Road Board Sets Aside State Aid For Highways

Santa Fe, Nov. 23.—The state highway commission meeting yesterday agreed upon the following state aid appropriations, W. G. Davidson, state highway engineer announced today.

Vaughn-Anton Chico road $1,000; Lea county survey (Lovington to Jal, and Lovington to the Roosevelt county line) $1,250; Magdalena Puertecito road (county fund $500) state appropriation $500; Magdalena-Fairview road (county funds $600) state appropriation $600; Riley branch road near Magdalena (county funds $100) state appropriation $100; Carlsbad - Blue Springs road $1,500; repair Sapello bridge at Watrous $904.29; repair Nolan bridge in Mora county $400; repair Mora bridge at Watrous $225; repair Mora bridge at $225; repair Des Moines-Polsom road $450; El Rito-Albuquerque road $500; Truchas-Chimayo road $800; Velarde road $2,000.

The meeting was attended by F. D. Huling, acting president; J. A. Mahoney, acting secretary; W. C. Davidson, state highway engineer and Charles Springer, commissioner.

Extension of time were allowed on several federal aid contracts in which the contracts had been unable to complete the work in specified time.

News Office to Close Day, Thanksgiving

Owing to a long established custom, the News office will be closed all day Thanksgiving, giving the force an opportunity to eat turkey.

The News is now better prepared to handle your advertising and job printing, than in the past, and all are invited to come in and inspect our "new" office.

J. Rex Forrest Farm Produces Fine Turnips

Joe Cates, who lives on the J. Rex Forrest farm south of Portales in a sample of dry land turnips, grown by him, some of which measured 20 1-2 inches in circumference.

Fine Turnips Grown On Dry Land Farm

The News is indebted to Rev. R. C. Marshall for a nice lot of turnips which were grown on his dry land farm between Rogers and Richland.

These turnips were large and firm, and as fine as any we have seen grown under irrigation.

One perfect specimen is now on display at the News office.

Jury To Probe Guard Episode

Farmer To Testify from a Wheel Chair at Home.

El Paso, Nov. 26.—The grand jury here on Tuesday will go to the home of R. L. Tankersley, Yuma, to take his testimony regarding an alleged attack made upon him by Capt. John C. Luskhart, New Mexico national guardman, on Aug. 24th.

Tankersley, who suffered a broken hip in the fracas, is now able to get about in a wheel chair. Physicians say he may be able to walk in six or eight months.

No action has been taken by the grand jury. District Attorney Vowell said, in anticipation that he would be able to come to the courthouse and testify.

Rev. T. B. Sowell Joins in Civic Affairs

Rev. T. B. Sowell has lost no time since coming to Portales in lining up with the civic affairs of the town.

On Tuesday of this week he took out a membership in the Portales Chamber of Commerce.

He is also a member of the Lions club, and expects to transfer his membership to Portales.

Rev. Sowell says that it is his purpose to take part in all civic affairs of the town and do his part towards the development of this community.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Means and children expect to spend Thanksgiving with the Dr.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Means at Amarillo.

E. N. M. Normal School Discussed At C. O. C. Luncheon

At the luncheon of the Portales Chamber of Commerce Directors on Tuesday, the Eastern New Mexico Normal School was the principal topic of discussion.

Committees were appointed to make a survey of the number of students which would attend the first year.

A second committee was appointed to work with the board of regents, as to securing the necessary appropriation for the school.

A committee was also appointed to secure transportation for the Portales High School Pyp Squad to attend the foot ball game at Clovis on Thanksgiving between Portales and Clovis. This committee was composed of Ed. J. Neer, Ezra Watts and Sam Seay.

Geese Reported Coming in On Lakes by Thousands

Local hunters are enjoying good shooting this season. Ducks are coming in on all of the water holes, and geese are reported as coming in on the salt lake on the Texas line by thousands.

Every day sees many hunters from Portales in the field, and they are succeeding in bagging the game.

The quail shooting has been extra good, but these birds are now becoming scarce.

J. P. Nash Announces Farm Sale Dec. 5th.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the announcement of the farm sale of J. P. Nash of the Floyd community.

Mr. Nash is one of the old timers of this county, and he invites all of his friends to attend this sale, whether they are buyers or not.

Roosevelt county regrets to see Mr. Nash selling out, but it is the wish of everyone that he will again decide to make this county his home.

Priddy Party Back From Deer Hunt

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Priddy, and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor McCasland returned on last Saturday from a deer hunt in the Black Range.

They report a most enjoyable outing and as usual Mr. Priddy got his buck.

Mrs. Priddy came near killing a mountain lion at close range, but owing to the sun being in her eyes, missed and the lion escaped.

Chew Your Food

(Copyright).

When your stomach 'gins to ache,

Chew your food!

When your nerves begin to quake,

Chew your food!

When your frame begins to ache,

Chew your food!

When your bones to rack and shake,

Chew your food!

When you contemplate your ration,

And you're suffering like the nation,

Cure it all by mastication!

Chew your food!

When you feel you have a cold,

Chew your food!

When your head feels bum and old,

Chew your food!

When your stomach begins to ache,

Chew your food!

When your head feels bum and old,

Chew your food!

When you think you're getting old,

Chew your food!

At any time 'twill do you good

To chew your food!

In summer time, or winter's mood

Chew your food!

Eat not like you're cording wood,

For then your ration does no good,

But chew, and chew, and chew

Your food!

Yes, chew your food!

DEAR CHILDREN:

I have just made arrangements with the Portales Valley News, to receive your letters for me.

Send in your letters to the News at once and they will be published each week from now until Christmas.

Mrs. Chris Kinkle and I have had a busy season preparing gifts for the little folks, and we now desire to know just what each child wants.

This is a custom which we have followed for several years, and it will save time and worry in having the mail forwarded to us at Toy Land.

Yours for a Very Merry Christmas,

SANTA CLAUS.

Floyd Stock Judging Team To Go To Chicago

The stock judging team from the Floyd, N. M., high school will represent New Mexico at the national high school livestock judging contest held in Kansas City, November 17, 18 and 19. The boys were chosen at the state elimination contest held at State College last December. The trip is being financed by the A. T. & S. F. railroad, who pay all living expenses while the boys are on the trip.

