Child Abuse Speech Topic

Mrs. Virginia Shaw captivated the attention and hearts of the Aransas County Young Homemakers October 1 as she spoke of her work with the Public Welfare Department in Aransas Pass.

She is a Protective Service Worker and deals directly with the sensitive problem of child abuse. After working in San Patricio County for six years, Mrs. Shaw has had a wide range of experiences.

She explained to the young mothers present that there is more than one kind of child abuse: physical, mental or emotional. In selecting foster homes for children she seeks a home in which the child can feel he belongs and have the experience of being cared for in a warm and personal way. Any couple that is interested in becoming foster parent applicants may contact Mrs. Shaw.

Refreshments were served following the discussion, then the meeting was called to order. After the business meeting the club welcomed its new members.

They are happy to have Lois Bohot, Marsha Brundrett, Johnnie Callum, Beth Casterline, Bonnie Clobardants, Frances Iles, Janet Lewis, Bennie Moore, Judy Roberts, Darlene Sawyer and Ann Woods as new members.

Also to be held again this year will be a calf raffle. Ray Longino will donate the calf which will be processed and packaged for the freezer and there will be two winners. Each will receive half a calf. Each donation will be $1.00.

The Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a woman's bowling team at the Dallas State Tournament in April. Lettering on each shirt will read "Toast of the Coast - Rockport" and the little top hatted fish will be embroidered on the back.

President Joe Hugenberg announced he has compiled a program describing Chamber work, functions, activities, and purpose, which he will present to civic organizations. This program is designed to better acquaint the public with the Chamber of Commerce. The first presentation will be given to the A.A.R.P. in October.

Members of the jury were Mrs. John Tabor, Nita Minter, Mrs. Trinidad Benavidez, Lynwood Eller, Mrs. C.G. Washington, Donolee McFarlin, Rumaldo Garcia, W.W. Plumer, Sarah Shaver, Mrs. Charles Ankele, John Henry Ray, Jr., and Leonard Bone.

United Fund Campaign Gets Underway With 1st Mailing

With a 1974-75 goal of $11,500, Aransas County United Fund's active campaign started this week with mailing of first letters requesting contributions, according to Mayor Walter S. Falk, Jr., chairman of this year's drive.

Solicitation by mail has been the practice for several years in requesting money pledges to support activities of participating charity, welfare and youth activity organizations.

"Of course, we realize that person-to-person solicitation usually is more effective than a letter approach, but it takes a lot of time on the part of contributors making house-to-house calls, as well as the time of contributors", Mayor Falk said. "We do have faith that the letters will be effective in reaching our goal".

"While we are attempting to reach every household in Aransas County, some probably will be missed, and we urge anyone who does not receive a letter to bring or mail his contribution to the Chamber of Commerce Office", the Mayor continued.

"If every family in the county gave, even a small amount, there would be no question about reaching, even surpassing, our goal", according to Mayor Falk.

Any funds collected in excess of the goal set will be prorated to participating agencies, most of whom had requested more money than the budget committee was able to approve.

Enclosed with the letters of solicitation will be pledge cards which make it possible for a contributor to make an over-all gift or to designate one or more agencies to which the contribution will go. Also, provision is made for a contributor to authorize the bank to make regular transfers of money from his checking account to pay his United Fund pledge.

Sinton Beats RFHS 35-7

By Bob Crawford

Rockport-Fulton waited too long to put its offense in gear and fell to the Sinton Pirates 35-7 last Friday night in Sinton. The loss drops the Rockport-Fulton to 1-3 for the season and 1-2 in 15-AAA play.

Sinton scored two quick times early in the first period after two Pirate fumbles. Rockport-Fulton found themselves behind 14-0 almost before they ever began to play. Sinton added another score on the first play of the second period as a Sinton runner broke for 78 yards and a TD. That put the score at 21-0. Sinton added another score when the Pirate punter was smashed on the two yardline after trying to run down a loose football. The score was 28-0.

Rockport-Fulton finally got on the scoreboard after putting together a 71 yard drive with Johnny Rios scoring from 6 yards out. David Brooks added the point after to give the Pirates their scoring for the evening, although they had many other chances.

The Pirates' defense yielded only one other score in the second half, but the offense could not put the ball into the endzone.

Defensively, the Pirates were led by Lance Scritchfield, David Brooks, and Johnny Washburn with better than ten tackles. John Rios plucked two Sinton passes from the sky, and Bill Smith and Glafiro Solis picked up loose Sinton fumbles.

