ZEPPELIN WELL OUT OVER ATLANTIC

DENVER PROMISES FAST RAIL SERVICE

F. E. CLARITY TELLS PLANS OF NEW LINE

OVER-NIGHT SERVICE TO DALLAS WILL BE AVAILABLE

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Aug. 2.—Overnight train service between Dallas, Fort Worth and the West Texas Panhandle would be offered if the Interstate Commerce Commission approved application of the Fort Worth and Denver to build a line from Childress to Pampa, F. E. Clarity, operating vice president of the Fort Worth and Denver, testified at the I. C. C. hearing here today.

Clarity said trains would leave Dallas at 8:30 p. m., Fort Worth at 9:55 p. m., reaching Pampa at 8:10 a. m., the next morning.

Faster Freight Too

Faster freight service also was promised. Clarity saying shippers in Fort Worth, Dalls, and Amarillo would have second day delivery into Pampa, Shamrock and Wellington. One freight and one passenger train would be operated each way daily, the freight northward leaving Childress at 3 p. m., and arriving at Pampa at 1:15 a. m. By leaving Childress at 3 p. m., the train would conect with the southeast-bound Denver-Fort Worth and northwest bound Fort-Worth-Denver trains, the former reaching Childress at 2 p. m., and the latter about 1 p. m.

Would Show Profit

The Fort Worth and Denver Panhandle line to Pampa would show a net railway operating income of $300,000 the first year an d$364,655 the fifth year, H. B. Ruch, Denver

CAVERNS TOUR IS UNDER WAY

WILSON LEADING CARS FROM TEXAS TO SCENIC WONDER

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Aug 2—The All-Texas tour motorcade over the Carlsbad Cavern route left here today escorted by an official car from the Association of Commerce and two state highway motorcycle police.

The party spent last night here and expects to reach Snyder tonight.

William A. Wilson, secretary of the Dal-Paso Cavern Highway association, is leading the motorcade, which is expected to contain some 300 cars by the time it reaches Carlsbad, N. M.

Miss Mildred Sparkman, of Tyler, assistant to the secretary of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, represents that organization. The escort will accompany the trippers as far as Weatherford, where Parker county watermelons will be cut for the visitors.

TWENTY-TWO ARE BURNED IN CRASH

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 2 (AP).—Twenty-two persons, mostly children, were severely burned here this afternoon after an ice cream truck overturned at Center and Cass streets. The victims were sprayed with flaming gasoline.

Teachers' Exams Being Held Today

Examinations are being conducted in Lubbock today in the office of the county superintendent of education for teachers who are seeking certificates.

The examinations are in charge of H. C. Bowlin, principal of central ward school of this city, who is acting in that capacity in the absence of Miss Mae Murfee, county superintendent of education, who is attending summer session at Texas A. and M. college.

Mrs. Clemmie Evans was the only applicant for a certificate at noon today, Mr. Bowlin announced.

Ohio Steel Town Is 'Dry-Cleaned'

WHOLESALE RAID IS CONDUCTED BY DRY AGENTS

(By Associated Press)

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 2.—Liquor raids exceeding in proportions any ever seen by federal prohibition agents in Ohio cleaned out the "steel town" of Campbell last night and early today.

Fifty enforcement officers demolished half a hundred speakeasies, arrested the proprietors and dumped whiskey and beer into gutters in simultaneous appearances which crowded the federal building with prisoners.

All the raids were on purchases previously made by undercover agents, raiders said. Among other prisoners was a man booked as John Vansuch, former safety director of Campbell. The agents said several former policemen also were prisoners.

Campbell, a suburb of Roungstown, described by agents as "the wettest spot in Ohio," is populated principally by workers in the steel mills. Hundreds of these collected in the streets as the raids went on, and at one place more than 50 gathered about the agents. Jeering and booing.

"KEEP BUSY" IS WEATHER NOTE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—The first item in a hot weather program suggested by Surgeon General Cumming of the public health service is "keep busy."

A "cheerful frame of mind," he explained, is the most important safeguard against heat suffering. He said the easiest way to attain it was to think of things other than the weather.

Of summer diet, he remarked that "the normal palate is a dependable guide; the best things to eat are the things one wants—fruits and vegetables."

He suggested drinking at least six or eight glasses of water daily and praised the modern woman's lightness of dress.

SUGAR SCALE MADE PUBLIC BY CHAIRMAN

ONE TO THREE CENT SLIDING MEASURE TO BE USED

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—A sliding scale sugar tariff plan ranging from one cent a pound at the time market prices are high to three cents a pound when the market is depressed was made public today by Chairman Smoot of the Senate Finance committee.

Smoot will offer the proposal as a substitute for the flat rate of 3 cents a pound placed on sugar in the House tariff bill.

Hearings Next Week

Hearings will be held next week at which time the substitute will be considered by the committee.

Under the sliding scale, the present rate of 2.20 on sugar would apply when sugar is selling in New York at 6 cents a pound, which is about the present price.

Cuba would receive the same 20 per cent preferential under the sliding scale as it now enjoys when the flat rates on sugar are applied.

Protests against any reduction in the industrial tariff schedules, if increases are made in the agricultural duties in the House tariff measure, were made before the Senate Finance committee today by Senator Moses, republican, New Hampshire.

PRINCE IS SHOT BY WAR LEADER

TOKYO, Aug. 2 (AP)—Chang Tsung Chang, former war lord of Shantung, early today shot and seriously wounded Prince Hisen Kai, cousin of the former boy emperor of China, P'U-Yi.

Mysterious circumstances surrounded the affair, which Chang claimed was accidental.

Chang's version of the shooting of the young Manchu was that a revolver he was handling up-stairs at his hotel at Beppu, Island of Kiushiu, exploded, hitting the prince who was standinf in the garden below.

Hsien Kai was 21 years old and graduated from the Japanese military academy in July. He was spending a vacation in Beppu and had visited Chang in the evening.

The authorities are investigating the accident story.

Officers Elected In Farm Short Course

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 2. (AP)—Officers were elected by the Texas agricultural writers conference for the ensuing year as follows:

Fletcher Davis of Hondo, president; Henry Ansley of Amarillo, and Mrs. L. R. Campbell of Dallas, vice presidents; Miss Willie Day of Cameron re-elected secretary.

Buster Worley of Shamrock was elected president of the Texas United Club Boys Congress and Jim Potts of Lubbock vice president.

THIRTY-EIGHT FACE CHARGES IN KANSAS

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 2 (AP).—Caught in what was said to be the largest federal liquor net ever spread in Kansas, 38 men and women in and near Wichita today faced charges under the Jones law, with its provisions for fines of $10,000 and sentences of five years in federal prison.

Most of the defendants are proprietors or employees of small road houses.

NAVAL PLANS SAID UNTRUE

NEWSPAPER'S STORY IS DISCREDITED IN LONDON CIRCLES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. — The four points on which reports from London said Prime Minister Macdonald and Ambassador Dawes had reached an agreement in their naval discussions were said today by authoritative sources to have no relations to the facts.

Authoritative quarters in London were inclined to minimize the importance of the Evening Standard's story. It was said no decisions had been reached as yet between London and Washington although the conversations were proceeding satisfactorily.

The Standard said that the following proposals were included in the reported agreement or formula:

(1)—The battleship programs to be restricted.

(2)—The size of future battleships to be decreased.

(3)—The life of battleships now in commission to be prolonged and,

(4)—A declaration by both countries of their willingness to cease building submarines.

Calles Arrives In France On Vacation

HAVRE, France, Aug. 2 (AP)—Former President Calles of Mexico arrived here today aboard the steamship Ile De France. He was welcomed by the Mexican minister, Alberto J. Pani, and his staff.

The former president plans to rest and possibly take treatment here before undertaking his study of European railroads in his capacity as chairman of the Mexican railroad reorganization commission. He said he also intended to look over agricultural methods and conditions in the hope of getting some useful ideas for his country.

Construction On New Hilton Progressing

Now seven stories in skeleton form the new Hilton Hotel construction project has reached one-half the height of the planned 14-story structure.

The construction has been going forward at the rate of two stories per week.

Full height of the building will be reached, in skeleton form, within the next four weeks.

ONE CONVICT DIES IN RIOT IN U. S. PEN

LEAVENWORTH SCENE OF MUTINY; BREAKS IN MESS HALL

(By Associated Press)

UNITED STATES PENITENTIARY, LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Aug. 2.—One convict was killed, several shot, three dangerously, and several slightly injured in a riot yesterday that lasted more than a half day.

Mike Martinez, a Mexican who had served one year of a 30 year term, was killed.

The last of the rioting prisoners was in his cell and the prison was quiet late last night. Guards with machine guns mounted on the prison walls prevented any escapes.

There were numerous reports as to the cause of the outbreak but prison officials declined to confirm or deny any of them. One report said the riot, which broke out in the mess hall at noon, was a protest against prison grade food and the absence of ice in drinking water. Another said the prisoners who had been permitted to read newspaper accounts of riots in eastern prisons had yielded to the suggestion. A third report laid it to heat-crazed narcotic addicts, the temperature standing at 100.3 degrees at noon yesterday.

None of the prisoners had firearms during the disturbances and none of the prison officials was injured.

Warden Thomas D. White refused

LEAHY WALKS CALMLY TO HIS DEATH IN CHAIR; HAS "BOOTS" TAKEN OFF

(By Associated Press)

HUNTSVILLE, Aug. 2.—Out in the cow country of southwest Texas where Harry J. Leahy grew to manhood if a man died with his boots on he died a violent and very likely a disgraceful death.

When Leahy went to the death chair in state prison shortly before 1 o'clock this morning for the slaying of Dr. J. A. Ramsey of Mathis, his last act was to have his shoes removed.

Walked Erect

He walked erect and composed to the electric chair and sat down after declining to say anything to the little group of witnesses.

Prison officials started to buckle the straps and electrodes.

He stirred slightly and motioned for Captain Homer Knighten, assistant warden.

Knighten stepped forward and leaned over. Leahy whispered something and Knighten dropped to his knees and took off the sandals Leahy was wearing.

Calmest Man

Leahy was the calmest man who ever walked through the little green door of the death

LOCAL MAN SETS REFUELING MARK

Ira Wilson, local abstract man, is carrying on a "refueling endurance" record all his own, and "still going strong" not seeking any fame but merely to better his health which has been ill of late.

Mr. Wilson will tell you that in the past three weeks he has swallowed 704 6-ounce glasses of sweet milk in a "milk diet" treatment for asthma. He began taking the diet on July 9 and has not tasted solid food since that time. At 6 o'clock in the morning, his refueling man, Woodrow, his 11-year-old son, starts in with the milk and every 30 minutes until 8:30 at night, Mr. Wilso drinks a glassful.

He states that his health is improving and besides that he has gained eight pounds during the three weeks. He plans to continue the diet for some time, maybe a month, he says.

