NEIGHBORS DO A GOOD TURN FOR A SICK FRIEND AT SAMNORWOOD

Fifteen tractors lined up at the John Morgan farm near Samnorwood recently when neighbors came in to plow Mr. Morgan's crop, while others brought hoes to chop cotton, or contributed money to hire additional choppers. Mr. Morgan has been ill since August, 1949, and has under gone five major operations since December. He returned home Saturday from the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., and Mrs. Morgan said Wednesday morning, August 9, that he is slowly improving. Tractors that were used are shown in the top picture, while the women who served dinner are next, and included Mrs. O. E. Kidwell and son, Mrs. Smith Kidwell, Mrs. Morgan, Bonnie Kidwell, Martha Kidwell, Yvonne Thompson, Mrs. Nath Thompson, Mrs. Theo Parker, Odessa Kidwell, Mrs. R. C. Bryan, Ruby Ledbetter, Mrs. E. P. Tipps, Mrs. Otis Bradley, Mrs. G. W. Thompson, Mrs. W. C. Stockett, Wanda Morgan and Mrs. Tom Cunningham. In the third picture, hungry men line up to be served from tables under the tall trees at the Morgan home. Serving here are Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. Nath Thompson and Mrs. Tipps. The men who worked are shown in the lower picture, and include about 45 friends and neighbors.

Four Day Rodeo and Reunion Open With Big Parade Tuesday

Wellington's big parade rolls onto the square at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, August 15, to open the annual three-day Rodeo and Old Settlers Reunion which will feature the top entertainment of that type in the lower Panhandle.

The three night performances of the rodeo will begin at 8:00 p.m Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. The old settlers meet throughout the day Friday, August 18, and close the celebration with an entertainment at the community building Friday night. Guy Clay, director of the parade, is urging everyone who wants to take part in the parade to be on hand in plenty of time to get lined up.

"We are inviting everyone who wishes to take part, from pioneers down to youngsters," he said. There will be sections for horseback riders, floats of organizations and business firms, cars carrying those who wish to ride, and decorated bicycles.

Parade participants will gather on Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Sts. about three blocks east of the square, Mr. Clay said. There they will be formed into sections and line up for the parade.

Prizes will be awarded as follows:

Oldest man riding horseback in the parade, $5.00.

Oldest woman riding horseback in the parade, $5.00.

The person living in the county the longest who is taking part in the parade, $5.00.

The old settler traveling the longest distance to attend the reunion, $5.00.

Most typical cowboy under 14 years of age riding horseback in the parade, $2.50.

Most typical cowgirl under 14 years of age riding horseback in the parade, $2.50.

The best float, $5.00.

The best comedy in the parade, $2.50.

The best decorated bicycle in the parade, $5.00.

The Band Mothers Club is sponsoring the rodeo this year for the Wellington Rodeo Association, Cameron Beam points out.

Approximately $1,500 in prize money will be paid out to rodeo contestants from the Texas Panhandle, Oklahoma and New Mexico. Only night performances will be held.

Rodeo events will include: calf roping, bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, bull riding, the famous wild mare race.

A $185 saddle will be awarded the best all-round cowboy at the end of the rodeo, Mr. Beam said.

Mrs. Russell Yates is hostess to the cowgirl sponsors. Approximately 40 young women have been invited, representing nearby towns, communities and ranches.

As yet, however, it is not known how many contestants will take part, neither the number of rodeo contestants, but Rodeo Association officials say this will be the largest rodeo held to date.

The rodeo will have a new clown this year, Buddy Heaton of Hugoton, Kansas, one of the best men in the business, Mr. Beam said.

The Army, Air Force and Navy Recruiting services of Amarillo are furnishing the public address equipment for the occasion.

C. O. Hamman, 70, Prominent Dodson Farmer, Dies

C. O. Hamman, 70, prominent farmer of the Dodson area for many years, died unexpectedly at his home Thursday morning, August 3, of a heart attack. Mr. Hamman was stricken as he did the morning chores about his farm, and his death came as a shock to his many friends over the area.

Mr. Hamman had lived in the county 44 years.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church in Dodson Friday afternoon, with the Rev. John Woods, Rev. J. I. Herndon, pastor, and the Rev. J. M. Morrison of Spur, a former pastor, in charge.

Mr. Hamman was married May 11, 1913, to Miss Pearl Franks at Loco.

He had been a member of the Methodist Church at Dodson for the last 24 years.

Surviving Mr. Hamman are his wife, a daughter, Mrs. B. E. Warren of Dodson; two grandchildren; a brother and two sisters, B. Hamman of Arlie, Mrs. Annie Cunningham of White Deer and Mrs. J. E. Reynolds of Wellington.

Entertainment Association Formed

Old Settlers Give Plans for Reunion

Old Settlers this week announced plans for their annual reunion Friday, August 18, at LaHue Grove, three miles east of Wellington.

The pioneers will gather at the grove Friday morning, according to Dave Thomas, who is in charge. The basket dinner will be served at the noon hour and the whole day will be spent in visiting.

To plan for night entertainment, the Collingsworth County Old Settlers Entertainment Club has been formed to care for the out of county visitors and to plan for the evening meal at 7:30 o'clock and a night entertainment of some type.

The supper and entertainment will be held at the community building.

Any person wishing to have a part in the entertainment club is asked to contact Mr. Thomas.

The day at the grove will be spent in the traditional manner — visiting and renewing old friendships.

Those from the county are asked to bring well filled baskets, while those coming from outside the county are not expected to furnish their own dinner, it was pointed out.

St. Joseph's Hospital Given Full Approval

Several months ago, after a special survey by the representative of the American College of Surgeons, St. Joseph's Hospital was granted the rating of Provisional Approval, which means that the Hospital had accepted the requirements and was endeavoring to put them into effect, but that as yet they had not fully met all these requirements. Now, after six months, the American College of Surgeons, recognizing that much progress has been made, has notified St. Joseph's Hospital that they now have Full Approval. So great has been the influence of this program of Hospital Standardization that at present the number of Approved Hospitals in the United States numbers among the thousands. It is important to note, however, that of this great number, only eighteen hospitals comparable in size to St Joseph's have attained this distinction.

The American College of Surgeons recommends a departmentalization of the medical staff with the hospital giving special consideration to the various specialties as far as such classification is practicable. Division into departments fixes responsibility more definitely, stimulates scientific interest in the medical specialities, and promotes the improved administration of professional services.

Windrowing Pays Off

Alfalfa Harvest Under Way In Spite of Rain Damage to Crop

Harvesting Collingsworth County's big alfalfa seed crop is under way, after delay and serious loss due to the heavy rains that have fallen since the seed began to ripen.

Growers are finding this year two crops of seed maturing in their fields, the first now ripe to the point of shattering, and the other a few days later, now not quite fully ripe.

Because of this, farmers willing to run the risk of a lost seed crop are finding it pays them to cut the alfalfa in windrows, let it cure 24 hours or longer, then pick it up with a combine, County Agent J. W .Thomas said. The danger here, he pointed out, is that a heavy rain coming while the alfalfa is on the ground might ruin the whole seed crop.

Other growers who feel they prefer to take what they can get, are combining direct from the row.

"Lots of seed has shattered out, but we still have some fine seed yields," Mr. Thomas said.

Many fields are yielding around 100 pounds of seed while reports have come in from a few of yields reaching 200 pounds of seed after it is cleaned. Some of the higher yields are being cut by Bob Glenn, Barney Glenn and Monk Leggitt.

One thing to be said in favor of the windrowing method is that even the short period of curing will improve the germination test, Mr. Thomas pointed out.

Lots of seed with germination of not more than 75 per cent is being found in this year's crop, whereas the normal germination is above 90 per cent, and there have been tests of 100 per cent recorded in the county.

Ninety per cent germination is the minimum for alfalfa seed certification.

Although the government support price is only 18 cents per pound, Singley Mill and Elevator reported Tuesday at noon that they are paying 30 cents per pound for bright seed.

Several growers in the county have reported a buyer from Erick, Oklahoma, in the county trying to buy 100,000 pounds of seed.

Approximately 10,000 acres is planted in alfalfa in the county this year, and Mr. Thomas predicted at least 2,000 additional acres will be planted this fall.

