CLEAN-UP WEEK IN CITY IS DESIGNATED

ANNUAL SPRING CLEAN UP DRIVE TO START SOON

STATE HEALTH OFFICIALS HERE ON INSPECTION OF CONDITIONS

The week from March 25 to April 3 has been designated as Lubbock's annual spring clean-up drive, to be held in conjunction with a state-wide sanitation campaign. Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer, told the Journal this morning following a consultation with Dr. T. D. Barnett, state health official, and Vic M. Ehlers, state sanitary engineer, both of Austin. The state officials have been in Lubbock since yesterday inspecting health conditions here.

According to Doctor Rollo members of the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce, the Rotary, Kiwanis and Women's civic clubs of the city will be asked to take an active part in the clean-up campaign and City Manager A. B. Davis will see that the city cooperates with the movement.

Sanitation Needs Attention
Health conditions in Lubbock are very good at this time, Doctor Rollo reports but this fact generally in spite of somewhat unfavorable conditions here. Lubbock is very lax in sanitation and the city health officer seeks to correct this habit before it is too late.

Working in conjunction with Doctor Rollo Chief of Police T. E. May announced this morning that City Patrolman Wade Hardy had been placed in charge of sanitation law enforcement and he will immediately begin his duties along this line. Officer Hardy, in addition to inspecting sewer connections, alley conditions, public rest rooms and other things of this nature will call on cooks and waiters of the city and see that employees of eating houses and confectioneries are keeping abreast of the law which demands that their personal health conditions be described periodically in health certificates. Kitchens in hotels, restaurants and boarding houses will also be regularly inspected by Officer Hardy.

To Finance Garbage Plan
Plans for the regular collection of garbage, begun here at the last meeting of the Lubbock County Medical association, are going on. Doctor Rollo said today that the move would be financially supported through the collection of fifty cents per month from each patron of the city water department. In this manner $1,100 per month will be available to operate the garbage wagons and the city will not be out any money at all on the proposition.

PRO-LAW POLL IS STILL LARGER

With 1,238,048 ballots counted the nation over in the prohibition law referendum being staged by 700 daily newspapers citizens favoring the legalizing of the sale of light wines and beer continued to add to their majority during today, a telegram from NEA Service, at Cleveland, told the Journal today. Thus far in the balloting 6,000,000 have voted, 5,827,754 favoring those wishing a complete reversal to open saloons, who have polled a total of 447,321 ballots. Those favoring the present law, with strict enforcement, number 237,373, and for the second consecutive day have gained in number over wet voters.

Bone-dry in Lubbock and on the Plains continue to add to the overwhelming lead the count today indicates. The vote collected by the Journal, which is representing NEA Service here and in this territory, show the dries in the lead with 194 votes, the modifiers second, with 82, and the wets running hopelessly in the rear with only 3 ballots.

BROTHERS HELD IN BANK ROBBERY

Citizens State Bank in Suburbs Of Houston Loses $2,997 In Daylight Robbery

HOUSTON, Mar. 17. (AP)—Four brothers are being held by the police in connection with the robbery of the Citizens State Bank in an outlying district here today, one of whom has been identified by T. E. Thomas, bank teller, as the man who committed the robbery. The bandit obtained $2,997 from the teller's cage.

A. V. Pace, vice president and cashier of the bank, was standing with several men in the lobby of the bank when suddenly a stranger pointed two pistols of large caliber directly at him. The man ordered Mr. Pace and the other men to throw up their hands and backing them into Mr. Pace's office, made them lie on the floor. Warning them to keep quiet if they did not want to get hurt, the lone bandit walked to the teller's cage in charge of T. E. Thomas and covering him with two pistols to "stick 'em up."

Reaching through the window of the cage, the robber seized packages of bills within reach, stuffed them into his pockets and then backed towards the bank entrance. When within a few steps of the door he fired one shot.

Walking leisurely to a small roadster standing before the bank in charge of a confederate, a brother, he departed later, he got in and the car sped West on Washington Avenue. Later a man answering the description of the bank robber was arrested a few blocks down the street and identified by bank officials.

The brothers were arrested at an uptown garage and 2540 in currency was found one of them. The two pistols identified as the ones used by the robber at the bank and the roadster used following the robbery, were found at the garage.

GIANT EXPANSION PROGRAM IS SET IN MOTION HERE

LARGEST PLANT OF TYPE IN U. S. TO BE BUILT AT COST OF $1,000,000

An expansion program that will bring the Lubbock plant of the Texas Utilities Company to a mark of efficiency that will surpass anything to be found in West Texas was announced here Wednesday by Hubert L. Allen, district manager for the company with headquarters here. The program provides for the erection of a new plant, near the location of the present plant on the railroad in the eastern part of the city, and although Mr. Allen would make no statement for the public in regard to the cost of the program, it is estimated that it will cost approximately $1,000,000 to complete the contemplated expansion.

The building for the plant, dirt for which has been broken, is to be 107 by 144 feet, 30 feet high, and will be constructed of brick, steel and concrete and will be a near fireproof, as is possible to make it. A basement, full size of the building will be finished, to be used as storage and to contain auxiliary apparatus.

Largest of Type in U. S.
The plant, when completed, which probably will take more than a year, will be the largest of this particular type in the United States. Mr. Allen said, and he has gained this information from officials of the company at St. Louis who have made a study of the situation, and know conditions. This building will be used solely as an electric generating plant, and will not only furnish power for Lubbock, but for the many surrounding towns that are now on high lines from the local plant.

The machinery to be used is of a type that is the latest development in the electric industry, and will be absolutely modern in every respect. The type of units to be used will be 1,250 H. P. Busch-Sulzer latest type C engines.

To Be Finished in Units

FEELING HIGH IN GROVETON CASE

Brother of Man Slain by Band Of Irate Men Removed from County Jail

GROVETON, Tex., Mar. 17. (AP)—Fense feeling in this community over the killing Monday night of Frank Johnson by a band of men caused authorities today to remove Johnson's brother, Harvey Johnson, from jail here to another county.

Frank Johnson was killed by men who dragged him from his bed where he lay wounded, while his baby was asleep at his side. He was under a charge of murder in connection with the killing a few nights previous of Homer Gibson.

Harvey Johnson is also charged with the murder of Gibson, and the sheriff believed that an attempt would be made on him by the same men who killed his brother. He was hurried away last night.

The killing of Gibson and Frank Johnson, according to authorities, resulted from a dispute as to whether Frank Johnson's children would be permitted to attend Center Point school, 15 miles from here. The school is in Houston County, which adjoins this county, and Johnson it is said desired to send his children to the school though he did not reside in the county. The fight in which Gibson was killed occurred at the school house last Friday night. Frank Johnson's throat was cut.

Investigation by authorities of Houston County, adjoining this county, have failed to disclose any clues to the identity of the persons who killed Johnson. The sheriff of Houston County and a deputy spent last night in the vicinity of the Johnson home.

Johnson's wife and several children beside the baby were in the house when he was killed.

GANG OF THIEVES ROB FOUR HOMES TUESDAY NIGHT

$15 IN CASH, GROCERIES AND CLOTHES TAKEN IN FIRST APPEARANCE

Entering four private residences and a college dormitory in a series of rapid-fire robberies in the western part of the city, housebreakers put in their first appearance in Lubbock in several months Tuesday night. Reports issued from the police and sheriff's departments and by the citizens whose homes were visited, show that the thieves escaped with between ten and fifteen dollars in cash, one pair of trousers and groceries estimated to have been worth fifteen dollars. The depredations of the thieves began about ten o'clock at night, with a forced entrance into the kitchen at College Inn, a girls' dormitory, at the corner of Fourteenth street and College avenue, where Mrs. Stuedemann, hostess at the dormitory, surprised the thieves who made an exit from the kitchen with some bacon and several jars of jam, valued at about fifteen dollars. Mrs. Carroll Thompson operates the dining room at College Inn.

