'OIL CURSED' TEXAS WOMAN DIES

State Electrocutes Tulia Man For Killing Auto Salesman

ROBERT BLAKE DIES IN CHAIR EARLY FRIDAY

Mother, Wife and Brothers Turned Away Seeking Clemency

THREE STAYS GIVEN

Man Accused of Tulia Crime Nervously Paces Cell in Last Hours

HUNTSVILLE, Texas, April 19. (AP)—Wearing a white rose in the lapel of his coat, Robert Blake, 23, went to his death in the electric chair at the penitentiary here early today. Blake died for the slaying, in 1925, of Fred Connor, a salesman near Tulia, Swisher county. He was the youngest man ever to pay the extreme penalty in Texas.

Scores Capital Price

After hearing the death warrant read Blake, who had been writing a letter to his mother on a portable typewriter, bitterly denounced capital punishment.

"Robert, how do you feel?" he was asked.

"I don't feel so good about this," was the reply, "but I will try to make the best of it."

Later when he was asked if he had a statement for the newspapers he said:

"I hope my execution will be the last one in this penitentiary and the state of Texas. I hope the people will awaken and realize how barbaric and antique capital punishment is.

"I do not think capital punishment is a crime deterrent, but tends to increase it."

Circumstantial Case

Throughout his last day, Blake apparently steeled himself for the ordeal of walking to the little green execution chamber where the law snuffed out his life.

He was convicted on circumstantial evidence and because of his youth he had been granted three stays of execution by Governor Moody, when his mother and other relatives interceded in his behalf.

FAMILY PLEADS FOR DOOMED YOUTH

AUSTIN, April 18. (AP)—A condemned man's mother, wife and two brothers today failed to shake Governor Moody's decision not to interfere with the execution of Robert F. Blake, 24, scheduled to die at Huntsville early tomorrow. Blake was convicted in Swisher county of killing Fred Conner, Tulia automobile salesman.

The governor granted an audience to Blake's mother, wife and brothers and for more than an hour he listened while they pleaded with him to commute the sentence to life imprisonment.

When the interview was completed, L. M. Blake of Dallas, one of the brothers, said the governor had refused to interfere with the jury's verdict and the higher court's affirmance.

The governor was moved greatly by the plea but sent word to newspapermen that he would not take any action in the case. The women were almost hysterical.

Blake's mother is Mrs. J. H. Blake of Amarillo and the other brother is W. L. Blake of Amarillo.

L. M. Blake said his brother's downfall was caused by morphine. He declared Robert had become an addict of the drug while a student in the Amarillo High school. He declared also that Robert had been connected with the murder by only circumstantial evidence. The governor had granted Blake three reprieves while he studied the record and investigated the case.

When Mr. Moody left the capitol tonight he reiterated his decision not to stop the execution.

$10,000 Fire Demolishes Buildings At Call Field

Dairy Barn and Poultry House on Graham Place Burned; Lions Prexy Narrowly Escapes Electrocution

A loss estimated at more than $10,000 was caused by flames which swept through a dairy barn and a poultry house near Call field, owned by Dr. R. H. Graham, president of the Lions club and one of the founders of the municipal zoo, Thursday night shortly after 9 o'clock.

The blaze, Dr. Graham said, probably was due to a faulty lighting wire or from careless use of fire by some person prowling near the buildings. The fire was well under way before it was discovered by neighbors who turned in the alarm to the city fire department.

Buildings Destroyed

The high winds fanned the flame and spread it so quickly that efforts of the fire department to extinguish the blaze were almost futile. Both of the buildings were burned to the ground.

Danger from live wires made fighting the fire hazardous both for the firemen and for a large crowd of spectators which gathered about the burning buildings. Dr. Graham had a narrow escape when he stepped upon a wire which was charged with 3,200 volts and was thrown several feet by the shock. He was uninjured.

Dr. Graham said afterwards that the strength of the electricity which threw him clear of the charged wire probably was all that saved his life.

A crowd of spectators assembled before the buildings burned down many of them seeing the fire from distances of several miles and driving to the scene.

No livestock was in either of the barns at the time of the fire, Dr. Graham said.

Heavy Loss

The dairy barn was a 60-foot square structure and was equipped with a basement. It was a modern building, having concrete floors in it, and fitted with modern dairy conveniences.

The poultry house was 40 feet long and 34 feet wide. A $3,000 incubator was in the building at the time of the fire and was completely destroyed.

Both of the structures were frame buildings, but were both so well constructed that they stood in the path of the strong gale that was blowing until the foundations were burned from under them before they crashed to the ground.

Dr. Graham said that his insurance probably would cover about a fourth of the loss on the two buildings.

Woman Writer and Lecturer Held For Using Mails for Amarillo Swindle

Elizabeth Murray, Listed in "Who's Who" as Descendant Of Revolution Heroine Jailed

SAN JOSE, Calif., April 18. (AP)—Miss Elizabeth Murray, 35, said to be a member of a prominent Des Moines, Iowa, family, was arrested here today by federal authorities on charges of using the mails to defraud a prominent Amarillo, Texas, woman.

Miss Murray, postal inspector said, had operated fraudently in other parts of the country. The inspectors said her identification was made by reference to "Who's Who" which lists an "Elizabeth Murray" as a writer and lecturer, giving her home as the Writers and Artists Colony, Tampa, Fla.

Miss Murray was registered here at a leading hotel as Miss Elizabeth Tarkington. She had been attending a national book dealers convention in San Francisco. She was arrested on telegraphic instructions from Amarillo.

Postal inspectors said Miss Murray was a daughter of the late Senator Benjamin F. Murray of Des Moines.

The woman was charged specifically with mailing a letter in a scheme to defraud Mrs. Lela May Barnum of Amarillo. The indictment was returned in Fort Worth. The inspectors said Miss Murray had been arrested in Denver in connection with an alleged land fraud in Tampa, Fla. She is to be taken to San Francisco tonight and held for removal to Texas after extradition.

A circular which led to Miss Murray's arrest, police said, indicated that she used a "system" in her operations with which to defraud many society women over the country. According to police she first made talks before gatherings of wealthy women and then left town, later to write them saying she would obtain memberships in clubs she had helped organize. For those memberships, it is alleged, she charged $1,000 each. The clubs included a "Writers and Artists Colony," "The Universal History of Women" and the "International History Foundation."

WOMAN PROMINENT IN SOCIAL WORK

SAN JOSE, Calif., April 18. (UP)—A woman, partially identified by Chief of Police J. M. Black as Elizabeth Murray, prominent authoress and organizer of woman's organizations throughout the United States, was arrested here today on a telegraphic warrant from Fort Worth, Texas, charging use of the mails to defraud.

Black said it was apparent that personal belongings of the woman bore identification marks of Elizabeth Murray. Elizabeth Murray is a descendant of Mary Lindley Murray, revolutionary war heroine, and daughter of former Senator Benjaman Franklin Murray of Iowa.

BLAZE KILLS RACE HORSES

13 Thoroughbreds Die In Stable Fire

HAVRE DE GRACE R. T., Md., April 18. (UB)—Twelve horses were burned to death and another destroyed later as the result of a fire which started from the explosion of an oil stove in public barn number 47 at Havre de Grace racetrack tonight. Thousands of dollars worth of thoroughbreds were running wild in the environs of this city at a late hour, while the fire departments of Havre de Grace and Aberdeen were fighting furiously to save other barns.

The horses that occupied the other buildings threatened had been removed and were in safe keeping.

Following are names of horses burned to death:

Inlaid, Goulash, Parchesi, The Nut, Sea Wolf, Lasso Gowrie, Eleanor, Telluride, Hijo, Hot time, Shasta Klan and Leipo.

The H. P. Whitney barn was burned to the ground, as was the two story kitchen occupied by the corps of Woods Garth, who trains for Sam Ross.

Only the prompt response of an impromptu bucket brigade and the quick action of the Havre de Grace and Aberdeen fire departments saved the long row of stables south of the club house, as a brisk breeze was blowing at the time.

NICHOLS JURY DISAGREES IN SECOND TRIAL

Deadlock Again Ends Case Of Youth Charged In Spoonts Holdup

JUDGE FREES JURORS

10-Hour Debate Fails To Bring Decision In Robbery Trial

The second trial of R. B. Nichols for the holdup of the Spoonts Drug store at Ninth and Van Buren Christmas night ended in another deadlock at 10 o'clock Thursday night when Judge Allan D. Montgomery dismissed a jury reported hopelessly in disagreement after 10 hours of deliberation.

Second Disagreement

At the last ballot the vote stood at 10 to 2, the same ratio maintained since the balloting started early in the afternoon, members of the jury reported. An earlier trial on the same indictment, held in January, resulted in a similar deadlock.

The case went to the jury at noon Thursday. Toward the middle of the afternoon the foreman asked for information as to whether the testimony of J. M. Spoonts touching the evidence he had given at a former trial had been "thrown out" by the ruling of the court.

Nichols, Freddy Hostler, and Joe Ireland were indicted after the drug store was hijacked Christmas night. The first trials for both Nichols and Hostler ended in hung juries. Hostler was acquitted after a second hearing last Monday. Joe Ireland is one of the principal witnesses for the state.

Faces Other Charges

Nichols, accused of being the man who pulled the gun in the store, based his defense on testimony which attempted to show that he was too drunk at the hour of the holdup to have taken any part in it. Relatives testified that he had gone to a room in his sister's rooming house and gone to bed at 8 o'clock on Christmas night.

A second indictment is pending against all three defendants, charging them with the robbery of Hall Diggs, soda dispenser at the store, on the same occasion.

Sam Spence, district attorney, said Thursday night that he was not prepared to set the date for a third trial for Nichols.

O. C. Wells Once Convicted Here

O. C. Wells, who was sentenced Thursday at Coleman to die in the electric chair at Huntsville May 31 for slaying J. A. Mitchell, is believed by Leslie Humphrey, former district attorney here, to be the O. C. Wells who was convicted here about 12 years ago in a number of burglaries.

Advices from Abilene, where Humphrey was Thursday night, quoted the former district attorney as saying O. C. Wells received prison sentences for a series of roberies here, most of them on dry goods stores in the Wichita Falls area, preceding 1917. He said Wells operated with "fences" but recalled no further details. Wells was sentenced to death for slaying J. A. Mitchell at his filling station in Coleman Feb. 27, 1927.

WALDEN DEATH CASE OPENED

Verner Donohoe on Trial For Slaying

Special to The Record News

VERNON, Texas, April 18.—A jury was completed late this afternoon in the 46th district court for the trial of Verner Donohoe, who is charged with murder in connection with the death of Herman Walden, whose body was found in the Minnas creek breaks 17 miles southeast of Varnaa on Feb. 16. The panel was completed after the court had examined 60 men during the day.

Death May Be Asked

Questions propounded by the state pertained to the attitude of the prospective jurors toward circumstantial evidence and capital punishment. Defense counsel questioned the talesmen chiefly with regard to their attitude toward circumstantial evidence.

Jurors for the trial are E. M. Schaub, E. T. Standlee, M. G. Gardner, V. E. Culpepper, J. C. Sherrard, O. G. Noyes, H. J. Goss, J. R. Huie, George Beavers, Ed Free, Marvin Brite and Sheldon Shaw.

Court was recessed until Friday morning immediately after completion of the panel.

Donohoe Nonchalant

Donohoe, apparently in the early twenties, exhibited marked nonchalance throughout the day in the courtroom. He appeared more interested in the crowd that packed the room than he was in the details of the preliminaries to trial. When arraigned he pleaded "not guilty," rising himself to make the plea in a strong, clear voice.

He was arrested after the finding of Walden's body five days after the latter had disappeared. According to testimony brought out at the preliminary hearing, Walden and Donohoe were seen together on the day of the former's disappearance, and a shotgun was observed.

When found, Walden's chest was badly mutilated, a shotgun charge apparently having struck him almost in the center.

District Attorney John Myers and County Attorney R. R. Donaghey are conducting the prosecution and J. V. Leak and J. A. Storey are in charge of the defense.

CITRUS FRUIT FLY IN TEXAS

Morales Species Found In Rio Grande Valley

EDINBURG, Texas, April 18. (AP)—The Morales fruit fly has been discovered in three orchards within a three-mile radius of Mercedes, Texas, M. H. Ford of the United States Department of Agriculture, in control of the Mexican fly control project in this Rio Grande valley section, announced today.

Citrus fruit growers in this section were ordered by state and federal authorities to begin an immediate cleanup of all orchards in an effort to eradicate the fly.

Mr. Ford met here today with prominent citrus growers of this section to work out plans for a thorough cleaning of their orchards.

Six additional inspectors were expected to reach the valley tomorrow. They will begin work immediately to determine the degree and area of infestation. Discovery of the fly has been reported to Washington and the future campaign against the pest will be determined there.

"It is likely that the present regulations governing the modified quarantine of valley fruits will be tightened considerably," Mr. Ford said.

"We have made our protest. We have accomplished our purpose, and the $2,500 is too trivial to argue over," he said.

DEATH CLOSES TROUBLES OF PECOS PIONEER

Mrs. M. A. Monroe Smith Dies at San Angelo Thursday

CHILDREN SUE HER

Sorrow Filled Days of Aged West Texan Blamed On Oil Wealth

SAN ANGELO, Texas, April 18. (AP)—Mrs. M. A. Monroe Smith, principal in oil litigation over her Pecos county ranch lands involving millions of dollars, died here today.

Mrs. Smith was 75 years old.

Endless litigation, in which her children were aligned against her, marked the closing years of her life. The law suits still are far from settled, and lawyers tonight were considering what effect her death would have upon them.

Almost Blind

Old age was given as the primary cause of the death of the frail little woman, who in her declining years, when almost blind, was forced to sit in witness chairs and match wits with attorneys for her children, who sought to have her declared mentally incompetent.

"Oil has been a curse to me. I wish I had never seen an oil well. I wish they had never found a drop of oil on my ranch. It has brought me nothing but trouble and sorrow and definitely set my children against me and made me poor again," Mrs. Smith declared shortly before her death.

Mrs. Smith came to West Texas many years ago with her first husband, John Monroe. For years they battled drouths and other difficulties of ranching in what was then frontier country, Pecos county. Her husband died and a number of years later she married a cowboy, W. A. Smith.

Called Incompetent

The litigation which entangled her wealth and harassed the aged woman in her last years started when she sued a son, Henry Monroe, on a grass lease. Her children then sued to have a receiver appointed, claiming she was not competent to manage her affairs.

A receiver was named and filed suit against the oil companies to which Mrs. Smith had let leases, seeking to break them. Although nearly blinded and almost inarticulate, the aged woman fought the suit strenuously and matched her wits successfully against the most clever counsel obtainable by her children. Her unique defense of her sanity attracted wide attention.

A master of chancery decided Mrs. Smith was sane when she signed the leases and royalty deeds to her ranch, and the report was accepted by Federal Judge Boynton at El Paso.

Will H. Hays, Former Cabinet Member, Asks for Divorce and Custody of Son

SULLIVAN, Ind., April 18. (UP)—A petition for divorce and custody of their 14-year-old son was filed in the circuit court here today by Will H. Hays against his wife, Helen Thomes Hayes, of this city. Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, was Republican national chairman in 1920 and later postmaster-general in the Harding cabinet.

The petition gives incompatibility as the basis of the suit and states that the couple has not lived together for many years. They were married in 1902.

