AT FIRST DEMONSTRATION

Root-Plowing, Seeding Appears Practical to County Ranchers

Approximately 30 farmers and ranchers liked what they saw Monday at the county's first root-plowing and grass-seeding demonstration.

The operation appeared as a practical method for knocking out mesquite and brush while at the same time giving a big assist to increased range forage.

Adding to the interest of viewers was the report by government agency representatives here that there are various avenues for obtaining cost-sharing benefits for the operation.

The demonstration was sponsored jointly by Junior Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee and Mitchell County Soil Conservation District.

It was performed on a 22-acre tract that the W. R. (Jinks) Powell Ranch has turned over to the Jaycees as an experimental plot for advancing farm and ranch conservation in this area.

The root-plowing was accomplished on approximately two acres of the experimental plot with equipment and operators furnished by Hudson & Sparks Dirt Contractors, local firm.

At the same time of the root-plowing the two-acre area heavy red tabosa type soil was planted with blue panic, side oats grama and buffalo grass.

The root-plowing was accom-

Bill Hudson and Ben Sparks handled the big 137-horsepower D-S Caterpillar tractor equipped with dozer blade in front and plow and planters in the rear.

The 10-foot root plow at the rear of the tractor cut top roots 18-inches in the ground. Three fins off the blade raised up the 10-foot swath of earth and pulled up spreader roots.

Two seeder boxes, operating off the tractor's drive shaft, spread the seed through the tractor exhaust over the plowed area.

A feature of the plowing is the roughing up of the range land in addition to knocking down and cutting out mesquites and brush.

The roughing up provides for better moisture penetration.

Harold Stephens, Soil Conservation Service unit conservationist here, showed the moisture benefit with a secondary demonstration.

Local Citizens Hear Eisenhower's Speech

Among citizens from Colorado City on the Baylor University campus in Waco Friday for President Eisenhower's appearance were Mr. and Mrs. M. N. (Nap) Caddell, Mrs. Floyd Wallace, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Selcraig.

Baylor students from here in the crowd hearing the president were Rodney Lee, Jerry Caddell, Geraldine Conway, Mary Sue Dillard, Darlene Bobo and Barbara Barber.

Legion to Install Officers June 14

Howard Bynum will be installed June 14 as commander of Colorado City's Hooker-Pond American Legion Post.

The 29-year-old Lake Colorado City partman, who is a Marine veteran of World War II, was elected at a meeting of the post Thursday night.

He succeeds Charles Godwin, who served as commander during the 1955-56 term and who automatically becomes an executive committee member for the ensuing year.

Two other World War II veterans were elected to vice commander places. Warren Costin, local farm implement dealer and school board trustee, was named first vice commander. Willie Landau, clothing store owner and also a school board trustee, became second vice commander.

Other new officers elected by the Hooker-Pond Post are Ray Mize, adjutant; W. K. Miles, chaplain; Mrs. Howard Rogers, child torian; John E. Watson, child welfare officer.

Re-elected were Leroy Gressett of Westbrook, second term as

State's Speed Laws Attacked

Local Legionnaires believe there should be a more realistic approach to Texas Highway speed laws.

And they are asking the State Legislature to study the matter. Members of the Hooker-Pond Post here Thursday night approved a resolution requesting the legislative study.

The resolution states that "present speed laws in our state, highways are obsolete and the non-observance of such laws tend to create disrespect for all laws."

Six More Drill Sites Spotted For Sharon Ridge-1700 Field

Six new drilling operations including one stepout for field extension are scheduled in Mitchell County's Sharon Ridge-1700 Field.

The half dozen locations, staked during the last week, were major development in Mitchell County's oil program.

Other developments in Mitchell oil were the completion of two wells in the same Sharon Ridge-1700 Field, a third finished in North Itan Field and spotting of two new drilling sites in Westbrook Field.

New drilling locations in Sharon Ridge are Hamilton, Jordan & Blackwell No. 2 Leslie Hamilton, Saxet Oil Corporation No. 8 E. T. Strain, Stallworth No. 3 Strain, Stallworth No. 8 Hardee, M. L. Milton & W. W. King, No. 1 E. V. Jackson, and Carter, Mandell & Simons No. 2 J. H. Humphreys.

The Carter, Mandell & Simons No. 2 Humphreys is a cable tool project, nine miles northwest of Colorado City and a stepout attempt.

It is 423 feet from west and 1,318 feet from south lines, 10 5/8th Subdivision, Block 27, T&P Survey. It is one location southeast of Hamilton, Jordan & Blackwell No. 1 Hamilton and about 1.25 miles from previous lines of the Sharon Ridge pool.

