THE PLEA by the fire department for toys to repair for Christmas distribution to needy children has not met with much response yet, D. A. Porter, fire chief, said.

"It is probably still too early for most persons to get in the Christmas mood, but we must have the toys soon if we are to have time to repair them," he added.

Metal toys usually can be easily repaired, but broken plastic toys are impossible to repair, he said.

Anyone wishing to contribute old broken metal toys or dolls can take them to the central fire station at the city hall.

THE COUNTY TAX OFFICE received a huge stack of mail this morning, and most of it was from taxpayers who were paying taxes in time to get the maximum discount. Any tax payments which were mailed in and postmarked by Oct. 31 qualified for the three per cent discount. During November, the discount will be two per cent.

Halloween Relatively Quiet Here

A relatively quiet Halloween has passed here, T. L. Steele, police chief, said.

"There were only a few pranks pulled which we considered of a malicious nature, but lots of children and youths had good, clean fun last night and the night before," Steele said.

Police officers conscificated a brush and can of paint some children were using to paint stripes on cars on the square last night, but the paint was believed to have been washable poster paint which will not be difficult to remove.

The possibility of gang fights was averted when some enthusiastic Sweetwater Mustang football fans and Snyder Tiger football fans came near a clash as both attempted to paint school slogans on Snyder streets and sidewalks in preparation for tonight's football game between the two schools.

Steele said that the usual prank of placing an outdoor toilet on the courthouse square was not pulled this year, but that one was placed in the quadrangle of the high school building.

Ike Plans First Pep Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will deliver in Oklahoma City Nov. 13 the first of his planned series of speeches intended to bolster the nation's confidence in American scientific achievements and national defense.

The topic of the Oklahoma speech, a half an hour address at 10:30 p.m. EST, will be "Science and Security."

The White House released today an exchange of telegrams between the President and Gov. Raymond Gary in which Eisenhower accepted an invitation to make the speech in Oklahoma City in connection with the state's semicentennial celebration. The occasion marks the 50th anniversary of the state's admission to the Union.

The theme of the semicentennial, which began in June and continues to Nov. 16, is "Arrows to Atoms."

The address will be carried by all major national radio and television networks.

The address is one of a number Eisenhower promised when he addressed the National Fund for Medical Education in New York City Oct. 21. The objective was listed as an effort to strengthen American confidence in the nation's scientific advances, national defense, economic strength, and foreign policy.

Eisenhower plans to fly to Oklahoma City around midday on Nov. 13. He will return to Washington either that night or the following day.

The address will be carried live by the NBC television network at 9:30 p.m. CST and by ABC and CBS television networks on kinescope at 10:15. All national radio networks will carry the address live.

Eisenhower had turned down once an invitation to take part in the celebration of Oklahoma's admission to statehood. In his telegram to Eisenhower, Gov. Gary noted that Eisenhower had written him last May 31 that he was unable to attend the opening of the New Frontiers Exposition in Oklahoma City on June 16 but held out hope that he might come out in the fall for the 50th anniversary celebration of statehood.

After noting press reports that the President planned to address the people from various points around the nation, Gary renewed the invitation for Eisenhower to come to Oklahoma.

The president replied:

"I warmly appreciate your renewed invitation on behalf of the State of Oklahoma to participate in its semicentennial celebration which ends Nov. 16. Upon review of my engagements during the next two weeks I find it possible to schedule the first of my forthcoming addresses to the nation on Nov. 13. I should be delighted to make that address from Oklahoma City, in that way doing what my time permits to join with Oklahoma in this celebration of its 50th birthday this year. I am grateful to you and the people of Oklahoma for reinviting me and look forward to being there on Nov. 13."

NAACP Heads Facing Arrest

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Police today had orders to arrest all officers of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People they could find in integration-wracked Little Rock.

The City Council last night voted unanimously for the arrests.

Acting Mayor Lee H. Evans and seven aldermen agreed on the action after the NAACP failed to obey a new ordinance which requires certain groups to bare their confidential files.

Deadline for submitting the information was yesterday.

Only two local NAACP officers were known to authorities and one of them, Mrs. L. C. Bates, was in New York. She is state president of the organization.

The other officer is the Rev. J. C. Crenchaw, pastor of the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church and president of the Little Rock chapter of the NAACP.

Mayor Woodrow Wilson Mann notified the NAACP and three Little Rock segregationist groups Oct. 15 that they would have to make their records public under the new ordinance.

The NAACP this week filed a petition in U.S. District Court here requesting a restraining order to block enforcement of the ordinance and a hearing was set for Nov. 4.

All three of the segregationist groups—the League of Central High Mothers, the Freedom Fund for Little Rock and the Capital Citizens Council—Submitted their records to the city yesterday.

Mann said after telling the four organizations to file their reports that he considered all were contributing to racial tension at Little Rock.

The federal-state deadlock over integration of nine Negro students at Central High School shows no sign of loosening.

After Gov. Orval Faubus placed National Guardsmen around the school and the six Negro girls and three boys were barred, a federal court enjoined the governor from interfering with integration.

Faubus withdrew the guardsmen and rioting broke out when the Negroes entered Central High Sept. 23. Next day, President Eisenhower federalized the Arkansas Guardsmen and sent 1,000 paratroopers to Little Rock. The Negroes entered the school Sept. 25 and have attended classes since.

Although most of the guardsmen have been released from federal duty and half of the 101st Airborne Division contingent has left Little Rock, federal soldiers still remain inside and outside Central High.

OCCUPATION: HOUSEWIFE AND MAYOR—In addition to her chores as housewife, Mrs. Jean Fassler, 38, will take on the responsibilities of Mayor of Pacifica, Calif., a newly-incorporated city on the Pacific shore in San Mateo county south of San Francisco. At her home she seemed happy at the prospects of heading the administration of the city of 21,000 persons. Pacificia became a city following an election when citizens of nine unincorporated towns voted in favor of the action. The Fasslers have three children, Walfred, 21, attending college in Nevada, Gregory 10, and Lynn, 6. (AP Wirephoto)

One Killed In Road Mishap

A 71-year-old man was killed in a one-car accident about half way between Snyder and Roby shortly after noon today.

He was Bird Hampton Sifford, of route 3, Wofle City, Tex. Injured in the accident in which Sifford was killed was his wfie, Sammie Sifford, 69.

Jim Kinser, Snyder highway patrolman who investigated, said that apparently a tire blew out on the 1956 International pickup truck driven by Sifford, and that the vehicle rolled over about three times.

The truck was loaded with 34 bales of hay.

Kinser said the accident happened shortly before 1 o'clock today in the west edge of Fisher County.

A Bell Funeral Home ambulance from Snyder carried Mrs. Sifford to Wilkinson Hospital, Roby, where she was being treated for severe injuries shortly after the accident.

Sifford's body was taken by a Weathersby Funeral Home ambulance of Rotan.

Kinser said only the one vehicle was involved in the accident.

Sifford was dead on arrival at the Roby Hospital.

The pickup truck was traveling east toward Roby on U. S. Highway 180 when the accident occurred.

Thomas Heads Research Unit

AUSTIN (AP)—J. B. Thomas, Fort Worth utilities executive, was elected today chairman of the Texas Research League for 1958.

Thomas is president and general manager of the Texas Electric Service Co.