Enter Simpson Home

The residence of Tom Simpson, Texas Utilities employe, at the corner of Avenue T and Eighth street, seems to have been the next stopping place. Slightly more than eight dollars was taken from Mr. Simpson's trousers, which he located upon arising this morning, out in his front yard. Thirty dollars, left in a shirt pocket, was over-looked by the marauder.

The J. P. Edgar home, at 2505 Ninth street, was entered sometime during the night and Mr. Edgar's trousers, containing $2.88, were stolen. The pants were retrieved early this morning by a passing citizen who saw them hanging on a tree on the lot next to the Edgar home. No members of the Edgar family heard prowlers in the house during the theft. Mr. Edgar is engaged in the oil business here.

McLary Home Is Next

Menus for the Family

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Orange, juice, cereal cooked with dates, cream, crisp Graham toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Creamed sardines, lettuce sandwiches, whipped fruit jelly, walnut crackers, milk tea.

Dinner—Boiled mutton, caper sauce, steamed brown rice, turnips in lemon sauce, head lettuce with combination salad dressing, rhubarb custard pie, bran bread, milk, coffee.

Children under school age should be served a poached egg on toast in place of the creamed sardines on toast. However, the sardines are so "tasty" that the recipe follows. This is a good chafing dish concoction.

Creamed Sardines

One box large sardines, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/4 cup milk, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, triangles of crisp toast, 2 hard cooked eggs parsey.

Remove skin and bones from sardines. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. When mixture boils add salt, paprika and lemon juice. Add whites of eggs finely chopped and sardines, whole or broken as preferred. Keep hot over hot water. Arrange toast on a hot platter, cover with creamed fish and sprinkle with yolks of egg forced thru a ricer. Garnish with sprigs of parsley and serve.

This makes a most attractive looking dish as well as an unusually delicious one.

TEXAS IS GROWING MORE THRIFTY IN SAVINGS

HOUSTON, Texas, Mar. 17. (AP)—Texans apparently are growing more thrifty.

They have invested more than $51,000,000 in Texas building and loan associations, the 1925 tabulation showed, I. Friedlander of Houston, president of the Texas League of Building and Loan associations said. This is $17,000,000 more than the total for the year just preceding, and indicates, Mr. Friedlander told the Associated Press, that the per capita savings in this branch of investment is more than ten dollars for every Texan, man, woman and child.

The record, Mr. Friedlander asserted, is considered remarkable, as there was practically no activity in building and loan associations in Texas prior to 1915. Meanwhile Texas has risen in the scale of building and loan associations from 35th in 1920 to 20th in 1924.

"With the remarkable increase of more than 50 per cent in 1925, we hope to bring Texas a few more notches nearer the top and in a few years have our state on the rung to which its population and wealth justly entitle it."

The scope of the building and loan business is tremendous in Texas, Mr. Friedlander said, pointing out that 150,000 persons or one of every 50 persons in the state are members. In 1925 more than 11,000 loans were made. Ninety-five per cent of the loans were on individual homes and secured by first mortgages, which security the law requires.

But over and above these features, Mr. Friedlander indicated, the business has considerable merit as a thrift agency.

"The basis," he said, "is systematic thrift expressed in periodic investments of stipulated sums, applied with earnings thereon to the maturity of full payment of certain subscribed shares. In the case of the non-borrowing member, the shares are retired and he is given the proceeds in cash on maturity, while in the case of the borrowing member the maturity of his shares cancels his mortgage indebtedness."

Building and loan associations in Texas operate under supervision of the state insurance commissioner.

AGED ARITHMETIC TEXT HELD BY TEXAS U.

AUSTIN, Mar. 17. — The oldest known copy of an arithmetic text printed in America, so far as can be determined, is in the possession of the University of Texas in the Garcia collection, according to Mrs. Lota Mae Spell, curator. The volume, plain bound, bears the title, "Arte Menor de Arithmetica" by Juan Perez de Arango, from the press of the "Widow of Bernard Calderon." License for printing it was granted in 1648, and the book was published in 1649.

It was through the effort of Prof. Louis Karpinski of the University of Michigan that the rarity of the book was made known in a recent address before the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Mrs. Spell said. Although it was known to be extremely old and valuable, no investigation had been made of its place in the development of arithmetic texts until Professor Karpinski, who is making a detailed study of this field, published in 1924 a list of arithmetics of colonial America. Search at that time failed to reveal a copy of Reñons text. Noticing the list, Mrs. Spell called Professor Karpinski's attention to the volume in the Garcia collection.

The "Arte Menor de Arithmetica" is the second arithmetical text of the new world, for a systematic arithmetic was published at Mexico in 1623 by Pedro Paz. At the present time, however, no copy is known to historians of mathematics who have written about this one, Mr. Karpinski declared. Apparently the copy of the second arithmetical printed in the new world owned by the University is the only one known now, Mrs. Spell said.

In bringing to light this book, the value of the Garcia collection is opened to another field of learning, that of science, Mrs. Spell said. The collection contains material of extreme importance in almost every line of academic endeavor, she said, and as the contents of the collection are becoming better known generally, scholars in greater numbers are being attracted to the University of Texas for advanced study.

In his travels Mr. Goldstein spent much time studying the libraries, regardless of the size.

A small branch library is to be opened in East Waco in the spring, Miss Regan was informed.

Around The Lot In Major Leagues Training Camps In South And West

(By the Associated Press)
Harris Saves Johnson
 WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—The good fight arm of Walter Johnson is to be saved from the strains of the Senators' bunting tour from their Tampa camp to Washington. The Big Train will pitch one game against the New York Giants late this month and then will precede his mates to this city to top off his training in anticipation of the opening game.
 The Nationals faced a battle with the Buffalo Internationals today, with rookie hurlers getting the call.

Yanks Win At Last
 NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—At last the Yankees regulars have won a ball game; the Yonkers being the victim at St. Petersburg, 2 to 1. And Colonel Jacob Ruppert, "Tankers" owner, was watching the Giants in action when it happened.
 If they never arrive anywhere else it appears that the Boston Braves will be champions of the conditioning circuit for they buried the Giants again yesterday, 5 to 0, at St. Petersburg. Only five safeties were made off Smith and Werth.

Petty, McWeeny and Barnes did some effective pitching for Brooklyn in setting back Cleveland at Clearwater, six to four, Maranville, Cox and Fournier doing the heavy hitting.

They go to Los Angeles the latter part of the week, play five games with the Angels or Hollywood stars and start East on April 6.

Browns Trounce Buffalo
 ST. LOUIS, Mar. 17.—Superb pitching and heavy hitting by the entire squad marked the Browns' 13 to 7 victory over the Buffalo club of the International League yesterday at Taron Springs. Glad, Bolen and Jordan were the Brownie hurlers. Bill Hargrave hit a home run.
 Rain again prevented an exhibition game yesterday at the Cardinals' St. Antonio camp. During a short practice session, Heiner Mueller, outfielder, collided with Coach Otto Williams at first base while trying to best out a bunt, and Williams was knocked out. He suffered no serious effects however.

Shaner Breaks His Leg
 BOSTON, Mar. 17.—One of the outstanding recruits of the Red Sox, will be on the shelf for at least 2 months. Walter Shaner, outfielder-first sacker broke his leg yesterday as he slid into third base at New Orleans.
 The Braves continue to play superb brand of ball. They rolled up their sixth straight victory of the training games when they downed the Giants at St. Petersburg.