"Farmers here are seeing more and more what alfalfa will do for their land. We have records of cotton production that has been doubled where alfalfa was grown for a few years on the land," he said.

A few farmers are already getting land ready to seed to alfalfa, although past experience in this area seems to point to the middle of September as the best time to plant.

Moisture is one requisite for starting off the alfalfa crop, and it is pointed out that seed planted now might die if August should turn off dry, and especially would this hold true in those parts of the county where the moisture goes down quickly.

Spraying Effective

Leaf Worm Infestation Heaviest in Years

Leaf worm damage to cotton is the worst it has been in recent years, and farmers in all parts of the county are spraying with poison mixtures, J. W. Thomas, county agent, said this week. A few boll worms are also found in the cotton, he added.

Tom Kane of the Kane Flying Service, who is equipped for crop spraying, said that the infestation appeared to be over all parts of the county although it is heavier in spots.

Unable to handle the business of local cotton farmers, Mr. Kane brought in an extra pilot and plane from Lubbock to assist him through the peak of the business.

Many farmers are using commercial sprayers on their tractors or are rigging up home made sprayers.

Toxaphene or chlordane is being used, and so far as can be determined by Mr. Thomas and Mr. Kane, it is proving effective here.

Mr. Thomas said that some farmers are finding one application enough, others are having to use two, depending on various factors including the weather.

Mr. Kane reported that the only repeat spraying he has done has been on fields sprayed early, where a second crop of worms has come on.

NORWOOD STUDENTS TO GET DRIVER TRAINING COURSE

Driver's training was added as a new course at Samnorwood this year for the first time. Orville Cunningham, superintendent of schools, said, "The gradual but ever increasing casualty list makes it imperative for the school to do their share in helping to make better and safer drivers and realizing that this necessity did exist in our school, Winston Connors, grade school principal, said that he would go to school this summer and qualify himself to teach an accredited course in Driver Training. This is a text book course plus actual practice of driving where each student has to drive eight hours under the supervision of the instructor."

A motor company of Shamrock will loan a new Dodge car to the school and he will replace it at the end of four and one-half months with another new car. The actual cost to the school for equipment will be $16.50 for dual controls for the instructor.

Mr. Connors has told some interesting things in relation to the course which he has taken and he seems equally enthused about teaching the course and the possibility of its results."

"Samnorwood is indeed fortunate in being able to offer this course at this time since very few schools in this part of the state have been able to offer it to date," Mr. Cunningham said.

Collingsworth Again Celebrates

Wellington welcomes the lower Panhandle and western Oklahoma to four big days of celebration, beginning Aug. 15, and closing the evening of the 18th.

It's the one big event of the year for the county and town. It's fun for everyone who likes a good fast rodeo performance. And finally, it is a special time for all those who helped to settle and build Collingsworth County, who will have the final day of the celebration as their own.

This big event is well advertised over the area. Caravaneers going out two days saw to that.

Wellington is becoming widely known for the good rodeo it puts on—a rodeo that lives up to its slogan of "not the biggest, but the fastest amateur rodeo in the Panhandle." From the time the first flag in the parade comes by, till the last old settler says good bye and leaves for home, it will be a fine celebration.

Recognition is due the business men who are back of the rodeo. They have worked hard, and it is only by their work and co-operation that the big event if possible. While they plan it for good clean entertainment, they are at the same time giving Wellington and Collingsworth some of the best advertising it could get. It's the sort of advertising money doesn't buy.

Wellington will be gaily decorated, and those who are in charge are urging business houses to dress up their windows for the occasion. Since many of these guests will be in town only at night, why should merchants not keep their display windows lighted—to show off the town, to show off their own good merchandise. It is of a quality not to be surpassed in a town of this size in this area.

It will be a time, too, to show these visitors that we are a friendly town—a town that's really glad to have you come to see us.

Wellington welcomes all these visitors—those coming to see the rodeo the first three nights, and on the final day, the men and women who come far and near to visit with their old friends and neighbors.

For Our Protection

The Wellington Chamber of Commerce for some time has been trying to discourage peddlers and solicitors of doubtful reputation from presenting their wares and their causes in Wellington.

During the past week, all boxholders in the city and on the routes out of Wellington have received cards from the C-C "Absolutely NO contributions to solicitors or purchases from Salesmen unless approved by the Wellington Chamber of Commerce." Many housewives are finding what the merchants found, that it discourages many itinerant solicitors from even stopping, and when one does stop, it is a much easier matter to get rid of him if one of the little cards is displayed in a window.

The cards do this much. The rest is up to the people who are solicited. Shoddy goods will be sold by fly-by-night salesmen in Wellington just as long as Wellington people will buy it. Wellington money will go out of the county to support questionable enterprises just as long as we contribute it. The only sure way to stop this sort of thing is for us to stop buying and giving. These solicitors and salesmen will not come here when they find there is no market for what they have to of-

The Chamber of Commerce is not trying to discourage legitimate salesmen and solicitors. Naturally, it would prefer for Wellington people to buy from home-town merchants, but it also recognizes the fact that there are many traveling representatives of reputable firms and organizations who call here regularly. Their merchandise and cause are as represented. As carefully as it can, the Chamber of Commerce screens all salesmen and solicitors but that organization cannot do the whole job. In the main, it is up to us individually as to whether we are going to encourage people to come in and give us a skinning.

Careless Driving

As a porch-sitter I have developed another pet peeve which amounts almost to a phobia. No matter how crowded the streets are with motorists and pedestrians, there are always a few hot rods who don't seem to give a darn about the other fellow. They try to see how fast they can go when there is need for every precaution. It would be just too bad if they were to kill or maim for life some child. In case emergency arises for quick stopping, these would-be smart-aleck drivers would be found wanting. Too late, then, to feel sorry.

While on the subject of careless driving, I am convinced that our state should have a law requiring each purchaser of car license must have liability insurance. Several other states have such a law. Most car accidents and maimed or killed persons from such accidents are caused by carelessness or recklessness of irresponsible drivers who are not able to pay for damage to the other car involved, and in many cases, the car driven by such person is practically a wreck before it hits the other car.

Du Pont's Fee

The great hydrogen-bomb plant which the United States is to construct will be built by E. I. Du Pont de Nemour & Co. on a cost-plus basis. The government will pay all costs of construction plus a fee.

You can now take time out for denouncing the capitalistic corporation for its greed in extracting profit from such an enterprise. If you run out of denunciation, the New York Daily Worker and other "liberals" can supply you.

But the fee, is is interesting to note, is $1. For building and operating the big plutonium plant at Hansford, Wash., during the war, Du Pont took a fee of exactly $1. The price on the new job will be the same.

Weather Comment

The sun shone for a time Wednesday, the first time this has happened in several weeks now. There's a new July rainfall record in the books and a rumor out that future rodeos are taboo. The reason, every time a rodeo is planned the rains start. For the past two years rains have drowned out at least a part of the show and you know what has happened here ever since the boys started planing this year's rodeo.

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note: The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Buck Creek has found out about the Korean war, his letter this week reveals. It just shows how far behind a person can get when he depends on chance to turn up his newspapers for him.

Dear editar:

I been through two wars already without rushin into town and subscribin to a newspaper, not to mention buyin up sheets and pillow cases and shirts and nylon hose and sugar and pepper and automobile tires, and I figure I can get through the present one the same way, consequently I am frank to say I was a little late findin out this Korean conflict had started, but yesterday afternoon I found a stack of newspapers a couple of weeks old which the wind has blown against some weeds which had been blown against a fence earlier, maybe last year for all I know, and I took them home and read up on the war.

As I now understand it, the Russians are claimin the North Korean Reds, with plenty of tanks and guns and warplanes, was first attacked by the South Korean democrats, who didn't have a tank to their name and 60 aviators but no planes.

I know exactly how it was. My neighbor's pasture is always attackin my cows.

Many's the time my neighbor has come over and accused my cows of breakin in his pasture, but he's so thick-headed he can't understand this modern world. It's his pasture that's clearly to blame. You don't see no cows breakin in my pasture. If he'd keep his in the shape I keep mine, he wouldn't be bothered with my cows. If there ain't no better pickins across the fence than there is at home, very few cows will take the trouble of leavin home.

