legislative Council, is expected to have the proposed code ready for submission to the 62nd Legislature in 1971.

Art Show Entries Are Coming In

Over 150 entries have been received for the West Texas Art Show to be held next Feb. 18, in the Scurry County Coliseum, under sponsorship of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Deadline for receiving entries is Jan. 15, and the ceiling on entries is 600.

Top prize of the show will be $500 for the painting judged best in the entire show. Some artists over the West Texas area report that they are painting special pictures for the event.

Additional cash prizes of $100, $75 and $50 for first, second and third place in each of three categories are expected to make the event one of the most attractive to artists of any show in the Southwest.

Subject matter of entries is imited to paintings and drawings of West Texas, subjects relating to historical, scenic or tourist attractions. Categories include oils, watercolors, and all other media. In the latter sculpture are expected.

Awards of merit will be given to outstanding entries in addition to the cash prizes.

Plans are being made for a traveling exhibit of the top entries, with exhibitions due in several West Texas cities.

IN 3-AAA THRILLER

Bengals Beat Wildcats 27-21

LITTLEFIELD — Snyder's Tigers built enough cushion in the third period to preserve a 27-21 triumph over the host Wildcats here Friday night, but the final outcome of this 3-AAA gridiron thriller was in doubt until the final gun. Like two of the last three matches between these same teams, it was a thrilling skirmish that went down to the wire.

The visiting Tigers threatened to break it open in the third period and appeared to be solidly in command. They boosted a 17-13 halftime lead to 27-13 on a 23 yard field goal by Mitch Rambin — his second of the night — and a beautiful 36 yard run-and-pass play for a touchdown by Steve Holder and David McGinnis.

Holder, who completed 5 of 11 aerials for 97 yards and two touchdowns, rifled a short one to McGinnis as the senior fullback slanted towards the southwest flag. He made the reception at the 'Cat 28 and spanned the remaining distance, mostly on sheer determination. He was hit several times enroute to the goal, but managed to dive across the flag into pay dirt.

The drive was set up by an interception and 10 yard return by Randy Levens, who was outstanding on offense for the Bengals. McGinnis had set up the field goal attempt with a 42-yard punt return.

Late in the third period Holder made a perfect 15 - yard strike to Randy Levens near the east sidelines. The talented running back added 21 more yards after the reception and the Wildcats were on the ropes.

However, a subsequent penalty and a fumble halted the threat and Littlefield took over at its 20. They drove the 80 yards in 14 plays climaxed by a 4-yard TD run by tailback Travis Danford, the Cats' bread-and-butter man. He gained 130 yards on 30 carries. Danford took a pitchout and went wide right for the TD, then he executed a similar maneuver for extra points as the lead was cut to 27-21.

Trailing then by only six points, Littlefield grabbed an on-side kick with Jerry Fudge and Steve Owens making the recovery. With the game riding on every play, the 'Cats drove to the Tiger 38 where they faced a 4th and 9 situation. Charles Holt, who looked sharp on some keepers in the previous drive, went slowly to the right, then charged up the middle. He was slammed down one yard short of a 1st by Eddie Ray McClain and Bill Bilberry.

The 'Cats got possession again before the clock ran out and completed three aerials, the last one a 12-yarder to the Snyder 35, as the final gun sounded.

Strangely enough, the Tigers appeared to be clearly stronger than their foe, although Littlefield held the edge in total offense with 331 yards gained, compared with 252 yards for Snyder. The big difference was in punt returns where Snyder gained 169 yards on six returns. Littlefield returned five for a net gain of only two yards.

Levens returned one 71 yards for a touchdown in the second period in perhaps the most spectacular play of the game. McGinnis almost broke on a couple of punts, but was stopped more by his knee injury than anything else.

The lead changed several times in the first half. Both teams had trouble getting started with Snyder fumbling four times and Littlefield fumbling three times in the first half.

Vernell Kemp, senior fullback, went 14 yards for the first touchdown as Littlefield covered 68 yards in eight plays in the first three minutes. Snyder muffed a splendid opportunity to get a touchdown after Ricky Glasscock hit Kemp so hard he became separated from the ball. McGinnis recovered at the three. The Tigers couldn't move and Rambin kicked a 28 yard field goal. He had missed an earlier one from the 37 yard line after Tom McDorman had come up with a fumble recovery. Mitch made good on all extra point kicks.

McGinnis ripped off a 67-yard run as the first stanza came to a close, but the drive ended with a fumble.

Snyder went ahead 10-6 on Levens' long punt return in the second period, but the 'Cats regained the lead on a 68-yard drive with Holt getting the TD on a 1-yard sneak. Randy Walker kicked point.

A spectacular play put the Bengals ahead just before half time. Holder spiraled a beautiful 20 - yard aerial to Jerry January. The ball cleared the head of the safety. January pulled it in at the two and chugged into the end zone at the southeast corner of the field.

The hitting by the Bengal line was impressive, and some of the younger boys turned in creditable performances. Robert Sadler, Scott Hartley, Valvin Garcia, Dennis Carlton and Tony Breedlove looked good. But, then, all of the Tigers gave a determined effort — after a shaky start . . . . and prior to a shaky ending.

Chiefs, Jets Can Extend Margins

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The American Football League season will be half over Sunday. It might even be all over.

The pace-setting Kansas City Chiefs and New York Jets get a chance to extend their division leads against their closest opposition. Kansas City, 6-1, entertains San Diego, 5-1, in the key Western Division battle while New York, leader in the East with a 4-2 mark, is at home against Boston, 3-3.

Elsewhere, Cincinnati, 2-5, is at Oakland, 4-2; Miami, 2-3-1, at Denver 2-4, and Houston 2-5 at Buffalo, 1-5-1.

In the National Football League Sunday it's Los Angeles at Baltimore, Minnesota at Chicago, New Orleans at St. Louis, San Francisco at Detroit, New York at Washington, Atlanta at Cleveland and Philadelphia at Pittsburgh. Green Bay is at Dallas Monday night in a nationally televised game.

A victory for the Chiefs would move them 1½ games ahead of the Chargers while the Jets can take a two-game lead in the East with a win over Boston.

Kansas City shocked Oakland last week with a straight-T, no-flanker attack that ground out 294 yards rushing. Len Dawson threw only three passes, an AFL low.

Things should open up this week with pass-catchers Otis Taylor and Gloster Richardson back in action. The rugged KC defense has allowed only 66 points in seven games and only two touchdowns in the last five.

But the Chargers rolled up 55 points against Denver last week as John Hadl passed for 321 yards and four touchdowns in 37 minutes. An over-all total of 581 yards boosted the Chargers into the league offense lead.

Boston wwill be trying to beat New York for the first time since 1965. Jim Nance's return gives the Patriots a solid ground game for the first time this season. Placekicker Gino Cappelletti needs 11 points to become the first AFL player ever to score 1,000.