Cattle Values Are Raised

Tax Commission Raises $3 per Head.

Santa Fe, Nov. 23.—Valuations on cattle for assessment purposes were raised approximately $3.00 per head by the tax commission here today. The rate is from $18 to $65 per head.

Valuation on sheep were hiked about 75 cents, from $4.75 to $5.50.

Grazing lands remain the same 50 cents to $2.00 per acre.

Dairy and milk cattle valuations are unchanged, from $15 to $50.

Hogs, goats and horses are unchanged.

Insure Your Christmas Parcels

It is particularly important that mailers should insure their Christmas packages. Christmas parcels are usually of more than average intrinsic value; and if such shipments are sent as ordinary mail, and are not received by the addressee or are in damaged or rifled condition upon receipt there is a double disappointment to the sender, first, in the failure of the addressee to receive the shipment in perfect condition, and secondly, because the sender not only loses the value of the contents of the parcels lost, rifled, or damaged, but usually duplicate the shipment and in such cases is also put to additional expense.

New Wage Scale Effective On 55 Western Roads

Increase Will Add $6,500,000 To Annual Payrolls of Roads.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Strike threats of 42,000 railroad trainmen and conductors of western railroads had evaporated today as a new wage scale became effective on 55 western railroads.

J. W. Higgins, chairman of the conference committee of managers of western railroads, said the new scale providing a 6 1-2 percent increase will add $6,500,000 to the pay rolls. The new agreement is retroactive to May 1, last, and runs until May 1, 1929.

Although the Chicago and Alton is the only road running westward from here that is not a party to the agreement, its employees are expected to benefit since officials several months ago agreed to abide by the settlement affected yesterday.

Dr. Brassel To New Orleans

Dr. H. T. Brassel left Tuesday for New Orleans, where will take a three weeks post-graduate course in surgery at Tulane University. The doctor will visit relatives for a few days before his return.

C. of C. To Hold Business Meeting December 4th.

There will be a business meeting of the Portales Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night, Dec. 4th at 7:30 o'clock, at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters.

Business of importance will be discussed at this meeting and it is desired that a full attendance of the members be present.

The annual banquet will be held later in December at which time officers for the coming year will be elected.

This organization will put on a membership drive to secure finances to carry out the program for the coming year.

Three Prisoners Make Escape From County Jail.

On Tuesday of last week, Gut Witt made their escape from White made their escape from the county jail.

The jail break was effected by Clarence Witte, who was in the runabout on a vagrancy charge, removing one of the concrete blocks.

Deputy Pendley and family were absent from the jail at the time, and Whitte, rammed the deputy's desk, securing the cell keys and liberating the other prisoners.

Geo. Chumley and Dick Morrison in coming to town noticed the men hiding in a field beyond the railroad lake and apprehended them. Sheriff Douglas of Muleshoe came along at that time and helped bring the prisoners to town, where all three were lodged in the jail cells.

CLINT FAIRLY TO CLOVIS.

Clint Fairley, who has been the efficient book keeper for the J. Rex Forrest Insurance Company, has resigned his position to accept a more lucrative one with the Chevrolet Company at Clovis. Clint has grown up in Portales and has hosts of friends who wish for him the best of success in life.

Texas To Demand N. M. Cattle Be Free of Scabies

Austin, Texas, Nov. 23.—Quarantine against cattle moving from New Mexico into Texas, unless they are accompanied by proper certificates showing them free from scabies infection, will be put into effect by the Texas Livestock Sanitary Commission December 1 in accordance with a proclamation issued by Governor Dan Moody today.

The quarantine affects all cattle originating in New Mexico and includes shipments billed for feed, water and rest at Texas points, even though final destination is some state other than Texas. The only exception is cattle shipped by rail to slaughtering establishments for slaughtering.

Akin, Robber of Elida Bank, Gets Out of State Pen

Escapes Last Night From Pen Where Was Serving Term 25-30 Years.

Tuesday morning Sheriff Poin-dexter was notified by telephone that Norman Akin, one of the Elida Bank robbers made his escape from the penitentiary between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock on Monday evening.

Several weeks ago a letter was found whereby an escape was planned.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 27.—Norman Akin, bank bandit, sentenced to 25 to 30 years for the Elida, N. M., bank robbery, escaped from the state penitentiary here last night.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 27.—Scaling a three story drain pipe to the roof of the rock cell house, crawling down another drain pipe on the other side, Norman Akin, 27, serving twenty-five to thirty years for the Elida bank robbery escaped from the state penitentiary yesterday evening.

Prints of stockinged feet were traced outside of the prison walls but when they were lost in the soil, all trace which the prison authorities had of Akin up until afternoon was also lost.

Bloodhounds followed the trail to a highway and there lost the scent. The guards believe Akin got away in a car. His was the first escape from the penitentiary since 1923 when another prisoner made his escape by the same route.

A light had been placed on the cell house roof to give the guard in the northwest tower a clearer view of the roof, but Akin put the light out by unscrewing the bulb to protect himself as he crossed the roof.

The escape which was not announced until this morning was discovered yesterday evening when the last check up on prisoners for the night was being made. Akin was a keyturner in the north cell wing. The authorities believe that at the time he made his escape only trustees were outside of the cellhouse and they were busy with their work.

Akin was dressed in at the penitentiary last May with two other pals of the Elida, N. M., bank robbery. He had prepared to take some provisions with him but abandoned the idea, for bread, meat and an ingenious coffee pot fashioned out of an oil can were left behind in his cell.

Warden Dugan said the guards as late as yesterday had been warned about the three Elida robbers. A short time ago a code letter was intercepted from one of them, addressed to a man in Texas who was asked to come to Santa Fe and help them get away.

Later a treasure map was found which purported to reveal the hidden place of some of the loot taken from the bank. So far efforts to decipher the treasure map and recover the money have failed.

Akin is a native of Texas. He has tattoos of a woman's head, and a butterfly on his right forearm, and the initials "J. N. A." a large star, and a heart pierced with a dagger with the word "LOVE" underneath, on his left forearm.