AUGUST 29 IS DATE SET FOR REUNION

LUBBOCK COUNTY OLD SETTLERS ANNUAL MEET PLANNED

The annual reunion of Lubbock county old settlers will be held at the fair park in this city August 29, according to an announcement today from E. B. Green, secretary of the Lubbock County Pioneers Association.

Now without a president, the association will elect a new head to succeed J. B. Green, pioneer who died last February 26. E. B. Green is son of the late president of the organization.

About 250 or 300 old timers of the county are expected to assemble for the reunion, which will be featured by a basket picnic, reminiscences of early days, and a speaking program.

"Any person who has resided in Lubbock county 25 years prior to 1925 is eligible to attend the picnic," said Mr. Green. "Relatives of the eligible pioneers are also welcome to the picnic."

Duncan To Address Students In Canyon

Protest Made On Consul Treatment

TOKYO, Aug. 2 (AP)—Dispatches from Harbin, Manchuria, today said George C. Hanson, the American consul there, had protested to the Chinese authorities regarding alleged rough treatment of an American vice consul.

The vice consul intervened to protect an American woman who was being roughly handled by the native police, who then turned on him.

WASHINGTON YOUTH WINS EDISON TEST

WILBUR B. HUSTON IS NAMED TO FOLLOW GREAT INVENTOR

(By Associated Press)

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Aug. 2.—Wilbur B. Huston, a youth from Port Madison, Wash., was named the winner today of the Thomas A. Edison competition for choice of a protege and follower in the footsteps of the inventor.

The forty-nine contestants—one from each state and the District of Columbia—were lined up on the lawn of the Edison home in Lleyelyn Park as the announcement was made by Dr. S. W. Stratton, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who was chairman of the committee of judges.

Dr. Stratton was high in his praise of the boys, who yesterday participated in a gruelling examination on subjects ranging from morals and ethics to science.

Committee Tired Looking

It was a tired looking committee that faced the bright and fresh looking boys on the lawn. Dr. Stratton said they poured over the examination papers until 3 o'clock this morning. The high rating attained by each made the job of picking the winner a hard one.

It was recalled that Huston, 16-year-old and the son of the bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Seattle, was the last to finish the test yesterday. A rousing cheer greeted the announcement of his victory and the tall, bespectacled boy was lifted to the shoulders of the other youths and carried twice in a circle around the lawn.

Huston will receive a four year

LITTLEFIELD MEETS GOEBEL

ONE THOUSAND PEOPLE ON HAND AS FLIER ARRIVES TODAY

BY LUCILE BARR SMITH
Journal Staff Writer

LITTLEFIELD, Aug. 2.—Colonel Arthur Goebel landed at the Littlefield airport at 9:10 this morning The "Woolaroc" mascot plane preceded the Colonel, and the cabin Pathfinder, which was also to have preceded him, arrived at 9:30 due to a delay in Lubbock.

He was welcomed by about one thousand people, the stores of Littlefield having closed in honor of the occasion.

E. A. Bills made the welcome address and Mrs. Floyd Sadler presented him with a bouquet of red roses in token of their esteem. After his thangs the Colonel's picture was made in a group of prominent Littlefield people including Mr. Bills Mrs. Sadler, the secretary of the chamber of commerce, and others.

They were forced to limit their visit to 30 minutes in order that they might arrive in Muleshoe, the next stop, on scheduled time.

Although they have no hangar Colonel Goebel expressed the opinion that Littlefield had an ideal spot for an airport.

Lucile Barr Smith, Daily Journal Staff member, accompanied Pilot Parker in the cabin Pathfinder plane on the flight to Littlefield this morning.

Group Study Plan Gets Recognition

The group study plan, which was successfully introduced into the Lubbock public school system last year, is receiving recognition in educational circles, according to the city superintendent, M. H. Duncan.

He has received word from Miss Dorothy Lomax, teacher of English in the high school, that she was asked to make a talk explaining this method of teaching before a special group of supervisiors in the University of Wisconsin this summer.

Miss Lomax wrote a paper on the group study plan as a part of her class work in the university and this was read, after which she was asked to appear before the educators.

At last night's unofficial republican convention Laguardia's was the only name presented.

SNOOK HEARS OF FINDING GIRL'S BODY

FORMER PROFESSOR IS ON BEACH CHAIR IN HIS TRIAL

(By Associated Press)

COURTHOUSE, COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 2—Dr. James H. Snook, lay back in his canvas beach chair today, almost out of sight behind the counsel's table, and listened to stories by state's witnesses of the finding of the body of Theora Hix, the girl he is charged with killing.

In rapid order the prosecution put on three witnesses to build up the narrative of how the young Ohio State co-ed's body was found last June 14 on the New York Central rifle range on the western edge of the city, and one witness who told of seeing a man and woman struggling there the night the killing occurred.

Dr. Snook was submitted to another examination by two physicians before court convened today, but defense counsel did not reveal the nature or purpose of the evxamination. He was still suffering from a spinal test made last Saturday. The beach chair was provided for him yesterday after he complained that the upright chair he had occupied at the defense table caused him extreme discomfort.

MEXICO MAY PUT CONSUL IN CITY

The Republic of Mexico is interested i the establishment of a permanent consulate in Lubbock and through its El Paso representative has written for information regarding Mexicans in this area Mayor Harley D. Woods announced this morning.

The communication received by the mayor was signed by Alepandro V. Martinez and sought information concerning the Mexicon population residing within 100 miles of Lubbock.

Mayor Woods reported that he would aid the Mexican government in gathering the information requested and would lend his personal assistance to the project.

Three Divorces Are Asked On Thursday

Three divorce petitions, revealing a wide range of marital discord, were filed Thursday in district court here.

One woman charges that her husband stated that he had no love for her, and that he married her only to live with her for awhile. She also alleges that he accused her of not being chaste.

In another petition a husband charges that his wife applied vile names to him and alleges that she neglected her household duties.

Another wife charged that her husband spent much of his time with women of disreputable character.

POSITION IS REPORTED TO HOME OFFICE

MESSAGE REPORTS GOOD SPEED IS BEING MADE IN FLIGHT

(By Associated Press)

FRIED RICHSHAFEN, Germany, Aug. 2.—The Dirigible Graf Zeppelin dispelled all anxiety over her failure to communicate her position to her home port since passing Gibraltar by announcing at 8:25 A. M. (2:25 A. M. E. S. T.) today that she was making good speed 300 miles west of Gibraltar.

The Zeppelin Works reported receipt of the following message from the airliner:

"8:25 a. m. central European time 2:25 a. m. E. S. T.), 300 nautical miles west of Gibraltar. Traveling at 100 kilometers an hour. Weather good."

This was the first message from the Zeppelin at the home office since early morning. Her speed of 100 kilometers an hour made her average speed about 63 miles an hour.

Messages from aboard the Zeppelin indicated all was well. In passing Cape De Gata the Graf radioed "all well on board, only a little too warm. The temperature is 33 degrees centigrade (about 91 degrees Fahrenheit.)"

Stowaway Found

Another message from Herbert S. Seibel, special correspondent of the Associated Press aboard the Zeppelin, confirmed the existence of a stowaway aboard. It said:

"A stowaway was found just after the Zeuuelin left the hangar. He jumped from the hangar down into the Zep. If he had jumped between the girders, he would have endangered the ship. Dr. Eckener said he would be returned from America by the next steamer and be severely punished."

'ART GOEBEL, DOLE FLIGHT WINNER, FETED HERE

FAMED PILOT VISITS CITY WITH PLANE

DINNER IS TENDERED PARTY LAST NIGHT BY CITIZENS

The feat of crossing the Pacific was not luck but it was an accomplishment due to scientific preparation, Colonel Arthur Goebel told 32 Lubbock and South Plains citizens at a dinner in his honor last night at the Hotel Lubbock.

The intrepid pilot of the Woolaroc who won the Dole prize in a flight from Oakland, Cal., to Honolulu, and who is now president of the Art Goebel School of Flying in Kansas City, spoke in a characteristic droll, which was impressively punctuated with epigramatic sentences and man-to-man style of talk.

Relates Accomplishments'

Hands resting on the top rung of his chair he timidly related an accomplishment which Lindbergh termed greater than his own. Prepossessing in appearance, slender, reticent and bronzed he is the kind of man that any girl would lavishly expatiate over.

Accompanying Colonel Goebel to this city were officials of the Phillips Petroleum company, the president of which Frank Phillips, financed the Woolaroc in the Dole flight.

Foreign to impressions created by the commonly used photograph which shows him in flying toga, apparently smiling in carefree abandon, Goebel is as bashful before an admiring crowd as a fourth grade student would be in the presence of a king, and he is described by pals of the air as being cautious and scientific in all his maneuvers.

"After flying 25 hours across the briny deep, 19 hours of which were above clouds, I felt much happier, I am sure, than Columbus must have felt, when I saw the little spot of land which was my objective," he said. "It was not luck. It was due to scientific preparation."

Lubbock Congratulated

"There is much yet to be done in aviation, and the task challenges the best minds of the engineering world. There is little danger while the plane is in the air. The greatest hazards arise in landing and taking off. Therefore, the importance of adequately equipped airports. I want to congratulate Lubbock in the vision demonstrated. You have a good tract of land, which can be converted into a genuine field."

Officials Introduced

H. W. Harrington, public relations representative of Phillips Petroleum company, and R. C. Jopling, sales manager of the company, said that the present tour is being made in response to numerous requests of persons who wanted to see the Woolaroc and its pilot.

"We should endeavor to transmit to thousands of young men the message which Colonel Goebel has effectively given us," said Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Texas Technological college. "Everything big is accomplished through scientific preparation."

Had Vision

"In addition to courage, Colonel Goebel also had the wisdom to prepare adequately for the momentous undertaking."

Other members of the official party to arrive in this city were H. W. Parker, pilot of the Pathfinder plane; Arthur W. Hughes, of Amarillo, district manager of the petroleum company, and Pancho Vela, Goebel's mechanic.

Thousands Welcome

One thousand persons welcomed Goebel and the accompanying party at the municipal airport yesterday afternoon at 5:20 o'clock.

Upon arrival at the hotel, the famous airman was deluged with telephone calls from local citizens who wished to entertain him with a range of favors. Politely, he declined each invitation, explaining that he is traveling by schedule and that it would be impossible to enjoy all the preferred pleasures.

Several young girls who wished to motor him over the city telephoned, many called at the hotel for autographs and introductions.

Few of the girls asked him to favor them with airplane rides, but he responded by explaining the time would not permit.

The party was to have left this morning at 8:30 o'clock on a schedule which will be concluded for the day at Amarillo.