Directors voted to accept an invitation of the State Tax Study Commission to help compile information on the state's tax structure.

The league is a private governmental research agency financed by voluntary contributions of about 500 Texas individuals and firms.

Directors elected included Alden Donnell of Midland.

United Fund Drive Still Needs $4,000

Only a small amount of contributions had been turned in since yesterday in the Scurry County United Fund campaign.

The United Fund has only slightly more than $35,000, which means almost $4,000 is still lacking in the drive.

A number of workers still have envelopes out yet. United Fund officials reminded residents that if they have not been contacted by any workers and desire to make donations to the United Fund, they can do so by contacting the UF office at the Chamber of Commerce.

James T. Johnson Area Pioneer, Dies

James T. Johnson, 92, old-timer of the Colorado City area and a Snyder resident for the past two years, died at 6 a.m. today in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

The body will be taken to Colorado City at 9 a.m. tomorrow, and funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Kiker Funeral Home chapel there. Burial will be in the Colorado City Cemetery under direction of Bolger Funeral Home. The Rev. Jack Selcraig, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Colorado City, where Mr. Johnson was a member, will officate.

Mr. Johnson had been here for the past several months at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. H. G. Towle, 3000 Avenue U. Last Saturday, he broke a hip in a fall and did not recover.

Mr. Johnson was born May 8, 1865, at Natchitoches, La. At the age of 13, he became a cowboy in the Colorado City area. During his cowboying days, he rode herd on several major cattle drives including one to California and two to Cheyenne, Wyo.

Later, he graduated from Peoria, Ill., School of Optometry and became a jeweler and optometrist. For a time he was in Snyder as a partner with the late Dr. H. G. Towle in Towle & Johnson jewelry and optometry.

In 1914, when his father-in-law, W. P. Ruddick of Colorado City, died, he took over administration of the Ruddick Estate, which included a number of farms. He continued that until his retirement about 20 years ago.

He was a member of the Woodmen of the World and was for many years active in the Chamber of Commerce and other civic activities at Colorado City.

He was married in 1898 at Colorado City to Minnie Ruddick. Mrs. Johnson died March 15, 1952.

Pallbearers at the funeral service will be Dr. John Blum, Joe Pond, William Greene, Reppy Guitar, Ed Majors, Charlie Thompson, Lucian Madden, and Marvin Majors.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Hilda Raney and Mrs. Pearl Shannon, both of Sulphur Springs; two brothers, George Johnson of Fort Worth and Ed A. Johnson of Dallas; and three sisters-in-law, Mrs. Towle, Mrs. Jimmie Greene of Big Spring, and Mrs. Pearl Shannon of Big Spring.

Light Rain Falls Here

Light rain fell in the Snyder area early today as relatively warm weather endured.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said a cool front orginally expected to reach Texas today had been delayed and probably would not arrive before Saturday.

More cloudy weather was expected over most of the state today, but rains, where they developed, were expected to be light.

Not enough moisture to measure fell in Snyder early this morning, although streets and sidewalks were dampened.

The temperature climbed to 83 degrees in Snyder yesterday, about the average maximum reading for the state. The high in Texas was 91 degrees at Laredo, while the lowest maximum reading reported as 72 degrees at Childress.

Debate On Mid-East Crisis Ends

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly ended its bitter Middle East debate today after Syria agreed it would not press for action at this time.

The Syrian declaration was part of an agreed formula to shut off the discussion without a showdown on Syria's demand for U. N. inquiry, and a rival proposal to have Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold step into the picture.

The key to the agreement was Syria's consent to let the matter rest without a vote on its resolution. The sponsors of the rival seven-nation resolution in turn agreed that they would not ask for a vote.

Ike Adviser Quizzed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Merlyn Pitzele, 1952 campaign labor adviser to President Eisenhower, was called before Senate rackets probers today to tell of contacts with Nathan Shefferman.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy said he has no plan to ask Pitzele about his political activities but wants to question him about "any possible dealings he may have had with Shefferman."

The special Senate committee has been checking the last two weeks on various activities of Shefferman, a Chicago labor consultant whom Kennedy has described as a "union buster."

Pitzele, a onetime field representative for the CIO Steel Workers Organizing Committee and a faculty member at the University of Wisconsin, since 1940 has been a management consultant and labor editor of the magazine Business Week.

Pitzele also is a former chairman of the New York State Labor Mediation Board and was labor adviser to Thomas E. Dewey in Dewey's unsuccessful 1944 and 1948 presidential campaigns as well as to Eisenhower in 1952.

Kennedy said he expected today's session to be brief with possibly one other witness to be heard.

Kennedy identified the witness as Zigmund Snyder, missing for several weeks after he was subpoenaed to testify while the committee was looking into activities of James Hoffa, recently elected president of the Teamsters Union.

Kennedy said the committee has "caught up with" Snyder in Detroit and ordered him to appear forthwith for questioning.

Snyder, committee aides said, was business agent of Hoffa's Local 299 of the Teamsters in Detroit and was head of the dockworkers' section.

Witnesses before the committee testified that while Snyder was an official of the Teamsters local he organized a stevedoring group that operated without union affiliation on Detroit's waterfront.

Flu Count Soars Again

Almost one-fourth of the students enrolled in the Snyder schools were out of classes today as the flu spread a little more here.

A total of 955 students were out of school this morning. That is more than 200 above yesterday's figure, which had been a record.

The absences figured 24.3 per cent of the entire student body.

Northeast Elementary, still hardest hit, had 41.1 per cent out this morning, or 140 out of 340 enrolled.

East Elementary was suffering almost as much, with 35.2 per cent out, or 163 out of 463.

In other schools, the count was:

High school — 16.6 per cent, 140 out of 843.

Junior high — 15.8 per cent, 87 out of 549.

West Elementary — 25.3 per cent, 195 out of 769.

Central Elementary — 22.3 per cent, 129 out of 532.

North Elementary — 26.4 per cent, 86 out of 325.

Lincoln School — 15 per cent, 15 out of 100.

WORKERS, BUSINESSMEN SUFFER

Strike Hits Wallets

DAINGERFIELD, Tex. (AP)—The prolonged strike at Lone Star Steel Co. has caused an economic pinch in parts of this East Texas area, with the strikers and businessmen all beginning to suffer.

The United Steelworkers Union says 2,300 men still are away from the jobs they left Sept. 21 in what both sides call a wildcat strike.

The payroll that spreads itself through northeast Texas has not fallen in ratio to the number of workers on strike since, says the company, about 1,300 men either did not walk out or have returned. Some new employes have been hired.

Pleas for extension of credit are common in Daingerfield. One real estate operator whose rental units are occupied by Lone Star Steel workers took in a gross of $200 last month. His normal income prior to the strike was $1,500 a month.

"Business is way down and getting worse," said Van Glass, an auto agency operator. "Both new and used car sales have dropped tremendously and we have been forced to repossess several cars and expect to repossess more."

Jones Walker, cashier of the National Bank of Daingerfield, said business was down all over the area, with workers seeking extensions of credit.

"The bank will carry them as long as it can," he said.

Walker said jobs vacated by the strikers are not being taken by other townspeople.

"The company is hiring new workers, many not from the immediate area," he said. "That means a payroll loss to the community."