Immediately after entering an appearance for Mrs. Hays, M. E. Foley of Indianapolis, Mrs. Hays' attorney, said:

"I have known Mr. and Mrs. Hays intimately for many years. I was the law partner of Mrs. Hays' father, Judge A. D. Thomas, for nine years. Our relations were most intimate and pleasant and in that connection I have known Mrs. Hays very well. Will Hays and I were fellow students at Wabash college. I am familiar with all the circumstances in this case. For several years, because of incompatibility, they have not lived together. Proper settlements have been agreed upon and the custody of the son will be given to the father."

Mighty Babe Keeps Promise to 'Sweetums' on First Pitch

Bambino Starts Right Off Fulfilling Wedding Day Vow; Needs 60

By DAMON RUNYON
(Copyright, 1929, by Universal Service)

NEW YORK, April 18.—"Sweetums," one can easily imagine the bridegroom, Mr. Ruth, saying to the blushing bride as they journeyed to the baseball yard this afternoon, "Sweetums, papa is going to bust one for you today."

Bridegrooms are ever prodigal with promises. And brides are believing while they are brides.

"Yes, baby," Mrs. Ruth doubtless replied, "I know you will, baby."

It would have been just the same if Mr. Ruth had promised to build a new bridge across the Harlem. Brides are that way—while they are brides.

So Mr. Ruth "busted one." Only to the Mr. Ruths of this life do the gods give the gift of keeping promises to blushing brides. He "busted" this one on his first appearance at the plate in the opening game of the American league season of 1929, plumping that old pill into the lower stand of the left field pavilion, where he doesn't hit a ball once in a coon's age.

It started the Yankees off to a 7 to 3 victory over the Boston Red Sox and 30,000 chilled clients of the great American pastime rose from their seats, their joints crackling with frost, and cheered Mr. Ruth as he trotted majestically around the bases.

"I told you I'd bust one for you, sweetums," Mr. Ruth probably commented to the blushing bride as they rode homeward this evening, and quite sure the blushing bride replied:

"I knew you would, baby."

For brides are that way—while they are brides. Blest be the bride.

Anyway, you admit that Mr. Ruth has a start on his wedding day promise to make Mrs. Ruth a present of a new world record for home runs this year. He needs only 60 more. Mr. Ruth is a husband a wife can be proud of.

Lou Gehrig "busted one" too, today, but who cares?

The annual meeting of the board of tax equalizations will be held during the latter part of May, W. R. Hyer, city and school tax assessor and collector, said Thursday.

Renditions on city property will not be accepted after April 30, and citizens who have not rendered their property by that time will not be given a chance to appear before the board of equalizations to enter pleas concerning their assessments, Mr. Hyer said.

A large part of the property has already been rendered for this year and only a few stragglers remain to make their valuations before the closing day. Mr. Hyer urged that those who have not submitted their renditions to do so as son as possible.

Foch Kept Pershing in Fight, Says Journalist in Series of Interviews

PARIS, April 18. (AP)—The Havas News agency says that Raymond Recouly, French journalist, will shortly publish a series of interviews with the late Marshal Foch in which he says that the generalissimo of the allied armies prevented a move to replace Gen. John J. Pershing as commander in chief of the American expeditionary force.

Extracts of the interviews printed by Le Temps relate that Marshal Foch had a disagreement with Premier Clemenceau, who reproached him for showing too much indulgence toward General Pershing.

The marshal was stated, however, to have held his patient attitude "because of the military inexperience of the Americans" and to have rejected a suggestion by Premier Clemenceau that he write directly to President Wilson concerning the matter

M. Recouly quoted Marshal Foch as saying that Premier Clemenceau considered General Pershing's effort to build up an autonomous army acting by itself was preventing the Americans from giving the allies the aid they should have given. The premier was said to have accused General Pershing of being too stubborn.

It is understood that Clemenceau will give his version of the affair after publication of the interviews, which will appear in a book called "The Memorial of Foch."

General Pershing said this afternoon that he had nothing to say on the subject at the present time.

DO WE WANT LAW ENFORCEMENT?

Editor The Record News: No doubt the police needs shaking up all right, so, in the meantime, while that is going on, maybe a little showdown won't do any harm.

I contend that the most efficient police force in America could not function properly or obtain satisfactory results under the existing conditions prevailing in Wichita Falls today.

That, you will agree, is a pretty broad statement but when I say that half or more of our leading and most influential citizens consider themselves above the law, ignore it, break it every day and a blindfolded and handcuffed police force stands by and lets them get away with it. How come?

Josh Billings said "the best place to have a boil is on the other fellow's back porch" and the best people of our fair city say "the law is all right for the other fellow but it don't fit me."

Try driving through the streets on which our large office buildings are located, between the hours of 4 and 5 any week day afternoon and you will see our best people parked three deep on both sides waiting for the tired business man who is too weak to walk a block (to where his car might be parked safely and within the law) but is able to do 18 holes and walk five miles at the golf course.

It would be worth any officer's job to arrest the wife, daughter or chauffeur of any of these leading citizens because they are above the law but he is expected to arrest the other fellow for the same law violation and gets fired if he doesn't do it.

Our physicians protest against being fined for overtime parking and considering what they do for poor people, they are justified) but where is the fine line of demarkation between the bootlegger and the doctor who writes whisky prescriptions for his friends?

And how about the friends?

From what I know (this is not a rough guess) 95 per cent of the doctors who hold permits break the law to furnish whisky for their friends and in so doing put themselves on the very same level (as far as the law is concerned) with the bootlegger.

Our leading citizens are very zealous of the chastity of their wives and daughters but they are not so particular about the other fellow's wife or daughter when they take her for a ride.

Our leading citizens emit loud and anguish laden squawks and point scornful fingers at the police force when any of their property is stolen but, you see, that is a boil on their own veranda.

Now, to make a long story more painful, I know two men, either of whom can, and will rid this city of every known crook, yeg, thief and bootlegger in 60 days and make it a good city in which to live for those who wish to live within the law and a mighty uncomfortable place for the rest.

All either of them would require would be freedom to enforce the law impartially and all they would expect of the leading citizens would be their cooperation to the extent of behaving themselves and obeying the law.

Do you think the leading citizens want that or would stand squarely behind an honorable and fearless officer?

Not on your life and a couple of extra large nos. They don't want to say "good morning judge" nor do they want their sons or daughters to face the music because those laws are made for the other fellow.

An underpaid police force that makes its living by shaking down the gamblers, prostitutes, bootleggers, etc., is preferable to an efficient force as long as it does not molest the people who are above the law.

Ask the man who owns up.

When the people are ready for law enforcement they can have it but until they are all willing to stand for the law against what may embarrass the ones who think whisky, gambling, girls and traffic violations are their special privileges, we will go blithely on our way with a blindfolded and handcuffed police force made up of lion-hearted boys too strong to work but just a bit timid if cut alone after sundown.

Yours truly,
JUSTIN EARNEST.

Short Breath Foretells High Blood Pressure

Don't neglect to give prompt attention to shortness of breath which is one of the first signs of high blood pressure. Insurance companies report that the numbers of those afflicted with this dangerous condition are increasing altogether too rapidly.

Other symptoms of high blood pressure are dizzy spells, palpitation of the heart, ringing in the ears and frequent headaches.

The best thing to do if you experience any of these symptoms or feel that your blood pressure is too high is to take a few bottles of Bi-a-lin, a noted doctor's prescription. Bi-a-lin exerts a quick cleansing action on the poisons that clog the blood vessels and overtax the heart. Guaranteed to satisfy you or money refunded. Sold by leading druggists.

YOU NEEDN'T CREAM THE SHORTENING AND SUGAR, ANY MORE—when the shortening is Snowdrift. You just stir them together ... easily, smoothly. It's all done in a jiffy. This way—

PLAIN MUFFINS

½ Cupful Snowdrift · ½ Cupful Sugar
½ Cupful Milk · 1 Egg · 2 Cupfuls Flour
½ Teaspoonful Salt · 3 Teaspoonfuls Baking Powder

Stir the Snowdrift, gradually adding the sugar and the egg well beaten. Sift together the dry ingredients and add them alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Drop into muffin pans well oiled with Snowdrift and bake from twenty-five to thirty minutes in a hot oven (375 degrees F.)

As simple as that. Because we cream Snowdrift for you ... whip it up all light and fluffy, before we pack it in the air-tight can. Indeed, Snowdrift has almost the body of whipped cream ... a consistency it retains winter, summer; cold refrigerator, warm kitchen.

RADIO USED TO DETECT CRIME

Baseball and Murder Mixed On WGN Programs

CHICAGO, April 18. (UP)—"Bong! Bong! Bong!

"Squad 37A, proceed at once 9217 Chauncey avenue. Click—"Gabby Hartnett comes to bat, ladies and gentlemen, the famous Gabby Hartnett himself. Burleigh Grimes is winding up for the first pitch. Eighth inning and the bases full with the score four to three against the Cubs."

All day and all night the radio loud speakers are turned on in the police squad cars that are cruising along the streets of Chicago these days.

Biscuit Recipes

The police department is experimenting with radio as a detector of crime. Each squad car is equipped with a radio receiving set, tuned in constantly on WGN, the station through which the experiment is being conducted.

Most of the time the program runs on with its diversity of recipes for biscuits and cocoanut custard, instructions for planting gardens, bedtime stories about the middle sized and the tiny wee bear and heart to heart talks on investments.

But any moment is likely to bring through the loud speaker the "bong! bong! bong!" of the gong breaking in on the program to announce that another beer baron or vice lord has died.

Many of the police radio announcements are veiled behind the one request: "Squad so and so, call the squad operator immediately." Often, however, an address is given and then not only the police car, but every one in the neighborhood hastens to the scene of the reported trouble.

Lieut. John Treacy and his men of squad 37A were just settling down to a quiet afternoon listening to the Cubs-Pirates game while cruising around back of the stockyards when the familiar "bong!" sounded just as Gabby Hartnett came to bat in the eighth inning.

There Goes Game!

Immediately the whole squad came to attention, but the radio went on. Gabby's first strike was recorded as the car whirled around the corner near the new city station, at strike two it was swinging into 63rd street, when "ball one" was called out, the squad was racing past 93rd and Commercial.

As the car pulled up in front of 9217 Chauncey avenue, where Mrs. William McNeal had murdered a lodger and committed suicide, the mighty Gabby struck out.

"There goes your old ball game," said Lieutenant Treacy as he swung out of the front seat.

Policemen have their favorites in the radio world the same as anyone else. Most of them favor the Punch and Judy shows between 6 and 6:20 p. m. and baseball.

"But listening to a lot of biscuit recipes all day gets pretty tiresome," said Lieutenant Treacy.

The experiment is believed a success. Called by radio, police have reached the scene of a crime in less than half the time required under the old system by which each squad called the central bureau at stated intervals.

Phonographs Used In Music Marathon

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 18. (INS)—The world has "suffered" from all sorts of marathons—from bunion derbies to coffee drinking marathons—but today came a "music marathon."

Two Harvard students, armed with a phonograph each and about 2,000 records, will listen in a Harvard square store window to the melodies until either one or the other falls asleep. A $25 prize to the winner was the incentive.

Railroad Detective Blamed in Shooting

LAKE CHARLES, La., April 18. (AP)—A warrant was issued at Deridder today for the arrest of E. B. Morrell of Port Arthur, Texas, special officer for the Kansas City Southern railroad, in connection with the reported shooting in a box car near Deridder last night of a member of a party of five youths.

Officers also searched near Carson for the youth said to have been shot.

Four youths of Leesville, La., who with the one wounded, were riding in the box car reported to officers. They claimed the trouble arose over a hat.

Oklahoma Boy's Body Found in Swollen River

CLAREMORE, Okla., April 18. (UP)—The body of William B. Richson, 15, high school boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Richson, living south of here, was recovered at midnight from a slough of the swollen river Verdigris.

The boy had been missing since the close of school Monday when he went on horseback on an errand across the river. The riderless horse returned home and a searching party was organized.

Funeral services were held this afternoon.

Leila Whitehead's Use of Liquor Fatal

NEW YORK, April 18. (INS)—The family of Leila Whitehead, woman of mystery found dead in her sumptuous Forest Hills home, are convinced her death was not due to foul play, according to a statement issued in their behalf by Bennett E. Siegelstein, an attorney.

"Death was natural, aggravated undoubtedly by excessive use of bad liquor, the result of too much time and money on hand," the statement says.

It also disclosed the fact that her will, over which a contest was threatened, has been accepted by all of the woman's sisters. The estate is divided between James D. Collins, Mrs. Beulah Mercer and Mrs. Jewel Durham, the latter two sisters of the dead woman. Mr. Siegelstein has been appointed executor.

BOY ROBBERS ARE SENTENCED

El Dorado Youths Must Pay For Bank Raid

EL DORADO, Ark., April 18. (UP)—Sentences of two years in the government industrial school at Chillicothe, Mo., and fines of $100 each were given Robert Ross Raborn, 20; Alvin Jewel, 18; Sidney Ralph King, 19, and Arhie Gentry, 19, here today.

The youths, all members of prominent families, pleaded guilty in federal court to charges of conspiracy in connection with the $13,000 robbery of the National Bank of Commerce here March 12.

Jewel was given the same sentence on a robbery charge, the confinement periods to run concurrently. Robbery charges against the other three were dismissed.

King, Raborn and Gentry had previously pleaded not guilty to the charges, despite having signed confessions to participation in the robbery at the bank where Jewell, a junior college student, was employed as a messenger.

The $13,000 loot has never been recovered, having disappeared from the cache in a woods where Jewell said he hid it.

Two Killings Laid To Bootleg Rivalry

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 18. (INS)—Working on the theory that racketeers in the corn sugar business were involved in the murders of two men—one in Kansas and the other in Missouri—police here today began rounding up Italians known to be in the illicit liquor traffic.

One body was found several miles west of Kansas City, Kan., and the other near Concordia, Mo. Both had been shot in the same manner and both thrown into ditches.

Both were unidentified.

Prosecutors Told To Use Discretion

CHICAGO, April 18. (UP)—A warning to United States district attorneys to "use discretion" about applying the new Jones law with its heavy penalties in liquor cases has been received at the federal building here from Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant assigned to enforcement of the prohibition laws.

The Jones law, says Mrs. Willebrandt, is to be applied only in cases of real commercialism and not in minor infractions of the dry law where it is the district attorney's judgment that the penalty should be not more than 12 months imprisonment.

Wife of Prominent Jeweler Gives Statement

"I Have Honestly Gained Thirty Pounds on Two Bottles of Orgatone, and Feel Like a Different Woman Now," Says Wichita Woman.

Although Orgatone, which has been accomplishing such wonderful results, was introduced less than four months ago in this city and vicinity, scores of men and women have taken it and in return have endorsed it highly. One of the latest to give praise to the triumph medicine is Mrs. B. T. Burgess, the wife of a well known jeweler, of 1011 Fourteenth street, Wichita Falls, Texas. Mr. Mr. Burgess has been a jeweler for the last 20 years and is the oldest in this city. His wife says:

"I suffered for several years from stomach and asthma trouble. My entire system seemed to be out of order, and I felt run-down. My appetite was very poor and at times I would go a whole day without hardly eating anything. I had trouble with digestion, and gas formed and would press around my heart, which would cause such smothering spells I could hardly get my breath at times.

