FIFTY-SEVENTH YEAR

STUDENTS' CHOICES — Willie Wood, left, Mrs. Kate Watson and C. C. Westerman will head Pioneer-Liberty Ex-Students Association during the ensuing year.

Ex-Students Overflow Tabernacle In Pioneer

"Attendance at the annual Pioneer-Liberty Ex-Students Reunion surpassed all expectations," said Mrs. Kate Watson of this city, secretary of the organization.

The annual event, held last Thursday at Pioneer tabernacle, was billed to draw about 200 former teachers and students of the two schools, but Mrs. Watson reported, "They all showed up and more." She continued that the guest registrar could have missed some.

Senior former student present was Will Foster of Baird. He is 90. Others present hailed from such far-flung points as Nebraska, California, New Mexico, Oklahoma as well as from all over Texas.

President Hiram Foster of Blanket called the gathering to order and the Rev. Tom Flippin of Pioneer pronounced the invocation.

A business session followed in which Willie Wood of Cross Plains was elected president for the ensuing year. Carroll Westerman of Pioneer was picked vice-president and Mrs. Watson was again selected secretary.

Mrs. Jack (Hettie) Lacy, Sr., of Dallas delivered the main address, and recounted names, dates and events of days gone by in the Pioneer and Liberty areas.

The morning program was concluded with Mrs. Ethel King Brown leading the group in honoring of deceased ex-students. The Curry Trio, accompanied by Luther Forbes of Cross Plains and Lawson Cash of Baird, rendered a song in their honor.

Mrs. Shocklee wears western clothes more attractive than most. There's nothing rare, though, in his attire. His broad, belt has his name spelled across the back. Congratulations are due to other Riding Club members for the outstanding job they did in arranging the fine street parade Friday morning, opening the annual reunion of Callahan County's old settlers.

It would be impossible to adequately tribute to McDermott and his co-workers who prepared the 1,600 pounds of barbecue served old timers. Worked 26 hours straight cooking and serving the food and did a job which has been a credit to best caterers anywhere.

Free vacation time for about 500 local children. 'Tis but 10 until school bells peal heralding the beginning of a new term.

Buildings will present a new appearance to returning youngsters. Old, white windows have been replaced with modern-looking open-shutters and renewed, half-painted and the premises given a gay aspect.

Annual Steer Tour Set For August 28

Fourth annual Callahan County 4-H and F.F.A. tour, to view animals to be exhibited at the county livestock show in January, has been set for Aug. 28. Trippers will leave the courthouse in Baird at 7:30 a.m. and return there around 2:30 p.m. Forty calves, owned by 22 youths, will be seen on the tour. Refreshments will be served at several stops and all interested persons are invited to make the trip.

Latest givers are S. V. Webb $5, Mrs. Earl Smith $2, and the Old Time Gospel Mission $7.

Donations may be left or mailed to the Citizens State Bank in Cross Plains, earmarked for deposit to the piano fund. Partial payment has already been made on the instrument which is being housed at Colonial Oaks here.

2 Killed In Head-On Crash On Thursday

A grinding head-on automobile crash about 2 p.m. Thursday afternoon claimed the lives of Mrs. J. R. Loveless, 45, of Cross Plains and Brenda Simpson, 22, of De Leon, a music teacher in El Paso.

The accident, which occurred about six miles east of Rising Star on Farm Road 587 just below the crest of a small hill, injured Mrs. W. A. (Audrey) Gary of Abilene, daughter of Mrs. Loveless, and Mrs. Gary's two small sons, Timothy, 5, and Jim Weldon, 3, passengers in the Loveless car.

Mrs. Gary and her two sons were rushed to Hendrick Memorial Hospital at Abilene following a short stop at the Rising Star Hospital. She, the former Sue Loveless, suffered a fractured jaw and left ankle and forehead and facial lacerations. Timothy was treated for multiple lacerations and bruises of the head. Jim Weldon was treated Thursday afternoon for small cuts and released.

Surgery Forthcoming

Jim Weldon, younger of the two boys, was released Sunday from the hospital and returned home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Gary of Rowden.

The elder Mrs. Gary said that her daughter-in-law was to have surgery for resetting of the broken jaw. It had been tentatively set for Wednesday.

Collide Near Home

The wreck occurred near the home of Newman Jones who said that he got to the scene immediately after the accident happened.

He said that the vehicles hit near the middle of the road and stopped where they hit. The Simpson car, a 1964 Chevrolet, was headed west and the Loveless auto, a 1965 Oldsmobile, was going east.

Mrs. Loveless and her family were enroute to Dallas to attend the wedding of a niece Thursday night. Miss Simpson, who was alone, was enroute back to her school teaching position in El Paso.

An unidentified De Leon city policeman at the scene placed the time of the accident at 2 p.m. He found a lady's wrist watch near the Loveless car which had stopped at that time.

