

County Fair, Fun Fair Roll Out This Weekend

The two-day 1984 Collingsworth County Fair opens as the Color Guard leads the big parade onto the courthouse square at 11:00 a.m. Friday, Sept. 7, and it will not end until the events at Fun Fair in Ellison Park fold their booths and move out Saturday evening Sept. 8. Even then, the carnival will be open Saturday night for its final performance.

In the meantime, exhibits in Bura Handley Community Center will show the crops and vegetables and fruits and flowers Collingsworth is growing, the talents of its artists will be exhibited and demonstrations Friday and commercial exhibits will entertain or inform.

The Country Store in the American Legion building will be just that.

The community center will be open immediately after the parade to 5 p.m. Friday. Saturday hours will be 9 a.m. to 12 noon, when the downtown part of the fair closes and action moves to Ellison Park where the Fun Fair will entertain through the afternoon. Check-out time at the Community Center will be 12 noon to 1 p.m.

Some downtown merchants and others on Highway 83 have indicated they will close at noon Saturday so they and their employees can attend Fun Fair.

Jest Amusement Co. is back for a full week of carnival entertainment, having opened Monday evening. Performances will continue through Saturday night. Opening time will be sundown. The carnival will be at its usual location east of the National Guard Armory at Marian Airpark.

Chairmen have announced plans

PARADE

Cliff Goss, chairman will begin moving the parade onto the square at 11:00 a.m. "This parade is for the kid in all of us," he said.

The parade itself will form on West Avenue in front of the Post Office and be in place by 10:30 a.m. Upon reaching the southwest corner of the square, it will travel along the south, east, north and west sides and upon reaching the southwest corner again, turn right onto 9th Street and continue west to the area of 1st United Methodist Church.

Sheriff Kenneth Maxwell will clear the route onto the square.

The parade will form on West

Organizational queens and sweethearts will ride in cars provided by Duncan Chevrolet Olds and Smith Motor Co.; The National Guard will march and the unit is expected to have part of its equipment, Wellington and possibly Samnorwood Volunteer Fire Departments will take part, as will the Wellington Volunteer Ambulance Service and Sheriff's Reserve. There will be a division for miscellaneous entries and farm machinery.

With the lead part of the parade forming in West Avenue in front of the post office, Margaret Vines has announced the streets on which the other divisions of the parade will be made up.

Goss reminded that all bicycles are to be decorated and to gather in the paved area of the Post Office yard by 10:15 a.m. judges will inspect the bicycles before the parade begins.

Skyrockets Open Against Hollis Here

Wellington Skyrockets open their 1984 football schedule on home ground--Powell Field--Friday, Sept. 7, against Hollis Tigers. Starting time is 8 p.m.

Backing them up will be That Skyrocket Band and the Pep Squad--and the fans.

Right now, the Tigers are rated the No. 1 team in their classification in the State of Oklahoma.

"They have 9 seniors on their starting offense, and some of these kids have played for three years already," said Head Coach James Williams.

Last year they played for the state championship and lost 16-12.

"They have lost only three starters on offense and three on defense. They have a lot more seniors and a lot more experience than we do," continued Williams.

"We have some young players starting the first time ever who are going into this game. For us to play to win the game, it's going to take a tremendous effort from our kids, because Hollis has lots more maturity than we do," declared their coach.

Williams said he has confidence the young Rockets will give it all they have and be real aggressive, also try to move the ball, try to execute well, throw the ball well and get their blocking assignments down.

"We look forward to this challenge. It will give us an idea of what kind of team we will have and the work with these young people we will have to do to get them ready to compete within our district, as well as in non-district games," said Williams.

"We have wound up some long hot workouts and our kids are ready for this ball game."

James Benton remains on the sidelines, due to knee surgery he underwent earlier. He is off crutches and started running Monday.

Jimmy Barber has turned an ankle last Thursday night in the intra-squad scrimmage. "Hopefully Jimmy will be ready," the coach commented.

Hollis will outweigh the Skyrockets considerably.

City State Loses Bonding Co. Suit

U.S. District Judge Mary Lou Robinson has ruled in favor of United States Fidelity and Guaranty bonding company in a $246,250 suit filed by City State Bank against the bonding company, bank officials said Tuesday.

City State executive vice president Cliff Goss said he was informed by the bank's attorneys Tuesday of the decision but he said he had not had time to review the 28-page decision.