Those who attended the dinner here last evening were the following: Colonel Goebel, Mr. Harrington, Mr. Joplin, Mr. Parker, Mr. Hughes, G. S. Dowell, secretary of the O'Donnell Chamber of Commerce; J. P. Aylor, O'Donnell; Dr. H. F. Schwab, Ralls; Paul H. Mitchell, Ralls; Percy Ralls, Ralls; W. C. Wagno, Amarillo; H. Roy Cunningham, Tulsa, Okla. and the following local citizens: Dr. Horn, Dr. E. F. George, H. L. Allen, president of the Board of City Development; A. B. Davis, manager of the Chamber of Commerce; Harry E. Blocker, W. W. Royalty, T. B. Duggan, Joe E. Bearden, Bob Russell, R. J. Murray, J. B. Maxey, B. Sherrod, Jimmie Cole, George E. Benson, chairman of the aviation committee, N. H. Wright, J. H. Hankins, city commissioner, and W. H. Rogers, city secretary.

Dry Weather Aids Mexican Jumping Beans

EL PASO, Aug. 2 (AP)—While dry weather has discouraged the wheat grower and the boll weevil has taken its toll from the cotton raiser, one agricultural crop has enjoyed its best season in three years.

The first shipment of Mexican jumping beans to reach the local market in two years arrived this week.

The jumping bean is a seed inhabited by a tiny restless caterpillar which constantly flexes its body in springlike jerks. These jerks give the seed a market value and it is sold as a curiosity.

IDALOU CHILD IS VICTIM OF FEVER

Flora Fee Brownfield, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brownfield of Idalou, died last night in a local sanitarium at 8 o'clock of typhoid fever.

Funeral services are to be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Church of Christ in Idalou, with Elder J. T. Smith of Lubbock officiating and Rix-Sanders of this city in charge of arrangements.

Burial will be in Idalou cemetery.

Troup Plans New Sanitary System

TROUP, Aug. 2 (AP)—The city council has ordered an election August 27 on a proposed $60,000 bond issue for a new water filteration plant and sewer system here.

Twenty-one thousand dollars would be provided for construction of waterworks, $25,000 for a sewer system and $14,000 to refund warrants previously issued here for sewer extensions.

Armstrong County's Crop Is Greatest

CLAUDE, Aug. 2 (AP)—Armstrong county has just completed the greatest harvest in its history. Two million bushels of grain, including wheat, oats, barley and rye, have gone to market.

The harvest has covered a period of four weeks with the work done almost entirely by combines. Haulers and trucks were the only additional help brought into the county.

Wheat constituted the greater part of the group, most of it testing high in quality, and a good yield. The weather was ideal with the exception of a hail the first week which destroyed many hundreds of acres. The county at large has had less hail than usual this season.

TO BUILD NEW SCHOOL

NACONA, Aug. 2 (AP)—The Prairie Point school district, eight miles north of Nacona, recently made by the consolidation of Eagle Point, Prairie View and Red River Station districts has let contracts for a new brick school building to cost $21,500. Work on the structure is to begin soon.

LAW PLANNED ON CHOOSING SCHOOL MEN

COUNTY OFFICIALS TO TRY FOR NEW PLAN; AWARDS MADE

(By Associated Press)

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 2.—A law allowing each county to decide for itself whether its school superintendent shall be appointed by the county school board was recommended yesterday by the Texas county superintendents conference in closing session here.

The superintendents, who met in conjunction with the farmers' short course, also adopted a resolution suggesting enactment of a statute providing "for the centralized buying of all school supplies."

Officers Elected

Officers elected: A. A. Bullock of Snyder, chairman; Mrs. George R. Felter of Austin, vice chairman, and Miss Etta Strickland of Nacogdoches, secretary.

The average cost of 69 school dresses entered in the 4-H club "appropriate dress" contest of the farmers short course was $1.66, it was announced. The 53 afternoon dresses entered averaged $2.31 each. The first three place winners in each event:

School costume, class 1: Margie Hendrixson of Britton, Sude Maxwell of Wellington, Marie Bohls of Big Foot.

Article, class 1: Jewel Fay of Olney, Vergie Moore of Lubbock, Nita Kemp of McCaulley.

Afternoon dress, class 2: Ima Gene Dehay of Indian Creek, Florence Pepper of Wellington, Ruth Kemp of McCaulley.

Article, class 2: Mildred Young of Harlingen, Linnie Belle Houser of Caviness, Mamie Powers of Corpus Christi.

Two University of Illinois geologists, W. M. Luce and W. F. Etanley, took a fish census of the Sangamon river this summer.

TEXANS PRESENT PLEAS FOR DIRECT AIR MAIL ROUTE FROM NEW YORK TO FORT WORTH AND DALLAS; PLANS UP

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Proponents of a direct air mail line between St. Louis and New York and from St. Louis to Tulsa, Dallas and Fort Worth were heard today by the inter-departmental committee on airways.

Two routes from St. Louis to New York were proposed, one via Indianapolis and Columbia, the other through Cincinnati and Louisville. Among those who advocated the routes were Senators Sheppard and Connally and Representative Patman of Texas.

Cites Represented

The cities on the proposed routes were represented at the hearings by officials of their chambers of commerce and local governments and several places by postmasters. The cities represented were:

St. Louis, Dallas, Fort Worth, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Columbus and Dayton, Ohio, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, and Joplin, Mo.

More Mail Possible

Senator Connally said: "We feel that such a route will be productive of a great amount of air mail business not possible under existing conditions."

Senator Sheppard said there was an immediate demand for establishment of direct air mail connection between Dallas, Fort Worth, and St. Louis to supply a section of country not now covered.

Representative Patman advocated inclusion of Paris, Texas, as a stopping point on the proposed route.

Covington county, Alabama, has a tree with a dual personality. It is part long-leaf and part short leaf pine.

Miss Lydia Kalishik, of Neenah, Wis., conducts aviation schools in nine towns, flying from one to the other.

Treasure Hunt Is Society Novelty Staged Here Yesterday

J. B. Crislers, R. D. Erwins Entertain Last Evening With Informal Affair

Treasure hunting, a society innovation, is proving popular in Lubbock and a hunt staged last evening afforded a gay evening for a group of local people.

Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Erwin and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crisler.

Guests met on the lawn of the Erwin home, 2221 14th street, and received their clues. The treasure was found by Miss Ruth Horn, Dr. R. L. Powers, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Stiles, Mrs. Velton Spikes and Harold Griffith.

Late in the evening the guests returned to the Erwin home and were served watermelon.

Guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Hub Jones, Wesley Read, Charles Read, Lee Quillen, Louis Quillen, Guy L. McAfee, Ernest Conley, B. C. Dickinson, Ross A. McWhorter, H. H. Griffith, Velton Spikes, J. A. McCelver, Walter Myrick, jr., Kenneth Kimbro, J. E. Vickers, R. C. Smith, Carl Roberds, Frank Jones, E. J. Parson, Jed A. Rix, E. H. Hendricks, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Krueger, Dr. R. L. Powers, Mrs. G. E. McCelver, Miss Ruth Horn, Mrs. Thomas West, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Stiles, Mrs. C. S. Gates of Houston.

Tacky Party Enjoyed By Young Folk

With Pauline Ragland, 718 Avenue O, as hostess, a group of boys and girls enjoyed a tacky party Wednesday evening. Girls in the group were members of Mrs. Mamie Caton's Sunday school class in the First Methodist church.

Guests included Lorene Tarter, Vera Mae McCoy, Virginia Anthony, Corinne Boyd, Fern Holland, Ethel Gunn, Beryl Caton, Jewel Bains, Dossie Mae Caton, Marjorie Barbee, Doris Moreland, Lucille Glazner, G. W. Foster, jr., Ovid Brock, Lee Thomas, T. M. Bradberry and William Childers.

J. D. Lokey, jr., of Slaton, Albert L. Taylor, of Mulehsoe, Mrs. Parke Dalton, of Crosbyton, and Mrs. A. J. Commons, of this city, were admitted to the Lubbock Sanitarium this morning.

THEY'RE GLAD TO GIVE A STATEMENT

"Just A Few Bottles Of Orgatone Has Restored My Wife To Health," Says Lubbock Man

"After I spent a lot of money for medicine and treatments for my wife without it doing her any good, it sure does seem wonderful to me that just two bottles of Orgatone has restored her to health again," is the remarkable statement made a few days ago by W. F. Foster of rural route 6, Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Foster is very well known here in this section and is employed at the Junction service station.

"Several years ago" he continued, "my wife's health failed, she lost her appetite, and before I realized it, she had gotten so bad she was in danger of a complete breakdown. What little she forced herself to eat disagreed with her and she suffered agonies from the gas that rose from the undigested food in her stomach. She was badly constipated and suffered from such terrible headaches that her nervous system went all to pieces and she couldn't sleep hardly at all of a night. She worried over her condition and actually grew despondent. Her liver and kidneys bothered her an awful lot, and she would have severe pains in her side and back, and was very billious and dizzy at times, she could hardly stand up, without falling.

"Nothing we did for her seemed to help her at all, but she just got worse instead of better. A friend recommended Orgatone to her and persuaded her to try it. Soon after she took the first bottle I noticed that she was picking up getting to be more talkative, and she has continued to improve ever since. She eats anything she wants now and it all agrees with her, she is always in a good humor now. She sleeps fine every night, and in fact, all of her troubles have been completely relieved. She is entirely like a different person. We are glad to do what we can for Orgatone, for both of us are thankful for her health."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific bile treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowen's Drug Store who are direct laboratory agents. Adv.

chamber, prison officials said.

Leahy spoke but little during his last hours. In the afternoon he discussed his case briefly with prison officials and newspaper men.

"I don't want the report to get out I confessed," he said. "I was convicted on circumstantial evidence and the testimony of a Mexican," he said, referring to Roberto Martinez, a former employe whose testimony helped send Leahy to the chair.

Wife Visits Him

During the afternoon Mrs. Leahy visited him.

Gradually the shadows lengthened on the prison walls and time for the evening meal came. Leahy was served a chicken dinner "with trimmings."

It is customary to shave the heads of condemned men soon after they have eaten their last meal, but Leahy asked delay.

"I hope for a break," he said. "Maybe something will happen to stay the execution."

Nine o'clock came and no word of comfort. The prison barber shaved his head clean for the death cap.

Hope rose in the towering rancher's breast as Governor Moody called prison officials a few moments before midnight and told them to stay the electrocution 30 minutes. It was short lived, however, as the governor called back a few minutes later and ordered them to proceed.

The stay was granted to give Judge Scott of Waco time to act on a last frantic appeal of Leahy's lawyers for an injunction to stop the execution on the grounds that the Georgetown sanity verdict was invalid. The Waco judge refused to act.

to call on soldiers at Fort Leavenworth nearby for assistance although guards of the United States disciplinary barracks at the fort were held in readiness.