At Mt. Pleasant, about 15 miles away, William Means, First National Bank president, said "The strike has hurt us economically," although Mt. Pleasant has other good payrolls.

At Hughes Springs, Avinger and some other towns whose residents once worked at the plant, businessmen reported sales off as much as 50 per cent.

Each of the men who walked out receive $2 per week per member of his family from the union, although it is not an authorized strike.

Talks with strikers show views vary considerably.

Some staunch unionists feel they must hold out no matter how long it takes, because, they feel, to return would kill the local union.

Others feel that the cause is lost. "Six weeks without work and without pay can make you feel that way," said one.

"If you could see my table, you would know what kind of groceries I'm buying," this particular striker said.

"Some of the men have picked up part time work," he said. "Maybe some have gone back to their farms. Some are picking up and moving out. I don't want to move out. My home is here."

This striker said, "We could have won this already if the scabs hadn't gone back. You guys write about violence and you make a big show of it. I don't know who's throwing bombs and I don't know who's doing the shooting. But I know the scabs are the ones carrying the guns.

"Did you ever think I might be afraid, too? Like I said, I don't know who's doing the shooting."

Rangers Hunt Explosives

GILMER, Tex. (AP) — J. W. Duffy, charged with firing two charges of buckshot into the home of a Lone Star Steel Co. plant non-striker, was placed today under a $50,000 peace bond.

Carl Estes, publisher of the Longview News and Journal said it was the largest peace bond ever ordered in East Texas.

DAINGERFIELD, Tex. (AP)—Texas Rangers and other officers, headed by Ranger Capt. Jay Banks, began a search today for caches of explosives in a new drive to maintain order in this strike-torn area of East Texas.

Banks said, "The people in the neighborhood seem to be living in a state of terror. I think, however, the situation is improving. We have made some arrests and plan more."

More state officers were sent into the area during the night.

The Ranger captain said "We're taking quite a few preventive measures which I can't reveal at the present time."

Navy Has Confidence In Its Power Through Asian Area

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii (AP)—The Navy's confidence in its ability to crush any new aggression in Asia is tempered by the strong hunch that the manner and place of the next Communist move may rule out American military action.

Both the confidence and the caution are found and voiced in this Pacific command headquarters, which is the nerve center of the American watch on the Asian seaboard.

Voicing the demands for prompt decisive action against aggression were Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, and Adm. Felix Stump, commander in chief of Pacific Ocean area land, sea and air forces. They talked with visiting newsmen in Stump's offices on a hillside overlooking Pearl Harbor.

Stump brushed aside suggestions of timidity, saying: "We are not going to stop aggressions by being afraid to risk war."

Burke, fresh from a prolonged tour of the Western Pacific, put it even more bluntly: "If a nation aggresses, she must be punished fast, and on the spot."

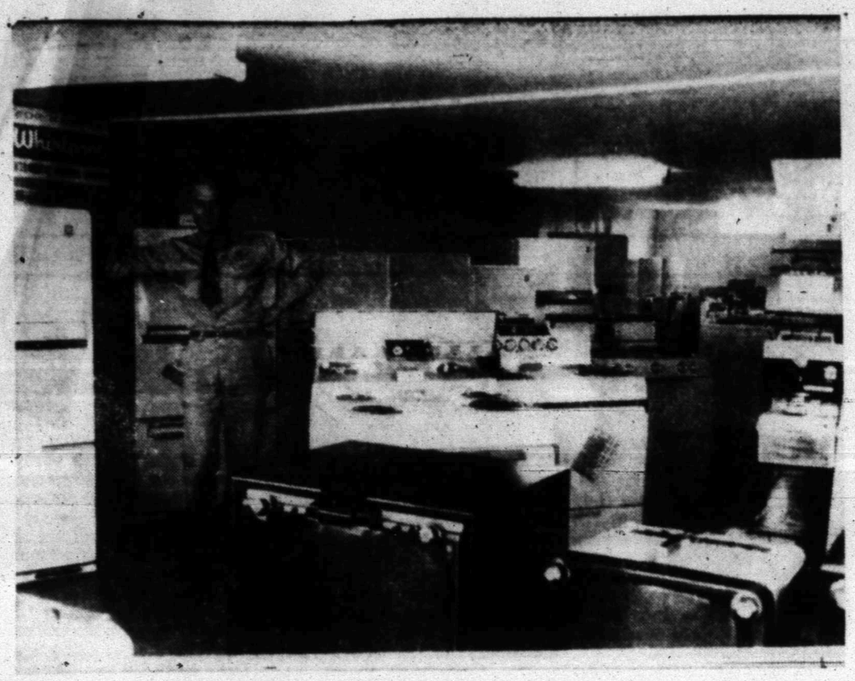

But Stump, who commands a vast array of warships, planes and atomic weapons, also sounded the sobering note that "subversion might get out of hand" and "a Communist coup might occur" in Southeast Asia "before we could do anything about it."

Burke narrowed the more immediate danger areas to the smaller nations which lack strong alliances with the United States. In such places, right now, said Burke, "the Russians are probably figuring how much hell they can raise without getting into too much danger."

A sifting of the great volume of reports coming to Pearl Harbor from many sources in many Asian lands leads to the conclusion that Indonesia is one of the prime targets for Communist control and may be ripe for plucking without a shot.

Dogged by internal dissensions and armed revolts, the government of Indonesia has accepted so many favors from native Communists that the payoff hour may not be far off, these reports indicate.

Stubbornly neutralist after breaking all ties with the Netherlands, Indonesia rejected American offers of military aid. Because there is no alliance or even a mutual aid agreement with the United States, any direct American military intervention would be damned as imperialism and will be avoided scrupulously.

"We invite you to bring your entire family for a visit with us in our new store," M. H. Roe, owner, said

Serving on the Jaycee Religious Activities Committee are Roberts and Ernest Sears.

Warning Issued On Savings Bond Chain

The Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas is now sending out notices to banks in Texas that chain letter schemes involving use of U. S. Savings Bonds are now becoming active again in many areas.

Martin Brooks, cashier at the West Texas State Bank, said this morning he received the notice from the Federal Reserve Bank, which asked banks to reject any applications for purchase of savings bonds if the applicant states he is buying them for that reason or if there is reason to believe application is being made as part of a chain letter scheme.

The present schemes are similar to those which were active early in 1955 and involved many Snyder and area residents. At that time, the Post Office and Treasury Departments issued statements disapproving the schemes, and the Federal Reserve Bank said the statements still apply.

The Postmaster General has said that each scheme of this character will be investigated fully and submitted to the Department of Justice for consideration of possible violation of federal criminal statutes.

Usually, the chain letters introduce themselves by saying something like, "This is a give-away-your-wealth campaign," and it goes on to say a person can collect possibly $38,400 to $51,200 if he waits 10 years.

Participants obtain the list by giving receipt for purchase of a $25 bond to the person who supplies the list. In that person's presence, the purchaser is also to mail a receipt for purchase of a second $25 bond to the person whose name is at the top of the list.

Two copies of the list are then made, with the first name on the list eliminated and the new purchaser's name added. The new purchaser then tries to continue the chain by selling the list to two others who are willing to comply with the same conditions of purchase.

