Death row prisoner has Snyder link

By NOBLE B. YOUNG
SDN Staff Writer

The scheduled execution before sunrise Wednesday of 28-year-old Charles Francis Rumbaugh will bring to a close a criminal career which includes a conviction in Scurry County for aggravated kidnapping.

A jury in 132nd District Court sentenced Rumbaugh to 10 years in prison on March 14, 1977 in connection with an assault on then local Department of Public Safety Trooper Keith Pherigo.

The incident from which these charges stem occurred on Dec. 1975.

It took place after Rumbaugh — in custody in Amarillo following his conviction for capital murder — and two companions broke out of the Potter County Jail.

Rumbaugh had been imprisoned there for the April 4, 1975 death of Amarillo jeweler Michael Fiorello.

Rumbaugh, Michael Joe Sutton — previously convicted for armed robbery — and Roger Barrett — an escapee from the New Mexico State Penitentiary — had broken out of the Potter County maximum securiy unit sometime on the morning of Dec. 7.

The trio and Barrett's girlfriend, Bobby Ruth White, had traveled around West Texas all day Dec. 7 and part of Dec. 8

They were stopped by Pherigo just north of Snyder on U.S. Hwy. 84 on a routine traffic check about 3:30 p.m.

Initial reports published at the time indicated that Pherigo had stopped the vehicle on suspicion of DWI.

Once he contacted the escapees, he found that Barrett was not drunk but did not have a drivers license.

As was normal procedure at the time, Pherigo arrested him and put him into his car for a trip to the Scurry County Courthouse to go before Justice of the Peace Bobby Goodwin on a misdemeanor charge of driving without a license.

The rest of the group, with White driving, followed the DPS patrol unit to the courthouse.

While enroute, Pherigo ran a

Health increase ducked

Snyder city council members managed to duck a 37 percent increase in city-provided employee health insurance Tuesday by bidding out the service to a new company.

The current carrier for the city, Blue Cross-Blue Shield, was among the five bidders submitting figures, and its estimate was 37 percent higher than the current premium charged.

The council then awarded the contract to low bidder GIC — managing to retain approximately the same monthly premium and deductible rate currently paid.

The rates stayed approximately the same also for city employees to add their family members. A $200 deductible for medical expenses will remain the same also.

Under GIC's bid, the monthly cost to the city per employee will be $51.85. The city currently pays $51.19.

To add a child, spouse or the entire family, the cost under GIC will be $52.55, $93.41 and $107.28 respectively.

As an added benefit, the plan will now offer city employees a prescription medicine credit card. By presenting this card, the maximum amount charged for such medicines will be $5.

This system is used to replace in almost all cases deductible totals for prescription medicine purchases.

The insurance decision came during the regular September meeting for the council. Council members attending included Mayor Rod Waller, who presided,

Update needed 'regardless'...

Analyst outlines computer options

Two alternatives for long range computer growth at the city were presented by an outside analyst Monday night.

And with his recommendation, Bill Hicks of Consolidated Software of Big Spring reaffirmed what city staffers had told the council earlier this summer — that the city is now in need of some type update regardless.

Hicks said the city has the choice of either upgrading the existing IBM 36 computer by adding an additional disk storage unit or a second choice of adding a complete new second computer.

Regarding cost, a second computer system is the more expensive by some $24,000. Hicks estimated the purchase of a second computer — essentially duplicating the system now in use — at $57,452.

To add a disk storage unit would cost an estimated $33,250, he said.

With either option, the city's immediate available computer space would double, up from 400 to 800 megabytes. But with the purchase of a second computer, the potential for growth is at least double this and it carries the ability for considerable expansion of computer terminals and printers.

The upgrade involving a disk storage unit "will not provide enough capacity for any new users," Hicks said in his report.

He pointed out to the council that this option "won't hamstring anyone's operation," however.

"The city council's basic decision is whether to ask its users to live with a certain amount of austerity, or to continue to provide resources as requested by users," his report concluded.

In addition to city hall and police services, the city's computer operation now also serves such offices as the Scurry County tax office, the county sheriff's office and the Scurry County Appraisal District.

This "central computer" concept has been described as a way to eliminate the duplication of services of local taxing entities — an effort to "save the same tax dollar."

Hicks' presentation Monday was for discussion only and council members indicated they might make a final decision regarding the computer update at the October meeting.

Bids considered, new staffer hired

Western Texas College trustees accepted two bids and formally approved the hiring of a new instructor during their regular September meeting Monday.

Trustees considered bids for repairs to the college home and for the addition of a greenhouse for the golf course/landscape technology program.

Two bids were received for renovations to the president's home. Trustees accepted the low bid of $60,200 from RSP construction of Roscoe. The bid includes an alternate bid of $1,200 for outside patio work.

The other bid of $64,796 was submitted by T.E. Shelburne and Son Inc. of Snyder. That bid also included an alternate bid of $2,800 for outside patio work.

Repairs to the president's home will include repairs to a leaking roof and filling in an indoor swimming pool area.

Trustee Roy Baze expressed disappointment that the bids had come in higher than anticipated but he said that he felt they should proceed with the work in order to "protect their investment."

Of four bids received for materials to construct the campus greenhouse, trustees accepted a bid from Stuppy Inc. North Kansas City, Mo. in the amount of $14,385. The figure is for the delivery of the materials to Snyder.

Actual construction of the greenhouse will be separate. It is estimated to cost approximately $2 per square foot. Trustees agreed to engage a firm familiar with erecting the Stuppy

1-22 waiver request before ISD trustees

Trustees for the Snyder school district will consider Tuesday approving a local request to be submitted to the Texas Education Agency seeking a waiver for the 1 to 22 teacher-student ratio requirement.

In Snyder, the waiver is required for the Stanfield Elementary campus, where two kindergarten classes this fall have student numbers exceeding this amount. The two classes have a total enrollment of 52 students.

The requirement was part of House Bill 72 mandates and specifies that classes in these grades cannot exceed a total of 22 students per teacher.

Because of the difficulity some districts might experience — particularly since school bond issues might be required for new classroom construction — the TEA has indicated waivers will be allowed in many instances.

The local waiver request will be part of the September meeting for trustees. It will begin at 7 p.m. at the school administration building.

Two bid items are included on Tuesday's agenda also. These include the purchase of 28 "starter system" microcomputers plus related equipment purchases for elementary schools here.

The computer purchase in large part will be funded through federal funds. The district-match now projected will equal some $6,900.

Another bid item due consideration Tuesday involves the purchase of a new boiler system for West Elementary.

A routine check of the boiler system this past summer in-

The SDN Column

The feller on Deep Creek says, "The worst part of doing nothing is you can't take the day off."

There should be a packed stadium Friday night when the Snyder Tigers host the Dunbar Panthers in the first home game of the season.

Coming off an impressive opening victory against Big Spring, Snyder gained needed momentum and confidence for a successful season.

Saturday morning the coffee shops were buzzing about the Tiger performance, and the most often question was "How long has it been since Snyder scored that many points?"

SDN Sports Editor Bill McClellan went to the records and found the Tigers had not put 42 points on the boards since 1978 and had not won the season opener since 1976.

In 1983, it was mid-season before the Tigers even close. After that fifth game against Lamesa, the Tigers had accumulated only 41 points.

Last year, it was three games before the locals cracked 42 points. Collecting only 20 points in the first two outings, Snyder defeated Brownfield 28-18 to snap an 18-game losing streak.

Snyder fans are looking forward to a great season....

