Number 39.

To Supreme Court

Attorney-General Harlan Fiske Stone, in President Coolidge's cabinet less than nine months, has been nominated by the President to the U. S. Supreme Court bench to succeed Associate Justice Joseph McKenna, 81, who retires due to ill health.

DAVIS DISCUSSES REMOVAL OF OFFICE TO TEXAS.

Rio Frio, Texas.—Ed. Angora Journal: There will be a ballot spread to determine whether the office will be moved and the A. A. G. B. A. reincorporated under the State laws of Texas. As I am president of the old association and now become president by adoption of the consolidated A. A. G. B. A., I don't believe I would be serving my members fairly if I did not express myself on the subject.

First, I will state that I have been going to Kansas City for several years, to our regular meetings, and I find only our secretary present with a bunch of proxies. I also have a bunch and we hold the meeting to suit ourselves. The Missouri members don't take interest enough to attend our meetings. While the real goat country of Texas and Oregon is so far away, our members and directors can't afford to pay their expenses to go so far from home to a meeting.

Now if we move the office to Texas, the laws are much more favorable to our organization, allowing us to go to any state in the United States of America for a meeting to transact business, while the Missouri laws don't. If the association is moved to Texas, we can be assured of a large attendance at each meeting in person, and a live interest will be taken in the association. It won't fall on one or two to keep going to Kansas City to attend the meetings, with a big expense. If the office is in Texas, it can be located where a large membership can reach the meeting with out much expense to the association.

It has been suggested by our members, if the move is decided on, that we build our own office building by donations from members. After consolidation, we will have 150 members in Texas, and every one of them will subscribe to a building fund. A big percentage of them will sign up for from $50 to $250 each, and the town or city that takes the office will give a site, at least.

You can see clearly where the advantage is of having our association located in the goat country. If you were going to grow citrus fruit, you wouldn't go to a frozen country to go into business. I am not asking any of our members to vote for or against the move, but I do ask that they think before voting, and vote for the good of the association and the Angora

CAR IS STOLEN FROM HIGH SCHOOL CAMPUS.

About four o'clock last Thursday afternoon the new coupe of Mrs. H. O. Patterson was stolen from the school campus. Mrs. Patterson missed the car shortly after it was stolen, as she had only been at the school house a few minutes. At first she thought some friend had borrowed the car, but came to town and after Mr. Patterson had driven over the town in search of it, phone messages were sent to adjoining towns. While J. N. Hodges was getting the license and engine numbers from the tax collectors records, the traffic cop at Kerrville had intercepted the car a short distance this side of Kerrville. The driver proved to be a boy about 12 years old, son of Lee Henderson of Ozona. When stopped, he told the officer he had taken the car and meant to drive it as far as the gas held out, then walk or catch a ride into San Antonio. He had been attending school in San Angelo and had formerly been in school in San Antonio, and he stated he wanted to get to San Antonio where he knew friends and could get something to eat. He had caught a ride from San Angelo to Menard, and had come from there to Junction on one of Schreiner-Hodges Co. trucks.

Sheriff Gibbs went to Kerrville after the boy that night, and he was kept in jail until the following afternoon, when his father arrived from Ozona. Bond was set at $1,000, and the boy released to await the action of the grand jury.

Emil A. Loelker was in San Antonio last week-end to attend a meeting of the Ford dealers of this section of the country.

Texas First Woman Governor, who will be Inaugurated Next Tuesday.

Probably the largest crowd ever attending a gubernatorial ceremony will gather at Austin next Tuesday to witness the inaugural ceremonies of the first woman Governor of the State. Miriam A. Ferguson, wife of former Governor James E. Ferguson. That evening a big ball will be given in the Senate Chamber and it is estimated that between eight and ten thousand people will be there for this event.

The House of Representatives will become a reception room for the visitors, and music will be furnished for entertainment.

LOCAL POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOW GOOD INCREASE.

That the local postal receipts have been steadily climbing during the past three years is shown by figures furnished us by Postmaster Tracy. In 1922 from 3,017 money orders issued, the total was $18,587.32; in 1923, from 3,077 orders, the total was $21,406.81; and for the past year from 3,392 orders the total had climbed to $25,371.98.

Receipts from box rents, insured packages and stamps, was $5,123.27, for the past year, while for 1923 it was only $4,485.71, and for the year before, the total from this source was only $4,111.23.