No. 2 Hamilton, a rotary project, will drill to 1,800 feet at a site nine miles northwest of Colorado City and 990 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines, Section 9, Block 27, T&P Survey.

Saxet No. 8 Strain is a cable tool project 330 feet from north and west lines in southwest quarter, Section 82, Block 97, H&T Survey, and 10 miles northeast of Westbrook. Drilling will be to 1,850 feet.

Ten miles northwest of Colorado City is Stallworth No. 3 Strain, a cable tool test to 1,750 feet.

Smith Retiring From Mail Carrier's Job

Thursday will be a day to remember for Ernest E. Smith. It will mark 37 years, 11 months and 15 days of service as a rural mail carrier.

And it also will end that service. For Smith, who lives with his wife at 643 E. 17th St., is retiring from his six-days-a-week job.

In the future he will be sleeping later in the mornings and visiting friends and relatives.

Smith, who will be 68 years of age in July, carries mail for Colorado City's Route 2. He has been on that assignment since what he calls the "break of the drought."

He started his mail carrier's duty, however, on the city's Route 4—north toward Valley View, Longfellow and Buford.

The carrier came to Mitchell County Jan. 1, 1908—11 years before Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, who have lived in town here all their wedded life, are parents of three sons—Julius Smith and Cecil Smith, who live here, and Ernest Smith in Crane.

All of Smith's mail carrying work has been out of the Colorado City Postoffice except for one three-month period when he transferred temporarily to Thubert. He began his job here June 16, 1918.

Smith, who says people never have lost the habit of placing unopened letters in the mail, recalls that when he started pay was about one-fourth what it is now.

But cars cost about four times as much now, too, he quickly points out.

Visits In Snyder

Visiting in Snyder last week end was Miss Irene Norman. She was a guest of her sister, Miss Sara Norman, a teacher in Snyder Public Schools.

feet. Site is 330 feet from north and 320.3 feet from west lines, 9-9, O'Keefe Subdivision, Reiger Survey.

Stallworth No. 6 Hardee, 11 miles northwest of Colorado City, is another 1,750-foot project. It is a rotary test, though, 990 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines, Section 99, Block 97, H&T Survey.

Adding to Sharon Ridge-1700 Field production during the week were Stallworth No. 1-Crawford and Lenonie No. 1 Strain.

No. 1-A Crawford was finished for daily pumping potential of 36.06 barrels of 28 gravity oil from perforations between 1,634 and 1,644 feet over total depth of 1,697 feet.

Location is 330 feet from south and 990 feet from west lines of northwest quarter, 13, O'Keefe Subdivision, Reiger Survey.

No. 1 Strain was completed for daily pumping potential of 78 barrels of oil plus five per cent water from a pay zone topped at 1,669 feet over total depth of 1,739 feet.

Site is 330 feet from north and east lines, Section 64, Block 97, H&T Survey.

A 78.37-barrel producer for Mitchell County's North Itan Field is Theiss No. 1 Foster, completed after treatment with 15,000 gallons of fluid.

The North Itan oiler has a pay zone topped at 2,998 feet over total depth of 2,940 feet.

Location of the No. 1 Foster is 330 feet from north and west lines of south half of southeast quarter, Section 43, Block 29, T-1-N, T&P Survey.

Two new drilling sites for the county's Westbrook Field are Leonard No. 1 Graeber and Miami Operating Company No. 2 A. L. Coke.

No. 1 Graeber will drill to 3,250 feet with rotary equipment at a site 7.5 miles north of Westbrook and 4,866 feet from north and 2,404 feet from east lines, Section 60, Block 97, H&T Survey.

No. 2 Coke, a 3,300-foot project eight miles north of Colorado City, will be 1,078 feet from north and 330 feet from east lines of Section 2, Cuthbert Vacancy Strip Survey No. 2.

Plugged and abandoned was the W. L. Kistler No. 1 J. H. Humphreys, wildcat try eight miles northwest of Colorado City. Drilling site was 330 feet from south and 2,310 feet from west lines, 32-2-27, T&P Survey.

Eleven miles northwest of Big Spring a 7,300-foot wildcat has been spotted as A. K. Turner Jr. No. 1 John H. Webber. The prospect is 330 feet from north and west lines, Section 35, Block 33, T-2-N, T&P Survey.

Cobb Receives Award Of A&M Geology Staff

Merrill F. Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cobb, 945 Chestnut, was honored by the Department of Geology, Texas A&M College, at A&M's annual awards ceremonies.

He was presented an award of the reference book, "Structural Geology of North America" by the staff of the department.