Some former Snyder Tigers are still in football uniform, playing for various college teams. Unless we've overlooked someone, here's the lineup:

Trey Harlin, senior at McMurry is a third-year starter for the Indians. Harlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harlin, is a co-captain this season and has been moved to tight end.

In his first year at McMurry is sophomore Norman Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Malone. Malone played for the Tigers in 1983 and is a running back.

Chad Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Peterson is in his second year at Angelo State University. Peterson was a starter at wide receiver last Saturday night in the Ram's opener against Arlington State University.

Former Snyder punter Brent Beck is a kicker for the Texas Tech Red Raiders. The sophomore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Beck.

The weather may not seem like it, but fall and football has arrived.

Ask Us

Q. — With Snyder apparently holding its own for school enrollment, how are other area schools doing?

A. — A sampling of newspapers last week shows the following reports. Big Spring was up 217 students on the second day; Seminole ISD was down with 25 fewer students; Andrews was up with 278 more students on the first day; Lamesa was up 68 at the end of the first week; and Brownfield was up 68 students the first week.

Fire damage

A two-room house in west Snyder sustained extensive fire damage around 3:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Firemen were called to the house at 2604 26th St. at 3:38 a.m.

According to Fire Chief Terry McDowell, flames had enveloped the dwelling as firefighters arrived at the scene.

Danny Benson was listed as the sole occupant of the rental property which is owned by Vona Fisher of Snyder.

McDowell said Tuesday morning that the cause of the fire was still unknown but it was apparent that the blaze started in the kitchen area.

2 grid misses

Although last weekend was one for upsets in high school, college and professional ranks, the winners did well in the first edition of the SDN Football Contest.

Rick Martin of 4008 Eastridge will receive the first prize money. Martin missed only two games. The tie breaker was the criteria for selecting second place since several people had only three misses. Gerald Bullard of Rt. 3 Box 66, will receive the second prize money by correctly picking the winner of the tie breaker (Snyder vs. Big Spring) and being the closest guess for total points.

Another contest is in this issue of the Snyder Daily News.

Tougher sanctions advocated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats vow they'll try again to push through a package of economic sanctions against South Africa, but Republican leaders say the effort is a political move to punish President Reagan rather than South Africa's white minority government.

Democratic leaders, contending they may well be able to gather the 60 votes needed to cut off a Senate filibuster, said they were not impressed by Reagan's effort Monday to capture the initiative on the matter by issuing an executive order containing his own set of sanctions.

They said the president's actions were watered down and insufficient to send a strong signal to South Africa that the time has come to begin the dismantling of its apartheid system of enforced racial separation.

On Monday, Senate supporters of stronger economic sanctions fell seven votes short of the 60 required to end the filibuster against their proposal, losing on a 53-34 roll call.

But a second cloture vote was set for Wednesday and Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., the Senate's No. 2 Democratic leader, said there was a definite chance for victory.

"Eleven Republicans voted for cloture today," Cranston said. "There were a number who were absent, at least one of whom would vote for cloture and will vote for the (sanctions) bill. And there are a couple more who well might do so."

He said that when the expected votes of the six Democrats who were absent on Monday are counted, "that would get us into the 60s which is what you need for cloture."

However, the 34 votes garnered by Republicans on Monday would be enough to block a congressional override of a threatened Reagan veto of a congressional sanctions bill.

Senate Republican Leader Robert Dole of Kansas said the Senate should accept the fact that "the president has agreed to many of the things we wanted" and commend his efforts, rather than embarrass him with legislation he opposes.

Dole accused Democrats of trying to "punish Ronald Reagan" rather than South Africa by insisting on a vote. Democrats said the issue is too important to be sidetracked.

"I think it's imperative we speak to the issue" of apartheid, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., told the Senate.

He called Reagan's action well intentioned but "too little and too late."

Reagan's executive order includes an intention to ban the importation of Krugerrands, pending approval by signers of an international trade agreement; a halt to most new bank loans to Pretoria; a ban on the sale of computer equipment that is used to enforce the system of racial segregation; and a ban on sales of most nuclear technology.

But House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., noted Reagan has eliminated the threat of future sanctions, a step the legislation would require. "Those sanctions would have put South Africa on notice that Americans are deadly serious about ending apartheid," the speaker said.

Dole said the legislation could be brought back for a quick vote at any time if Reagan failed to implement the sanctions he announced in a televised meeting with reporters.

Parent should seek counseling

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I read in our local paper the letter in your column from the mother of the 30-year-old homosexual. Although I fully agree with your advice, you might want to go one step further. Often the parent may need counseling in order to learn to "accept" and to end self-blame. A reputable counselor, "Gay Hotlines" or organizations for gays may help this mother understand and feel comfortable with her son's sexual preference.

DEAR READER — You are absolutely correct, and I thank you for reminding me that support groups for parents of homosexuals serve a vital function.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I have red spots that appear on my body. They last for some weeks and then disappear, then others come. Someone once said that it might be indicative of a kidney condition. What can be done to eliminate this situation, and DOES it foreshadow something serious?

DEAR READER — Red spots can indicate anything from allergies to life-threatening bleeding tendencies. Your question is too general for me to make a specific response, other than to advise you to have a thorough examination performed by your doctor or a trained diagnostician.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My grandson (age 6) has a geographic tongue. This is something new to me and I should like to know what it is and how my daughter can do something about it.

DEAR READER — Geographic tongue is harmless, even though people can be shocked to see a tongue that looks like a satellite photograph of Colorado. It may follow antibiotic therapy and will usually go away in time. Short of having your grandson examined by a pediatrician (to make sure the boy is healthy), your daughter may have to exercise patience, a difficult prerogative under the circumstances.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I have nails that chip and break off constantly unless I use a nail strengthener in the way of nail polish. It's the only thing that works for me. Do you have any comments?

DEAR READER — Since writing about brittle nails in previous columns, I have received several letters touting the value of nail strengtheners. I think this option is entirely appropriate for those who wish to use them.

To the reader who suggested the use of rubber gloves while washing dishes: a gold star. Husbands (and other dishwashers) of the world salute you.

Send your questions to Dr. Gott at P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101. Due to volume of mail, individual questions cannot be answered. Questions of general interest will be answered in future columns.

Dear Abby

Gift-Hungry Graduate Voted Most Likely to Give Offense

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1985 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Reading your column daily has taught me a lot about the brashness of some people, but nothing I had read prepared me for the following: A woman I'm not well acquainted with (we chat when we see each other at the grocery store, which is seldom) appeared at my door last May.

I had buried my mother the previous day and was feeling very tired, so I was still in bed at noon. When I went to the door, this woman chided me for still being in my bathrobe. I explained the situation, thinking she would apologize for intruding and leave. Instead, she went on to tell me in great detail about her own mother's death, which had occurred years ago. Then she thrust an invitation to her daughter's high school graduation in my hand and left. (I didn't even know this woman had a daughter.)

It's now September. Yesterday my phone rang and the caller identified herself as so-and-so's daughter. I had no idea who she was talking about until she explained that her mother had given me an invitation to her graduation. She said that since she had not received a graduation gift from me, she figured I had probably put money in an envelope and had forgotten to mail it.

I told her as tactfully as I could that I had done neither. Then she said, "That's all right, just put some money in an envelope and I'll come right over and get it because I'm going shopping today and wanted to buy a few things."

I was so angry I told her I was in no position to give her any money, then I hung up.

Abby, is there a classification for people like this? If so, what is it? Also, how would you have handled the situation?

