Column Right

South, Newell P. Sherman, was arrested for drowning his wife, and of two children. Infatuated another woman was the cause. Taking her boat riding tipped over the boat, and washing the woman away she tried to catch hold of the vessel. Finally, exhausted, she sank and drowned. Questioned by police, Sherman stated that he had listened to the hymn, "We're a little bit in hymns, but are curious about its name. Couldn't be out the Lifeline" or "The Perishing."

These hogs have reached the price in years. That the average wage when he visits his but-ter better inquire about the pork chops, before his gets the better of his set.

El Paso Times is running a series of articles, entitled "He's a band," by wives of great great notables. Gives an idea. Soon we'll be running a series entitled "My Husband, But Other Want Him."

Regan is one of Peabody Products, "chortles" the head-purveyor of the Here column in the El Paso Times. Wrong again. Ken of the meekest, easiest-to-lead-to-see-you, and call names we've ever sent to there's not a proud fiber in the system, and he is the few senators who has judgment to serve his place instead of words—place of promises.

Old friend "Bull" Bodkin into the drug store night last hunting "mosquito" and anked out with a bottle enough to hold enough all the mosquitoes in the But he opined he'd use it one night. "You never get mosquitoes," he said, "in the kitchen door, it at it and it bit me."

Some of the news that sev-erist judges are involved in investigation involving the widow, deceased, we read of a case where the challenging a prospective "do you know what the estate is?" "I said the man; it's what the lawyers get through."

Latest thing in milady's is the "halo" hat. A named affair, with black and the brim starting out of turning white about from the outer edge. It look like pictures of a woman by folk who never aged. Well, ladies, better one of these halos while a chance. The future certain for all of us.

Hugh Johnson, taking relief work in the big New York, modestly asks not to expect miracles. General! We expect an who hatched a blue ring the nation's worst when even the hen's ideas hold out widow spiders are found filthy corners. No bites reported in Sanderson or has anyone seen one lately. Now we're in a "Don't know whether it's out of the cleanliness of we're so onery the wide-bit."

The president was heckled and the man. The helpings of disgruntled would be funny were the damaging influence the people who look to leadership. Well, the how coming, may-ically they seemed to end beyond redemption, end of the second F. D. stration there won't be them left for seed.

AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL, HERE IN THE WEST!

Tom Shafer, local saddleman and worker in leather, threatened to out-Burbank Luther Burbank this week—and is still a little suspicious that there's a strong scent in Denmark, and an Ethiopian in the woodpile.

For weeks Tom has been religiously cultivating a volunteer watermelon vine that nosed out near his shop. Tuesday, tending to it, imagine his surprise when he discovered a full grown kershaw clinging to the melon vine—or what should have been a melon vine. Excitedly he ran to the backyard to see if his tomato vine had gone haywire, also. But it was ok, except where the day before there wasn't even a bloom, there, in plain sight, was a nice, rosy-hued tomato, which investigation showed to be grown from a pine stick. Tom is worried. All his time is now spent in trips to the vines. "Won't be surprised to see cucumbers on them any day," he said.

Funds Sought for Improving Dryden Airport

Application for funds in the sum of $138,625 has been made to the Work Relief Administration at Washington, for an improvement program at Dryden airport.

Contemplated improvements at the port include extension of the present landing field, erection of new building, paved runways and aprons, extension of the gasoline storage facilities, modern radio, and a new hangar of masonry construction.

For the rehabilitation of Fort D. A. Russell at Marfa, which will be regarrisoned in the fall, funds in the sum of $150,490 are asked. Contemplated improvements at that point include new barracks, ordnance shop, landscaping of the grounds, roads, repair to tracks of railroad, utilities systems, and an airfield.

Trustees Discuss Plans for School Opening, Sept. 2

At a meeting of the school board held Tuesday morning of this week the members were unanimous in deciding that all children reaching the age of six years before January 1st, 1936, will be eligible to attend our school during the full 1935-36 term, provided such children are enrolled on the opening day of school.

