Odds And Ends

The Broncos will not have a game this weekend and will be catching up on rest, recovering from injuries, and continuing routine practice.

Reportedly chalked on a high school blackboard: "Yea, Bronco! Beat Open."

Our sincerest thanks to Mrs. Belle Steen for the wide-angle pictures of the 1924 Fourth of July celebration in downtown Sonora. We plan to guard them with our lives but hope to have them available for those of you who would like to have a look. Thanks, Steen.

This is National Newspaper Week. It may also be National Potato Chip Week, National Safe Deposit Box Week and National Callisthenics Week for all we know. But, like most people, we are prone to observe the Week which pertains to us particularly.

President Kennedy says this about the press: "Newspapers play a vital role in our society. They have been called the universities of the people and rightly so. With all the great advances of our educational system and the spread of its benefits to an ever greater part of the population, the free press remains the most important source of popular political education without which a democracy cannot function. The responsibility of the press in fulfilling its role is great. It must present both full and accurate news and informed comment which puts that news in perspective."

Columnist Bob Considine put it this way: "The historian winces and knows no solace when he considers the events in ancient history which will forever remain obscure as to origin and other details because there was no newspaper there to blot up and retain the details."

"Because there were no newspapers we'll never know really what happened in England in 1066, in Virginia in 1607, and in Massachusetts in 1620. But nothing much has happened since then that went unnoticed. Newspapers, and the knowledge they spread and—once read—enabled others to spread by being passed on, fanned freedom's fire into independence from Britain. We are not in the dark today about what Lincoln did and said at Gettysburg because the story that day was covered by dozens of reporters."

"If there had been no newspapers, say, from 1897 to the present, could there have been the development and acceptance of the automobile, electric light, airplane, telephone, highway system, radio, TV, modern medicine? Could there have been comprehension of the forces that

James E. Nugent States Platform For Re-Election

Stepping up the pace in his campaign for re-election as State Representative of the 66th District in the November 6 general election, James E. "Jim" Nugent carries his conservative platform into every section of the 11-county West Texas area. The energetic Kerrville attorney, completing his first term in the legislature has adopted the slogan "Let's operate our State on a businesslike basis now," and solicits support of his constituents for a conservative West Texas man to represent a conservative West Texas District.

Nugent is opposed to Federal intervention in our cities, schools, county and state governments. Last session, Nugent helped pass the bill granting additional benefits for deserving elder citizens in compliance with expressed desires of his district.

As Vice-Chairman of the Water Pollution Committee in the state legislature, Nugent is working on a fair water program for the protection of the district and state.

Nugent said the sales tax should be amended to take out the existing inequities and reduce the reporting burden. "Veterans of this area know they can depend on Jim Nugent from his past record of assisting them in legislation affecting their welfare," Nugent stated in announcing his platform.

"As your state representative," Nugent said, "I will do my best to represent the wishes of all of the people of this district. In seeking re-election to a second term, I will not degrade our district by engaging in mudslinging or character assassination."

Nugent helped fight off an attack on our right-to-work laws last session and will continue to work toward its preservation.

2 Rural Accidents During September

Sutton County reported a total of two rural vehicle accidents during the month of September this year, according to figures released by the San Angelo district office of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

One accident involved personal injury and one resulted in property damage to the amount of $300.00.

The county has had a total of 18 accidents during 1962. Ten involved personal injury with 16 persons injured and eight involved property damage in the amount of $26,275.00.

There have been no fatal accidents in the county this year.

Bill Stacy Candidate For Legislature

Bill Stacy, Republican candidate for state representative in the 66th District, announced that he is committed to a party which will encourage competition in politics and political products.

He opened his active campaign in Kerr County by stating, "In 1960, the voters in my home county where I am best-known honored me by supporting me over my opposition. I am for: a water conservation program for Texas, funds for screwworm fly eradication, equal legal rights for women, creation of a Little Hoover Commission for economy in our state government, and for honest election laws. I am opposed to increase in state sales tax or a personal income tax, to Federal aid to education and to the Kennedy Administration's further socialization of America."