The award was for Cobb's "splendid aid and continued participation in the preparation of the material" for the department's Mother's Day exhibit.

Perfect attendance awards were presented to 13 students in the assembly program.

The group had not been absent or tardy during the entire school year.

They were David Visser, Preston Bell, Don Clark, Douglas Sherman, Harvey Sherman, Billy Powell, Alice Ward, Kay Treadaway, Jane Merritt, Wayne Ellis, Nelda Thurman, Larry Boren and Fredine Theis.

Twelve students were named for Honor Roll Distinction awards. They were listed on every honor roll at the end of the fifth reporting period.

Seniors were Perry Barber, Jr., Betty Sedberry, Marcia Barnes and Carolyn Glassingame.

Juniors were Laverne Williams, Nell Webb and Nelda Thurman. Sophomores were Iva Helen Gross, Rayvel Moseley, Jane Merritt, Kay Treadaway and Judy Wallace.

Other awards were made in business administration and band.

Frontier Roundup Rodeo Association's 1956 rodeo here will be an amateur show.

Directors of the association Friday night voted to replace the usual professional rodeo, sanctioned in previous years by Rodeo Cowboy Association Inc.

The amateur status was approved to make the frontier rodeo more of a local event with Mitchell County and area cowboys—known to the hometowners—competing for top awards.

Decision to sponsor the 1956 show erased speculation that the association might omit a rodeo for the current year.

Possibility of skipping the 1956 date had been discussed at earlier meetings of the association's stockholders.

But the return to amateur status for the rodeo was credited as a major reason for scheduling the rodeo this year.

Directors approved the amateur rodeo plan immediately after election of association's 1956-57 officers.

Wayne McCabe, rancher in the county's southeast area and outstanding roper, was elected president.

Named vice president was W. R. (Jinks) Powell, prominent rancher and former school board trustee. Roy Warren was elected board secretary.

Outgoing president and vice president are Les Terry and Frank Kelley, respectively. A. L. McSpadden is retiring secretary.

It was Powell who presented the motion for scheduling a 1956 rodeo, provided it was to be an amateur show especially for local and area contestants instead of the RCA traveling professionals.

Powell and Bob McGuire were named with McCabe to contact producers for amateur rodeos.

Dates for the rodeo—planned for August or early September before opening of fall school term—will be set after a producer is signed.

Directors participating in the board meeting in May & Bullock office were McCabe, Powell, Elmer Pickens, Warren, McGuire and B. H. Gregory.

Conaway Promoted in 4th Infantry Division

Edgar P. Conaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Conaway of 721 Hickory, has been promoted to specialist third class with 4th Infantry Division in Germany.

He is a radio operator with headquarters company of the division's 12th regiment.

Conaway, who attended McMurry College and Texas Tech before entering the Army in October 1954, arrived in Europe in March 1955.

Visit Lankford Home

Sunday guests in the Lorraine home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lankford were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Frazier of Abilene.

IN FINAL SCHOOL CEREMONIES

Major CHS Awards to Webb, Mackey, Whitley and Smith

Tommy Webb and Frank Mackey, graduating seniors at Colorado High, took the two major awards at a school assembly Friday at High School.

Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Webb, was named to receive the citizenship award from the Lions Club.

He received a wrist watch at Lions Club luncheon Friday in Civic House and is to have his name inscribed on a plaque at high school.

Mackey, son of Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Rhode, received the annual Gus Chesney award for best all-around athlete. He is the only high school student to letter in three sports this year—football, basketball and track.

Mackey plans to enter Texas Christian University this fall and participate in track at the Fort Worth school.

Webb was the sixth student to receive the Lions Club award. Prior winners were Donald Gene Glatfelter, George Swann, Carol Jean Boatright, Bonnie Hulme and Glenda Sue Moore.

Webb was introduced and presented the award by Superintendent of schools Ed E. Williams.

Recipient for the award is named by a group of high school students, representatives of the three classes.

Other major awards went to Marcia Barnes, Clara Mae Whitley and Mary Smith.

Miss Barnes was awarded a $100 scholarship by the Delta Kappa Gamma sorority of the Kappa Epsilon Chapter of women teachers which comprises Colorado City, Snyder and Lorraine.

A student who plans to enter the teaching profession is selected for the award.

Mrs. Ethel Dawson made the award.

Miss Smith received a $100 scholarship from the Mu Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Friday night during graduation ceremonies. Miss LaVerne Springer made the presentation.

Miss Whitley was honored with a check from the Business and Professional Women's Club as an outstanding student in business administration.

Perfect attendance awards were presented to 13 students in the assembly program.