The Jets are coming off a last-minute win in Houston. Joe Namath, who misfired on his first 10 passes, hit four straight in the late going to set up the winning touchdown.

Oakland, after winning 14 straight regular season games, has lost two in a row and dropped to third place in the West. Hewritt Dixon is still the league's top rusher but the Raiders' ground attack has only averaged 98 yards in the two setbacks.

The Miami Dolphins have moved up to third place in the East by winning two and tying one in their last three games. Their top runner, rookie Larry Csonka, returns to action to help Jim Kiick and Stan Mitchell.

Denver's two-game winning streak was broken by San Diego and the Broncos also lost quarterback Steve Tensi with a shoulder injury. He's a doubtful starter Sunday.

Houston's defending Eastern Champions will be fighting to stay within range of the leaders against an injury-plagued Buffalo team.

Canadiens Rap Seals

OAKLAND (AP) — The Montreal Canadiens have continued their unbeaten string at the expense of the Oakland Seals.

The Stanley Cup champions won 4-2 Friday night, gaining first place in the National Hockey League's East Division.

It was the NHL's only game scheduled.

The Canadiens dashed to a 4-0 lead with Jean Beliveau counting a goal and an assist as three shots were zipped past Oakland goalie Gary Smith in a span of 1:42.

The Seals fought back, but Joe Szura's goal in the second period and Ted Hampson's power-play deflection in the final period were not enough.

The Canadiens, winners of five straight, moved ahead of idle Chicago.

Gail Rips Threeway

GAIL — The Borden County Coyotes ripped Threeway 50-12 here Friday night with an awesome offensive display.

They scored twice on long passes and twice on runs of 42 and 25 yards. The other touchdowns resulted from shorter gainers, capping long drives.

Gail now is 5-1 for the campaign while Threeway fell to a 3-4 record.

Iba Refused To Panic

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Hank Iba, the man who refused to panic, is America's unsung hero of the 1968 Olympic Games.

The veteran basketball coach shrugged off criticism of the United States' team last summer, refused to worry during early Olympic challenges, and didn't panic when his team was in trouble in the championship.

And now Iba has the last laugh, because the United States rolled to a 65-50 conquest of Yugoslavia Friday night for the Yanks' seventh straight basketball title in the Olympics.

Iba also kept intact the United States' record of never having lost an Olympic Game, although American critics were sure the string would be snapped this year when the top college players spurned Olympic opportunities.

Without such standouts as Lew Alcindor, Westley Unseld and Elvin Hayes, All-Americans who stayed at home, Iba had his work cut out for him.

The Oklahoma State coach—who also guided the Americans to the 1964 Olympic crown—made a national hero out of a junior college star, taught his rag-tag collection of players to make the most of their ability and wound up with another gold medal.

"It's satisfying," admitted Iba, who said he gave his team three basic rules: "Run as fast as you can and if you get a shot shoot it; if you don't get a shot set up until you have a shot, and play good, strong defense."

That's just what the Yanks did in the finals against Yugoslavia, when the European team battled them nose-to-nose for the first half when the United States led only 32-29.

Then Spencer Haywood, the 6-foot-9 junior college standout who burst out of obscurity with his play in the Olympics, teamed with former Kansas whiz Jo Jo White to send the Yanks on their way.

The two hotshots teamed for 26 points in 12 minutes of the second half, and the United States never abain was in trouble.

Dickson Has Shaky Lead

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP) — Ninety-nine golfers headed into the third round of the $110,000 Haig National Open Tournament today, paced by a young man who was afraid he might not qualify for the final 36 holes.

Bob Dickson of Tulsa, Okla, a rookie in professional golf but internationally known as an amateur, hit the mid-way point with rounds of 68-65—133 and a lead of two strokes.

Dickson, 24, a 210-pound, 6-foot-3, with sandy hair, finished the Friday round early and said he doubted his lead would stand up.

Dickson in 1967 won the U.S. and British amateur championships, the first to win these crowns in the same year since the late Lawson Little scored the double in 1934 and 1935.

As play got under way over the 6,650-yard, par 36-35—71 Mesa Verde Country Club course, Dickson's nearest challengers were Bruce Crampton, Bill Collins and a relative unknown, Dick Rhyan Jr., from Sylvania, Ohio.

Three strokes back in a group of 11 were such contenders as Billy Casper, George Kundson, Chi Chi Rodriguez.

MAKES RECEPTION — Jerry January (86), senior Tiger end, is being pulled down by an unidentified Wildcat during the Snyder-Littlefield football contest. January scored on a 23-yard pass play after taking a perfect strike from quarterback Steve Holder, also a senior, during the second period.

TITANS COLLIDE IN NFL

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Baltimore Colts better be up to par Sunday because the foursome they will be meeting is noted for teeing off on passers, runners and anyone else who happens by.

The foursome called fearsome is the Los Angeles Rams' line of Lamar Lundy, Roger Brown, Merlin Olsen and Deacon Jones, the keystone of the National Football League's leading defense.

Baltimore's first loss in six games, 30-20 to Cleveland last Sunday, "was not the result of any pecific breakdown, but simply a below par game for everybody," Colts Coach Don Shula said.

Another such performance could be disastrous for the Colts because a loss would drop them two games behind the unbeaten Rams in the Coastal Division at the season's halfway point.

Another key game will be Monday night's nationally televised scrap in the Cotton Bowl between the struggling Green Bay Packers, 2-3-1 and the high-riding Dallas Cowboys, 6-0.

Elsewhere in the NFL Sunday, San Francisco, 3-3, is at Detroit, 3-2-1; Minnesota, 3-3, at Chicago, 2-4; New Orleans 3-3 at St. Louis 3-3; Atlanta, 1-5, at Cleveland, 3-3; the New York Giants, 4-2, at Washington, 3-3, and Philadelphia, 0-6, at Pittsburgh, 0-6.

Boston is at the New York Jets, Cincinnati at Oakland, Houston at Buffalo, Miami at Denver and San Diego at Kansas City in the American Football League Sunday.

Earl Morrall once again will start for Baltimore in place of Johnny Unitas, who is recuperating from a torn muscle in his right elbow and who has had trouble passing in practice this week.

Unitas started the second half against Cleveland last Sunday but completed only one of 11 passes and had three intercepted.

Lundy and running back Dick Bass and Tommy Mason, out last week with minor injuries, are expected to return to action for Los Angeles. Roman Gabriel had a big passing day and Willie Ellison ran for 89 yards against Atlanta, but once again the Rams will be counting heavily on the defense.

Green Bay will be facing the NFL's leading offense and second-best defense as the Packers try to get untracked and also continue their hold over Dallas, which has seen them beat the Cowboys in their last three regular-season meetings and in the last two league championhips.

Bart Starr, who has seen only brief service in the last two games, is expected to start at quarterback for the Packers.