"My opponent said that he was a conservative, but in the past session, as your representative for the 66th District, he voted against a resolution condemning Federal aid to education. He says he is a conservative, but supports the administration—I want to know just what is a New ### Frontier Conservative?"

"November 6 is a date with destiny for the voters of Sutton County," according to Stacy, who says he will be a full time legislator and will not use the office for personal gain. Bill Stacy seeks your help and asks that those persons in Sutton County who want to help him, call or write him at 404 Main Street, Kerrville.

Bill Stacy is a Kerrville businessman, a graduate of Tivy High School and the University of Texas. He is a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Kerrville, Rotary, Jaycees, Cham-

Far-Sighted Near-Sightedness

Texas needs to commit itself to a program which will encourage competition in politics as well as business.

To give a blanket endorsement to the actions of any political group and say, "My vote will never change," is like saying, "My child can do no wrong and cannot be punished," long after it becomes evident that your precious darling is an overgrown,

SOCIAL SECURITY MAN TO BE HERE TWICE MONTHLY

Paul McCowen, Social Security Field Representative of the San Angelo District Office, reported interviewing about ten persons this past Friday during his regular Sonora visit. He took three applications for monthly benefits.

McCowen is scheduled to be at the courthouse on the second Friday of each month from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. to handle social security questions.

Glowing report of success of the Screwworm Eradication Program are being received daily at the sterile fly factory plant near Mission. The program, which was begun last February, and which is designed to eliminate the screwworm fly which is one of the major pestilential causes of loss to livestock as well as Texas wildlife, can, with maximum effort, result in savings of over $100,000,000.00 annually to Texas ranchers plus untold thousands of dollars in the conservation and propagation of additional Texas wildlife.

Ranchers from virtually every section of the state have already felt the beneficial effects of the screwworm eradication program. Instances have been reported where infestation is ten percent of what it was in 1961. Sellers of screwworm medicines are reporting substantially reduced sales, additional evidence that the program is successfully underway.

A screwworm free Southwest in the foreseeable future seems reasonable according to technical personnel operating the program, and stockmen will agree it's a goal worth working for.

Financing of the program is three-fold, a joint operation of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, the Texas Animal Health Commission and the Animal Disease Eradication Division, ARS, U.S.D.A. The U.S.D.A. will provide half the funds and the Foundation, representing producers of the Southwest, is obligated to provide $3 million as its share for the program projected to cost a total of $12 million over a period of three years. Each county in Texas has set up a goal based on a contribution of 50 cents per animal unit or, as in the case of Sutton County, a contribution of $25.00 per section of land.

Sutton County is still $2,000 short of its $30,000 goal and members of the county committee are hopeful that these funds will be forthcoming promptly so that this program, which has already been proven 100 percent effective in the southeastern states, can be assured of completion.

Contributions may be made by mail or in person to the Chamber of Commerce office in Sonora.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bloodworth, Sr. of Los Lunas, New Mexico, will arrive this weekend for a visit with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bloodworth, Jr., Buck, Bert and Lee.

SIN'S BEGINNING

It is well to remember that the occasion of man's sin grew out of the nature of man himself. Men have tried to bring forth theories as to the origin of sin from time to time. One theory says that sin is due to man's possessing a material body; if man destroys the body, he rids it of sin. This idea is based on the ancient Greek belief that matter is inherently evil and gave rise to the monastic orders which still exist. These are the people in modern day that say, "Well, he's just human."

Another theory sees sin as due to man's ignorance or incompleteness, but sin involves knowledge (Gen. 2:17). It is entirely impossible to eradicate sin through growth in knowledge (Romans 1:21). From this two-vicious plans of salvation have evolved self expression and self denial. Thus we would say just because a man says, "I didn't know," he is not excused.

Ross Re-Elected Supervisor Of SCD

Joe B. Ross was re-elected a supervisor to represent Zone 4 of the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District at a meeting of landowners on Tuesday. Zone 4 includes all land between Highway 290 and the Bond road in Sutton County.

Ross has served as one of the five elected landowners who comprise the district governing body, or Board of Supervisors, since the District was created in 1946. Supervisors are elected for 5 year terms, with a supervisor elected in one of the five zones each year.

