Escapee In Georgia Binds Pair To Tree

LEBANON, Tenn. (AP)—An escaped Georgia murderer commandeered a highway patrol car and left the patrolman and a wounded kidnap victim bound to a tree Wednesday night, setting off a manhunt throughout middle Tennessee.

Roadblocks were set up today in the search for Spence Edwards, 35, who broke away from a prison work detail near Dalton, Ga., Tuesday.

Authorities had said he might try to free his brother from a Tennessee jail where he, too, is held on a murder charge.

Hubert Turner, 47, Dalton, Ga., Edwards' kidnap victim, was shot in the arm. He was hospitalized at Lebanon. Attendants said his condition was good.

Turner told newsmen and Wilson County Sheriff Albert Taylor that Edwards kidnaped him near Dalton and forced him to drive into Tennessee. He gave this version of what followed:

As they were driving near Chattanooga Wednesday, Edwards was holding a .410 shotgun on him. He asked him to move it, and as Edwards did, it discharged, shooting Turner in the arm.

Two Injured In Mishap Near Dunn

Two persons were injured early this morning in a one-car accident, but their injuries were not believed serious.

They were A. L. Hardin, 81, and his maid, Ann Jefferson Frison, 41, both of McCamey.

The accident occurred at about 2:45 a.m. about 12 miles south of Snyder on State Highway 208, just south of Dunn. The two were taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Bell ambulances, where Hardin was admitted and the woman was released after emergency treatment. Hardin's injuries were still being checked this morning, but so far only a number of lacerations were the known injuries.

The two had been enroute to Snyder from McCamey when the accident occurred. The car, a 1955 Mercury sedan, driven by the woman, left the pavement on the right side of the road, traveled 75 yards before going back onto the pavement, skidded 46 yards across the pavement and moved onto the lefthand shoulder, traveling 77 yards before it came to rest on its top. The car appeared to have overturned one and one-half times.

Hardin has a son and a daughter in Snyder, G. B. (Red) Hardin and Mrs. Carlene Cooper.

Gordon Johnson, highway patrolman, investigated the accident.

Firemen at the scene said that the blaze, which broke out at 7:40 a.m., apparently started in the attic.

The home for children is located on the northwest edge of Oklahoma City. Officials said four children were unaccounted for.

The temperature was 30 degrees.

Strike Against Two Airlines Curtail's Travel For Holiday

By The Associated Press

Thanksgiving holiday travel emphasized the effects of a continuing strike against two of the nation's biggest airlines which grounded nearly 400 commercial aircraft and threatened to snarl other forms of transportation.

A walkout by members of the Flight Engineers International Assn. has halted Eastern Air Lines flights since last Monday.

The International Assn. of Machinists struck Trans World Airlines last Friday, with TWA flight operations halted Monday.

A total of about 35,000 employes have been idled.

Nonstriking airlines have put every available plane into service but block bookings—passengers reserving space on a number of nonstruck airlines in the hope of getting aboard one of them—ironically has left empty seats on some airline flights.

Bus and rail lines have been doing a rush business, with all available facilities pressed into service. Confronted by crowding and delays, thousands of persons traveled by auto or stayed at home.

Wages and working conditions figure in the contract disputes.

The "third man" issue is proving a stumbling block in the strike by the flight engineers against Eastern Air Lines.

The company contends the engineers need pilot training so they can coordinate with the captain and copilot of jet equipment the line expects to put into service in 1960.

The union claims the pilot training offered amounts to little more than training on light planes. Wages and working conditions also are in contention.

In Miami, Fla., Federal Judge Emett C. Choate reserved decision on the "third man" issue in considering a petition by the airline for an injunction against the striking engineers.

Choate, although saying "management has the right to require reasonable qualifications," noted that any ruling for the company could not halt the walkout. The union still could continue to strike over wage demands, an "economic issue."

At Kansas City, TWA and the IAM recessed talks after a five-hour negotiating session. A mediator said no progress had been made. A union spokesman said he would be available for further negotiations but none have been scheduled.

American Airlines continued to operate its 200 planes under a temporary federal court injunction last Monday prohibiting a walkout by the 1,500-member Air Line Pilots Assn. The dispute involes wages, work schedules and rule changes.

The Teamsters Union has decided to honor picket lines of the striking airlines' personnel, which means cutting off truck deliveries of freight and gasoline to hangars of the affected companies.

U. N. Would Be Watching

By HAROLD K. MILKS

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union today declared void the four-power occupation agreement for West Berlin and offered in its place the creation of a demilitarized "free city" of West Berlin.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andre Gromyko handed U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson Jr. a 24-page note proposing a six-month period for negotiations to arrange the new status for West Berlin.

The Russians suggested that the United Nations act as watchdog of West Berlin's freedom, saying, "The Soviet government does not object to the United Nations participating in observing the status of the free city of West Berlin."

The note said during the six-month period of negotiations there would be no change in control of existing transport links over which the Allied garrisons in west Berlin are supplies.

But if no agreement is reached between the Soviet Union and the West during that period, the Kremlin said it would go ahead with liquidation of the occupation controls. In other words, it will transfer control of the Allied traffic to the East Germans.

A Soviet announcement by Tass said the Kremlin had notified the U.S. government it "regards as invalid the Allied (occupation) agreements on Germany." A companion note delivered to the East German government in Berlin said the Soviet government is determined to end its occupation of Berlin and "considers it unfeasible to take any further part in the upholding of the occupation regime in Berlin."

The proposal for creation of a free city applies only to West Berlin. The East German government already has sovereignty over East Berlin, its capital, and Soviet troops are there by a 1957 agreement between the East German regime and Moscow.

The Russians made clear that even if West Berlin becomes a free city, they intend for East Germany — which surrounds it completely — to control traffic to and from.

"It is envisaged that the (East) German Democratic Republic must fully control questions affecting its space, i.e. exercise her sovereignty on land, on water and in the air.

"At the same time there will be an end to all contacts still maintained between representatives of the armed forces and other officials of the Soviet Union in Germany and corresponding representatives of the armed forces and other officials of the United States, Great Britain and France on questions pertaining to Berlin."

The Soviets offered to act as go-betweens in negotiations to secure East German agreement to creation of a free city in what East Germany contends is her territory. The Soviet note said preliminary talks already had been held with the East Germans.

The Russians also suggested that the four occupation powers and West and East Germany agree formally not to tamper with West Berlin's status as a free city.

"If this proposal is not acceptable to the governments of the three Western powers," they said, "the government of the U.S.S.R. emphasizes there is no topic left for discussion of the Berlin issue by the former occupying powers."

The Soviet note denied emphatically that its proposals involved any desire for the Communist annexation of West Berlin.

3 Houston Boys Nabbed

Three teen-age youths were caught shoplifting at a grocery store here yesterday, but that was nothing compared to what they had done earlier.

The three boys, one 14 years old and two 15, all of Houston, had traveled from Houston to Snyder in six different cars — all stolen.

The sheriff's office held the boys after they had been caught shoplifting at Furr's Super Market, and they were held for the sheriff's office at Roby, where they had stolen the last car. An officer from Roby took them back there, along with the 1955 Pontiac they had in their possession, last night.

The boys said they had wrecked one of the six stolen cars along the route.

Clues Are Hunted In Charred Bomber

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — An Air Force investigating board studied a charred B47 medium jet bomber in a search for clues of what caused a takeoff aid to explode and set the plane afire.

The commander of the plane, which was carrying a nuclear weapon, was killed and his navigator critically injured.

The Strategic Air Command in Washington said the nuclear weapon was not involved in the explosion-fire Wednesday and there was no danger of a nuclear explosion.

The bomber was parked on the flight line at Chennault Air Force Base when a JATO bottle, a rocket-like device in a rack on the fuselage, exploded, base commander Col. T. S. Walter said.

First Lt. Robert M. Simpson, the navigator, staggered out of the craft with his clothes afire. The ground crew extinguished the blaze.

The pilot, Capt. Joseph T. Lyles of Bossier City, La., died in the explosion-fire. The copilot was not hurt.

The men were attached to the 68th Bomb Squadron.

Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Simpson, Sacramento Calif. lives in Lake Charles with his wife and four children. His condition was described as serious. He was flown to Brooks Army Hospital at Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex.

Lyles is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Lyles, Bossier City; his widow; and two children.

Some personnel were evacuated from the field until the fire was brought under control minutes after it broke out.