Sputnik II Is Expected

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Moonwatch teams throughout the world were alerted today to start morning and evening search for a new Russian satellite Nov. 5.

Dr. J. Allen Hynek, associate director of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory, said persistent "reports and rumors" that Russia might launch a new satellite on the Nov. 7 anniversary of the October revolution prompted his message to moonwatch stations.

The Jodrell Bank Observatory in Great Britain reported sighting the rocket of satellite Sputnik with its giant radar telescope yesterday. The Smithsonian also received a sighting report from its moonwatch station at Bloemfontein, South Africa.

At the present time the rocket and Sputnik are orbiting so they are visible over the United States at favorable times for observation.

Princeton Coach Caldwell Is Dead

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Charlie Caldwell, head football coach at Princeton University for the past 12 years, died today in Princeton Hospital. He was 56.

Sudsy Pastimes For Flu Victims

Trying to find a way to entertain the small fry during the flu epidemic, when they may be confined to the house for a few days?

Here are some sudsy pastimes:

Soap bubbles: Stir soap and glycerine in a bowl. A drinking straw, an empty spool and even a kitchen funnel will help make big beautiful bubbles. A drop of food coloring will color the bubbles.

Doll clothes: may be dipped in Easter egg coloring to help refurnish a little doll's wardrobe. Let them wash dolly's clothes before the tinting operation takes place.

Balloon fun: After balloons are blown up and tied, let the youngsters paint them with comical faces. A water-color brush dabbed in thickly beaten suds provides the little artist with harmless material for bushy hair, beards, brows.

Soap painting: Mix soap or detergent in a bowl with a little water, whip it with an egg beater or electric mixer until it is at the consistency of meringue. Then let the children "paint" on window panes, mirrors or even the glass table top. Best of all, it can be washed off easily, and the painting will help clean the surface.

Women Still Primping; Men Still Griping

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor

A LETTER FROM A HUSBAND only goes to show that today's man doesn't realize how lucky he is. "My wife spends too much time primping before the mirror," says the man. "But that isn't my main gripe. She uses her allowance for hair preparations — permanent waves, lotions, sprays. She dotes on her blonde hair and it does look attractive, but why shouldn't it if she spends a fortune on it?"

This man has it good compared to men of other periods of history. Consider the vogue that existed during the 18th Century for instance, when women pomaded their hair with grease, then powdered it, so it would stick, built it up with bran, horsehair and cushions on wire frames to a height of three feet or more. Marie Antoinette flaunted these huge headdresses, and the fashion was to use the hair to support ribbons, flowers, feathers, ships in full sail, military engagements or statues of individuals worked out in wax or glass. Doorways had to be heightened and roofs of sedan chairs hinged to accommodate these elaborate coiffures.

Grecian Glamor

The letterwriter is blessed too because he has a blonde wife. The Greeks would have loved her as golden hair was their ideal. Hair dye then didn't come out of neat little packages as it does today, either. They used a messy preparation of goat fat, beach ashes and yellow flowers to keep it light. The Romans went for blonde hair too, Messalina having introduced yellow wigs. After the Punic Wars (Third Century, B. C.,) hair rose to great allure with dying, curling and heated tongs. Fashionable Roman ladies had wardrobes of wigs in different colors, and they must have cost plenty.

Elizabethan Wigs

In Elizabethan England, red wigs were popular, curled and frizzled, puffed and crisped, worked into garlands and wreaths, ornamented with jewels. Powdered wigs were popular during Louis XIV rein, and periwigs were so popular during the Restoration that hair thieves ran rampant and parents were frightened to let children out of their homes.

Victorian coiffures were heavy and matronly, but since World War I Hollywood and Paris have been setting the pace in coiffures, and hair has become a thing of natural beauty. It is still fashionable to dye graying hair as it was in the time of the pharaohs when the Egyptian dye formula included donkey hoof, date kernels and other ingredients cooked in an earthenware pot.

These days women concentrate on shampoo, and keep their heads clean, unlike the other ladies of history.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

ACCORDING TO THE FOOTBALL experts around the state, there's not much to choose from tonight between the Tiger-Sweetwater Mustang battle at Tiger Stadium.

The opinions are pretty equally divided on "who's going to win."

John Morrison of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, who, incidentally, will be here for the game, predicts a Mustang victory as does big Fred Sanner of the Abilene Reporter-News.

Three out of four sports scribes on the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal staff predicts the Tigers to win while at San Angelo and Big Spring it's a 3-2 vote for the Mustangs in each instances.

From these varying reports, nine "experts" say the Mustangs will win, as compared to seven picking the Tigers.

There are many other "grid pickin' panels" around the state including our own and these reported here, perhaps, is probably a general trend of the way the prognosticators over the state see tonight's game.

Close Games The Rule

In the last five years, all of the Tiger and Sweetwater games have been close. But never before has the pre-game billing had the Tigers and Mustangs so evenly matched.

Which means, of course, regardless of past records, fans are in for a real treat when the Tigers and Mustangs assemble for battle.

The Tigers and Mustangs have met two common foes this season, Big Spring and Breckenridge. Snyder beat Big Spring by 12 points (19-7) while Sweetwater defeated the Steers by 20 points (26-6).

Against Breckenridge, the Tigers defeated the Buckies by six points (20-14) while Sweetwater was tied by the Bucks (14-14). The difference in touchdowns are even in comparing those four games.

It's pretty well agreed that breaks will play an important factor in tonight's tilt.

Any way you look at it, a real battle is in store on the local turf tonight.

We've already pre-viewed the merits of the two teams and without further ado, we see it this way:

Tigers 21, Mustangs 14.

Snyder B currently sports a 2-3-1 record. After losing its first three starts, Tiger B has come back to tie Midland and defeat Lake View and Hermleigh.

Several changes have been made in the Tiger B lineup because of influenza.

Following is the revised Tiger B lineup:

7,000 Fans Due To Watch Battle

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

Although there have been some crucial games in the previous 11 football contests between the Tigers and Sweetwater Mustangs, tonight's tilt here between the two arch rivals perhaps is attracting more state-wide interest than any of the past games.

Sweetwater zoomed into the state limelight two weeks ago when it upended mighty Graham, 35-28. The Mustangs, in beating Graham, not only became the first team to trim the Steers this season but also became the first team to score on the powerful District 4-AAA outfit.

On the same weekend, the Tigers were handing a sound Midland team of District 2-AAAA a 40-14 pasting which also caused a lot of eye-brow raising around the state.

Tonight's game is the state's feature attraction in Triple-A.

A crowd of more than 7,000 fans are expected to jam Tiger Stadium for the 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Sweetwater holds a scant 6-5 lead in the overall series with the Tigers. The Bengals have won three of the last four games with the Mustangs and can even up the series that began 32 years ago by winning tonight.

Both the Tigers and Mustangs are loaded with offensive talent and are better than the average in defense.

In fullback James Parker, a 192-pounder, and halfbacks Glenn Reed and Eddie Scott, the Ponies boast a dangerous running attack. And Ardis Gaither and Jimmy Bryant, who usually split time at the quarterback slot, are fine ballhandlers and passers and always a threat at running.

The Tigers will counter with a trio of swift running halfbacks, Bud Morgan, James Vincent and Dick Hayes and a power-driving fullback in 200-pounder Mickey McGrew. Quarterback Richard Mahan is also a threat at both running and passing.