Hornby's Efforts At Bat Will Prove Real Tidbit For Baseball Bugs

ONE of the most interesting batting challenges that has entered the ranks of baseball statistics is going on. In one corner sits Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the terror of the American League.
 In the other squats Rogers Hornby, pride of the National, waiting to spring upon his distinguished opponent and wrest a record that promised to live forever and forever.
 When Ty Cobb became the American League swat king for nine successive years no one ever dreamed that his record would be equaled, much less excelled.
 Yet today Rog Hornby has a high run of six on his stick and with no outward indication of slowing up or slipping, as the experts say.

Thus, when the 1926 season opens Hornby's batting stride will be watched by all who follow batting statistics and records.

DOESN'T WORRY HIM
 Hornby refuses to offer a prophecy about himself. Rog is a fellow who allows base hits to speak for themselves.

"I have never cared to make any predictions about myself," said Hornby, by whom he was asked whether he thought he would be able to maintain this 400 clip for three or four more years.
 "That's looking too far into the future," replied Rogers. "Making base hits is the least of my worries. You get 'em or you don't."
 "I am not thinking about what's going to happen this year, the next or the following one. In batting I do not plan on the next time at bat but when I am up there I try to pick on the one that is coming over and have my full cut."

As for tying Cobb's record or beating it, nothing would please me more, but I am not losing any sleep fretting about the possibilities of what you fellows call fame.

NINE TO SIX
 The statistics showing the nine leading years for Cobb and the six for Hornby bring out some interesting information.
 Hornby has the better average, showing .396 against .377 for their years as batting monarchs.
 Hornby holds the highest average with .474 in 1924. His lowest mark was .378. Cobb's best mark is .420 in 1911, his lowest, .324 when he was the leader in 1908.
 Cobb steps ahead of his National League rival for scoring runs, having 147 in 1911. Hornby's top mark is 241.

 In base hits Hornby leads with 359 in 1922, against 248 for Cobb in 1911. In total bases Hornby shines as a slugger, having 453 in 1922, with 367 the best mark for Ty. Cobb has the best year for triples, but in home runs trails Hornby.

Cobb was 29 years of age when he reached his ninth straight year. Hornby was 29 in finishing his run of six in a row.

The project which has been fully finished, Mr. Sanders reports. When entirely completed each county will be mapped in four sections.

Rollo Raps Lubbock Sanitary Conditions

Health conditions in Lubbock are very good at present time, according to a report issued today by Dr.

J. W. Rollo, city health officer. Two cases of smallpox, three of scarlet fever and one of measles are all of the contagious diseases reported to him he said.
 Sanitation here, however, is not as good as it might be, Doctor Rollo reports. He urges citizens to keep their homes, out-houses, barns and back yards clean to prevent any epidemic of contagious diseases.

Fire Destroys Old House Early Today

Fire, which was discovered between 6:30 and 7:00 o'clock this morning, completely gutted a frame house, of unknown ownership, located at the corner of Nineteenth street and Ave. W. Fire Chief Ed Twitty said today. The house was unoccupied at the time of the conflagration.

BAYLOR COUNTS ON VETERAN TRIO IN TENNIS

WACO, Mar. 17. (AP)—Boasting a veteran trio in Captain Tom Armstrong, Bill Powers and "Peewee" Haynes, the Baylor University Bears promise this spring to smash the monopoly Texas University for years has enjoyed in Southwest conference tennis championships.
 The best bet of the Bruins seems to be the winning of the conference doubles championship. In Powers and Armstrong, Baylor has on paper the strongest doubles combination in the conference. Armstrong in other years has shown a fatal weakness in smashing, but he has been working hard to overcome this fault. Certain it is, however, that most of the teams that play concentrate a lobbing attack on Armstrong in the hope he will falter, overhead as he did last year in the conference meet.

With the exception of John Barr, the Southern Methodist University ace, Powers is the equal of any other player in the conference in singles play. It is likely to give Barr his strongest opposition. Powers has a well rounded game—a hard accurate service, is a capable volleyer and smasher, and drives hard and accurately both forehand and backhand.
 Armstrong and Haynes are both fairly capable singles players, and in dual meets will make their ability count for the most.

Just now the Bruin racketeers are looking forward to the dual meet against the Texas University Longhorns to be held at Waco April 25. In Captain Albert Love, Ed Mather, Cliff Wilkinson, Howard Key, and Leo Brewster, the Longhorns have five capable notmen, but the Baylor aces are confident of putting over a win in the team matches, though it is conceded they will have to be at the top of their game to win over the Steers.

The biggest meet in which the Bruins will participate will be the Southwest conference tournament to be held in May.

Following is the Baylor schedule of dual meets:
 April 10, Rice at Houston.
 April 12, Texas A & M at College Station.
 April 17, Southern Methodist University at Dallas.
 April 19, Texas Christian University at Fort Worth.
 April 23, Texas University at Waco.
 April 26, Southern Methodist University at Waco.
 May 14, Texas Christian University at Waco.

SWIFT JERSEY JUSTICE

Prompt imposition of the death sentence on James Lynch, the one-eyed "wharf rat of New York," who shot down in cold blood Frank Brannon in Hackensack, a little more than a month ago, is a commendable sample of Jersey justice. The quick action of the jury in convicting the hired gunman, without recommending life imprisonment, thus guaranteeing the death penalty, will be received with approval.

But it is regrettable that the legal exigencies of the case, as seen by the court, permitted another and more cold-blooded criminal to escape electrocution. Theodore Palmer, the thieving, disloyal agent who planned the hold-up of his employer, which resulted in the death of his decent associate, surely deserved to die. Like Judas, he betrayed his friend and caused his death to get silver to cover up the robberies he had already committed.
He brought about the death of Brannon just as surely as did Lynch, who fired the fatal shot.

The removal from this world of Lynch is justified by the notches on his gun. It certainly is by the Jersey law that makes his crime first degree murder. How much more demoralizing was the conduct of Palmer, who did know Brannon and was trusted by him.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

NEWEST N. D. CANDIDATE WAS UNWILLING MEMBER OF FORD PEACE JUNKET

By CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer.
WASHINGTON. — Now comes the news that Louis H. Hanna of Fargo is a candidate for the North Dakota United States senatorship now held by Gerald P. Nye of Cooperstown.

Dispatches mention Hanna as an ex-member of the national house of representatives, an ex-governor of North Dakota, an ex-Red Cross official, a bank president, an "L. L. D.," a Con-gressionalist, a Mason, the proud possessor of the Norwegian grand cross (first rank) of St. Olaf and manager of the North Dakota Coolidge campaign in 1924.

But dispatches omit the juiciest detail in the entire collection.
Hanna was one of the very, very few rational individuals who, by pure accident, went to Europe in 1915 with the Ford peace expedition.

Now the rational folks along with that expedition were the funniest part of it. The peace nuts were plain nuts and you expected 'em to act that way. But the rational ones, as soon as they realized what they were mixed up in, were wild to get out of it, so's to stop being made to look so ridiculous.

But how could they? They were in the middle of the North Atlantic.
They were stuck for two weeks of it anyway. They didn't relish even two weeks of that kind of advertising.

It's easy to see how Hanna was hooked.
He was governor at the time. He got an invitation and it looked natural to him that he should get it, on the strength of his position.