RIECK GOAT COATS BOON TO INDUSTRY.

Those who have given the matter careful study and have been experimenting with Riecks Goat Coats, predict that they are certain to become a necessary part of every goat breeder's equipment and will result in a great saving in preventing loss and will increase production of both mohair and kids to a considerable extent.

Capt. H. W. Rieck of the Maynard ranch near Roosevelt, the inventor of the goat coat is conducting an extensive advertising campaign in the newspapers of the goat raising country, in the Goat and Sheep Journals and direct by mail. In this paper a series of advertisements are now running, and The Eagle job department has had a liberal share of the printed matter which is used in direct advertising.

Capt. Rieck has given careful study for the past several years to the development of the coat he is now placing on the market. Under range conditions on the Paterson and Rieck ranch, he has had opportunity to study the needs of the average ranchman. Further than that, he has had several of the best goat men in his country use the coats in considerable quantities and without exception, they have pronounced the Rieck Goat Coat a success, and a necessity on every ranch where sheep or goats are raised.

This section of the Hill Country is fortunate in having an invention, such as this, developed here, and we believe Capt. Rieck will find a demand that will constantly increase, that will and should prove profitable in order that he may be compensated for the time and money spent in developing the Goat Coat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Henderson and Mrs. Victor Hardeman recently returned from an automobile trip to Fort Worth, Dallas and Austin. They had a very enjoyable visit in each of these places.

Inaugural Boss

Wm. T. Gallier, head of the Federal American National Bank at Washington, has been appointed chairman of the committee in charge of President Coolidge's inauguration March 4th.

ANOTHER EARLY SETTLER PASSES AWAY.

Young P. Oliver, familiarly known to old and young, thru-out this county as "Y. P." died suddenly at his home just east of town Wednesday morning about 8 o'clock. He had been in town the first of the week and was apparently in the best of health.

Mr. Oliver was born in Seguin March 22, 1857, and came to this county forty-nine years ago. In 1887 he married Miss Lula Cloud of this county. Mrs. Oliver died here in 1908. Nine children were born to them, eight of whom survive, as follows: Mesdames Sad'e Burt of Junction, Leta Bierschwale of Segovia, Lois Reed of Childress and Misses Bonnie and Margaret, and Messrs. Will, Joe and Ralph, the latter living at Mission, Texas.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday by the local W. O. W. lodge, of which deceased was a charter member, and Rev. Davis of the Methodist church.

Mr. Oliver was well known throughout this section of the State, and on account of his fame as propagator of the Oliver pecan, his name had been carried to every pecan producing section of the country.

The Eagle and his many other friends will miss him and sympathy is extended to the children and other relatives.

TO PRESENT PLAY FOR CEMETERY AID.

At the request of the members of the Cemetery Aid Society, Mrs. W. W. Allen will present a play at the Hankins-Riley Hall on Monday, February 23rd. Mrs. Allen had intended to present this play on the 22nd but as the holiday falls on Sunday the date will be the 23rd.

The name of the play will be announced later, but it will be one well worth seeing and the receipts will go to a very worthy cause. The cast will be composed of local talent and Mrs. Allen has kindly agreed to give her time to come here on several days previous to the 23rd to direct the rehearsals.

The Cemetery Aid is fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Allen, as she has had a great deal of experience in this kind of work, and the public is assured of a very pleasant evening in the night following Washington's birthday.

Advertisements will carry further announcements in a later issue of this paper. Watch for them!

WHAT WILL HAPPEN, IF—

By SATTERFIELD

Sallie's Temptations

SALLIE RIDES TO— A CONFESSION.

I wanted time to think clearly. Curtiss Wright was the kind who would not accept anything but the truth and something in his manner warned me that I would gain nothing by deception. Things were chaotic now. The whole evening had been crowded with hideous incidents passing swiftly one after another and I longed for the sunshine and tranquility that comes with the morning after.

"I'm tired—awfully tired," I finally said. Then suddenly I decided how I would handle the situation. "I wanted to tell you about the bathing suit and Ted Billings," I continued in a languid manner, "tell you what I'll do. Take me to St. Augustine tomorrow for luncheon and we'll talk it all over."