Now this may not make any sense to you, in which case you clearly ain't got no international mind.

However, since I found out about this new war, I been keepin up with it prett close and I ain't very excited. It's gonna take time, it always does, but Stalin ain't the only dictator who win a lot of quick victories at the start. I can think of two in the last ten years, but you don't hear much of them these days. One got strung up by the heels, the other took poison.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

BIBLE COMMENT
FOR AUG. 13

Paul Was a Model of Tolerance

Said Paul, hundreds of years ago, "I do not frustrate the grace of God."

If countless thousands of Americans could repeat those same words today in utter sincerity, the growing problem of anti-semitism would be non-existent.

Paul knew that prejudices die hard and that the finest of faiths can become warped by bigoted perspective. And so, when well-intentioned early Christians sought to impose their beliefs on others, he took a strong and uncompromising stand.

He pointed out that the law of God can never be perfectly fulfilled; he asserted that faith is "the end of the law for everyone that believeth." Apart from this wise observation, he did not try to persuade Jewish Christians to abandon Jewish rites.

Many who turned to the fellowship of the Christian church still observed requirements of the Jewish law. But because the power of the Gospel was manifest in them, Paul resisted the temptation to criticize them for clinging to parts of their religious heritage.

Some of the disciples,, however, were unbending. They rebuked young mothers who brought their children, versed in Jewish rituals, to the temple for the blessing of Jesus. The bible tells that Jesus was "much displeased" at those who condemned rites, observances and rituals foreign to their own belief.

The grace of God, which is compassionate and understanding, is not compatible with prejudice.

Paul knew this and observed an attitude of tolerance and common sense in two ways. He regarded the rights and liberties of his fellow Jewish Christians and simultaneously upheld the rights and liberties of the gentile converts.

Paul might well serve as a warning to those who frustrate the grace of God with narrow, spiteful prejudices.

Looking Ahead With George S. Benson

A CHURCH SPEAKS OUT

Eighty-seven years ago Abraham Lincoln made the wise observation, "Let the people know the facts and the country will be saved." In any country whose pattern of life is created by the people themselves—as is our own—Lincoln's statement can be translated into action. In other words, a country endangered can be saved by the intelligent action of an informed people. But getting the facts to the people and having them accepted as a basis for action has become progressively more difficult through the years.

There are some notable reasons for this. The Communists' barrage of propaganda falsehoods hasn't converted many Americans to the hammer and sickle banner but it has served to confuse facts with falsehoods. The avowed American Socialists, with their frankly presented collectivist theory of government ownership and operation of production and distribution facilities, haven't got far in recruiting party members. But by using half-truths, emotional appeal and personal charm, their spell-binders have invaded many immature minds, especially among the young.

MATERIALISM IS POWERFUL

A third collectivist movement which has been at work in the arena of American political thought for about 15 years has done the most damage. In some quarters it has succeeded in creating actual hostility toward facts, a militant refusal to accept the truth. Its leaders are the economic "planners," or more correctly described as "disguised Socialists." They are working for bit by bit transformation of our government and way of life. Their brand of disguised Socialism—like every other brand—requires a big, all-powerful government and regimentation of the people.

They are trying to persuade us that in exchange for various material benefits from the government—such as subsidies, money grants and special privilege (all at taxpayers' expense) — we should not hesitate to give up a little bit of freedom here and there. This is the same materialism, basically, that motivates Communism and Socialism. Make no mistake, it is powerful! It clashes head-on with the spiritual values in Christianity, yet it has won enough naked physical force, in Russia and her satellites, to have already conquered and enslaved a third of the world's population.

HISTORIC FACTS

One reason why it has been slowed down in America is the inescapable fact of our unmatched living standard, created not by government but by a free, self-reliant people. Another reason is the Christian origin of America: our founding fathers held spiritual freedom above material well-being; and General Washington's men at Valley Forge starved, bled and died so that we, their beneficiaries would not be regimented by government.

The religious people of America form a powerful bulwark against the political materialism which promises benefits for votes and then creates a government that first regiments and ultimately enslaves the people. Church people generally are aware of the menace — when they stop to think — but public recognition of it by a large nation-wide denomination strikes a telling blow. It is heartening, therefore, to read the recent pronouncement of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (North) entitled "Collectivism in American Life." It state in part:

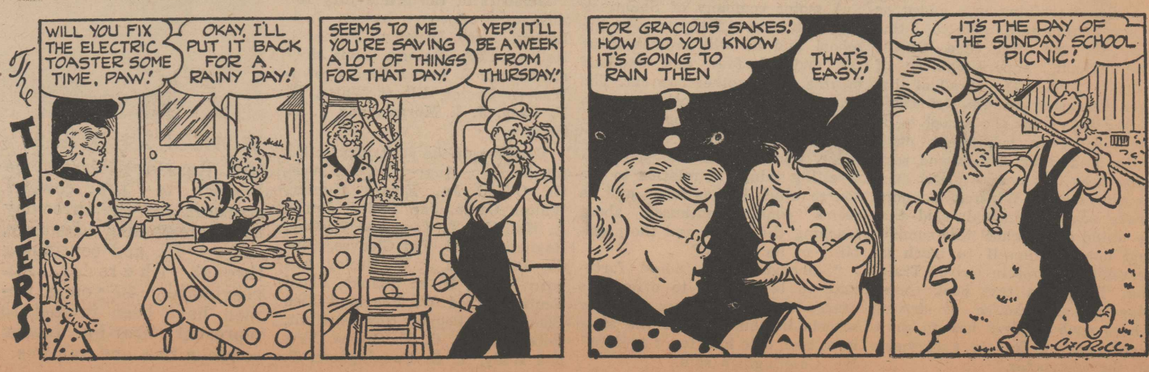

A WARNING

"This Assembly opposes any form of government or any exercise of governmental power which regiments its citizens and robs them of their inalienable rights as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States." It charged its members to be "ever alert to the method by which proponents of such a philosophy of government or use of governmental power seek to attain their ends."

The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly also condemned advocates of "policies tending toward political socialism . . . and contrary to our time-honored principles of free enterprise" and disassociated itself with any such advocates. These public pronouncements by a church with nation-wide prestige vastly aid the cause of freedom. They recognize facts and hold up those facts for all to see. Other religious bodies wishing to do something of this nature for their country and the freedom of their Faith might well find an example here.

Lord Jim Says--

By Bill Hughes

"You humans!"

"When constituted congressional authority disagrees with the President, they are obstructionists — all that is left of the checks and balance system inaugurated by your ancestors to protect democratic government from autocratic power. When Congress thinks and moves ahead of the administration, the credit, so they say, belongs to the President because he planned it that way."

"It is obvious even to us dogs that the world has reached a climactic crisis, that the chance of mankind to remain free to say nothing of surviving is held in the balance. Yet still your Big Brass goes merrily along fiddling with politics for sake of party and self above country. They go on playing for personal power, playing to perpetuate themselves in office at the expense of life, liberty and pursuit of happiness. And you just go on 'lettin em do er'."

"You get angry at the obvious brazen lying utterly unreasonable clamorings of the Russian Malik. Yet, you tolerate an administration that has long been and is continually guilty of the same "upside down Alice in Wonderland technique"."

"After four years spending of 134 billion dollars (more than the total spent by all previous administrations put together — including Roosevelts) which is the total earnings of your nation plus more borrowed on credit from future earnings of future generations, you have been given only a temporary prosperity built on quicksand. Now to keep that prosperity bubble from shattering, you must have controls, controls now — not later after the November elections. Furthermore in spite of the billions spent for armed security you are not only not prepared to protect yourselves at home, but you are vulnerable on any and every front which the 13 men of Russia wish to move on; and they can move by use of hoards of prepared Satellite forces without even involving their own."

"Worst of all Civilian Defense is not only not organized, but not ready nor educated enough to prepare you to protect yourselves against the A and H Bomb."

"134 billion dollars in four years! and what have you got? Four good years behind you, yes; but ahead, after four good years, you face an increased National Debt and all out controls. You face the task of re-arming. You are at War. All of this is the reality behind the administrations talk of adequate preparedness, of brighter hopes for peace and their promises of Security."