FLABBERGASTED

DEAR FLABBERGASTED: Such people can be classified as ignorant, nervy, grasping and totally lacking in judgment and sensitivity. But before you judge, please consider that both the girl and her mother could be mentally deficient. And I would have handled the situation just as you did.

DEAR ABBY: I have a very perplexing problem. How should in-laws be addressed? I've been married to their daughter for four months, and so far I have avoided calling them anything.

During the two and a half years I courted "Barbara," I've called her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jones (not their real names), but after the wedding, it didn't seem right, so I asked them what they wanted me to call them, and they said, "Call us anything you feel comfortable with." Well, to be honest, I feel comfortable calling them Mr. and Mrs. Jones because it shows respect, and I've never called them anything else.

Barbara has no trouble calling my parents "Mom and Dad," which is what she calls her parents, but I'd feel awkward calling anyone except my own parents by those names. Using their first names seems disrespectful.

What do other newlyweds do? I am open to suggestions.

TONGUE-TIED

DEAR TONGUE-TIED: Some in-laws are called "Mother Betty" and "Father Paul," or Mom and Dad Jones. Or just plain Mama and Papa, or whatever one's spouse calls them. It may be a bit awkward at first, but it gets easier with time. Most in-laws don't care what their kids call them, as long as they call them.

DEAR ABBY: Concerning "Kicking Myself," who wants to know how to answer people who ask questions like, "Is that dress new?" and, "How much did you pay for it?":

I had a nosy person ask me once, "How much is your car payment?" I answered with, "Why? Are you offering to make the next payment?"

That shut him up fast.

Two remain hospitalized after wreck

DENISON, Texas (AP) — The driver and a passenger of a Greyhound bus that rammed the back of a tractor-trailer rig and ran into a ditch remained hospitalized Monday night.

The accident occurred about 6 a.m. Monday near the Oklahoma border on U.S. Highway 75, said Steve Shatley, Department of Public Safety investigator.

The bus driver, Jeanette Nadine Bruno, 41, of Owasso, Okla., was pinned in the wreckage for nearly two hours before rescuers could free her, Shatley said.

She was in serious condition Monday night in the Texoma Medical Center intensive care unit in Denison, a hospital spokeswoman said.

Maria Rendon, 64, a passenger from Illinois, was reported in fair condition.

How often have you been declarer at three no-trump and first attacked the suit that would give you one trick, saving the suit that could give you six or more tricks for later? Ralph Katz of Chicago found just that play in the Cavendish Pairs last May, and he was right.

Katz, South, bid his hand in a normal manner. He was a little nervous about the Q-J doubleton of hearts as a stopper in that suit, but did not feel that his cards lent themselves to delicate, scientific probing for the best contract. When the three of hearts was led, declarer played low from dummy and won the jack. As soon as the opponents regained the lead, they would of course dislodge the heart ace. If declarer did not at that time have enough tricks established for his contract, down he would go. Maybe the club suit would behave, with the K-small on side. It was more likely that the club layout would be unfavorable. If he gave up a low club immediately, he would have only eight tricks.

Finally, Katz led a low spade from his hand. If West rose with the ace and cleared hearts right away, declarer could play a low club from dummy. With the king appearing, all would be well. When West actually played low on the spade, declarer won the queen in dummy and played the jack of clubs. Up came the king, but this was allowed to hold the trick. The defenders were helpless to prevent declarer from making two hearts, six clubs, and that lone spade trick for his three no-trump game.

SCS Notes

by SAM BUCHANAN
District Conservationist

If the fish population in your pond is hopelessly out-of-balance, September is a good month to remove these fish with rotenone. During October and November, after water temperatures decline, your pond can then be safely restocked.

Rotenone kills fish by constricting blood vessels in the gills, suffocating them. The warmer the water, the more effective rotenone. That's why August and September are usually the best months to apply it.

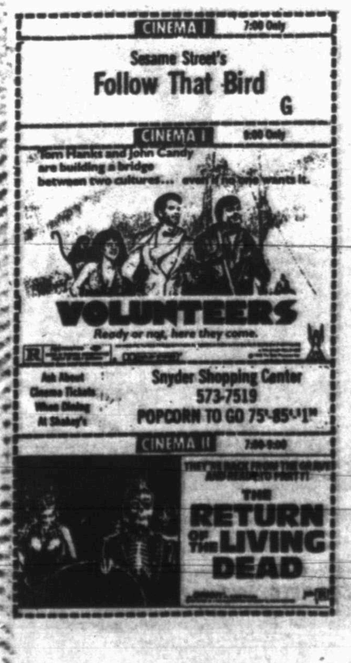

Some fish are more difficult to kill than others. Bullheads or mudcats require more rotenone than do sunfish or crappie. Bullheads inhabit the pond bottom. When maximum water depths exceed five feet, rotenone must be applied with special care to kill all the bullheads.

Soil Conservation Service personnel here can provide technical assistance in obtaining and applying rotenone. SCS personnel, who give assistance to landowners and operators through the local Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District, can also help pond owners compute the cost of rotenoning and restocking, as well as ways to improve the balance of your fish population.

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

GENERAL ELECTION

NOVEMBER 5, 1985

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Sections 1 and 2 of House Joint Resolution 6 propose a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Texas Water Development Board to issue an additional $980 million of Texas Water Development bonds.

The additional bonds to be issued will be dedicated for deposit in the Texas Water Development Fund, with $190 million of those bond proceeds to be used for water supply loans and facilities acquisition and with $400 million of those bond proceeds to be used for state participation in the acquisition and development of facilities for storage, transmission, transportation, and treatment of water and wastewater. Of the remaining bonds authorized, $190 million will be dedicated for use in water quality enhancement projects, and $200 million will be dedicated exclusively for flood control projects.

The amendment would also allow the legislature to provide for the creation, administration, and implementation of a bond insurance program to which the state pledges up to $250 million of its general credit to insure payment of the principal of and interest on bonds or other obligations issued by political subdivisions of the state for water conservation, water development, water quality enhancement, flood control, drainage, recharge, chloride control or desalinization. Unless authorized to continue by a two-thirds vote of the members of each house of the Legislature, the bond insurance program will expire on the sixth anniversary of the date on which this section becomes a part of the constitution. Bond insurance issued before expiration of the program will not be affected by such expiration.