Four-Year-Old Wins Corvette

A four-year-old Sweetwater boy won the Kiddie Corvette at Harvey Chevrolet Co.

He is Charles McElmurry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark McElmurry, Sweetwater farmer.

Drawing was held this week with Chris Tilley, popular graduating senior at Colorado High, drawing the lucky name.

The Kiddie Corvette is an exact replica of the Chevrolet Corvette. It's large enough to seat two children and is equipped with a real gearshift on the floorboard. It's constructed of the same material as the big Corvette.

Grandmother and Aunt View Commencement

Mrs. Lucille Ledbetter of Houston and Mrs. Fred Battles and children — Donna, Jean, and Rosslyn — of San Antonio are visiting at Loraine with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Narrell.

Their visit was for the purpose of high school graduation of the Narrell's son, Bill Narrell, a grandson of Mrs. Ledbetter and nephew of Mrs. Battles.

The United States Military Academy at West Point was opened July 4, 1802.

Mrs. McClure described in detail the furnishings and structure of George Washington's mansion in Alexandria, Virginia.

Topic of Mrs. King's talk was "Architecture". She said that architecture could be traced back to the earliest attempts of prehistoric man to protect himself from the weather and attacks of savage beasts.

Mrs. King reviewed Egyptian, Greek and Gothic architecture.

In closing she compared early Renaissance architecture to early American structures.

THE KEYS OF TOMORROW

Boys and girls like the two in this picture are the raw materials from which good citizens are made. They hold the keys of tomorrow and are the hope of America and the world.

As they grow older, they will acquire knowledge and receive training designed to fit them for the duties and responsibilities of life. They will realize that they have an important stake in government and in human society as a whole.

But they must be trained—and must train themselves—to meet these responsibilities as they develop. They must be taught that obedience to law and respect for the rights of others is essential to the common good.

There is no better training in the elements of good citizenship than is embodied in the teachings of the Church and the great principles of the Bible. They are the touchstone of good citizenship and the spiritual basis of our inherited faith.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Cardinals, Athletics Keep Clean Season Slates With Victories

Cardinals and Athletics both continued undefeated in Pony League play Friday night by whipping their respective opponents.

Cardinals socked away their third season win by edging the Braves 7-5. Athletics walloped the White Sox 10-1 for their second season win. Athletics have two games pending.

Dwain (Shorty) Thomason struck out 15 Brave batters and allowed only two hits to hurl the Cards to victory.

Cards teel-off on Brave twirler Bennie Greenfield, collecting ten hits.

Luke Treadwell's Cards struck swiftly in the opening inning for three runs. Charles Rothwell singled, followed by Hunter Mann's bingle.

Jerry McKay strolled and Dickie Richardson brought them home with a hard-hit double.

Billy Bobo, Card centerfield, added another in the second frame with a home run. But the Braves' seasoned catcher, Lucky Merket, duplicated Bobo's feat with a home run of his own in bottom of the second.

Cards added two more runs in the third. Mann doubled and scored on McKay's single.

Richardson used a fielder's choice to reach first and a double by Bobo to score.

Henry Burton, Jerry Williams and Merket all scored for the Braves in the fourth to cut the Card margin to 6-4.

Buddy Compton added the Cards' seventh run with Mann's double bringing him around the basepaths.

Dwayne Spivey scored first for the Athletics and Ronnie Stacy singled. Bracy cleared the sacks with a big home run. Ronnie Bassinger singled. Randy Cupp reached base on an error and Billy Key cleaned the bases with a home run.

Yanks Pound Indians 26-11 to top League

Yankees apparently are getting stronger every game.

They showed their muscles in the Little League Friday night, knocking the Indians all over the park before finally settling for a 26-11 victory.

And they did all that in only six innings at bat.

The lopsided win enabled Bob Read's Yanks to keep their undefeated season record of 40.

Pirates edged the Giants 7-5 in the other Little League game Friday.

Yankees began the rout of the Indians in the initial inning, bringing 18 batters to the plate for 14 fans.

It wasn't so much the Yanks' batting strength—they collected only two singles in the frame—but the wildness of the Indian pitchers.

Eight walks were issued to the Yanks in addition to a Yank hit by a pitched ball.

Yanks continued to pour it on in the second, third and fourth innings, scoring four runs in each inning.

Combination of singles from the bats of Barney Barnett, Freddie Fox and Louis Franco did the tricks in the second.

Doubles by William Smith and Felix Salemeron accounted for the third inning runs.