"Still your so-called leaders for selfish purpose egotistically go on passing the buck, quibbling, squabbling for political reasons while American lives are lost fighting ill-armed against terrific odds in not so far off Korea."

"Oh God, we dogs are only dumb animals, but we understand Your Will and are honest with and true to man. Why cannot men understand, appreciate and use Thine Higher gift to them of their brain and as humbly seek Your Hearth as we do theirs? Oh God, as we forgive them, please forgive them, too; and help them because we cannot; and what befalls them must befall us also. Amen."

Norwood School Enrolls 330 As Term Opens

Samnorwood Rural High School opened its 1950-51 school year on Monday, August 7th, with an overall enrollment of 330. At a general assembly of enthusiastic patrons and students, Willard Ethridge, high school principal, introduced the faculty and Winston Connors, grade school principal, made a few remarks regarding the Driver Training Course to be offered.

In his address to the assembly, Mr. Cunningham, Superintendent of Schools, stated that plans should not be hampered by clouds of war and that the threats of such should be an inducement to the average American to plan more and do more to make the existence of our democracy everlasting and that students should continue their plans for the next four years so that they could get more education than they had planned six weeks ago.

Mr. Cunningham also mentioned some of the results of work done in college last year by former students of Samnorwood school. Two have been selected in "Whose Who in American Colleges," one selected on "All American Girl's Basketball Team." All students in college made passing grades and better than half of the students enrolled in college made the honor roll. One freshman was recognized for his high academic record by being allowed to become a member of Phi Eta Sigma and it is known that only about 2 per cent of all freshmen in Texas Tech are able to make this honor society.

Benton Receives First Aid Award

ESSLINGEN, Germany — American Red Cross European Headquarters reported today that Private Clyde T. Benton of Rt. 6, Wellington, Texas, has been awarded the Standard First Aid Certificate upon completion of an Army-sponsored course in accident prevention and first aid.

Accidents in Europe are costing American taxpayers over a half-million dollars monthly, according to military sources. The Red Cross was asked to help reduce these figures by setting up educational safety courses for service personnel.

Pvt. Benton, who is with the 11th Field Hospital at Stuttgart, Germany, was chosen for the safety school by his Commanding Officer. He was given instruction in both the prevention of accidents and the proper first aid care of accident victims.

The Red Cross safety program has met with widespread approval by Army and Air Force authorities in Germany, England, and Austria.

Walter Rogers Offers to Withdraw If Lobbying Found

An offer to withdraw from the congressional race if any lobbying activity by him for "big oil and gas companies" can be proved was voiced by Candidate Walter Rogers of Pampa last week in a radio address in which he outlined his background.

"If anyone can prove that I was ever on a retainer with any big oil and gas company, pipe line company, insurance corporation or any other big corporation, I'll withdraw; and if they can't prove it, I'll expect them to withdraw their candidate," Rogers said in answer to those who have spread the lobbying rumor.

As for himself Rogers said, "you don't have to go to Washington to find out about me. I've been living right here in the Panhandle for 15 years, in the same town, and I've lived on the same street and in the same house for the last 12 years."

Rogers outlined his boyhood as a farm hand and store clerk and as a young law student working his way through the University of Texas law school.

"I learned about farm problems by working on a farm and not by sitting in a swivel chair reading a book written by some bureaucrat. I went to law school in 1930 with $10 in my pocket and the notion in my head that I was going through law school. I am glad to report that the notion lasted a great deal longer than the money."

Rogers repeated his demand first made before the special election last spring that communists be removed from the public payroll and for the election of a congressman who had the knowledge that comes only by living in the district with the people he is elected to represent.

NORWOOD FACULTY NAMED; PLANS FOR YEAR OUTLINED

The fall term of the Samnorwood school opened Monday, August 7, with Orville Cunningham as superintendent. In an interview with Mr. Cunningham, he listed the complete faculty as follows:

Willard Ethridge, high school principal; Winston Connors, grade school principal; Purl Tippie, coach; O. L. Christie, vocational agriculture; Mrs. D. R. Holt, English; Miss Margeritte Light, home economics; Mrs. Selba Rainey, commerce; W. W. Tipton, social science; G. N. Mounger, 8th grade; Mrs. G. N. Mounger, 7th grade; C. R. Holt, 6th grade; Mrs. Charlie Hill, 5th grade; Mrs. Purl Tippie, 4th grade; Mrs. Edith Conner, 3rd grade; Mrs. Maude Brown, 2nd grade; and Miss Maudie Coffee, primary teacher. There has been no music teacher selected for the school.

Mr. Tipton is a social scince major from McMurry college at Abilene, having entered there after receiving his discharge from the Navy. His wife and small son will live with him at Norwood.

The redecoration of the school is under way now, and will be completed when the school dismisses for the fall harvest. All the desks have been sanded, stained, and varnished. Part of the floors have received the same treatment. The walls have been painted.

C. R. Overcast, who has been custodian of the grounds all summer, will continue to care for the building.

Bus drivers are Mr. Tippie, Burl Gulley, E. G. N. Smith, Glen Moody, Mrs. James Murray, Mrs. Roy Parnell, and L. V. Young. There have been some slight changes in the bus routes.

The cafeteria has added an eight cubic foot deep freeze to its supply of fixtures. Cooks this year will be Mrs. Billingsley, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. E. N. Smith, and Mrs. Charlie Bradley.

The visual aid program will be stressed in the entire system. A picture will summarize each semester's work. The students enjoy these pictures, as well as refreshing their memory on the recent work.

The teachers, working in connection with the students, plan to build a Student-Teacher Lounge. This will be used for entertainment.

Mrs. Betty Welch of Wellington is the special service teacher, rendering aid to students who need extra help, or going to their homes when they are sick. When she is not working in the field, she is busy at the school house.

Mrs. Rainey is Dean of Women, and gives aid and advise to the girls, while Mr. Cunningham and Mr. Ethridge give counsel to the boys.

A check is made of all the students every six weeks to see if any thing can be done to help them with their studies, or in any other way possible.

"We are planning a good year, and our enrollment has been larger this year than ever before. We want the parents of the children to feel free to visit the school at any time, and discuss with us any problems their children might have," Mr. Cunningham concluded.

Hester to Teach At Amherst

Charles Hester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vera Hester of Wellington, has recently returned from coaching school in Austin.

Mr. Hester has accepted a position as assistant coach at Amherst, Texas, for the coming year.

Mr. Hester received his high school education here, and has recently received his degree from West Texas State College at Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hester and small son have been living in Borger, but will move to Amherst some time in August.

Mrs. Tiffin Young At Census School

Mrs. Tiffin Young, Sr., was in Lubbock from July 25 to August 2 taking a course in connection with the survey of residential financing.

This is another form of census to be taken.

Only 12 counties in the two congressional districts, the 18th and 19th, will be used in the survey.

Mrs. Young was head of the census board in Wellington during the recent census. Since this new work will not include Collingsworth County, however, she will work in Childress and Hall counties.

Revival Service At Methodist Church Progresses

The revival service at the First Methodist Church is making splendid progress, with increased attendance each day, Dr. Frank L. Turner, evangelist, reported today.

"Through Monday night, there had been 10 conversions and additions to the church, with many more signifying their intention to joining before the meeting is over," Dr. Turner said.

Thursday night has been designated as Men's Night, with the men of the church sponsoring the service. An all-men's choir will be heard at that time.

Friday night is Veteran's Night. This is a patriotic service, dedicated to the men who have lost their lives in three wars. All veterans and their families are urged to be present.

The revival will close Sunday night.

Dr. Turner is in charge of the preaching, while the song services are conducted by his son, Frank L. Turner Jr., director of Methodist student work at Tarleton State College.

The Rev. L. L. Hill, pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to all persons of the town, regardless of denomination to attend the services. "We need your presence and we believe these services will help you," he said.

Harry Tredway is a medical patient in St. Joseph's Hospital this week.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

YOU can see this man has made his mark in life, and while his heart's still young.

You can tell he likes action for his money—that he knows a fine car needn't be the most expensive to give the greatest value.

Yes, such are the things you know of any man, when you note that his car is a ROADMASTER.