"I was very nervous all the time and it was a very hard matter for me to try and sleep at night. I'd just sit up in a chair at night. For the last two years I had to do this. I took all kinds of medicine and treatments, but didn't get the right one for my case until I began taking Orgatone.

"I have only taken two bottles of Orgatone, but you should see me now. I have gained 30 pounds in weight, and I look and feel much better. My complexion isn't as pale and yellow as it was, and I have a good color. I can eat most anything now, even beans and sweet potatoes, and am not bothered at all with indigestion. All of my smothering spells have left me, and in fact, I am entirely relieved of all my troubles. I have never found anything to do me the real good Orgatone has, and after I had taken it just two weeks I sure could tell the difference. I am glad to give this statement. It has proven a good medicine in my case."

Genuine Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific blis treatment and is sold in Wichita Falls exclusively by Allison's Drug store under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Oh, These Women

By LEOLA ALLARD

NEW YORK, April 18. (US)—Over radio we learn that it took Reginald Dekoven only 20 minutes to write "Oh, Promise Me."

And nobody knows just how many couples have gone over the brink to that song—in about 20 minutes. Ten minutes to sing the song and 10 to hear the questions and say the "I do's."

The adieus can be said in much less time because you don't have to allow for the music.

The best suggestion for the separation song is: "You made me what I am today," sung by either party—usually both.

Twelve hundred advertising agencies trying to answer the question — for $1,000 — "Why Go to Church!"

Some folks think it is: "To get baptised, to get married and to get buried."

In a big department store yesterday, packed with big women buying "little French dresses," I noticed a lone man, sitting under an artificial palm, holding his overcoat and trying to keep the end of the palm leaf from knocking his hat off. He wouldn't edge out a little to get out of its way, because everybody could see him.

I guess he was merely waiting for his call—after the total of purchases was added up. Somehow he seemed to typify the nice, homebroke husband of greater America. I wanted to slide down under the palm and hold his hand, but you can bet I didn't.

Now when the lady in Los Angeles reads that—the one who wrote me last week—she'll be hopping mad. She says I always take their part. But really I think it's awfully nice of husbands. I mean I re—ally do, to leave business and sit under an artificial palm till the bill is ready.

And I hope the lady from St. Louis who was so very cross with me for criticising women who picked up dogs in their limousines and didn't stop to notice children who needed help, saw the story in today's papers about the 16-year-old girl who fainted in the streets in New York from sheer hunger. When they asked her name she said: "I haven't any family or friends. I don't want to make any more trouble for nobody," and she wouldn't tell.

It always seemed strange to me that the women who pick up dogs get their names in the papers, and tell about it at dinner parties. Maybe they pick up babies or starved girls sometimes, and don't tell. I just never happened to see anything about it. The police get them first. Then, when it's all in bold type, literally thousands fly to the front page.

But it's much better that way than never.

A woman I know sold her clothes last week—those she had worn a few times—to her friends. She charged them plenty. Then she sold some left overs from last season to some poor working girls who had to go without lunch for a week to afford them, and then pay in weekly installments.

Some people are constitutionally opposed to giving things away, the excuse being that it ruins "their character," to give poor people what they don't have to work for.

Now isn't that nice and thoughtful?

A Los Angeles woman threw everything she could reach at her husband. In court he said she never hit him except with a loaf of bread and she could always hit him when she got a loaf in her hands.

That's why he was so hard hit and got his divorce.

There is more originality to the square inch in California than there are real estate salesmen.

HARD WATER PLUS MEL'O MAKES SOFT WATER

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Such greasy hands!

Hard water won't clean them

HARD water can't do much with greasy hands. Of course, you use lots of soap. You try to get a thick lather. But the water is too hard; it combines with the soap and forms a scum. How can you expect to clean greasy hands in that water?

There is a way. Use Melo. Sprinkle a little on the water. Water softened with Melo makes a wonderful cleaner, with or without soap. Soft water and soap and lots of lather; grease won't stay long on your hands. Get a can of Melo at your grocer's today.

We Women

By BETTY BRAINERD

Nirvana—and Unselfishness

THE HINDU theory of Nirvana that happiness is a condition which evolves from an absolute lack and cessation of desire is merely a system of belief which resolves itself ultimately into a glorification of unselfishness.

But there is confusion and contradiction at that terminal where the theory achieves its only real significance. The desire for clothes, for instance, is not primarily a matter of selfishness. Nature has equipped animals with fur suitable to the climates and circumstances of their original habitats, and birds, unendowed in this respect, fly where the sun always shines warm. But clothes, to the human being, are necessary.

The Hindu theory irrationalizes desire and thus contradicts nature. But desire, in its basic sense, is necessity and therefore rational. In the matter of clothes, as in all things, it becomes irrational only when it ceases to be intelligent and controlled.

WITHOUT desire, life would grow stagnant and itself finally cease. Men have desired knowledge and as men have added to the stores of wisdom civilization has advanced. This, obviously, is legitimate desire.

No system of philosophy or theory of life can be as simple as Nirvana. Science discovers facts and sometimes correlates them, and philosophy attempts to explain them, that life may be made more intelligible. The ultimate, however, is inscrutable because the finite mind of man cannot comprehend the infinite; and thus, within the limited meaning of Spencer's famous definition, life becomes a "continuous adjustment of internal relations to external relations."

The elimination or absolute cessation of desire is in no sense a complete adjustment. The inevitable continuity of adjustment is also eliminated. It is an anaesthetizing substitute for knowledge. It stifles the will to learn and understand.

AND NOW I come to the main point. Some women being what they are, I urge them to apply the Hindu theory to their daily relations with people.

All of us are selfish to varying degrees; and to a certain degree even selfishness is rational. But such selfishness is not selfishness. Like desire, it is necessary. It becomes something else again, however, when it is unfairly satisfied.

Happiness cannot be realized by violating others and their rights—but there are some women whose many desires are so intense and yet so trivial that, when they satisfy them selfishly, the condition of happiness they have created for themselves turns out to be only a mirage.

I recommend consideration of the Hindu theory to such women within an entire continent without a single fence to say them nay. Besides, it was the custom of the tribe since time immemorial to hold all lands in common.

The Malcontents showed their displeasure by cutting the fences and trampling crops.

Soon the other tribesmen were complaining to the Indian bureau that they suspected more dire things were going to happen—even that their scalps might be lifted.

They slept peacefully tonight, though. The war drums were silenced. The spirit of the forefathers stirred ever more feebly in the hearts of the Malcontents. "Government by injunction" had gained a new victory.

Lo, the poor Indian!

Indian Scalping Party Postponed When Injunction Puzzles Warriors

LOS ANGELES, April 18. (US)—A new use for court injunctions has been found—keeping Indians off the warpath.

Fifty Indians, who still feel the feeble stirring of the spirit of their forefathers, were subpoenaed today at the behest of a representative of the United States attorney general's office.

The bewildered redmen must appear in federal court here and show cause why a permanent injunction restraining them from taking the warpath against other tribesmen on the Lo Jolla and Rincon reservations near here shall not be issued.

In the tepees of the Malcontents tonight there was deep gloom. The war drums were silent. Weapons were unnoticed. Court injunctions against war parties were too complex for the simple red man to grasp. What was America coming to?

The trouble began when some of the tribesmen fenced their allotments after the government divided the reservation lands.

Others scored this civilized restriction as unworthy of a race which once was free to wander over

FAIR SEX IS NOT DIFFERENT

This Opinion Causes Most Of Men's Mistakes

"Nearly All of the Mistakes That Men Make in Dealing With Women Are Based on the False Assumption That Women Are Different From Men," Declares Dorothy Dix.

A learned psychologist has written a brilliant article in the current Harpers Magazine in which he shows that women are people and that they are cut off the same bolt of goods as men and have just about the same coloring and the same wearing qualities and come out about the same in the wash of life.

All of which we women have known all along, and we have been shouting the information to our fathers and our husbands and our brothers and our sons for thousands of years, but they have shut their ears and wouldn't listen because it was so much more comfortable and agreeable to them to think we were the little sawdust dolls they had invented than real women with brains and hearts and feelings and reactions just like their own.

No, men don't notice us when we tell them we are human beings, even as they are, and that our greatest yearning is to be treated on that platform. They are willing to worship us as plaster saints or to make use of us as household conveniences or to play with us as toys as long as our paint doesn't rub off, but when it comes to treating us as they would treat another man who had about the same point of view as they had, that is something different yet again, Mawruss, and they simply can't bring themselves to do it.

Why, nearly all of the mistakes that men make in dealing with women are based on this false assumption that women are different from men and don't think and feel about things as men do. Take the matter of personal liberty, for instance. They were men who originated the theory that women love to be dependent. It was a man who devised the simile of the clinging vine and who depicted woman as having the time of her life hanging limp and helpless onto the sturdy oak.

Nine men out of ten honestly believe that women have no desire for any individual liberty. They think women want to be in perpetual tutelage from the cradle to the grave; that they want somebody to hand them ready-made opinions and make up their minds for them and tell them where they get on and off and they never dream that a woman ever wants to fly the coop and go off by herself or to do things just because she wants to do them. They know that they would rather be dead than have to be bossed all of their lives, but they are sure that women enjoy it because they are somehow built different from men.

This belief isn't shaken by the fact that most of the happy, cheerful women one sees are the independent women who are earning their own livings and who have their own latchkeys and who are free just in the same way that men are free.

The real reason that so many husbands treat their wives unjustly in money matters is because men labor under the superstition that women haven't the same feeling about financial independence that they have. The average man isn't a tightwad nor does he grudge his family anything he gives it. On the contrary, he is practically a slave to his household. He labors unceasingly to provide for his wife and children and very little that he makes does he spend upon himself.

Nevertheless, a great many men refuse to give their wives any definite allowance upon which to run the household or even a pittance for their own use. They make their lives come to them like beggars for every cent and force them to wives come to them like beggars of the courtesan to get out of them the price of a new dress or hat.

Now the wife is the husband's partner. She has invested in the firm of Benedick & Co. all she has. She gives to it all of her time and work, and in justice she is entitled to her fair share of the profits, to be given her as her right and not as a benefaction.

No man would dream of treating a man as he treats his wife about money. He would expect to hand over to his man partner the latter's share of what the firm made. Nor would he endure for a minute himself the treatment he accords his wife.

He wouldn't work for his board and clothes and then have to jolly them out of the senior member of the firm. He would loathe having to ask even the most indulgent and generous male relative for a quarter every time he went down town and having to tell what he was going to do with it and what he did with the one that was given him week before last.

With a man, financial independence is the foundation stone of his self-respect. Without it he feels like a cringing slave. Not to be able to pay his way when he is out with other men puts him in the attitude of a bum and a dead beat, but he has no hesitation in placing his wife in that humiliating position because he thinks women don't feel about money as men do.

Very few men ever take the precaution to find out before marriage whether the girls they have selected as wives know anything about cooking and housekeeping because they are under the delusion that every woman is domestic by nature and thrills every time she sees a pot or a pan. Of course, a man may know that he himself has no turn for carpentering or plumbing or carpet laying or picture hanging and that he loathes doing chores around the house.

But he is perfectly amazed and utterly horrified when he finds out that a woman who has spent her life studying medicine or law or who has worked up in a store to be a high-priced buyer or who is a super-excellent private secretary prefers a career to cooking and is bored to tears by a vacuum cleaner and a sewing machine.

Men think women are mysteriously constructed with some sort of a perpetual motion forgiver and forgetter that enables them to blot out from their consciousness any resentment at their husband's sidestepping. Of course, they realize that men haven't this faculty. When husband catches friend wife philandering he drags her forthwith to the divorce court, and no matter how much she repents he never trusts her again. But he doesn't see why she should feel so outraged and hurt when he has a little flirtation and he feels that he is grievously ill-used if she loses faith in him.

Funny, isn't it, that men think that women never get fed up on domesticity while they do; that women never get tired and bored with their husbands while husbands do with their wives; that women never pine for adventure while men do; that women never have to resist temptation as men do, and so on and on down the whole gamut of human emotion.

Perhaps when men think of women as human beings like themselves we shall have less conflict between the sexes.

—DOROTHY DIX.

Bomb Wrecks Store When Guard Dozes Off

CHICAGO, April 18. (AP)—Michael Desalvo had known for three months bombers would come, for extortionists had threatened violence if he did not pay them $9,000. For three months, therefore, some member of the Desalvo family was on guard at the combination store and home 24 hours a day.

DALLAS, April 18. (AP)—Fred Chambers, 47, lunch stand owner, was found dead on his bed here today with a bullet hole in his head.

Mrs. Billie Arris, 22, questioned at the cafe by police, told them Chambers shot himself and she had stayed at the cafe, afraid something would happen if she left.

PRICES TREND UP IN MONTH

Wholesale Levels Gain Over February

WASHINGTON, April 18. (INS)—The general level of wholesale prices in March was slightly above that of February, while there was an increase of 1½ per cent compared with March a year ago, the department of labor announced today.

Farm products as a group were over 1½ per cent higher than in the preceding month, due to pronounced increases for beef cattle, hogs, sheep and lambs, poultry and cotton. Grains, eggs, potatoes and wool, on the other hand, were cheaper than in February.

Among foods there were increases for fresh and cured meats, and decreases for flour and butter.

In the textile products group advances in cotton goods were offset by declines in silk and rayon. Prices of anthracite and bituminous coal and petroleum products weakened in March, causing a net decline for the group of fuel and lighting materials.

Iron and steel products advanced slightly.

Wichitan Faces Trial On Swindling Charge

Trial of E. G. Ramsey, charged with swindling by check, will be called in the 30th district court Friday morning, George W. Anderson, assistant district attorney, announced Thursday afternoon. Ramsey is accused of giving a "hot check" for $110 to the W. B. McClurkan company last November.

The testimony of the defendant's former wife will be one of the principal points in his defense, Earl Kuntz, attorney for Ramsey, said Thursday. Ramsey will plead that he expected the check to be met through funds in his former wife's account, according to the attorney.

Horns Like Frog, Body Like Tadpole, Legs Like Alligator—What Is It?

Well, Ask Mr. Bunnenberg—He's Responsible for This Latest Story of City Zoo

Two new additions to the municipal zoo which have members of the city park department baffled for a name or identification were donated Thursday by J. T. Taylor, 1516 Harrison street, according to C. C. Bunnenberg, park superintendent.

The two new animals, or reptiles are about four inches in length and have six tentacles between the head and the shoulders which stand erect much in the manner of the horns of a horned frog. Their bodies and heads are very much like those of a large tadpole or a small catfish, but from a side view thus present four legs which give their bodies the appearance of an alligator.

Their tentacles are covered with skin like that of a tadpole on the side toward the head, but on the underneath side they are equipped with several rows of tiny black cilia or hairs.

Their tails are very similar to that of an eel while the back of their bodies are lined with tiny black specks. They make their course through the water by a manipulation of the tail and tentacles.

The two reptiles were found by Mr. Taylor on his ranch near Clarendon, Texas, and were brought here by him for exhibit in the municipal zoo. They inhabit slushy pools or muddy places, Mr. Taylor said.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, professor of zoology at the Junior college, said that the animals resembled salamanders but their identity had not been ascertained late Friday afternoon, Mr. Bunnenberg said.