The alert and evacuation were described as part of routine procedure in such cases.

This was the fourth time the Air Force had reported crashes or incidents involving bombers carrying nuclear weapons.

The last was on Nov. 4 at Dyess AFB, Tex., when a B47 carrying a nuclear weapon crashed shortly after takeoff.

The Air Force gave a similar explanation of the cause — the explosion of a rocket assist takeoff bottle.

Texas Toll Held Down

By The Associated Press

The Texas Thanksgiving holiday death toll held to a low point as the long weekend got under way.

As of midmorning Thursday, only one traffic death was reported. A suicide and slaying also occurred.

Killed in traffic was James Wesley Stricklan of Spicewood. The accident occurred Wednesday night near Austin.

William Hargis, 66, killed himself with a 12 - gauge shortgun Wednesday night as the climax of a family quarrel at Fort Worth. The elder Hargis earlier wounded his son, W. C. Hargis, 23.

Nation's Traffic Toll Is 'Normal'

Traffic	39
Fires	7
Miscellaneous	0
Totals	46

By The Associated Press

The nation's traffic death toll appeared running near normal levels for a weekday today as the count started for the Thanksgiving holiday period.

At least a dozen states reported fatalities on the highways since the start of the holiday period at 6 p. m. (local time) Wednesday. The count will continue until midnight Sunday, covering 102 hours.

Tennessee reported four traffic deaths as a result of a head-on crash in the Cumberland Mountains near Crossville. Two other persons were seriously injured.

Pennyslvania and Ohio each reported three deaths in traffic accidents. Michigan reported two. One was reported in each of the following states: Arizona, California, Colorado, Illinois, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland and Oregon.

The National Safety Council did not make a preholiday estimate of traffic deaths for Thanksgiving. It said the forecasts are made only for the holiday periods of Christmas, New Year's, Memorial Day, Fourth of July and Labor Day.

However, council figures show that for a nonholiday period of 102 hours beginning at 6 p. m. Wednesday and ending at midnight Sunday at this time of year, traffic deaths total 470.

The Associated Press, for comparative purposes, made a survey from 6 p. m. Wednesday Nov. 12, to midnight Sunday, Nov. 16. It showed 394 traffic fatalities, 32 died in fires and 121 deaths in miscellaneous accidents for a total of 547.

The all-time traffic and over-all death toll for a four-day holiday weekend was set at Christmas 1956. There were 707 traffic deaths. Deaths from fires and miscellaneous causes raised the total to 884.

Traditional Events Featured In Thanksgiving Observance

By The Associated Press

Prayers, feasting, parades and sports events take over as usual on this Thanksgiving Day.

Hot turkey supplants the cold war as citizens throughout the land dine with their loved ones and remember too the needy with holiday platters and all the fixings.

For many of those trying to get home, or to some vacation spot, however, strikes on two of the nation's major airlines presented a headache. Thousands of persons with holiday air bookings were forced to turn to already crowded bus and train facilities.

At Augusta, Ga., a vacationing President Eisenhower celebrates the day with his family gathered about him.

Traditional high school and college football games are being played from coast to coast. A bus strike in Lowell, Mass., had posed the problem of how to get the local high school gridiron squad to Lawrence, Mass., for the big game. Funeral directors solved the dilemma by donating seven limousines to transport the players.

From the smallest of rural churches to stately cathedrals Americans throng to their houses of worship to give thanks for their blessings of the past year.

San Diego arranged nonsectarian Thanksgiving services in a city park.

At Plymouth, Mass., where the holiday was originated more than 300 years ago, special church services were to be followed by a pageant.

At Long Beach Memorial Hospital on Long Island, N. Y., patients will be served turkey dinners by hospital personnel attired in Pilgrim dress.

Gay parades in cities and towns take place for adults and children. Detroit puts on a huge parade, as does New York City and Pittsburgh, Pa.

Pittsburgh, marking the opening of tht city's 14-month bicentennial celebration, whooped it up with bagpipers, a band concert and cannon fire.

Even the prisoners of a Howard, R. I., correctional institution found something to be thankful for. A holiday editorial in a magazine put out by the inmates read in part:

"We don't have freedom of movement . . . but we do enjoy more freedom than do many subjugated people who literally don't know the meaning of the word."

At Johnson Creek, N. Y., farm hand Burton Brier marked his 104th birthday Wednesday. But the official celebration was put over until today to give him and his friends a double reason for giving thanks.

Russia's Berlin Proposal Catches U. S. By Surprise

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet proposal to convert West Berlin into a free city took U.S. officials by surprise today. However, the first reaction seemed to be that it puts off a showdown over Berlin for six months.

The free city concept also appeared initially here to be a Soviet cover, possibly with considerable appeal over the world, for the basic Moscow aim of pressuring the United States, Britain, and France into giving up their occupation status and withdrawing their military forces from West Berlin.

The proposal, therefore, seemed likely to be rejected by the Western powers in the light of their own frequent assertions that they would not abandon the city.

The State Department had no immediate comment on the plan. It was certain to get prompt and careful attention from officials here despite the Thanksgiving Day holiday in the government. How quickly it would get a formal response was another question.

Full consultation with the Western Allies was assured before a reply goes to Moscow. The United States, Britain, France, and West Germany have been conferring on how they would meet an expected move by Moscow to give the East Germans control over Allied traffic to West Berlin. This had been foreseen as the trigger which would set off a full-blown new Berlin crisis. Tensions had been building up in the West in expectations of the event.

The Soviet call for six months of negotiations on the free city idea relieved that pressure for the time being at least.

The United States and its Allies have repeatedly declared in the last two weeks—as indeed over the past 13 years—that they will accept no change in their status of occupying and protecting powers in West Berlin unless and until the whole problem of the division of Germany is solved by reunification.

However, the Allies appear badly split over how tough to get in countering the Soviet threat to their position in Berlin.

Minister Won't Accept Lawyers

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two court-appointed attorneys who still haven't been accepted by the Rev. Maurice McCrackin will argue in U. C. District Court Friday for his release from jail, where he is serving an indefinite sentence for contempt of court.

The pacifist minister has declined to cooperate with attorneys Fred Dewey and Theodore M. Berry in his passive resistance to payment of income taxes. He won't pay because part of the money goes for military purposes.

But Dewey and Berry continued to act in the minister's behalf as they filed a motion to vacate the contempt of court conviction. Judge John H. Druffel said he would hear arguments on the motion Friday.

The contempt conviction came Monday after the minister had to be carried into court for a second time and again refused to stand or plead to an indictment charging him with failure to respond to an Internal Revenue Service summons on his income tax troubles.

Dewey and Berry based their motion on a claim the minister should have been given an opportunity for a jury trial on the contempt charge.

They declared the alleged contempt did not occur in the actual presence of the court. They also asserted the court order did not specifically claim misbehavior in court.

At the time of the conviction, the Rev. Mr. McCrackin merely sat mute when Judge Druffel ordered him to stand and enter a plea to the indictment.

The judge told newsmen that a 1946 appeals court decision said that in such cases the defendant "stands committed unless and until he performs the affirmative act required by the court."

That decision also said: "If imprisoned, he (the defendant) carries the keys of his prison in his own pocket. He can end the sentence and discharged himself by doing what he had previously refused to do."

Two Escapees Recaptured

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Officers got a tip Wednesday night that two escaped Georgia convicts were in Houston and were expecting a money order by Western Union.

The officers sent Carlton Wells, 26, of Atlanta, a money order for 1 cent. Wells called the telegraph office again, asking if his money order had arrived. He was told there was one there for him.

Wells and Jarmon Beavers, 26, also of Atlanta, came to pick up the money and officers nabbed them. Wells, who was armed, and Beavers were subdued and jailed after a short tussle.

Wells was allowed to cash his money order. He gave the penny back to Lt. W. C. Doss, who led the officers.

"I guess I won't need it where I'm going," he said.

Girl Upsets Navy Discipline

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—A 17-year-old high school girl upset Navy discipline by pulling on a uniform and spending several hours inside the Naval Academy.

Navy brass—when they recovered—pulled the stripes from the sleeves of three middies and ordered two others to face disciplinary action.

"The unauthorized presence of a young lady in Bancroft Hall at an unauthorized time" was, said the academy, "an immature prank."

The academy, in a statement, said the incident occurred "about two weeks ago."

The girl, Susan Johnson, a senior at Annapolis High School and daughter of a well-known Baltimore surgeon, Dr. Marius P. Johnson, stood evening meal formation in a middies uniform, then marched into the dining room and ate with the 3,500-man brigade.

