TWISTED was the mass of metal composing this 1976 White truck-tractor and semi-trailer unit owned by Jordan's Feed and Ranch

Supply of Bogata, following its collision with a 1972 Mercury approximately nine miles north of Mt.

Vernon on Hwy. 37. The trailer of the unit lay across the north bound lane of the highway blocking traffic for several hours before the wreckage could be cleared and its scattered cargo of bulk lime removed from the

MOZELLE AIKIN was the driver of this 1972 Mercury which came into collision with a 1976 White truck-

Mt. Vernon early Monday morning. (Optic Staff Photo).

Car-Truck Collision Injures One

Mozelle Aikin of Route 1, Sulphur Bluff, was admitted to Franklin County Hospital Monday, September 27, following a car-truck collision nine miles north of Mt. Vernon on State Highway 37 at its intersection with the Lake Chapel Road.

Both vehicles involved were reportedly traveling south on Highway 37 at the time of the accident, approximately 8:50 a.m.

Mrs. Aikin, driving a 1972 Mercury attempted a left turn on to the Lake Chapel Road from Highway 37, when she was struck by a 1976 White truck-tractor semi-trailer driven by James Andrew Cooper of Route One Pattonville, who was attempting to pass the Aikin auto on the left hand portion of the pavement.

The car struck the right front wheel of the truck, causing the auto to spin to the right, and forcing the rear of the car to come into collision with the trailer of the truck-trailer unit. The car came to a halt in the bar ditch west of the roadway, facing north.

The impact caused the truck to travel at an angle perpendicular to the roadway striking and up rooting an oak tree approximately one foot in diameter, and a mail box before the trailer overturned spilling its cargo of bulk lime onto the roadway and a nearby private drive.

The truck came to rest in the bar ditch east of the pavement with the trailer blocking the north bound lane of the Highway.

Cooper reported no injuries, and at press time officials at Franklin County Hospital report Mrs. Aikin to be resting in satisfactory condition with head injuries.

The truck-tractor and semi-trailer, owned by Jordan's Feed and Ranch Supply in Bogata, and the Aikin car were both totally demolished.

No charges have been filed at this time.

Rains Bring Halt To Stripping

Cotton stripping came to a halt Sunday in the Deport and Cunningham area because of a 1.25 inch rain. Sunday's rain didn't seem to damage the cotton standing in the fields, however, even though many areas north and west of Deport received over two inches of rain and winds in excess of 50 m.p.h.

The Cunningham Gin was started Thursday afternoon and ginned eight bales. James Norwood, gin manager, had to work out a few of the early season bugs and went into full production on Friday. Norwood said Tuesday evening that they had ginned all of the cotton on their lot, and they came out with 188 bales.

Monday morning the Deport Gin was struggling with a dryer which was malfunctioning.

Repairs were made on the burner about 9:30 that morning and the cotton started moving. With over 90 cotton trailers on the grounds loaded with wet cotton the dryer was to be used to capacity for the balance of the week.

Social Security Checks To Be Delivered Early

Social Security checks, which are normally delivered on the third of the month, will be delivered Friday, October 1 since the third is a Sunday, Emma H. Ware, social security district manager in Paris, Texas, has announced.

The Friday check delivery is a new policy, Mrs. Ware said. Social security checks will be delivered on a Friday whenever the third falls on a Saturday or Sunday. The same schedule will apply to beneficiaries who have their social security checks deposited directly in a bank or other financial institution.

Formerly, checks were delivered on Saturday when the normal delivery date fell on Sunday, but many people had to wait until Monday to cash the checks. The new policy will eliminate that inconvenience, Mrs. Ware said.

The delivery of SSI checks will not be affected by the new policy.

Social security pays monthly retirement, disability, and survivors benefits to eligible workers and their families. The supplemental security income program makes monthly payments to people with little or no income and limited resources who are 65 and over or blind or disabled.

Mrs. Sammy Woodall, Blackland Prairie Gin Office Manager, said, "We hope to have all of the cotton ginned by the time the fields dry and stripping begins again."

Production in the Blackland Prairie Gin this week was 377 bales making a total of 558 for the year.

By daily tally: Wednesday, bales checked in, 13, ginned, none; Thursday, bales checked in, 143, ginned, 80; Friday, bales checked in, 197, ginned, 65; Saturday, bales checked in, 152, ginned, 96; Sunday, bales checked in, 0, ginned, 38; Monday, bales checked in, 0, ginned, 53; Tuesday, bales checked in, 0, ginned 45.

Pete Story, local cotton buyer, said Monday, "that he had bought one man's cotton, 127 bales. The cotton looked good and the production of 127 bales came from 120 acres giving an average of 1.05 bales per acre."