News of the outbreak did not reach the public at Leavenworth until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the prison personnel handling the situation with strict secrecy in compliance with orders from Washington. The discharge of riot guns, breaking of glass and the shouts of the convicts attracted the attention of residens in the northern part of he own. The noise was a its height about 5 o'clock.

RIOT CAUSED BY CONGESTION IN PRISON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. (AP)—The department of justice announced today a report from Warden Thomas B. White said the riot in the Leavenworth prison yesterday was due to the overcrowded conditioon of the prison and lack of work for the prisoners.

course, with all living and incidental expenses paid, in the institution of his choice. He decided upon Chemical Engineering in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The committee announced that four boys, who rated high in the examinations, would be given scholarships of four years in technical institutions. They were Charles A. Brounissen, of West Redding, Conn., Ivan A. Getling, of Pittsburgh, James Seth of Santa Fe, New Mexico, and Bernard Sturgis of Butler, Ind.

Huston's average in the test was 92. The other four averaged between 88 and 92.

WINNER WAS YOUNGEST OF CONTESTANTS

SEATTLE, Aug. 2 (AP)—Wilbur B. Huston, 16, named today as winner of the Thomas A. Edison scholarship contest, was the youngest of the nine youths chosen for the finals of the state contest and was named state winner by Dr. N. D. Showalter superintendent of public instruction.

Huston was graduated from high school in Seattle last June, just a week before he was named as this state's representative in the national contest.

of life aboard. "We had champagne as soon as we were under way," it said, "which resulted in a late breakfast. The two women became slightly nervous when we encountered strong headwinds shortly before lunch and were buffeted for an hour in the Rhone valley. Our progress was retarded.

"The route has been out of our way, but necessary to miss bad weather in northeastern Spain. Large tank of drinking water up in the bag sprang a leak and saturated the ceiling of the saloon during lunch. There was much excitement, but nothing to worry about. We had an excellent game of bridge in the afternoon.

"The new motors are performing perfectly at high speed."

Other messages said the weather cleared after seven hours of steadily fighting opposing winds, and that the speed increased from under 45 miles to more than 62.

The Zeppelin's route has been extreme southerly.

Radio messages from the Graf were few and far between, its operator's time being taken up with reception of weather reports.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2. (AP)—Weather bureau officials said today a high pressure area extended from the Spanish coast southwestward to the south of the Azores and thence westward to Bermuda, which would indicate good flying weather for the Graf Zeppelin.

RAIDERS PAY

Beaumont Farmer Corrals Group With Shotgun.

BEAUMONT, Aug. 2 (AP)—H. T. Gregory, Lovell's Lake section watermelon grower has solved the problem of keeping raiders from his melon patch.

Recently he waited until a raiding party was in progress, when he appeared with a loaded shotgun. After a chase which extended over the greater part of his farm the six were herded into the Gregory barn and held until a telephone message could be sent to Beaumont and a constable dispatched to take charge of the sextette. The fines including costs amounted to $25 for each member of the party.

WOLFE SAYS TEXAS COTTON FARMERS SHOULD JOIN CO-OPERATIVE GROUPS

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, Aug. 2.—Texas cotton farmers immediately should organize into local co-operative marketing associations, H. M. Wolfe, general selling agent of the Farmers' marketing association, declared here today on his return from the Federal Farm board's meeting in Baton Rouge, La.

"The whole atmosphere," Wolfe said, "was charged with the one sentiment of cooperation. Without doubt, the federal farm board is committed without reserve to co-operative marketing of farm products and that will be the method used by the board in the operation of the $500,000,000 fund placed in its hands by the recent act of congress.

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 2 (AP).—Centralization of control in the movement and sale of cotton must be made to fully meet the desires of the Federal Farm board, officials of the American Cotton Growers' exchange decided here today in their meetig with the American Institute of co-operation.

C. O. Moser, Dallas, Tex., president of the exchange, stated only slight changes are necessary in the present set up of the growers' exchange, and that the cotton growers of the South would be requested to comply immediately with the wishes of the farm board in order to participate in the $500,000,000 farm relief program to be administered by the board.

A committee of three was appointed by the exchange trustees to take up matters of permanent relationship and specific problems in the approaching season's marketing operations as follows: Moser, G. C. Henry, president of the Arkansas Cotton Growers' Cooperative association, and U. B. Blalock, general manager of the North Carolina Cotton Growers' Cooperative association.

BREMEN RETURNS HOME

BREMERHAVEN, Germany, Aug. 2.(AP)—The North German Lloyd liner Bremen came home today after its maiden round trip voyage to New York, on both laps of which it established new trans-Atlantic crossing records.

Stealing Cars Is Popular Crime Now

Evidence of the universality of automobile stealing, indicating the possibility that an organized theft ring exists in West Texas, is furnished by reports received each week at the police and sheriff departments in Lubbock.

The two departments receive an average of 24 reports of auto thefts each week, it was announced today.

In a few cases stolen automobiles have been recovered in this city.

"We are constantly on the lookout for stolen autos," said Chief of Police John Lemond. "Notices of thefts have come from practically every city in Texas and New Mexico."

"We receive an average of two reports of stolen acrs each day," said Sheriff Wade Hardy.

Honduras plans to spend $1,000,000 in improving its highways.

ROBERDS COMES BACK

Bud Roberds, the pride of old V. M. I. and late of the Lubbock Country club, gained back much of his lost laurels Wednesday afternoon in the second round of the City Open golf tournment by handing Joe Collins a sound spanking in their third flight match. Resenting the caustic comments that have been flung in his direction within the last week, Roberds qualified for the third flight and proceeded to deal misery to his opponents when match play started Monday.

Following his decisive triumph over Collins Wednesday Roberd's adversaries have admitted that he can wield the golf club just as well as the bridge cards. Present indications are that he will win the championship and trophy in the third flight with little difficulty. The facts in the case are—Roberds doesn't belong in the third flight and should be in the first or second along with the best golfers in the city.

Oscar Eckhardt, slugging outfielder formerly with the Amarillo club or formerly with the Amarillo club of apple at a fast clip in the Pacific Coast League this season with Seattle. Last official averages from the coast gives "Big Os" a mark of .342—a fair average for "AA" class baseball. At one time Eckhardt coached the Canyon Teachers' baseball team. Incidentally, only one member of the Seattle club, is hitting above Eckhardt. This is Manager Ernie Johnson, formerly with the Chicago White Sox.

A New York baseball correspondent says that the Gotham fans are extremely disappointed over the recent showing of the Giants and are continually asking: "What's wrong with McGraw's Giants?" At the same time gossip is being heard of friction on the field as the Little Napoleon uses the iron hand in attempting to bring the club around. This observer in particular believes that the players have revolted against the stern measures of McGraw. Members of the team, whose names were not published, were quoted as saying that the club was discouraged because of recent fines imposed upon the players by the stern pilot because of fielding mistakes and disobedience. These anonymous players were heard to say that McGraw had ridden them so hard that they have lost heart and could not win.

These reports from the dressing rooms are overshadowed by the remarkable record of the veteran manager who has always been known for his strict discipline. The fact that he has won ten National League pennants and has also landed his teams ten times in second place is proof enough that he knows pretty well how to run things from the bench. Dozens of tempermental players have been developed into great stars by McGraw, and if the present crop of Giants are unable to stand the bitterness of his harsh tongue, the owners are likely to find some who can.

The failure of Benton and Fitzsimmons to come through and the injury to Eddie Roush have been the main reasons for the downfall of the Jints this season. Benton and Fitz were the mainstays of the New York hurling staff during the season of '28, but so far this season have failed to deliver up to standard. Roush has been out with a charley horse for some time, and nobody seems to know when he will return to the lineup.

An example of the confidence Art Shires has in himself comes to the surface daily from the typewriter of some major league scribe. "The Great Shires," as he calls himself, apparently thinks he is the greatest living ball player and doesn't hesitate to say so.

In an early game this year, Chicago had men on bases with two out when Shires came to the plate to face a rookie hurler. Turning to the umpire he said:

"If this rookie gets me out, he's made."

In another game, Shires was painfully spiked, and while lying on the diamond was told that he must leave the game for a substitute.

"I should say not," he declared. "Do you want all the fans to go home."

Seven Cups To Be Offered In Tourney

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 2 (AP).—Seven cups will be awarded the winners of the various events in the annual Southwest Texas tennis tournament which will get under way next Monday on the clay courts of the San Antonio Country club.

Among the trophies is the Garret challenge cup, to become the permanent property of the player winning it three times in succession.

Texas Polo Player's Handicap Is Raised

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (AP).—Handicap changes announced by the United States Polo association have added another seven-goal player to the national list.

Cecil Smith of Austin, Texas, polo club has played such a fine brand of polo in the East this season that his handicap has been raised from six goals to seven.

Two other prominent players were raised from five goals to six—H. W. Williams of Austin and Aiden Roark, brother of Capt. C. T. I. Roark, the British internationalist.

The rating of another well-known eastern player, John Hay (Jock) Whitney was raised from two goals to three.

SMILING TONY SEEKS CROWN FROM CHAMP

CROWD OF ABOUT 25,000 EXPECTED TO SEE CHICAGO BATTLE

By PAUL R. MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (AP)—Tony Canzoneri, chesty little bootblack from New Orleans whose stinging fists achieved glory in the bantam and featherweight sectors, tonight aims his weapons at Sammy Mandell, one of the most elusive targets of the ring, in an audacious bid for his world lightweight crown.

The two will battle 10 rounds to a decision in Paddy Harmon's gigantic punch bowl, the Chicago stadium. A record indoor crowd of 25,000 is expected.

To be Battle

It is to be a skirmish between a clever boxer and a rugged, two fisted puncher and Mandell, the boxer, is an overwhelming favorite. So clearly did Mandell turn back the title bid of Jimmy McLarnin, a pile driving hitter of the Canzoneri type, in his last championship battle that few observers grant Tony much more than a chance. Although the champion has spent the past year in comparative idleness because of injuries, he has displayed impressive form during his training.

Canzoneri is Lighter

Weight, too, was a disadvantage Canzoneri had to fight against. He expected to enter the ring four to six pounds lighter than Sammy and among lightweights such a difference is a considerable handicap. Tony's advantages lay in his punch, his greater ring activity and his age. He is 22 and and Mandell is 25.

"Canzoneri will not bother me any more than McGraw or McLarnin did," Sammy said. "I am at my best now and have had no trouble in getting down to the 135 pound limit. I plan to set a fast pace and keep on going. Watch my left."

Give All He Has

"I will give all I have and I am certain of winning," Tony countered. "It'll be a tough fight, though."

Tonight's battle will be third time Mandell has defended the title he won from Rocky Kansas in 1926. In his first bout he beat Phil McGraw, the Detroit Greek.

Win or lose tonight, Mandell expects to campaign for the welterweight title. He defeated Jackie Fields, the new champion, once and is confident he can repeat.