J. Franco and Fox pounded doubles in the fourth for the other runs.

Indians collected 11 runs—enough to win a normal ball game—but not enough Friday night. Indians' big inning was the fourth when they scored four runs. A triple by Kenneth Cloud was the big knock.

Ronald Rothwell was winning pitcher. Pirates edged past the Giants 7-5 in a closely-matched ball game. Both teams scored two runs in the first inning and remained in

NEW CAR

... for your VACATION?

You can get a better deal from your local dealer

And, in the life of your car, he'll save you several hundred dollars in more convenient and conscientious service and periodic maintenance.

HERE'S WHY

- ✓ You can trust his honesty and fairness.
- ✓ He'll stand behind the product he sells better than any other dealer elsewhere.
- ✓ No hidden charges, gimmicks or come-ons when you deal with your hometown dealer.
- ✓ No misleading advertising or promises that won't be fulfilled when you buy.
- ✓ Out-of-town dealers often will not sell a car for the low prices they advertise to lure you into their place of business. This wastes your time and money. This is not an uncommon practice.
- ✓ You can buy the car and accessories you want from your local dealer, you're not high-pressured into buying what you don't want.

YOUR DOLLAR BUYS MORE IN COLORADO CITY

- ★ Automobile dealers and employees finance more than one-tenth of the United Fund to support charities, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4-H clubs and FFA.
- ★ New car dealers and their employees finance a big part of city and county government to provide you with law, order and protection of property.
- ★ They pay generously to provide school buildings and an education for your children.
- ★ More than 100 employees with an annual payroll of more than a quarter of a million dollars help support churches, chamber of commerce, service clubs and other organizations.
- ★ Those dollars, passing through seven hands, add up to $1,500,000 in increased trade for you and you, indirectly supporting other businesses and providing other jobs.

AMERICA'S "MAGIC CARPET"

The family automobile!

American families today enjoy a freedom of travel unmatched by any other people on the face of the earth. Their family car has truly become a "magic carpet". It whisks them from one corner of the country to the other... and across borders to exciting adventures in neighboring lands to the north and south.

The family car pays dividends on more than vacation jaunts. Every day it makes life easier and more pleasant. Shopping, visits to friends and relatives, trips to school, clubs and a hundred-and-ones more daily activities are made easier by the use of your car.

There's another dividend families earn by using their cars.

frequently. The more they drive, the less is costs per mile! Certain costs such as license fees, insurance and depreciation remain about the same whether you drive a little or a lot. And so, as you pile up mileage, you actually reduce the cost of each mile.

And there's yet another dividend... when you buy your car from a local authorized dealer. Two more in fact! (1) You'll get as good or better a deal when you buy and during the life of the car it'll receive more conscientious service and maintenance at a more economical expense. (2) The dealer in turn is then better able to support all the things that promote prosperity, growth and better living in your community.

For a really swank vacation you pay includes all meals, extras like afternoon tea. The celebrated Florida resort, with big resorts as a rule are not de-almost regal facilities, gets an signed for transient use. The average of $100 per day for two.

There is nothing new about the luxury resort. It is the oldest form of vacation sanctuary. Resorts have been available to people who could afford them ever since the days of Imperial Rome, when rich Romans built their villas on Capri.

There are probably more fine resorts in the United States than anywhere else in the world. They are in every part of the country, in the mountains and along the rocky shore of New England. Our oldest resort is said to be in the White Mountains of New Hampshire.

They are scattered along the eastern shore of the Atlantic. There are many in the highlands of Virginia, North Carolina and West Virginia. They are along the shores and on the islands of the Great Lakes, scattered through the high mountains of the west, from southern Colorado to the deep within the forested wilderness of the Canadian Rockies.

minimum stay of a guest is about a month of more.

Because luxury comes high, rates at big resorts are not low. Fifteen dollars a day per person is about a minimum. From that minimum they go up, depending on type of accommodation. One of the celebrated Florida resorts, with big resorts as a rule are not de-almost regal facilities, gets an signed for transient use. The average of $100 per day for two.

3-9¢ Cost per mile for each member of family
The average is figured for a family of four. Your family may vary. Charge the cost of a tank.

Figures published by the American Automobile Association reveal interesting facts about the cost of driving. That's because certain costs (depreciation, license fees, and insurance) do not change with mileage. They stay the same whether you drive 5,000 or 15,000 miles a year. But for the same mileage, cost per mile would drop 52%. These statistics support the well-known slogan "Drive Right . . . it gets cheaper by the mile."

If there are several in the family you can generally get one large room, with extra cots or beds for the children, for very little more than the cost of the same room for two.