Freshmen Win 4TH

The Pirates Freshmen Pirates took victory #4 with a 20-0 win over Sinton last week in Rockport. Bobby Lewis, Jolly Lewis, and Darryl Green combined for 341 yards on the ground utilizing line blocking from the Pirates' interior line of Clay Pitman, Newlin Parker, Sammy Solis, Dolph Hiller, Jeff Janecsek and Reggie Morgan.

The Pirate defense rose to the cause and shut out the Sinton Pirate team. Leslie Jones in his first game at linebacker led the defense with 9 tackles along with Charlie Edler. Leading in supporting roles were Bruce Barre, who tackled the Sinton quarterback for a safety, and Brett Ashley who had his finest game to date.

Rockport-Fulton's first score came on a 16 yard scamper by quarterback Darryl Green. Barre's safety tackle made the score 8-0 at the half. In the third period Jolly Lewis scored from 4 yards out, and Lewis again went the distance from 24 yards away to end the scoring.

This week the Pirate Freshmen are in Aransas Pass to seek out win #5.

JV Falls to Sinton 15-6

Rockport-Fulton's Junior Varsity stayed with Sinton's powerful JV team only to fall short 15-6. The Pirates JV has yet to break into the win column although they have played fine football.

Quarterback Dickie Ballou, who combined with Jeff Dietz to pass for over 150 yards in the air, found halfback Mike Garcia alone in the endzone from 8 yards out to score for the Pirates. The leading receiver in the contest was tight end Ronnie Ormand who caught 6 passes for 78 yards.

Defensively, the Pirates were led by linebackers Bill Walston and John Picton. Mason Jordan also had a good night making some clutch open field tackles.

This week the Pirates go to Aransas Pass to play the Panthers.

Junior High Football

Rockport-Fulton 7th grade Bucs found the trip home from Sinton a long one after suffering a 34-0 defeat. The 7th grade team faced a much larger Sinton 8th grade 'B' team. The Bucs fell behind 20-0 at the half and failed to get the offense going in the second half.

The 8th grade Bucs were stopped by fumbles and two pass interceptions. Sinton scored twice in the first half and led 14-0. A 65-yard run and a long pass play brought the final score to 26-0.

"Most of the citations were for exceeding the bag limit," said Caudle, "followed by shooting off a public road, unplugged shotguns and failure to keep a fully feathered wing on the bird."

Caudle had a force of 25 wardens in the Rio Grande Valley for the Sept. 1-2 and 7-8 season, which went on record as one of the better whitewing hunts in recent years.

Has Keen Nose

The nine-banded armadillo usually forages at night, plowing into soft soil with its nose. Its keen sense of smell finds insects six inches below the surface and, digging with powerful front legs, it flicks out a long, sticky tongue to capture tasty morsels.

Bank Official Gives Talk

The importance of planning in advance in anticipation of the time when almost every married woman will become a widow was stressed by Mary Ann Lueders, assistant cashier and manager of First National Bank's recently organized Women's Special Services department, at the luncheon meeting of Rotary Club October 2 at Ramada Inn. Lee Eckman who introduced Mrs. Lueders asserted that every man should train his wife to become a widow by acquainting her with the family's financial affairs and teaching her with some of the fundamentals of business. Mrs. Lueders explained that in setting up the new department First National became a member of Special Organizational Services which has bank members throughout the country. S.O.S., as it is called, not only provides guidance and helpful literature to member banks but also insures out-of-town contacts and resources for persons who seek help in solving the many problems incident to an unexpected death.

It was pointed out that the average wife will outlive her husband by five years, yet few of them are at all prepared to meet the many financial and business problems she must face alone. Only about 27 percent of widows have had any advance training that prepares them to take over management of their own affairs, according to Mrs. Lueders.

She stressed the necessity for preparing in advance detailed information on insurance policies of all kinds, securities, bank accounts, real estate, contents of safety deposit boxes, and personal property as well as data on Social Security and veteran's rights. Also birth, and marriage certificates and wills, along with location of all valuable papers. Mrs. Lueders distributed copies of a questionnaire type booklet titled "SOS Record of Personal Information" which is available at the bank without charge to customers and non-customers. Also available is a booklet called Record of Household Items to be completed for use in case of a fire or destructive wind storm.