Ten Year Reunion Planned

The first Senior Class of Rivercrest High School who graduated in 1966 will celebrate their ten year reunion at the Annual Homecoming festivities October 15. Registration and a stew supper in the Rivercrest Cafeteria will begin at 6:00 p.m. for members of the class and their family.

Brahmas Brand Rebels

The Rivercrest Rebels were downed Friday evening 24 to 8 by the Paul Pewitt Brahmas, in Rebel Stadium. Rivercrest statistics were impressive in all categories except for the score.

RC STATISTICS P
11 First Downs 9
147 Yds. Rushing 115
12 Pass Attempts 4
4-30 Pass Completions 2-30
0 Interceptions 1
1-46 Punts-Yards 5-173
4 Fumbles Lost 1
6-60 Penalties 9-72

The Rebels won the toss and elected to receive the ball. The first play from scrimmage Ronnie Rape took the ball over the right side of the line, and fumbled to the Brahmas, on the Rivercrest 34 yard line. Brahma quarterback Wes Carver started a nine play drive that put six points on the score board and tacked one more on with his kick for the extra point.

Joe Rhodes, Donald Jean, Marlon Savage, and Jace Jeffery kept the center of the line bottled up, keeping the Brahmas to short yardage on each of the plays.

Rivercrest got the ball on the second kick off at the 24 yard line. Ronnie Rape carried four times, but the drive stalled on the 35 yard line after a first down was picked up. With a fourth and 10 the Rebels were forced to kick. The pass from center was high and Rape had to scramble to return the ball to the line of scrimmage.

The Brahmas recovered a Rebel fumble on the 16 yard line, but after three tries to move the ball their efforts had given them only a one yard gain. Pewitt quarterback Wes Carver kicked a field goal from the 15 putting three more on the score board.

Pewitt kicked off to the Rebels, with Ricky Franks taking the ball back to the 24 yard line. The Brahmas had lined up off sides and were given a five yard penalty that placed the ball on the 29 yard line. Rape took the ball on the first play from scrimmage and picked up a first down with his best run of the evening, a 15 yarder. The next play Milton Scales tried right guard for a one yard gain. The first quarter ended with the Brahmas 10 and the Rebels 0.

Rivercrest's second series of plays in the second quarter took the ball to Paul Pewitt's one foot line where the Rebels fumbled. Rape carried twice for 14 yards and picked up a first down on the 13 yard line in this drive. Todd Wright ran the ball over center and right guard to pick up three hard yards on the goal line. Paul Pewitt took over the ball on the one foot line and drove it out to the 11, where they were forced to punt. The Rebels held tight and limited the Brahmas to one and two yard gainers except for Mitch Wickerson's 11 yard gainer, brought back on the next play by a clipping penalty.

The first half ended with the Rebels in possession of the ball on their own 27 yard line.

The Rebels kicked off to the Brahmas to open the second half of play. Mitch Wickerson took the kick off on his 20 and ran it back to the 37 yard line. The Brahmas only had the ball for five plays in the third quarter, with the fired up Rebel team holding the Brahmas to one first down and 18 yards rushing. The Rebels took a Brahma punt on their seventeen yard line and started a march down the field picking up one to 10 yards per carry. The longest gain on the drive was a fumble by Rape when he went from the 25 yard line to the 37 where he recovered his own fumble. Rivercrest picked up five first downs and used the remainder of the third quarter with short, time consuming ground plays.

The fourth quarter opened with Rebels on the Brahmas one yard line. Milton Scales scurried right end and went up standing for the TD. The Brahmas were looking for a play over the center of the line and that pulled the ends in tight and left the field open for the six point play. The extra points were put on the board by a pass from Kip Stansell to Chris Potter, who Stansell found all alone in the end zone.

Rivercrest kicked off to the Brahmas for their first possession of the fourth quarter. The Brahmas moved the ball from their own 20 yard line to the Rivercrest 44 where they were forced to punt. The punt was taken on the three yard line and marched out to the 18 yard line in four plays where Scales fumbled the ball.

Mitch Wickerson picked the ball off in the air and ran in to score six more points for Pewitt. Carver kicked the extra point to make the score 17 to 8.

Paul Pewitt came back two plays later and picked up another fumble of Rivercrest, tacking another seven points on the score board.

Pewitt's kick off was taken by Jimmy Patton on the 3 yard line and returned to the Rivercrest 15 yard line.

With time running out, the Rebels took to the air. Stansell's first pass to Scales was good, and with a 15 yard personal foul penalty put the ball on the Rivercrest 49 yard line. Scales grabbed another Stansell pass and carried it to the Pewitt 37 yard line for another first down. Rivercrest tried three more passes but was unable to connect. With less than two minutes left in the game Rivercrest received a 15 yard penalty and had the pass intercepted all in the same play. The Brahmas had the ball for only one play for no gain and then fumbled the ball on their 45 yard line. That fumble was recovered by Nickey Brown. The Rebels ran only three plays before the game ended.