Monday, September 2, was the tentative date set for the opening of the Sanderson public schools. These announcements were made Tuesday from the office of Supt. R. D. Holt.

At the board meeting the members also received and accepted the resignation of Miss Phyllis Matlock, teacher of home economics. This makes the second resignation sent in since the close of the 1934-35 term. The other was from Miss Corinne Fox, who was principal of the high school. Miss Fox had taught in our high school for several years. She has accepted an offer to teach in one of the Dallas city schools.

The vacancy left by the marriage of Miss Barker shortly after the close of school, has been filled, the Times was informed, and at the present time there exists three vacancies—two in the high school, and one as primary teacher in the Mexican school.

Supt. Holt has promised the Times a full list of all teachers and their assignments as soon as they have been elected and their contracts signed.

TO OPEN ROOMING HOUSE

E. A. Blount, manager of the Irish cafe, left for El Paso Wednesday to purchase furnishing for a rooming house. He has rented and is furnishing the house recently vacated by Mrs. Harry Sharp.

(2)—Scene in army recruiting station in New York city as the army began the drive to increase its size by the addition of 46,250 enlisted men. (3)—Miss Fannie Megahee, queen of the Colquitt county annual watermelon festival in Georgia, presenting to White House Secretary McIntyre a prize winning melon for President Roosevelt.

Weigand Station Will Handle the Sinclair Products

F. M. Weigand, who recently purchased the McCright service station on the corner of Oak and First streets, was this week appointed whole and retail agent for Sinclair gasoline and oils and on Monday of this week made the change at his station. Texas products were handled at this station before the purchase.

Mr. Weigand will also handle Goodrich tires and tubes, Pennsylvania tires, Willard batteries, and the auto accessory line that was handled by Mr. McCright.

The station also advertises first-class service in greasing and car washing, prompt service in repairing flat tires.

Church of Christ Revival Closes Sunday Night

Evangelist R. E. Griffith and family arrived the latter part of last week from Houston and are spending this week in Sanderson with friends, while Bro. Griffith is conducting a series of gospel meetings at the Church of Christ.

Good crowds are in attendance at the services being held twice daily—at 10 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the services for the remainder of the week, and enjoy the forceful and interesting sermons by Bro. Griffith. Subjects for the closing sermons of the meeting are as follows: Sunday, 11 a. m. "What Is a Glorious Church?" At 8:15: "The Last Journey."

SOFT BALL

Much interest is being taken in softball games being played here. Games are played every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon between teams from the highway crew and the town. These games are being played on the athletic field behind the McKnight Motor company.

A woman's team was being organized Wednesday, but it was not learned whether or not enough members were secured for a full team.

LT. WILLIAM LEA

A letter to the home folk from William Lea, who is attending the citizens military training camp at Camp Bullis, contained the good news that he had passed all required tests, and received his commission as 2nd lieutenant, reserves. William has attended the camp for several years, is studious, and his promotion, we feel sure, was the result of merit.

EXPECTED HOME SOON

Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, who has been confined in a San Antonio hospital for some time, following a major operation, is reported recuperating nicely, and is expected to return home soon.

Venezuela Honors Major of Marines

Maj. Chester L. Fordney, U. S. Marines (left), who is on duty in Chicago as commanding officer of the Central Reserve area, has just been decorated by the republic of Venezuela with the "Medallo de Honor, de Instruccion Publica." The medal was presented to the major by Senor R. Carlos Lebrer (right), consul of Venezuela in Chicago, at a dinner in the Adventurers' club. The decoration was awarded in recognition of the scientific results of the Settle-Fordney stratosphere ascension in 1933, of which Major Fordney was the scientific observer.

Aged Mexican Adjudged Insane Taken to Home

An aged Mexican, who had been confined in the local jail for several weeks, was recently adjudged insane, and on Tuesday of this week was taken to San Antonio by Sheriff Lee Cook, and placed in the State Hospital in that city.

The man was found at Thurston, drawing attention when he made several attempts to enter section houses, and had attacked several men.

Since his detention officers have been unable to ascertain his name, where he came from or where he had been employed. All efforts to obtain information were met by the declaration that he wanted food and water.