Portales Deputy Sheriff Arrested At Tucumcari

It has just leaked out that Deputy Sheriff Coleman Pendley, on a trip to Tucumcari, after a couple of prisoners, several weeks ago, was arrested by the Tucumcari deputy, as one of the prisoners he had to do. Pendley said that he had to do some talk talking to convince the Quay county deputy that he was an officer, and not a fugitive from the law.

To Organize A State C. of C.

There will be a meeting in Albuquerque of the Commercial bodies of the state for the purpose of organizing a state Chamber of Commerce.

A state Chamber of Commerce has been a long felt want in New Mexico, and it is to be hoped that such an organization will be perfected at this meeting.

New Mexico is rich in possibilities, and needs developing. In selling the state, this will be brought about, and will greatly increase the tourist travel in the state.

Quarterly Conference of Methodist Church Authorizes A Building Program

On last Sunday night the first quarterly conference of the year was held at the Methodist church, with Presiding Elder, A. I. Moore in charge.

At this meeting action was taken as to the building of a new church. The building program was authorized by the conference, and a finance and building committee composed of J. B. Sledge, C. W. Carr, A. F. Jones, E. N. Smith, C. M. Compton, and C. V. Harris were appointed. This committee were empowered to add other members to the committee, and to appoint such other committees as they deemed necessary.

The work of raising the finances will begin at once and by spring actual work on a new church building will begin.

At this time plans as to the church building have not been made, but it will be of brick and concrete, and of such size as to accommodate the church congregation and take care of the needs of the Sunday School.

Truck Collides With Santa Fe Freight

On Tuesday morning about 11:00 o'clock, a truck driven by M. W. Fields, with Roy Weeks and S. T. Ford in the cab, collided with the north bound Santa Fe local at the crossing about a mile south of town.

A truck was coming from the west, and on approaching the track one of the occupants looked up the track towards the depot and remarked that no train was in sight. Just at that time the truck was struck by the engine of the local, throwing the truck parallel with the train, tearing off the truck cab and scattering the truck body along the track.

The occupants were thrown from the truck, M. W. Fields receiving minor injuries about the head and lower limbs. Roy Weeks suffered serious injuries about the head, the fracture of the shoulder and injury to his legs.

Ford was badly bruised and cut up in all parts of his body.

Fields was the first to recover consciousness, and was removed to his home.

The other injured parties were removed to their homes and received emergency treatment by Dr. Hensley.

Late Tuesday afternoon they had regained consciousness, and there was hopes for their recovery. While Ford was seriously injured, his recovery is reasonably assured.

Weeks injuries were more serious, and it was feared that he had received a fracture of the skull.

On Wednesday morning, it was thought that there was a chance for his recovery.

The step on the fireman's side of the engine was torn off. Had the truck been a little farther on the track it would have resulted in the death of all occupants of the car.

McCune Heads State Building & Loan League

Albuquerque, Nov. 27.—Representatives of ten of the building and loan associations in New Mexico met here last night and organized a state association to be known as the League of New Mexico Building and Loan Associations.

The following officers were elected: President, R. H. McCune, Roswell; Secretary and Treasurer, D. E. Woodward, Raton; Vice President, W. C. Reid, Albuquerque; Frank Wesner, Carlsbad; R. M. Thorn, Carlsbad.

The State bank examiner is going to ask the coming legislature for the death penalty for bank robbers. This is a good move and will have much to do with turning these gents from New Mexico. A robber who breaks into a bank or private home will shoot to kill if detected, and deserves the extreme penalty.

Now the News office has been remodeled and brightened up with fresh paint. Santa Claus will win everlasting gratitude of the editor by bringing a new linoleum for the front office Christmas.

Portales stores are decorating for the holiday trade, and the decorations at the Universal Motor Company headquarters are especially attractive.

Do your Christmas shopping early and before doing the shopping read the ads in the News. It will simplify your shopping to a great extent.

THANKSGIVING.

Thanksgiving is truly an American custom handed down to us by the Pilgrim Fathers.

The first thanksgiving was celebrated by this sturdy band of pioneers, to express their gratitude for a bountiful harvest. The occasion was celebrated with a big dinner, the Indians bringing in wild turkeys, the children of the Pilgrims gathering cranberries, and the pilgrim mothers preparing the feast.

In the early days Thanksgiving was celebrated by the different colonies at different times, but later it was made a national occasion by proclamation of the president.

This custom has been handed down to generation after generation and observed all over the United States. In the beginning it was more of a religious ceremony, but in later years it has become a time of feasting and revelry, many overlooking the hand of the Creator in providing the harvest of the year.

It is fitting that at least once a year the entire nation should bow their heads and render thanks to the Supreme Being, who provided them with many blessings during the year.

Everyone has many things to be thankful for, and should avail themselves of this opportunity to express themselves.

In Portales, this year, a union Thanksgiving service is held at the Christian Church on Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The people of Portales and Roosevelt county have received many blessings throughout the year, and should pause to recognize the Giver of all things.

The Portales Chamber of Commerce will soon elect officers for the coming year. This organization has accomplished much for the county, and should have the hearty support of every citizen.

SHOULD THE GOVERNMENT ENGAGE IN PRIVATE BUSINESS?

Never before in the history of American politics have the people been brought face to face with a problem for which newspaper publishers and printers have sought recognition for nearly forty years. The press of the country has from time to time called on Congress to recognize the principle that the government has no right to compete unfairly with private enterprise in the printing of special request addresses on stamped envelopes.

President-elect Hoover recognized the gravity of the situation and stressed the importance of "keeping the government out of business in at least three of his four principal addresses before election. The printers and publishers want the government to stop selling a commodity—commercial printing—which is available in the local print shops without placing order with the Government Post Office. That Mr. Hoover recognized the peril of these bureaucratic tendencies in relation to the press is unmistakably shown in excerpts from his speech in New York City October 22.

"Every expansion of government in business means that government in order to protect itself from the political consequences of its errors and wrongs is driven irresistibly without peace to greater and greater control of the Nation's press and platform. Every step of bureaucratizing of the business of our country poisons the very roots of liberalism—that is, political equality, free speech, free assembly, free press and equality of opportunity."