Ray Miller, Chicago left hook artist, will meet Luis Vincentini of Chili in the 10 round semi-windup and Harmon hopes to match the winner with the victory of the Mandell-Canzoneri fight for the title.

MANDELL EXPECTED TO RECEIVE $56,000

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (AP)—Sammy Mandell is expected to receive $56,000 for defending his lightweight crown against Tony Canzoneri tonight. Both are signed on a percentage basis, Sammy to get 40 per cent and Tony 20 per cent. The gate is expected to be worth $140,000.

"Pa" Mandell and "Pa" Canzoneri will cheer their fighting sons. The elder Mandell will be assisted by a delegation of 1,500 fans from Rockford, Ill., Sammy's home town, while Tony's father will receive the help of old friends from New Orleans and New York.

Regardless of the outcome, the the lightweight champion tomorrow will be of Italian parentage.

Tonight will be the first time Mandell ever has fought an important fight without delays or troubles. He won the title from Rocky Kansas in 1926 in a driving rain storm and was handicapped by a fractured rib. His first match in defense of the championship, against McGraw, was postponed one day and injured his training plans while his battle against Jimmy McLarnin was postponed three times.

SPARKING KID FROM GHETTO BIDS FOR MANDELL'S LIGHTWEIGHT CROWN

LUBBOCK GOES TO LAMESA SUNDAY TO MEET LOBOES; McCOLL TO FACE ROSE ON MOUND; RETURN GAME SCHEDULED

Worked up to a high pitch over the treatment handed them by the Lamesa Loboes in the recent Amarillo News-Globe tournament, the Lubbock Hubbers gather their forces this week in preparation for a return invasion of the Loboes' lair Sunday afternoon.

The locals were sailing high, wide and handsome until the hard-hitting Loboes were encountered in the Saturday game at Amarillo and when the smoke had cleared away the Hubbers were nursing a 2-0 defeat and were forced out of the running.

For the third time this season, it was Rose who turned back the local aggregation, and this same right-hander is likely to face the Hubbers again Sunday. Alex McColl, who has yet to lose a game for the Lubbock nine, is slated to oppose the Loboes, and if he is given the right kind of support, the Big Bad Loboes are likely to be given a dose of their own medicine.

The condition of Volney Hill's injured hand will play an important part in the chances of the locals. The hefty catcher sustained a fractured thumb during the Amarillo tournament and may be unable to take his place behind the bat. In case Hill can not do the backstopping, D. Waller will be on the receiving end of McColl's slants.

Following Sunday's game on the Lamesa diamond, the Loboes will be brought here for a return encounter on the following Sabbath. The Hubbers are to leave here Sunday morning.

SPUDS STILL LEADING LOOP

SOUTHERN INVASION IN TEXAS LEAGUE IS NEAR FAILURE

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Northern clubs displayed superiority over southern rivals by taking nine decisions in eleven starts in the series ended yesterday. The Waco Cubs, by winning one of their three with Fort Worth, and the Buffs, salvaging the last of their series with the Steers, prevented the invasion being a total failure.

The downstaters moved on to new fields during the night. Today the Buffs were at Shreveport for a trio. Beaumont at Dallas, San Antonio at Fort Worth and Waco at Wichita Falls. The battle for second place probably will be fought out at Shreveport the next three afternoons.

The Spudders failed to add to their two-game lead over the field yesterday when their closest pursuers also won. San Antonio lost its third straight to Galloway's hearties, 9 to 5. Houston blanked the Steers, 3 to 0, in the final at Dallas.

For the second time Shreveport came from behind to defeat Beaumont 4 to 3.

Two Waco Cub hurlers were slaughtered in the final at Fort Worth, won by the Kittens, 11 to 1. Harris was sent to the showers in the fourth and the onslaught continued against Brancheau. Buzz Phillips, who has proved the Cat mound ace since the second half began, gave up on four hits.

FOUR MEET IN MATCHES

SEMI-FINALS WILL BE PLAYED TODAY IN CITY GOLF OPEN

The four-cornered battle for the City Open golf championship will be resumed today at the Lubbock Country Club course following a day of rest on the part of the contenders for the ranking title.

With Bob Peck, medalist, matched with Jack May and Grady Higginbotham, veteran iron shark, meeting E. T. Daniels, the Idalou wizard, local golf enthusiasts are promised two whirlwind matches on the eve of the championship battle Sunday. The final match for the city crown will be played over 36 holes.

Lower Players Advance

While the high fliers were resting up for the crucial semi-finals golfers in the lower brackets Thursday were catching up with second and third round matches.

Yesterday's results in the second flight: Campbell defeated E. Doherty, 4 and 3; Felty downed Wade, 3 and 2.

In the fourth flight, Graham trimmed Freeland, 4 and 3, and English won over McMurray by default. Three matches were completed in the fourth flight—Swartz defeated Graham, 6 and 5; L. Doherty defeated Hale, 3 and 2; Read defeated Strickel, 4 and 3.

Edmisson emerged the victor in two consolation matches, defeating Dow, 6 and 5, and taking Yager into camp, 3 and 2.

McFarland meets Campbell and Felty meets Patton in today's second flight pairings. In the third flight, Roberts meets Graham and English meets Cheatham.

Fourth flight: Swartz meets L. Doherty and Watkins meets the winner of the Read-Acton match.

REAL BATTLE IS PRESENTED

CUBS AND BRAVES PLAY OLD-FASHIONED CONTEST

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Those who insist pitching is a lost art and the lively ball has destroyed baseball's defensive features might consider the battle between the Cubs and Boston Braves at Wrigley field, Chicago, yesterday.

Nine innings of brilliant pitching by Guy Bush on the one hand and Ben Cantwell and Ed Leverette on the other saw the cubs eke out a 1-0 decision that enabled them to retain their five-game lead in the National league pennant race.

One Hit Wins

As it turned out the Cubs won on one hit. In the first inning, English doubled and Cantwell, losing control, walked three men in a row to force in the only run of the game.

The Pittsburgh Pirates came out of a bad slump to down the Phillies, three to one.

Larry Benton pitched the New York Giants to another triumph over Cincinnati, 6-1. Luque was the victim of bunched hits in the third inning when the Giants tallied four times.

Old Pete Wins

The St. Louis Cardinals got to Johnny Morrison for four runs in the first inning and old Pete Alexander was able to coast in to a 5-2 decision over the Brooklyn Robins.

In the American league, the Philadelphia Athletics increased their lead to ten and one-half games by turning back Detroit, 7-4, while the New York Yankees were losing to Chicago, 3-2.

Both Yankee scores were home runs, one by Earle Combs and the other by Babe Ruth, the Babe's 25th of the year.

Cleveland downed the Boston Red Sox, 10-3, behind effective pitching by Jimmy Zinn.

Held to one run for six innings, the Washington Senators slugged Collins and other St. Louis Browns pitchers for five runs in the seventh and seven more in the eighth to win, 13-9.

SANTA FE AND HARDWARE CLUBS GO TO 7-7 DEADLOCK THURSDAY; PLAYOFF GAMES CONTINUE BUT SEASON CLOSES

Playoff games in the Lubbock City League reached a critical stage Thursday evening when the Santa Fe nine and Auto-Barbers battled to a 7-7 deadlock. It was the third successive tie game played between these two rivals within the last three weeks.

After the Auto-Barbers had taken the lead for the second time in the final round, the Railmen came back to knot the count in the same inning. Following a prolonged argument, the Santa Fe crew walked off the field, refusing to play off the tie.

Staging a five run spree in the fourth inning, the Railmen overcame a four run lead to take the lead Thursday when Lefty Bettis weakened after a strong start. The Santa Fe club lacked one man batting around in their big inning.

A-B's Start Early

Scoring two runs in the first and three more in the second, the Auto-Barbers were off at a big start, but were unable to hold their advantage. Hallmark kept the six hits garnered by the Auto-Barbers well scattered but was a bit wild, issuing five free passes to first base.

The final scheduled game of the season will be played today with the Hardware Dealers meeting the Carpenter-Painters. League officials have not yet decided on the date for the playoff for the first half championship between the Hardware and Auto-Barbers.

PLAY STARTS SATURDAY FOR TITLE; CITY OPEN CONFLICTS

Clinton Bussey, West Texas golf champion, and Bill Yager, both members of the Lubbock Country club, left early today for Amarillo to compete in the Panhandle Amateur tournament which gets under way tomorrow.

Formerly known as the Panhandle Open, the two-day affair is drawing the outstanding golfers of the southwest. Last reports from headquarters indicated that more than 100 would be entered in the meet.

The City Open tournament which is under way here will prevent a number of local golfers from entering the Amarillo tourney.

FAILURE OF AMENDMENTS IS ADMITTED

KEELING SAYS RETURNS SHOW DEFEAT IS BY 20,000 VOTES

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Aug. 2—Defeat of both the constitutional amendments seeking to increase membership of the supreme court from three to nine and to raise the governor's salary from $4,000 to $10,000 annually, was conceded today by W. A. Keeling, chairman of the State Bar association committee furthering adoption of the amendments.

He said returns from more than 200 counties indicated voters turned down the proposals by 20,000 votes.

TECH STUDENTS TO VISIT CAVERN

Summer students of Texas Technological college will make another tour of Carlsbad caverns Saturday morning, starting at 9 o'clock, the second tour of the cave to be sponsored by the college this summer.

The first trip, held on July 5, was very successful, there being some 75 students in the party, said Mr. Ford. Saturday's trip will not be so well attended and only two or three cars will probably be needed.

The party plans to join up with the All Texas tour to the Carlsbad caverns, possibly at Seminole. Should they not make connections here they will join them at Carlsbad, N. M., going through the caverns on Sunday and making the return trip Monday.

Route for the trip going will be by way of Brownfield, Seagraves and Lovington, while the return journey will include Roswell, Tatum and Plains.

HARDY IS TO RETURN MAN

E. C. TOWNSEND HELD FOR THEFTS IN SECTION

Sheriff Wade Hardy, of this city, left today for Denton, from where he will return Saturday with E. C. Townsend, of this city, who was arrested there Friday on charges of auto theft and burglary.

Officers here express the opinion that the arrest of Townsend will explain the burglary of farm homes and other property in this section during the past few months.

Townsend is charged in connection with the robbery of three houses in Crosby county July 4 when a typewriter, several silk dresses and chickens were stolen.

Permit Embargo Is Granted Galveston

GALVESTON, Aug. 2 (AP).—Effective today, Galveston has been granted the permit system of embargo for all grains other than wheat as a result of a conference between Galveston shipping interests and R. C. Andrews, representing Galveston railroads. Tonnage is available to move wheat but, with foreign buying slow, no change will be made in the absolute embargo against export wheat until accumulations are reduced.

Arson Blamed For Fire In Wisconsin

WABENO, Wis., Aug. 1 (AP).—Arson was blamed by fire wardens for the forest fire which broke out between Townsend and Lakewood, in Oconto county yesterday. More than 3,300 acres of three year slashings are menaced.