During the last few days of his confinement here the man became violent and attacked one of the prisoners.

CREAM AND BLUE PLATES

Next year's passenger automobile license plates will be cream colored with blue numerals and lettering. Truck license plates will have the colors reversed. At the bottom of plates where the word "Texas" now appears there will be the word "Centennial," while "Tex" will be stamped horizontally in center of the plate.

GETS GOOD RAIN

Alexander Mitchell was in town the first of the week and reported he received a good rain over most of his range Monday night. Creeks and draws were running big as he came in early Tuesday morning. This was the first good rain on part of his range.

AVIATION AT STANDSTILL IN TERRELL

Terrell county has one of the best airports in west Texas; but we never had a local ship. All planes to the Dryden field were transient—here today and gone tomorrow. Surrounding counties, every one of them has ships owned locally. Why not Terrell? The question seemed settled when Bill Stevens journeyed to St. Louis and returned last week with a one-seater. After minor repairs trials were made on Tuesday of this week, and pronounced okay. And all would have been oke had not Homer, son of Sgt. Richardson, got an ambition to soar to the azure blue. But "Porky" never got off the ground; instead he had an argument with the family wash-line the plane coming out second in the melee—a broken propeller, and wing stripped of fabric.

So, as stated, aviation in Terrell county is at a standstill!

July Term Of District Court to Convene Monday

The July term of district court will meet in Sanderson next Monday morning and is scheduled to continue for three weeks. However, in view of the light docket, it is doubtful if the session will run the full three weeks, and providing the grand jury does not bring in several indictments for immediate trial.

On the criminal docket are several cases which have been continued from term to term. Other cases on the criminal docket are hanging fire due to those indicted leaving for parts unknown before warrants could be served.

On the civil docket, aside from several divorce cases, are only two scheduled for hearing. These are as follows: F. B. Swift, et al., vs. J. Calvin Stansell et al., suit to foreclose on vendor's lien and to try title; and the Southern Underwriters vs. Charlie Caruthers, suit to set aside judgment.

List of grand and petit jurors will be found in another column of this issue.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Mallory were visitors in Carlsbad Saturday, and to the Carlsbad caverns. From there they motored to El Paso and spent Sunday and Monday. Upon their return home Monday Mrs. Mallory was stricken with an attack of appendicitis. They left for San Antonio that night and Mrs. Mallory was operated upon Tuesday.

IT'S WORTH A LOOK

Mrs. W. J. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Mary, returned home Tuesday after a month's stay in Kerrville, where they helped stave off homesickness from Billy, who is attending summer term at Schreiner. As a peace offering they brought Mr. Ferguson a picture of a young man which could, without exaggeration, be labeled "Optimism." Bill declares it is his picture at the age of 14, but, while there is some resemblance, it's hard to believe he was such a handsome swain. "Until that picture was taken I had never been kissed." But every one looking at the broad grin—from ear to ear, is ready to swear he had just been kissed at least twice by the prettiest girl in the community.

Old Camp Fawcett, the mecca of boys scouts of the Southwest Council of Texas, will again ring with merry shouts of this care-free group on next Thursday morning, August 1—the date set for the opening of camp, and already more than one hundred scouts have indicated they would be on hand for the opening.

According to information received here this week, the cooks have been secured, the camp well and the water have been tested, and the huge pump that furnishes 350,000 gallons of pure, crystal water is hittin' on all six, supplying water for the famous Ol' Swimmin' Hole.

"Think of it!" the letter continues, "over 100 will be with us this year. The 'Singing Scouts' from up Lamesa way will be with us again; and they are bringing a lot of campfire surprises. An entire scout troop moving to the Garner Park CCC have several Eagle scouts, some of whom will want to camp with us. Yes, sir, we are going to have a real camp—one seven-day period, a four-day period—11 days in all. It requires the full eleven days to finish the official Red Cross Life Saving course. The camp fee is 75 cents per day.