Equality of opportunity is all that the press is asking for in the enactment of legislation—that is, we believe we should have equal opportunity of competing for the printing of envelopes in each community. We resent propaganda of government bureaucrats in the Post Office Department circulated among citizens patronizing this government agency selling printing. This paternalistic propaganda deliberately misrepresents the printers of the country and terms them "profiteers" because they cannot compete with government prices. President-elect Hoover has answered this bureaucratic misrepresentation against the press of the country again in his New York speech when he said:

"The government in commercial business does not tolerate amongst its customers the freedom of competitive reprisals to which private business is subject."

Bureaucracy does not tolerate the spirit of independence; it spreads the spirit of submission into our daily life and penetrates the temper of our people not with the habit of powerful resistance to wrong but with the habit of timid acceptance of irresistible might.

Competition is Closed by Bureaucracy.

Bureaucracy is over desirous of spreading its influence and power."

It should be borne in mind that in instances where citizens of this community patronize the government and place their orders for printing with the Post Office Department they are encouraging government competition, which a majority of American voter have unreservedly condemned. The principle of unfair government competition with private enterprise is not an abstract proposition, but a real problem which is brought to your own door step if you continue to buy printing from the Federal Government or protest the restriction of this bureaucratic practice.

The new Ford has a very simple and effective
lubrication system

THE lubrication system for the engine of the new Ford is as simple in principle as water running down-hill.

A gear pump in the bottom of the oil pan raises the oil to the valve chamber reservoir. From here it flows on to the main crankshaft bearings and the front camshaft bearing. Overflow oil drops into the oil pan tray and runs into troughs through which the connecting rods pass.

As the ends of these rods strike the oil they scoop up a supply for the connecting rod bearing. At the same time they set up a fine spray that lubricates the pistons and other moving parts.

From the tray the oil runs into the bottom of the pan, and is again drawn up through a fine mesh screen and pumped to the valve chamber.

This system is so effective that the five-quart contents of the oil pan pass through the pump twice in every mile when you are traveling at only 30 miles an hour. Yet there is only one movable part—the oil pump.

As a matter of fact, the lubrication system for the new Ford is so simple in design and so carefully made that it requires practically no service attention.

There is just one thing for you to do, but it is a very important thing... watch the oil! Change the oil every 500 miles and be sure the indicator rod never registers below low (L).

If the oil level is allowed to fall below low, the supply becomes insufficient to oil all parts as they should be oiled.

To insure best performance it is also advisable to have the chassis of your car lubricated every 500 miles. This has been made easy in the new Ford through the use of the high pressure grease gun system.

Proper oiling and greasing mean so much to the life of your car that they should not be neglected or carelessly done.

See your Ford dealer regularly. He is especially well fitted to lubricate the new Ford and he will do a good, thorough job at a fair price.

FLOYD

School opened this morning with a very nice talk to the student body by Mr. Foster. He announced that this was the beginning of the third six weeks and urged all students to make an earnest effort to beat their past records. Also, that one week would be allowed for Christmas vacation.

We were very glad to see the stock judging team present Friday morning. The team, consisting of Coke Chumbley, Albert Parrish, Marvin Widner and John Spears won the ninth place at the International contest at Kansas City. These boys report a very interesting trip. Coke Chumbley and Albert Parrish won fifth and sixth place on beef cattle. These boys visited the following places. The Federal Reserve Bank; The Swope pork; Armour's packing plant and the stock yards. We are very proud of these boys.

Friday night the English Classes presented some very interesting plays at the school: "Taking Father's place" by English I class. The players were, Virgil Yoder, Wenonah, Carl Eminger, John Russell, Ruby Bacon, Louise Smitham, Paul Mount and Lynn Chumbley.

"That Awful Letter," by the English II class. The characters were, Estelle Barsons, Thelma Jones, Vina Davis and Grace Eminger. "The Dearest Thing in Boots," by the English II class. Those playing were Lottie Cranford, Osee Little, Lucy Wright, Lowada Walker, Frank Crenshaw and Truett Smith. These plays were put on under the supervision of Mrs. Geo. A. Sugar.

The Home Economics class are serving senior formal meals. Monday the "Sunshine Sisters" will serve the "Sunshine Sisters," a group of seven and their instructor, Mrs. Don C. Foster. The Home Economics girls are proud of their table linens and drapes which arrived recently, we have some material coming for the H. E. department.

Thanksgiving Thursday, November 29th, the Floyd Community and friends are cordially invited

Chevrolet Announces New 6 Cylinder Car

Detroit, November 24.—Passing on to the motoring public the benefits of economies arising out of tremendous volume production, the Chevrolet Motor Company today introduces "the Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet history"—a Six in the price range of the Four.

In making this important announcement, W. S. Knudsen, President and General Manager, points out that the sensational public reception accorded the car in recent years has enabled Chevrolet at this time to offer the added power, speed and smoothness of six cylinder performance at practically the same prices that contributed so much to the world-wide popularity of the four.

Preparations for the greatest year in its history are now being made by the Chevrolet Motor Company. Although no definite schedule has been set for 1929, Mr. Knudsen declared that production of the new car probably would exceed 1,250,000 units, thereby surpassing all former records. Production of the new car was started last week in the fifteen giant factories across the country and shipments to dealers will commence by December 15th. Deliveries to the public will start January first.

The new car is powered with the highly successful valve-in-head type motor which has proven so successful in previous Chevrolet history and is of the high compression type with non-detonating head developing thirty-two percent more power than its famous predecessor. The piston displacement is 194 cubic inches and the motor develops forty-six horse-power at low engine speed. In spite of this great increase in power, tests have shown that the new Chevrolet engine will operate with an economy averaging better than twenty miles to a gallon of gasoline.

Seven models of passenger cars and three commercial types comprise the line. Despite the score of advanced features, prices remain practically the same, chiefly as the result of the influence of tremendous volume production. The passenger car range is from $525 to $1725. f. o. b. Flint, Michigan. The prices, according to models, are as follows: Roadster $525; phaeton $525; coach $595; coupe $595; sedan $675; sport cabriolet $695; convertible landau $725.