"No, Sallie," he answered sternly. "I've got to have this thing settled NOW—I won't be made ridiculous, I tell you—"

"But what about four o'clock in the morning?" I interrupted, "long explanations are not salubrious." I quoted his very words and drew out the last word in an exaggerated manner. A glimmer of amusement danced in his eyes.

"All right," he conceded, "you win as usual, but tomorrow there will be no hedging."

I changed my frock three times the next morning. After coffee and a delicious grape fruit in my room, I noticed it was almost noon and time was wasting. Finally I decided on a smart little sport frock of sapphire blue homespun and a close-fitting hat of the exact color.

I made my appearance on the veranda. Curtiss Wright was walking back and forth as if he had been there a long time before me.

He looked at me closely. "Are you twelve or thirteen years old this morning?" he smiled and inquired.

"I don't know about that, but I feel too good to be true," I answered.

We crossed the bright bridge spanning the St. John's river. Thundering over its length, I caught my breath at the sparkling gaiety of the water. At the distant skyline were soft, rose-tinted roofs of houses barely peeping from the vivid green branches.

The day was like late summer with a hint of autumn in the air. Next Year's Day in Florida—I had seen a New Year's Day in New York when all was sleety and dark and the head lights of automobiles skidding about on the crowded thoroughfares, stared through the gloom that enveloped the noontide.

As we turned into the San Jose Boulevard on St. Augustine Highway, we passed a whole family in a Ford, apparently equipped with every convenience for camping.

"How would you like that, Sallie?" Curtiss Wright was anticipating my answer.

"Ugh!" I shuddered. "No

many babies, too much rattle and not enough hot water," I replied sharply.

"And yet, Sallie, look at the contentment on their faces. That young girl has cheeks like red roses. There's not one of your friends with that sort of happiness in her eyes caused from sheer joy of living."

"Don't you think their happiness comes from ignorance and lack of ambition?" I fenced.

"Oh, I'm not saying I'd like to be the head of the family or anything like that, but I maintain that a lot of unhappiness is caused from too much knowledge about the superficial values of life."

"I think contentment brings stagnation, and I'd rather be miserable at times and be able to stand in the sunshine on a lull top or to touch the stars on rare occasions." "a silence, then, "nobody wants to be a vegetable."

"You're a little philosopher," he answered; "at any rate, your opinions are fresh and entertaining."

We passed through the gray City Gates that have guarded the city well through all the picturesque years that have passed over this romantic spot discovered by Ponce de Leon in his quest for the fountain of youth. Old Fort Marion was on the left with its antiquated charm, and tourists strolled along the dancing bay, their white clothing fluttering in the warm brisk breeze.

"The drive over has put an edge on my appetite," my companion declared. "Where do we lunch?" he asked.

"The Alcazar Grill," I replied. "There'll be music and interesting tourists and—"

"The story you promised me about the bathing suit and Billings," he added.

His manner had changed and I noticed he spoke with decisive solemnity. The time had come when I must explain. The sun that shone so brilliantly in my heart sank swiftly behind a very dark cloud.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

The invitation in last week's Eagle met with a very encouraging result. Maybe the beautiful sunshine had a great deal to do with it, but we were certainly glad to see so many folks at church.

The morning service was unusually bright and happy, and the message by Brother T. Y. Adams on "Stewardship" was just what we needed.

Remember, January 20th is the date we expect Brother T. V. Herndon at Junction. Next Sunday morning come again; special singing, and a special service for everybody.

The evening service will begin promptly at 7 p. m., when our pastor will take as his subject, Gen. 19-16, "Is Your Life Insured?"

I don't know if Brother Kelley will require a personal answer to this question, but come out and see, as I mean to myself. Reporter.

OVER LIFE'S HURDLES. (By Louis E. Bisch, in The Guadalupe Gazette.)

Perhaps the greatest killer, everything considered, is hurry! In one way or another the continuous hurry that pervades American life is spreading its work, happiness and health.

When you hurry at your work you accomplish nothing. You think you are making speed. Instead you are falling into slipshod ways and lowering your efficiency!

When you hurry at your meals, hurry home and then hurry out again, when you take your recreation and pleasures with the same amount of hurry that you rush through the day on, the happiness that life may afford you is slight.

When you hurry, your mind and body are held at a fever pitch of excitement. You don't digest and assimilate your food properly, your heart beat is increased, your organs do not get a chance to rest, and repair, you are constantly in a state of simmering and boiling that puts too great a strain upon your system.