Other district supervisors include Fred T. Earwood, W. B. McMillan, Frank Bond and Edwin Sawyer. The District includes all of Sutton County and the northwest part of Edwards County.

The Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District has been active in promoting soil, water and plant conservation work on rangeland. Over 90 percent of all landowners are cooperating with the district on completely voluntary conservation plans.

The Board of supervisors took the initial leadership in request-

2 SHS Students Attend Workshop

Two Sonora High School students, Melva Ray Shroyer and Ann McKinney, attended a Spanish workshop in Monterrey, Mexico this summer under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Adey of Austin. Melva is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Shroyer and Ann the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McKinney.

These students were recommended by their local teacher, Mrs. James Wilson, to participate in the workshop because of their high scholastic records, their ability and interest in Spanish. Both were second year Spanish students.

Correspondence was received this week from Mrs. Adey commending the students. Her letter reads in part:

"The 1962 sessions were without a doubt the most enjoyable we have ever had. Never have we been favored with such outstanding students. Academically, they were very well prepared and quite anxious to further their knowledge of Spanish. They worked very hard at their studies and even the teachers themselves were amazed at the progress their classes made. Socially, they were absolutely wonderful. In all ways they were cooperative, understanding, considerate, and really delightful to know. You and your administration can be very proud of your representatives to the Workshop."

Individual classcards were received from the instructors with notes complimenting the students highly for their scholastic ability and their knowledge and use of the Spanish language. Their instructors in such classes as grammar, conversation, history and audio-visual classified them as outstanding in their work and participation in class.

Still a third theory regards sin as being due to man's being a free intelligent being with the power of choice. This is the most satisfactory position in regard to the origin of sin. Adam (the first man) had a choice, Good or evil, God or sin. Had he been as some claim an ape man governed only by instinct or a machine operated only by irrevocable law, there would have been no possibility of sin. But since God endowed man with the ability to choose for himself, quoting Dr. Hershel Hobbs, "The possibility of right choices only exist with the possibility of wrong choices." Even though the capacity to sin is an element in man's moral freedom, it does not presuppose the necessity for his sin.

Because of sin, God pronounced the sentence of separation from God upon man and woman. Adam was the head of the race, and through him sin and death were bequeathed to all men (I Cor. 15:22).

Sin is universal. Here we meet the doctrine of "total depravity" of man. Paul said, "All have sinned" (Romans 3:23) and meant all generations and individuals since Adam. This doctrine does not mean that all are equally vicious in their sins nor that there is not some good in all men. It simply means that all men are sinners in that they have transgressed the will of God.

There are those who mistakenly say, "do the best you can and all will be well." Still others who say "go ahead and sin, but do it moderately, and things will be fine with you." Sin is sin, and there is no way of rationalizing it or white-washing it. It is time we stopped lying to ourselves and trying to fool ourselves. Sin came because man had a choice, and because of his nature man made the wrong choice; and due to that choice, man was separated from God. God has not changed. "The wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23).

THEN AND NOW

The Sutton County Courthouse was an infant . . . in the above picture taken after its completion in 1891. Note the young trees, which now tower to the rooftops. Sutton County seems to have turned out to welcome a dignitary. They had parked their horse-powered carriages to shake hands and visit over the lawn and through the halls of the new courthouse. L. E. Johnson, the first white child born in Sutton County after it was incorporated in 1887, recalls playing on the rocks from which the courthouse was built.

About a quarter of a century later, horse-powered carriages started to give way. In fact, what is now Sonora Motor Company sold ten cars the first year they were in business. Sam and Fred Hull inaugurated the famous Sonora Motor Company dances during World War I. These continued until in the 40's. Joe Hull first swept floors and pulled cars out of the mud for his Uncle Sam. He owned a third of the business by 1948. He is pictured in the business today, where sales are considerably higher than ten cars a year.

In 1962 as in 1900 Sonora merchants and businessmen are devoting their time and talents to building a larger and more progressive home town. They are always striving to offer their customers the latest and best merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

Sonora's 75-year history has been one of merchants and ranchmen co-operating to establish and maintain fine schools, good Churches, active civic and charitable organizations and a reputation for friendliness and hospitality.