Individuals
Ronnie Rape carried the ball 20 times for a total of 116 yards, and punted only once for an impressive 46 yarder. The 20 times that Rape carried the ball he was stopped at the line of scrimmage only twice for no gain.

Jimmy Patton returned three punts for 10-15-24 yards giving

Defensive Driving Course To Begin October 4 At PJC

The first Defensive Driving course of the fall semester will begin Monday, October 4, announced Mrs. Bill Jones, director of Continuing Education programs for Paris Junior College. Paul Daniels, who has been the Defensive Driving instructor for PJC and for the Association of Retired Persons, will teach the classes from 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays for four weeks in Room 102 of the Natural Sciences Center at PJC. Fee for the eight hours of instruction is $10.
Upon successful completion of the course, students receive certificates which they present to their insurance agents to obtain a 10 per cent reduction on certain portions of their

Ag Service Business Worth $230.7

Receipts of Texas' 2,953 agricultural service establishments totaled $230.7 million in 1974, according to data from the 1974 Census of Agriculture.

The data, published by the U.S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census, are shown by selected kinds of business on the back of this release. In addition to receipts, data are shown for the number of establishments and annual payroll.

Agricultural service establishments included in the census were defined as economic units primarily engaged in performing for others on a fee or contract basis the following: soil preparation services, crop services, veterinary services, other animal services, farm labor and management services, and landscape and horticultural

Pork Poundage

When analyzing the price of pork, it's important to remember that a hog is not all pork chops. An average hog today dresses out to about 70 per cent of its live weight. Retail cuts sold in the meat case add up to about 80 per cent of this carcass weight.

Auto Mechanics

Walker, a second-year pre-dental student at PJC who worked for a Ford dealership for more than five years before moving to Paris. He will teach the course on Monday nights for 10 weeks. The fee is $25.

Sponsored through the PJC Continuing Education Division, the course will include warranty, preventive maintenance, frame and body construction, suspension system, systems identification and location, information on engines, fuel systems, ignition, electrical parts, steering, brakes, tire care, clutch, transmission, drive shaft and driving safety. The course is designed to teach the woman driver about operation, maintenance and repair principles of an automobile.

Reservations for the course should be made one week before the course starts services.

Information on agricultural service establishments was obtained for the first time in the 1969 Census of Agriculture, but the coverage was less extensive than in the 1974 census. Care should be taken in comparing data shown for the two years. As a result of the changes in kind-of-business classifications, data for 1974 are not exactly comparable to 1969 data for all kind-of-business classifications. For example, in 1969, establishments engaged primarily in hatching poultry for their own account or on a contract basis and cattle feed lots operated on a contract or custom basis were classified as agricultural service establishments. These establishments were classified as farms in the 1974 Census of Agriculture. Other differences are not believed to be significant for most kinds of business shown in this release. These differences will be explained in the final report for the State.

Final data for agricultural service establishments will be published in Volume III, 1974 Census of Agriculture, and will contain considerably more data. Announcements containing descriptions and publication dates of all reports from the 1974 Census of Agriculture, as well as an order form can be obtained from the Subscriber Services Section (Publications), Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233.

Paula Harvey Is Miss Four States Fair, Rodeo Queen

Paula Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Harvey of Clarksville, is the new Miss Four States Fair and Rodeo Queen. She competed against fourteen other girls. As winner she received a trophy, personalized horse blanket and saddle. Her sponsor was the Red River National Bank of Clarksville.

In June of this year she was crowned Rodeo Queen at Bogata, Texas, and then went on to compete at the Four States Fair and Rodeo in Texarkana.

Paula is a high school junior. Her sophomore year she was voted Most Beautiful, reporter for Homemaking Chapter, nominee for Class Favorite, nominee for Football Sweetheart, three year Drill

Team member and Miss Congeniality of the Red River County Farm Bureau. Last week she was voted FFA Sweetheart for 1976. Paula's hobbies include swimming, horseback riding, softball and monthly trips with the Red River Wagon Masters.

Centennial Year Celebrated By Bethel Baptist Church

The Bethel Baptist Church in the Clardy Community celebrated its 100 year birthday Sunday, September 26, 1976.

Church members from near and far came to help with this centennial celebration. There was singing Sunday morning, dinner at noon, and there were games Sunday afternoon.

Records show that in the summer of 1876, the Rev. W. J. Owens came to Lamar County from his home south of Mount Joy in Delta County, to hold revival meetings. While in the county, according to the late A. W. Neville, long-time editor of The Paris News, the preacher went to the village of Clardy and organized the Bethel Baptist Church.

Now on its third site, the church may be bigger and serve a wider area than ever. The present building, complete with spire, is both commodious and comfortable. The floor is carpeted and even the pews are padded, both seats and backs.