Unfortunately, too, when once the habit of hurry has gripped you, it is exceedingly difficult to shake it off.

You find yourself unable to relax and sleep.

You dream about hurry. That is, your dreams are confused and jumbled and you see yourself rushing hither and yon in the way you do during the day.

In the mornings you are tired because your brain has been over-active. You start the day handicapped.

Then when you hurry and find that you are not accomplishing what you set out to do, you begin to worry.

And everyone knows that worry can shorten life like a germ disease.

We are apt to confuse hurry and speed.

Hurry never makes for speed. It invariably slows you up.

Take things easy, eliminate hurry, and you will accomplish twice as much with half the effort!

If you put order, system and plan into your life no room will be left for hurry!

Don't run for a street car, because you see others running.

Don't imitate the hurry of others at any time.

Hurry is contagious, but realize that a loud, puffing fussy, noisy engine is only second rate!

NEED GLASSES? Dr. Jones, the Eye Man will be at Hankins Drug Store on Thursday, January 22nd. Eyes examined, glasses fitted, headache and eye-strain relieved. Remember the date.

KEEPING WELL IS MILK INSPECTION WORTH WHILE?

DR. FREDERICK R. GREEN, Mayor of "HEALTHY"

A FARMER living near Columbus, Ga., didn't believe in milk inspection.

He thought it was all "a graft to give some man an easy job." He "didn't believe that there was any such thing as tuberculosis in cows."

When the herd of a dairy farm near him was tested for tuberculosis by the milk inspector and two cows were put out of the herd as being in a dangerous condition, he took one of the cows and fed the milk to his family.

That was ten years ago. Today, his wife is dead of tuberculosis; his only son, after four years in the hospital and three operations for bone tuberculosis, is permanently disabled, and his two daughters are in a tuberculosis hospital.

Here is the farmer's own statement:

"In the fall of 1912 a dairy herd near me was tested for tuberculosis and two cows were put out of the dairy. One was killed as a reactor and one was called suspicious, and the suspicious cow was taken to my premises and milked. I felt that the office of milk inspector was a graft to give some man an easy job, and did not believe that there was any such thing as tuberculosis in cows. This cow was fed just as those in the dairy were fed, and in one month she looked so bad that I was afraid to milk her. She was given back to the man who formerly owned her. My son developed tuberculosis the next year and has had it until the present time, and my wife, I believe, contracted it from the boy. The boy was kept in the hospital at Decatur, Ga., for four years, and on his back for nine months, where part of the bone of the neck was removed, and a part of the leg bone used to replace it, and the bone of sheep used to replace the leg bone. My two daughters are now in the tuberculosis hospital at Alto, Ga., and I believe that they contracted the disease from their mother, who was buried here today."

And all this might have been avoided if the farmer had believed what the Inspector of the state department of health told him about the danger of tuberculosis in cattle.

Neglected Cough Dangerous—How to Stop It Quickly

When the delicate tissues of your throat are raw and sore from coughing, and your strength is exhausted with the constant hacking, you may fall an easy prey to more serious trouble. So stop the cough the quickest you can, before it becomes deep. By a very simple treatment you can stop the spasm practically at once, and relieve the heaviest cough often in 24 hours. The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. With the cause treated in this way, the whole cough condition goes in a very short time.

AUDITOR'S REPORT OF KIMBLE COUNTY, TEXAS.

For the Years 1923 and 1924. Junction, Texas, Dec. 29, 1924. To The Honorable District Judge, County Judge and Commissioners' Court of Kimble County, Texas:

In obedience to an order of the Honorable Commissioners' Court, I have audited the County records of Kimble County, Texas, beginning January 1, 1923, and ending December 31, 1924.

I have examined and audited all the ports and records of all County officials and beg leave to file this, my final report.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN S. MUNN, Auditor.

Justice of the Peace—E. Holekamp.

I have examined the records of E. Holekamp, Justice of the Peace, and find all fines accounted for and his records kept in a very neat manner.

Sheriff—Dee Gibbs.

I have checked all items charged to the above named sheriff, and find same properly accounted for.

County and District Clerk—N. R. Skaggs.

I have checked all jury fees and stenographers' fees collected by the above named Clerk and find same accounted for. The finance ledger has been balanced to Dec. 31, 1924, as per this audit.

County Judge—Weaver H. Baker.