Her mother termed the incident "just a prank."

The Navy took a sterner view.

Cmdr. Marcy Dupre, academy public information officer, said the three demoted midshipmen officers were not directly involved but "had positive knowledge of the incident and failed to take proper corrective action."

Involved in the incident, he said, were William R. Evans of Trenton, N. J., and Michael J. Brown, of Guymon, Okla., both seniors. They face disciplinary action.

Demoted were James P. Wilson of Philadelphia, the brigade commander; Robert L. Vogt of Norfolk, Va., a battalion commander; and Douglas Volgenau of Clarence, N. Y., a company commander.

Academy officials had announced changes in midshipmen officers last Monday but at that time said only that they were for "administrative reasons."

Dupre's statement said "the incident is deeply regretted but these young men are being trained to assume command responsibilities in the fleet and they must learn these lessons now rather than later."

Meanwhile, Johnson said he, as "parental commander," has forbidden his daughter to go to the academy again.

"We have a very lovely daughter who has done a number of wonderful things in her short life of 17 years. . . . This was a prank. It was foolish. But we are standing 100 per cent behind her," he said.

In Philadelphia, the father of ex-brigade commander Wilson also backed his son.

"If I had been in the same situation, I would have done the same thing Jimmy did; that's all I can tell you," James Wilson Sr. said.

Debbie Says Eddie Is Always Welcome

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Debbie Reynolds says Eddie Fisher is always welcome at her house — to visit their children.

The actress told a reporter that she and Carrie Frances, 2, and Todd, 9 months, are having Thanksgiving dinner today at her mother's house. Her estranged husband won't be there, she added.

"Eddie can come to the house to visit the children any time he wants to, and he does come often," she said.

11 Train Cars Are Derailed

WALSENBURG, Colo. (AP) — Eleven cars were derailed or demolished Wednesday night when a passenger train slowing at 20 m.p.h. for a stop smashed into the rear of a standing freight train. Three persons suffered bruises.

The Colorado & Southern Railroad's Texas Zephyr, laden with holiday travelers, was two hours behind schedule on its southbound run from Denver to Dallas and Fort Worth, Tex. Engine trouble caused the delay, a spokesman said.

Its streamliner diesel unit and a baggage car were derailed when it rammed the rear of an empty Denver & Rio Grande Western Freight.

An estimated 100 passengers given temporary accommodations in the Walsenburg High School gymnasium pending the arrival of another C&S Train.

Workman Unruffled As Plane Burns

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — The workman calmly went on with his grass cutting as a plane loaded with a nuclear weapon burned at Chennault Air Force Base and fire sirens screamed across the field Wednesday.

"You don't seem worried a bit," said a newsman.

"No sir," the yardman retorted. "I figure it's way too late in the year for any ole snake to be hidin' in this here grass."

Snow Due In South Plains

By The Associated Press

Thanksgiving Day in Texas was mostly cloudy and cold with rain in many sections.

Freezing rain in the Lubbock area added to the hazards of holiday travel. Light snow and sleet were forecast for the South Plains and Panhandle.

A cloud cover during the night prevented freezing weather from penetrating as deep into the state as had been forecast. The Dallas-Fort Worth are escaped freezing temperatures.

Dalhart, which recorded a low a 14 Wednesday, had a 30-degree reading Thursday morning. Amarillo had the low reading in the state, 27 degrees. ubbock had 31. Brownsville, the warmest spot, had a morning low of 52 degrees.

Rain fell during the morning at Corpus Christi, Brownsville, Laredo, Coutlla, Abilene, Marfa and El Paso.

The cold front pushed out into the Gulf of Mexico during the night.

Thanksgiving Program Given At Women's Culture Club Meeting

The Woman's Culture Club met Tuesday afternoon Nov. 25th at the Martha Ann Clubhouse, with the President, Mrs. H. L. Wren presiding.

Mrs. Henry Kelley brought the thought for the day entitled, "Time". 'Take time to work; it is the price of success. Take time to think; it is the source of power. Take time to play; it is the secret of youth. Take time to read; it is the foundation of knowledge. Take time to worship; it is the highway to reverence. Take time for friendship; it is the source of happiness. Take time to love; it is the one sacrament of life'.

Each member answered to roll call with a special blessing received for which she was thankful.

Mrs. E. J. Richardson, leader for the afternoon, gave the introduction. "Thanksgiving Day is peculiarly our own. It was born on our soil when in 1621 the Puritans of Massachusetts set apart a day of Thanksgiving. This handful of stalwart souls had come through great tribulation to spiritual peace. Behind them was a winter of bitter hardships. They had endured cold, hunger, and sickness. Their faith never faltered, though they buried their dead in the darkness of night, lest the enemy lurking in the shadowed forest, learn of their weakened numbers and fall upon them to destroy them.

"Now, as they gathered the harvest, their hearts were filled with gratitude to God for His goodness. With the spirit of honor and praise for the Almighty God, the first Thanksgiving was celebrated. So it was that a great American tradition was set to become deep-rooted in the minds and hearts of countless generations. From these humble pilgrims the rich inheritance of courage, faith, and power has been ours through the years."

Mrs. Annie Bailey's talk was on 'Giving Thanks for Everything'. She related in part:

"In numerating things I have to be thankful for, I sat down and made a list: For America — its mountains and plains, its farms and factories, its cities and villiages, its principles and ideals, which give to everyone the right to live, the opportunity to work, and the chance to improve himself.

"For brotherhood — the only intelligent attitude toward our neighbors, whether they be the folks in the next apartment or the nation on the otherside of the world. For the church — the house of worship, the institution of the ages, the congregation of believers. For duty — the hard taskmaster who demands our best.

"For freedom — freedom from fear, freedom of worship, freedom to think and speak. For health—that which makes the poorest rich; without it, the rich are poor indeed. For ideals — the stars that help to guide the course of life. For knowledge — which comes from asking, seeking, knocking at the doors before us. For opportunity — who comes not knocking at our door, but who opens wide the door when we are brave enough to knock.

"For peace — not just the peace we want and seek on earth, but the deeper peace that comes from an understanding heart. For truth-because it is the seed for the soil of freedom. For understanding — in others to make allowances for our shortcomings, in us to do the same for them. Always for everything give thanks, is not common practice. However there are some true disciples with the gratitude of Apostle Paul, who are thankful for all things. A few years ago there was an old Jewish woman who had escaped from the Hitler persecution, and who lived in Holland.

"Her home was a shack, her clothing rags, and her food the refuse that others threw away. Yet, she smiled up into the camera and said in broken English, 'Ah, now we are so happy and grateful'. We should always in everything give thanks, knowing that 'All things work together for good to those who love the Lord'."

Mrs. R. L. Terry speaking on 'The Spirit of Thanksgiving' said: "It was October 29, 1789 that President Geo. Washington proclaimed the first National Day of Thanksgiving. In 1863 Pres. Abraham Lincoln established the fourth Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day. So, for 96 years this has been the official Thanksgiving Day in the United States.

"We should celebrate this day in humility and gratitude of spirit, for it is the spirit of Thanksgiving that is so meaningful. We should not think of it as a day for feasting, for the simplest fare can be a Thanksgiving when we are filled with gratitude and thankfulness.

"As individuals in America we are uniquely blessed. The humblest born can say, 'This is my home, This is America, the land of blessings that keep running over'. We are proud to be able to think as we choose, to worship, as we will, to select our own way of life without interference of dictatorship. Our unlimited opportunities should inspire us to live in a spirit of Thanksgiving every day throughout the entire year."

"I'm thankful for each separate day, for every moment in it; the chance to work, to learn to play, to set a goal and win it. I'm thankful for the winter time, spring, summer, and the fall; and for a wise and generous God, who watches over all.

"I'm thankful for the common things, we often take for granted; the sun, the rain, the birds, the trees, each flower that is planted. I'm thankful for America, wherein free men are living; with right to worship as they please, I render my thanksgiving."

A Thanksgiving Thank-You was given by Mrs. A. C. Martin who said: "Thanksgiving is one of the two most important and time-honored American national holidays. Thanksgiving is a time set a side to truly give thanks. At this harvest season we pause to thank God for the many blessings He has given us during the year.

"Yet, how many who remember to thank God in a general way, fail to thank His children — our friends, our neighbors, and public servants — for the many things they have done for us?