The amendment would authorize the legislature to create and appropriate money to special funds in the state treasury to make grants, loans, and other financial assistance available to governmental entities for certain enumerated water planning purposes. Also, the legislature would be permitted to extend the benefits of constitutionally approved water projects to nonprofit water supply corporations.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the issuance of an additional $980 million of Texas Water Development Bonds, to create special water funds for water conservation, water development, water quality enhancement, flood control, drainage, subsidence control, recharge, chloride control, agricultural soil and water conservation, and desalinization, to authorize a bond insurance program, and to clarify the purposes for which Texas Water Development Bonds may be issued."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Section 3 of House Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Texas Water Development Board to issue and sell Texas agricultural water conservation bonds in an amount not to exceed $200 million, if authorized to do so by a two-thirds vote of the members of each house of the legislature. The Texas agricultural water conservation bonds would be general obligations of the State of Texas, and would be paid from the first money coming into the state treasury in each fiscal year. The amendment would allow Texas agricultural water conservation bonds to be issued and sold only for four years after the date on which this Act becomes a part of the constitution.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance and sale of $200 million of Texas agricultural water conservation bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 54 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature to authorize a city or town to spend public funds and levy assessments for the relocation or replacement of water laterals on private property if such relocation or replacement is done in conjunction with or immediately following the relocation or replacement of water mains serving the property. Any legislative enactment permitting the expenditure of funds for such purposes would authorize the city or town to fix a lien on the property, with the owners' consent, for the cost of relocating or replacing the water laterals, and would provide that such cost shall be assessed against the property, with repayment by the property owner to be amortized over a period not to exceed five years at the rate of interest set by law. Such liens could not be enforced until after five years from the date the liens were affixed.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to enact laws permitting a city or town to spend public funds and levy assessments for the relocation or replacement of water laterals on private property."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 21 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the use of the proceeds from the sale of permanent school fund land to acquire other land for the permanent school fund. Currently, the constitution requires that proceeds from the sale of such land be invested in certain bonds and other securities.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing proceeds from the sale of land dedicated to the permanent school fund to be used to acquire other land for that fund."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 89 proposes a constitutional amendment that would enable the legislature to regulate the provision of health care by hospital districts by determining the services the district must provide, by setting requirements a resident must meet in order to qualify for services, and by determining any other relevant provisions necessary for providing health care to residents.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to regulate the provision of health care by hospital districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would enable the State of Texas to enter into an agreement with another state to confine inmates from the state of Texas in penal or correctional facilities of the other state.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to permit state prisoners to be placed in penal facilities of another state pursuant to an interstate agreement."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 27 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the commissioners court of Chambers County to divide Chambers County into not less than two and not more than six justice precincts. Under current constitutional law, Chambers County may be divided into not less than two and not more than five justice precincts.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing Chambers County to be divided into two to six precincts."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 9 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant an additional $500 million in bonding authority to the Veterans' Land Board for the veterans' housing assistance program. Under the current constitution, the Veterans' Land Board is authorized by Article III, Section 49-b-1 to issue and sell not more than $800 million in bonds, $500 million of which may be used for the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund. This amendment would increase that authorization to permit the issuance and sale of up to $1.3 billion in bonds, $1 billion of which would be used for the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund. In addition, the amendment would remove the current definition of "veteran" from the constitution and permit the legislature to redefine "veteran" as the changing times and circumstances require.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing $500 million in additional bonding authority for the veterans' housing assistance program and changing the definition of those veterans eligible to participate in the veterans' land program and the veterans' housing program by authorizing the legislature by law to define an eligible veteran for the purposes of those programs."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 72 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature either to enact a statute or to attach a rider to the General Appropriations Act to require prior approval of the expenditure or emergency transfer of any funds appropriated by the legislature to state governmental agencies.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to protect public funds by authorizing prior approval of expenditure or emergency transfer of state appropriations."

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 19 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to provide for the issuance of general obligation bonds, the proceeds of which would be deposited in a fund to be known as the farm and ranch finance program fund. The fund would be administered by the Veterans' Land Board and would be used to make loans and provide other financial assistance for the purchase of farm and ranch land. The amount of bonds outstanding at any one time would be limited to $500 million. The principal and interest that becomes due on such bonds in each fiscal year would be paid from amounts remaining in the interest and sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year, with the balance due to be appropriated from treasury revenues in the fiscal year when such amounts become due.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds to provide financing assistance for the purchase of farm and ranch land."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 16 proposes a constitutional amendment that would define indictments and informations as instruments charging a person with the commission of an offense, and would delete certain technical requirements as to the form of writs and processes.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment relating to the manner in which a person is charged with a criminal offense and to certain requirements applicable to state writs and processes."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 10 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant the Texas Supreme Court and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from federal appellate courts. In addition, the two courts would promulgate rules of procedure relating to the review of those questions.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment granting the Supreme Court of Texas and the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court."

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 14 proposes a constitutional amendment that would create a board with responsibility for the reapportionment of judicial districts, subject to legislative approval. The amendment would provide for the continued power of the legislature to provide for judicial reapportionment, and would provide that reapportionment will be the responsibility of the Legislative Redistricting Board if the Judicial Districts Board fails to make a timely reapportionment. The amendment would provide for the creation of judicial districts smaller than a county in counties where the creation of such districts has been approved by the voters at a general election. The amendment would provide for more than one judge for a judicial district. The amendment would rename supreme judicial districts as courts of appeals districts. The amendment would provide that the jurisdiction and terms of court of district and county courts may be as provided by law. The amendment would provide for the jurisdiction of justice courts, which may have additional jurisdiction as provided by law. The amendment would provide for rules of judicial administration and civil procedure to be promulgated by the Supreme Court, and would provide that the legislature may delegate additional rule making power to the Supreme Court or to the Court of Criminal Appeals. The amendment would provide that courts and judges in existence at the time of its adoption remain in existence until otherwise provided by law.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the reapportionment of the judicial districts of the state by the Judicial Districts Board or by the Legislative Redistricting Board, and providing for the administration and jurisdiction of constitutional courts."

PROPOSTION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 27 proposes a constitutional amendment that would abolish the office of County Treasurer in Andrews County and transfer the powers and duties of that office to the County Auditor. The amendment would also abolish the office of County Treasurer in El Paso County if, at the statewide election at which this amendment is submitted to the voters, a majority of the voters who vote in El Paso County favor the amendment. The functions of the office of El Paso County Treasurer will be performed by a person employed or designated by the El Paso County Commissioners Court. The amendment also provides for the abolition of the office of County Surveyor in Denton, Randall, Collin, Dallas, El Paso, and Henderson Counties upon approval of such abolition by a majority of the voters who vote on the question at an election called by the commissioners court of the county. If the office of County Surveyor is abolished in any county, the commissioners court may employ or contract with any qualified person to perform the duties of the office.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for:

(1) the abolition of the office of county treasurer in Andrews County and El Paso County;

(2) the abolition of the office of county surveyor in Collin, Dallas, Denton, El Paso, Henderson, and Randall Counties."

Golden Tornadoes winners; 2-4A gears for Friday Night

The first weekend of Friday night football caught a lot of folks unaware, and apparently The Associated Press was no different.

Whether a bogus score was turned in or whether the AP simply made a typographical error is unknown, but whatever the cause, it led reporters and their readers to believe that Levelland defeated Lamesa in Class 4A non-district action.

In fact, Levelland was defeated by the Golden Tornadoes, 23-13.

In other games, defending 2-4A champion Sweetwater burned Clyde 51-0 and Snyder kicked Big Spring 42-28.

Pecos took care of El Paso Riverside 25-12, Del Rio wrapped up San Angelo Lake View 21-14, Monahans clipped Pampa 36-27 and Andrews plowed over Brownfield 34-15.

Sweetwater travels to Abilene this Friday while Snyder entertains Lubbock Dunbar and Pecos treks to Carlsbad, N.M. Monahans also heads west, playing Hobbs, N.M., while Andrews buses to Midland.

Lamesa will host Brownfield while Lake View entertains Killeen and Fort Stockton welcomes Alpine.

Lady Tigers prepare for district campaign

PLAINS -- Snyder volleyball teams will compete in Plains this evening, their final tuneup before opening the District 2-4A slate.

SHS junior varsity, 9-3, opens tonight's agenda with a 5:30 match. The varsity will follow at 6:30.

Snyder varsity is 13-2 on the season.

The Tigers open district play in Snyder this Saturday. They take on Fort Stockton at 3. A junior varsity match is scheduled for 2.

In the only other 2-4A game Saturday, Lake View is at Monahans. Pecos, Andrews, Lamesa and Sweetwater are open.