The front door is never locked, according to Mrs. Alvis Glen Ballard, assigned by the present pastor, the Rev. L. C. Stout, to compile a history of the church. She says there are more than 100 members and from all surrounding communities.

Mrs. Ballard, a Ladies Adult Sunday School teacher, says interest is high and constant in that part of the worship service. And she adds that the music section is complimented by two youth choirs.

Unable to locate original records of the church, Mrs. Ballard has found that the land where the church now is located was donated by the late J. H. Parker. Other Christian-minded citizens donated land for the earlier sites.

Some of the pastors, recalled by the older members, date back to 1913 when the Rev. Love was pastor. He was succeeded, in 1914, by the Rev. Hill who in turn was followed by the Rev. Walters. Then the Rev. Dick Simmons became pastor. Available records, beginning in 1937, list the Revs. Wade Skinner, John Parker, A. O. Wright, G. S. Myers, Glen Ross, Kenneth B. Howell, James Davis, Myron Dillow, Buddy Barnett, Bill Widman, Bill Draper and the present pastor, L. C. Stout, who has filled the pulpit for the last nine years.

Like most community churches, Bethel Baptist has had it ups and downs. And in 1941 it had no pastor at all. One memorable event happened in 1923 when a group of Ku Klux Klansmen marched into the church and up to the pulpit, left a check, and turning, marched out.

Mrs. Ballard says the story is told that at one time the church was not able to pay the pastor and he had no means of transportation, except walking. The congregation did make an effort to buy shoes for him, but he walked so much and wore out so many shoes, they decided it might have been cheaper to have paid him a salary. It is believed that this pastor was the Rev. Walters. And back in 1942, the pastor's salary was $100 a year and the church building was valued at $350.

The church, now located near the store, and with added facilities, is today what it has been for the past 100 years—an anchor point for good in a community that was once so isolated it was attacked by Indians. It is a cradle of Christianity rocking continuously for a full century. One reason the church has survived in this community is because of people like Hershel Stone, who was recognized for having been a member for 58 years which was the longest of anyone present Sunday. He was given a bouquet of flowers from the church. Lorie Kennedy received a plaque for having attended church services every Sunday for 10 years. With people like this we suspect that the Bethel Baptist Church will be around to celebrate its bi-centennial year.

NEW YORK—For a cotton producer, it is a frustrating scenario.

He raises his crop and sells it. Then he goes to his local clothing store to buy one of the new mostly cotton, durable press shirts.

But the local store doesn't have it.

"It's frustrating for the cotton producer; it's frustrating for us," says J. Nicholas Hahn, Cotton Incorporated vice president for sales marketing.

"Although selling is the name of the game, we cannot dictate to apparel manufacturers where they must sell their products," explains Hahn.

Rebels To Travel To Mount Vernon

The Mount Vernon Tigers will host the Rivercrest Rebels in Tiger Stadium Friday night at 7:45 p.m.

The Rebels will have to come out smoking this week to get the jump on the Tigers. After Mount Vernon's loss to Hooks last week, the Tiger coaching staff is working the team overtime to bring out a victory for Mount Vernon's Homecoming this Friday night.

Mount Vernon's 1975 record was six wins and four losses, with five offensive and five defensive holdovers. The 1976 season has given the Tigers 0 wins and 0 losses.

The Rebels should make an excellent showing against the Tigers Friday night.

Fumbles have been plaguing the Rebels running game, but each week they show much better ball control. The Rebel defensive line has shown constance in their ability to hold down their opponent's ground game.

The Rebels will find the handle on the ball this week and bring a victory home Friday night.

Couple Sentenced For Tax Evasion

Dallas, Texas—A Denton couple was sentenced today in Tyler to a total of four years in prison after having pleaded guilty to attempted income tax evasion.

Joseph and Edith Normile, owners of a service station and rental properties in Denton, admitted in Judge William Justice's court on August 4, 1976, that they had failed to report income of over $106,000 on their tax returns between 1969 and 1973.

Judge Justice sentenced Joseph Normile to three years in federal prison. Edith Normile was handed a one year sentence, with nine months to be probated after she serves three months.

The maximum penalty for failure to report income is five years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

Ark-Tex COG To Celebrate 10th Anniversary

Commemorating their tenth anniversary, the Ark-Tex Council of Governments Executive Committee, Board of Directors, and staff will hold their annual dinner meeting Tuesday, September 28, 1976, at 6:00 p.m. at the Titus County Civic Center in Mount Pleasant.

Hundreds of guests from all through the ten-county ATCOG region will attend the dinner meeting in the newly-completed building to honor the ten-year old Council and hear guest speaker Senator Lloyd Bentsen.

ATCOG originally began in 1966 as a non-profit corporation created to encourage cooperation and regional planning for and by local government.