Detroit, which leads Minnesota by one-half game and Green Bay by a full game in the Central Division, once again will count on the passing of Bill Munson and the running of Mel Farr, the NFL's top rusher, to get by steadily improving San Francisco. The 49ers move on the passing combination of John Brodie to Clifton McNeil.

Minnesota, which came up with a fine defensive effort although losing 20-7 to Dallas, will try to get its offense moving against Chicago, a club with a leaky defense and an offense hurt by quarterback problems.

The three-way first-place tie in the Century Division among New Orleans, St. Louis and Cleveland should be reduced to at least a two-way tie.

St. Louis, which beat New Orleans 21-20 earlier in the season, suddenly has come up with a potent ground attack, which is led by Willis Crenshaw. New Orleans' most consistent offensive weapon is the field goal kicking of Charlie Durkee who has hit 11 of 19 attempts.

Cleveland should have momentum after upsetting Baltimore, but the Browns won't be able to take Atlanta lightly. The Falcons led Los Angeles 14-0 before losing 27-14. Cleveland's Leroy Kelly appears to be on the move and is second in the league in rushing.

The Giants, two games behind Capitol Division-leading Dallas after losing their last two contests, will have the usual problem of any team that plays Washington—stop Sonny Jurgensen. New York did it well enough to win the first encounter of the two teams this season.

Pittsburgh might break into he victory column and leave Philadelphia as the league's only winless team if for no other reason than the Steelers have the home field advantage.

Hermleigh Puts Down Sands 26-14

HERMLEIGH — Striking by land and air, the Hermleigh Cardinals began their quest for the District 6-B football title here Friday night on a happy note, turning back stubborn Sands 26-14.

Tom Chorn, the Cardinals' talented tailback, broke open the game late in the third period with a 65 yard romp around left end that put Hermleigh ahead for good. Quarterback Ronnie Helm scored in the fourth period on a 4-yard keeper to sack if up.

Sands had tied the game early in the third frame on a 30-yard run-and-pass play from quarterback Stevie Herm to Kynn Maxwell.

Hermleigh scored in the first period on a 33-yard pass, Helm to Robert Peterson, and in the second stanza when Chorn went across from the one to cap a long drive. Helm passed to Leonard Kuss for two extra points.

Sands scored in the second quarter when Maxwell ripped off an 8-yard run and Ronnie Taylor caught a 2-pointer in the end zone.

Next Friday, Hermleigh will be at Wilson.

Happiness Is Children, And Winning

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A third child and a second straight victory have to make Donnis Butcher the happiest man in the National Basketball Association today.

The Detroit coach, plagued by recent rumors that all was not harmony between him and his players after losing their first three games of the season, welcomed the birth of his third child Friday afternoon. And in the evening, he welcomed the Pistons' second victory in a row, a 132-122 decision over Philadelphia in Detroit.

In the other two games, Los Angeles beat Baltimore 117-111 and Seattle tripped Atlanta 123-112.

In the only American Basketball Association contest, visiting Kentucky held off the New York Nets 99-92.

The Pistons, who held a 63-61 lead at intermission, wasted little time building a 21-point bulge from there behind Dave Bing, Happy Hairston and Dave DeBusschere.

The 76ers did close within six points with little more than a minute left but Bing dropped in three points and Eddie Miles a rebound for the clinchers.

Bing finished with 37 points and Hairston contributed 31. Hal Greer had 30 points for the 76ers.

Jerry West, with 34 points, and Wilt Chamberlain, with 24, paced the Lakers to their home victory over Baltimore. A 17-2 spurt in the second period gave them a 47-31 lead and they stayed ahead. Gus Johnson topped the Bullets with 27 points.

Tom Meschery and Len Wilkens provided the scoring punch with 24 and 21 points, respectively, in triggering the Sonics' success over the Hawks at Seattle. Joe Caldwell was high for Atlanta with 23.

Louie Dampier and Darel Carrier combined for 54 points, 27 each, to lead Kentucky over New York in the ABA. It was the home opener at Commack, N.Y., for the Nets, known last year as the New Jersey Americans. Walt Simon and Dan Anderson each got 15 points to lead the Nets.

Permian Falls 17-27

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The powers of Texas schoolboy football poured it on Friday night as they ran up impressive scores.

Dallas South Oak Cliff, rated the top Class AAAA outfit, smashed North Dallas 61-0 while second-ranked Galveston Ball defeated Odessa Permian, third-ranked, 27-17 in the top game of the night.

Powerful Perryton, the highest ranked Class AAA club, overwhelmed Tulia 68-21 as second-ranked Henderson crushed Jacksonville 35-7. Third-ranked Alvin won impressively 49-12 over Hitchcock. Fourth-ranked Refugio flattened Floresville 42-0.

In Class AA, top-ranked Iowa Park blasted Memphis 56-0 as second-ranked Crane dumped Stanton 51-0.

And down in Class A, the rugged Poth Pirates made pulp of another foe, crunching Pettus 77-0. Second-ranked Honey Grove plays tonight.