The two teams stack up just about even in weight with the 11 Tiger starters weighing in at 1,872 pounds to 1,870 for the Mustangs.

The Tigers hold a weight edge in the line of four pounds per man, 176-172, while the Mustangs have the weight edge in the backfield of eight pounds per man, 166-158.

Both the Tigers and Mustangs have each scored 146 points this season in six games. The Bengals have given up 68 points to 109 the Mustangs have yielded.

The two teams have also been beaten only once this season, Sweetwater by Abilene, 34-13, and the Tiger by Borger, 12-7. The Mustangs have been tied once, 14-14, by Breckenridge.

Sweetwater will carry a 4-1-1 record into the game to 5-1 for the Tigers.

The Mustangs are 1-0 in District 3-AAA play while tonight's game is the opening district contest for the Tigers.

A huge bonfire and pep rally here set off the pre-game fireworks last night in Towle Park.

Oh yes, tonight's game has been billed as a "tossup."

Sooners Face Softie In Bid For 46

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

College football reaches the point of no return this weekend in the big races for conference titles and bowl shots. And only Oklahoma, among the unbeaten, untied giants, and three other clubs among the nation's top 10 figure to be breathing easy come tomorrow evening.

Oklahoma should have a ball making Kansas State No. 46 in its winning streak. It looks like the same sort of afternoon for Ohio State, Army and North Carolina State, rated eight, nine and 10 in the current Associated Press poll.

Ohio State, still shooting for the Rose Bowl and maybe the Big Ten crown as well, meets winless Northwestern. Army, once-beaten as is Ohio State, plays Colgate. And NC State, undefeated but twice tied and NCAA barred from a bowl bid, meets winless Wake Forest in an Atlantic Coast Conference game.

But for the rest—blood, sweat and maybe tears here and there.

Texas A&M, carrying the No. 1 ranking for the first time this season, meets Arkansas, once-beaten but still breathing in the Southwest conference fight for the Cotton Bowl. Unbeaten Iowa and Auburn, ranked third and fourth, could have tough times against conference foes, too—the Hawkeyes against improved Michigan and Auburn against Florida.

Undefeated Notre Dame, rated No. 5, has slipped past Army and Pittsburgh in its last two games and now meets once-beaten Navy.

Michigan State, No. 6, still has a hope for the Rose Bowl going into tomorrow's game with Wisconsin's Badgers. And tied but unbeaten Duke, ranked No. 7 with the ACC's Orange Bowl okay apparently in hand, has a toughie in Georgia Tech, a poor 2-2-1, but still in line for a possible bowl berth.

That's what the top 10 face tomorrow. Now here's the picture in the conference races:

SOUTHWEST — While Texas A&M should have the edge over Arkansas, the Porkers are battling to stay in on the title tangle that pays off with a Cotton Bowl berth. Texas, tied with A&M for the conference lead, meets Southern Methodist.

One Champion Is Determined In Schoolboy

By The Associated Press

Texas schoolboy football already has one district champion and another is likely to be determined Friday night as the huge field moves into the crucial conference stretch.

Linden won the Dist. 15 title in Class A Thursday night without turning a hand. Paul Pewitt forfeited its showdown game with Linden because of the flu, leaving Linden with five victories and only one game to play.

The second championship also could be in Class A. Cuero can clinch the Dist. 32 title by beating Los Fresnos at Los Fresnos.

Undisputed leads are due to be determined in some 16 districts in the four classes, and in many other districts teams can virtually clinch titles.

Abilene, kingpin of Class AAAA and holder of the all-time winning record—44 straight—isn't playing this week. But Stinnett, the Class A champion, will go after its 23rd consecutive victory and at the same time try to sew up the Dist. 1 crown in a battle with White Deer.

One of the feature games comes in Class AAA where El Campo battles LaMarque in Dist. 12, with the winner taking over the lead. Both are undefeated but have been tied.

Another headliner in this class matches Sweetwater and Snyder in Dist. 3. From this game probably will come the champion.

Bruised Texas A&M and flu-scared Arkansas battle it out in the Ozarks Saturday in one of the most meaningful games of the stretch-running Southwest Conference football race.

It will find the Aggies, undefeated since 1955, risking their national No. 1 rating for the first time. It also marks Arkansas' last stand in the championship race. The Razorbacks have to win or give it up.

While A&M complains of crippling injuries—and the Aggies are pretty thin in manpower anyway—Arkansas fears the flu will have a dozen members of the varsity on the sidelines.

Arkansas, however, is deeper than A&M and there may be no advantage either way.

Of nearly equal importance will be another conference game at Dallas in which Texas, riding an unexpected crest toward a high place in the conference race, battles erratic Southern Methodist.

Texas, which shares the conference lead with arch enemy A&M, can put the coup de grace to Southern Methodist's chances of figuring in the championship. And the youthful but persistent Longhorns are expected to do just that. SMU already has one conference defeat. Another would pitch the Mustangs out of the running.

While this is all going on, Baylor and Texas Christian, a couple of also-rans, will be taking out their spite on each other at Waco. Both have already seen their championship chances bounced out of the window and there's nothing left except a salvaging finish.

Baylor feels worse about it than anybody. The Bears were supposed to be title contenders—many said they'd win the crown they have sought for 33 years. Texas Christian wasn't supposed to be up in the race and the Horned Frogs have more than lived up to expectations.

All three conference games are in the afternoon. Saturday night Rice plays Clemson at Houston in an intersectional test. The Owls are expecting a lively battle with a resurging Tiger but Rice is a strong favorite.

The record was two out of four last week, which lacks much of being par for the course. Must have been off on the putting. Well, this is a new round.

Texas A&M-Arkansas: The Aggies will win, but will get a bad case of nerves.

Texas-Southern Methodist: Texas has two good teams, SMU is having to scratch to get one together; Texas by a couple of touchdowns.

Baylor-Texas Christian: Don't care what the odds say, it looks like a Texas Christian victory in this book.

Rice-Clemson: Rice might be a little flat after losing that heartbreaker to Texas last week but still ought to have enough to take this one.

Junior High 11s Sweep Twinbill

Snyder Junior High's football forces swept a doubleheader from teams from Colorado City and Abilene last night at Tiger Stadium.

Snyder 7th disposed of Colorado City 7th, 27-0, while the Blue Devil 8th grade team smothered South Junior of Abilene, 33-0.

Ronnie Merritt and Spencer Dyer led the 8th graders to victory with two touchdowns apiece. Steve Free scored the other.

Merritt scored on runs of three and 44 yards, both coming in the final quarter.

Dyer scored both of his touchdowns on passes from Free. Free hit Dyer with a 25-yard scoring pass in the first quarter and a 11-yarder in the second period.

Free climaxed a second quarter Blue Devil drive with a two-yard quarterback sneak for a TD.

The Blue Devil 7th grade touchdowns were split among four players.

Jimmy Taylor scored the first TD on an 8-yard run. Pat LaFountain then made it 12-0 on a 40-yard flat-zone pass from Dalton Walton. Stuart Long added the point.

Long then followed up with a 40-yard scamper for the third touchdown and Taylor converted for a 20-0 lead.