ATCOG today is a voluntary association of cities, counties and special purpose districts, sanctioned by state law in both Texas and Arkansas. It serves nine Texas counties and one in Arkansas. It is still dedicated to the purpose of local cooperation, planning and service.

The Ark-Tex Council of Governments is not unique. There are many regional councils, associations, and planning commissions throughout the United States. ATCOG is, however, unusual in that it serves two states and is Kip Stansell attempted 12 passes and completed four, 3-10-13 and 14 yards. Stansell carried the ball three times, and a minus eight yards.

Todd Wright kept his ground game going with nine carries for 18 yards and three first downs. Wright's longest run was for five yards, and the Brahmas were unable to keep him from getting at least one yard.

Milton Scales grabbed three passes for 10-14-13 yards, giving him a 12.33 yard average for the night.

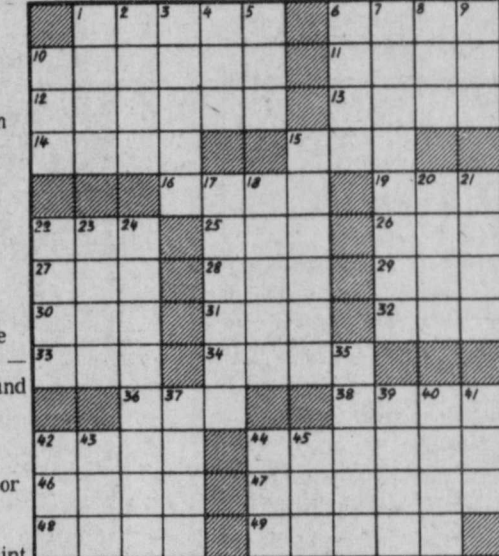

Chris Potter caught a three yard pass from Stansell in the end zone to the the Rebels two points.

Nickey Brown grabbed Paul Pewitt's last fumble of the game on their 45 yard line, with less than two minutes left in the game.

PISCES Feb. 19-Mar. 20	Responsibilities getting you down? Take heart — it will soon pass. Be cooperative...a cool head and high aspirations pay off.

CONSUMER GUIDELINES

Credit Cards Cost
Consumers may be paying for credit cards whether they use the handy money substitutes or not. Merchants must pay credit card companies between two and eight per cent of each purchase charged.

This is usually added into the total price of their merchandise. New laws encourage price-cutting and allow merchants to offer discounts to their cash-paying customers. Stores offering discounts must prominently display the notice at their doors and cash registers. The laws don't require merchants to offer the discount. If you're trying to save money, ask for your discount the next time you pay cash.

Airplane Campaign
First presidential candidate to campaign in an airplane was New York Governor Franklin Delano Roosevelt. He flew in a Ford Tri-Motor from Albany, New York to Chicago, Illinois in 1932 to accept the Democratic nomination.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN—Acquiring a pedigree cat or dog qualifies as a major consumer decision, since prices may range well up into the hundreds of dollars for certain animals. So inexperienced buyers would do well to proceed with caution, our Consumer Protection Division attorneys say.

Our legal experts and animal breeding experts both suggest that you "go slow" and never make a snap decision when purchasing an expensive animal. You should first analyze why you want such an animal and what you will want it to do. Is it to be a family pet?

A show animal? Will it be used for breeding? In the case of dogs, is it to be a working dog, a hunting dog, or a guard dog? Another major thing to consider is the environment into which the animal will be required to fit. Will it be around small children? Some animals adapt readily to children, others do not. Will the animal be kept indoors in an apartment or house all day, or will it have an outdoor area in which to roam? Some breeds that are cooped up all day may expend restless energy on mischief.

How much time do you or others have to spend on daily care, grooming, exercise, and training? Longhaired dogs and cats can often take considerable time daily for combing and brushing, and many large dogs need quite a bit of exercise and training.

After you analyze your needs and those of the animal, study the various breeds to learn which fit those requirements. You can get information from books, from magazines, from national organizations such as the American Kennel Club and the American Cat Fanciers Association, and from clubs devoted to special breeds. Attend shows and compare the various breeds. And ask owners and breeders for information. Most will be delighted to help you learn.

Remember . . . it may be difficult to think of that cute pedigree kitten or puppy as a long-term investment, in terms of money, time, and attention, but if you don't, both you and the animal may later be sorry.

TEXAS JOB TALK

The Texas jobless rate moved down to 5.5 percent in August, Harold K. Dudley, chairman of the Texas Employment Commission, has announced in Austin.

"The August rate is three-tenths of one per cent below the July rate of 5.8 per cent," Dudley commented. "August is the second consecutive month in which Texas has experienced a decline."

"The drop follows a seasonal pattern which we generally see each year as many who have been seeking summer employment leave the labor market," the TEC official added.

The Texas labor force in August totaled 5,437,100—some 29,600 fewer people than were in the corresponding group in July. The jobless in August numbered 301,500 which is down 13,000 from the July figure.