BROWNIE TROOP 75

Brownie Troop 75 celebrated the troop's first birthday at the scout hall last Tuesday. Membership pins were presented to Brownies.

Mrs. Jerry Hopkins served birthday cake and punch.

Everett Addresses Hospital Group

The Lillian M. Hudspeth Memorial Hospital Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. E. E. Sawyer Monday, October 8.

The Rev. Doyle Morton gave an opening prayer and Mrs. J. E. Eldridge presided over the business meeting.

Albert M. Everett, administrator of Hudspeth Hospital, spoke on projects for the auxiliary. He stressed the need for student vocational nurses.

Mrs. O. G. Babcock gave the highlights of a hospital auxiliary convention she attended in Del Rio on September 28.

The treasurer's report showed $175.91 in the general fund and $586 in the memorial fund.

Mrs. Maude Posey, Mrs. Robert Halbert and Mrs. O. G. Babcock were appointed to the October Flower and Visiting Committee.

Mrs. J. F. Howell is to have the annual Christmas party in her home this December.

There were two guests, Mrs. Wallace Wartenbach and Mrs. Alvie Brower.

A social hour followed the business meeting. Mrs. Sawyer was assisted by Mrs. Alice Jones.

Central School Student Council Officers Named

October 1 was Student Council Election Day at Sonora Central Elementary School. Candidates made speeches in the classrooms in the morning. Votes were cast by qualified electors and by 2:00 p.m. all ballots were counted and winners were announced as follows:

Debbie Galbreath was elected president, defeating Mike Gilly. Jane Sawyer is vice-president, defeating Monte Dillard.

Brenda Dunn won in the secretary race over Regina Trainer and Vickie Hardgrave.

A run-off was necessary in the Treasurer's race. Lucy Bundy was defeated in the primary. Informed political sources say Miss Bundy may have thrown her "conservative" support to her spendthrift brother, Dick Bundy, who defeated Missy Brown in the run-off.

Election judges were Royce Mears, Georgeanna Schwiening, and Michael Richardson.

La Diabla

"The eyes are the windows of the soul," was the way Emerson put it. Why are some people not able to look you in the eye? It's not always dishonesty. It may be that such a person does not like what he sees in the windows of the soul of another human being. Or it may be that he does not want anyone to see the human misery in his own soul.

Or, in the case of milady's headgear this year, maybe she doesn't look you in the eye because she can't see out. There are mink hats, shaped like wigs. With mink colored hair, it's awful . . . can't tell which is witch. One male looked over the "furbelows" at church and decided he should have worn his gun.

Glory, glory, glory and a boom, boom, boom! The state platform of the political party I love last, best and always says in Section 3: "We are for full legal rights for the women of Texas."

The Creator gave man absolute power of attorney over his wife, and human law can never supersede this. It is comic tragedy that the hope of Texas—the Republican Party—has chosen to overlook this. It is in the Democratic platform, of course, as one would expect.

It has been said that Conservatives are so individualistic they cannot work together on anything and see eye-to-eye. This is good and part of the virtue of individual liberty, which the party I love best champions.

The rest of the Republican platform on state issues is, without question, what any thinking Texan would want for his state. The platform on national issues is without fault . . . a Utopia we may never reach, but if a party doesn't even aim high, heaven help us all. Some don't.

Which reminds me of what the Norfolk Virginian Pilot once said editorially when they endorsed JFK. The Pilot said words like this: Let's elect him, but let's go to work and see that this man doesn't carry out what he's promised to do.

A pair of slender high top shoes sat at the top of a display of shoes in an Angelo department store. Immune from shock in fashions, I wanted to try this shoe on just for kicks. The manager explained that the shoe was put there to celebrate Ft. Concho's birthday. He said the bone colored shoe was so well-preserved because vegetable dyes had been used instead of chemicals, which may prove that all that's new and revolutionary is not best. This was lovely leather and workmanship. Hope that shoe comes back . . . to match my hoop skirt thinking about women's rights . . . now fast becoming women's wrongs.