"We're disappointed, but the decision won't have any effect on our operations," Goss said, "since the bank had charged off its portion of the note in question back in 1981."

"We'll be discussing with our attorneys in the next few days

Old Settlers Meet Friday for Lunch

Old Settlers of Collingsworth County will hold their annual luncheon and reunion Friday, Sept. 7, at the Senior Citizens building, Mrs. Malcolm Horton, secretary, has announced.

As a special feature, the group will watch the Fair Parade, then return to the senior citizens building for the covered dish luncheon.

Those attending the reunion can come by the building as early as 9 a.m. to register and visit before parade time.

After lunch, a program of quartet singing will be presented by Buck Lancaster of Turkey and his quartet. The oldest old settler present will be honored, as will the one coming farthest and the one having the most grandchildren.

A business session will be held to elect officers for next year and the remainder of the afternoon will be given over to visiting.

Mrs. Haskell Manuel is president for this year.

Those attending the luncheon are asked to bring a covered dish.

Brock Gilley Dies in Traffic Accident Sunday

Brock Aaron Gilley, 17-months-old son of Nick and Janelle Gilley, died Sunday evening, Sept. 2, after he stepped or fell off a curb into the path of a Collingsworth County Sheriff's patrol car at 7:17 p.m.

The accident occurred in front of New Life Assembly of God Church shortly after evening services, as approximately 20 people, including Mr. and Mrs. Gilley, were talking in front of the church.

Because of the sun's glare, witnesses are uncertain whether the boy fell off the curb or stepped off into the path of the patrol car, driven by Deputy Reece Bowen.

The patrol car was traveling at 15-20 miles per hour, said Sheriff Kenneth Maxwell.

The sheriff said this was a 7-inch curb, tall for a 17-months-old child.

Bowen, driving west toward the sun, said he did not see the little boy and was not aware he was in the street until he heard something, looked in his rear view mirror and saw him.

"It is regrettable, but I see no fault in him or anyone around. It is one of those regrettable things we'd rather had not happened," said Maxwell.

Brock Aaron Gilley was born April 22, 1983, in Childress.

Graveside services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 5, in North Fairview Cemetery. Rev. Larry Boyd, pastor of New Life Assembly of God, officiated and Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors was in charge of arrangements.

Survivors are his parents; two brothers, Ryan and Wyatt; one sister, Tara; paternal grandparents, S.H. and Jean Gilley of Unionville, Tenn.; and N.K. and Peg Waldon of Pekin, Ill.; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Duane

BROCK GILLEY

Dehmlow of Pekin, Ill.

A memorial fund for Brock has been established at both Wellington banks, City State and Wellington State.

Money will go to the general building fund of New Life Assembly of God Church.

Those wishing to contribute may go by either bank or may make contributions through Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors.

It's a chance for everyone to have fun, and we urge you to attend all the events. It's a chance to see and enjoy members of the community that you don't usually have an opportunity to visit.

And at the arts and crafts shows it's an opportunity to see what your friends and neighbors have been up to in their spare time this past year.

Plan to attend the County Fair events this week--we'll see you there. And come by to see us--this week or anytime--the coffee pot's always on and the soft drinks are cold.

SATURDAY EVENTS

PET SHOW

A favorite of all Collingsworth

County Fair goers is the childrens pet or small animal show, for 10 a.m. on the north side of the court house. Children 12 years of age and under may enter their pets or other animals.

Buster Hughes is chairman.

He announced that all pets must be under control by the owner. Dogs and cats must be on leashes; mice and rats and other small pets in cages; and all other animals must be under control.

Judging will be on the basis of the pet's appearance. There will be a number of divisions to make it interesting for small children to enter their pets.

Rosettes will be awarded to the owners of the top place and runner up, and ribbons will go to other winners.

ELLISON PARK EVENTS

All downtown events close at noon Saturday and action moves to the Ellison Park area. Streets around the park will be blocked off at 10:30 a.m. and remain blocked until the end of Fun Fair.

Wellington High School has opened the parking area around the gymnasium for Fun Fair parking, according to Billie Ward, chairman. Reserve deputies will be in charge of directing traffic and parking cars. They will direct drivers coming to Fun Fair into that area.

Fun Fair dominates the final phase of the Collingsworth County Fair beginning at noon Saturday, Sept. 8.

Billie Ward and Jackie Sander-son are co-chairmen and all events will be in Ellison park or the adjacent streets.