Follow him on his spirited way as he pilots this lively motorcar through traffic. Even the lightweights are no match for this road-steady husky—not with the 152-horsepower straight-eight Fireball engine that purrs beneath its bonnet.

Maneuver beside him at the next stop light. Then just try to get away as smoothly, swiftly and silently as Dynaflow Drive gets his ROADMASTER going—and keeps it rolling without shifting, even automatically.

But don't waste time merely envying the man in this great car! Why not emulate him?

With all its outsize room, interior luxury and exterior grace—with all its front-rank prestige, rare performance and matchless ride—a ROADMASTER can be yours for less than some smaller cars cost.

In fact, even if you had a fortune to spend, you couldn't make a more fortunate buy in the fine-car field.

So we suggest you try a few minutes behind the wheel. We're confident they will convince you that ROADMASTER has everything you could ever ask for in any motorcar—although your Buick dealer asks a good bit less for ROADMASTER than you might pay for other top-line cars.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

SAMNORWOOD

By MRS. C. W. FRITTS

Neighbors met at the John Morgan home four miles north of Samnorwood Monday, with tractors, one-ways, cultivators, and hoes, and worked out his crop.

Mr. Morgan has been ill since last August. He has undergone two operations since December, and left last week to return to the Mayo Brother's Clinic at Rochester, Minnesoto. His son, J. M. Morgan, is with him.

Those who brought or sent tractors were T. C. Cheatwood, G. H. Henderson, Gerald Thompson, Tom Cunningham, Bill Knoll, Orville Cunningham, Robert Baxter, Alfred Knoll, Cortez Barnett, Stanley Whitson, A. F. Wischkaemper, Sam Seago, Preston Phillips, Mrs. Tipps is taking care of the post office during Mrs. Carrell's absence.

The area around us received over two inches of rain from Sunday through Monday nights, the rain being heavier north of Norwood than south. The fields were already too wet to plow, but the hoe hands are working right on through the muddy places.

The worms have begun to damage the cotton here, and some of the farmers have sprayed for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fritts visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Fritts, in Amarillo, Monday and Tuesday. They also visited Oscar Fritts, who has undergone an operation.

School will start here Monday, August 7. Teachers who live here are getting things ready at the school building.

MISS "UNTITLED MISS"

Nowadays, when there's a title born every minute for bestowal upon some shapely beach blonde, it seems downright impossible that lovely Betty Tunell of Miami, Fla., hasn't been singled out as "Queen of the Headless Lettuce Growers' Convention," or "Miss Mesopotamia of 1950 And so to her goes our vote for "The Untitled Miss We'd Like Most to Title."

Colemans Attend POW Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman and son, Spencer, and nieces, Lois and Joyce Amerson of Abra, returned a short time ago from San Antonio, where they attended the Texas Prisoner of War Reunion.

One of the chief speakers at this meeting was General Lutes, Commander of the Fourth Army, with Headquarters at San Antonio

General Lutes told the former prisoners of war that he felt the current communist situation would go on for a good while, and might not necessarily be confined to Korea. They might, he believes, break out in Indo-China, or other points, but the general told the group that he did not expect Russia to enter the war.

St. Joseph's -

At present, St. Joseph's Hospital has departments of surgery, medicine, obstetrics and gynecology, opthalmology and otolaryngology (eye, ear, nose, and throat), and dental surgery. Dr. E.W. Jones is the acting Chief of Staff; Dr. D. V. Watkins is head of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology Dr. E. K. Jones is head of the Department of Internal Medicine; Dr. Tom R. Hunter is head of the Department of Surgery; Dr. C. B. Opthalmology and Otolaryngology; and Dr. J. M. Orr is head of the Jones is head of the dpartmnt of Department of Dental Surgery. Dr. C● S. Hatchett, Amarillo is visiting Radiologist of the Hospial and makes regular monthly visits for consulations and examinations.

St. Joseph's Hospital operates as an "open staff hospital" which means that any Doctor of Medicine who meets the requirements set by the American College of Surgeons and upholds the standards set by the hospital is permitted to practice in the hospital. This factor protects the public from unethical and unscrupulous practioners of the healing arts. Besides the "active staff" composed of the above namd physicians the Hospital also has a "consulting staff" of Specialists in all fields from nearby cities.

The Hospital Standardization movement was inaugurated in 1918 by the American College of Surgeons to encourage hospitals to apply certain fundamental principles in order to promote better hospitalization. It's theme from the very beginning has been the improved and proper care of the patient. Standardization requires that each hospital which qualifies for approval shall have an organized, competent and ethical medical staff; that the staffhold regular conferences for review of the clinical work; that accurate and complete medical records shall be written for all patients; and that adequate diagnostic and therapeutic facilities, including a clinical laboratory and X-ray department shall be provided. This involves facilities, personnel, and procedures predicated upon efficient organization, progressive management and competent personnel, imbued with a scientific and humanitarian spirit.

To meet these requirements the hospital personnel and the doctors of the staff must give of their time and efforts to maintain better treatment to the patient, to keep adequate clinical records, and to attend prescribed staff meetings. It is frequently asked, "Why do the doctors, the nurses, and the hospital administration perform these extra duties when there is no personal gain to be had by them?" "What are the advantages in having o hospital on the approved list?" A few of these advantages may be briefly mentioned:

1. To the patient. The patient is assured efficient care through better medical staff organization, competent personnel and adequate facilities. The writing of medical records, the examiniation and study of pathological specimens, the regular review and analysis of the clinical work, and many other procedures of detail and precision assure a more accurate diagnosis and efficient treatment for the patient. All this means speeding up treatment through shortening the days' stay in the hospital, reducing compications, and what is more important, owering the mortality rate. This is desirable for the patient's future comfort and health and is beneficial as well to his economic status.

2. To the physician. The approved hospital provides the physician with a proper environment in which to work. He has not only the necessary facilities at hisd isposal, but also a well trained staff to assist him. Through recording the history of his patient proper use of the diagnostic and therapeutic facilities, the medical staff conference, and other features made available in the approved hospital, the physician is able to give better care to his patient, and, in addition, because of organized and systematized efforts, he is constantly improving his armamentarium of scientific knowledge. And, finally, his own professional status is improved by being a member of the medical staff of an approved hospital.

3. To the hospital. The hospital finds it an advantage administratively, socially, and economically to be a standardized institution. Standardization means a more complete and efficiently functioning organization as a whole. The Minimum Standard provides the hospital with fundamental principles pertaining to the best plan for assuring good professional care to patients. The carrying out of these principles gives better assurance that the administration is functioning in a manner which best fulfills its purpose.

4. To the nurse. The approved hospital, because of its organization, equipment, and personnel, affords the nurse better supervised experience. Further, it is essentia tha tsuch experience be obtained in approved hospitas in order to facilitate registration in most states. To this end, it is now customary for nurses to seek information as to which hospitals are approved.

5. To the community. In most instances, the community is directly or indirectly interested in its hospitals. Indeed, every community should have a certain amount of pride in its institutions caring for the sick. The fact that they are living up to universally acknowledged and accepted standards of professional organization and service should be a source of confidence and pride to the community. Indeed, many people requiring hospitalization today seek the approved hospital knowing that it is organized so as to give adequate care and efficient service to the sick and injured.

CHAMPION QUARTERHORSE AND HIS OWNER

Featured in the July issue of Quarterhorse Journal is Joe Reed Clay, champion quarterhorse, shown here with his owner, Guy Clay of Wellington. Joe Reed Clay was named best of class and grand champion of the show at the, Sayre, Oklahoma, Quarterhorse show earlier in the summer. Mr. Clay has been breeding fine quarterhorses for a number of years.

Silver Trophy

Wide Publicity Given Championship Clay Horse

Joe Reed Clay, grand champion quarterhorse, bred and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clay of Wellington, is featured in the July issue of the American Quarterhorse Journal, and will through it gain recognition in the 48 states and 11 foreign countries to which that magazine goes — even to distant Australia.

Regarded by fanciers as one of the best stallions of the breed, Joe Reed Clay was judged the best of his class at the Quarterhorse Show at Sayre, Oklahoma, then went on to be named the grand champion of the show by Judge Art Penhall of Clinton, Oklahoma, official Quarterhorse judge.