"The Texas unemployment rate continues to run substantially lower than its national counterpart which was 7.6 per cent in August," Dudley observed.

Unemployment rates for the major labor areas of Texas in August include Abilene, 4.0 per cent; Amarillo, 3.2; Austin, 4.5; Beaumont-Port Arthur-Orange, 6.9; Brownsville-Harlingen-San Benito, 10.0; Corpus Christi, 5.9; Dallas-Fort Worth, 4.7; El Paso, 12.5; Galveston-Texas City, 6.9; Houston, 5.7; Laredo, 11.6; Longview, 6.4; Lubbock, 3.4; McAllen-Pharr-Edinburg, 12.2; Midland, 3.3; Odessa, 3.3; San Angelo, 3.9; San Antonio, 7.3; Sherman-Denison, 8.9; Texarkana, 7.8; Tyler, 5.4; Waco, 5.1; Wichita Falls, 4.2.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—There are 110,000 people currently in Texas who can neither hear nor speak. These people must rely on visual contact for communication.

Of major concern to many legislators and to me personally has been the limited access these persons have to social services available in this state. In many agencies authorized to provide services to the deaf, the case-workers are not fluent in sign language, and many times interpreters are not provided. In effect, this lack of communication almost negates the positive effects of these services.

In many states across the nation, university systems have incorporated sign language into their foreign language classification. It is one way students can fulfill the foreign language requirement specified by most degree plans. Throughout the world the languages most used are: English-first, Spanish-second, and American Sign Language-third.

This means that more people in the world communicate with sign language than in French, Portuguese, German or Russian—yet these are the languages most of our Texas colleges offer for foreign language credit.

I have contacted seven of our major institutions and requested that they re-evaluate their sign language programs and study the possibility of opening up these classes to all degree plans by allowing instruction in sign language to fulfill foreign language requirements.

Since these are already being offered, I feel that we could make great steps forward in acquainting the hearing public with the language of the deaf at a minimal cost.

This program should serve to help provide social service agencies with more persons prepared to work with the deaf. It would also enable students geared toward the fields of law, medicine, and religious ministries to learn this language if they so desire.

The more people familiar with the language of the deaf, the better understanding the community can achieve as to the problems of deaf Texans.

Texas Taxes

By BOB BULLOCK, State Comptroller

AUSTIN—Once in a while someone takes a pot-shot at the Comptroller's Office for padlocking the doors of a business for a relatively small sales tax delinquency.

Just recently, for instance, we seized two Dallas taverns which had combined sales tax delinquency of over $1,000. One of the clubs owed sales taxes of $613 and the other owed $450.

A thousand dollars may not sound like much of a delinquency, but it represents gross sales of $20,000. That is a lot of sales for a couple of small businesses to pocket the sales tax on.

And regardless of the amount of money involved, the delinquency represents money a businessman collected from his customers and stashed in his pocket instead of sending to the state treasury where it belonged.

The delinquency situation is changing over the state also, thanks to a lot of hard work and some statewide publicity through the news media about the problem.

Back in early 1975 when we began our crackdown on sales tax delinquents we caught some really big delinquents napping. We have seized more than 350 delinquents since we began that crackdown.

Fifty-seven of those delinquents each owed more than $10,000 in sales taxes; 21 delinquents owed more than $25,000; nine more owed $50,000 each; and three owed more than $100,000.

We sought publicity on those seizures because we wanted the word to get out that we no longer intended to tolerate sales tax delinquencies. We got the publicity we wanted and then some and it has paid dividends in terms of voluntary compliance.

Now because our people in the field are keeping on top of delinquents we rarely have to shut down a business for large delinquencies.

That's the way we want it to be. We don't do anyone a favor by allowing delinquencies to mount—not the merchant and certainly not the customer who paid sales tax to the merchant.

The smaller the amount the delinquent owes, the better chance he has of paying it. When that happens, everybody wins. The merchant stays in business and the customer's money gets to the state treasury, where it's supposed to be.

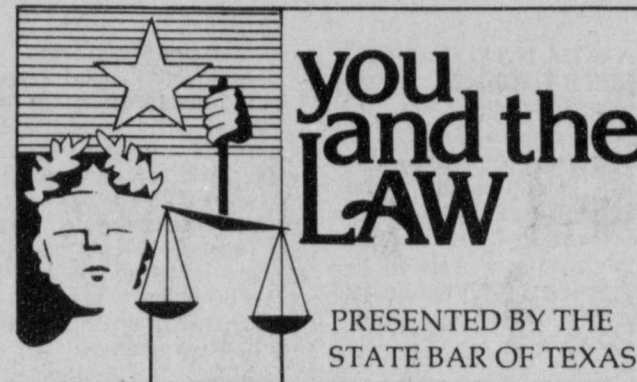

Hopefully, in the future, you won't be reading about many businesses being shut down for large sales tax delinquencies. We hope to catch the delinquent before he gets very far behind on the sales tax he owes.