First on schedule is the Lions Club terrapin race, which starts at 1 p.m. in 17th Street on the north side of the park.

More than 70 racing terrapins are already in hand, say the Lions, but they do not say if practice sessions are being held this week with the hard-backs.

Terrapins are being sold, and they will be raced in heats until the winner is determined. Lions use the proceeds for their projects, especially those involving children and participation in the High Plains Eye Bank.

Mrs. Ward announced that starting time for all food booths is 12 noon.

This schedule will be followed: Starting at 1 p.m. will be the Firemen's Auxiliary dunking board; Cub Scouts set of four games; sack race, three legged race for adults and children, the piggy back race for adult-child combination and tricycle races for children.

2 p.m. events are the obstacle course with proceeds to Make a Wish Foundation in Amarillo for terminally ill children.

The soccer slalom race course is sponsored by the soccer league, and memberships for the league will be taken.

This is the beginning of a money-making project to outfit kids with uniforms, equipment and other needed items. The race is for children only.

Starting at 2:30 p.m. will be the mini-bucket brigade and stretcher race.

High point of the afternoon, the adult bed races, will be run on East Avenue alongside the park starting at 3:30 and as soon as those are finished the bucket brigade begins in the east part of the lot.

There are 5 food booths: Cancer Society home made ice cream booth; Skyrocket Booster Club and Samnorwood PTO; Quail Young Homemakers and the Soccer League.

Brownie Scouts will sell hot dogs and Frito pie; Cub Scouts, nachos with chili and cheese; Country Cuisine, barbecue sandwiches; Hospital Auxiliary, pop and diet drinks; 4-H pop and iced tea.

Little League will have its snow cone machine.

The Satellite Center will have helium filled balloons; Jake's Cycle Shop, cart rides; and Alcie Estes and her team will do face painting.

Soccer League will also sell home made hot tamales prepared by Maria Torrez.

Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church will have charcoal grilled hamburgers, cooked on site, to benefit their youth group.

Maps will be posted in the park showing the location of the various events.

Walter Clements will be in charge of the PA system, keeping people informed as to when the various events begin and where in the park they are located, and who the winners are.

There may also be additional events and booths entered between now and Saturday noon, it was pointed out.

for those entering to begin cooking their chili at 11 a.m. in Ellison Park, Tom Allison, chairman, announced.

Judging will be at 3 p.m.
In the meantime, cooks may sell part of their product, so long as they keep a quart of their chili for the judges, Allison said.

The chili will be sold at 50 cents per styrofoam cup, with proceeds going to the benefit any cause the cook-off team selects.

There will be two divisions, best chili and best showmanship. Prizes will be given in both.

The showmanship winners will be judged on four qualities: theme, costume, booth set-up and action.

Allison reminds those who have entered during the last week of cook-off rules:

All chili must be cooked on site, the day of the cook-off, starting from scratch. Any quantity may be cooked, and all except the quart for the judges can be sold. Preparation and cooking must be done in the open; commercial chili powder can be used, but complete commercial chili mixes cannot be used. Each team must have its own equipment. Contestants are responsible for selling their own chili.

The entry fee is $15 per team. Teams may have any number of members. Those wanting additional information should contact Tom Allison at 447-2515, cook-off chairman, or Billie Ward, 447-5511, Fun Fair chairman.

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT REPORT

by Don Reeves

CONSERVATION WHEN WATERING LAWNS SAVES $$$

When the weather turns dry, don't turn on your lawn sprinkler and then gripe about your high water bill. By watering, fertilizing and mowing your lawn properly, you can reduce your water bill as much as 40 percent.

Conservation by the homeowner provides the only solution to high water bills and excessive water demands during hot and usually dry Texas summers.

In small cities where industrial demand for water is low, lawn watering may account for as much as half of all the water used during summer months. Even in larger cities, lawns get 30 to 40 percent of all the water supplied by municipalities.

Most Texas lawns need about 2 inches of water per week during the summer and most of this usually comes from irrigation.

Exactly what can a homeowner do to reduce his summer water bill?

The first thing is to water your lawn only when grass starts to show signs of drought stress. Look for discoloration and wilting. If leaves roll up in late afternoon and footprints remain after walking across the lawn, then water within 24 hours.

Once you've decided that your lawn needs watering, do it right. Most homeowners don't water their lawns properly. They either water too often, causing grass to develop shallow roots and making it a prime target for insects, diseases and temperature extremes, or they water too frequently and apply too much water at one time, resulting in a lot of runoff.

