JOBS TAKEN BY THIRTY-FOUR MEN R. F. C. FUNDS

Clarendon, Lella Lake And Hedley Citizens to Share In Appropriation

Clarendon, Texas, Nov. 21, 1932. Thru cooperation with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the services of Odus Caraway director of that organization for Clarendon appointed to that office by the local Chamber of Commerce for the year 1932 the work of taking care of the unemployed in the city is going forward under the guidance of the local committee in charge and the cooperation of all charity bodies of the city.

According to information from C. J. Douglas secretary of the committee 34 men have been used to date in the various jobs undertaken to date. This city will endeavor to cooperate with the cities of West Texas and enroll in the beautification contest for West Texas cities and part of the work done in connection with the use of these funds will be directed to clean-up and beautification of this city.

Working in complete harmony with the plan Mayor Cagle assured the committee this week that citizens of the city who wish to clean-up their premises can get refuse hauled away if they will notify the City Hall. The Mayor stated the city would do this work as is done regularly each year in spring in order to cooperate in lending employment and a general clean-up city wide at this time.

Members of the committee have expressed appreciation at the cooperation received from all concerned, especially other charity organizations of the city and stated that where possible work was to be given first to men with families to support.

BOBCATS MEET WITH DEFEAT IN FRIDAY'S GAME

Bronchos Score Victory In 21-0 Game Against Class "A" Childress Team

The Childress Bobcats of class "A" standing found the going too stiff here Friday afternoon, and the Clarendon Bronchos romped off with a 21-0 victory. Only at intervals of the game did the Childress squad show threats of power. The Bronchos, on the other hand, threatened the other's goal line throughout the game. The Broncho line always tightened when the Bobcats began a series of advances, and not even once during the game did the Childress boys bring the ball within scoring distance.

It was a great day for the Clarendon backs. Whitlock, Quarterback and mainstay of the scoring punches, gave the fans what they like to see in "good field generalship." The other Clarendon backs, Elery Watson, Bolls and Hudson, gained almost at will through the Childress line. The Bobcat backs were handicapped through lack of line interference and blocking.

Clarendon scored twice during the first quarter, making most of their yardage over left and right tackle plays. The first touchdown came after a series of first downs with Whitlock plunging across the goal line. He also bucked line for the extra point. The second counter was registered a few minutes later when Elery Watson shot through the Childress line like a cannon ball and dashed to within scoring position. On the next play Watson carried the ball over and likewise converted for the extra point with a straight line buck.

Both squads fought to a standstill during the second quarter with Childress making four first downs to Clarendon's three. The Childress boys were trying hard to score, but the Broncho line put up a "never pass" defense that showed them to be the real champions that they are.

Whitlock opened the second half with a 40 yard dash, and on the

FATHER AND SON BANQUET DRAWS A BIG ATTENDANCE

Goldston Family Awarded First Honors As The Largest Family

Dr. B. L. Jenkins as chairman of the Father-Son banquet affair Thursday night lived up to every promise of having something different. No speeches, no smoking and good eats are said to have been the main features most appreciated. The big crowd was lively and had plenty of snap.

Gus B. Stevenson and his high school orchestra played several numbers. This was followed by a string quintet composed of Joe E. vid, Elmer Palmer and T. D. Nored. Music in variety added to the zest of the aggregation that had come out to do honor to Clarendon's biggest annual occasion.

J. J. Wilson and his six sons represented the largest family present in point of number. He also had five grandsons present.

L. W. Chase, 85 years young and active as many a man at 50, was easily the oldest man present, in point of years. Mr. and Mrs. Chase have been married sixty-two years. He leads an active life from personal choice, doing heavy work practically every day.

Billie, aged two and a half years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis, was the youngest personage present though not the quietest, he loudly acknowledged the compliments paid him by the crowd.

Andis brothers, three in number, each had a son present and were thus awarded honors in that section.

Rev. W. E. Ferrell closed the program with a number of magic stunts that attracted old as well as young. This was the one big feature of the occasion next to the eats.

In the election of officers and directors for the coming year, Lawrence Whitlock was unanimously elected president, Rhodin Chase vice president, T. D. Nored, Dr. J. G. Sherman, George McCleskey Jr. and George Chamberlain were elected to the Board of Directors.

The number in attendance in 1930 was 211; in 1931, there was 167 present; this year 152 found it convenient to honor the occasion. The father and son movement was started some ten years ago, the first meeting being held in the Denver hotel with Dr. B. L. Jenkins the moving factor behind the movement.

The ladies of the Christian church again, as they have on numerous occasions, did themselves proud by serving a turkey 'feud' with all the trimmings. Many declare it to have been the best yet. The meeting was held in the basement of the Christian church as it has been for a number of years.

Panhandle Old Fiddlers To Contest

Old fiddlers of the Panhandle are eligible to enter the contest to be held in the Municipal Auditorium at Amarillo Friday night of December 9th. The only requirement is that each fiddler file his application of entry with Mason King before December 5th.

In addition to the fiddling contest, there will be a square dance and harmonica contests. Prizes to be announced later, are to be given in each of the contests. Those who wish to enter either of the contests are requested to write Mason King in care of the Amarillo News-Globe at Amarillo.

Chamberlain School Opens Again Next Monday

The Leader is requested by Mr. Clarence Jackson to announce that the Chamberlain school will again resume work the 28th, which is next Monday.

Like other schools of the county, a recess session was taken some weeks ago to permit of the gathering of cotton.