Tuesday, Sept. 17, Andrews is at Sweetwater and Pecos is at Lamesa. The 2-4A slate opens in earnest next Saturday, Sept. 21, as Snyder goes to Andrews, Fort Stockton is at Sweetwater, Lake View is at Pecos and Lamesa entertains Monahans.

Tigers inviting fans to 'Snyder Night' tilt

It may be Friday the 13th, but it will be "Snyder Night" at Tiger Stadium this weekend when the Ragin' Tigers take on Lubbock Dunbar.

"The team is inviting all the townspeople out to watch them play," said Coach Dennis Tomlin, whose team opened the 1985 season with a 42-28 victory over Big Spring last week. "The team promises their fans a fired-up, exciting ball game."

Tomlin said the west side stands are nearly sold out and the school has reserved some 50-yard line tickets on the east side "so we can be sure our fans get to see the game."

The tickets, $4 each, are on sale at the athletic director's office at Snyder High School.

Later this week, student tickets will be available at all elementary schools. School officials stress that student tickets are $1 apiece in advance but all tickets bought at the gate will be $4 each.

Holt elected booster head

Judge Wayland G. Holt was named president of the Western Texas College Booster Club at a breakfast meeting Wednesday.

Holt and his wife, Maxine, were charter members of the WTC Booster Club. He served as president of the club in 1979-80 when the Westerners had a 37-0 record and won the NJCAA national title under Coach Nolan Richardson. Holt was honorary director for the Region V Tournament played here last March.

The Booster Club is starting its fall membership drive and club members will be making contacts in the community. Individuals or businesses who are not contacted are invited to call Fran Bowden, athletic department secretary at WTC, 573-8511, extension 283, for information.

Memberships come in various price ranges and entitle members to various privileges accordingly. For example, a $50 membership entitles the donor to two tickets to all home basketball games while a $100 membership includes a gym pass.

Advertising in the WTC game program is handled through the Booster Club and all ads are due in Mrs. Bowden's office by Oct. 1. Information about the prices of ads can be obtained by calling her.

AL West race is a dogfight; Angels creeping up on KC

by The Associated Press

The California Angels, facing an important series against the hot Kansas City Royals, got off to the right start.

"Whether it's the first of seven games or the first of three, you can't over-emphasize the value of winning the first one," California Manager Gene Mauch said after a 7-1 triumph Monday night that ended the Royals' eight-game winning streak.

The Angels crept within one-half game of Kansas City in the American League West by taking the opener of the three-game set in Anaheim. California had led the division for more than two months before the Royals moved into first place during the weekend.

"It was a game we really needed because we didn't want to fall 2½ games back," said winning pitcher John Candelaria, who allowed just two hits in eight innings. Doug Corbett pitched a hitless ninth to finish the game.

In other AL action, Toronto downed Detroit 5-3, New York rolled past Milwaukee 9-4 in 10 innings, Minnesota blanked Chicago 5-0, Texas trimmed Oakland 3-1, Seattle tripped Cleveland 8-7 in 12 innings, and the Baltimore at Boston game was rained out.

Blue Jays 5, Tigers 3

Home runs by Cecil Fielder, George Bell and Garth Iorg helped Jimmy Key and Toronto beat visiting Detroit.

The Blue Jays remained 1½ games ahead of New York in the AL East. Toronto plays four games in New York starting Thursday night.

Fielder's solo homer broke a 1-1 tie in the second. Bell and Iorg both homered in the eighth, with Bell breaking an 0-for-16 slump with his 28th homer and Iorg adding a two-run shot that made it 5-1.

Key, 12-6, had allowed seven hits going into the ninth, but departed after Lance Parrish singled with one out and Chet Lemon followed with a home run. Reliever Tom Henke got the final two outs for his 10th save.

Parrish hit his 25th homer for the Tigers. Mickey Mahler, making his first AL start, took the loss, the Tigers' fifth straight.

Yankees 9, Brewers 4

Mike Pagliarulo and Don Mattingly both had four hits and each singled in runs during a five-run 10th inning that led New York to its 10th straight victory.

Rangers 3, A's 1

Wayne Tolleson tripled and doubled and scored both times on singles by Don Slaught to help Texas break a six-game losing streak. The loss was the sixth straight for Oakland.

Tolleson doubled in the eighth and scored on Slaught's single, giving the Rangers a 2-1 lead

Washington stunned, 44-14...

Cowboys 'pick off' Redskins

IRVING, Texas (AP) - Michael Downs didn't get a chance to wish Joe Theismann a happy 36th birthday in person. So he and his mates in the Dallas secondary gave the Washington Redskins quarterback a present he couldn't forget - six interceptions.

"We meant to wish him a happy birthday but we didn't get a chance to," said Downs, who had one of the six as the Cowboys took revenge Monday night for three straight defeats by their bitterest NFC East rival, thrashing Washington 44-14.

That capped an upside-down opening weekend for the National Football League in which four of six of last year's division champions - Washington, San Francisco, Miami and Denver - opened with losses.

Dallas opened up a 17-7 lead with a 55-yard strike from Danny White to Mike Renfro with six seconds left in the first half, then broke the game wide open in a third period in which they intercepted Theismann three times and recovered a George Rogers fumble. Victor Scott and Dennis Thurman closed out the scoring with 26- and 21-yard interception returns for touchdowns.

The loss was Washington's worst since a 38-7 drubbing by Pittsburgh in 1979 and the points were the most by the Cowboys since they beat Seattle on Thanksgiving Day, 1980.

"It was a hot night and we were hotter. Washington wasn't," said Cowboys Coach Tom Landry, and Washington's Joe Gibbs concurred.

"It was just one of those days," said Gibbs. "They made a lot of very good plays and we didn't make any."

Most of those good plays were by the Dallas defense, although the Redskins actually outgained the Cowboys, 369 yards to 304 and White was just 14 of 33 for 219 yards. But many of Washington's yards came at the end, when the game was out of reach.

Six different members of the Dallas secondary got the interceptions - Downs, Everson Walls, Ron Fellows, Bill Bates, Scott and Thurman. The seventh Cowboy defensive back, Dextor Clinkscale, had the fumble recovery, making it a clean sweep for the backfield.

Five of the interceptions were off Theismann, the sixth came off his replacement, Jay Schroeder.

As the game ended, the Dallas fans sang happy birthday to Theismann.

Eagles bench Jaworski

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - The Philadelphia Eagles, miserable losers in their National Football League opener, have decided to gamble their season on the talents of a rookie quarterback from Las Vegas.

Coach Marion Campbell, saying the Eagles' offense needs desperate help after a 21-0 loss to the New York Giants on Sunday, made a surprise move on Monday by installing rookie Randall Cunningham at quarterback in place of veteran Ron Jaworski.

"After a thorough review of our offensive situation, we've seen that Randall Cunningham has moved the team with consistency," Campbell said. "He will give us an added dimension of maneuverability and we hope it will help increase our offensive productivity."

Jaworski passed for only 137 yards and was sacked eight times by the Giants. Cunningham, a rollout passer who threw for over 8,000 yards at Nevada-Las Vegas, completed one of seven passes for 24 yards.

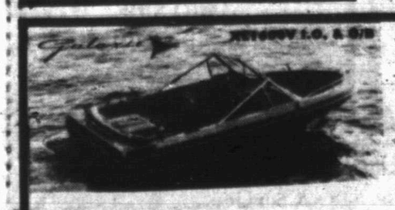

"It didn't come out of the Giants' game," Campbell said of the decision. "Randall Cunningham has consistently moved the football. I just want to do it this way. He is a quick learner. He learns from his mistakes. I think his time has come faster than we expected."