When watering, soak the soil to a depth of 4 to 6 inches. In heavy clay soils, watering for 15- to 20-minute periods may be necessary to prevent excessive runoff.

Cutting back on lawn fertilization can also reduce watering. Apply Cutting back on lawn fertilization can also reduce watering. Applying fertilizer in the spring and fall will generally keep your lawn healthy. Fertilizing during the summer, especially with nitrogen fertilizer, will green up your lawn, but it will also make it grow faster and use more water.

Mowing less often and cutting your grass at taller heights also will help keep your lawn in better shape during hot, dry weather.

DON'T BUY BRUCELLOSIS

County Livestock producers who are planning to buy cattle to put in cow herds should look for brucellosis-free stock.

Producers should remember a basic management practice relating to brucellosis control: make sure the cattle you buy are free of brucellosis.

Producers also should isolate any cattle they buy at any time from their herds and test them in 45 to 120 days following purchase to check for animals that might have been in the early stages of brucellosis infection.

Consider buying cattle from a certified brucellosis-free herd. There are now more than 1,100 such herds in Texas. The nearest Texas Animal Health Commission area office can provide information on certified brucellosis-free herds.

Because of progress throughout Texas in reducing brucellosis infection it is particularly important to check on the brucellosis status of any cattle to be bought. This can prevent a whole herd of trouble.

DON'T SHOOT AT POWER LINES!

Never shoot at power lines or the insulators that hold them. A severed line could cause a dangerous power outage, and the downed line itself could also be a very serious safety hazard.

Here are a few other tips on how to live more safely — electrically:

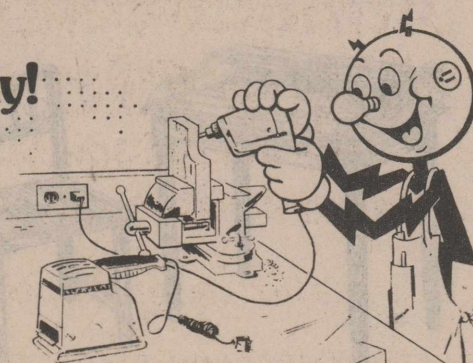

Keep Children Away from Outlets!

Don't let small children play near electrical outlets. A child could easily put a finger or some object in an outlet when you're looking away. A wise safety precaution would be to put safety caps in all wall outlets.

Use Power Tools Wisely!

Be extra careful when using power tools. Always be sure the wiring is adequate for the job. See to it that there are enough circuits of the right size, and that all circuits are grounded. Also, never use electric tools in the rain or on wet surfaces.

It's the Power of Choice.

HOW TO TALK TO YOUR CHILD'S TEACHER

There are no real secrets to talking to a child's teacher, but the task remains a challenge to most parents. First, remember that the goal of the conference is to help the child. This means that parents should not use the teacher's conference to vent dissatisfaction with school policies or frustrations with aspects of your family life.

Second, unless confronting an emergency, allow yourself time to clarify the picture your child presents at school. Children, like adults, have good and bad weeks. If you're worried about grades, gather several examples of work you've seen at home and take them with you for clarification.

Third, seek a positive, adult relationship with your child's teacher. Many parents see the teacher as a rival, especially in the early grades when children become attached to their teacher. Sometimes fear of the teacher dates back to the parents' early school experiences.

Teachers may feel uncomfortable or threatened by parents, too. Teachers spend most of their working hours as the unchallenged adult in a classroom of younger children of adolescents.

The goal of a parent-teacher conference, then, is a mutually supportive adult conversation about a child, one in which both parties communicate respect for each other and value each other's knowledge of the child.

Parent-teacher conferences are usually different each time. Get-acquainted meetings may occur at special events, when you pick up children at school, or in community contacts. Don't try to use get-acquainted meetings for extended personal conferences.

Check-up sessions should be planned by parents and teachers at least once a year, whether or not they are required. Exchange notes about what you want to talk about so each party is prepared. Required conferences have a more formal air since they are typically limited to 15 minutes and other parents are waiting their turn. Required conferences usually need a follow-up, genuinely personal conference later.

For telephone conferences, jot down your concerns and keep your voice tone non-threatening. A concern handled over the telephone requires less time for both parties. Try not to ask the teacher to call you at home nor call the teacher at his or her home unless it is a genuine emergency. Call the teacher during the work day at a time convenient for both of you.