Evidence that twigs had been gathered to start the fire was found by the wardens who also said they discovered foot prints leading to the center of the slashings.

Thought For Today

Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings before mine eyes, cease to do evil.—Isaiah 1:16.

* * *

There is evil in every human heart, which may remain latent, perhaps, through the whole of life; but circumstances may arouse it to activity.—Hawthorne.

Faith

We never realize the extent to which we are required to take our fellow men on trust until one or another of them turns out to be a rogue.

This is supposed to be a cynical and suspicious age—an age of world-wise sophisticates. In reality, however, it is above all ages an age in which men are taking it for granted that their associates are men of honor and dependability.

In New York city not long ago a large bank failed, causing a loss to its depositors—mostly poor Italian working men—of some $7,000,000. State officials immediately investigated, and uncovered an unbelievable state of corruption and defalcation on the part of trusted officers. The bank evidently had been systematically looted, and the weight of its falling wreckage landed right on the shoulders of those least able to sustain it.

Now the collapse of a bank is not a common event, and when you stop to think about it, the mere fact that it shocks us so much is a striking proof of the fact that good faith is a predominating element in modern life.

Think it over for a minute. Whatever money you have been able to save you put in a bank. You do not probably know a soul connected with your bank. You have no means of knowing whether its officers and employes are honest men or scamps. Yet you never hesitate to put all of your savings into their hands. You do not even dream of distrusting them. Your confidence in their honesty makes you feel that the bank is the safest possible place for your money.

That, of course, is only one instance. You could multiply it by scores.

When you drive your auto at a 50-mile clip, you know perfectly well that if some of its parts should suddenly develop flaws and give way—a steering knuckle, for instance—you would be badly injured, perhaps killed outright. Yet that thought never disturbs you. You have confidence that the men who made the car put honest work into it and made it safe for you.

When you go to a department store to buy clothing the chances are the bill is charged. The store officials do not know you. You are only one of thousands of customers—all of whom are having their purchases charged. But the store is quite willing to take your word for it that you will pay up later. It has found that all but an insignificant minority of people are to be trusted.

When you have a prescription filled at the corner drug store you are putting your life in your druggist's hands. On his shelves are poisons enough to kill a regiment. If he is careless or poorly trained he could easily make a mistake that would put you out of existence. And there is no earthly way for you to check up on him. Yet you do not hesitate. You have perfect confidence that he is up to his job.

This is the way it goes, through every hour of the day. Never before was the ordinary man so much under the necessity of taking it for granted that his fellows are reliable, honest and capable. A scandal like that of the New York bank only emphasizes how seldom it is that this daily confidence of ours is misplaced.

Real Service

While endurance flyers circle over airports, trans-Atlantic flyers spin off over the sea and other spectacular stunters go about their tasks, the rank and file of aviation continues with the ordinary, unexciting tasks that are making aviation valuable to the people as a whole.

Lost in the dispatches telling of more stirring events is a brief paragraph from Ottawa, Ontario, telling how Flight Lieutenant N. C. Forks has just finished an experiment in dusting trees in a northern Ontario forest from an airplane to exterminate the spruce hugworm.

This insect pest ruins many acres of trees annually. Lieutenant Forks has found that it can best be attacked with the airplane—and thus, unnoticed, proves himself a more valuable airman than a dozen of the more famous ones.

THE PLAINSMAN Says

That Girl on Broadway says the best way to cure a superiority complex is to get a photograph taken.

* * *

To break right down and confess, this column is getting air-minded. Yesterday it was all cluttered up with Charlie Whitacre's birdseye view of Colonel Lindbergh and today it's chock full of Colonel Art Goebel. The Plainsman was out at Municipal airport yesterday afternoon when the Dole race winner and his boy friends landed in three planes and he's right here to tell the world that Colonel Goebel made a hit with the customers.

* * *

The Plainsman has never seen Colonel Lindbergh. He was supposed to represent the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce at Abilene a couple of years ago when the Lone Eagle was down there letting the natives look at him but didn't figure Lindy would notice his absence so he didn't go. But if Colonel Lindbergh has to go through with as much as Colonel Goebel goes through at the hands of the great American public this column will never criticize him for being 'high hat.'

* * *

Honest, you'd think Colonel Goebel was a two-headed calf, or something yesterday. People gathered around him as thick as flies around a molasses barrel, took his picture, asked him all kinds of questions, both sensible and otherwise, and treated the bronzed airman about like yokels at a circus treat the folks in the side-shows. Why you'd think he was some kind of a freak when as a matter of fact he's a quiet spoken, unostentatious young American full of common sense. You can bet a dollar to a hole in a doughnut that he gets plenty tired of people poking around him.

"How did you feel when you got more than half way between California and Honolulu?" some well meaning soul asked Colonel Goebel yesterday.

"Well," he answered, "we didn't have enough fuel to turn back and we didn't have any pontoons on the ship so there wasn't but one thing we could do. That was go ahead to Honolulu—and we did!"

That statement right there marked the Colonel as a 'regular guy,' in The Plainsman's estimation. Nothing smart slick, no patting himself on the back. Just a plain, every-day answer without any trimmings.

* * *

On account of being one of the BCD airport committee, The Plainsman was one of the local boys supposed to greet Colonel Goebel and his friends. But after thinking it over carefully this writer decided to be one of few folks on hand not trying to drive the visitor into a nervous rigor. The Plainsman knew darn well it didn't make any difference to the flier whether he met him or not so what was the use of adding to his misery? He just hung around for a while with Frank Jones and Dr Sam Dunn and then went back to town after looking the plane over.

Last night the telephone in Colonel Goebel's room rang incessantly. Always polite, ultra-courteous, he answered every call personally as people he didn't know and probably never will know, invited him here, there and everywhere. It was a big night for the flappers and ninety per cent of his calls were from members of the fair sex.

"I sure do thank you," the Colonel would say. "It's mighty nice of you to call but I'm on a schedule and I have certain things to do that make it impossible for me to get away. Thanks, so much!"

When you stop to consider that he has the same thing to contend with everywhere he goes it's a wonder he doesn't say "Aw, go to the dickens! I don't want to see you or anybody else. What I want more than anything else is to be let alone!"

* * *

The Plainsman never has been a celebrity and from all indications never will be but regardless of that he sure sympathizes with the folks who are, some way or another. Being everybody's servant certainly isn't what it is cracked up to be and if you think it's such a big cinch you'll change your mind the first time you see a celebrity under fire.

The Secret Of Being A Great Statesman, It Seems, Is Knowing How To Say Things So Everybody Is Pleased

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—The way to learn the secrets of being a great statesman is to watch some of them in action.

One of the most important secrets appears to be the art of saying something important that can be taken either way—something on an important issue which each opposing faction can construe favorably in its own fashion and which will permit everyone to love the speaker as much as ever.

The benefits of this secret of statesmanship are obvious enough. It enables the statesman to say something whenever his silence becomes embarrassing and it enables him to appear to have taken a definite attitude on the issue without putting his foot some place whence it can't be extricated.

In the last couple of years there have been at least three conspicuous examples of this sort of thing.

"I do not choose to run," said Calvin Coolidge, and right up to convention time, eight months later, politicians were still arguing about what he meant. Each one had placed his own interpretation on it. There were those who said Coolidge had definitely counted himself out and those who insisted that he had left the door wide open for his nomination. To this day no one knows definitely whether or not Coolidge made that statement with the pious hope that he would be renominated without having to "run" for the honors.

Then Mr. Hoover, a candidate, spoke of prohibition as an "experiment, noble in purpose." He had to say something and that was what he said. To this day the wets are getting comfort from his use of the word "experiment" and the drys still dwell fondly on the word "noble." Incidentally, Mr. Hoover also referred to "grave abuses" in connection with enforcement, failing to explain whether he meant that the prohibtion laws had been abused by bootleggers and scofflaws or by the prohibition enforcers themselves. And no one today can find any definite evidence as to whether Mr. Hoover is satisfied to have the prohibition laws kept in the statutes as is.

Now we come to the third case, which is that of the Hon. George W. Wickersham, chairman of Hoover's National Commission on Law Observance and Enforcement. In his letter to Governor Roosevelt, which was read at the governor's conference, he said:

"If the national government were to attend to preventing importation, manufacture and shipment in interstate commerce of intoxicants, the states undertaking internal police regulation to prevent sale, saloons, speakeasies, and so forth, the national and state laws might be modified so as to become reasonably enforcable, and one great source of demoralizing and pecuniarily profitable crime removed."

Because of that statement some drys have demanded Wickersham's resignation, some drys have confessed themselves confused as to his meaning and some drys have yelled "Hooray!" Some wets are enthusiastic and other remain unimpressed. And Mr. Wickersham refuses to elucidate.

President Hoover has refused to comment on Wickersham's letter, so why should your correspondent undertake to explain what Wickersham meant? The general assumption in Washington is that Hoover knows as well as anyone. It is commonly suggested that the letter was meant as a "feeler" or "trial balloon." But if so, for what?

All your correspondent knows is ward, Prince of Wales, in all probabilities the next king of England, threw them down and boy-like, the scouts were disappointed. Demands on the Prince's time are doubtless heavy. Many engagements has he—and many he fills because he has to fill them. But naval cuts, treaties and leagues of nations not to the contrary, international good will can't be built on broken engagements. Some day in the dim and distant future, the Prince may have cause to regret that he didn't fill his date.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

(By Associated Press)

Sets New Mark

NEW YORK—Along comes Ruth—the Babe himself—to add to these records made lately. From the home plate at the Yankee stadium he walloped a fungo 447 feet. Available history is that the longest previously measured was one of 418 feet by Ed Walsh in 1912.

No Worse

NEW YORK—A motorist who skidded into a curb on a wet day would not think he had been in a serious accident. Colonel Lindbergh says his landing mishaps at Columbus and Newark were no worse.

Time Turns Up

SOMERVILLE, N. J.—Bennie Bonini, six weeks old, swallowed a wrist watch. His mother called the police. A patrolman started hustling to a hospital on a motorcycle with Bennie. The watch was jolted out on a rough stretch of road.

Breaks 100 Targets

SAN ANTONIO—On 100 occasions Mrs. Adolph Toepperwein has broken 100 targets straight at trap shooting. Her century of centuries came in practice for the grand American championship.

Better Posted Here

NEW YORK — Back from abroad, Otto H. Kahn, banker, is beginning to catch up on what has happened abroad. "I am better posted on European affairs by reading the newspapers in America than by going to Europe," he said.

Noot Even Half Shot

NEW YORK—Somebody saw Mayor Walker leaving a hotel holding a handkerchief to his face. He had a toothache. The rumor started he had been shot. So many were the inquiries that he issued a denial, to wit: "I wasn't even half shot."