Mrs. J. P. Manley is visiting relatives in Ft. Worth.

A Real Thanks GIVING!

Work on Highway Survey To Begin Today

According to information given county judge, J. J. Alexander by the highway division office at Amarillo Tuesday, surveying is to begin on Highway 5 routing today.

It is understood that the survey will continue on the south side of the track from the Armstrong county lines to the intersection of the streets on Kearney in Clarendon, the east survey having been made to this line some time ago.

The stock pens at Ashtola held up the survey for some time. It is now claimed that the survey will be made around the pens as the only solution to the problem, and cheapest to the county. A jury of view will assess the damages to the land traversed by the proposed route, if an agreement is not reached between the individuals and the county commissioners.

SANGER TEAM TO MEET BRONCHOS HERE THURSDAY

Thanksgiving Day Game To Be Plenty Interesting Say Local Coaches

Attempting to give the populace of Clarendon the best possible game for Thanksgiving, something of an inter-sectional nature is to be tried.

The opposition comes from Sanger, Texas some sixty miles north of Dallas. Not only is the enemy remotely located with regard to Broncho territory, but they boast a record of only one defeat during the past three years. Such a record coming from the section that produces the Masonic Home, Woodrow Wilson, Dallas and other strong teams, really means that the opposition will be strong.

The Bronchos, in the face of such opposition, do not promise victory, but they do promise a victory of the greatest game ever played in Clarendon, according to a Broncho coach Wednesday.

Those who enjoy football sport, will find it well worth coming miles to see this game, undoubtedly the best in the Class B line in the Panhandle this season. The local team's backers are expecting them to do the impossible tomorrow by winning over one of the state's strongest teams of their class.

W. M. Pickering, prosperous farmer on Salt Fork, has the pumpkins, turkeys, sweet potatoes and other things that go toward making up a Thanksgiving dinner.

Celebrates Seventy-Ninth Birthday Sunday

Many relatives and friends gathered at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Simmons, to help Mrs. S. E. Dishman celebrate her 79th birthday Sunday, in Windy Valley.

Mrs. Dishman is a pioneer resident of the county and has a wide acquaintance. The large number who have come to know her intimately, appreciate her many qualities that make her one of the county's most revered citizens.

Those present Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. Van Knox and children, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Knox, Anabelle Creamer, Althea and Isabell Knox, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reynolds and family, Ethel Bell, Cecia Black, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Simmons, Paul Immann all of Hedley.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons and other relatives prepared a bountiful dinner for those who came to pay tribute to the honored guest of the occasion.

County Council to Meet Here Saturday

All clubs of the county are requested to have representatives present at a meeting to be held in the Club Room here at 2 p. m. Saturday, November 26th.

Produce House Changes To New Man Monday

E. V. Fite took charge of the Western Produce and service station business Monday morning having purchased same from Roy Philpott who returns to Childress.

The new dealer has spent fifteen years in the business, being stationed for some time at Wellington, but more recently in Oklahoma. Mr. Fite is an uncle of Mrs. Henry Tomb.

In speaking of the business Monday, Mr. Fite was quite optimistic over the prospects here believing that this section is an ideal poultry producing country with a bright future. Having made a specialty of the poultry business for years, he states that his services are at the command of the people in offering any suggestions that will make their poultry efforts more profitable. He asks for a share of your business. His ad appears in this issue of the Leader—read it.

Ed Bolliver had business here Monday rounding in collections for legal printing.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alderson had business in Panhandle Tuesday.

Former Physician Blaylock Colony Visits Here

To have ministered faithfully to mankind as a physician for near a half-century is the creditable record of Dr. B. H. Moss, M. D. of Willow, Oklahoma who, with Mrs. Moss are now visiting in the home of their son R. S. Moss in Clarendon.

Dr. Moss served the Blaylock colony in old Mexico as the choice of physicians selected by the promoter who attracted families from southwestern Oklahoma and north Texas for the venture back in the 90's.

Beginning his practice in Tennessee at the early age of 22, he continued until well past his 70th year after he became a resident of Oklahoma. He is now in his 87th year and Mrs. Moss is 77. He has a brother in Tennessee who is 90, whom this venerable couple visited three years ago.

BUSINESS MEN TO CLOSE STORES HERE THURSDAY

Union Church Services Will Be Held at Methodist Church at 7 a. m.

Business men have announced that they will follow the custom of closing all day Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving to permit employees as well as themselves to attend any programs, visit out of town or otherwise enjoy the national holiday.

Practically all of the churches will be represented in a union program to be presented at the Methodist church at 7 a. m. The program was announced in the Leader last week. Mrs. John M. Bass will have general charge of the arrangement by the various committees from the several churches.

The church program will deviate somewhat from the old custom observed here in years past in that the younger folks and children will largely make up the talent to be heard in what might be termed a musical program. The public is cordially invited to attend this union service.

Miss Peggy Wisnand returned to her home at Dallas Friday after a delightful visit of three weeks with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Anderson.

P. H. Robinson, of Pleasant Valley, with the help of his neighbors butchered five big hogs Tuesday. Mr. Robinson has the habit of supplying his own needs.

CHANGES LIKELY UNDER FERGUSON ADMINISTRATION

Applicants Are Warned Not To Rush Matters Until She Assumes Office

Jim Ferguson through his Forum has asked applicants for jobs under the new administration to "lay off" for the present as entirely too much mail is being received, and far too many callers are hounding the governor-elect.

Several changes are to be made, among them the secretary of state. Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum says she would not again accept the office even though Sterling had been elected.