The local talent on the Mike Parr Show out at the Fireman's Convention was fun. John Tedford as Mike Parr was good casting, as was Mrs. Herbert Fields as a fluttery movie queen. Mrs. Rex Lowe was a stern concert pianist, and Mrs. Albert Ward as Moonshine Hollow, Miss Personality of 1962, was all bubble gum and planned indifference. Mrs. Sam Jones was a Spanish bombshell from Rio, dawling, Del Rio, that is. Sonora should see more of these dramatic endeavors. We nominate Tedford and Jones to get an adult drama group going for fun or fund raising or both.

Ace Reid, funnier than an Ace Reid cartoon, sketched his old cowpoke as he talked before the firemen. He cracked jokes and if he left a serious thought with anyone, it must have been unintentional. Who but Ace could wear his tie clipped with a tiny gold horned toad?

Jim Nugent, Des Barry and Bill Stacy were all handshaking in Sonora Friday. This is still a great land, where men running for office can tell you and you can ask them. And you can keep asking them, after they are elected, if you will take the time and interest.

A genteel female voice just called to point out that the Scripture reference in last week's column was Ephesians not Galatians. She was apologetic for calling us on the carpet. We love knowing La Diabla is read that closely, but above that, we love knowing the Bible is read so closely by our readers.

Response and comments on our legal-rights-for-women election has been gratifying. One unidentified male remarked, "I wish they would give them equal rights, so they'd get back down on the man's level!" But he doesn't have a vote in our all-girl referendum. Another reader (male) says, "Women would be better off if they were like they used to be."

Should a woman be able to go into business, or sign a note, or buy property without her husband's consent? Send me your "yes" or "no" answer with as much supporting comment as you care to send. We would like to publish your reasons, if you wish.

After a time, results will be tabulated and sent to both the governor candidates, campaigning equally hard on equal legal rights for women.

Some of the comments received, to date are:
 "Yess-yes-yes. La Diabla, you are way off. The Bible does not say a woman has dissolved her marriage, because she crosses her husband. A woman should enjoy complete equality with the man."

"Yes-yes-yes. La Diabla, you to go into business on her own. The economic conditions make this necessary, yet some men are too proud to have their wife make money."

"No, of course not. She's not much of a woman if she can't swing her husband over to her side, without having to get the law on her side."

"Yes, absolutely. Women control much of the wealth of this nation and they should have complete legal freedom. A married woman is not an idiot before the law surely."

"No, woman was made for the man, not the other way around. A woman who truly loves her husband needs no such laws."

"Yes, women have been left in some terrifying positions by side."

men who had the law on their "Yes, if a woman is left, deserted, she is neither free nor is she married, but the law binds her to a husband not in evidence. And she still is not free to make legal contracts. This is nonsense!"

"No, even if the law makes it possible, no woman in her right mind would want to cause that much trouble in her home."

EXCITING! GO '63 CHEVY II

Nova 4-Door Station Wagon

SPUNKY NEW WAGONS THAT LEAD LONGER, HAPPIER LIVES

What a new kick you'll get out of going places in this one! And what a solvent feeling you'll get as the savings on upkeep mount! There's a full line of models, including three wagons. Basically, we've kept Chevy II's liveliness and roominess and easy loading ways. Kept its crisp looks, too (with a bit of freshening here and there). The changes we've made weren't for change's sake, you see—but for yours. Just for a sample: the brakes are self-adjusting. The new Delcotron generator gives you more electrical reserve power and helps your battery reach a vigorous old age. The Body by Fisher beauty lasts longer, too; air pushes rain and wash water down through the rocker panels (where most rust begins!) in a clever new flush-and-dry system. The ride is smoother and quieter because of a large number of small improvements we've made. And things are a lot plusher inside. Now you've read this far, haven't you? Isn't that good evidence that Chevy II is made for you? The clincher will come when you take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Auto Safety Group Organized Here For Teenagers

About 31 teenagers from El Dorado, Ozona and Sonora met at 2:00 p.m. Sunday September 30 at the local radio station to form the Edwards Plateau Auto Safety Association.

Guest speaker was the Rev. Arno Melz of the Hope Lutheran Church here in Sonora. He said, "All teenagers are judged by the ones who drive recklessly, but the show-offs will show up at the show-down. We'll relocate the drag racing—from the public streets to an authorized drag strip. We won't preach the Bible out here," he told the group, "but we'll live by it."