THE YELLOW STUB

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Harry Rand, 35, a business man, found murdered in a cheap hotel in Grafton. Police find a woman's handkerchief and the stub of a yellow theater ticket.
Janet Rand, his daughter, breaks her engagement with Barry Colvin, because of the "disgrace."
Jimmy Rand, his son, goes to Cleveland, where the theater is.
The stub is traced to Olga Maynard, a cabaret singer.
Jimmy meets and falls in love with Mary Lowell. Later he en-counter's Olga. She faints at hearing police want her for murder.
Mary, out with Samuel Church, a wealthy lawyer, sees Jimmy lift
Olga into a taxi and misunderstands.
Olga tells police the stub might have come into possession of a man who "picked her up" two nights before the murder. Jimmy receives mysterious warnings to save Cleveland and later is attacked by two men, but escapes.
With Jimmy and Mary estranged, Church gets Mary's promise to marry him. Jimmy and Olga, cut one night, see a man they both recognize—she as the man who got the stub, he as one of his assailants. The man escapes, but they identify him by his police photo as Ike Jensen.
Church, motoring with Mary, runs over a dog. His heartlessness causes her to break their engagement. Mary writes Jimmy a letter, telling him about it. The office boy sticks it in his pocket and forgets it.
Barry Colvin, without Jimmy's knowledge, seeks out Mary Lowell and tells her who Olga Maynard is. Late that night Jimmy gets a phone call from Olga, saying she has found Ike Jensen.
Her voice ends in a gasping cry.
Then here is silence.
Jimmy calls police and rushes to her apartment. She is gone. He and O'Day search the place and O'Day finds a picture, which he sticks in his pocket without showing Jimmy.
Jimmy gets a phone call from Olga, saying she has found Ike Jensen. Her voice ends in a gasping cry. Jimmy calls police and rushes to her apartment. She is gone. While he and O'Day are trying to reconstruct the scene the phone rings. O'Day answers it and tells Jimmy it is for him. Jimmy tells O'Day to take the call—that no one is supposed to know where he, Jimmy, is.

When Barry Colvin reached Grafton, his first thought was of Janet, and he went swiftly to the Rand home.
"No use arguing with Jim," he informed her briefly. "He's going to stay in Cleveland until he finds the murderer. That's all there is to it.
There's no persuading him any differ-ently."
"I thought so much, Janet remarked quietly. "You showed him the ring."
"Yes, and he thinks he knows who she is. A police lieutenant in Cleveland by the name of O'Day used to

"My God!" Jimmy exclaimed, aghast, "Have they killed her too?"
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XLIII
"What the—?" O'Day spluttered, but Jimmy Rand laid a finger over his mouth.
"Go ahead, answer it, Lieutenant, if it's for me, it must be from someone who knows what took place here tonight. Go on," he urged.
And O'Day, still greatly puzzled, did as he was told.
"Hello," he called into the telephone.
Detective Mooney, Jimmy has a lot of faith in Mooney. Thinks he's clever and perseverant and all sorts of things."
And he went to Mooney.
The little detective heard him in silence and then asked for the ring.
"I wish," he said, "we'd had this a long time ago. I'll see the chief. I think I ought to go to New York right away."
"Wait a minute," he remarked as Barry left, "is what became of Thaddeus Rand?"
x x x
The days that followed for Jimmy were like a nightmare. He wandered dimly through them, his mind in a haze, and his brain conjured up a myriad cruel fates for Olga.
The newspapers were running her picture on the first page, under such captions as:
MODEL DISAPPEARS, THOUGHT KIDNAPED
and
HAVE YOU SEEN HER?
O'Day also had thought it wise to turn the full glare of newspaper publicity on his search for Ike Jensen.
Accordingly, he had told reporters about Olga's telephone call to Jimmy, without, however, mentioning the fact that Jensen was wanted on a charge of murder.
To his utter embarrassment Jimmy was besieged by a steady stream of reporters, who seeped, in the fact that

TELEPHONE TRAVEL

Fifty years ago the first sound of Today the voice is being carried over-same folks do not realize what a convenience the telephone is and what a great purpose it serves in the

ITALY IS DRAWN MOM'N POP INTO LEAGUE DISPUTE

MUSSOLINI'S MEN SAID TO BE PROMPTING THE BRAZILIANS

(By the Associated Press.)
GENEVA, Mar. 17. (P)—The leaders of the council of the League of Nations today agreed to postpone the election of Germany to the league until September.

Faced by the difficulty of Brazil's continued demand for a permanent council seat, the leaders agreed that Sir Austen Chamberlain, the British foreign secretary, should propose in tomorrow's session of the assembly that the whole question of Germany's admission to the league and the enlargement of the council should be put off until the September session.

In order to show that the Locarno atmosphere of confidence and accord remains unshaken, all the signatory powers, including Germany, plan shortly to publish a common declaration in which they will re-affirm their faith in the Locarno agreement.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Mar. 17. (P)—The Allies and Germans are making to adjourn the League of Nations assembly without action on Germany's application for league membership, should Brazil's decision to veto Germany's entrance to the council be unchanged or other complications arise.

GENEVA, Mar. 17.—Disquieting rumors spread through the lobby of the League of Nations palace today that Italy was prompting Brazil from the wings in her insistence upon receiving a permanent seat in the league council at the same time as Germany.

It was reported that either Premier Mussolini would make a statement or a speech in Rome demanding that Germany cease attempting to thwart another power's obtaining a permanent seat at the same time she was accorded one, or that one of the Italian representatives here might read a statement, inspired by Mussolini, from the floor of the assembly when it convenes tomorrow.

The representatives of the Latin American members of the League met today to discuss the council's opinion. Afrances Melo Franco, the Brazilian representative, appeared and explained Brazil's reasons for adopting her present attitude. The meeting adjourned with practically all the participants voicing the opinion that Brazil would recede from her position, in response to the cable appeal sent from Geneva yesterday.

Up to early afternoon, however, no reply had been received.

GENEVA, Mar. 17. (P)—Premier Briand of France the statement this afternoon that Germany, Great Britain are now absolutely on all questions connected with the controversy over reorganization of the league council.

He added that if new difficulties began to surge on the horizon the only thing left to do was to adjourn the assembly until September.

M. Briand, in speaking of new difficulties, was alluding to both to the demand of Brazil for a permanent seat and to Romania's demand for a seat cut assurance that she would be elected to a non-permanent council seat in September.

112 FACE COUNT OF VIOLATION OF DRY LAW

MANY "BIG FISH" NAMED IN BLANKET CHARGES ISSUED MONDAY

(By Associated Press.)
CLEVELAND, Mar. 17.—An indictment naming 112 persons in an alleged bootleg conspiracy was returned in a federal grand jury here Monday.

The document, probably the longest ever returned by a federal grand jury, charges 165 covert acts, and includes military, real estate men, manufacturers, railroad employees, warehouse men, government employees and bootleggers in twelve cities. It contains 103 typewritten pages, or about 40,000 words.

Forty-six of these indictments are from Saint Paul, twenty-one from Cleveland, fifteen from Duluth, ten from Philadelphia; five each from Chicago and Minneapolis; four from San Jose, and San Francisco; three from Pittsburgh, and one each from Detroit, Boston and Providence, Rhode Island. They are charged with conspiring to violate the national prohibition laws by dealing in, hauling and storing illicit alcohol.

Many of those indicted are known by many attorneys. Seventy-four arrests had been made when the indictment was returned. Of these sixty-nine were named in the indictment.

The alleged conspiracy, the indictment charges, was originated in Philadelphia by Benjamin and David Gersonstein, reputed millionaire bootleggers. These men, the true bill charges, organized three Cleveland companies which were to be the concentration and distributing sources of the contraband supply of pure grain alcohol. The alleged operations cover the period from April 1, 1923, to February 15, 1924.

