QB Club Call: Ask School Study For Two Stadium Projects

Quarterback Club members are asking Colorado City school trustees to consider more imprdvements for Wolf Stadium.

A letter to school board proposes adequate restroom facilities and new press box.

Don Benson, QB president who wrote the letter after members approved the request by resolution, said the club was not pressuring but asking to consider the improvements.

He provided a copy of the letter for The Record, pointing out that the club's letter complimented board members for their "high quality service" and their effort for "constantly improving" Colorado Independent School District's school system.

The club letter, which probably will go before board members in their meeting Monday night, states that "restroom facilities were inadequate at even our most lightly attended home games."

The club claims that Colorado High "constantly complimented on our field house facilities (dressing rooms and etc.) but, on the other hand, have received criticism and chastising by visitors about our press box and restrooms."

Quarterback proposal revives a question mark of several years standing. In fact, plans for new press box were shelved after first being proposed in the school district's last bond election.

Criticism of citizens in public pre-election conferences then caused school officials to drastically revise the press box improvements. They cut back to minor improvements and concentrated on other school facilities receiving more public support in the citizen meetings.

Wreck Injures 1 Near Loraine

A one-car collision Saturday morning seriously injured Ross Martin, 63, of Loraine.

Martin, a nightwatchman in Snyder, was returning to Loraine when the accident happened about 7:45 a.m. 2.3 miles north of Loraine on Farm Highway 644 (to Hermleigh).

He was taken to Johnson Memorial Hospital in Loraine by a Kiker Funeral Home ambulance and later Saturday moved to an Abilene hospital.

His injuries included a crushed pelvis, chest injuries and facial injuries.

State Highway Patrolman Jim Mauldin said Martin was traveling alone in his 1963 Chevrolet when he apparently went to sleep.

The car crashed head-on into a bridge, crushing the front of the car and throwing the driver forward.

Mauldin said it appeared that the watchman did not have his seat belt fastened.

It was the second head-on collision by lone drivers in the Colorado City area early Saturday.

Truman David Rich, Route 3, reported to city police at 4:37 a.m. that he had gone to sleep and hit a post in front of Producers Co-op Gin on West Second St.

Rich, who was uninjured, sustained about $400 damage to his 1964 Dodge Dart when the accident happened shortly after 4 a.m. near intersection of Cypress Street. He was driving east into town, according to Patrolman Jim Mauldin.

Ginning Halts With 6,835

Rain and snow bogged down Mitchell County's harvest this week after gins reported 6,835 bales processed.

The gin count includes seven gins within the county plus Mitchell County cotton at China Grove.

Cooperative gins in Colorado City and Loraine continued to lead the bale count. Producers Co-op here reported 1,670 bales processed, 86 less than Loraine Co-op's 1,756 bales.

In third position was Farmers Gin, also in Colorado City, with 1,000 bales. Planters Gin, Westbrook, had ginned 672 bales and Colorado City's Guitar Gin had processed 420.

Adding to Loraine's total was Loraine Guitar with 255 bales. Buford Co-op reported 682 bales so far.

China Grove has processed 761 bales and 380 of that can be counted at Mitchell Cotton.

Total ginned in Colorado City amounted to 3,090 bales; in Loraine to 2,011 and in the county (outside C-City and Loraine) to 1,734 bales.

The halt in ginning is likely to impose extra cost already on gins who have been slowed in operations.

With moisture already in the ground and the deep penetration from new rain and snow, prospects are dim for farmers getting back into fields before mid December.

Gins must hold on to their work crews in some manner for the peak season when the next two thirds of the county's crop is brought in for processing. And that most likely will up expenses.

A few of the gins were just putting on night crews and that means the holdover of crews during the wait will be even more costlier to them.

Top Firemen

Rape Is Charged

Man Accused of Assaulting Girl, 5

A 39-year-old man has been charged here with rape of a 5-year-old child.

He is identified as Freddie Oscar Appleton in felony complaint filed in Justice of Peace Leonard Henderson's Precinct 1 Court.

The child has been under medical treatment in hospitals and is scheduled to undergo surgery within a few days, according to Sheriff Lewis Claxton.

Appleton was charged Wednesday after sheriff officers investigated a complaint by a woman that she had been beaten.

When they went to the residence, the sheriff said, the mother showed them her little girl.