Try to find one with kitchenette facilities. You can get your own breakfast before staying out in the morning. Any grocery store will have the breakfast essentials. Many wise travelers who like to save money, carry some of their own accessories—a small electric coffee pot, or powdered coffee, sugar and condensed milk.

Don't stop at a restaurant for lunch, but arrange to have a picnic on the road. You can pack it in a thermos bottle, a plastic thermal bag for sandwiches and other picnic menu items.

For dinner in the evening go into the nearest town. Your motel will probably be on the edge of town and you will be able to eat in most cities they will be the most economical places to eat

Much of the satisfaction of a well planned driving holiday lies in being both informally and properly dressed, so that unexpected opportunities for diversion and adventure may be taken advantage of easily. Here the children take a quick dip at a lakeside which adds to the fun and economy of a vacation by car.

Reservations May Prove Wise Decision

With your plan made your destination selected — your route chosen — your luggage and wardrobe planned, the funds to pay for it secured — and the time to go chosen — you need to make a few advance preparations for the vacation trip.

If you are going into a crowded resort or vacation area, make sure you know where you are going to stay and if possible have advance reservations.

Otherwise you may discover that the resort you selected has no vacancy sign in front, with others in the area equally crowded.

Then, at least a week before you go, have your car carefully checked at your service station for garage maintenance. It may be that holidays will be held by accidents or delays which could have been prevented with a little foresight.

Make sure that you have a kit of the basic tools needed for emergency occasions enroute, that the maps you need for your trip are in the glove compartment, with itineraries and other items with them.

DURING SUMMER TRAVEL

Roadside Picnics Bring Family Fun

An increasing number of motorized tourists will be traveling our highways, and this year there'll be more bicyclists pedaling their way to pleasure and to better health.

For motorists and bicyclists both, and also for the rugged hiker, picnicking is a popular and joyous way of dining. Recognizing this, state highway commissions, and park departments have been providing beautiful picnic grounds.

Along the eastern shore, the bicyclist spot for several seasons; in the Midwest, with many roads paralleling its great rivers, there are picturesque and delightful sites. Texas, along its principal roads, has built beautiful and elaborate stone fireplaces set in effectively landscaped areas, with picnic equipment.

In the Northwest, there are picnic sites with tables and benches may enjoy dramatic and breathtaking views, when they stop for their meals. Even along the Alaskan highway, there are some picnic sites, with tables and benches. The world on wheels likes to stop and picnic.

The traditional prepared-at-home meal remains the picnic favorite, but new picnic packages are being prepared. Favorite foods are assembled at home, and carried to the picnic site to be made into sandwiches there. Eatables, buns, rolls, with meats, cheeses and a variety of spreads form the basis of the sandwiches, with each making his own favorite.

Where fireplaces are available, the grilled steaks and hamburgers, the kabob, the roasted corn on the cob and the baked potatoes are items for which breads, heated to a satisfying perfection, are the necessary accompaniments. The long loaves of French and Italian breads can be sliced diagonally and spread, or thin slices of flat and cheese, used for flat bread.

Another of the new picnic popular is the "chuckerte". The hard-crusted breads are cut into chunks, covered with a soft spread and toasted on skewers. They also are good, if wrapped in foil and grilled on the hot coals. The special rolls for hamburgers and for frankfurters also are made particularly appetizing by heating.

Enriched bread, spread with butter or margarine, and made into a chicken, ham, tongue or sliced cheese sandwich, is always a favorite. In addition, a stimulating and tasty satisfying appetite, it gives the motorist the bicyclist or the hiker, on his travels which he needs, on his days of vacation and recreation, as well as on his work days.

And a word to the firebuilders — use as much caution extinguishing the fire as care in lighting them. It has been recommended that an hour be allowed to have a fire that will provide a controllable, steady temperature for best results in grilling and roasting. It is better to start with a small amount of fuel, and add as needed.

FOR FAMILY BUDGET More You Drive -- Less It Costs

It's a well known fact that mileage really takes very little out of the family pocketbook. For example, an average family of four that drives 5,000 miles this year will pay about 3.9¢ per mile for each member of the family. But the same family driving 15,000 miles will pay only 1.9¢ per mile. That's about 50% less!

Leaving the family car in the garage can cost almost as much as driving it. American Automobile Association figures show the costs for gasoline and oil to be only a small part of the total expense of car ownership.

A large part of total car costs is depreciation. Insurance, license, registration, and other taxes are rather heavy, but much you drive. And you must pay these costs whether you use your car or not.

Insurance and license fees do not change whether you use the car for shopping or take an extended cross-country trip. The same is true for depreciation. Surprised? Well, check an automobile dealer and see how little more he allows for a low-mileage car. For the most part, trade-in values are based largely on the year and condition of the car — little attention goes to mileage.

