Brooklyn's Tree Stolen

NEW YORK (AP)—A 45-year-old tree valued at $2,000 and stolen from Brooklyn—and Brooklyn wants it back.

Improbable as it might sound, the roots, tree trunk and all was stolen from the Brooklyn Botanic Garden two months ago. The announcement of the loss was made Thursday.

The theft of the tree was kept secret so that garden officials could canvass some 200 known students and experts of the Japanese art of Bonsai.

Bonsai is the cultivation of trees that are purposely dwarfed and trained into carefully planned shapes.

The stolen tree is a dwarfed Japanese white pine (Pinus Parviflora), about two feet tall. In its ceramic pot it had to weigh a good 50 pounds, making its theft from the nursery no mean feat.

George S. Avery, director of the garden, said "someone in the 'hood" stole the tree. There were about 200 Bonsai trees in the outdoor nursery, and he said the thieves picked one of the "three or four finest" in the collection.

Bonsai trees can bring as much as $7,000 each. The stolen tree was purchased from a nursery in Tokyo in 1956 and donated to the garden by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Phipps Jr., of Westbury, N.Y.

Competition is open to men, women and children wishing to take part.

The incidents occurred Tuesday night or early Wednesday.

More Drugs Suspected Of Causing Deformed Infants

By MILTON MARMOR LONDON (AP)—Italy has banned the sale of preludein and other drugs suspected of causing deformities in unborn babies in the wake of a British investigation into birth-deforming pills.

The current issue of the British Medical Journal reported two women who had taken preludein gave birth to deformed babies. Doctors said it could have been coincidence.

A spokesman for the British College of General Practitioners said Thursday drugs besides thalidomide are suspected of causing baby deformities.

He said drug manufacturers were notified about the college's suspicions. He declined to identify the drugs, pending additional evidence.

Precludein, mentioned in the medical journal, is a German drug introduced nine years ago as a pep pill for slimming down pregnant women.

There was pressure in Canada for a freeze on precludein. The American Medical Association reiterated advice to expectant mothers to take only essential prescribed drugs during the first three months of pregnancy.

An estimated 500,000 American women have taken precludein since it was introduced in the United States in 1956. Dr. Frank Lyman, assistant to the director of Geigy Pharmaceuticals, said in New York.

Lyman said there was no evidence that precludein was responsible for any birth malformations. The drug, marketed by Geigy, is "taken orally to suppress the appetite," Lyman said.

The Italian Health Ministry imposed the ban Thursday and seized drugs containing phenylmethyl-tetra-hydro-oxazine.

Precludein was the only product mentioned by name. The books will be screened by the NEA or a similar organization and will have to be approved by the recipient country.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Police Thursday investigated terrorist attacks against two Soviet officers and the wounding of a policeman outside the U.S. Embassy during nationalist demonstrations.

The incidents occurred Tuesday night or early Wednesday.

Textbooks Are Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—Americans have been asked to contribute one million textbooks for use in African schools where U.S. Peace Corps volunteers are teaching.

The Peace Corps Director, Sargent Shriver, made the appeal Thursday following his return last Sunday from a three-week inspection trip of Peace Corps operations in Africa.

A spokesman for Shriver said the National Education Association had been asked to spearhead the drive.

The books will be screened by the NEA or a similar organization and will have to be approved by the recipient country.

Try Chinese Exercises To Harmonize Body, Mind

BY VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures

Exercise is the new American tranquilizer. But the newest of these is actually an old oriental one called Tai Chi Ch'uan.

Dancer Sophia Delza, an American who learned Tai Chi Ch'uan in China teaches this exercise at the United Nations.

She says that people waste their efforts the Western way "by trying to reduce buttocks, thighs or another area without manipulating the whole body."

She recently published a book on Tai Chi Ch'uan called "Body and Mind in Harmony." Philosopher Chang San Feng of the Sung Dynasty (11th Century) is credited with developing it. The system activates the body, and develops physical, emotional and mental well-being.

The art requires that you move slowly but continuously. The full program of 106 basic steps, as done by Miss Delza, takes 22 minutes. When mastered it puts the smallest joint and largest muscle of the body into play. The simplest movement is effective, she says.

The philosophy of Tai Chi Ch'uan is to control energy rather than to strain muscles and exert oneself excessively as in Western exercises that often emphasize hard, tense movements.