There will be scouts from practically every county in the Council, with experienced scoutmasters in charge. The boys will be strictly supervised, and disciplined, but there will be no damper put on activities of beneficial or entertaining nature. It will be a gathering of fine, clean boys, being drilled in principles that will build the foundation for their future—as useful citizens.

This week the local American Legion post and the Rotary club combined on plans that will permit members of the Sanderson scout troop to take advantage of the Scout Camp for the seven-day period. Early this week five local boy scouts had signified their intention of attending.

Scouts who wish to attend the camp are requested to see Mr. Creigh BEFORE Thursday morning, August first. Full information will be given, and all scouts who can make the trip are requested to be at Mr. Creigh's office by 5 o'clock Thursday morning, August 1st, where transportation, supplied by the two organizations, will be waiting.

Each scout making the trip must bring his camp fees of 75c per day, or $5.25 for the 7 days.

WILL ATTEND RODEO

Quite a number of Sanderson folk left Thursday for the Charlie Chandler ranch on Independence where they will attend the fourth annual ranchman's reunion and rodeo, being held today and tomorrow.

A good time is assured all who attend this celebration for, in addition to the usual rodeo events, many other diversions will be offered, the highlights being a big dance each night on a specially built platform. A large crowd from various sections of west Texas has attended this reunion each year it has been held.

RAINFALL HERE FOR THE PAST WEEK

Rainfall here for the past week, up until Thursday morning, totaled 1.44 inches. A light drizzle fell most of the day Thursday and will be of much benefit to the ranges.

Rain has been pretty general over the county with some sections receiving more than others. Heavy rains were reported north of Dryden Monday night, and the Bullis Gap country received nice rains the first of the week.

Heavy rains near Uvalde and D'Harris on Wednesday sent streams in that section out of banks, and blocked road and rail traffic for several hours. Good rains were reported this week all the way from San Antonio to Del Rio.

Heavy rains west and north-west of here Sunday afternoon tied up traffic on the Ft. Stockton-Sanderson highway when the Downie draw, about 14 miles north, came down on a big rise.

The Lowdown on the Amendments

NOTE—The Times, with the full cooperation of Gerald C. Mann, Secretary of State presents herewith a digest of Constitutional Amendments to be voted on at the special election in August. They are presented solely that our readers may acquaint themselves with the provisions thereof, and with the distinct understanding that the Times or Mr. Mann is not to be placed in the position of opposing or endorsing any of them.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 Repeal of Liquor Prohibition

Probably chief interest in the August 24th election on the seven proposed amendments to the constitution will center on Proposition 3 on the ballot—the repeal of Prohibition, according to Secretary of State, Gerald C. Mann. The Constitution, at present, prohibits the sale, manufacture and transportation of alcoholic liquors (except 3.2 beer). This prohibition would be stricken out by the adoption of the Repeal Amendment. The proposed amendment specifically prohibits the return of the open saloon—and it would be up to the legislature to define the term "open saloon."

No machinery is set up for the sale of liquor. The legislature would have the authority to determine just who and just how liquor is to be sold. This could be done by State monopoly or through private channels. The legislature would have the authority to pass laws regulating local option elections. If the amendment is adopted all counties, cities and precincts that were dry in 1919 when state wide prohibition was adopted would be dry now—at least until local option elections were held to determine otherwise.

It is well to remember, Secretary Mann points out, that there will be an election next year in November to determine whether the State shall sell liquor thru monopoly system. If the repeal amendment is adopted in August the State MAY establish a State control and monopoly system. If the repeal amendment is defeated in August, it will in effect be submitted again in Nov. 1936, in the State Monopoly amendment which says that the State SHALL have a liquor monopoly. To retain the present dry status both the August 24th Amendment and the November, 1936, Amendment must be defeated. Passage of either will repeal the present prohibition section of the Constitution.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

WHEN Uncle Sam presented his bills to European nations for the 13 billions of dollars in war debts they owed him after the smoke of battle had cleared away they called him "Shylock." Shylock, according to Shakespeare, was a merciless money-lender who exacted a pound of flesh.