"All of us are indebted to so many people for so many things. It is time to acknowledge those we have taken for granted too long: Neighbors whose kindnesses have made everyday living a little sweeter over the years, friends dear to us, those with whom we work who often go out of their way to help us learn or to make our daily routine easier, officers of our church, our teachers, others for whom we feel, but seldom express gratitude.

"There also, are our public servants, many of whom go beyond the line of duty to be of service. What about the city officals who labor to bring clean, honest government to the city? Or the sales person who is always cheerful and courteous, even at five minutes before closing time? Or the paper boy who is always careful to put our paper on the porch out of the rain? Why not let these know we are thankful for them?

"Then there are those who mean the most to us and yet, to whom we seldom express appreciation-our family. At Thanksgiving we should give praise and thanks to our Creator and the giver of every good and perfect gift, even as we ask of guidance, fortitude, and courage to meet the challenges of our day. Yet, how much more Thanksgiving could mean if we would take a little time to express our gratitude to these who mean so much to us.

"In the heart of everyone lies the yearning to know he is needed and appreciated. We might pay some a special visit, or make it a point to say thank you as we meet them, or sit down and write a note of sincere appreciation. Why not make this Thanksgiving a season of giving thanks not only to our Maker but also to our fellow men?"

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. W. E. Doak to fourteen members.

Gay Printed Feed Bags Make Fine Paint Aprons

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

It's a wise mother who provides her budding young artist with a coloring apron BEFORE producing the bright crayons or paints. This foresight prevents stained dresses and juvenile tears.

Gaily printed cotton feed bags or flour sacks are ideal for the purpose. To make a child's apron with handy cobbler pockets you'll need one 25-pound print bag and a package of bias binding. Prepare the bag by ripping the chain-stitched seam, then soaking in warm, soapy water to remove labels.

Local sewing center experts suggest the amateur seamstress draw a pattern on brown wrapping paper before cutting the fabric. To make the pattern, measure length and width desired for apron. Draw a rectangle to these measurements. Ascertain exact center of top of apron and draw a line 3½ inches across on each side of this. At each end of this 7-inch top line, draw a semi-circle which tapers out to sides to form two armholes.

Place pattern on fabric and cut out apron. For the cobbler pockets, cut a strip of fabric 4 inches deep and the same width as the bottom of the apron. Bind top with bias tape. Stitch pocket in place at bottom of apron. Then stitch vertically to form as many individual pockets as desired. Bind all outside edges of apron with bias binding. Use a separate strip of binding for armhole, leaving a length of binding on each side for ties.

OUR VIEW

Ike Veers To Right Again

THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE:

More signs are evident that the big issue in the next Congress will be excessive spending and that the lines will be more clearly drawn than at any other time during the Eisenhower administration. Those favoring economy may find themselves in a stronger position, despite the Democratic landslide on Nov. 4, which was so widely hailed as a victory for the tax-and-spend advocates.

An unusual coalition is emerging. If all parties to it stick to their stated intentions, they can control the course of the federal government. This coalition, based on the economy issue, is shaping up among the President, Southern Democrats and Old Guard Republicans. A coalition of Southern Democrats and Republicans controlled Congress during the latter years of the Roosevelt administration and under the Truman administration. This fell apart when President Eisenhower was elected, mainly because the President veered from his 1952 campaign promises and tried to forge a type of New Dealism called Modern Republicanism.

If the President sticks to what he now says he is going to do, the old Southern Democrat-Republican coalition will have a powerful new ally—the White House. The one issue which could destroy this coalition is civil rights. There are some indications the President may try to soft-pedal civil rights by making excessive spending the big issue, one on which the Republicans can campaign in 1960.

On the day after the election, the President emphasized the spending issue and warned that free spenders had won a big victory. He pledged himself to fight for economy. The President has reiterated his stand several times since then. Congressman Joe Martin, Republican leader in the House, visited President Eisenhower Wednesday and on leaving the White House, predicted the President will veto all spending bills he considers excessive.

The attitude of the President, who has proposed record peacetime budgets during the last two years, appears to be a revision to his 1952 thinking. Some political observers feel it is significant that this happened after Sherman Adams left the White House. But whatever the cause of the President's change, taxpayers should welcome it— if the President does what he says he is going to do.

A Family Dreams Of Happy Holiday

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—A Thanksgiving fable:

Everything went right from the start. It was almost too perfect.

When Marybelle suggested, "I'd like to have my brothers and their families over for Thanksgiving," Jim, her husband, didn't argue at all. He said right away, "Why, honey, what a splendid idea."

And when Jim brought home the turkey it turned out to be, for the first time in their wedded life, just the right size for the oven.

"And not even a pinfeather left to pick," marveled Marybelle.

And when her folks arrived, Roscoe, the older stingy brother, brought a big bouquet. Russell, the younger brother who had learned from Rosecoe how to be a tightwad and then gone on to improve the art himself, showed up with two bottles of fine wine.

And while the dinner was cooking, Roscoe and Russell asked Jim his political views instead of giving theirs.

And Marybelle's nine nephews and nieces all played contentedly together in the den, and none cried, and none broke anything.

And when everybody sat down at the table and the wives of Roscoe and Russell saw the new silverware Jim had bought Marybelle as an anniversary present, they admired the pattern and weren't the least bit jealous.

And when Marybelle brought in the turkey it was done to a perfect golden brown—not a burned spot anywhere.

And Jim didn't grumble or feel the least bit nervous about carving. The knife was sharp as a razor. The turkey didn't crumble like a tired cookie, but peeled off in one magnificent slice after another.

And everybody got just the kind of meat he wanted. The stuffing was a mottled delight, the gravy a brown ecstasy, the cranberry sauce a crimson thrill, and the pumpkin pie a tawny delight.

And, oh, the wine shed a rosy glow over all, and it was wonderful, wonderful all the way.

And Roscoe and Russell, protesting it had been a perfect day, waddled home.

Marybelle brought him his slippers, lit his cigar for him and murmured happily, "It sure was a lucky day for me when I first saw you."

And Jim murmured, "I must be dreaming all this. Maybe we'd better pinch each other."

And they did pinch each other—and sure enough, they were dreaming.

It was 6 a.m., on Thanksgiving morning, and the day hadn't even begun.

Legislative Pay Issue Still Alive

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—Putting lawmakers on an annual salary basis apparently will be another featured squabble of the Legislature.

A pre-session poll of senators and representatives by The Associated Press shows that new proposals for annual legislative salaries will be submitted in both houses.

A good percentage of those replying to the AP questionnaire indicated they wanted at least one more chance at raising their own salaries.

The proposition of changing the state Constitution to give legislators $7,500 a year and to have legislative sessions each year was defeated more than 2-1 in the Nov. 4 election. Legislators now receive $25 a day for each day the Legislature actually is in session, plus limited traveling and office expenses.

Present pay averages out to about $3,000 for each two-years' service.

"I hope that a more realistic and conservative approach can be made in the submission of an amendment by the next Legislature," said Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, who led a fight to defeat the November proposal. "I intend to try to prepare one for introduction. I think the various issues ought not to be submitted in one resolution."

Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth plans an attempt to raise the pay to $50 a day, giving in effect a $3,000 annual salary plus expenses.

"This would not be tied to an annual session," Green promised. "After discussing the question with numerous people from all parts of the state, I am convinced that this is the approach that most Texans prefer. I believe that such an amendment would have passed overwhelmingly Nov. 4.

"There was too much in the ill-fated amendment No. 1 which was misunderstood. I feel that the people want something explicit and to the point and that's what I plan to offer."

Shortly after the general election the state AFL-CIO said it would back another drive to give legislators $7,500 annually. No mention was made of labor support for an annual legislative session.

Rep. B. H. Dewey Jr. of Bryan, influential House leader, predicted that the third most important issue to face the Legislature would be "adoption of a resolution for annual sessions and annual salaries that the public will adopt."

Sanford Schmid, a new representative from Fayetteville, predicted that "An amendment proposal must again be brought before the voters to correct the situation." He noted that the average legislator "probably spends $1,000 every other year to be elected" and receives travel expense money for only one round trip for each legislative session.

"Do you suggest that a legislator solicit campaign funds and ask for special jobs to earn money to make ends meet?" he said.

"Lobby control and a new bill for annual sessions and salaries are badly needed but it will be a fight to get it through past the special lobbyists," said Franklin Spears of San Antonio, another new representative.