"Tai exercises are a contrast of strong and soft movements, like the flowing of a river, like the circulation moving in your body," Miss Delza explains. These are not designed symmetrically such as our American exercises with 10 times for each leg. There are many different patterns for each side.

Here is an example, a simple exercise to tone the wrist and muscle of the arm:

1. Raise right arm forward shoulder high with loose elbow, bent wrist, fingers pointed upward with palm facing downward.
2. Circle hand outward to right, then bend hand downward with palm facing inward. (3) Then circle over to the left and upward with palm still facing inward and fingers pointed upward. (4) Turn palm toward, so that it is once again in the starting position.

Try to keep arm still, while the hand is moving. Do these movements with the left hand. Then circle both hands at the same time. Reverse circle making an inward rotation.

One entitled "White Stork Flaps Its Wings" is especially good for the wrist, claims Miss Delza.

This movement should be done with strength and firmness, she advises. You should feel the hard contraction in muscles with light and soft movements that precede it. It should feel as if you are holding or pressing a huge ball between elbows and hands. Knees and hands move together, she says.

Try it.

Bend knees. Place right arm in a curve shoulder high, and palm of left hand toward inner curve of right elbow.

Raise body and straighten knees. Lift right arm to a position above forehead. Lower left arm with palm down to front of left thigh. Wrist should be bent.

Keep right arm above forehead, bending torso forward down. Move left arm out perpendicular to the floor with palm down. Twist torso to the left, keeping body low.

Bend knees. Keep back straight, move both hands, bending wrist so that palms face diagonally downward. You should feel the muscles in the upper arms contract as you move.

HOMEMADE BISCUIT MIX produces regular biscuits cut in squares to save time, or cut into large rounds and put together in a loaf. With the mix you can also bake these orange crescents and other coffee cakes.

Do-It-Yourself Mix

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

DO YOU ever cast a half-eager glance backward at the robust satisfactions of our pioneer ladies who in early autumn concocted candles from bayberries, and at the season's later "killing time" stuffed homemade sausage into casings?

Then take heart. You, too, can have homemade and homemade satisfaction. You can make your own biscuit mix!

We're so entranced with the following formula for such a mix that we've baked our way through half a dozen batches of it. In some of these batches we used the enriched soft-wheat all-purpose flour (regular and self-rising) available in the south, and brought and sent to us here in New York by kind friends. Once you try this flour, you can understand why southern cooks are famous for biscuits.

After you make up a batch of the mix and a batch of biscuits, we beg you to try the Orange Crescents because that's one of the best-flavored coffee cakes we have ever encountered.

A BATCH OF BISCUIT MIX
8 cups sifted enriched flour (2-pound bag)
4 tablespoons baking powder
1 1/2 cups nonfat dry milk solids
1 1/2 cups vegetable shortening

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt into a large mixing bowl. Stir in dry milk; cut in shortening with pastry blender or electric mixer at low speed until particles are fine. Store in tightly covered container at room temperature. When using, stir the mix lightly, then spoon lightly into measuring cup and level off with spatula. Makes nine cups.

Note: If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt.

A BATCH OF BISCUITS

Turn 2 cups of the homemade biscuit mix into a bowl. Add 1/2 to 3/4 cup water, just enough to make a dough that leaves sides of bowl to form a soft ball. Turn out on prepared pastry cloth; knead gently 30 seconds. Roll out to about 1/4-inch thickness. Cut into 12 two-inch squares with a knife. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in a hot (425 degrees) oven 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown. Serve at once.

A BATCH OF ORANGE CRESCENTS

Prepare A Batch of Biscuits through the kneading stage. Divide dough in half. Roll out each half to a 10-inch circle. Brush with melted butter or margarine. Mix 1/4 cup chopped walnuts, 1/4 cup sugar and 2 tablespoons grated orange rind; sprinkle half of mixture over each circle. Cut each circle into 4 equal pie-shaped wedges. Roll up each wedge, starting with wide end and sealing point to underside. Curve into crescents. Place in ungreased 8-inch round pan, pin-wheel fashion, with all rolls touching at center. Bake in a very-hot (450 degrees) oven 20 to 25 minutes or until lightly browned. Remove from pan and decorate at once with frosting made by blending 1/4 cup confectioners sugar and 1 to 2 teaspoons milk; sprinkle frosting with 2 tablespoons chopped walnuts and 1 teaspoon grated orange rind. Serve warm, breaking off individual crescent rolls from whole cake.