Eye witness accounts given

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Cathy Evelyn Smith cruised Hollywood with John Belushi during his final drug-filled days, injecting the comedian and his friends with powerful narcotics from a hypodermie needle she carried in her purse, witnesses testified.

Nelson Lyon, who wrote scripts for the "Saturday Night Live" comedy television show on which Belushi starred, testified Monday that the comedian's last hours began with a "boys' night out" with celebrity pals and ended after a cocaine-snorting session with comedian Robin Williams.

Lyon and Belushi friend Leslie Marks-Moritz, testifying at the start of a preliminary hearing to determine whether Ms. Smith should be held for trial, said they willingly shared drugs with Belushi in March 1982, stretching out their arms for Ms. Smith's repeated injections.

Lyon said he and Belushi were given powerful "speedballs," a mixture of heroin and cocaine.

"It was beyond the euphoria of cocaine," Lyon said of the double-barreled injection.

Belushi, star of the movies "Animal House" and "The Blues Brothers" as well as "Saturday Night Live," was 33 when he died March 5, 1982, of an overdose of heroin-cocaine mixtures at a Sunset Strip bungalow.

Ms. Smith, 38, a former backup singer with Gordon Lightfoot and Hoyt Axton, is charged with second-degree murder and 13 counts of furnishing and administering drugs to Belushi.

Mrs. Moritz, 28, who said she was injected only with cocaine while Belushi apparently received "speedballs," said Ms. Smith warned her the shots could be lethal.

"She told me ... if she didn't do it right she could kill me," said Mrs. Moritz.

Lyon, 47, told of a three-day drug binge that began March 2, 1982, when Belushi and Ms. Smith arrived at Lyon's apartment with drugs and a hypodermic needle.

"What happened was John Belushi said, 'Have I got a surprise for you. Roll up your sleeve.' I rolled up my sleeve, and Catherine Smith injected me with a substance produced from two glycerine bags," he said.

Deadline nearing for crop insurance

BIG SPRING–September 30 is the last day to apply for crop insurance for barley, oats and wheat in Scurry County, according to Dottie Sampley, a representative of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC).

Crop insurance covers unavoidable loss of production resulting from adverse weather conditions, wildlife, earthquake or fire.

Three coverage levels (50, 65, or 75 percent) are available for insurance protection. Additionally, FCIC offers three optional price elections for valuing production lost or damaged," says Sampley.

A new crop insurance plan, called actual production history (APH), is available this year to producers of wheat, barley, and oats in addition to corn, grain sorghum, peanuts, cotton, rice and other crops. Producers of the crops may now qualify for higher yield guarantees by proving their yield history.

Rates have been developed to offer reduced premium for producers with above-average yields. "With the increased cost of producing a crop, it makes good sense to take a look at this new concept," says Sampley.

To find out more about the APH plan, producers should contact a local, authorized agent. To select an agent, producers may check the list of agents at their local ASCS office. September 30 is the final deadline for applications.

Program officials seek base's help

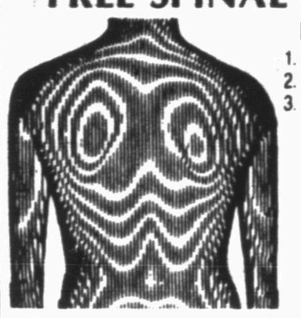

ABILENE, Texas (AP) — Officials of Dyess Air Force Base have been asked by the Abilene Feed the Hungry campaign to help deliver part of a food donation worth more than $1 million to Ethiopia.

A Fort Worth agency which collected the food in Oakland, Calif., has no way to transport it overseas, Tim McClarty, spokesman for the group, said on Monday.

McClarty said officials for the Fort Worth's "Hope for Africa" ministries called him when they heard about Abilene's Feed the Hungry campaign and asked for help in transporting food.

Residents were earlier asked by Abilene Feed the Hungry campaign officials to fast on Aug. 29 and donate the money they saved by not buying food at local banks.

LESA HERTEL, Roy McCloskey and Marilyn Burton will be glad to provide you with any information or help you might need on your specific insurance coverage.

Roy McCloskey will help you with insurance needs

If you are planning on buying a car, pickup, or van in the near future and plan to finance it, you should check with Roy J. McCloskey, State Farm Agent, as you may be able to save many dollars on financing costs through his car finance plan.

The State Farm Medicare supplement plan provides that additional protection not paid for by Medicare. Check with him and see that you are able to get all the protection that any Medicare supplement can provide, and at the same time possibly save as much at $75.00 per year. It costs you nothing, but a little of your time, to find out.

You will find a number of advantages in having your auto insurance with State Farm Mutual. For instance, those individuals who have their auto insurance with State Farm Mutual are eligible for an additional discount when they reach age 65. Maybe you have been thinking about getting auto insurance or fire insurance rates from him, but never did. Why not give him a call or come by his office at 3904 College Avenue.

Before you buy either life or hospitalization insurance call Roy at 573-7266 or come by his ofice. He or a member of his staff will be glad to give you the information on the various rates and coverages.

Cong. Stenholm seeks academies' applications

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Congressman Charles W. Stenholm has announced that he is currently seeking applicants for nominations to the United States Service Academies. Applications for nomination to the U. S. Military Academy in West Point, New York, the U. S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo., the U. S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland and the United States Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, New York may be obtained by writing to Stenholm's Washington D.C. office.

Nominations are available to young men and women who will be at least 17 years old, and not past their 22nd birthday upon entry into the academy in July. Nominees are selected by a competitive process, judged on scholastic aptitude, moral character, leadership ability, and community involvement.

The academies offer a four-year degree in a variety of areas ranging from civil engineering and physics, to American studies and behavorial science.

While attending the academies, cadets and midshipmen will earn an annual salary of approximately $6,500, from which expenses for books, uniforms and incidentals are taken.

Tuition, room, board, medical and dental expenses are paid for by the academies. Upon graduation from the academies, the cadets and midshipmen will serve as officers in the service for a minimum of five years.

Any person who may be interested in applying for nomination, or who would like additional information should write to Congressman Charles W. Stenholm, 1232 Longworth House Office Building, Washington D.C. 20515. Applications must be submitted, and files completed, no later than Dec. 1, 1985. Nominations will be made toward the end of December.

Special delivery mail service began in the United States in 1885.

A Dutch proverb has it that, "In the land of promise a man may die of hunger."

August deliveries surpassed July

In one of those rare turn of events, August deliveries by the Colorado River Municipal Water District exceeded those for July. They also were 25 percent higher than August a year ago.

Total deliveries for the month were 2,385,167,960 gallons, or 484,255,782 gallons over August 1984, a gain of 25.84 percent. The July total was 2,125,480,980 gallons.

Practically all the gain was in municipal demand on both instances. The biggest factor in the rocketing production for August was that San Angelo took 292,314,200 gallons, which was 290 million more than August last year.

On the other hand, Ballinger, which received 70,220,000 gallons in August 1984 when its lakes were functionally dry, took no water this August. All municipal customers showed gains, Odessa leading with nearly 18 percent over August 1984.

Municipal deliveries in August reached 2,192,921,700 gallons, up 22.70 percent over the month in 1984. Oil and industrial deliveries aggregated 192,167,260, an increase of 6.92 percent.