"Looks like we have a mandate from the people on our pay said Rep. H.J. Blanchard of Lubbock.

Rep. J. E. Winfree of Houston, who has been in the House longer than any of the present members, didn't comment on the present pay question but he recalled the old days.

"I first was elected to the Legislature of this state from Harris County in 1922," he said. "Because of the low wages—$5 a day for 60 days and $2 thereafter—I couldn't run for a second term and take care of my wife and three boys."

A number of last session's legislators who did not run for re-election said they are still having the same trouble that Winfree experienced 38 years ago.

Nixon's Telegram Has Little Effect

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats took a ho-hum attitude today to a disclosure of a campaign telegram in which Vice President Nixon accused them of appeasement and economic radicalism.

The telegram, sent Oct. 19 to all Republican candidates for the Senate and the House, came to light Wednesday. It urged the candidates to fight along much the same lines Nixon used in his own campaign speeches.

Democratic headquarters here said that National Chairman Paul Butler had no comment. Also declining comment was Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla).

Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) smiled as he listened to Nixon's assurance to Republicans that they could win if only they hit the Democrats hard enough on the foreign policy and domestic economy fronts.

"It didn't do any good, did it?" said Chavez. "So what's the use of saying anything about it?"

Nixon's office made the telegram available after the text was published by the Washington Star and the New York Post. Nixon, now in London, had no immediate comment on it.

Recently, Harold E. Stassen, one of Nixon's most outspoken Republican critics, referred to what he described as a secret telegram Nixon sent during the election campaign urging Republican candidates to attack Democrats as Socialists.

Stassen contended this helped to defeat GOP candidates in the Nov. 4 congressional elections, in which the Democrats scored their biggest gains since New Deal days.

Nixon's telegram, sent about two weeks before the election, said the Democratic campaign had passed its peak. He predicted the Republicans, by making the fight of their lives, could turn "what appeared to be certain defeat into victory."

He particularly urged GOP candidates to take the offensive "on the issue of the firmness of our foreign policy against Communist aggression." He said all the Democrats offered was "a return to the Acheson policy of weakness and appeasement which contributed to the loss of China and led to the Korean War." Dean Acheson was secretary of state under former President Harry Truman.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE GROUND WORK WAS laid here yesterday towards bidding for the state Little League tournament next summer.

Ed Patton, Rotan, Little League director of this district, met with several local officials in the Chamber of Commerce office to hear what Snyder had to offer towards bidding for the tournament.

While there will be no definite decision handed down on where the state tournament will be held until next March, local officials are getting an early start in seeking the tournament.

Snyder, it was brought out in yesterday's meeting, is the first to put in a bid for the tournament.

Patton told the group that Snyder's chances for getting the tourn ment were good.

der's chances for getting the tournament has never been held in West Texas.

"Then, with you getting in the first bid, it will also increase your chances of getting the tournament," Patton told the Snyder group.

The Chamber of Commerce let it be known at yesterday's meeting that it would lend its full-hearted support toward getting the tournament here and also working hand-in-hand with the local Little League officials should Snyder get the tournament.

Locals To Make 'Juicy' Offer

Although definite plans haven't yet been worked out, it was believed by those attending yesterday's meeting that Snyder would defray all of the teams' expense while here for the tournament.

There will be four teams in the tournament representing the four sectional winners in the state of Texas.

Local representatives attending yesterday's meeting were Mutt Herod, coordinator of the Little League program here; Buck Logan, Fred Bullard, Skipper Joyce, Speedy Moffett and Leon Autry, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce sports committee and Grady Elder, manager of the local CC.

If the National LL office overlooks Snyder as the state tournament hosts, it won't be because the local officials didn't make an all-out bid for the tourney.

Nation's Fans To View Ag, Texas Tilt

A big weekend is coming up in football, both in the college and high school ranks. This is the final week for college play with exception of the bowl games but there's still three weeks to go in the schoolboy ranks.

Of prime interest around the state today is the annual "grudge" battle between the Texas Longhorns and Texas Aggies.

Nothing specifically is riding on the outcome of today's game so far as any title is concerned. But regardless of what else might hinge on the game's outcome, this is the game that the two arch rivals want most to win.

Today's game will be viewed by fans over the nation as it will be nationally televised on NBC.

Texas A&M caught fire against Rice and until then it looked like the Longhorns would be heavy favorites today. The Steers, however, are still rated the favorite but the game is due to be much closer than many suspected two or three weeks ago.

If Charles Milstead is hot today the Aggies will have a good chance of upsetting the Longhorns.

We'll be watching Charlie in action today and we'll take back some of the harsh words we've said of him in the past if he shows up well today.

Our vote today is a slim one for the Aggies:

Texas A&M 16, Texas 13.

Canadian Player Gets 600th Goal

By The Associated Press

The Montreal Canadiens, overwhelming choices to win the National Hockey League title, are not having the easy time they expected despite the usual excellence of Maurice (The Rocket) Richard.

Richard scored his 600th big league goal Wednesday night. But the Canucks blew 2-0 and 3-2 leads and dropped a 5-3 decision to the New York Rangers in Madison Square Garden.

The Montreal setback, coupled with Detroit's 5-2 victory over Toronto, enabled the Red Wings to move into a first place deadlock with the Canadiens. The leaders have 23 points, one more than the Rangers and Boston Bruins.

Mexico Team Downs Wayland Queens 42-38

MEXICO CITY (AP)— The Mexican National Women's Basketball Team defeated Wayland Baptist College of Plainview, Tex., 42-38 last night.

The two teams will meet again tonight. Wayland Tuesday night defeated a Navy Department squad. Their opponents last night were selected to represent Mexico in the Central American and Caribbean games in January.

The halftime score was 22-17 in favor of Wayland. High scorer for Wayland was Carla Lowry with 9 points.

Boise, Tyler Play For Juco Grid Title

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Boise plays Tyler (Tex.) Junior College here today for the national junior college football championship.

The Broncos, unbeaten in nine games, ruled as a slight favorite on the basis of their better record. Tyler finished the regular season with a 9-1 record.

USC, UCLA Stop Washington State's Path To Sugar Bowl

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — The $160,000 Sugar Bowl veto" by UCLA and Southern California rankled Washington State football fans today in perhaps a final ironic chapter of the bitter north-south feud that killed the Pacific Coast Conference.

The two Los Angeles schools invoked a seldom used article in the PCC constitution to block a vote on WSC's request for a waiver of a conference rule against any postseason game but the Rose Bowl.

The Cougars, with a 7-3 record, were nosed out for the roses by California but were being considered by both the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans and the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.

Dr. C. Clement French, WSC president, said he was shocked at the USC and UCLA action. He said seven of the nine conference schools were in favor of giving the Cougars permission for a postseason game.

It took only a simple majority. Thus, if USC and UCLA had merely voted against the proposal, it would have passed 7-2. Instead, they blocked the vote altogether.

The two Southern California schools, often at odds in the PCC with WSC, brought up Article 4-G of the constitution which holds that petitions such as Washington State presented can be voted upon only at a regular meeting unless all agree otherwise. WSC asked for a telegraphic vote. The next conference meeting is scheduled for Dec. 7.

Athletic Director Stan Bates of WSC said there are no provisions for a special meeting and that the Dec. 7 agenda has already been made up. He said the USC and UCLA action shocked him too, "but the real losers are our players who deserved a bowl game."

In deference to the PCC rules, bowl sponsors hadn't tendered any direct feelers to WSC. But a highly placed source here said the Cougars were certain to get a Sugar Bowl bid to meet Louisiana State, the nation's No. 1 team, if the PCC approved.

The Sugar Bowl, already a sellout, could have brought the Cougars $160,000. Bates said WSC offered to split up any bowl money among PCC member schools if the Cougars went to a bowl.

Hugh C. Willet, USC faculty representative, said the Rose Bowl-only rule was passed for the protection of the PCC, the Big Ten, the National Broadcasting Co. and the Tournament of Roses, all parties to the contract. He said the university doesn't feel any vote should have been taken unless all agreed.

Dr. Bradford Booth, UCLA representative, said his school was "sentimentally disposed" to support the WSC petition but has "regretfully come to the conclusion that it cannot do so in view of our obligations to the Tournament of Roses and NBC."

Montreal To Decide On Title Bout Today

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Athletic Commission was to decide today whether it will grant a permit for the world light-heavyweight title bout scheduled here Dec. 10 between champion Archie Moore and Canadian hope Yvon Durelle.