Of course when you drive more you use more gasoline and oil. But competition has kept prices down to a low level. Prices today more than they were in 1925. After you've paid the "fixed" costs of car ownership, extra

Cut Through Mountain

West Virginia Turnpike cuts through the rugged, wooded mountains of West Virginia from Princeton to Charleston a distance of about 8 miles. Building it was a major engineering feat. Driving it is an adventure in scenic opportunity. It cuts through mountains with tunnels, spans, viaducts, with great bridges (76 of them).

London is about 10,800 miles from Bombay via the Cape of Good Hope and about 6,300 via the Suez.

WHAT LEISURE? — Fred Dwyer, holder of the American record for 24-hour leisure-time out-put for male members of the United States Olympic Team competing at Melbourne, Australia, this year. It features bare-chested shorts in gray flannel, a short-sleeved sports shirt, white wool sweater with Olympic colors at neckline. Garb was modeled in New York City.

Big Schedule Can Hamper Vacation Fun

One of the worst mistakes you can make on a vacation is to cram too much into too little time, travel too far, try to see too much.

So when you make your ten-day plan distances to be driven each day that you can cover comfortably, by driving at a reasonable speed, for not too long a time.

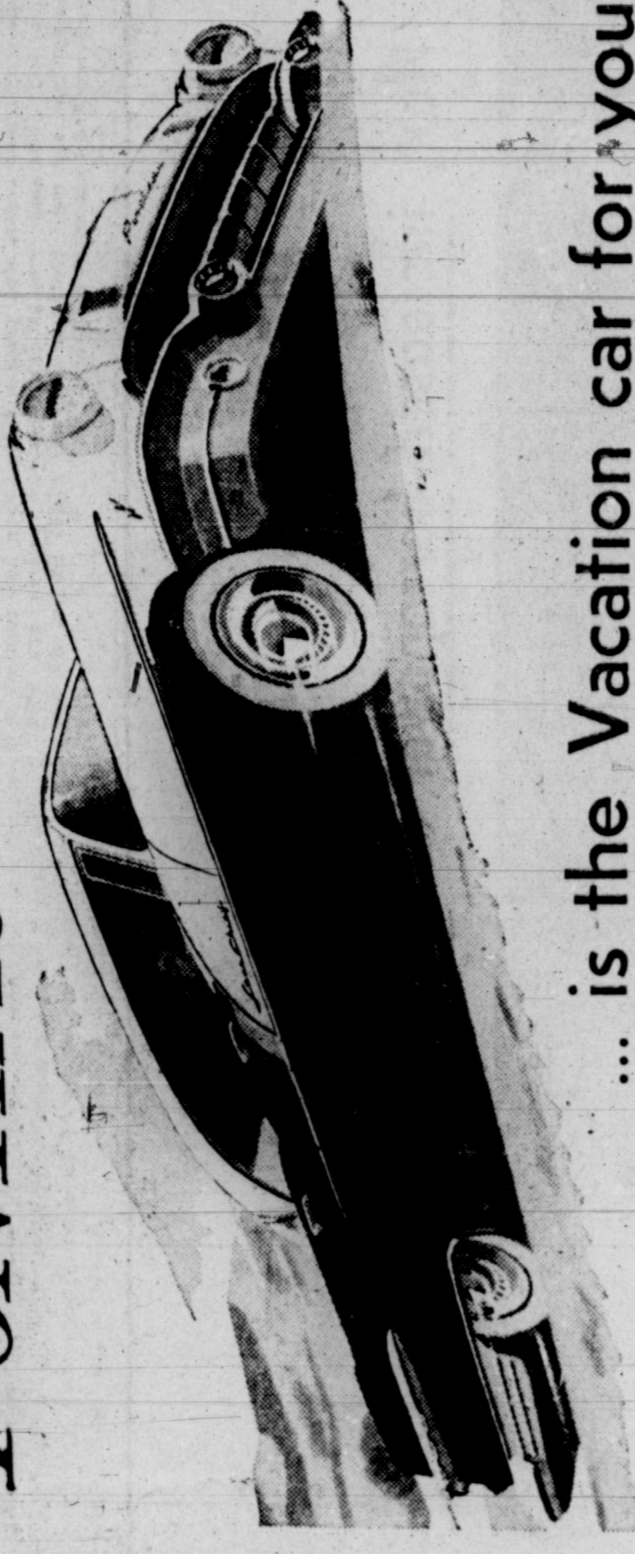

Some touring experts have a simple rule for distances to be covered in a day's drive: 250 miles a day, in congested areas where traffic is heavy, not more than 300 miles a day in sparsely populated areas.