Mrs. Lueders pointed out that her department was prepared to assist in locating valuable papers and evidence of property ownership but that an advance record makes the task much easier and more accurate. She said that her activities in no way were a substitute for the services of an attorney, accountant or insurance agent. She added that she certainly did not have all the answers but would be able to direct inquiries to the proper person, either some officer of the bank or an outside expert.

Finally, Mrs. Lueders said that while the services of her department were especially directed to helping widows and prospective widows, it could be valuable to newlyweds facing household responsibilities for the first time, as well as girls just entering a business career. Even many men can use the department to advantage, she declared.

Parents Day

Kingsville--Events to be conducted during Parents Day October 19 are included in letters addressed to parents of Texas A & I University-Kingsville students by the Office of Student Development headed by Mrs. Diane Blanco. Scheduled are a reception, Army ROTC marksmanship competition, open houses, a band concert, a welcome by President Gerald B. Robins, a performance of "The Mikado," a rodeo, a barbecue and a football game.

Also, throughout the day will be tours of the King Ranch and the campus and a horticulture show and sale. The museum will be open all day.

Evening TOPS Met Oct. 8

The evening group of the TOPS Club meets every Tuesday evening at the Wagley Building with weighin from 6:40 p.m. and the business and program scheduled from 7-8 p.m.

The last Tuesday of each month is awards night and Margaret Floyd was the Queen of the Month. Beulah Dedmond was awarded a star for a ten-pound weight loss and losers for the month were Theo Johnson, Betty Jo Camp, Bernita Kinsey and Margaret Floyd. Bessie Daws won the turtle award.

During the month of September Bruce Golibart gave a program on "vitamins and proteins". Margaret Floyd's report was on "Are you really serious about your diet" and Bernita Kinsey's talk on "Keep weight off with therapy" conveyed the message of "Don't be a snitcher". The T in TOPS stands for "Take", so take this opportunity to join TOPS. The evening group welcomes visitors and potential new members. The purpose of the club is to help the overweight through group therapy.

MARY JOHNSTON Oldest 'Paper Boy'

The following article appeared in the October 6 issue of the Corpus Christi Caller. Mary Johnston is an aunt of J.R. Johnston and W.T. Johnston of Rockport:

MARY JOHNSTON Oldest "paper boy"

Next Saturday is International Newspaper Carrier Day, named in honor of more than a million newspaper carriers throughout the world. The vast percentage of newspaper carriers are boys, generally in the 12-14 age bracket. The "paper boy" in Coalgate, Okla., is not a boy at all. She is a woman, Mary Johnston. She is 88, has been delivering newspapers for 34 years, and, according to the International Association of Newspaper Circulation Managers, Washington, D.C., is the nation's oldest paper carrier. Daily, Coalgate residents see Mrs. Johnston striding briskly up and down the streets of the small town delivering the Ada, Okla., Evening and Sunday News. Her route covers five miles, and she walks it six days a week, rain or shine. She admits she is occasionally tempted to give up her job. But she always reconsiders. "Keeps me limbered up," she says. "I'm old, and if old people don't do something, they start to set. They wind up setting in wheelchairs. Not me!"

their mobile home for winter. Wendell "Red" Barnes is home from a check up at Aransas Hospital.

PEE WEE BOWLING

The Rockport Bantam Bowling League did not bowl Saturday as teams. So many of the boys went to Pass Punt & Kick at Aransas Pass that the children were allowed to bowl as they chose.

However, there were some high scores. Jeff Jordan bowled 140 and 3 game series score of 333 scratch. Pee Wee Solis bowled a 107. Nathan Pena bowled a 111 game and had a double.

All the children who have not brought their dollar, please do so Saturday. Also one of the rules are - if you cannot bowl - please call Elmer Redden or Mrs. Louise Ziesler.

Mrs. Lill Holder has returned from a months vacation, visiting relatives in Minnesota and her son Robert and family at Congerville, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cysick have moved into their new mobile home. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Murphy and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hanson.

Mrs. Helen Webster has returned from a vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. S.J. Williams have returned from a trip to Eagle Lake where they were called by the death of his sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kump, have arrived for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Meadows, Prague, Okla. are down for a fishing trip and opening

It's a Boy !!

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Trosclair of Midwest City, Okla., announce the birth of a baby boy, Macky Lee, 8 1/2 lbs. on Sept. 17. Dana is the former Dana Wallich of Rockport.