General W. W. Sterling of the Ranger forces is not expecting anything since he took an active opposition against the Fergusons arousing their ire on numerous occasions at speaking date time in various towns.

Much interest is being felt in the Ranger shake up, four of whom came in under Moody and two under Sterling's administration. Rangers present at the Lubbock convention need not expect anything, it is said. In no campaign were Rangers so active as in the last, with sentiment predominating in favor of Sterling.

James Shaw, banking commissioner, may serve until the expiration of his term in September of 1933. He is said to have taken no active interest in politics.

Cone Johnson whose term expires in February on the Highway Commission, will not be appointed. Adrian Pool on the Board of Control can serve until Jan. 1, 1934. This is the supply purchasing body for the state. Roy Tennent, who served on this Board under Ferguson before, is likely to again accept a place.

Eugene Smith of San Antonio, who served as secretary of the Highway Commission under a former Ferguson administration will be Mrs. Ferguson's private secretary when she takes office January 1st.

Other officials whose terms expire during the coming year, and who will be replaced are Moore Lynn, state auditor whose alleged political audits were severely criticized by Ferguson. W. A. Tarver of the Insurance Board, R. B. Gragg of the Labor Commission, J. S. Thompson, State Tax Commissioner; John Martin, chief of the blue sky law division of the Department of State are all slated for a change it is said because of anti-Ferguson activity during the hectic days of the campaign.

J. O. Woodward, father of Walter Woodward who campaigned vigorously against Ferguson, is the only member of the Board of Pardons and Paroles likely to change for the immediate present.

Positions expiring next year include State Board of Education, (continued to back page)

Rebekahs Place Nominations Before Lodge Friday

At a regular meeting of the Rebekahs Friday night, nominations were made for the elective offices for the coming year. These nominations are: Noble grand, Mrs. M. W. Mosley; vice grand, Miss Emma Ayers; secretary, Mrs. A. M. Lanham; treasurer, Mrs. Nora Morgan.

Nominations are tantamount to election. The Rebekah lodge here has enjoyed an enthusiastic growth despite the depression, never lacking in interest. Many of the leading ladies in the order have been members more than twenty years.

Federated Clubs to Elect Officers Saturday

The Leader is requested to announce a meeting of the Federation Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. The President, Mrs. O. L. Fink, requests that each club be represented as officers for the next term will be elected at this meeting.

Glenn Adkins of Dumas was in town Wednesday. He is employed on the Coon ranch.

RED CROSS WORK GOES FORWARD IN DONLEY COUNTY

Membership Drive Gets Nice Response From Several Smaller Towns

In reporting the success of the membership drive this week of which she is chairman, Mrs. W. H. Patrick is elated over the ready response of not only local people, but those from other towns in the county and rural communities.

Those actively assisting Mrs. Patrick are Mrs. James Trent, Mrs. C. G. Stricklin, Mrs. A. T. Jeffries, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry.

The quota for the county is only $400. Of this amount $170 has been paid in locally. Red Cross workers of Hedley forwarded in $26 Tuesday. Ashtola and Jericho Red Cross committees are busy in the membership drive.

All committees will continue their efforts today and Thursday through the Thanksgiving holiday. It is believed that the quota will be filled by the end of the week. Many of those living in the more remote sections of the county have sent in the dollar necessary to enroll. Others will leave the money at either of the banks.

Donley county needy have fared exceptionally well through the efforts of the Red Cross, and funds from the national treasury received here the past year has amounted to several times the amount contributed through the membership drive. If you have not had an opportunity to contribute to the drive, make it a point to see either of the ladies on the committee, or leave the money at either of the banks where it will be passed on to the Membership Drive fund.

ATHLETICS MAY BE DEBATED BY ROTARIAN CLUB

Divergent Opinions Bring Out Snappy Talks At Friday Luncheon

The program for Rotary luncheon hour Friday was in charge of Denzil Davis. A quartet including Arch Dyer, R. E. Drennon, Denzil Davis and Dr. O. L. Jenkins with Miss Rhoda Wiedman at the piano, favored the Club with an 'array' of selections of old time melodies.

Arch Dyer opened a subject that finally became involved in an animated discussion when he spoke of school athletics, his qualifying statement that corporations gave athletes from football teams a preference in considering their employment for any purpose.

Robert S. Cope took issue and seemed to think that brawn alone was not the only requisite for preference. He was backed in this statement by Dr. J. W. Evans who, as he recalled his college days, did not think that athletics was required of one attaining a degree, or even a diploma.

R. E. Drennon came to the fore with a defense of modern day school athletics, tho he was of the opinion that it could be easily overdone. He pointed out the necessity for bodily development as a portion of the training to be had in the public schools.

Denzil Davis defended athletics from several angles, he himself having at one time been honored with the amateur wrestling championship in Ohio, though he did not remind those present of this fact in an effort to put over his subject of which he appeared to have a good understanding.

"Time out" was called by the president with a number eager to be heard. The matter will be more fully discussed at a future date in the form of a debate, according to an announcement made by the president in an effort to humor those who did not have time to express a personal opinion.

Judge Cole, chairman of the International Committee, will have charge of the program for Friday noon of this week.

Yes, Probably.

Probably the reason that Franklin Roosevelt is spending so much time at Hyde Park is, that all the hides taken off the Republicans are parked there.

Booming Booms.

If the cancellation of foreign debts will create good times as several debtor nations are claiming at this time, why not cancel all debts of any and all kinds and create a world-wide boom?

