Fire Insurance Rate May Go Up

Colorado City property owners stand to see a substantial increase in fire insurance costs within two years if the city does not purchase or make some arrangement to lease-purchase a new pumper for the fire department to replace a 1953-model that currently has two years left on its life span.

Consideration of this matter is on the agenda for Tuesday night's meeting of the council, starting at 7:30 at City Hall.

Fire Chief Jerry Hammond said that trucks are given a 30-year limit by the state and the department's 750-gallon Seagraves pumper is a 1953-model "but I think it was rated in either 1954 or possibly 1955, depending on how they have it listed on their books at the state office."

Hammond further stated that no matter the condition of a 30-year truck, it still will not pass inspection and the old Seagraves is far from good condition. Trucks are inspected periodically but the last time the inspector came here, "It was in the shop having a head gasket installed. The 1973 pumper passed with flying colors."

Credits to the city's key rate will be changed from the current 29 cents amount to a full 30 cents and this small one-cent change will affect everyone in the city limits, according to Colorado City insurance man Bob Ratliff.

For example, using the current key rate of 29 cents, fire insurance for a $30,000 brick veneer home is $46, but if the city loses the additional pumper and the rate goes to 30 cents, then that same house would be charged $52 per year for insurance, an increase of $6 yearly.

A $30,000 frame house costs $82 for fire insurance yearly but if the key rate goes up one cent, it would cost $91, a $9 increase.

These figures are for fire insurance only. Most people get coverage for the dwelling and contents and that cost will increase significantly.

J.P. Post To Be Discussed

Mitchell County Commissioners will decide on whether they will appoint a person to fill the justice of the peace vacancy of Precinct 1 or leave it vacant until the election in November, at which time the Democratic party will submit their nominee on the ballot.

Judge Bill Carter said the discussion set for today, when the court convenes at 1 p.m., will be a time to initiate possibilties.

He said if an interim J.P. was appointed, he would finish out the term held by Henry Doss, Jr., who died June 7, that would officially end December 31. Carter noted that the replacement would, however, need to be placed on the ballot for election or the Democratic party could submit another person on the ballot.

Lonnie Markley will approach the court for an approval of Plot of Lake Colorado City. Judge Carter stated that this was a formality, because it was the re-

Contestants Vie For Crown

The time is drawing near when one of seven young ladies from Colorado City will be crowned the AJRA Queen and will reign for the 1982-83 year.

These seven young beauties gathered Friday morning in a special press conference in the Chamber of Commerce Civic Center, coordinated by Director Adele Morgan.

Miss Carpenter says she would like to become a horse trainer or a veterinarian after graduation.

She commented, "I wanted to have the experience to use my knowledge of horsemanship and the contest is a way to help me overcome my shyness."

She would like to accomplish in the contest, an experience of working for a goal in the rodeo, sportsmanship, and having fun. She has entered the contest before.

She enjoys horse back riding, calf roping and horses in general.

Diane Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gregory, is 13-years-old and this is her second time to enter the contest.

She is being sponsored by the Westbrook Golden Age Club and will be a freshman at CHS this fall.

Fund To Aid Morris

A fund in the name of James Morris has been started at The City National Bank.

Morris, who has been employed by the city for approximately 20 years, suffered a massive heart attack a month ago. He was transported from Root Memorial Hospital to Hendricks Medical Center in Abilene and on to Houston, where he stayed for two weeks.

The long-time resident has been released from the Houston hospital.

The family requested assistance to help with expenses. Rick Crowley, city manager, stated that Morris was covered 80 percent with city insurance, but this did not cover transportation and family expenses incurred during his stay in the hospital.

The family said that all donations will be appreciated.

Taylor Joins Police Force

Bob Taylor

The Colorado City Police Department has added to their staff a new patrolman, Bob Taylor, according to Chief of Police Ed Wheat. Wheat noted that this has made a full work force.

Taylor has ten years of experience in the field of law enforcement.