There's another way of looking at it too. If we stay on top of the situation, those little delinquencies won't mount up in a few months to become big delinquencies.

If we allow little delinquencies to become big ones, we have allowed a situation to develop where everybody, merchant and taxpayer alike, loses again.

IF YOU HAVE ANY STATE TAX PROBLEMS OR QUESTIONS, CONTACT YOUR LOCAL COMPTROLLER'S FIELD OFFICE OR CALL TOLL FREE: 1-800-252-5555.

you and the LAW

PRESENTED BY THE
STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: A tenant in my rent house signed a one-year lease, but she moved after five months when she decided she could no longer afford the rent. I spent more than twice the amount of her security deposit on repairs. Am I obligated to return her deposit or provide her with an itemized accounting of my costs?

A: State law requires you to return your tenant's security deposit, after subtracting for unpaid rent, repairs or other deductions allowed under the lease, within 30 days. However, if your tenant owed rent when she moved, an itemized accounting of deductions is not required. The tenant also remains liable for the rent due for the remainder of the lease, but this liability is reduced by the amount of any rent collected if the property is leased again.

Q: I've been trying to get some family property straightened out since my father died in 1968 and left the land to me and eight other heirs. Someone has been grazing cattle and keeping a mobile home on it for nine years without paying rent. Is it possible to have the cattle and mobile home moved off the property until all of the heirs agree on what to do with the property?

A: You may find it necessary to file an application in court for administration of the estate in order to establish your authority to remove the unauthorized users of the land. Although such applications normally must be filed within four years after death there is an exception to this time limit in cases involving the recovery of property of the deceased person.

Q: My son was recently injured in an auto accident. We asked him not to sign any legal papers, but he signed a settlement to pay for the injuries he suffered in the accident. My husband and I believe the settlement is to low. My son is 20 years old—can I void the settlement?

A: Any person over the age of 18 is free to enter into a contract. Unless a court determines a person to be incompetent, that person's contracts could not be rescinded by a parent. As his parent, you have no right to contract for your son or to reject his agreements after he is 18.

Q: If I file for divorce, and then return to my husband but we still can't get along, do I have to start the divorce proceedings again?

A: No, the original petition in a divorce case is not automatically dismissed if the couple attempts reconciliation.

Send your questions to "You and the Law," State Bar of Texas, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, 78711. Answers may appear in columns in hypothetical terms; personal answers not possible.

CANCER ANSWER LINE

American Cancer Society
M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute

A young man writes: My father has always been an independent person, very much on the stubborn side. Recently, he has been taking a very long time in the bathroom and grumbles a lot when he comes out. He says that it's "nothing but hemorrhoids" and refuses to see a doctor—could it be more?

ANSWERline: Your concern is legitimate, but no one can tell you just what's the matter until your father sees a physician. You might enlist a person of his own age whose opinion he respects, to "talk turkey." That means that your father must understand that he might possibly have a dangerous condition that won't get better by itself. Having it checked out will give him peace of mind, and might even save his life.

A reader asks: "If you are stricken with one form of cancer, does that mean that you are safe from getting new cancer, in another part of your body, some other time?"

ANSWERline: No. Unfortunately, having cancer does not protect you from a second, different cancer, although this is not a common occurrence. In fact, some sites of cancer have been associated with a specific second form of cancer. For example, having had breast cancer, a woman may be more prone to developing cancer of the uterine lining, called endometrial cancer, or colon cancer. Again, this is not likely or usual, but has been known to occur. It is another reason why cancer patients are carefully followed by their physicians.

A vacationer writes: "I plan to spend a week cruising in the Caribbean and I would like some information on how to protect myself from too much sun."

ANSWERline: Your local American Cancer Society will be glad to supply you with a helpful leaflet because skin cancer can develop from over-exposure to the sun. Be careful about exposure from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. when the sun's damaging ultraviolet rays are most powerful. You might also take along and use a sunscreen lotion containing PABA (Paraminobenzoic Acid).

A sports fan wants to know: "Is it true that the great golfer, Gene Littler, had cancer?"

ANSWERline: Gene Littler is an outstanding example of a person treated for cancer who returned to his normal life with gusto. Littler had malignant melanoma, a particularly fast-growing skin cancer, that can be treated best when detected early. In 1972, to save his life, he underwent radical surgery, the removal of many muscles and nerves in his arm-pit, shoulder and chest. Most people thought that he would never play golf again. Six weeks later, he began swinging a club and has won many pro-golf victories since. In 1976, he was awarded the ACS Courage Award in a White House ceremony.

PUC Certification Deadline Met

The Public Utility Commission has met its September 1 deadline for certifying all Texas utilities who had applied to the Commission.