Bade Awakening.

Evidently Senator Moses of New Hampshire, who referred to men from the west as being "sons of wild jackasses," thinks their hoofs carry an awful wallop. Having been defeated in his own state, these western animals have implanted ideas in effete east.

Prelate Speaks Out.

Archbishop Michael J. Hurley of the Baltimore archdiocese is of the opinion that "We have reached a point in our civilization where money makes the man and the lack of it the fellow. Worth does not count much in our evaluation of the individual. Dollars place him in high office, and dollars still further largely control his actions after being put into office."

Epicurean.

The Texoma Times illustrates the natural law of cause and effect with the statement to "just take one reckless, natural durn fool, two or three drinks of bum liquor, a fast, high-powered auto, soak the fool in liquor, place him in the car and let him go. In due time remove the wreckage, place in a black satin lined box and garnish with flowers."

Bedrock Facts.

Despite all argument to the contrary, a nation must have men, backed by sentiment, to defend it against the intrusion of other nations at some time. How much enthusiasm could a soldier have coming from a cheap flat? How much enthusiasm could a soldier have coming from a rented shack in town or on a farm where he had been barely making ends meet?

The strength of a nation lies in its number of home owners, for after all, a man can count his riches only by the amount of pleasure in his home life, and his family is the only real valuable asset.

Legion's Enemies.

An organization known as the National Economy League is spending $35,000 per hour for high-powered speakers over the radio broadcasting stations telling the folks that the Legionists are attempting to wreck the financial standing of the government in asking for adjusted compensation.

Over five hundred thousand dollars is said to have been spent by the League for the dissemination of information calculated to react against the ex-soldier. Why is this League so patriotic (?) in behalf of the national treasury? Possibly because the soldier pay would be scattered over the nation instead of being left on deposit with rich banking interests in the east. And there are many other reasons just as selfish.

Bankroting Progress.

The day of the bootleg racketeer in Chicago is rapidly waning—they have gone after bigger business. Hoodlums now sell their services to either side in a labor controversy able to pay the price.

Gangsters have become interested in the recent milk war there with a natural consequence that headquarters is located amid bullet proof surroundings. The head of the milk men's union stands behind office fixtures protected by bullet proof glass embellishments. The gangsters have sold their services to the opposition. Gangsters are finding a poor market for the wares that molest throats, but they have found a market for bullets when delivered into the bodies of human beings who happen to be aligned on the opposite side in any kind of a financial controversy.

Mental Progress.

Mexico, that resourceful nation to the south of us where 85 percent of the population are illiterate, has appropriated an additional five million dollars to add to the national educational budget.

Teachers trained in other nations, principally the United States are given the preference in the higher educational institutions. On the other hand, many students enrolled in the University of Mexico at Mexico City, are foreigners, some 40 percent this year alone being from this nation.

Taken all round Mexico is preparing to substitute intelligence for brute strength in an attempt to dispense with nautical revolutions headed by irresponsible leadership. Those who have the best interests of the nation at heart see in their school system their only hope for peace and contentment, and rightly so.

Soothing the Public.

The fact that Roosevelt and Hoover are showing symptoms of getting together in an attempt to study the situation affecting the nation bodes well for the interests of those who have feared a change would affect the financial status of the nation.

Congressmen who do not fear public opinion can do much to help restore confidence during the December session now that politics is out of the way. Political bills passed during the last session can be repealed.

Some effective pruning can be

Quick Action Counts and BAYER has it!

Insist on genuine Bayer Aspirin! Not only for its safety, but for its speed. The tablet stamped Bayer dissolves at once. It gets to the seat of pain without delay. It is many minutes faster than any imitation you can buy, and time counts when you're in pain! done while a lot of graft can be eliminated in the matter of cost of government. Special tax laws are a menace to the nation. Right now in our home county we are pestered with dinky tax laws while the government at the very same moment is handing us charity in the form of 'free' money for the unemployed. In other words, we are taxed to help ourselves. Just how long we can continue to take out of one pocket and put into another with profit is the big national puzzle.

Thanksgiving Day.

In this year of 1932 many will sum up their substance and think they have little for which to be thankful. He who can gather round him his family Thursday, and have no vacant chairs, is rich indeed and has much for which to be thankful. Next to him are those who have given to the less fortunate during the year—he also has much for which to be thankful. After all, the treasure that one may take with him to the next world is only the good deeds performed while here.

Those who enjoy the blessings of good health are in possession of one of God's greatest gifts to mankind. Those who enjoy the confidence of real friends, too, have much for which to be thankful. In summing up the whole structure that goes to make up human existence, many of us have enjoyed great stores of blessings about which we think little until we pause in our daily task to take a personal inventory.

Meteors And Misery.

Scientists are greatly disturbed at this time reckoning the age at which fell the giant meteor in Arizona leaving a hole six hundred feet deep, and for which a million has been spent in locating the meteor at a depth of 2500 feet.

The Cliff Dwellers are supposed to have perished by suffocation in the gases generated from this giant of the heavens. Scientists tell us that the meteor fell in 1278, this having been worked out as an exact date from the tree rings found in the homes of the Cliff peoples.

That section is inhabited now by Indians who are sadly beset by drought on account of having no water with which to continue irrigation as taught them by their forefathers. The white men have diverted the water courses to their own uses and have left the aborigine to work out his own salvation. The Indian is far more interested in discovering a water supply than he is the age of the meteor, but there is also far less being spent in their behalf than on the mystery of the dead stone that wrought havoc to his ancestors.