The 39 year-old patrolman began his career in 1972 when he worked with the Clark County Sheriff's Department in Ohio. He worked at that position until 1979 when he was named Chief of Police of South Vienna, Ohio.

In 1981 after the city went broke, Taylor said he moved to Texas with the intentions of getting out of the law enforcement field and became the manager of Stuckey's in Merkel. He said when he heard of the openings in Colorado City and with his real desire to be an officer, he applied and was hired.

He received his training at Clark Technical College in Ohio having 310 hours in basic police training and 46 hours in firearms training. He is certified in Ohio, but Taylor noted, that he has one year to take 40 hours of the Texas penal code before being certified in Texas.

He and his wife, Deborah, have three daughters, Christina, 14; Lisa, 12, and Tammy, eight.

Taylor stated he enjoys fishing and playing golf when he has the time.

He said he felt like The Colorado City Police department was a very good department with a good chief and he was enthusiastic to be a part of it.

Private Garbage Rates Released

Rates to a private garbage collection business for use of the city owned and operated landfill have been compiled by City Manager Rick Crowley and adopted by the City Council.

Fees are set as follows on a monthly basis:

–$2, up to two cubic yards.

–$4 for two-four cubic yards.

–$6 for five-eight cubic yards.

–$10 for nine-12 cubic yards.

–$14 for 13-15 cubic yards.

–$18 for 16-19 cubic yards.

–$20 for 20-25 cubic yards.

–$25 for over 25 cubic yards.

Bob McNeal had appeared before the council at an earlier date and asked the city to set a rate for use of the landfill as he intended to solicit customers for a garbage collection business around the lake.

Crowley said 'that a survey of some of the area landfills had shown the figures adopted by the council to be representative of fees charged to such a business. He also stated that the city's cost for such a service is estimated at $1.03 per cubic yard.

Opening Date Is Delayed

Rick Crowley, city manager, announced that the opening date of the city swimming pool will be delayed from Tuesday until later in the week, depending on the repair completion.

He said the motors had more problems than expected and needed to be sent to a machine shop for more repairs.

Juan Molina was employed by the city as pool manager, Crowley said. Pool hours and dates will be announced at a later date, stated Crowley.

Firetruck Leads Eden's Parade

Colorado City's famous firetruck led the Centennial Parade in Eden Saturday as several members of the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department drove the truck and participated in the celebration.

Firemen Pat McKinney, Jack Green, Ray Dillard and Jerry Hammond, along with a few others, loaded the historic firefighter, a 1924 American LaFrance, onto a flat-bed truck early Saturday morning for the trip to Eden and in time to make the 9:00 in-line deadline for the Centennial Parade which kicked off the 10 a.m. festivities.

Even though the truck is old, Fire Marshall L. O. Shafer said that it was used by the city to fight fires until 1954 or 1955. It has been restored to its former glory of red and gold and was a shiny reminder of frontier days in the Eden Centennial.

home would increase from the present $393 to $414 for a year's coverage, an increase of $21 yearly. The owner of a $30,000 frame home would be out $33 more per year as the increase would be from the present $534 to $567.

A $60,000 homeowner would pay $36 more if his house is brick veneer or $58 more for a frame house if the key rate goes up one cent.

City Manager Rick Crowley said that the matter was brought to the council's attention several months ago by the fire chief and other members of the Volunteer Fire Department, including Fire Marshall L. O. Schafer.

"The council is interested in action on this matter and will discuss either lease or purchase, or several other options open to the city in the area of obtaining an additional pumper," Crowley said.

He added that it has been suggested that a $1 per month fire protection fee be added to the monthly water bill to help pay for the pumper. Hammond pointed out that this $12 annually might be a hardship on some people but in light of the insurance increase it would represent a savings.

A new pump truck, fully equipped, would range from $60,000 to $80,000 at least, and possibly even more, depending upon the date of purchase, whether within the next few months or in two years, Hammond said.