In August Big Spring took 353,703,000 gallons, a gain of 3.03 percent over August a year ago; Midland 429,240,000 gallons, a gain of 9.26 percent; Odessa 958,013,500 gallons, up 17.76 percent; Snyder 136,350,000, up 5.66 percent; Stanton 14,018,000 gallons, up 11.65 percent. Robert Lee, which draws directly from Lake E. V. Spence and whose town lakes were in better shape, took only 9,281,000 gallons, down 160 percent from a year ago.

Pemberton earns SHSU degree

HUNTSVILLE--Students receiving degrees from Sam Houston State University the second summer term include Donna Marie Pemberton of Snyder who received a master of education degree.

Adultery is either grounds for divorce or evidence of irreconcilable differences and a breakdown of marriage in all states. The plaintiff can invariably remarry in the same state where he or she procured the decree of divorce or annulment. Not so the defendant, who is barred in some states. After a period of time has elapsed, even the offender can apply for permission.

Agenda listed from city meet

and Councilmen David Hines, Tommy Davis, Truett Bryan, Troy Williamson and Don Osborn. Mickey Nunley was absent.

The council convened after the meeting in executive session to consider both a land purchase and personnel matters.

After coming into open session, the motion was to purchase for $5,000 a ¾ acre tract of land on which the city's maintenance yard now sits. Previously, the city leased this land from the RS&P Railroad and the current owner was listed as Bruce Kallemeyn.

In other city business, the council voted to:

—Approve on first reading a request submitted by Jonisue Stiff, asking that a 1.2 acre tract north of Cogdell Memorial Hospital be rezoned from R-2 (residential) to C-1 (commercial).

—Approve the 1985-86 city budget totaling $4,922,954, a $19,000 increase when compared with the current year's estimate.

—Approve the 1985-86 tax rate, retaining the same rate as used for the current year, 25.5 cents per $100 valuation.

—Award the city's bank depository bid for another year to Snyder National Bank. SNB bid a set interest rate of 8.5 percent per annum for city monies left on deposit for 30 days or more. Other bids from American State Bank and West Texas State Bank bid flucuating interest rates based upon Treasury Bills.

—Decline to provide a $5,000 match to participate in the Federal Aid Railroad Grade Crossing Signal Program. Through it, the state sought to add a barrier type arm at the Santa Fe Railroad crossing here at Huffman Ave. Total cost of the project was set at $100,000 with the remaining $95,000 to be provided through the federal program. Council members indicated they felt such an amount of money could be better spent elsewhere since the intersection already has flashing signals to indicate the approach of a train.

—Decline a request from John Salman, who sought a waiver from city policy requiring him to lay a water line using 6-inch pipe to a residence he has purchased near North Elementary inside the city limits. The policy directs that when such lines cross other individual's property — creating the potential for future development in the area — a minimum of a six-inch line must be laid. Salman, who said he felt the area in question would not develop further, had sought permission to lay a 2-inch line.

—Grant a special use permit requested by Loyd Baker which will allow him to open a gun repair shop in an accessory building at his residence, 3822 Ave. V. The permit was approved with the stipulation that no gun powder be sold or stored for commercial use at the business.

—Grant a special use permit requested by Yvettee Jones to allow her to operate a beauty shop in an accessory building at 1007 27th St., an area zoned residential.

—Grant a request of $28,500 from Western Texas College for the city's annual share of operating expenses for the Senior Citizens Center.

—Grant a request from United Way officials to temporarily close off the east and west ends of 26th St. south of the courthouse Oct. 1 during a planned kick-off "jamboree" for this year's campaign.

—Grant a request from the parade chairman of the White Buffalo Days celebration to hold a parade here Oct. 12.

—Grant a request from Our Lady of Guadalupe Church to conduct its annual parade next Sunday.

—Award the "best" bid of $3,318 to Austin White Lime of Austin for 30 tons of hydrated lime for use at the water treatment plant. The bid was accepted based upon staff recommendation over the low bid of $3,272 from Texas Lime Company of Cleburne. Better quality lime was cited as the reason. A third bid was received from Clark's Lumber, estimating $4,230.

AIDS boycott ongoing

NEW YORK (AP) — Parents who kept their children out of school to protest enrollment of a second-grader with AIDS vowed to continue the boycott today.

About 12,000 of 47,000 elementary and junior high school students in two districts in the borough of Queens were absent Monday, the first day of class, according to the Board of Education. Parents picketed several schools.

The protest centers around the enrollment of an unnamed youngster with AIDS ordered admitted to public school by a special committee set up to review the cases of children suffering from the deadly disease.

The committee, meeting over the weekend, recommended private tutoring for three other children, whose symptoms are more pronounced.

The District 27 community school board went Monday to state Supreme Court seeking a temporary restraining order blocking the enrollment order.

Slayings prompt emergency lockdown

HUNTSVILLE, Texas (AP) — More than 6,000 Texas prison inmates were confined to their cells today in an emergency lockdown prompted by escalating prison gang violence that left four inmates slain within a 24-hour period.

"We're at war," Texas Prison Director O.L. McCotter said Monday.

"Gang activity is at an alarming level. Our major concern is that it appears to be open warfare."

The four slayings pushed the total number of homicides in the nation's second-largest corrections system to 26, one more than last year's record of 25.

As of Monday, eight inmates had been killed in as many days.

"It's very tense," prison spokesman Phil Guthrie said Monday. "Any time you have a potential gang war going on, nobody plays by normal rules. We're sitting on a time bomb."

They say most of the recent violence stems from a war between two Hispanic gangs known as the Texas Syndicate and the Texas Mafia.

"Essentially what you have is two rival gangs struggling for supremacy and power over their peers," Guthrie said. "We have information that the two gangs are putting on a big recruiting drive."

The killings, he said, "are part of a code to demonstrate loyalty to the gang. Part of the initiation rite is that you beat someone or stab someone."

Prison officials estimate that about 750 of the the system's 37,000 inmates are active gang members. According to prison officials, from six to eight gangs are known to be active behind prison walls.

McCotter's lockdown order affected inmates in maximum, medium and close custody at 13 units around the state.

"We've got to put a stop to this now," McCotter said. "And I'll lock down every unit if I have to."

The units under lockdown orders are Darrington, Coffield, Eastham, Ferguson, Wynne, Ellis II, Huntsville, Clemens, Retrieve, Ramsey I, Ramsey II, Ellis I and Beto I.

The latest gang slaying Monday took the life of Leonel Perez, 31, serving an 8-year sentence for burglary.

Perez was stabbed 15 times, apparently with a 10-inch metal rod sharpened to a point that Brown said was found near his body. A 31-year-old Hispanic is suspected of the attack, Brown said.

On Sunday evening, three inmates were stabbed to death during an exercise period at the Darrington Unit, south of Houston.

The victims included Lloyd Jacquez, 24, serving a seven-year sentence for three burglary convictions; Jose Arturo Garcia, 24, serving a 12-year sentence for aggravated robbery; and Albert Carrillo Jr., 28, who was serving a 12-year sentence for burglary.

Two inmates were in custody for the stabbings. An 8-inch long flat piece of metal and a boning knife were found at the scene, Brown said.

Officials declined to give the gang affiliations of individual victims and attackers.

McCotter said that besides the lockdown, he had ordered known gang leaders segregated from population, accelerated reclassification of known gang members so they could be moved to higher-security cells, obtained a court order to restrict inmate-to-inmate mail exchange, and activated a special task force so local, state and federal authorities could share information.

He also said the Legislature would be asked to make the killing of an inmate a crime punishable by the death penalty.