The Commercial car prices are: light delivery chassis $400; one and one-half ton utility truck chassis $545; one and one-half ton utility truck chassis with cab $650 and the sedan delivery $595. All prices are f. o. b. Flint, Michigan.

Advance showings of the new Chevrolet line will be held in leading cities strategically located throughout the country beginning November 24 and continuing until December 22. First deliveries to purchasers will start January 1. No deliveries will be made prior to that time, officials stated.

Showings of the new cars in the far west will be made at the following points: Los Angeles, December 1-6, Auditorium, Ambassador Hotel; San Francisco, December 8-13, Civic Auditorium, Larkin Hall; Dallas, Texas, December 18-22, Adolphus Hotel; Portland, Oregon, December 18-22, Public Auditorium. All the foregoing dates are inclusive.

EYES TRAINED TO SPOT LOST GOLF BALLS, BOY DISCOVERS SITE OF LONG-LOST FORT

By NEA Service

THE buried ruins of old Fort McKenzie, outpost of civilization nearly a century ago, have been discovered, and the Fort Benton (Montana) Commercial Club is breathing easier.

The mail brought a bombshell to Fort Benton recently in the form of an announcement that a train bearing the Columbia River Historical Exposition would stop here this month. The party was to participate in a ceremony on the site of Fort McKenzie while en route to the Pacific Northwest on a monument-dedicating tour.

The trouble was that no one knew where the old fort had been. And here a distinguished body of historians was coming to justify much pomp and ceremony on something that Fort Benton had forgotten all about!

Records Disagree. Their ignorance was disgraceful, they all agreed, and something should be done about it. They couldn't nonchalantly inform the historians that the fort was "somewhere above the mouth of the Marias river." Some of the city fathers began to wonder if it wouldn't be a good plan to "locate" the spot by half-burying a few charred timbers on the river bank.

All of the old settlers and records disagreed as to the location of the historic old trading post. So Tom Sharp, a school boy who had developed his eyes by hunting for golf balls, went out to look.

He found it. Seven miles above the mouth of the Marias river, on the left bank of the Missouri, he discovered several scarcely perceptible mounds and into these, with picks and shovels, went the "searching committee" of the Fort Benton Commercial Club.

Eight Buildings? Nothing remains of the fort itself but considerable charcoal and heaps of stones that evidently were used in building fireplaces. There are eight of these, in orderly arrangement about a two-hundred foot square, showing where the buildings had been.

The excavators soon began to unearth other evidences of an Indian trading post. One foot of silt had drifted over the remains of the fort. Under this covering were found beads ranging in size from birdshot to small marbles, and all of bright color. Other objects brought to light were clay pipes, lead musket balls, hand-made iron nails, a knife and broken pieces of blue pottery—probably Delft ware—all of which objects were of trader origin.

Indian tools and ornaments also were found. There were hide scrapers, bone needles and ivory beads. An ivory ornament, ornately carved, was found in one of the piles of stones. Perhaps some white man had bought it from an Indian and placed the treasure on his mantle, where it was forgotten in the rush to abandon the fort.

Fort McKenzie was established by the American Fur company in 1833 and did a thriving business with the redskins until, in 1842, F. A. Chardon was placed in charge. Jesse James would have been in the amateur class compared to this trader, who didn't make friends with the Indians. Finally, a Negro slave belonging to Chardon was killed by a prowling band, and the trader determined upon stern vengeance.

He loaded a cannon and trained it on the gate. Then, with a brace of muskets to finish off the stragglers, he waited for the killers of his servant to enter. Accounts vary as to the extent of the massacre, but it aroused such hatred among the northern Indians that the fort was abandoned and burned to the ground. The Indians are welding tomahawks in the Happy Hunting Grounds, the buffalo and elk and antelope are gone. Only a few little piles of debris remain of old Fort McKenzie, but the memory of it lives again.

V. J. Campbell, Auctioneer.

J. H. Lee and W. W. Ratiff, Clerks.

girls chose sides and played a practice game. Miss Savage was captain of one team, and Miss Smith of the other. The teams were very equally matched as the score was 8-8 at the close of the second quarter. At the end of the game the score was 14-17 in favor of Miss Smith's team.

The seniors, Juniors and Mr. Smith played the Sophs, Fresh, and eighth graders. Skill and pep was shown by both teams as the score was 4-3 in favor of the lower classmen at the end of the second quarter. At the end of the score was 11-17 in favor of the upper classmen.

Two players of the girls' team have not been playing for the past two weeks. Miss Leova Thompson hurt her back while practicing at school. She has continued to come to school, but will not be able to play much before Christmas. Miss Mable Grinnett hurt her knee, but will be able to play this week.

The school has confidence in both of its teams and is backing them to the limit.

Stay in there teams! We're for you!

Mr. Wilhite Improving. The students of Rogers are indeed glad to learn that their teacher and coach, Mr. Wilhite, is somewhat better. Mr. Wilhite has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, and his absence from school has grieved the entire student body and the faculty. Mr. Wilhite has endeared himself to the whole school the two years he has taught here, and we will all rejoice when he returns.

From what the eighth grade has to say he has a very able successor, Mr. Smith of Rolls, Texas.

Competition. Why should we have class competition and athletics? This question seems to be bothering some people indeed, so we will undertake to answer it.

We think that competition will cause people to have a desire to come to school, and when they get there, the class will have an interesting appearance. When a person doesn't care whether he fails or if he is absent, he needs something to make him want to come to school.

The pep and spirit shown in the contests and games between the classes would make him want to take part and help his class win.

I don't believe that we could do without class competition, for it gives the students pep and a fighting spirit that will be displayed at the big games.

Did you ever see a team go on the floor with defeat written on their faces and in their actions? Maybe that team didn't go on the floor with the cheers of the student body ringing in its ears.

No team can be at its best without proper support. If the backers are peppy and full of life, the teams will do their very best to win.

When we have class contests, each will do his best for the class of his choice. When we have the big games, each one will back his team to the last whistle.

Where does all of this pep come from? Why, from class competition in school.

Everyone was sorry to hear of Miss Cravy's operation, but glad to hear of her speedy recovery. During Miss Cravy's absence, Miss Elizabeth Stephens, of Clovis, is teaching the 4th and 5th grades.