JURY FREES L. SCHNETTE

Wichitan Acquitted On Liquor Charge

After less than one hour's deliberation, a jury in the 30th district court Thursday night acquitted L. Schuette of the possession of wine, beer, and whisky for sale.

Arguments in the case were completed about 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening. The trial started at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and was concluded in a night session. Harry Bunnenberg and Temple Shell represented Schuette.

The defendant was arrested last November after a raid by the sheriff's department in which wine, beer, and whisky were seized. Schuette told the jury that he had the wine and beer for medicinal purposes and that he had no knowledge of the whisky. George W. Anderson and Mike Anglin, assistant district attorneys, conducted the case for the state.

Freak of Nature to Give Wichitan Figs in June Instead of August

Horticulturists and fruit growers here are interested and puzzled over the behaviour of several fig trees grown by W. M. G. Mackechney, 1602 Travis, which have astonished their grower by putting out fruit on the old wood. Trees in this section of the country have always heretofore borne the fruit on the new shoots that come out in the spring, Mr. Mackechney explained.

Because of the unusual phenomenum, fairly well grown figs are already to be found on the trees, where usually only very young and tender shoots are seen, the grower said. He expects the fruit this year to ripen by June instead of August, and is looking for a second crop when the new shoots, which are developing also, produce their own fruit in turn.

"I can think of no explanation of the production of this fruit unless it is because the old wood did not die down as usual during the winter," Mr. Mackechney said. "Even in that case, I have never seen or heard of such a condition before. Usually the old wood dies in North Texas, is cut away, and the young shoots come up and bear in August. Under the circumstances this year I expect to have fresh figs from June until the first heavy frost."

Mr. Mackechney said he expected to send a branch from the usual trees to the Ramsey nursery at Austin, with which he has been connected during the past six years.

FREAK CHICK

Anarene Man Has Bird With Four Well Developed Legs

J. W. Trevathan of Anarene, seven miles south of Archer City, could supply Northwest Texas chicken consumers with plenty of drum sticks and increase his profits on poultry if he could succeed in raising a brood of four legged chickens like one which was hatched on his farm Wednesday.

The chicken has four fully developed legs and apparently is as healthy as its 40 normal brothers and sisters which were hatched at the same time, according to information received here from D. N. Rouche.

Mr. Trevathan said that he was going to raise the freak and keep it on his farm.

T. and P. Strike Board Deliberates on Case

DALLAS, April 18. (AP)—Material progress toward adjustment of the Texas and Pacific trainmen's strike situation was apparent tonight when the Hoover emergency mediation board went into executive session for deliberation on the completed case, with three of the seven complaints of the employes either settled or set aside for negotiations between the parties.

It is expected the board will not require more than two days to make its report on the remaining four complaints.

Physicians Attend Credit Meet Here

More than 20 members of the medical and dental profession in this city attended the weekly meeting of the Wichita Falls Retail Credit Grantors' association held at the Kemp hotel Thursday night, and expressed their endorsement of the program being followed by the organization, according to information given by its officials.

The gathering Thursday night had been styled "doctors' night" by the credit men in extending invitations to all doctors and dentists in the city to participate in the conference. It was stated that members of the Wichita County Medical society who were among those present Thursday night promised to bring the matter before the monthly meeting of the society the first week in May, and ask that body to take action providing full cooperation with the Credit Men's association in the future.

The purpose of the grantor's association was stated to be the prevention of over-extension of credit to individual accounts, and the maintenance of the best possible credit rating for such individuals through mutual and frank discussion with the customer.

W. H. Bailey, chairman of a committee of the State Retail Credit Men's association detailed to prepare for the state convention in May a display of the credit systems in use by the leading business concerns in the United States, announced that at the meeting here next week, April 23, the complete display will be shown.

PARENTS SEEK WICHITA BOYS

'Spring Fever' Says Officer When Two Disappear

Search was extended Thursday for R. J. Shepherd, 11, and William Bianum, 14, who disappeared from their homes here early Wednesday morning. Neither reported to his school classes all day Wednesday and the prolonged absenses were reported Thursday morning to J. A. McDonald, county juvenile officer, by the parents of the missing pair.

Friends of the boys reported to Mr. McDonald that they had announced their intention to visit Grandfield, Okla., but a visit to that place Wednesday afternoon failed to reveal any trace of the wanderers.

"Spring fever" has gripped dozens of youngsters, calling them out of schools and out into the country, Mr. McDonald said Thursday. Truancy has been very much on the increase during the past three weeks, he declared, the miscreants always being discovered out along the banks of the river or exploring some wood covered hill.

KINGSLEY, Kan., April 18. (UP)—Supported by physicians from distant parts of the state, Dr. D. C. Munford, charged with performing an illegal operation resulting in death, refuted the charge in court here today. Dr. Munford said he could show that the peritonitis, causing the girl's death, was not caused by surgical treatment.

To Stop Hosiery Fading Even When Ordinary Laundry Soap Is Used

Simple Way To Stop Fade and "Soap Eat" In Even Most Fragile Hosiery

You need no longer fear the fading of delicate colors in even the most fragile chiffon hosiery. You avoid, too, the "soap eat" that hosiery makers warn against. There's a new way of washing that prevents all this . . . even when the ordinary laundry soaps or powders are used.

Under the new method described here, even faintest pastel colors in fine lingerie or delicately tinted hosiery hold fast, according to recent tests, for as many as 50 washings, without noticeable fade or wear.

The method is very simple: To each tubful of water (or washer filled to the water line) you merely add 2 tablespoons of a preparation called CLIMALENE and use just ONE-FOURTH the quantity of soap you ordinarily use. Then proceed with washing as usual. (For light washing in small wash basins, a teaspoonful of CLIMALENE is enough.)

This preparation is used by experts to stop fade and soap eat. It acts by converting hard, or semi-hard water to rain water softness and to dissolve grease and dirt. White clothes, washed this way, never grow yellow—but wash pure white. Delicate colors hold fast. You can easily get it at any grocery store. Two sizes, 10c and 25c. Just ask your grocer for CLIMALENE.

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind., April 18. (AP)—One woman was killed, the sheriff was seriously wounded, and one bandit was shot when four men robbed the Columbia City State bank here today and escaped with several hundred dollars.

Sheriff J. M. Haynes engaged in a gun fight with the bandits and was wounded.

Gas Concerns Ask To Drop Franchise

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 18. (UP)—The Consolidated Gas Utility company and the Apache Gas company filed application with the corporation commission today to surrender their gas franchises in 21 towns and applications to be issued revocable permits in their stead.

The Consolidated Gas Utility company asked to surrender its franchise in 17 towns: Fletcher, Medford, Weatherford, Garber, Fairview, Braman, Hominy, Hitchcock, Custer City, Elkin, Tonkawa, Canton, Okeene, Thomas, Watonga, Cushing and Blackwell.

The four towns in which the Apache Gas company seeks to surrender its franchises and receive revocable permits are Marshall, Apache, Perry and Lovell.

All of the cases were set for hearing May 1.

The revocable permit law was passed at a special session of the ninth legislature. Its constitutionality has been attacked and two cases on the question have been pending in the state supreme court for several years, but the court has never passed on the constitutionality of the act.

One-Pound Baby

Utah's smallest baby, called "the silver dollar baby" because its head was no larger than a silver dollar when it was born, is winning its right for life. Negro Called for Jury Walks 22 Miles to Court

ELGIN, Ill., April 18. (UP)—A tired, dusty negro limped into the court room of Municipal Judge Frank E. Shopen as the court clerk was preparing to list as absent "John Edwards," called for jury service.

"Here I am sir," the negro said.

Judge Shopen frowned.

"Don't you know you are an hour late?" he asked.

"Your honor," Edwards replied, approaching the bar, "I apologize for being late. I tried to be on time. I started at 3 o'clock this morning and I came those 22 miles from my home in Aurora as fast as I could."

"How did you come?" Judge Shopen asked.

"I walked, your honor. I've been out of work for a long time, and I didn't have 10 cents for the trolley car."

Judge Shopen instructed his clerk to pay Edwards the $2.20 mileage customarily paid jurors who come from adjoining towns, and $5 for his time. Then he excused the negro and Edwards shuffled out to take the trolley car for Aurora.

ROCKS DELAY SHIP'S VOYAGE

French Liner Aground Off Plymouth, England

PLYMOUTH, Eng., April 18. (INS)—The French liner Paris, which was aground for an hour and a half on the reef known as Eddystone rocks, arrived inside the Plymouth breakwater today under her own power. The lifeboats were swung outward and the Jacob's ladder was swung down for emergency.

The extent of the damage was unknown, but it was reported that holes had been torn in the hull both fore and aft.

The impact was so slight that few passengers felt it. The passengers said that the crew showed excellent discipline.

At 6 o'clock this morning the Paris was still in the harbor. Some of the passengers were expected to debark and proceed to Southampton to continue their trip on the Mauretania or Leviathan leaving Saturday. Others elected to return to Havre on the Paris to catch the liner France.

Among the passengers on the Paris were M. Marsh, president of the Michigan Central railroad, and Mrs. Marsh; Barry Fairs, general news manager of the International News Service; B. A. Tompkins, vice president of the Bankers Trust company, of New York, and Mrs. Tompkins; Dr. and Mrs. Homer Gage, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Reynolds, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Francis G. Harrison of Cleveland, Ohio.

A majority of the passengers thought the stoppage was due to encountering a fleet of fishing boats.

The skipper of a French fishing smack hailed Capt. Yves Thomas of the Paris, shouting:

"Don't you know you are on the Eddystone? Get out of my nets."

School Work at Home Curtailed

New York Cuts Down on Outside Study

NEW YORK, April 18. (INS)—What may prove to be a precedent for other school systems throughout the country to follow had been set today by New York City, namely: The curtailment, and in many cases the elimination of, homework.

The new policy was announced by Dr. William J. O'Shea, superintendent of schools. It was received with joy by the school children and with some surprise by the teachers. Dr. O'Shea's recommendations, effective immediately, provide:

1. Elimination of all homework in the first three years of elementary schools.
2. Light home study assignments for the next three years.
3. Only the most essential and attractive forms of homework for the upper grades.
4. Junior high schools to be limited to not more than an hour and a half a day.
5. The abolition of all monotonous forms of homework.

Dr. O'Shea made it plain that he does not approve parental aid in the work of students. He also classified as "monotonous and useless repetition" homework that involves writing a large amount of formal penmanship drills or words a number of times, or the copying from books and the analyzing of complicated sentences.

Stop Rheumatic Pain With Prescription A-2851

Local druggists who are dispensing Prescription A-2851 are all loud in their praise of what it will do. It doesn't seem to matter whether the condition is of long standing and the pain constant, or whether only occasional twinges are felt—Prescription A-2851 seems to go right to the seat of the trouble and knock out the pain.

While this particular prescription was compounded especially for rheumatic conditions—it has also proven successful in many forms of gout, neuritis and sciatic nerve pain.

Tear out this announcement and hand it to your druggist, or be sure to remember the name—Prescription A-2851. In liquid or pill form. There is nothing else so good to drive out rheumatism.

Herbert Kaufman's
THE LONG TRAIL
Daily Editorial

IT'S a long trail from sixty-story skyscrapers back to sixty-foot lizards, but we're retracing every step of the way.

Before long, the last of nature's early tricks and tracks will be traced.

The clues are everywhere; her diary is scrawled on rock strata, scrolled on paleolithic bones and scribbled against canyon walls.

Marl beds and asphalt pits are on the witness stand offering antediluvian testimony.

Mammoths preserved in Siberian ice, and skulls antedating the Siberian age, attest periods far beyond Biblical knowledge or imagination.

Evolution's evidence is deposited among omnipresent clay banks in the Natural History museum and on the chalk cliffs at Dover,

It's there even if incredulity does prefer to look at the camel and declare "there ain't no such beast."

The story of Creation was written on granite pages and with indelible pens.

Exhumed records of vanished empires long ago disclosed Old Testament sources, in the folk lore of races whose own traditions could not remember where they first encountered a more naive conception of Divine mechanics.

◆ ◆ ◆

BIGOTRY would turn back the clock and destroy the precious stairs on which we so patiently toil to understanding.

Reaction would have use forget that Carrel has produced and maintained embryos, deny Wallace, reject Darwin, discount Burbank, and discard Mendel, at a moment when Japanese fanciers raise roosters with 20-foot tails and redesign fishes and trees at will.

Evolution is simply the expression of nature's constantly increasing efficiency.

She grows adept with practice, revises and improves her production like every other shrewd manufacturer.

The older the earth becomes, the more its forms simplify. Time teaches all creatures and creations their more efficient qualities.

And so they gradually abandon unhandy characteristics and unnecessary instincts.

The first human models had much more complicated mechanisms than our present machines.

Primitive man dropped tail and unrequired organs as he outgrew their necessity.

The original horse was a three-toed quadruped the size of a fox-terrier. The tiny chameleon is an aftermath of skyscraper saurians.

Plants and animals alike adjust themselves to changing environment and climate.

Whatever ceases to serve a specific purpose in the vast scheme of destiny is obliterated.

When we don't conform, we vanish.

It don't look like the detectives who'er workin' on the St. Valentine's day massacre in Chicago 'll git any vacation this summer. I guess Late Bud is havin' some paper hangin', or plasterin' or some kind o' work done, for I saw a big fine car parked in front of his house.

Valley Forge's Ghosts

THE University of Pennsylvania is laying plans for construction of a new college of liberal arts and school of history on a 325-acre tract of land in historical Valley Forge.

There is no indication whatever that the university authorities plan to make this new college in any sense a memorial to the heroes of the American Revolution. Yet, whatever their intentions, that is precisely what it would be.

There are a few names in American history that glow brightly, with a wild, unquenchable radiance, in any sentence where you drop them. Valley Forge is one of them. It is a word that has been woven into our national being. Whatever happens in Valley Forge, however unimportant, has an added significance simply because of the chance of geography.

And so, if a college is built there, and young students gather at Valley Forge each year to study and learn about the world and about life and try out their new young powers, the whole thing will mean something more than the mere addition to America's list of colleges. It will be a sort of memorial to the things Valley Forge stands for.

Think of it. The soul of the nation, one might say, was born at Valley Forge; or, if not born, at least given the early training that was to help shape its course. People live by traditions; and one of our very grandest and noblest traditions springs from the Pennsylvania hamlet where Washington's army went into winter quarters during the darkest hour of the Revolution.

The British were at Philadelphia, strong and warm and well fed. Philadelphia was glad to have them. The Revolution was non too popular there. Out at Valley Forge, in miserable huts, lay the "ragged continentals" of Washington. They were cold, poorly clad, miserably fed. A stocky Prussian was busy whipping them into an efficient fighting machine, and a horde of dissatisfied officers were busy scheming to get Washington replaced and win power for themselves. The newborn nation was very close to death.

The discouraged veterans, one imagines, must have wondered, at times, what the future could hold. Was Valley Forge to be the end—or was there something ahead that would be worth all the suffering, all the sickness, all the discouragement? Were they fighting in a lost cause, or would the children of men yet unborn bless them, in some distant day, for their endurance?

The proposed new college would be a kind of answer for them. What could be more fitting than that the scene of the continental army's blackest hour should become a site for a college—a place where carefree, fortunate young men and women could spend the brightest years of their lives?