There are two uses for every brick. You don't have to throw every one you touch.

Some people who claim to have open minds ought to close up for a while for repairs.

THE WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Generally fair except partly cloudy and probably local showers in the Panhandle tonight and Saturday.

EAST TEXAS: Generally fair tonight and Saturday. Light to moderate southerly winds on the coast.

OKLAHOMA: Partly cloudy, probably scattered showers tonight and Saturday; cooler Saturday in east portion.

ARKANSAS: Increasing cloudiness tonight, Saturday mostly cloudy, scattered showers in north portion, cooler in northwest portion.

LOUISIANA: Generally fair tonight; Saturday partly cloudy, scattered thunder showers in southeast portions. Light to moderate variable winds the coast, becoming easterly.

Many people moving in the best circles are not straight.

—and this from personal conversations—that many perfectly good drys in Congress are convinced that prohibition has brought about a scandalous mess, the only eventual solution of which may be modification. Nobody wants to go back to the old saloon days; it is assumed that there is some way out much preferable to that.

But these doubting drys don't know just what it is and so they merely wag their heads, refusing to express their doubts for fear of kicking up trouble. Of course, there is some comfort for the organized dry leaders in the thought that by the time members of Congress are ready to openly give voice to their personal opinions prohibition enforcement will have taken a turn for the better.

Gilbert Swan

Going Places With Swan

OXNARD, Calif., Aug. 2.—If you have any desire to become suddenly old before reaching the age of 40, just follow my particular trail.

Start back for scenes which figured in your youth and look up a couple of girls who, once upon a time, were "all the world to you." At the time it seemed incredible that you could ever live without them. Somehow you did.

And when you ring the doorbell, a tall, goodlooking lad of some 17 years answers the door. You look him up and down. He's just about the size and the age you were—once upon a time. He has that shy look that you've forgotten.

Suddenly you hear him saying . . . "Oh wait a minute, I'll call mother. I'm sure she'll be terribly glad to see you. I've heard her speak of you so often . . . "

That spinning, dizzy feeling you find possessing your head has nothing to do with the heat of the day.

Then a matronly woman — about your own age — appears. There is a cordial greeting — and then — . "You've already met my boy. Isn't he a splendid, handsome fellow?"

Of course he is — ! Somehow you try to talk of this and that . . . of this girl and that boy . . . and all the time you're haunted by a 17-year-old lad, who sits quietly in the corner and who finally excuses himself to go down to the drug store. You know why he's going. He's going for the same reason you once went. The girls will be tripping by for ice cream and then they'll go to the movies . . . and he'll be meeting the "only girl in the world"—someone he just couldn't live without . . .

There sits the boy you once were . . . And take it from a hard-boiled young man from Manhattan, if you want to have your heart broken in a hurry — just try that on you rnext day off.

If it had only ended there. After a while, a kindly white-haired old lady comes in and throws her arms about you. You are assured that she always liked you . . . "You really were an awfully nice boy" . . . and all that. How could you have feared her so much, once upon a time?

And, you hear her asking, do you remember when you used to come over Sundays and play the piano and sing, "Beautiful Garden of Roses."

Not only does that daze you, but the room reels slightly. You begin to feel like the fourth hour of an airplane ride.

Finally you are alone, and the girl is telling you how all these years she has kept a couple of letters you once wrote. She kept them because she could tell by them, that some day you would be a writer. Wouldn't it amuse you to see them . . . Inwardly you tremble a bit. But curiosity gets the better of you. So you let her bring them out. And you start reading—

So this was you? Great heaven! Suddenly all the letters that ever were introduced at "heart balm" trials go dancing before your eyes. Suppose tomorrow you should write such letters again. And yet, they're so terribly, tragically young—so heart-breakingly sincere and fervid.

I found myself in the street, hurrying toward the busy little business section. Like Rip Van Winkle, it had all changed for me. Everything was smarter and autos lined the streets. Would Peacock's candy store still be running?

Wasn't it only yesterday that a lad sat in the back of the store helping to make candy canes and those brittle nuggets with strawberries dyed in the center? Yes—there it was — but expanded many times and with booths along the side. Cute young things were giggling from behind the booth fences.

"You don't remember me, of course, you find yourself saying to the active man whose hair had turned gray. To save embarassment you recall the cub reporter of yesteryear—

"Yeh, I remember you all right. Suppose you've come back a millionaire, like they all do in the movies—"

You had, by accident, a couple of dollars in your hand with which to buy a box of candy—

"Yeh, got money now. Remember when you snitched candy off the kitchen table—" He goes to wait on some customers. That's all.

You're not a millionaire and you don't want to be. You're so darn glad to be back there, you could shout — and this is the perfunctory welcome! The rich city slicker comes back to the old town — Great grief, what a role in which to be cast.

Finally you timidly ask about so-and-so—

"That's her daughter sitting over there in the booth," says the voice—

You give a hasty glance. There, for all the world sits the girl you once took to the ice cream store when you had the money — Her daughter. If you're like me, you grab your hat and run.

* * *

I'm not sure, I haven't had enough I'm not so certain at the moment that I want to recapture my youth!

Somehow, I wish Lagonmarsino's bar was operating. I'm afraid I need a stimulant.

SEE ORTHOPEDIC SURGEON IF BABY'S LITTLE FOOT SHOWS MARKED TURNING

Answers to Mothers

God could not be everywhere; therefore He made mothers.—Jewish Proverb.

"My cousin's infant boy seems normal in every way, but his feet: one foot is turned way in (pigeon-toed). His mother fell during pregnancy and hurt her foot; do you think that is the cause?

"My baby son of 17 months has something wrong with his feet, too. They were straight when he was born, but when he started to walk at 11 1-2 months, his toes turned inward. They are much better now than they used to be. Do you think they will stay this way? His brother of 2 1-2 years had bowlegs when he started to walk, but they are perfectly straight now. "MRS. J."

It is normal for babies and children to be slightly pigeon toed (and bowlegged) and gradually they walk straighter as they grow older. The normal step is with the feet parallel to one another, and toeing neither in nor out.

No, the little turned-in foot of your sister's baby is not due to her hurting her foot while she was pregnant. (All of the supposed markings—from seeing gruesome sights, deformities, etc.—are superstitions.) If the foot is turned in very markedly, and should see an orthopedic surgeon immediately, for the corrective treatments now will make it all right easily, when the baby is so young. She may have to give special massage, and the foot may have to be in splints or bandage.

"Dear Doctor Peters:" For several years, while walking on the boardwalk, when I have seen a baby whose eyes were not protected from the strong rays of the sun, I would call attention to the person in charge that it would be a good thing if the poor little thing's eyes were protected. Being an old bachelor (94) and loving children, am I right in bothering others and myself in doing this? MAJOR R."

Yes, you are right, Major. Keep on your kindly buttin' in!

Strong sunlight, especially over any length of time, does irritate the eyes. It is becoming pretty well known of how much value the sunshine is to babies (and adults), but it is not so well known that the eyes should be protected. Now it is so well known that the sunlight treatments should be begun only a few moments at first, and slowly increased day by day, so that the child is not burned, but gradually tanned. This tanning, when it is complete, protects the skin against the chemical of burning rays of the sun, but does not shut out the ultra-violet or healing rays. These rays activate ergosterol (a fat in the skin and and tissues) so that vitamin D is produced. This vitamin has much to do with teeth and bones and normal chemistry of the body.

Severe sunburn gives a fever and symptoms the same as in in any other kind of burn, and should be avoided. You evidentl ymust have had a good hygienic program, Major, and probably an inheritance of longevity, to have reached 94. Your advice should be of value.

For those who are interested, we have a list of modern books on child care and feeding, which can be obtained by following column rules.

Mrs. G. S.—We have a pamphlet on the Kidney, Bladder and Urine, which answers your questions. Don't forget to observe the column rules.

Editor's Note: Dr. Peters cannot diagnose, nor give personal advice. Your questions, if of general interest, will be answered in the column, in turn. Requests for articles must be accompanied by a full self-addressed, stamped envelope and two cents in coin for each article, to cover cost of printing and handling. For the pamphlet on reducing and gaining, 10 cents in coin, with fully self-addressed, stamped envelope, must be enclosed. Address Dr. Peters, in care of this paper.

Who's Who and Timely Views

DECPTION OF PUBLIC CHARGED
BY GEORGE W. NORRIS, Senator From Nebraska

(George William Norris was born in Sandusky county, Ohio, July 11, 1861. He worked out for farmers summers and attended school during the winters, then taught school before attending Baldwin university, Ohio and Indiana normal schools. He later studied law at Valparaiso university and was admitted to the bar in 1883. Moving to Nebraska in 1885, he served as prosecuting attorney for three terms. From 1895 to 1902 he was judge of the fourteenth Nebraska district. Serving in congress from 1903 to 1913, he was elected senator in that year and is now in this third term which terminates in 1931. He is a republican.)

The developments recently before the federal trade commission in their investigation of the power trust, has been a full and complete vindication of the charges that were made on the floor of the senate in regard to the attempt of the trust to establish a newspaper in Mobile, Ala.

GEORGE NORRIS

Other evidence has almost daily startled the country in the magnitude of the investment of the trust in newspapers in various parts of the country, but the investigation of the Mobile newspaper situation discloses that, where the trust could not buy a newspaper, they did not hesitate to establish a newspaper.

In this particular instance, the trust took extraordinary precautions to cover their tracks. Another illustration of the secret methods that have been employed by the trust all over the United States, in order to carry out their program that is nation-wide, to control every avenue of human activity.

Until this evidence was brought out this power trust paper was frantically denying that any power money was involved in the establishment of the paper and was denouncing almost daily the claims made on the floor of the senate that, if the truth were unfolded, it would be found that the power trust furnished the money that brought about the establishment of a newspaper in a territory where they were unable to control through advertising or any other means, the editorial policy of the newspapers already established.

With all the disclosures that have been made, it does not seem possible that an honest thinking, patriotic people would longer tolerate the domination of this gigantic monopoly in the politics of our country, commencing with the smallest of municipal offices and reaching up to the head of the government itself.

The story of Mobile, while startling, is nothing new. It is simply a continuation of the policy of this monopoly reaching into every vicinity and into every hamlet of the country. The cry of regulating such a monopoly is preposterous when we realize that it is already large enough to enter the national field in regulating the government itself.

FLY-TOX

DEVELOPED AT MELLON INSTITUTE OF INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH BY REX RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

The taint and torment of flies and mosquitoes have no terrors for the home with fragrant FLY-TOX handy. A vast army of insects is bred in FLY-TOX laboratories to be released in the FLY-TOX "Chamber of Death" to test and certify the positive killing qualities of FLY-TOX before it is sold to you.

Harmless to people and will not stain.