The latter honor brought his owner a handsome silver quarterhorse as a trophy, awarded by the American Quarterhorse Association.

Joe Reed Clay, P-19053, is by Joe Reed P-3 out of Dollie Clay, P-3685, by the Captain.

He is one of a group of famous quarterhorses owned or bred by Mr. and Mrs. Clay, and including Rena Clay, and her son, Jimmie Reed, now standing at stud in California, and Dolly Clay.

Mr. Clay owns twelve of these fine quarterhorses, most of which he keeps on pasture of his son-in-law, J. W. Kromer, near Madge.

Asked how long he has raised quarterhorses, Mr. Clay laughs and says, "Always."

He has raised them long enough that he is recognized by breeders and owners of rodeo horses over a wide area, and stock bred by him has been sold to California, Kansas, Nebraska, and points in Texas and Oklahoma.

The Judge's Big Fish Gets Away

County Judge R. L. Templeton is telling a new version of the big fish that got away.

The judge caught a twenty and one half inch mountain trout, weighing almost four pounds, while fishing near Antonito, Colo., on the Conejos River. First he took it to a camp seven miles away, then on to Alamosa, Colo., almost a hundred miles, to put on ice and made arrangements with the locker plant to pick it up Thursday August 3. That was one fish he wanted to show his friends.

Thursday Judge Templeton and his group stopped to pick up the fish, but the big sign on the locker plant door read: "CLOSED: Alamosa Day at the Monte Vista Sky-High Rodeo." Phone calls to the owner's family and employees were useless.

The fish remained in the Locker plant, and now Judge Templeton is inquiring of all his fishing friends,

"Are you coming through Alamosa, Colorado, any time soon?"

There is one proof of catch. Judge Templeton has a picture of himself holding the fish.

"If I don't find someone to bring it to me—and that's the only way I can get it home, I'm going to leave it up there till next year, he said.

Members of his party were his wife and son, Pat Neff, his sister-in-law, Miss Billye Tenison and Billy Agee.

Mrs. Marvin Elcler of Dallas was here last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Carl Stout.

The school has purchased a visual aid machine, a 16 mm. projector, a 35 mm. film strip machine, and $100 worth of film. This program will be stressed in the grade school, and will be used some in the high school. This is a new program, highly recommended by the State Board of Education.

Plans for indoor rest rooms are complete, and work will begin on this project next week. One of the government barracks on the school yard is being converted into a garage to house the school buses, and word on this project has already begun, and will be completed in a few weeks.

"Our school will be better this year than it has been in several years. We will continue school until the crops have opened sufficiently for the parents to need their children to help with the harvesting. We will dismiss as usual," Mr. Lennon concluded.

Dorsie Pollock is in Ada, Oklahoma, this week where he will undergo an eye operation.

Small Boys Take Car Keys as Prank

Two small boys who took keys from a number of cars parked at three garages and a service station Monday afternoon, August 7, admitted their prank to Sheriff Claude McKinney, who picked them up within a few hours after the incident was first reported.

The boys took Sheriff McKinney, Deputy Lake Black and Police Chief France Holley to three mud puddles where they had removed the keys from the rings and thrown them, one by one, into the mud.

Sheriff McKinney sent the boys into the mud holes to retrieve as many keys as they could find with their hand, and they worked until nearly dark. The puddles were also dragged.

There are a number of keys still in the Sheriff's office, and owners who have not claimed theirs, may get them by contacting Mr. McKinney or Mr. Black.

The cars were parked at Kendrick Oldsmobile Co., Holton Auto Store, L. E. Ward Used Car Lot and Clark Chevrolet, and since most of these had been left for servicing or repairs, the keys were in them so that mechanics and attendants might move them about. In a number of instances the key rings included not only car keys, but keys to post office boxes, homes, offices and other keys.

Mrs. Paschall Candidate for Smile Queen

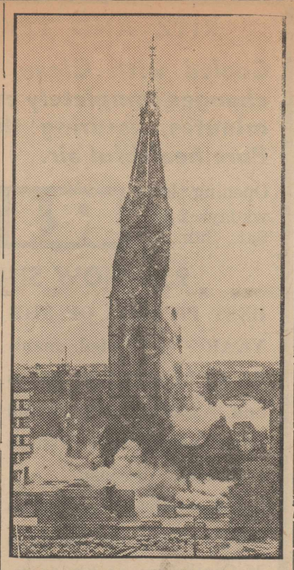

AMARILLO — Miss Smile of 1950 will be chosen in Amarillo Friday night, August 18, from a host of beautiful girls of the area, according to Pat Flynn, "The Mad Irishman" of Radio Station KLYN. The contest closed midnight August 1, and on "Coronation Night" the public will have the opportunity to compare its judging ability with that of the official judges to choose the girl with the most typical West Texas smile. The girls will be introduced first on the Paramount Theatre stage and later, each girl and her escort will be honor guests at The Nat where the winner will be announced and where she will be presented a host of valuable awards given by many Amarillo business firms. KLYN will broadcast the ceremonies both from the theatre stage and from The Nat.

Mrs. Alma Jean Paschall is the Wellington entrant.

The Mad Irishman — Flynn — said he was amazed at the interest shown in a contest which didn't require bathing suits or evening gowns. "I still contend the prettiest smiles this side of Heaven are found right here in West Texas," the Mad Mick added, and "I predict Carrington and the judges are going to find it hard to select the winner. Each girl's picture is a potential winner."

Harold K. Carrington, ace newsreel and Television cameraman, will photograph the ceremonies and winner. "Miss Smile's" picture will be released nation-wide, Carrington said and asked that Henry Hertner, Amarillo, Elmer Patterson, Hereford, and Amarillo news photographers assist him in the judging.

The only consideration to be given in selecting "Miss Smile" is the smile of each contestant. The ceremony is strictly informal, although many of the contestants who possess talent for entertainment will be featured on the broadcasts. Talent, said Flynn, doesn't count one iota . . . "Just a bonus of fun for the public."

TOWER TUMBLES

In Germany's Soviet sector, Communist authorities ordered the famous Georgen Church destroyed, charging that the historic tower was near collapse. Days later, sticks of TNT beneath the church were detonated by the Reds. The resulting explosion muffled the protests of irate Evangelical clergymen, and their beloved bell towertoppled to the ground.

Twirlers Home From Band School

The McMurry Summer Band School opened July 24 with five Wellington High School students enrolled. These were Shirley Agee, Jannine Crawford, Tanya Smith, Betty Wood, and Jennie Scott, all of which were taking twirling.

The schedule for this group consisted of five hours of organized practice, two hours in the morning and three in the afternoon, and individual practice. One hour in the afternoon was spent in the flag twirling class.

The twirling instructor, Miss Rebecca O'Bannon of Tyler, Texas, was head drum major at Huntsville during her four years of college education; and has appeared twice in Madison Square Garden in New York City. Miss O'Bannon teaches at different band clinics over the state during the summer, but during the school year she teaches physical education in the Tyler schools, and supervises a drill corps, which consists of more than three hundred girls.

The school was concluded on the night of August 4 with a public performance. The program opened with several musical selections played by the 'B' band and this was followed by a few numbers played by the 'A' band. After the bands played, ensembles from towns all over Texas twirled, after which the more advanced twirlers presented solos. Helen Starr of Loveland, Texas, presented a solo routine twirling a fire baton that was burning on both ends. The program was concluded with a flag twirling ensemble. After this routine was finished, the group stood at attention with the red and white flags while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner."

August . . . the hottest month! What is your kitchen like? A steaming bake-oven with an old-fashioned cooking stove? Or is it a pleasant, cool room . . . with an electric range? With an electric range there's no open flame to build up kitchen temperatures. Surface units have controlled heat that goes directly into the cooking utensils and the food—ovens are heavily insulated on all six sides . . . keeping the heat inside where it belongs; where it cooks the food, not the cook. Housewives everywhere say —"For cool cooking comfort, Buy Electric!"