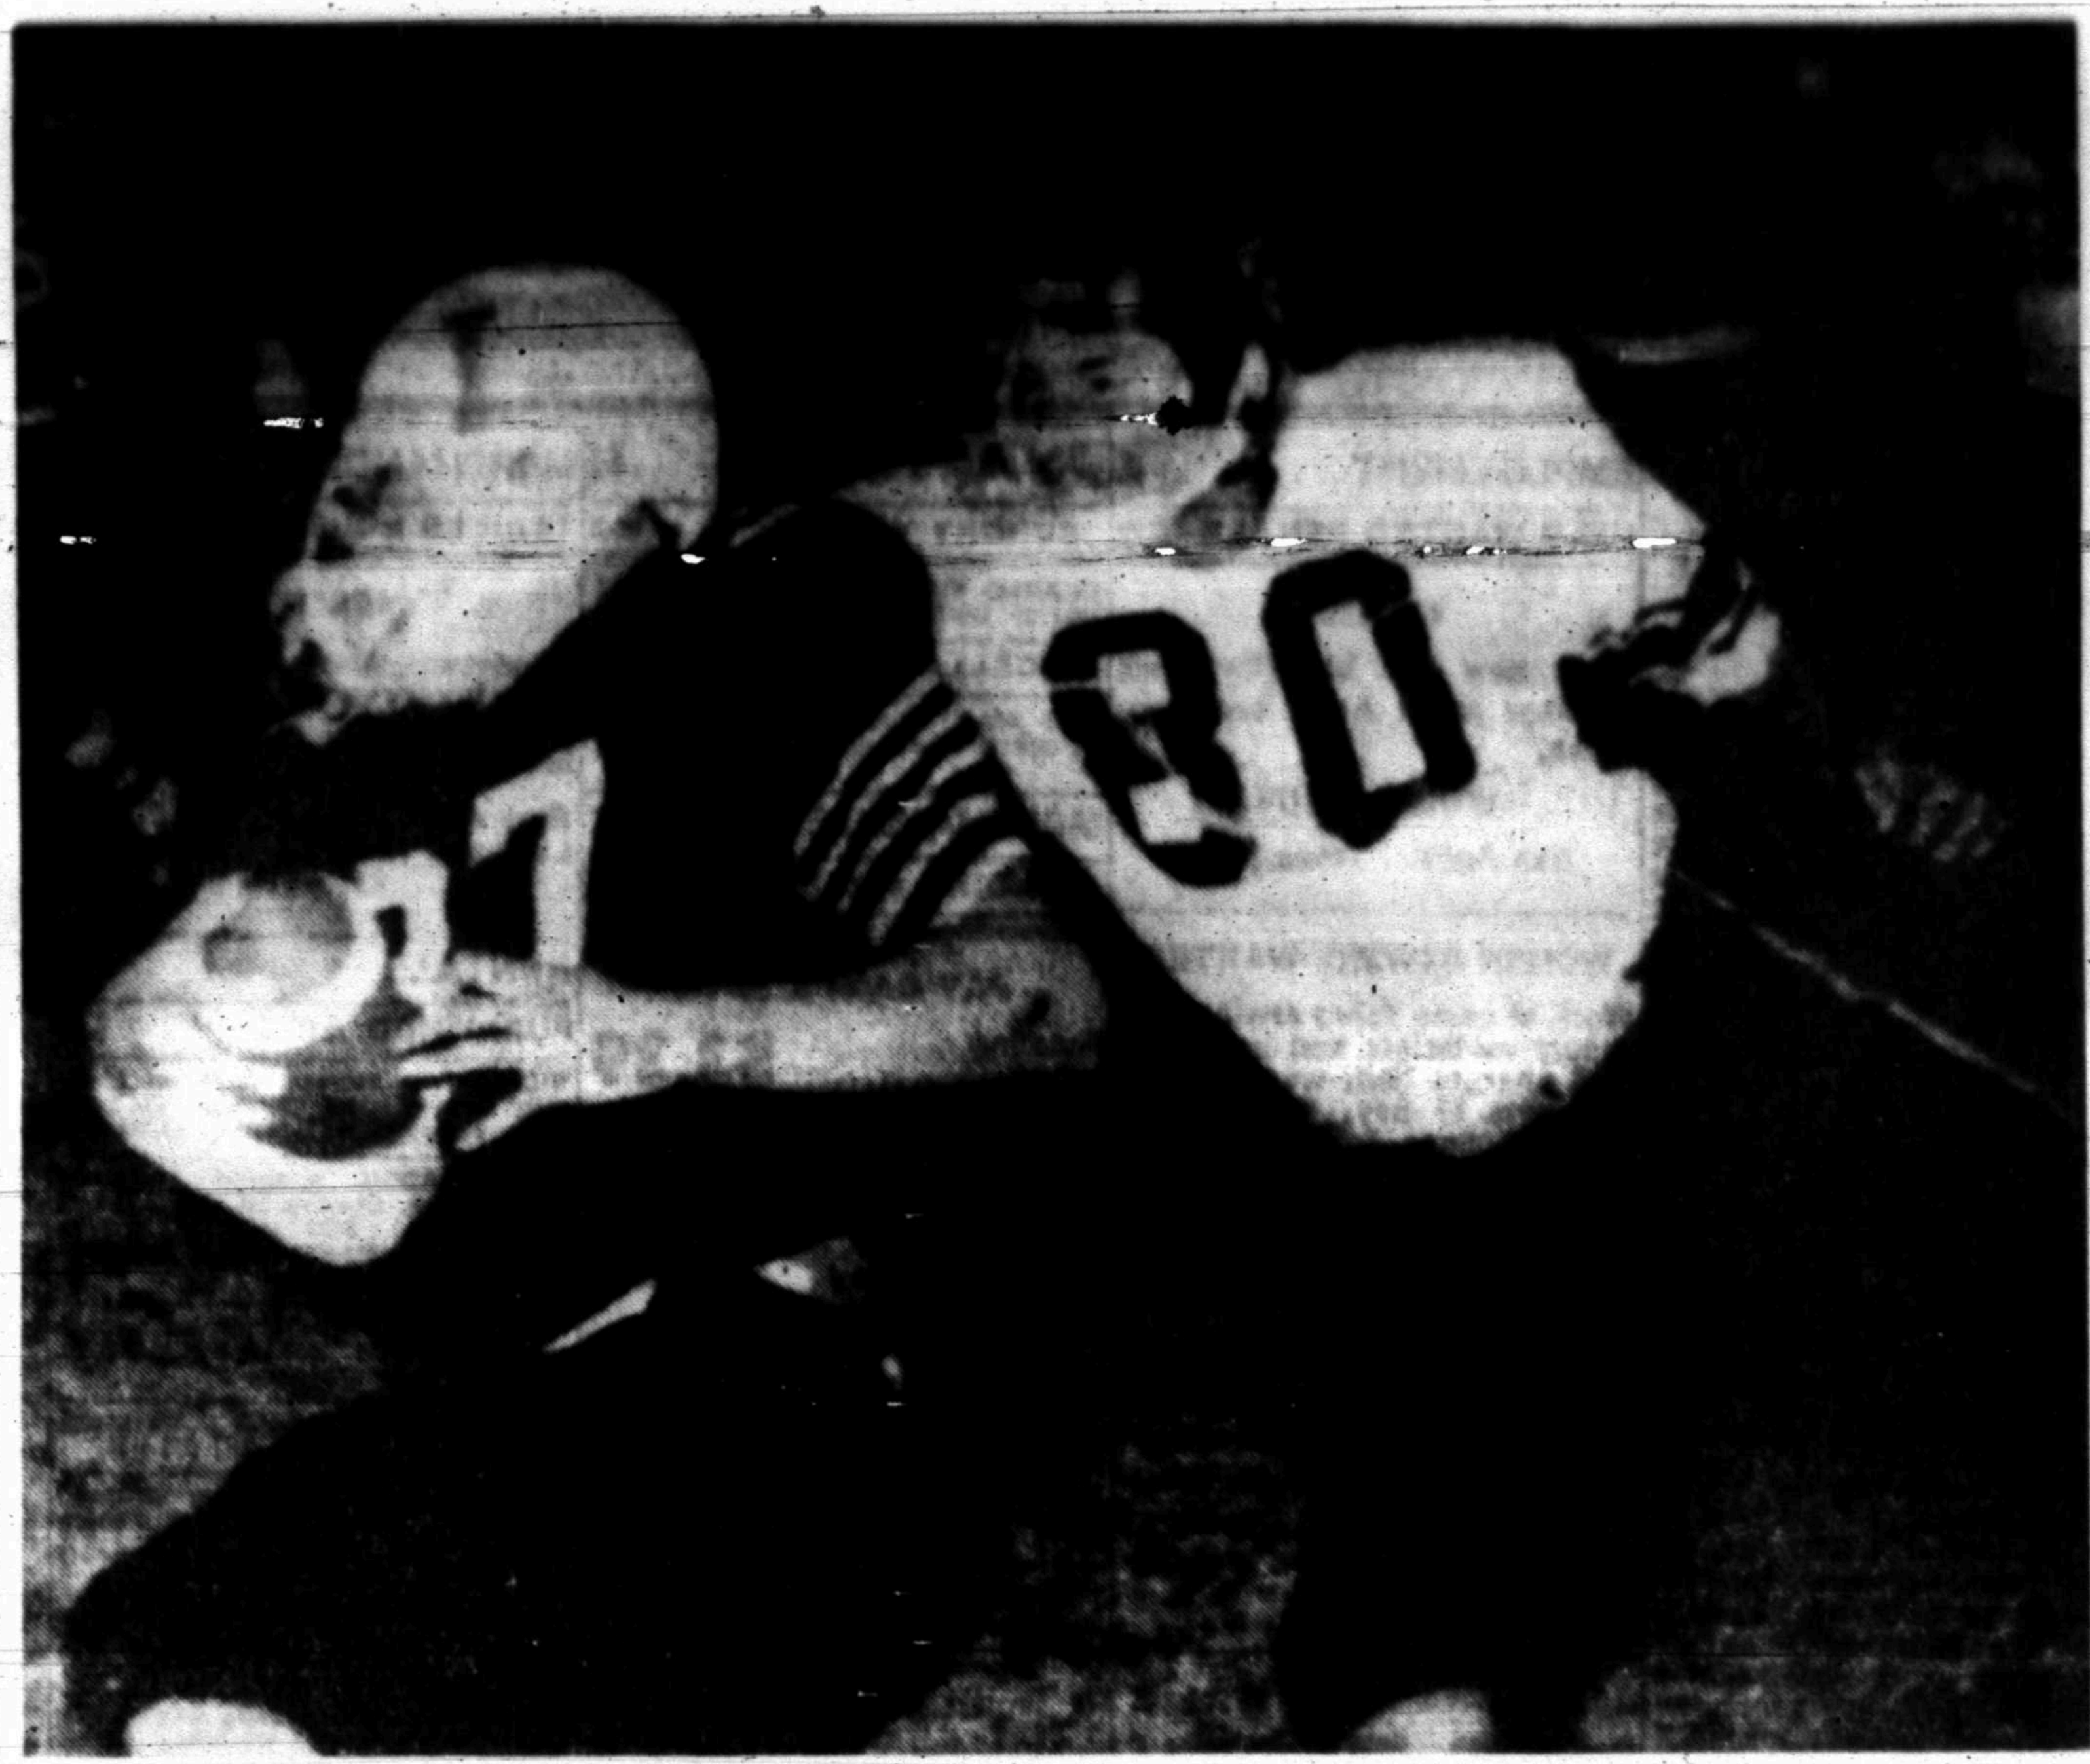
Big Jack Is 1-Up

PERTH, Western Australia (AP) — Jack Nicklaus of Colombus, Ohio is 1-up on the course record but in a first-place tie at 135 with Australian Billy Dunk midway through the Australian Open Golf Championship.

Nicklaus, who had a 71 Thursday, collected eight birdies and an eagle in firing a 31-33—64 Friday to break the four-year-old course record of 66 set by Australian Peter Thomson.

While Nicklaus moved into a tie with Dunk, who added a four-under 68 to his previous 67, Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., slipped into a tie for fifth with a 69-70-139.

Trailing the two leaders were Gary Player of South Africa at 136 and Ted Ball of Australia at 137 with two more rounds left to play in the 72-hole tourney.



GOOD DEFENSE — Snyder's Merce Hernandez (80) charges in from his defensive cornerback spot to slam Littlefield's wingback, Eddie Hickman, to the turf following a short pass reception during the district gridiron thriller Friday night. Snyder won 27-21.

'Rag-Tag' Cage Team Rolls In Gold After 65-50 Triumph

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — America's pick-up basketball team, shunned by many of the top collegiate stars but molded into a precision outfit by Coach Henry Iba, brought the United States its 40th gold medal of the Olympic Games.

The Americans, never beaten in Olympic basketball competition, whipped Yugoslavia 65-50 Friday night, extending their unbeaten Olympic string to 75 games.

Sleeping giant Russia awoke and grabbed a double fistful of medals, 16 in all, and pert Vera Caslavska of Czechoslovakia became the darling of the Games as she picked up three more gold medals in gymnastics for a total of four.

Russia's huge haul of medals, including five gold, pushed their total to 69, 27 of them gold. They're assured of at least six more medals today—the last full day of competition in these 19th Games—and also should collect another flock in men's gymnastics and Greco-Roman wrestling.

But the move may be too late.

The United States, out-scored by Russia in total medals in every Olympics since 1952 now has 99 medals and should add to that in the final three swimming events, which the Americans have dominated.