The Beer Question.

There is no doubt at this time but what Franklin Roosevelt will be in the middle of a beer fight soon after his inauguration unless some form of beer bill is passed during the December, or "lame duck" session.

This fight for repeal may, if backed by enough money and purchased influence, overshadow the urgent needs of the nation. The extreme east where the foreign born population is heaviest, is wanting beer. The Pacific coast citizens would like to have wine included because of the extra market that might accrue to the grape industry. The central portion of the nation is more interested in lifting the burden from the farming element.

Three vital factors enter into the urgent appeal for repeal. First, the profit that might be made. Second, the financial influence brought to bear on lawmakers. Third, the rantings of "bucket shop" Cannon and the discrimination against one class of citizens in favor of the influential who have all along refused to recognize the 18th Amendment in any form.

of this community have given thought to the amount of money that is brought into this community each month as a result of the sums paid to World War veterans. An official of the Aubyn E. Clark post of the American Legion here said today. "We will let the others answer for themselves, but for the World war, the disability compensation amounts to $204,620,000 and disability allowance $104,277,000. The difference is that the larger figure is for disability connected directly with the veteran's war service, and the smaller sum is not. The total for these two items is $308,897,000 per year, which amount is what is received by veterans and spent by them for the necessities of life, etc."

"Many of the veterans have no other means of support than the small sums they receive from the government. Take this support away from these veterans and what is going to happen?"

"They are almost certain to become wards of the city and county. Remember, the veterans are paid out of the federal taxes, and not from the local and state taxes. Their pay comes out of the huge profits of federal income tax-payers. But if they become burdens on the local communities, then they affect the average American home owner and business man.

"Besides they fought for the federal government and it is a federal problem, not a state or local liability.

"Now lets take a look at the membership of the National Economy League—How many store keepers are on its membership list? How many country bankers? How many farmers? How many clerks? How many laborers? How many soldiers and sailors under the commissioned ranks? In other words how many of the soldier class of America have been enrolled by the National Economy League? And by "Soldier Class" I do not mean the veterans alone. I refer to the average family of the nation—the type of family which furnishes the men who do the dying whenever the nation is in trouble.

"The National Economy League

calls attention to the fact that the veteran is now costing the government something like a billion dollars a year.

"We must remember that, of course, wars cost money, and that the signing of an Armistice may end the killing but not the cost, which runs on and on and on. Some day our people will come to realize this fact, and they will be more careful of their wars. But, meanwhile, it is the group now shouting the loudest over veteran costs which made millions out of the war and doesn't like the idea of paying for it. It is the same group of interests, too, which is the first to call for the use of our nation's armed forces in protection of their interests abroad."

THE WEEKLY PAY CHECK

Plans amount to nothing unless put into execution. We may look forward for better times, but the one big idea is to do something now—today. The idea of looking forward to a one crop market in the fall is past. It is the weekly pay check this year that will count most in the long run. Poultry and dairying makes it possible to pay one's expenses every week with no bills accumulating.

George Washington Bi-Centennial Celebration Ends On Thanksgiving

The George Washington Bi-Centennial Celebration will be brought to a close on Thanksgiving Day, November 24, in the same manner in which it began on February 22—with religious services in honor of George Washington in all the churches of America.

The United States George Washington Bi-Centennial Commission estimates that more than 75,000 churches will participate in separate Thanksgiving Bicentennial exercises. In many cities and towns, the Bicentennial Commission reports, churches of all denominations will hold joint commemorative Thanksgiving Day exercises in honor of the Father of his Country.

The reports from the religious societies of America indicate that every church of the land will participate in this closing tribute, either by holding separate Bicentennial exercises or by joining with the other churches of their community in a combined celebration.

The Bicentennial Celebration has been going on in all parts of the world for the past nine months. More than 700,000 separate committees, representing the schools and churches as well as civic, fraternal and patriotic societies, have been actively engaged in honoring the memory of George Washington on his Two Hundredth Anniversary of his Birth. Every state, city and town in the United States has participated. Besides the Celebration has been carried out in all our territories and dependencies as well as in seventy-eight foreign countries.

The records of the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission indicate that to date more than one million separate Bicentennial programs have been held in all parts of the world.

This unprecedented Celebration

—the greatest tribute ever paid to a national hero—will come to an official close with observance of simplicity and respect. A united nation will show its reverence and admiration for its founder.

The United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission announces that it has prepared special booklets to assist organizations in arranging their Thanksgiving Day celebration programs. More than 25,000 of these booklets have already been distributed. In addition the Commission had prepared a book of sermons made up of contributions from the leading clergymen of the various denominations of America. These sermon books have been distributed primarily to churches in small cities and towns where facilities for research are not abundant. Copies may still be procured by writing to the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission in Washington, D. C.

Former Deputy Sheriff Is Free Under Bond

As an aftermath of the examination of a number of local citizens by a Travis county grand jury last week, C. M. Peabody, deputy sheriff under M. W. Mosley in 1929 was arrested on an extortion charge and made bond in the sum of $1,500 Friday.

The charge is said to have originated in the Roy Wilson case, it being alleged that Peabody charged excessive mileage in serving papers in the case totaling $31.90. The case will be disposed of by the district court at Austin, no date being set definitely so far as can be ascertained. This is the first criminal charge of any kind ever made against the good reputation of Peabody.

Rev. and Mrs. M. M. Beavers and Miss Lovie were hereford visitors over the week end.