Claxton said the girl was taken by officers for medical examination. She was placed under hospital treatment after the doctor's examination.

The surgery was planned after medical treatment, the sheriff said.

Appleton, who has lived in Colorado City for a few months, was working as a farm employe at the time of his arrest this week.

Stock Show's Board Meets

Mitchell County 4-H & FFA Livestock Show board members will face three major jobs in a meeting Monday night.

The board session will be at 7:30 p.m. in Medallion Room of Lone Wolf Electric Co-operative Inc.

Show dates for the 1970 show, tenatively set for Jan. 16-18, must be re-considered because of new schedules for major stock shows in West Texas.

All major shows have re-scheduled their dates for early 1970, according to County Agent Bobby Lemons, and just about the only dates not conflicting with the larger events are Jan. 1, 2, and 3.

Decision must also be made for judges of the local show.

In addition, the board will hear a report that the fund drive to finance the 1970 show has netted only a few hundred dollars since the campaign began a few weeks ago.

The show needs $2,000 for bare expenses.

Backers of the county show are urged to attend the important Monday night meeting, officials said.

6 Wolves On All-District

Colorado High Wolves placed six players -- three offensive and three defensive -- on District 3-AAA football team.

Dominating the all-stars was Estacado with six selections on each platoon.

One of the double-duty players selected by the district coaches was David Garcia, the high scoring senior Wolf, who made it as a running back and also a corner back on defense.

Big Carl Devorce, C-City's 258-pound star, led the linebackers on the defensive platoon Junior Joe Kirschbaum, 175-pound standout for the Wolves all-season, led the defensive ends.

Joining Garcia on the offensive team were Steve Vest, the Wolves' strong-armed quarterback, who shared the QB honors with Kenneth Wallace, the Estacado senior who was at the helm of the Lubbock club when they won the state title last year and repeated as 3-AAA champs this season, and Larry Holder, the hawkish split-end, whose outstanding play still won him one of the four end spots despite being sidelined part of the season with his caved-in knee.

There were a pack of Wolves, who were cited for honorable mention. They include Sophomore Scott Hudson, both defensive and offensive tackle; Kirschbaum, offensive center; Stanley Bracy, offensive back; Alfred Guerrero and Randy Reily, defensive backs.

Complete all-district team follows:

41 Chairs Donated

Playhouse Project Gaining Support

Forty-one chairs already are assured for new Colorado City Playhouse.

That was the count Friday as the campaign to furnish seating for the theater gained speed.

The 41 chairs are one-fourth of the total seating capacity for the playhouse, which is being constructed now in the city's old opera house building in 300 block of Walnut.

"We are especially gratified by this early response," said Bob Reily, Playhouse official, "and it provides new inspiration for all Colorado City Playhouse members who have worked for months with their own hands in the remodeling."

"Their community spirit and interest in providing a fine, modern stage theater for Colorado City provides confidence for all of us that others will step forward to provide for all 160 chairs."

The 41 chairs already assured represent contributions totaling $1,230. Local citizens provided all except three -- a trio which have patrons in Fort Worth, Sweetwater and Tulsa, Okla.

The early doners are County Judge and Mrs. Elmer Martin, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Curlee, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Chesney, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Piland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Thompson, District Judge and Mrs. Austin O. McCloud, Mrs. R. A. May, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reily.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Womack, George Womack, Mrs. Boyd Dozier, Mr. and Mrs. James Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gordon, Mrs. Jewel C. Richter, Mrs. Frank Kelley, Mrs. Ann Randle Davis, Mrs. Harry Ratliff, Colorado Floral.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McClellan, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Rhode, Texas Electric Service Company, and out-of-towners Mr. and Mrs. Beeman Fisher, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hull, Tulsa, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Bunn, Sweetwater.

All 160 chairs will cost $4,800 and this is the only phase of the playhouse building project in which the public has been contacted in a public campaign.

All the other costs and work has been contributed by Colorado City Playhouse members. Work nights at the old opera house are each Monday and Thursday.

Persons or firms desiring to be patrons for the chairs can contact Mrs. Don DeLaney or George Womack, City National Bank, or Reily.

Contributions can be made in lump sum or on a bank draft plan which will allow the donation to be given over a period of months.

Coordinators Visit Mental Health Clinic

Consultant and three coordinators visited Tuesday in Mitchell County Mental Health Clinic.