Claudia Kolb, Santa Clara, Calif., took the women's 400-meter individual medley by 40 meters in Olympic record time of 5:08.5, and Lillian "pokey" Watson, a UCLA freshman, took the women's 200-meter backstroke in 2:24.8, also an Olympic record.

They represented the 19th and 20th golds collected by the swimming and diving team—but the day belonged to the basketball team.

They trailed several times during the first half and led only 32-29 at halftime; but Jo Jo White and Spencer Haywood scored 26 points in 12 minutes of the second half Haywood finished with 23 points and White with 14.

"We knew we were not expected to win," said Haywood, a doubtful starter because of a case of diarrhea. "We knew we were a downgraded team and this made us want to prove something to ourselves."

Russia, silver medalist in the four previous games, settled for the bronze medal, beating Brazil 70-53.

Miss Caslavska, a 26-year-old blonde, captured the imagination of the Mexican fans with her graceful, athletic, near-perfect performances in women's gymnastics.

She had taken the women's all-around title Wednesday, and Friday won vault horse and uneven parallel bars competition, and tied for first with Larissa Petrik of Russia in floor exercises. Both were awarded gold medals.

Miss Caslavska, who is to be married today to Josef Odlovil, a Czech 1,500-meter runner, also won the silver medal in the balance beam competition, being edged out by Natalia Kuchinskava of Russia, 19.650 to 19.575.

The Russians also picked up two gold medals, and a total of six, in canoeing, and Ivan Tzimov, riding Ijor, won the individual dressage.

Defending champion Ludmila Pinaeva won the women's 500-meter kayak singles in 2:11.09, and Alexander Shaparenko and Vladimir Morozov took the men's double kayaks, finishing the 1,000 meters in 3:37.54.

Hungary dominated the canoeing competition with two gold, three silver and on bronze. The United States was blanked.

Miss Kolb, 18, winner of two gold medals, announced her retirement from competitive swimming after accepting the gold medal for the 400-meter individual medley.

"No, I'm not bored with swimming," she said. "But I've been training for 12 years and I think it is time to try something else.