The ghosts of the old continentals hover about Valley Forge. This new symbol of the peace and the richness of the country they established, we believe, would make them glad.

Under Whose Flag?

TO THE VICTOR goes the spoils, and sometimes even the hide and hair of the vanquished. A case in point seems to be the naming of former Governor Oscar B. Colquitt to the United States board of mediation as a Democrat.

Mr. Colquitt is the first of the so-called Hoover Democrats to reap the reward of the southern bolt that proved so disastrous to the Democratic party in the last election. He voted the Republican ticket and devoted his energies and influence to the cause of the Republican candidates, but withal claimed to remain a Democrat, quite an anomalous situation.

There probably is no way of proving that Mr. Colquitt is a Republican, a Democrat, or even a Hoover Democrat for that matter. Press association dispatches reveal that Democratic senators may kick up quite a ruckus over his confirmation. Then again they may not. It doesn't make a great deal of difference. Mr. Colquitt is entitled to his spoils, and the Democratic party is becoming quite accustomed to being skinned, although to some of the old line members it seems the hide comes off pretty deep when they call Mr. Colquitt a Democrat. The party in Texas would prefer that Mr. Colquitt sailed under some other flag.

When a Mistake Is Costly

THE mistakes that most men make in the course of their daily work are things that can be remedied in a short time. But there are a few businesses in which a mistake is apt to be frightfully expensive; and the business of building bridges is one of them.

A gigantic suspension bridge is being built across the Detroit river. The cables had been swung and about a third of the floor had been laid. Then it was discovered that the wires that made up the great cables were somehow defective. Someone—manufacturer, engineer or contractor, we don't know who—had made a little mistake. And there was nothing to do but take them down and start over.

That is costing the erectors just $1,500,000. There are some trades in which mistakes are pretty costly.

Built by the River

IT has been a long time since the government has had any unoccupied public land as far east as the Mississippi river. The other day, however, the general land office announced that it had thrown open to homesteaders tracts of land in Louisiana and Mississippi and that it was ready to receive claims for them.

This land, it should be explained, did not exist when the great rush for homesteaders' land was on years ago. The Mississippi river has built it. Rich, black loam, carried down the river by scores of tons has been deposited in what may be made good farm land.

The Mississippi brings floods and devastation, occasionally. But, less spectacularly, it is also engaged in constructive work. This new land, now about to be made productive, is an example.

Stimson's Good Taste

SECRETARY OF STATE STIMSON deserves the thanks of the country for his common-sense method of disposing of the social warfare in which Washington was plunged when it discovered that it did not know just how to treat a vice president's sister.

By refusing to let the State Department act any longer as arbiter of social affairs, the secretary has shown good judgment and good taste. The government of a democracy, one would think, has something better to worry about than who is going to sit where at a dinner table. Let's hope, now, that the social climbers and millionaire snobs of the capital can settle their own difficulties.

POONERVILLE FOLKS By Fontaine Fox

The Day Book of a New Yorker
Broadway Chatter by Grant Dixon

NEW YORK, April 18.—They say that Jeanne Eagels, the actress who was barred 18 months from the New York legitimate stage by Equity because she failed to appear for a show, doesn't care whether she appears again on Broadway.

Although her ban is due to be lifted soon, there is talk about her going to Europe to appear in "Congai." The famous actress, who quit "Rain" cold has defied the power of equity and has made plenty of money in the talking movies, for she has been in great demand in Hollywood.

◆ ◆ ◆

Her case is an example of the power that Equity holds in the American theatrical circle. It took the lead in the formation of the American theatrical board, which sought to study and alleviate the troubles of the stage. It has placed the actor in a powerful position in his relation to the producer.

But at the same time it is stern with its members when they violate the code. During the past season there have been a number of instances in which actors and actresses "quit cold." Equity does not allow it. Temperament may be all right in Hollywood or back stage, or—which usually is the case—for publicity purposes, but it isn't tolerated by Equity.

The organization may be, and, in fact, has been, accused of being altogether too autocratic. During my experience as a Broadway reporter I have found some instances in which such a charge might be sustained, and yet their autocracy is just and, undoubtedly, has done much for all those in any way connected with the theater.

◆ ◆ ◆

Once in a while, on such occasions as this, I begin to wonder if I devote too much attention in these columns to the theater in New York. The column is supposed to be about New York, its personalities, its ever changing moods and moments, its peculiarities and paradoxes.

◆ ◆ ◆

But always I come to the same conclusion: it is not a mistake. The majority of people I have met out of town think of New York in terms of the theater. When they speak to me about the city—particularly those who have not been here—they do not ask so much about the great who live here, or necessarily about the massive buildings or the crowds. They usually say: "I'll bet you see a lot of shows, original casts and everything."

And the strange fact is, that I seldom see a show. The same, I believe, applies to a good many other New Yorkers. When I told some friends once that I had seen exactly five shows in an entire year in New York they were stupefied. They seemed to think it was as unusual as going to Atlantic City and not taking a stroll on the boardwalk.

◆ ◆ ◆

Some time ago mention was made in this column about the trials of that excellent actress, Miss Lucille LaVerne. I mentioned that she was facing a difficult time because of the exigencies of the theater.

Now comes word that the Lucille LaVerne theater has been leased to Walter Greenough. It will resume its old name, "The Princess Theater." And that is ironic, too, for it recalls the time when Miss LaVerne, having achieved wide fame because of her acting in "Sunup," was induced to take over the theater and give her own productions. She reverted to "Sunup" but the public had long ago tired of it.

And like other actors and actresses who try to become independent producers, under the misapprehension that they are capable of the job since they were successful as thespians, she failed. In a way, it may be a good thing for the theater. Now we may look forward to the time when she will be in a show for the show's sake.

◆ ◆ ◆

They were talking in Sardi's restaurant, the gathering place of the Broadway Boswells, about the collapse of the show, "Headin' South," in which McIntyre and Heath were to be starred. It seems the show was closed because of the illness of the stars and the majority of the cast, stranded somewhere in Pennsylvania, faced the possibility of having little to eat and no place to stay. Then someone recalled this from the McIntyre and Heath repertoire of gags:

"Will we have some ham an' eggs?"

"Well, if we had some ham—"

"—an' some eggs."

SIDE GLANCES By George Clark

"I'm going to take my vacation as soon as possible, 'cause I don't feel so safe of my job."

The Once Over
By H. I. PHILLIPS

A great chain of cigar stores is to put in luncheonettes, it is announced. When this comes about it will be possible to get something to eat anywhere except in a hardware store, coal office or shoe shop.

A few years ago when a man wanted a quick lunch he sought a lunchroom. Then the drug stores went into the food business. They began with sandwiches and coffee but speedily worked up to soups, salads and roasts. Today when a man stops you on the street and asks where there is a drug store you never can tell whether he is in a hurry to get some rubbing liniment and a bottle of iodine or a plate of clam chowder and a piece of pumpkin pie.

PHILLIPS

The old-fashioned drug store proprietor was always a trained apothecary whose chief interest was rolling pills and crushing herbs. Over the store there hung an aroma of medicines. The modern proprietor is more apt to be a food specialist who gets a kick out of thinking up new salads, and the predominant drug store aroma is that of burning toast.

Big department stores began catering to the inner man some years ago, the 5 and 10 cent stores in most cities have lunch counters today and now that the corner cigar store is to have an affiliated lunch counter it seems but a matter of time before a hungry citizen may get a sandwich and a cup of coffee in a bank, brokerage office, haberdashery, plumbing supply store or florist's shop.

The cigar store luncheonette will, of course, give coupons.

Two with a cup of coffee, five with a cheese sandwich and ten with a vegetable plate.

After you have eaten two or three hundred times at a cigar store you will have enough coupons to get yourself a motorcycle, a radio set, a couple of bird-guns or a banjo.

D. A. R. ASSAILS MOVIE CENSOR

Better Films Chairman Scores 'Autocracy'

WASHINGTON, April 18. (US)—A vigorous attack upon motion and talking picture censorship featured the national congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution here today.

'Censorship does not accomplish anything. It doesn't make for moral pictures and it is exercised more and more for political purposes," declared Mrs. Newton D. Chapman, national better films chairman of the D. A. R., in her annual report to the convention.

Reviewing the cooperation of the D. A. R. and other national bodies with the motion picture industry, through the "open door policy" inaugurated by Will H. Hays, Mrs. Chapman said that pictures are steadily improving. This is being brought about, she said, through previews on the coast, response of the industry to suggestions, and indorsement of the better pictures by national groups.

"With the introduction of sound into motion pictures there has been, for the first time in the history of this country, an effort to censor speech," Mrs. Chapman continued.

"There is no difference between words spoken on a stage or platform, and words spoken from a motion picture screen. In one state the board of censors has gone so far as to state publicly that it had the right to cut or bar a movietone speech of the president of the United States if its members so chose."

The D. A. R. itself has felt the hand of the censor. Mrs. Chapman revealed.

"In one state we were told that anyone distributing our trailer showing form of salute and pledge of allegiance to the flag, without pre-showing approval by the censors, would be liable to prosecution," she said.

Referring to the picture "King of Kings," in which the D. A. R. cooperated in the making, Mrs. Chapman said:

"Protestants, Catholics and Americans of Jewish faith have joined in praising it. Yet a censor board in Memphis barred it from the screen there, and the Tennessee supreme court has ruled that there is no avenue of appeal from such astouding autocracy on the part of the censor board.

"How can we expect continued improvement in the quality of pictures if this is the reward meted out to a producer who tries to conform to the ideals and standards presented for the nation's consideration by leading religious, patriotic and civic welfare groups?"

Firemen Smash Speed Marks To Make 'Dray Run'

GREEN BAY, Wis., April 18. (AP)—A misunderstood telephone call sent the fire department to the Chicago & Northwestern freight depot in great haste here for four coils of wire.

The wire was consigned to the city electrician, and in some manner the freight clerk was connected by telephone with the fire department instead of the electrician.

"There are four coils of wire at the Northwestern freight depot," was the railroad clerk's notification.

"There are four cars afire at the Northwestern freight depot," was the interpretation of the fireman. Thereupon the fire trucks made a dash for the depot.

"Here's your wire," announced the clerk, surprised at the prompt call.

"Say, listen, do you think we're running a dray line?" a fireman asked.

Medical Journal Flays Newspapers

CHICAGO, April 18. (AP)—The problem of the cost of medical care has been exploited to make a newspaper holiday, Morris Fishbein asserted today in an editorial of the journal of the American Medical association, of which he is editor.

The issue is the question of Dr. Louis E. Schmidt, expelled from the Chicago Medical society for his connection with a health clinic which advertises, was his ethical status, said Dr Fishbein.

"Newspaper stories changed that question to a consideration of the cost of medical care and made Dr. Schmidt the standard bearer in a campaign which previously, so far as available evidence permits judgment, concerned him but "little," asserted Dr. Fishbein.

Health And Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCoy who can be addressed in care of this paper

(Copyright 1929 by The Bell Syndicate Inc.)

(This is the fourth of a series of articles telling readers just how to take a cleansing spring diet.)

The First Day Is the Hardest!

This first day of your eliminative fruit diet will in many ways seem the hardest of any during this diet treatment. When only such a small amount of food is used as that contained in the orange juice, your body will begin to throw out vast quantities of morbid material. The blood takes this poisonous matter up and deposits it in the lungs, kidneys, skin and bowels, and from there it is eliminated through the ordinary functions of these parts. While the toxins are literally racing out of the body, they must be carried to the eliminative organs through the blood and lymphatic circulation.

Owing to this large amount of toxins suddenly freed, you will generally notice at least a slight headache and usually even on the first day your tongue will become coated, the mouth taste bad, and your breath will have a decidedly offensive odor.

Aids to Elimination

After two or three days the elimination is so great through the skin that your friends with a good sense of smell will be able to detect a toxic odor if they put their noses close to your skin. The frequent sponge bathing which I recommend will eliminate this unpleasant odor to some extent.

The enemas advised keep the intestines comparatively free of toxic material almost as soon as it is formed.

A large amount of water drinking will give your kidneys added fluid to carry off the wastes which are deposited through these organs of elimination.

The deep-breathing will eliminate the carbon-dioxide gas and other poisons, and also assure you of a plentiful supply of oxygen with which to burn up the tissue wastes.

But in spite of this elimination you may feel toxic, and your head may ache for the first day or two until your system has succeeded in eliminating the first great mass of toxic material which has been accumulating in your body for perhaps even years.

I am sure that the elimination of toxins is at least 10 times as great during the fruit fast as at any other time providing you use these other aids for elimination which I have suggested.

Do not fail to follow all of my instructions, as I have dieted many thousands of patients, and know that each detail of these instructions is necessary to secure the most complete results.

Do Not Think You Can Substitute Laxatives for the Enemas!

This has been tried and found to fail, with often disastrous results.

It seems that the reason you eliminate so much when you are taking only the orange juice is because your body is not burdened with much food and the necessity for digesting and assimilating food. All of the energies of the body can be used in the processes of elimination. It would be reasonable to suppose that elimination would be doubled, but in reality it is increased a great deal more than that, as we have every evidence to believe from careful examination made during the fast of the toxins thrown out through the lungs, skin, urine and bowels.

You who do not have the reassuring benefit of laboratory examinations must have the courage to believe that the same changes will take place with you as they have with thousands of others who have been under my personal observation.

Tomorrow you are to follow exactly the same instructions as today. If you missed yesterday's article, see if you can find yesterday's newspaper, or come to the Times office and get a copy containing the first instructions.

Watch for additional instructions in tomorrow's paper! (The usual Friday menus have been eliminated today and will also not appear next Friday, while this cleansing diet course is being given.)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(Baby's Bath)

Question—M. C. asks: "Is it necessary for a 10-month-old baby to have a bath every day?"

Answer—It is a good plan for everyone, from a few days old to extreme age to take at least one and preferably two or three baths a day. These should be mostly sponge or shower baths. The baby has a better chance of living to a great age if the skin is kept thoroughly through bathing as I have suggested.

Hot Cakes and Sorghum

Question—O. J. M. asks: "What do you think of sorghum with hot cakes or waffles? Has it any particular food value? Is it fattening? I have been using honey, but I have become tired of it."

Answer—Sorghum molasses is as good as any other kind of sugar to use with hot cakes or waffles. Only a small amount of any kind of sugar should be used and the hot cakes or waffles should be baked thoroughly so as to dextrinize them as much as possible.

Two Black Crows

MORAN AND MACK

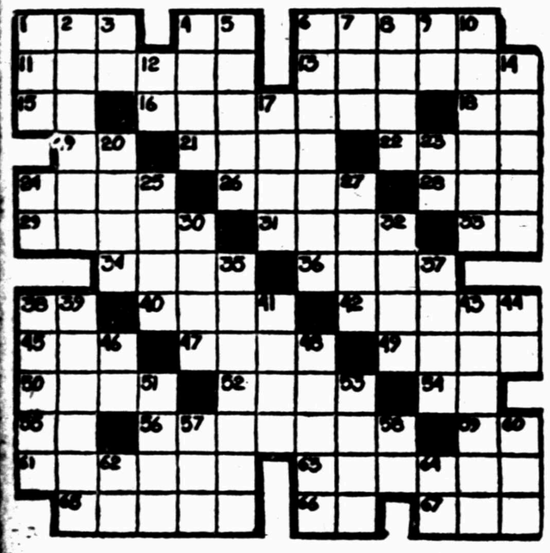

MORAN: Big Boy, I got another letter from yo' wife.
MACK: Don't read it.
MORAN: She wants yo' home.
MACK: Yo' kin stop right there.
MORAN: She says she loves yo'.
MACK: So do I.
MORAN: Everybody in town wants to see yo'.
MACK: That's why I left.
MORAN: She says she saw yo' in dat talking pictures.
MACK: I'll bet she outalked 'em.
MORAN: She wants to know how much yo' is makin' a week.
MACK: That woman has been inquisitive fo' fifteen years.
MORAN: An' finally, she sez she has saved eleven dollars.
MACK: Why didn't yo' say so in de' first place?