Here with Mrs. J. B. Hillard, local coordinator, were Miss Donna June Stevens of Austin, nurse consultant at Austin State Hospital; Clyde R. McLean of Midland, TDMHMR Regional Coordinator; Mrs. Mary Cochran, volunteer service coordinator, and Mrs. Betty Duncan, program coordinator of Big Spring State Hospital.

Talking It Over With Santa

Three youngsters flash happy grins as they talk with Santa in Civic House about their Christmas lists. Santa is meeting with kids every Saturday afternoon in Civic House in a special pre-holiday series sponsored by Colorado City Chamber of Commerce for children of this area immediately after the weekly $1,000 cash drawing.

Evening Lions List 24 Contributors

Members of Colorado City Evening Lions Club this week expressed appreciation to local business firms and entertainers for their assistance in the Lions recent pancake supper.

Entertainment for the event in Colorado Junior High School Cafeteria and Auditorium was presented by the Smith Sisters, High School Chorus, Cheryl Hines and two winners of the recent Hutchinson - Wallace Talent Show, Carla Walker and Pete Fincher.

A list of business firms making contributions, according to James Huckabay, includes Bodine Dairy, B. D. Mason, Fuller Foods, E-Z Way Superette, Safeway Stores, Thomas Brothers, Maniss Office Supply.

Gerald Gordon, Villa Inn and Cain Coffee Company, Musslewhite Trucking Company, Eddie's Pharmacy.

Production Credit Association, Hutchins Ford Sales, Snyder Well Servicing, Inc., Costin Implement Company, Roberts Butane Company, Landau's, Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative and Colorado Feed and Seed.

Monday Is Cake Order Deadline

Monday is deadline for ordering Manor Texas fruit cakes through Colorado City Band Boosters.

Report from cake sales by project chairman, Mrs. Joe Turnbull, was heard Monday evening during a regular monthly meeting in Colorado High School Band Hall.

"In addition to special orders," Mrs. Turnbull said, "another store sale will be sponsored before Christmas."

Cakes can be ordered by telephoning Mrs. Turnbull at 728-2612 or picked up at 1929 Locust Street. Delivery will be made for phone orders.

Charles Ezell, Band Booster president, presided in the business session, followed by the showing of slide projection pictures of CHS Black Knights in recent marching contest in Odessa.

Fred Green Home From Vietnam

Staff Sergeant Fred A. Green returned last Saturday from a tour of duty in Vietnam with the 19th Special Operation Squadron at Tan Son Nhut Air Base near Saigon.

After 30-day leave here with his wife, the former Mary Vest, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Vest, of 932 East 13th Street, Green will be stationed at Travis Air Force Base, Cal.

Tenative plans for S/Sgt. and Mrs. Green also include a trip to Weedsport, N. Y., for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Green, before going to California.

At Travis the staff sergeant will be assigned to 44th Military Air Life Squadron as flight engineer on CI-4L.

Big Spring Choir Sets "Messiah"

First United Methodist Church of Big Spring will present Handel's "Messiah" Dec. 14 in Big Spring.

The choir of 75 voices will be accompanied by an 18 piece string ensemble from the music department of Texas Technological University.

John Stanley, chairman of music department at Howard County Junior College, will be organist. Harpsichord will be played by Mary Grenier, music instructor at HCJC.

Robert Campbell, musician in Big Spring High School Band, will play trumpet for a bass solo, "The Trumpet Shall Sound."

Choir will consist of Chancel Choir of First United Methodist Church, HCJC choir and choir members from other churches in Big Spring.

Director for the Christmas production is Larry Stanley, choral director at HCJC and Big Spring's First United Methodist Church.

CONVERSATION CORNER

NEXT to music, melodies treasured from the past to go with the first kiss and other priceless memories, the finest stimulus there is happens to be the sense of smell.

There are certain scents mixed up with every season and probably with every important event ever experienced.

Asked my Mother, once, if she thought it strange that each time there are "punkin yams" baking in the oven. . .fresh vegetable soup, gingerbread, deep-dish apple pie. . .I think of her, with four children hurrying home from school at the noon hour.

She found it amusing but it seemed to please her, too.

* * *

NEVER can fully forget the first vacation at the seaside and the tang of salty ocean breeze.