"I think Lynn Vidall will make a fine successor if she stays with it."

Miss Valdi, 16-year-old San Francisco high school student, was second in 5:22, followed by Sabine Steinbach of East Germany.

"I really didn't think I could beat Claudia," Miss Vidali said. "But I'm happy to win the silver medal. Maybe someday I can be number one."

Miss Watson, who said, "I definitely will keep swimming while I'm in school, but I don't know if I will swim seriously," edged Canada's Elaine Tanner. Kay Hall, Tacoma, Wash., was third. It was Miss Hall's third medal. She has two golds.

Roland Mathes of East Germany broke the American domination, winning the men's 200-meter backstroke in Olympic record time of 2:09.6, 1½ meters in front of Mitchell Ivey, Santa Clara, with Jackson Horsley, Tacoma, Wash., third.

One more bizarre incident was added to the long list of controversies, this time in Greco-Roman wrestling.

A Bulgarian, Hristo Traikov, who scored a clean win over American bantamweight David Hazewinkel of Coon Rapids, Minn., was disqualified when it was discovered he was sniffing smelling salts in a towel during the elimination bout.

"You know it is not allowed to eat, drink or even breathe during these games," said international wrestling doctor Per Stromback of Sweden. "The Bulgarian breathed smelling salts from his towel. We had to throw him out."

Strong, But Superstitious

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Big George Foreman, America's Olympic heavyweight boxng hope, doesn't fear Russians, hell or high water. But a black cat can turn him into a shrinking, sniveling coward.

"Man, I admit it—I am probably the most superstitious man in the world," said the tall, hard-hitting Negro from Pleasanton, Calif., today as he sweated out tonight's gold medal bout with the Soviet Union's tough Ionas Chepelis.

"I don't walk under ladders. I'm careful with mirrors. I don't light three on a match. I spit on my thumb when I see a load of hay.

"Every morning, I read my horoscope. I'm a nut on astrology, numbers and things like that."

Foreman is one of three U.S. boxers in tonight's final at the Mexico Arena. Lightweight Ron Harris of Canton, Ohio, faces Poland's defending champion, Josef Grudzien, and featherweight Al Robinson of Oakland, Calif.; opposes Antonio Roldan of Mexico.

Foreman hasn't seen the Russian fight.

"They tell me he is about my size, bigger around the middle," the 6-foot-3½, 218-pound American heavyweight said, "and they say he can punch.

"I didn't want to see him until we get in the ring, eye ball to eye ball. It's like a groom seeing the bride before the wedding. It's bad luck."

Foreman 19, was born in Houston, the son of a construction worker and one of seven children. He remembers little of his father. His mother, a nursery worker, reared the family.

At 16, George joined the Job Corps, moved to Pleasanton, Calif., became an instructor and two years ago started to box. He has come fast. Some experts regard him as a prospect comparable to Joe Louis and Cassius Clay.

30 YEARS AT ACTING

Jimmy Stewart: Superstar

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The average superstar who has been around the Hollywood dream factories over a period of years is likely to hate those television reruns of old films.

James Stewart, who has appeared in close to 75 motion pictures over more than 30 years in the film acting business, is an exception to the rule.

The continued use of some very elderly Stewart films, including "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" and "The Philadelphia Story" on late night and late afternoon TV, often shows us the young, skinny and diffident Jimmy Stewart.

On a recent movie night the frankly middle-aged James Stewart played a cattleman in a 1966 Western. The fact that the Stewart film, "The Rare Breed," was considered to be one of the big shows in NBC's feature stockpile indicates the staying power of the actor.

"I think showing old movies is great," said Stewart with genuine enthusiasm. "In this acting business you've got to have an audience."

"What television has done, using my old movies, is to bring me a whole new audience—not just kids but people who didn't go to the theater before. It's like a reprieve!

"I enjoy doing an occasional television show," he continued, "particularly Dean Martin's. It's professional, and it's fun—and the coverage it gets! I've done the Carson show in New York and I did 'Password' several times and was a stock character on the Benny shows. At one time I even began to wonder about overexposure.

"Generally, I think the appearances are good for a guy, and good for any new picture you've made. It reminds people that, after 30 years, you're still around."

The years have, of course, touched the actor, but lightly. At 60 he has the same tall, spare build and agility of a romantic star. His forehead is higher these days and the hair is more gray than black. There is the same gentle hesitancy of manner, but there is enormous dignity and reserve, leavened by humor, in his manner.

Stewart is one of filmdon's important holdouts where television is concerned.

At heart, he is obviously a motion man. Even after all the years and all the films, when he starts talking about the business and the art of filmmaking, it is like listening to a man in love.

"It is different from working 'under the guns' on television and radio, because there is time. And, if you have a great director, it becomes fascinating, a mystery. I remember working on a picture with John Ford, and we had done 30 takes of a scene and I thought that some of them were close to perfection.

"I asked him what he wanted. 'I don't know,' he said 'I'm waiting for something to happen. Just do it, and do it again until something happens.'

"That's true—you don't know when or why it happens, but the people sort of come together. Ford said that good things happen by accident, and I guess he's right. What the actor does is try to maintain a consistency of performance and then depend on a moment of meaning to come through. Suddenly—and it has happened again and again —the whole thing takes fire and goes up. Then it is very exciting."

Stewart's life, without the pressure of chasing a dollar, seems pleasantly filled. He works when he likes a script, he's active on the Los Angeles Boy Scout Council; continues to serve as an elder of the Beverly Hills Presbyterian Church, and is a trustee of Claremont College. Married comparatively late in life — he was 43 — he is a devoted family man, the kind who carries pictures of wife and children in his wallet.

This past summer, Stewart, his wife Gloria, and their twin daughters, Judy and Kelly, were on a leisurely camera safari in Africa. Stewart, an excellent photographer, returned with stacks of stills and motion pictures of the animals and plants of the continent.

He is a Pennsylvania native, attended Mercersburg Academy and went on to Princeton, where he majored in architecture. Upon graduation, Joshua Logan, another Princeton graduate, asked him to work in a Cape Cod stock company—and Stewart never did get back to the drawing board.

CAREER CORNER

By F. J. LAIN

Miss Lain awards a new Mercury portable, courtesy of the Royal Typewriter Co., to Patrick Rupel, Dallas, Tex., for his question:

"I'm a sophomore in high school. After graduation I would like an apointment to the Air Force Academy. Besides academic and physical requirements, are there any areas in school in which I should be active?"

A — Our thanks to Col. William R. Jarrell, Jr., acting Registrar, U.S. Air Force Academy, for this information.

THE COMPETITIVE EDGE. Since the Academy prepares Cadets for leadership in the Air Force, it follows that, in the competitive appointment categories, applicants with a superior leadership record stand a better chance of acceptance (all other qualifying factors being equal). You should participate in extracurricular activities, both athletic and non-athletic, to demonstrate your guiding-light talent. However. . . .