Riley Booth blocked a Colorado City punt and Luke Nigliazzoe fell on it in the end zone for the Blue Devils' final touchdown. Bob Pena added the point to end the scoring.

Beaumont 11 Forfeits Tilt

ORANGE (AP)—Beaumont High High School was ordered yesterday by the district executive committee to forfeit a District 11-AAAA football game to Beaumont South Park for using an ineligible player.

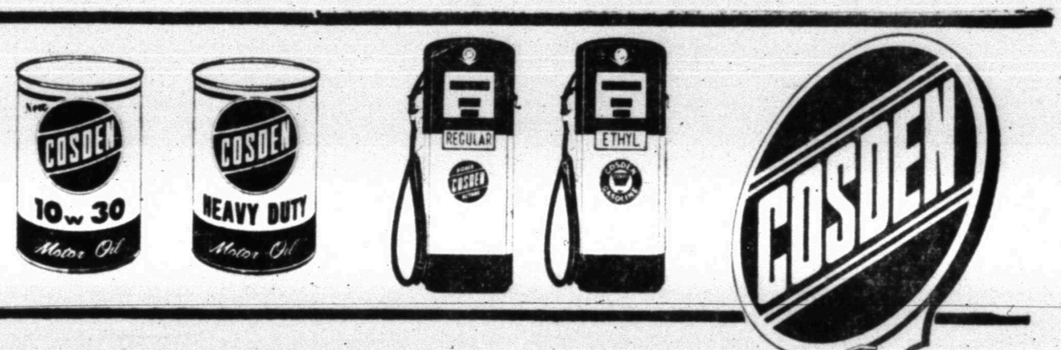

The committee said he played in a game between the two schools Oct. 24. He is end Jodie Saurge, a junior.

Saurge was declared ineligible until Nov. 4, when he will have been a Beaumont resident for one year. He then will be eligible to play in Beaumont's last two district games, against Port Arthur Nov. 8 and Galveston Nov. 22.

Saurge is not eligible to play against Orange in a conference game tonight.

The forfeit puts South Park first in the district.

GRID POWER INDEX

By MORT SCHWARTZ

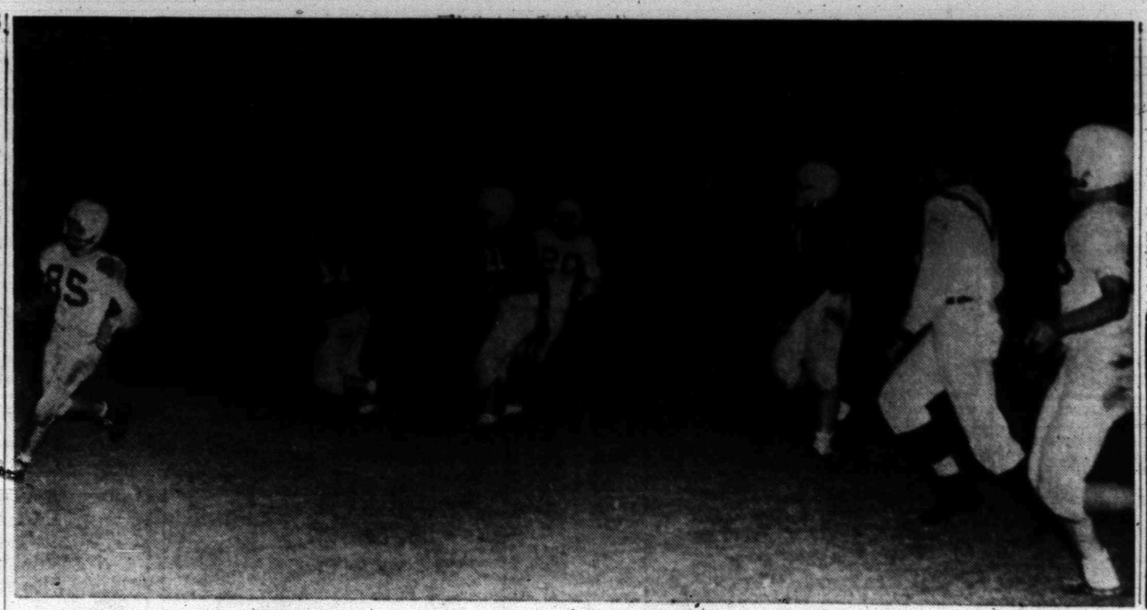

The Grid Power Index is based on a mathematical system giving collegiate football teams comparative ratings.

An Index rating of 120 points is theoratically perfect. The difference between ratings of opposing teams gives the score spread that can be expected in their game. Team statistics are constantly revised to include the factor of performance in each game the teams play through the season.

Record last week: 49 right, 19 wrong, 1 tie. For the season: 274 correct predictions, 106 wrong, 28 ties, for a .721 accuracy average.

Here is the forecast for this week end. Home team is indicated by an (*) within the rating.

Dyer caught the pass in the end zone just over the finger-tips of Tom Perini, No. 21, and Mike Thomas, No. 11. Joshua John, No. 20, Blue Devil halfback, looks on in background. The Blue Devils won the game, 33-0. (Lee Watson Photograph).

Junior Editors Quiz on
THE OLD WEST

QUESTION: Was Wyatt Earp really a hero?

• • •

ANSWER: There are two schools of thought on the famous marshal of Dodge City. One, and currently the most popular, regards Wyatt as a fearless, conscientious peace officer who killed only when necessity required it, but was fortunate enough to have the quickest draw and deadliest aim in the West. The other looks upon Earp as a cold blooded killer who took fiendish delight in his work and once pistol whipped and later shot an unarmed man. The truth probably lies far in the middle between both versions. There is no denying that Earp had a long and successful career in bringing order out of chaos in frontier towns like Tombstone, Deadwood, Wichita and Dodge City. The fact that he not only survived but died peacefully in bed in California is a tribute to both his draw and aim, but whether he was the best shot or the most heroic marshal in the West probably never will be answered.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Go to your local library and read about Earp's adventurous career. For your scrapbook, cut out, color and paste down this picture.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An agreement to continue negotiations averted a transit strike in Kansas City today.

Union employes of Kansas City Public Service Co. had scheduled a walkout at midnight.

The agreement to continue negotiations is binding until Nov. 6.

Fraternity Pin Means Something

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP)—When a University of Wyoming coed lets her best boy friend hang his fraternity pin on her, they had better mean they're really engaged.

County Atty. Lynn Rees discovered a Wyoming law which says only a man's mother, daughter, sister or the girl he's engaged to may wear his fraternity pin.

Rees said so far as he knows the law has never been enforced.

"There's not enough room in our jail," he added.

Respect For Law Attracts Industry

GILMER, Tex. (AP)—Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said yesterday one point favorable to industrial growth in Texas was that Texans were essentially a law abiding people who respect their neighbors.

Small Fry Confused On Trick Business

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — The tame, new generation somehow hasn't quite got the idea behind "trick or treat."

"I guess you'll have to trick, I'm out of treats," apologized Mrs. Melba Holmes to a 9-year-old goblin. She prepared for the worst.

The little spook thereupon stood on his head on the sidewalk.

CHICAGO (AP) — Policeman Charles Mueller stopped a car for a minor traffic violation last night, took note of the flashy garb of one of the occupants and hauled him off to the station.