Cape jessamines which grow lush all over East Texas always bring back high school graduation night when class mothers had gathered thousands to bank the stage.

Remember, anybody, when every sweet girl graduate got "Three Flowers" toilet water as one of her prized gifts?

Remember when bags of lavendar sachet were stored with the lingerie?

* * *

CHRISTMAS season has special smells to tease the memories year after year.

Cedar boughs are best because they were part of early childhood. More recent years have added the fir tree, the pine, holly, and poinsettia.

Can not conceive of a Christmas without the pungent scent of fresh oranges being peeled by children or put into the ambrosia bowl. And there always used to be the cracking open, then the grating of fresh cocoanut. . .the pecan cracker, English walnuts, Brazil nuts, almonds, too.

The smell of chocolate anything always goes well with Christmas season. And spices like cinnamon, sage, allspice, nutmeg.

* * *

IT IS very likely that the poet Samuel James Arnold, who wrote "What All The World Is Made Of," had just walked through the kitchen at Christmas when he wrote his often quoted (and misquoted) lines.

Originally it went "Snips and snails and puppy dog tails, And such are little boys made of. . .Sugar and spice and everything nice, That's what little girls are made of."

Chances are that when he walked through the kitchen he found the mother and her daughters happily working with sugar and spice, while all the boys in the family romped out in the yard Christmas Eve morning.

* * *

THAT must have been the way it was because that was the way it used to be before spice came already ground, before frozen orange juice and shredded cocoanut were processed, and before so many working mothers made for the drafting of sons and husbands to help in the kitchen.

Of course, there were certain aromas which belonged to the masculine members of the family even now. Never smell cigar smoke without remembering my Father who smoked them until he decided to quit. And did.

The powder smell of firecrackers always reminds me of little boys somehow, along with peppermint sticks.

* * *

ANYBODY still having trouble waking up minus the Christmas spirit as the days orbit by, would do well to remember the nice smells of Christmas.

Shaving lotion for some man. . .Go and sample its scents when you can. . .Go and smell the pages of. . .Some new book some child would love.

Seeing is good, so is the sound of church bells. . .But even more wonderful are the sweet Christmas smells!

* * *

MOST PEOPLE have a favorite Christmas smell. Ruth Dozier, for instance, was found wanting "to go out and gather chestnuts" one sunny afternoon. She'd have to go a long way from C-City to indulge that childhood memory—the one eulogized by Mel Torme with his musical lines "Chestnuts roasting in an open fire."

In our part of the East Texas world we always gathered hickory nuts, hardest nut to crack this side of the moon but worth the trouble for their flavor in Christmas candies.

* * *

SEEN LATELYS included Ida and Keith Miles headed for a coffee break and maybe a short shopping trip. Keith has a walking problem but was all smiles as he greeted old friends, crutches or no crutches.

Old friends of Mattie (Mrs. Jesse) Pidgeon will be glad to share a note from her, mailed at Austin.

"Our family is getting along fine. I am up most of the time trying to walk in my walker, slow but am trying to make it. Just started. Love to all our friends. Jesse sends best regards," she writes.

The Pidgeons live at 2208 Moffet, Austin, after having spent most of their married life here in C-City.

* * *

FAMILIAR FACES belonged to Jim Jeffrey, city attorney, and his younger son named Tommy. . .J. C. Wilkerson joining the coffee crew.

Aline Anderson was saying that son Jamie, his wife Linda and son David, were here from Austin for the Thanksgiving holidays. Also here were her nephew Phil Orman and his family of Dallas. Phil is being transferred to California, come Jan. 1, and they'll be in the process of moving when Christmas arrives.

Don DeLaney of the LTNS (long time no see) department was at the Colorado Drug lunch counter. So were Jackie Hickman and Helen (Mrs. Robert) Chambers. . .Annie Dixon and Betty Howell (Mrs. Hubert) mother of Sue, Andy, and Beth.

* * *

DROPPED IN at Corner Drug in the middle of the afternoon. Mable (Mrs. Frank) Kelley, who has had two visits with her late husband's relatives in Indiana this fall, plus trips to Canada, Michigan, and several New England states, was sharing a booth with Hilda (Mrs. Bob) May.

Emily Barry, wife of Tom, dropped in too. Asked after her son Thomas Pat, night city editor of the Austin daily paper, to find that he's still in the deer-hunting mood most weekends when he gets to come home for short visits.