The Better Vision Institute, a nonprofit organization, estimates that nearly seven out of 10 persons need glasses but three of these seven have outdated prescriptions or none at all.

Decorating Questions Answered

The home can "cast a lovely light" if we do our best to brighten it and make it cozy during winter months. Some readers are doing just that as letters indicate.

Basements are being improved with color to erase dreariness, even if the room is visited only on wash day or to remove items from the freezer. One woman writes, "We have just put an additional wash-room in our basement and I thought it would be quite clever to open the basement door in our kitchen and be pleasantly greeted by a mural. The stairway is located under the upstairs stairway. I would appreciate some advice on some type of mural to put there. If the area to be brightened is easy to be reached it could be livened with a mural such as a basket of flowers, vegetables or fruit. There are many such motifs available in prepacked papers or vinyl. Many people can't paste them to areas that are to be brightened, first painting the area in a color to harmonize with the adjoining room. Bright yellow, flamingo, orange or blue are all good backgrounds if other colors tie in.

"At what age should a child move out of a nursery-style bedroom decorating scheme? What are the requirements necessary for the room so that it can be used over a long period?"

A child is ready for a new look in his bedroom at about 7 years. He is beginning to read and write and could use a desk, comfortable chair and adequate light. There should be book shelves that can accommodate records and record player. A chest for toys should be selected so that it can be later service for storage. Some area should be designated for games, hobby collections and such. Children like closets with shelves where their clothes may be kept within reach. A wardrobe should have a clothes rod that is low enough for a child to reach but adjustable for later years. A folding table, such as a bridge table, is almost indispensable to small fry, and will save rugs and bedspreads from paint splatters, etc.

"Why is it men do not appreciate the romance of a fireplace if they're a guy work involved," writes a woman who says, "We have lived in a pretty house five years but my husband never has let us burn wood in the fireplace as he says the white brick will get smoked up and look awful. Is there a way to remove scorch marks from the brick? My chilren and I have decided we must use it as it is ridiculous to have a conversation group of furniture build around it, and never have the pretty glow from the fire."

A fire built properly should not leave soot stain on the brick. After a period of use a little graying of the brick may result, but usually it can be removed with soap and water or a soap pad. But even if one had to paint a small area of white brick (and I'm assuming it is all on the outer side of the fireplace) it should be well worth the effort and small expense.

"My mother says we should not wash our wooden floors and I parquet floors are dirty and badly scratched. Waxing seems to imbed the dirt even more."

A well-known designer of small rugs, who displays them on just such a floor, advises us that he always washes his floors with a mild solution of soap and water, removing the solution with plain water and then drying the floor quickly. When thoroughly dry he re-waxes the floor. There are some new products that make claims for cleaning and waxing floors in one application and these might lend themselves to experimentation until you find one that suits your purpose.

Room At A Time Is Smart

"A woman's work is always done." Housework, that is if you clean house the organized way, concentrating on one room at a time.

Choose a "room-of-the-month," over and above your usual cleaning routine, to receive special treatment. That's the advice of Mary Jane Forest, home economist.

Concentrate on the dining room one month, the living room the next. Break the chores up into two classes—heavy duty, light duty. Plan to accomplish at least one heavy duty cleaning chore a week, and at least one minor task daily.

The big jobs include washing windows and curtains, waxing furniture, the floor and venetian blinds (ever try it? It makes them easier to dust and keep clean) polishing the andirons and shampooing the rug, if you're fortunate enough to have wall-to-wall carpeting.

Minor tasks should include those chores you wouldn't ordinarily think of doing until an "emergency." Take stock, and remember such jobs as lacquering and polishing doorknobs and brass fixtures; washing scuff marks from stair risers, washing chandeliers or lighting fixtures and picture glass; giving plants a bath. (They'll live longer and thrive better when free from dust) and vacuuming the drapes when you're got the cleaner out to do the floor.

And while you're at it, put Dad to work. Incidentally there are certain jobs that only men can do: the house should to—you're certainly not going to put up storm windows. And Junior can help too, by polishing the furniture—and getting rid of just half his treasures, and by taking out the garbage and raking the leaves.