Big Boy gets good news from home. But he had to go through a long letter to get it. Th' only thing that is holding Big Boy back in the talkies is his talk.

Greve Resigns Post As M.-K.-T. Director

NEW YORK, April 13. (UP)—William M. Greve today resigned as a director of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas lines, presumably to become a director of the St. Louis Southwestern. Greve is president of New York Investors, Inc., which recently purchased the block of 135,000 shares of Cotton Belt preferred stock held by the Kansas City Southern. The Interstate Commerce commission is now investigating Kansas City Southern's ownership of the Cotton Belt stock.

The dusky performers were under the direction of Miss Aubrey Carr, instructor in music at the school. They were accompanied here by John E. Shields, superintendent; his son, Raymond Shields, and Harry Stround, manager of the chamber of commerce at Lawton.

School and College News

An unusual form of entertainment was in store for students and teachers at the college-high school general assembly period Thursday morning when 18 students from the Fort Sill Indian school presented an hour's program of entertainment. The group was composed of nine Comanche, nine Kiowa and one member of the Sioux tribe.

An Indian dance in the native tribal costume was presented by two male students of the Kiowa tribe, with accompaniment on the drum and chanting by several other males of the tribe.

The program was received with great enthusiasm by the students. In addition to the Oklahoma visitors, Dr. J. W. Cantwell, J. L. Jackson Jr. and Hubert Harrison were visitors at assembly.

The local junior college had its first example of mob rule following the program when an invitation was extended the local students to correspond with their Indian neighbors. Occupants of the entire lower floor swarmed over the platform in quest of the addresses of the entertainers. One Indian girl who was exceptionally pretty was the objective of a large number of the local collegians. Order was practically impossible for a period of 15 minutes or over.

❖ ❖ ❖

Thirty-seven students of the Junior college made a B average or better for the second period of the second semester, according to office records. Twenty-two of this number made no grade below B for the period. The following names were posted on the honor roll for the period: Elizabeth Beumler, Frances Bone, Jane Cameron, Don Ruth Coffee, Bill Duncan, Robert Lee Gohlke, Natalie Gorin, Chiquita Greanell, Ruth Hager, Mary Kathryn Henderson, Mrs. B. Paul Schurer was declared winner of the annual health and efficiency test which is given all boys' gymnasium classes at the close of school each year, with 96 points. His nearest competitor, Glen Chagin, had a total of 97¾ points. Winner of the event each year is determined by a close examination for improvement in health and efficiency from an examination, according to C. C. Frazee, boys' gymnasium instructor.

Judges for the event were Dr. Q. B. Lee, Dr. O. W. Wilson, Coach E. A. Baggett of the Junior college and C. C. Frazee, gymnasium instructor.

Gymnasium students who entered into the finals for the test were announced as follows: Charles Reid, Glen Irwin, Melvin Evans, J. D. Holland, E. C. Stockton, Howard Fanning, Raymond Allen, Wendall Bash, Thomas Cox, J. W. Erwin, Dwight Allen, H. K. Roberts, J. E. Park, Baxter Bernard, Alvin Bell and Bill Box.

JURY AWARDS WIDOW $7,200

Compensation Fixed For Oil Field Accident

A jury in the 78th district court Thursday afternoon awarded Mrs. Orren Champer and her son, Orren, Jr., $7,200 compensation from the Employers Liability Assurance Corporation Ltd., in connection with the death of Orren Champer Sr., after an oil field accident near Burkburnett in August, 1928.

The award covers a $20 weekly allotment for 360 weeks, to be paid in a lump sum and divided equally between mother and son, according to the verdict of the jury.

Mr. Champer died after a cerebral hemorrhage resulting from a fall to the cement floor of an engine room, according to testimony introduced by Mrs. Champer. Evidence for Mrs. Champer attempted to how that the fall was the result of the back firing of an engine. Mr. Champer, a pumper on a lease operated by the Oklahoma Petroleum and Gasoline company, died two days after the fall, the testimony showed.

Mrs. Champer was represented in the suit by Neal Powers, member of the firm of Weeks, Morrow, Francis and Hankerson.

Junior C.-C. 'Appreciation Week' Winning Wide Approval, Leaders Told

Henry Camp Harris of the National Security Life Insurance company was the principal speaker at a meeting of directors and committeemen of the junior division of the chamber of commerce held at the Kemp hotel Thursday noon for the furtherance of plans for "Appreciation Week," April 28 to May 4.

Mr. Harris stressed the significance of the coming period of special observance of the opportunities and advantages offered by this city. It will give wide and favorable advertising to Wichita Falls in other towns in this section, and enlist a more complete devotion of local citizens to civic service, he said.

Radio programs will be given during 30-minute periods on Saturday night hereafter by the junior division, with 15-minute programs daily during appreciation week, according to Eddie Weldon.

Ralph Pittman, a member of the Belgian band committee, stated that all local service clubs have been requested to support the appearance of the organization here next Saturday.

The following committee heads spoke briefly in behalf of the programs they are preparing: Wilbur page, publication; Dr. C. R. Lanphere, Passion Play, sponsored by Maskat temple; Ted Wooldridge, golf tournament, and Rev. Patrick D. Moreland, four-minute speakers. Hubert M. Harrison, general manager of the chamber of commerce, stated that the citizenship of the city already has shown a marked approval of the "civic revival" undertaken by the junior division. More than 60 members were present Thursday.

CHURCH CENSUS REVEALS GAINS

Baptists Lead in Number Of New Members

NEW YORK, April 18. (AP)—The Christian Herald's annual religion census shows that churches in the United States gained 1,115,000 new members in 1928, almost twice as many as they gained in 1927, it was announced today.

The Baptist church leads in the gains, its 14 branches showing a combined increase of 375,842 new members; the Roman Catholic church comes second, with 360,153 new members; and the Disciples of Christ third, with 173,083. All other gains were under 100,000.

Three denominations showed decreases in membership. The Evangelical Synod of North America, the Evangelical church, and the Friends. All the others showed gains ranging from 500, reported by the 10 bodies of the Oriental Catholic church, up to more than 360,000 gain by the Roman Catholic church.

Reservations For Scout Camp Open

Reservations for the annual Boy Scout camp, to open for two one-week periods on June 17, may be made within the next two weeks, Frank B. Creighton, scout executive and director of the camp, announced Thursday.

Reservations will be limited to 85 boys for each week, the director said.

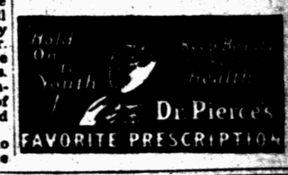

Plans for the camp include the organization of two playground ball teams to play two games every evening during the camp, Mr. Creighton said, the members of the winning teams to receive trophies. Extended daily hikes, varied council fire programs, and a series of surprise stunts have been planned for this year's outing.

All campers will be required to work on their tests during the camp, several scoutmasters having been assigned to the work of giving the examinations each day, the director continued.

At the end of each of the periods the campers are to choose the six best campers and the men in the group will select the three of highest standing for nomination as honor campers. The winners will be given a trip to Carlsbad cavern. Ten boys from each period will also be elected to membership in the Order of the Tong. The camping fee this year is $7.50 for each week, Mr. Creighton said.

Indigestion

Immediate Relief!

What most people call indigestion is usually excess acid in the stomach. The food has soured. The instant remedy is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.

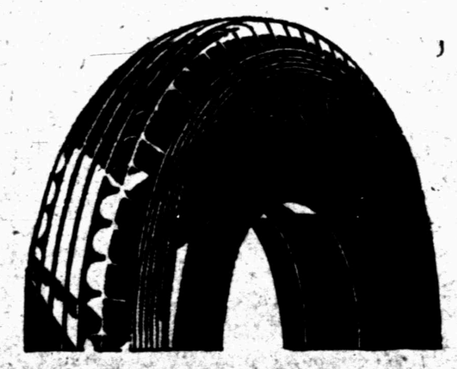

The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For the 50 years since its invention it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, so efficient.

One tasteless spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The results are immediate, with no bad after-effects. Once you learn this fact, you will never deal with excess acid in the crude ways. Go learn—now—why this method is supreme.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.

STEENGRAFE'S HURLING STOPS SPORTS 9 TO 1, TO EVEN SERIES

SPUDDERS LIVE UP TO THREAT

Gallopers Knock Two Off Mound and Run Wild

By LARRY DAILEY
Record News Sports Editor

SHREVEPORT, La., April 18—Our Spudders were themselves today and the Shreveport Sports did not have a chance. Galloway's gallopers hammered two veteran pitchers off the hill in three innings and backed the superb chucking of Milt Steengrafe with glittering and errorless support. There could only be one result under such circumstances and it was 9 to 1. The Spudders said before the game that they would have Tiny Owens out of there by two innings and they made good that threat. The big right hander was pounded off the hill after yielding four runs and five hits in the second round.

Karpp Makes Exit

Francis Karpp stopped them temporarily, but the tenure of office held by this veteran was also short, and he retired in the third round under another blast of terrific clouting, in which five runs and four hits were produced.

Sis Hopkins, a rookie, then was delegated the task of stopping the Spudders and this young righthander with a peculiar delivery did excellently, giving up only one tally and five hits the rest of the way.

Fourteen hits were gathered by Wichita Falls, Turgeon, Benton, Sullivan leading the offensive. Benton hammered a double and a triple and had a sacrifice; Turgeon clouted a home run, a mighty blow over the left field wall that sent a comrade home ahead of him, and a brace of singles; Sullivan whaled two singles, sacrificed and walked, and Stapleton clouted two doubles, a single and was passed once. Steengrafe himself hit a pair of singles and Red Bennett almost knocked off the two by fours in left field with a tremendous sock that was good for two bases.

Milt Does His Stuff

While he and his comrades were thus fattening up batting averages, Jug Handle Milt Steengrafe was showing some great hurling. It was just a breeze for the big fellow. Six hits, scattered along the route, except in the third inning when they bunched two for their only run and only two bases on balls, was given up by Steengrafe. Milt is headed for a big year, his work today bearing out previous forecasts along that line. He's going to have a whale of a season with the big league as the probable goal, mark that down.

Fast fielding aided Milt materially, Swenson in particular flashing some of the most sensational third-basing the natives hereabouts have seen for many a moon.

Owens Driven Off

The Spudders lost no time in getting Mr. Owens out of the ball game. They had two runners on base in the first inning and drove the big right-hander off the hill in the second with a four-hit attack that netted three runs.

Sullivan led off the second with a single to center. Stapleton singled to right. Sullivan stopping at second. Woehrs fumbled Lapan's grounder, filling the bases. Steengrafe slashed a hit into right, Sullivan and Stapleton scoring and Lapan going to third. Benton flied deep to Hutson, scoring Lapan. Turgeon single to right, his second hit. Karpp relieved Owens. Stewart tossed out Fitzgerald, Turgeon going to second. Bennett flied to McClanahan. Woehrs got the Sports' first hit in the second after two were out, a single to center, but Stewart popped to Swenson.

Karpp Pounded Hard

Galloway's gallopers pounded Karpp off the mound in the third under a barrage of four hits and a sacrifice.

Sullivan singled to left. Stapleton doubled to right, scoring Sullivan, and Bud went to third on the throw to catch Sullivan. Dick was hit by the ball as he slid into the plate and the breath was knocked out of him, but he revived speedily. Lapan was hit by a pitched ball. Steengrafe's hoist to McClanahan scored Stapleton. Lapan stole second, honest and truly. Benton tripled to deep center, scoring Lapan. Turgeon hit his home run, scoring Benton ahead. Fitzgerald again faced the relieving pitcher, Hopkins, and was tossed out by the chucker.

Milt Tightens Up

Shreveport got a brace of hits and a base on balls in the third, but Milt tightened up and allowed only a run. Benton knocked down Hopkins' sharp grounder after one was out and held it to a single. Whelan walked. Hutson doubled to right, scoring Hopkins, and Whelan went to third. McClanahan bounced to Swenson and the bases were filled when Lapan and Wally failed to catch Whelan between third and home. Holman forced Whelan at home on a tap to Steengrafe. Cox lifted to Bennett.

The Spudders tallied again in the fourth. Bennett led off with a double to left. McClanahan took Swenson's fly. Sullivan's long lift to McClanahan sent Bennett to third. Stapleton's third hit and second double to right tallied Bennett.

NOTES OF THE GAME

By LARRY DAILEY
Record News Sports Editor

SHREVEPORT, La., April 18.—Jim is undecided over his hurling selection tomorrow. Wiltse or Smith may get the nod. And then again it may be a dark horse, Jim says.

Oscar Tuero, the Cuban, probably will start for the Sports.

I met a fan here today who is 76 years old and has lived in Shreveport for 70 years, the last 10 of which have been spent waiting for a pennant winner.

"I see Babe's ankles are bad," Hal Wiltse wisecracked in the hotel when he read of the great man's home run.

Bernie Deviveros was ill today and Andy Woehrs, utility man, was at shortstop.

Swenson certainly turned in some beautiful plays in handling a flock of chances. In the fourth he made a bare-hand stop and perfect throw to catch Hopkins at first with a runner on second and two out. And he started a double play in the fifth that again helped turn back the hostiles.

Wally is banging the ball hard but socking it right at some enemy fielder. Those drives will go for hits, eventually.

Fitzgerald came out of a little batting slump that bothered nobody except probably the conscientious Howard himself by getting a hit his last time at bat. Fitz' ankle still is stiff and will keep him a trifle slowed up for a few more days.

Baylor Takes Second From Texas U., 8 to 3

WACO, Texas, April 18. (AP)—Hitting the ball all over the lot, chasing Peeples from the mound and also smashing Browning at will, the Baylor Bears made it two straight over the Texas Longhorns today. The game was halted twice by rain, stopped permanently at the end of the sixth, with the Bears in the lead, 8 to 3. Score:

Texas	010 002—3
Baylor	110 420—8

CUBS TAKE SERIES

SAN ANTONIO, April 18. (AP)—The San Antonio Indians today went on the war path in the ninth inning to score four runs to tie, but the tribe flopped and the Waco Cubs came up for the tenth and scored for a cleanup in the two game series winning 7 to 6 as the Indians were blanked in their half.

Lefty Ralph Stein held the tribe well in hand until the ninth inning. Gene Walker started on the Indian hill but was shown the way to the club house after he had toiled 10 minutes.

Weather and Athletes

Mr. Irving K. Woolfe's recent contribution concerning the effect weather conditions have on certain athletes, has stirred up more than usual comment.

This effect is undoubtedly quite pronounced. At Toledo, the sluggish Willard was more affected than Dempsey by the 110 degree sun that blistered the arena. At Philadelphia, the rain affected the more nervous Dempsey than it affected Tunney.