The commission is at loggerheads with fight promoter Eddie Quinn on a claim that it is entitled to five per cent of television receipts from the bout to be carried on a national network in the United States.

Quinn has refused to pay and has launched a Superior Court action against the commission, charging that it was not formed legally when it was organized in 1922.

EDGEWOOD REINSTATED

White Oak Forced To Forfeit Games

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Schoolboy football opens its most decisive weekend of the season Thursday with 32 games spread over three days that will establish quarter - finalists in all four divisions.

Four of five defending state champions are in the field and each is expected to come through this week. The other one — co-state Class A champion White Oak — is on the sidelines through ineligibility.

White Oak was ruled to have used a boy over the 18-year age limit and its games were forefeited — even its bi-district 70-12 victory over Edgewood last week. Edgewood was reinstated in the race and will play Talco in this week's second round.

Highland Park of Dallas, the meets Texarkana a team it mauled in early season.

Nederland, defeated titlist of Class AAA, has Alvin as its foe.

Terrell, undefeated, untied king of Class AA, rolls against another team with a perfect record—Bowie.

Mart, the other co-champion of Class A, plays Leverett's Chapel and will be expected to come through without serious trouble.

The headline game, however, sends Breckenridge to Sweetwater in Class AAA. This one matches the schools that have been rated 1-2 all season and from it should come the eventual champion.

Abilene, the team that's generally ranked above Highland Park in Class AAAA, goes to Ysleta. The Eagles are prohibitive favorites.

The only game in the upper division bringing undefeated, untied teams together comes in Class AAA where San Marcos swipes at San Antonio Sam Houston.

Longhorns Favored Over Aggies Today

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Texas, on the strength of tradition and a better season record, was a solid favorite today to beat Texas A&M and get a new Memorial Stadium winning streak on the way.

It was in 1956 that the Aggies smashed the stadium jinx—A&M never had won there since the stadium was built in 1924—and that took away the last significant tradition of this oldest football rivalry in the Southwest.

The game means nothing in a championship or bowl way but it is the one that each team wants to win above all others in a season.

Texas and A&M started playing in 1894 and they have met 64 times since then.

A crowd of 57,000 is expected for the nationally televised game due to be played under ideal weather conditions.

Texas, a 7-point favorite, braced for the shock of Charley Milstead, the backfield star of the Aggies who is a national leader in total offense.

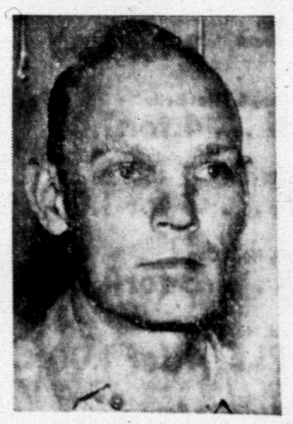

Texas had its top halfback, Rene Ramirez, ready to play for the first time since Nov. 1.

DAVIS & HUMPHRIES, OWNERS & OPERATORS

LISTENING IN on recorded lessons in Spanish with one group of a Spanish class is Mrs. Velia Shiflett, standing, who has recorded vocabulary drills, stories, and other parts of lessons in advance.

STUDENTS IN one section of a Spanish class repeat Spanish phrases as they hear them from tape recordings. getting drill in pronunciation at the same time they work on vocabulary.

A HELP IN getting Spanish instruction to larger classes sometimes comes from a student. For example, while a teacher is working with another group of a class, a student operator starts and stops tape recordings at the proper times for a group working on lessons by use of earphones. The student operator here is Jan Nesbitt.

New Instruction Plan For Foreign Language

An improving program of foreign language instruction, designed for more students at less cost, in the Snyder schools is attracting statewide attention, as evidenced by the fact that one language teacher, Mrs. Velia Shiflett, has been invited to speak at the annual meeting of the Texas Foreign Language Association in Fort Worth tomorrow.

The association is holding its meeting in conjunction with the meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association, being held today and tomorrow.

A part of the local foreign language program is connected with the staff utilization project, which is in its final year of experimental study in Snyder, according to William O. Nesbitt, supervisor of secondary education, who is assigned to direct the project. The staff utilization study is being made locally in foreign language, science, and eighth grade English under joint sponsorship of the local school board and the Commission on Experimental Study of the Utilization of the Staff in the Secondary School. The commission, supported by the Ford Foundation's Fund for the Advancement of Education, is sponsoring more than 100 experimental studies in the U. S. during this school year. Four of these are considered extremely significant, including the one in Snyder.

Teachers of foreign languages in Snyder have taken a look at the expected large increase in pupil enrollment in public schools within the next few years and at the continued shortage of professional personnel in secondary schools. To help find ways to meet this challenge they are taking a new look at present methods of teaching, scheduling, and grouping students. This is done with the idea that in the face of ever-increasing numbers of students teachers cannot continue to provide top-quality teaching unless they make some changes.

The possible changes are being tried by experimentation on a small scale. "So far, there has not been enough true experimentation in our schools, in spite of the claims made by insufficiently-informed writers and others that the problems facing our schools today are a result of too much experimentation in the past," Nesbitt said, referring to the claims of some that too many different ideas are being tried.

"The fact is that most of our troubles in the schools result directly from a compounding of errors to be found in our traditional program of education. Teachers in the utilization project in Snyder are doing all they can to locate some of these errors and to find improved ways of teaching boys and girls. Better teaching at less cost is their aim," he added.

In the Spanish department, Mrs. Shiflett teaches one class of 42 students, three times the usual number found in a foreign language class. Student grades, Nesbitt said, indicate they are learning the expected things at least as well as students usually do, adding that there is reason to believe that further evaluation will reveal a greater amount of learning in more areas has taken place in the large experimental class.

Mrs. Shiflett works as a member of a team composed of a teaching aide, clerical assistant, art teacher, and supervisor. Two rooms are used for the large class, but at times all students meet in one room for certain types of work, including motivation, introduction, initial vocabulary study, and evaluation. Most of the time more than half the class goes to another room, where a tape recorder and individual earphones have been set up.

As the students enter they open their books, get writing material, and put on the earphones. The student sitting next to the tape recorder starts the tape, on which Mrs. Shiflett has prepared the entire lesson for the day.

First there is a vocabulary drill, based on words taught with visual aids the preceding day. Then Mrs. Shiflett introduces on tape an interesting story in Spanish which uses the new vocabulary words, as well as those previously learned. To give each student practice in speaking as well as reading the language she pauses long enough for them to repeat each sentence after she first reads it correctly from the textbook. After reading the story together following the tape recording of their teacher's voice, the students listen to interesting facts about the subject of the story.

Then, on tape, their teacher tells them they will have 10 minutes to write an English translation of the story they have just read in Spanish. The student operator turns off the tape recorder, notes the time, and 10 minutes later turns it on again for further instruction. In this manner, the recorded voice of their teacher guides the class through vocabulary drills, grammar exercises, games, songs, tests, etc.

Mrs. Shiflett said she feels these students who work with the tape recorder part of the time are developing independence in study habits. They are more alert than they would be in an ordinary class, she thinks, and work faster and more diligently. They stay on the lesson, she said, adding that it seems that having someone talking directly through earphones compels them to listen carefully. Earphones seem to have a "closing in" effect, and outside distractions do not seem to divert their attention, she said. If they miss something important, they must come back during a study period or after school to play the tape again.

While this group is working with the tape recorder, Mrs. Shiflett or her aide looks in often enough to know that everything is going alright. They are also free to work with the other part of the class, which is progressing more slowly. This class also has a tape recorder, but the teacher or her aide remains in this room all the time. She starts and stops the tape, replays difficult passages, and provides more drill. These students actually get more individual attention than they would normally receive, and at the same time fast learners are not held back.

Some students react to the challenge of two groups by deciding they are going to work at a faster pace, Mrs. Shiflett reports. So far, four of them have been moved from the slower to the faster-paced groups. Some students work better when they do not feel pressure, she said. So far, two students in the faster group have been placed in the slower-moving group at their own request.

Another interesting aspect of the use of tapes and visuals to save teacher time is their use in review of first-year Spanish by second-year students. Also, when a student is absent he can make up the entire lesson, even though the teacher does not have time to be with him.

"The essence of this approach to the teaching is that it conserves teacher time and thus relieves her to give more individual attention," Nesbitt said. "Also, it indicates the path the school of tomorrow must follow if it is to meet all the needs of the many students and still stay within a limited budget."