A child's growth and development are the reason for parent-teacher conferences. When effective communications between home and school become a reality, the child also reaps the rewards.

Appraise Your Valuables

You don't have to have a million dollar estate to need the services of a professional appraiser, says home economist Bonnie Piernot.

A good appraiser can be as important as a good banker, broker or lawyer if you have insurance damage or loss settlements, divorce proceedings or an IRS audit, explains Piernot, a specialist with the Texas A&M University Agriculture Extension Service.

Appraisers are not directly licensed or certified by government agencies, so you should investigate before you hire one, she advises. Agencies forbid members to ask for a percentage of the appraised value as a fee, she says, since that might encourage them to over-value property to get higher fees.

Many appraisers now charge an hourly rate or a negotiable flat fee for a job, notes Piernot.

You can help your appraiser by collecting information such as bills of sale, deeds, lists of improvements and costs or previous appraisals, advises the specialist.

Since an appraisal report can help in estimating financial net worth, formulating your estate plan and assessing insurance needs, make maximum use of it, advises Piernot.

Popular Foods Can Have Fewer Calories and Nutrition, Too

Some of those favorite casual summer meals like hamburgers, pizza, tacos, quiche and chef's salad, can be high in nutrients and lower in calories with just a few variations.

Perhaps because children and teenagers like them so much, many people think these dishes are "junk food" or somehow inferior to other kinds of meals, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist Mary K. Sweeten.

But in fact these dishes may contain foods from each of the four basic food groups: protein foods like meat, poultry, fish, eggs and legumes; fruits and vegetables; dairy products; and breads and cereals, she says.

According to Sweeten, you can enhance the nutritional value and cut the calories of these popular foods by doing the following:

*Add the nutrition of dairy products by making your hamburger a cheeseburger and serving tacos with cheese.

*Include vegetables in these dishes by adding fresh green lettuce and a tomato slice to your cheeseburger. Serve tacos with shredded lettuce and tomatoes.

Add a generous amount of mushrooms, sliced green pepper or other vegetables to pizza, and add spinach or broccoli to quiche.

*Reduce calories from meat by starting with lean ground beef. Make sure you drain the fat from beef before preparing taco filling or using it on pizza.

*Reduce calories from dairy products by choosing a low-fat process cheese for tacos and cheeseburgers, and mozzarella cheese made from skim milk for pizza. Use low-fat cheese and skim milk for quiche.

*Use high-calorie condiments sparingly. Eliminate rich salad dressings and use commercially prepared reduced-calorie dressing or make your own with buttermilk and herbs or lemon juice.

The nutrition of these meals can be increased even further if you'll accompany them with a glass of milk, says Sweeten. Again, to lower calories, you can select skim milk or buttermilk.

While the calories and nutrients will vary according to serving size and specific ingredients, these summer favorites can be good nutrition choices for the calories they provide, notes the nutritionist.

The death of Nick and Janelle Gilley's 17-month-old son, Brock, in an automobile accident Sunday night has shocked and saddened the community.

Brock's untimely death has been the topic of hundreds of hushed conversations throughout Wellington during the past few days, and there has been a tremendous outpouring of sympathy for Brock's family and for the driver of the car.

Each of us has paused to think that it could just as easily have been our son or daughter or grandson or neighbor whom fate might have set in front of the car, and each of us has thought that it could just as easily have been us driving the car on a quiet, crisp Sunday evening when the tragedy occurred.

Brock's death forces each of us to evaluate what is and is not important in our lives.

Although our minds recoil from the inability to explain this event, our hearts open wide to share our frail, common humanity, our community, with everyone involved, and to support our fellow man and woman.

Brock's legacy to all of us may be that his life and death calls us to a higher sense of brotherhood with each of the people with whom we share this life.

Creationism Discussed at California Seminar

Wellington school teacher Ruth Norman attended a seminar on "Scientific Christian Evidence" in San Diego and attended Olympic events in Los Angeles this month.

Mrs. Norman and a friend, Ann Terry of Great Britain (who has visited in Wellington several times), saw American Valerie Brisco-Hooks win the women's 200-meter race and saw Brittan's Daley Thompson win the decathlon in Memorial Coliseum.

At the seminar Mrs. Norman attended, eleven faculty members from The Institute for Creation Research and Christian Heritage College lectured.