The Rogers people enjoyed the play, "Headstrong Joan" given here by the Pleasant Hill Faculty Saturday night. Due to the cold weather, there was only a small crowd present.

Wednesday morning in chapel the grades and the High School plan to give a Thanksgiving program.

We will have no school Thursday or Friday, so Miss Savage and Miss Smith plan to spend their Thanksgiving at their home at Canyon, Texas.

Tears and smiles on the faces of the pupils tell everyone that Monday the High School received its report cards.

Watch for the announcement of the plays "Not Quite such a Goose" and "Sauce for the Goats." These plays will be given before Christmas.

Mr. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Miss Smith and Miss Savage went to see Miss Cravy last Saturday.

Last Monday night a number of Spanish students who wished to see the show, "El Gaucho" were allowed to take a school truck and go to the Portales Theatre. Everyone reported a nice time.

We are glad to hear that Dixie Littlefield is able to attend school again after an attack of appendicitis.

We are hoping that Gertrude Epperson will soon be able to come back to school again.

I'm The Boss. I'm the boss who goes around in the study hall and is always borrowing someone's paper. "Do you have your algebra today?" I ask. "If you do, loan me your paper; I can't get the third problem." I know I'm a nuisance, but I don't care. It's a lot easier than studying. Still, when exam comes, I can't understand why I fail. I prepared my lessons, didn't I?

So Why Study? The more you study, the more you know. The more you know, the more you forget. The more you forget, the less you know—

So why study? The less you study, the less you know. The less you know, the less you forget. The less you forget, the more you know—

So why study? Dad—"Why is it you're always at the foot of the class?"

Bruce—"It's not much difference, daddy, they teach the same thing at both ends."

Mrs. Stewart—"Waiter, there's a feather in my sausage."

Lida (the waiter)—"Oh, that's all right. It was made from a bird dog."

"Any part of the city for fifty cents!" Yelled a taxi driver.

Quincy—"You can't fool me again. I bought the city hall last year, and they wouldn't give it to me."

Bob—"Hey! Want to go swimming?"

Lowell—"I don't swim."

Bob—"Want to go bathing?"

Lowell—"I don't—aw, shut up!"

Mr. Smith—"Chester, I'm only whipping you because I love you."

Chester—"I wish I were big enough to return your love."

Medical Sermonettes

By W. E. LEONARD, M. D.
(© 1927, by Western Newspaper Union.)

"A fool may ask more questions in an hour than a wise man can answer in seven years." To demonstrate this, six year after year in a doctor's consulting room and listen to the queries of the stout procession of patients, both wise and foolish, who come to air their doubts and confess their sins. This is no crusty, fault-finding with human nature, but a sober statement of fact. The patience of Job was a remarkable quality of that mythical old philosopher, but I opine he must at some time have practiced medicine in the villages of Palestine, for in no other occupation would he have so well acquired his most deserved reputation.

Few people consider the necessity of being brief and to the point when they purchase an hour's time of a doctor. He is there for that purpose and is being paid to listen, but how hard it often is on him, even with his recompense in willing sight! "Foolish question No. 8364" follows the previous number and still no real clew to the disease in question. Have a heart, O patient, and have more patience, O doctor.

Varied Program By Home Ec. Club

Mrs. F. D. Golden's letter accepting the invitation of the Home Economics club to be an honorary member was read at the meeting Monday.

A report on the results of the candy sale was given by Imogene Isodell. The proceeds were $14.05. The girls discussed plans for their part in the High School Carnival.

Miss Hankins gave the girls a talk on getting up their work. The meeting was closed by singing some of the club songs.

Staff to Have Fish Pond and Grab Bag

At the high school Carnival the Library Staff will have the "Fish Pond and Grab Bag." The members of the staff were asked, at the Library Staff meeting Monday morning, to contribute articles for the Fish Pond and Grab Bag. There will be several articles worth at least 50c to $1.00 in the grab bag and the small fishing license of only 25c will be charged to fish in this fish pond.

There were only a few out to Church Sunday morning on account of disagreeable weather, but a good sermon was delivered by Rev. Moore.

There was a large group of young people out to the Christian Sunday School Sunday morning. We are glad to see them taking interest again.

There was a large crowd at the program Friday night which was rendered by the "Blues." Every one reported an enjoyable time.

Don't forget Dec. 22. The Whites will render their program, which will be accompanied by Santa Claus. It is urged that the members on the Blue side will come out and help the "Whites" as much as the "Whites" helped the "Blues."

There will be a box supper and a short program here Dec. 8th for the purpose of raising funds for athletic goods. Everyone come and help.

Portales Valley News

Dear Sir:

I thought perhaps you might be interested in knowing how the bunch from Roosevelt County were coming along here at the New Mexico College of Agriculture Mechanical Arts.

We have a good sized bunch here and are pulling for more from Roosevelt County.

We have reorganized what we call the Roosevelt County Club

Edsel Post is the Sec. of the Phi

Chi Psi fraternity of which Donald Gordon is a member. Post is also a member of Alpha Zeta, a national honorary Agricultural Fraternity of which he is Treas. Jackson is Editor in Chief of the 1929 "Swastika" which is the College annual.

We expect to hold our annual Roosevelt Co. banquet at Floyd about Dec. 27, to which all former Aggies are invited.

Trusting that this will interest Aggies are invited.

Sincerely Yours,

W. COYT JACKSON.

Home Demonstration—Now we have just the kind of cleaner you want—at the price you want to pay for it. And we offer you the privilege of trying out the cleaner in your own home. Just look at the cleaners on the floor of our store and tell us which one to send over to your house.

All three have double-action—super-suction and a motor-driven brush. And in each cleaner both brush and motor are mounted in ball bearings—they never need oiling.

Premier Pic-up

The Premier Pic-Up takes the dust and dirt out of stair carpets, automobile and furniture upholstery, draperies, mattresses, cushions—everything. Has a three-foot extension handle to clean carpets, rugs and draperies.

Premier Junior

The Premier Junior is the favorite for smaller homes, apartments and bungalows. Just like the Premier Duplex but $\frac{1}{2}$ its size. Complete set of attachments included in its price.