There are now 6 generations in the family. Maternal grandparents are Mr. & Mrs. W.R. Davis. Paternal grandparents are Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Trosclair of Midwest City, Okla. Great-grandparents are Mr. & Mrs. Davis Edwards of Lamar, Mrs. Ruth Nelson, Victoria and Mrs. Gladys Wright of San Antonio, who is now a great-great-great-grandmother.

black tail. In flight, a great deal of black shows on his wings. His stilt-like legs and feet are a grayish pink. Juvenile birds tend to be a dingy or dirty looking white and their head and neck is lighter colored than the adults.

Since, as a wading bird, his diet is made up mainly of fish, crustaceans, frogs, and small snakes that he finds in the water, there is no doubt that this bird is threatened by pesticides that are gathered by the animals he eats, and, in turn, passed on to him. The greatest danger to his kind, however, lies in the destruction of habitat. Two things this bird must have to survive-nesting sites in trees in the swamps where he lives, and good feeding grounds within 20 or 25 miles of the nest site. Scientists believe that nest building by the wood stork is triggered by the water depth in his feeding grounds. When the water is 10-12 inches deep it is just right and will furnish him the good supply of food he needs for nesting.

Draining of swamps has destroyed many of his feeding and nesting sites, and the prolonged droughts of the 1950's almost wiped him out. He has, however, made a good recovery since then. In 1960 some 14,500 young were produced in 5,000 nests in Corkscrew Swamp, the largest of his nesting sites.

The continued existence of this huge, rather unique, bird in North America seems to depend on the maintenance of the swamps in Florida. Perhaps this is one reason why the President, a couple of years ago, stopped all work on a canal that would have drained a large part of the Everglades - one of the few suitable homes for the wood stork that remains still undefiled by man.

by

Have you ever seen a wood stork? This interesting bird has been brought to my attention repeatedly during the last few months by people calling or coming by the office here in Rockport to describe and seek identification of a flock of large wading birds that they have seen feeding. I, too, have seen these birds, and, because they are the first I've ever seen, I have stopped to watch them feed.

The "wood ibis", or more correctly the wood stork, is the only representative of the stork family found in North America, and are considered "irregular visitors" along the Texas coast. Although some books list unconfirmed rumors of nesting sites in Refugio and Harris counties, the only confirmed nesting of this rather rare bird takes place in Florida. Three regularly used nesting sites there are on permanently protected sanctuaries - one in Corkscrew Swamp and two in Everglades National Park.

The wood stork averages about 40 inches in height. He has a bald scaly looking head and neck and a long bill that turns down on the end. His body is snow white but the flight feathers on his wings are greenish black and his tail is purplish black. In fact, he is the only large North American wading bird with a

Know THE Weather
What is the difference between a waterspout and a whirlpool?

A waterspout is nothing less than a tornado over water. It is a fearsome sight but one which, fortunately, is rarely encountered. Contrary to the common belief, the waterspout does not suck water up great distances from the ocean, or lake.

Rather, the spout is composed of moist whirling air, which gives off a dark appearance, but which is not really water being sucked upward into the air.

A whirlpool is a circular movement of water caused by currents, sometimes by wind. They are almost always harmless. Exceptions are whirlpools caused by very strong natural or artificial currents, which can quickly endanger a swimmer, and which should be carefully avoided.

B & PW Met On Sept. 23

The Rockport Business and Professional Club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ruby Hart on September 23. It was a covered dish supper with an excellent attendance.

Business was conducted and reports were given by those who attended the District 13 Conference in Corpus Christi on the 21st and 22nd of September.

Jane Andrews then introduced Mary Luaders as the guest speaker. Mary talked about some of the services that the First National Bank offers for women. Her main emphasis was on Special Organizational Services, Inc. and she distributed SOS Record of Personal Information booklets for each person present.

She explained that the SOS Advisors are available to offer organization and direction as a complement to other professionals. Under the organization one is told what documents are needed, why, and how they can be obtained.

The service tells who to contact, where they are located, and when an appointment is scheduled. All of this service is provided free of charge regardless of where you bank and at a time when you need guidance as in the case of a husband's death.

Two new members were welcomed, Molly Allen and Joy Wheelless. Guests introduced were Bonnie Hinton, Wilma Littleton, Laura Ogle and Diane Eller.

CHAMBER CORNER

Lee Wideman, assistant Chamber of Commerce secretary, came up with a beautiful idea several months ago and it is about to materialize. Lee had visited in many tropical areas and realized our community could have more of this same tropical look with the addition of more palm trees. Arriving in Rockport from the north the first thing you see is the ski basin and mile long beach bare of trees except on the south end where the Rockport Home and Garden Club has done such a beautiful job of landscaping.