The companies were formed, the indictment charges, and through falsification of records, pure grain alcohol manufactured or bought for denaturing purposes under a government permit, actually was diverted into bootleg channels.

Harry Volpe, Providence, whose confession last summer, led to the indictment, plead guilty to charges immediately after the indictment was returned. United States Commissioner James Donovan released on his personal bond of $10,000.

BAKING HEAD HAS VOICE ON STAND

NEW YORK, Mar. 17. (P)—George G. Barber, chairman of the board of directors of the Continental Baking Corporation, testified today that the corporation in taking over the stock of other companies, stipulated that officers, directors and stockholders of such companies should not re-enter the baking business within a period of five years or in a radius of fifty miles of their original business.

Mr. Barber outlined this as the corporation's policy during his testimony before John W. Addison, examiner for the federal trade commission, which alleges that the corporation has violated the Clayton act by acquiring the stock of other bakeries in this country in such a way as to stifle competition and to build up a monopoly. The Continental has taken over the stock of eighty or more baking companies since November 1924.

Witcher Returns To Court At Crosbyton

District Attorney, Walter C. Witcher, returned to Crosbyton Wednesday morning where district court is in session in the regular March term, which convened several days ago. Proceedings in criminal cases is under way this week, and two cases of this nature had been set down for trial Wednesday.

The docket at Crosbyton is lighter than usual this term, especially during the bulk of the business was cleared from the state at the last term. Only a few indictments by the grand jury last week furnished material for the term, and the bulk of these were minor offenses.

WINTERS MEN OPEN NEW DRY GOODS STORE HERE

The Hawkins Dry Goods Company, a new business establishment for Lubbock, probably will open its doors Saturday, February 27. It was announced Wednesday by W. B. Hawkins, head of the new firm, a location for which has been secured in the McLemore and Bass buildings on Broadway between Avenues K and L. The business is located at 1295 Broadway.

Mr. Hawkins, with his son Horace, came here from Winters, Texas, where they have been engaged in the general mercantile business for the past fifteen years. The business at Winters was sold the first of this year, and in the meantime, Mr. Hawkins has been seeking a location from Brownsville to Plainview, saying that as he sees it, Lubbock is the most thriving and progressive city of any he has seen on his rounds.

His business here will be confined to dry goods alone. Mr. Hawkins said, with a stock of approximately $25,000, a great deal of which has already arrived, and other shipments arriving daily.

It had been hoped by Mr. Hawkins to be ready for opening Saturday of this week, but delay in arrival of fixtures has caused change of plans. The delayed fixture shipment is expected here today or tomorrow, when the work of stocking will begin.

Horace Hawkins, the son, will have active management of the business here. He has moved his family to Lubbock, and is now located on 18th Street.

Cotton Markets

NEW YORK TRADING NEW YORK, Mar. 17. (AP)—The cotton market made a general steady showing in today's early trading. Liverpool was lower than New York, but after opening at a decline of two points to an advance of one point, prices here worked higher on renewed covering by near months shorts. Buying of new crop positions for trade and commission house account seemed to reflect rather a less confident feeling over the start of the new crop owing to reports that farm work was delayed by unfavorable weather conditions last week and while buying was not active, offerings were comparatively small.

May advanced to 18.85c and October sold up 17.65c; the general market showing net gains of about 6 to 8 points by the end of the first hour.

The early advance extended to 18.85c for May and 17.7c for October, with the general market selling six to 12 points above yesterday's closing figures. Demand then tapered off and reactions of several points were encouraged by prospects for warmer weather in the South. May sold off to 18.85c and October to 17.55c, representing net declines of six to nine points but the market was fairly steady and a few points up from the lowest at mid-day.

Early afternoon trading remained quiet and quotations were narrow. At 2 o'clock May was selling around 18.75c and October 17.55c or about five points net lower.

NEW ORLEANS TRADING

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 17. (AP)—The cotton market developed considerable strength soon after the opening following the receipt of a bullish weekly first cotton summary, at the end of the first half hour, May sold at 18.10c, or seven points above yesterday's close and October at 17.01c or 8 points up. Overnight weather developments were also bullish factors, South Texas reporting further heavy rains. Disappointing cables seemed entirely overlooked.

By noon much of the early gains were lost because of unfavorable news from abroad. Shortly before the mid-day call May sold down to 18.02c or 11 points under the early high and October at 16.82c down 16 points. Some liquidation resulted from anticipation of heavy shipments in the report to be issued this week-end.

During the afternoon further leveling brought prices to new low levels for the day. Shortly before the close May sold off to 17.99c, 7 points down from the previous close, July to 17.55c and October to 16.85c down five points. The heaviest exports for a single day noted in some time failed to stimulate any fresh buying. Late wires from the interior indicated less rains than expected.

LIVERPOOL SPOTS

LIVERPOOL, Mar. 17. (AP)—Cotton

NEW ORLEANS FUTURES

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 17. (AP)—Cotton opened steady, March 18.42c, May 18.05c, July 17.65c, October 16.95c, December 17.02c.

NEW YORK FUTURES

NEW YORK, Mar. 17. (AP)—Cotton July 18.25c; October 17.60c; December futures opened steady, May 18.75c, Dec. 17.27c; January 17.26c.

Stocks And Money

WALL STREET TRADING NEW YORK, Mar. 17. (AP)—Extension of buying support for influential rail and industrial shares contrasted with continued selling of specialties at the opening of today's stock market, resulting in marked irregularity of price movements. Atchafon, Atlantic Coast Line, General Electric, General Motors and Chesapeake and Ohio opened one to two points higher. Woolworth, S. S. Kresge and other issues worked lower and U. S. Steel reflected disappointment.

Fresh selling attacks against the minor specialties later placed a dampener on bullish operations and the entire market developed a reactionary tendency. Ward Baking "B", Simmons Bed and Central Leather common and preferred were hammered down 2 to 4 points to new low levels for the year and the slump also included S. S. Kresge, Sears-Roebuck, Savage Arms, Punta Alegre Sugar, U. S. Realty, National Clock and Sult, American Safety Razor and American Can. General Electric extended its early gain to 3 1/2 points and a few of the other representative issues maintained a firm tone. Another sharp break in the Belgian franc, carrying them back to 4.95 cents, featured foreign exchange trading. Sterling was unchanged at 4.85 1/2.

Terrell Again Asks Place On Rail Commission

AUSTIN, Mar. 17. (AP)—C. V. Terrell of Wise county, former comptroller of Texas, has announced his candidacy for re-election to a second term as Railroad Commissioner of Texas.

Having been selected in November, 1924, to fill out the unexpired term of Dr. Walter M. Splawn, president of the University of Texas, and having served as Railroad Commissioner less than two years, it is only natural that I should ask of the Democracy of Texas a second term. I have always subscribed to the doctrine that a public office is a public trust. During my two year term I am now serving, I have tried to discharge that trust faithfully and well. Profiting by the experience and knowledge gained during my term, I ought to be able to render better service in case I am honored with re-election.

I take this occasion to sincerely thank my friends for the many assurances I have already received of their support, and to publicly announce my candidacy for re-election as Railroad Commissioner subject to the Democratic Primary of July 24, 1932. I earnestly solicit the active friendship, advice and support of all. In return for your suffrage, I promise the most faithful and efficient service I can render.

The winter chickadee, otherwise known as the Tom Tit, is said to be one of the shyest birds in America. But Prof. S. S. Dickey of Alliance College, Cambridge Springs, Pa., knows otherwise. He has this one tamed so that it will eat bread crumbs out of the bowl of his pipe.