In 1918 President Woodrow Wilson set aside an Alaskan valley and adjacent areas as the highest peak, formerly called Knife Peak, was renamed Mt. Griggs in 1959 in honor of botanist Robert F. Griggs, who brought it to the nation's attention.

Whit's Essays Penetrate

THE POINTS OF MY COMPASS
By E. B. White

For those of us who hold White's eloquent prose in admiration, this is a welcome addition to his collected essays and criticisms.

There is an admirable piece about Thoreau and Walden, which makes the Concord sage much more understandable than he ever could be in a professional dissection: it was published first in the Yale Review. The rest of these articles appeared in the New Yorker.

White is a master of the seemingly casual examination of a casual topic, which subtly takes on the aspects of a penetrating look at our human foibles and fancies.

Whether he is in Maine or Manhattan, White manages to make his reflections count where the mind is most sensitive. He begins with a hurricane in Maine and ends with the poignant recollections of his own youth on a stormy voyage in Alaskan waters.

In between, he misses in gentle sophistication over such subjects as the passing of the railroads, the commercialism of television, the absurdities of the automobile industry, the niceties of the writers craft and the complexities of life for the raccoon who inhabits a tree near his window.

And he grows seriously exhortative in articles about nuclear warfare and disarmament.

White's books are the kind you keep on your shelves. Not just for the keeping, but for rereading.

Walton Fires Tigers Past Tribe, 14-12

Awaken In Second Half

SAN ANGELO — Lake View's Chiefs won the first half but trailed 14-12 at the end of the first quarter. The difference was that the Tigers won their half bigger than the Chiefs did theirs, with the result that Snyder marked up a 14-12 victory and a probable fourth-place finish in the District 3-AA standings.

It took the good right arm of senior signal-caller Dalton Walton to turn the second half tide the way of the Tigers, however. The Snyder eleven looked anything but impressive during the lethargic first half, picking up a grand total of 23 yards in rushing and passing to Lake View's effortless 161. Walton was inserted offensively for the first time at the onset of the third quarter, and the change in complexion of the game from there on in was alarming.

With the win, the Bengals capped off their season with a mark of 4-6 to Lake View's 6-4. Snyder's district reading came to a 3-3 resting place to the Chiefs' 4-6, however, and assuming that Lamesa knocks off Colorado City tonight as they are favored to do, the Tigers will have finished the race in fourth place ahead of Lake View and the C-City crew.

Should the Wolves upset the Lamesas, then Snyder would be tied for third in the final standings. Sweetwater and Brownfield, both 4-0, meet tonight in Sweetwater to decide the district championship.

It looked like a long afternoon in store for the Tigers from a first half angle. They were kept bottled up in their own end with several of their running attempts cut short when Bengal runners would try to "cut the corner" only to slip down on the slick Chief Stadium turf.

Though the afternoon was sunny, the field's base was unaccustomedly wet and loamy and a continual source of befuddlement to Tiger runners throughout the half before they reversed the trend in the second half by taking to the air lanes.

Lehman Cauley, who led all ground gainers with 112 yards on 14 carries, produced the only spectacular play of the first half when he raced 73 yards over the right side on a third- and seven-play for the Chiefs' go-ahead touchdown in the first period. Snyder's Gail Potter stayed on his heels all the way, but couldn't quite close the gap to make a lunge or tackle.

Tiger guard Pete Greene stormed through to block Cauley's extra-point kick, a decisive play as it all came out when the Tigers ended up by winning on the margin of a pair of conversion boots off the educated toe of senior Darrell Aldridge.

Walton's swansong as a Black and Gold quarterback was indeed one to remember. After not playing an offensive down last Friday against Colorado City nor during the first half against the Chiefs, he was inserted as second half play opened, and proceeded to guide the Bengals 61 yards to their first touchdown.

A decisive play during the drive came about when Walton rifled to Billy Stewart over the middle, with Stewart tipping the ball up and scoring an "assist" when the ball came to rest in the waiting arms of the opposite end Tim Hartman.

That play helped to prolong the march, and with fourth and seven still to go on the Lake View 20 — Walton spotted halfback Leslie Brown as he steamed into the end zone behind a line of blockers, and pinpointed him with the scoring pass. Aldridge's kick split the uprights to give the Tigers their first lead at 7-6.