Saw Curtis Latimer and his third son John Baxter at the refreshment counter. . .Bruce Campbell, too. . .Bobbie Steakley, wife of Dr. H. Jene, was there shopping. . .had greetings from old friend Henry Bilberry. . .and Bonnie (Mrs. Earl) Hunter.

* * *

Afternoon Open House Fetes Golden Anniversary Couple

Open house last Sunday afternoon complimented Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moore who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

The affair was hosted in the couple's home at 1044 East 12th Street by neighbors - Mrs. Floyd Cupp, Mrs. Margaret Oyler, Mrs. Margaret Ann Williams and Mrs. Hulen Bagwell.

Receiving guests with the honorees were their sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Moore of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Moore of Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Bagwell and Mrs. Oyler served refreshments of cake, punch, mints and nuts.

Mrs. Cupp presided in the gift room.

Also in the houseparty were two granddaughters, Miss Cheryl Moore of Denver; Miss Sherry Moore of Midland, and a grandson, Steve Moore of Denver.

Highlighting the afternoon celebration was a phone call from the honored couple's third son and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Moore and daughters, Phyllis and Kimberly, of Chicago, Ill.

Registry table featured a golden anniversary register and Mr. and Mrs. Moore's framed marriage license.

Gold linen cloth covered the refreshment table. Centerpiece was gold and white roses arranged in a white and gold ceramic rolling pin vase inscribed with the honoree's names, a gift from hostesses.

Completing table decor was gold punch and a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with "50" in gold and surrounded by white confection roses.

Mrs. Moore's reception attire was complimented by a white rose corsage, another gift of the hostesses.

Guests were registered from Abilene, Waco, Midland, Colorado, Odessa, Silver, Snyder and Merkel.

Two grandchildren in addition to the J. E. Moore family were unable to attend the celebration. They were Wayne Moore of Midland and Mike Moore of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore were married Nov. 30, 1919, in Quanah. Mr. Moore was employed in Silver by Union Texas Petroleum before his retirement in 1962.

Zeta Delta Study Club Plans Annual Breakfast With Santa

Annual Breakfast with Santa, sponsored by Zeta Delta Study Club, has been set for Dec. 13 from 9-11 a.m.

Place for the event where parents and children can eat pancakes and visit with Santa is Medallion Room of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative Building.

Tickets for adults will sell for 75 cents, according to Mrs. Jackie Corbell, project chairman. Children's tickets will be 50 cents each.

Plans for the yearly fete were finalized Tuesday evening following a tour of Richburg's Decorator Center in Sweetwater.

Mrs. Rossi Richburg discussed briefly the current trends in furniture.

She explained that crushed velvet is a very durable fabric and is a favorite.

"Early American furniture has been a favorite through the years," the group was advised, "but Spanish is very popular now."

In addition to touring the Center, Mrs. Richburg directed a visit to their private quarters where club members viewed Christmas decorations and three floors of their store.

Attending were Mrs. Eddie Piland, Mrs. Cullen Davis, Mrs. Richard Keathley, Mrs. Doug Simmons, Mrs. Larry Ivy, Mrs. Dennis Wright, Mrs. Jack Parse, Mrs. Betty Norris, Mrs. Dale Geiger and Mrs. Randy Hicks.

* * *

Mrs. Dave Sanders was hostess for a Nov. 25 meeting of the club.

A review of the book, "Fighting Fair," was presented by Mrs. Hubert Bassinger and Mrs. Bob Lindley.

Jaycee-ette Calendar

Meets, Party Set

Two upcoming meetings and a party were set this week by Colorado City Jaycee-ettes.

First on the club's calendar will be decorating of Civic House Sunday (this afternoon) for Christmas season.

A short business session is set for Dec. 15th in Texas Electric's Reddy Room in which program for the final day of the current Miss Merry Christmas pageant will be discussed.

Mrs. Lacy Boles has been appointed chairman for the pageant event.

Following the business session annual Christmas party for the children of Jaycee and Jaycee-ette members will be hosted in Reddy Room.

Mrs. Jamison Hosts Visitors

Mrs. H. L. Jamison of 805 East Seventh Street was hostess to relatives this weekend.

Coming from out-of-town for Thanksgiving holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jamison and children, Rex, Lynn and Carla of Kermit; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jamison and children, Scotty and Teresa of Arlington.