Farm Conditions In Randall Co. Best In Several Years With Wheat Acreage Decreased, Jennings Says

(Special to Daily Journal) CANYON, Mar. 17.—According to the statement of J. W. Jennings, County Agent of Randall county, and O. W. H. Cook, president of the First National bank of Canyon, farm conditions in Randall county are better at the present time than for several years past. The acreage of wheat in this county has been much reduced over that of last year, but the wheat that was planted last fall is in much better condition now than the wheat was on the same date in 1925.

The reduced acreage of wheat in Randall county is a good sign because it indicates that the farmers of this region have really caught the idea of diversification. T. C. Thopson, mayor and prominent business man of Canyon, called attention to the fact that less than five years ago one produce house had difficulty in securing enough eggs, cream, and poultry to justify its existence and that now three produce houses are doing an excellent business every month of the year.

There are an average of five dairy cows to every farm in Randall county. The number of stock cattle has not been reduced since last year but all farms are buying dairy cows in order that the farm home may more nearly produce its own food.

Randall county ideal for poultry. Randall county, with most of the high plains areas, is favored with a rainy season which comes in the summer while the season of snow is short and the loss, wet, cold spring is practically unknown. This makes the country almost ideal for poultry raising. There are thousands of chickens in this county. Many farm homes find it possible to pay all of their running expenses by means of poultry and dairy cows supplemented by the products of the home garden.

A number of farms devoted entirely to poultry are to be found in the county, but in most cases the poultry yard contains from one hundred to five hundred chickens and is managed as a side issue to the more pretentious activities of the farm. Egg production in this county has greatly increased partly because of the increase in size of the flocks but more because people are learning to care more expertly for chickens.

Recently it has been found that although it is a valuable winter food for chickens in this territory, taking the place of sprouted oats which are more expensive.

Good Hogs in Demand. Last fall the price of grain was disappointing to farmers of this county. This low price has had a wholesome effect, for hogs were high and farmers began marketing their grain on foot. Progressive farmers are still seeking good hogs and are rapidly building up their herds.

A plan is on foot to buy a large number of hogs in order that this movement may go forward rapidly. Those in charge of the purchasing are being very careful to see that the hogs they buy are double immunized so that there will be no danger of bringing cholera or other disease into the county.

Cotton Outlook Encouraging. Randall county will not plant a great acreage of cotton this year but practically every farmer in the county will have a small amount. Experienced cotton farmers have been fairly successful in this county during the past two years, although the unusually early frost of last October damaged the cotton to a great extent.

Several experienced cotton farmers made as much as three to five bales in spite of the unfavorable weather conditions. Randall county farmers, meeting with the Canyon chamber of commerce a week or two ago, expressed themselves as favoring a small acreage of cotton as a cash crop. There is no danger, for the present at least, of Randall county becoming a cotton area.

Small Farming on Increase. There is a marked tendency in this county to plant a larger variety of crops and especially garden crops which can be quickly grown and easily marketed. This tendency will be increased this year because Randall county is within fifty miles of the Panhandle oil fields which is bringing hundreds of people to the county.

The oil activities will assure a high priced close market for truck grown in this county. During the past week J. H. Evans has moved to Randall county from Fort Bliss, Idaho. On his recently acquired farm fourteen miles northwest of Canyon he will plant forty acres of Irish potatoes. This is the largest plot of potatoes ever planted in this county. Evans comes from the potato region of Idaho and believes that he will make a success of his project here.

Onions are being planted on many farms. Onion fields require a great deal of work through a short season, but last year one Randall county farmer paid for a section of land off his onion patch.

With the constantly increasing diversification, it is felt that Randall county is in the opening of an era of unusual prosperity.

BURKHART HEARD IN HALE CASE

PAWHUSKA, Okla., Mar. 17. (AP)—Ernest Burkhart, nephew of W. K. Hale, who, with John Ramsey, is charged with the murder of W. E. Smith at Fairfax, Okla., was on the witness stand again today in the preliminary hearing for Hale and Ramsey.

Burkhart was cross-examined at length by John Leahy, special prosecution counsel regarding a conversation between the two in Arkansas City, Kans., the day before the hearing opened. The questioning was in connection with Burkhart's reputation yesterday of a purported confession involving Hale in the death plot.

The witness denied today that Leahy had said to him: "Ernest, if you have not told the truth in your statement, if there is any part of it that is not true, I want you to withdraw it now."

He also denied that Leahy had told him that he did not want to have anything to do with the Hale case unless he believed Hale guilty. Leahy took Burkhart through the most of the purported conversation and the witness denied most of it.

THE DAILY NEWSPAPER IS TO BE ENTERED INTO FOURTH ERA SAYS WALTER STRONG TO COLLEGIATES

CHICAGO, Mar. 17. (AP)—The daily newspaper having become a great manufacturing business, is developing into an institution of research, education and service. Walter A. Strong, publisher of the Chicago Daily News, told graduating students of the University of Chicago at the Spring convocation today.

"Having become a gigantic commercial establishment," said Mr. Strong, "in which many millions are invested and at the same time an influence in millions of lives, the American press is still in the throes of re-establishing itself in accord with new conditions."

Are Servants of Society. He suggested that newspapers, having passed through successive periods of pioneering, of "personal journalism" and mechanical expansion, are about to enter or are already entering upon a fourth great era, in which they will take their true place as servants of society. In this new era they must absorb the spirit of the university; to seek with free mind and unquenchable to find out about himself; to place in the hands of mankind that greatest equipment for his own control, knowledge of himself, his past and inner nature. Confronted inevitably and constantly with "dead lines," it is a task whose very difficulty thrills some of us. We must approximate results comparable with those obtained by men of far greater leisure and freedom from interruptions.

Mr. Strong declared America has more honest newspapers by far than those of 15 years ago, and that a study of the various departments of the better newspapers, such as those on social health, schools, religion and politics, would reveal a astounding amount of educational guidance, while the service of the foreign correspondents "is beyond determination."

BRAZIL FIRM IN LEAGUE DEMAND

Demand for Permanent Seat in Council Is Irrevocable, Representative Says

(By the Associated Press) GENEVA, Switzerland, Mar. 17.—Senor Mello-Franco today informed the assembly of the League of Nations that Brazil's demand for a permanent seat in the council was irrevocable. Then Sir Austen Chamberlain gave notice that it would be impossible for him to propose the admission of Germany into the league at this time.

Referring to Brazil's projected veto of Germany for a permanent seat in the council, Senor Mello-Franco said: "The instructions of my government are irrevocable and final." Mr. Chamberlain concluded a long speech by expressing the conviction that the September assembly would see that great nation, Germany, assume her rightful place within the League of Nations.

Pass Up Germany's Entry. The assembly then voted to adjourn the question of Germany's election to the league until the September session.

"We regret sincerely that the great German nation is unable immediately to enter the league because she would contribute great things to the league," the Brazilian spokesman said.

Sir Austen Chamberlain, in proposing postponement of Germany's election until September, described Germany's demand for assurance of a permanent council seat at the present session as just and reasonable, but he added:

"The statement by the representative of Brazil shows that the members of the council are not in a position to give that assurance."

Tribute Is Applauded. He evoked a long outburst of applause when he paid tribute to the generosity of Sweden and Czechoslovakia, in offering to give up their non-permanent seats in the council to aid in a settlement.

"It is a tragedy," he said, "after that manifestation of nobility that unanimity of the council could not be achieved. This is a bitter disappointment to me, but I am sure that adjournment of this request for the admission of Germany will be an adjournment only."