UNCLE SAM A SHYLOCK? Everyone knows that the charge "Shylock" was not appropriate in this case, because Uncle Sam hasn't collected either the money he loaned in good faith or the pound of flesh. Failing to collect either on the other side of the ocean, however, Uncle Sam has confined his lending operations to folks at home who were wiped out of cash by the long, lean years of depression. And right now the American people owe him almost as much as European nations did at the close of the World War.

Specifically, Uncle Sam now has over 4,000,000 actual loans outstanding in this country which total over nine billion dollars. Every field of life in this fair land is covered by his generous lending, including farming, homes, banks, railroads, factories, shipping, etc. While the Home Owners Loan Corporation and the Farm Credit Administration have put out many millions, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) is the greatest lending agency of them all and of all time. During its life, since Feb. 1932, the RFC has made loans totaling more than $9,500,000,000. Of this amount more than half has already been repaid. Concerning these repayments Chairman Jesse H. Jones recently said: "I don't want any better evidence of the stability of our country than the fact that we have been repaid more than half of the loans made since its (RFC) organization."

About two billions of the huge works-relief fund is scheduled to be loaned to the states and municipalities to help them in a wide variety of works designed to put the unemployed back to work. Despite all this unprecedented lending, however, the rate at which the loans are being repaid indicates that Uncle Sam will receive much better treatment for his generosity at home than he received and is receiving for his late efforts to make the world safe for democracy. Although he has loaned all these billions no one has as yet dared or can call him a Shylock, because of the unprecedented low interest rates and exceedingly lenient terms.—The Pathfinder.

Churches

METHODIST CHURCH
"Fool or Hero?" will be the subject of the sermon Sunday morning. If you had a summer afternoon at your disposal, a vine-clad porch, a comfortable chair, a pitcher of tinkling cool liquid at your side, would you pick out the book of Jeremiah to read? We read novels or visit pictures to see how character is depicted. In Jeremiah is a real character struggling amid real difficulties.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Helpful Household Hints

By BETTY WEBSTER

DO YOU KNOW:
THAT—Lead pencils of different colors are most convenient to have at hand for making dress patterns? For, as you know, the black pencil—which is usually the only one available—does not mark any but white materials so that the impressions are legible?

THAT—Crepes de chine, crepe, georgette, chiffon, or any soft silk material may be hemmed—without pulling—on a sewing machine if a piece of paper is stitched in the seam and removed when the stitching is completed?

THAT—Window shades which are worn beyond use at one end may be turned, tacked on the roller, then hemmed with a long stitch on the machine at the other end to hold the flat stick and appear as good as new?

A "Cooling" Finger Bowl
To give a finishing touch of coolness and luxury to perfect table service put a very little lemon or rose extract in the finger bowls.

To Keep Pumps From Slipping
To keep your pumps from slipping at the heel paste a piece of velvet in the back of each shoe, or sew a piece of elastic (about a quarter or an inch wide) at the top of each heel. I think the elastic is better, but a great many people disagree; so, use your own judgment.

Makes For Better Flavor
A French custom, nice to know, is that of flavoring with a few drops of vanilla the cream which is to be put on berries or any sort of cut-up fruit, such as bananas, peaches, or prunes. This adds tremendously to the delicacy of the flavor.

RECIPES
Eight Minute Icing
Beat the whites of two eggs a little. Add a pinch of salt and a pinch of cream of tartar and beat until stiff. Add one cup of sugar and 3 tablespoons of cold water. Put mixture in a double boiler and beat with Dover beater for eight minutes as it cooks or until it can be raised to a point from a spoon. This makes a thick and smooth frosting for any cake and never fails.

Fairy Froth
4 egg whites
1 cup of sugar
1 teaspoon of vinegar
1 tablespoon of vanilla
Pinch of cream of tartar
Salt
Beat the egg whites until stiff and dry; sift in sugar, a little at a time; add cream of tartar, salt, vinegar and vanilla. Place mixture in greased dish and set it in pan of boiling water; bake fifty minutes in a slow oven. Serve with whipped cream, fresh strawberries, pineapple or any other fruit.