One of the lecture topics was "The Origin of the Cosmos" by Dr. Harold Slusher, a physics faculty member at UT El Paso. Mrs. Norman said he discussed the "Big Bang" theory and said that theory was out of favor with many scientists today. "A star can't be formed in a universe that is expanding," Slusher said, "and from the Big Bang, it is impossible for a galaxy to form."

Mrs. Norman said many of the lecturers said that the theory of evolution sharply conflicted with laws of thermodynamics and with entropy theory, the degradation of matter and energy in the universe to an ultimate state of inert uniformity.

Other lectures were "Many Infallible Proofs" by Dr. Henry Morris, president of the Institute. "The Case for Creation" and "Human Origins" by Dr. Duane Gish, vice president of the Institute and holder of a Ph. D in biochemistry from UC Berkeley, who has become well-known for his debates with evolution theorists on college campuses, "The Menace of Humanism" and "True Education" by Dr. Richard Bliss, "The Creation of Life" by Dr. Gary Parker.

Mrs. Norman said she hoped to bring films and speakers to this area to discuss topics she heard at the Institute.

"40 Miles of Pavement" Publication Due Sept. 15

A September 15 date is scheduled for the publication of "Only 40 Miles of Pavement," a collection of tales by John Carter Goldsborough in which he remembers his traveling salesman days (1926-1939) in the Texas Panhandle and Wellington.

Included is a long story about the tornado which hit Wellington in 1928. It was this story which The Wellington Leader provided help in determining whether that storm hit Wellington or Wheeler.

Memories of a number of Wellington residents pinned down the fact that it was Wellington.

Mr. Goldsborough now lives in Charlotte, N.C., and is assisted in his book by Margaret G. Bigger, a professional writer of Charlotte.

The publisher of "Only 40 Miles of Pavement" is Eakin Press of Austin, and the book will be available through The Wellington Leader's book department.

"We are planning a publicity tour for Mr. Goldsborough around the first or second week in October. Right now we are trying to determine the best stops," said Mrs. Bigger.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox last week mailed over $10 million in checks to victims of a fraudulent insurance sales plan. Additional checks were on the way.

The money sent to the 1,600 Texans was the settlement Mattox wrested from Academy Life Insurance Co. of Pennsylvania, and it might be the largest consumer settlement in state history.

Mattox said the company used high-pressure tactics to sell the product to rural, elderly clients, many of whom thought they were buying an investment plan to avoid high taxes.

In some cases the buyer would pay more in life insurance premiums after two years than his survivors would be able to collect upon death, according to Mattox.

Reform Funds Wrong

Earlier, Mattox released a long-awaited legal opinion which held that a legislative committee may not legally accept contributions from private organizations. The opinion was requested by the House Administration on behalf of a committee contemplating a study on child care.

More recently, the public education reform committee chaired by Dallas multimillionaire H. Ross Perot was reportedly funded, in part, by contributions from Perot.

Mattox's legal conclusion might lead one to ask whether those contributions were legal, or if Perot's gesture which led to public education reform in Texas will ever be duplicated again.

Food Stamp Crisis

When a computer foul-up delayed food stamps to some 3,000 Houston families, the state rushed surplus commodities such as flour, beans and milk to Houston.

The food was diverted from other parts of the state to Houston warehouses for distribution to food banks.

A spokesman for the Texas Department of Human Resources said all food stamp cards would be back on mailing schedule by the weekend.

Agency officials plan to ask the Legislature for a budget increase of more than $1 billion, with some of the money going to a 33 percent boost in basic welfare payments.

Pollution Control

And as state agencies jockey these days in preparation of January's legislative session, three environment-related agencies eye the power to fine polluters as much as $25,000 a day.

Environmentalists want those powers for the Department of Water Resources, the Department of Health and the Air Control Board.

These agencies now have the power to fine violators, but the fines are so small that they're easily ignored.

Veterans Land Program

Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro last week told the Sunset Commission that more Texas veterans could participate in the Veterans Loan Program if the requirements were lowered from 10 acres to five.

Rising land costs have put 10-acre tracts out of reach for many veterans who might otherwise participate for a smaller tract.

Mauro also wants to change wording in the Veterans Housing Program which has the effect of excluding active military personnel.

Prison Guard Raped

On the heels of the furor over prison violence emerged a story last week of a female prison guard who was raped while being held hostage by a prisoner early this month.