Rotan Hammers Seagraves, 27-0

Steve Herron yanked the throat wide open and the Rotan Yellowhammers ambushed the Seagraves Eagles, 27-0, on the Tiger Stadium turf here Thursday to advance to the regional round of the Class A football playoffs.

Herron, a nifty field general, elusive runner and capable passer, who plays a rather tough game on defense as well, saw to it that the Yellowhammers wrapped up the decisive early.

Taking possession of the football on the Seagraves 49 yard line after the Eagles were not able to untrack after receiving the opening kickoff, Herron rifled a 22-yard pass to halfback Eddie Lang and the Hammers were on their way. Sophomore Bruce Baugh leaped through a gaping hole over left tackle and rambled into the end zone to climax the drive with 8:09 left in the first quarter. Bill Ashton kicked the first of three conversions and Rotan led, 7-0.

The Eagles still couldn't move and the Rotan took over on the Seagraves 49 after a short punt. Herron changed tactics and darted 23 yards to the 28. With Dennis Polnac and Baugh helping out on the ball carrying duties, the Yellowhammers moved to the 9 from where Herron sprinted into the end zone. Ashton's kick made it 14-0 with 3:39 still left in the first stanza.

Rotan's defense continued to sparkle for the remainder of the half. In fact, Seagraves made only two first downs in the first half, and one of those came on a 15-yard penalty for roughing the kicker.

Such operatives as Ashton, Howard Van Loan, A. C. Snapp and Jerry Stewart were too much for the Seagraves who never were able to break their full back, 197-pound Sammy Faulkner, into the open. The second quarter was played between the 30 yard lines.

In the third period, Rotan took over on its own 29 yard line and marched quickly to another touch-

Texas Whips A&M For Championship

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas, Royal with Johnny Genuing firing the offense and Jerry Cook and Ray Poage furnishing the power, moved over Texas A&M 13-3 Thursday and Texas was in the Cotton Bowl.

It was Texas' first undefeated season in 39 years and its ninth undisputed Southwest Conference championship. It also put the Longhorns in their fifth bowl game in the six years of Darrell Royal's coaching.

Texas' opponent in the Cotton Bowl will be announced Saturday afternoon. Felix R. McKnight, chairman of the selection committee, said at Dallas.

He would not reveal who the visiting team would be but it is expected to be Louisiana State.

Louisiana State closes out against Tulane at New Orleans Saturday and the Tigers are expected to wind up with an 8-1 record. Louisiana State and Texas have similar records except that Texas didn't lose a game. Both were tied by Rice and both beat Texas Christian.

Texas had to fight back in the fourth period to beat the stubborn Aggies in one of the nation's longest rivalries—69 years and 69 games.

Mike Clark kicked a 20-yard field goal in the first period to give the Aggies a lead that stood up for three quarters. A fumble by Poage set up the field goal. It was Clark's seventh of the season — a Southwest Conference record.

In the second half Royal put in Genuing with instructions to move the ball, something the Longhorns couldn't do in the first half.

"I knew he could do it," said Genuing sure did and Texas marched to the Aggie 10 under his passing, running and quarterbacking and Cook twisted his way to the Texas touchdown that sealed up the game. Barefoot kicker Tony Crosby added the extra point.

The Longhorns scored again shortly afterward when ace defensive back Duke Carlisle picked off a long pass from Aggie quarterback Jim Keller on the A&M 39. Genuing passed to Tommy Lucas for 28 yards to furnish the big punch in the drive. This set the ball on the Aggie 7. Poage got 6 yards in two tries, then Tommy Ford pounced over.

The fighting Aggies held Texas to 38 yards on the ground and 61 in the air in the first half but Texas got 107 rushing and 65 passing in the second half. A&M managed 170 yards both rushing and passing for the day.

Royal praised his Longhorns as the finest defensive team he ever has had.

Defeat May Aid Packers

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite a loss which shows that the Green Bay Packers are human after all, Coach Vince Lombardi's defending National Football League Champions don't plan on wasting too much time in sewing up a third straight Western Conference title.

This loss will make a better team out of us," Lombardi said following Thursday's startling 25-14 loss to the Detroit Lions. "Look out for us now."

This last admonition can be interpreted as a dire warning from a man not given to making threats. Green Bay, leading second place Detroit by a full game, has two left with the last-place Los Angeles Rams and one with San Francisco.