The British foreign secretary said it was really tragic now that the danger was past of seeing Europe divided into two camps and with the certainty that the Locarno reconciliation would still reign, that a new difficulty not connected with Locarno agreement had made unanimity for Germany impossible.

Briand Expresses Regret. Premier Briand of France, the next speaker, associated himself with Sir Austen's statement and expressed the same regret over the situation, recalling the Allied efforts for conciliation in order to realize Germany's entry into the league with the promise of a permanent council seat.

M. Briand advocated a reform of the league's structure "so such a thing as has happened today can never happen again."

Senor Mello-Franco said Brazil was convinced that the reconstruction of the council interested all states and that all viewpoints should be made known. Brazil was deeply interested in the work for peace accomplished at Locarno, because she was one of the pioneers in arbitration and conciliation but she thought that the admirable work of Locarno should find its place in the fabric of the league and not that the league should be made to exist as part of the political machinery of Locarno.

After approving Premier Briand's motion to adjournment, the election of Germany until the September meeting the assembly adjourned sine die at 10:10 p. m.

Tribute Paid Germany

GENEVA, Mar. 17. (AP)—An outstanding feature of the assembly session was a tribute to the German delegation by Premier Briand which was so eloquent and moving that the delegates separated profoundly convinced that Franco-German relations, instead of having suffered from the present impasse, had actually made a step forward. M. Briand's famed oratory was never more resonant.

While the French premier was lauding the German delegation's sincerity, calmness and nobility of heart underlying conditions, Chancellor Luther and Foreign Minister Stresemann were listening to the speech by radio in their hotel a block from the assembly hall.

The German Chancellor, whose knowledge of French is excellent, was profoundly impressed by the eloquence of the great French orator, while Dr. Stresemann, after listening to an English translation remarked simply: "Never before has any French minister said such a fine thing about Germany."

Creates World-Wide Stir

LONDON, Mar. 17. (AP)—Failure of the League of Nations to elect Germany created a world-wide stir today. Criticism of the league was mixed forecasts of political turmoil.

In London notwithstanding the Locarno pact, signatories' declaration that their work will stand, some of the newspapers are of the impression that the League of Nations has suffered a severe blow.

The London Times refers to "preposterous intrigues" and wonders what desperate reason made it so critically important for Poland to have seat. The political opponents of Sir Austen Chamberlain are renewing the suggestion that he resign and there is an unaffirmed report that the opposition in Parliament might seek to pass a vote of censure upon him.

The Echo De Paris which never has liked the League of Nations, says the league has revealed itself divided impotent.

Termed Diplomatic Wreck

BERLIN, Mar. 17. (AP)—A diplomatic wreck is the way a number of today's Berlin newspapers describe the outcome of the League of Nations crisis in Geneva. The Nationalist organs are pleased by the failure of the negotiations and vociferously demand the resignations of Chancellor Luther and Foreign Minister Stresemann.

The Democratic and Liberal papers frankly admitting their disappointment try to apportion the blame and suggest that reorganization of the league is necessary.

Methodist Men To Organize Wesley Brotherhood Here

Committees were appointed for the permanent organization of a Wesley Brotherhood among the men of the First Methodist church here at a banquet held at the church Tuesday evening. These committees are to report at a meeting of the men to be called by Garland Woodward, toastmaster at the Tuesday evening affair, about the middle of April.

About 175 men of the church attended the banquet, which was held in the basement of the Leader building. Rev. B. B. Doak, presiding elder of the Lubbock district of the Northwest Texas conference, W. T. Strunze and Pink Parrish were the speakers of the evening. A "mystic" quartet, composed of Pink Parrish, E. F. Maxey, C. E. Madsen and R. J. Murray rendered "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean" with many fancy contractions, while the quartet sang behind a curtain. The Mary Helm Auxiliary of the church served the meal.

Explaining that a Wesley Brotherhood is an organization among the men of the church, sponsored by the laity, and showing the need of such an organization of the men in the local church, Reverend Doak urged that a Brotherhood be formed here. Mr. Strunze talked on "Youth" and Mr. Parrish made the welcome address to the group. It was decided by the men that a Wesley Brotherhood should be established and the committees were named. The Brotherhood probably will meet monthly after it is organized.

The committees were named as follows: nominating, Allan Hill, H. W. Stanton and J. A. Hughes; constitution and by-laws, George R. Bean, W. W. Campbell and W. F. Schenck.

Will Stay In Jail But Won't Pay Wife

FAIRFIELD, Mar. 17. (P)—John Chisholm, 56, a farmer, has spent two years in the Jefferson county jail, because he refuses to pay his wife alimony. He was ordered to jail until he was ready to pay the alimony and says he will spend the remainder of his life in jail rather than contribute money to the woman who divorced him. Shortly before he began his sentence he secreted his life savings and will not divulge the hiding place.

This is the plan used in practically all other cities for the maintenance of a garbage collection department, the health officer states.

Officials Busy Today
Doctor Barnett and Mr. Ehlers, the state officials here at the present time, are visiting other nearby cities, working out of Lubbock. They are out of the city today but will be here again tomorrow, when they will place the clean-up campaign plans before members of the Kiwanis club at that organization's regular luncheon meeting on Thursday noon.

City Sanitation Engineer Harry N. Roberts said this morning that he was in receipt of a letter out of Austin telling him that State Sanitation Engineer Ehlers would be here today and that the latter wished to look over Lubbock's numerous sanitation engineering projects, recently completed. Mr. Roberts is ready to take the visitor over the field and show him what he believes to be some of the best sanitation engineering work in Texas, he said.

While the clean-up campaign is being waged in the city sanitation work will also be carried on throughout the county. County Health Nurse Anna Brueckner will also co-operate with the state campaign and make a number of inspections over the rural sections of the county.

Mexican Petroleum Law Almost Finished

MEXICO CITY, Mar. 17. (P)—The Department of Commerce announces that the regulations for the petroleum law has been almost completed. It says that it was formulated in a spirit of goodwill for the oil interests, and through the department's courtesy the oil men were invited to participate in the conference preparatory to the formulation of the regulation. The announcement adds that the points in the regulations which at first seemed insurmountable difficulties, have been overcome, showing that criticism of the law was premature and unjust.

above named engines, but when completed will contain eleven units. The first five engines will be installed and ready for operation September 1 under present plans, then work will be started immediately on installation of machinery in the second unit, which will contain six more engines similar to the others. One of the engines for the first unit already is here, and two more are now enroute.

The new plant will displace the electrical portion of the one now in use, but the ice factory housed in the present building that is used for wholesale business only, will be maintained, and added to as demands require, Mr. Allen said. The new plant will be housed in a separate building, just east of the present plant.

Maintains Uptown Factory
In addition to this, the company maintains a complete ice factory and service station for retail trade at the uptown office building at the corner of 15th St. and Ave. K. This plant is now in operation, and work is now underway on a beautification program around the building and the installation of additional machinery pursuant to announcement of the formal opening of the new office building in the near future.

The decision of Texas Utilities Company officials in approving this gigantic expansion program here is accepted as evidence of their faith in the future, not only of Lubbock, but the entire South Plains section, for the entire area is now being served by them, and they have repeatedly expressed the desire to keep their improvement program just a little ahead of developments in other lines.

ROTARY CLUB HAS SAINT PATRICK PROGRAM

With Miss Violet Grayum, soprano; Mrs. Frank Barclay, pianist and contralto, and Prof. R. C. Harrison, reader, as principals, members of the Lubbock Rotary Club bowed to the wiles of "Old Erin" today at noon and a Saint Patrick's Day program proved highly entertaining.