I have examined the Probate records of the above named Judge and find same neatly kept and in legal form.

Commissioners' Court.

I have checked the minutes of Commissioners' Court and accounts allowed and find that said Court have discharged their duties with credit to them selves and with a saving to Kimble County. The Court is to be commended for the business like manner in which they have handled the finances of this county.

Suggestion—That the Commissioners' Court furnish the Clerk with additional vault space and with binders for the tax collector's monthly reports of State and County taxes, and highway reports filed by the tax collector.

State of Texas,
County of Kimble.
I, John S. Munn, do solemnly swear that the above and foregoing is a true and correct statement of my findings of an audit made of the records of Kimble County, Texas, beginning January 1, 1923, and ending December 31, 1924, to the best of my knowledge and belief.
JOHN S. MUNN.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of January, A. D. 1925.
L. R. Hodges,
Co. Clerk, Kimble County, Texas.

Conclusion.
I wish to thank each and every County Official for courtesies extended me while examining the records of Kimble County, Texas.
If at any time I can be of further service or give any information, I will be glad to do so Respectfully,

John S. Munn, Auditor.

Note—The following abbreviations are used in the above report:
Adv.—Ad valorem.
Sup.—Supplement.
Red.—Redemption.
Ins.—Insolvents.
Col.—Collector.

In behalf of the retiring Commissioners' Court, and myself, at the close of our tenure of office, we wish to thank the citizenship of this county for your co-operation with us the past four years. We have conscientiously endeavored to be impartial in the conduct of the county's business affairs and perform the duties of office in accordance with the laws of this State. It is needless for me to say, that during the past four years, there have been times, when it looked like the business of this county was doomed to disaster; and during these days we appreciated your co-operation and advice, for without your help and the judicious financing of your commissioners, the statement rendered by the auditor would show different balances.

I wish to take this occasion to thank the Commissioners' who have served with me, for their efficient service and unwavering loyalty to the interests to the county and for the further fact that on no question, of any consequence, have you failed to present a unanimous vote for the interests of this county. Such co-operation within your own body has contributed largely to the successes which you have attained.

All our county officers have helped in every way possible. By reason of his office, Uncle Jim Browning, was called on many times for his balances, and the condition of the county's finances and was always ready to report. I want to say that during his many years of public service to this county he has become as good as the best.

In conclusion, we wish to say that we have tried to keep pace with the program of progressive ness in Road Construction, Tick Eradication, and other matters before us, and have expended your county funds as economically as conditions would permit. We should all do our best to help the present administration succeed and when we are called on to co-operate with them, our neighbors, or an adjoining county, in a laudable undertaking, we should respond.

This is the true doctrine of citizenship. We are all entitled to the same rights by the laws of God and man, and none are so poor and humble, or rich and famous as not to be entitled to the benefits.

Weaver H. Baker.

 Bonora, Texas, Nov. 3, 1924
 Roosevelt, Texas.
 Dear Captain Rieck:—
 I tried out your Goat Coats last spring and found them to be all you claim for them. They will stay on perfectly when the proper size is used. They will not catch in the brush and they do not bother the goats in any way. I think their use by goatmen is an improvement over sheds and herding and will result in great saving and a fine improvement to the benefit of the industry.
 There is no question of their being practical.
 They are a wonderful protection. I believe their purchase is an investment not only for security and peace of mind, but that they will prevent the heavy losses that have always occurred from time to time at a yearly cost which is more than we have paid for labor and sheds in the past.
 Yours truly,
 J. A. WARD

Prof. Everett Callender of Evergreen school returned from a two weeks' holiday vacation last Saturday, which he spent at Lockhart and other points west, with relatives. The school is progressing nicely, although we have flu in the school.

Walter and George Savage are convalescing from a case of flu.

Mr. Jack Hubble's family have had several cases of flu, but all are in school again.

Mrs. F. Dupuy and Miss Fannie Dupuy returned home from Fort Lavaca on the 28th of December, after several months' visit with relatives there, in Louisiana, Edna and Cuero.
 Miss Flossie Blandone accompanied them home for a few weeks visit with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Conde Hardeman returned from a holiday visit to relatives in Dallas last week.

F. M. and Lane Hodges and families have been confined to their homes for several weeks with flu, but all are improving at present writing.