Rev. Melz gave the club four points as the causes of wrecks: 1. Not enough safety precautions, 2. Poorly trained mechanics, 3. Improper inspection of vehicles, 4. Carelessness by the owner. Officers elected were: President, Corky Fields; Vice-President, Willie Bolt; Secretary, Nancy Prugel; and Reporter, Irene Davis.

Buddy Joe Brown, who has worked with the same type club in two other communities, explained how other clubs had set up their own courts, set fines and suspended its own members for traffic violations.

Allen Groda told the president of the newly-organized club that the eyes of Sonora are on all of them to set driving examples that will be hard for their parents and other citizens to follow. He placed a heavy responsibility on the president, Corky Fields, to lead the way for the club.

Fund raising plans were made. The building of a racing track was discussed. The charter and setting up of rules will be finalized at the next meeting, set for 1:30 p.m., Sunday, October 7 at the local radio station. Interested parents and teenagers are invited to join from Sutton County or surrounding counties.

Should Dry Ewes Get Another Chance

Fine wool ewes that have one dry season may deserve another chance, says a new Progress Report 2,238, Lamb Series 34, of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Since ewes that do not lamb in their first season may become as good producers as those that lamb every season. The report explains that under range conditions some ewes may not have sufficient development by their first breeding season to lamb and yet it would not be economical to replace them before they have a chance to develop. However, ewes under farm type conditions should have the necessary growth and should be culled if they do not lamb.

The report points out that mature ewes that had dry years either on range or farm conditions are less satisfactory breeders the following year. The report again recommended that ewes on the range should not be culled for economic reasons but that the ones on the farm type management should be removed from the flock.

The report says that ewes that have twins under either condition were better producers the following seasons.

Therefore, the decision as to whether to cull or not depends on the conditions under which the animals are raised, the number of ewes available for culling, the cost of the replacements, and the age of the ewes.

For more information on the relation of one dry season to the later productivity of fine wool ewes, write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, and request the Progress Report 2,238, Lamb Series 34.

Sutton Sheepmen Vote Overwhelming Yes In Referendum

Only two dissenting votes were cast along with 68 Sutton County sheep-wool producers voting "yes" for product promotion in the referendum held September 10-21 through the local ASC office.

Sutton County producers voting for organized product promotion owned 92,161 sheep; against, 230 sheep. Local ASC Manager, Mrs. Marie K. Ellis, has forwarded county election results to the State Office. Nationwide tabulation must be made before it will be known if sheep-wool product promotion will continue through the American Sheep Producers Council, Inc., as financed by deductions from incentive payments gleaned from import duties levied on sheep and wool. The "yes" votes from over the nation must represent the feelings of two-thirds of the growers and represent two-thirds of the sheep owned by those voting for the self-help advertising program to continue, as provided by the National Wool Act of 1954.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that

IN TEXAS... a new governor, Francis Richard Lubbock, guided a bankrupt state through that bitter Civil War year. Cotton, exported through Mexico, brought desperately needed foreign gold. Homefront industries were established. Comforts were few, but morale stayed high... and there was good Texas beer, enjoyed then as now.

For then, as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling refreshment that adds a touch of Southwestern hospitality to any occasion. Texans have always enjoyed the good fellowship that goes with every glass.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

We're telling America about the business and industrial advantages

... IN THE CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST

American business and industry are on the move... looking toward growing areas, new markets, and expanding profit opportunities.

Our service area—the fast-growing CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST—is one such region, because the Southwest is growing 25% faster than the Nation.