William Powell encounters the most baffling mystery of his entire career in "Star of Midnight" which will be shown at the Princess Theatre tonight and Saturday, July 26 and 27, in RKO-Radio's glamorous romance with a modern New York setting. As compensation for the difficulty of the case, he has peppery, titian tressed Ginger Rogers as his assistant in clue tracing.

Big Attendance Attend Lecture At Fort Davis

About one hundred thirty people, many from out of town, attended the Public Night program at the Ft. Davis high school last Saturday night.

Dr. F. E. Roach, astronomer at McDonald Observatory, gave a very interesting lecture on astronomy and showed slides to illustrate the talk.

After the lecture those present were invited to drive to Mount Locke where they were permitted to view the moon, planets and the heavens through the 12-inch telescope. Many made the drive, but were unable to see much, due to a cloudy sky.

Dr. Roach announces he will give another lecture at the public night, Aug. 10th. The same plan will be followed as in July. His lecture will be given at the Fort Davis high school auditorium—starting promptly at 8 p. m. Lantern slides will illustrate his talk. Those who care to may drive to the summit of Mt. Locke at the conclusion of the lecture and view the moon.

In order to defray the expenses of this program everyone will be charge a dime for admission. Under this plan every one who desires to attend may do so. Otherwise only a few people could be accommodated.

Visitors are asked not to go to the observatory until the lecture is over, as there will be no one there to receive them.—Ft. Davis Dispatch.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

Austin.—Five prisoners, overcome by terrific heat on Texas prison farms, died last week. Their names may be added to the roll of 20 who have died similarly in the last few years. Eventually, public opinion will be sufficiently aroused to do something to modernize the antiquated and inhuman system of handling prisoners in Texas. These deaths, while they will give opportunity for maudlin sentimentalists to sound off, probably will not affect much change in public opinion, which is a slow process. In England thousands of children died at the hands of brutal almshouse keepers, without affecting any change in the lethargy of the public about the system. But Charles Dickens, with an inspired pen and a passionate devotion to the task, roused England in a few years, and forever abolished inhuman treatment of paupers and their children. Lee Simmons, able manager of the prison system, has corrected many of its administrative weaknesses. But any system that permits ill-conditioned prisoners to be sent to their deaths in broiling Texas summer temperatures needs a Charles Dickens to write about it.

Cynics who believe that the high fidelity of public trust, which marked officials of a bygone generation has disappeared, and that the tentacles of entrenched wealth reach even into the sanctum of justice and influences those who are supposed to render judgments between men, received a rude shock last week. The Third Court of Civil Appeals at Austin, rendered, in the case of the Lone Star Gas Co., vs. the Texas Railroad Commission, an opinion which the best legal minds in Texas are hailing as one of the most noteworthy in the annals of Texas jurisprudence. The opinion, written by Justice M. P. Blair, sparkles with the brilliance of its sound reasoning, it commensurate application of the facts and the law. In upholding the railroad commission's power to fix public utility rates and sustaining the reduction of 32 cents per 1000 cubic feet gate rate in 300 Texas cities, the court approved the railroad commission's procedure in consolidating the various individual cities' protests, thus removing one of the utilities' most effective weapons. Few cities can stand the expense, individually, of a legal battle over rates with a huge corporation. But many cities with their claims combined and the state behind them have at least an opportunity to have those claims heard in court, and avoid being crushed by the sheer weight of the opposition's financial resources. The Lone Star Gas Co. has indicated it will appeal the case to the State Supreme Court, and if possible, to the U. S. Supreme Court. So the fight goes on. But the people of Texas, regardless of the final outcome, won a notable victory in the Austin Court of Appeals.