- It's Fast! Electric "speed-units" now cook faster than any other method!
- It's Automatic! Electric cooking's automatic features save you time, labor and money!
- It's Safe! No matches, no flame, no fumes to bring hazards into your kitchen!
- It's Healthful! Foods cooked electrically retain the garden-fresh flavor and food values which are often lost when cooked by old-fashioned flame methods.
- Its' Economical! Low-Cost electric rates and faster cooking bring operating costs way down.
- It's Labor Saving! Automatic features save you work; free you from much kitchen drudgery.
- It's Modern! Once you cook electrically, you'll wonder why you stayed so long with horse-and-buggy methods as old-fashioned as flame lamps.
- It's Convenient! Designed for modern kitchens, the special features of Electric Ranges mean extra conveniences for you!
- It's Clean! There is no smoke, soot, or dangerous fumes to mar your kitchen.

It's the Best! See Your Electric Range Dealer now!

A wedding of interest here was that of Miss LaVerne Orr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Orr of Plaska, to Cecil Heith of Big Springs Sunday afternoon, July 30, at 5 o'clock in the First Baptist Church of Plaska. The formal double ring service was read by Rev. Storey of Clarendon.

SALT FORK

By MRS. R. H. ISBELL

We have been getting more rain, but our rain Saturday afternoon was light compared to what fell between us and Wellington. Folks trying to get home from town late Saturday afternoon reported so much water on the highways north of town, it looked like rivers rolling.

The Salt Fork revival begins Friday night the 11th of August. Saturday will be quarterly conference at the church with Rev. Hamilton, our district superintendent, in charge of the services. Lunch will be served at noon. The business meeting will be in the afternoon. Everyone is invited to attend both the conference and the revival. There will be services twice a day through the following week with Rev. Homer Long in charge. Come help us; we need you.

Sunday dinner guests at the Wright and Isbell home were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Isbell and children; Mr. and Mrs. Webb of Modesto, California, parents of Mrs. Ted Isbell. The group attended the singing at Lillie in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings were dinner guests of the C. A. Wrights Sunday, and they attended the singing at Lillie that afternoon.

There was a real good singing Sunday; several special songs by quartettes, trios, and solos, which were all home talents from Lillie and Salt Fork. Folks, you are missing some mighty good singing. Why don't more of you attend.

Every morning just before eleven o'clock if you should be looking, you'd see Mamie Morgon going to meet our mail carrier, Mr. Jackson. I'm sure Mr. Jackson would really miss that familiar figure if it shouldn't be at the mailbox waiting for him, because he is there rain or shine, hot or cold.

The Morgan family bought the Bolton farm here in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gollihugh and family visited Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings last Wednesday night.

The infant baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrow of Clarendon was buried at Clarendon last week. It was the great grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Morrow of Salt Fork.

Mr. George Isbell, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wright, and Mrs. R. H. Isbell visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton last Wednesday and gathered beans to can.

The Wrights and Isbells canned 147 quarts of beans last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Tom Bolton and children of Lawton, Oklahoma, visited Mrs. Bolton's mother, Mrs. Edna Maxwell, and her sister, Mrs. C. A. Wright, and family Monday. They visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherd Bolton, at Dodson on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell and C. A. Wright and Charles were callers at the parsonage home of Rev. Long and family in Wellington Tuesday.

The folks of the circuit have been installing some new appliances at the parsonage. First a new water heater, and Merritt Durfey bought and installed a new wash basin in the bath room. A storm cellar is needed badly and we are trying to get together with the other three churches to make plans for digging a cellar.

We want to express our heart felt sympathy to the Burdine family in the loss of their mother and grandmother. Mrs. Burdine died at her daughter's home, Mrs. W. W. Williams, in Amarillo last Saturday. The Burdine family is well known in the Quail community and have lots of friends here.

G. C. Isbell visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell, Wednesday of last week. He was enjoying his vacation and also getting his car repaired.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings and Fred, Mr. Jack Brewer, and Mrs. Ben Morris of Marella were called to Silverton, Texas, last Sunday, July 30th, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lizzie Freeman. Mrs. Freeman was a sister-in-law of Mrs. J. L. Cummings of Wellington.

Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Morrow visiting them Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Price of Midland, Texas. Mrs. Price is the former Marilyn Watkins of Quail; Maud Pendergrass of Quail; Mrs. G. C. Pettitt of Marella; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sweeden, Rosy Lee, Maricie, and Jack Pettitt of Laverne, Okla. Mrs. Sweeden is Morrow's daughter. They formerly lived here on the Claud Easterly farm until they sold it to Mr. and Mrs. Rex Joyner, and Mr. Sweeden went back into the road construction work. The Sweedens are members of the Salt Fork Methodist church, and we surely missed them when they moved away.

Ben Ramsey Thanks Voters

Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, candidate for Lieutenant Governor and former Secretary of State, thanked the voters of Texas this week for the votes and support which put him in the second primary run-off for Lieutenant Governor.

Ramsey expressed confidence in victory in the second primary election August 26.

Ramsey's statement to the voters said:

"My showing in the first primary for Lieutenant Governor fills my heart with humble gratitude. It convinces me that I will be nominated in the run-off.

"Among my opponents were some of the ablest and most experienced of Texas' public servants — men whose legislative records have made them widely and favorably known. It seems clear that they divided with me the support of that great majority of citizens who believe that experience counts in public service, as it does everywhere else.

"I served in the Senate while three of these men were members of the House. Many of my friends are also their friends and many others who know me only from my legislative record faced a choice between several men whom they deemed competent and deserving.

"The situation in the run-off will be very different. I will no longer be confronting the popularity and prestige of men who have served ably in one or both Houses of our law-makig bodies and many friends who share my own admiration for those men will feel free to cast their ballots for me. I believe that great majority of Texans will agree with me that in these crucial times the post of Lieutenant Governor should be filled by a trained and experienced man."

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Reed and family are on vacation in Nashville, Tennessee, this week. Eddie Strong of Hollis, Oklahoma, is in charge of Lion Auto Store while Mr. Reed is gone.

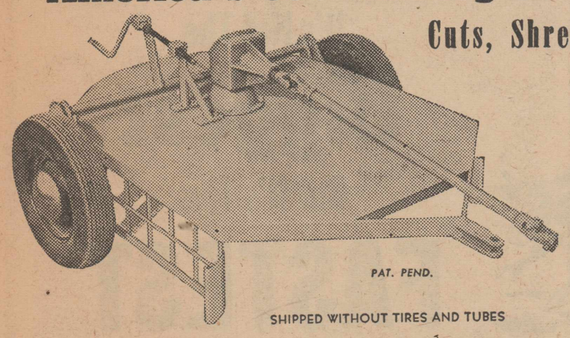

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore and daughter are on a week's vacation in Colorado.

The new ROTOCYCLE is the power cutter that economically cuts all stalks. It's the ideal machine for controlling the CORN BORER, PINK BOLL WORM, and other larvae. The horizontal revolving blades cut and shred green or dead stalks with equal ease, destroying larvae at the same time. And the finely cut pieces are easier to plow under for sure-death to borer larvae that can't live under ground. Cut stalks and leaves decompose more quickly too, enriching the soil with nitrogen and other food values in the plowed under material. ROTOCYCLE is designed to be drawn and powered by any tractor. Power shaft has standard 1⅜" take-off coupling and is adjustable in length. The cutting blade is easily adjusted to desired height by simply turning the adjusting crank.

Renew Fishing, Hunting Licenses By September 1

AUSTIN — The Chief Clerk of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission said today all but eight of the thirty-nine licenses issued by the Commission, including those for hunting and fishing, will be renewable September 1.

The license revenue provides a substantial part of the funds for Commission activities.

The Game Department staff now is busy readying the licenses for distribution. The actual sales are made generally by game wardens, county clerks and licensed deputies mainly in retail stores throughout the state. Only nine of the thirty-nine kinds of licenses are sold at the Austin headquarters.

Considerable Commission revenue comes from the $1.65 individual fishing license and from the $2.15 so-called big game hunting license. The $2.00 resident hunting license represents only a small part of the collections. This is because the comparatively new big game license covers all kinds of hunting, except antelope which calls for a special $5.00 fee.

The Chief Clerk explained that processing the license supplies represents a sizeable assignment because they have to be distributed to between 1800 and 2000 agencies.