Premier Duplex

Premier Duplex is the nationally famous cleaner which has never been surpassed for excellence and performance.

INEXPENSIVE GIFTSAt this season of the year one's thoughts turn to what can be given to relatives and friends for Christmas says Miss Veda Strong of the New Mexico Agricultural College.Let us consider some gifts which will be appropriate and inexpensive but very welcome to the receiver for after all it is not what we give but the Christmas spirit in which it is given that counts.A glass of jelly or jam in its dainty wrapping of tissue tied with ribbon makes an attractive and pleasing gift. Likewise, would a cake, a box of cookies or homemade candy.Many attractive gifts may be made using bias tape for binding and trimming. For these pieces of material as gingham, cretonne or offcloth can be used to make wall pockets, cases for memorandum pads, yardstick and ruler holders, closet bags for shoes and hose, also small lunch cloths. Laundry bags and shopping bags also come in for their share as does an attractive oil cloth school bag for the child to carry to school.Now that flowers and boutonnieres are so fashionable why not make some. Small pieces of silk or silk floss covered with tricolette make dainty and attractive flowers. Charming bead flowers in asorted colors or numerous kinds of flowers made from yarn are colorful and pleasing for the winter coat.Another suggestion for a gift which is always acceptable is an apron of gingham or percale or other desired material. There are many different and pleasing styles which may be used. Figured material can be combined with plain, using the plain for lower part as a flounce, butterfly pockets may be added, or flowers from different material may be applied on and edges trimmed with rick-rack or colored bias binding tape. Of course the more elaborate ones may be embroidered. Very dainty aprons may be made from colored organdy, using one or more colors, trimmed in lace and embroidery.Little Jack Foreman, who underwent a serious appendix operation two weeks ago in the Baptist hospital in Clovis was brought home Saturday and is convalescing nicely.The Christian ladies aid will Announcing -

The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History - a Six in the price range of the four!

The Chevrolet Motor Company announces The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History... a Six in the price range of the four!

Spectacular as Chevrolet's achievements have been in the past... notable as its engineering triumphs have proved themselves to be—this remarkable new car dwarfs every previous Chevrolet accomplishment. Not only does it introduce into the low-priced field an entirely new measure of performance, comfort, beauty and style—but it is sold at prices so low as to alter every previous conception of motor car value.

The new six-cylinder valve-in-head engine—developed from more than a hundred motors designed especially for this sensational car—stands out as an engineering masterpiece. With a power increase of approximately 32% over the previous Chevrolet motor, with sensation-ally greater speed and faster acceleration—it offers a type of performance that is literally astounding... even to those who have been driving cars costing hundreds of dollars more.

Throughout the entire speed range, it performs with a smoothness and quietness of operation that have never before been approached in a low-priced automobile. At the slower speeds of city traffic it idles along with wonderful silence and ease. On boulevards and country roads it responds with an eagerness that is a constant delight. It takes the longest and steepest hills with an abundant reserve of power that is a source of pride to the driver. And its economy of operation averages better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline!

This revolutionary performance has been achieved as a result of the greatest array of engineering advancements that Chevrolet has ever announced. A high compression, non-detonating cylinder head... a new heavier crankshaft, statically and dynamically balanced... automatic lubrication of the entire rocker arm mechanism... semi-automatic spark control... hot-spot manifold... gasoline pump and filter... new and larger carburetor, with automatic acceleration pump and improved venturi choke... fabric camshaft gear... heavier driving gears... heavier differential gears... improved crankcase breathing system... improved lubrication... new 4-wheel brakes that are powerful, safe and quiet under all conditions—these indicate the importance of a group of engineering advancements that embrace every major unit of the entire chassis.

In appearance, this Outstanding Chevrolet is destined to become an automotive sensation—so smart, so stylish and so distinctively appointed that it rivals the costliest custom creations. The new Fisher bodies are longer, lower and roomier with adjustable driver's seat in all closed models—and reveal the matchless artistry of Fisher designers.

With their modish new colors, their smart dual mouldings and their distinctive concave pillars, they achieve a degree of original beauty that has seldom been equalled in motor car design.

You are cordially invited to visit our showroom and secure complete and detailed information on this sensational new car which will be ready for delivery beginning January 1st.

Models and Features of New Chevrolet "Six" Line

Four models of "the outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History—A Six in the Price Range of the Four" which were announced this week by the Chevrolet Motor Company. The new 6 cylinder valve-in-head motor develops 32 per cent more power than its famous predecessor and all bodies this year bear the famous Fisher stamp of craftsmanship. The driver's seat of all closed models is adjustable. Prices remain approximately the same throughout the line of seven passenger types. Left to right, top, the phaeton and the 4-door sedan. Center, the new motor and a close-up of the carburetor showing the new accelerating pump. Lower, the convertible landau sedan on which the top rear quarter may be completely folded down, and the roadster with its stylish Fisher Body.

Dr. and Mrs. Camp at Home.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Camp were at home on Saturday evening to a group of friends with a Bridge party. The guests gathered at 7 o'clock and spent a jolly time, as Mrs. Camp is a wonderful hostess. At 10:30 a most delicious salad course was served.

W. K. Judevine won high score for men and Mrs. Judevine won high for women. Mr. Wright won low for men and Mrs. Burns low for women.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Whitcomb, Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Burn, Mrs. Lucile Cumble, Mr. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Judevine.

Saturday Bridge Club.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard were host and hostess on Monday evening to the members of the Saturday Bridge Club, their husbands and a few invited guests, with a four course dinner at 7 o'clock. The guests were seated at two large tables which were centered with beautiful fall flowers. The eats were served in four courses, and consisted of turkey and all the trimmings. The guest list consisted of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Judevine, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mearns, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ribble, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Have New Baby.

Carlsbad, N. M.—On the eleventh day of Nov., of this year, at the Eddy County hospital, Mrs. Alice Skinner gave birth to a nine lb. girl. This young ladies name is Harriet Darlene. Alice's mother was with her at the time and stayed with her for ten days. We notice Mr. Welford holds his head a little higher now as this is his first grand child. Alice and baby are doing fine and are moved home near Malaga, Marie Hammett, her sister, is staying with her for a few days until Alice gets strong again. We hope to see them in Portales for Thanksgiving.