With grief we chronicle the death of our dear little grandson, F. M. Smith, which occurred at Brady, January 9th, of Measles and pneumonia. He was sick only a few days and it came as a great shock to all.
 His remains were brought to Junction Friday and the funeral held Saturday afternoon by Rev. Kelley. Mr. Alva Smith and family returned to Brady Monday, his father and mother accompanied him home. Our heart goes out in sympathy to the dear bereaved father and mother, sister and brother. May God's blessings rest upon them in this sad hour.

Several of Mr. Alsup's family have been wrestling with the flu, but are improving.

ROOSEVELT ROUNDUP.

Roosevelt has a new mechanic
 Mr. Lister. He and his family moved to Roosevelt Sunday.

Clarence Parker has returned from Noxville where he has been on a visit.

Wess Bode has been home on a visit from new Baunfels.

There is quite a bit of sickness in and around Roosevelt.

Miss Mabel Brooks returned to Mason Sunday after an extended visit in Roosevelt.

Bill Surber has returned home from Mason where he has been visiting. Emmett Bishop accompanied him home.

RED CREEK "RALLY."

We are still having plenty of zero weather and are gradually becoming accustomed to it.
 Most of the sick, from this community, are improved.

London's new garage is now well under construction and is being rushed to completion.
 Mr. Baker, son-in-law of W.
 J. Dowra, has purchased the Jake Fritz farm near London.

There are several absent pupils from London school this week, because of sickness.

John Dagin had business at London Monday afternoon.

Hamp Goodman has recently moved to the Water's farm which was vacated by R. C.
 Bruce.

We had a small rain and also a little snow here lately, but not enough moisture yet to do much benefit.

This Week

By Arthur Brisbane

Within a short time, says C. D.
 Barney, aviation expert, and member of the British Parliament, the farthest point of the British Empire will be within twenty-four hours of London by flying machine.

Uncle Sam, please take notice.
 This also is an empire. Is it as far from the south end of Florida to the north end of Alaska, and from Bar Harbor, Maine, to San Diego?

The country is gradually waking up to our own machine situation, and it NEEDED to wake up.

Secretary Wilbur gives this information. Five hundred airplanes in the navy are useless. And even the remaining 224 that can fly, are or less, are all out of date.

Do you keep chickens? Keep them away from other chickens if you can. Europe has sent here a very plague for which there is known cure. Congress voted $1,000 to fight it. Rigged quarantine will help the situation.

Aggregate your chickens, and are how you eat raw vegetables, unless cleaned with great thoroughness, which isn't easy, be cautious, especially about raw kale. The French alone know to prepare that plant, grown in fields, often with many varieties carrying typhoid germ.

Every leaf should be separated from every other leaf and carefully washed. The salad should be mixed in a big bowl, turned over and over, "well fatigued," as the French put it, until every part of every leaf has some of the vinegar on it. Vinegar kills germs.

With vegetables thoroughly boiled, there is, of course, no cause to fear typhoid.

The New Haven Railroad wants to stop bus lines in Rhode Island because they compete. That seems quite reasonable.

While respectable gentlemen in Wall Street were gutting the New Haven Railroad, robbing old women and children that had all their money invested in it, they squandered millions on trolley lines, etc.
 That was all right, because the railroad did it.

GOALS

It isn't so much what a man has done,
 As what he has tried to do;
 It isn't the victories that he has won,
 But the storms he has weathered through
 With courage and faith and a cheery smile,
 That make him a person so well worth while.

The man who has fallen has had his dream,
 And maybe he saw a star
 So high and so bright that his mortal scheme
 Fell short of the gleam afar;
 But if he has climbed 'til his strength is spent,
 Then give him full credit for his intent.

It isn't the goal that a man may win
 That counts the most in the score;
 But the blows that have proven the worth of him,
 In a million tests and more;
 For it isn't always the man who leads
 Who possesses the strength that the old world needs.

By Grace E. Hall

THE HOME MERCHANT: AND WHO IS HE?

(By Wm. D. Cargill, Secretary Brady Chamber of Commerce, in The Brady Standard.)

The home merchant. Who is he? He is the chap who gives you credit when you are financially broke, and carries your account until you are able to pay. He is the chap who gives you back your money or makes exchanges when you are not satisfied with what you have bought.

He is the chap who meets you at the door with a handshake, and lets you out with a message to the "kids" and a real "come again, goodbye."