Another rule is to always allow yourself a cushion, or several cushions of time in your plan, so that you may stay a little longer in a particular place if you like it, and so that you can get home and have a few hours of rest before going back to work again.

Choice Is Important
Pick your overnight stops with care, stopping early enough to make sure you get a good motor rest. Make sure you get a good night's sleep. Motor courts are convenient and generally economical.

TRAVELERS' ESSENTIAL

Use Road Maps to Enjoy Motor Trip

Each year oil companies, motor clubs, state and national agencies spend millions of dollars preparing hand-drawn and printed maps to make motor travel more rewarding and convenient.

Spectacular View

Henry Hudson Parkway is a multilane express highway which flanks the Hudson River along the west side of Manhattan Island and Westchester County at the north of it. The Parkway is one of the best places to get a spectacular view of the lovely Hudson River, the cliffs of the Palisades, and the scenic views of the Hudson Valley.

you about the elements of the road map. So a heavy red line and a country line are a thin black dot, and a tiny village a small dot.

Not all map makers use the same symbols. You get many different symbols for the same thing. Find out what the symbols on it mean. Somewhere on each map is a printed explanation of the symbols it uses. It is generally called a "legend." It tells you how different types of highways are shown on that map. It will give you a clue to cities of different sizes, show you how parks, recreation areas, trails, mountain peaks, rivers are indicated. It will tell you many things. And it will show you distance between towns.

But that is only the beginning in your learning about and using maps. Most maps have a great deal of additional information. They will probably have a table of town sizes. There is likely to be a chart of recreational facilities indicating the detailed facilities that each recreational area has.

camping, picnicking, boating, fishing, and other recreational facilities. Many maps in a different scale of the principal large cities in the area reported by the map, showing the routes in and out of them, even designating notable buildings and points of special interest.

Finally, many maps have excellent concise summaries of scenic, historic, and sightseeing information presented textually.

The time to get a map is when you first start planning a trip. You may need several different maps to complete your plans. When you get home again the maps you have used will help you plan your next trip.

Select Travel Routes Early

The wise choice of your route, coming and going, may make the difference between a dull and exciting trip.

To select a route you need good maps. You can get them from your car dealer. They are usually available a few days.

Your map reveals all sorts of highways, from super express routes and great turnpikes, to country lanes.

As a general rule the secondary road is likely to be more interesting than the big highways. But if time is an object, you may need to select some high speed roads for part of your trip.

Planning Solves Most Problems in Vacation

Planning your vacation wisely card is all you need. Watch the advertisements and send away to those agencies for free material that seems to you likely to be interesting.

Then planning helps you select the vacation you want from hundreds of possibilities. It helps you adapt the vacation you select to your limits of time, and money and to fit it to your particular interests.

There is a simple pattern for planning that helps you choose a vacation that fits your budget and your own inclinations.

Start planning early. It may take you several weeks to collect the material against which you make your plan. There are hundreds of resorts, areas, agencies that will help you. Most of them offer free material. You get it for the asking—a two cent postage.

Go to the Sun Highway, is Glacier National Park's bid for scenic highway fame. An extension of US 2 from Whitefish, Montana, it provides about 70 miles of superb scenic driving, sometimes along the shores of great mountain lakes, an always within view of mountain peaks more nearly like those of Switzerland than any within the United States.

fishing tackle, luggage. Other basic points of vacation planning include consideration of where to go; when to go; how much time to spend; how much will it cost; how to take along the route; what to take along. Consider them separately.

Overseas Highway One of the most remarkable roads in the world actually provides ocean voyage by auto. It runs from Miami, Florida, to Key West, more than 120 miles from the tip of the Florida mainland to the longest ocean going motor road in the world.

Big Surf Drive Some Californians claim that the coast road below Monterey, as far south as Morro Bay, a distance of about 120 miles (officially California Route 1) is the most exciting and beautiful road in the west.

The motto of Texas is "Friend-ship." Several million other people will also take vacations there.

So the choice then becomes where, with the relation to climate and availability of accommodation and facilities.

But if you can choose the time for your trip you will find a better time to visit a particular resort or area is not necessarily the time when most people go.

Some veteran travelers say the best season in Florida is late spring, in winter. Many claim that New England in the Fall is at its colorful best.

As interpreted by the friendly attendants at service stations everywhere, road maps are far more than guides from here to there. They tell a vivid story of the land, its cities, its hills, its places that give sanctuary and those that provide fun and adventure. They are accurate, useful, and interesting.