The truck would be paid for in about three years, he said, and then the $1 surcharge could be dropped.

Schafer added that for about three years the city has been setting aside $5,000 yearly for just such a purchase and this $15,000 will help pay for the truck.

"This is something you hope you don't have to use," Hammond said, "but on the other hand, you have to be prepared in case something terrible happens."

"In the past year, there have been two instances when we came close to having big fires in the downtown area. One was the gin fire that's close to two lumber yards, and there was also an electrical fire behind Holbert's Appliance that we were fortunate to get to quick because we were just coming in from another fire west of town. Another five minutes at either fire would have been serious," Hammond emphatically said.

Crowley indicated that the city might be interested in lease of a pumper but figures are not yet compiled on the differences in cost. Hammond attended a meeting of the State Firemen's Convention in Abilene over the weekend and collected facts and figures to be presented to the council for study.

"If we lose credit on the truck, it will raise insurance bills at least $50 to $60 a year," Schafer said, "and the $12 yearly added to the water bill seems cheap in comparison. It's a question of pay me now or pay me later."

Colorado City's key rate is officially 29-20. Ratliff said the first number is the rate and the second is percentage off for past history of fires and property damage. This is updated each April 1 by the state insurance board and passed on to all insurance agencies.

Rates in Loraine are 37-25, again, the first 37 cents the key rate and 25 percent off for past history. In Westbrook, an unincorporated city, the rate is 98-0, but Ratliff pointed out that even that high amount is lower in cost to Westbrook homeowners than the 100 percent charged to property owners outside the city limits.

Each city's rate is different because of difference in such items as water works and mains, fire hydrants, fire departments, alarms, building laws, codes, enforcement, hazards and so forth. Then credit is taken off the tentative figures for such things as number and condition of booster trucks, electrical codes and enforcement, methods of fire prevention taught in the public schools and maintenance of an arson reward.

Another possible avenue the council might investigate is sending firemen to the yearly fire school taught in the summer at A&M. Hammond said that no one went this past year and the city did not receive any credits "because it's hard to find enough men who can get off their jobs for a week to attend."

Two years ago the city got a four percent reduction in figures used to set the key rate when the firemen's training school was attended by Colorado City men.

Hammond said that three men will attend this year: Assistant Fire Marshall Billy Ray Williamson, Ray Dillard and Brian Bassham.

YOU AUTO KNOW

By Aaron Carpenter

Q. Just wondering if you would clarify what "API Service Classification" and "SAE Viscosity" listed on oil products mean.

A. Both are found on the top of oil cans. Viscosity refers to the ability of the oil - or any liquid - to flow. SAE numbers followed by a "W" indicate a low viscosity or "thin" oil, used in the winter. The second number (as in SAE 10 W-40) without a W indicates a high viscosity or "thick" oil, which is usually best for high performance. A single number (SAE 10) indicates a single grade oil. SAE 30 is the most common viscosity. Two numbers means a multi-viscosity oil (SAE 10W-40) which is suitable for year-round service. API Service Classification letters refer to standards exceeding the manufacturers warranty requirements. The standard for vehicles burning gasoline is indicated by a letter "S" and another letter. For diesel, a "D". Commercial vehicles are represented by a "C".

Miss Gregory says she enjoys English and her least favorite subject in school is math. Her hobbies include music, jogging, baseball and working with horses.

She will be riding Wart who is owned by Jug Rees.

Miss Gregory says she would either like to get a degree in coaching or agriculture.

"I thought it would be a lot of fun and good exercise for me. I also would like to have the opportunity to represent the county," was the comment made on her reason for entering.

She says that her goal is to be selected queen and represent the county to the best of her ability.

Holly Hicklin, sponsored by Sundown Lions' Club, says she entered the contest because of the experience and she felt it would be a lot of fun. This is her first year to enter the contest.

She is the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hicklin and will be an eighth grader at CMS in the fall.

She says she enjoys math and history and English is her least favorite subject.