The charge: Stealing a sports coat from Mueller's parked car a year ago. Mueller said James Davis, 22, admitted stealing the coat. The driver, Billy Roberts, 21, was charged with not having a light near his license plate.

Youths Get $266 Here For CROP

The Christian Rural Overseas Program was carried out in Snyder Wednesday night by youth organizations of seven churches.

Instead of participating in "trick or treat" activities which are the usual at Halloween time, 62 youths from the various churches collected a total of $266 from Snyder residents in the program.

Participating were youth from Grace Lutheran Church, St. John's Episcopal Church, Trinity Methodist Church, Union Methodist Church, First Methodist Church, First Presbyterian Church, and First Christian Church.

The program was planned in a short period of time. Next year's program will be planned more extensively, however, as plans are already underway.

CROP seeks to release food at the Church World Service at the ratio of 20 to 1 in food commodities.

Chairman of the program was the Rev. Ralph Odom, pastor of the Union Methodist Church. Those who were not solicited may still give to the CROP program, Rev. Odom said.

Shortage Of Researchers Is Challenge

CHICAGO (AP)—A ranking scientific manpower authority said today it will be months before the government can even begin to retool its scientific training programs to cope with "events of the past three weeks."

The three-week period cited by M. H. Trytten covers approximately the time in which Russia lofted its Sputnik and claimed to have perfected a hydrogen warhead for guided missiles.

Trytten added in a speech prepared for a scientific and engineering education conference:

"We know, too, that in spite of all we can do in the next few years the shortage of high level researchers will remain and our relative supply in comparison to the Iron Curtain countries will become worse over the immediate future measured in years."

Trytten is director of the Office of Scientific Personnel of the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, Washington. The twin agencies are nongovernmental but work closely with the government.

"The challenge which has broken upon us," Trytten said, "is so massive . . . that it will be months before the various new programs and the reorientation of old ones can be analyzed for their manpower requirements."

Northside Purchases More Parking Space

The Northside Baptist Church has recently purchased property directly across the street from the church for parking use.

The property is 324 by 140 feet and will provide parking space for more than 100 cars.

The new parking lot has been graded and prepared for use.

Morning Devotional

Masked Pair Gets $20,000

LYMAN, S. C. (AP)—A supermarket manager was robbed of about $20,000 last night by two Halloween-masked gunmen who bound and slugged him before fleeing in his car.

Robert Littlejohn said he was just closing the Community Cash supermarket when two white men, both wearing robe-type Halloween costumes, accosted him.

"Hello, fellas, you playing trick or treat?" Littlejohn asked.

"This ain't going to be no treat" the manager said both replied as they drew .38 caliber pistols. He said they ordered him to hand over a bag containing the night's receipts.

Littlejohn said they forced him to open the supermarket and then remove the contents of a safe. The manager, who estimated the total receipts at about $20,000, said the pair bound him and knocked him out before fleeing in his car.

When he regained consciousness Littlejohn said he hailed a passing motorist and reported the incident to police.

He told officers that the car headed north from here.

Trick Is A Treat

DALLAS (AP)—Halloween brought a trick which also was a treat for Mrs. Bill DeSanders. It's also her wedding anniversary, and the gift from her husband was a small broom of gold and diamonds inscribed: "To my favorite witch."

Two Versions Of Water Bill Passed

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel looked at different water bills passed by the House and Senate as legislators took a weekend rest today.

The governor won and lost on the differing versions of the administration's million-dollar water planning bill.

A maximum of eight working days are left in the special session.

The House may face Monday a resolution by Rep. Joe Pool of Dallas asking Daniel for an immediate statement on his plans, if any, for submitting state's rights and integration matters to this or another special session.

The Senate water bill does not spell out that a statewide plan could be formulated. But it would open the door for preliminary negotiations toward getting storage space in federal reservoirs. The $600,240 Senate bill would provide basic data research and investigations.

The House bill dropped the administration's storage matter entirely and would create a separate planning division under the State Board of Water Engineers. The division's main duties would be to do research on underground and surface water and formulate a statewide plan.

The million-dollar House bill, approved 124-9, also gave Daniel something he didn't ask. His supporters said he would approve it if in another measure. It is the farm-bloc amendment applying to 200-acre-foot reservoirs.

The farm bloc believes it would allow the use of water from 200-acre-foot reservoirs for any purpose without a permit from the Board of Water Engineers. Rep. W. N. (Bill) Woolsey of Corpus Christi, the governor's bill sponsor, said it had no effect on present law.

The law now requires a permit if the water from such reservoirs is used for anything except domestic (homes) and livestock purposes.

The Senate unanimously approved its water bill. A similar proposal in the House was defeated.

Woolsey said he was not entirely satisfied with the House bill "but it was better than not passing out anything at all today."

Class Of '47 Has Reunion

Members of the 1947 Snyder High School graduating class will hold a 10-year reunion tonight and tomorrow here.

Several events are planned by the group, including a coffee following tonight's Snyder-Sweetwater football game, a barbecue and party tomorrow night.

Members of the class will gather at West Elementary School cafeteria following tonight's game for the coffee.

Tomorrow, the group will begin to gather at 3 p.m. at the exhibit barn in Towle Memorial Park, and a barbecue supper will be served at 6 p.m.

A party will follow at the Country Club at about 7:30 p.m.

There were about 63 graduating in the class in 1947, and about 24 of the group now live in or near Snyder.

Details Of School Plans Discussed

Details concerning the school building program proposed in the Nov. 9 bond election were discussed by two school board members and some school officials yesterday at the weekly luncheon of the Snyder Rotary Club.

Clyde Godwin, president of the school board, presided on the program. Others participating in the discussion were Max West, board member; M. E. Stanfield, assistant school superintendent; and Art Nicholas, school business administrator.

Proposed in the $2,325,000 program are a new elementary school, a second junior high, improvements at the present junior high, additions to the school maintenance warehouse and administration building, and an irrigation system at the high school. Proposed with those projects is moving the ninth grade from the high school to junior highs.

Godwin said several school board members have taken it upon themselves to look at construction in several other West Texas schools.

"We are trying to evaluate our program, and we have found some schools higher and some cheaper," he said. Godwin added that the Snyder schools have built some buildings for as low as $9.10 per square foot, while some have run as high as $14.35.

Square foot cost comparisions are included in board studies in other school systems. One school system, the one at Andrews, is included in studies and was visited this week by two board members, with that system having a different architect from the one used here. Andrews has had square footage costs on various buildings running from $10.18 to $20.21.

West told the group, "We have done and are doing a lot of studying. We're not going to build cheap schools, but we are still not going to put brass doorknobs on them." He said building costs are higher in West Texas then in the Dallas area for both houses and schools. West pointed out that buildings cost estimates, as made by the school board, cannot possibly be exact cost figures, but the board made estimates high enough in this program to make sure costs will be covered. In the last large issue, there was not quite enough money, he said, to provide what was proposed.

West said it is difficult to get good comparisons of square footage costs. Some schools do not include equipment and fees in figuring square footage costs.

Godwin said, "We went into this thing conservatively, but we can go as far as you want us to go." Godwin added that the school board feels the schools are getting $1 value for each $1 spent.

Most of the time the board attempts to plan about two years ahead, but the building program usually runs about two years behind needs here.