DON'T MAKE THE MISTAKE OF JOINING EVERYTHING IN SIGHT. The Academy considers a candidate's potential to be greater through distinction, such as being elected class president or earning an athletic letter award, than joining in a variety of activities without evidence of leadership.

WAYS TO SHOW YOUR STUFF: (1) President or vice president of schoolclasses or student government. (2) Partipitation and achievement in athletics (football, baseball, basketball, track and others). (3) Meritorious awards in academic or leadership activities (Citizenship Award, Outstanding Student Award, Boys State Delegate, National Merit Scholarship Recognition). (4) Participation and achievement in public speaking, publications or musical activities. (5) Participation and achievement in the Eagle Scouts, Civil Air Patrol, or Reserve Officer Training Corps.

FREE EDUCATION. Air Force Academy students receive their education free and have personal expenses paid by the Federal government: (Cadets receive $171.60 a month, plus tuition, medical care and room and board.) After four years of study, graduates hold a bachelor of science degree, and the rank of second lieutenant. They must serve on active duty for at least five years after receiving their commissions. To become a candidate for Academy admission, you must first be nominated.

WHO MAKES NOMINATIONS? There are various sources of nominations (categories of admiission); you should apply for all in which you qulify. . .

(A) COMPETITIVE NOMINATIONS (applicants compete for acceptance on an order-of-merit basis) consist of: Presidential, Regular and Reserve Air Force Components, Sons of Deceased or Disabled Veterans, Honor Military - Naval School, and AF ROTC.

(B) OPTIONAL NOMINATIONS (may be made by either the competitive or non-competitive selection method) are available from these nominating sources: Congressional, Vice Presidential, Commissioners of the District of Columbia, Governors of Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone. (Sons of Medal of Honor recipients are automatically apointed provided they meet minimum qualifying standards.)

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS are the source of most appointments. You should apply to your State's U.S. Senators and the Representative of the Congressional district in which you live.

GET THE FULL PARTICULARS by writing for the Air Force Academy catalog 1968—1969. Adress your request to The Registrar, U.S. Air Force Academy, Colorado 80840.

INFORMATION ON OTHER FEDERAL SERVICE ACADEMIES can be obtained by writing to: Director of Admissions and Registrar, U.S. Military Academy, West Point, N.Y. 10996; Dean of Admissions, U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. 21402; Director of Admissions, U.S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn. 06320; Admissions Office, U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, N.Y. 11024.

Court Martial Returns Six Verdicts

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — A court martial board deliberated almost three hours late Friday night before finding two soldiers innocent of failing to disobey an officers order and four others guilty as charged.

The six soldiers were among 41 charged with refusing an officer's order after a protest demonstration against possible riot control duty in Chicago for the Democratic National Convention.

The Army said the men were part of a group that gathered at an intersection on the Army post and refused to disperse when told to do so by an officer.

The court martial board found Sgt. Robert Rucker, 21, of Gary, Ind., and Pfc. Ernest Bess, 22, of Trenton, N.J. innocent.

Convicted were Splc. 4 Tollie Roya 20, Texarkana, Tex.; Pfc. Guy Smith, 21, the Bronx, N.Y.; Pfc. Ernest Frederick, 18 Detroit, Mich.; and Spec. 4 Albert Henry Jr. 19, Houston, Tex.

Smith and Frederick were given bad conduct discharges by the court martial board, an Army spokesman said.

Henry was sentenced to three months confinement at hard labor, forfeiture of $25 per month pay for three months and reduction to the lowest enlisted rank.

Roya was sentenced to three months of hard labor without confinement, reduction to the lowest enlisted rank and forfeiture of $25 per month pay for three months.

The board took 2 hours and 50 minutes to deliberate their verdict, then another 3½ hours to fix punishment for the four convicted.

Nine of the men are still to go on trial. Scheduled for court martial Monday are Spec. 4 Thomas Torian, Pfc. Frank Walton, Pfc. Rufus Belcher, Pvt. Norman Clanton and Spec. 4 James Wilcoxson, an Army spokesman said.

DAVID NIVEN is shown here in a scene from "Prudence and the Pill," which starts at the Ritz Theater Nov. 3. Deborah Kerr co-stars with Niven.

Cardinal To Resign Boston Post

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing said Friday he will resign as archbishop of Boston at the end of the year, citing publicity he received after his defense of Jacqueline Kennedy's marriage to Aristotle Onassis.

Cardinal Cushing, obviously angered, said he had received "many letters condemning me for asking charity for Jacqueline Kennedy." He said some were "in the language of the gutter."

The cardinal on Tuesday urged a more tolerant attitude toward the remarriage and said it was nonsense to say the former First Lady was excommunicated from the Roman Catholic Church because she married a divorced man.

"Now I propose after the publicity I have received in recent days, in my own native city, which publicity has been going all over the world, to offer my resignation to His Holiness, Pope Paul VI, at the end of this year," he said Friday on radio station WEEI.

The cardinal, a friend of the Kennedy family for years, said in early 1967 he would retire in August 1970 on his 75th birthday, when he would have completed 50 years as a priest.

The cardinal, who officiated at the marriage of the late President John F. Kennedy to Jacqueline Bouvier, said he had promised Kennedy he would look out for Jacqueline and their children if anything happened to him.

"He seemed to foresee that something was going to happen to him," the prelate said.

"I have fulfilled it even though my contacts with Jacqueline were for the most part in times of sorrow," he said.

"Time advanced. She wanted to get married. She selected her own partner in marriage some months ago. She came to me after others had advised her against her marriage.

"Her mind and heart were set upon Mr. Onassis. I could not, nor would I presume to change her thinking," he said.

Cardinal Cushing said he never told Jacqueline Kennedy or anyone else that she could marry in the Catholic Church.

"I said she could marry anyone she wished and that's what the press picked up," he said.

Apply For Transfer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission Friday announced it had received an application from Austin, Tex., to transfer the license of Station KVET-TV from KVET Broadcasting Co. to McAlister Television Enterprises, Inc.

Textbook Lists Now Available

A list of textbooks recommended by the State Textbook Committee for adoption for use in Texas Public schools has been received here, Supt. Bill J. Hood of Snyder Public Schools has announced.

The books are now under consideration by the State Commissioner of Education, and if approved the complete list will be presented to the State Board of Education for adoption at its meeting on Nov. 11. The books adopted will be introduced into the schools on Sept. 1, 1969.

The list of books under consideration is available for examination by any citizen at the school business office here.

Subject areas involved in textbook selections this year include drawing, language and grammar, vocal music, literature, dictionaries, spelling, Latin, geometry, industrial arts, vocational industrial education and high school chemistry.

Local school districts make their own selections of textbooks in the various fields from the lists adopted by the state.

Squirrels vary in size from the South African Pigmy squirrel that is the size of a mouse to the black and yellow giant squirrel of the Malayan Archipelego that attain sthe size of a house cat.