Miss Hicklin says she is undecided about a career in life, but it is between a veterinarian and radiologist.

She said her goal in the contest was to make new friends and strive to be a good sport in the competition, as well as setting a goal for herself and meeting the challenge to win.

The young contestant was born and raised in Colorado City and her hobbies include riding horses and bicycles.

Naomi Mize is the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Mize and is a junior at CHS.

She was born in Loraine and moved away and returned to Colorado City two years ago. She enjoys math and science and says she doesn't care too much for English.

She plans to attend college and major in pre-medicine and then on to osteopathic medical school in Fort Worth.

Miss Mize is sponsored by Noon Lions' Club and will be riding her horse, Rosa.

She says she entered the contest because she always loved the sport of rodeo and all the stock involved. Her goal she wished to achieve was to satisfy a deep desire to participate in the sport of rodeo.

Topping her hobbies are the 4-H rifle team, horse care, gardening and sports.

Jana Northcutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Squirrely) Northcutt, is a freshman at CHS and is 14-years-old.

She is sponsored by the Colorado City B&PW Club and says she has entered this year because it was so much fun last year.

She says she enjoys math, but history is another story. She plans to become a veterinarian after graduation.

Miss Northcutt has lived in Colorado City 14 years.

She said her goal is to be crowned AJRA Queen so she can represent Colorado City everywhere she goes with AJRA rodeos.

She will be riding her horse, Buck.

Her hobbies include barrel racing and the 4-H rifle team.

Tina Tammen is the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tammen and attends CHS where she will be a freshman this fall.

Sponsored by the Optimist Club, Miss Tammen says she was born in Cheyenne, Wyo., but has lived in Colorado City nine years.

She enjoys science and athletics, but math is her least favorite subject.

Miss Tammen will be riding Whitey, Jim Bo Morgan's horse.

She plans to go to cosmotology school and later she would like to major in physical education.

She entered the contest for the competition and says she hopes to win. This is her first time to enter the queen's race.

She enjoys swimming, water skiing and horse back riding.

Lynda Walker, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ardis Walker and was born and raised in Colorado City.

The 15-year-old contestant will be riding Candle Stick owned by Adele Morgan.

She says she enjoys math and English is her least favorite subject. She will be a freshman at CHS in the fall.

Miss Walker says she wants to go to college but presently she isn't sure of what she would like to major in.

Miss Walker said she entered the contest because she thought it would be a lot of fun and she loves meeting people and figured it would be a good way to do so.

She hopes to sell the most tickets and win the queen title as her goal, noting she thought it would be a wonderful experience.

She enjoys riding horse back, water skiing and talking on the phone.

The queen will be crowned on the opening night of the rodeo festivities, June 30. She will receive a gold and silver "Gary Gist" belt buckle, valued at $350. First runner-up will receive a pair of western boots, second runner-up will receive a $50 gift certificate.

One hundred dollars will be awarded to the girl selling the most tickets.

The contestants will be judged 30 percent on horsemanship, 20 percent on personality, 20 percent on appearance and 30 percent on ticket sales.

Lions To Sponsor Horton At Meet

Jon Horton, recent graduate of Colorado High School, is being sponsored by the Colorado City Sundown and Colorado City Noon Lions Club to attend the Lions International Convention to be held in Atlanta, Georgia, on June 30-July 3.

Jon will play and march with the Texas Lions All Star Band from Texas in the Lions International Parade on June 30. This international parade is one of the highlights of the convention. The Texas band will be composed of outstanding band students from all over Texas. Jon was selected from the Colorado High Band by Bill Shipp.

Lion Everett J. "Ebb" Grindstaff of Ballinger will be installed as the Lions International President at the convention. A large delegation from Texas will attend the convention and over 12,000 Lions from all over the world are expected to attend.

There are now over 35,000 Lions Clubs with a membership exceeding 1,300,000 in 151 countries.