Developing these tape recordings and visual aids require a large amount of teacher-team time. Since it is not possible now to provide this time within the teacher's working day, the best time to prepare teaching materials is during a local summer workshop Nesbitt said. Initial cost of materials and time is greater, just as is any capital outlay in business, but the cost reduces below normal as prepared and proven materials are used year after year, he explained.

"But the really big payoff comes when students learn more and enjoy doing it and when the teachers feel that for the first time they have become truly professional in their chosen work," Nesbitt said.

Foreign Aid Budget Hiked Billion By Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration has tentatively added about a billion dollars to its new foreign aid budget despite a White House drive to cut federal spending.

Government agencies have put together a package calling for about $4,200,000,000 to $4,300,000,000 in economic, technical and military aid to more than 40 friendly governments in the year starting next July 1.

Congress this year voted about $3,300,000,000 in foreign aid funds after cutting 600 millions from the amount requested.

The higher figure proposed for next year is still subject to change.

Responsible informants who reported the higher figure said President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles consider a vigorous foreign aid program particularly important at this time to offset Soviet moves in this field.

The proposed spending would cut down military aid and give added emphasis to economic and technical aid.

Eisenhower outlined a five-point aid program to the Colombo Plan countries in Seattle Nov. 10. This called for added emphasis on the administration's development loan fund, which extends low-interest credits with easy repayment terms.

Dulles told the United Nations General Assembly Sept. 18 the United States wants to make 1959 a year of long-term economic programs despite a current budget deficit.

The program drafted thus far undoubtedly will be reviewed by a top-level committee of outside experts led by William H. Draper Jr., businessman and former undersecretary of the Army.

Sudan Chief Approves Aid

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP)—Sudan's new military ruler, Prime Minister Ibrahim Abboud, said today he approves the 31-million-dollar American economic aid program to Sudan "in general."

Abboud said in an interview that he and his associates had discussed the program in detail, and "so far as we can see, there is no objection to the program.

"Possibly some difficulties may develop later," he added, "but you say that in general and so far as we know now, we approve the American aid program."

The U. S. aid program has been under heavy fire from President Nasser's press and radio in Egypt which blasted it as an American attempt to dominate Sudan. Previously Abboud and his ministers had only said they would study the program to see if it infringed on Sudanese independence.

Abboud took over the country in a military coup last week.

Moroccan Moderates Offer Resignation

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — The moderate government of Premier Ahmed Balafrej is reported to have offered its resignation.

The move was said to have been the result of pressure from the left wing of the ruling Istiqlal party, which has demanded the government take over control of the army and the police, now in the hands of King Mohammed V.

Pearl Bailey Sued By Movie Stand-In

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pearl Bailey's former movie stand-in has sued the singer for $50,000 damages, alleging slander.

May Johnson's complaint says that last Nov. 13, at the Samuel Goldwyn Studios, in the presence of dozens of persons working in "Pogy and Bess," Miss Bailey demanded that Miss Johnson be fired. The suit says Miss Bailey accused Miss Johnson of dishonest dealings.

Junior Editors Quiz on TODAY'S HOLIDAY

QUESTION: How can you help decorate for Thanksgiving?

* * *

ANSWER: Here is a suggestion for a simple arrangement of fruit. Put a small pumpkin in a large bowl and lay around the pumpkin a ring of green paper leaves such as the one shown at the top left. Then put around it a border of pears, apples, oranges, or lemons. At the top of the pumpkin, drape bunches of grapes. You can fasten them with string, thumb tacks or gummed tape. Place a big yellow apple with a single cranberry on the top. Then finish the bowl with strings of popcorn and cranberries strung on coarse white thread with a big needle. The white pop corn will set off the shining red berries. The candles are carrots set into grapefruit halves.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: This drawing shows you how to make the decoration. Color it with your crayons—the little girl is wearing a blue dress with a white collar and the bowl is blue—and save it in your scrapbook.

Council Approves Prince's Wedding

By JAMES CARY

TOKYO (AP) — Crown Prince Akihito won today unprecedented permission to wed a wealthy industrialist's beautiful daughter and make her the first commoner empress in the Japanese royal house's 2,600-year tradition.

The Imperial Household Council unanimously approved his choice of Michiko Shoda, a graceful, athletic descendent of warrior stock whose father heads a large flour company.

Akihito will be 25 Dec. 23. Miss Shoda is 10 months younger.

Japanese greeted the news with restrained rejoicing. "Suteki!" — excellent, wonderful—was the almost universal reaction to the announcement, which had been anticipated for weeks.

Akihito and Michiko will become formally engaged early next year and wed next spring or autumn. As supreme Shinto priest of the land, Emperor Hirohito is expected to perform their marriage ceremony.

The engagement represented a major victory for the slender prince. He had stood his ground against stern opposition from the prewar peerage to win the lady he met on a tennis court and wooed mostly by telephone..

Emperors in the past have married of low rank but the title of empress was always withheld. That is no longer considered possible.

Premier Nobusuke Kishi presided over the 10-member Council, which by law has to approve the marriages of imperial princes. After the meeting he issued a statement saying in part: "Miss Shoda has great character and personality. It is indeed fitting she should be the bride of the crown prince in the new Japan. There are not adequate words to express our joy."

Some 90 minutes after the announcement, the bride-to-be, composed and beautiful, went with her parents to the imperial palace. Akihito presented her for the first time to the Emperor and Empress Nagako.

Later she told a televised news conference in a palace she thought her future mate "is a clean, sincere man I know I can respect."

Theirs was a storybook romance from start to finish and ended a six-year search for a suitable bride.

Akihito, 5 feet 4, is the prince charming of Japan's bobby soxers, a friendly young man with a ready grin. Michiko, 5 feet 2½, is the prototype of placid Japanese beauty.

He was the first crown prince to be educated in a regular college atmosphere and still studies with tutors. She graduated first in her class last year at exclusive Sacred Heart Academy, where she was dubbed "The Antelope Girl" for swiftness in tennis and other games.

They met on a tennis court 15 months ago at a summer resort north of Tokyo. For Akihito, it was love at first sight.

He photographed her, sent her prints, and arranged special tennis matches so they could see each other within the confines of imperial protocol which prohibited him dates. And he telephoned her constantly.

At first her family modestly refssed his offer of marriage on grounds of unworthiness. Two weeks ago they consented.

"I do love him," an intimate quoted Michiko as saying. . . . "His sincerity won me over."

Imperial chamberlains checked the Samurai background of the Shodas and Michiko's health, intelligence, deportment, popularity and size. They also inquired into her Roman Catholic education. She is not believed to have any professed religion but will have to become more familiar with the Shinto faith which Akihito will someday head.

To traditionalists, the engagement will not become formal until the young couple exchange gifts sometime early next year.

Navy Balloon Springs Leak

RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) — A Navy balloon, posed in a deep canyon for a high-altitude study of Mars, sprang a leak Wednesday afternoon and settled back to earth.

"I couldn't believe it," said a dejected Cmdr. Malcolm Ross, veteran Navy balloonist who was to have piloted the shimmering plastic bag to 80,000 feet.

The Navy said it will try again today, weather permitting.

Ross and Dr. John Strong, Johns Hopkins University astrophysicist, had climbed into their round aluminum gondola only 15 minutes earlier to await a takeoff that had been delayed more than two weeks by bad weather.

"We were just packing our Thanksgiving dinner into a compartment when it happened," Ross said.

A Navy spokesman said the plastic ruptured near a valve on top of the balloon. The balloon collapsed into a pile of plastic. The gondola had not been attached when the rupture occurred.

Nicky Hilton Weds College Student, 18

NEW YORK (AP) — Hotel heir Conrad (Nicky) Hilton Jr., former husband of actress Elizabeth Taylor, was married Wednesday night to Patrcia Blake McClintock.

The ceremony took place at the Plaza Hotel, operated by the groom's father. Only immediate members of the families were present.

Mrs. Hilton is the daughter of Mrs. Horace Schmidlapp of New York and Palm Beach, and Frank Grant McClintock of Tulsa, Okla.

Alaska Pitches Tent In Democratic Camp

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — The new state of Alaska had its tent pitched solidly in the Democratic camp today as the ballot counting from Tuesday's general election took a Thanksgiving Day recess.

The Democrats, turning the election into a landslide with the exception of the race for a major office, picked up both of Alaska's U.S. Senate seats, the state's lone seat in the U.S. House of Representatives and the governor's mansion. They won absolute control of Alaska's first State Legislature.