He is the chap whose clerks live in the home town and spend their money with you and other local people.

He is the chap who helps support our churches and charitable organizations and talks for your home town and boosts for it every day in the year.

He is the chap who visits you when you are sick, sends flowers to your family when you die, and follows your body out among the trees and tombs, as far as human feet may travel with the dead.

He is the home merchant—your neighbor—your friend—your helper in time of need.

Don't you think you ought to trade with him, and be his friend and his helper in time of need?

Don't you know that every dollar you spend out of town for merchandise is sent to strangers—to men who never spend a dollar here? You don't save much, frequently nothing, when you send your money out of town. And don't you know that the growth and prosperity of this town very largely depends upon the success and prosperity of the home merchant? Out of town people judge our city by the appearance of our stores and the degree of enterprise shown by our merchants. And our home merchants cannot succeed unless home folks give them loyal support.

Crow Eats Insects

Birds are chiefly valuable to us because they kill insects, says Nature Magazine. The crow is no exception to this rule. About a fifth of the adult crow's annual food is taken from the insect world, its share of insects being made up largely of species found on or near the ground.

It Must Be Terrible

We suppose that among inanimate objects none suffers more than a reducing giraffe.—Toledo Blade.

Judge's Joke
THE WOLF AT MANY DOORS THIS WINTER IS DAUGHTER IN A NEW FUR COAT.

And now—comes the prophet that reckons she knows, and gives us her judgement profound—that winter is due to wear masculine cloze, from their fore-top down to the ground. "The day is fast comin'" this English proverb, "when the sexes unite in the art,—and they'll wear the same trousers, socks, waists and shirts—till hooah they can't tell us apart!" In view of the prospects, I've little to say—though I'm half-way inclined to approve . . . and, when folks is accustomed to havin' their way, it's as easy to wait as to move. I reckon the change will come on by degrees, like most of our needed reforms—i.e. the first thing we know, they'll climb ladders an' trees, an' their duis will stay down when it storms. . . . An' that—the exchanges twixt has band an' wife, might lead to enjoyments intense.—I can see 'em a-havin' the time of their life, as rivals in jumpin' the fence!

Differed on Masterpiece

Lord Byron, among authors often called the greatest lover, differed from the public as to what was his best work. He held that "Childe Harold" was by far his masterpiece, but the public gave the distinction to "Don Juan," written between 1818 and 1820.

THIS WEEK'S CROSS WORD PUZZLE.

Mrs. Jones has this week arranged a cross-word puzzle, correct in design and with enough twisters interlocked to make it interesting and instructive. There isn't a hard word in the whole puzzle—after it has been solved—but you'll find No. 5, horizontal, does not automatically work itself out. Instead you'll have to do a bit of thinking.

Horizontal:—1. Appropriate wrongfully. 5. Most high (Mohammedan). 9. To chop off. 10. Electrical unit. 12. Prefix for 13. A disease (slang). 14. Lurk about. 16. Mother. 17. Devoured. 18. Negatives. 20. Country in eastern hemisphere. 23. To pursue. 25. Pertaining to experience. 26. Remove outer covering. 27. An elevation. 29. Small room. 31. Ever. 32. Pound (abbr). 34. On ships without steam. 36. Continent (abbr). 37. A number. 39. Highlands (abbr). 40. Energy. 41. Raised platform of a theatre. 42. Over and above what is required.

Vertical:—1. Extreme. 2. Cry. 3. Opposed to down. 4. An evergreen tree. 5. Soon. 6. Left page (abbr). 7. Part of the anatomy. 8. Save money. 11. Double nothing. 14. Necessary groceries. 15. One of the approaches to a house. 17. Pointed out. 19. Air again. 21. Observe. 22. Anger. 24. Everyone. 26. Raw hides. 28. South American animal. 30. That by which a person is designated. 31. Other. 33. Gamble. 35. Pronoun. 36. Method of address. 38. Continent (abbr). 40. Eastern state (abbr).

Banks--"Distributors of Credit"

Banks are the heart of the community in the same sense that Credit is the life-blood of industry.

Banks have been rightly called "Distributors of Credit" for the reason that they are the only medium through which financial accommodation, of any great degree, is made possible for the community.

In this capacity, they extend tangible assistance when needed to worthy customers and enterprises that business may be stimulated and that sound prosperity may prevail.