"We very badly need that capability," McCotter said.

In addition, Al Hughes, who was elected chairman of the prison board Monday, said TDC officials ordered strict security measures over the Labor Day weekend because they feared a system-wide takeover by inmates.

Information about a potential Labor Day uprising was gleaned from informants and by screening mail between inmates, he said.

The takeover attempts never materialized.

Despite the rash of gang violence, Guthrie said Monday that prison officials were encouraged that the stabbing rate of 36 per month a year ago was now down to 24.

"On balance, overall, violence is lower," he said.

In addition, recent shakedowns of cells turned up fewer weapons, he said.

"But they could be hiding them better," he added.

Inmate to die linked locally routine license check on the escapee's vehicle which indicated that the license did not match the vehicle following him.

Barrett, riding in the patrol unit with Pherigo, heard that report.

After they arrived at the courthouse and all five got out of their cars, Sutton jumped Pherigo from behind with a homemade knife.

Rumbaugh and Barrett joined in the attempt to overpower the trooper and had him pinned to the ground when DPS Trooper Pat Alexander drove into the parking lot.

Pherigo and Alexander — with help from sheriff's deputies Abb Boyd and Andy Anderson who had been inside the courthouse when the incident began — were able to recapture the trio after a brief scuffle.

Pherigo was the only party injured in the assault, sustaining a cut on the neck.

White, had walked away from the scene during the fight and was recaptured at the Handy Hut convience store on South College Ave. about an hour later.

The four were later indicted by the Scurry County grand jury for attempted capital murder.

Rumbaugh, Barrett and White were later reindicted on reduced charges of aggravated kidnapping for taking Pherigo prisoner.

Sutton was reindicted for aggravated assault on a peace officer and entered a guilty plea to that charge on April 9, 1976 for a 20-year prison term.

Barrett also pleaded guilty to the charges against him and was assessed a prison term of 15 years and a day on Aug. 29, 1977.

White, initially entered a plea to the kidnapping charge in January of 1978 for a four-year probated prison term but was later granted a new trial and was given a 10-year probated term by a jury in December of 1978.

Greenhouse.

Trustees considered the Stuppy estimate the "best" bid. Indications were the Stuppy product was best suited for the West Texas area.

In addition, there was a question regarding specifications from the low bid.

Other bids were received from Caves Enterprise Inc., Hammond, La., $12,945; and Nexus Greenhouse Systems, Northglenn, Colo., $21,680 and an alternate bid of $22,890.

In other action, trustees formally approved the hiring of Bill Sutton as assistant professor in engineering technology.

During the president's report, Dr. Don Newbury updated trustees on enrollment figures and said that the new air conditioning system should be on line this week.

Trustees attending included Bill Jones, R.C. Patton, Bill Wilson, Howard Sterling, Baze and Edwin Parks. Bob Hargrove was absent.

dicated that a replacement for the unit at West was required.

Another agenda item relates to a teacher request to take six hours of college credit work during the fall semester.

Lone wreck noted

A single minor traffic mishap was reported in Snyder Monday.

Involved in the 4:30 p.m. mishap in the 3600 Block of College Ave. were a 1985 Mercury driven by Barbara Mackey of 308 32nd St. and a 1977 Chevrolet driven by Hugh Maxwell of Ira.

No injuries resulted from the collision.

Confrontation possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate sponsors of legislation to aid import-battered U.S. industries say they're ready to join forces and move ahead with their bills this month despite new Reagan administration initiatives on trade.

"I am very pessimistic that we're going to work anything out with the administration," Sen. John C. Danforth, R-Mo., said following a meeting late Monday among Senate leaders and President Reagan's trade representative, Clayton K. Yeutter.

Rumbaugh facing execution tonight

HUNTSVILLE, Texas (AP) — Convicted killer Charles Francis Rumbaugh, who spent most of his life in reform schools, mental institutions and jails, says he's served a life sentence waiting for the state to kill him.

"It's all a game I'm tired of playing," said Rumbaugh, 28, who is to be executed before sunrise Wednesday for the 1975 robbery-murder of an Amarillo jeweler Michael Fiorello. "Time has to run out sometime."

Rumbaugh, who ordered his attorneys to halt any attempts to block his death date, was to be taken early today to a holding cell a few steps from Texas' death chamber. He is scheduled to die by poison injection shortly after midnight.

If the court-ordered punishment is carried out, Rumbaugh will be the 10th prisoner executed since the state resumed the death penalty in December 1982.

"I believe in reincarnation," Rumbaugh said in a recent interview. "Whatever I did in my previous life must have been pretty bad to deserve this. Maybe when I come back next time, I'll have learned something."

Rumbaugh's trouble with the law began at age 6, when he and an older brother skipped school and broke into an old building in their hometown of San Angelo.

"I was an accident waiting to happen," said Rumbaugh, who worked as a shoeshine boy in nightclubs and bars to help his financially-strapped family. "I got in so much trouble as a kid that all the juvenile officers knew me by my nickname — Chuckie."

At age 12, Rumbaugh pulled off his first armed robbery, using a tire tool to rob a San Angelo gas station and making his getwaway on a stolen bicycle. He later admitted to dozens of heists in Texas and Arkansas.

"I just gravitated to armed robbery," he recalled.

Eventually Rumbaugh was declared a juvenile deliquent and sent to reform schools and mental institutions, where he says his spirit hardened.

Then, on April 4, 1975, while he was visiting a sister in Amarillo, he walked into Fiorello's jewelry store, pulled a gun and demanded money.

But Fiorello tried to grab a small pistol he kept handy after a string of holdups in the neighborhood. The 58-year-old businessman died in a struggle for the pistol, which Rumbaugh took with him when he left.

"It was a situation of kill or be killed," the inmate said. "I can still hear him lying there and saying, 'Help me, please help me.' I remember saying something like, 'You should have thought of that before you reached for the gun.'"

While awaiting trial, Rumbaugh attempted to take his life by slashing his wrist with a razor blade and later by taking an overdose of drugs.

Rumbaugh was convicted by a Potter County jury in 1976 and sentenced to death.

"It kind of bothered me a little," said Tom Curtis, former district attorney who prosecuted Rumbaugh. "He was awfully young and he had some tough breaks in life. But Chuckie is very violent, a really hardened killer and society has to protect itself."

Before a hearing on a reqeust for a new trial, Rumbaugh strapped a 7-inch metal strip to his leg and tried to smuggle it into the courtroom. He said he planned to kill Curtis.

Three years later, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals reversed Rumbaugh's conviction and death sentence. He was retried a year later and again convicted and sentenced to death.

In 1982, after his conviction was upheld by the appeals court, Rumbaugh wrote State District Judge George Dowlen and asked that his appeals be dropped and that he be executed.

"He made reference to the fact that 24 people in Potter County had found that he was a defective humanoid who must be eliminated," Dowlen recalled.

Dowlen twice set executions dates for Rumbaugh, but the inmate's parents intervened, claiming their son was insane and incapable of deciding whether to continue appeals. The U.S. Supreme Court refused to hear their arguments.

Rumbaugh tried to hasten his own execution during a February 1983 competency hearing by pulling make-shift knife, fashioned from metal he took from a jail window, and attacking a U.S. marshal.

"It doesn't matter to me what this court decides," Rumbaugh said at that time. "I have already picked my executioner. I will make them shoot me. I am going to make you kill me now."

Rumbaugh walked toward the marshal and stood before him, waving the knife and shooting, "Shoot me." He was wounded in the left arm and chest.