Some ball players are at their best in hot weather—others on chillier days.

Muggy weather means a let down all along the line. When they begin talking humidity you can gamble they are not keyed up to the performance of any noble ambitions.

In regard to the effects of ventilation, it is easy to understand why Tunney was able to get in much better condition for Dempsey, at Miami Beach and Speculator, N. Y., than Jack Sharkey could reach, working out in a smoke filled, steamy atmosphere.

Other Comments

Dear Mr. Rice: As a reader of your column, I noted today with much interest, the letter of Irving K. Woolfe, on the effect of weather upon athletes. I can say that I thoroughly agree with everything he says, as I have proved, in my own case, that the weather plays a tremendously important part in what one is able to accomplish. I am not an athlete, but an artist, and after years of experience I know without further doubt that on muggy days, either hot or cold, when the air has above a certain amount of moisture in it, I cannot do any work that amounts to much. On a clear, dry day, the reverse is true, and I can get a good deal done.

I also know that soldiers who were gassed and felt the effects for years afterward, always complained of feeling worse when the humidity began to soar.

CHARLES R. PATTERSON,
344 West 77nd street, New York.

Dear Mr. Rice: Mr. I. K. Woolfe's letter to you in today's Tribune on the effect of moisture in the air on physical endeavor, can be fully answered.

About 10 or 12 years ago the state of New York conducted an inquiry and investigation of the effect of air, humidity and ventilation in the field of physical effort. This was, of course, an economic study centering chiefly upon factory workers and those engaged in manual trades. The conclusions arrived at would naturally apply to the field of athletics.

I conducted some tests myself in my own factory and the results showed that production varied with temperatures and air moisture.

Mr. Hollis Godfrey, president of the Engineering-Economics Foundation, 3 Joy street, Boston, is an authority on this subject and made the state study referred to. He would be glad to give you information on the subject.

KINGSLEY M. WHITCOMB,
Madison, Conn.

In Other Ways

A cold, drenching rainstorm is nearly always depressing to golfers, but I saw two beat the weather and the course together. At Lido, in a cold, driving rain that almost wrecked the rest of the field, Bobby Jones shot a 72. He did better than he would have done on a day of heavy humidity.

At Olympia fields last summer, Hagen started the last nine one afternoon as a deluge broke with lightning, thunder and wind, and the Ryder cup captain shot a 32. He also did better than he would have done on a close, humid afternoon.

Eating and Competition

The return of outdoor competition also brings up the debate as to when and how much food one should eat.

It has been proved that no one should go into any sort of competition after anything approaching a hearty meal. Mathewson discovered that he had more speed and control if he left out his luncheon hour. Bobby Jones picked up a new golf effectiveness when he cut a rather heavy noonday meat lunch down to crackers and milk, with a rest before the next round started.

Yet there are thousands, possibly millions, who gulp down a heavy meal, dash out to tennis, golf, baseball or something else, and wonder why they are off form and feel badly later on.

The use of the blood is needed for digestion and also for competition. When the job is divided there will be no happy results on either side.

A light lunch and a good rest is about four times as effective a combination as a good lunch and a light rest.

The same is true for the evening meal—as football trainers have discovered. The longer the football player waits to eat after a hard game, or the longer an oarsman waits, the better off he will be.

Genaro Wins Over Plabner on Foul

PARIS, April 18. (UP)—Frankie Genaro, New York Italian and former flyweight champion, won on a foul from Emile (Spider) Plabner of France, European champion, in the fifth round of a 15-round bout advertised for the world's 112-pound title here tonight.

When they met March 2, Pladner knocked out Genaro in the first round. Genaro claimed foul, but his protest was disallowed.

The crowd was in an uproar over the violent tactics used by Genaro in the first four rounds. The spectators had hissed the American throughout for butting with his head, and the judges twice warned him for such tactics.

Summer Bowling Tilt Starts Today

Wichita Falls' summer bowling league will begin play Friday night at 8 o'clock on the Spudder alleys, it was announced Thursday.

The league will be composed of six "scratch" teams, to which names had not been assigned Thursday night. The teams have been organized by the six captains so that each is made up of capable pinmen, which, no doubt, will make the games keenly contested.

Captains of the teams are as follows: Harry Davis, Harry Katz, Jules Constantine, Lew McCarty, L. W. Rieser and Stanley McGregor.

The public is invited to witness the games free of charge.

Texas University Golfer Wins Medalist Honors

PICK HIM UP, DAD

Tillie: Hello, John!

Millie: Is his name John? Your father told me his name was mat.

Tillie: Oh, no. Father just calls him that because he always trips over him at our front gate.—Tit-Bits.

SHREVEPORT, La., April 18.—James Cato Galloway for governor! If the number of friends and acquaintances who greeted the Spudder manager on the train coming over here, at Fort Worth in the stopover there, and all around the loop for that matter, would vote for him, Jim would stand a real chance of occupying the executive mansion at Austin.

Prexy Gardner, Jim and I were talking together on the train. A man walked by, stopped, and greeted Jim. Another comes down the aisle, sees Jim, stops and talks with him. A third gives the skipper the glad mitt. "Say, you must know everybody," says Gardner. Then along came another fellow, and he stopped and wished Jim good luck for the Spudders.

"Beats me," says J. Alvin. "I never saw anything like it. Four men come along on a train, and you know all of them."

WHEN ball players go out on the road, great are the fanning bees. Plays and players are discussed from every angle, serious and humorous.

We're in the waiting room at the T. P. station. A chap came in who knew Steengrafe and gave Milt the glad hand. He was wearing a straw hat of 1928 vintage, or later. Now a last season's straw is called a repeater. "I see," said Milt, "that you're wearing a repeater."

The guy took off the kelly, looked inside at the brand, and piped back, "No, that isn't the name of it."

HOWARD Fitzgerald told one on Slim Love, the ancient southpaw pitcher, who was a nemesis of Tom Jenkins and who, incidentally, is with Birmingham now. Love was due to hurl against the Spudders one day, and he was feeling particularly fit. But Slim respected his adversary on the mound. "This is going to be a tough one," he said to the Steer manager. "But you get me a run and we'll win it. Otherwise, it will be nary to nary."

HERE'S a knotty baseball problem, propounded by Rabbit Benton: The bases are filled, none out, the batter singles—and NO run was scored. How come?

BAYLOR CLUB RALLY TONIGHT

Many to Attend Annual Banquet Here

Plans have been completed by officers of the Wichita County Baylor club for the entertainment of a large number of alumni and former students and their parents at the annual banquet to be held Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in Ye Olde French inn, Tenth and Brook.

Information received Thursday indicated that large delegations would come from Vernon and Seymour, Baylorites of those cities affiliating regularly with the Wichita county organization. Gradates and former students of the university at Waco and of the medical departments, which are located in Dallas, are invited to the annual dinner reunions which are held all over the country, usually on San Jacinto day, April 21.

W. S. Allen, dean of the college of arts and sciences at Waco, will be the principal speaker of the evening, while Dr. George T. Singleton will make a brief address on behalf of the medical branches of the university. R. E. Shepherd, tenor, will give a group of solos, accompanied by Mrs. Shepherd, and it was stated that other musical numbers are being arranged. Fred Barron, president of the club, will preside at the banquet.

B. A. A. Marathon To Begin Today

BOSTON, April 18. (UP)—With a field of 210 entrants, America's long-distance running classic, the annual B. A. A. Marathon from Hopkinton to Boston will be run off here Friday.

Clarence de Mar, veteran Melrose runner and six times winner of the 26-mile grind, is favored to repeat his former victories. De Mar himself does not expect to head the field again and estimates that his time will be about eight minutes slower than last year's record.

BABE CLOUTS HOMER IN FIRST TRIP TO PLATE AS YANKS WIN, 7-3

GOTHAM NINE BEATS RED SOX

40,000 Jam Stadium For Delayed Opener

NEW YORK, April 18. (AP)—Halted twice by the weather, the Yankees opened their 1929 season at the stadium today by defeating the Red Sox, 7 to 3. The cold weather held the attendance to 40,000, meager for a Yankee opening. Babe Ruth hit a home run in his first time at bat and Lou Gehrig got one in the sixth. The bases were empty on each occasion.

George Pipgras started for the Yanks, but was wild. He got credit for the victory, but gave way to Fred Heimach in the sixth. Charlie Ruffing and Milton Gaston worked for the Red Sox. Score:

A Session of Fairy Godfathers

NEW YORK, April 18. (US)—The house opened up its annual farm relief tournament this week.

There were no farmers there. They were busy planting a new bumper crop of low-priced wheat.

Nothing is set on the farm relief program. Except that there will be the usual commission.

The salary of each commissioner will be twelve thousand round dollars per annum.

There will be five members on the board. None of whom will be a farmer.

The big problem of agriculture is how to get the wheat to the Chicago grain elevators and the farmers to Tex Guinan's night club.

The opening of the house marked the special session of the seventy-first congress of the United States of America, including the suburbs, but excluding the Leviathan, which is wet.

Over five hundred million dollars will be set aside on a sharp tangent for the benefit of the plow chauffeurs.

It will be known as the revolving fund.

Indicating that the weed-benders are still on a merry-go-round.

If you have never tried to snatch the brass ring off a revolving fund, you do not realize how dizzy a cross-eyed jockey can get on a circular track.

We do not blame the berry jugglers for being worried about the future. Flour is precarious, barley is fluctuating and oats are wild.

Even a bootlegger cannot tell what corn is going to do to the farmer or his customers.

And no matter what the market does for the speculators, it always goes against the grain.

Five hundred million dollars makes a neat, luxurant haystack. But, if the farmer wants to be certain of relief he will trade his farm for a job on the commission.

As the farm is the backbone of the nation, congress seems determined to hold a session for each vertebra.

For the last few years the farmers have been doing a cadenza between bank presidents and their scare-crows.

We hope that on the first of next month they will be capering a charleston around the may-pole hand-in-pocket with Andy Mellon.

Newton proved that the action of gravity would compel an apple to leave its sauce.

But nobody knows just what effect a revolving fund will have on a dollar. Will it fling the nutritious coin far and wide or will it clutch it to its axis with the miserly romance of centrifugal force?

Quartet of 'Marty's' Loom on Horizon Of Pugilism as Coming Ring Stars

Sampson, Goldman, Roth, and Gallagher, all Youngsters, Show Promising Material That May Bring Renown

By DAMON RUNYON

(Copyright, 1929, by Universal Service, Inc.)

NEW YORK, April 18.—The good old name of Martin, abbreviated to Marty, may be the name to conjure with in the sour science the next few years, displacing the honored monogers of Jim and Jack.

Yes, I know it is commonly pronounced as if it should be spelled "monicker," but it is really "monoger," as above, derived from the word monogram. It is a hobo expression. The old time 'boes used to carve their initials, or monograms, on the wayside water tanks.

Three Fighting Martys

I like the name of Martin, and its diminutive Marty. It has virility. It has substance. Masculinity. It rolls easily off the tongue. It is a good fighting name. And just now there is a quartet of young Martys who may make history for the sour science if they fulfill their early promise. Three of them live in New York.

These Martys are Marty Sampson, a middleweight, who will probably be a light heavy, Marty Goldman, a lightweight, and Marty Roth, a 130-pounder. I am told that the Irish commonly claim the name of Martin as their own, but these youngsters are all Jews. Then there is Marty Gallagher, of Washington, a heavyweight, whose forebears came from the ould sod.

This Marty Gallagher is a mighty likely young fellow. In fact, I think he is about as promising a heavyweight as we have in the country, though you don't hear much about him. He fought William Gibson's golf playing pugilistic protege, Johnny Grosso, on the Sharkey-Stribling card at Miami, and while Grosso won the decision I thought Gallagher made a good showing.

The announcement of this bout may puzzle many of the clients at the mauss of Miami. They may not recall seeing any such event. I hasten to assure them that it really took place. It was put on after the main bout when most of the clients were outside the walls of the arena venting their indignation to the calm Florida moon.

Gallagher Looks Good

Martin William Gallagher was born in Washington, D. C., and is just rising 22. He weighs around 190 pounds, and is a shade over six feet tall, the ideal size for fight. He turned professional in 1925.

Since then he has lost few fights. Last year he licked such as Gunboat Williams, George Gemas, Leo Gates, Al Friedman. Battling Levinsky and Herman Weiner, which is fair competition for a youngster. I am inclined to think you will hear much of this particular Marty, if—well, the usual ifs.

Two of the New York Martys, Goldman and Roth, were discovered and developed by little Willie Beecher, the old lightweight, who looked a miniature Jim Jeffries in his pugilistic prime. Willie operates over in East New York, and he turns out more good amateurs than any man in town. I think Willie Beecher, though he was anything but a clever boxer when he was in the ring, is one of the greatest developers of young talent in the United States.

His partner is the ubiquitous Hyman "Feet" Edson, who smokes the largest cigar known to science, and can talk faster, and louder than any man alive, with the possible exception of Mr. James J. Johnston, Mr. Hurry up Yost, and Mr. Herbert Bayard Swope. They are all so good I can scarcely split them out for a decision.

'Feet' Coaches Roth

"Feet" is handling Marty Roth, who is the new sensation of the little clubs in Brooklyn. He is a great puncher with either hand for a small chap. He is always digging in and belting away. He never lets up. He is what they call a club fighter, and he may be a champion in the making.

Beecher brought out Marty Goldman as an amateur a couple of years ago, displaying a youngster with a natural left hand, and tremendous fighting heart. As a professional, Goldman has yet to lose a fight, and is steadily improving. He is now handled by the redoubtable Mr. Pete, the goat, otherwise Stone, the pugilistic associate of Bill Duffy.

Marty Sampson is another ex-amateur, a star of the uptown small clubs. He was raised in Harlem, and has just turned 21, so he is sure to grow out of the middleweight class. It is possible that he may eventually be a heavyweight, as he is a tall, rangy youngster, and if he continues his present rate of improvement he may go beyond any New York lad of recent years.

He has superb boxing class for a youngster, and lacks only the confidence that experience brings to make him a great fighter. His father, Moe Sampson, is a popular old time night club waiter, and through him the boy has developed a Broadway following that trails him to the far reaches of the uptown arenas whenever Marty goes to the post.

All Show Promise

It is a precarious business, this picking out half developed boys and pronouncing them coming great fighters, because so many things can arrest their development, including themselves. But the gleam of golden promise is in the boys I have mentioned here, and the distances they will travel, as estimated by their promise, ought to be far.

I sometimes think a New York raised youngster of superior pugilistic promise is handicapped by his environment more than a small town lad, because the latter doesn't get advancement and the adulation of the mob until he is more seasoned, and experienced, and balanced, whereas the New York kids are sometimes headliners before they are out of their fistic swaddling clothes, and are ready only to be spoiled.

Before the advent of the New York Martys, the Irish had a pugilistic monopoly on the name with Marty McCue, Marty Burke, Martin Fisherty, Martin Duffy and Martin Canole. By the way, why are some men called Martin, and others Bill? I give it up, too.

What's in a Name

Marty McCue is that same Marty McCue who is now a big politician in Tammany hall and possibly the new leader of that organization. They say he was a corking boxer in his day. The Jews were represented with the name of Martin a few years ago only by Marty Cross. Brother of the great Leach. Marty Cross was a welterweight, and a fierce puncher with his right hand.