Local residents joining the family were Mr. and Mrs. Dick White and Ricky, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Maines, Mike, Skip and Jane; Mrs. Phyllis Sewell and son, Tommy Dan.

Also coming for the celebration was Val Joe Walker of Kermit.

Head Seventh Graders

This trio of officers leading seventh grade activities at Colorado Junior High School are, from left, Elaine Ruffin, secretary; Gene Banks, president, and Rodney Dockrey, vice president.

Basket Help

Kiwanis, Lions Projects

Kiwanis and Lions are getting in the Christmas spirit with special projects for needy families.

Annual Christmas movie for collection of Christmas basket foods is being sponsored by Kiwanis Dec. 19 with cooperation of Palace Theater.

Robert Bracy chairmans the show committee which includes Elmer Martin, John Russell, Ather Ellis and Lon Robertson.

Admission for the 3 p.m. show will be canned vegetables, fruits and other canned foods, according to Dick Wistrand, Kiwanian.

Lions have contributed $100 cash to the community's Christmas basket program which is being coordinated by Ministerial Alliance.

In addition next Friday, Dec. 12, the Lions will contribute canned foods as additional aid for the baskets.

Each Lion must deliver at least two cans of food to the Lions needy family cache or contribute $1 for each missing can, Lion president B. D. Mason announced.

Prizes For Christmas Lighting

Home lighting contest for local residents is being sponsored this Christmas season by Colorado City Jaycees.

Announcement of the contest, first in several years for Colorado City, was made Saturday by Bill Martin, committee chairman.

Deadline for entry in competition has been set for Dec. 19 with judging to be Dec. 20, Martin said.

Prizes are being donated by Texas Electric Service Company. First prize will be a General Electric five speed push-botton blender. A GE slicing knife will be given second prize winner.

Martin, in announcing the Christmas lighting contest, emphasized "our community will receive a great many benefits from an all out effort to decorate our homes. The contest will provide pleasure for everyone participating and will help beautify our city at this season of the year."

Golden Agers Give Cash Gifts To American Cancer Society

By MRS. W. A. BELL,
Record Correspondent.

WESTBROOK - Gifts of money from members of Westbrook Golden Age Club collected Tuesday evening during the group's Christmas supper party will go to American Cancer Crusade.

Golden Age Club building was setting for the annual fete.

Invocation for the evening was spoken by Rev. Frank Hodnett, pastor of Westbrook Baptist Church.

Rev. Henry Parmenter, pastor of Westbrook Methodist Church, presented the devotion. Group singing of Christmas carols was accompanied by Mrs. George Sweatt, pianist, and Hoyt Roberts, violinist.

Program concluded with members forming a circle and singing club song, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Clawson, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Airhart, Mr. and Mrs. George Sweatt.

Also, Rev. and Mrs. Hodnett and children, Frank and Kristy, Rev. Parmenter, Mrs. Thelma Gressett, Mrs. Maggie Hamrick and Mrs. Sudie Latty.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Conaway and sons, William and Travis returned Sunday afternoon from Gladewater where they attended funeral services for her brother-in-law, Weddington (Jack) Tenery.

Tenery was a former resident of Westbrook Community.

Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer and Mrs. Harvey Webb of Jal, N. M.

On Thursday Calendar

Medallion Room of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative building Thursday will be setting for annual county-wide Christmas luncheon for Mitchell County Home Demonstration Clubs.

Luncheon will precede a meeting in which 1970 HD Council officers will be installed.

Moore Heads Honor List

WESTBROOK - Top student for Westbrook National Honor Society Top Five for second six weeks period was Roxann Moore, a sophomore.

Miss Moore had a grade average of 96.45 - 1.90 higher than second high student, Jean Matlock, another sophomore whose average was 94.55.

Vickie Hogue, a junior, was third with 94.30; Judy Chambers, junior, fourth with 93.86, and Gary Matlock, senior, fifth with 93.02.

Membership in National Honor Society is determined on qualities of scholarship, character, service and leadership, according to Preston C. Lightfoot, sponsor.

Pictures and ranks of students listed in the Top Five ranks are displayed in a framed display in school foyer. Ranks are determined on grade averages made by NHS students for the beginning of the ninth grade through each six weeks period.