Chairman Edgar Isaman, musical director of the club, opened the program by introducing Mrs. Grayum and Mrs. Barclay, who entertained their listeners with a series of Irish ballads. Miss Grayum sang two songs, accompanied by Mrs. Barclay at the piano, then both ladies rendered a duet.

Professor Harrison, who is head of the English department at the Texas Technological college, gave several readings in the Irish dialect, one in the German and one in the Swedish, which met with instantaneous approbation. He was introduced by Dr. John C. O'Grady.

At the close of the meeting, Jed A. Rix, chairman of the educational committee, instructed his first class in knowledge of Rotary. Neal H. Wright was announced as one of the club's two delegates to the International Convention to be held in Denver, in June.

WICHITA COMPANY AWARDED SLATON CONTRACT

SLATON, Mar. 17.—All of the legal forms relative to the final settlement have not yet been completed, but the City Commission of Slaton has definitely awarded the engineering contract on $100,000 paving to Montgomery-Ward Engineering Company of Wichita, Texas. A residence man will be in Slaton within the next week and preliminary surveys, relative to the data necessary for advertising for bids on the contract, will be prepared. As soon as the necessary estimates have been prepared, contractors will be asked to bid on the work.

If the present plans of the City Commission are carried out, about twenty blocks will be paved, the city owns, one block each way, and three blocks down Texas Ave. Although the exact kind of paving has not yet been decided upon, the city plans to select the paving that will have the longest life.

"We have tried to carry the city's business on, just as we would carry a business proposition of our own," said Mayor R. F. King. "We have proceeded as carefully as possible, and we believe when the work is finished that the city of Slaton and the people of the future will be pleased with the materials and workmanship we are trying to secure for this work."

The $100,000 bond issue for the Slaton paving was sold to Brown-Crummer and Co., of Wichita, Kansas on March 15 for a premium of $2,625. Their representative, R. K. Dunbar, bought the bonds by overbidding eleven other buyers at open auction.

ORDER IS ISSUED FOR GRAND JURY

AUSTIN, Mar. 17. (P)—A special order for a reconvener of the Travis county grand jury was issued today by Judge James B. Hamilton of the criminal district court. Judge Hamilton did not state any reason for the special jury session, but it was indicated in court circles the jury will investigate bribery charges against a member of its own body, George W. Boring. Mr. Boring was held under $500 bond Tuesday on charges of "agreeing to accept a bribe" after the sensational collapse of charges that he (Boring) had brought against Barris Bell, city judge. Mr. Bell was exonerated in a hearing before Justice of the Peace F. B. Tannahill and Mr. Boring ordered held.

ROAD CONTRACTS LET IN TEXAS

AUSTIN, Mar. 17. (P)—Coke and Turner of Marshall today were awarded the resurfacing contract by the state highway commission, for section one, at 12 cents per square yard, and for bituminous asphalt treatment from Fort Worth to Texarkana. The section covers 183.5 miles and will require 1,772,000 square yards of surface treatment. This was the only section on which this firm offered a bid. Hal Moseley, chairman of the highway commission, said he would answer today Attorney General Dan Moody's letter, which warned the commission to not let contracts for bituminous treatment on roads. Coke and Turner's contract called for 35 cents, quarter mile haul and nine cents for additional.

A. C. Love of Dallas assumed his duties of state highway engineer, W. P. Kemper, acting state highway engineer, who was relieved last night, held a conference with the highway commission, soon emerging from the offices. He said that "we quit with friendly relations," although he will not be with the department. He said that several offers had been made to him with private concerns but he not decided which to accept.

ing from the house by way of a side door, which he had previously locked. By the time he groped his way to the door the prowler was gone, Mr. McLarry reports.

The R. W. Matthews home, two doors east of the McLarry home, was entered between two and three o'clock and Mr. Matthews was awakened to see a man moving about his bed-room. The nocturnal visitor, however, escaped, carrying with him Mr. Matthews' trousers, which are as yet unrecovered. About a dollar in change was taken, together with his keys and other personal effects, Mr. Matthews, who is principal of the Central Ward school, said today.

Police Are Called
Immediately after he discovered the thief in the house Mr. Matthews attempted to call the police but, according to Chief T. E. May, making the phone connection was so slow that the officers were unable to reach the scene of the burglary until after the prowler had vanished.

Fearing that similar deprecations will follow the successful raids of the burglars city and county officials this morning broadcast a warning to citizens to lock their doors upon retiring or leaving their homes. Chief of Police May advises any person who finds his home being robbed to call telephone number one, which is police headquarters, and report the case so officers may immediately begin the search for the thief. Telephone number 59 is the Sheriff's department, which may also be called in such an emergency.

Tuesday night's deprecations are the first of this kind noted here in several months, although police officers in Plainview and Amarillo have been troubled considerably by prowlers. Officers reported no clues to the robbers up to Wednesday afternoon.

Corsicana Bank Case Not To Be Reviewed

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17. (P)—The supreme court declined today to review the case involving priority of the Central State bank of Corsicana, Texas, to funds paid the Brashers Construction company for construction of a school house. The funds had been awarded by the lower courts to the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company, as surety, when it was necessary to liquidate the indebtedness of the construction company.

HELD FOR FRAUD

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 17. (P)—Gordon W. Disharon of Upper Darby, Pa., today was arrested in the federal attorney's office charged with obtaining money under false pretenses and using the mails to defraud in connection with the alleged operation of a Yucatan divorce mill.

MARKETS WILL BE CENTER OF NEXT WAR, CLAIM

CHICAGO, Mar. 17. (P)—The next world war, in the opinion of Sir Howard, British ambassador, will be a struggle for markets and will be waged as bitterly as any that has ever sprung from tradition hatreds, national jealousies or territorial ambitions.

The ambassador told the Chicago Association of Commerce today that so far as he was able to judge "the future peace and happiness of this planet of ours lies very largely in the hands of the commercial classes."

"It seems to me," he said, "that the subjects which now interest diplomacy has changed so enormously during the short forty years that I have had anything to do with the business, that the outlook of the various foreign offices, or as you would say, state departments, of the world has perceptibly altered."

The great change that has come over them has been the conviction that economy cause dominate history and that if you want to find the cause of trouble, while with regard to industrial squabbles, the old French proverb 'Look for the woman' still often holds good, with regards to conflicts between countries you can generally say with truth—'Look for the dollar, or the franc, or the pound, . . . or the goods that you purchase there-with. And this, however, much historians have ascribed wars and alliances, constitutional changes and to other cause, we may," he believes, take as being the great cause of all past disturbances and of all political reactions."

Coolidge Is Host To Official of Mexico

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17. (P)—President Coolidge gave a luncheon today in honor of Dr. Jose Manuel Puig-Casaurant, minister of education of Mexico to which were invited many high officials active in the consideration and shaping of the nation's foreign affairs. tee, Ambassador Houghton, who arrived at the White House yesterday to be a guest of the president while he reflects on the European situation, also attended.

CENTER, Mar. 17. (P)—Grover Dunn, former ranger and Angelina County deputy sheriff, was acquitted of the charge of murder by the jury in district court here today in connection with the killing of Ben F. Smith, a defeated candidate for Sheriff in Lufkin in 1924.

The verdict came on the day after Dunn's 41st birthday. All day yesterday during the closing testimony and the arguments of the attorneys Dunn's aged mother sat beside him in the court room. He told friends nearby that it was the first year he could remember when his mother hadn't been able to make a birthday cake for him.