Christian Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Effie McCarty was hostess Thursday, Nov. 22nd, to the Christian ladies aid, thirteen members and guests were in attendance and the time was spent mostly in making a quilt for the coming bazaar. A short time was devoted to a discussion of the lesson, after which the hostess daughter, Miss Mae Belle McCarty served an excellent plate lunch.

Several members of the Rebecca and Odd Fellow Lodges went to Elida Tuesday night where they enjoyed a nice program and good eats sponsored by the members of Rebecca and Odd Fellow Lodge of that place. Those going from Portales were, Ed. J. Neer, Alvin Fisher, Poy Jones, Iurbert Miss, Ike Hughes, J. R. Shook, Leonard Westerman, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Pendley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cissell, Misses Eula South, Julia Siam, Vera Hendrix, Hazel Todd, Ruth Leon, Mrs. J. N. McCall, Blant Fulton, Bob Adams and Floyd Kenne.

Methodist Church Party.

On Thursday evening the Methodist Church, sponsored by the Missionary society held a get-together party at the church. There was a large crowd present and all took part in the jolly time. Mrs. Wade Freeman had charge of the program. There was a wonderful debate, a sign spelling match, and all sorts of jolly games. Sandwiches and cocoa were served as a refreshment course.

U. D. C's.

The U. D. C's. will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. J. G. Greaves on State Street. The subject for the program is Writers of the South. The president, Mrs. H. F. Jones urges all members to be present.

Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Cox Entertain Sunday School Classes.

Mrs. Carl Turner and Mrs. J. G. Cox entertained their Sunday School classes on Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5.

Mrs. Wade Freeman assisted them with games and also in organizing Mrs. Turners Class into an Intermediate class. They having been promoted from the Junior department.

The hostesses served cake and cocoa before the going away hour.

Mrs. Herndon and Mrs. Oldham Give 42 Party.

Mrs. E. A. Herndon and Mrs. W. B. Oldham were joint hostesses on Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Herndon on State Street.

This was one of the largest and merriest parties of the season. There were some forty ladies and the afternoon was spent in playing auction.

After some six progressions the hostesses served a delicious salad course.

Girls Bridge Club Announce Engagement.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Grace Elliott and Jay Stone was announced at a meeting of the Girls Bridge Club Thursday evening. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cass Lyons with Miss Sybil as hostess. Little cards with the words, Grace and Jay were held in the beaks of parrots perched on the glasses when refreshments of sandwiches, cocoa and cake were served.

The marriage will take place Saturday, Dec. 1st, and the happy couple will go to house keeping in the house next to Coe Howards, on State Street. Those present at the party were Misses Madge Walker, Lucile Wurster, Vada Mae Jackson, Mae Watts, Grace Elliott, Bernice Hayes, Sybil Lyons and Naomi McCarty.

Miss Grace Elliott's Shower.

On Tuesday evening the friends of Miss Grace Elliott gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ribble for a miscellaneous shower, for Miss Elliott, who becomes the bride of Jay Stone on Dec. 1.

After the arrival of the guests, Miss Elliott was sent for and seated in the brides chair. Miss Mildred Ruth Springer, as cupid bearing a heart pierced with an arrow marched in to the wedding march and stopped before the bride. Mrs. J. C. Compton then presented her with numerous bundles. Upon opening these, gifts of beauty and service were found in an abundance, ranging from the lovely wash board to blankets, cut glass, silver, china, linen and electrical goods. Miss Elliott was much pleased and could only say "I thank you." Mrs. J. C. Compton and Mrs. A. D. Ribble were the hostesses for the party and there were some forty-six names registered in the brides book.

Engagement Announced.

One of the holiday weddings to take place Christmas week is announced by Mr. and Mrs. George Winton Hoover, of their daughter, Margaret Elizabeth to Mr. Edwin Lanzer.

H. M. C. Meet.

The Portales H. M. C. met Wednesday, Nov. 21st with Mrs. L. Kirby in an interesting session, combining the program Child Training for Nov. 7th. Mrs. Frank Galloway, leader, and the Thanksgiving program with Mrs. Hebe Stewart in charge.

Mrs. Galloway gave a very interesting talk on different phases of child training, then called upon Mrs. T. A. Martin to talk upon the Value of Music in the Child Life. Mrs. T. E. Livingston read an article on "Do we love our children wisely or too well."

After a few closing remarks Mrs. Galloway turned meeting over to Mrs. Stewart, who gave a recipe for an eggless, milkless butterless fruit cake, then followed an exchange of recipes and a general discussion.

Next meeting Wednesday, Dec. 5th, with Mrs. Loris, subject, Recreation in the Home. Mrs. Loris is also leader.

Roll call response—favorite games. Milkless, Butterless, Eggless Fruit Cake. 1 cup apple sauce.

2 cups brown sugar.
2-3 cup crisco.
2 cups water.
2 cups Lullana Raisins.
2 cups luted raisins.
1 teaspoon salt.
1 teaspoon powdered cinnamon.
1 teaspoon cloves.
1-2 teaspoon mace, (I did not use).

1-2 teaspoon grated nutmeg.
2 teaspoons soda.
4 cups flour.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
1 1-2 cupfuls chopped nutmeats.
3 tablespoons warm water.
Put crisco into sauce pan, add sugar, water, raisins, salt and spices and boil three minutes. Cool and when cold add flour, baking powder, soda dissolved in warm water and nut meats. Mix and turn into criscoed and floured cake tin and bake in slow oven 1 1-2 hours. Makes one medium sized cake.

Attention Irrigation Farmers

Come out and see the demonstration of the new ACME pump Saturday, Dec. 1st, at 2 p. m., on the Nazarene Orphan Home, just South of Allen Sanders farm. This pump does away with the expense of digging a pit as it will go in a 8 1-2 inch well or larger, will pump 1,100 or 1,200 gallons per minute, this pump will handle the sand and not wear it out. If you are interested in a pumping plan in the near future come out and look it over.