Both Detroit and Green Bay are idle Sunday, which will give the Packers a chance to reclaim injured linemen Dan Currie and Nelson Turberson and perhaps halfback Paul Hornung before meeting Los Angeles in Milwaukee on Dec. 2.

In the American Football League, the Denver Broncos Thursday all but eliminated themselves from the Western Division by blowing a 13 point lead in the last 4 minutes and losing to the New York Titans 46-45. Denver now is 7-5 while division leader Dallas which plays winner Oakland (8-10) Sunday, is 6-2.

Hobbs Falls Underneath Late Siege

BLACKWELL — Merton's Hornets, District 3-B six-man champs, buzzed past Hobbs' 4-B Panthers 48-28 here Thanksgiving afternoon to gain a berth in the regional finals against Balmerhor.

The Merton - Balmerhor clash is set for 7 p.m. next Friday in McCabe.

Hobbs gave up the bi-district game grudgingly, being tied with the eventual winner 28-28 as late as the fourth quarter before a 26-point scoring flood broke the Panther backs. The score was also tied up at 16-16 at intermission.

Halfbacks Mike Boyd and Larry Trantham scored both Hornet touchdowns in the first half, and Pablo Monter kicked the conversions. Richard Ratliff and Johnny Martinez tended to the touchdown heroics for the Black Cats during the first two periods, and Tommy Lay took the conversion points after each.

Trantham and Ratliff each tallied a touchdown in the third quarter and some behind a line of blockers, Reynaldo Hinojosa, Boyd and Cary Tankersley dashed Hobbs' hopes for victory.

Ratliff accounted for the final Panther touchdown.

Schoolboy Favorites Snare Wins

By The Associated Press

Favorites took bi-district victories in the Class AA and A divisions of Texas schoolboy football Thursday.

Unbeaten and untied Denver City, seeking its second state Class AA title in three years, rolled over Mustang 29-0. Rotan, the No. 2 team of Class A, humbled Seagraves 27-0.

In other Class AA playoffs, Dalhart whipped Canyon 27-7 and Crane rolled past Comanche 24-7.

Clifton defeated Forney 27-8 and a coin flip advanced Van Alstyne over Frisco after the two teams tied 8-8, also in Class A.

Most of the bi-district games were slated for Friday, with a few left for Saturday.

Class AAAA and AA are still engaged in district play. In the only Thursday game involving an unbeaten and undefeated team, Brownwood, the favorite for the Class AAA championship, routed Wichita Falls Rider 41-4.

Other games involving top contenders in the two upper divisions were on tap Friday and Saturday.

Here is the rest of this week's schoolboy football schedule:

CLASS AA
Friday: Huron vs. Edinburg at Pecos, Big Lake at Pecos (6:30), Burgett vs. Hildale at Brownsville, Pecos vs. Pittsburg, West Midway at Abilene, Academy vs. Brownsville at Corpus, Hildale vs. Waller at Cleveland, Pearland vs. Houston at Houston, Donna at Frisco.

Saturday: Miranda vs. Rock at Elgin, Missouri City Dallas vs. Palestine at Bay City.

CLASS A

Bowl Spots Being Secured

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two major bowl berths have been secured, two others lack only official ratification and at least another should be nailed down by tonight Saturday in college football.

Texas' 13-3 triumph over old foe Texas A&M in the top college game on the Thanksgiving Day program put the Longhorns in the Cotton Bowl and indirectly put Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl. Only minutes after Texas closed its season against the Aggies, Arkansas accepted a bid to play in New Orleans on New Year's Day.

Those two are secure. Wisconsin, which goes against Minnesota for the Big Ten title Saturday, needs only official ratification for a trip to the Rose Bowl. The same is true for Southern California, headed for the host spot in the Rose festival.

Louisiana State can all but secure a berth in the Cotton Bowl in its season finale Saturday. A victory over Nebraska would all but clinch a spot for Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

The probable line-up for the major year-end bowls now looks like this:

Rose Bowl—Southern California vs. Wisconsin.

Cotton Bowl—Texas vs. Louisiana State.

Sugar Bowl—Mississippi vs. Arkansas.

Orange Bowl—Oklahoma vs. Alabama.

Gator Bowl—Penn State vs. Miami (Fla.).

Miami (6-2) could take a long step toward the Gator Bowl berth tonight against rugged Northwestern, once ranked the nation's best but loser of its last two.