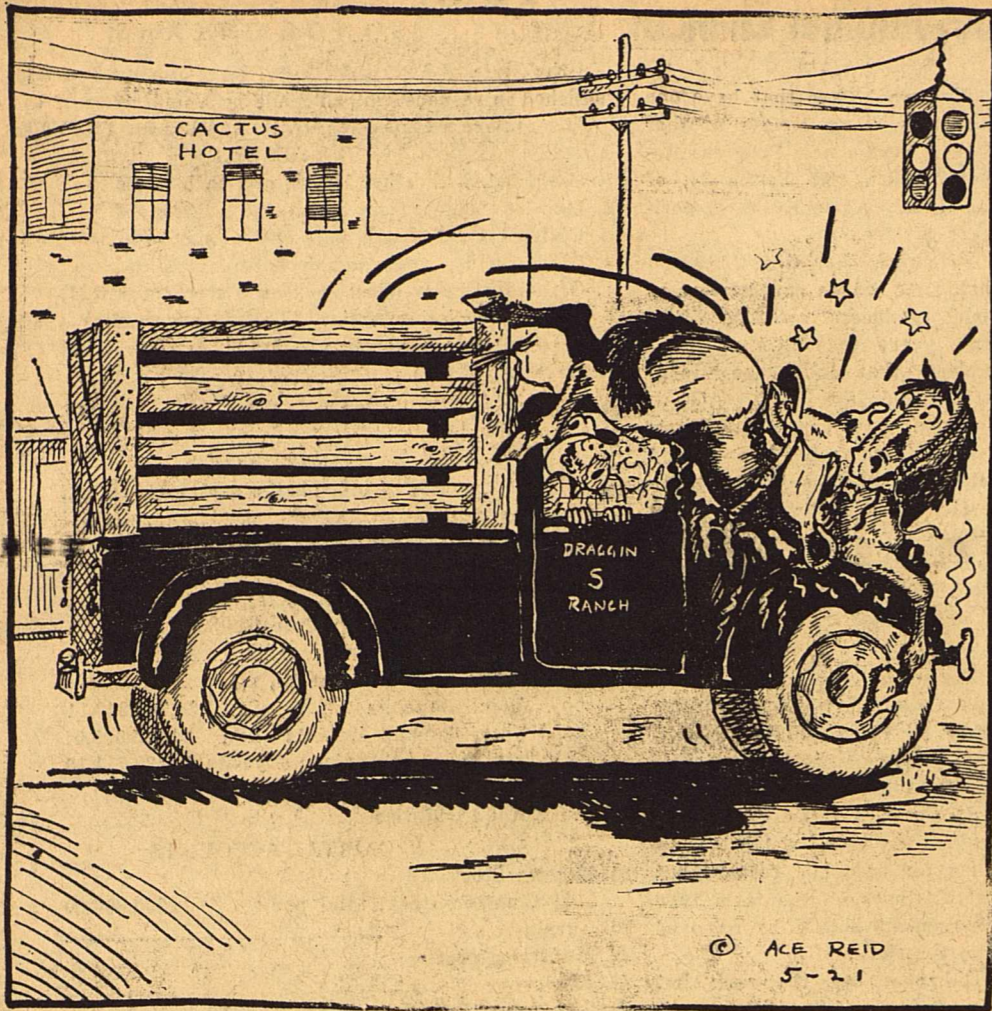

That is why we are engaged in a continuing program designed to tell American business leaders about the advantages of this portion of West Texas.

We advertise the area in national publications, mail information material to selected lists, and make personal visits to many prospects.

As this is written, a WTU Representative is in the northern and eastern industrial areas of the country, calling on key executives whose companies are looking our way. They, like WTU, are convinced that this area faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.

Cowpunchers Down Broncos 30-6 In Home Arena Friday Night

The Sonora Broncos suffered their third defeat of the season Friday night at the hands of the Mason Cowpunchers. The Cowpunchers began their scoring in the early minutes of the first quarter, tallied two touchdowns in that period, one in the second and the fourth in the fourth quarter with the game ending Mason 30, Sonora 6.

Mason Fullback Dale Gipson recovered a Bronco fumble in the end zone for the Cowpunchers' first touchdown and carried across the goal line for the two conversion points. It was Gipson again in the same period scoring on an off-tackle run from the Sonora four and again carrying for the bonus points.

In the second quarter Fullback Arless Zesch scored on an end run from the Bronco five. Quarterback Terry McMillan's attempted run for the two extra points was not good for the necessary yardage.

Sonora's only touchdown came in the third quarter with Quarterback Primo Gonzales charging across the goal line on a 45-yard option play. His attempt to pass for extra points was no good.

In the final period Zesch scored again on a 35-yard run through tackle and Dale Gipson racked up the two extra points.