After checking with several local citizens - who all agreed the palm tree planting would enhance the area - Lee contacted M.T. Pearson of Pearson's Garden Center. He was also enthusiastic about the idea and agreed to help. He suggested that approximately 30 people or organizations purchase or pledge a palm tree and he would send a truck to the valley to bring them here. He would buy bagged and burlapped trees, fertilize and plant them at a cost of $5.00 a trunk foot.

Bruce McMahan was appointed chairman of the "Plant a Tree" committee to contact all members and residents to buy a palm. The following have responded: R.R. Sanders, Dr. J.M. Shellenberger, Encina Plaza Book Gallery, Carl Duckworth, Dr. J.M. Spriguel, George Peirce, Peninsula Oaks Garden Club, Woman's Club of Aransas County, Islander Boutique, Ramada Inn, Sea Gun Inn, McMahan Electronic Security Services, and Rotary Club. A large billboard will be placed at the front of the Chamber building with all donors' names. If you would be interested in purchasing a tree, please call 729-6445.

Bonnie Durbin, manager of Aransas Pass Chamber of Commerce read of this tree planting project and visited in our office recently to find out more about the plans as their Chamber is interested in initiating such a program.

There have been three new members to join the Chamber this month. They are: Rockport Heating and Air Conditioning, Albert Guillen; State Farm Insurance, Ray Wolfe, Del Camino Courts, Mr. and Mrs. H. Deason.

Morning TOPS Names Queen

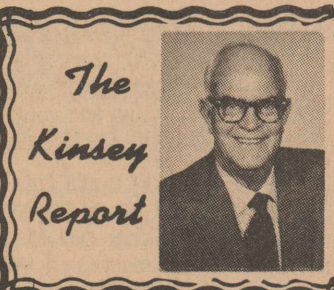

At last week's meeting of Morning TOPS, it was announced that the Queen of the Week was Cynthia Lee with a three and three quarter pound loss. Runners-up were Betty Kelly and Shirley Rice, each with a three and a half pound loss. Club total weight loss for the week was twenty-three and a half pounds.

Kathy Borey was the winner of the inch losing contest. She had lost an overall 22½ inches. The contest had run for three months.

After a short business meeting, the members enjoyed a shower given for Jewel Moody on attaining her K.I.W. status. For the uninitiated the letters K.I.W. stand for Kops in Waiting. A TOPS member who has reached her desired weight goal becomes a K.I.W., after three months. If she has still maintained that goal she will have reached full K.O.P.S. status. To further clarify, KOPS means Keeping off Pounds Sensibly.

Morning TOPS meetings are held every Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m. in the Rockport Methodist Youth Building. Further information may be obtained from Leader - Cathy Gaskin, 729-5762 or Secretary - Betty McMeredit, 729-6213.

A GOVERNMENT PROGRAM THAT WORKS

Both the Senate and the House have overwhelmingly voted to extend, through fiscal 1976, a successful Federal-state program for rehabilitating the handicapped.

The real significance of this action is more easily understood in purely human terms—in the story, for instance, of a man we'll call Mark Williams.

Up until a few years ago Mark Williams was a vigorous and energetic steelworker in one of our largest cities. He enjoyed his work and took pride in providing totally for his family's needs.

Then there was the accident. Mark was left paralyzed from the waist down. And for several months afterwards Mark was convinced his life as a productive individual was over.

It well might have been, except for the guidance and training provided by a rehabilitation program set up and operated under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act. Under the program, Mark was able to study by mail and receive a degree in structural engineering.

He is now hard at work with a construction company where he supervises the building of churches, apartments and schools. Though still confined to a wheelchair, Mark has resumed a productive, meaningful life.

Mark is only one of three million handicapped individuals who have been helped since this program began 52 years ago. And, although the program would have unquestionable merit solely for the benefits it provides for Mark and others like him, its advantages ultimately affect each and every one of us.

ECONOMIC BENEFITS OF REHABILITATION

The economic benefits are obvious. Every time a handicapped individual is able to go off the unemployment rolls and on the payroll he also is able to pay his fair share of taxes.

In Texas alone, the number of persons rehabilitated under this program has more than doubled in the past four years. Last year, the earnings of this group jumped from $15 million to $95 million.