VICTORY TRAIL? — Millard K. Neptune (left), candidate for commissioner of the general land office, and E. G. Schuhart II, candidate for commissioner of agriculture, brought their political campaigns to Snyder Saturday morning during a whirlwind tour of the state. Traveling in a bus, they called their trip the "68 victory trail" because they plan to visit 68 cities. Neptune is a rancher and lives in Houston. Schuhart, former mayor of Dalhart, also has ranching and farming interests. Both are campaigning under the GOP banner.

MULCHING — Cotton burs being applied on a local farm from a bur truck. Application of cotton burs will increase yields and protect the soil from wind and water erosion. A minimum of 3 tons of burs per acre is recommended. The ACP program will cost share 50 per cent of the cost of spreading cotton burs on the land not to exceed $6 per acre.

Two Killed In Air Crash

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP) — A member of a prominent West Texas ranch family and a passenger in his plane were killed Friday as the rancher attempted to land at the Monahans Airport.

Killed at the crash scene was David Kritser, 50, the rancher-pilot. He was the brother of Shelby Kritser, general manager of the Amarillo Globe Times, who died in an Amarillo plane crash several years ago.

Larry McCathern, owner of a Pampa pipeline firm, died Friday afternoon, several hours after the morning mishap. Also injured in the accident was Roy Mason of Amarillo, who was not believed seriously hurt.

Witnesses said the plan's right engine failed as Kritser made his landing approach at the airport. Kritser took off early Friday from Lubbock after filing a flight plan for a round trip to Monahans.

MILITARY'S GLAMOUR WEAPON

B52s Playing Decisive Role

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — It is one of the ironies of Vietnam's guerrilla war that the most devastating weapon now being used is probably the strategic bomber.

When the big B52 Stratofortresses started bombing Viet Cong jungle sanctuaries in June 1965 even the ground soldiers were skeptical—not to mention civilian pubic opinion.

Most of the strikes were at remote jungle areas and the pilots themselves sometimes called them "monkey raids." Frequently they joked that their bombs were making the most expensive matchsticks in the world.

There was something unreal in the idea that a sophisticated nuclear bomber six miles up could be effective against rubber-sandaled guerrillas lurking in jungles.

Outside the military command structure, the attitudes of critics have perhaps changed little. Within the American military family, however, the B52 has become the glamour weapon of the foot-soldier and airman alike.

"Without area bombing we could easily be losing this war," one Air Force staff officer remarked.

The American commander in South Vietnam, Gen. Creighton Abrams, is a foot-soldier's general if ever there was one. And he now views the Stratofortresses as among the principal weapons in his arsenal. He directs the raids as carefully as he deploys his infantrymen. He is the final arbiter when priorities get tight.

Abrams credits the big bombers, which carry a 60,000-pound bomb load, with a decisive role in lifting the siege at Khe Sanh early this year. Similarly, when the Communist command was attempting to maneuver troops into place for a second strike at Saigon in July and August the bombers got much credit for grinding down enemy effectiveness.

On some days when the intelligence haul has been rich, Abrams has called for a maximum effort and the Air Force has put as many as 60 Stratoforts over Vietnam. That is a bomb load of 304 million pounds in one 24-hour period.

Much of this has little direct military effect. Frequently the enemy is gone when the bombs fall. As many infantry officers say, however, "when the B52s are on target, they're terrific."

For more than a year captured prisoners have spoken in awe of the big bombers they never see. Recently a young North Vietnamese captive reported the bombers killed 400 men in his 460-man battalion.

The American GI in the boondocks regards the B52 with equal awe. Marines at Khe Sanh watched wide-eyed as the sides of nearby mountains erupted in smoke and flames.

Neither the GI nor his enemy ever sees the high-flying bombers. The fliers also feel this remoteness from the war.

"It can get awfully impersonal sitting up there 30,000 feet over this country and dropping bombs on it," admits Col. Kenneth Wehrman, the 46-year-old pilot who serves as the Strategic Air Command (SAC) liaison officer at Abrams' headquarters. SAC now flies two six-man crews to Vietnam each month for a few days inspection with ground troops.

A quiet-spoken family man from Luerne, Iowa, Wehrman has been in strategic bombers all his Air Force career. He left his wife and three children in Orlando, Fla., three years ago and has seen them infrequently since. He was on the first B52 raid into North Vietnam and has seen the role of the bombers expand almost unbelievably.

In the beginning there were usually three raids a day—perhaps nine planes flying from Guam. Then there were six raids daily. Now, with planes also based in Thailand, there are frequently 12 raids daily.

Only a few of the raids have been in North Vietnam where the big Soviet-made SAM missiles pose a threat. The northernmost raids have been against the Mu Gia pass, about 75 miles above the 17th parallel that divides Vietnam.

In these raids about 12 SAMS were fired at the Stratoforts and all missed by a wide margin, diverted by sophisticated electronic defenses carried by the big bombers.

The bombing campaign in Vietnam has tied up about one-sixth of the Strategic Air Command's B52 fleet.

The eight-engined bombers winging toward Vietnam at 650 miles an hour can be redirected at any time.

To achieve this, a fantastic array of radar and communications equipment has been dotted over Vietnam. Three years ago targets couldn't be pinpointed because there simply were not enough ground reference points in South Vietnam.

Now, radar stations can direct the bombers anywhere in the country—and in much of North Vietnam and in Laos, though the militry won't talk about strikes in Laos.

The bombers almost never actually aim at the target: They use a technique known as offset-bombing. Coming into the target area, the pilot will locate a radar station or ground reference point like the two unusual mountains northwest of Saigon known as Mutt and Jeff.

He locks on the reference point and then a computer takes over, directing the bomber to a precise location perhaps 50 miles distant. With the plane six miles high and still almost six miles from the target, the computer flashes the precise moment to unload.

Within seconds the load of 500-and 750-pound bombs, 108 of them, are screaming downward toward the "target box."

For safety's sake, the "target box" is about half a mile wide, but the accuracy is better than that. The bombers have actually made support raids barely 1,000 yards from friendly troop positions.

Patman To Dedicate Dam

PARIS, Tex. (AP) — Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., will make the formal dedication address Sunday at ceremonies for the $9 million Pat Mayse Dam and Reservoir north of here.

The dam is named for the late A.G. "Pat" Mayse, publisher of the Paris News, in recognition of his having offered the idea of a lake fed by Sanders Creek 10 miles north of Paris.

This project was the publisher's solution for providing additional water resources for the area.

Four years after his death, the project was renamed Pat Mayse Dam and Reservoir. Mayse had discussed the project 20 year before it was built.

Also participating in the dedication will be Walter Bassano, publisher of the Paris News, Mrs. Pat Mayse, widow of the originator of the idea for the dam, will be a special guest.

Sponsors of the program include the Lamar County Chamber of Commerce, Army Engineers, the Red River Valley Association, Paris city officers and county commissioners.