Politics still beset the Texas Centennial. Naming an advertising advisory committee, to have direction of the expenditure of the $500,000 state advertising fund for the Centennial, Walter Woodul, lieutenant governor, selected a railroad executive, a department store manager, a lobbyist for the sulphur company. The Dallas News explains that no advertising or newspaperman was selected, because "the presence of active journalists on the committee would have tended to sway the group toward the impracticable policy of frittering away the advertising appropriation" by buying space with the money. Many advertising and newspaper people thought that was what the legislature appropriated the advertising money for. The News recommends, instead, that Chicago's example be followed, and all of the advertising money be spent for high-powered press agents to send out "accurate and attractive news of the Centennial" to be published free by the newspapers that cheerfully published such material during the past year, when the Centennial had no advertising funds. The Central Exposition management at Dallas has indicated its faith in this policy, by hiring a crew of press agents, headed by an expert from San Diego, to send out Centennial "news." This group is also considering bidding for South American attendance at the Centennial by backing an airplane arc around that continent at a cost of $100,000, with Elliott Roosevelt, son of the president, as manager of this advertising pro-

Noted Cowboy Campmeeting to Start August 13

The famous Bloys campmeeting will hold its 46th annual meeting in beautiful Skillman Grove, beginning August 13th, and closing August 20th, according to the Ft. Davis Dispatch. This is the original and long-time famous Cowboys' campmeeting.

More than a quarter of a century ago an organization was formed, composed of four denominations, Baptists, Presbyterians, Methodists and Disciples, and ranchmen desiring to honor and perpetuate the name of W. B. Bloys, D. D., the founder and for nearly thirty years the beloved leader of this notable and far-reaching enterprise, incorporated under the name of the Bloys Camp Meeting Association. This occurred fifteen years prior to the death of Mr. Bloys.

A section of land, including the historic Skillman Grove, was purchased and set aside as a permanent home for this original Cowboys' campmeeting. It is 17 miles west of Fort Davis, 24 miles east of Valentine, 20 miles north of Marfa, the nearest railroad point. There is not a more beautiful, inspiring spot in the majestic Davis mountains. The altitude being approximately 6,000 feet, warmer apparel than is required at lower points should be available.

Camping sites, wood, water and lights are free to everybody. There are no stores on the ground—the nearest purchasing point being Fort Davis, 17 miles. Hence visitors should bring camping outfits with necessary accompaniments. Nothing is bought, sold or rented on the grounds.

A general assembling of the people for social, recreational, moral and religious benefits is the purpose of this campmeeting. To place emphasis upon spiritual needs, values and possibilities. To prepare all for better, higher, richer, more useful and helpful living. All who are in sympathy with these aims are invited to attend.

Mrs. Jim Kerr and sons, Robert and Bernard, left last Saturday for San Antonio and Corpus Christi where they will visit relatives for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bustin Canon and daughter, Marjorie, and their guest, Miss Jean Draper, spent several days here this week from the ranch.

Some Texas editors are already returning the "news" produced by these "experts" with their rate cards enclosed.

The new state securities act, designed to protect the investors against "blue sky" promotional efforts, will get a test of constitutionality before a three-judge federal court in New Orleans on July 22. W. D. Hale and C. W. Weston, San Antonio oil securities men, instituted suit. Secretary Mann, sponsor of the new law, and its ardent backer and enforcer, awaits the outcome of the test eagerly.

Drys of Texas moved into action in many rural districts during the past two weeks. Wets are withholding their fire until the last three weeks before election day. Observers here now predict a very close contest, with the rural areas preponderantly dry, and the large city vote going wet. Meanwhile, liquor-selling drug stores in almost every Texas community are forgetting the depression as their volume of whisky sales mounts, without necessity of paying license or taxes.

All Invited to Big Dance, Ft. Davis Tomorrow Night

Another big dance will be given in Fort Davis Saturday night, the 27th, by the Fort Davis PTA, and a large crowd is expected to attend, according to an announcement in the Fort Davis Dispatch. As a special attraction the PTA has engaged an orchestra from Villa Acuna to furnish music. The orchestra is composed of seven pieces and its members are noted radio artists, it was stated.

This is the second dance to be sponsored by the PTA, over five hundred people attended the opening dance in this new recreational hall and gymnasium.

Proceeds from the dance will help pay for the immense hardwood floor—45x90 feet. There will be plenty of room, and everyone in this section is invited to come and half a good time. Admission, $1.25 for gentlemen, ladies free.