The incident was kept under wraps, according to prison system spokesmen, because she did not want the story out.

Upon her rescue, she apparently said she was not hurt, then later reported it with a request for privacy.

Early Texas Arsenal

The site of the first Republic of Texas arsenal, operated from 1837-39 in Wharton County, may have been discovered in a sorghum field.

Dozens of cannon and musket pieces, balls and parts of swords and bayonets have been found scattered over two acres. Some are Brown Bess models purchased from England by Mexico and may have been used against the Alamo.

Many Mexican weapons were captured at San Jacinto and stored at the arsenal. Location records were lost in an Austin fire in 1857.

Louis XIV owned 413 beds.

City Sales Tax Rebate $10,463.43 for August

The City of Wellington has received a check for $10,463.43 from State Comptroller Bob Bullock, which represents the local sales tax payments for the period ending July 27.

Although this payment is smaller than the comparable payment for 1983, the 1984 total sales tax payments to date remain above the 1983 payments by 5.32%.

The 1983 August payment amounts to $12,596.37. The 1984 sales tax payments to date totals $53,455.85. The payments received by this time in 1983 was $50,755.04.

Bullock explained that bookkeeping changes that were part of last year's tax deadline speedups made the August 1984 payment smaller than the previous August payment.

Bullock said year-to-date comparisons can be made accurately. Bullock said that this increase represents "honest growth" over last year.

The August checks (to July 27) were for taxes collected on sales made in June and the second quarter and reported to the Comptroller by July 20.

Samnorwood Baptist Revival Opens Sunday

Revival services are scheduled at Samnorwood Baptist Church from Sunday, Sept. 9 through Friday, Sept. 14. Services will be at 7:30 p.m. each evening including Sunday evening, with Sunday morning services at 11.

The Rev. Rodney Williams, pastor of South Garland Baptist Church in Garland will be the evangelist.

He has served in that capacity since September 1983, and prior to that he was at First Baptist Church in Dalhart.

The music director will be Gilbert Davis of Rowlett, music director of Mimosa Lane Baptist Church in Mesquite.

A fellowship will be held at noon Sunday, following the morning worship, with a covered dish luncheon to be served. This will be in the church fellowship hall.

The Rev. Terry Raines, pastor of the Norwood church, has invited the public to attend any or all of the services.

Rev. McCann Goes to Lubbock Baptist Church

The Rev. Howard McCann has resigned as pastor of Fundamental Baptist Church and he and his family are moving this week to Lubbock.

He will be associate pastor of 25th Street Baptist Church in Lubbock and also go into evangelistic work.

He will return to the staff of the church with which he was associated when he, his wife, Laverne and their sons, Jay Don, 12, and Russell, 9, came to Wellington in January 1980.

Prior to that, he was associate pastor of music and youth at West Division Street Baptist Church in Emporia, Kansas. He received a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Baptist Bible College in Springfield, Mo.

Both Rev. and Mrs. McCann grew up in Lubbock and graduated from Estacado High School.

In Wellington, she was employed by Sears one year and has been with City State Bank four.

Rev. McCann was a reserve deputy Sheriff and had a jail ministry. He was a member of Collingsworth Volunteer Ambulance Service and chaplain of Wellington Volunteer Fire Department. He has been a Little League coach and operated the contract mail route out of Wellington Post Office for Route 6 and the Childress to Shamrock Route.

Their older son, Jay Don, is in the school band and both boys are in Scouting, played Little League and take piano lessons.

Parallel Petroleum In Proposed Merger With Delaware Co.

Parallel Petroleum of Midland has filed on SEC registration statement covering proposed transactions in which Parallel will be merged with and into a newly formed Delaware Corporation.

Information covering these transactions was released by a former Samnorwood man, Larry C. Oldham, executive vice-president and chief financial officer of Parallel.

The new corporation in turn would acquire the proved oil and gas properties of six private limited partnerships in exchange for 3,970,108 shares of common stock.

The partnerships are managed by Thomas R. Cambridge and A.L. Nail of Amarillo.

The merger, Parallel said, would result in no change in the corporate name, the present managing officers, or the present board of directors. To effect the merger at least two-thirds of Parallel's outstanding stock must be voted in favor of the transaction, while the acquisition of the proved oil and gas properties will require approval by the partners owning at least 51% of the aggregate initial partnership subscriptions.

The properties would provide substantially increased cash flow and working capital and Parallel would continue to be free of bank debt, Oldham said.