The top of the Chevrolet convertible and the left door had to be pried apart before the Simpson woman's body could be removed from the wreckage.

Investigating officer was Highway Patrolman Nolan Crow of Comanche and assisted by Bill Vineyard of Cross Plains. The mishap happened just inside Comanche County. Law officers from several other nearby cities reported to the scene.

Funeral Service

Final rites for Mrs. Loveless were held at the First Methodist Church in this city Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial was in a Plano cemetery.

The Rev. Jimmie Mobley of DeSoto, former local Methodist pastor, officiated.

Mrs. Loveless, born Sept. 23, 1920, at Paris, Tex., was married Oct. 16, 1940, at Vernon.

She was an active worker in Methodist Church here and in the local Little League program. She was employed in the lunchroom at Cross Plains schools.

Survivors include her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Gary, one son, Jackie, 9, of the home, and two grandchildren.

Pallbearers, all of Cross Plains, were Lewis Fortune, Oran Bains, Lester Wyatt, R. C. Brown, Jr., Parker Baum and Eulless A. Parker.

3,000 Old Settlers At Reunion Here

"It's the biggest one we've ever had," Mrs. B. L. Boydston said of the 27th annual Callahan County Old Settlers Reunion held in Cross Plains last Friday.

An estimated 3,000 county pioneers and their descendants attended the yearly one-day affair.

Boydston of Baird who helped with the registering of settlers, said, "We ran out of name badges and ribbons, and I estimate that we registered between 550 and 600." Mrs. Boydston then joined in saying, "It's the biggest one we've ever had; we've always had name plates and ribbons left before."

Cool and cloudy weather was the order of the day to which some of the organization's officials contributed the unusually large attendance by pioneers.

Rising Star Wins

The day opened with a parade in the downtown section of this city. Approximately 200 horsemen from four riding clubs participated, along with various entries from Cross Plains business houses and organizations.

Rising Star Riding Club claimed first place in the competition. Cisco riders took second and the Callahan County Sheriff's Posse of Baird was third. Cross Plains had the largest contingent of horsemen but were not eligible for prizes.

Alex Shocklee of Cross Plains and president of the local riding club served as parade marshal.

At 10 a.m. the morning's formal program began under direction of masters-of-ceremony B. H. Freeland and James Paul Shanks of Baird and Randall Jackson of Abilene.

After a group singing session led by Dorothy Boydston Harper of Abilene, J. R. Black, Jr. of Abilene gave the invocation. Jack Scott, president of the group of Cross Plains, welcomed the pioneers and Cross Plains Mayor Doyle Burchfield gave the response.

1,600 Eat Barbecue

Freeland led the crowd in silent tribute to deceased pioneers, just prior to the introduction of the principal speaker by Shanks.

Meade F. Griffin, associate justice of the Texas Supreme Court and a native of Cottonwood, delivered the address. He recounted early days at Cottonwood and paid tribute to county pioneers in discussing blessings of rural life.

A free barbecue lunch at noon drew an estimated 1,600 persons. Ribbon wearing old settlers were served first from a special line.

Hugh McDermott and County Commissioner Duke Mitchell headed the luncheon committee. Donors from all over the county and several other sections of the state contributed $572 for the barbecue.

At 2 o'clock the afternoon session began with group singing and music, followed by introduction of special guests.

Special Awards

Jackson introduced and presented special ribbons to old timers distinguishing themselves in 13 categories.

T. A. (Bud) Nunn of Cross Plains was proclaimed the earliest cowboy in the county. He came to Callahan in 1894.

Charlie Yost of Oplin claimed two titles, earliest pioneer man and earliest pioneer man with continuous residence in county. He came here in 1878.

WHEREAS, The Legislature finds and declares that there is a need for the operation of hospitals by private charitable enterprises which will furnish free medical and/or hospital care for the indigent in Texas; and

WHEREAS, The operation of such hospitals and the furnishing of such free medical care and hospitalization for the indigent in Texas will add to the welfare and well-being of the State of Texas and its residents and citizens; and

WHEREAS, The need for the operation of such hospitals and the furnishing of such free medical care and hospitalization for the indigent is especially great in counties having a population in excess of one million two hundred forty thousand (1,240,000); and

WHEREAS, It is found and declared to be the Public Policy of the State to foster and encourage such operation of hospitals as aforesaid; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. The Constitution of the State of Texas is amended hereby, by the addition of a new Section to Article VIII thereof, to be numbered Section 2-A, and reading as follows:

Sec. 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

Yes - We Have No Spittoons Today

Due to the tremendous demand for my used spittoons, I am completely sold out and could have sold another hundred of them. Even my wife had two of these spittoons put away on my lay-away plan, and now I am wondering. She does not dip snuff and I do not chew tobacco, will some of you readers call me and tell me what she wanted with them?