Bridges Over Red River Are Planned

AUSTIN, Aug. 1 (AP).—Texas and Oklahoma highway commissions meeting here today decided to enter into a program of constructing bridges over Red river with each state sharing proportionately the cost of bridging the boundary stream. Execution of the program would involve an expenditure of approximately $400,000 by each state.

The number of bridges to be built and their definite location was not decided upon at the executive session, but engineers from the two states will immediately consider plans for the project, W. R. Ely, member of the Texas highway commission said. Ely was of the opinion that at least three bridges would be constructed.

Fair Catalog Being Prepared For Press

Officials of the Panhandle South Plains Fair association announce that copy for the fall fair catalog is going to the printer each day and that by the end of the week they expect to complete all details and will await time of going to press.

Several departments to the catalog have been added and virtually all of them strengthened. Possibly 25 more pages will be included this year.

STOCKS MOVE HIGHER TODAY

INCREASE IN BROKERS' LOANS DISREGARDED ON WALL STREET

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Disregarding an increase of $52,000,000 in federal reserve brokers' loans to another new high record, the stock market resumed its advance at the opening today. Several large blocks changed hands in the early trading. General Eelectric opened with a block of 5,000 shares at 389, up 7 points and a new high record, and Radio opened with a block of 10,000 shares at 87 3-8, up 1. American smelting, International Harvester and Gillette Safety Razor opened 1 to 2 points higher.

Wall street apparently found some encouragement in the report that the federal reserve had increased its purchases of bills, making more credit available, although the total was relatively small. While there is little hope of easy monetary conditions for some time to come, money brokers look for the rate to drop below 10 per cent within the next few days, as contrasted with a high of 12 per cent yesterday. Although federal reserve brokers' loans are at a new peak just under six billion dollars, many traders expect the total to be much higher before the "bull" movement is definitely lower.

"Morgan Stocks" Strong

Strength of the so-called "Morgan stocks" had a cheerful effect on speculative sentiment. American telephone advanced 2 1-2 points to a new peak at 282 1-2 and U. S. Steel common crossed 214 for the first time this year. Westinghouse Electric also moved into new high ground.

John D. Ryan's optimistic statement on the copper outlook brought fresh buying into the copper stocks. Anaconda opened with a block of 13,000 shares at 118 1-4, up 1. St. Joseph Lead advanced 2 1-2 points. Allied Chemical, Pacific Lighting and Graphophone all recorded early gains of 2 points or more, while New York Central, Radio, Montgomery Ward, Union Pacific and U. S. Industrial Alcohol advanced a point or so.

Atchison was one of the few soft spots, dropping back 2 points in the early trading.

Foreign exchanges opened steady, with sterling cables unchanged at 4.85 1-8.

COTTON HAS SLIGHT DROP

DECLINE IS FROM 9 TO 22 POINTS ON OPENING

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 9 to 22 points under realizing and some local or commission house selling promoted by a feeling that recent advances had eased the technical position of the market and also by rather higher private crop and condition figures. At the end of the first half hour October contracts had sold off to 19.03 and March to 19.50, or about 14 to 16 ponts net lower, with the market rather nervous and unsettled. A private report placed the condition of the crop at 73.1 and the indicated yield at 15,740,000 bales.

Liverpool reported a quiet market with fluctuations due to evening up in preparation for th eholidays. The market there will be closed Saturday and Monday.

The market was easy late in the morning under further liquidation, with October selling off to 18.92 and March to 19.39, or about 26 to 27 points below yesterday's closing quotations, prices were at about these figures at mid-day.

Another private report was issued, placing the condition of the crop at 70.2 and the indicated yield at 15,419,000 bales.

NEW ORLEANS FEELS 2 TO 4 POINT DROP

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2 (AP)—Despite favorable Liverpool cables the cotton market opened easy today at a decline of 2 to 4 points. Although there was a slight rally after the call the market turned easy again under selling on fears of bearish private crop reports expected to be issued during the day.

October traded down to 18.94 and December to 19.14, or 10 to 12 points under yesterday's close. At the end of the first hour the market was quiet and at the lows.

Rather extensive liquidation was encountered as the morning progressed and prices continued to recede being helped materially on the downgrade by favorable weather and rather large private condition averages. October sold down to 18.81 and December 19.01, or 23 points below yesterday's close.

At mid-session the market was quiet and a few points above the lows.

GRAIN PRICES TURN DOWNWARD

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (AP).—Wheat and corn prices turned sharply downward early today, influenced by lower Liverpool wheat quotations and by rain and cooler weather in the corn belt. Private crop estimates on wheat crop productio were about as expected, and were devoid of important market effect.

Opening 1 1-2 to 2 3-4 lower, Chicago wheat later showed some further setback. Corn started 1 3-8 to 4 1-2 off, and subsequently held near to the initial range. Oats were easier. Provisions also inclined downward.

BORAH ADVOCATES SINKING OF BRITISH VESSELS

SAYS MOVE IS NEEDED FOR NAVY PARITY

SENATOR SAYS ENGLAND SHOULD ACT; SHIPS WAR INCENTIVE

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2—Attainment of equality in naval strength between the United States and Great Britain through the sinking of British ships was advocated today by Chairman Borah, of the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

The statement was issued 24 hours after he discussed the general naval situation with President Hoover. Whether the chief executive knew Borah was to make a public pronouncement was a subject of speculation.

"If Great Britain will follow our example at the Washington Conference," the Senator said, "sink some of her ships, and thus come to parity, it not only will save the taxpayer but reduce the incentive to war—for huge armaments are always an incentive to war. If we have to build up to parity, it vastly increases the burdens to the taxpayer and augments the incentive to war."

South Texas Plans For Supply of Labor

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 2 (AP)—Assurance of an adequate supply of farm labor even in case the Box Bill placing immigration from Mexico on the quota basis is passed, is planned by the South Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The organization plans at the next session of Congress to seek passage of a measure which will allow the entry of Mexican field workers into the United States for a period of six months, under a passport allowing them to engage in agricultural work only. At the expiration of their passports they would return to Mexico to await another crop season.

More Highway Work Authorized Today

AUSTIN, Aug. 2 (AP)—The highway commission in executive session allotted $1,114,462 for construction work in a large number of counties today, bringing the money transactions for the 2-day meeting to $4,419,851.

HOOVER LEAVES FOR LODGE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—President Hoover will leave Washington late today for his usual week-end outing at his fishing lodge in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

When Clowny finished all his tricks, he said, "I'm in an awful fix. My hair is all mussed up and, gee, I haven't any comb. It seems I'm always in a fix whenever I try out new tricks. I get a soakinfi, or a bump wherever I may roam."

Wee Scouty laughed and calmly said, "Oh, my, why worry 'bout your head. Besides, I'll let you take my comb, if you must fix your hair. Or better still, I'll comb your locks. Say, I'm as clever as a fox." And, when he promptly did it, Clowny said, "Well, it looks fair."

Then, in to lunch the whole bunch went, and 'bout a half an hour was spent in eating very tasty food that everyone enjoyed. "Oh, my," said Coppy, "this is good. Say, honestly, I'll bet I could eat with a circus all the time. I'm glad that we're employed."

When lunch was o'er they all went out into the air to loaf about. "We have a half an hour," said one, "before the next show starts. And then when that show's o'er tonight, if everything goes quite all right, we'll pull up stakes and leave this place, to head for other parts."

Just then they heard a lion roar. Said Coppy, "What's he yelling for?" And then they loked up near a tree. There stood the lion bold. "Oh, my, he's out," one Tiny cried. "I wish that he was back inside his little cage. He frightens me. My blood is running cold."

"I'll catch him," Scouty promptly said. "I'll toss a rope around his head. I'm not afraid of lions and I'll shortly make him wail." He grabbed a rope and crept up near. The lion eyed him, filled with fear. And then the beast began to run, with Scouty at his tail.

(The Tinymites cheer Scouty in the next story.)

auditor, said he had estimated. He compared revenues on the proposed Childress-Pampa line with those of the recently completed South Plains branch.

On the other hand, W. A. Blank, assistant general freight agent of the Denver, said he estimated the Denver would lose $343,414.44 yearly if the Rock Island petition for a road from Quanah to Shamrock were granted and the Denver application denied.

RAIL TROUBLE IS EXPLAINED BY MINISTER

DR. WU DECLARES PLOT BREWING AGAINST CHINESE

(By Associated Press)

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass, Aug. 2—China's recent expulsion of Soviet officials of the Chinese Eastern Railway was the result of the discovery of a "grave conspiracy" against China, and was neither a seizure of the railway nor a violation of agreements with the Soviet government, D. C. C. Wu, Chinese minister to the United States, said today.

Speaking at the opening session of the institute of politics at Williams college, Dr. Wu discussed at length the Sino-Russian dispute over the Chinese Eastern Railway, which he characterized as "an instrument of Russian expansion and domination in Manchuria," and outlined the conspiracy which he said occasioned China's action.

Discovered Documents

Chinese officials he said, made a forcible entry on a meeting of the Third Internationale, attended by Russian Consuls General, communist agitators, officials of the Soviet consulate at Harbin and discovered partly burned documents.

"A translation of the documents disclosed a grave conspiracy against China," said Dr. Wu. "There was not only the usual type of communist agitation and propaganda, but there was evidence to show the conspirators were trying to instigate civil war in China and to cause injury to the Chinese Eastern Railway.

"What China did under the circumstances was dictated by the most elementary law of self defense. After deliberation of six weeks she ordered the expulsion or arrest of the officials of the Soviet consulates, trading agencies and of the Chinese Eastern Railway and the closing of the Soviet organizations.

MEXICAN SERVANTS GET CHANCE

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 2—The long oppressed household servant will come into her own if the proposed national labor law is passed.

The law prohibits householders from maltreating their servants, obliges them to give the servant a chance to attend night school, to give her half pay when she is ill and unable to work and furnish her medical attention irrespective of the nature or origin of the illness and to pay for her burial if she dies in their employ.

Must Have Reason

No servant could be discharged without a good reason, the reasons being specified in the law, without being given a bonus equivalent to three months' salary.

The law also specifies that women in home or industrial employ be given a month's rest upon becoming mothers and that during the nursing period they be given two extra rest intervals of half an hour each and every day to attend to their children.

The maximum working day would be eight hours and six hours for persons under 16 years of age. Under no condition could women or minors be required to work overtime.

"Swede" Kling Back At Lubbock Hotel

H. (Swede) Kling, manager of the Herring Hotel at Amarillo for one and one-half years, has returned to this city to become assistant manager of the Hotel Lubbock.

Mr. Kling occupied his present position here in 1927.

SALES RECORD SET

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (AP)—All records for month's sales of wheat futures on the Chicago board of trade were broken in July. The grain futures administration announced 2,431,961,000 bushels were traded, exceeding by 369,030,000 bushels the record set in December, 1925.

Bolivia is developing its sugar and flour industries.