Attempted Burglary Reported

City Manager Rick Crowley, reported Friday morning that there had been an attempted burglary in the basement at city hall. Crowley said that an attempt had been made to pry open a closet door in the basement. A few pry marks were visible and the door had been kicked.

"The ironic thing is," said Crowley, "is that there is nothing of value in the closet."

New Officers Elected To Advisory Council

Jack Hollis was elected president of the Community Advisory Council during their regular monthly meeting Wednesday night.

Hollis, along with Shirley Delaney, vice president; Mildred Free, treasurer and Lucy Thomas, secretary were elected unanimously by acclamation after being submitted by a nomination committee.

Jim Baum, chairperson of the committee, noted he was very pleased with their recommendations for the positions, as each person approached by the committee was very enthusiastic in their agreement to serve as officers.

Outgoing President, J. O. Dockrey, Jr., who served two terms, all that is allowed in the by-laws, stated he had thoroughly enjoyed his terms of office and hoped he had been of some help.

Barbara Gray submitted a financial report of the Wallace Community Center and reported on the Physical Fitness Program that is in the planning stages. She announced there was currently $1,000 in funds for the program, adding that there was a personal donation of $500 and a matching donation of $500 from a company to be added to the fund, bringing the total to $2,000.

Rick Crowley was appointed chairman of a committee to work on the program.

Mrs. Gray announced that the ongoing garage sale at the Center had raised $1,200. She said the money was going to be used to balance the budget for the senior citizens program, noting that their budget had been cut and more money would be needed.

The council agreed to skip the July meeting date, because of vacations and lack of attendance.

Members voted to have a workday at the Gazebo, a project instituted by the council sometime in the near future. No definite date was set, as they will be coordinating the day with the Kiwanis Club and senior citizens, who are also planning a Gazebo workday.

An announcement was made that a reception was set for Tuesday from 6:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. for new Chief of Police Ed Wheat and the new prospective Lieutenant Chester Simons in the C. C. Thompson Room.

Crowley informed the group that the tentative opening date of the city swimming pool was changed from Tuesday to Thursday or Friday. He said there were more problems than anticipated, causing the short delay.

Dockrey reported on the Fly-In scheduled July 4th that is being sponsored by the Fly-In Committee. He said that it fell on a Sunday, but the committee felt if it were an annual event, it would be more successful on the same date each year.

48 Teams Entered In Tourney

There are a few openings left in the Annual 25'ers Golf Tournament slated for this weekend at the Colorado Country Club, according to chairperson Bob Ratliff.

Out of the openings for 65 teams, 48 had entered by noon Friday, but Ratliff said he expected it to be full before the first shotgun blast at 8 a.m., Saturday kicking off the first round.

The tourney is open to a team of players over 25 years of age or older or a member of the country club, he noted, adding that the entry fee is $100 per team.

Following the second round Saturday afternoon, which begins at 1 p.m., a bar-b-q and dance is planned.

Ratliff said that Saturday's score qualifies a team for one of the flights on Sunday. Second and third flights will play Saturday morning and Championship and first flight will play in the afternoon.

Prizes to be awarded are a set of professional Power Built irons for first, set of professional Power Built woods for second, a large Miller golf bag for third and a practice bag full of golf balls for fourth.

For more information, phone the country club in the afternoon at 728-2528, and ask for Ratliff or Eddie Piland.

City League Begins

City League Softball will begin today at the Hertenberger Softball Field with 11 teams entered in the competition this year, according to League President Charles Ray Watlington.

There will be three games a night set at 7 p.m., 8 p.m. and 9 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, excluding June 25 and July 2, which are dates open for tournaments, noted Watlington.

Monday night games include: Loraine vs. Los Amigos, Raza vs. Fullers and C. C. Athletics vs. Low Riders.

Tuesday night's games are McKiney Plumbing vs. Little Chicago, Loraine vs. Los Amigos and C. C. Athletics vs. Fullers.

Watch for a detailed schedule that will be featured in Thursday's edition of the RECORD.