PUC was required by law to identify and designate service area boundaries for all utilities within its jurisdiction as a prelude to its authority over rates and services which goes into effect September 1.

The Commission received a total of 2,964 applications and has acted on all of them. There were a total of 99 telephone companies, 219 radio-telephone companies, 187 electric com-

AFA Scholarship To Be Given

Some lucky Texan in the Class of '77 will receive a $1,000 scholarship from the Air Force Association (AFA) of Texas. Carl E. Eckman, President of the local AFA chapter, explained that the Earle North Parker Scholarship sponsored by the Texas AFA is awarded annually to the winner of a statewide essay contest open to all Texas high school seniors. The topic for this year's contest is "Air Force Technologies; How the Nation Benefits".

Eckman indicated that all entries for the contest must be postmarked not later than 30 November 1976, and encouraged interested students to contact their principal or guidance counselor for entry blanks and detailed instructions.

After all entries have been received, each essay will be reviewed and evaluated by a committee of local AFA chapter members. The best local entry will then be forwarded to the state-level review committee for competition with the selected entries from the 16 other local AFA chapters in Texas. The statewide winner will receive the $1,000 scholarship award at the Texas AFA's Executive Committee meeting next spring.

The primary goal of this competition, as explained by Eckman, is to provide high school seniors with the opportunity to discover how the technological projects of the U.S. Air Force benefit this nation's society. He also expressed the hope that it would provide a better understanding of the Air Force's overall role in national defense as well as highlight some of the associated career opportunities.

Members of the Talco First Baptist Church sponsored the September birthday party at Red River Haven Nursing Home in Bogata recently. Honored guests were those who were celebrating birthdays during the month of September, including Beulah Gibson, Lyda Bell, Fred Swint, Virginia Bishop, Carrie McCulloch, Georgia Whitten, Clara Worden, and Joe Sparks. The oldest resident for the month was Carrie McCulloch who was celebrating her 93rd birthday.

The program was given by Janice Jones, Jo Coll, Ann Roberts, Mona Roberts, Amy Martin and Lisa Barger. The group sang familiar gospel songs.

Other members who participated by bringing cake and punch and serving it to approximately 80 people were Mrs. George Walker, Joyce Alexander, Charlean Treece, Ophelia Hood, Mary Welch, Bessie Gillean, Vivian Westbrook, Ruth Belcher, Alice Ruth Tidwell, and Fannie Clark.

Encephalitis Case Suspected

A suspected case of St. Louis Encephalitis has been reported to Public Health Region 7 in a 65 year old man residing in the Southeast side of Paris in Lamar County.

Public Health Officials strongly warn residents in the Paris area to take adequate precautions in eliminating mosquitoes inside their homes and businesses. An effective mosquito repellent should be used when going out of doors especially at night.

Residents should take the following precautions in eliminating possible mosquito breeding places around their homes:

1. Check around their home and drain where possible any place that water has a tendency to collect. If the water cannot be drained a small quantity of diesel fuel should be placed on the surface.
2. Get rid of old tires, tin cans, bottles, jars, buckets, drums and other containers or keep them emptied out.
3. Repair leaky pipes, outside faucets, and move house cooler drain hoses frequently.

4. Change water and scrub vases holding flowers or cuttings twice each week or grow cuttings in sand; scrub and change water in bird baths twice weekly; empty watering pans of pets and chickens daily.

5. Screen rain barrels and cisterns.

6. Clean clogged roof gutters and drain flat roofs.

Public Health Region 7 has begun mosquito surveillance in the Paris area and adequate mosquito control procedures have been instituted.

Any resident in the area with symptoms including fever should contact their physician immediately.

Several sporadic cases of St. Louis Encephalitis have been confirmed in the North East Texas area since August. Officials with Public Health Region 7 of the Texas Department of Health Resources state that residents use the above listed precautionary measures for their own protection.

Spaying Program To Begin

On October 4, the program for the spaying of pets will be set in motion, which will prove a benefit not only to animals but to people, also. Every year Animal Shelters pay out $50,000,000 to enlarge their buildings to take care of abandoned animals, most of which must be put to sleep, eventually, simply because there is not sufficient room, or not enough people to adopt these creatures.

Those who have pets to be spayed, should phone to Dr. Pat Macdonald, Clarksville, 1-427-3847. When he has received ten requests from owners, he will set the day for you to bring them in, and he will do the spaying on that day. He has cut the cost of the operation by almost half—which is $20.00. For those who are financially able to pay this price, this will be the amount they pay. For those who cannot pay, the spaying is free for them. However, if they could contribute even a small sum, it would help to stretch the fund to reach more animals.

Contributions may be made to Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Chambless, Larkin Gooch, John Russell Anderson, Mayor Maurice Isbell. You may be sure that it will be used for the "greatest good to the greatest number."