Texas, ranked fourth nationally, trailed for three periods before nailing down the Southwest Conference title in its victory over Texas A&M. The Longhorns closed the regular season with a 9-0 record, their first undefeated season in 39 years.

Arkansas (6-1) had an outside chance at the title and the spot in the Cotton Bowl until Texas won it, but immediately announced its acceptance of the Sugar Bowl bid. The Razorbacks, ranked seventh nationally, close their regular season against Texas Tech Saturday.

Their likely Sugar Bowl opponent, unbeaten Mississippi, is idle until Dec. 1, as is Alabama, almost certain to get a bid for the Orange Bowl. Mississippi closes against Mississippi State, Alabama against Auburn.

Southern California, the nation's top ranked team with a 9-0 record, already has clinched the Big Six title. USC goes against UCLA (4-3) Saturday. Washington (6-1-2) goes against Washington State.

Louisiana State (7-1-1), considered a top candidate for the visiting role in the Cotton Bowl, is a heavy favorite against Tulane. Penn State (No. 9) is at tough Pitt in the East's top game while tenth ranked Oklahoma is favored to add Nebraska to its list of five straight victims.

Some of the other top games include Yale at Harvard in their traditional meeting, while Dartmouth attempts to close out a perfect season against Princeton. Duke seeks the Atlantic Coast Conference title against North Carolina.

Other major games include: East: Rutgers at Columbia, Connecticut at Holy Cross, Cornell at Pennsylvania, West Virginia at Syracuse.

Southwest: Texas Christian at Rice, Baylor at Southern Methodist.

Midwest: Michigan State at Illinois, Ohio at Iowa State, Oklahoma State at Kansas State, Kansas at Missouri, Iowa at Notre Dame, Michigan at Ohio State, Indiana at Purdue.

Schoolboy Favorites Snare Wins

By The Associated Press

Favorites took bi-district victories in the Class AA and A divisions of Texas schoolboy football Thursday.

Unbeaten and untied Denver City, seeking its second state Class AA title in three years, rolled over Mustang 29-0. Rotan, the No. 2 team of Class A, humbled Seagraves 27-0.

In other Class AA playoffs, Dalhart whipped Canyon 27-7 and Crane rolled past Comanche 24-7.

Clifton defeated Forney 27-8 and a coin flip advanced Van Alstyne over Frisco after the two teams tied 8-8, also in Class A.

Most of the bi-district games were slated for Friday, with a few left for Saturday.

Class AAAA and AA are still engaged in district play. In the only Thursday game involving an unbeaten and undefeated team, Brownwood, the favorite for the Class AAA championship, routed Wichita Falls Rider 41-4.

Other games involving top contenders in the two upper divisions were on tap Friday and Saturday.

Here is the rest of this week's schoolboy football schedule:

CLASS AA
Friday: Huron vs. Edinburg at Pecos, Big Lake at Pecos (6:30), Burgett vs. Hildale at Brownsville, Pecos vs. Pittsburg, West Midway at Abilene, Academy vs. Brownsville at Corpus, Hildale vs. Waller at Cleveland, Pearland vs. Houston at Houston, Donna at Frisco.

Saturday: Miranda vs. Rock at Elgin, Missouri City Dallas vs. Palestine at Bay City.

CLASS A
Friday: Huron vs. Edinburg at Pecos, Big Lake at Pecos (6:30), Burgett vs. Hildale at Brownsville, Pecos vs. Pittsburg, West Midway at Abilene, Academy vs. Brownsville at Corpus, Hildale vs. Waller at Cleveland, Pearland vs. Houston at Houston, Donna at Frisco.

All One Gives to God COMES BACK TO THE GIVER

WILL SHE REACH?

How high will this giant rocket go? 20 miles? 100 miles?
That depends on her power lift... the height she was built to go.
She may never reach the expectation of her designers.
It may be that your prayers will never reach either.
How high do your prayers go? Do they really reach the heart of God? The great designer intended that the sincere prayer of every righteous man should reach all the way to God. Prayer is man's greatest means of tapping His resources. Do you pray with sincerity... with faith behind it? Do your prayers reach their goal???

How high do they go? Maybe you better start going to church again and learn the secret of a prayer that will reach all the way.

So They May See == Psalm 91 == So They May Hear

HE THAT DWELLETH in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

BECAUSE THOU hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

10. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

15. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

16. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