Benny was the popular pugilistic handler of the Jewish boxers years back—and still is, for that matter. The Irish went in for Jim and Jack. The Poles liked Joe. The Italians Tony. Now we have Armands, Leos, Stanislases, Paolinos, and what-nots. But, as the fellow said, what's in a name?

Cold weather held the attendance to 5,000. Carl Hubbell got credit for the victory, but gave way to a pinch batsman in the eighth. Score:

Sande Hops Back In Saddle to Win Race

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 17. (UP)—Earl Sande returned to the saddle today and rode his own horse, the 3-year-old black colt, Hermitage, through mud and water to victory in the third race.

Soaked by water and with his orchid blouse, which had worked out of his trousers, waving in the breeze, Sande brought his preakness and Kentucky derby candidate home six lengths in front of the Sagamore stable's Domineer, with Mrs. A. Swenke's tried and true third.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, April 18. (AP)—Early declines influenced by continued good weather in the South and relatively easy Liverpool cables were followed by irregular fluctuations in cotton today. July contracts after selling off to 19.51, rallied to 19.65, and closed at 19.36, with the general market closing steady net 8 points lower to 4 points higher.

The opening was steady at a decline of 5 to 12 points under liquidation which appeared to be combined with some western, local and southern selling.

The decline locally extended to 20.18 for May and 19.61 for December contracts, or about 10 to 12 points net lower on the more active positions. July sold 67 points under May and about 14 points under December, compared with differences of 62 points and 4 points at the close of the previous day, respectively.

At the close May was 59 points over July and July was 9 points under December.

Private cables said there had been general liquidation in Liverpool owing to the favorable weather reports from the South, and that there was very little support. Port receipts today 9,258. U. S. port stocks 1,519,558. Exports today 10,604, making 7,158,192 so far this season.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, April 18. (AP)—First trades on the cotton market here showed losses of 6 to 7 points attributed to lower cables than due and a dry weather map.

A slight rally set in, but was wiped out on prospects for continued good weather, July dropping to 19.54, October to 19.38 and December to 19.45, or 8 to 9 points under yesterday's close.

Trading was fairly active and selling liberal.

Following the early decline, prices rallied with better increases shown in new crop months. On the upward journey, July traded up to 19.59, October 19.46 and December 19.54, or 6 to 9 points up from the early lows.

Prices were near the highs around noon with the market steady.

Futures closed steady six points up to four points net down.

Easier Money Conditions Attract Buying to Keep Market Advancing

By BOARDMAN WALL

NEW YORK, April 18. (US)—Easing money conditions attracted additional buying that kept the stock market advancing today. Individual specialties scored fairly good gains but Steel, Motors and other standard industrials held narrow range as the profit taking in advance of the reserve bank meeting offset part of the increased demand.

Sears Roebuck closed over 3 points higher, Advance Rumely gained 3, Vanadium an equal amount while Bethlehem added a point to its gain. Skelly held its leadership of a strong oil group closing more than a point higher. Coppers also recovered a little more on further evidence that the metal price would stabilize around 18 cents a pound. Rails were quiet but strong.

While other pools were enjoying success there was a mysterious collapse of the group work in Crex Carpet which broke 17 points and caught a misguided following.

The call money rate eased to 7½ from a renewal of 8 per cent with some accommodations made outside at as low as 7 per cent. The turnover climbed close to the 4,000,000 share level.

The decline of $2,000,000 in loans is materially less than generally expected. It is offset in part by the good showing in the reserve statements and the indications that the reserve is going to let up on its pressure on member banks while congress is in session. As reported exclusively here yesterday, time money has been offered at 7½ per cent. Those in good standing with their bankers are told not to take it as there is reason to believe that the time rate will be 7 per cent before long. Normally there should be no undue demand for funds outside of security markets until the middle of June so that if the money powers hold to the more lenient attitude of the last few days the stock market should enjoy call money rates ranging from 6 to 7½ per cent for the next several weeks. While rates remain comparatively low pool managers will not pay much attention to brokers loans but will continue trying to attract a public to unload on.

Whether the easier money conditions were due to temporary or permanent change of heart on the part of the money powers, pool work was given added aggressiveness.

Advance Rumely was run up to a new record high coincident with further reports of the plans of the new interests in the management for adding to earnings.

The Continental Can group showed more courage and kept their stock in race with American Can in its move to a new high. Continental is expected to pay an extra dividend in cash if earnings hold up to the current rate while American stockholders expect a stock dividend.

Bethlehem Steel sponsors also exhibited more cheerfulness. Bethlehem directors may increase the dividend at their meeting next Thursday. Although Durant was sailing away, his associates here were declared to have the means for running in shorts in Combustion "at the right time."

Durant interests are declared also to have formed a new pool in Chrysler. They maintain that on the basis of earnings of $2 for the first quarter and prospects of betterment in the current period, it is out of line with other motors. There has been steady accumulation of U. S. realty by those who expect a higher return to stockholders before long. Marine preferred was the subject of favorable advices. President Franklin returned a week ago and the insiders now are trying to put together their new plan of recapitalization which would take care of obligation on the preferred. The corporation has plenty of cash and if the management really gets down to work, it is claimed, recapitalization can be put through this time.

Realization of improvement effected in Yellow Truck earnings was reflected in the increased demand for the stock. Those most responsible for its activity and strength, however, base operations more on the long pull outlook than the steady betterment being effected by the management. They are convinced that the General Motors interests will make Yellow the dominant organization in the commercial automobile field.

General Motors is definitely tied up with Yellow and with its worldwide distribution organization will be the means of constantly adding to the markets for the trucks and buses manufactured by the Yellow corporation. Continuation of earnings at current rate, it is claimed, not alone would mean net sufficient for the preferred payment but would leave balance for the common stock.

MIDWESTERN REVIEW

KANSAS CITY, April 18. (AP) (U. S. D. A.)—Firm prices were maintained on killing classes at most points around the 11-market circuit; further strength developed at a few points on the better kinds of fed steers and yearlings. Demand at eastern dressed beef markets has been broad with some upturns. Chicago had a $14.95 top of heavy steers, and long yearlings, and realized $14.85 on yearling heifers.

Aggregate receipts were estimated at 29,600, an increase of 12,000 over a week ago and 7,500 heavier than the corresponding day last year.

Opening hog trade to shippers was slow at mostly steady values; packers, however, were bearish and closing prices were unevenly weak to 25c lower; the day's extreme top of $11.65 was paid both at Chicago and St. Louis. Total offerings were around 90,400 as compared with 54,259 last Friday and 79,594 a year ago.

The sheep supply approximated 58,700, an increase of 12,000 over a week ago and 21,000 more than a year ago. Although supplies were liberal, firm to slightly higher prices were received for fat lambs at several centers, while other markets ruled steady to 25c lower. Aged stock was on a steady to 25c higher basis. Chicago scored $18.10 on fed wooled lambs and secured $17.00 for clippers. Choice Arizona springs in Kansas City cleared at $19.85.

CHICAGO REVIEW

By JOHN H. PITT

CHICAGO, April 18. (US)—Efforts of local bulls to rally the wheat market today following a weak opening resulted only in increased pressure as prices turned up. In the late trade prices broke rapidly and the close was at the lows of the day, with the market displaying a very heavy tone. Corn was strong early, but rather heavy pressure developed and prices went lower with the general closing break.

The the close wheat prices registered net losses of 1⅜ @ 1⅝c. Corn was 1 @ 1⅛c lower; oats ⅜ @ 1⅛c off; and rye 1⅛ @ 1⅜c down. Winnipeg wheat futures closed 1⅜ @ 1½c lower.

A nervous market followed the early break as locals attempted to rally prices and each upturn met with increased selling. Strength in corn was a firming factor prior to mid-session. There was a little buying on reports of extreme dryness in the northwest, but outside interest was still limited and there was a pronounced lack of incentive to buy. Cables were weaker than due. Liverpool closing only ⅛ @ ⅜c higher, crop news favorable, weather good.

Prices responded to a mild flurry of short covering when news was received that the farm bill, including the export debenture plan was being introduced to the senate. This rally like the rest met increased pressure. May wheat was heavy at all times and it was reported eastern houses offered this option on all firm spots.

Much of the late sharp break was ascribed to another plan of Senator Capper's. Reports from Washington, according to the Modern Miller, said the Kansas senator was to introduce another amendment to the grain futures act, similar to the one introduced to the last congress.

WICHITA WAR VETS TO MARCH WITH HEROES OF BELGIAN BATTLES

PARADE TO GREET BAND

Many Wichitans Recall Fine Music of Royal Guards

Comrades in arms on the fields of France 11 years ago will march together again here Saturday afternoon when members of the Pat Carrigan post, American Legion, will participate in the parade which will escort the Royal Belgian Guards' band from the Union depot to the Memorial auditorium, where a matinee concert will be given at 3:15 o'clock.

According to information furnished regarding the personnel of the musical organization which represents the Belgian King Albert's own guard, every man in the ensemble answered the call to arms when the tiny buffer state lead all of western Europe into the defense of her violated neutrality. During the succeeding four years, many of the men who now comprise the membership of the local American Legion post tramped the same battlefields on which the little Belgian forces advanced with the Allies. The local veterans of the United States' latest military struggle, and members of the national guard, will honor the visiting military band with parading units following the arrival of the Belgian musicians at 1:55 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Praise For Band

Local citizens who have heard the Royal Belgian Guards' band are profuse in their commendation of the artistry displayed in their performances. Dr. J. W. Cantwell, superintendent of city schools, and Walter D. Cline, who attended the Rotary International convention at Ostend, Belgium, in 1927, attended a three-day fete given for the Rotarians at Brussels and heard King Albert's band at that time. Dr. Cantwell declared these numbers among the most enjoyable features of the entire entertainment. "They gave some wonderful programs," he said, "and I can say that I never heard such fine music in all my life. I think it a great privilege for the people of this section to have the opportunity of hearing such an organization."

Referring to the same performances, Mr. Cline said: "It is one of the finest bands in the world. Its members are natural musicians, all of whom have had long years of training under Captain Prevost, one of the most famous conductors in Europe. Of course I'm going to hear it here, with all my family. Any body who wants to hear high powered music should buy a ticket."

World Famous Group

The visiting organization also received the hearty endorsement of Ethel Allen Nelson, conductor of the Wichita Falls Symphony orchestra, who served as a bandmaster in France during the war. He declared the Belgian Guards' band to be one of the most famous of all Europe, where the various small countries take great pride in their representative musical organizations. Many of the members are graduates of the Brussels Conservatory of Music, Mr. Nelson stated, and predicted a concert here which will probably not be repeated in a generation.

Members of the American Legion and National guard units in the parade are to be admitted to the afternoon concert without charge, it was announced.

Many hundreds of visitors from cities within a radius of 100 miles are expected to be present Saturday night, those in charge of the affair stated. Tickets are on sale at the Renfro Drug store, and in each of the local banks.

Burglary Charge Filed In Loss of Checks Here

Burglary charges were filed before Judge R. V. Gwinn Thursday afternoon against J. O. Woodward, in connection with the loss and later recovery of checks for about $20 belonging to Sidney Ward. The checks are said to have been stolen from a local garage. Efforts of a man to cash them at a bank here resulted in the arrest Thursday, according to Sheriff W. G. Bralley. Woodward's bond was set at $500.

SINGER PICKS FAVORITE SONG

"Erlkonig" Comes First With Schumann-Heink

"This season I am celebrating my 51st year before the public, and in that long time I have sung well-known operas and songs suited to my voice, so it is hard to choose a favorite. But a song I always love to sing because it gives pleasure to so many people is Schubert's 'Erlkonig.' I cannot imagine, much less count the number of times I have sung it in public, and it is always greeted with enthusiastic applause," Mme. Schumann-Heink, who appears here April 22, recently said.

"The poem itself is so beautiful, and so full of real drama that it would serve as an inspiration even to lesser song composer than Franz Schubert, and the combination of the Goethe text with the Schubert music has given the world one of its greatest songs.

Favorite Number

"I have always tried to put the feelings of the different characters into my voice when singing their words, and some times little children are so frightened that they cry when I sing the threat of the Erlkonig. I can never sing this song without feeling personally all the emotions it portrays. I get the feeling of horror and fright when the little boy speaks. I feel cruel when I am the Erlkonig, and I am always moved to pity for the poor, poor father.

"The accompaniment of this song is one the finest I know. It has the sound of the wind and the trampling of the horse's feet in it, the sad wailing of the child, and the sweet enticements of the Erlkonig's daughters. The song rises to a tremendous climax in the end, and the sudden drop on the word 'tod' embodies all the sadness of the poem in that one note.

Tells Story

"Very few songs can tell a story without being the old ballad type with verse upon verse of narrative. A less gifted musician than Schubert might have been tempted to set all the verses of the 'Erlkonig' to the same music in what is called 'through-composed' style, but Schubert recognized the great advantage of different music for each verse, and he has made the music of this song a continuous narrative, telling the story as well as the words. I have often sung the 'Erlkonig' to myself without the text, and it is remarkable how much of the story can be surmised from the music alone. It is this gift of suiting each line of the music to the words that has made the German lieder composers so important in the history of music. When the text, the melody and the accompaniment are a harmonious whole, then the song becomes a great work of art, and I have always considered the 'Erlkonig' one of the best examples of this mode of writing, as well as one of the loveliest songs we have today."

Mme. Schumann-Heink will appear here for her last local recital at the Memorial auditorium on Monday, April 22.

Press Association Honors Wichitan

Mrs. A. H. Mahaffey, organist at the First Presbyterian church and accompanist in the voice studio of A. H. Mahaffey, 915 Ninth street, will leave Thursday morning for Pampa, where she will be a guest of honor at the annual meeting of the Panhandle Press association which will continue through Saturday.

Mrs. Mahaffey will contribute several piano numbers to the program of entertainment provided for the Northwest Texas newspaper men, and will play accompaniments to Miss Mary Helen Hardin of Childress, soprano, who will appear several times during the meet in solos.

Miss Hardin, who has not yet reached her 18th birthday, sang before the meeting of the Panhandle Press association last year, and was rewarded by being voted an honorary life membership in the organization. She was a pupil of Mr. Mahaffey, who resided in Childress prior to his removal to this city last spring. Mrs. Mahaffey expects to return from Pampa early Sunday morning.

RABBIT SHOW HERE APRIL 20

Many Entries Expected In Display Saturday

An unusually large display of rabbits of various breeds is expected by officials of the local rabbit growers' association at the show to be held Saturday, April 20, at 7 p. m. at the Maricle Coal and Feed company's store, 804 Eleventh street.

Inquiries from numerous rabbit growers in cities in this section of the state indicate a large number of out-of-town entries, according to W. L. Smith, corresponding secretary.

Ample hutches are being provided for all animals which may be entered, Mr. Smith said, and all growers in this vicinity are being invited to bring in the pick of their kennels. All breeds and all classes will be judged by a licensed judge of the American Rabbit and Cavy Breeders' association, it was stated. There will be no entry fee. Members of the local association will give talks on the various uses of rabbit fur and the market for the animals for food purposes. The public is invited to attend the showing.

WASHINGTON, April 18. (UP)—Expressing great interest in the prosperity of foreign trade, President Hoover addressed the 16th annual National Foreign Trade convention, assembled at Baltimore, last night from his study at the White House.