I have not been able to buy any used coffins or large sizes of corsets and girdles, but I still have hopes. I could use a few cooling boards and I have a supply of crutches and stretchers, bed pans and other necessities.

I still have lots of new Westinghouse metal kitchen cabinets, also used electric ice boxes, deep freeze units, and furniture of every kind, some of which is so old that it stinks. I have about 50 inner-spring mattresses in regular and 3/4 sizes, also beds and framed springs. These mattresses are extra large and built for extra rough use. They are especially recommended for the newly-weds who want something that will still be good when they have grandchildren.

I am busier than a tom cat on a hot tin roof. I am plugging two 2,800-foot wells and will have for sale about 8,400 feet of 1 1/4-inch upset tubing, some 2,500 feet of 7-inch, 20-pound lap-weld casing, about 2,000 feet of 8 1/2-inch, 28-pound lap-weld, and some 2,700 feet of 5 1/2-inch, 17-pound LW casing, also I am taking up some 60,000 feet of 4-inch line pipe part of which will be plain end and the other screw type.

I would like to purchase a few dog houses, large enough to accommodate a medium-sized hen-pecked husband.

Do you realize that at the present time that for a few dollars you could completely refurbish that cabin you have on the lake? I have woolen rugs, gas stoves, both ranges and space heaters in all sizes. I have cressers, writing tables, wash stands, chairs, both straight and upholstered, and just most anything you might want in your cabin. And I will sell them to you for just a fraction of their cost.

All sizes of beds, mattresses and springs. Why wait longer to completely refurbish that cabin or tenant house.

For further convenience I have the old faithful sloop jars which will stand in well for a substitute Chick Sales.

I have ice boxes, deep freeze units, bassinets, and almost anything you could possibly use, if we can find it. I have a lot of stuff that no one could use, but it is for sale anyhow.

Trash, trinkets and treasurers, antique furniture, which is mostly junk, but come in and look around anyhow.

Remember, I do not expect to open my store on Mondays. As soon as I can catch up, I expect to buy rags, bones and bottles, mostly non-returnable beer bottles.

Bowling Club Slates Session Friday Night

Charles Waggoner, president of the Cross Plains Mixed League, local bowling club, has called a meeting of the group for Friday night at 7:30 in the dining room of Sisters Cafe.

All officers and team captains from last year's league are especially urged to be present. "We hope for a large turn-out," Waggoner said yesterday, "for there is much to be done before reorganization can be accomplished."

Winter league play is scheduled to begin Thursday, Sept. 9.

News Of Former Residents

Mrs. Homer Robinson of Grand Prairie, the former Patsy Parrish of Cross Plains, writes to suggest that a homecoming of former students of Cross Plains High School be scheduled this year.

She writes as follows: "Everytime I see someone from Cross Plains, the conversation will inevitably run into 'What do you hear from the ole gang?' 'Do you ever see any of the ole bunch?' 'Wouldn't it be fun to have a Homecoming and see some of the ole crowd and rehash ole times?' Well — wouldn't it? Wouldn't it be fun to see ole classmates, broadened waistlines, thinned hairlines, and all? Wouldn't it be nice to see that passel of lovely children who have made serious, stern parents out of a class of clowns? or the school beauty? or the star athlete?"

Most everyone we know heads "home" during the Fall with great anticipation to attend his annual school Homecoming, some driving as far as Indiana, Ohio and Missouri. We have found that most everyone will attend a high school homecoming over a college homecoming any time. We talk about this every year but each year as our friends wave and drive off ecstatically to attend their respective homecomings and school functions, we, from Cross Plains, sit back in bewildered wonderment and apathy, and think, "Wouldn't it be fun?"

Last week a letter was received from S/Sgt. and Mrs. Billy G. Woody, both former Cross Plains residents, who are now living in England where he is stationed with the U. S. Air Force. Enclosed was a check for renewal of their subscription to the Review. Mrs.

Woody wrote, "We don't want to miss any of the home town news so we are enclosing a check to renew our subscription for another year." She continued, "We will be returning home next May."

Another letter was received from Charlie C. O'Neal of Roswell, N. M. He also enclosed a check for two subscriptions, one for himself and one for Ella E. Wasson, the former Ella Scott, both formerly of Pioneer.

He wished the Review to convey his greetings to all his old friends at Pioneer and the surrounding territory. He related that his parents and 10 children left this area in October, 1910, for a homestead in New Mexico and stopped to say good-bye to the Scotts. "I lost track of them for the next 52 years," he writes, "but with the help of Mrs. Grace Eakin, former secretary of the Pioneer School Association, I located them."

Last year, he writes, my wife and I visited Ella and her husband in Blue River, Ore., and in June of this year visited for a few days with the former Clara Scott and her husband in Coolidge, Ariz. He related, "We had a wonderful time reliving school days at Pioneer where we all attended school long ago."