"THANKFULNESS"

Thankfulness has been termed the poor man's payment. It is a virtue that all can possess. Paul tells the Ephesian disciples to give "thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father" (Eph. 5:20). He exhorts the Philippians: "In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God" (Phil. 4:6). To the Thessalonians he writes: "In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus to you-ward" (I. Thess. 5:18).

In EVERYTHING! This comes as a surprise when one considers the vicissitudes of human life; sickness and health, poverty and wealth, joy and sorrow, are all ingredients of the cup placed to the human lips; so all must come within the scope of thanksgiving. Why be thankful for everything? Because those who love God. (Rom. 8:28), cause everything is for good to

It must be remembered that nothing is more acceptable to God than thanksgiving. He longs for an acknowledgment of His loving-kindness. At a glance, He can see whether the heart is thankful or unthankful.

The continual exercise of thankfulness is advantageous. God has countless blessings in store for thankful souls, and has designed that by this holy exercise preparation be made for the eternal

Prison Sunday To Be Observed In Churches Throughout the Nation

Students of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, as part of practical work assignments, shown visiting inmates of one of Chicago's jails. Students distribute gospels and tracts, and Moody records reveal many redemptions through this means.

Originated in 1884 as a result of a meeting of the Prison association of New York at which three hundred ministers were in attendance, "Prison Sunday" has in the years since then been set aside to acquaint church-going people with the problems of penal and correctional institutions. It has been said that "if the men in prison are to be made free from sin and the fetters which bind them, churches must take an interest in the prison problems."

Sunday, Dec. 4 of this year is "Prison Sunday," and churches and religious organizations throughout the United States are expected to recognize the day. The need for crime prevention and the development of a better public understanding of the problems of prisons and their inmates are two phases of the day to be discussed.

The late internationally known evangelist, Dwight L. Moody, who founded the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, was actively interested in work for prisoners and to that end in-augured a "prison fund" in connection with the business of the Bible Institute Colportage association. By means of gospel literature sent out, untold blessings have been brought to all classes of criminals in prisons throughout the country.

Undergraduates of Moody Bible Institute, as a part of their practical work assignments at the "West Point of Christian service," as Moody is known, visit the jails, prisons, missions and hospitals of Chicago, where they are enabled to meet life in the raw. In this manner, the students, who some day will go to all parts of the world as Moody-trained Christian workers, can bring the gospel to those unfortunate inmates of the prisons.

Records of Moody Bible Institute show that many hard-bitten veterans of prison and jail life have begun living another life following visits from the Moody students, who, as has happened, will go back time after time in an effort to help in the redemption of even one individual.

chorus of praise by angelic hosts, when thankfulness shall be perfected, and heaven's arches shall ring with the ascription of praise. "Blessings, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. (Rev. 7:12).

We will deliver our Thanksgiving sermon Sunday morning, our subject will be "THANKSGIVING." Sunday night we will bring a lesson on the subject: "A SOUL FOR SALE." This will be something different and you should plan to be present. You have a soul, what is your selling price? There are many prices offered, we will bring some important lessons on this great subject.

"A TRIBUTE TO FATHER"

I do not wonder that the world has lost its heart to mother. Her place in the world's affection is secure forever. When the last word of appreciation and praise of mother has been said, we are conscious of our inability to give her what is justly due her. She has appealed to the world's imagination with her mother-love for her children, her almost unlimited capacity for sacrifice and service, her tenderness, her gentleness, her brooding care, pain, suffering, toil and sacrifice, her strength to bear such wearying burdens, cares, anxieties, to answer numberless calls for care and love and service.

Father has not so appealed to the world's imagination—father stern, ready for life's battles out in the world of actual conflict, toiling struggling with his burdens, striving to do his best for those he loves and for whom he would die if need be; father, with his heart of gold—often tarnished to human sight; father, taking life's buffetings with never a word nor a tear, smiling, fighting, fighting his battles grimly, steadily, "carrying on" even when he knows he is waging a losing fight, but hoping, fighting, toiling, taking reproaches and praise with the same smiling face, failing often to attain the highest things in life; rough and ready, grim and fighting, forgiving and kind. Father has not appealed to the world's imagination, and so has not been enshrined in the world's heart as has mother.

As we study the parable of the "Prodigal Son" we are apt to overlook the fact that Jesus used an earthly father to show us our heavenly Father. Not all human fathers would qualify for the place of the father in this loveliest of parables, but there are more of them who quite nearly approach the standard of this father than many are aware.

In America, where the home has had such a wonderful development, the place of mother has been high, secure, and her character has been exalted. In perhaps no other country has this been true to the same extent as in our own land.

And father has suffered by the comparison. Father is not measured by or in the terms of his life and character, but in the terms of mother's life and service and character. He has been compared with mother instead of being compared with his own fellows. The result has been distinctly to father's discredit. Because, he has not been gentle, tender, tearful, of unwearied and exhaustless patience, of the same introspective and devotional spirit, he has been condemned, as hard, unsympathetic, wooden; believed to be of the earth earthy; and therefore earthy in his thoughts and tendencies. This is not a plea for a double standard. Let us have a single standard for both sexes. This is our plea: "That father be measured by the things which are of his own world."

He has taught us industry by his fidelity to the tasks which fell his lot in daily life. He taught us patient endurance by his steadfastness under the exactions of daily life. He taught us justice, for he sought to be just. He taught us faith in our fellows by his readiness to forgive and forget, by his cheerful companionship with neighbors and friends. He taught us faith in God by his dependence upon God, and his trust in God's love and care.