If the proposals are approved, the elementary school will be the first thing built, Godwin said, adding that the junior high will probably not be started until sometime next year.

Stanfield discussed the system the schools here used to make projections of probably enrollments for the next few years. In the past, estimates have been conservative but fairly accurate.

Stanfield showed how the high school, now full with four grades, would have the same number of students in only three grades by 1962. Junior high enrollment would be more than 1,100 in three grades by that time, or enough to have two junior highs the size of the present junior high.

He also showed projections of elementary school enrollment, including comparisions of estimates of previous years to actual enrollments for the same years. In the area served by West Elementary School alone, there will be some 1,278 students by 1962-63, or enough to fill 50 classrooms.

In regard to the number of students in each classroom, Godwin explained that the average is now about 25 in the elementary schools here, which is considered about right. The number is rising rapidly, however. Board members learned that the Odessa schools, although they have up to 40 in some classrooms, average 24 to 26 to the classroom.

"If we don't plan ahead, we will get behind," Godwin said.

No Tricks, No Treats

DETROIT (AP)—"Trick or treat," 5-year-old Charles Hyder demanded of John Calamarus, 69, a fruit stand operator.

Then, according to Charles' parents, Calamarus decided he would neither trick or treat. They said he pulled a .38 caliber pistol on young Charlie.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyder Sr. said they watched through a window as their son entered the fruit stand on his Halloween rounds. They said Calamarus waved a pistol at the child and called him "bad names."

Calamarus denied threatening Charles with a pistol. He said Charles and a group of other children had demanded more candy than he cared to give them.

No charges were placed against the fruit stand operator.

NOW... TWO KINDS

California Politics Into Fresh Turmoil

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Renewed reports that Gov. Goodwin Knight would bid for a U. S. Senate seat instead of seeking reelection next year created fresh turmoil in California's hectic political campaign today.

San Francisco and Los Angeles newspapers, quoting both Washington sources and "friends of the governor," said the ailing Republican chief executive sent that word from his out-of-state vacation hideaway.

Such a decision would, in effect, hand the Republican nomination for governor to Sen. William F. Knowland and spare the GOP a bitter intraparty battle in next June's primary.

Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown is unopposed on the Democratic ticket.

There was no direct confirmation from the 60-year old governor. He left for a three-week rest Monday on doctor's orders after saying he still intended to seek re-election. Knight said then he had rejected overtures to run for the Senate.

His press secretary, Tom Bright phoned the latest reports to Knight's secret retreat and quoted the governor as saying he had no comment. The absence of a firm denial was quickly noted here.

Brown accepting the reports at face value, denounced Knight's asserted shift as "a cynical deal engineered by a grasping reactionary with eyes fixed on the White House."

"The governor was forced to change his mind," Brown continued. "He became the victim of a plot engineered by Knowland that dried up the sources of his campaign funds and enticed away many of his big name supporters. Knight was confronted with polls which showed him losing to Knowland. He was then served with an ultimatum to either get out of the governor's race and campaign for the Senate or face certain political death. Lonely and abandoned, he bowed to his masters."

Why would Knight, as the incumbent, agree to step aside?

Knight, along with other Republicans, has warned that the deep party wounds inflicted by a Knight Knowland showdown might cost the GOP the state in 1958 and 1960, a presidential year.

Early newspaper polls have shown Knight lagging behind Knowland in the Republican contest, and Knight might like to close out his long political career without a defeat.

There is also the question whether Knowland's entry into the race for governor may not have dried up Knight's usual sources of campaign cash. It takes an estimated half million dollars, at least, to stage a major campaign in a state this size.

In the background of all the maneuvering is a battle for party power, with control of California's delegation to the 1960 Republican National Convention the real prize. The state's vote, the second largest, could prove important to the presidential nomination chances of Knowland and Vice President Nixon. In 1956, California had 70 votes in the Republican National Convention; New York 96.

Knight's withdrawal would be certain to set off a chain reaction reaching down into the ranks of candidates for other offices.

Oil Workers Talk Shorter Work Week

DENVER (AP) — O. A. Knight, prsident of the Oil Workers Union, said today his members should prepare now for a shorter work week "to be applied when needed."

Knight wrote union district directors to survey the prospects of layoff of members soon, the "attitudes of members toward this danger and their ideas about meeting it."

"There is considerable evidence that sizeable layoffs may be forthcoming in the near future," Knight said. "We need to take a close look at the situation now to see what the union must do to protect the jobs of our members.

"Layoffs in oil and chemical industries will be caused principally by the installation of new equipment and automation. Also contributing to the danger of unemployment is a general softening of business conditions.

"It's time to take a serious look at the matter of a shorter work week which would spread the work and prevent heavy layoffs."

Knight said he would not yet recommend that the union seek a shorter week through negotiations.

"This problem is too complicated to solve hastily," he said.

Rocketmen Fire Snark

MISSILE TEST CENTER, CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Rocketmen launched a Snark here yesterday in the second firing in as many days.

The Snark, a 74-foot-long pilotless bomber with 42-foot wingspread, travels slower than some jet fighters, but is designed to fly 5,000 miles under guidance and then dive with a nuclear warhead on its target.

Last spring a Snark launched from Cape Canaveral broke out of control and last was seen headed for the jungles of Brazil.

Announcement of yesterday's Snark firing was made by the Defense Department, which said also that on Wednesday night a Jupiter "A" missile was sent aloft and then destroyed because of a malfunction.

Watchers saw the Jupiter climb 30,000 feet straight up and then veer to the southeast. A booster stage fell into the ocean after the missile disappeared from sight.

The Jupiter is a ballistic missile with control gear built into the missile. The Snark is a guided missile designed to be controlled from a distance.

Rotarians To Host Sweetwater Club

Members of the Snyder Rotary Club will be hosts tonight at a pre-game dinner with members of the Sweetwater Rotary Coub just before the Snyder-Sweetwater football game.

The dinner is to start at 6 p.m. and will be held in the high school cafeteria. Rotarians and their wives from both clubs will attend.

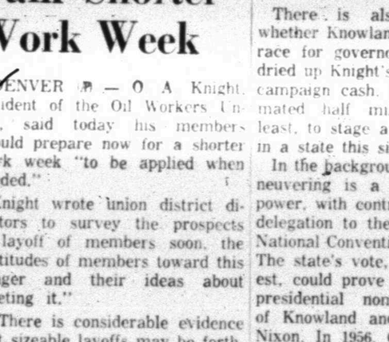

The Sweetwater club will furnish the program for the dinner.

The two clubs have had interclub dinners each year just prior to the football game between the two cities for several years.

Blast Kills Five

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Five workmen were killed and one was injured yesterday when a stick of dynamite exploded prematurely at a construction project on the Mexico City-Laredo highway.

MEDICINE CHEST "LEFTOVERS"

There's but one good place in the home for "leftovers." That's the refrigerator—and the "leftovers" should be foods, not medicines.

Medicine chest "leftovers" are risky at best, and often downright dangerous. The medicine your physician prescribed a year or so ago was intended to be used then, not now. Avoid serious danger—dump old medicine at once.

Each illness requires scientific diagnosis — and, usually, specialized medicine is indicated.

See your physician. Let him decide what's best. Call on us to provide your medication.