Leading the Democratic parade was Alaska's long-time, nonvoting delegate to Congress, E. L. (Bob) Bartlett, 54, who was a runaway winner over Republican R. E. Robertson and independent Keith Capper.

Bartlett, who has represented Alaska in Congress for the past 14 years, was figured to be a shoo-in. Neither Robertson nor Capper waged anything more than a token campaign. Bartlett won U.S. Senate Term A.

Ernest Gruening, a Democrat, was locked in a tight vote battle with Republican Mike Stepovich for Senate Term B. Both men are former appointed governors of the territory.

Gruening trailed Stepovich in the early counting Tuesday night, then picked up steam as returns from the traditionally Democratic Fairbanks-Anchorage area started coming in and moved out into a 1,000 to 1,500 lead he did not relinquish.

Stepovich refused to concede election to Gruening, 71, a native of New York City who was appointed governor in 1939. He stepped down in 1953. Stepovich was appointed governor by President Eisenhower in June 1957.

The lone seat in the House delegated to Alaska will be occupied by Ralph Rivers, 55, a former territorial attorney general who beat back the challenge of Republican Henry Benson, Alaska's commissioner of labor.

William Egan, the president of Alaska's constitutional convention, was chosen to become the 49th state's first elected governor.

A Valdez merchant, Egan, 44, whipped Republican John Butrovich Jr. and carried with him into office as Alaska's secretary of state Hugh J. Wade, 57.

Egan, like Gruening, was elected as an unofficial "senator" to promote statehood in the nation's capital. During the past two years they engineered the final drive to make the 49th star on the nation's flag Alaska's star.

The Democratic victory had been expected with the exception of Gruening's decision over the young and popular Stepovich, who at the age of 38 became the territory's first native-born governor.

The length of the terms Gruening and Bartlett will serve in the Senate will be determined by the Senate itself when it convenes in January. One will be assigned a six-year term, the other a two-year term.

The sweep in Alaska boosted the Democrats' majority in the Senate to 64-34 and gave them solid control of the House at 283-153.

Missing Minister Found In Casino

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A missing Baptist minister from Kansas, found working as a shill in a gambling casino, says: "I've never been happier. For the first time in my life I have peace of mind."

The Rev. Maurice D. Tulloch, 50, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Sabetha, Kan., vanished there two months ago. Located Wednesday at a downtown rooming house by a reporter, he said he abandoned his church and home to get away from his wife.

The minister said he came here to get a divorce because "I'm tired of my wife after 25 years," he added: "I left because I felt the walls closing in." He said he referred to his wife and the church.

For 18 years he had been a church troubleshooter, a pastor assigned to churches in financial or morale trouble in communities of 1,500 to 2,000.

Last Sept. 29, he said, he walked out in the middle of a church seminar and went to a bus station. He stood in line behind a woman he heard order a ticket to Las Vegas and, on the spur of the moment, ordered the same.

Arriving in this desert gambling resort, he had only $20 in his pocket. He asked a waitress if she knew of any work. She advised him to seek work as a shill —a casino employe who poses as a customer to drum up trade.

"I walked into the first casino I passed, told the boss I had never seen gambling and would like to learn, so he put me to work as a shill," he said.

"I'm going to write a book about gambling. It's fascinating, the characters you meet here."

He said he's also writing a book on "Practical Thinking for Christian People," which he described as a common-sense approach to world problems.

Spectacled, with graying, crewcut hair, the pastor looks closer to 40 than 50. He talked rationally and appeared healthy and in good spirits.

Tulloch said his wife Nellie, had been nervous and under a doctor's care. He has a son, 25, and a daughter, 19.

He said he had talked with his wife by telephone and she had asked him to return and start a new life. He said he told her that was impossible and he's happy now.

Tulloch earns $1 an hour, six or seven days a week. He said he still attends church —the Church of Christ—every Sunday.

He said he doesn't plan to continue working in the casino and has applied for a job with the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation at nearby Hoover Dam.

Nat'l Guard Plane Crashes

NEW YORK (AP)—An Air National Guard plane crashed into Jamaica Bay Wednesday while heading in to Floyd Bennett Field in Brooklyn. Two men died, one is missing, and a fourth was rescued.

The twin-engine C119, called a "Flying Boxcar," was attempting a radar-directed landing in rain and fog.

Recovered from the bay shortly after the crash were the bodies of Capt. Ramon Duke, 28, of Brooklyn, and 2nd Lt. David B. Hall, 29, of the Bronx.

The missing man was identified as Sgt. Ferdinand Roessner, 29, of Elmhurst, Queens.

Rescued by a police helicopter was Lt. Richard H. Westerberg, 22, of Brooklyn. Westerberg was picked up by a police helicopter rushed to the crash area. He was taken to St. Albans Naval Hospital Queens, where his condition was described as good.

The cause of the crash was not immediately determined.

Big Names Crop Up During Trial

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—The income tax evasion trial of Dave Beck Sr. was recessed for the Thanksgiving Day holiday after testimony which brought up the names of some of the nation's top labor leaders.

Miss Florence Ouska, bookkeeper for Chicago labor relations consultant Nathan Shefferman, told the federal court jury hearing Beck's case that six other high ranking union officials other than Beck made wholesale purchases through her employer.

Beck, former Teamsters Union international president, is accused of evading $240,000 in income taxes for 1950-53. The government told the jury Wednesday that Beck spent more than $101,000 of union funds in transactions with Shefferman.

Miss Ouska said that other customers of Sherrman's "I'll-buy-it-cluded George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO; Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers; Tom Flynn, a vice president of the Teamsters; John English, Teamsters treasurer; William Mullenholz, Teamsters comptroller; and the late William Green, former president of the AFL.

Comptroller's Aid Charged

AUSTIN (AP) — Jesse Mansfield, 58, a key supervisor in the state comptroller's office, was charged yesterday with misapplication of $13,014 in public funds.

Mansfield, an employe in the department since 1933 and a prominent leader among state employes, immediately posted $1,000 bond. He declined to comment.

Mansfield was an auditor in charge of issuing permits to retail outlets for special fuels.

Officials said the charges involved only one Austin service station which specializes in servicing trucks. They said the operator of the station apparently was not involved in the alleged misapplication.

The charges allege that the operator of the service station paid the state tax on motor fuel by making out checks payable directly to Mansfield. Investigators said they found the tax records for the service station had been removed from the regular file.

State Comptroller Robert Calvert said the alleged misapplication was covered by a $100,000 bond carried on all employes.

It Costs Money To Take Bankruptcy

HOUSTON (AP)—It costs money to go for broke, the president of one of Houston's oldest business college discovered yesterday.

Charles Caraway, seeking to file federal bankruptcy proceedings for the defunct school, was told that the filing fee was $45.

"I can't even pay my house rent that's due," he said. "I'm beginning to think you have to be pretty well off to go bankrupt."

To complicate matters, he learned that there is no provision in the law for a corporation to go bankrupt if it is flat broke, with no assets at all.

Discovery Logged 40 Miles Off Coast

HOUSTON (AP) — The CATC group of oil companies has brought in a discovery well of a new oil and gas field in the Gulf of Mexico some 40 miles off the Louisiana coast.

The discovery well, the Ship Shoal Bock 199 No. A-, Terrebonne Paris, already has logged multiple gas pays and one probable oil pay in sands in depths between 5,000 and 10,000 feet, Continental Oil, operator of the CATC group, said yesterday. Projected total depth of the well is 14,000 feet.

100 Employes Are Dismissed By Airlines

Mexico Hikes Gasoline Fee

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Gasoline prices were boosted today to help pay for the further development of the government-owned petroleum industry.

Increases on the two top grades were announced last night by Petroleos Mexicanos (Pemex), the government company.

The hike was announced on the heels of Senate passage Tuesday of an administration bill to cancel all outstanding concessions to private interests for production, refining and distribution of oil or gas.

The House was expected to approve the bill today and President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines, who asked for the legislation, is expected to sign it before he turns over office Monday to Adolfo Lopez Mateos.

The price of Mexico's top grade of gas will go up the equivalent of 3.2 U.S. cents a gallon to a total of 32 cents.

Medium grade gasoline is being upped 1.6 U.S. cents to 25.6 cents. The price of the lowest grade, used in trucks and older model cars, will remain the same, about 17.6 cents.