The true father, the good father, the Christian father is the world's greatest picture of our heavenly Father, therefore let us bestow honor where honor is due. Let those who are fathers so live, that their associates will give to Almighty God, our Heavenly Father the honor that is due to Him.

—Compiled by W. E. Ferrell, Pastor First Christian Church.

KATY PLANNING GARNER SPECIAL TO WASHINGTON

Jed Adams Urges Texas Hosts to Join in Rousing Inaugural Welcome.

A Real Texas Tribute

Will Be Finest Train Ever. Garner May Ride with Texans to Capital.

The part played by Texas in the successful nomination of Roosevelt and Garner at the Chicago Convention will never be forgotten. The part played by Roosevelt and Garner in the triumphant Democratic national victory is a stirring chapter in the life of the Nation. Texas should taste the sweets of victory to the full by seeing with their own eyes the inauguration next March which, without doubt, will be recorded as a great moment in history. Mr. Jed C. Adams believes thousands of Texans will want to witness this memorable event and perhaps have their children witness it and see the Nation's Capital.

The Passenger Department of M-K-T Lines already has started arrangements for the greatest special train or trains ever to leave the state. Vice President Garner himself will be invited to ride into Washington with his neighbors, friends and admirers. Rates, sale dates and return limits cannot yet be announced, but F. B. Griffin, General Passenger Agent of M-K-T Lines, assures eager inquirers that rates will be extremely popular, according to the best Democratic traditions. The train itself will be a masterpiece of luxury and comfort. As soon as details can be worked out, a sensational announcement will be forthcoming.—Adv.

In times like these the idea of burning corn for fuel usually develops some discussion, pro and con. We used to doubt the wisdom of using corn for fuel, but with corn at its present price and coal selling as it does, who could be blamed for using the grain to keep the home fires burning? We used to feel the same way about feeding wheat to live stock. It seemed to us that no one but humans should eat wheat and its products, and we had to swallow hard the first few times we fed the golden grain to chickens. It just didn't seem to be the proper thing to do.

That Bonus Army.

The bonus army of last spring, with its numbers estimated at around 5,000 ex-service men and others, was just an incident compared with what Washington is looking forward to, with a few occasional shudders, as soon as Congress meets again.

Wild Renegades.

A country town man who attended the theater in a city recently, takes exception to the statement that all the rubes live in the country towns. "It may be a sign of verdure for a country man to attempt to stop the street car in the middle of the block," he says, "but it is a falling that is infinitely preferable to the habit that prompts the city rube to hurry out between every act of the play and disturb every one in the row by crawling out over them. The country fellow may be green but his respect for the comfort of others would prevent him from making a nuisance of himself under similar circumstances."

When a Yen is Not a Yen.

We have erected tariff walls to protect home industry—a special privilege granted to special interests—and in ordinary times they have been just that. But some of these walls have recently been blown down and demonstrate clearly that the consumer pays the tax. That is to say the government has made it possible for favored industries to take more money out of your pockets and put it in the tills of the manufacturers.

Just now the Japanese are offering pink salmon in 1-lb. tall tin cans at $2.40 duty paid per case of 48 tins. The domestic pack just coming on, is offered at $3.40; and fancy Japanese pink salmon at $2.57 per case of 96 cans of one half pound. The domestic salmon price is $8.00, f. o. b. Pacific ports.

Four out of every five of the gay-colored electric bulbs on American Christmas trees this season will come from Japan. The reason for all this is the drop in the exchange value of the yen. A year ago these importations from Japan amounted to practically nothing. Then the yen was worth 49 cents. Today it is worth about half that.

When a dollar buys more than four yen, and each yen buys just about as much raw material and labor in Japan as ever, the Japanese exporter can sell for half his 1931 dollar without cutting his yen price at all. For the same number of American dollars we can buy more than twice as much of Japanese products as when the yen was at par.

Practical Teacher Aid.

The month of November is the month for the payment of taxes for those who plan to make "split" tax payments, and offers a practical way for the average citizen and business man to be of assistance to teachers in Floydada Independent School District. By taking scrip off the hands of the teachers, either for merchandise or cash, the taxpayers may turn the scrip in on a big percentage of his taxes, thus getting his tax bill paid and make it possible for the teacher's "money" to get into circulation also, with consequent betterment of business. Every voucher or warrant thus disposed of also gets one more off the market and out of circulation, and will have a tendency to make a more buoyant market for scrip which must be taken at a later date by the teachers.

The plan is a practical means of self-help for the individual and community, in which teacher, merchant and the community all benefit.

While brutes grew coats of mail in OKLAHOMA

MILLIONS of years ago Nature buried in Oklahoma certain priceless complex chemical compounds. Ages went by—long ages which saw the rise and fall of life in strange forms. And little by little, heat and pressure began to have its effect. Cambro-Ordovician crude oil was in the making!

Today the drills of Sinclair oil men have bitten deep into the soil of Oklahoma and tapped this treasure trove. Piped to the great Sinclair refineries and carefully refined and blended, Cambro-Ordovician crude oil becomes Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, a product resulting from man's exhaustive care and Nature's 80 million years of priceless treatment.

Man's part in producing Opaline is all-important. In order that you shall have full value for your money, Sinclair not only de-waxes Opaline—it goes one step further and removes the non-lubricating petroleum jelly by chilling the oil down to as low as 60° F. below zero. An extra step taken by few refiners besides Sinclair!