He added that its current inventory position in internally generated oil prospect acreage, more than 5,000 acres, is the strongest in Parallel's 3½-year operating history. Oldham said Parallel plans to participate with partners and investors in drilling 22 wells and 7 exploratory wells during the next 8 months.

Notice

Both my Hollis & Wellington office will be closed Sept. 6 (Thursday) thru Sept. 13th (Thursday).

I will be attending the "Contact Lens Seminar" of the American Optometric Association at Chicago.

This seminar is one of the best in the U.S.--I have selected this because of the amount of contact lens we do.

The American Optometric Association has different specialist sections, one of which is the contact lens section.

This is a group of optometrists that specialize in fitting contact lenses. Only 56 optometrists in Oklahoma are members of this section.

Dr. Harrison began fitting the old Scleral Contact Lens in 1952 after advanced study at the University of Houston. In 1958 the new Hard & Corneal Lens came into use. This was followed by daily wear soft lens and now 30 day extended wear.

The Lord is my shepherd

The 23rd Psalm is one of the most familiar chapters in the Bible. Early in life, most of us have committed it to memory. Every once in a while we should go back to these verses and think of the wonderful message of faith and trust in God that they reveal to us. They show us that we have a loving Father; one who will show us the right paths; one who will protect and provide for us. These scriptures end with a note of thanksgiving and a promise.

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Plan to start a regular worship in the Lord's house.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Wellington Donations to Telethon Total $1,092

Wellington citizens raised approximately $1092.74 in pledges and special events during the Nineteenth Annual Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. In the Panhandle area a total of $211,336 went up on the toteboard and nationally over $32,074,566 was pledged.

Hosted again by Jerry Lewis, MDA National Chairman for over 30 years, the 22½ hour entertainment marathon featured some of the most popular personalities in show business including stars of TV, film, stage and the concert world -- all of whom contributed their talents to help in the fight against some 40 neuromuscular diseases. Ed McMahon served as Lewis' anchorman for the twelfth straight year, backed up by Casey Kasem and other celebrity co-hosts.

KFDA-TV, Channel 10 carried the local portion of the show which was aired from 8 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Sunday to 6:30 p.m. Monday. The Wellington pledge center was located at Wellington State Bank under the direction of coordinator Nell McKinney. Special MDA events coordinated by the pledge center during Labor Day weekend included:

County in Job Training Program

Governor Mark White announced today that $1,115,070 will be used for job training programs for economically disadvantaged, unemployed, and underemployed Texans in the Panhandle area. The Governor has approved the expenditure of these funds for job training programs in Armstrong

Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher, and Wheeler Counties. The Texas Department of Community Affairs has executed a contract effective July 1 for the provision of a job training program under the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA).

"The Job Training Partnership Act is a catalyst for integrating the private and public sector in developing skills needed by Texans for productive employment and economic self-sufficiency," Governor White said.

Under the Job Training Partnership Act, local elected officials in partnership with private industry councils, composed of business and community representatives, plan and provide programs best suited for residents of their area. Program services include basic education skills training and job placement.

Point System Remains Unchanged for Duck Hunting

AUSTIN - The 100-point system of bag limits for duck hunting in effect in Texas since 1970 is proposed to continue during the upcoming duck seasons with no changes in point values.

Two species of ducks, however, are proposed for addition to the list of legal game birds. They are the black-bellied whistling (tree) duck and the fulvous whistling duck. If this change is adopted by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission the two species would be 70-point ducks.

Public comment on the point system and other proposals for the upcoming seasons may be directed by mail to Bill Brownlee, Migratory Game Bird Program Director, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, Texas 78744, or by calling toll-free 1-800-792-1112.

Point values for the various duck species proposed for 1984-85 are: 100-point ducks -- canvasbacks; 70-point ducks -- mallard hens, Mexican-like ducks, redheads, mottled ducks, black ducks, wood ducks, hooded mergansers and fulvous and black-bellied whistling ducks; 10-point ducks -- blue winged teal, green-winged teal, cinnamon teal, pintail, gadwall, scaup, wigeon, shoveler and mergansers, excluding hooded mergansers; 20-point ducks -- all other ducks not listed, except that the season is closed on masked ducks.

A hunter's daily limit is achieved when the point value of the last duck taken and added to the sum of the point value of ducks already taken that day reaches or exceeds 100 points.