The licenses range in cost from 50 cents for a duplicate individual fishing license to $200 for a wholesale fish and oyster dealer permit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Scott returned from the harvest this week. They went as far north as Nebraska.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following last week:

Ben Guill Reports
To The People

The farmer has received so much unfair, bad publicity recently that hundreds of citizens have written to me demanding that we do away with a government farm program altogether.

In fairness to the farmer I would like to point out that the basic storable commodities (such as cotton, corn, wheat, soybeans and tobacco) have actually brought a profit of $50,016,353 to the United States government during the last seventeen years.

We must remember, however, that more than 75 per cent of the farmers of the nation raise perishable commodities and it is this group which has cost the government money. During the last seventeen years, up until May 31, 1950, the entire agricultural support program has cost Uncle Sam more than two and a third billion dollars.

That's a lot of money to spend in seventeen years but it represents only about one-twelfth of what we have spent in five years for the relief of European countries. And during the last seventeen years, at an average of $138 million a year, the farm support program has helped to keep business good up and down the Main Street of every town in the Panhandle and in the nation as a whole.

But, this year the potato crop alone could easily cost the United States more than five hundred million dollars and the supports on potatoes will be dropped unless the growers agree to quotas. It has been proved again and again that we cannot have supports without quotas. In addition, we have 192 million pounds of butter in Government warehouses. That's far more than one pound for every man, woman and child in the country. We also have 107 million pounds of eggs in Federal storage, 322 million pounds of dry milk and 80 million pounds of cheese.

All this is in storage and is doing no one good, while some people are going hungry both in this country and abroad.

A Bill was passed out of the House Agriculture Committee this morning which would appropriate 50 million dollars from the foreign relief fund which is to be spent on repackaging and transportation of these products to places where they will do the most good. This excess produce would be used for relief, for school lunches, for charity and for foreign countries where such commodities are in desperately short supply.

I am very much opposed to spending any money at this time for any purpose except national defense. Nonetheless, the value of the commodities going to waste in government warehouses is many times $50 million. I voted for the extra expenditure in order to prevent a total loss of the commodities.

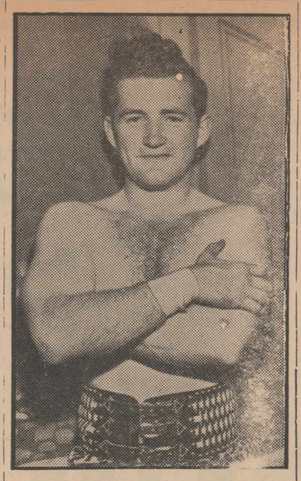

It is obvious that there is something lopsided about a farm program under which this could happen. The farmers of the Panhandle realize this. This is borne out by the fact that only 16.6 per cent of all those answering the questionnaire I recently sent to every voter in the Panhandle approved of the present program. On the other hand, 50.9 per cent wanted a different approach altogether.

In view of this, I introduced a Farm Bill of my own in the House last week. The Bill outlines the manner in which the farmer himself can participate in the writing of his own agricultural program. It would establish a kind of Agricultural Congress, with farmer representatives from each Farm Credit District and each Commodity group. After hearings are held in each District, the Executive Committee formed by the Bill would sift and discuss recommendations coming in from the field and then make specific suggestions for legislation to Congress.

I have always felt that Government should be moved closer to the people. I have also felt that the farmer could solve his own problems just as intelligently as the economic bureaucrats here in Washington, many of whom have never in their lives been on a farm except on a visit.

There is very little chance of this Bill being passed during this session of Congress because of the lateness of the date and the present desperate war situation. But I have introduced it so my fellow members on the Agriculture Committee can become familiar with it and we can then have a better opportunity to pass it during the next session.

I am happy to report that the Bill has received favorable comment from both the Democratic and the Republican members of the Agriculture Committee and I have received a great deal of encouragement from many sources. I hope we can someday make this dream a reality.

Rev. O. E. Long, pastor of the circuit, urged the members of the four rural churches to attend, as this is the opening of a new church year, and there is a lot of business to come before the assembly.

Town Spraved, Puddles Oiled in Health Program

The city's fight against flies and mosquioes is paying off, Bura Handley, city manager, said Saturday, August 5.

The entire town has been covered by a fogging machine, using a specially prepared spray, and this treatment will be repeated when the need arises, Mr. Handley said. The machine used belongs to the city of Shamrock.

This is supplemented by concentrated spraying of garbage barrels and other small areas with the city's power spray using a mixture of DDT and Chlordane.

Puddles and lakes made by the recent rains where mosquitoes might breed are kept covered with an oil mixture.

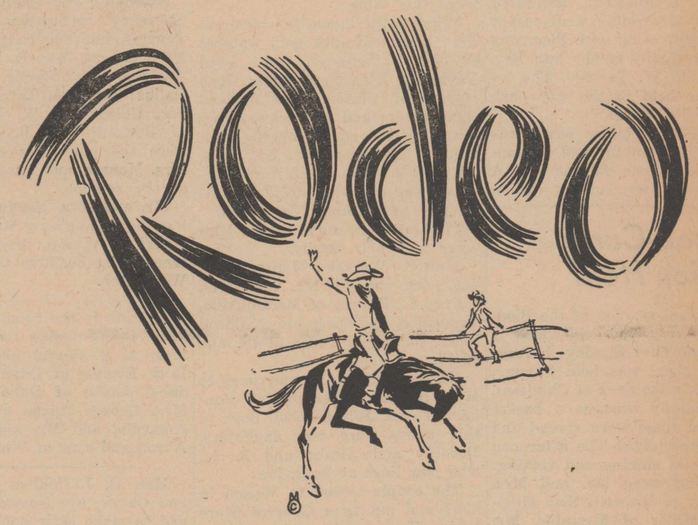

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill and daughter, Nancy, of the Needwood community, spent the week end in Perico with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Graves.

Senator and Mrs. C. C. Small of Austin visited in Wellington Saturday with his sister, Mrs. Cleo Templeton, and her brother, Austin O'Neil and family. Former Wellington residents, they had returned to attend the wedding of a niece at Shamrock.

Monroe's of McAllen Have Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Monroe of McAllen, Texas, formerly of Vinson and Wellington, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary July 9. Celebrating with them was the entire family of the late Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Tarpley. The reunion was held in the city park at Greenville, Texas.

The T-shaped tables were festive with gold zinnias and a bountiful basket lunch was spread. A special table was centered with a big 50th anniversary cake. Gold dahlias and Talisman roses centered this table.

Prior to the lunch, the honorees were presented with gold watches by their daughters, Mrs. Fred Dayton of Mission, and Mrs. Jack Meyers of Vinson. Gold Pickard china cream and service was presented to the couple by the children of the late Rev. and Mrs. Tarpley. A crate of California oranges was presented by James A. Tarpley of Elsoiner, California.

Pictures were made of the honorees and their family.

Walter Warren Monroe was born the son of Mr. and Mrs. Quincy L. Monroe of McMinnville, Tennessee, and spent his childhood there, coming to Texas at the age of 16.

He was united in marriage to Miss Beulah Davenport at Bonham, Texas, July 9, 1900. Born to this union were two daughters, Dorothy and Altah; and R. L., who now lives at Longview.

The couple moved to Vinson in 1907 and put in a General Store there. They continued to operate this store until 1924, at which time they sold it to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers, who operate it today.

From Vinson, they moved to Wellington, where they operated the Monroe Grocery until a few years ago.

They now live at McAllen, Texas, where they tend to several orange and grapefruit groves.

Mrs. Monroe was born Miss Beulah Davenport, and lived at McMinnville, Tennessee, until she was 17, at which time she moved to Bonham. Her mother died when she was 3. Her father re-married, and he passed away several years later. She was reared in the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Tarpley until she married. Rev. Tarpley read the marriage vows that united her with Mr. Monroe in wedlock.

She is now 67 years old, and Mr. Monroe is 78. They have four children and four grandchildren.

Attending the reunion and anniversary celebration were the Tarpley children who grew up with Mrs. Monroe. Mrs. R. W. Jones of Trenton, Mrs. Hattie Hayton of Dallas; James A. Tarpley of Elisnor, California; W. W. Tarpley of Bonham, and R. E. Tarpley were the playmates of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe, and were all present at the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe are visiting their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Myers at Vinson, where they are transacting business there and in Wellington.