Have the nearest Sinclair dealer change your oil to Sinclair Opaline according to the Sinclair Law of Lubrication Index. Notice how quietly your engine runs. Then, at the next draining period examine the used Opaline. Observe how it still holds its rich lubricating body—how little oil has been used up!

REMEMBER: Sinclair offers you your choice—Sinclair Opaline, made from the oldest Mid-continent crudes, or Sinclair Pennsylvania, made from the costliest Pennsylvania grade crude.

This New Knowledge may save your baby endless torture!

If your baby is peevish and fretful... if he keeps you awake half the night, tossing about in his crib... do not scold! First make sure that you are not at fault!

More often than not, leading doctors tell us, the trouble may be traced directly to Urea Irritation. The stinging uric acids crystallize almost immediately into tiny, gritty particles... invisible to the eye, yet harsh and cruel to tender skin.

Z.B.T. Baby Talcum will put a stop to this! Made according to the formula of a famous child specialist, this mildly-medicated compound powder not only soothes the skin, but heals, as well. Free from lime, mica or any other irritant, Z.B.T. contains a special ingredient which absorbs moisture, neutralizes acids and guards against infection.

Protect your own skin, too, with Z.B.T. When perspiration causes painful chafing, this pure bland talcum brings blessed relief. Use it also for "burning feet"—after shaving—and as a dusting powder.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. ©1931, C. M. Co.

next play Hudson sprinted to the 10 yard stripe. On the next play Hudson skirted left end to cross the goal line standing up. A pass from Whitlock to Martin was good for extra point.

Clarendon, again started a steady march to the goal line of the opposition, but hit a snag and the ball went over on downs. Childress now began to open up with an aerial attack, but one of their passes was intercepted by Whitlock who ran 55 yards for a touchdown, only to have the ball called back and the Broncos penalized for holding. This disappointment had scarcely been laid aside when Bolls dashed around right end and across the goal line. Again the ball was brought back and Clarendon penalized for shoving from behind.

The Clarendon "third stringers" were ushered into the game during the last few minutes of the last quarter, and displayed the markings of a real team. They rolled up a first down and were going strong when the game ended.

Postmasters Terms Come Under Investigation

According to information received by the Leader this week, the House will be asked to conduct an investigation during the December session to determine whether President Hoover "juggled" the terms of postmasters in order to keep them in office during the coming Democratic administration.

Representative Parks of Arkansas, who will demand such an investigation, said he had received reports that postmasters have been appointed acting postmasters and allowed to remain as such for two years before they were appointed postmasters for the regular four year term. This would result in a number of postmasters remaining in office until 1934, 1935 and 1936, Parks said.

Mrs. B. L. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Doss Palmer and son Ray returned Sunday night from an extended visit with relatives at Hamlin. They also visited Oscar Palmer who is a patient at the Veterans sanitarium at Waco.

CHANGES LIKELY—

Prison Board, Board of Health, University Regents, and all other state-supported institutions of higher learning as well as all members of the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, are slated for changes.

Terms to expire on the Board of Education are those of Tisinger, Chernosky and Tom Garrard, the two last named were strong for Sterling and will be given a vacation. The first, B. F. Tisinger, took no active part and may remain.

Changes are expected on the boards governing A&M college, Texas Tech, and the seven teachers colleges, besides the Board of Health and similar commissions.

The next Legislature may be asked to authorize the addition of two members to the Highway Commission. The two new men and another for Johnson's place will give the new administration plenty of advantage there. It is said that pressure may be brought to bear forcing the resignation of Ely. The present Highway Commission and Board of Control are said to be strongly anti-Ferguson. It has been intimated that a careful audit will be made of the Highway Department with a view of ascertaining any possible extravagance and thus provide a basis for an attempt at removal of W. R. Ely and D. K. Martin.

Viewed from every angle, it looks like a busy session down Austin way in January. There will be plenty of opportunity for the victors to even the score with political enemies. Just how far they will be able to clarify matters remains to be seen. From the layman's viewpoint, public opinion has settled down to an expectation of one of two results from the election of Mrs. Ferguson: one of the best administrations Texas ever had, or the worst. This opinion has been arrived at regardless of the fact that handicaps are more numerous and more serious than ever before in the history of the state.

M. L. Kelly is Seriously Injured Monday Night

While returning from Pampa Monday night in company with Mrs. Kelly who was driving the car, a soft spot in the road caused the car to turn over in which Mr. Kelly received what is said to be a broken neck. He was rushed to the Pampa hospital. In addition to the injury, he is reported to be partially paralyzed. Mrs. Kelly and small son received only slight bruises.

THE BOY WHO DIDN'T PASS

A sad-faced little fellow sits alone in deep disgrace. There's a lump arising in his throat and tears drop down his face.

He wandered from his playmates. For he doesn't want to hear Their shouts of merry laughter Since the world has lost its cheer

He has sipped the cup of sorrow. He has dripped the bitter glass. And his heart is fairly breaking— He's the boy who didn't pass. In the tree outside the birds sing a cheery little song, But he doesn't seem to hear it, showing plainly something's wrong.

Comes his faithful little spaniel For a romp and bit of play. But the troubled little fellow Bids him sternly "go away." And his eyes are red with weeping. He's the boy who didn't pass.

Oh, you who boast a laughing son And speak of him as bright And you who love a little girl, Who comes to you at night. With shining eyes and dancing feet With honors from her school, Turn to that lonely little lad Who thinks he is a fool. And take him kindly by the hand, The dullest of his class, He's the one who most needs love, The boy who didn't pass.