Nationwide, in fiscal 1971, these federal-state programs rehabilitated almost 300,000 Americans to the point where their combined annual income increased by an estimated $750 million.

This program works. It pays off economically. And, even more importantly, it pays off in human terms. It carries forth one of the basic tenets of our society. That is, a commitment to the basic right of every person to develop to his full potential with dignity -- and, when necessary, with help.

Besides providing services for a wide range of handicapped individuals -- for the deaf, the blind, the mentally retarded, the mentally ill, the crippled -- part of the effort is to train people whose handicap is actually no handicap at all. For a deaf printer working in a noisy newspaper composing room, the ability to block out sound and concentrate becomes an asset. There are many others like him.

All they need is training and the type of special understanding that is at the heart of this program.

BOOST FROM CONGRESS

Your representatives in Congress appreciate this. The Senate bill, which I sponsored, passed unanimously and a similar House bill passed by a vote of 400 to one. All that remains is for minor differences in the two versions to be ironed out in a Conference Committee. I can assure you this won't take long.

What this legislation does is extend the program through fiscal 1976. This will insure a smooth and uninterrupted continuation of existing projects. Texas and other states will be able to plan ahead more carefully and spend allocated funds with a maximum of efficiency.

The Vocational Rehabilitation Act has, after all, proven to be one of the best investments our government has made. Especially in these days of economic turmoil, we cannot afford to be without it. For it is in every sense a rich program, full of rewards both economic and human.

Three days each week one man spends an entire afternoon oiling London's Big Ben clock.

No Conflict Between Eggs, Cholesterol

"There's no reason why a healthy person should shy away from eggs just because they are relatively high in cholesterol," says a poultry marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. David B. Mellor contends that since cholesterol is a normal body compound, people should not avoid eggs in their diet as they are highly nutritious and a top source of protein.

"The problem of a high cholesterol level in the blood develops when the body metabolism fails to function properly. Like diabetes and others with metabolic disorders, the tendency is usually inherited. Such disorders are usually discovered by a doctor's examination. Healthy people can handle cholesterol efficiently and can thereby enjoy eggs," points out the Texas A&M University System specialist.

Excessive intake of any food is the real culprit as far as nutritional imbalance is concerned, argues Mellor. The key to proper nutrition and a proper diet is still "balance." So why make eggs the "scape-goat"?

The specialist points out that high cholesterol levels have often been blamed for causing coronary heart disease but that the "real" cause is still unknown. However, he lists several items cited by experts as contributing factors: genetic traits, overeating, smoking, lack of exercise and emotional stress.

"Being overweight is, of course, related to a person's diet, but let's not put the blame on the egg," emphasizes Mellor.

"The egg is still one of the best and most economical sources of high quality protein for our daily nutritional needs." For more information, Mellor suggests a copy of a new leaflet, "Eggs in the Diet," available from any county Extension office.

Clothing For The Senior Citizen

College Station-Comfort should be considered right along with attractiveness in choosing clothing for older people, one authority said this week.

Beverly Rhoades, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System, pointed out several considerations when buying clothing for senior citizens.

--Action pleats, tucks and gussets provide extra ease for body movement. Pleated, A-line or gored skirts for women and pleated trousers for men may be more comfortable.

Elastic waistbands or waist-band sections allow for activity while helping clothes remain neatly in place.

--Knit fabrics are comfortable because they do not restrict activity. Garments made of natural fibers such as cotton and wool are soft and absorbent, while allowing air to reach the body.

--Look for styles that provide easy on-easy off features: such as convenient front opening, zippers and large buttons.

The specialist pointed out that sewing cuff buttons on with elastic thread eliminates the need for unbuttoning sleeve cuffs.

--If small buttons and fasteners are difficult to handle, replace them with small pieces of nylon or polyester self-gripping fasteners such as Velcro, which can be sewn on.

--Be sure the neck opening is adequate if the garment is to be put on over the head.

Fix-It Tip

Material and money can be saved by rummaging through the furniture stored in the attic and basement and in second-hand stores. Refinishing can make it look like new, or like very old furniture that is in fine condition.

Complete removal of the old finish is necessary or you will waste your time. Before you apply a chemical remover, make certain that the old finish is clean of wax, grease and dirt. The chemical remover must get right at the old finish. Use soap and water or a household wax remover.

Apply remover with a brush, but brush in one direction — not back and forth. Brushing back over the old stroke breaks the surface seal and causes the remover to evaporate.
